

Over in School District 63 John Press was successful in his bid for re-election. Oakton Manor and Grennan Heights Associations both helped get out the vote which pushed Press over the top.

In Morton Grove he trailed the eventual loser, Kraemer, by 80 votes. But his tremendous margin at Oak School resulted in his victory.

Press was embroiled in a controversy which almost could have resulted in his defeat. Morton Grove residents were highly critical of the soon to be announced resignation of Frank Hasser from the school board. Hasser is a Grennan Heights resident and is Niles' only other member on the six man board. Morton Grovites felt Hasser should have resigned before this election since his resignation was forthcoming. They believed they should have the right to vote for the new candidate rather than have the school board select the new member. When Press was asked whether he was in favor of "selection or election" he candidly said there were times when he favored both. He explained to THE BUGLE that he felt Grennan Heights should continue to have a representative on the board after Hasser moves from the community and believed in this case selection was favored over the whims of having the seat voted upon this year.

Press was grilled thoroly at Melzer School and then went

I believe it is important that Niles is fairly represented on the Board but must agree with Morton Grove residents that the voters have the right to elect their representatives. I didn't want to injure Press' chances in this election by mentioning this before the election, since it was not pertinent to press' being elected to the school board. But Press' attitude, quite like the above mentioned Caucus, assumes that his opinion is preferable to the electorate and I can't buy that type of thinking.

Niles' residents should make up at least three members of the school board in district 63. But the lack of interest shown by Niles' residents in the district attends to the low representation.

The aforementioned Citizens Committee has only two Niles members who are active in the group. If Niles' district 63 residents can't show any greater interest in their schools it certainly follows that they will receive poor representation on the school board.

Morton Grove residents have the greater number of members on the board. They were placed there by the voters. If Niles wants its fair representation they will have to show a like interest in the district, and then vote their members into the school board chairs, not have them placed there by means other than by election.

questions asked might prove the questioner to be somewhat fatuous. That the inquisitor was also a friend of professor might also have been significant.

What does all this prove? Quite obviously that neither the self-appointed representatives (they generally volunteer for the Caucus seat) nor any one else is qualified to recommend who are the best candidates for the job. Caucus members' friendships for the candidates, their own prejudices and human frailties, and the inability of any one person to know what is best for the community, based on a twenty minute interview, are all reasons why this recommending procedure should be eliminated from future Caucus activities.

Des Plaines all machine* weeks ago which eliminated eight machines from the city. It resulted from an irate citizen's reporting one machine paid off in town. The police chief immediately sent investigators to the alleged pay off machine and they quickly arrested the store owner after the police (detectives) received payoffs. The city papers immediately pounced on the story and the city fathers quickly went into action. After studying the legality of such action they passed the new ordinance which forbids any pinball machines in Des Plaines.

Why has this never happened in Niles? Unlike Des Plaines' eight machines, Niles has closer to fifty machines or more. And unlike Des Plaines, state police had to come into Niles last winter to prove the local machines were off. Niles village officials took no action. The police chief did not send any men around to investigate pay offs.

What is most sad about this situation is that it is indicative of the way the law is upheld by the men who are voted into office to uphold laws. Their willingness to accept the breaking of the gambling ordinance in the village is a dangerous sign. If they are willing to allow this obvious breakdown in law enforcement what laws do they uphold? And if they are willing to compromise with the breaking of a law which everyone is aware of what law of order do they follow? Their condoning of the circumventing of one law means they are willing to flaunt all laws.

The increase in sales tax money from the upcoming shopping centers can aid in improving Niles. Trustee Stanley has brought forth the idea that the money might be used to pay off the new village hall which is being planned.

I wonder just how necessary this new village hall will be? It seems obvious that the intended community center between Oak and Notre Dame Schools will receive wide approval from village voters. But I wonder whether the village fathers are trying to ride the crest of popular opinion by having the new village hall voted upon in the same area at the same time.

Why is it every time there is a park referendum extenuating issues are always surrounding the referendum? The need for a center is long past due. The need for a village hall is certainly less.

Stanley has the idea that the sales tax money might be used to pay for the land which the park building would stand on thus saving taxpayer's money.

Scheel-Instigated Letter Pushes Trustees Prepare Long Over-Due New Zoning Ordinance

The long over-due new zoning ordinance became one step closer to becoming village law as the result of action taken at last Thursday's special trustee meeting.

A recent letter instigated at zoning board member Ken Scheel's suggestion a actually caused the long delayed ordinance to move toward its passage.

Scheel queried at last month's zoning board meeting as to the reason for the delay in the ordinance's passage. He said the zoning map prepared by village planner Gardner and the ordinance had been ready for the past six months. He called for an immediate public hearing and a meeting of the joint boards and then the passage of the new law.

Mr. and Mrs. ARTHUR VIELEHR and their three children, MIKE, SUE and VALERIE, were all excited over their very special anniversary plans. Since the VIELEHRS were married 18 years ago on April 11, the whole family had planned on going to Wagon Wheel Lodge in Rockton, Ill. for a few days, to celebrate this big occasion. In the meantime, first MIKE and then VALERIE became very sick and the plans were changed. They all stayed home. I understand that both MIKE and VAL are fine now and next year there will be another anniversary and I'm sure the family can once more make plans for a trip to Wagon Wheel.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. EVERT SWANSON, who celebrated their 19th wedding anniversary on April 12. They have a daughter SANDIE, who is a Senior at Maine Township.

Congratulations and best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. EARL SHIVELY, 7939 Neva, who exchanged their "I Do's" 21 yrs. ago on April 29. The SHIVELY'S are blessed with three children, PAUL, STARR and BRUCE.

Best wishes on their 14th wedding anniversary are being sent to Mr. and Mrs. PETER D'ORAZIO, 7323 W. Lill St. They were married on May 11. The D'ORAZIO'S have 2 children, PETER JR. and BERNADETTE.

Mrs. KEVIN BARRY, 8340 Oconto, looks just wonderful after her two weeks stay at the St. Anthony Hosp. I asked her daughter MAUREEN whether she was glad to have Mom home once more. She very emphatically answered "Yes". While Mommy was at the hospital, Daddy stayed home and did the cooking. The first night, he made soup and ugh, after that, MAUREEN said they were very happy to have all their meals, "out".

Thoughts of deepest sympathy for the family of Mr. STEWART MCENERY, who died on Saturday, April 16. Requiem Mass was offered at St. John Brebeuf church and Interment was in the Calvary Cemetery.

Deepest sympathies are extended to Mrs. HARRY PTACH, due to the sudden death of her father.

A little late but happy birthday to: Two of our popular teens, Miss LADONNA KEINER who was 15 on April 6 and Miss CHRIS KARPINSKI who was 15 on April 8. Also to cutie pie VALERIE VIELEHR who had 4 candles on her birthday cake on April 21. Greetings to Miss LINDA DUUS who will be 10 on May 6.

It's always so hard to say good bye, when someone you like so very much, calls to say they are moving. I'm speaking of two of my favorite young friends, BARBIE and TERRI and their parents, Mr. and Mrs. JACK KULL. They formerly lived at 7922 Neva in Niles but are now residing in the Plum Grove Estates, in Palatine, Ill. I sincerely hope you will be very happy in your new home and that you will make many new friends but don't forget the ones you left in Niles. BARB and TERRI, I'll really miss you and I'll think of you both very often.

New Zoning

The new zoning, prepared by the nationally-recognized planner Gardner, will be the necessary ammunition needed to oppose much of the re-zoning. Both boards will be able to point to the new zoning and explain that village zoning is part of a carefully designed scientific village plan. Village officials believe this will give greater meaning to their attempts to oppose zoning they feel is not beneficial to Niles.

seven members of the zoning board.

In other actions the trustees reversed a zoning board decision by approving 4 to 0 for Commercial E zoning for a gas station at the southeast corner of Harlem and Dempster. Trustees Bruno and Nielsen "passed" on the vote. Five lots were included in the zoning which only last summer was rezoned to Class D Commercial.

Zoning Board members were curious as to the six month delay since the completion of the Gardner plans. While they did not publicly state the reason for the delay it was inferred that the village board might be "politicking" in delaying the new ordinance. One member stated he believed some officials would prefer to hold off the new law until after the 1961 election. But whether this is true the Scheel-instigated letter started the ball rolling for the passage of the ordinance.

Trustee Nielsen's suggestion a public hearing will be forthcoming. As a first step the trustees unanimously approved the preparing of an ordinance for a public hearing and also for the creation of a plan commission. The new commission will be the Attorney Rubenstein, representing the interests alongside the questioned property contended this was spot zoning and that this was creating a dangerous precedent. Mayor Stankowicz reminded the attorney that gas station zoning is located in similar locations to shopping areas at Oakton and Waukegan and Oakton and Milwaukee. Attorney Leo McLennon, representing the petitioner said 22,000 cars pass the area daily and cited the need for the station in the area.

In another zoning action the village board upheld the zoning board decision to reject a variation on 30 feet to build a single family dwelling at 7721 Octavia. Builder Thomas cited a hardship case but was rebuked by the board. It was admitted that Thomas had purchased the lot four months ago. Poeschl and Bruno both reminded Thomas that there would be no place for off-street parking for the eventual resident. They cited the problems of snow removal would exist as the result of the homeowner's car being parked there. Stanley mentioned that the hardship involved would be the future resident's hardship in living there. Thomas O'Donnel and Chester Garbes, neighbors to the property cited the 50 and 56 foot lots which surround this lot.

Thomas said he would take this case to court and the village was wasting its money. Stanley said it would cost Thomas money, as well and Thomas stated he would spend $10,000 if necessary to win this case.

In another action Poeschl said 150 feet of sidewalk was removed from the Ballard Terrace subdivision after it was found that they were incorrectly built. Poeschl said the walks were "only six feet off the property line". He then remarked that an engineer is never available for inspections. Trustee Trocki then stated perhaps the village should hire her own full-time engineer. (This was approved in July 1958, but as yet the trustees have never advertised for the filling of the position they approved).

Mayor Stankowicz announced that zoning board members Scheel and Zimmerman's terms expire May 12. New appointments or re-appointments may be forthcoming at the May 2 meeting. A letter from Fire Chief Pasek was read recommending Robert Dittman and Robert Larson for the Lieutenants' post which will be created. Poeschl reported that plastic street markers will be purchased for various village intersections. Bruno reported there are future health hazards resulting from the disposal of refuse in the new Super City shopping area. He said people on Crain Avenue, behind the stores are suffering from noisy fans, cartons dumped in their backyards and exposed garbage in the area. Mayor Stankowicz cited the nuisance resulting from this and Poeschl warned that the tenants of the Fidelity-built stores should be warned that the stores will be shut down if they fail to comply with village ordinances. The meeting was then adjourned until May 2.

Father Waldron's 25th Anniversary

Father Waldron, left, receives warm handshake of congratulations from Father Flanagan upon Father Waldron's observing his 25th anniversary in the priesthood last Sunday. A solemn Mass of Thanksgiving was given at 12:15 P.M. In the afternoon friends and relatives were welcomed at a reception at St. John Brebeuf Hall. Included in the group were Sisters who taught Father Waldron classes during his grammar school days. (Photo By Selene Studios).

Attorney Jones then reminded council (Kelly) that he already had Commercial C zoning for the area and they were in agreement that in litigation Kelly could likely build multiple dwellings.

ZONING
if the questioned area was good for homebuilding... cited the benefit of the land... and that if the people want the land vacant that is what they should have.

George Gauthier, 6816 Keeney, member of the Niles Citizens Committee and NICO said he believed the shopping center at Oakton and Waukegan is dead, citing the many signs they have placed there thru the years... and the lack of action which has developed in the area.

Zoning Board president Cass then remarked that there were many obstacles placed in the way of the center and pointed to the school property there as an example. He asked why the property has not been used. He said while school district 71 has left this land vacant for five years the much poorer district 63 has built three or four schools in the same period. He asked "why" this situation existed.

School Board member Kitzing answered that the people in district 71 should be thankful that the school board had the foresight to buy this property as there is no land available now for such a use. When Cass said the land cost the school board $200,000 and that they could have had similar property free Kitzing said this was merely "heresy". Cass said this was stated before the zoning board.

Board member Scheel then made a motion to deny this petition on three counts. He said this zoning was not in the best interests of the people of Niles; such zoning might start a precedent and that the board is attempting to follow the new code which is now ready for public consumption. The Board unanimously concurred with the motion.

he next petition was for 19 six unit apartments in the 8700 block on Milwaukee Avenue and the surrounding block. Edward J. Kelly, representing owner James Panagakis, said the area was surrounded by a shopping center and other multiple dwellings and was not suitable for residences.

LETTER

In a second action regarding the 34 lots in the adjoining area the board referred to committee a request for the vacation of alleys in the area bordered by Dempster, Harlem, Telegraph and Shermer Roads.

In additional actions attorney Wells told village engineer Cadigan that Morton Grove should handle their own water problems. The tart remark resulted from a letter from M.C. attorney Jim Orphan regarding drainage in the Niles-Morton Grove border. Wells said M.G. is dumping water into Niles by dumping it through a concrete pipe under Harlem Avenue. He explained that water which naturally falls into an area cannot be cause for complaint but when they deliberately direct water into an area by the above means then they do have such cause.

Trustees gave approval for underground plans and curbs and gutters and for building permits for a subdivision being built by Alf Builders north of Dempster. A letter from attorney Wells relieving Niles of any liability regarding water jurisdictional rights in the area is included in the approval.

Approved ordinance to increase Niles fire department cadre to three lieutenants.

Sent to the police and fire civil service board a request by police chief Romney for six additional men and for the promotion of five men on the force. Lieutenant Cameron is recommended for captain, Sergeant Mehner for lieutenant, Officers Froeschle and Emrickson for sergeants and plain clothesman Dennis to detective sergeant.

Approved June 27 as the date to review re-zoning requests for the Howard-Waukegan area (multiple dwelling-41 units) and for two-family multiples in the Marvel Garden area, which were rejected by the zoning board at last week's meeting.

Request for liquor license at 9001 Milwaukee was returned with explanation that none were available.

Referred to committee proposed plat of subdivision for Chesterfield Builders in Harlem-Greenleaf area.

Referred to committee request for a construction of a transformer unit by the Public Service Company in an area north of Main Street on Ozark Avenue.

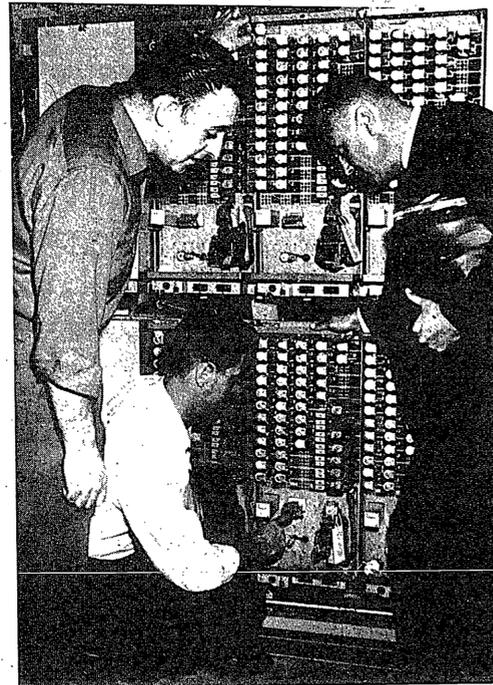

Also, referred to committee bids for two water trucks for water department as well as a tree sprayer bid.

Middle States Equipment

Installation of new switching equipment for Middle States Telephone Company is inspected by (right to left) W. J. Brandon, Central Office Supervisor, S. J. Mueller, Park Ridge Central Office Equipment Foreman, and A. T. LeBel, Des Plaines Central Office Equipment Foreman. More than $600,000 worth of equipment will be installed in the Des Plaines and Park Ridge telephone offices by October, 1960, when the Company's Extended Area Service benefits will receive unlimited dialing privileges to the six adjoining exchanges as well as a lower unit calling charge for calls placed to 34 of the major surrounding communities including Chicago. Vanderbilt Extended Area subscribers will receive unlimited dialing privileges to the seven exchanges adjoining Des Plaines as well as the lower unit calling charge to 32 of the surrounding Metropolitan areas.

Heard report from Trustee Bruno about the health hazards condition in the new Super City area. Bruno emphasized the washroom problems in the area. He said fixtures have been removed from the washroom and that they are generally a "mess". Bruno had reported previously about the disposal problem and other violations. Trustees requested Health Inspector Franklin and Police Chief Romney issue tickets to violators of the area who violate the village health code.

Trustee Marszalek will contact the village auditor to determine whether or not the village can make a bid at this time for the property for the contemplated new fire station at Dempster and Cumberland. Attorney Wells will make an offer for the property after this information has been obtained.

The meeting was then adjourned until May 16.

years since they purchased the land and nothing has been done with the property. Cass said they bought the land for $200,000 whereas they could have had property free donated by the landowner in a nearby area. Obviously the school board became deeply involved in a zoning problem which was outside the realm of their concern.

Jim Bagg said they were deeply concerned with the school crisis in district 63. "We don't know how we are going to take care of them," he began, as he related there are 473 additional children in the Oak School area.

He said in 1955 there were 340 children in the school district. Today, in five years time, there are now 2700 children. He mentioned Father Flanagan told him there are now 1400 children in St. John Brebeuf School and that next year grades 1, 2, 3, and 4 will be on split shifts. Bagg said if the St. John children begin transferring to the Oak School then Oak, too, will go on similar split shifts.

Attorneys Nick Blase and George Gauthier, both active members of the one year old Niles Citizens Committee, told of their groups efforts in petitioning the village. They have already received 1500 signatures opposing multiple dwellings. They will be presented to the village board demonstrating the feeling of the voters who will likely make the multiple dwelling issue a major issue in next year's election.

The Citizen's Committee has slowly taken form but now is becoming an important force in the community. Both Gauthier and Blase reminded the zoning board that the committee represents nearly every civic group in the village. Blase emphasized since board members are merely the representatives of these people the committee represents, they are obliged to seriously consider the wishes expressed by the people the committee represents.

Summer School Term Offered All 1-7 Grade Students

The Board of Education, District 64, has authorized a summer school to be organized on lines similar to that of last summer. The dates for the six week term will be from Monday, June 20, to Friday, July 29. The hours will be from 8:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. The location of the school will be announced later. An effort will be made to hold classes in a centralized location.

The tuition for the summer term will be $35. Class sizes will be held to 15 pupils per class.

Classes will be offered in the basic skills for children desiring or needing help in any of these skills. Classes will be open to children who have completed grades 1 through 7 in both public and parochial schools.

There will be workshops offered for pupils desiring enrichment in science and creative arts, which will include music, art, writing, and dramatics.

Specific announcements and application blanks will be available at the office of each school April 1.

Enrollment will be closed May 27. Any class may be cancelled in case not enough children have enrolled in it.

Richard Twarowski U. of I. Graduate

Niles area resident Richard J. Twarowski, 3107 Washington, received his bachelor of science degree during midyear graduation exercises at the University of Illinois.

When the group was in its formative stage Trustee John Trocki questioned it as to its political aspirations. He wondered if the group was political in nature. While the group assured him they were interested in civic rather than political activities, obviously the two cannot be entirely divorced.

While the group will not make any political endorsements or support any candidates they nevertheless can enlighten the voters on the many civic issues which are, in reality, political bombshells. For instance the group might be interested in the gambling situation which exists in the village. They could then relay to residents in the community their findings as to wide-spread abuse of the gambling ordinance. They could begin to ask questions to the candidates. "Mr. Trocki, since you have aspirations of running for Mayor of Niles, why have you allowed gambling to exist in our village? Why may I ask another question, "Mr. Stanley, since you aspire to become Mayor of Niles do you believe there is a payoff to public officials regarding gambling?" They could inquire of Mr. Bruno, "You vowed your independence before election; why haven't you eliminated gambling right in your own backyard in Jonquil Terrace?" Similar questions could be asked of the Mayor and the other trustees as well as the police chief. Then after the questions have all been asked they could wind up their questioning by stating, "Do you know you could be indicted by grand jury action for malfeasance in office and sentenced to prison for allowing this situation to exist?" And questioning could then be concluded by asking if the gentlemen would be interested in taking lie detector tests regarding their answering of the previous questions?"

Mind you, the group need only be fulfilling its "civic" obligation by publishing these answers. They need make no "political" endorsements...frankly, it is unlikely that they would be to.

CENSUS
ents were asked to indicate whether their children attended public school or other schools in the district. In the pre-school group (0-4) there were 1,928 children whose parents planned to send their children to East Maine schools, and 1,231 children who will probably attend parochial schools in the district. The number of children between the ages of 5 and 14 who are currently attending public school is 2735. In the same age group 1748 children were tabulated for parochial schools.

Based on current enrollments without any consideration for any new children who may move into the district, space will be needed for 912 children in public school and 587 children in parochial schools in the next five years. "On the basis of these current figures, it is evident that both the public and parochial schools in the East Maine area will face severe classroom problems during the next five years," said Superintendent Bagg.

It is obvious that the flurry of building activity in East Maine School District No. 63 will pose many problems for the community. Accurate forecasts of the community's growth can now be made by the use of the continuing census plan which has been inaugurated. As new children are enrolled in the schools from new homes, census cards will be completed in both public and parochial schools so that accurate information will be immediately available.

"The Board of Education wants to express its appreciation to the zone coordinators and the many census takers from both public and parochial schools who assisted in taking the school census. This kind of community cooperation is essential for the welfare of our children," remarked Bagg.
