and sent out daily short wave reports of enemy activities.

While many of Olsen's compatriots were caught and imprisoned or killed, Olsen escaped to relate one of the war's most thrilling stories of personal heroism, revealing the inspiring work of the Norwegian Underground which contributed so much to the Allied victory. Olsen's daring exploits are guaranteed to keep the reader breathless.

THE DAUGHTER
by BESSIE BREUER
Fiction

"They were always hoping that by making one more move they would find an answer to the emptiness that possessed them, and having made the move and found no answer in the scene they thought they should have gone elsewhere."

A novel that lays bare the emotions of its two main characters, Katy the daughter, just out of college, and Carlotta the mother, beautiful and vain, obsessed by the idea that she must stay young forever. The fact that this obsession has led to a divorce does not alter the mother's ego, and filled only with bitterness at the thought that her former husband could find happiness without her, she and the daughter take on a gypsy like existence, travelling from one place to another, stopping only long enough to rest.

This flight from loneliness leads them to a shabby hotel on one of the Florida Keys, and there because Carlotta becomes infatuated with a group of young sophisticates, they spend the summer. Katy, a young idealist, withdraws from these people that her mother finds so fascinating, and feelings of rejection, hate towards Carlotta who no longer needs her, makes this girl lash out at the world about her, until the day when unable to face the utter aloneness any longer she joins this group and commences to lead a life of degradation.

The results that stem from this choice, and the ironic ending of the story leads the reader to believe that he has suddenly been given a power to look into the minds of desperately unhappy people.

Definitely a story for adult reading.

The one problem which immediately presents itself concerns the local school districts themselves. Would wealthier district 71, which now has approximately $7000 tax money more behind each child in their area, be willing to contribute to the village?

children in his area who will be residents of the planned multiple dwellings.

Two hours after Blase had submitted the petitions for the record, Robert Krilich requested village approval for 242 units of multiple dwellings in an unincorporated area bordered by Ballard, Dempster and located one block east of Potter Road. The planned area is within school district 63.

County regulations require village approval of all municipalities with in a 1-1/2 mile radius of the intended building in unincorporated areas. Krilich said he had received approval from Des Plaines and Park Ridge and now wanted immediate action on this petition.

Kirk Lane and Citizens Committee member Ben Sosnowski, objected to the petition on citing the increased burden on school district 63. Sosnowski and Mr. Danielson mentioned that Superintendent Bagg mentioned 1-1/2 children could be expected from each unit. They said this total would warrant another school in this area, just for these multiples.

Krilich said he had met with school board 63 president John Press and that builder Krilich would assist the school district. However, attorney Wells said he believes the group can force approval of the plans as long as it conforms to the building regulations in the area.

In other actions residents behind the Super City area in the Harlem-Crain area cited the garbage and noisy fan problems which emanated from Super City. Further police and health board inspections will persist in the area to rectify problems there.

Stanley mentioned that Mrs. Eiger complained to him about the chemical fumes and black smoke which she said comes from the Cronane Company. Health Inspector Franklin will check on the complaint.

Stanley and Poeschl remarked about the mess in the Cowger Fence area which was referred to the building committee for violations.

Heard complaint from Mr. Danielson about blocked drainage in the Church-Coutland area.

Approved Chesterfield Builders Resubdivision No. 1 subject to the straightening of National Street.

Poeschl and Bruno both said they couldn't understand the conflict regarding the reports on multiple dwellings. When Builder Krilich mentioned that he had a letter which would substantiate assisting the schools in district 63 and that Board president Press was amenable to Krilich's offer, Both Poeschl and Bruno thought Press' acceptance of Krilich's proposal was in contradiction to Board superintendent's Bagg's remarks about over-crowding. However, attorney Wells explained to the two trustees there was no conflict and that the president realized "he would rather have a little doubt (for the school district)" rather than have the building go in without any contribution from the builder.

The Mayor broke a 3 to 3 tie by voting in favor of a plat approval at Main, Shermer and Waukegan known as Niles Manor.

Highlands. The Mayor was joined by approving votes from Bruno, Marszalek and Nielsen.

Will receive report at next meeting on alternate plat for Kirk Lane petitioned more than 400 persons regarding the light.

The meeting was then adjourned until May 23.

Letters To Editor

Kramer Answers Bugle "Helicopter" Editorial

I would like to comment on your editorial which appeared in the issue of May 19th, entitled "Is helicopter necessary"? The advisability of featuring helicopter rides during the Grennan Heights Festival on June 25th, was discussed thoroughly among members of the festival committee prior to the announcement of this attraction. Our decision to make use of this medium, was based on a number of factors which we hoped would overshadow, to some extent, the effects of the recent unfortunate accident in Chicago.

Let me explain first of all that in any promotion such as ours, one must have an attraction or a gimmick, if you will, in order to insure, at least in part, the success of this type of venture. From past experience, we know that the helicopter is a terrific drawing card. Niles' residents who were fortunate enough to enjoy a view of their hometown from the sky during the 1958 festival, undoubtedly will attest that this experience was one of the most thrilling in their lives. True, the recent accident may sway the opinion of some people as to the safety element of this craft, but actual statistics prove that the odds are better than 1,000,000 to 1, that a similar accident will occur. Helicopter Airways, from whom this craft is being leased, has consented to carrying our festival signs on the sides of the plane during its flights over Niles on the day of the festival. I'm, sure you can citation carried a separate policy for the festival in amounts up to $300,000.

Now allow me to set you straight on the actual receipts and expenditures of this attraction during the 1958 Festival, at which time the rental of this craft was agreed upon at $85.00 per hour. Receipts were $803.00 and the rental of the plane was $750.83.

The committee at that time was well pleased with the financial results of this venture since at the planning of the festival it was realized that we could expect a loss of up to $150.00 on this attraction. However, in view of the fact that in prior years a sum of approximately that amount was set aside for promotional expenses, the committee felt that the small expected loss would be well-worth the promotional value gained. We also realized that this copter operation had to be run on a very tight schedule, therefore each detail in the scheduling of the flights had to be arranged to a fraction of a minute. Also, rides had to be sold weeks prior to the event so that by flight time a sufficient number of passengers were standing by, thus eliminating any possible loss of time. Rides were also sold on the day graduates, may be successful in your chosen profession, or if your planning on going on to college or just starting high school, may your next few years be very happy ones.

Congratulations and best wishes to Mr. & Mrs. Joseph Bratke, 8250 Osceola, who will be celebrating 22 years of married happiness on May 28.

You've probably heard of the "MAN WHO CAME TO DINNER AND NEVER WENT HOME," well, I know of a Lady that did the same thing. Mrs. ELMER DEMLOW of Norridge, tripped at work and fractured her ankle in 3 places. She had to have a cast put on her ankle and decided to come and stay with her daughter and her family, Mr. & Mrs. JOE LaGRIPPE. Mrs. DEMLOW was going to stay for only one day, while her cast dried. Well, 2-1/2 weeks later and she was still there. All kidding aside, the family loved having her and enjoyed the visit very much. Now, the only thing I'm worrying about is that after 2-1/2 weeks of DOLORES'S cooking, I bet Mrs. DEMLOW ends up in a hospital suffering from some stomach ailment.

Those weren't ducks that were waddling in the mud on the Glenview Park District Golf Course a week ago Monday night, during that terrific rain. It was the Double Bogie Twilight Golf League who play there every Monday night at 5:30 p.m. I understand that while one golfer tee'd off, the others stood around holding umbrellas over their heads. The league consists of 4 men, the majority from the Boy Scouts of America.
