Last Thursday, May 18, was an evening every bowler looks forward to... the annual bowling banquet. This particular one was the most outstanding in the St. John Brebeck Women's Bowling League History.

From The Left Hand Lions-Sponsored Circus Here Sat. & Sunday

If Junior doesn't answer that last call for breakfast Sat. June 10th or Sun. June 11th, don't worry, Mom, he'll probably be watching Hagen Bros Circus unloading just south of Shoppers World on Milwaukee Avenue. This will be circus day in Niles and Junior like all children of the past century will want to witness the working men unload tons of equipment, rolls of canvas and numerous cages of wild animals. The Lions Club is sponsoring Hagen Bros, Three Ring Circus and invite all kids, from four to seventy-four to visit the showgrounds during the morning hours and behold the magic city of tents being erected.

In light of this newest health safeguard plus Nilesites awareness of combatting diseases plus the formation of a new Health Commission, all leads to our seeking a public program in Niles to insure immunity for the entire community.

Dr. Jon Hall, public health officer for Cook County told us two weeks ago that polio vaccine for public consumption is available and can be delivered to our community within two weeks. He also made particular note of the fact that the vaccine is paid for out of our tax dollars. Since the Woman's Club sponsorship of last year's clinic resulted in the giving of about 500 polio shots to Nilesites we appreciate the urgency of instituting a similar program in Niles immediately.

Since we have entered into a new era of enlightenment we hope the new health commission will take immediate steps to make these polio shots available to the public.

When the program was initiated by the Woman's Club there was resistance from local doctors. Some of them desired that any shots be made available only at their offices. But they were made aware of the need for a separate public clinic for this purpose which thus erased the charity stigma which would have accompanied the trip to the doctor's office for a non-paying shot. Since 500 more Nilesites received the additional immunity plus the fact that taxpayers (you and I) have contributed money for the vaccine which now is available we believe the new health commission should take immediate steps to insure more Nilesites against the polio danger.

In Morton Grove the Jewish War Veterans initiated a similar program this year to what our fine Woman's Club did here last year. Certainly Nilesites should have this same safeguard as our neighbor has.

Police Chief 'May Be Forthcoming' At Tuesday's Trustee Meeting

Prepare For July 4 Chamber Festivities

The Niles Chamber of Commerce planning committee is readying for the big Fourth of July celebration to be held in Niles. The festivities include a kiddie and bike parade, marching bands and other local marching groups and an evening fireworks display at Notre Dame Stadium. Tickets for the evening performance can be purchased from local homeowner groups, as well as the police and fire departments. Committee members include L. to R. Leo Fitzgerald, Al Green, Lillian Sabac and Seated Stanley Glowacki.

Interview Ten Niles Candidates

Mayor Nick Blase told THE BUGLE Tuesday that the appointment of Niles Police Chief, "may be forthcoming" at next Tuesday's village board meeting. Blase's announcement came after Monday night's five hour interview with ten men from Niles police department who have applied for the top job on the force.

Monday night's meeting was an oral interview session. The committee, which includes Mayor Blase, Judge Anton Smigiel, Niles police magistrate and trustee Santo Bruno, chairman of Niles Police and Fire Committee, was joined by Gerald O'Connor, director of training for Northwestern's Traffic Institute and Mr. Wood, also a member of the University Traffic Institute, and a former police captain on Denver's 600-man police force. He served in that department for 20 years.

The sessions with Niles 10 candidates lasted about 30 minutes for each man, during the entire time the two men from Northwestern conducted the interviews. While the interviews were conversational in informality the two University men quizzed each applicant with both hypothetical questions, as well as technical questions. An example of a hypothetical quiz was: "If there was a rash of burglaries in Niles, as police chief what would you do? How would you handle the situation?" As some of the candidates remarked later, many of the questions could not be "answered by the book". Candidates said while there was a natural apprehension when they first went in to be interviewed the informality of the meeting soon resulted in a more relaxed atmosphere. One candidate said that he sat between the two traffic men and questions were given to him, first from "the right and then from the left".

Mayor Blase said he thought the quiz included "rough questions" and were aimed at determining the man's potential as a police chief. In conversation with two of the candidates they told THE BUGLE that they felt the quiz was certainly fair and the entire method of choosing the new chief seemed equitable.

Future plans that are being considered include Child Welfare Programs, Social Service Program, and a Mental Hygiene Department. Also discussed was if it would be feasible to have a Public Health Nurse and a Social Worker.

Golf Mill State Bank Plans June Grand Opening

The new Golf Mill State Bank located in the Golf-Mill Shopping Center plans its grand opening for some time in late June. Architectural beauty, modern facilities, commodious quarters and clientele comfort and convenience with highly efficient service keynote this modern community bank.

All phases of banking operations from travelers checks and vacation loans to large corporation loans and night depositors are an integral part of this bank which was designed and built to give Golf Mill State Bank a distinct personality among the finer banks in the north-west suburbs.

Officers of the new bank are: Henry J. Reichwein, president; Vincent P. Barrett, vice-president and cashier; Sam T. Carone, cashier; Norman Stelton, director; Albert A. Yort, director; and Edward P. Colby, director. Reichwein and Barrett are also directors of the bank.

Facilities of the bank also include two walk-up windows for after hour banking and a customers lounge area with chairs, tables and settees.

The key colors of the bank are restful blue and beige. The imposing front structure is done in pearl beige marble with a blue script sign. Blue-green carpet, vinyl tile and terezo are used on the floors with pearl beige marble wall and rubbed walnut desks completing the color scheme.

Another customer comfort is air conditioning and 1,000 copper-colored safety deposit boxes in popular sizes on the main floor so that customers will never have to leave the bank floor for any service.

The main bank vault is 23 by 24 feet and has a 22 ton door. Over 30 tons of steel bars in concrete have been used in the bank.

President of the new bank, Henry J. Reichwein, is a unique man. He is the only man in the country that is president of four banks. Reichwein has had 46 years of practical banking experience and since 1951 he has been president and a director of the First National Bank of Mundelein, the First State Bank of Grayslake and the First State Bank of Libertyville.

From 1933 to 1950 Reichwein was vice-president and cashier of the Merchandise National Bank of Chicago and the Merchandise Safe Deposit Company in Chicago's Merchandise Mart.

In 1925, at the age of 32, he was elected president of the State Bank of West Pullman on the south side of Chicago. This bank was one of the five in Chicago which liquidated and paid off their depositors 100 cents on the dollar during the depression in 1933. Prior to 1925 for 10 years Reichwein was a junior officer in a large Chicago bank. Besides being president of the new Golf Mill State Bank Reichwein is one of the stockholders and organizers of the bank.

Vincent P. Barrett, vice-president and cashier of the new bank, is a graduate of the school of banking at the University of Wisconsin and The American Institute of Banking, Chicago. He has had nearly 20 years of banking experience, much of it as assistant cashier of The Sears Bank and Trust Company.

Barrett is married and lives in the Sauganash section of Chicago with his wife, Florence, and their three children.

He is treasurer and director of the Golf-Mill Business Men's association. Barrett is treasurer of the Father Francis A. Ryan council, Knights of Columbus. He is also an active member of the Holy Name Society of Queen of All Saints parish.

Sam T. Carone, pro cashier of the new Golf Mill State Bank, is a graduate of the school of banking at the University of Wisconsin. He is also a member of the Chicago chapter, American Institute of Banking. Carone served in the U.S. Army and is a member of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine.

He is past treasurer of the St. Tarcissus Holy Name society and is now secretary of the St. Tarcissus Holy Name society. He is also a coach of the St. Tarcissus Boys Holy Name Baseball league. Carone and his wife, Geraldine, have two daughters and they reside at 6125 Rosedale Ave., Chicago.

The sea has always been a subject of research, as well as a menace to mankind. But recent inventions have increased our knowledge and our potential control of this element.

VOICE ACROSS THE SEA, by Arthur C. Clarke, is the story of man's attempt to communicate across the barrier seas. It is a story of great moral courage, of scientific skill, of million-dollar gambles. It tells the story from the laying of the first crude submarine cable in 1858 to the opening of the first telephone cable in 1956. The first bridging of the Atlantic Ocean by cable was as exciting to the public as the crossing of space is today. Some of the most brilliant of Victorian journalists covered the cable-laying operations from the fabulous Great Eastern, and their eye-witness accounts of storms at sea, breaks in the cable, and other difficulties provide fascinating insights. The story of the deep-sea cables is also the story of several remarkable and often eccentric geniuses, such as the financier-adventurer Cyrus Field and the scientists Lord Kelvin, Samuel Morse, Thomas Edison and Oliver Heaviside. The book gives a complete though non-technical account of the many problems that had to be overcome before the cables could be laid. After explaining how the modern submerged repeater has revolutionized transoceanic communications, the book ends with a brief glimpse of the still more remarkable possibilities opened up by radio links in the earth-satellites.

IN SEVEN MILES DOWN, Jacques Piccard, son of the inventor and constructor of the bathyscaphe, and pilot on all sixty-five dives, tells the story of its invention and development. The book covers the Trieste's dives off Italy in 1953-1956, the Mediterranean dives in 1957 leading to the purchase of the Trieste by the U.S. Navy, and subsequent dives off San Diego, and finally the ultradeep dives of Project Nekton. It includes information on the deep ships of tomorrow, of which the Trieste is a blind and cumbersome prototype. It discusses the future of oceanography and what is yet to be learned from the depths of the sea. Mineral resources lie untouched and waiting, and the authors anticipate, for both commercial and military reasons, there will soon be a vast international invasion of the underwater world.

UNDER THE DEEP OCEANS, by T. F. Gaskell, is an absorbing story of exploring the foundations of the earth beneath the sea. A most important part of the exploration of the earth takes place hidden from view beneath the oceans where lies the greater part of the earth's surface. The deep oceans, it now appears, are permanent; from the earliest geological times they have existed as oceans, not sharing in the rise and fall above the sea's surface that occurs in the shallow water near the continents. Oceanographers can therefore make investigations into geology which cannot be made on land. Modern methods of research can probe deeply into the rock layers of the sea-bed. Recent studies, such as that of H. M. S. Challenger's worldwide oceanographic expedition, of which Dr. Gaskell was Chief Scientist, have opened up fascinating prospects of discovery and solved a number of old problems like the origin of coral atolls and the status of that will be obtained to pay for these new schools. Msgr. Howard said he hoped all Catholics would continue their support of seminary expansion by contributing generously to the special Seminary collection, Sunday, June 18, in all parishes of the Archdiocese.

St. Hedwig's Becomes Junior College In September

Two new Roman Catholic seminaries in the Archdiocese of Chicago will open their doors to more than 1000 seminarians this week by the Very Rev. Msgr. Martin M. Howard, rector of Quigley Seminary, 103 E. Chestnut Street. The two schools are Quigley Seminary South, an additional preparatory or Minor seminary, now under construction at 79th and Western in Chicago, and St. Mary's of the Lake, Junior College Department, a school for fifth and sixth year seminarians. St. Mary's formerly St. Hedwig's orphanage, is now undergoing extensive remodeling to adapt it to classroom and residence needs.

Quigley South, which will eventually have a capacity for 1200 students, will enroll about 775 in September. St. Mary's of the Lake in Niles will accept 250 out of an eventual total of 381. The faculty of Quigley North has been re-allocated to serve both the north and south campuses. Because of increased enrollment, and the shortage of priests, 15 additional lay professors have been hired to teach in the Minor seminaries.

Niles Baseball Dance Was "A Smash"

(News Release)
 Through the determined efforts of Mr. Ron Friedman, fund raising chairman, the annual Niles Baseball dance was a real "smash". Through Ron's salesmanship, we had quite a few more people than expected and so would like to apologize for the crowded conditions existing at the dance. It's a shame that our "celebrities" again failed to put in a guest appearance. Apparently these people of the theatre are simply too busy to communicate with "our kind of people". Thanks Ron and all you people who made this a most wild event.

 The Niles Teen Spring Dance, which was held at the Bunker Hill Country Club on May 26, was a huge success. Over 200 Niles Teens and their guests danced to the wonderful music of "Bernie and the Rejects" and I'm sure everyone had a good time.

Our 1961 Rock & Roll Champs were chosen at this time and they are Miss JOAN BARTHOLOMEI and Mr. JOHN KELLY, Jr. They were a very excited and happy couple. Both JOAN and JOHN were each given a trophy and a wrist watch, which was presented to them by Mr. BERNARD MILLER, president of the Niles Park Board. The judges for the dance contest were Mr. MILLER, Mrs. RAY EAGAN and Mrs. ALBERT DOMORACKI.

Door prize winners were: Mr. GEORGE TARSIANO, Miss JUDY GLIEM, Mr. BOB FINE, Mr. BILL DRESSEL, Jr., Miss MARY LOU KELLY, Miss JUDY LE TOURNEAU, also Mr. JIM SCHNIDT, Mr. GLEN LARSON, Miss BARBARA HYER, Miss MAUREEN ANGER, Miss ANN PENCZEK, Miss ROSEMARY KIERSTEIN and Miss SUE DOMORACKI.

On behalf of all the Teens of Niles and their guests, I would like to thank the following clubs and organizations for their very generous donations and for their very kind help in making our dance a success. To the sponsors of the Dance Club, the Niles Park District, for their donation of the trophies and wrist watches, the Niles VFW and Mr. Dick Powell for the 13 cases of coke that they donated also for letting us have the dance at Bunker Hill Country Club, at no charge. The Niles Lions for their donation of a beautiful transistor radio. For their cash donations, which were used to purchase Sears gift certificates and used as door prizes, I thank the Grennan Heights Impr. Assn., Kirk Lane Community Org., Jonquil Terrace Civic Assn., and the Women's Club of Niles. For the two beautiful wallets, a thank you to the Toco Districuting Co., more popularly known as The-haul's.

I also want to thank the chaperones for the evening, Mrs. ALBERT DOMORACKI, Conin, BERNIE MILLER, Comm., and Mrs. RAY EAGAN and Comm. LOU SCHREINER.

Have you seen the Grennan Heights Park lately? It looks just beautiful, especially in front of the fieldhouse and the part surrounding the play area. The shrubs and flowers that have been planted and the white fence make the park a show place of Niles. It is something everyone should see. A vote of thanks goes to Mr. ED PRYCYNSKI, the Supt. of maintenance of the Niles Park District and to the men in his department, to show them that their hard work is appreciated.

 ambiguous piece of water, the Mediterranean. They have also brought forward new evidence of the theory of continental drift. The deep oceans, apart from their importance in research, are themselves most exciting places. Their floor is by no means the flat, motionless world one might imagine. Huge mountain ranges rise up from it towards the surface; there are gulfs so deep that Mt. Everest could be drowned in them with half a mile to spare. Across the sea-bed from time to time race sudden "turbidity currents" moving with the speed of an express train and scoring deep trenches in the level floor. These and many more remarkable things make the study of the oceans as Dr. Gaskel relates it a most absorbing subject.

Three Nilesites Graduate From De Paul University

R. Sargent Shriver, Jr., director of the U.S. Peace Corps, spoke at the University's 63rd annual convocation on June 7 in Alumni Hall, 1011 W. Belden Ave.

Albert Cardinal Meyer, archbishop of Chicago, presided at the ceremony as 523 students accepted degrees from the Very Rev. Comerford J. O'Malley, C.M., DePaul president.

Shriver, a DePaul lay trustee, received an honorary doctor of laws, Honorary doctors of laws also were conferred upon the Most Rev. Cletus F. O'Donnell, auxiliary bishop of Chicago, and Col. Henry Crown, chairman, Material Service Division, General Dynamics Corp., and a member of DePaul's board of lay trustees.

er, who retired last summer after 34 years at DePaul as teacher and administrator. The award, entitled "Via Sapientiae" (Way of Wisdom), recognizes lengthy service to the institution and "obvious dedication to the purposes for which the University stands."

The award derives its name from DePaul's motto, "Viam Sapientiae Monstrabo Tibi" (The Way of Wisdom I Will Show You).

Three area residents received degrees at the convocation. George W. Jacobson, 7338 Concord, Niles, will be among those students receiving graduate degrees with a master of arts in English.

awarded a bachelor of science from the college of commerce, with a major in accounting.

Grennan Heights Summer Festival Will Be June 24

The Grennan Heights Improvement Association is having its annual Summer Festival on June 24th this year. There will be many attractions for everyone and it is hoped everyone in the village of Niles will come out and participate.

The Grennan Heights Improvement Association was founded approximately twenty years ago, and has served the entire community for two decades. Its record is one of which we can all be proud. For some time the efforts of the Association were directed in establishing what is now the Grennan Heights Park. Playground facilities were installed for the children in the area to enjoy. A Fieldhouse was erected by the efforts of the men and women who were members of the Association. Approximately six years ago, the Grennan Heights Park, Fieldhouse and playground facilities were given to the then newly orgamized Niles Park District by the Grennan Heights Improvement Association. There is a long record of contributions for the good of the community. A few among the organizations which have benefited are: Lutheran General Hospital, Niles Baseball League, scouts, Niles Teenage Dance, Student Scholarships, and the annual Christmas Party for the children. The Grennan Heights Improvement Association has supported any worthwhile civic endeavor within its financial limits.

The Summer Festival is the principal means of raising funds, so a good time at the Festival is really a good time because it is more than a Saturday's outing. Your support is welcome and needed. Set aside Saturday, June 24th, and come out and enjoy the Grennan Heights Improvement Association Summer Festival.

Interstate Steel Holds Open House At New Des Plaines Plant

Interstate Steel co. will play host to manufacturers and steel mill dignitaries at a big open house June 13 at its new Des Plaines headquarters, announced Howard R. Conant, president of the firm.

THE OPEN HOUSE will mark the formal opening of the new $1,100,000 office and warehouse at 401 Touhy ave. in Des Plaines.

Guests will explore the vast new headquarters, with the latest in modern office design and in working steel facilities, from noon until midnight on the big day, Tuesday, June 13. A buffet lunch, buffet dinner and refreshments will be served, and a special entertainment program is planned. A circus tent effect will be created for the entertainment aspect of the open house. A Dixieland band will play and members of the Chicago Bears football team will make special appearances.

Officials of steel mills and manufacturers of steel products have been invited to the gala open house.

Interstate Steel recently moved into the new Des Plaines headquarters from its former quarters in nearby Evanston—doubling its capacity and enabling the firm to give customers same day delivery on 90 per cent of its steel orders, Conant pointed out. The open house will give the industry an opportunity to see how the modern new steel service center functions.

The new Interstate Steel headquarters has already become a local landmark because of a unique tall multi-colored chimney stack, readily recognizable from the adjacent Illinois Tollway. The office building, separated from the warehouse area by big thermopane windows, is a showcase of modern design, with alternating panels of porcelain enameled steel and glass making up the exterior, cantilevered 2-1/2 feet beyond a base of glazed brick. The interior features walnut paneling and a new kind of luminescent ceiling lighting and is air-conditioned.

THE "WAREHOUSE" AREA, which can stock up to 25,000 tons of steel, combines spaciousness with new aids for fast and efficient handling of heavy loads of steel to enable Interstate to increase its capacity by double or more, Conant pointed out. In addition, the close proximity to both the Illinois Tollway and the new Northwest Expressway is of great value in enabling Interstate Steel to serve its customers quickly and effectively, Conant continued.
The warehouse includes 83,000 square feet, with a 36-foot-high ceiling allowing space for very high speed cranes: Both 10 and 20-ton cranes are used in the warehouse, in four 60-foot bays, each 300 feet long.
Interstate Steel's new warehouse can accommodate eight 55-foot trucks and four railroad cars all at once. The trucks go into four docks in an enclosed area, and there is space for the railroad cars inside the building. The steel industry's most modern slitting, roller leveling and shearing facilities are part of the new building's equipment and will be on display during the open house.
The move to new quarters was necessary because Interstate had outgrown its former office and warehouse, opened in Evanston in 1951 as a 24,000 square foot facility and later expanded to 43,000 square feet.
THE NEW LOCATION was picked because of its proximity to the new network of superhighways and to O'Hare International Airport, just a half-block away, and is in the hub of a new industrial area springing up around the airport and highways.

On Police Wages

A letter in last week's Letter to the Editor column from "Retired at Seventy" asked about the wage scale of Niles policemen.

Mayor Blase gave THE BUGLE the following information. He said starting salary for Niles policemen during the one year probationary status is $460 monthly. After the one year period a regular policeman then receives a monthly wage of $500. There are then $25 increases which Blase admitted in the past were done without any particular form of regularity or regard for ability. He said that this schedule is higher than other departments in "the 4 towns" (in Niles Township). Blase mentioned other department's scales start at $425 monthly with periodic $25 increases. He added that based on the average of the entire police department Niles police payroll has the highest average of any department among the 4 towns
