Comments Dealers

Dear Mr. Bessert:
Just as you as a private citizen and newspaper editor have the right to object to the action of the police regarding the controversial book "Tropic of Cancer", I, as a Niles resident, have the right to condone it and be grateful for the immediate action that was taken.

The authors of the United States Constitution in guaranteeing freedom of the press did not intend to guarantee license to anyone to spread the deadly evil of borderline and hardcore pornographic literature. For many years, unprincipled publishers have been hiding behind their constitutional rights in order to circulate trash and smut and amass personal fortunes at the expense of corruption of the morals of youth.

Because of this unfortunate trend exhibited by some distributors and publishers, a volunteer committee of a religious group in Niles has been working with all local retailers who sell pocket books and magazines for the past five years. This committee has promoted the well-being of all Niles' residents by encouraging an awareness of the evils resulting from objectionable literature available to youth. By conducting weekly checks, this committee with the wholehearted cooperation of local dealers, has endeavored to prevent the availability of objectionable literature in our village. Our dealers are to be commended for their efforts in voluntarily removing from their shelves such material.

Thank you for considering another villager's opinion regarding the recent action. As you have in the past, I am certain you will present both sides to this issue.

Catherine Quinlan (Mrs. Wm.)
8259 Oconto
Niles, Illinois

Inconsistent Bugler

Dear Mr. Bessert:
Your recent editorial of October 12, 1961 taking the position that the government should not act in matters of obscene literature is not in keeping with your philosophy in the past.

As I recall you wanted quick action to repress the pinball games so the youth of the community would not be contaminated. You were the leader in the drive for more parks and also the driving force behind the free polo shots. All with the thought in mind that the physical health of the child is important.

Well, what about the moral and mental health of a child? Shall we stand by and watch literature like this become available at cut rate prices? The trouble with your way of thinking is that anything printed is considered sacred. Yet if the book in question was re-enacted on a street corner for all to view I'm sure you'd be up in arms. You state that it's a parents responsibility to guard against smut - what can they do when Continued on Page 8

Park Bd. Prexy 60 September Miller Hands In Resignation Permits Are Issued Here

Park Board president Bernie Miller told THE BUGLE Tuesday afternoon that he was submitting his resignation as park commissioner at the regular meeting Thursday night. He said his resigning is for personal reasons. This vacancy will result in the remaining four park commissioners appointing a fifth commissioner to serve until 1963, at which time the remaining two years of Miller's six year term would be subject to a vote.

Niles received the rather dubious distinction of being 1st in the Chicago land suburban area in issuing apartment permits during the month of September, according to Bell Savings and Loan Association. Sixty permits were issued in Niles.

In comparison with Niles her neighbors were far behind her in September apartment building permits. Park Ridge issued six permits during the month, Skokie issued three permits, whereas neighbors Des Plaines, Glenview, Lincolnwood and Morton Grove did not issue any apartment permits during September.

The selection of a commissioner will be the second appointment in recent months. Commissioner Steve Chameriski was appointed to his post to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Jules Pandera, who resigned the commissioner's post to assume the post of park recreation director. Both Chameriski's post and the new selectee's post will be subject to a vote by Niles park district residents in 1963. Miller was serving a six year term as commissioner, and the vote on his term will be for two years, in April 1963.

Surprisingly, while homebuilding permits were down all over the Chicago land area Niles showed a phenomenal increase over September, 1960. Whereas, Chicago home building reached its lowest level since 1948 Niles had a whopping $2,096,610 worth of permits issued, which was almost four times the $594,645 amount from September, of 1960. It was also well ahead of the $610,964 total for August, 1961.

Injunction Suit Filed Against Police Chiefs

An injunction suit was filed in Superior Court Monday seeking a court order to stop police chiefs of 10 suburbs from banning the sale of the novel, "Tropic of Cancer." Niles police chief Clarence Emrikson was among the ten police chiefs cited in the suit.

illegally seized the books and prevented its sale by threatening to arrest dealers who handled it.

While it may be customary in totalitarian countries for police to seize books or to tell citizens what books they may read, Americans are protected from police censorship, said John L. McKnight, ACLU director here.

Emrikson told THE BUGLE Tuesday, that the books were returned to the dealers two days after they were taken from four stores in Niles.

The police officials are Chief Thomas Ryan and Acting Chief Robert Morris, Skokie; Amasa Kennicott, Des Plaines; Donald Derrning, Winnetka; Arthur L'Antle, Glenco; George Whittemberg, Mt. Prospect; L. W. Calderwood, Arlington Heights; Hubert G. Kelsch, Evanston; Milton Scanlon, Morton Grove; Clarence Emrikson, Niles, and M. Lester Flowers, Lincolnwood.

Local Drug Stores Battle Chicago's Sunday American

Local drug stores in Niles, as well as drug stores throughout the Chicago land area, refused to sell the last Sunday's edition of the Chicago American in their stores. A feature story on the drug business caused the stores to pull the papers from the stands.

jected to what they termed "half-truths" in the article. Both said they did not object to factual information but claimed the article was slanted against the retailer. They both mentioned that profits in the retail drug business, which the American said were up to 1350% "were ridiculous". Green said the average net profit in their business was about 6% and that the gross profit on the entire store was only 33%, which is comparable to other types of retail businesses, Oakton Manor Drugs, along with Pankau and Niles Drugs, were involved in Sunday's action.

At Green, co-owner of Niles Drugs, and a trustee of the Chicago Retailer Association, said the Association did not endorse any newspaper removal. Green said the action was an individual action on the part of each store - owner, Green, like Bob Pankau, of Niles two Pankau Drugs, ob-

Collapsing Wall Causes Death

Peter Magraf, 45, 7918 Oakton Street, died Tuesday morning after receiving multiple injuries caused by a basement wall caving in on him, Magraf, a building contractor, was at a construction job at 2502 Archer Avenue in Chicago. Services will be held Thursday at John May Funeral Home, 4533 Milwaukee Avenue.

Unlawful To Burn Leaves

It is unlawful for any person to burn leaves on or in any public street, alley, road or other public grounds. Leaves should be put in proper containers and put out for your regular garbage pick-up. Do not sweep the leaves into the street as this will only cause blockage of sewers. Help Keep Niles Clean.

Meet The Meanest Man Of The Month

The "Meanest Person Of The Month" title would go unchallenged to the person or persons who broke into the Clayton Koller residence at 7115 Monroe Tuesday night. They stole a portable TV, set, money and jewelry. Mr. Koller has been a shut-in in the past two years, and has been in and out of hospitals during the period. The thieves broke into the home during the hospital's visiting hours while Mrs. Koller was visiting her husband.

Homebuilding Permits In Niles

Homebuilding permits in Niles were valued at $443,000, up about $137,000 from September of 1960, Morton Grove had a September permit valuation of $364,500, Park Ridge $440,129 and Skokie had $484,000.

Golf Mill Art Gallery To Continue

A continuing art gallery in the Golf Mill State Bank, Golf Mill Shopping Center, Niles, has been initiated with a showing of winning canvases selected from the First Annual Golf Mill Shopping Center art exhibit held September 23 and 24.

The winning canvases on display at the Golf Mill State Bank were selected by a board of judges. Winners include Merlin Enabnit, Christ Hansen, Rudy Ohring and Paul C. Ueberber. This display will be hung through October 31 after which the Golf Mill State Bank will institute a policy of one-man showings. For the convenience of the viewing public, future one-man showings will be keyed with sales prices for each painting.

Over 30,000 people strolled through the Golf Mill Shopping Center to view the complete art exhibit represented by ninety-six artists. The selection of winning canvases, an idea developed and sponsored by the Golf Mill State Bank, was directed by Martin Dolgin, of Pearson's Music and Art, Shop situated in the Golf Mill Shopping Center.

"I am amazed at the interest and conversation stimulated by your art gallery presentation," said Mr. Vincent Barret, Vice President of the Golf Mill State Bank. "We feel our policy of continuous showings of good art will give the community something it wants."

Tells Advantages To Joining Boy Scouts

Boy Scouting is brought to Niles and the Maine Ridge District by such institutions as churches, schools, service or fraternal clubs, business organizations, or responsible groups of years of age. Char- ters are obtained from the Northwest Suburban Council and are renewable yearly. Several units are 25 years old and Troop 1 will celebrate its 50th birthday next year.

Scouting provides a boy with healthful outdoor adventure thru camping; fellowship and teamwork as a member of his patrol and skill which develop his self-reliance; and a code of honor thru the Scout Oath or Promise by which he af- firms his duty to God and his country, his obligation to help other people, and his aim to keep himself physically, men- tally, and morally fit.

Besides a Scoutmaster, As- sistant Scoutmaster, and the Troop Committee, an Institutional Representative from the sponsoring institution serves as a general manager and re- presents it on the Maine Ridge District Committee. Troops supply their own financing, while the district is supported by donations from the general public as Sustaining Members or through Community Fund.

In the Maine Ridge District there are 3 sponsoring institu- tions with 3 troops in Niles and 17 sponsoring institutions with 19 troops in Park Ridge. It is possible for boys to join existing units or to form new units.

The following institutions make Scouting possible in Niles: Troop 45 sponsored by the Oak P.T.A., Institutional Repre- sentative Thomas M. Elvin, TA 3-349; Troop 62 sponsored by Niles Community Church, I.R. John H. Volk, NI 7-8894 and Troop 73 sponsored by St. Isaac Jogues Catholic Church, I.R. Leroy E. Hope, YO 5-2955.

"Live Modern for Less with Gas"

395 series GAS FURNACES Styled by Raymond Loewy

BRILLIANTLY STYLED by the famous designer, Raymond Loewy -- superbly engineered by Bryant, America's foremost home heating and air conditioning specialists -- this new series of furnaces sets new standards in styling, in value, and provides the advanced Bryant quality features you want for years-ahead comfort and dependable performance.

This Bryant equipment assures you top value for your heating dollar. It offers completely automatic heating convenience, with many outstanding features for comfort and economy. Yet, you save money on initial investment... and keep on saving with gratifying economy of operation, year after year.

And if you want to install summer cooling with your Bryant furnace now, or later, the 395 line is expressly designed for easy addition of this all-weather comfort feature.

Here is truly compact, efficient heating for the modern home. You'll like its exclusive summer-winter air circulation... its clean, care-free performance... its fuel-saving economy in every kind of weather. You'll be proud and wise to have this handsome Bryant furnace in your new home.

automatic forced warm air comfort.

Gas Is Cleaner Heat

QUIET OPERATION... Bryant blowers are a unique feature of these furnaces. They are especially designed for ultra-quiet operation with ample capacity to deliver the larger volume of air required for summer air conditioning. The large air delivery opening of these blowers keeps air noise to a minimum. Large, live-rubber mounts isolate the blower and motor from the furnace chassis... dampen operating sound. Belt drive blowers have adjustable pulleys for exact control of air delivery. Blower bearings are packed with the new "plastic E" long life lubricant.

Eagles, Chargers Lead Park Football Leagues

HIGH SCHOOL DIVISION

October 10, 1961

Tuesday afternoon the high school division tightened up. The league leading Cowboys were dumped by the Chargers 35-19, while the Packers beat the Lions 28-19.

Chuck Davis led the Chargers to their most impressive victory by scoring once and passing for four touchdowns and five extra points. The Charger defense was their greatest asset, however, as they contained the explosive Cowboys, Dan Kelly and Ken Scheel, the entire second half.

A long pass, Pat Brennan to Gary Schuetzner, put the Packers into the lead over the Lions after a seesaw 15 minutes. This margin was never relinquished as Schuetzner passed for two Charger touchdowns in the closing period. In this contest the Lions abandoned their running game and John Brennan tossed twice to Dave Schmidt and once to Dennis Macasek for the Lion points.

October 12, 1961

A total of 5 points separated the winners from the losers in the two games played Thursday afternoon in the high school division. These were the closest, thrilling to witness, satisfying for the victors, heartbreaking for the defeated.

The final of the first contest read Lions 21, Cowboys 19. Dan Kelly, the running Cowboy, led his team to a 19-7 halftime lead. The Lions took charge after the rest period and proved themselves best defensively as they stopped Kelly and Ken Scheel, the best point producer in the league. John Brennan, the Lion spark plug, scored twice in the second half and passed to Dennis Macasek and Tom O'Neill for the game winning points after touchdown.

Fierce competition ignited individual rivalries during the second game. When serenity settled on the Grennan Heights Field it was the Chargers over the Packers 35 to 32. The margin of victory was again the extra points. Each team scrambled for five touchdowns, the most spectacular being John Perlon's return of the second half kickoff for the Packers. Charger Chuck Davis had a fine day as he initiated scoring passes to Jerry Thode, Greg Clark, Mike Deegan and Joe Bielski.

Standing (Wk. ending Oct. 13)

W	L	Pts.	Op.Pts.
Chargers 4	2	181	142
Lions 3	3	155	131

GRAMMAR SCHOOL DIVISION

October 9, 1961

Commencement of this weeks activity in the grammar school division of the Niles Park District Touch Football League enabled the Eagles to tighten their grip on first place with a 28 to 14 win over the Rams. The Colts, by downing the Bears 26-13, took undisputed possession of the Monday, October 9, standings of the Monday, October 9, game. With Rick Schmeider throwing and Bill Griffin catching the Eagles moved to an early lead. Ben Panico, the Eagles one man defensive gang, again exerted his pressures to hold this lead. The Rams Tom Zizak connected with Bob Birtle and Stan Drabant for touchdowns that were too late to affect the final outcome of the game.

Mickey McCabe ran the Bears to a 7 to 6 intermission margin over the Colts. This advantage was short lived as Greg Leitner lateraled to Mike Parkinson for a Colt score early in the second period. Greg then crossed the goal line twice on passes from Bob Bender to put the game out of the Bears' reach.

October 11, 1961

With championship play past the halfway mark in the grammar school division the Eagles have mathematical assurance of a first place position. The big battle will be for the runner-up spot.

Wednesday, in one of their toughest struggles, the unbeaten Eagles moved past the Colts 27 to 19. The game was a stalemate until late in the final period when Ben Panico caught Colt Bob Bender behind his own goal line. This gave the Eagles a two point advantage to which they added an insurance touchdown in the final minutes of play.

The Bears and Rams held each other in check the entire first half. The Rams opened the scoring midway in the second half with a Bob Knapstein to Stan Drabant pass. The point after touchdown resulted from a Drabant to Tom Zizak spiral. Greg Simone countered for the Bears with a counter for the Bears. The try for the extra point was nullified by a rule infraction. With 15 seconds remaining on the clock Bear Simone tossed to Greg Semanski in the end zone. Final scores: Bears 12 - Rams 7.

Standings (Wk. ending Oct. 13)

W	L	Pts.	Op.Pts.
Eagles 5	0	136	65
Colts 2	3	91	90
Bears 2	3	65	89

Notre Dame Wins 5th, 12-6

by Dan Lewis

The Notre Dame Dons traveled to Aurora, Illinois Friday night to spoil Marmions homecoming as they beat the Cadets 12 to 6.

The "fighting Dons" did all their scoring in the first quarter. Early in the quarter Larry Raymond a senior from Notre Dame recovered a fumble and scrambled for a touchdown. Dick Gorzynski failed to make the conversion as he was trying to pass to Michael O'Connor and was brought down by Marmon. Notre Dame worked the ball to the 8 yard line and Dick Gorzynski passed to Greg Schilling who was in the end zone for the second touchdown. Again the Dons failed to make the conversion and the score remained 12 to 0 at the end of the first quarter.

Marmon scored their only touchdown in the second quarter on a 5 yard run by Jim Ward. The Cadets failed to make their conversion and the final score remained 12 to 6.

Next Friday night Notre Dame has their homecoming against Immaculate Conception. Last year the Dons beat Immaculate Conception in the final seconds 20 to 14. Notre Dame will be honored in having Mayor Nicholas Blase as one of the judges for the homecoming floats.

All Invited To Niles West Homecoming

The Students' Council of Niles West high school extends an invitation to all the people of the community to participate in any or all the Niles West's first annual Homecoming activities, Friday and Saturday, October 20 and 21.

We hope that in addition to all the Niles West students attending Homecoming events, that all citizens of the community will partake in the gay festivities.

Celebrations begin Friday, October 20, at 5:30 p.m. with a Twilight Pep Rally in the new Niles West stadium, Oakton and Austin. Homecoming queen will be announced for the first time at this special rally.

The Homecoming parade with 35 floats and cars will start at 10:00 a.m. Saturday, October 21, from Niles West high school. The parade route is east from the high school on Oakton to Lincoln; Lincoln south to Pratt; Pratt west to Cicero; Cicero north to Lincoln; Lincoln northwest to Oakton; Oakton west back to the high school campus.

Float winners will receive awards at a special Pre-game ceremony at 1:30 p.m. in the Niles West stadium.

Game time is 2:00 p.m. when the Niles West Indians play the Willowbrook Warriors.

We who are students at Niles West are forming traditions this year since it is the school's first year as a complete four-year high school. We believe this first annual Homecoming will be the best high school Homecoming weekend ever seen in either the Suburban or Interim leagues.

The opera season is about to begin, and there are books on the subject in Niles Public Library for everyone from the novice to the expert.

OPERA AND ITS ENJOYMENT, by Thomas H. Briggs, is the writing of an amateur who began in ignorance, but by long experience has learned to enjoy opera intelligently and aesthetically. Here, the author shares what he has learned. The result is a guide for those who know little about opera but wish to understand and enjoy it. Boris Goldovski, intermission commentator on the Metropolitan Opera Company Saturday broadcasts, said after reading the manuscript, "This book could be read with profit by the many thousands of people who are frightened of opera, as well as by those who are somewhat at a loss regarding it."

Olin Downes says in the introduction to his 10 OPERATIC MASTERPIECES, "There still exists in some quarters, especially in America, the strange impression that opera is a species of exotic entertainment designed primarily for the edification of the rich and socially prominent, with a sprinkling of intellectuals. Opera of course is nothing of the kind. Opera is in its essence one of the oldest, the most instinctive, democratic and popular forms of musical entertainment that humanity knows." With this thought in mind he has selected for discussion ten operas, beginning with Mozart's classic "Marriage of Figaro" and ending with Alban Berg's "Wozzeck", first produced in 1925. By exploring the plot, telling the history of the work, quoting the music, and discussing the characters and style, he shows how each reflects the period in which it was written, and yet has something of importance for our own age.

OPERA: ORIGINS AND SIDELIGHTS, by Ruth Berges, starts where other books on opera stop. It does not contain synopses of plots, of famous singers, dates of performances and the like. What it does is to take the music lover backstage, to present him with behind-the-scenes information about the operas designed to augment his listening pleasure and increase his understanding of operas, their composers, and their backgrounds. Ruth Berges, a well-known writer on musical subjects, has delved deep into the operatic past to find the answers to puzzling questions about plot and character, or to uncover little-known facts about the lives of their composers. Miss Berges has not confined her researches to the well-known operas alone; her book spans the whole range from Pergolesi to Berg, from the popular "La Traviata" to the almost obscure "Cenozoia." She tackles such problems as the significance of the three riddles in "Turando", Orpheus' lyre in myth and religion, the history of Carmen's ancestors, the identity of the prototype of the Duke of Mantua in "Rigoletto", Lohengrin's swan in mythology, and the emergence of the character of Iago. There are chapters, too, about the mysterious Koechel, Mozart's devoted cataloguer about the personal yearning of Beethoven expressed in Fidelio; and about the autobiographical strains in "The Tales of Hoffmann". Combining drama, comedy, dance, and colorful visual delights in addition to magnificent music, opera is without doubt the most popular of serious musical forms.

United Crusade Aiming For $130,000

Skokie Valley United Crusaders, driving hard to raise the $130,000 needed by the 10 local Red Feather agencies in Golf, Lincolnwood, Morton Grove, Niles and Skokie, have received more than 80,000 gift dollars to exceed all nine previous United Way drives.

"We are tremendously proud of our hard-working volunteers and the generosity of contributors," said Bernard L. Marsh, general chairman of the 10th annual united community campaign. "We are on our way to victory for the voluntary organizations whose services are so important to our people and community. Their needs will be met if every crusader continues his efforts and all our people and institutions contribute."

"All of us," said Marsh, "should be aware that this is one community campaign for several organizations, that only money given here in our five towns helps finance these, our own service agencies."

"While each of the 10 organizations merits our interest and help, Orchard School for Retarded Children in Skokie, provides a program for very special little guys and gals that we should not fail to support."

"If all of us give locally to our own community drive and work for one united campaign as volunteers, the number of fund-raising projects will be reduced," the general chairman observed.

Letters To The Editor

It turns up in drug stores, soda fountains and other places where children assemble. Ban the stores? (Not a bad idea.)

Your emphasis on physical well being with plenty of parks, free medical care for prevention of physical ailments and the like are fine, but for myself I think Mayor Blase and the Chief of Police are in the right. Pseudo liberals not withstanding.

A Hypocrite

Dear Mr. Besser:

I'd like to say I was surprised at your editorial today but I really wasn't. It only shows what a hypocrite you are and have been.

Your past editorials professing to be interested in the youth of Niles all have been coverups to serve your purpose.

On parks, it was your paper that defeated the first bond issue, and didn't help the last two. You got Mr. Jacobs defeated however and you still cry for new park action when you know a vote for the parks in this town is a dead issue. Your guilt complex?

Preceding the last Village election, your editorials on gambling and multiple dwellings served your purpose. You helped defeat Mayor Stankowicz by blowing the gambling situation away out of proportion. The school kids were losing their lunch money in the pinball machines when one tavern owner at a village meeting said he counted on these machines to pay his rent.

Your opposition to multiple dwellings in our village was profound, yet when I asked your support on three separate occasions in behalf of School District No. 63 you said a land owner is entitled to build whatever he wanted to, irregardless of its original zoning. I forgot the election was over.

Once again you worry about our young people and want them to read this low literature and condition themselves for it. Your anti-smut ordinances and for protecting the mercenary people that deal in this literature and hide behind the first amendment as the hoods hide behind the fifth.

Police Chief Emrikson and Mayor Blase deserve our admiration for their quick action and at a time when they need our backing your hypocrisy shows.

Please cancel my subscription to The Bugle and keep your editorials.

Frank Samuelson
8533 N. Ozark Ave.

Ed. Answer:

1. The Bugle opposed the Waukegan park bond issue because we did not believe it was the proper location for the plans in the referendum, and most important, did not believe children should have to cross such a hazardous intersection. On both park bond issues behind the Oak School we supported them with similar front-page editorials.

2. New park action will soon be forthcoming, the issue is not dead, and our "guilt complex" may yet be overcome.

3. We helped defeat Mayor Stankowicz because under his administration gambling flourished, multiple dwellings abounded and Niles remained parkless.

4. The only statement I ever made to you about multiples was I was stumped as to what could be done to stop the multiples since the courts were consistently allowing builders to use their land "for its highest and best use".

Your emotional presumptions over lewd literature is pocked with misstatements. Our only point last week was that we did not want the 1st amendment abrogated. It is a dangerous precedent when public officials can use their power, without any supporting laws, to usurp the very laws which were created to prevent such tactics.

As for our past intentions and purposes I was one of 3 persons in Niles who tried for one year to further a Niles Youth Council for aiding the recreational needs of Niles teens. I was among an initial six or seven persons who created the Niles Citizens Committee. The Committee was greatly responsible for the pressure which resulted in the Park bond issues, and was the only group in Niles which actually petitioned the village, opposing multiples. I was also one of about ten people which created the Citizens Committee For Better Education in school District 63.

Was "Flipped"

Mr. Besser:

I've read your newspaper for about one and a half years and have gone along with most of your news items and editorials whether I agreed or not, but this last paper really flipped me.

I happened to be at the last Village meeting Tuesday night and thought both issues you wrote about in your editorial were handled very well there.

For one thing we have 5 boys, two are old enough to go to the newstands and buy magazines. I was very happy the Police Chief confiscated "Tropic of Cancer." My boys I think and hope know not to buy such books BUT while they are scanning through magazines and books they can buy, this and other books like it are right next to the decent ones. I think its too bad there are other ones, not quite so bad, still left on stands and racks, they should do away with all of them and Niles and other suburbs would be a better place to live. I guess you think it's the parents job to teach the child I agree, however, why do they have to be tempted every time they turn around. My husband and I and I'm sure many, many other parents do our best to watch and teach our children what's right. We watch what they do, read, and associate with, but you can't do this 24 hours a day and many times temptation, especially when it's thrown in their face as you have helped

The Jefferson P.T.A. has scheduled the first of five, all color, children's movies for October 21st.

The movie will be shown at 10:00 A.M. and again at 2:00 P.M., and as always the usual popcorn and Koolade will be sold by the committee.

The movies selected this year are particularly desirable for children and we are sure they will thoroughly be enjoyed.

The project is under the direction of Mr. Dan Tracy, Ways and Means. Chairman of the P.T.A.

But It's Latent So Far-

OPPOSITION TO NEW H.S. FORMING

by Richard C. Wessell
Editor and Publisher
Des Plaines Journal

Public sentiment, as expressed in everyday conversations, in newspaper letters to the editor and in other public forums, gives indication that strong opposition may be developing to the proposed $6,800,000 Maine township referendum set for Nov. 18.

The board of education is asking approval of its decision to build a new Maine Township High School South in Park Ridge for $3,300,000 and a fieldhouse for Maine High school West in Des Plaines at an estimated cost of $3,500,000.

In this writer's opinion, opposition at this stage of the game—voluntarily suppressed for the most part—is the strongest of any school building referendum here in at least the past 15 years. Only one other time, when a proposed addition to Maine East was defeated first time around and later okayed, has as much opposition been manifest.

CRITICISM so far has mainly centered around the $6,300,000 cost of the proposed Maine South. But, the need for a fieldhouse at Maine West is also under fire in some quarters.

Statements by the "man on the street" as well as by some whose background gives them at least some right to comment on specifics, claim that the new school could be built for much less.

Standing in an erect position behind most anti-opinions on this subject is the spectre of increased real estate taxes. With school costs accounting for more than half of the real estate tax bills the public is looking harder than ever for ways to keep bills from mounting.

R. A. Galloway, of Park Ridge strikes an often-heard note when he says: "I am aware that a new high school is definitely needed in our district... I believe that frills, and a country club atmosphere are completely unnecessary, especially when it inflates the cost of a school building to $8.2 million dollars."

Galloway then produces a letter which he has reprinted from an official of the school housing section of the department of health, education, and welfare in Washington, D.C., in which the official states it is difficult to give estimates of school costs without knowing about the particular school problem, and something of the quality of school facilities the people in the community want and for which they are willing to pay.

HE CITES varying costs for different kinds of structures but estimates school construction costs in Illinois for a high school of 3,000 pupils and containing 240,000 sq. ft. of space at "about $14 a square foot." Maine South would house about 3,000, would contain 399,000 sq. ft. and would cost about $20.50 per sq. ft.

From our conversations with various school groups, including school architects, and businesses that perform services for high schools such as estimating building values for insurance purchases, two things have become apparent:

1. The cost of high schools DOES depend on what the taxpayers are willing to pay, and

2. Some school districts are able to build very attractive schools for less money than others—even the they might be in the same general geographic area.

One expert (in an allied field) stressed the point that school costs can be cut sharply "if school boards will only sit on architects." In his opinion some contacting your club block captain or calling Mrs. Condron, YO 7-5298.

Teachers, officers and members of the Committee on Christian Education will meet tonight at 8:00 P.M.

Proceeds will benefit the St. John Brebeuf building fund.

Charley Kozak

At Traffic School

Sergeant Charles B. Kozak, Niles Police Department, was one of forty-one police officers that completed a three-week course in accident investigation-administration and techniques on September 29 at the Traffic Institute, Northwestern University, Evanston, Illinois.

Officers attending the course were given instruction in how to improve accident investigation training methods in their departments, how to gather more effective accident data, and how to achieve more efficient supervision of their accident investigation programs.

OPPOSITION TO NEW H.S. FORMING

school architects have tendencies to "built monuments to themselves" with little regard to cost.

High school board officials here claim that teachers, parents, and students were asked to assist in preliminary planning for Maine South. "This type of cooperative staff planning resulted in an economical, functional, flexible design."

What's more, the board points out in a booklet, "efforts have been made to economize at Maine South. There will be only one swimming pool, the auditorium will have a seating capacity of 900" (Maine East auditorium accommodates 1,500, Maine West, 1,284).

"The watchword," the board report states, "has been conservative construction, maximum student capacity, and the finest learning facilities for the least money."
