From The Left Hand

The 1 1/2 year old Niles VILLAGE Democrats met last week, and naturally began jockeying for the upcoming April village election. Roughly twelve trustee candidates names were submitted for screening and the results of this action should be known before the January 21 filing date.

As of this date it has not been publicly expressed whether or not the group will actively present a slate of candidates, and then campaign for same. It is our guess the group will recommend their preference and then let all the candidates go "helter-skelter" in forming their own tickets.

Actually, what is the Niles VILLAGE Democrats? The steering group consists of two or three Niles Township Ray Krier members, three or four Maine Township Tom Bradley men, and four non-aligned (so they say) Niles village Democrats.

Since the group was conceived after the New Era upset two years ago, it has been our opinion that the group was created to enable the Township Democrats to maintain a foothold in Niles. The New Era victory knocked out the professional politicians, and their patronage hanger-oners, and the formation of the group was a reaction to this.

Viewing the group's dormant activity, except around election time, we have a speaking hunch the group is merely being used by the old Stankowicz-Reschke Niles Township forces to further their own ends. These men are the professional politicians in our village, and the formation of the group can best perpetuate their interests. We have an equally speaking hunch that the group is merely using the amateurs in the group to springboard the professionals back into the political limelight here.

Mayor Nick Blase, who "voluntarily" withdrew from the group soon after its formation, said he is a member of the Maine Township Democrats, but has nothing to do with the Village Demos. Blase leaves the impression that his former adversaries, Mayor Stankowicz, and friends are calling the signals there.

We might add that it looks like the less aggressive Maine Township Demos in the village group are unwittingly being used by Reschke-Stankowicz and their more professional Niles Township precinct captains.

Mayor Blase To Speak On Radio Station

On January 15, 1963, between the hours of 7:35 p.m. and 8:00 p.m., our Mayor Nicholas B. Blase will be heard live on radio station WIND, on the program "THE MAYOR SPEAKS". He will discuss general issues of the Village of Niles, and will be available to answer any questions you may have which you can telephone into him on that night. If you wish to call, you can do so by dialing NI 7-8485, and the questions will be forwarded directly to the radio station.

Political Periscope

Beginning this week THE BUGLE will periscope latest political developments in Niles.

For Village Trustee: A, incumbent JOHN STANLEY will run as an independent. B, incumbent JOHN FOESCHL will not run for office. C, incumbent SAM BRUNO-while undecided may also run as an Independent.

New Candidates:
1. Zoning Board member BILL ZIMOS—a sure-fire bet to run for one of the three openings. ZIMOS was New Era campaign manager in last election. He will likely be on same ticket with MARGE LIESKE.

2. Perennial candidate BEN SOSNOWSKI admits he would very much like to run for trustee post. He is an active Niles Township Democrat and would run with STANKOWICZ if ticket was formed.

3. JOHN SAPIT—Maine Township precinct captain for Democrats—ran unsuccessfully on STANKOWICZ ticket last time—will run as an Independent this time.

4. ANTHONY LOIACONO, 8647 Oketo, unsuccessful park

Would Raise Taxes 15¢ Per $100 Valuation

Voters in High School District 207 have an important decision to make on Saturday, January 12.

The proposal before them is an increase of 15¢—from $1.06 to $1.21 per $100 of assessed valuation—in the ceiling of the educational tax levy. Polls will be open from 12 noon to 7 pm.

An urgent appeal for voter approval of the proposal was made by Leslie S. Strom of Des Plaines and Walter S. Christopher of Park Ridge, co-chairmen of the Maine Township High Schools Committee.

"Maintenance of sound educational standards is at stake in this election," they said in a joint statement. "As citizens and parents we have an obligation to provide our young people with adequate teaching staffs and school facilities. We can not evade this responsibility. We are confident that when the voters understand how serious the need is for the moderate increase in the tax rate ceiling, they will take the time and trouble to go to the polls and vote 'Yes' on the proposal."

In three previous elections a similar proposal was rejected—the last two times by very narrow margins. As a result the school budget has dropped deeper into the red, because of additions to the teaching staffs made necessary by a steadily rising student enrollment. In the last two years student enrollment has increased by 1,046 and school officials say there is no end in sight.

School Board President Walter T. Craigie also expressed hope that voters would approve the proposal. He said the board had always tried to operate economically. However, faced with deficits, the board at the last meeting took some budget-cutting steps to hold down high school operating costs, and he pointed out that even more drastic cutbacks are inevitable unless the educational tax rate ceiling is raised.

In the face of an expected increase of 550 in student enrollment next school year, no more than 10 new teachers are to be hired—half the number normally required for that large an increase. This means loading each teacher with more students. The board has also ordered a 10 per cent cut in next year's budget for school supplies and equipment, and a 10 per cent reduction in expenses for such items as heat-

An appreciation of paintings, sculpture, and music may be enhanced through the use of literature. Some books for children and teen-agers give background information and others suggest techniques for improving skill.

In A PICTORIAL HISTORY OF MUSIC, by Messers, Paul H. Lang and Otto L. Bettmann, the teen-ager will find, spread out before him in more than 600 illustrations, a panoramic view of one man's most important and creative worlds: the world of music. Its illustrations include examples and photographs—by important artists. Each era of music history is illustrated by pictures which are contemporary with the material being discussed, so that we see how Guillaume de Machaut looked to a miniaturist of the 14th century and how Stravinsky looked to Picasso. In addition to the portraits of musicians and composers, the authors have included illustrations of instruments reproductions of manuscript music, views of the physical surroundings in which composers worked, stage settings in which music was performed—in short, all the things which help to bring a composer and his work to life.

The material covered—2500 years of music history—ranges from early Greek music to the work of the present-day composers. The author of the text, Mr. Lang, discusses pertinent biographical information, explains musical forms, indicates the relationships of social and literary ideas to the history of music, and shows the part each composer has played in the pageant of music through the years. The teen-ager who seeks to understand what music means and how its history developed will find this text's authority and perception invaluable.

This unique book has been made possible by the collaboration of two authorities well-known in their respective fields: Paul Lang is professor of Musicology at Columbia University and Music Critic of the New York Herald Tribune, and Otto Bettmann is a graphic historian, founder and director of the Bettmann Archive, and collaborator with Van Wyck Brooks on the outstanding book entitled OUR LITERARY HERITAGE. The text of the book is marked by Dr. Lang's gift of elucidating scholarship in a highly evocative style. His broad cultural concepts have made his MUSIC IN WESTERN CIVILIZATION a fine one volume survey of music in English, and the text of that book has been basically followed for the present book. The molding of the abridged text and the pictures into the present book has been the work of Mr. Bettmann, who has drawn on libraries and museums the world over for illustrations that appear in the book.

A CHILD'S HISTORY OF ART, by Messrs. V.M. Hilmyer and

E.G. Huey is a lively and appealing history of art for children in grades 5-8. It presents the whole panorama of painting, sculpture, and architecture throughout the ages and has for its object the rousing of interest of children in the world's masterpieces of art.

Give 11 Reasons For A Village Court

(This is a News Release from the Village of Niles)

Vote X for A VILLAGE COURT for Niles, Saturday, January 26, 1963. Eleven reasons for a VILLAGE COURT for Niles:

1. The establishment of a Village Court in Niles will bring the Village prestige and recognition and give the community a reputation for aggressiveness in dealing with its residents needs for a modern court system void of delay and political interferences.

2. A Village Court in Niles will make available speedy and impartial justice to both innocent and guilty, in civic and criminal cases. Citizens will not have to wait years for their cases to come to trial as is now the situation in our Cook County courts.

3. Village Court rules can eliminate dilatory tactics through change of venue, continuances and other devices now used in County Courts and expedite justice.

4. A Village Court will permit area residents to have a more convenient court for many more types of cases than now available under the present magistrate system. Divorce, equity, accident cases and many other types of matters will be heard locally instead of downtown.

5. Village Court judge's salary is paid by the State instead of the Village as is the case of the magistrate.

6. In the Village Court system the court revenue is retained but the Court reporter, bailiff or deputy sheriff are paid by the County, only the clerk of the court is paid by the Village.

7. Jurors will be supplied and paid by the County instead of the Village.

8. The Village Court will not increase taxes because the court will retain all present income and have additional revenue from a broader jurisdiction. This has been the experience of other local Village Courts adopted recently.

9. Loss of man hours and auto expenses of police officers having to travel to Chicago or another community to prosecute Village arrests will be eliminated if a Village Court is established.

10. A Village Court Judge must be an attorney and cannot practice law while serving as Judge.

Nilehi Teachers Become Authors

Two Niles West science teachers, who last summer experimented with the team teaching approach in biology during the seven-week Niles summer school program, became authors recently when the December issue of the magazine The American Biology Teacher carried their article describing the experience.

Teachers James Winleman and Hans Andersen combined their scientific skills and academic backgrounds last summer to teach their summer school classes as one large combined group.

According to the article, the principal goal of the experiment was to explore the possibilities of how team teaching could enrich the one year biology course being taught in the 34 summer school days. Each day consisted of the four-and-a-half-hours morning session. Ten two-hour afternoon lab sessions were held also during the summer school.

Originally planning to team teach the course for the first time.

Letters To The Editor

Questions, Answers Surrounding Maine Hi Tax Levy

Questions

Craigle

Open Letter to the President of the Maine High School Board of Education:

Dear Mr. Craigle:

In order to permit effective action by an informed electorate when the voters of Maine Township decide the issue of a 15-cent increase in the educational fund tax ceiling Saturday, Jan. 12, we respectfully submit that they should know your answers to these questions:

- 1. Do you intend to delay as long as possible the levying of any increased educational fund tax in the event the authority you seek is granted?
2. If you do so intend, are you going to exercise your statutory authority to pay ALL...

custodial, maintenance, utility operation and other such costs out of the building fund, a step which we estimate will free approximately $550,000 a year to devote to truly educational expenses?

3. Further, are you going to establish and implement immediately a policy of ending subsidies to community service and other side activities, such as adult evening classes, summer school, cafeteria, and driver training, and make them self-sustaining so that this drain on the educational fund, estimated conservatively by us at $40,000 a year, will cease?

4. Are you ready to endeavor to establish a joint purchasing system in collaboration with other school districts in order to effect further economies?

Copies of this letter are being provided to those concerned in order that it may aid your answers to relay to the voters,

Sincerely, Daniel Sullivan Edward Zuchowski

Craigle Answers

This is a reply from Mr. Walter Craigle, President of the Maine High School Board of Education.

1. Yes, the school board has always delayed adding any taxes to the taxpayer. In this case we are almost two years beyond the point of need, we believe it wise, however, to make up the deficit we now have in the Educational Fund. Your school board has always pared every unnecessary cost out of its budget and always will as long as I have any authority...

on the board. We must, however, educate the 450 to 550 additional students sent us every year.

2. On the surface this sounds like a good idea but aren't we kidding ourselves when we talk about juggling money from one account to the other? After all, this money comes from the taxpayers and whether you take it from one pocket or the other, it is still the taxpayer's dollar. It should be remembered that the Legislature gave permission to divert the building fund for custodial expenses relatively recently in order to relieve schools in distressed areas. While we feel we can use this permissive provision in emergencies, it is sound policy in the long run to use the building fund for building repairs and improvements.

Wholesale diversion of the building fund to pay current operating expenses would create new problems. Without some surplus in this fund, what would happen when an emergency arises, such as a heating plant in one of the schools going bad or the field house at Maine East needing tuckpointing? The only course left would be to borrow money and pay more of the taxpayer's money in interest. With the millions of dollars the taxpayers have invested in buildings, their investments must be protected. Emergencies occur and repairs are continually needed and they cost money.

The accounting practices in District 207 are in full conformity with the legislation enacted by the General Assembly of Illinois prescribing a system of financial accounting for local school systems. The independent auditing firm which reviewed the books for last year certified that we accounted for expenses in accordance...

with the law.

3. The high school board is NOT subsidizing student and community services. Let me quote from the C.F.A., audit of the high school's 1961-1962 school year: Receipts from Student and Community Services: $768,954.85 Disbursements: $729,356.17

This is $48,598.68 in the black instead of in the red. This is adequate to cover any expenses, such as, light, heat, and custodial fees that might be prorated to these services. (As a matter of fact the cafeterias in the two schools showed an excess of $27,130.19, the adult evening school showed an excess of $4,215.79, and the bookstores an excess of $2,269.62)

4. Again, this sounds like a good idea, but here are the facts. Joint purchasing is being done by some smaller school districts. However, Maine Township High Schools' needs are such that we purchase at wholesale prices and for less money that the joint purchasing groups. The added costs of individual billing and drop shipping in the joint purchasing groups prevents them from realizing the lower prices paid by Maine.

CONCLUSION

Your High School Board of Education is made up of experienced men and women who are also taxpayers themselves. They have been elected by the people of District 207 to run the High School system wisely and economically. This is exactly the way your School Board is endeavoring to run your high schools.

The average cost per pupil in the 20 school districts in...

Cook County (outside of Chicago) is $786. The cost per pupil at Maine was $748 (latest available figures). Every economy is being affected that will not seriously injure the education being given to the boys and girls of this community.

I sincerely hope, Mr. Sullivan and Mr. Zuchowski, that after you read this and understand the facts, you will support the Educational Fund Levy on Saturday, January 12, and vote "Yes."

Teachers

two weeks only, the authors said they extended the program because they were encouraged by the satisfactory results and wished to obtain more valid judgements.

The authors explained that for the first week the two classes met separately to permit each teacher to become acquainted with his students. Thereafter, however, the combined classes met daily for lecture and discussion. Laboratory sessions were conducted separately because lab facilities were not large enough to accommodate the combined group.

Student reaction to being taught by two teachers was very favorable, the authors said, and most students indicated they preferred two teachers to one and felt that they could learn as much in the large group as in the small group.

Both teachers concluded that the experiment was beneficial and that in many ways and in the proper situation, team teaching may be a step forward in the teaching of biology.

ing, lighting, and telephone service.

If the proposal to raise the educational tax rate ceiling is turned down again, Mr. Craigie said the board must decide what cutbacks should be made in special classes, the athletic program, driver training, the music program, etc.

Such projects as the proposed building of the Maine West Gym, which the board had planned to do from building funds, would have to be put off indefinitely, Mr. Craigie said, because building funds would have to be used to partially balance the educational fund.

Mr. Craigie said many people mistakenly believe that building of Maine South is the reason for the requested increase in the educational tax ceiling. He emphasized that the higher ceiling is needed even if Maine South were not to be built. The educational fund, he pointed out, is not used for maintenance of buildings, payment of interest and repayment of bonds for building construction or for building additions.

About 70 per cent of the educational fund is for teacher salaries. Income from this fund also provides for other high school operating expenses, including administrative, custodian and clerical salaries, instructional supplies, heating, light, etc.

The educational fund was $52,104 short at the end of the 1961-1962 school year, and will be about $284,000 in the red by the end of the 1962-63 school year. The deficit will continue to pile up unless the proposal to be voted on January 12 is approved, Mr. Craigie said.

The school board points out that about 10 cents of the proposed 15-cent increase in the tax ceiling would actually be needed in 1964, when the increase, if approved, could become effective. The full 15 cents would probably be needed the following year, to level off the budget.

of this year."

The new year 1963 is destined to be the biggest year for the ILG PARK YMCA Building Project, 6300 Touhy. "We have a big job to finish and we believe we can do it this year," said Alexander St. John, Y Board Chairman. Speaking further, he said, "All things considered, I believe that our many campaign leaders did an outstanding job throughout 1962. Their dedicated efforts have brought the total of funds secured to nearly $1,900,000 about two-thirds of the goal. With an extremely heavy schedule of fund raising programs and activities facing us in the next few months our expectation is that continued generous results will enable us to begin heavy construction during the summer or fall Community campaigns in Niles, Skokie, Morton Grove, Lincolnwood, Golf, and Sauganash are being readied for action during the months of January through June. Many more industrial contacts are planned also by Y leaders.

The combined population of the areas to be served by the new Y totals over 175,000 at present. The communities are still growing and the families and organizations will really need the facilities and programs to be offered by the Y. 1963 is the year to help the Y finish its building fund assignment. Your leadership and generosity will make it possible.

significant in April is the village clerk race. It has all the ingredients of a pyrotechnic battle. In the one corner a blond, flashy female, Marge Lieske, our present clerk, will be backed by Niles four new New Era officials. In the other corner a sedate, warm and charming Ex-Mayor of 20 years, Frank Stankowicz, will joust, with seconds from the political professionals of the Scouty Krieger gym, backing him.

Lieske will have good support. But she has handicaps which will have to be overcome. Because she's a female she will have an obstacle which confronts all woman politicians. Unconsciously, voters may resist voting for a woman. Being a dynamic blond, again she may meet resistance from women voters who measure a woman candidate a little differently than men voters. No matter how successful she may administer her present office, these overhandicaps are real.

Stankowicz too, will have good support. And he too, has handicaps which must be overcome. While he rode the Mayor's chair, gambling flourished in the village. Under his administration Niles had the worst reputation of any village in this area. During the Stankowicz years the multiple dwelling invasion in Niles burdened district 63 schools and increased tax bills there sizeably. In neighboring Morton Grove, in the same school district, not one multiple dwelling was built. During the Stankowicz years buildings ran the village. And during this reactionary period, not one park referendum was ever passed. Ironically, the very men surrounding Stankowicz, actively fought the creation of parks in Niles.

Thus, the village clerk battle will once again place Niles old era against the New Era. And next April's vote should indicate which way the political pendulum will swing in 1965.
