having music instrument lessons in the elementary grades. At her instigation it was brought out in a letter from Maine High Superintendent Witte, that only a token band orchestra program would be had in the future because of the lack of musicians coming from district 63. When Maine South is completed students from Park Ridge will move there, thus creating a music gap at the school.

The Board unanimously approved an instrument music program for children in the 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th grades. It is expected children will pay $1 per week for one lesson a week at the junior high location and some of the grade schools. Mrs. Makela, president of the Oaktown P.T.A., said there is a "drastic starvation of music students" in the area, and that there is little time for preparation before the children get into the high school bracket. She added that there are only 7 incoming freshmen from district 63 with music background.

Mrs. Makela said neighboring school children are placed in rhythm bands in the early grades, use lipophones by the 4th grade, and begin musical instruments by the fifth grade. Superintendent Bagg cited obstacles for such a program, which included conducting a music program in a haphazard way and not having proper teachers for the children. However, he was in agreement with the pro-will be a lieutenant on full time duty. Two of the top men will be promoted. The two men heading the present list are Paul Waldin and Frank Lemanski.

The matter concerning the bids for the ambulance station wagon will be brought up at the next meeting.

Tr. Scheel suggested that there be no rubbish pickup for one month from this coming Fri. until the new dump-car be used so that the Public Works Dept. can clean up. Blase said this would cause too much embarrassment and inconvenience to the village.

In charge of all preparations are Mrs. Leon Friedman, President; Mrs. William McEnerney, membership chairman; and Mrs. William Ahrens, social chairman. Hostesses in attendance will be Mrs. Philip Bergeron, Mrs. David Besser, Mrs. Adeline Blake, Mrs. Nicholas Blase, Mrs. Estelle Boyk, Mrs. Stephen Ciesol, Mrs. Steve Chameraski, Mrs. Jack Class, Mrs. Clarence Culver, Mrs. William Egan, Mrs. Max Gilarion and Mrs. John Zaremba.

Blase suggested that a check be made to see if any legal statement existed to force doctors to respond to emergency calls.

Reports from the Mayor's committee met in Elmwood Park, and Mayor Blase was included in a newly-appointed committee. A resolution was passed to withhold the resolution until the Board of Trustees have had a chance to study the matter further.

It was reported the presentation of the Niles Little Theatre was very successful with an attendance of 600.

It was suggested that the finance committee study the general income and taxes for the village.

Mayor Blase made a suggestion, similar to the Visiting Nurses Association, which has medical facilities available for people who can't afford the expense, that some group or organization check on senior citizens, who need care, by phoning them daily to see how they are and to improve their morale.

It was reported that a Cook County Assessor mobile unit will be available to discuss taxes intelligently with residents of the township, but no date for it has been set.

In old business, Tr. Scheel moved that the request of Mr. Shapiro, who wants relief from renting his multiples to senior citizens, be refused, but this was not passed. Tr. Bruno moved that during a six month's greed to pull down most of the wire (at Monday's meeting). Again, it happened because one resident took the time and effort to correct an obvious error.

One Mayor, trustee, school board member, or every day Joe Citizen, with one idea can move mountains in a small town. Unlike the big city, where one resident's voice is often lost in the wilderness, that same voice can ring loud and clear in suburbia. Getting thru the mire and muck of big city politics is often insurmountable. But, sounding off in suburbia, USA, by one resident with one idea, can make your community a better place to live. The aforementioned residents, all your neighbors, had one idea, and put it to use. There's still loads of room in our area for one more idea from each one of you to make Niles-Morton Grove a better place to live. Why not add your voice to your community?

County Board president Seymour Simon has noted that most Chicago-suburbs do not have any air pollution ordinances. Recently the County Board passed an ordinance covering the unincorporated areas, which provides for the licensing fuel-burning equipment other than automobiles, boats, buses and trucks and also set standards for smoke emission and allows no open fires except by special permit.

Simon mentioned that the Illinois General Assembly has a bill pending before it which would give the county the right to establish penalties for violations of such an ordinance. With this in mind, he said he believed the suburbs might want to actively engage in this fight.

The fight against the dirt in the air has been fought in Chicago for many years. Years ago housewives were aware of this problem when they saw the soot which covered their laundry.

Back in 1930 Chicago had 300 tons of dust fall every month in an area of one square mile. According to the Department of Air Pollution Control, the 1962 figure is 43 tons per square mile per month.

Many scientists contend this polluting of the air should actually be considered poisoning the air. And the gaseous molecules may well prove to have a link with lung cancer, which many authorities in the sciences have hinted at. Other diseases such as asthma, bronchitis and the common cold, all respiratory diseases, may have a definite link to these air poisons.

The smog which killed hundreds in London in 1962 was claimed to be caused by sulphur dioxide, a product of coal and oil combustion, which can be produced by both home and industrial plants as well as industrial furnaces.

These problems which are not new, but which the public is becoming increasingly aware of, should be the concern of all law-making bodies. Rachel Carson's warnings of pesticide dangers, and the increased water pollution problems, caused by detergents, industrial and home-used detergents, presents problems to all of us which were not a public concern only a short time ago.

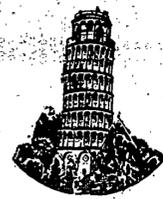

In our small towns we have the control to regulate as we choose, and to control our destinies. A very careful study of these aforementioned problems are necessary for the health of our children as well as of ourselves.

Niles and Morton Grove police and firemen aided in the rescue of ten workmen who were injured Tuesday when forms for a roof slab collapsed under the weight of freshly poured cement at a suburban Park Ridge construction site.

Most of the workmen plunged 14 feet - along with shoring, cement and debris, to the second floor of a two-story building. None was seriously injured.

The building is an addition which will provide expanded office and equipment space for Middle States Telephone Co. of Illinois, 32 S. Fairview, Park Ridge. The company serves that suburb, Des Plaines and surrounding area.

Park Ridge Building Comm. Kenneth C. Cunningham asserted that the cause of the accident at the addition, south of the phone company's present three-story building, was due to "insufficient shoring or shoring improperly placed."

The accident occurred at 8:44 a.m. Police and fire department equipment rushed to the scene to find the men covered with cement on the second floor.

Rescuers used a fire department hook and ladder truck to get the injured men down. Some were given oxygen after having their faces covered with wet cement. It took nearly an hour to extricate all the men, police said.

The injured were taken to Lutheran General Hospital.

Park Ridge police gave this description of the accident:

Eight of the men were on the roof forms spreading cement that had been brought up in buckets.

The forms collapsed under the weight of some 6-1/4 yards of cement, carrying the eight men to the second floor where a ninth workman, De Pillo, had been working.

Holland, a carpenter, had been on the roof slab, but grabbed onto a corner of the addi-

TV Star To Entertain At Wilkins School Of Music

Guitar enthusiasts from the area will have an opportunity to hear one of the top interpreters of guitar music at the Wilkins School of Music and Dance, 9014 Waukegan Rd., Morton Grove, on Thursday, September 12.

Andy Nelson, the "Victor Borgia" of the guitar, will entertain at a 7:00 p.m. and 8:00 p.m. performance, to which the public is invited.

A versatile performer, Nelson is back at the school by popular demand after appearing recently at a concert in honor of the Wilkins School students prior to their departure for Illinois State Fair competition.

He will also demonstrate how guitar music can be expanded and further stylized by use of new amplification systems and new guitar styles. His performance will include a clinic on "What's New In Guitar."

Nelson has played on radio and tv on WLS, where he appeared with George Gobel and toured with the WLS road show; with Dave Garroway on NBC;

Ray Wilkins is director of the school which in two years has become one of the northern suburbs' most important centers of training in the music and dance arts.

Illinois Childrens Home And Aid Society Offers Information On Child Adoption

While there still are not enough babies for everyone, it's considerably easier to adopt a baby now than it was a few years ago.

This statement was made by Miss Rita Duckette, director of the adoption services division of the Illinois Children's Home and Aid Society, in the summer issue of the Society's publication, "HomeLife for Children."

Why is it easier to adopt? Are there more babies available? Have adoption agencies lowered standards?

"We continue to have more applicants than babies. Yet it is true that due to changing population trends the number of babies available for adoption has increased while the number of couples seeking to adopt a baby has declined," Miss Duckette explained.

"It means that there now are fewer couples asking for each baby."

Miss Duckette told that the Society, the largest non-sectarian child care agency in the state, has made efforts to simplify the adoption process and eliminate red tape without sacrificing good service to the children and couples applying.

Long ago the Illinois Children's Home and Aid Society did away with waiting lists and rigid requirements. The Society encourages all young couples interested in adopting a child to call. While all couples cannot be helped, the Society is able to inform applicants with a reasonable length of time about the likelihood of the Society placing a baby with them. If it does not look like there will be a baby for them, they are encouraged to try another adoption agency.

"Because permanent homes are needed for children of every race and nationality we hope interested couples of all racial and national backgrounds will come to us," Miss Duckette said.

What does the Society look for in couples seeking to adopt a child?

The Society looks for couples who are happy contented people who could accept and love an adopted child as their own. They should have been married long enough to be adjusted to living together, and should have made medical investigations of their inability to have a child of their own. Also, they should be able to add the member to the family without undue financial strain.

The Society will place more than one child with a family and a couple is not ruled out as prospective adoptive parents if they have a child of their own and, because of inability to have more children, would like to increase the size of their family by adoption.

For more information, interested couples are urged to telephone the Society's adoption intake caseworker at Whitehall 4-3313, or write to the Adoption Division, 112 North Dearborn Street, Chicago 10, Illinois. It is privately supported by contributions. It is certified by the State of Illinois Department of Mental Health and is endorsed by the Chicago Association of Commerce and Industry.

Area Captains Named For Cystic Fibrosis Drive

Area Captains who have been named to the Chicago and 1963 Cystic Fibrosis Fund Drive, September 1-15, have been announced by David Shapiro, General Chairman.

The Chicago Chapter of the National Cystic Fibrosis Research Foundation has set a goal of $100,000 to aid in the fight against the mysterious lung and digestive disease affecting one of every 600 local children, half of whom will die before they become five years old.

The fund will be used to assist in the early diagnosis and treatment of little CF victims, as well as in research and in the training of doctors.

One of the most expensive diseases to treat, CF is a heavy financial burden on a family, and equipment for a single child including small compressors for inhalation use, plastic masks, and large high humidity tents adaptable for the use of oxygen and humidifiers, costing nearly $400.00.

According to Mrs. Donald

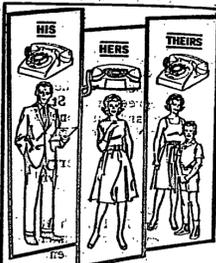

Williams, of Clarendon Hills, Chicago CF Chapter president, there are hundreds of known cases in the Chicago area, and perhaps thousands of undetected cases.

Governor Otto Kerner has proclaimed the entire month of September to be Cystic Fibrosis Month, and Richard J. Dally, Mayor of Chicago, has proclaimed the period of September 1-15 as Cystic Fibrosis Fortnight.

Nearly 10,000 volunteers will be marching in 134 towns during the drive, which takes in the six counties surrounding Chicago, and Lake County, Indiana. Governing bodies of all the towns have officially approved the fund drive.

The Chicago CF Chapter supports in full the Cystic Fibrosis Research and Training Center at Children's Memorial Hospital in Chicago.

Area Captains in North Suburban areas are: Norman Frederic, 6901 Church St., Morton Grove; and Mrs. Donald Ward, 8401 Roseview Dr., Niles.

Naturally, what's more personal than a conversation? If everyone in your family makes and receives telephone calls, they deserve their own phone. Two or three extra extensions in your home can mean a world of new convenience for the whole family... plus a big saving in time and effort. You'll be surprised at how little it costs. Call us today and see.

Nilehi Teachers Attend Pre School Meetings

Nilehi teachers this week have been attending pre-school meetings with Superintendent Clyde Parker and the principals of Niles East and Niles West in preparation for the opening of school Tuesday, September 3.

Teachers new to Niles Township High Schools started last Monday on an orientation program to give them a quick look into the schools and the community in which they will be teaching.

Returning teachers to the Nilehi system joined the pre-school meetings this morning, Thursday, at 9 A.M.

Addressing the entire Niles Township High Schools' faculties this morning is Dr. Ralph Nichols, head of the Rhetoric Department at the University of Minnesota, who is speaking on the topic "He Who Has W. Ears."

Dr. Nichols, who is a nationally known speaker and writer on the problems of communication, is co-author of the book "Are You Listening?"

Author of more than 100 articles appearing in professional and nationally circulated magazines, Dr. Nichols has also authored: "Listening and Speaking," a college text, and "Learn to Listen, Speak and Write," a grade school series.

Former president of the National Society for the Study of Communication and the Speech Association of America, Dr. Nichols for three years served as an adviser to the U.S. Air Force in devising ROTC communication instruction and for six years headed a national committee whose sole purpose was to do research in effective listening.

General meeting this year of more than 350 teachers and administrators of the Niles Township High Schools are being held in Nilehi East's new Auditorium. Staff meetings with principals are being held in the respective buildings.

School Board President Dr. John Speer this afternoon at lunch will address the entire group of teachers, and with other board and PTA members will welcome both the new and returning teachers.

Last evening the school board hosted a picnic for the new teachers and their families at Nilehi West. New teachers also took a tour of the five villages in Niles Township by bus last Monday afternoon to see industrial, residential, and commercial areas of the community.

Dr. Parker said new staff members should have not only a good idea of the school system in which they are teaching, but they should have also a clear picture in mind of the type of student attending the Niles high schools and his environment, which is an important asset to any teacher starting or continuing a teaching career in a new area.

Nilehi West Student Union Appoints Officers For '63-'64

Complete Participation - That's the goal of this year's Nilehi West Student Union Board according to Mr. Blaine Gemeny, faculty sponsor of the 24-member student organization. The Student Union plans and directs Student Union mixers and the Christmas dance.

Candidates for the 1963-64 Board were interviewed and appointed by the 1962-63 Board last May. Since then, the members have met several times during the summer to make preparations for the first dance, "Surfing Hootenanny," on Saturday, September 21.

The all-senior group also recommended improvements in the tone and dignity of the attending student body and to have better music.

Striving to accomplish these improvements are six committees designed to cover all aspects of the dances from the entertainment to the clean-up.

Executive officers of the student-controlled organization are Ron Zager, president; Marianna Wesphal, vice-president; Dale Donlger, secretary; and John Peters, treasurer.

Other members and committee chairmen include Barbara Abbott, Jackie Brandt, June Clark, Cynthia Cockrell, Janet Gragg, Barry Davis, Barry Elden, Barbara Fleishman, Fran Garfield, Garry Kiszley, Sheryl Kreiter, Carol Long, and Gwyn Nelson.

Also, Donna Paul, Donn Pearlman, Susan Pitke, Bob Ross, Marcia Sass, Paulette Schulman, and Howard Simon.

Serving as additional faculty advisors are Mr. Arthur Colver and Mr. Charles Matka.

Dr. Plimpton Explains Need For District 64 Tax Increase

On September 21, voters are asked to support a 21 cent increase in the educational fund tax rate for District 64 schools.

Dr. Plimpton stated: "Financial support for the operation of schools comes principally from the taxes paid by the residents of the school district on real and personal property. Added to this, the district qualifies for state equalization aid, and special program reimbursement. In Park Ridge, about 75% of the school budget comes from the local community, 24% from the state, about 1% from the federal government. Aid from the federal government does not include financial grants, as such. We do participate in the federal school lunch program. This is not intended as a free lunch program but as part of an education and program to enable schools to serve hot and well balanced meals to children. The school in District 64 are also sharing in the National Defense Act of 1958. This means the federal government matches funds in a local school district for the science, foreign language and testing program.

We then asked Dr. Plimpton, "What is the Education Fund, and what is that money used for?"

"About 86% of the Education Fund goes for Salaries of certified and clerical employees—secretaries, clerks, teachers, administrators.

The remainder is spent for:

Supplies

Teaching aids
Art Supplies
Supplementary books
Text Books
Encyclopedia

Portable Equipment

School desks and chairs
Pianos
Custodial Operational

Repair and insurance is allowed in this fund also."

Dr. Plimpton continued, "We realize that money alone will not produce modern effective schools, but in general, the school with more money provides a better program than the school with less money. We have reached the point where more money must be raised in order to assure an ongoing, effective school program."

Nite Spot

by D'Vry Knight

Last night this writer visited a most unique nite-spot, "The Key". It is located outside of Waukegan just east of Rte. 41 & north of Rte. 120, about a 1 1/2 hour drive north from Chicago on Edens Expressway and Rte. 41.

"The Key" opened its doors just two months ago and its particular kind of entertainment and decor has already proved exceptionally popular. It was designed by owner Al Schoepf and built by Earl Ferguson, one of the foremost restaurant and lounge architects in the mid-west.

"The Key" has three levels of entertainment, each being separate from the other and each of a completely different motif.

On entering you are greeted by a feline-like creature with black hair, slanted eyes and a long tail. You attempt to be nonchalant at this sight but then she hisses "mmeowww are you ssir?" and you realize this creature is real. Her name is Sharoncat, she is a hostess and one of the "Kittens" employed to serve you. She and her sister "Kittens" abound throughout the "Key" and are of infinite variety. Though you may not find their breeds categorized in any catalogue of carnivores, be assured they do exist. Sharon herself is a Balkan Bounce. Other species of "Kittens" found here are Comet Calicoes, Irish Slinkies and Fandang Angoras. In one of the three lounges I even came upon a very rare auburn haired Persian Percher.

THE CHANDLER ROOM

This room is on the main level and will appeal to the contemporary tastes. Members and guests are entertained in the quiet atmosphere and plush decor of a dining room lounge. The cuisine is of three choices: Filet Mignon, Prime rib and Lobster. Dinners are $3.00 and all drinks are .90¢ except in the show bar where, unless a show bar where, unless you are a key member a cover charge of $1.00 is added to the cost of your drinks.

THE NEW YEARS EVE ROOM

This room is appointed in the motif of a show bar. The rule of the house is merriment and fun. Expect to be entertained.

you'll not be disappointed. As the name indicates, the carnival atmosphere is one of laughter and song and every night is New Year's Eve. A lively floor show is presented nightly, Tues. thru Sat. "The Jamaicans" with a cast of 12 Jamaican singers and dancers have been booked by The Key to appear here starting Sept. 3rd.

THE SPEAKEASY

This room exploits the nostalgia of the Prohibition Era. The door is locked. You knock; through a peep-hole a blood-shot eye scrutinizes you and a gruff voice inquires of your identity. The answer is "Al sent me". The door opens, a refuge from the Untouchables eyes you suspiciously and then lets you pass — into the past. As your eyes grow accustomed to the dim gaslights you become aware of the wonderful simplicity of the room; the bare plus floozy, the checkered tablecloth, the bar with its brass foot rail and the "Flappers" in their fringed dresses. All drinks are served in heavy mugs. A sign behind the bar exclaims: "Repeal the Volstead Act." The band banjo, trumpet and open keyboard piano belt out the rhythms of the era. Two flappers, Judi and Traci do a song and dance routine that puts to shame anything you might have seen on a current T.V. show depicting the era. The entire atmosphere is conducive to clean robust pleasure and in a few minutes you'll ignite with the mood of this place. In this spirit tempo its difficult to recall passive before you know it the spirit of it will overcome you and you will know why they named the period the "Roaring 20's"

The Key has earned a place among "The Fabulous 52"
