Junior Girl Scout Troop 613 took a tour of the Art Institute of Chicago on Saturday, November 7. Their day was started with a bus trip to the museum, the cost of which was financed through their last spring's Cookie Sales. From the museum, they went sightseeing along Michigan Avenue and headed for Marina City at 300 State St. There they toured the project, saw the model apartment on the 48th floor and inspected the four floors of furnishings at the National Design Center. As future homemakers, the girls learned many lovely things. Marlene Molick proudly explained that her dad installed some of the glass in the building. The bus ride home was appreciated by many tired feet but dancing eyes.

Mrs. William Shea and Mrs. Wallace Arvidson are the leaders of this group of girls. Troop 613 consists of Gayle Amato, Jennifer Anderson, Jane Arvidson, Mary Arvidson, Nancy Aufmann, Antoinette Bobel, Anne Brennan, Patricia Cerek, Linda Corrado, Judith Donash, Debra Ellis, Rita Gerber, Valerie Jacobs, Nancy Juris, Jacqueline Kroll, Rita Kaczinski, Patricia McDonnell, Marlene Molick, Eileen Moore, Mary Mores, Loretta O'Donnell, Donna Pellicioni, Ann Pinkowski, Joy Schau, Mary Beth Shea and Janet Wolski.

St. Anselm's

Woman's News

The Women's Guild of St. Anselm's Episcopal Church in Park Ridge held their November meeting on Wednesday, November 4th. In addition to a film shown, titled "Picture in Your Mind", with the timely and thought-provoking subject of prejudice, the women were favored with talks by Misses Mary Bradley, Patty Aramburu, Laurie Davies, Gail and Sharon Vander Jagt. These five high school students, members of the church's youth group, Alpha Omega Koinonia, attended the Triennial Convocation of Episcopal Young Churchmen held in Denver in August. They told the women some of their experiences and impressions on the Convocation. The Triennial gathering had more than 420 youngsters in attendance from all over the world; however, the representatives from St. Anselm's were the only ones attending from our diocese.

December's meeting, to which all adults of the parish are invited, will be held on December 2nd. The regular meeting schedule will be replaced by a Smorgasbord Supper and a delightful talk on his experiences traveling with a circus by Father Richard Lehman of Mount Prospect.

Demon Sports Squads Honored Monday

Demon football and cross country track squads of 1964 will be honored by the school next Monday evening, at the annual fall sports awards night.

Athletic director Bud Gates and the individual coaches will present the awards in a meeting in the auditorium to which the public is invited. Maine East high school Boosters, headed by Paul G. Martens, are co-sponsors of the event. There will be no charge.

Martens will present the speaker of the evening, Johnny Morris of the Chicago Bears professional football team, at the meeting which begins at 7 p.m. Following the speaker and the presentation of awards, the audience will trek to the school cafeteria for refreshments.

Morris, known as one of the most versatile flanker backs in the history of football, is in his seventh season with the Bears. His number, 47, is set in the record books opposite many marks that are expected to stand for years.

Among records Morris has posted to date are his total of 6000 yards gained in six seasons. His punt return total of 100, for more than 900 yards, is only 12 less than the all-time Bear record of George McAfee's, set over eight seasons. Morris leads the present Bears in pass receptions, 243 for a new team aggregate record and 58 for the season to date.

The Halas-coached Bears joined the Bears in 1958, coming from the University of California, Santa Barbara. He was born in Long Beach in 1936 and lives in the off-season period in Winnetka.

"Fans and boosters of Demon sports will have an opportunity Monday night to meet one of the outstanding figures in pro football today as well as to register their support of their school teams," Martens said.

In view of the fact that the 1960, this is truly an outstanding accomplishment on the part of the Service League," he stated.

The hospital is currently engaged in a $5,500,000 expansion program which hospital officials hope to have completed by the end of 1965. A federal grant of $712,000 has been received.

The hospital is currently asking for gifts from area residents, businesses, industries and foundations.

Included in the expansion will be 203 additional beds for psychiatric, long-term and medical-surgical patients. When it is completed, Lutheran General will have 527 making it larger than 98 per cent of all private voluntary hospitals in the country.

Plans will also be announced for the Ballard PTA Book Fair to be held in the school gym on December 3 and 4 and the Children's Movie Day on Saturday, Dec. 5.

Thomas Gause Issues

Thanks To Supporters

Thomas Gause, unsuccessful Democratic candidate for U.S. House of Representatives, Tenth District, Illinois, issued the following statement today:

"My thanks go to all those citizens in the Tenth District who contributed time, money, and energy toward my campaign for U.S. House of Representatives. Whether Democrat or Republican, each of us has a stake in continuing the interest in political affairs and tenth district needs which I am told our campaign generated. The district is very large. If democracy is not to die by default, discussion of issues must not only continue, but an effort should be made to get our representative to be more willing to enter into debate and report back more often to his constituents. In that way, he will be better known than by a mere 1% of the people, as reported in a local newspaper (Berwyn-Cicero Life, Sunday, October 27), and truth, so essential in a democracy, will be better served."

LGH Goal 40% Completed

With the addition of the $250,000 gift of the Service League, the public fund drive stands at $489,000, nearly 40 per cent of the $1,228,000 public goal.

"We are overwhelmed at this gift," said N.M. Nessel, president of the board of trustees of Lutheran General and Deaconess Hospitals. "The Service League never fails to amaze us at the wonderful contribution it is making to the hospital and to the community. The Service League plays a significant role in the success of this hospital."

The Service League is an organization of 700 women throughout the Chicago area who serve the hospital in numerous ways. Volunteers work in 45 areas of the hospital, last year donating over 75,000 hours of service.

The $250,000 pledge is payable over a five-year period.

With the addition of the $250,000 gift, the Service League has now contributed over $400,000 to the program of the hospital. Dr. Nessel pointed out,

"In view of the fact that the 1960, this is truly an outstanding accomplishment on the part of the Service League," he stated.

The hospital is currently engaged in a $5,500,000 expansion program which hospital officials hope to have completed by the end of 1965. A federal grant of $712,000 has been received.

Golf Mil Lanes Host

WIBC Tourney

Henry Aronson's Golf-Mil Lanes, which has been awarded the WIBC-WC Women's Tournament announced that commencing with November and up to the formal opening of the WIBC Tournament in March plans will go forward to host this great women's tournament. While noting the tourney was still along way off, Aronson, a veteran proprietor and a genial host, is inviting many celebrities for the opening night ceremonies, which will take place on March 6.

"This is the first time that this famous tournament has been awarded to an establishment in the Northwest Suburban Area," said Aronson, "and we plan to invite the mayor, public officials, all service organizations in Niles, and celebrities of many sports to help us to hosts to the thousands of visitors who will be coming into Niles. We expect to show that Niles can be a great host."

"I believe," said Aronson, "the fact that both Brunswick and A.M.F. hold proprietor and trainee schools at Golf-Mil and exhibit Golf-Mil as a model and well-run bowling establishment must have played an important part in our selection as the site for this tourney."

Golf-Mil Lanes has 28 lanes sporting automatic pinsetters.

The WIBC-WC Tournament is conducted on a handicap basis in teams, doubles, singles, and all events. All cash prizes will be distributed on a handicap basis. "All sanctioned women's leagues," said Mr. Aronson, "are entitled to a free entry from the bowling establishment in which the league bowls, and I am sure the proprietors will gladly cooperate in getting many teams entered so that this women's tournament will be the largest ever held by the WIBC."

"In the succeeding days, I will announce the celebrities from all types of sports and

Expect 150,000th Patient At Lutheran General

Sometime around November 1, the 150,000th patient will be treated at Lutheran General Hospital, Park Ridge.

The patient may be hospitalized. He may be treated in emergency department. He may come as an outpatient.

"When you consider that Lutheran General has been open only since 1960, the 150,000 figure becomes especially significant," said T.L. Jacobsen,

Jefferson PTA Program On Gifted Youth

Dr. Rogge, who is associated with the Special Study Project for Gifted Children, will speak at the Jefferson PTA meeting on Monday, November 16, at 8 p.m. A demonstration on creativity will be included as a part of the doctor's presentation.

The hospital is seeking to raise $1,288,000 from residents, industry, business and foundations in the community. A federal grant of $712,000 has been received while the hospital will finance the remainder of the cost.

"When you consider 150,000 people, one must remember that this is more than the combined population of Park Ridge, Des Plaines, Mount Prospect, Niles, Morton Grove and Wheeling," Jacobsen said.

A year ago Dr. Rogge became coordinator of the Demonstration project for Gifted Youth, a project supported by the U.S. Office of Education and the State of Illinois. Since that time, the State of Illinois has undertaken an extensive plan for the development of programs for children of varying talents. One section of this program established 30 demonstration centers, District 64 being among them, throughout the State of Illinois for the purpose of providing believable and practical programs for gifted children. Dr. Rogge has the overall responsibility of the supervision and development of these centers.

Dr. Rogge received his bachelor and master degrees in the social sciences from the University of Wisconsin and his doctorate from the University of Illinois. He became associated with the Special Study Project for Gifted Children in 1959.

Everyone is cordially invited to hear what should prove to be a most informative and interesting presentation by this well-known educator.

The plot of the play revolves around a very idealistic woman's attempt to rid the world of all evil. The fact that she succeeds makes the story even more fascinating to see, commented Miss Zelnick, faculty director.

Talented Niles student Sandy Shiner will portray the Mad Woman. Sandy is a veteran actress at Niles West, having played the lead role of Regina in The Little Foxes, Lilly Belle in The Curious Savage, and Mrs. Shiner, the mayor's wife, in Music Man.

Additional work as an understudy for the production of Brigadoon and as president of Thespians, the Niles West Dramatic Club, have kept her occupied in the past several years.

Sophomore Murray Moss and Steve Wishnow will share the spotlight as the male leads in the current production. Both boys are also "seasoned" actors at Niles West.

The three lead players will be assisted by a cast of about 35 students, the largest cast ever used in Niles West dramatic history.

Costumes for the play are being custom-designed by Niles West's Home Economics executive director.

Of the 150,000 people, 65,000 have been hospitalized. Some 45,000 have been treated in the emergency department.

The remaining patients were treated as outpatients. Over 10,000 babies have been born at Lutheran General.

"This figure shows why the facilities at Lutheran General are so strained," Jacobsen commented. "It also demonstrates the urgency of adding new facilities."

Lutheran General is in the midst of a $5,500,000 expansion program to provide 204 additional beds, a new emergency department and a greatly expanded outpatient clinic. If funds are available, the hospital hopes to have the expansion completed by the end of 1965.

Defer Action On Inspecting Maine High School Facilities

At its regular meeting Monday evening, October 19, the Board of Education of Township High School District No. 207 deferred action on an inspection of school facilities, which is a new requirement of the State of Illinois. This project is estimated to cost the District taxpayers up to $10,000.00. Board president, William T. Newport, accepted the motion for deferral to permit further study after it had been inspected and approved as save by the Park Ridge Fire Department. Similar studies and approvals of Maine East and Maine West buildings have been made by the fire departments concerned and by the National Safety Council.

The economy-minded board also withheld action on a request for additional blacktopping on the south side of the physical education area at Maine South. It was pointed out that tennis courts and parking areas already scheduled for blacktopping can be used.

"The auditorium," Dr. Watson said, "is practically completed and in use. There remains some terrazzo work to be done in the lobby. There are two Community Chest meetings in the main area this week. Some stage curtains are yet to be delivered. Music, drama, and other rooms are in use."

An insight into high school life in Sweden highlighted the board meeting when Karl Fransson, exchange student from Sweden, was introduced. In answer to questions, Fransson told the board the greatest difference between Maine South and his school in Sweden was that in his home country he had no choice of study subjects. "There are not as many quizzes and tests in Sweden as you have here," the exchange student said, "but those we do have are much longer—from four to six hours."

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Neff, Karl's "parents" during his year's stay here, accompanied him to the board meeting. In answer to a request for comparison of the exchange student with her son, Mrs. Neff said, "Not many surprises. Boys are boys, I've found. And, I have learned that schools operate six days a week in Sweden with no expectation of going out evenings during the week."

Maine South will begin to get grass seed as quickly as many areas can be prepared by present high school custodians and equipment available from the other two schools, the board was advised. Some sodding may be done next spring in areas where the grade is too steep to permit seeding.

Board members' questions about new building inconveniences were answered by Dr. Clyde Watson, Principal. He said that

Cites Reasons For District 63 Referendum

Reasons for the $620,000 bond referendum and the need to raise the legal limit in the educational tax are the topics being presented by members of the Board of Education of East at various PTA and Homeowner group meetings.

Mrs. Frank Luck, member of the Board of Education, presented facts and figures to the Westfield Homeowners Association at a meeting last week. "We have known that we needed additional classrooms for the past year. The rapid growth in the Mark Twain area of the district indicates that a new school is needed immediately," Mrs. Luck pointed out. "The present referendum is part of our long range plan to meet the needs of the district. Since we had reached the limit of our bonding power, we could not take official action until some bonding power had been regained."

We also need authority to levy enough education tax money to equip and staff our schools," continued Mrs. Luck. "While the proposition to be voted calls for raising the legal limit to $1.60 from $1.40, the Board does not anticipate raising the rate more than five to eight cents the first year. Any increase of a few cents cannot be levied until 1965 and would not be effective until 1966."

He and his wife, Cecile, reside at 6941 Cleveland St., Niles.

At Des Plaines

With two men as her fiancés in the new romantic comedy in color, Universal's "I'd Rather Be Rich," Sandra Dee finds it difficult to choose between Robert Goulet and Andy Williams, Maurice Chevalier, her dying and doting grandfather, suggests an ingenious manner which makes everything come out right. Co-featured with "Night Of The Iguana" with Richard Burton.

The fourth party, the so-called "Independents," spoke in more outspoken terms, criticizing builder-trustee tie-ins, multiple dwelling zoning and then the mayoral candidate brought up the big guns by denouncing the tie-in with township politics, and bespeaking of gambling in the community.

As the drama unfolded, the independents upset the 20-year old applecart by landsliding into office. The well-financed, first-to-start group, which played it cool, came out fourth in a field of four.

The aftermath of the politicking was somewhat disillusioning. The new mayor, who brought up the big guns which saved him into office, suddenly clammed up. While the gambling continued, he said he did not have one complaint about it in a survey he had taken.

And then, seeming to forget the township political tie-in which he lashed out at, he promptly joined the Maine Township Democratic group, "You don't understand that you can't get anything done unless you belong to a political group," said the man. However, the more independent independents, his running mates, stayed that way, knocked out the gambling, and settled down to running the town, while two of them stayed free of the outside political groups.

The rank and file bell ringers' whose moment of glory was in defeating the 20-year old cobwebbed incumbents, mostly left the political scene after the election. Some of the more disillusioned said they'd been betrayed, some wondered why they knocked themselves out for others' glory. But the majority of them had felt they had accomplished their mission, and sat back to wait for their efforts to bear fruit.

The Niles 1961 picture was great drama. Those who actively participated were richer for the experience.

As we mentioned before, you seldom get a similar opportunity in a larger city. But here in suburbia you are in the starting line-up while the game is being played.

Go find yourself a ball club, or create one of your own. "The town you improve will be your own."

Teen Dance
To Be Held
Saturday Night

All teens in the area are invited to attend a Saturday night Teen Dance to be held starting this Saturday night at 8 p.m. at the new Niles Park District Field House on Milwaukee Ave., just south of Oakton.

The dances will be held every other week and will feature the top Rock and Roll bands in the area.

This week the Fabulous Seabars will be on hand to furnish the music.

According to Commissioner and Mrs. Louis Schreiner and Commissioner Steve Chameraski, along with the rest of the Board who have worked very hard in preparing the finest dances in the area, a dance of this type has long been needed to provide for the teens on Saturday night.

The first dance will be held this Saturday night, November 14 and will be called the Niles Park District Teen Beat Dance. Admission will be $1.00 per person. Club cards will also be on sale at the door, and all interested teens are advised to purchase their club cards this Saturday at the dance, as only a limited number will be sold on a first come first served basis.

Dance contest prizes, door prizes, surprise recording star guests, and plenty of good food will be only some of the many fine things planned by the Park District Commissioners for the local teens.

All local teens from Maine East, South and West plus all other teens from other high schools in the area and all teens from 13 to 19 are invited.

Garden Club

The Information Center of the Garden Club of Illinois offers to the public free an excellent program on "Flower Arrangements from the Traditional to Japanese into the Modern and Abstract" on November 20, at 1 p.m. Mrs. Merry Leber and Mrs. Harold Osborn will demonstrate their program in the second floor Conference Room of Sears at Golf Mill. All interested persons are invited.

George Bozinos after twenty years on the Zoning and Planning commission has tendered his resignation and Trustee Bode suggested a letter of gratitude be sent to the retiring Mr. Bozinos. Trustee Cashman seconded the motion and it was approved by the board.

"A memorandum was received from the office of Francis S. Lorenz, State Director of the Department of Public Works, admitting that certain projects were contemplated during the year 1965. First project will be the replacement of the Dempster St. bridge, over the Chicago River, construction to begin 1965 - Second project to be the channelization of the intersections of Golf Rd. and Waukegan, Dempster and Waukegan and Harlem and Dempster, Channelization means to deflate the bottleneck now prevalent in those mentioned crossings, by having the traffic routed in six lanes - two lanes east, two lanes west, one left and one right - construction to be started in 1965. Both these projects will be taken care of by the State of Illinois.

The third project to be undertaken by the village of Morton Grove, also in 1965, will be the widening of Oakton St. from Edens to Caldwell. Before expectations run too high, be assured that the letter specifically stated these plans were tentatively scheduled for 1965.

The Commonwealth Edison Co. completed modernization of sixteen street lights in the village.
