present. Among the less than 100 were at least 10 aides of the TAM interests, as well as many residents who have a dispassionate interest in the issue.

We also attended a meeting at Grennan Heights last Tuesday, and there were less than 75 people at that meeting. Certainly, if there is a 150-man group in the community which is vitally interested in procuring the entire course, we would assume they would be turning out in force for these meetings.

Other observations concerning TAM from a guy sitting on a fence includes one we can't dismiss. The TAM people continuously stress they are interested in keeping open their first proposal for an eight hole golf course on part of TAM, or for an 18 hole course to be built jointly on part of TAM and Forest Preserve Property. While the proposal will remain open, even after the condemnation proceeding, we are suspect the TAM interests do not want this property.

There was a touch of irony in last Thursday's zoning board meeting. Two witnesses for the TAM interests were formerly employed by the village of Niles. Carl Gardner, a city planner, had played the major role in revamping Niles zoning laws back in 1960. And the Barton and Ashman Company, which conducted a traffic survey for Niles in 1963, also were speaking on behalf of the TAM people.

Mr. Gardner showed a trace of anger when the question was asked of him, 'Why he could recommend one zoning classification for TAM in 1960, while employed for Niles, and then turn around in 1965, when representing a private concern, and recommend a different classification?' Gardner bristled at the question, explaining zoning is a flexible matter, subject to changing with the times. Attorney Louis Ancel, who has few peers in his field, jumped up and came to Gardner's rescue, stating if zoning laws were not subject to change there would be no need for a Zoning Board (Plan Commission).

withdrawn, it was stated the release was meant for Bullock's hometown newspaper. It was never stated the error was that Bullock was not still only an "acting superintendent".

The next school board meeting will be Wednesday, October 13, when the Saberson firing, the personnel change-overs and the Bullock-bulldozer will be thoroughly aired.

First Town Hall Meeting Set For Oct. 18

The Village of Niles announces its first Town Hall meeting for the purpose of answering any and all questions regarding the Village of Niles and its operations by any of the residents of the Village who wish to ask questions. Every phase of village government will be represented by village experts, included will be representatives from the J. Emil Anderson and Co., to answer questions in regard to Tam O'Shanter property.

The meeting is set for October 18, 1965 at 8:00 P.M., at the new Mill Run Theatre located at the north end of Golf Mill Shopping Center.

Niles Baseball Season Ends With Picnic

Another Niles Baseball League season was brought to a successful conclusion with the awarding of the championship trophies at the League picnic. Each member of a first place team was awarded a trophy as a memento of their excellent play during the 1965 season. Tony DiLorenzo, League commissioner, also has the honor of presenting a plaque to all team sponsors for their outstanding cooperation and assistance.

In addition to the trophy presentations, all baseball league participants enjoyed a hot dog and coke while they watched their managers, coaches and league officials in a valiant attempt to play softball. Various prizes donated by the Niles Sport Center were awarded to the boys, with Martin Lunke being the winner of a Rawlings glove.

Plan Commission

based solely on the aforementioned use.

....Ancel: "We still will endeavor to work out a facility the community can afford and enjoy".

....Emil Anderson is the largest taxpayer in the area.

....Anderson president Harold Anderson stated the "highest and best use" of the property meant it would be zoned in an appropriate and harmonious manner, considering the immediate surrounding property.

....Village planner Carl Gardner: At the time of the new comprehensive zoning law he believed single family use was the best zoning for TAM. In 1955 he sided with Niles in opposing the manufacturing zoning for the Salerno factory on Caldwell. He said now his position has completely changed. He noted the area is no longer residential and he believes BOTH SIDES of a street should be treated the same (for manufacturing zoning).

....Niles may have 60,000 population eventually. Limited manufacturing would be an economic asset, and it would be compatible in having open space there. (The proposed golf course).

....Planner William Dean said his definition of the highest and best use was the same as Gardner's, adding it should provide open space there.

....Mr. Koenig, representing the Barton, Ashman traffic survey company, said Howard Street should be increased to 4 lanes (even now), intersections would have to be widened there, and access to the proposed TAM industrial area would be from Howard, Caldwell and Lehigh.

....President Anderson said his company has 10 industrial developments in the Chicago-area and the demand for industry in Niles was 2 to 1 over any of his other areas, stating "it is the most desirable area in all Chicagoland". Transportation, labor and the surrounding buildings (spread-out industry) were the reasons for the demand.

....Anderson said from 8 to 15 buildings would be constructed there, with 30 to 50% offices and warehouses. The rest would be light manufacturing and they would bring in $300,000 real estate taxes annually.

....Ancel added, Niles, being an All American City, causes the increased demand for moving to the area.

....In answers of queries from the audience the TAM forces noted 38 acres of the present TAM would still make a 9 hole course; and it would be best utilized by a public body.

....The Edgewater Country Club sold for just under $8,000,000 and it is worth $90,000 per acre (Tam has about 85 acres). Loyola University property in Edgebrook is valued at $40,000 per acre.

....Niles park district requested the decision be postponed.

....Planner Dean stated it would take 2 years to build the proposed golf course.

....Resident Bill Young said the value of his home has increased $7,500 in 10 years, and attributes it to its location by the present golf course.

....Resident Walter Craigie stated traffic congestion in the area is a burden today.

....Attorney Ancel said he was "astounded" by the park board's actions. He said it is easy to make headlines. Public officials, Ancel said, must act responsibly, implying the park board had not so acted. With vehemence Ancel said TAM would have to be paid for at market value. He noted the TAM people had shown good faith in their actions, and this was a necessary requisite in any dealing. When resident Aaron Michaelson asked how the park board would purchase the property, Ancel said it is possible to get up to 50% of the value of the property from a federal grant, but that NO BONDING HOUSE WOULD GIVE THE OTHER 50%.

....Ancel said he would insist on a speedy trial, his client was entitled to an early decision, it would be separate and apart from the condemnation action, and it would come up in court some time in October.

Baby Abandoned

In a paper sack beside her were a bottle of baby formula, a can of powder, a pacifier and a handwritten note that said only, "Born Sept. 30, 1965, 12:15 p.m."

Golbach said hospitals throughout the Chicago area will be checked in efforts to find the mother.

Physicians said the brown-haired, blue-eyed girl was in excellent health. She weighed 7 pounds 4 1/2 ounces and was 19 1/2 inches long.

If the mother is not found, the infant will be turned over to state authorities and placed in an institution, according to hospital officials.

Eggert, who went to the hospital with police, told nurses he would like to adopt the girl.

He has four children, the youngest 7 years old, and 11 grandchildren.

His wife had left on the porch light for him and Eggert theorized that caused the person who left the baby to choose his house.

After carrying the baby inside, Eggert said he recalled seeing a car parked a half block south of his home with its parking lights on.

When he went outside five minutes later to look around, the car was gone.

The baby apparently had been on the lawn only a short time, Eggert's daughter, Karen, 13, arrived home at 10:10 p.m. about 2 1/2 hours before her father. She said she was certain no baby was there at that time.

All America Ball

there has been the usual and inevitable last-minute rush for tickets at the Village Clerk's office. Beauty salons throughout Niles report very heavy schedules for Friday and Saturday.

"Saturday will be filled with activities," said North Goodman, All-America Commission Chairman. "In the morning, everyone is welcome to the Council Chambers to watch the seminar. This should last from 9:30 to about noon. Then the women are invited to join the visiting mayor's wives at a wonderful lunch and fashion show. A flat $3.00 will cover everything at the restaurant. Later in the afternoon everyone can rest up and be ready for the dancing and merriment of the Ball. See you there."

Ladies Looked 'Splendorific'

The jam packed hulk of a ballroom, the dim lights, the loud music, the screeching conversations and happy laughter, the tinkle of glasses, were merely dull props for the kaleidoscopic panorama of the descendants of the most highly publicized rib—the one Adam lost for Eve. Nothing could obliterate the glg of the "splendorific" female Nilesites at the All-American City Ball, Saturday night at the O'Hare Inn. This was the culmination of the festivities celebrating the award to Niles as one of the 11 All-American Cities, for the year 1965; the frosting on the cake was the hosting of five Mayors from similar cities so awarded—1. Fort Worth, Texas, 2. So. Portland, Maine, 3. Columbia, South Carolina, 4. Hopkinsville, Kentucky, and 5. White Bear Lake, Minnesota.

There couldn't have been a man in the room who failed to breathe "Vive le difference" as he watched the brilliantly lured and sweetly fragrant women pass in review—from simple white to the exotic blues

North Goodman, chairman of the All America City Commission, said the Mayors were refined, educated, successful men and most charming. He said they were very serious-minded in their approach to political problems in their communities, and took a deep interest in the seminar Saturday morning in which community-problems were discussed.

We were much impressed with Mayor Rubin, a most charming man who sneaked a Shakespearean quote at the seminar. North reported the South Carolinian is a Phi Beta Kappa.

Fort Worth Mayor Barr and Minnesota Mayor Morrow were gentlemen who North said, always managed to say the right thing at the right time.

Mayor Twomey, from Maine, was the soft-spoken, slow, easy-going New Englander whose own charm was evident. On the Jack Eigen radio show Friday night Mayor Barr said his group sent down 92 Texans to San Francisco and evidently "overwhelmed" the All America judges. When Mayor Twomey told Eigen why his town won he said they sent only two men, which prompted Niles Mayor to quip, "they under-whelmed them".

Kentucky-Mayor Lackey had a great sense of humor, was a fine story-teller and was typical of the outstanding men who are in political life in these All American towns. He is moving up to a high post in state government, in the state urban development program.

BUGLE Seeks Hi School Boy

The BUGLE is seeking a high school boy to work in THE BUGLE office, 8139 Milwaukee Ave., Wednesdays from 6 P.M. until 9 P.M., and a second afternoon after school. Phone 966-3910 for an appointment.

Saturday morning at 9:45 A.M., the visiting dignitaries and those of the village of Niles met at the Council Chambers, for an hour and a half discussion of the mutual problems confronting all municipalities. Guests were invited and Mayors of the neighboring suburbs had been invited to share in the discussions.

Mayors Willard Barr of Fort Worth, Texas, Edward Twomey of So. Portland, Maine, F. Ernest Lackey of Hopkinsville, Kentucky, H. Rubin of Columbia, South Carolina, Sr. Councilman

P. Morrow, sitting in for the Mayor of White Bear Lake, Minnesota and our own Mayor Nicholas Blase, were introduced by trustee Edward Berkowsky, chairman of the seminar.

North Goodman, chairman of the All America City Commission, presented details of the "Independence Hall Project." The aim of the project is to put a display of the Declaration of Independence and the Bill of Rights into every village hall in the country. The first displays were being sent to the towns of the visiting Mayors.

Then each Mayor was asked for a resume of his town and some humor was injected into the sequence when after listening to Mayor Twomey of Maine read a booklet of facts and figures, Trustee Berkowsky asked, "Are you a member of the Chamber of Commerce?".

Following the resumes came discussions of the varied problems: Metro (Metropolitan) governing—combining all the county services into one governing body—schools and taxes, urban renewal, human relations.

Fast-Paced 2 Days Huge Success

In whirlwind 40 hours, which America's Go Go President Johnson would likely have found invigorating, Niles opened its door and heart to five Mayors from All America cities Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Friday afternoon Mayors Willard Barr, Fort Worth, Texas; F. Ernest Lackey, Hopkinsville, Kentucky; Councilman P. Morrow, White Bear Lake, Minnesota; Mayor Pro Tem H. Rubin, Columbia, South Carolina and Edward Twomey, South Portland, Maine, and their wives, received Niles red carpet treatment the moment they landed at O'Hare Field.

Upon arrival they were greeted by airline officials.

While their baggage was being expedited, they were driven to O'Hare Inn, where they would be home-based for the two-day holiday.

In their rooms they received a bottle of champagne welcoming them to Niles, as well as gift baskets from local Niles merchants, American Airlines and invitations from the wives to have their hair coiffured at one of five hair stylists in Niles. They also received a fruit basket from O'Hare Inn, a letter of welcome from Niles Mayor Blase, and a bouquet of flowers from The Garden Club.

One-half hour after their arrival they were welcomed by

Another Morning Another Yawn

by Frieda Aron—966-9669

This was the time of the Mayors—the weekend came on with a gallop, breaking all barriers of reticence and unfamiliarity. Almost instantaneously was the warm response and mutual admiration. Mayors of five of the 11 cities winning the All America City Award, accepted our invitation to be the guests of Niles, another All America City, at festivities culminating months of celebrating the honor of the award. Plans were carefully laid, mistle and waylaid, until the final precision-like itinerary met complete accord and acceptance of the Niles All America City Commission. It was a marvel of planning—nothing left to fickle chance and no chance of any guest left in fickle hands.

Each guest couple had a host couple and chauffeured car assigned for their pleasure and convenience and the weekend proceeded with leisurely haste. Friday evening there was a cocktail reception at the Fire house, a quick tour of Niles and Chicago on the way down to the Jack Eigen radio show. Saturday morning, the Mayors were at a Seminar held at the Council Chambers followed by a press luncheon at the Lone Tree Inn, thoughtfully arranged by the Lions Club of Niles while the wives were given a chance to see the Art Institute of Chicago and then whisked off to a fashion luncheon at Tiffany's. One mishap occurred, Mayor Twomey's wife, from South Portland, Maine, was picked up at the airport Saturday morning just before the luncheon, but her baggage had been lost enroute. Her hostess brought her to the luncheon and then took her to Margies Bridal Shop where she was outfitted with an evening gown for the evening's ball and given a borrowed pair of matching shoes; Mrs. Twomey was quite a lovely picture at the evening festivities.

That evening there was another cocktail hour and dinner and the long awaited finale—the All America City Ball at the O'Hare Inn, with an attendance of about 700 sharing the fun. Sunday morning after a peek at Niles' newest cultural addition, the Mill Run Playhouse, the cavalcade of cars went on to a brunch at the Highland House and then, police escorted, back to their hotel accommodations where the fondest farewells were exchanged.

Mayor Ruben—Columbia, South Carolina—"No superlatives adequate enough—a marvelous weekend."

Mayor Twomey—So. Portland, Maine—"I'll be back" said Mrs. Twomey "He means it and sooner than you think. This was a most beautiful weekend."

Mayor Barr—Forth Worth, Texas—"Most exciting—everyone so wonderfully friendly and kind."

Mayor Lackey—Hopkinsville, Kentucky—"Perfect weekend, exhausted but it was worth it."

Councilman Morrow—White Bear Lake, Minnesota—"The greatest—wouldn't have missed it for anything—wonderful, wonderful, wonderful."

The wives, while admitting the pace was a mite hectic, were delighted with the warm hospitality extended to them and overwhelmed by the kindness and consideration and minute planning that had gone into preparation for their comfort and convenience.

Mobile On Display

Dewey Beck, Director of Public Relations of the Golf Mill State Bank, and designer of the auto "mobile" on display in the bank's lobby is the first of its kind ever to be put on display by a bank. Webster's dictionary defines a mobile as "a sculpture, as of paper or wire, having movable parts which can be easily set in motion, as by a current of air." Mr. Beck's "mobile" is constructed so as to simulate six clouds floating free and has on each side of the cloud a plastic model of a 1966 automobile, Nickey Chevrolet, a customer of the bank, secured the model cars for the display.

Bud Bowman To Appear At Woman's Club Of Niles

Beauty is only skin deep, the saying goes. A fine caricature artist must have behind his work a thorough understanding of basic facial bone structure, the ability to exaggerate certain features and mannerisms and a sixth sense to enable him to pick out personality traits. Results, though startling at times, are unmistakable likenesses and treasured more by the recipients than a painting or photograph that shows only an outside glimpse of the real person.

The Woman's Club of Niles takes pleasure in announcing the appearance of Mr. Bud Bowman at their next regular meeting, Wednesday evening, October 20, 1965, at 8:00 P.M., Bunker Hill Country Club, 6635 N. Milwaukee Avenue, Niles. Mr. Bowman is rapidly rising among the noteworthy artists in the highly specialized field of caricaturing. By using special projection equipment, the entire audience will be able to witness step by step procedure from scratch to finished portrait. His enjoyment in bestowing humor through his drawings will make the evening a delightful experience for all who attend. Caricature studies drawn during the evening will be presented to the guests who pose.

Mrs. William Curtin, President of The Woman's Club of Niles, has extended special invitations to Mrs. Joseph F. Bernhard, Vice President of the Northern Region of the Illinois Federation of Women's Clubs, Mrs. Walter Barth, Past President of the 10th District, Mrs. William Egan, President of the 10th District and presidents and guests from sister clubs in the 10th District. In reciprocation for the many invitations she, and other members of the club have received, Mrs. Curtin hopes to share her pride in her club as well as draw district clubs together.

for unity in General Federation goals and projects.

Women living in Niles, interested in making new friends, or who have a desire to stimulate interest along educational, civic or cultural lines, are urgently requested to be guests. For more information please call, Mrs. George Sawicki, 965-7452.

Victor Hildner, professor of music, Concordia Teachers College, River Forest, will be the director.

Five performances of "The Linden Tree" will be presented in the McCormick Place "Little Theatre" November 5, 6, and 7th. This is a very moving play of men facing death during World War II.

The final event will be a choral concert at St. Luke Lutheran Church at 3:30 p.m., on November 7th. The children's choir of St. Luke and the adult choir of the "Church of the Ascension," of Northfield will demonstrate how a parish choir can heighten and enhance a congregation's participation in worship.

"School For Wives" Rehearsals Begin

Mine East High School's drama department announced this week its selections for the cast of the all-school play to be given the evenings of Nov. 11, 12, and 13.

Philip Stewart, drama teacher and play coach, named ten students to the speaking parts in Moliere's "School for Wives," and eight pantomimists for interludes.

James Cothran, of 2545 Central Rd., Glenview, will play male lead, Arnolphe. Agnes, Arnolphe's bride-to-be, will be played by Patricia James, of 8904 Soday Ln., Des Plaines.

Pat's sister Lucretia will play Georgette, Arnolphe's female servant, and Tom Roberts, of 227 Crescent Dr., Glenview, will play the male servant Alain.

Other speaking parts were assigned to Russ Chaffin, of 9201 Ashland, Niles, playing Agnes' admirer Horace; to Nick Chirikos, of 337 N. East River Rd., Des Plaines, playing Enrique, a father; to Curt Clapper, of 1502 Marcus Ct., Park Ridge, playing the notary; to David Penner, of 741B Davis, Morton Grove, playing another father, Oronte; and to George Loechl, of 8273 Wisner, Niles, playing, Arnolphe's friend Chrysolide.

Unusual in the production will be a staging of pantomime interludes that were part of 17th Century French comedy tradition. A troupe using commedia del arte techniques as the source for these interludes will be composed of Craig Brewick, of 1711 Habberton, Park Ridge;

Terry Brooks, of 7212 Suffield Ct, Morton Grove; Frank Gertz, of 7364 Lee, Niles; Pat Moore, of 8828 Robin Dr., Des Plaines; Phyllis Stozek, of 9149 Woodview Ln., Des Plaines; Leroy Wilson, of 1211 Hoffman, Park Ridge; Gayle Johnson, of 8719 Olcott, Niles; and Norma Walinder, of 107 Lincoln, Glenview.

Jeff Rolla, of 2426 Rita Rd., Des Plaines, is the company stage manager.

Robert DeMuth of the English faculty, the play's technical director, is designing a 17th Century setting for the play, which will have a projecting stage, new to Maine dramatic productions.

Director Stewart has arranged to use an adaptation of Moliere's work through the courtesy of Dr. Willard Welch of Northern Illinois University.

Down By The Old Mill Run

by Frieda Aron

The shows at a theatre go on stage propelled by the guiding hands of the script girls and the wardrobe mistresses. The script girl is individual with each play, but the wardrobe mistress is an integral part of the theatre and is responsible for all the plays that play her theatre. These girls are never credited with the full scope of their performances; most always, they are or were actresses before taking on their present duties.

Dale Soules, the script girl with the show presently at the Mill Run Playhouse, "a view from the bridge" (hope you will not miss it), is an actress who is a script girl between acting engagements. "I have to eat and buy clothes. This is money and traveling with the show is very good money. Back in New York (where the play originates from and will return to), I have time to audition for jobs between the performances; I have all day before the show goes on, at night." The script girl watches every word spoken, the accompanying actions, the essential props needed with or for those same actions and words, and must see that the same consistency extends through each performance. She times and watches the pace of the play and informs the actors how they're holding to the set space of the scenes. There is a tie-in with every motion the actor makes and the effect of his words, for he cannot pick up a glass one night and drop it anywhere he wishes and the next night pick it up and set it right down. The trick is to pick it up, say the necessary phrasing and set it down where he must be for his next cue, so as not to detract from the smooth flow of the scene. Each scene, each performance, must be the same. The food needed for any scene must be freshly prepared to give the desired look and effect upon the audience who views it and must be able to relate immediately and privately what the food represents. It's the little things that can disrupt the play and distract the viewers mind.

Caroline Attanese, wardrobe mistress at the Mill Run Playhouse, is mother, father, counselor, humanitarian, doctor, nurse, laundress, seamstress, cobbler, and is not above sweeping and cooking to keep her cast happy. She has to be everything to everyone and is living proof that the theatre never loses its "afficionados", they just become wardrobe mistresses. Caroline was a dancer for 10 years and traveled widely before she went to work for Music Man, the Ice Shows, Operas, and for the past five years was the very much loved backstage boss-lady at Melody Top Theatre until she transferred to the Mill Run Playhouse. The new theatre needed an old hand at establishing a serene, happy, atmosphere for the incoming stage groups, who were often new to each other and certainly new to the strangeness of this type of performing—in the round—in the intimacy of an otherwise huge and overpowering structure, unless the cajoling of a sympathetic wardrobe mistress was there to receive all complaints and give TLC (tender loving care) in return. Fortunately Caroline's husband was musician and is most understanding about her unusual hours and exacting work. She has two children, a girl 19 and a boy 13, and if they didn't know it before, they can read it now; Mother is a living doll and the Mill Run Playhouse would lose a very essential ingredient in its recipe for "How to keep the players happy and contented" if Caroline Attanese was not "Moose Mother".

To give his scene reality, Robert Duvall, the passionate uncle in the play "a view from the bridge" turns himself round and round until he's dizzy, waiting for his cue to come on stage, weaving drunkenly, in the second act of the play, carrying 2 bottles of liquor (cold tea).

Jon Voight, the young lover in the same play, does a number of push-ups before his scene in which he rushes breathlessly onto the stage with news that his brother is coming to kill the uncle.

Olympia Dukakis, the rejected wife in the play, makes her mind a complete blank and allows nothing to come before her sympathetic portrayal of the bewildered and unhappy woman.

Open House At LGH Nurses School

Students interested in a nursing career are invited to attend an open house at the Lutheran General and Deaconess Hospitals School of Nursing, Park Ridge, on Saturday, October 23.

Registration will begin at 9:30 a.m. in the lobby of the school. The program will include tours of both Lutheran General Hospital and the school.

Miss Erna Rueggeberg, associate director for nursing education, will speak on "Your Future in Nursing" at 10:30 a.m. A question and answer period will follow her discussion.

"This type of program provides an excellent opportunity for students to get information about a career in nursing, whether they're interested in attending this school or another school," Miss Rueggeberg said.

Lutheran General and Deaconess Hospitals School of Nursing has facilities for 100 students and is the only school of nursing in the northwest suburban area. It was founded in 1906 at Lutheran Deaconess Hospital, Chicago, and was moved to its present site in 1960.

TAM Citizens Committee: 'No More Industry'

TAM Citizens Committee News Release

The people of Niles do not want any more industry. Why does Mayor Blase continue to champion the J. Emil Anderson desire for more factories in our town.

We can understand J. Emil Anderson's desires—their for-profit motives—but we cannot understand Mayor Blase's desires.

Mayor Blase has gone off on his own on matters which concern the Park Board, a completely different governmental body.

It is high time that the Mayor and the Village Board serve the need of the Village people instead of private financial interests. It is obvious that Mayor Blase is opposing and undermining the most direct and proper approach that is, the complete acquisition of Tam of Shanter through condemnation procedures by the Park Board.

He is using a so-called public forum to discuss the pros and cons of the acquisition of Tam. As a lawyer, he knows full well that this may jeopardize the Park Board's condemnation suit.

Why does he do this?

We are at a loss to understand why the Village Board members have not questioned Mayor Blase's activities. It is inconceivable that the Board would support an action which is premature and is not in the best public interest.

The public is being misled deliberately by the press releases quoting Mayor Blase as stating that the Village Board and he are also for saving Tam. This is absolutely not true! Never at any time have they proposed, concretely, saving all of Tam. They advocate the acceptance of the J. Emil Anderson scheme which requires the complete destruction of Tam, and in addition, the destruction of the adjacent forest preserve landscape.

This scheme is an insult to the intelligence of the residents of Niles!

The Park Board, on the other hand, is interested in saving the land for a diversified public recreational facility and not to destroy the adjacent forest preserve landscape.

Niles Public School Awarded Safety Awards

The Niles Public School, district Number 71, has received a Certificate of Exceptional Merit and has been placed in the National School Safety Honor Roll of the National Safety Council. Clarence E. Culver, superintendent announced today.

This is the twelfth consecutive year that the school has received this honor. "We are encouraged by the National Safety Council's recognition of our efforts to build a fine safety education program," Clarence E. Culver said. "So long as accidents remain the chief cause of death among school-age children, we will continue to improve that program to teach our young people to protect themselves and their fellow students. The Honor Roll was instituted in 1944. To earn a place on it, a school must present a detailed report of its safety program to a committee composed of the school principal, the president of the local parent-teacher association or similar civic leader, and the president of the local safety council. If this committee reports favorably, the National Safety Council lists the school in the Honor Roll and sends the school a Certificate of Exceptional Merit.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Open Letter To Mayor Blase

Mr. Mayor: In the controversy between you and some of the Village Trustees and the Niles Park Board regarding the Tam-O-Shanter Golf Course, you have made several statements to which I would like to further answer, at the same time I would like to point out a rather significant item to you, which you seem to have lost complete site of.

In the recent ALL AMERICA CITY Award, despite your frantic steering, other taxing bodies were mentioned in the award citation, namely the Library Board, School Districts and last but not least the Park District. With your pushing of new Village Hall, new Fire Station, no gambling, and a few other items supposedly done single handed by you and the Trustees, the LOOK magazine All America City Award Committee chose to use pictures of the Park Districts New Recreation Center and the Park District Program for their presentation in the LOOK magazine. Is our illustrious Mayor slightly miffed at this turn of events?

Now a few other questions: You stated that the Park District can't afford the TAM. You are quoting neighborhood of 5 million dollars. Mr. Ancil representing the J. Emil Anderson Co. has quoted 10 to 11 million. These figures must be predicated on rezoning. Have you and the Trustees already decided to re-zone to industrial? Thus immediately raising value. Evidently the Park Board did "right" in the condemnation suit, to try to hold price.

Also your efforts to stall or prevent Park District from getting answers to J. Emil Anderson proposal, to Forest Preserve District, Why? Are you using your political influence and power to block the Park Boards desire to further information?

Also, why this great urge on your part to make Niles a big industrial village or city? Did it ever occur to you, that some of us residents might like a sort of even balance. I am not asking for all open land nor do I want all industrial, as you are evidently pushing for.

And the last question: Why are you pushing for immediate re-zoning and not giving the Park Board a chance to complete a feasibility study? Are you afraid they might just come up with a successful plan to acquire and operate the TAM?

You and the trustees seem to be able to come up with other ways to raise money, such as recently passed Utility Tax. Maybe you can come up with another sneaker and be able to help the Park District AFFORD the TAM.

Sincerely yours, Alfred Asciutto Sr. 8107 Osceola Niles, Illinois

Laddie Zelinsky 7327 N. Nora Avenue "Nilesite"

Jefferson PTA Halloween Party

The Jefferson P.T.A. is planning a halloween costume party for the children in conjunction with its second movie of the year, which will be shown on Friday evening, October 29th, at 7:00 p.m., in the school's auditorium. There will be a costume parade and prizes will be awarded. Free apples will be distributed to all the children attending. The movie and party is a Ways and Means project, and is under the supervision of Mr. Harry O'Brien, 946 Prospect, Park Ridge.

Dear Mr. Besser: I am surprised at your opinions and conclusions of the "Tam" controversy. Your first observation was that the Park Board was caught with its pants down and have been operating from a weak suit. One thing you don't realize is the Park Board does not have all the money and consequently lawyers at its disposal as the "Tam" interests do. These are ordinary men like you and me who must work for a living and do the Park District work only as a service to the community.

If Mayor Blase and his board would have given some inclination they wanted to help the Park District present their case, I'm sure they would have had a study made, but Mayor Blase as usual seems more interested in presenting the case of "Emil J. Anderson".

You judge the peoples case as a failure because only 75 showed up at Grennan Heights and about 75 at the Council Chambers, but yet you don't impress people that the only persons who were for "Tam" were the so called "aiders", Lawyers, real estate men, etc.

I am not a golfer and I may not use the Park facilities, but I know Niles itself would be much better off with these facilities at its disposal than more factories. Even if I had to pay more taxes.

I would much rather see people of Niles enjoy themselves here at home than go out and kill each other on the highways. We have enough traffic on the highways and we have enough from the existing factories.

You say as a lawyer Mr. Ancel is best, but you don't say best for whom? Not for the people of Niles.

Niles population is going to continue to grow every year. Are we going to tell them to go somewhere else and have fun or try to prepare for the future?

These lawyers and "feasibility" men say very easily "Howard Street and Caldwell Street will have to be widened." Howard from Lehigh to Milwaukee, and we can use Motor Fuel Tax Funds. Who in the world do they think pays Motor Fuel Tax? We certainly do. This is also an opinion our "Mayors" seemed to have when he built the "Great White Way" on "Milwaukee Avenue". We happen to be in the State of Illinois and this money goes from our pockets also. It shouldn't be wasted like running water. It certainly would be put to better use for State highways. I honestly wish the people of Niles would wake up and smell the coffee burning.

Niles To Observe United Nations Day Oct. 23

On Saturday, October 23, starting at 10 a.m., a brief ceremony marking the 20th anniversary year of the United Nations, will be held at the Municipal Building of Niles, 7200 Waukegan Avenue.

As Chairman for the Village of Niles I urge the Citizens of our All-America City to please demonstrate their faith in the United Nations by attending this event.

The U.N. is not perfect but it is our one hope, for peace. Read what the U.N. has done.

1. In the Cuban Crisis, the U.N. provided the means and the place to confront the Russians before the world. World opinion turned against them.
2. In the Congo, the U.N. helped restore order, to prevent Russia and the other powers from taking over. A "brush fire" was contained before it could ignite the world - Dag Hammarskjold died for peace.
3. In the Suez Crisis, war between Egypt and Israel drew in other countries. Russia brandished rocket. But the U.N. helped police a ceasefire with troops from ten small nations.
4. In Korea, U.S. forces bore the lion's share of the burden. But 15 other U.N. Nations had forces in action, and the communist tide was stemmed.
5. Throughout the world, U.N. programs spread education and technical knowledge helped stamp out disease and hunger.

The U.N. gets at the roots of war, its aim is to maintain peace in the world, to reaffirm faith in fundamental human rights and to raise the standards of living for all men.
