Niles To Hold Joint Meeting

Schwartz contended the area would not take in 7,500 people, which is reason for filing objections to the petitions.

After additional verbiage Ryback agreed to contact attorney Louis Ancel, representing the petitioner, asking him to hold-up any further action until after the joint Blase meeting was held to attempt to satisfy the conflicting desires of the residents there.

Ken Cohen, 9045 Clifton Avenue, Niles, was re-elected to serve on the Board of Directors for the Metropolitan Chicago Chapter of The National Foundation-March of Dimes at the organization's recent Annual Meeting. The announcement was made by William B. Haracz, chapter general chairman.

Ken Cohen March Of Dimes Chairman

Cohen, partner in the law firm of Kaveman, Feldman, Berg and Cohen, is a member of the Planning Commission and Zoning Board of Appeals for the Village of Niles. He has been Chairman in Niles for three years. Cohen is married and has two children.

Featured speaker at the Annual Meeting was Clyde E. Shorey, Jr., deputy general counsel for the federal Agency for International Development. Shorey praised March of Dimes volunteers for the work they are doing for the elimination of birth defects as acrippler of children.

Mayor Blase interjected there was a need for all parties to sit down at a meeting, which he said he would call, to determine "Who is honest or not honest".

Builder Suson asked to make a statement. He said the incorporation had no effect on him and the use of his name was aimed at making him a "scapegoat". He noted he had nothing to do with the intended village though he had attended a meeting of the group which petitioned for incorporation. Suson stressed he wanted to cooperate for the betterment of the community and "I don't want to be anyone's scapegoat".

Ryback, the petitioner answered one question the petitioners were mostly renters in the area (about 85 names were on the incorporation petition).

Schwartz told the officials, "By your inaction you have created action (the petition for the Golf Mill incorporation)."

Schwartz re-iterated there was a need to act now. Pointing to the immediacy of the problem he asked the six surrounding villages to express an interest now; Schwartz said, "The case is before the County Court now...if you sit idly by it may be too late".

Stanley Kravitz, representing the Twin Oaks area in the Western-Golf sector noted there is a lack of communications in the unincorporated area which is the crux of the problem. Kravitz contended there are about 12,000 to 15,000 people in the unincorporated area and he believes there is a need for some type of municipal government there. He stressed he wanted one thing...for the surrounding municipalities to file objections to the present petition. He said the people in the entire unincorporated area are not "wafers" and it is certainly in their best interests objections be filed "tomorrow" (Tuesday).

Opposition to Kravitz view came from Paul Ryback, representing the Maine Civic Association, which filed the petition for incorporation. Ryback said he couldn't relate the problems of the school district with the incorporation proceeding. He said the petition was submitted by private individuals, but residents surrounding the C-shaped area did not want to be a part of the incorporation. He admitted such action might be premature.

Schwartz referred to the petitioned-area as "Suson's town (the builder of the multiples there)" but Ryback said Suson had nothing to do with the petition. Ryback said his group was not influenced by Suson and Suson "was not going to control me".

Mayor Blase interjected there was a need for all parties to sit down at a meeting, which he said he would call, to determine "Who is honest or not honest".

Jefferson PTA Auction & Bake Sale

The Jefferson P.T.A. has scheduled an Auction and Bake Sale for December 4th, 1:00 P.M. until 5:00 P.M. at the Jefferson School, 8200 Green-dale, in the Activities Room.

The items to be auctioned, will be donated from the parents of the school. The P.T.A. is accepting any usable item, in good condition, except clothing. The donations are to be brought to school on the morning of December 4th.

The proposals were presented to the administration of District 63 by a team of professors from the Northwestern University departments of education and political science, and by the Institute of Urban Life located at Loyola University. They will cost the district $1950 and $3500 respectively.

In explaining the need and desirability for 2 separate surveys, Dr. G. William Bullock, superintendent, told the Board:

"The Institute survey is concerned with fulfilling an immediate objective of the School District related to the annexation of the property commonly known as the WJJD property at Ballard and Greenwood Roads. It will give us immediate information as to the fiscal and social impact of the proposed development on the district's operation and provide us with a 'position paper' with which we can make a decision as to the Board's position relative to the annexation of this property by the Village of Niles and the development of high-rises.

The Northwestern study, on the other hand, is pointed in a different direction and is more comprehensive in nature. It focuses on specific problems in our district both educationally and non-educationally and should furnish data that the administration can utilize in seeking governmental funds for a thorough community survey embodying all aspects of community development.

The Northwestern study will deal with:

1. Educational resources as they relate to existing and probable future needs.

2. District decision-making processes and other factors that facilitate or deter effective planning and optimal use of resources.

3. Land use and development and the relation of future de-

2. Steps taken by the Board of District #63 to obtain data to deal with the growth and development with in the district.

3. Public attitudes, ways to measure satisfaction and dissatisfaction for improving and extending the base of public support.

The Board acceptance of the twin surveys followed an earlier motion made and accepted by the Board at its Nov. 10 meeting, to reconvene an emergency session of the Conference of Village Officials. This body, composed of the villages of Glenview, Morton Grove, Niles and Park Ridge, School District #63, the State Board of Economic Development, the Northwestern Illinois Metropolitan Area Planning Commission and the Cook County Board, as a result of a resolution by the School Board inviting governing bodies, civic and welfare organizations and private parties in and adjacent to East Maine to sit down together and attempt to suggest solutions to their joint problems relative to the unincorporated areas of East Maine.

During the first meeting, Conference members suggested several possible avenues toward solution to East Maine problems, including a comprehensive plan for the area or annexation by adjoining municipalities. The Conference was told at the time by Peter Sonnenfeld, district manager of the State Board of Economic Development, that the School Board would not be eligible for state monetary assistance to have a comprehensive plan drawn up. State aid is available to municipalities of 50 thousand or less, or counties of any population. Mr. Sonnenfeld said that the municipalities surrounding the unincorporated area could receive aid for professional planning in the area if they agreed to a joint venture.

Two areas of inquiry are scheduled for discussion by the reconvened Conference:

School District 63 OK's Two Surveys

Two proposals for research surveys to investigate the problems arising in School District #63 relative to rapid and large-scale development in East Maine were approved by the Board during the Nov. 23 semi-monthly meeting.

The proposals were presented to the administration of District 63 by a team of professors from the Northwestern University departments of education and political science, and by the Institute of Urban Life located at Loyola University. They will cost the district $1950 and $3500 respectively.

Niles Chamber of Commerce

By Al Green
President-Niles Chamber

The Christmas Holiday Season will be on its way. I hope you have noticed the beautiful new street light decorations. This was a project of the Chamber in which we had the wholehearted cooperation of the Niles Citizens Committee and the Niles Days Committee. I wish to thank both organizations for their community spirit.

The Christmas Decoration Committee consisted of All-America City Commissioner Chuck O'Grady, President of the Niles Citizens Committee, Ben Sosnowski, Village Trustee, Ang Marchese and Sam Bruno, Village Manager, Jim Pryde, Chamber Secretary, Steve Tsalkis, and yours truly, President of the Chamber.

It was a gigantic job selecting the type of ornament and seeing that the brackets which were erected for the All-America City Flags could be used for this purpose. Although all of the Committee worked on this project, the major portion of the work was accomplished by our Secretary, Steve Tsalkis, and particularly by "Paddy Marshall", Chuck O'Grady. Since the unforgettable All-America City parade, I shall always think of him in this light. Chuck was the one who, along with Steve, coordinated the aforesaid task. Of course, all of this was facilitated by Jim Pryde (who takes great pride in his work).

Our next meeting, one of the highlights of the season, is one in which our Program Chairman, Vice Johnson, will present a really great style show for both men and women through the courtesy of Lytton's in Golf Mill. This promises to be an unusual meeting at which the All-America City Commission and the new Mr. and Mrs. Niles will be honored by the Chamber. This meeting will be held at 12:00 noon on Wednesday, December 8th, in the Act IV Room of the Tiffany Restaurant in Golf Mill. Last year, we had large quarters and were able to accommodate a great number of guests. However, this year we were unable to secure accommodations for more than 150 people. Reservations will, therefore, be accepted only up to this number. Please make your reservations by calling the Chamber Office now - 823-7120.

This has been a busy and fruitful year, and with the help of new additions to our Board, Mr. Frank Trioani, Dr. Frank Pealak, Mr. Charles Barbaglia and, more recently, Industrialist, Mr. Robert C. Wardell, Supervisor of Public Relations, Security and Defense of Teletype Corporation, we look forward to making greater strides in the Chamber.

I attended the Jaycees' Teen Talent Show several weeks ago and it was delightful to see and hear the excellent acts that were presented.

The Niles Chamber of Commerce wishes to extend holiday greetings to all the citizens of Niles, Village officials, Police, Fire and Public Works Department and all of its members.

Maine East Pep Club Award Winners

A new award to encourage athletic participation at Maine East High school was instituted last week by the school's Pep club, with presentations to winning homerooms made at the annual winter all-school sports assembly.

Featured speakers at the assembly included coaches of several sports and several visiting members of the White Sox baseball club.

The Pep club presented a plaque on which will be identified the homeroom for each class which contains the greatest number of sports participants.

This year, five homerooms were honored because of one tie. The two junior homerooms of teachers Arthur Belmonte and Thomas J. Gerdner had five student athletes each.

In Belmonte's room are Tony Chirikos, wrestling, Gary Cima, golf, and Kent Carrone, Bob Clifford and Jim Cothran, swimming. In Gerdner's room are wrestlers William Hall and Tom Harner and swimmers Robert Giannini, Paul Gryglas, and Mike Greene.

The winning freshman homeroom of Mrs. Betty Seyfurth has basketball squad members Curt Olson, Larry Peterson, and Jim Parrilli; also swimmer Ron Peymer and wrestler Chuck Perrin.

The winning sophomore homeroom of J. L. Daugherty has swimmers Rick Edalhart, Ed DeVries, and Warren Emerson, gymnast Rand Eller, basketball player Don Duvall and wrestler Don Emanuel.

Like the winning sophomore homeroom, the winning senior homeroom of Mrs. Martha Manas has six sports participants. They are Stuart Anderson, basketball player, and manager Terry Baren; swimmers Nick Chirikos and Don Donovan, and wrestlers Bill Drietein and Bruce Balonick.

Tom Kruse, of Park Ridge, varsity football player, was master of ceremonies of the assembly. In addition to making the plaque presentation to Principal Milo S. Johnston, Kruse called upon several visiting athletes to say a few words, among them William "Moose" Skowron, former New York Yankee player and current White Sox first baseman, and also Sox players Bob Locker and Al Weiss.

All America City Mayors Thanks Niles

The following letters were received from the visiting Mayors of the All American Cities.

Mr. Nicholas Blase, Mayor, Village of Niles, Illinois

Dear Mr. Blase:

Mary and I wish to thank you very much for the wonderful time you gave us recently in Niles.

Nothing that could have been done was left undone. You were a perfect host. We enjoyed every minute of our visit. Looking back over it, one wonders how we did so much in so short a time.

Everyone in Niles seemed to be working together and all events went off right on time. It will be a long time before we stop talking of the trip and we will never forget it.

As a life member of the Elks, I hope to attend their National Convention in Chicago in 1967. At that time I will certainly get in touch with you and some of our other friends in Niles and renew old acquaintances.

But, do not forget that you are welcome to stay at our house any time you are in this vicinity and I would like the chance to show you what we have here. Many thanks again.

South Portland, Maine

Mrs. Margaret B. Lieske, Village of Niles, Illinois (60648)

Dear Margie:

Thanks so much for sending me the newspaper with the very splendid write-ups of the wonderful weekend we spent in the Village of Niles.

We have regaled our friends with stories of your marvelous hospitality and the extremely pleasant weekend we spent, a weekend that will always remain as one of the high spots of our lives.

Mrs. Lackey joins me in thanking you, Mayor Blase, and all of those who had anything to do with this wonderful celebration.

Sincerely,
F. Ernest Lackey,
Hopkinsville, Kentucky

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Green:

Thank you, thank you for a fabulous week-end.

We knew from the letters that we had received that you were planning a "red carpet" week-end but we had no idea so many people were putting so much effort into plans to entertain strangers.

We have told our family, our neighbors, our friends and almost everyone else we have met about the wonderful people of Niles.

The story that most convinces people that it was a truly fantastic week-end was when Mrs. Morrow wore her orchid to the luncheon and Mrs. Rubin said, "Oh, I am saving mine to wear tonight". Then one of the hostesses said, "We don't want you to wear yesterday's orchid tonight, we'll have a new one for you".

Imagine two orchids in two days, I don't expect that to ever happen again.

We especially appreciated your introducing us to many of your friends at the Ball, and to Mr. Green's sister and her husband.

If you get to Texas on your vacation next year, do let us know you are coming for we would love to repay a bit of your generous hospitality.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Willard Barr
Fort Worth, Texas

Dear Mrs. Hanson:

Thank you, thank you for a wonderful week-end.

We are still marvelling at the effort and work all of you went to for a bunch of strangers. I know you were tired when we left - and we were too - but it was a good, happy feeling.

All of the high points we may ever have will be measured by your hospitality and I feel that the "red carpet week-end" in the Village of Niles will always head the list.

If your ears have been burning it is because we have been telling our family and friends over and over of all the lovely dinners, luncheons, torch parade, radio interview, and the Ball. I know I will never have two orchid corsages again in two days, plus a lovely bouquet of red roses.

I also appreciate your including me with Mrs. Rubin on the trip to Chicago to the Museum and Marshall Field's. And to the beauty shop - and there again you thought of everything.

We do hope that in the near future you find your way to Texas and a visit in Fort Worth. We would like so very much to show you a bit of our state, our Six Flags your children would love, and you would enjoy our theater-in-the-round, Casa Manana. We will be looking for you and hope it will be soon.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Willard Barr
Fort Worth, Texas

Honorable Nicholas Blase, Village of Niles, Illinois

Dear Nick:

Just a note to tell you again how very much Rose and I enjoyed the events of your All-America City celebration. It was one of the most interesting, stimulating, and enjoyable experiences that I have ever had. Your hospitality was superlative, and I felt in my "element" immediately. I am grateful to you, your Trustees, your All-America City Commission and others who made our visit so pleasant.

I hope that we will see each other again, and I extend my best wishes for the continued success of your City and the fulfillment of your abundant talents in the area of politics.

Sincerely,
Hyman Rubin

Another Morn'nother Yawn..

Frieda Aron 966-9669

Disenchantment—when the youngster finds himself being punished for saying the same words that brought laughter only a short, short, time ago; suddenly seeing Mommy and Daddy as two very ordinary people, who argue and pout and cannot solve their problems.

Disenchantment—the young bride who remembers how her fiance swore he'd never have enough of her; after the wedding that meant except for the hours he worked, ate, slept, bowled, had a drink out with the boys, lay and watched T.V. on the living room couch. —The young groom who realizes those sweet lips that clung so lovingly to his and agreed with him completely, could swerve sharply after the wedding to—"don't drop those ashes—take off your shoes, after I waxed those floors—why are you late for dinner—where is the rest of your paycheck."

Disenchantment starts early and never ends. The teenager is the greatest sufferer. He's too young to understand that nothing is perfect and too old to be cajoled with soothing bromides from a mother who once healed all the bruises, but is 'helpless now. There are sounds of discord in the house and out of it; there are tears of tragedy, heartaches and frustrations and neither friends nor parents are immune; the whole lovely pink world comes toppling down into a grim and grey world.

Darlings, don't you fret. Grey and pink blend rather well. The grim often turns into the lovely. It's all worth the living and finding out that life can be beautiful. And for the next chapter of "Will our youth grow into 'adults'?", please tune in same channel, same time, next week.....

For a country that cut the cord 300 years ago, we sure are thrown over backwards when descendants of our errant Father-King, come a-calling. America prides itself on its democratic way of life—and lack of class distinction (ha) but when a couple of royal pigeons fly into our back yard, whoops—the Washington whirl is out of their cotton pickin' minds, making grabs for Princess Margaret and Lord Snowden as dinner pieces. We gave up bowing and scraping when we told King George to go jump—into his Boston Tea Party mess, supposedly, but it doesn't seem like it when some attractive puppets come to the plebian land of the colonists and the hostess with the mostest is catapulted into a hectic search for brilliance and talent to charm the couple.

Art Buchwald, columnist, gave the best commentary on the whole shindig—"They (the guests) found two people who weren't gay or amusing". What? Blue-nosed bluebloods?

The stereotype breakfast table with wife in curlers and husband's old robe, and husband behind the morning paper is outmoded. A national study of breakfast habits reports that 65.5 percent of all men workers eat breakfast away from home. It couldn't have been unexpected. Curlers and old robe will do it all the time!

'Messiah' At Maine East Sunday

Four soloists of national reputation will stand before the 250-voice choral ensemble of Maine East high school next Sunday afternoon in the eighteenth annual presentation of Handel's Messiah in the school auditorium.

The soloists will sing a total of 16 recitatives and arias and lead the chorus through six major numbers for the ensemble. Theodore Varges, East's music department chairman, will conduct the concert, beginning at 8:30 p.m.

Admission is free, with Music Booster ticket holders seated first at this traditionally full-house performance.

Soprano soloist of the concert will be Angela Amici, of Chicago, a mezzo who has sung in the company of the Lyric Opera of Chicago and as a soloist in numerous performances of the Messiah and the Elijah. With the Cho-Cho-San Opera company Miss Amici has sung operatic roles that include Lola in "Cavalleria Rusticana" and Frugola in "Il Tabarro". She is the mezzo soprano soloist with the newly formed Woodstock Fine Arts association, where she is scheduled in the role of "The Medium" by Gian-Carlo Menotti, in March.

Joyce Moody, of Evanston, soloist of the First Congregational church there, will sing the contralto arias of the Messiah. She has been a featured soloist with the Schola Cantorum and the Camerata de Medici, and has sung in concert with the Los Angeles Symphony string ensemble. She has also sung leading roles in South Pacific, Carousel, and Die Fledermaus.

Russell Davis, of Chicago, who began his career as a tenor soloist with the Apollo club and the Chicago Symphony orchestra, will sing the exacting tenor arias.

Religious works in which he has been a soloist include the Messiah, Solomon, Judas Macabean, Joshua, B Minor Mass, and Verdi's Requiem.

He has appeared with Molly Picon and Forrest Tucker in various shows, including "Oklahoma", in which he sang the role of Curly, and in "Brigadoon", "Kiss Me Kate",

"Student Prince", "Carousel", and "Milk and Honey".

From New York and living now in Chicago while singing in the Midwest, is Henri Noel, baritone, who has sung in concert and oratorio performances throughout the United States.

He is known for his radio and television appearances on Chicago Theatre of the Air, The Enchanted Hour, and the Music Show.

Noel has appeared with Jan Peerce in the Washington Park summer pops concerts in Milwaukee and with the Florentine opera association there, as well as with the Lyric Opera of Chicago and the opera associations of New Orleans, Mobile, Jackson, Mississippi, and Detroit.

Supporting the singers in the Messiah concert will be the Maine East concert orchestra, augmented by faculty members and several parents of students who are players with professional adult organizations.

Down By The Old Mill Run

by Frieda Aron

It isn't easy to be a chorus girl—the night before a show opening. The dress rehearsal of Flower Drum Song, at the Mill Run Playhouse, went off as per schedule. Tired drooping faces, weary bodies, costumes pinned or gaping, too long or too short, shoes and stockings mismatched, nothing in place, nothing working right. The microphone into which one of the entertainers was to speak, on stage, kept falling off the stand, so it was fixed. When the actor went to hold it in his hand as part of a night club scene, the microphone stuck so tightly that everyone in the cast had a hand at trying to dislodge the speaker from its stem and nothing worked until a metal instrument was used.

In one scene, Mei Li, the mail order bride, brought from China, was to change from Chinese to American dress while dialogue was on stage. The dialogue ended, there was an expectant pause but no Mei Li arrived. Finally she dashed in out of breath, couldn't get into the dress. The scene was done over and this time before the dialogue was even started, Mei Li was back on stage in western dress in too record time and the scene was done again—this time the timing was perfect.

The wardrobe mistress had two extra helpers, trying to get the costumes almost fitting the wearers. When the crew goes to the theatrical costumer, they try on the closest fitting outfits and then it's brought back to the wardrobe department for adjustments. Somehow nothing ever fits, nothing is right in place until the actual night of the performance.

Comes opening night and everything rolls smoothly into position, amazing both the director and the cast. This time Pat Suzuki, star of Flower Drum Song, caused the one

'Flower Drum Song' At Mill Run

Pat Suzuki will be recalling an evening 7 years ago this week when the talented young singer with the big booming voice brought down the house with a rendition of "I Enjoy Being a Girl."

"It was the evening of Dec. 1, 1958 and the place was Broadway's St. James Theatre. The occasion was the opening of Rodgers and Hammerstein's "Flower Drum Song" and it established Miss Suzuki as a star in her first try on a New York stage. She's appearing at Mill Run Playhouse now in the same role—the hip Linda Low, belle of San Francisco's Chinatown.

Appearing opposite Miss Suzuki as Sammy Fong, the Chinese Jack Carter, is Larry Leung who was seen in the downtown production of "Flower Drum Song" when it played there some years ago.

"Flower Drum Song" continues at Mill Run through Dec. 12. The Niles theatre is negotiating for a children's show to be presented at Christmas time. Van Johnson is the next major star at Mill Run opening Dec. 28 in the Herb Gardner comedy, "A Thousand Clowns."

faux pas of the show's first night. There is a satire on a girly-girly night club in which Pat does a strip-tease. Starting off, she was startled to see that something was missing. The flesh-colored undergarment she always wears for the scene was not on and quickly Pat flung the bodice of her dress back over her.

It's amazing how sexless the play can be with half-dressed girls romping around the stage. The whole play is taken with utter candor and delightful tongue-in-cheek attitudes. The hot-cha girls look like the kids next door and whatever they wear can't change them into dangerously exotic sirens. It is totally innocent for all its innuendos and daring provocations. Pat Suzuki is having one grand time in the part of a worldly gal enticing a young innocent boy and the rest of the cast is having just as much fun.

What happened to the leggy, ravishing showgirls that brought the stage-door johnnies out in multitudes? They're all in Las Vegas; they certainly aren't in the musicals hereabouts. If mothers worry about the pitfalls that await their daughters, on the road show circuit, they need it. No villainous characters are waiting for them at the stage door; the girls pick up their knitting bags and get taken home by the Playhouse bus.

New Chorus Director At LGH

Robert Nelson, 1710 W. Oakton, Arlington Heights, has been named chorus director at Lutheran General and Deaconess Hospitals School of Nursing, Park Ridge.

Nelson received his bachelor's and master's degrees from the American Conservatory of Music in Chicago. He has also studied at Roosevelt University, Chicago, and at the University of Georgia.

In 1953 he was a member of a concert group which toured the Scandinavian countries. Nelson and other music educators went to Europe in 1958 to study music methods at all educational levels.

In addition to teaching sacred and secular music at the school of nursing, Nelson is the vocal music teacher at Algonquin Junior High School, Des Plaines, and choir director at Irving Park Lutheran Church, Chicago. He also directs the nurses chorus at Ravenswood Hospital, Chicago.

Nelson is married and has three children.

Maine East Double Feature At Golf Mill V Show Try-Outs

Her hands tied and almost helpless with terror, lovely Samantha Eggar is dragged back to her cell—prison by kidnaper Terence Stamp in this scene from William Wyler's "The Collector," in Technicolor. Starts Friday at Golf Mill.

Maine East high school's famed V Show, upon which the spring extravaganza of a number of other schools are modeled, came out from under wraps last week with a hint of new surprises.

Traditionally, V Show grasps the interest of the entire township with its never-failing freshness, vigor, and color.

O.D. Premo, musical director, and Robert J. DeMuth, newly appointed show director, have again hit upon a nostalgic and delightful theme, the grand old days of vaudeville and big name bands.

One hundred eager students answered the directors' first call Thursday. DeMuth explained the tryout procedure that will result, he estimated, in 30 to 40 acts worth offering on the traditionally professional level that marks this particular entertainment.

Stingers and dancers will display their talents with their own material from Dec. 13-21 after school. Within a few days thereafter, accepted acts will be named, and then the strenuous weeks of training for the usual fast-moving revue will begin.

"This 'N That" is the name of the 1966 show. "We like the apness of that name to the enormous variety of acts in vaudeville during the era of the bigtime show comedians, singers and musicians," DeMuth said.

Premo pointed out that the show this year is being designed to uncover new types of talent.

"Ordinary singing, dancing or plain old guitar strumming is not enough to get by," Premo told the hopeful artists. "Instead we want new kinds of acts, the unusual kind that made vaudeville so popular."

Show dates have been calendared for Feb. 10-12, 1966.

"Because of two holiday periods now approaching, those days will arrive all too soon," DeMuth said. "We have got to work hard to make this V Show the all-time record-breaker we would like it to be."

Maine East Antique Show December 10, 11 & 12

What may be the biggest antique show the northwest suburban area has ever seen is scheduled for Friday through Sunday, December 10-12 in the cafeteria of Maine East high school in Park Ridge.

For the second successive year the school's Mothers Club is sponsoring the show. Twenty exhibitor areas will be filled with antiques brought by dealers from four states—Minnesota, Wisconsin, Illinois and Indiana.

Hours of the show are 7 to 10 p.m. Friday, 11 a.m. to 10 p.m. Saturday, and 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. Sunday. Tickets are $1. Proceeds will go into the Maine East Mothers Club scholarship fund.

"The exhibits will display an interesting phasing of antique collecting that has become apparent in recent years," said Mrs. Edward Alde, Mothers club president.

"Alice Winchester, editor of Antiques magazine and author of "How to Know American Antiques," reminds us that artifacts from different periods of our history are classed as antiques in different parts of the country.

"For example, she points out that a New Englander or a Virginian would not class a Victorian sofa as antique but people would call it an antique if it appeared in Indiana, Nebraska, or Oregon, because it represents the earliest homes in those regions."

From Atop The Leaning Tower "Y"

by June Hart

The Christmas season is almost upon us and so our thoughts tend to turn over stronger towards family and friends. It is the time for remembering, giving and all accompanied by sincere wishes for the well-being of our families, and friends both near and afar. A Christmas gift of family membership at your new seven communities "Y" the Leaning Tower "Y" will provide a year of diversified health activities, commencing with the new set through to the status of the senior set. Wide scope programming will stimulate many dormant skills of class participants or help discover them. For a year of health, a year of knowledge, indeed a year of adventure, indulge your family and encourage your friends towards membership in your new full facility up-to-the minute "Y". Call 647-8222 and place your name on the Y's mailing list. Watch your local paper for full information and complete presentations of programs. The Leaning Tower "Y" is located on 6300 Touhy Avenue in All America City Niles.

The Y-Indian Guides and Princesses - father - son and father - daughter club programs ring out a hearty welcome to new tribes. Skokie; Apache Tribe, Morton Grove; Otee Tribe, Edgebrook; Algonquin Tribe, Niles and Morton Grove; Princess Tribe Seneca, Did you know that every young brave and pretty princess is a veritable patron of the Y? At each of the tribe meetings a small nominal silver piece is contributed by each family to defray costs of craft projects and the surplus moneys are donated to the "Y" building fund.

For your convenience, our newly installed Self-Service elevator is now in operation. It is only one of our many improvements for the people of this community which we have been serving for 26 years from this location.

HR Commission

feeling such a creation would help to "bring us together".

Resident Carol Massey asked the difference between the Council and a Commission and was told the former was a voluntary group with no official authority, while a Commission would be under the sanction of the village board, with authority vested in the officials. Trustee Ed Berkovsky emphasized this very point, which he said he believed to be pertinent.

Other comments included those from residents Bill Keener, Dick Gruenwald, Joe Miller, Joe Salerno and Joe Kowalski. Kowalski claimed the meeting was a "packed meeting" and not an objective one; Keener's remarks were not in sympathy with what he called "the underprivileged"; Gruenwald mentioned the need to relieve tension; Miller asked the academic question about the effective use of government, presumably in this area of human relations, while Salerno, Niles Electrical Commissioner, asked what have been the accomplishments of the present Niles Human Relations Council.

President of the Human Relations Council, Ron Pinkowski, cited the five meetings conducted by the group the past year, noting the educational aspects of its goals. He said the 5 subjects covered included, "What is Human Relations, The Ecumenical Conference, Shared Time, Open Housing and Youth Problems".

Pinkowski said nobody in the audience listened to the other side. He said he asked the audience to try to think, and not act with emotion.

Father Zawadowski, St. John Brebeuf, criticized attorney Sutton for arousing the emotions of the crowd, and said the crowd only listened to their own emotions, after Sutton finished.

Mayor Blase then said an open discussion, hearing both sides express themselves would be most welcome. It is likely such a meeting would be held at a future date.

Mrs. Andrews Heads Niles Palsy Drive

Mrs. Dimmy Andrews, 8148 Oaklane, Niles, has been named chairman of the "53-Minute March" on cerebral palsy for this area according to Arthur Rubloff, Chairman of the Board of United Cerebral Palsy of Greater Chicago.

In accepting the chairmanship Mrs. Andrews commented on the fine cooperation from the residents of this area in the past. She said, "We need this generous support again, not only in money, but in volunteer help, too." The annual march will be held on Sunday, January 16. A goal of $500,000 has been set for Cook, Lake, DuPage and Kane counties. These funds will support the program of direct services, research and education sponsored by UCP of Greater Chicago.

The "53 - Minute March" theme is significant because one child is born with cerebral palsy every 53 minutes. There are now approximately 21,000 children and adults in Greater Chicago. Cerebral palsy usually strikes at birth; there is no cure; victims live a normal life span with this crippling.

Fireman Walter Blase

Nilesite Walter J. Blase, 23, has traded his GI uniform for the blue attire of the fire department.

Blase, of 8140 N. Merrill Ave., returned to his former post in the Niles Fire Department after his discharge from the U. S. Army, which included a three month stint in Viet Nam. Blase served with the 504th Military Police Battalion, "C" Company, in the seacoast town of Qui Nhon, about 270 miles north of Saigon.

Blase originally joined the fire department in August, of 1962, and was assigned to Eng. Co. 3, when he was drafted in November, 1963, because Blase's Viet Nam assignment was on the perimeter of the combat zone, he and his battalion were constantly on the alert for snipers and saboteurs.

Fire Chief Albert L. Hoelbl, said that Blase will undergo a two-week orientation period before he is assigned permanently. Blase said he is looking forward to firehouse cooking again after 2 years GI fare.

Baseball League Readies For 1966

The dust has just settled and the cheers have just faded away on the 1965 Niles Baseball League season, but the League's Board of Directors and Officers for the 1966 season are already starting to warm up for the task that lies ahead. Faced with the possibility of having the largest number of boys in the history of the League, the officials are organizing the numerous facets necessary for a successful season.

Chosen to determine the policies for the ensuing campaign are the Board of Directors composed of Walt Beusse, Chairman; Tony Di Lorenzo, Art Vodicks, Tony Hubick, Ed Trojan, Richard Les, Augie Donash, Hank Mueller, and Ken Larson.

The Officers, headed by Commissioner, Bob Warren are Ray Mroz, Vice Commissioner; Bill Swanson, Treasurer and Jim Gramarossa, Secretary.

The way things have boomed in the Village of Niles - especially the population - it is quite an undertaking to provide a baseball program which equips, insures and guides the baseball recreation of every youngster who wants to play. The job is a big one but with the support of the entire community, the goal will be reached.

Teen Age Smoking Clinic December 12

In view of published information citing the relationship between Cancer and smoking, the Niles Board of Health will sponsor a Teen Age Smoking Clinic on Sunday, December 12, 1965, at 3 p.m., at the Niles Park Recreation Center at 7877 Milwaukee Avenue. The program is to be conducted by the Hinsdale Sanitarium and will be free of charge.

The purpose of conducting this program is to graphically illustrate to teen-agers the harmful effects that can occur as a result of youngsters smoking. Statistics indicate that an alarming rise in young smokers is occurring. The Board is concerned with the harmful effects on our young people and feel educational enlightenment in this vein is a necessity.
