

WANP News

The June 3, 1966 meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of the Niles Police Department was quite busy in keeping with the fast moving schedule ahead. With the recent announcement of a Niles Days Parade, float chairmen Nancy Klein and Rose Barbalace were appointed and frenzied plans are in progress for what we hope will be the "biggest and best" float ever! All pom-poms and decorations on all auxiliary floats are hand made by members, so you know what the girls will be doing in their spare time until the parade. In addition to entering the float in the parade, the auxiliary will be in charge of four of the rides during Niles Days.

Future plans for our annual Labor Day picnic were also discussed, and chairmen Joan Stankowicz, and Jane Polinski are busy planning a menu, games and a good time for all.

A lovely raffle prize was presented by Rose Barbalace and was very gratefully won by Virginia Rek. Our "Top Cop" for the month was Ernie Passarelli. May we remind all Niles residents and friends of the annual Policeman's Ball on June 25th at Villa Venice. A good time is in store for all who attend.

Chief Hoelbl Crusade Leader

The chief of the Niles Fire Department is chairman of the public employes division for the September fund campaign of the Skokie Valley United Crusade.

Albert L. Hoelbl was appointed to the community service position by Nicholas B. Blase, mayor of Niles, and will serve with Lionel B. Gilbert, general chairman of the 15th annual drive that will be in partnership with the Metropolitan Crusade of Mercy.

Hoelbl, who was chairman of the division's Niles unit in 1964, is organizing a corps of volunteers to contact the 650 employes of the villages of Lincolnwood, Morton Grove, Niles and Skokie, inviting support for Crusade affiliates service organization. He will name a chairman for each of the four villages.

Pack 275 Meeting

Cub Scout Pack 275 of St. John Brebeuf school in Niles held a pack meeting in the school hall on Tuesday, May 31.

The theme of the month was "Jungle Dances" and each cub scout, in appropriate mask or costume, participated in a parade of animals, or a jungle dance.

Awards are presented to the following Wolf Badges: Rodney Adams, Peter Conrad, James Chiappetta, Mark Floreczal, Thomas Moretti, Bear Badges: John Bress, Gold Arrow: Lawrence Sussar, Silver Arrow: Donald Bianchi and Jeffery Jeyes.

There will be no pack meetings during June, July, and August. However, the pack will hold an activity each month in which family participation is encouraged. In June there will be a kite flying contest; in July, a family picnic, and in August, there will be fishing at Beck Lake.

Preparations For Niles Days Get Underway

Although opening night is one month away, final preparations are in the making for what undoubtedly will go down on record as the most fabulous Niles Days Carnival yet.

There will be something for everyone: contests, raffles, parades, merchandise booths, amusement rides, fireworks, and dozens of extras.

Contest faddists may try a hand at arousing some friendly competition among their neighbors by entering each of the nightly events. On Wednesday, for instance, the largest family will be the recipients of a prize. Thursday's contest will do honor to the couple who have been married the longest number of years. Bringing in the carnival's western theme, Friday's prize will be bestowed upon an adult who is judged to be wearing the best western costume. Saturday's event gives an award for the best, honest-to-goodness, home-grown mustache or beard worn by an enterprising individual. Naturally these contests are applicable only to persons on carnival grounds at the time of each event.

Anyone in attendance at Niles Days can also win one of several prizes. In addition to twenty-five 50 lb bags of lawn food, compliments of Norbert's Nursery, the following items will be raffled: Wednesday and Thursday - a $100 savings bond, donated by "Down the Street"; and John Poeschl respectively;

Friday - a 19-inch portable TV from Skaja Funeral Home; Saturday - a weekend in Los Angeles with the good wishes of Travel Consultants.

Lads and lassies, between the ages of one and twelve years who live not only in Niles, but also Chicago and surrounding suburbs, will have the opportunity of putting their best foot forward and winning a new bicycle in the Kiddie Costume parade. In addition, each child entering the contest is to receive a prize from Theobault Olsen. Many junior marchers will also be guests on WRSV, 98.3 FM Radio as it covers the afternoon's festivities.

And speaking of parades, Sunday, July 24, will see a spectacular lineup in the annual Niles Days parade headed this year by Veda Kaufmann.

During the carnival, over 15 merchandise and food booths will be open for everyone's enjoyment.

Motion lovers of all ages will have a thrill or two on such spectacular rides as the Dodgem, Cooper, Motorcycle, and Skywheel which, incidentally, will be the only one of its kind in the Midwest this summer.

Don't forget to circle those fun-filled dates on your calendar - July 20, 21, 22, 23, and 24 - Niles Days, 1966!

Library To Start Summer Reading Club

On June 20 the Niles Public Library Summer Reading Club will start its space age project of a reading "Flight to the Sun". Types of books have been grouped so that the reading of each type will lead from one planet to the other and upon completion of the series the reader will have reached the Sun. Membership forms will be available at the Library after June 15 and will give the directions for the project. The club is open to all boys and girls from second to eighth grade and completion will require reading of at least ten books before the end of July. A written report must be made on each book on forms supplied by the library.

At the end of the project a certificate will be given to each child completing the "Flight to the Sun" as an acknowledgment of his or her successful efforts. The purpose of the reading club is to furnish specific direction to the children's summer reading and to give the children a sense of accomplishment in carrying out an assigned project.

It is the hope of the Library Staff that a large group of children will take part in this summer activity and thus will benefit from a guided activity leading to a better understanding of the wonderful world of books.

Niles Art Guild Exhibits Works Of 2 Members

The art gallery windows of the Niles Art Guild at 229 Lawrencewood Shopping Center are featuring the work of two member artists thru the month of June to July 4.

Niles Fire Dept. Exams June 18

Anyone seeking to become a firefighter in one of the fastest growing fire departments in the northwest suburban area, will have his chance June 18. That is the date of the entrance examination for the Niles Fire Department.

Chief Albert L. Hoelbl noted that applicants must be between the ages of 21 and 34, and meet specific physical and mental requirements. The test will be conducted by the Niles Police and Fire Commission at fire department headquarters, 8360 W. Dempster St., at 9:30 A.M. In addition to the written exam, there will also be an oral interview and physical agility test.

Chief Hoelbl said that starting salary is $510 a month, and working hours, vacation time and pension privileges are similar to those now prevailing. Applicants may be obtained at fire headquarters. Applicants may reside anywhere at the time of the exam but village residence is required within a specific time period.

The department presently consists of 33 paid men, and two stations, an, according to Chief Hoelbl, the future of six men in the near future is anticipated. Niles also is one of the few communities in the area to enjoy a Class 4 rating, and has won top honors in the fire prevention field.

Niles Public Library From The Left Hand

by David Doctor, Editor & Publisher
Sheridan, Wyoming.....

Sally Kozubal.....who is quarterbacking THE BUGLE for the next couple of weeks...took over the head chair the day before we left Niles and gave us orders to send in a column for this week's edition. Since she had the worried look which is a trademark among editor's who have to fill much space during summer's inactive months (due to a lack of club news, etc.) we thought we'd better send along this week's copy.

Most important - residents in Maine Township go to the polls Saturday to express their feeling on an increase for the educational tax fund for the high schools. The first time around it was defeated - primarily because of resistance from residents in Park Ridge. This time it will likely pass... though support from residents understanding the need for the money for educational needs is a must if Maine High is to keep pace with the needs of the community.

While we left home before we had a chance to study the local election returns we have a few observations we find significant.

The Blase victory was a result of the North end of Niles overwhelmingly supporting Blase. At Oak School Blase beat Bradley 77-23; at 8750 Oketo 78-38; 9040 Courland 110-50; Notre Dame High School, 126-24; 8950 Ozanam 169-87; 8410 Greenwood, 116-46; 8950 Ozanam (Nelson school), 111-7; 7800 Lyons, mostly Niles Township residents, 129-20. Blase's main opponent, Dick Wessell, forfeited these precincts, finishing last there. Obviously, his strategy was to wallop Blase in Des Plaines and the unincorporated area. Unfortunately for Wessell, he couldn't get out as strong a vote there as Blase did in Niles, though he won as decisively in his home area as Blase did in his.

Wessell should be commended for coming within 150 votes or winning from 2 guys who had a great deal more experience than Wessell.

Blase once again showed he can effectively create a machine of workers who know how to get out the vote.

However, while Blase swamped his opponents in Niles, nevertheless he only won by 500 votes over the total vote of his 2 opponents. If 250

VOTE ON DIST. 207 TAX HIKE SATURDAY

Ask Support For 2 1/2 Increase

Maine Township residents will vote Saturday, June 25, on a referendum which proposes raising the tax ceiling of High School District No. 207 by 2 1/2% from the present rate of $1.21 to $1.42 per $100 of assessed valuation.

Board President John Wilkins explained the tax increase of 2 1/2% is needed because surveys show that by 1970 student enrollments will increase from the present 8,600 students to 12,000 - also higher costs for materials and equipment and teachers' salaries required to care for the student population explosion.

Wilkins stated that the financial situation of the school system is extremely serious. "We are deeply in debt and need the requested 2 1/2% increase in the Educational Fund to finance teachers' salaries," Wilkins said. "If we cannot receive citizens' approval for an increase in the levy, the Board of Education will be forced to take drastic measures that will probably erode the quality of high school education in Maine Township."

Prepare For 4th

Chamber Readies For Gala July 4th

With final preparations under way, leaders of various community organizations are looking forward to a gala 4th of July Celebration. The Niles Chamber of Commerce is again sponsoring the exciting event at the Notre Dame Stadium with assistance from the Niles Lions Club.

contribution of 50¢ for children. The program will begin at 8:00 p.m.

Clara Blase Memorial Concert Announced

In addition to a spectacular fire works demonstration, professional entertainment and a Thrill Show will be presented. The Chamber will also be honored by a special guest, Kathryn Bensch, winner of the 1965 Illinois Junior Miss Pageant.

On the occasion of the first anniversary of the passing of Clara Blase, Niles First Lady the combined memorial fund committees through Al Green, Chairman, announced that a Memorial Concert will be held on Sunday, August 7th. In announcing the concert Al Green explained that the two memorial fund groups had joined forces for this event. For the past year a fund has been established for the Leaning Tower YMCA and one for the new Niles Library. The fund for the Y is for the community services room which dedicates itself to children and the annual community services award in memory of Clara Blase. The fund for the library is for the furnishing of the children's wing. Both funds hope through the benefit of this concert to complete

The concert will star top Broadway talent and will be held at the Golf Mill Mil Run Theatre. Tickets will be sold for seven dollars and fifty cents and ten dollars. All proceeds will go to these funds. In addition to Al Green, the committee is composed of Mrs. Ed Berkowsky, Mrs. Orville Ottow, Mrs. Joseph Salerno, Mrs. Robert Wente, representing the YMCA fund, representing the Library fund, Mrs. Bud Hansen, Ang Marcheschi, and Mrs. Frank Lieske.

Organizations and persons wishing to go as groups should contact Margie Lieske, Diane Hanson or Al Green.

The tax rate increase will help provide the teachers needed for growing enrollments, will keep the teachers' salaries competitive, will save the interest on tax warrants and put the Maine Schools on a pay-as-you-go basis.

Polls will be open June 25 from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Troop 33 Visit Colorado

Jerome Lerner Expresses After-Election Feelings

by Frieda Aron

Jerome Lerner lost the race for Niles Township Committeeman. There is no rancor, no bitterness in him; what remains after the disappointment is the hurt and the fatigue fades is a great sense of frustration.

"I feel so frustrated, I'm bursting with creative ideas and no outlet. I had so many fine programs planned for the office of the committeeman to change the premises of the office. It's only a matter of education, adult education. The apathy of the voter is appalling, he lacks awareness, interest and feels a vote for the President (of the United States) is enough. He's very wrong. It's down here at the local level where good government starts and will have the most effect."

Named To Deans List

James M. Hennessey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hennessey, 7501 W. Arcadia Street, Morton Grove, Illinois, has been named to the Deans' List at Illinois Institute of Technology.

The Dean's List is composed of all students who have distinguished themselves academically during the past semester.

"But why did you want the job which is highly touted as being non-remunerative?" I asked him. "Is it power, prestige or the fringe benefits?" (which no one likes to talk about);

"It's true, you do have excessive power, reaching into the county, the city, the state and as a result your business is bound to prosper. That's why I lost, I fought 100 candidates, not one, job holders, job seekers. No matter how nice a guy Lerner might be, if your neighbor comes to you and says, 'If you vote for Lerner, my husband will lose his job' are you going to say no to a personal appeal?"

That is the core of the position of the committeeman. He has 100 jobs available for patronage and a lifetime to 100 job holders can wield a moderate size empire. He is sort of an overseer for the people in his area, if your sewer isn't working and you get no satisfaction elsewhere, call the committeeman; if your son needs entry into a school or a job with political influence, call your committeeman; if the president needs votes, the committeeman had better come up with them and he delivers. Quite a diversity in actions.

Any romp in the political arena is likely to cost from $15,000—$20,000, conservatively speaking, and that is no hay. Particularly when it has to come from dedicated, devoted and conscientious volunteers who raise the sum, dollar by dollar. It's a commitment to the type of men and women who surrounded Jerome

Lerner that the amount was raised. They were not the average type of hanger-on that is found in many campaign headquarters, those who move with the votes. These people are talented, intelligent, thought-provoking, and deeply aware of the need to take the stagnation out of government. And it was the leadership of Jerome Lerner that insisted the game of politics be played out in a manner not to destroy human dignity.

"I'm glad this is over, I was becoming too narrow-minded, with only one goal ahead of me. Now the horizons have widened for me, there is so much I would like to do. In the field of adult education, in the Indian department, in the Law profession. The Government agencies are so bogged down in mediocrity, in waste, in stagnation. As I get older, time seems to be less available and I must use my capabilities to bring forth all the ideas that fill my head. I have a number of plans, but I cannot discuss them until I bring them to some order."

There are three types of politicians and we've had a chance to see all of them in action during this last campaign. There is the party man staged and backed by a well-organized machine; there is the meteoric riser who cracks his whip all the way up the ladder. And there is the third type, the gentle persuader, not always successful as a politician, but always a winner as a man. That's Jerome Lerner.

"I'd rather run for State Senator than Committeeman, it wouldn't be as tough," he said.

Well, let's see where Mr. Lerner's star ascends next.

Troop 77 News & Notes

Sunday May 22, the Scouts of Troop 77 along with some leaders participated in a clean-up campaign, cleaning the triangle corner of Gross Point and Oakton St. After all the rubbish and debris was collected it was piled up for the Village truck to come and pick it up. The weeds are now cut down and this little triangle of land is nice and neat. Thanks for doing such a good job boys or such a fine community as Morton Grove.

Friday, Saturday and Sunday June 10, 11 and 12 the scouts and their fathers went on a Father and Son week end camping trip. The weather was perfect for camping out and cooking out. But you fathers didn't know your boys could cook so well. This week end was spent at Camp Dan Beard in Wheeling, Illinois.

The Cubs are still playing ball at the Edison School Ballfield. The next few games will tell the tale of who will be the Baseball Champs for 1966. Come and watch the Cubs play ball every Tuesday and Thursday. Game time 6:30 P.M.

The scouts have started having their weekly patrol meetings in the St. Pauls Woods. Weather permitting this is where the scouts will meet every Monday during the summer.

The pack and troop will hold their annual picnic at the Lime Woods in Morton Grove. There will be games and prizes for all the boys and girls of all ages. There will be free pop and ice cream. Come early, bring a lunch and stay late. The boy will watch their fathers play ball. Let's see if the fathers are as good as the Cubs.

The scouts and leaders of Troop 88 send "Get Well" wishes to Mr. Sid Wallach, Committee Chairman of the Troop. Mr. Wallach under went surgery, but is home and doing well.

Camp time is here again. The scouts along with Mr. Mas Igasaki, Scoutmaster and Mr. Bob Diederich, Assistant Scoutmaster will spend two weeks at Camp Napowan in Wild Rose Wisconsin. They will meet in the Edison School parking lot, and leave by bus on Saturday July 30. Here the boy will sleep in tents eat in the mess hall and of course they can go to church on Sunday. The new boys in the troop will certainly enjoy these two weeks.

Recognition Day Held At Nelson School

An all-school assembly was held at Nelson School on Friday, June 10, which was the last day of the 1965-66 school year. Several songs and skits by sixth-grade students provided the entertainment.

Recognition was given to students whose contribution was outstanding in several different ways. Among those recognized were student council members, safety patrol boys and girls, citizens of the week, student librarians, glee club members, student projector operators, school supply machine operators, and bus monitors. In addition, all sixth grade students were recognized and special mention was given to those students whose effort and attitude seemed to be outstanding. These pupils, not necessarily high achievers, were chosen by the home room teacher.

Individual recognition was also given to the following students for perfect attendance throughout the school year: Richard Swanson, Mark Brozowski, Socrates Andreou, Michael Filipp, Kenneth Ujivye, James Tashjian, Frank Agnew, Susan Stratynski, Seavart Shakarian, Erica Morath, Cheri Kostan, Paula Nicastro, Linda Khidirian, Ronald Bezdun, Susan Selzer, Richard Giorgi, Karl Morath, Billy Hayes, Linda Nicastro, Rose Shyan, Catherine De Lee, John Filipp, Gary Hanzel, Larry Adams, Edmund Schaeffer and Shelley Rapoport.

Also, the following had perfect attendance with the exception of religious holidays: Albert Silcroft, Alice Goldsmith, Lisa Friedman, Andrea Gallen, Neil Fischer, Roberta Friedman and Nancy Miner.

The departure of four teachers was announced to the student body, Miss Brooks, a first-grade teacher, is planning to travel in Europe during the 1966-67 school year. Miss Walsh, the music teacher, will be married this summer, and live in Indianapolis. Mrs. Silyer and Mrs. Null are retiring for personal reasons.

At the conclusion of the assembly a school song was introduced to the student body. The school song committee, which chose the lyrics, consisted of: Joel Kopald, Cindy Goldberg, Larry Kopald, Tim Brosnan, Maralee Joseph and Lynn Payne.

The music was written by Gordon Kopald, a parent of children at Nelson. The song was arranged by the music teacher, Miss Walsh. The school song, entitled "Three Cheers for Nelson School," was enthusiastically received by the student body.

Eighth graders and others who have trouble with reading are urged to take the reading development course, which runs for four weeks and costs $16.

Kathleen Tritschler To Attend University Of Wisconsin

Kathleen A. Tritschler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kasimir Tritschler, 8922 Parkside Avenue, Morton Grove, is among some 500 young men and women who visited the University of Wisconsin campus in Madison during this past week to register for University studies to be started with the opening of the University's school year in September.

This summer's advance registration-orientation program at Madison continues through July 22. Under it, the young men and women visit the campus for at least a day, often with either their mothers or fathers or both parents, arrange for their housing if that is not already done, take some placement tests, meet some student leaders and faculty members, and register for their coming University studies designed to lead them into their life careers.

Next autumn the new students return to the UW Campus September 6 to continue their orientation. Their classes begin Monday, September 12.

A Well Deserved Good-by

The occasion was a fond good-by to Anne Rosenberg who has been a volunteer worker in the Oak School Library for the past 6 years. Anne has seen the School Library grow from a hand full of books with one volunteer worker to thousands of books and 7 volunteers who are:

Mrs. Alice Bethman, Mrs. Alice Janis, Mrs. Helen Jorgensen, Mrs. Mary Lou Kuza, Mrs. Lucille Larsen, Mrs. Joyce Rings and Mrs. Mickey Woelfel.

Reason Anne is leaving Oak is because her daughter Holly will be going to Jr. High this September.

Gabriel Richard Institute Graduates 500

Know, love, pray, go teach, the fundamentals of the Richard Basic Course were certainly evident at the graduation ceremonies held at Mather High School on June 19, 1966.

Unlike a cap and gown graduation, the Gabriel Richard Leaders create an atmosphere of enthusiasm and warmth for their fellow classmates. Each class cheering their chosen olympic speaker to victory. Banners and on parade, songs are chanted and Class 327 from St. Alban's Episcopal church walked away with the 1st prize in giving their demonstration. They made a space theme, students wore white coveralls as space suits and they carried their olympic speaker to the stage in a space rocket. Winner of the speech contest was Sister Vincent Thomas who is head of St. Joseph's Hospital. A graduate of The Catholic University of America in the Nursing Administration Department. She feels that taking the Gabriel Richard Course has helped perform her duty to patient and group discussions much better than before. We know Sister can inspire many to follow her ways, both her patients and co-workers.

Winners of the second place award was Robert Wirth who resides with his wife Mary Ann and their three daughters, at 1027 Frances in Park Ridge. A very France man in his community, he devotes most of his time to the Loukia Foundation of Chicago. This past Spring he led a committee that brought proceeds to Leukemia foundation which totaled 10,000 dollars. He started a teen-age marathon dance. The point of his talk was to act and to become more aware of the needs of others. We can surely see that he practices what he preaches.

The point of Gabriel Richard is to develop a person who is confident, a person who can communicate effectively and one who has worth while purposes in life. Any person, group or organization desiring information or a free demonstration of the Gabriel Richard Technique please dial 922-4392.

Thirty-nine firemen from 25 Illinois cities and villages attended the first instructional school conducted by the newly-formed Illinois Professional Fire Inspectors Association. The meeting was co-hosted by the Niles and Des Plaines Fire Departments at Niles Station 2, 8360 W. Dempster Street.

The hazards encountered in the use, storage and transportation of liquid petroleum (LP) gas was the theme of the two-day course sponsored by the Illinois Department of Public Safety, William J. Cowhey, State Fire Marshal.

Inspectors from as far north as Waukegan, and as far south as Calumet City, attended lectures, witnessed demonstrations and viewed instructional slides. The association is open only to inspectors of paid fire departments and those employed in industry and insurance groups.

Guest speakers included Carl Tebon, local businessman and Illinois Safety Director of the L.P. Gas Association, Don Nichols, Secretary of the LP group, Marvin Austin, field engineer of the Illinois Inspection and Rating Bureau, Harris Goodwin, of Bastian & Blessing Co., and George Grist, LP gas consultant.

Preparations For Niles Days Get Underway

Although opening night is one month away, final preparations are in the making for what undoubtedly will go down on record as the most fabulous Niles Days Carnival yet.

There will be something for everyone: contests, raffles, parades, merchandise booths, amusement rides, fireworks, and dozens of extras.

Contest faddists may try a hand at arousing some friendly competition among their neighbors by entering each of the nightly events. On Wednesday, for instance, the largest family will be the recipients of a prize. Thursday's contest will do honor to the couple who have been married the longest number of years. Bringing in the carnival's western theme, Friday's prize will be bestowed upon an adult who is judged to be wearing the best western costume. Saturday's event gives an award for the best, homes-to-goodness, home-grown mustache or beard worn by an enterprising individual. Naturally these contests are applicable only to persons on carnival grounds at the time of each event.

Anyone in attendance at Niles Days can also win one of several prizes. In addition to twenty-five 50 lb bags of lawn food, compliments of Norbert's Nursery, the following items will be raffled: Wednesday and Thursday - a $100 savings bond, donated by "Down the Street" and John Poeschl respectively;

Friday - a 19-inch portable TV from Skaja Funeral Home; Saturday - a weekend in Los Angeles with the good wishes of Travel Consultants.

Lads and lassies, between the ages of one and twelve years who live not only in Niles, but also Chicago and surrounding suburbs, will have the opportunity of putting their best foot forward and winning a new bicycle in the Kiddie Costume parade. In addition, each child entering the contest is to receive a prize from Theobault Olsen. Many junior marchers will also be guests on WRSV 98.3 FM Radio as it covers the afternoon's festivities.

Computer Selects Dance Partners

One more world fell to the conquering computer last week in Park Ridge—graduating seniors of Maine East high school selected their partners at the final class dance by means of EDP.

Electronic data processing has been used by dating bureaus at several colleges throughout the nation but last week's event may prove to be the first invasion of high school society by the machine.

Beth Robbins, of 7430 Davis, Morton Grove, representing the Class of 1966, was responsible for a 68-point questionnaire circulated among the seniors.

Results of the data returned by senior boys and girls hunting partners for the dance were fed into EDP equipment of the school district.

Many Faculty Aides At St. Patrick Plan Summer Of Learning

By means of fellowships and grants, many faculty members of St. Patrick academy will enroll in classes of higher learning in universities throughout the country.

On a fellowship provided by General Electric Co., Sister Mary Irene, assistant principal, will study "Advanced Counseling" and "Guidance" at the University of Louisville.

Thru a National Science Foundation grant, Sister Mary Daria will study "Biochemistry" at the University of Chicago. Sister Mary Donna obtained a grant to study "Career Planning" and "Modern Business Techniques" at Stanford university. At the University of Notre Dame Sister Mary Joel will study "Communications" and "Guidance".

The Generalate of the Sisters of Mercy in Bethesda, Maryland will welcome Sister Mary Medard as librarian. Sisters Mary Francis and Lauren will teach at Saint Xavier College in Chicago.

8700 Stolting Rd., Niles, programmed the data.

Typical of the pairing that resulted is the case of Ann Turek and Glen Schawal, shown here with Assistant Principal James Hartford of Maine East. Ann lives at 1966 Manor Ln., Park Ridge, and Glen at 136 Julie Dr., Glenview.

The EDP equipment flashed and snorted, lights flashed, bells rang, and a card shot out of a slot carrying the message that they would make excellent partners.

"It ought to," said a happy Ann. "We've been going steady for more than a year."

Assistant Principal Hartford beamed his delight over the school's possession of such accurate EDP machinery.

Dear Mr. Besser: Having reached retirement age, I am leaving School District No. 207 and will continue my educational career as a professor at Northern Illinois University in DeKalb. The purpose of this letter is to express my personal appreciation for the thousands of column inches of space you have given to the academic achievements and activities in our Township High Schools.

It is my sincere hope that you and the people of this community will continue to give my successor, Dr. Richard R. Short, the same enthusiastic support that has been given to me. Working in Maine Township High School District No. 207 has been a thrilling experience. Sincerely yours, Earle W. Wiltse Superintendent of Schools

Students Receive Graduate Study Fellowships

Three former Niles East students are among the 1,408 national Woodrow Wilson Fellows selected to receive graduate study fellowships for 1966-67, announced the Woodrow Wilson National Fellowship Foundation recently. They include two 1962 East graduates, Barbara Gordon and Kenneth Kahn, and one 1963 graduate, Ira Jay Miller.

Woodrow Wilson Fellows receive one year of graduate education including tuition and living expenses. Funds for the entire program, totaling over 5.7 million in 1966-67, are used to encourage and support potential college teachers.

According to an announcement by the Foundation, College professors across the continent nominated over 11,000 students for the honor last fall. Panels of college teachers and administrators in the Foundation's 15 regions screened the applicants and called one third of them to interviews in January. Nearly one-half of those interviewed won their Fellowships following the recent week-long deliberations of the university presidents, graduate deans and professors who comprise the Foundation's National Selection Committee.

The new Fellows come from 380 different colleges and universities in the United States and Canada. Twenty-six colleges have produced Woodrow Wilson Fellows for the first time. Winners represent 24 fields of study, from American Studies to Zoology. English and history are the largest fields.

To Avoid Tax Fund Hike Cutting Down Variety Of High School Classes Won't Work: Newport

The attempt to reduce teacher costs in Maine Township High Schools by cutting down on the variety of classes offered to students cannot work, School Board Member William T. Newport warned at a Park Ridge citizens' meeting last week. Newport was one of several District No. 207's board members who addressed the gathering at Maine Township High School South on a proposed 2 1/2 percent high school Educational Fund tax increase. The increase will go 80% for teachers' salaries.

A referendum on this issue is scheduled on Saturday, June 25, 1966, at polling places throughout the District.

Newport said the three high schools now offer a total of 202 different courses. He added: "Some critics of the proposed tax increase have suggested that a reduction of the basics of math, science, English, and foreign languages might save enough to be able to forego the tax increase. But it wouldn't work. If we take away student opportunities to study art and music, for instance, we must allow him to substitute another course. If he elects math, then we have to hire another math teacher." Newport said the tax increase is needed to hire new teachers for the "exploding school population" which next fall will boost Maine High Schools' attendance by more than 900. He warned: "We must be in a position to keep our salary scales competitive with other high school districts, else we will lose our best teachers to them. And if our teaching staff deteriorates, it will take years to build it up again."

Board members answered questions from the audience. One Park Ridge mother asked: "I have three children below the age of ten. Why should I worry about the high schools now?" Newport's answer: "Because if our staff of fine teachers is lost no one could build it up in time for your children to benefit. In fact, failure to pass the tax referendum would almost guarantee that your child would be in high school when faculty qualifications would be at the lowest."

"If a building bond issue lost at the polls," Newport said, "any deterioration could be made up quickly at a later time when citizens saw the physical deterioration of the schools and decided they wanted to do something about it. But if the teaching staff deteriorates," Newport said, "it will take 10 to 15 years to restore it after the public wakes up and votes an Educational Fund increase."

Robert Beart, another board member, warned: "If we are to maintain the type of schools, curriculum, teaching, and activities we have had in the past, a tax increase is absolutely essential."

Beart said the Board had taken steps to trim costs to the bone, in the use of non-certified employees to take over certain nonteaching jobs formerly held by teachers, in going from an 8 to 9 period day, in asking teachers to teach 6 classes a day (the maximum under State laws by standards set up by the North Central Association), and in paring down 2/3's of maintenance cost requests. He added: "If the citizens reject this tax increase then the Board must take further steps which can only lead to the serious impairment of our present educational standards."

Cyril Wray, Chairman of the Park Ridge group which called the special meeting, said: "Our schools are among the finest in the Nation. They turn out a product we can all be proud of. Let's help the Board maintain the schools at this top level. Get out and vote, and get your neighbors to vote, and vote 'Yes' on June 25."

Another Morning Another Yawn.

Frieda Aron 966-9669

Graduation Day, U.S.A. style, is like no other in the world. If we want to save face, it had better remain a well guarded secret.

"Our daughter is graduating, in a few days, I've got to get a new suit", said the beaming father.

"How wonderful, is she in state or out of state?" asked the listener, picturing those beautiful campus ceremonies.

"In kindergarten"

Hundreds of thousands, perhaps even millions of students have their moment in the sun graduation day, and the lesser the schooling the more ridiculous the festivities. Nursery school has paper-mache caps and gowns, kindergarten has diplomas, grammar school or junior high has dances and huge parties, with exorbitant gifts (electric typewriters, hondas, recorders, etc.)

As my father would have said, "What's to celebrate?" We were taught great reverence and respect for knowledge and learning. The tri-cornered hat with the black tassels meaning college graduation was the goal, and the epitome of the man going up in the world. What's been learned through grade school. To talk coherently, to write legibly (?), to almost read, and to think, not at all.

High School graduation gives license to go off on a three day bash, who cares about the cost. Maybe Dad does, but he won't refuse to come across. The kid deserves it, now he's learned a dab of everything and all about nothing.

I find lavish parties and extravagant gifts for children who have barely gotten past their a-b-c's positively nauseating. Parents, get wise, make your kids earn their gifts. When they get out of grammar school give them "So, now on to the next step". When they get out of high school, give them "Now you will start to learn something". When they have finished college, the university or completed an apprenticeship in a good trade, congratulate them and give presents. They deserve it. Until that time, they deserve nothing and from me, they get nothing.

Horror of horrors! It's that time of year again. Open up a nice square of grass, cover me and leave me be, until school resumes. Two months of "Ma, what should I do, I'm tired of swimming, I don't feel like playing ball, take me someplace." For the first week, they run amok, doing all the things that the discipline of a school year deprives them of. They'll see T.V. late at night, get up early to run out for a ball game with the other kids, go swimming in the afternoon, then maybe a jaunt to Burger-King, after a lunch that Mother fixed but wasn't satisfying. They'll go bowling with money from their bank, or see a movie. Each year my youngest signs up for weekly readers, or a program of summer reading; this lasts through the first week and a half. Every fifteen minutes that are free, we'll come back to the opening refrain, "Ma, what should I do, I'm tired, etc., etc., etc." Ah, the joys of motherhood in July and August!

Chief Hoelbl Warns Of Fireworks Dangers

As many as 5,000 men, women, and children will suffer needless pain and possible greater tragedy during the upcoming Fourth of July weekend, the Niles Fire Department warned.

Fire Chief Albert L. Hoelbl said that although the sale of fireworks is illegal, the bootlegging of the explosives is definitely increasing. Chief Hoelbl cited figures supplied by the National Fire Protection

Association which showed that of the 10 persons who died last year from burns and other injuries caused by fireworks, seven were under the eight years of age.

Children are the innocent victims of this slaughter, Chief Hoelbl said, because of the common belief in so-called "harmless" fireworks such as sparklers. Sparks from the ignited wire of a sparkler which can reach a temperature of 2,000 degrees Fahrenheit - can easily set fire to clothing or surrounding objects, indoors or out. The NFPA records, Chief Hoelbl stated, are full of reports of serious injury and damage done by these "harmless" toys.

The best bet, Chief Hoelbl suggested, is to attend an organized and supervised fireworks display such as will take place at Notre Dame Stadium in Niles on July 4th.

The Niles Fire Department's new Color Guard made their official debut during the recent Memorial Day Parade down Milwaukee Avenue. This is the first department in this area to organize a permanent group which will participate in all civic functions and parades. In addition to the American flag, the guard also sports the official department flag, which was designed by the firefighters. Pictured, left to right, are: Firefighters G. Cameron, R. Pickup, A. The Legionnaires have dubbed the four day carnival "Operation We Try Harder". They are trying hard to encourage you to attend as proceeds are used throughout the year to continue all the fine programs

Krier Thanks Voters: Asks Democrats "Return To Fold"

Democratic Committeeman Raymond V. Krier, after a smashing re-election victory, made his first post-election statement a call to unify the party.

Krier also publicly thanked all those who voted for him, calling it "more of a testimonial to what we have done in the past 4 years, than a personal preference."

He said: "I owe a debt of gratitude to every person from each of our villages who entered the polling place, asked for a democratic ballot, and marked for me."

Krier said that he was now sounding a call for unity.

He added: "I am not naive. I realize that there were many votes cast for my opponent. That does not make any of these persons less a Democrat. It means simply that we have that many persons we have to convince of our intentions to solidify the party, to convince them to express their opinions and contribute to the development of the party."

"My door is open. The primary is over. When scars heal, the fiber sometimes becomes stronger."

There is an election again in November. There are state, county, and local candidates to elect.

There is Paul Douglas, Adlai Stevenson, Marshall Korshak, Edward Barrett, Harry Semrow, P.J. Cullerton. There is our own Phil Goldstick, Edward Warman, and Ed Kaplan.

In order to deliver great pluralities for these and the other outstanding Democratic candidates, we need every good Democrat working together for the election of these candidates.

"We also welcome all those independents—and Republicans too, who feel they would like to work for any number of Democratic candidates. We might even convince some that they can accomplish more and contribute more by supporting all our Democratic candidates."

"Politics works in an interesting pyramid manner. The strength you have this time always gives you a greater voice next time. Therefore, as we continue to show great Democratic strength in Niles Township, our opportunities to be heard in slatemaking sessions and at the policy level, become that much greater."

"We receive an opportunity to place our best and most talented people into elective office. We get a chance to bring new faces and new names before the electorate—and not just locally, but statewide, and countywide. They, in turn, can reflect credit on us by their performance."

Our record in the past 4 years have proven this. I believe this is one of the major reasons why people expressed a vote of confidence.

"There is no reason why this should not be multiplied. Niles Township has as much if not more talent in its village than any other ward or suburban township."

"If people aspire to political futures, the best way to do it is in conjunction with the organization. Come and get involved. Come to our meetings. Come to see me. Participate!

"We have many things to do. Many projects to support. Many candidates to select and to elect."

"A political organization has a number of functions. While its primary purposes is, of course, practicing the art of politics, there are other functions, too."

"The Young Democrats of Niles Township were encouraged a year ago to go Iowa and to assist in the flood control emergency that arose. Their efforts won them national recognition for public service."

"A forum for public speakers on key issues of the day took place here; it was not political; it was open to the entire community."

"These are the kind of things that we will continue to build on."

"We have fresh opportunity. We fully expect to take advantage of it. But, incase anybody gets the mistaken belief that we're changing from a tough-minded political organization into something else, I would remind them that despite our victory, we're studying it precinct by precinct. We're out to see where we need to shore ourselves up; where the vote did not go according to plan; where we will be shifting per-
