In today's 'Letters' column a suggestion that interested persons desiring a hospital in Niles pursue such an effort. Again, citizen action, those drowsing dull committees, which harangue, deliberate, procrastinate and exasperate must once again come to the fore. In Niles citizen committees moved the town 180 degrees in a very short time.

In both these areas, education and health, the local need is evident. YOU, the guy or gal reading this can make your town a better place to live if you take action.....NOW!

Library Resumes Story Sessions February 7

The children's Department of the Niles Public Library announced today the resumption of the Story Sessions inaugurated several years ago.

This year's sessions will be conducted in the new Public Library Audio-Visual Room commencing February 7 with the periods from 10:30 to 11:00 A.M. and 2:00 to 2:30 every Tuesday (with the exception of summer vacation and Christmas vacation periods) being set aside for the activity which has proved so popular in the past.

All children, four or five years (only) of age are welcome and should be registered as soon as possible. A maximum of twenty-five children for each period (fifty for the two) will be accepted. The first twenty-five registrants will have their choice of time—anything over will go into the alternate time slot.

There will be a varied programming of activity for the little ones this winter and spring; story sessions will be intermingled with some audio-visual (movie) periods. We hope that equal satisfaction with this—as with the library's past effort—will be evidenced with a promise for even better programming in the near distant future.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Hang Your Heads!

Residents of "All America" City", hang your heads. You, among the most fortunate of all the people inconvenienced by an act of Nature; you who did not have to call on the emergency services of the police, fire or public works departments (who worked together, unceasingly around the clock); you who were not stranded miles from home without food or shelter; you who had warm coats and comfortable quarters in which to obtain your normal sleep requirements but who choose instead to profane all men and departments in the Village. FOR SHAME.

To those of you who only think as far as your own plumbing, who try to pull strings when there are no strings to pull, who pay taxes and demand preferential treatment, who wanted your snow plowed immediately and before that of the area 4 blocks east or south of you or even before Lutheran General Hospital was taken care of — haven't you yet realized that neither politics nor taxes can influence the birds and the bees, the wind, rain or even — even the falling and accumulation of SNOW?

The next time you feel like complaining and demanding, think first. Have you read the breakdown of your tax bill lately or do you pay under protest because you are living beyond your means and blame everyone except yourself? You are unhappy about the way your "All America City" is being run when the going gets tough. Why not move — or better yet, get off of your warm posteriors and assume some responsibility instead of criticizing those who do unselfishly devote time to the administration of the Village, your churches, schools, parks, youth organizations and the library.

The snow came. It will go. But in the meantime, to those of you who could not refrain from making unwarranted, nasty calls, using obscene language and damning all and everyone in the Village in time of an emergency, and just offered no one your help, how comfortable is the snowshoe you are wearing?

A Concerned, Irrate and Non-political Resident,

Praises Village

Letter To The Editor: As President of the Chamber of Commerce, I made it my business to survey snow removal operations within our Village and also was able to survey most of the villages on our borders.

On Saturday, January 28th, the main arteries such as Milwaukee Ave., Oakton St., Touhy & Dempster, etc. were cleared of all stalled vehicles, and snow plows had removed the snow so that lanes were open for traffic. Many of the side streets had been plowed and, of course,

IT WAS A REAL SNOW JOB

Departments Work 'Round The Clock'

Niles Mayor Blase said, "they did one helluva job". Referring to the three public departments of the village, which dug out a buried town during this past four day week-end, Blase's sentiments were echoed and re-echoed thruout the village.

How much did it cost the village to fight the worst snow storm in history, a 23 inch blanket which inundated a mobile community to a standstill? Blase said it ran into the thousands...many thousands for extra equipment... but he said Thursday, "take off the strings" meaning the cost was not to be considered in unburdening a 31,000 populated community.

The snow began falling Thursday and bombarded the village by Friday. Blase said Niles was the first town in the area to have every street with a cleared path by Sunday at 5 P.M. Somebody "up there" agreed...he being radio station WGN's helicopter traffic cop, Irv Hayden, who announced many times about the "All America City Niles" having the only cleared road ("Milwaukee Avenue") thru the chaotic four days.

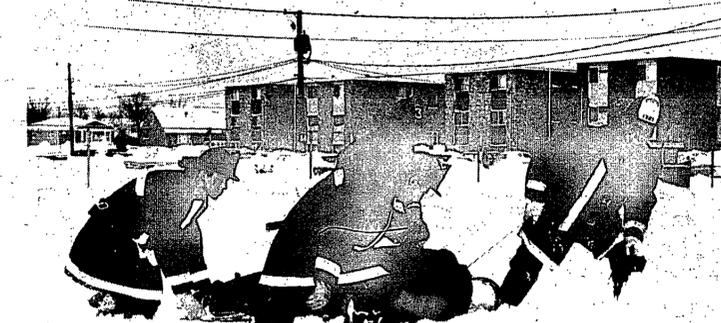

Since this story will be read in the history books, as well as in Viet Nam and Germany, half the states in this country the following is the unvarnished "View from the THE BUGLE":

Breen Street Residents at Harlem Avenue set-up a tent with food and hot beverages and a wee bit of the heater for the guys plowing our streets. Neighbors on Overhill Avenue north of Oakton Street worked together shoveling, pulling out cars and shouldering groceries for snowed-in neighbors.

Telephone calls to Mayor Nick Blase viciously spit out vulgarities because residents streets were not plowed.

Store owners had to battle residents who emptied their

Niles Caucus Party Formed Youth Center For April Election

By June Hart

The Niles Caucus Party was formed Monday evening, January 30th, for the purpose of seeking and supporting candidates for the Niles Village Board and the Niles Park Board in the April election.

According to its temporary chairman, Roy Berquist, and John Gabart, more than forty persons attended the organizing meeting Monday evening. As a result a screening committee was named to seek possible candidates for the benefit of the public of the Village of Niles.

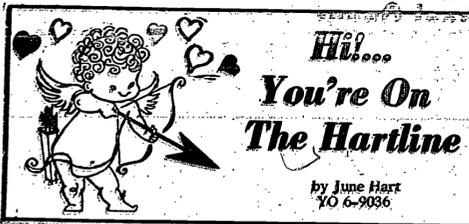

Gabart noted the entire group is opposed to what he termed, "the Blase influence and arrogance", which he stated had created a false impression of the Village stature.

Caucus Party chairman Ber-quist informed the group, "We are interested in returning the Village government to the people and away from one-man rule."

A public meeting is planned within the next week or ten days, with the intention of meeting with members of Homeowners Associations, civic and community organizations, reported a spokesman for the Party. Continuing, he said, "It is the intent and purpose of this meeting to select the most outstanding candidates, and then work for their election."

The Niles Caucus Party invites persons interested in becoming active in their Party, or, persons desirous of being considered as candidates to call the temporary secretary, Mrs. Mandy Honold at 647-8779, as soon as possible.

FOCUS POLITICAL - Feminine view of candidates, beginning with Mr. Richard Hartzak, candidate for the office of Village Trustee, Niles Village Board, member of A.C.T. Most people in Niles know Dick Hartzak or know of him. "Oh yes!" they say, "Hartzak's Food store on Milwaukee, I love their... "or" when I'm having a party I... "or" I meet him at Chamber meetings and the Lion's Club. Our kids go bowling and swimming with his kids." In other words Hartzak is the fellow next door.

We asked him, "Dick, how does Elaine feel about your nascent political venture?" Elaine of course is Mrs. H, mother of their two sons Ronald 13 and Douglas 9, Well," he replied, "we talked it over and she is all for it, and I must add, she is always very cooperative."

"Dick, how do you think you can help in the office of Village Trustee?" From the standpoint of the businessman," he answered firmly,

Mr. Hartzak has been in business in Niles for the past thirteen years. Educated in Chicago at Forman High school, he also attended Loyola University. Interested in all manner of sports, he also contributes a goodly share of his time and talents to civic affairs and projects. He is in company with other Niles' businessmen is a constant donor of awards in connection with community endeavors.

His leisure hours include the active participation with his sons and neighborhood children, in bowling, Little League baseball and swimming. Elaine said, "He's a marvellous cook. He enjoys making special dishes for us, even sometimes for our guests."

For Better Cleaning At Lower Cost Golden Arrow Cleaners 7443 N. Harlem NI 7-8864 - Niles

"We asked," is he messy like most males when they cook - you know dishes everywhere?" "Not too bad," smiled Elaine, "but the food's awfully good."

Dick promptly replied, "I still can't beat her chicken or spaghetti dinners."

Before closing our interview with Dick Hartzak and his charming family, we asked him, "Do you think that women will ever figure in the Village Trustee scene?" Smiling, he paused a while and then replied, "I really hadn't thought about that, however, we do have a highly intelligent Village Clerk. This girl is a marvel, very detailed..."

Next week the gals and candidate Ed Berkowsky, incumbent, and member of A.C.T.,

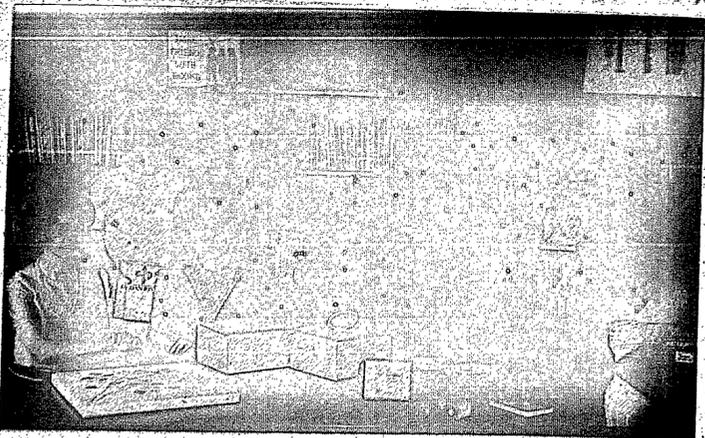

LATE NEWS FLASH: We have just learned that Mandy Honold, Mrs. Karl that is - Harfs Road, Niles, is contemplating seeking election to the office of Village Trustee. At the time of our interview we were not aware of this.

SNOOPS AND SNAPS FROM SNOWBOUND NILES.

History will perhaps record the final days of January 1967 as Citizen Self-Help Days, while the citizens may record, snowbound and I rediscovered the art of walking.

From 6900 on Keeney the story on Saturday was "The whole block cleared, we're doing fine." Men, women and kids aided with two snowblowers property of neighbors Mr. Rex and Mr. Pisano, dug out ten cars, ploughed driveways and help clear the street. Neighbors with children who were short of milk and bread, received rations obtained from Sullivan's Liquor store, Peter and Henrietta Livorsi 6921 Keeney, had shopped early in the week in anticipation of their son's Holy Communion, set for Sunday at St. John Brebeuf Church. "We were fine in the food department, so we were able to help our less fortunate neighbors. We are really proud of ourselves on Keeney Street. Everyone has been marvellous."

LGH Now Has 'Intermediate Care'

(The hospital is constantly changing, in order for you to learn more about the modern hospital, your newspaper is running this series of columns prepared by Lutheran General Hospital as a public service.)

In the fall of 1966, a new type of patient care was introduced to this area at Lutheran General Hospital.

Called "Intermediate Care," the concept is designed for patients who need a certain amount of nursing care provided in regular hospital rooms.

A new, specially designed floor of the hospital is being utilized for this new concept in care. It is designed for patients in the latter stages of recovery - patients who have had strokes, long-term illnesses or broken bones.

Many things about this type of care are different. For one thing, patients eat their meals in a dining room on that floor. There's a big living room with easy chairs, television and reading lamps.

All of the doors are extra-wide (even the doors of the bathrooms) to allow patients in wheel chairs to move about freely. Handrails to aid patients walking are located throughout the area. Areas for occupational and recreational therapy are provided.

Another major difference not readily seen by the visitor, but easily understood by the patient and his family is that room rates here are below that of regular hospital care.

Since fewer hospital employees are needed here (since the patient does more things for himself), there's less expenses for wages. And since two-thirds of the hospital's expenses go for labor, a reduction in the number of workers needed brings about lower cost to the patient. In this age of rising hospital costs, this decrease is a significant difference.

A patient using this type of area will be transferred from a regular hospital room on recommendation of his physician. How long he stays here will be determined by his physician, just as it would be in a regular hospital room.

This type of care is not to be confused with a nursing home or convalescent home. It is part of the care provided in the modern hospital.

In practically all instances Blue Cross or other hospitalization insurance will cover the cost here, just as it would in regular hospital care. Naturally, it must be based on medical necessity. The insurance carriers are happy about this - it also means lower costs for them.

It is true that hospital costs are rising. But it is also true that the modern hospital is working desperately hard to curb this increase. If it weren't for improved techniques and efficiency, hospital costs would be rising even more rapidly than they are now.

This is just one example of innovations being brought to serve the community by your hospital.

in their area awaiting the Village ploughs.

Officer Wichlac went a marketing for food for neighbors in the area of Washington Street. Kids and neighbors pushed his car free.

At the A & P on Harlem and Milwaukee, a single-handed manager opened the doors to shoppers who assisted by packing their own goods. Some people used skis to travel to the stores that were open while sleighs were a common sight. Niles Police constantly drove citizens back and forth on emergency calls and also performed the personal shopper detail for many stranded families with youngsters.

Frank Hanson senior, returned home to his family late Sunday. He had been kept busy to end from his Chicago office servicing people with heating oil. He lugged it in five gallon cans, filled from his truck, through unploughed streets to many a thankful homeowners in Chicago and suburbia.

In north Niles, the 8800 block on Merrill Street blazed the trail to homes and garages aided by the snowblower of neighbor Mr. and Mrs. Stan Celusta, Neighbors Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kirby, Mr. and Mrs. Thorholm, Mr. and Mrs. Rosen, Mr. Sansone, Mr. Natello, Mr. Zelinsky, Mr. Pete Pesole, Mr. Pinocchio, and others dug out stranded cars and aided with shovels clearing walkways.

Minnie Ryan, of Oleander Street, member on the staff of Niles Drugs, Milwaukee and Oakton, reported no dire emergencies. A Niles policeman bought milk formula for the baby of a stranded Niles family.

On the 8100 block of Wisner Street, neighbor John Kuchta's snowblower, cleared a walking way for neighbors. Jack and Jean Cook shared bread and milk with neighbor children. Alice and Earl Oldham parked cars in their driveway to ease burden of the snowblower neighbor. Jack Betka treated his immediate neighbors to free Sunday newspapers, awaking them early with, "compliments, here read all about it."

Howard Siegel, Niles druggist reported receiving doctor's phoned prescription for sick Nilesite family of four. A neighbor Mrs. Roth of Normal, walked to the store and delivered the medication to the family. Prescribing a customer with a toothache, some temporary medication, Mr. Siegel was able to secure the services of a local dentist and the patient's tooth was successfully extracted on Sunday.

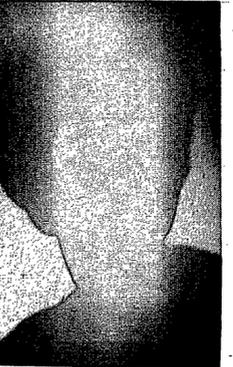

From his vantage point, druggist Siegel conducted a spot of philosophical study on the situation. It followed a pattern - one; he sold an amazing amount of cigarettes, candy snacks and ice cream - "The pacifiers," he said. Number 2; the public's urgent request for newspapers, despite the television and radio coverage of the blizzard. "They had to read about it," was his conclusion. Number three; numerous requests for film. "No doubt to record for posterity the intensity of the storm," was his reflection. Number 4; requests for epsom salts and liniments. "This was to be expected," he philosophized. Lastly he said that many an interesting consultant was conducted with him and the fathers of large families who were unused to the four day confinement with their children. Mr. Siegel unable to reach his own home was a house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Guaraccio, 8015 Wisner. They were all school mates together back in Chicago.

Mr. John Meis of Home Terrace, Twin Oaks, was at the telephone on WKBK's Blizzard Report Program. A producer of the station's 5:15 news, special news-reports and sports reports, Mr. Meis finally returned home to his family on Monday. During the first bleak hours of the storm, the staff on that program worked around the clock, nourished by occasional sandwiches, and perhaps coffee.

Book Muse

by Mr. "M"

This will be the first of a potpourri of thoughts on books and services of your Niles Public Library. Our new home adds gradually to the materials necessary to its total occupancy and our thought was that you might be interested in these.

Let us start with the "Knee-Hi" (our own Winchell-ism for "juvenile") Section. Book-wise, at the time that we opened, we were a little unfortunate. Shipment of books (to libraries all over the country) were slowed down due to new Federal endowments to school libraries. Publishers, not anticipating the large demand from schools, were caught unawares and their stocks much depleted by educational demands. Schools received (and are still receiving) priorities and libraries suffered.

We were caught in that bind but we have broken through it and now look forward to better and more normal days. Our stock of juvenile books has increased tremendously during the last several months.

With your indulgence, may we speak of several items? "Paulus and the Acornmen", written and illustrated by Jean Dulieu is a truly magnificent book for children which your columnist recommends highly.

It is a richly illustrated odyssey, a masterfully woven tale, full of whimsy, about Paulus, a dwarf. He is made even smaller by a witch who presents him to the acornmen—a blundering gang of acorns come alive. They make Paulus their king and there follows an exciting series of plots and counter-plots among strange woodland characters.

Jean Dulieu is a refreshing new writer and illustrator for the American youngster. He has made Paulus a household name in Holland and other parts of Europe through his books, comic strips, puppet shows and radio plays.

"Zlateh the Goat and other stories" by Isaac Singer (with the usual fine art work of Maurice Sendak) is another of our recent additions.

Mr. Singer (one of the best Hebrew writers around today) has composed a book to give as a gift, to keep for oneself, to replace when it wears out from continual readings, to treasure for grandchildren, to display in libraries, to cherish. It's a beautiful book in every way—format and content. There is love and care in every word of the text; in every line of the pictures.

Here is a world (if it ever existed) long vanished, dream-like, yet solid. The gentleness, humor and practicality of Jewish tradition are here in the seven stories. There are funny tales of the Wise Men of Chilm, of the first Shlemiel, of a silly bridegroom, of devils, of rich men and poor, and a beautiful story of a man and a goat. These are Jewish folk-tales which belong in the repertoire of all story tellers. The pictures are of the "beloved ghosts" as Mr. Sendak calls them and are dedicated to the many children who had no chance to grow up because of stupid wars and cruel persecutions. Modern children will enjoy the book as much as the "beloved ghosts" would have.

May we close with an afterthought? Both of these books are on about the sixth to eighth grade level.

If you disagree or have a thought to add, feel free, always to speak to any of our staff members or myself, anytime you come in out of the cold.

LGH Nursing School Plans Open House

Mrs. Potter conducted the sex education course for eighth grade girls last year at Golf Junior High. She is a former staff member of The Association for Family Living. Mother of five grown children, she is a professional worker in the field, with numerous PTA, religious and YWCA affiliations.

Mr. Wise, father of two young children, is a research assistant in a professional program at the University of Chicago. He himself is in the Ph. D. program there, specializing in the psychology and theology of sex. He also had training with and did staff work for the Association for Family Living.

An important part of the sex education series at the junior high, according to William Stout, District 67 superintendent, is the parents-and-teacher evaluation after the student sessions are concluded. This will be Tuesday, May 9, at the Golf Junior High gym, 8 p.m.

All three of the meetings for parents and teachers will be primarily to answer questions about the series.

Announcement of the sex education lectures will be sent to all parents of seventh and eighth grade students.

Scout Troop 45 At Klondike

With the temperatures ranging in the fifties on January 20, 21, and 22nd, Camp Baden Powell could have been the scene for early springtime activities instead of rough mid-winter sports and tests of endurance.

After setting up camp Friday evening, the boys enjoyed telling stories around the campfire while eating cake, rolls and drinking hot cocoa. Saturday morning, after a tasty, robust breakfast prepared by the Eagle Patrol, with K. P. water, and wood details handled by the Foxes and Owl Patrols, the boys prepared their Klondike dog sleds, supervised by Randall Hyken, the troop instructor and advancement man.

Lunch was prepared for the troop by the Owl Patrol, with the Eagles and Foxes taking care of the K.P. After lunch the Klondike Derby program was started with the first problem, being able to receive a Morse code message sent from across the field by assistant senior patrol leader James Schneider, and assistant senior patrol leader Pete Welsch Jr. Problem two consisted of log sawing and splitting which was supervised by scoutmaster Don Schneider. Problem three was an exercise in lashings and river crossing, supervised by assistant scoutmaster Jack Frick. Problem four was winter camp preparation, supervised by advancement chairman Chuck Bobula Sr., Jim Schneider, and Pete Welsch. Problem five, fire building and water boiling, supervised by junior assistant scoutmaster Jerry Tabert. Problem six to learn how to render first aid in case a boy fell in an ice cold river, supervised by Pete Welsch Sr., and junior assistant scoutmaster Chuck Bobula. Problem seven was an exercise in compass logic for determining a course for arriving at a Klondike destination, supervised by assistant scoutmaster Jack Frick. Problem eight, the three patrols participated in a Klondike time race of 300 yards, which was judged by scoutmaster Don Schneider.

Points were given at the problem stations and throughout the day for cooking, K.P., firewood and water procurement. The winning patrol, for the entire derby, was the Owls, with a score of 96 points. After all that exercise and competition a hearty, scrumptious supper of steak, baked potato, corn, and apples was prepared by the Fox patrol.

Boys attending this outing were: Fox Patrol - Patrol Leader, Robert Sandvik, Robert Krusin, Mike Davis, Steve Welsch, and Jeff Schroeder. Owl Patrol - Patrol Leader, Ronnie Friedman - Assistant Patrol Leader, Terry Frick, Mike Krejsa, Jim Ignatius, and Allen Bonini. Eagle Patrol - Patrol Leader, Paul Pomazal, Ken Schneider, Ricky Meyer, Randy Hyken, and Rick Bobula.

Others in attendance were Scout Master, Don Schneider, Assistant Scout Master, Jack Frick, Camp Chairman, Pete Welsch Sr., and Advancement

Camp Chairman, Chuck Bobula Sr., Junior Leaders were Junior Assistant Scout Master, Gerry Tabert and Chuck Bobula Jr., Scout Patrol Leader, James Schneider, and Assistant Scout Patrol Leader, Pete Welsch Sr.

Residents of the vicinity are invited to view the display associated with Scout Week starting February 6, which will be on display at Plaidland, at the corner of Milwaukee and Oakton. Also, the next campout, in conjunction with Scout Week, will be held at Grennan Heights Field House, located at the corner of Oketo and Kedzie, in Niles. Everyone is invited to see the activities at this campout on February 10, 11, and 12th.

many more had not been at this time but it was expected that all of the village streets would be plowed by late Sunday evening.

Words are inadequate to express our gratitude to Ed Baecher and the Public Works Department, Chief "Whitey" Emrickson and the Police Dept., and Chief Al Hoehl and the Fire Dept. The men in all these departments worked around the clock, some of them going without sleep for as many as forty hours or more.

On Saturday, Mayor Blase and Trustee Angie Marcheschi spent a great part of the day in a snow jeep touring the village streets and directing the snow removal. In my experience, I have never heard of a public official directing snow removal from other than his office or home, except perhaps in the movies.

The telephone calls at the Niles Chamber of Commerce Office and the Mayor's office were manned by the Chamber Secretary, Steve Tsalkis, to answer all emergency calls. I regret to report that there were some individuals who called in complaints using profane language because their particular streets had not been cleared at that time. Many citizens do not realize that the snow clearance job was planned in order that certain streets would be open and accessible at various sections for the police and fire departments in case of emergencies.

As far as I know, we are the only village that had a tow truck operate with each piece of snow removal equipment to tow cars blocking traffic and snow removal.

A human interest story of our All-America City occurred on Thursday, as the blizzard was in full force. Two men in a car were stranded in a snow drift in front of the Mayor's office. The Mayor, some of his associates and a client rendered aid by pushing the car out of the drift only to find that they had a flat tire. One of the gentlemen was from St. Louis and the other from the State of Idaho. They were invited into the Chamber and Mayor's offices and given refreshments while their car was being serviced. The gentlemen were late for a meeting at 7800 Milwaukee Ave., which they came into town to attend and the Mayor had them taken to their meeting so that they did not have to wait until Friday January 20, Pack 88 held their monthly pack meeting in the Edison School Multi Purpose Room. After the business part of the meeting the cubs took turns by dens entertaining the parents with skits. The theme of these skits was Indian lore and took a lot of hard work by both the cubs and den mothers which was enjoyed immensely by all who attended.

Pack 88

Saturday, January 21, the scouts of Troop 88 along with Mr. Mas Igasaki, Bob Diederich and other leaders went out for a day of winter fun. They met in the Edison School parking lot and left by car to Camp Lakota for sledding, tobogganing and ice skating, hoping the weather was cold enough for these sports.

Next Den mothers meeting will be held February 12 to discuss plans for the Pack's Blue and Gold Banquet. Since the Pack has grown in size, accommodations for this dinner will be at the Northwest Builders Hall at 4848 Central. The date for this is February 26 at 1:30 p.m. We regret the fact that some parents will be inconvenienced by this, but we plan to accommodate all. More information on this later.

Niles West Collection Drive For For Vietnam Servicemen

The Junior Cabinet of Niles West from February 6 to 10 will sponsor a collection drive for articles to be sent to servicemen in Vietnam.

"The articles collected will be sent to servicemen who are alumni of Niles West and are now serving in Vietnam, brothers of those attending Niles West, and servicemen who are in any way connected with the school," explained Committee Chairman Andi Weinstein.

Among the articles which can be donated are sporting equipment, books, candy, gum, cigarettes, games, and shoe shine kits. Records, razor blades, and non-perishable foods can also be left in the cloakroom of the school's auditorium lobby, Andi said.

Monetary donations are also requested, she added, as well as the addresses of soldiers and platoons to whom the articles can be sent. Names should be placed in Faculty Sponsor Gerald Boever's mail box in the school's main office, she said.

"For the drive to be successful, a great deal of support is essential. All contributions will be greatly appreciated by the servicemen." Andi concluded.

Sportsmen Show Set For Feb. 10 thru 19

Chicago's Famous Sportsmen's and Vacation Show has changed its dates at the International Amphitheatre. The big exposition will be held the ten days of Feb. 10 thru 19, a week earlier than originally announced, and the men behind it, headed by Producer Thomas E. Durant, have proved themselves sportsmen of the first water.

The move was made to cooperate with the city of Chicago in its effort to keep as many shows and conventions as possible from moving, in the wake of the devastating fire that has demolished McCormick Place.

"By moving up a week," Durant said, "we are helping the Amphitheatre to fit another huge show right after us in the building's crowded schedule."

"While we will have a difficult task notifying our hundreds of exhibitors all over the United States and Canada of the change, we felt it our duty to cooperate with the city to do this. It's our way of saying thank you to the wonderful city of Chicago for the wonderful support we've always received."

The world's largest exposition of outdoors living and recreation will open from 6 p.m. to 11 p.m. on Friday, Feb. 10th. After that hours will be noon to 11 p.m. on Saturdays and Sundays and 1 to 11 p.m. remaining weekdays. "Parade of Outdoor Champions," the huge stage and water spectacle in the center arena starring John Bromfield, will be presented twice daily, once each afternoon and again at night.

It's a combination of many shows in one with entire sections devoted to mobile homes and trailers, camper units, tents, sports and recreation equipment and gear, travel and transportation, boats and public participation in fishing, skeet shooting, archery, golf and other sports.

Chicago has always liked its big sports show, but the good folks will have an even greater affection for it following its sportsmanlike gesture.

To observe the birthdays of Abraham Lincoln and George Washington, when schools are closed, the showtimes for these dates will be the same as a Saturday and Sunday. There will be three performances on each day.

The management of the Golf Mill suggests that tickets for these extra performances be purchased in advance. The box office, at the theatre, is open from 1 P.M. to 10 P.M. every day to accommodate patrons who wish to purchase tickets in advance.

shelves. At Harlem and Dempster milk was rationed to one quart per family. An elderly couple had two gallons of milk plus several quarts, cursed the manager for his rationing, and stalked from the store without taking their grocery order.

Niles firemen went thru six to eight blocks of snow and carried out emergency patients. One case of a woman suffering a kidney attack was carried thru the snow on a stretcher, in north Niles. On Main Street a boy with an appendix was tobogganed six blocks to a waiting ambulance. In south Niles a heart attack victim was aided by a similar effort. Firemen battled six hours thru snow to get to a call at Niles west-end and found the "emergency" victim, a child, running around the house at play.

One resident called to complain that "the poor people are having their streets plowed... why not plow out the rich people's streets... we pay more taxes!"

Dozens of men volunteered their services to drive trucks and "cats".

One woman called in and said Niles should get more volunteers to help. She then volunteered her husband asking, "How much do you pay?"

Boys from St. Mary's Seminary volunteered their services and dug out fire plugs thruout the village.

Traffic officer Hayden, on WGN, reported Milwaukee Avenue in "the All America City of Niles" was the only thru street in the area which was passable. Niles trucks had 13 state highways to clean, which received top priority.

Mayor Blase, aka Dick Daley, called 2 meetings a day with his department heads. Fire Chief Al Hoebli had a map with colored markings which designated streets and fire plugs cleared.

Lutheran General Hospital was intimated from the outside. Niles plowed a path to the emergency entrance, going down Carol Street, Park Ridge, which houses the hospital, was unable to provide this service.

A milk truck on Dempster Street was selling milk for $2 a gallon.

Niles police transported pharmacists, nurses and key personnel who were needed in the emergency.

The public works department used 10 trucks, rented 6 "cats" and Niles police escorted one cat in from Belleville. Saturday 2 more "cats" with drivers helped out. The park district volunteered their help, using their 2 trucks with Commissioner Lou Schreiner driving one.

Eight pieces of equipment were disabled due to burned-out clutches and other over-worked problems.

Flows were bent to pieces by the effort.

Every street in Niles was plowed at least once by midnight Sunday.

Public Works personnel worked around the clock from Thursday thru Saturday sleeping and eating at the PW Building.

The normal personnel of 12 men at the north end fire station was increased to 33 men, all bedded down and fed. Wives of the firemen brought over cakes and other foods to aid the men. 50 calls came into the Public Works department for voluntary help. Paths were opened to the pharmacy houses in town to enable them to export their wares to the needy. One snow truck was sent to the fire station. Eight men went out on every fire emergency call. Prospect Court residents cleaned their own streets with snow blowers.

Two people called when their garbage would be picked up.

Five calls a minute were being telephoned into the public works department on Saturday morning.

Phone calls from residents spewed hatred at the Mayor and his national background because their streets weren't plowed out.

Des Plaines asked Niles to aid a fire in the unincorporated area. Niles could not get thru and the residents managed to put it under control.

The fire department had 33 calls for help during the weekend.

Two or more expectant mothers were taken to Lutheran General Hospital.

Public Works Department brought gas to LGH for their own vehicles. Fire department transported tetanus serum from LGH to need doctor.

A Chicago mother called a TV station to say her family was starving in Niles. It proved to be false.

Chief Hoebli asks all residents to keep fire hydrants clean and public works reports there will be no refuse pick-up this Friday.

Bob Schumm, from Middle States Telephone Co. reported 35 stranded motorists were bedded and fed for 3 days there. Auto agency garage roof caved in Saturday morning and Middle States had a new switchboard operating there within a few hours. Middle States shuttled operators back and forth from their office and used stand-by help from the business office to man the switchboards. Middle States instigated phoning TV stations asking only critical calls be made and within a half hour phone calls were cut in half.

Bob Wordel, public relations head at Teletype downed a cook's cap and gown and fed the many there who were stranded.

While looting was reported in Chicago no such cases were reported in Niles. Neighboring Des Plaines and Park Ridge reportedly had abandoned cars broken into but no such incidents were reported here. In Golf Mill Richman's front door was open but police believed it was due to an oversight in locking the door there.

Kaiser Jeep volunteered 5 vehicles which the Niles police used during the four days. The 4-wheel drive vehicles proved life savers.

Policemen, like their counterparts in the other departments worked overtime with as many as 41 regulars and 11 reserves on duty.

Aaron Michaelson Announces Candidacy For Park Dist.

Aaron Michaelson, a member of the Niles Youth Commission has formally announced his candidacy for Niles Park District Commissioner. Michaelson, a Certified Public Accountant, has resided in the North end of Niles for three years.

He has entered the race for Commissioner on a basic three point platform. "The Park District," said Michaelson, "needs a qualified business person, with professional business experience particularly because of the large expenditures and monies handled by the Niles Park District. With a budget of $230,000, they need a man who is professionally qualified to analyze the financial aspects of the Niles Park District, so to assure the citizens of Niles that past mistakes with our money will not be made again.

There is an immediate need for more recreation facilities for both the children and Adults of Niles so that everyone in the community has a well equipped and properly directed park facility at their disposal.

There is also a need for much closer cooperation between the Niles Park District, Niles Village Board, Niles Youth Commission, Niles Teen Center Committee, and all groups in the Village of Niles, whose ideas and leadership could assist the Niles Park District in making our Park District like Oak Park, a winner of a Gold Medal in competition which was nationwide, sponsored by the Sports Foundation, Inc. for their park and recreation system.

The father of two, Michaelson is the Liaison officer between the Niles Youth Commission and Niles Teen Center Committee. As an active member of the Niles Jaycees, he has served as past treasurer. His other civic activities include Business and Catholic School Chairman for the Niles March of Dimes, a post he has served for several years, has won an award for collecting over $2,000.00 for the Niles Leaning Tower YMCA. Michaelson is the Friday night supervisor at the Niles Teen Center, adult chaperone at Niles Teen Dances held in Lawrencewood Shopping Center. His devotion and interest in the youth of Niles is backed up with experience, having acted as advisor for River Park in Chicago, Deborah Boys Club in Chicago, and manager of a Pee Wee league baseball team for three years. Among his other credits are two years of Business Law at the University of Illinois, and two years toward his masters degree at the University of Chicago night school.

Karnes Appoints Director Of Music Education

Karnes Music Studios, 9800 Milwaukee Avenue in Des Plaines, has recently appointed Fr. John Strzalka, Director of Music Education. Father John, as the students call him, has a long and varied career in music. He began the study of piano at the age of 6 and because of his love for church music, began studying the organ at the age of 12. He attended Savanarola Seminary, Scranton, Pennsylvania and did post graduate work at Carroll College in Waukesha, Wisconsin. He served for 3 years as assistant Rector, organist and choirmaster at Holy Name Church in Milwaukee, Wisconsin and also served parishes in Duluth and Chicago. Father John has given countless organ recitals dedicating new organs in churches of all denominations throughout the country and has taught advanced organ for 17 years. He has composed Church and Secular Music and has translated 2 volumes of hymns officially used by his denomination. Father John's talents extend beyond music into the field of public speaking and writing. Numerous newspaper articles on music and religion have been published and he also taught languages at the University of Minnesota. In his youth work for the Order of Demolay he was awarded the Cross of Honor and Legion of Honor. In Duluth he started the Duluth Chapter publication for the order of Demolay which placed first every year in an international publications contest.

His new assignment will place him directly responsible for the musical education of over 1200 students who study at Karnes each week. His outstanding success as a teacher, writer and administrator ably qualifies him for this demanding position. Father John plans to initiate periodic check lessons and supplementary classes which will enable Karnes Music Studios to give all students the advantage of a music education "In Depth". On Sundays, he serves as rector of St. Francis Church, McHenry and All Saints Memorial Chapel in Chicago. Father John resides in Wheeling with his wife Elaine and his three children, Mark 12, Kathleen 10, and Suzanne, 7.
