From The Left Hand

by David Beaser
Editor & Publisher

American Jewry has been on an emotional roller-coaster the past few days unlike anything we've ever seen. Many Jews, who've felt a deep commitment toward Israel, were outwardly pessimistic last week. This week, when war finally broke out, much of the pessimism turned to frustration. Knowing the battle for survival was a life or death effort for more than 2,000,000 people the feeling of helplessness among the deeply committed was obvious.

Monday morning we walked around with a transistor Radio glued to our ear. By lunchtime the small radio was becoming the uniform for the day and we laughingly concluded most portable radio listeners were either Jews or Arabs.

Monday afternoon we were in Travel Consultants and met an attorney who was quite downcast over the news. In a rather vacuous fashion he said, "We've got to do something", referring to the mid-east war. Since this guy didn't look like he was too combat-oriented we wanted to tell him to "Send money". If he wants a piece of the action or if he has a deep commitment, or a feeling of empathy, he has a golden opportunity to put his money where his mouth is by sending a cash donation.

While in the travel agency Steve Tsalkis told us he'd just returned from Greece where martial law ruled the country. Steve opined the communists were behind the attempted upheaval there and showed his concern for the land where his father is now living.

At Booby's chili parlor Charley Giovannelli often gives us a report about Charley, Junior, whose been in the thick of the Viet Nam war for the past year. Young Chuck is expected home by fall.

Sunday, we heard a guy named Sutton on a local Chicago TV show spew his hatred while speaking in opposition to the proposed open housing laws. After attacking all three major religious groups, he topped his demagoguery by referring to people of Chinese descent as "chinks". Sutton, a professional agitator, was brought into Niles by our own pied piper of hate, Reverend Maple. Last year, when Maple sent out spurious literature against forming a human relations commission here he added a star-filled cast to his opposition, by bringing in "Leader" from the southwest side of Chicago who referred to Negroes as "spearchuckers" and Sutton, who was asked Sunday whether or not he's a nazi.

Since Jews and Italians and Greeks are fighting now for the right of men to be free we think its fitting this week we run the "Project: Good Neighbor" ad on page 19 as a public service. After hearing about the brave guys all over the world, and listening to the pied pipers of hate, I think we can put our signature where our mouth is by signing the coupon in the ad.

Niles Safety Council Tips For Vacation Trip

"Before leaving on that annual summer vacation, check your driving habits," John T. Sebastian, Chairman of the Niles Safety Council advised today. After a long hard winter and a wet rainy spring, most families are planning that long awaited summer vacation trip. Chairman Sebastian gave the following advice to motorists who are planning that annual vacation tour:

- * TAKE YOUR TIME! Be realistic about matching trip miles to the number of vacation days you have. If you bite off too much of the map, you'll start hurrying and the hurry habit is one to avoid; it is at least frustrating, at most a killer.

- * DRIVE ONLY WHEN YOU ARE FIT! You certainly won't enjoy long distance driving if you are tired, aching or ailing. Fatigue, certain medicines and drugs can reduce your driving to a dangerous level. Avoid

- * TRAVEL BY DAY! There is no substitute for driving with natural visibility and during normal waking hours. You can see more, you can see better and you are usually sharper behind the wheel.

- * SHARE THE ROAD! One of the easiest ways to avoid accidents that can mar your trip is simply to cooperate with other drivers. By making room for everyone on the highway, you help yourself to have a safer and happier vacation.

Teen Center Is Just A Place To Get Together

By June Hart

"The Niles Days monies for the teens, that's what they're kicking about. Don't they realize that we teens helped in the accruing of that money. Statistics show that the teenage population spends the most money and we did just that, at the Niles Days Fairground. We....."

We went visiting at the Niles Teen Center in the Lawrencewood Shopping plaza, on a muggy Friday evening of May 20th. A few kids were sitting and chatting together. Three or four more sat watching and criticizing a couple of youths playing ping-pong. The floor was dirty.

We crossed the room to the far end where we met the Niles Teen Center Committee's newly appointed adult supervisor, Miss Linda Schwarze.

A cheerful young woman with twinkling eyes and a winning smile, Linda interrupted our greetings to call over to a teenager entering the Center, cigarette in hand, "Out Joe, out, you know better." As the offender, a tall young man of 16 years saluted and turned to obey her, some of the kids yelled, "No smoking in here, finish it outside and c'mon in."

"Oh" they're learning," Linda smiled at us, and really they are quite good." As we introduced ourselves we asked if there had been much opposition to the smoking ban. "No," she replied, "the older boys and girls are very cooperative. If they are insistent we ask them to show their draft cards - and that ends that." Her eyes twinkled. We asked about the younger element. Linda paused and then said slowly, "I believe that I must say that the eighth graders, in particular the girls, are more difficult, their attitude being, you-make-me kind of thing. Well we hope to combat that in time."

As we were talking a few kids popped in, looked around, some stayed, some left. There was not a large attendance that evening. Some of the teens joined us and they and Linda insisted that on other evenings attendance had been extremely good. "In good weather they like to be outside, which is only natural," said Linda.

They're a great treat for kids, and mom and dad go for them too. As Tom puts it, "You'll want to link up with them tonight. At only $1.05 this dish rates as one of the finest food buys beneath our bright blue roof."

Three kids sitting at the adjacent table, got up and left, and four more looked in, calling "H!" sat down at a table. Someone started the juke box playing, and the four at the table bought cokes and appeared to be engrossed in conversation. We kept looking at the dirty floor.

"They call you Linda?" we asked enquiringly, and Linda replied, "Yes we have a first name basis here. Youth loves personal attention, one to one idea. The main thing is for kids to realize that someone cares. Indeed this applies to some of the kids right here in this room. In many instances youth does not know how to communicate with adults. They feel inferior, and have difficulty in directing their hostilities. They have to find a constructive way of releasing these emotions. We adults in turn have to learn how to talk with them, not at them, and still maintain a respected authority."

Linda Schwarze is an I.B.M. Key Punch operator in the employ of W.W. Grainger Co., 5959 Howard in Niles, born and raised in the rural community of Bernier County, Iowa, her home was a Licensed Foster Home. Linda's parents volunteered their home for this purpose when their Lutheran Church was seeking aid for child victims of broken homes, and youth in trouble. Linda and her brothers and sisters were raised with as many as six foster siblings at various periods. A graduate of Trippoli Community High school, Linda has performed a stint as a County social worker. She came to Chicago in order to qualify as an I.B.M. Key Punch operator. Obtaining employment here she is interested in directing her spare time to work with youth, hopeful that her own experience gained in her own home, and that as a social worker will prove beneficial. By now a group of teens had joined us and we discussed youth, the center, adults, and the dirty floor.

One of the boys noted that according to an article in the Bugle, "The rub is the fact that the Niles Days monies, or part of it had been allocated to a center for youth. He wondered why this fact distressed some members of the community. He looked at it this way, "The money was accrued through people spending money at the Niles Days Fair, which is a marvellous idea anyway, (the Niles Days event) Maybe each person spent anywhere from 35 cents to a couple of dollars. But they received something in exchange for their money - a good time - maybe a prize." Now the teens spent a lot of money there. Statistics prove that we do just that. We teens helped in that event, and we want to help, and we enjoy spending our money there. We too gain something from it, its fun. We contribute why the rub?"

Another teen noted, "We didn't ask for a $4000 set up. We just want a place where we can get together. Something to keep us busy." We took advantage of the speaker's sincerity to volunteer, "Yeah" right now. What about the dirty floor here, ugh!" Everyone laughed, looked at the floor, and, "We'll get to it, we really will," sighed a young miniskirted doll. A friendly joshing of who, and how, and when. Another slim young gal, shaking her head, advised, "We must get more members added to our current enrollment of about 75 members. Its the parents - maybe some of them think we aren't good enough - they can't be choosy in school. We've got plans, and we've got rules, but we need all the kids in Niles to join with us. Maybe we'll have dances maybe we could make things, but most of all here we have somewhere to go." Another quiet boy suddenly volunteered, "I think like us, why don't these other people. Some of our parents care less what we do. Some citizens think we should be home studying, well I'm not too good at that. I want to build things, I'd like to talk to other guys about this." Still another boy said, "I'd like to play in a band, I'm really good enough, (some of the kids agreed with him, laughter and punches) but maybe I could try and improve."

And so it went, the teens talking it out. Do they know what they want? Maybe, and perhaps with the right direction and just talking out, maybe, something good can be. On the way home we could not help thinking how fortunate was the lot of the mature teen who achieved scholastic heights. Were not the schools mostly geared to their improvement. We wonder if the teens would be willing to give some constructive friendship to their fellow teens. How? Visit the Teen Center, show yourselves there, it might be refreshing to come down occasionally from that lofty scholastic plateau.

Jr. College Candidates Must File Notification

Any resident of Maine Township High School District #207 who expects to attend a recognized junior college in Illinois for the coming year including the summer session of 1968 must file a notification of intent with the Board of Education before July 1, 1967 in order to receive financial support from the District, according to Dr. Richard R. Short, Superintendent of Schools.

Such financial aid is provided by the Public Junior College Act of the State of Illinois (House Bill 1710) however, the July 1 deadline is mandatory.

No fee is required for filing and no penalty is levied for failing to finalize indicated plans. However, Dr. Short points out that Illinois state law no late applications may be filed and all must be in the office of the Board of Education of District No. 207 by July 1, 1967 for the 1967-68 school year and/or 1968 summer session.

If a resident of the District received aid in the past year he must refile for each succeeding year. June graduates who may be attending summer sessions in 1968 must file now for anticipated attendance.

Filing of this notification of intent does not necessitate any designation of the college the applicant might attend or any guarantee from the college that the student will be accepted. The only requirement stated in the form declaring intent is that the individual must be a bona-fide resident of Township High School District No. 207.

The superintendent said that the amount of tuition to be paid by the District is the per capita cost at the junior college attended less the rate of state apportionment and less any tuition charged directly to the student. The amount may vary with each junior college. Two hundred and twelve Maine Township residents filed the application last year and authorizations were approved by the Board of Education prior to July 1, 1966. The great majority of those persons who filed a notification of intent are attending public junior colleges in the Chicagoland area.

Applications are available at the district office located in the Maine East High School, Dempster and Potter Roads, Park Ridge, or will be mailed upon request by telephoning 825-4484. Nodoo-346-4484.

Sausages Linked With Royalty At Pancake House

It's not every day that sausages are linked with royalty. But at the International House of Pancakes, 9206 Milwaukee Ave., franchise owner Tom Ferraro treats them like kings.

"We wrap every savory link sausage in our Gold Medal-winning buttermilk pancakes," he said, "the top them off with creamy whipped butter to come up with a plateful of Pigs in Blankets that would make any royal palace chef turn in his spatula."

As a matter of fact, International's buttermilk pancakes made the judges sit up and take notice at the 1966 California State Fair. In one of the most unanimous decisions in the fair's history, these buttermilk delights were awarded Gold Medals for quality, taste, and texture.

Larsen, John "Red" Santry, "Barney" Oldsfield, Art Vodicka, "Big Dave" Fijakowski, Chuck Dayment, and Al Jenkins, Sophomore Paul Weber accredited himself with superior pitching and outfield play.

At our next general meeting chairman Charness reports that Dick Butkus of the Chicago Bears will be our guest. Every boy in the village is welcome to attend with his parent. All Niles Baseball League meetings are held on the second Tuesday of the month. (June 13, 1967).

The Riggio Orioles continued their winning ways against the Bank of Niles Indians by the score of 11 to 4. SAM HOFFMAN, SCOTT LETTOW, and DAVE ALLEGRETTI had homers. the opportunity to attend college; however, most colleges and universities, because of overcrowded conditions, have policies by which they accept for admission only those students in the upper quarters of their high school classes. "We have high level, well-motivated people in our area, who would greatly benefit from a junior college," it was stated.

Laurence Cleland, chairman of the North Shore Junior College steering committee has stated that 23 junior college districts have been formed in Illinois, and 8 more are being planned. The trend is necessary, he added, because there will be 250,000 students who will seek college educations in Illinois by 1980, and present state facilities "are bulging at the seams," Cleland added.

TOTAL POPULATION OF PROPOSED NORTH SHORE JUNIOR COLLEGE DISTRICT
1960 (Actual census)	369,000
1970 (Estimated)	477,000
29% increase over 1960
1980 (Estimated)	558,000
51% increase over 1960

Estimated increase of proposed higher-educational facilities is only 3/5 as much as the estimated demand for those facilities, according to survey study of Englehardt, Englehardt and Legget survey firm.

Noble Puffer, Cook County Superintendent of Schools has said that establishment of junior colleges in Illinois is one of the very important educational developments that must become part of our society, because society demands greater and better educational stan-

If you have a youngster, you know how the questions come . . . straight out. No fooling around.

And there is a slight surprising look in their eyes. Suddenly you are aware that this is one of those times where you don't just toss off some quick answer and dump, or behind the Sunday newspaper.

I don't know what you told your son. Here's what I told mine.

I said, "Yes, I would sell our house to a Negro." And, I would sell our house to a Chinese, or an Eskimo, or a Catholic, or a butcher, or a banker, or a banker."

The point is obvious to you, but I wanted my son to know that people don't come in blocks or batches like Negroes or Jews or Poles or white Anglo-Saxon Protestants.

They come one at a time. And, that's the only way you can decently judge them.

Because it's the only fair way you would want to be judged. On your own.

It doesn't make sense because a man has a black skin he will not take care of this house, anymore than it follows that if we sell our house to a Chinese person he will start a hand laundry in the living room.

If a Negro wanted to buy our house, I would want to show him the neighborhood; let him talk to the people on the street, and let him make up his own mind if this is the kind of neighborhood he wants to live in.

And, I would hope that our neighbors would not say, "God help us, a Negro just moved in. Now the neighborhood will be a mess, real estate values will go down, our neighborhood will become a black ghetto."

I would hope they would say, "A man named John Smith has moved to our street. He is interesting, a school teacher, has three kids, is helping to coach the Little League, and incidentally, he's a Negro."

Yes, I would sell our house to a Negro.

Wouldn't you, Son?
