From The Left Hand

By David Besser

There is an arrogance of power which goes with village officialdom jobs which is often humorous, sometimes irritating, but everpresent when hum-drum men get in positions of authority. Not too long ago a local police car met a car we were in. Both cars came together at about the same time. Because the police car was attempting to cross the slightly raised meridian strip we kept going expecting him to cross it after we passed him, since he was crossing into our lane. Because we failed to stop he waved us down at the corner. He said when we turned the corner we did not have the auto turn signal on 150 feet before approaching the corner. What he was really saying was "Since I'm the guy with the badge, and you refused to stop and let me break into your lane, I'm going to show you I wield a big stick."

At Tuesday night's village board meeting the boys with the big stick showed the same arrogance, only this time it was tinged with pathos. A Niles architect brought elaborate plans for an all-wooden house to the meeting, and asked for consideration that this very exceptional house, which he estimated would cost $100,000 if built with masonry, be allowed to be built on his lot at the west end of town. It was a very bold plan, which he said would add a great deal to the community. But lo and behold, our good friend Al Martin, Building Commissioner, said it did not hold any esthetic value, in his estimation; and fire chief Al Hoelbl then gave the architect a little lecture on what he should know as an architect. Niles Mayor Nick Blase, who showed sympathy for the plans, as did some of the trustees, told Hoelbl he should confine his remarks to regulations concerning the fire code, which forbids the all-wooden structure.

The rather bizarre episode is a sign of the times here in suburbia. While such a plan would be welcome in suburbs accustomed to this priced house, here in Niles, where unimaginative builders put up their maximum-profit homes, with little regard for individuality, the word is "conform," "don't be different," and other painful signs of the time, which blot out the very freedom which we

July 4 Musical Program At Mill Run

Niles annual July 4th commemoration goes indoors this year when the Chamber of Commerce-sponsored affair will stage a 2-hour musical program at the Mill Run Playhouse from 2 to 4 p.m., Thursday. An outstanding singing and dancing group, the American Majority, a youthful, sprightly group of college-aged teens, will entertain with song and dance, providing traditional music of America; reminiscent of the famous Young Americans.

Viet Nam military men and veterans and Mr. and Mrs. Chester F. Rogala, parents of Richard, who is a member of the captive ship Pueblo. Other guests include Niles Junior Miss, Niles Youth and Junior Miss Commissions and Niles village officials.

In addition to the fine choral arrangements special choreography is being arranged under the direction of Nilesite Audrey Duda.

Niles Chamber of Commerce President Al Green will be one of the guest speakers as will Cardine Intrieri, 1968 Illinois Junior Miss, who will give a "Message To Youth".

Music will be provided by Bobby Christian and his Sound Sensational Orchestra. The Christian band has previously been heard at past Junior Miss pageants, the state finals which are annually held in Niles.

The afternoon's entertainment is free to the public and tickets may be obtained at Niles Drugs or the Chamber office, 8044 N. Milwaukee ave.

While the patriotic flavor of Sponsorship of the program comes from donations from the business and civic community, which as of this writing has paid for about one-half of the money needed for the program.

Jack Hilton, who is director of the American Majority, will also act as master of ceremonies for the afternoon performance. Hilton is president of the Board of Directors of the Illinois Junior Miss pageant, which has been hosted at the Mill Run Playhouse in Niles for the past two years.

Park Dist. To Present 2 Bond Referendums On July 20th

The Niles Park District is planning to provide more parks and better facilities for the ever-growing population of Niles. With the cooperation of the Niles Park Advisory Recreation Committee, a group of concerned citizens, the district hopes to pass two bond issues totaling $1,670,000 to undertake the work. The park commissioners worked closely with citizens committees so that the proposed improvements reflect the needs of the people of Niles.

"Target: BETTER PARKS" is the theme of the bond referendums which will be put to the voters on July 20. A "YES" vote on these bonds will enable the district to undertake a massive upgrading of the park system, and will eliminate many present problems. Some of the most obvious problems are:

1. Not enough parks - many children are not within reasonable walking distance of a park.
2. Too few ball fields - this hampers the Little League program because of scheduling difficulties.
3. No ice skating arena - the present outdoor rinks are inadequate for hockey and skating and cannot be used much of the time because of weather conditions.
4. Overcrowded swimming pool - when the temperature climbs so does the number of swimmers jamming the pool.
5. No gymnasium - in poor weather there is no place to play basketball, volleyball, or participate in recreational activities.

One of the bond issues will be for the acquisition of 5 new park sites. These will be located in the areas of Washington and Milwaukee, Shermer and Hamilton, Greenwood and Betty, Jonquil Terrace (Dist. 64) and Lawrencewood Shopping area. There is very little vacant land left in Niles, and this may be the last opportunity to acquire these sites.

A gymnasium is planned for Grennan Heights Park. In addition to the usual gym activities, it will house a stage to provide theatre-like accommodations for cultural and civic programs.

Ballard Park will be the site for the indoor ice arena and an adjoining outdoor swimming pool. The skating rink will be of regulation size for ice hockey. Many adult and children skating programs will be available throughout the long winter months regardless of the weather. The building will be convertible for other park activities during the rest of the year.

Other present parks will be expanded with facilities and equipment to improve their recreational value. For example, Cortland Park will get new playground equipment and a tennis court; Nico Park will get tennis, horseshoe and shuffleboard courts.

Older people are using America's hospitals more and more. That's a conclusion gathered from statistics prepared by the American Hospital Association.

In a nation-wide study, admissions of patients 65 years and older increased 8.4 per cent compared with the same period of 1967. Hospital admissions of patients under 65 years old decreased .5 per cent during the same period.

Patients over 65 years old account for one out of every five hospital admission. However, they account for one out of every three days of patient care. In other words, older patients tend to stay longer in the hospital -- over five days longer than the patient under 65 years.

The same report shows that the decline in the birth rate continues in our nation. For the same period, there were 4.5 per cent fewer births than there were in the corresponding period one year earlier.

While these figures are interesting by themselves, they have added significance for hospitals. Those charged with planning for the health needs of the community study these and other figures diligently to plan for the future.

For example, a new community hospital being planned would have to take into account the declining birth rate in determining the size of the maternity department.

record player, and two cases of liquor.

Festival tickets have been sent to Niles residents, and those persons who have not received tickets may purchase them at the Village Clerk's office in Niles or call Niles Days Chairman Ben Mankowsky any evening at 965-4895.

Tickets will also be on sale during the Festival from July 17 through July 21.

Proceeds from Niles Days will be turned over to form a Niles Drum and Bugle Corps; proceeds from former festivals have helped other civic projects, such as the Niles Public Library and the Niles Park District.

It would also have to take into account planning for rehabilitative facilities, extended care and long-term care facilities.

The modern hospital is changing constantly to help meet the health needs of the community. The trustees charged with the moral and legal responsibility of governing the hospital must constantly be alert to provide for these needs.

The administrative personnel who run the hospital on a day-to-day basis must keep abreast with new developments. The hospital's medical staff is constantly finding new medical miracles.

Together this team -- trustees, administrative staff, and medical staff -- work together to provide for the health need of the community. Through this teamwork, community residents are assured of modern hospital care.

Elected To District Office

At a recent election of the American Legion Auxiliary, 7th District, Mrs. Jack Bartholmy, 8713 Austin, Morton Grove, was chosen as the district's chaplain for the coming year.

Mrs. Bartholmy is the retiring president of the Morton Grove Unit #134, American Legion Auxiliary.

Attractions Of Legion's Carnival

Nancy Nehart and a friend are shown riding one of the kiddie attractions which will be part of this year's Morton Grove Post #134, American Legion's annual carnival. The year-long four day event is scheduled for July 11-14.

Nancy's father, carnival chairman Al Nehart reports several other rides for the tiny tots, but exciting other attractions for the slightly older group, including one new daring feature for the brave of heart.

Among the games to be found on the carnival grounds for all ages are the hola hoop, shooting range, three pins, basketball, a bowling alley, cannon ball, dart balloons, ping pong, cat rack, ring toss, diggers and others as well as the ever popular soft drink stands, popcorn and cotton candy, cozy dogs and this year ice cream supplied by Good Humor. A fully stocked kitchen is also to be run once again as in the past by the Post's Auxiliary.

Morton Grove Jr. Women's Club Tells Of Activities

The Morton Grove Junior Women's Club, an affiliate of the IFWC in keeping with the 19th District Dept. of Emphasis for the year, Conservation, has recently given some 25 clay pots, soil and seeds to the children at the American Indian Center. Most of these will be put in window boxes as the children live in apartments in the city. The children were delighted to have something of their own to nurture and display.

The Center is in need of equipment to facilitate more comprehensive programs and to stimulate the interest of participants. According to Francesca Volti, the most pressing need at present is recreational equipment for younger children, age 5 to 12. In support of a 10th District project to help build up the hobby area the Juniors have taken to the Center this past week a set of 12 books for the Children's library and several boxes containing toys, games, food and clothes. In addition, at their June board meeting the club voted unanimously to purchase and donate a fully equipped and stocked fish aquarium. Anyone who might wish to help should contact Mrs. Paul Zwik at 965-0695.

An Indian boy who will graduate from Senn High School this month was adopted by the Juniors and completely outfitted for this all important day.

Several members and teenage volunteers were to be on hand Tuesday, June 25, at Downey Veterans Hospital to participate in their Annual Outdoor Carnival. Items are always needed for the bedridden at Downey. Slippers, pens, stationery, shaving lotions are but a few of the things they are always happy to have.

The USO will be much busier now that summer is here. Paperbacks, cards, and goodies are always welcome. The Juniors remind you to fly your flag on Thursday, July 4!

Kismet Opens July 13 At Niles North

A major summer musical production of "Kismet," the long-time successful Broadway hit, will be produced and presented by the Ridotto Players, Inc. of Skokie, Illinois with the opening night scheduled for 8:00 p.m. on Saturday, July 13.

Under the supervision and direction by Anita Grant, "Kismet" will be presented only on Saturday and Sunday evenings in the Niles North High School Auditorium located at 9800 North Lawler Avenue in Skokie. A total of eight shows.

Two each on four successive Saturdays and Sundays commencing with the Saturday, July 13 performance, are scheduled. All seats are reserved for the air-conditioned theatre in the high school which is located just west of the Old Orchard Shopping Center.

This full scale and complete presentation of "Kismet" will be a gigantic and elaborate production which is a tribute to the dedication of the young adults group and its interest in the theatre.

While the leading players and technicians assigned to "Kismet" are of a professional stature, the numerous young people in the 16 to 24 age bracket are residents of the area and are from drama and music classes of college and high schools everywhere. They are members of the choral and dancing ensembles.

Dale Lind of the famed Lind Brothers will be in the leading role of Hajj. Kathy Betts will appear as Marsinah; Steve Walker will assume the role of the

THE MEDICI, the most famous princes of the Renaissance are often said to be descendants of Apothecaries because of the six pill-like balls in their coat of arms. This family though only merchants in Florence in the 14th Century, became the leaders in banking and politics by the beginning of the 15th Century. By the beginning of the 18th Century the Medici had died out, and no longer dominated Italian History.

Junior Troop 718's Junior To Cadet Bridging Ceremony

Junior Troop 718 held a Junior to Cadet "Bridging" ceremony on Friday, June 7 at Oak school. The meeting started with a flag ceremony, then the Junior Scouts watched as Renee Wente and Mary Kay Kulka went through the Bridging ceremony.

First, the two girls lit the 12 scout candles and recited the 10 Girl Scout laws, the Girl Scout motto and slogan. They shook hands with their leaders, Mrs. Edith Dominick, Mrs. Audrey Rothenberg and Mrs. Rosemary Wisniewski. They then walked across a simulated bridge, recited the Girl Scout promise to Troop coordinator Lorraine Kay and shook hands with her, after which she presented them with a Cadette cockade to be worn on their Scout beret, Scout Carolyn Vann who is also going on to become a Cadet Scout, was not able to be present for this ceremony.

During the past year, some of the Scouts' parents have helped the girls earn Merit badges. Mrs. Edith Dominick said she, the other leaders, and the girls wanted to show their appreciation and gratitude for this help. Therefore, Girl Scout Thank You certificates were being sent to the following people:

Mrs. Spino, who gave up her kitchen to help on the cooking badge; Mrs. Zielinski, a Registered Nurse, who worked on the Health Aid badge; Mr. Geis used his dark room and photographic equipment for the camera badge; Mr. Dominick helped the girls edit a troop newspaper and produce a puppet show for the

Junior Scouts Of Troop 718 Bike Hike

At 10:30 a.m., May 21, the Junior Scouts of Troop 718 embarked on a bike hike from Oak school to Miami Woods. The following scouts pedaled their bikes from the school and back again: Kathy Blasuccio, Sharon Dominick, Marianne Eterno, Candy Giampoli, Karen Kanter, Karen Kay, Mary Kay Kulka, Lynne Lampert, Sheri Perlman, Pamela Redig, Hanice Ryba, Christine Smity, Cynthia Spino, Renee Wente, Patricia Wisniewski, Annette Zielinski and Holly Zukerman. The girls were accompanied by Mrs. Dominick, troop leader and mothers, Mrs. Kay and Mrs. Redig.

When the riders arrived at the woods they were greeted by troop leader, Mrs. Wisniewski; Mrs. Canning, mother of Mrs. Dominick; Michael Kanter and Mark Dominick, brothers of two of the scouts. The boys and Mrs. Wisniewski and Mrs. Canning had started the fire so the scouts were able to roast frankfurters for their lunch. After lunch the girls were taught how to make a shelter using two bikes and a poncho. They also discussed bike safety and rules of the road when bike riding. Cadet Scout Marianne Wisniewski also participated in these discussions.

The girls then cycled back to Oak school, arriving there at about 1:30 p.m. All of the scouts participating in the bike hike will receive a Girl Scout Merit badge.

writer badge; Mrs. Perlman gave up her home on Sundays so that her niece, Sandy Cohn, could help the girls earn both the drawing and painting badge and the prints badge; Mrs. Eterno helped with the needlecraft badge, Mrs. Elaine Perlman was also presented with a Girl Scout pin in recognition of her 5 years of service in Girl Scouting.

The Scouts who worked toward the Writer Merit badge presented a puppet show with a Hawaiian flair. The puppeteers were Sharon Dominick, Linda Krainski, Mary Kay Kulka, Judith Rothenberg, Patricia Wisniewski and Annette Zielinski.

The scenery was made by Mr. Dominick. Needless to say, the show was a resounding success, cries of "author, author" were heard and the puppeteers were called out for numerous curtain calls.

Refreshments consisting of cupcakes and milk were served afterwards to the Scouts, their leaders and Mrs. Wente and Mrs. Zielinski, who were also present at the meeting. Adorning the refreshments table was a centerpiece made by the new Cadets under the guidance of Mrs. Wente. The Junior Scouts of the Daisies Patrol retrieved the colors as a most memorable meeting came to a close.

Girl Scout Troop 279 Court Of Awards & Bridging Ceremony

On June 7, Girl Scout Troop 279 of Oak school gave the Illinois State Flag to H. R. Moran, principal. This presentation took place during a Court of Awards and Bridging ceremony. A flag ceremony opened the meeting after which the presentation of the Illinois flag was made. A Candlelight ceremony was held and then Mrs. Frederick Chezem, leader, gave out all the badges earned by the girls.

Almost all the girls in the troop received the Toymaker badge because they all made stuffed animals to be given to the children in the Chicago State hospital. Other badges given were: Debra Chezem, personal health badge; Elizabeth Colby, personal health; Deborah Fait, personal health; Kari Krenek, personal health; Margaret Michals, personal health; June Passarelli, housekeeper, personal health and skater; Susan Fignato, collector and housekeeper; Susan Rings, my home and personal health; Cecilia Schwab, personal health; Rosalyn Varon, personal health; Susan Webber, cyclist and personal health; Bonnie Westberg, personal health; Diane Westberg, personal health; and Anne Zankovich, personal health.

On July 1st 2,500 Information Operators changed their names.

No, they didn't all get married (except for the girl in the middle). They've changed their names from Information Operator to Directory Assistance Operator. The reason: Directory Assistance is a more accurate description of the jobs they do.

Think about it. They are there to help you find phone numbers when you aren't able to find them yourself. Like when there's no directory around, or when you need a new number that's not listed yet.

Sounds logical? Sure. But a lot of people call for assistance and never realize that the number they need is probably right there in the phone book. At Illinois Bell, three-fourths of the calls to Information are for numbers correctly listed in the directory. We're hoping the new name will help remind people that the girls at Directory Assistance are there to help whenever the phone book isn't. So remember, before you call for the number you need, give the book a look.

Maine-Hi AFS Student To Spend Summer In India

A full summer overseas trip and visitation with a family in India has been afforded another student of the Maine-Hi's.

Cynthia Loris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Loris of 8507 Bruce dr., Niles, and a senior at Maine East High school, will spend the summer in India as a part of the American Field Service "American Abroad" program. She will be a guest in the 14-room home of Mr. and Mrs. Rajagopal Pai and their family in Mangalore, India, a city on the southern part of the western coast of India. Cynthia will inherit, as Indian tradition, the four daughters of the family and a grandmother who also makes her residence with the Rajagopal Pai family.

Miss Loris recently flew to New York City from where she will sail to Europe and then fly on to India. The host family are all Hindu, vegetarians, and speak the English language. Miss Loris will wear the traditional "sari", and will attend school with the four family daughters throughout the summer months. The purpose of the summer long visitation is to foster a better understanding among the young people of two different worlds and societies, through living together and sharing in the Indian manner of education.

Rain Rain Go Away - The Little League Wants To Play

Since the sound of Play Ball on opening day, May 13, the worse fear of each manager was the pitter-patter of raindrops falling on the baseball fields prohibiting scheduled ballgames to be played. Every manager knows that rescheduled games cause problems with rotating their pitchers when playing back-to-back games. Although thunderstorms have interrupted almost all of the scheduled games this last week, we are confident that Mother Nature will allow us to be more productive until the season ends.

June 22 - The Imperian Eastman Mets broke up a tight pitching duel against the Niles International House of Pancakes Colts with one run in the fourth, four in the fifth and four in the sixth. Turning in the fine pitching job for the Mets were Scott, for six innings while Hebertsen, Zeman Kozol hurled for the losing Colts. The final outcome of the game was a 9 to 2 victory in favor of the first place Mets.

June 22 - The Lawson Products Phillies continued to turn in a fine display of baseball with 14 hits, including a home run by Scott Lettow, who also had 3 for 3 at the bat. Sedjo, pitching for the Phillies for a 6-2 victory over the Cubs, Shut out pitching by Lions pitchers Bob Maller, Larry Bender and Gary Mattes enabled the Lions to squeeze by the Braves by a score of 2-0.

Wherein the previous day's game was overwhelmingly a pitching victory, the game between the Lions and the Cubs proved to be an example of consistent hitting. Dough Olson, Larry Bender, Bob Maller, Tom Tanner and Art Davenport combined their ability at the plate to defeat the Cubs 14-5.

The first round game between the Yankees and the Dodgers ended in a tie. In the second round match, the Yankees put together sparkling fielding, excellent pitching and timely hitting to defeat the Dodgers 6-2.

Supporting Draths with 2 hits apiece was Jariabka, Adamski and Boss. Turning point of the game was in the 1st inning with a fine throw from right field to home plate, with a perfect tag by the Cardinal's ace catcher, Richard Coteus. Niles Minor League

The Skokie American Legion's baseball team upset an injury-riddled Morton Grove team at Oakton Park Wednesday night, June 19th by a 4-1 score.

Morton Grove played without the services of Ed Miller, co-captain and star defensive catcher; Mike Gjrebowski, their number 1 pitcher; co-captain Wayne Karpinski, first baseman and clean up hitter; Bob Reinman, second baseman; and Jim Johnson, center fielder.

Lack of timely hitting and defensive lapses proved to be the downfall of the Morton Grove team. Leftey Gary Weber pitched a creditable ball game; but his fielding errors and those of his teammates cost Morton Grove the ball game.

The 7th District American Legion summer baseball contest continued Sunday, June 23rd when Morton Grove met Glenview at Notre Dame High School field and came out on the short end of a 6-3 score.

With the score tied 3-3 going into the bottom of the 6th inning, starting pitcher Bob Reinman tired and gave up a three run homer which concluded the scoring by both teams for the day.

The game was played under protest from the bottom of the 6th inning by Morton Grove due to a disputed ruling by the umpire in chief. The protest is to be ruled on by the Baseball Committee of the 7th District at a later date.

No Need For Guns In A Civilized Society

Guns were used in 238 murders in Cook County during 1967 Dr. Andrew Toman, MD Cook County Coroner reported today.

Firearms were used in 158 suicides. There were 49 manslaughter deaths in which guns were used. Fifty four accidental deaths caused by firearms in undetermined circumstances. There were 89 coroner jury verdicts of justifiable homicide in which guns were used.

The total of 607 gunshot deaths for the year 1967 most certainly would have been considerably less if firearms had not been available, Coroner Toman said.

Certainly the accidental deaths and many of the murder and suicide deaths would have been much less, he said, suicides and even some murders, such as those committed in robberies, often result from a man with a gun reacting to panic or impulse and pulling the trigger.

Handguns, pistols and revolvers have no other purpose than for use by man against man. Nationally noted as a specialist by the medical profession in traumatic and gun shot surgery, Dr. Toman stated that: "A civilized society should have no need for these wilderness and frontier weapons."

Morton Grove's Legion Team Loses 2 Baseball Games

The Cowboys are still rolling along the trail and have added another win to their record. They fought off the Twins with a score of 5-3.

Brian Swenson went the distance striking out 11 batters and walking only two in six innings of play. The fast and sharp running of the team ran up a total of 19 stolen bases for the game.

Larry Youngs pulled the "old hidden ball trick" at second base and a surprised runner was off the bag and out. The big bats of Danny Hecklinger, Brian Ray Niles, came up with two hits each. Howard Schenker caused much excitement when he caught a fly ball with the seat of his pants, having first fallen over an open shoelace.

Hardel's wife, Nola, presently resides with her parents in Morton Grove.

Niles Village Is Looking For New Emblem - Enter Now

If you're 18, or under, and can draw, the Village of Niles needs you.

The Niles Junior Miss commission is looking for a new emblem for the Village, and the youth of Niles, are being given the opportunity to create it.

Several months ago, Mayor Nicholas Blase and the Village trustees decided to give the village a new slogan. It was decided that since Niles would play host to the Illinois Junior Miss Pageant for the third year in a row, and had been at the forefront in several other programs for youth, the new slogan should bear that title.

Shortly afterward, Mayor Blase proclaimed that Niles would be known as the Youth Capital of Illinois and Home of the Illinois Junior Miss commission. It was then that the commission decided the Village needed some new signs to publicize itself, and help residents remember the village's new slogan. It was also decided that the youth of Illinois should participate in creating the new sign. Thus, a contest was born.

Gala 68 Proceeds To Go To 1st Pediatric Intensive Care Unit

A pediatric intensive care unit will be established at Lutheran General hospital, Park Ridge, with the proceeds from Gala '68. The annual benefit will take place July 20 at the Marriott Motor hotel.

"This will be the first pediatric intensive care unit in the Northwest suburban area," explained Dr. A. A. Sattler, chief of Pediatrics at Lutheran General and general chairman of Gala '68.

The new unit will enable seriously ill children to receive highly specialized care from nurses and other hospital personnel with specialty training in pediatric intensive care. Among those who will benefit most from the unit are premature babies and children born with deformities of the heart, lungs and internal organs.

Proceeds from Gala '68 will be used to purchase special electronic equipment such as machines that take constant electrocardiograms, indicate pulse and temperature changes almost automatically and, in general, record changes in the patient's vital signs. This equipment must be smaller and often more highly specialized than machines designed for adult patients.

The hospital has pediatric thoracic and cardiac surgeons to do the surgery here. The absence of a pediatric intensive care unit for post-operative care has been a limiting factor in this type of surgery performed at the hospital.

Gala '68 will include dinner and dancing to the music of Frankie Masters and his orchestra. It will feature entertainment by Bob Newkirk, singing star of the Don McNeill Breakfast club radio show; Wes Harrison, "Mr. Sound Effects", who uses a microphone, loudspeaker and an amplifier to amuse and astound his audience; and the Chaine Dancers, who present spectacular modern versions of Ukrainian and other Slavic folk dances.

Tickets are $25 per person and may be obtained by contacting the Service League Office at Lutheran General.

New Maine North In The Making

New Maine North High School, the fourth to be constructed to serve the young people of Maine Township, will be another comprehensive and attractive high school in Township High School Dist. 207.

On March 11, 1967, the Maine Township voters approved a 15 million dollar bond issue which included the construction of a 4th high school in Dist. 207, as well as additions and renovations to the three existing schools. It is hoped that this expansion will meet the demands of an ever-increasing student load presently being carried by Maine East, South and West and will provide for an eventual 3,500 additional students at Maine North.

The architectural firm of Caudill Rowlett Scott, of Houston, Tex., which has already submitted artist's sketches and a preliminary model of the entire school plant to school authorities, is presently in the design development stage in preparing for the new school.

The new school site is graced on its western end with a pond of clear, clean water and a grove of mature oak trees. The pond will be both an esthetic asset and a functional feature. As the latter, it will serve as a retention basin to alleviate drainage problems caused by the run-off water from the extensive parking lot and roof areas. The school building will be located north of the pond and will displace a few of the oaks. The building will extend to the east and to the south.

Flexibility in the scheduling of students will be a characteristic of Maine North, as it has been in the other Maine system schools. Seminar rooms will allow teachers and students to work together in smaller, less formal groups.

Several foreign language department classrooms, equipped with folding partitions, will divide into halves for instruction of small groups and for accommodation of small classes.

Artist's sketch of the main entrance of the new Maine North High school, to be located in the unincorporated area immediately north of Park Ridge and west of Niles.

Shown in the photo is the architect's model of the new Maine North High school, to be located in the unincorporated area immediately north of Park Ridge and west of Niles.

es. Several science laboratories will be separated by movable partitions so that two classes may be combined for such activities as lectures, testing and use of audio-visual aids.

Two lecture rooms will permit large group instruction in such subjects as English, science and social studies.

The heart of the three-story academic building will be the Learning Resource Center (LRC). It will be located on the second and third levels, with an interior stairway connecting the levels. For compactness, necessary because of the brevity of periods between programmed classes, and because of affinity of all departments to the LRC, classrooms will be grouped around the LRC.

Student cafeteria facilities will be close to the LRC on the second or main floor and will consist of four separate dining areas capable of accommodating 150 students per area. When not in use for dining, the four areas will serve as extensions of the LRC.

High noise level activities will be separated from the academic area. The east end of the building includes industrial education and physical education.

tion. The west end contains the auditorium, music, art, speech and drama departments. The football stadium and other outdoor playing fields will be on the east end of the campus.

Space allocation in the academic building is planned for the following distribution of departmental and support facilities: The ground level is zoned to include all laboratory facilities, business education, home economics, science, health classrooms, a lecture room and the faculty dining and study area.

The main floor will consist of Administration, Pupil Personnel services, cafeteria, a lecture room and the LRC. The third floor will contain the English, foreign languages, mathematics, and social studies departments and the LRC.

The work on Maine North is progressing on schedule, with ground breaking set for spring of 1969. A construction schedule of approximately 17 months will permit the new school to be in operation by September, 1970.

Architects for the new Maine North high school are Erickson, Kristmann, and Stillough, Park Ridge. Associated with them is the firm of Caudill Rowlett Scott, Architects Planners Engineers, of Houston and New York, the same firm that designed the prize-winning Maine South high school.

A "Citizens Committee for Maine North" was organized about one year ago and helped with much of the initial thinking and planning of the school plant. Robert A. Wells, administrative assistant to the Superintendent of Schools, served as coordinator of all of the planning committees. James W. Hartford, Maine East assistant principal, served as chairman of the Citizens Committee, whose membership consisted of the following people:

Park Ridge — Mr. and Mrs. V. Liptrap, William Wuehrmann, Mrs. Paul Holden, Charles Larson, Mr. and Mrs. R. Perrin, Mrs. Clifford Oscarson and Richard Paragini. Des Plaines — Roger Erickson, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Jackson, Jr., D. Perley, Mrs. Carl Anderson, Mrs. C. Mott.

Glenview — Mr. and Mrs. N. Newman and Chris Carle.

New Polynesian Restaurant At Golf Mill

A new Polynesian restaurant, the Mal-Tai, is open in the Golf Mill shopping center in Niles. The restaurant, formerly Tiffany's, has been completely remodeled to provide an authentic South Seas setting for the Polynesian specialties being served.

In the main dining room of the Mal-Tai, thatched roofs overhead cap intimate bamboo booths. Carved statues of Tiki gods serve as the base of the candles on the tables and booths. Larger versions of the same native art stand guard at the entrance atop foliage filled fountains.

Entrees on the extensive menu include selections featuring chicken, pork, beef and seafood. Chicken South Sea Lichee, Pork Mandarin Kau Kau, Oyster Beef Papeete and Lobster Pineapple Kauli are on the menu. Appetizers include popular island specialties — egg rolls, rumaki, barbecued ribs and pua puu, barbecued pork tenderloin. Tropical island cocktails are available in wide variety. American specialties are also offered on the menu. Dinners begin at $2.95.

South Sea Island entertainment is presented nightly in the Mal-Tai Polynesian room. Booths are upholstered in leopard skin and nativemasks and shields adorn the straw-matted walls. Bamboo and wood-carved pillars add to the Polynesian atmosphere. Hand-painted murals of south seas scenery provide a colorful background for the stage and bar areas.

The current show features Prince Taifili and the Samoans—a group of eight dancers, singers and instrumentalists—presenting unique entertainment, wild rhythms and primitive dances. Four men and four girls in colorful native costumes perform nightly except Sunday and Monday.

The restaurant joins the Mill Run Playhouse and dinner reservations may be made at the theatre box office when ordering tickets. Buffet lunch is served from noon in the main dining room.

The League Of Women Voters

Give A Little History Of Illinois Constitution

authorize the calling of a convention you will want to understand what a convention is, what it can do and why we need it.

Illinois has had only three constitutions since it became a state in 1818. The first one, drawn in 1818, met only the requirements of statehood and was a relatively brief document.

In 1846 the people approved a constitutional convention which produced the document which was adopted in 1848. A new convention was authorized in 1860 and convened in 1862 during the Civil War. This was a failure as more time was spent fighting the war than drawing up the new document.

The deficiencies of the 1848 constitution in meeting the needs of a rapidly growing Illinois became more and more evident, and a convention was approved in 1868, culminating in adoption of the 1870 constitution. This is the constitution in effect today.

The constitutional convention called in 1920 was defeated after 33 laborious months. In 1934, a call to convention did not receive the majority required.

At the unit meetings on Feb. 20 and 21, The League of Women Voters of Morton Grove discussed why our State government is unable to meet the needs of a dynamic society under the existing Constitution. The panel presenting their non-partisan research material so articulately consisted of Mrs. Ramon Hanson, chairman, Mrs. Victor Aybar, Mrs. Oscar Lislar, and Mrs. Ted Camis.

One fact to keep in mind is that total revision is not likely. The entire document should be looked at as a whole so that conflicts within it are eliminated or prevented and obsolete and unnecessary provisions can come out at one time. Enough changes are needed to require more attention that the legislature has time to give.

The League feels that approving the calling of a Constitutional Convention during this the 150th birthday of our state would be a great step forward.

Come to where the real action is, join the Morton Grove League of Women Voters! Women from Niles are encouraged to join this League also. For membership information contact Mrs. John Adams, 966-7139. For additional Con-Con data Mrs. Hanson will welcome calls at 966-3552.

Why join a political party? Because you're halfway disenfranchised if you don't!

The League of Women Voters, a non-partisan organization, believes that one of the best ways to promote political responsibility is to encourage its members to become active in political party affairs. We think that other citizens should do likewise. If you aren't a party member, active at least to the extent of voting in the primary election, you are depriving yourself of a vital part of your political rights.

Maybe it's apathy or a reluctance to let friends and neighbors know your political leanings, maybe it is a distaste for what the word politics connotes that keeps you away from party affairs. Whatever the reason, if you don't vote in the primary election, you don't have a say in the election of a party committeeman. This committeeman — together with his counterparts in other districts — does most of the state-making; he fills vacancies in elective offices; he decides who the party's presidential nominee will be; he distributes patronage, in the form of jobs or other favors. Your choice of a committeeman, and your letting him know what you think and want, can give you an effective voice in government. So, choosing party officials is one big reason you should join the party.

claim we cherish. When fire chiefs begin lecturing architects about architecture, just as police chiefs in northwest suburbia tried to tell us what to read a few years ago when they raided bookstands here, the differences between a police state and our alleged free society become blurred.

Periodically we mention the need for consolidation of the services in surrounding suburbs. Sometime back the Mayor of Arlington Heights suggested the combining of several northwest suburbs into one city would prove more efficient and economical. The politicians in the suburbs, ever-desirous of economy and serving the public, somehow did not rally around the Mayor's suggestion. In fact the idea seemed to die on the very vine from which it first bloomed.

Years ago we suggested and tried unsuccessfully to get several interested residents to consider consolidating local elementary school districts. We went as far as the County Superintendent's office, but were discouraged by the appraisal that such action in our inequitable districts here was a near impossibility.

In more recent times we wondered aloud why park districts couldn't combine their facilities, why police, fire and public works departments couldn't combine their services among several towns for greater efficiency and economy.

Our latest consolidation pipe-dream concerns library districts. Why couldn't a member of one library district be allowed the use of other suburban libraries, as well as Chicago's libraries? Why couldn't a Niles or Morton Grove library card be a ticket to withdraw books from surrounding libraries?

Having lived in suburbia for 15 years, after being a city boy for over 25 years, we've never been overly-impressed with the great advantages to suburbia-living (did we hear somebody say, 'why don't you go back, you wouldn't be missed?'). High taxes, poor parks, second-rate public transportation, crowded schools and inadequate libraries are among the liabilities which are traded for green lawns, good garbage pick-up and a cheaper vehicle sticker. Since we suburban bumpkins seem to enjoy

NI-Gas To Reduce Gas Bills

William F. Crowley, executive vice-president of Northern Illinois Gas Company announced today (June 25) that gas bills for its customers will be reduced to reflect a refund of more than $715,000 during the next 12 months.

The utility has received a refund in that amount from Natural Gas Pipeline Co. of America one of its major gas suppliers. NI-Gas plans to pass the refund back to gas users through its purchased gas adjustment provisions. The reduction will apply to bills for gas service from June 1, and will continue over a 12-month period.

Federal Grant

A continuation federal grant of $100,000 has been awarded to East Maine School District 63 for continued operation of its 'Interweave' teacher training program for the 1968-69 school year. The in-service program is beginning its second year of operation utilizing UHF television, WFLD-Channel 32. It broadcasts instruction to District 63 teachers as well as teachers in both public, private, and parochial schools in several communities throughout the area. The three-year program is funded under a total federal grant of a third of a million dollars.

This summer 120 teachers, under consultative and administrative direction, will work in developing eighteen in-service television programs, along with follow-up materials and units for in-district and out-of-district use.
