From The Left Hand

By David Besser
Editor & Publisher

Kenneth D. Lindquist is a high school teacher type who is running for state representative under the Democratic Party flag in our district.

Ken and the Maine Township Democrats held sort of a press conference at the Des Plaines Elks club Friday to inform the community he's supporting Senator McCarthy in his bid for the presidency.

Ken's announced support of McCarthy was no earth-shaking news which might start a run on the convention in August. But the entire scene was a small part of Americana which goes on all over the country. Here is a guy, a Democrat, who has no chance of being elected, rounding up the rather sorry local press in this area to relate his support for a Presidential candidate. The news media had four men present, all loaded with vacuous questions, who went thru this strange ritual which was both meaningless and time-wasting.

While the candidate prepared his announcement while standing in front of the punch bowl, the Township campaign manager grandly announced there would be a slight delay while Channel 7 completed taking pictures of the candidate. Later it was announced Channel 2 was taking pictures.

After the TV picture-taking and the reading of the 3-1/2 page announcement, the candidate answered questions from the newsmen. Then the very pretty candidate's wife was introduced and then a Kenilworth-type, Pat Crowley, was introduced and he said a few words on behalf of McCarthy. Crowley heads the McCarthy campaign in Illinois and he whipped it up for his boy pretty good. Crowley, who drops little gems about when he was in Washington he had lunch with the late Senator Kennedy...or "my former next door neighbor Chick Percy, etc.".....

Niles Park District Host To Illinois Assoc. Meetings On Mobile Recreation

On Friday, August 2 and Saturday, August 3, the Niles Park District will be host to the members of the Illinois Association of Park Districts. They will converge on Niles for two days of intensive Panel discussions and Outdoor Demonstrations.

Students in the field of Recreation, from Southern Illinois university at Carbondale, Illinois, will be participating with their Cavalcade of Fun. At present the Cavalcade consists of the following mobile units: Nature Wagon, Show Wagon, Teen-A-Go-Go Wagon, Puppet and Marionette Wagon and Craft Wagon. All of these units have been built by the students in the field of Recreation classes. This will be the first time these Wagons have been north of Springfield. The units will arrive in Niles early Thursday, August 1, and will be dispersed to various parishes here for two days. The children and also the adults can enjoy the units to their heart's content.

On Friday night, some of the units, along with the Niles Park District's unit, will put on a show for Association members and Park District residents, at the Lawrencewood Shopping Center. On Saturday, the Regional Meeting will start with Panel discussions to be held in Niles Elementary school - South 6935 Touhy ave., and a huge Outdoor demonstration of all units in the afternoon at Joz-wiak Park.

Thousands Enjoy Niles Days Parade

Blue skies and brilliant sunshine made for perfect parade weather July 21, as Nilesites turned out to enjoy the All-American spectacle of the Niles Days parade.

Heralded by a motorcycle escort with sirens screaming, the parade made its way from Notre Dame High school to the Niles-Days grounds of the Lawrencewood Shopping Center, where Parade Marshall Mrs. Veda Kaufman awarded trophies to the finest units appearing that afternoon.

Winning the award for best float was the Northwest Italian American Society float, decked out in purple, gold and silver metallic ribbons. Adding eye appeal to the winning float were Laura Romano, Vicki Oliveto, Tommy Barbalace, Laura Angelino and Phyllis Del Re, who smiled and waved at spectators lining the parade route.

The Grand Prize

Grand Prize Winners Mr. and Mrs. Rodney J. Adams, 6928 Oakton, receive the keys to their new 1968 Mercury Montego from Ben Mankowsky, Niles Days chairman, and Mrs. Marge Lieske, Niles Village Clerk. The Montego was the grand prize awarded during Niles Days, July 17-21.

Judged best car of the parade was the Friends of the Library entry, and the Maine East Summer band marched off with the trophy awarded the best marching unit.

Most humorous float in the parade was judged to be that entered by the Jefferson Theatrical Society depicting settlers held captive by Indians who whooped and danced their way alongside the float.

Niles Park District received a special award for outstanding cooperation and young unicyclists Jonice Bobula and Karen Benson, who pedaled their way from Notre Dame to Lawrencewood, received another special award for outstanding effort.

Other highlights in the parade were the Golf Mill Merchants float bearing Niles Junior Miss Laura Kotsiris and her court, the Woman's Club of Niles, singing "Bicycle Built for Two", as they pedaled past in their Gay '90's costumes, and the car from Eddies with Lincoln and Gen. Ulysses S. Grant riding on the back.

NILES POLICE REPORT

William Horne, 7522 Kedzie, told police unknown persons turned over a U.S. mailbox at the corner of Kedzie and Oleander. Postal authorities were notified... William Zeitler, 9307 Callero dr., told police that sometime during the day his car, parked in front of his home, was struck by an unknown vehicle. Continued On Page 18

Huge Success

Dear Editor:

Gala '68 is now a pleasant memory for the more than 800 friends of Lutheran General Hospital who attended the benefit July 20. All agreed it was a highly successful evening.

The fact it was such a success was due in large part to the coverage given by your paper.

We deeply appreciate the fine coverage which your paper gave. You have helped make possible the new intensive care unit for little children which will benefit countless unborn infants.

Wildlife Paintings Display At Niles Library

Through the courtesy of the Equitable Life Assurance Society the Niles Public Library offers an exhibit of twelve wildlife paintings by Les C. Kouba.

Mr. Kouba's works have appeared on the covers of many national magazines and as illustrations in books on nature. He is noted also as an award-winning package designer and has gained fame for his design of the Federal Duck Stamp.

He is the founder and director of American Wildlife Art Galleries of Minneapolis, which houses one of the largest collections of original wildlife art in the country and which exhibits hundreds of paintings and water colors by famous American artists. He is an active supporter of Ducks Unlimited, an international organization of sportsmen who foster the preservation and propagation of waterfowl.

Raised on a Minnesota farm, Kouba began sketching birds and animals in their natural surroundings as a boy. With continuing study he has developed a distinctive technique that has enabled him to produce what many critics consider to be the most authentic wildlife portraits ever executed.

These paintings will be shown in the Library at 6960 Oakton St., Niles, from July 29 to August 17.

Announce Maine North Building Plans

Detailed plans for Maine Township High School North, to be built near Golf and Central, were unveiled publicly for the first time last Thursday night at a building and grounds committee meeting of the Dist. 207 board of education.

The Houston, Tex., architectural firm of Caudill Rowlett Scott presented the results of six months' work on a school for 2500 students, laid out so that about 54% of it, sufficient for 1750 students, can be built as Phase I and used for several years before Phase II is added to meet the needs of a growing township population.

Students who begin classes at Maine North in the Fall of 1970 (in line with the school board's present schedule) will find in the Phase I building nearly all of the facilities needed for a varied, high-quality high school educational program. The main items of the overall plan that won't be available in Phase I are a swimming pool, an auditorium and a fieldhouse. There will, however, be a spectator gymnasium.

The overall plan for the complete T structure calls for a building with three general divisions—a fine-arts wing, an academic building and an industrial arts and physical education wing.

According to the architects' plans, the bottom half of the T's vertical stroke houses the 2-story fine-arts wing. Down this center is a 900-seat auditorium with the stage at the west end.

On each side are classrooms and laboratory facilities for music, speech, drama, and art. Special features include a large band practice room, photographic laboratories and darkrooms, TV and radio studios and storage areas two stories high for stage scenery.

The art department looks out through a glass wall and doors onto an outdoor art terrace overlooking lake (which will be used to catch the runoff of rain from the school building and roads.)

The whole of the fine-arts wing is assigned to Phase II of the construction plans. During Phase I, fine arts classes will be assigned to space that will eventually be used for academic classes. Future science labs, for example, will house art classes (plus some shop and home economics classes); thus plumbing will be where it is needed for Phase II. Band practice will be held in a tiered hall that later will hold desks in an amphitheater arrangement for large lecture classes.

Above the fine arts wing in the vertical stroke of the T is the academic area, three stories high. This area is designed around a nucleus of the "learning resource center" (LRC)—the library. The various academic departments surround it in such a way that all have quick and easy access to reference materials.

The first floor of this academic building houses science laboratories. The second floor has administrative offices, the main area of the LRC and the kitchen and student dining facilities. There are four separate dining halls, each able to seat 150 students. All of them provide ready access to the LRC so they can be used as highly efficient study halls when lunches aren't being eaten there.

The third floor of the academic section houses most of the ordinary academic classrooms, grouped by departments, plus additional parts of the LRC. Frequent stairwells in this part of the building are provided to facilitate student and faculty access to the LRC.

In Phase I, the westernmost bay of the academic area will be omitted. The classrooms and laboratories assigned to it will not be needed for the smaller student body. However, the administrative offices assigned here will initially have to take up part of the total LRC.

Conversion of this area in Phase II will call for considerable construction of walls—the only area in the whole building that will require more than relative minor alterations. The architects say they plan to economize here as much as possible in Phase I by using temporary and partial partitions which are easily removed.

The cross-bar of the T, one story high, houses industrial arts shops, physical education facilities and boiler room and maintenance areas. At the south end, a large fieldhouse makes an upward (eastward) flourish at the end of the T.

In Phase I, the crossing of the T will be thinner than ultimately planned. Later, construction will add across its top, from north to south, more industrial arts facilities, a swimming pool with some additional locker-room space and the fieldhouse. Phase I will include a smaller auxiliary gymnasium and wrestling and dancing-fencing rooms as well as the large spectator gym.

All the mechanical facilities for the Phase I building will be designed to carry the load of the full 3500-student facility with simple conversions—installation of an additional boiler, for example. The heating system is being designed to accommodate air conditioning, although no plans are included for it in either Phase I or Phase II. The mechanical plans will be discussed more fully at another building and grounds committee meeting at Maine East Aug. 5.

For the exterior of the building, the architects plan to make extensive use of pre-poured concrete panels, sandblasted to provide interesting texture. They are trying to design the west wall of Phase I to include such panels, which could be removed and reused when Phase II construction is grafted on at that point. They told the board that a large glass wall slated for the administrative offices in Phase II can definitely be planned for such double use.

The Maine North building will be at the extreme west end of the 52-acre campus. Parking lots eventually will be provided to the west, east, and southeast of the building, some of them scheduled for Phase II. The eastern two-thirds of the site will provide playing fields for sports and physical education classes, the football stadium being at the extreme eastern end.

Some points about financing of Maine North were brought out at Thursday's meeting. The construction bond issues authorized by Maine Township voters in March 1967 will provide between $7 million and $8 million for Maine North. That is enough to complete Phase I.

Present population projections indicate that the planned 1750-student capacity of this phase will be adequate for at least four or five years. Since Phase I planning has been based on an 8-period school day, the initial construction might be stretched further to handle about 2000 students by going to a 9-period day, but this plan would create considerable inconvenience particularly in the lunchrooms.

School officials are reluctant to accept such "stretching" not only because of the important facilities left out of the Phase I building. They hope that Phase II, which will need about 1-1/2 years of construction time, can be implemented to meet population growth beyond the 1750-student level.

Before Phase II can come, it will require a new bond authorization by voters; a referendum for this purpose is likely to be called about 1972 or 1973.

The school board expects the completed Maine North, together with the other three Maine high schools as presently being expanded, to provide all the high school facilities Maine Township will need in the foreseeable future.

Although the major planning of Maine North is pretty definite now, many details of the architect's plans remain to be worked out. Caudill Rowlett Scott expects to have them more or less completed in time for a formal presentation and approval at the regular monthly meeting of the school board Aug. 19.

Dr. Short has said that little thought has been given so far to how Maine Township will be re-districted to assign students to Maine North. He did say, however, that all of the northern part of the township is likely to be reassigned to the new school, and that some areas of Des Plaines almost certainly would be included.

Plan Show

Col. Sengplehl

A gospel magician will open the program every evening at the Vacation Bible school, East Maine Baptist church, 10500 Milwaukee ave., Aug. 5-9, from 7-9 p.m.

A full program is offered to every age group from about three years old up through the adult classes. The children's department will have handcraft, games, refreshments, Bible stories, singing, plus the 1/2 hour with the magician.

The adult department will also enjoy the 1/2 hour with the magician and then the magician will become Retired Army Lt. Colonel Arthur Sengplehl, who, with Pastor Louis Maple, will conduct the Bible study the remainder of the evening.

Theatre History Being Made In Morton Grove

List Krazy Daze Grand Prize Winners

The Morton Grove Post 134, chairman Al Nehart has announced the names of the three grand prize winners from the Post's July 11-14 yearly event.

Chosen at the conclusion of Krazy Daze, the first prize winner had a choice of a 1969 Oldsmobile Delmonico to be purchased from Montgomery Oldsmobile or a two-week Hawaiian vacation for four which will be arranged by the Easy Travel Service in Skokie. The name selected was Mrs. Stephen Jurica, 7234 Palma In., Morton Grove.

Second prize, a tape recorder, went to Marlene and Marjorie Mersch, 5223 Madison, Skokie. A third place game chosen, Lynn Carey, 8635 School, was awarded a Schwinn bicycle. It was donated by Tuffy's Cycle shop in Morton Grove.

Nehart praised commander-elect Frank Selzer who stepped in and took charge of the grand prize awards after the unfortunate death of former chairman, post past commander Herman Jack just recently.

Retiring Morton Grove Post 134, American Legion Commander Ed McMahon, as is the usual custom, issued the Post's annual letter prior to Krazy Daze to every home in the village telling what the proceeds of the Post's yearly carnival are used for. As an incentive for residents to visit the carnival, a nightly savings bond was offered as a prize to villagers who purchased car tickets from this local letter.

Carnival chairman Al Nehart reports prize chairman Frank Selzer, commander-elect, has announced these as the winners of the bonds: Thursday night, R. Ramirez, 9210 Major; Friday, L. Linstrom, 5715 Main; Saturday, Stan Dove, 8928 Ottawa; and Sunday, B. Herter, 9115 Mason.

Al Nehart, Morton Grove Post 134, American Legion carnival chairman has issued a thank you to the village at large for their splendid support and financial cooperation in the Post's second Krazy Daze carnival held July 11-14. The crowds were fabulous, indicating the whole town turned out to the carnival grounds, "assisting us tremendously."

The additional comment from the chairman besides the wonderful aid the townspeople supplied with monetary sums enabling the Post to continue their various projects, is the fact that many individuals and groups are also to be complimented and thanked.

Nehart is sure someone will be omitted if he were to single out individuals who particularly performed outstanding duty; however, Nehart reports special thanks must go to the Park District for their cooperation; the Police Department for guard duty and other services; the Civil Defense for their untiring direction of traffic duty; and the village and its officials for their encouragement and inspiration, Public Works Superintendent Tony Fragassi who was instrumental in having the American flags donated by the Legion some time ago posted on Dempster to herald the carnival was also added as a praiseworthy spot of thanks from the American Legion.

Open Letter

It is a great honor and I am very proud to have been selected as Mrs. Niles 1969. If my heart could speak for me, you would know why I think Niles and her citizens are the very best. I am sure there are many among you who are more deserving and I hope this opportunity comes to each one of you.

A special thank-you to those who nominated me, my friends and neighbors, and the judges who made the selection. I am so excited.

Loving mention goes to the most wonderful man in the world, my husband, Lee, who baby sat for hours, rode the trains and taxis so I could have the car, and ate cheese sandwiches and TV dinners, and always had a sympathetic ear.

There has never been any doubt how I feel about Niles and now I can say with a full heart, "Niles, I love you."

I hope I can do justice to what my trophy represents and serve you well for a year.

Sincerely,
Sandie Friedman

POISON AND KIDS BEWARE!

Children are bundles of energy and curiosity. New sounds, smells and tastes are a challenge. They have a G-man's ability to ferret out the most secret hiding places and an ape's agility for climbing into them...Just like your kids!

Have you watched a child pick up an unattended soft drink bottle and drain it?.. Cute?...maybe. Extend it further tho and you can see the element of danger lurking here. PIRATES HUMBLED TOP TEAMS WITH THREE SUCCESSIVE ONE-RUN WINS.

The Pirates, going into the final week of play with one victory in 14 games and still looking for their first win in second round play, came up with a 3 to 2 win over the first-round champion Cubs, a first-round upset that the tough Giants and then surprised the Phillies 8 to 7 at National Park to make believers of those who had heard that "The Pirates are no pushovers."

The Dodgers squeaked out a 7 to 6 win over the cards to wrap up the second round championship before being knocked off by the Giants 3 to 2 in a thriller at Palma Park on July 24th.

The Giants rallied for their 3 runs in the last of the 5th as Elliot Weiss and Jim Barcal each came up with key hits to drive in all 3 runs. The Dodgers came back with a run in the 4th and final inning, and had runners on second and third when the next batter, who dropped between the right fielder, first and second basemen. Another run scored and the runner from 2nd streaked for home as Jim Barcal threw to the plate from a kneeling position and the runner, with the would-be tying run, was out at the plate on a close play to end the game. An area's badly crippled Morton Grove Post #134 American Legion baseball team felt the injury jinx again when reserve catcher Al Goldberg who was filling in superbly for captain Ed Miller suffered torn cartilage in his knee and will be out for the season. Capt. Miller is the lone catcher remaining on the squad and is back in action behind the plate although still hampered by a broken finger.

John McInerney, who moved into the front line pitching rotation when injuries decimated the staff, suffered a cut knee requiring several stitches, and he, too, is probably out for the season.

The M.G. team met defending Champs Northbrook Sunday, July 22nd at Harrier Park with a patched up lineup and made a battle of it for 4 innings holding the champions to a 1-1 tie. However, Northbrook scored 5 unearned runs in the final innings to wrap up a 6-1 victory.

Friday night, July 19th, Morton Grove suffered their most decisive loss of the year to North Shore at Winnemac Park in Chicago dropping a 7-0 game to the improving North Shore team.

Niles Little League

(Major-National)

July 14-The Brighton Awnings & Storms Cardinals continued on their winning ways to sink the hot-charging Lytton Pirates 10 to 2 for their 6th win in a row. Brekke, pitching for the Cardinals, gave up 5 hits and struck out 7. Draths was the batting star for the Pirates with 3 for 4 at bat and driving in 4 RBIs. Pitching for the Pirates were McEnerney, Wojchek and Furmanski.

July 18-The Lytton Pirates suffered their second consecutive loss in a row at the hands of the unpredictable Norwood Park Savings Braves. The Braves proved once again to be the spoiler in the league, knocking the Pirates out of contention for the title. The score was 5 to 4 and doing the pitching for the Braves was Scher, while on the mound for the Pirates was Haase and Wojchek.

July 19-The Brighton Awnings & Storms Cardinals hope for up-ending the league-leading Mets was short lived. The Imperial Eastman Mets once again proved that they were deserving of their first place position with an astonishing 12 to 3 victory. Pitching for the Mets once again, and doing a fine job, was Dan Mc Donnell, allowing but 6 hits, while Brekke and Coteus tolled vigorously for the Cardinals. The hitting star for the league-leaders were Bob Capozzoli, with 2 hits, Dan Mc Donnell with a triple, and Rich Dayment with a home run.

July 20-The VFW #7712 Cubs won a well deserving game over the Norwood Park Savings Braves by an overwhelming score of 12 to 3. The fine pitching turned in by the victors was performed by Grubba, who held the Braves at bay. On the mound for the defeated Braves were Maycan and Roberts.

July 20-The Red Balloon Giants, with the play-offs in their sights, up-ended the Barr-Staloff Dodgers 13 to 1, to let everyone know that they are going to be in contention until the end. On the mound for the Giants was Parker while Spray, Ferdinand and Russ did the pitching for the Dodgers. Every member on the Dodger team had at least one base hit and their fielding was flawless.

July 21-Pitcher Marty Draths kept the Brighton Awnings & Storms Cardinals' hopes alive by stifling the Niles Intern'l Hse. of Pancakes Colts' bats with only 3 singles while Ron Koziol, hurling for the Colts, contributed 4. Draths struck out 10 and his team performed error-less ball behind him. Thus the Cardinals ended up the season in the play-offs for the league-championship and it was well deserved.

July 21-This was the Lawson Products Phillies' last game of the season and they beat the Lytton Pirates by a score of 2 to 0. Glenn Sedjo did a fine job on the mound striking out 15 Pirates and allowing only 2 hits. Thad Taylor and Len Santi led the hitting each with 2 for 3. McEnerney did a fine job for the defeated Pirates trying to keep his team alive for the play-offs but they were unable to get the runs to support his effort on the mound.

July 21-The Imperial Eastman

The Congress supplied the girls to make up the seven teams, the Niles Youth Commission supplied some of the coaches, the Niles Park District supplied the playing fields and equipment and some of the local businessmen became sponsors. Mayor Nicholas B. Blase threw out the first ball and the game was underway. For this opener the team sponsored by the Niles Garden East homeowners played against the team sponsored by Poeschl Decorating. The first home run was hit by Sue Borkowski of the Poeschl team and the second run by Linda Lechowicz of the Garden East team. The final score was Garden east 25, Poeschl Decorating 15. Niles Youth Commissioners Ralph and Scotty Bast and Frank Barbalace and Village Trustee Todd Bavaš were also present to enjoy the game.

Mets took the league championship with a 7 to 3 victory over the Callero & Catino Redlegs. Doing the hurling for the victors were Elin, doing a fine job for 5 1/2 innings but began to weaken in the last 1/2 and Dayment, finishing up the good job of holding the Redlegs still. For the losing Redlegs, it was Calderone and Hanisch.

The Niles Major League play-offs, opened on Thursday, July 25, bringing together the Red Balloon Giants vs. the Lawson Products Phillies. During the regular season the Phillies found themselves on top in the two encounters with the opposing Giants. Thursday's game found Ron Parker of the Giants facing Glenn Sedjo of the Phillies, with the former coming out on top, pitching a shut-out ballgame, with an overwhelming victory of 10 to 0. The entire Giant ball team contributed to the hitting attack and the fine base running proved to add to the one-sided score. The Giants must now wait to face the victors from the Imperial Eastman Mets and the Brighton Awnings & Storms Cardinals for the best 2 out of 3 World Series Play-offs.

After Niles lost to the Midwest team (2 to 1) on Monday, July 22, in a pitcher's duel, the All Stars entered Thursday's game against Villa Park with their backs against the wall. Having double elimination, it was do or die to pull out a victory or be eliminated from the Thillens tournament.

Opposing the Midwest team, from Chicago, All Star Glenn Sedjo once again turned in a brilliant performance, striking out 15 batters, but lost the game on errors. The Niles All Stars collected 2 errors in the 2nd inning, which enable the Midwest team to receive their 2 runs, both unearned. However, these runs were enough to set Niles down for their 1st defeat. Bill York, pitching for Midwest, struck out 14 All Stars and allowed but 3 hits. With this loss, Niles is placed in the Loser's Bracket and must play more conscientiously in order to gain the title.

Going on the mound opposite Villa Park on Thursday, was All Star Marty Draths, pitching his first tournament game. Marty, a little scared and excited, started with a shaky performance but followed through in blazing style. He struck out 6 men, allowed no walks and gave up but 5 hits to down the Villa Park All Stars 3 to 1. The turning point of the game came in the bottom of the 5th inning when the Villa Park lead-off man hit a single, 2nd man up got on through an error and the 3rd man hit a sinking liner to the right of 1st base. First baseman, Rich Dayment, dove belly-first to his right, snagged the ball on the fly, raised to his knees, tagged the runner trying to return to 1st base, then while the 2nd base runner advanced to 3rd, quick-thinking Short Stop Wayne Brekke beckoned Dayment for the ball. Dayment fired the ball to Brekke guarding second base, to complete the 1st triple play in 17 years ever experienced at a Thillens tournament. The triple play took the fight and spirit from the strong, competitive Villa Park team.

Although striking out 7 times, the Niles All Stars went on a hitting spree collecting 12 hits. Every man in the line-up got at least one hit apiece with the exception of Mc Donnell. Draths and Parker who contributed 2 hits. Niles played against West Chatham July 28 at Thillens Stadium.

Janis Wikstrom and Kathy Wadman placed second in the girls 15 and over 200 Freestyle two man Relay and thirds in the girls 15 and over two man 200 yard Medley Relay event.

Mark Schmidt and Mike Norberg took third place in the boys two man 200 yard Freestyle Relay.

Later on in the afternoon Brenda Larson and Mike Norberg placed first and third in the semi finals of the Tribune Swim Meet in their age groups.

On Sunday, July 21, Brenda Larson took first place in the Tribune Meet with a time of 1:03.4 in the 13 and 14 year old class.

Form Joint Niles - Maine Twsp. Junior College Dist. - Says Dahl

Residents of Maine and Niles townships have been warned to prepare now for the coming boom in demand for junior college education.

That demand could amount to 7,500 or more young people and adults from each township, within the next 5-10 years, or a combined Maine-Niles total of 15,000 students, Genter Dahl told the Kiwanis club at a meeting Tuesday, July 30 at the Des Plaines Elks club.

"We're faced with a big problem, and one way or another it's going to cost us money," said Dahl, a member of the steering committee of the Maine Township Citizens Junior College Study group.

"The problem isn't going to go away if we ignore it or pretend it isn't there."

"In fact, the worst possible course of action could be inaction—doing nothing about the problem and maintaining the status quo. Such a policy could be disastrous because it could wreck havoc with our existing township educational systems, destroy property values and lower the re-sale value of our homes."

"The best and wisest course by far would be for Maine and Niles townships to join forces, combine resources and form a joint Niles-Maine Junior college district," Dahl said.

"Our citizens committee has studied the problem thoroughly and after more than a year of investigation we're convinced that a combined Maine-Niles district would be in the best interests of our students and the taxpayers."

He pointed out that a similar citizens committee in Niles township has come to the same conclusion and that both groups have decided to join forces. They will work together for formation of the proposed two-township district and they hope to seek voter approval at a referendum to be held in Niles and Maine townships possibly next spring.

Dahl said local residents are facing a Junior college problem because of a change in the educational policy of the state of Illinois, which now guarantees each citizen 14 years of public education. "In addition to public education from 1st grade through the 12th, the state now guarantees two more years of extra education, also essentially at public expense," Dahl told the Kiwanis club.

"The new policy doesn't apply just to high school graduates. It applies to adults as well, and adults can be expected to outnumber the full-time students by far."

Dahl said the study committee's enrollment projection for a Maine-Niles junior college is based on the assumption that only 25 per cent of the graduating seniors from the Niles and Maine high schools will attend as full-time students.

"This would give us a full-time enrollment of some 3,100 students around 1975," Dahl said.

Debbie Is Feted At Luncheon

By Rose Rzepka.

The youth capital of Illinois (Niles) played host last week to the country's ideal high school senior.

Deborah Faubion, America's Junior Miss, paid an all-day visit to this village and the red carpet was rolled out for her. She was honored by Mayor Blase, village officials and newspaper representatives at a luncheon last Thursday in the Mai Tai restaurant.

The Mayor previously had presented a key to the city to Debbie and a representative of the Niles Junior Miss Commission gave her a memento of her visit to Niles.

The Niles Junior Miss, Laura Kotsiris, also attended the luncheon and the two, no doubt, had an opportunity to compare notes. Deborah truly seemed to be an "ideal teenager" and, I felt, the type of girl any woman would be proud to have as a daughter or daughter-in-law. She was well versed on many subjects and made the luncheon an enjoyable break in the day's work.

Debbie is America's Junior Miss by virtue of winning the national pageant last March in Mobile, Ala. She is a straight A student from Norman, Okla.

Hold Rites

Funeral services were held last Saturday in St. Andrews Lutheran church, Park Ridge, for 19-year-old Garry Ehrhardt, who died July 24 in Lutheran General hospital from head injuries suffered in a fall from a maintenance truck at Maine Township High school East.

Ehrhardt, the son of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Ehrhardt of Park Ridge, was one of several college students hired for the summer as a temporary maintenance worker at Maine East. He fell from the tailgate of a slow-moving truck while his crew was returning to the building after working on a tree-removal project. His head apparently struck the road and a coroner's inquest last Thursday morning ruled the death an accident.

OUT ON A LEDGE . . . Jack Albany (DICK VAN DYKE) goes to extremes in trying to convince pretty art instructor bally Inwood (DOROTHY PROVINE) that he is not a professional hood but only a struggling actor who has been mistaken for one by a gang of crooks, in this scene from Walt Disney's gangster spoof, "Never A Dull Moment" in color by Technicolor. The picture stars Van Dyke, Edward G. Robinson, Miss Provine and co-stars Henry Silva, Joanna Moore, Tony Bill, Slim Pickens and Jack Elam.

Summer Tour

Soon to return after an exciting summer touring Ireland, England and Scotland, three local girls, Cathy Quinn, 17, of 8245 N. Olcott, Niles; Colleen McConville, 17, of 9457 N. Olcott, Niles and Patty Gore, 17, of 9346 N. National, Morton Grove have had eight busy weeks of sightseeing and visiting.

They attended a medieval banquet at Bunnraty Castle, County Clare, stayed in Dublin, and were guests at many teen-age parties where they were quite a novelty to local teen-agers who were amazed that the girls were permitted to travel without a "nanny" as chaperone. Of interest to the girls was an exchange of views on living standards, the war and racial issues. In London, Carnaby Street and Piccadilly Circus were the highlights. After England, they returned to Ireland, toured several counties and settled for several weeks on Arramore Island, located in County Donegal, which is the wilderness and primitive part of Ireland.

Life on the island was very adventurous for the three girls. Upon leaving Arramore Island, the girls departed for Edinburgh and the highlands of Scotland. The climax of their trip ends with a few days in Dublin from which they will "jet" home. Miss Gore and Miss McConville are seniors at Regina Dominican High school, Wilmette and Miss Quinn is a 1968 graduate of St. Scholastica High school, Chicago.

According to the National Safety Council, there is one accidental injury in the U.S.

Visited a dealer on 'Cloud Nine' this week... Bob Tamborine, owner of the largest Renault dealership in Chicago and at 1501 Waukegan rd., Glenview, is truly excited and enthused about all the "FIRSTS" he is sitting on... Not only is his Renault the first '69 to be shown in the area, but the car itself is loaded with many fabulous "FIRSTS"... These include some remarkable engineering and safety features never before used on any car... Mr. Tamborine says, "Whether a person is in the market for a car or not, it will be a revelation just to stop in and see this fantastic 1969 car." He adds, "There is no obligation on the part of anyone who cares to look, I'm simply so enthused about the car, it's a pleasure to show it."

Ron Sullivan, operator of the New Dodge Dealership at 9009 Waukegan rd., Morton Grove, is stressing service in his operation... Ron says he feels the secrets to business success today lie in service, both mechanical and personal... "I'm of the opinion he really means it when he says 'My customers MUST be satisfied customers above all.'"

Most dealers are getting in line for their Big Push to Move their '68's to make room for the NEW ONES! Smart buyers can sometimes make "excellent buys" during this Push!

Our sincere wishes, for a fast and complete recovery, to Bob Duncan's wife... Bob is G.M. at Jim Aikey's Ford in Des Plaines.

From The Left Hand

is a very charming guy who speaks the lexicon of success. His grand manner and his exuberance for his boy made you realize some rather substantial Lake Shore Drive types are beating the drums for McCarthy. And they leave you with the one message that he's the only guy for '68 and if he's not top man on the Demo ticket they may take their money bags and friends and leave the Democratic Party this year.

Accompanying Crowley was a college type young-married pregnant lass who spoke in more esoteric terms than Crowley. She used the word "unconscionable," when speaking of McCarthy's foes, which told me she was a college-type. When she sprung some Freudian motivations about the enemy camp's tactics we decided right then and there we would send our daughter to work when she finished high school rather than allow her to fill the air with that kind of claptrap while she's breaking bread with her old Dad.

In viewing the local scene we'd like to recommend a night out at the Mill Run Playhouse to view what is billed as a pre-Broadway try-out of "The Crocodile and the Cockeyed Moose." The big city critics were not too kindly with their reviews but our review of the play was we had a good time being entertained. Television's Fred Clark is a fine actor who is excellent in his role; and the play was funny and fast-moving which are 2 good reasons to spend a night at Mill Run.

Because the playhouse is a valuable addition to our communities we're hopeful residents will get behind the productions. If everyone in our areas went to the Playhouse once every season or four times a year we would be assured of a permanent professional theatre here which is indeed a most worthwhile enterprise.
