Rev. Stroot Elected Prexy Of History Teachers Assoc.

Rev. Joseph C. Stroot, C.S.C., of the history department at Notre Dame High school in Niles, was elected recently to a two-year term as president of the newly reorganized History Teachers' Association.

The organization is an outgrowth of the former Notre Dame History Teachers' Association which had been in existence at the university for over 25 years and whose members were almost exclusively teachers in Catholic secondary schools. The new organization includes members from both public and private schools of the nation and teachers at all grade levels. The quarterly journal of the association is "The History Teacher" and is edited by Dr. Leon Bernard, the executive secretary of the association and a professor in history at the University of Notre Dame.

Father Stroot, a native of St. Louis, Mo., has been a member of the social science department of Notre Dame High school since the school was opened in 1955. He received his bachelor's degree in philosophy at the university of Notre Dame and upon completion of his theological studies at Holy Cross college in Washington, D.C., was ordained to the priesthood in 1954. He later received an advanced degree in Modern European History at the University of Notre Dame.

Mid-Month Meanderings...

The artificial borders which separate the various neighborhoods we call suburbs in our area have always seemed to us somewhat absurd.

If your neighborhood border ends at Dempster st. and you live in Niles you have your mail picked up 7 times a day Monday thru Friday. Across the street in the Morton Grove neighborhood you have only three weekday mail pickups. And if your neighborhood is north of Dempster and west of Greenwood you'll do better to use carrier pigeons since mail is picked up locally once a day.

Based on the ratings for fire departments if you're a Nilesite your department has a "4" rating which is tops for the area. Again, across the street the Morton Grove rating is "5" which is below both Skokie and Niles, which have identical ratings.

In school districts these artificial boundaries are even more absurd. Nilesites and Morton Grovites living west of Harlem pay a great deal more for school facilities than those living east of Harlem. And despite the higher payment the amount of money behind each school child on one side of the street is far greater than on the other side...the greater amount for the children whose parents pay the lesser amount of school taxes.

The divergence of postal pickups may not be a local problem though it is difficult to understand why a service under federal control can such a variance of service have within one block. Since all the natives on all the blocks pay the same income tax to the government

Residents of Niles came one step closer Tuesday night at the Niles Village Board meeting to seeing their dream of better parks and recreational facilities in the area become a reality.

Gabriel Berrafato, attorney for the Niles Park District, appeared before the board seeking a resolution that would give approval to the acquisition plans of the park district according to the referendum passed July 20. This step (approved by the board) as well as a previous approval granted by the Niles Plan Commission, is necessary for the Niles Park District to present to the Northeast Planning Commission before acquisition moves can be made.

Site acquisitions now approved by both Niles bodies are:

1. Betty-Chester; 2. Trailer park (Dempster-Washington area); 3. Sherman-Wright Terrace (Chesterfield Gardens), west of Waukegan and east of Sherman; 4. Lawrencewood development area (south of the shopping center and east of Waukegan) and 5. Jonquil Terrace area.

Before Berrafato sought the

Sell Park Site Bonds

Niles Park District has sold the bonds authorized by its residents in the July 20 referendum.

The money was received Sept. 27 and will be used to purchase several new park sites and build major recreational developments in others. In the interim period, the $1.67 million dollars is earning dividends via United States Treasury Securities and collateralized Certificates of Deposit.

The entire transaction of delivering the bonds, receiving payment, transferring funds and purchasing the above securities were all performed within a four-hour period. Again, the Bank of Niles provided a community service in expediting the proceedings and "savings" the Park District "over the week-end interest", which was more than $700.

Of the 11 banks contacted, only the Bank of Niles could meet the Park District qualification of collateralization and a respectable dividend rate. The investments were made with and through the Bank of Niles.

The money earned via dividends will be used to complete the current Park District expansion and building program. According to finance chairman, Jack C. Leske, the projected dividends from this type of investment, reduced the size of the July 20 referendum from $1.78 million to $1.67 million dollars.

Here Are Winners Of Tom True "Gaper Prizes"

The star of "Sabrina Fair", Kathy Crosby, graciously took time out of her busy schedule at Mill Run Theatre, to draw the names of the Tom True "Gaper Prize" winners sponsored by the BUGLE and its auto dealers in connection with the 1969 new car showing.

There were a total of 8 winners in this contest with 3 major awards and 5 consolation winners receiving prizes.

An ordinance rezoning 7039 Dempster st. to B1 Special Use for a Kentucky Fried Chicken building was slated on the agenda for the next board meeting.

Action on ordinance requiring residents to fix their own water lines on their property when those lines are damaged was also postponed.

Today in Pharmacy

By Matt Kutza, R. Ph.

Less than a century ago, surgery was a frightening experience. Because of the high mortality few people would submit to the blade. Amputations performed as a last alternative after compound fractures were considered fairly safe; mortality rates averaged from 39 percent to 65 percent. The high mortality rate following surgery was attributed to the so-called "hospital diseases" such as blood poisoning, gangrene, tetanus and erysipelas. In the 1860's, at the University of Glasgow, Dr. Joseph Lister introduced antiseptic surgery and brought an end to an era of fear.

In the 1960's much surgery can be avoided by preventive diagnosis and medication. BIRCHWAY DRUGS is equipped to handle any prescription your doctor may prescribe for you. # LWV Continues Series To Explain Con-Con

(Editor's note: This article is the second in a series of five developed by the League of Women Voters of Illinois to explain the proposal to hold a constitutional convention in Illinois. A call to convention will be presented to the voters for their decision on Nov. 5. The issue will be printed on a blue ballot to stress its importance.)

II. WHY CHANGE THE ILLINOIS CONSTITUTION?

In the introductory article of this series, we made reference to the fact that the Illinois Constitution is basically unchanged since it was written in 1870. We also spoke of the difference between the federal constitution, which is flexible and responsive and uncomplicated, and the state constitution, which is full of details and outmoded provisions. It is not hard to explain why.

The delegates to the 1870 Constitutional Convention which wrote the Illinois Constitution were elected by the people to revise an earlier constitution made obsolete by the turn of history and the progress and growth of the state. It was their job to make needed changes and to look ahead and try to devise a document which would serve for some time. But those delegates never expected their constitution to serve for almost 100 years. They wrote into it the detail, and the methods they thought would work, and then they issued a statement calling on future generations to be creative and to make changes as necessary.

Election laws of the day made amendment fairly easy. If the parties approved of an amendment, the party ballot carried the proposal, and a vote for the party was also a vote for the amendment. When the Australian ballot was introduced, parties no longer printed their own ballots, and constitutional amendments had to appear on separate ballots.

Yes, the voters of the past 100 years ignored constitutional changes too. They failed to vote on amendments. And not voting is just like voting NO because it takes a majority vote to pass an amendment or two-thirds of those who actually mark the ballot.

With a rapidly increasing population, it is even more difficult to reach and inform the voter; so the number of non-votes increases and defeats needed amendments. This, then, is the first reason to call a convention—to try a better method of recommending and voting on changes.

But the voter who wishes to cast an informed vote asks, "Why change the Illinois Constitution? What's wrong with it?"

It is notable that the many organizations who have banded together in support of a constitutional convention agree pretty well on what areas of the constitution need changing. They do not agree on the exact nature of the changes. This is good. This means that many ideas will be presented to the convention delegates for their study, sifting and sampling. Changes surviving all the debate and discussion are bound to be creative compromises.

Now, which areas of the Constitution are going to get this going-over? The Constitution Study Commission of the state listed them briefly in its 1967 report, the one that helped convince the legislature of the need for a convention:

Apportionment - Legislative procedures and powers - Revenue - Local government - the Executive Article - Amendments - Suffrage.

Rightly, the commission did not suggest changes but did raise a series of questions for a convention to consider. For example, the commission asked whether a presidential election year is the best time to elect a governor; whether a change should be made to insure that governor and lieutenant governor would be from the same party; what controls the governor should exercise over other officials, such as the state auditor of public accounts; if the governor has the tools he needs to function as an administrator; what budgetary procedures belong in the constitution. Full and open discussion of these kinds of questions is overdue in Illinois.

The Illinois Constitution has an unconstitutional apportionment section. We need a new, fair and operable system before the 1970 census figures are in.

Illinois has state revenue problems now. We have about exhausted the resources of the taxes we can now levy. Local governments have financial complaints, and local government is barely mentioned in the constitution!

We should look at the voting age, and residency requirements and administration of elections. (Just to show how the Constitution has failed to keep up - it doesn't allow women to vote!)

Financing of education is a local problem of deep concern. Does the state do all it should? Can it be given the responsibility and the tools to do more? Can we allow ambitious communities to tax more if they want to? That five per cent limitation on bonding power only leads to duplication of services and multiplication of taxing districts.

This list could go on and on - to include consideration of cumulative voting, a legislative veto, a review of those special laws for Chicago, an examination of the failure of the Constitution to cover the new problems of urbanization. But the important point to remember is that many areas of the Constitution need to be examined in light of today's needs. Changes will be recommended based on thorough knowledge of the problems and a commitment by the convention delegates to listen to many viewpoints, evaluate suggestions, weigh the alternatives and reach sensible conclusions.

The 1870 Constitution was a pretty good one for its moment in history. However, history moves rapidly, and the people of Illinois have not kept up. The constitutional convention is our catch-up opportunity. The convention may recommend relatively few changes, or it may rewrite an entire document. But its deliberations will be interesting and public and its reasoning open and known. The problems are there. The solutions are available. We in Illinois can match problem with solution as we hold that constitutional convention and move toward acting our age and accepting our responsibilities.

WHY CHANGE THE ILLINOIS

Layout Instructions

R. W. Lewis, job supervisor for Western Electric Co. is shown giving preliminary layout instructions for Central Telephone Co. of Illinois

Flurry Of Activity As Central Telephone Begins New Crossbar Switching Step

A flurry of activity is now going on in Central Telephone Co. of Illinois dial switching center at 40 S. Fairview in Park Ridge as equipment installers of the Western Electric Co. begin installing new Crossbar dial switching equipment.

The Park Ridge exchange installation is the second major step in Central's program announced in March of last year and follows closely on the heels of a similar installation placed into service in Des Plaines on Sept. 29. Upon completion some customers in Park Ridge, Niles, Chicago and Rosemont will be included in the new equipment.

At the current time it is difficult to estimate the exact in-service date of the new equipment but company officials expressed the hope that it would be in use in late summer of 1969. When completed the first unit will have a capacity to serve slightly less than 20,000 customers. Not all customers in the Park Ridge exchange will be affected by the installation of the original unit but they will be added to similar equipment in other steps of the program.

At the peak of the installation 85 installers from the Western Electric Co. will swarm over the four floors of the building. They are under the direction of job supervisor R. W. Lewis who also installed the Des Plaines unit. At the same time a sizeable force of Central's own workmen will begin schooling at the company's training center in Des Plaines to familiarize themselves with service and maintenance of the equipment. The workmen involved will spend about 820 hours each in the classroom and in practical work situations to prepare themselves for the new equipment.

Wilson Open House

Woodrow Wilson school will have its annual Open House on three consecutive evenings, Oct. 14, 15, and 16, at 8 p.m. in the All-Purpose Room, The Kindergarten and Lower Elementary level parents will meet on Monday, Oct. 14; the Middle Elementary level parents will meet on Tuesday, Oct. 15; and the Upper Elementary level parents will meet on Wednesday, Oct. 16.

After being greeted, the parents will proceed to their children's classrooms to meet the teachers and discuss the coming year's curriculum.

Refreshments will be provided and served by the PTA.

CONSTITUTION? Because it no longer serves the people of Illinois. Because the people have a method of change which guarantees proper attention to the problem. Because solutions are waiting in the wings. Because the problems will not go away; we must actively solve them. Because Illinois is a great state whose people deserve the best constitution thinking people and concerned citizens can and will produce. Next week: "Delegates to a Constitutional Convention."

End Conference

Freshman additions to the Purdue university bands and prospective majors are winding up a four-day Band Leadership conference on the Lafayette campus. Among those who attended the camp: Wayne S. Berger, 8929 Birch, Morton Grove.

ster - Niles, Illinois. All adults are eligible to take the free training course. Ponch-O-Ree 250 boy scouts and scouters combined to make the Ponch-O-Ree a success for the Main Ridge district scout executive Herb Pietschmann who is leaving the district at the end of the month.

The troop campsite camping award at the Yorkville Scout camp of the Chicago Area Council was won by troop 45 from the Oak PTA, with Park Ridge troops 1 and 76 close behind.

The Raven patrol of troop 1 won the patrol feather award, 13 blue ribbons for proficiency, 13 red ribbons for standard, and 13 yellow ribbons for participating. They were also awarded the patrols.

Other Niles units were troop 62 of the Niles Community church; troop 473 of St. Isaac Jouques Catholic church; troop 175 of St. John Brebeuf Catholic church; and troop 107 of Our Lady of Ransom Catholic church.

Activities committee chairman Bill Barker, 240 Vine, Park Ridge, was in charge and Eric Buck, 8155 N. Prospect, Niles, laid out the program. Bob Burason, 7840 Oconto, Niles, assisted.

Troop 175
 Twenty-two hardy Scouts of Troop 175, St. John Brebeuf Parish, Niles, participated in the Main Ridge Council Ponch-O-Ree, near Yorkville, on Sept. 28 and 29. Adult leaders on the Campout were scoutmaster Ralph Kozony and Mr. Leo Madigan.

After being transported to the vicinity of the camp, the boys then hiked one and one-half miles to the camp site, carrying their sleeping bags, food and equipment. Large sheets of plastic, supported on poles, served as shelters for the patrols of Troop 175. Meals for the weekend were prepared primarily from dehydrated foods. While not quite like Mom's, the hungry boys found the meals, nevertheless, pretty good chow.

On Saturday afternoon, the patrols competed against thirty-nine patrols of the other thirteen or fourteen troops in attendance in various Scout crafts. These included tree and edible plant identification, stalking, handling of knife and ax, signaling, map sketching and map symbols. The Fox patrol came away with a red ribbon, while the Beavers and Hawks were rewarded for their efforts with yellow ribbons.

 On Saturday evening, all of the troops assembled around the campfire and thoroughly enjoyed entertaining each other with skits and songs. The choir boys of Troop 175 offered a rendition of "Pink Pajamas."

After church services and a pancake breakfast on Sunday morning, the boys packed up and departed for home, having had a wonderful weekend of wholesome fun and valuable experience.

In order to establish a means to provide activities for the boys in the Cub Scouts, several fund raising activities are undertaken each year. Currently, the boys are ringing doorbells asking your support by purchasing materials for Christmas decorations. Seven foot lengths of Red Cedar Garland, evergreen kits and fresh bags of "Berried English Holly" for imaginative families and an Alpine Christmas Wreath are among the selection of products being offered.

The Cub Scouts are asking for your assistance to help them to help themselves. The quality of their product is excellent as is their approach and service. All orders will be personally delivered by the scout who accepts your order.

Cub Pack 175
 On Friday night Sept. 27 we had our first Pack meeting. It was indeed a wonderful sight to see such a nice turnout of parents. This sure gives the Cub Scouts a great feeling having their parents attend their Pack meeting.

At this Pack meeting the following new boys were awarded their Bobcat Pin: James Griffin, John Griffin, Gregory Picur, Richard Wilson, Steven Pater, Ronald Bielski, James Clausen, Steven Knill, Ronald Kraemer, Robert Shedd, Frank Urban, David Baranowski, John Garritty, Jeffrey Hines, Michael Pinski, David Plambeck, Dean Trwagilo, Michael Philippsen, Jerome Dordoff, John Wisniewski, and Danny Zalesny.

Also the following boys were named Denner for the Month: Andrew Belerwaltes, Bret Bacci, Max Detloff, James Griffin, Michael Kroll, Peter Baranowski, Brian Sawicki, Asst. Denners are: Robert Shedd, Jeffrey Hines, Michael Philippsen, Richard Wilson, Matt Sorrintino, Michael Nisicki, and James Oconner.

Cub Pack 45
 The first meeting of Cub Pack 45 was conducted Sept. 26. Colors were presented by Troop 48 under the direction of Scoutmaster Mr. Don Schieler and the Boy Scouts. The Pledge of Allegiance and the singing of the National Anthem was directed by Steven Welsch. The evening was filled with an air of welcome, rededication, and honors bestowed upon deserving cub scouts, webelos, and parents who have so graciously given of their time, energy, and knowledge.

Bruce Olson, Committee Chairman, extended a warm welcome to their new Cubmaster, Richard Helminiak, new Den Mother Mrs. Fred Appel and her assistant Mrs. Eugene Richards, Den 4, and new Bobcats as they participated in a very ceremonial induction around the campfire. With a sense of sincerity, which can only be experienced by an eight or nine-year-old, 16 boys pledged to pattern their lives in accordance with the law of the pack. New Bobcats inducted were: Darrin Stone, Thomas Pozzak, Raymond Feldman, David Nadig, Irwin Keller, Jeffrey Appel, Richard Richards, Ken Wadman, Steven Ashe, Peter Argiris, Patrick Woelfel, Howard Schuster, Steven Krutger, David Schirer, Darren Bohm and John Zajac.

As the Webelos formed a semi-circle, backed by their parents, graduation into the Boy Scouts was symbolized by the lighting of eight candles depicting a guide for living by the Boy Scout Code.

The fine example set by the graduating Webelos represented the future goal of eighteen Cub Scouts who were advanced to the Webelos ranks. In the traditional Indian Ceremony, the following boys were inducted: Joseph Delke, Thomas Perzentka, Jerry Petersen, Larry

The first outdoor field trip for October will be a hay ride. The Scouts are really looking forward to this event which brings loads of fun. The date is Oct. 11 at the school parking lot. Time is 5:45 p.m. We hope to see the dad also. Why? "For transportation" and roughing it on the hay racks.

M.G. Juniors

Mrs. Stanley Bindus, membership chairman for the Morton Grove Junior Women's club, has announced that four new members have been welcomed into the club. In attendance for their first time at a regular meeting, held recently were: Mrs. William Tosch, 5035 W. Jerome ave., Skokie; Mrs. David Petrie, 5735 W. Emerson; Mrs. Mario Mauro, 5717 Capri Lane, and Mrs. John Wolf, 5718 Emerson all of Morton Grove.

At this same meeting a letter from the League of Women's Voters was read to members by Mrs. Leonard Tornabene, By-Laws Chairman. The letter stressed the importance of voting November 5 in favor of the calling of a constitutional convention. Because our Illinois Constitution is now almost a hundred years old, many changes and improvements are considered necessary. Delegates elected from various districts would attend the convention to study and propose ways to bring the constitution up to date.

Any women in the area interested in learning more about the club's activities should contact Mrs. Stanley Bindus at 966-3284. They are also welcome to stop in and visit any regular meetings of the Juniors. Meetings are held every fourth Monday of the month at 8 p.m. at the Austin Park Fieldhouse. ### Notre Dame Dons Lose To Marmion In 27-14 Battle

By Steven Siles

Notre Dame Dons ran into a strong Cadet offense when they lost to Marmion last Saturday in a 27-14 battle.

Marmion's Cadets boasted a strong but swift offense, led by their flashy quarterback Randy Jakious, that gave them 281 yards to N.D.'s 208. First down tallies also told the story with Marmion's 14 to Notre Dame's 6. But 4 of those 14 first downs were gained through penalties, a fact which helped to stymie the efforts of star tackler Joe Virgilio and the rest of the Don squad.

N.D. finally scored after quarterback Dave Holdener plunged for 3 yards putting the first quarter score at 14-7. The Cadets scored twice in the second quarter to give them a big 27-7 edge that held to the end.

The second half was mostly a scoreless stalemate until rookie quarterback Jim Romano covered 37 yards for the second and final Don touchdown with only seconds remaining, leaving the scoreboard with a 27-14 showing.

The N.D. sophomores added a ray of hope to the game, though, with their 33-7 romp over the Cadets.

Team Is Fired Up

For the first time in their football history, St. John Brebeuf beat Our Lady of Perpetual Help (Glenview), 26-0.

Coach William Springgate had his team "fired up" for this important game. The Warriors displayed fine balance as their offense and defense were outstanding. Rich Leddy scored the first touchdown on a 15-yard return of an intercepted pass. Jim Jasinski scored two touchdowns on runs of 11 and 45 yards. Dick Allegretti scored the final points on a brilliant interception. Next week the St. John Brebeuf eleven will play Holy Cross.

palsy, physically handicapped blind and deaf. The child must also be 6 years of age and enrolled in public school to be eligible for this class. The mentally retarded must also be educable and trainable for this class. This class uses physical movements to strengthen coordination analytical abilities and physical fitness. Specially designed gymnastic equipment—hoops, balls, wands and jumping ropes are used in teaching the child.

Calendars Distributed

The Niles Fire Department recently completed the distribution of 200 Fire Prevention calendars to local business, industry and school personnel.

The calendars are passed out each year in conjunction with National Fire Prevention Week, which will be celebrated this year from Oct. 6 through the 12. Fire Prevention Week is honored nationally in memory of the Great Chicago Fire of 1871.

The purpose of the calendars is two-fold. First, it bears the emergency telephone numbers of the Niles Fire Department. In case of fire or other emergency, said Chief Albert L. Hoelbl, Niles' fire department head. Secondly, he added, it is a constant reminder to be vigilant against the hazards and tragedies caused by fire. Last year, over 12,000 persons were killed by fires in the United States, Chief Hoelbl said.

The purchase of the calendars is financed by funds supplied by the Niles VFW Post 7712, 6635 N. Milwaukee ave.

LETTERS to EDITOR

Trap?

Dear Editor:

Please warn the parents of Niles that there is a death trap in their midst. Children using the Niles Public Library and adults going shopping into Lawrenwood are potential victims.

Between 4 and 6 p.m., traffic on Oakton st. is very fast and very heavy. Yet, about 20 people cross Oakton st. within this period. They cross between cars that have stopped for a red light and forget there is a right turn lane and a left turn lane. A number of pedestrians have been hit and every day a near miss is recorded. We are extremely fortunate that no one has been killed. With the library and school located in this block, couldn't a "Slow" Children sign or an amber warning light be erected at this sight?

Sincerely,

A concerned citizen

Local Merchants' Taxes Improve Our Community

Of course you look for and find bargains in quality merchandise when you shop locally, but did you know you are also really investing in our community too? Your neighbor-merchants' taxes support civic improvements and help finance schools and recreational facilities right where you live. It pays, in many ways, to shop at home!

Time and Transportation Costs are Saved

Instead of wasting time traveling to distant stores, the wise shopper puts that time to use in a more careful selection from the large varieties carried by our local merchants. The money saved on transportation is put to better use too — on the items themselves. Every day it will pay to shop right here at home!

Your Merchants Are Your Own Neighbors

It's mighty nice to know that the merchant you deal with is probably one of your own neighbors. You feel you can trust him and he is eager to maintain that trust. He is anxious to please you in a personal way — to give you quality products at the lowest possible price. "Yes," you'll say, "it really does pay to shop here at home!"

Sister Mary Monica New Principal At Resurrection

Added to the fresh Fall faces of freshmen and new students, another new face is on the scene at Resurrection High school. This is the face of Res' principal, Sister Mary Monica, C.R. She is replacing the former Res principal, Sister Lydia Mary, C.R.

Sister Mary Monica lists as her qualifications a B.A., and M.A. from DePaul. She was also principal for 8 years at Queen of the Rosary school in Elk Grove. Previously, Sister Mary Monica taught at Resurrection for three years.

Resurrection's former principal, Sister Lydia Mary has been selected by her community to spend one year abroad studying and traveling. Sister Lydia Mary came to Resurrection in September 1958, receiving her B.A. and M.A. from DePaul university. She did graduate and post-graduate work at Catholic university of America, Washington, D.C., Marquette university, Milwaukee, Wisc., Gonzaga university, Spokane, Wash. and Georgetown university, Washington, D.C. In the summer of 1967 she was the only nun administrator who received an NDEA Grant for an 8-week course in Advanced Educational Media at Eastern Illinois university.

It was during Sister Lydia Mary's period as Res' principal that many new innovations were realized, the most significant being the completion of the new school, situated to the west of the old school. Besides the physical structure of the school, Sister kept pace with the rapid advancements in all phases of education by introducing team-teaching, modified modulscheduling and UNIVAC report cards.

Sister Lydia Mary is currently on her way to the Community's Motherhouse in Rome, where she will take courses at Regina Mundi, the Pontifical Institute in Rome.

Added to Resurrection High school's curriculum this year will be a Visual Concept Reading program. On Thursday, Oct. 10, a demonstration of this learning technique will be held. The program is open to all students in the school.

The 20-hour program will serve to initiate rapid reading techniques, advanced study habit techniques and in-depth reading.

To Present Paper

Mr. John Norris, head of the Science Department at Notre Dame High School in Niles announced that Robert Tietz had been selected as one of the four students selected by the National Science Teachers Association to present papers at their annual convention.

Tietz, 7757 N. Harlem, Niles, a junior at Notre Dame, presented his paper at the Student Session Seminar of NSTA in the Grand Ballroom of the Sheraton-Chicago on October 5th.

The four students selected were asked to present the results of their last year's research projects. Tietz's project was in the area of biochemistry and was of the "Effect of n-Butanol on the Cholinesterase Acetimates of the Mayfly and the Honey Bee."

Grand Opening Today

A firm date has been set for opening the new K mart department store at 8500 W. Dempster ave., Des Plaines, Illinois 60016, it was announced today by the manager, Mr. Garry L. Johansen.

"The doors will open to the public at 10 a.m., Thursday, Oct. 10, 1968," Johansen stated.

"This is much earlier than we expected," he continued, "and is possible only because the store organization, 163 local people, learned their jobs much more rapidly than we had anticipated."

Now that the opening date is definite, an extensive advertising campaign is being prepared to begin the Sunday before opening. Speaking of these plans, Mr. Johansen said:

"Our concept is to stock only first quality goods and price everything to move in large quantities. Present plans for the opening provide for what we feel will be remarkable savings to our customers."

Martinizing Store Is Open

The new One Hour Martinizing Dry Cleaning store and plant opening in the Dempster Plaza Shopping Center is one of the most well equipped, modern dry cleaning plants in the area.

The cleaning system, using constant purification and filtration of solvents, guarantees top quality cleaning in only one hour.

Open Meeting

An open meeting will be held Friday, Oct. 11 at 8 p.m. at Good Shepherd Methodist church, 2000 Sibley ave., Park Ridge, by the Maine Township for McCarthy committee.

The meeting will be a forum at which leading "Peace" candidates will appear. Scheduled to speak are State Senator Paul Simon, a representative of Attorney General William Clark and Congressional candidate Seymour Axelrod.

Maine Township for McCarthy committee is currently reforming for the purpose of supporting four vital issues: to seek an end to the war in Viet Nam, to achieve liberty and justice for all Americans, to democratize the Democratic Party and to support those candidates whose election promises to further these aims.

Niles Little Theatre Officers Are Installed

With outgoing President Sue Clausen's congratulations, the new officers of the Niles Little Theatre Group began their one-year term last Sunday. Elected were: Linda Hilgers, President; Alan Aylesworth, Vice-President; Barb McNab, Secretary; and Pat Rzepka, Treasurer.

At the meeting, the group discussed their plans for the coming winter, including continuing activity in civic projects such as the March of Dimes, and a possible Children's Theatre. They will continue, as they have for the past six years, to present their annual summer play.

The group was started in 1962 under the direction of Mr. John Herley for the Niles Youth Commission. Three years ago they broke away, forming the independent Niles Little Theatre Group. They have presented such plays as Cheaper by the Dozen, Arsenic and Old Lace, the musical High Button Shoes, and most recently, Harvey.

The success of the group, run entirely by teens, could not have been possible without the unflinching support of the merchants and citizens of Niles and adjoining communities, and the group wishes to thank the many people who have helped make their dream come true. The next time someone calls teenage America a bunch of rowdy hoodlums, tell them about the Niles Little Theatre Group, and all that they've done to make your community a better one. Maybe you can change their opinion.

Deadline Oct. 14

Reservations must be received by Oct. 14 for a dinner honoring Judge Anton A. Smigiel for the 20 years of service he has given the community. The dinner dance for Smigiel, presiding judge of the Third Municipal District of Cook County Circuit Court since 1966, will be held Thursday, Oct. 24 at Seven Eagles restaurant, 1050 E. Oakton, Des Plaines, at 7:30 p.m., with cocktails at 6:30 p.m.

Auxiliary Officers

In joint ceremonies with the Post, Morton Grove Unit #134, of the American Legion Auxiliary, installed new officers on Saturday, Sept. 21.

Installing Officer was Mrs. Ed Lange, past 7th Dist. Auxiliary Director.

Mary Jane Winnermark, recording secretary; Mrs. Howard Karsten, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Fred Brendel, historian.

Four women coincidentally, have husbands who have assumed Post offices for the ensuing year.

This large organization and its Auxiliary add much to the community in the way of service, leadership and friendliness; and the civic-minded individuals who have lent their talents in the past and will during the next year guide the two groups are sure to have a most successful year due to their high ideals.

This year the Fall Ways and Means project of the Morton Grove Junior Women's club requires those attending to wear old clothes and sturdy shoes and to equip themselves with flashlights, compass, ruler, callipers and magnifying glass. Does this sound like an odd combination? Well it wouldn't if you had ever

It would seem service should also be comparably the same.

Because Niles has a Chicago postal substation while Morton Grove and Des Plaines (which covers the unincorporated area) are independent stations this may be why service into Niles is also faster. Five years ago, when we made the big residential move of 10 blocks from Niles to Morton Grove, our weekly magazines were arriving one day later in outlying Morton Grove. Whether downtown Chicago took longer to send this material to MG, or the service in MG was slower was a question.

The comparisons of the fire departments is no reflection on the men in the departments but on the men at the village halls. For many years Niles trustees have worked overtime assuring the community with the very best service. In Morton Grove the village fathers need their hats constantly rocked before they'll take action. The MG fire department has only been operating as a full time department for the past 5 years and thus has a way to go to catch up to its neighbors. And while nearby Mount Prospect quickly advanced up the rating ladder after its founding about 5 or 6 years ago Morton Grove moved more slowly. While having no more knowledge about fire departments than any other citizen we recall reading last year in a national magazine (Parade) that any department which has a rating lower than 4 is below standards.

Contrasting park areas the resistance of Nilesites to more and better parks is in sharp contrast to Morton Grovites which provided its children with more and better parks. Nilesites defeated 5 referendums for more parks during the past 10 years which has been the contributing reason why Niles lags behind ALL its neighbors in park areas.

Lastly, the school district differences is due to archaic districting which is unfair. To penalize children because they live on the wrong side of a line is as bad as penalizing them for living on the wrong side of the tracks.

Gaper Prizes

Miss Crosby drew the name of Don Gafke as the first prize winner. Mr. and Mrs. Gafke will leave for the Dells Friday evening, Oct. 18, where they will find, upon arrival, a Champagne Dinner awaiting them in the beautiful Main Dining Room at the Inn Towne. They will stay Friday and Saturday nights and return home Sunday.

In addition to their meals, lodging and other entertainment being paid for, David Besser, BUGLE Publisher, presented the winning couple with an envelope containing "spending money" for their enjoyment.

Sully House Grand Opening

It was grand opening time last Saturday in the Dempster Plaza, Dempster and Greenwood, as the ribbon was cut signifying the opening of Sully House Suburban. Participating in the ceremony were co-owners Michaelangelo Villa and Sam Soldano as well as Jerome Ira Willis, manager and chief decorator for the furniture establishment. The 12,000 square-foot Sully House building is offering quality furnishings in many period and contemporary styles. Villa and Soldano also own Sully House of Chicago in Old Town.

The Gafke's name was placed in the drawing box at the Des Plaines Chrysler-Plymouth showroom where the couple purchased a 1969 Plymouth. The Gafke's live at 7252 W. Greenleaf, Niles, and are regular BUGLE readers.

Winner of the radio was Mrs. Ralph Hanson, 8519 Crain st., Niles and the winner of the blender was Ralph J. Schulte, 7654 N. Nora, also in Niles. The following persons received 2 tickets each to the Mill Run Playhouse: Stanley Rose, 9344 C Noel, East Maine; Mrs. A. Schadeck, 7657 N. Osceola, Niles; Angela Gagliano, 7745 Beckwith, Morton Grove; A. J. Martin 1712 Greenwood, park Ridge and Selma Sweitzer 9123 Potter rd., East Maine.

Seek Light Ginsburgh

Ginsburgh, who resides with his wife and four children in the suburb, joined Standard Oil Company (Indiana), parent company of American Oil, in 1951, following award to him of a PhD in physics by Rutgers university. He previously earned a bachelor of science degree in physics, from City College of New York, in 1947.

The 42-year-old scientist has been engaged in engineering research since joining the company, with specialization in engineering physics, including such fields as static electricity, detonations, automation, acoustics, analog computer techniques and instrument development. Some 20 patents have been applied for and granted as a result of his work.

According to a spokesman for the group, the problem lies in that Golf is a state road and Michael Manor is a township road; whose responsibility is it to install the light?

Next Township board meeting on this problem has been set for Nov. 12.

Ginsburgh also is active in community affairs. He now is a member of the school board of Dist. 219, Niles Township High School, and formerly served for seven years—six as president—on the Golf Dist. 67 school board.

Enthusiasm for last summer's Project Wingspread by several student participants was obvious Monday night to school board members of the Niles Township High Schools and observers who attended the meeting devoted to a discussion of the pilot program on metropolitan problems.

According to Dr. Lloyd Mendelson, director of the project, student, teacher, and parent reactions to the summer's attempt to bring urban and suburban students together in creative educational experiences indicated the program was an enriching experience.

Funded by federal money under Title III of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act, Project Wingspread involved five separate programs for schools at the elementary, junior high, and senior high levels. The Niles Township High Schools and Chicago's Austin High School were in one program with about 50 teens from each school district studying law and justice, dissemination of news, transportation, and public utilities. Mendelson pointed out that attendance by the Niles and Austin students exceeded 95 per cent.

Galen Hosler and Miss Mary Rood, master teachers in the program from Niles North and Austin, respectively, described the program as enriching also for the teachers. Both felt that they had to modify the usual authoritarian role of the teacher and join the students in the learning experiences. Hosler concluded, "We can do it again, and even better."

Students from both Niles and Austin recounted some of their experiences during the summer program, with one young lady describing her elation at being treated like a human being by a news reporter who had taken her with him on an assignment. Finding identity in this manner, she said, was a most important phase of Project Wingspread.

Other students indicated that they found learning about other people an extremely valuable part of the program. One student said he learned quickly that a person cannot stereotype another until you've worked with him and have gotten the chance to know him. Another student suggested that perhaps parents should engage in a Project Wingspread, adding that the program helped students overcome their prejudices.

A boy from Niles said that learning how to get along and speak with Negroes was for him more important than learning academic subjects. A Negro lad added that he, too, found the program valuable as a help to find himself among whites. A suggestion—both students and teachers offered—was that in future programs of the same type industry and business should not make a commercial appeal to the participants.

In other matters, the board of education acknowledged receipt of a thank you note from the family of Katherine Kennedy, former English teacher at Niles West, who died Sept. 19; received the superintendent's annual report; set the daily rate of pay for long-term substitutes at $35; adopted a resolution endorsing the call for a Constitutional Convention in Illinois; appointed Mrs. Vivian Medak to be its representative to meetings on the proposed Niles-Maine Junior College; and heard that more than 80 persons applied for junior college reimbursement after the deadline was extended in September.

Nilehi Board News

Eighty-two per cent of the graduates last June from the Niles Township High Schools indicated they planned to attend college this Fall.

The survey, taken of the 1,623 seniors, revealed that 68 per cent of the class decided on attending a four-year college, 12 percent decided on attending a junior college, and two per cent had not at that time decided what college they would be attending.

Senior students who said they did not plan on attending college indicated that either employment or vocational schools were among their main plans.

Four per cent of the class of '68 planned to attend vocational schools, including nursing, business, technical, and trade schools, while nine per cent planned to enter employment.

Of the remaining five per cent, four per cent did not report definite post-graduate plans and one per cent indicated they would be going into the military service.

Most popular colleges among the seniors were the University of Illinois, Northern Illinois university, and Southern Illinois university.

Other Illinois universities favored by the students included the Chicago Circle campus of the University of Illinois, Northwestern Illinois State, and Western Illinois.

More than 650 graduates named these Illinois universities as their choices for continuing education.

Of the out-of-state schools selected by the class of '68, the eight branches of Wisconsin State university were most popular.

Others included the University of Wisconsin, University of Oklahoma, Arizona State, and the Universities of Iowa, Arizona, Michigan, Miami of Ohio, and Indiana.

Junior colleges listed by most of the graduates choosing them for continued education were Mayfair Junior college in Chicago and Harper Junior college in Elk Grove.

According to Dr. Arthur Ryden, director of Pupil Services for the Niles Township High Schools, the class of '68 presented no marked difference in the percentage of students planning to attend college.

He explained, however, that there has been an increase in the number of students planning to attend junior colleges.

He noted that 10 per cent of the class of '67 chose junior colleges to attend, while 12 per cent of last June's seniors decided on junior colleges.

Comparing the survey figures of last June with those for the graduates in 1960, Dr. Ryden showed that the percentage of students planning to attend college increased 14 per cent, the percentage planning on vocational training fell off one, and the percentage planning to go to work after high school dropped off 15 per cent.

Continuing to improve communications with the several publics of the Niles Township High Schools, Superintendent Charles Szuberla last week met with all presidents of PTAs in Niles Township and several student leaders in the three high schools.

Raised for discussion among both groups was the topic of drugs and narcotics in the high schools. Szuberla indicated that the problem of students using marijuana is a serious matter which confronts high school officials today.

The topic is of primary concern to us, he explained, and parents along with religious and community leaders must confront the problem realistically. A joint effort by the entire community is needed, he said, to enlighten the youth of Niles Township about the potential dangers of marijuana and other drugs.

Three new officers were named last week by the Citizens Advisory Council of the Niles Township High Schools board of education.

Meeting for the first time since early summer, the council elected Roland Moore as chairman, Samuel Turiel as vice-chairman, and Mrs. Shirley Paradise as recording secretary.

The election of new officers was a result of the resignations of Dr. Walter Kramer, chairman of the council since its formation last winter, and Mrs. Jane Nordberg, former recording secretary.

Moore has been vice-chairman of the council since its inception.

Taking the gavel from Dr. Kramer, who announced his resignation from the council at the beginning of the meeting, Moore asked council members present to report feedback on school issues they heard during the summer months.

One of the aims of the Citizens Advisory Council is to advise the school board on community public opinion as it relates to the high schools.

He also asked that the school board's representative to the council, Fred Lifton, request the board of education to consider names of citizens who could replace those who have resigned from the advisory group.

Two sub-committees of the council currently engaged in researching topics assigned to the council by the school board include:

... a subcommittee to study the guidance counseling programs in the three high schools, with Mrs. Ruth Wyler as chairman.

... a subcommittee to study the use of students' time during the school day, with Samuel Turiel as chairman.

Reports of their studies are expected to be completed during the current school year.

The council has scheduled regular meetings for the fourth Wednesday of the month in the library at Niles West.

Freshman and sophomore students in the Niles Township High schools this year are spending nine weeks in a course popularly described as sex education. More than instruction in mere sex information, the course is titled "Healthful Living for Adult Responsibility," according to John Bristol, assistant superintendent for curriculum in the school district.

The course includes units in mental and emotional health in addition to family relationships and human sexuality, he explained.

Students in the first nine-week course being offered this fall got off to a smooth start, Bristol said, although a few calls have come from parents who had questions about the subject matter.

The course was four years in the making, according to Bristol, who explained that pilot courses were developed and taught to girls under the direction of Dr. Jan Gund, chairman of girls physical education at Niles North. During the development of the course, class materials were revised continually and a variety of organizational plans were tried to determine those best suited for the level of the students.

Beginning Oct. 7, broadcast lectures for an introductory music course that deals with various aspects of music (Music 220) will cover the many elements in the field of music: melody, harmony, rhythm, texture and tone.

Varieties of music will be discussed and presented: sonatas, symphonies, concertos, fugues, program music, and opera. Music 220 will feature the music of the past as well as the contemporary forms. Dr. William Whybrew, Dean of Northern Illinois University's College of Fine and Applied Arts will instruct. Two texts will be used for the course: "What to Listen for in Music," written by the famous American composer, Aaron Copeland; and "Introduction to Music," by Professor Hugh M. Miller.

The course will be aired over WMTH-FM on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays at 11 a.m. Students who successfully complete the course will earn 3 semester hours of college credit. In keeping with university regulations, students who have never previously attended a college or university must submit a complete high school transcript of academic records.

Dist. 207 Fall College Night Today

Annual Township High School Dist. 207 "Fall College Night" will be held, Thursday evening, Oct. 10 at Maine West High school.

Sophomore, junior, and senior students (and their parents) from the three Maine Township high schools are invited to attend, as are parochial school students. According to James Killam, Career Counselor at Maine West, approximately 250 colleges and/or universities have been invited to attend and it is expected that at least 130 of this number will be present to provide students the opportunity to talk with college representatives of their choice or simply to discuss future education plans with the various advanced education representatives.

The evening will be divided into three sessions of 30 minutes each, with 10-minute intervals between sessions to enable students and parents to find their way to the next meeting. Maps with schedules attached will be made available during the evening, as well as student guides.

Because the state schools will undoubtedly have a very large number of representatives present, it will be necessary for students from the three Maine-hi's and parochial schools to visit them according to a pre-arranged schedule which will be noted on the evening printed program.

Set Target Date For Maine-Niles Jr. College Petitions

Oct. 15, 1968 has been set as the target date by the Maine and Niles Junior College Study Committees to obtain a minimum of 500 signatures favoring the establishment of a junior college.

Griff MacDonald, Park Ridge, chairman of the Maine study group, made this announcement Tuesday evening, Sept. 25, at Maine South High school after the go-ahead signal was given to the Maine and Niles groups by the Illinois Junior College Board.

MacDonald then outlined how the petition signing procedure would be carried out most efficiently. Maine Township has been divided into ten areas. Each area will have a chairman and will be assisted by volunteer helpers. The chairman will be given fifteen petitions with room for twenty-five signatures. Hopefully, many, many more than 500 signatures will be obtained.

After the petitions have been signed they will be submitted to the Illinois Junior College Board along with a feasibility study by the two study committees.

If the petitions and the study are given an affirmative nod, a public hearing will be held where the public can air its feelings and opinions about the formation of a junior college. Finally, if the Illinois Junior College Board thinks the public at large favors the establishment of such an institution, a referendum ballot will be held, hopefully in early Spring.

Student Council Dance Will Aid C.A.L.M. In Inner City

On Oct. 11, after the Notre Dame and Marian Central football game, the Notre Dame Student Council will sponsor their annual CALM benefit dance from 9:30 to 11:30 in the school gym.

Featured at this dance will be not only the "Bangor-Flying Circus", a popular soul/rock group, but also a psychedelic light show put on by the same organization which runs the lights at the Electric Theatre. The light show includes strobe lights, black lights, Kalaidoscopes and slide projectors.

Sponsored by the Student Council, the dance will provide the entire annual income for the Notre Dame/St. Scholastica branch of the Chicago Area Lay Movement (CALM), a student-teaching organization in which suburban students travel to the inner-city to tutor grammar and Math.

Among the officers commenting on CALM, Kevin Conley, a senior and vice-president of the club said, "The children of the world are the only people who haven't been corrupted. CALM is a chance to show myself, as

auto motivation

By Tom True

My thanks to the many BUGLE readers who responded to our new car auto section....The winners of the Gaper Prizes were all very happy....The Dealers were pleased with the showing.... And, above, all, thanks to lovely Kathy Crosby for drawing our Gaper Prize Winners (see photos and story of winners elsewhere in today's BUGLE)....

I suggest you stop by Ron Sullivan Golf-View Dodge this coming week-end for his gala festivities celebrating his formal opening of the all-new dealership....Ron is very proud of his completely renovated, modern facilities and is eager for everyone to see them, thus the big "Shin-dig"....There will be plenty of refreshments and good cheer....you will enjoy your visit....The location is on the east-side of Waukegan rd., Morton Grove.... The festivities are scheduled for all day this Saturday and Sunday....See you there - .....

For those of you waiting for another price drop on '68s, perhaps you are waiting in vain....Most of the dealers I contacted have gone as low as they can and believe it or not, some dealers are nearly out of the new '68's....Gene Czarnik at Des Plaines Chrysler-Plymouth has about 70 left, John Benson at Jennings Chevrolet is ready to show you a choice from nearly 100. The boys at Norwood Ford have about a 100 left and Jim Gustafson and Harry Reinhart, at Buick in Park Ridge have about 50 left.... They are all moving them out at prices that cannot be lower....

There are also new trade-ins on the dealer's lots....There are some real "Goodies", as you can see, in the Tom True Gold Tag special listings elsewhere on this page....Remember, when you shop for a used car in the BUGLE ads, you can shop with confidence....The BUGLE accepts auto ads only from franchised new car dealers who have a service reputation and a new car dealers franchise to protect....

Watch for some new and exciting things to come for my readers soon....Drive carefully and I'll see you next week....

ter for failing to follow one of the simple rules of safe winter driving. The same might become true of the housewife who always obeyed traffic signals but was unaware that winter driving requires special techniques. Every time you get behind the wheel there are the added hurdles of either ice, snow or rain to overcome along with the everyday hazards of everyday driving.
DON'T PLAY RUSHIN' ROULETTE ON THE ROAD. By simply reducing the speed of your car, keeping the wheels pulling steadily and avoiding sudden stops and changes in speed, you can practically eliminate skids. If you do skid, steer the car in the same direction the rear end is going. Don't panic. Don't brake. Stay in gear and accelerate slightly.
PUMP THE BRAKES. Don't jam them to stop. Stopping on slippery roads takes skill. By pumping the pedal lightly and rapidly the car will slow down without skidding. If your car has a manual transmission, don't shift into another gear until it's almost stopped.

Lindquist Lashes Out At "Strange Case Of Juckett"

There are times when a legislator should be judged as much by what he does not do as by what he does. The strange case of Robert Juckett is such an example.

Though Mr. Juckett rarely was reported absent during the legislative session from January through June, he was recorded not voting on 743 bills, amendments to bills, resolutions or motions before the House. This represents about 20 percent of the roll call items. In the month of May, apparently struck by spring fever, he played hooky on 175 roll call situations, slightly more than 30 percent of the items considered by the House that month.

It might be asked, if Mr. Juckett was present for the initial roll call, whereas he or what was he doing when it came time to do what legislators are paid to do? Did he fall asleep? Step out for a king-size cigarette? Was he bored by the whole business of molding the future of Illinois? Mr. Juckett, the people you supposedly represent demand an answer.

Though a majority of the bills and other items on which he failed to be recorded were passed or defeated by overwhelming majorities, the people still deserve to know where he stood on them. They also deserve to know where he stood on many highly controversial and closely contested items that Mr. Juckett did not choose to consider.

Coming to the United States from Canada in 1950, Molloy has worked for wire services, national magazines, and has made several appearances on national television shows.
