M. East Student Protestors Seek Liberal Dress Code, Other Goals

By Naomi Krone
News Editor

Resolved to follow a path of "constructive effort," interested parents of children who, for the past several weeks, have been questioning the dress code, total atmosphere and requesting a student lounge at Maine Township High School East, met Tuesday night in the first of several meetings to hope to have in the near future.

According to one parent at the meeting, main plan of action will be to see how a larger number of the parents feel about the whole question and to seek ways in which a quiet, unemotional understanding may be reached in a resolution to the problems and question raised by some of the Maine East students.

men for the young people, has stated "the youngsters are not too happy with the way some things have been run at the high school—they are asking for a more liberal dress code and will set their limitations on it, as well as a more relaxed atmosphere at the school, part of which would be a student lounge."

An administration representative at Maine East told The BUGLE "we are interested in seeing that girls remain dressing and looking like girls and that boys dress like boys so they can retain their own image. They do, however, have a student council to represent them at the school and we would hope they would go through proper channels with their thoughts and ideas."

At a meeting of the Dist. 207 board of education Monday night Maine East principal Clouser brought the board up to date on what has been happening concerning the requests of the students.

The youngsters had planned on meeting last week at Good Shepherd church but, at the last moment, the meeting was

Village of Niles Family Service facility was officially launched Monday as Larry Renetzky, 34, began his first day at work by meeting with members of the press at the monthly Village Manager Ken Scheel press conference.

The Niles FS director told the gathering Monday morning that community organization work will necessarily come first and then plans for fees, if any; scope

Wagner, who presently has charge of records in the police department, said he believed the village clerk's office is "over-built and over-grown." It was Frank's opinion the present clerk's wages of $10,000 were unnecessary and advocated placing the job in a part-time status, similar to neighboring towns. Noting Niles now has a village manager, he said many of the jobs of the manager and the clerk "overlap." It was Wagner's (and certainly Blase's) feeling the present clerk is "trying to run the town more than the village manager."

Provenzano Expected To File For Clerk Post As Independent

Michael Provenzano, a resident of Niles for the past nine years at 7242 Crain st., and who is presently a Commissioner of the Niles Park District, is expected to file his petition as an independent candidate for the office of Village Clerk in the Village of Niles.

Commissioner Provenzano feels that his many years of experience in the political arena of Cook County and the City of Chicago before moving to Niles, and the continuation of this involvement in governmental and civic affairs in Niles in various capacities, qualified him for this office.

Commissioner Provenzano reported that he has been approached by members of a third slate of candidates now being formed to offer his name as a candidate for the office of Trustee of the Village of Niles. But, in view of his many years of experience in the city and county governments of Illinois, he feels that he will be more valuable to the Village as its Clerk.

It is his intention, Commissioner Provenzano says, to bring the issues of Village Government directly to the people by a door-to-door campaign. By so doing, each resident he contacts will have an opportunity to voice his own opinion how Niles should be governed.

Dahl Tells Lions: Present J.C. Cost System Expensive, Risky

The present method being used by Maine and Niles townships to cover junior college costs is "potentially most expensive and risky," a community junior college leader said this week.

Taxpayers of both townships will benefit if Niles and Maine join forces to form a joint junior college district, according to Genter Dahl.

"We need a change because our present course is too hazardous both for taxpayers and for parents who want their children to have a college education in the future," he added. Dahl is chairman of the Maine Township speaker's bureau of the Maine-Niles Community College committee. His comments were contained in remarks prepared for delivery to the Park Ridge Lions club at a luncheon meeting scheduled for noon today, Thursday, Jan. 23.

"At present, both Maine and Niles townships are obligating high school education funds to meet the new junior college costs," Dahl pointed out. "This is wrong and unwise. For one thing, we have no control whatsoever over the costs. In the long run, our present method of paying junior college costs could be most costly from every point of view."

Dahl said it would make much more sense to completely separate the junior college and high school operations "to get the junior college monkey off the high school back."

"This can best be done by forming an independent junior college district," he asserted.

"For the taxpayers and residents of Niles and Maine townships, the most advantageous arrangement would be a joint Maine-Niles junior college district that authorities say would be one of the finest in the state.

"This not only will enable us to provide our children an excellent educational opportunity but also will give the taxpayers a break by spreading the costs over a larger, combined tax base."

Dahl pointed out that in 1965 the state legislature obligated local taxpayers to pay for two years of junior college education in addition to financing 12 years of elementary and high school education.

The legislature gave local high school districts the choice of forming or joining independent junior college districts, or paying the new junior college costs out of high school educational funds.

"Maine and Niles townships decided to follow the latter course or, in effect, to become junior college districts at large," Dahl said.

"This means that our students can enroll at any junior college in the state that has room, and the bills are sent back to the local high school for payment."

"We have no choice except to pay these bills out of local funds, which is a form of taxation without representation.

"In some instances these outside bills are running as high as $1,150 per student, and the outlook is for the total costs to go up rapidly," Dahl asserted.

He emphasized that an ever-increasing number of students will be forced to go to junior college because present 4-year state institutions are de-emphasizing and phasing out the freshman and sophomore years.

The new state university that will be constructed in Park Forest to serve this area won't even have freshman and sophomore classes and will only enroll students beginning at the junior-year level, Dahl said.

Nilehi Board News, Notes

Several different solutions to meeting the building needs of the Niles Township High Schools were presented Monday night to the board of education by Superintendent Charles Szuberla. A special meeting to discuss and take action on these needs and solutions will be held by the school board on Thursday, Jan. 30, at 8 P.M.

The superintendent pointed out to the board in his written report that the need for building modifications centers around meeting enrollment increases and providing facilities for the modern techniques in education. After pointing out that the district's projected enrollment peak is expected to be 8,500 students during the first half of the 1970's, he explained that spaces are also needed to accommodate flexible scheduling, independent study programs, team teaching schedules, computer assisted instruction, and instructional television.

In its program of updating the written policies of the school district, the board of education labor in the evening approved revisions and recording of Section 1000 on community relations. Included in the series is a new policy on contests for students. It states that the schools shall participate only in those contests which have demonstrated educational value to the student. It also says that the schools reserve the right not to participate in any contest when participation is considered not to be in keeping with the best interests of the district. Superintendent Szuberla explained that the decision to participate in any contest lies with the individual school.

Eight persons nominated to serve on the school board's Citizens Advisory Council were also approved by the board. New members include Lee Block, Marvin Burack, Benjamin Lipin, Seymour Mandell, Milton Minkus, Russell Spielman, Lawrence Pressner, and Mrs. Henry Suzukida. The next meeting of the council is Wednesday evening, January 22. The council meets regularly the fourth Wednesday of the month in the library at Niles West at 8 P.M.

In other matters, the board of education approved changing its regular meeting of April 14 to April 21; received the administration's proposal to create the position of administrative assistant for special projects; approved the school district's joining the Center for Study in Educational Personnel

Policies; approved the appointments of Tony Turek as a custodian at Niles East and Frances Holmboe as a cafeteria worker at Niles West; approved a tour for music students at Niles West to New Jersey and New York during spring vacation; received recorded policy statements on administration, internal board operations, and bylaws of the school board, which will be considered for approval Feb. 10; and heard that 49 seniors will graduate at midterm.

The Triton club, now 12 years old, has a membership of 65 expert divers, many of whom have explored every major body of water in the world. The club cooperates with the Illinois Underwater team helping to locate drowning victims, weapons, and objects of importance to the authorities. This work is done on a voluntary basis. Set Plan Meeting For Jan. 29

Incoming and outgoing board members of St. Anselm's Episcopal Churchwomen will hold a planning meeting 8 p.m. Wednesday, Jan. 29, in the church undercroft, 1600 N. Greenwood, Park Ridge.

Plans for the new year will be outlined said Mrs. Norman Fitzgerald, 7444 Lake, Morton Grove, the new president.

Sets New Records

New records in service to boys were chalked up by the Northwest Suburban Council, Boy Scouts of America in 1968, according to Robert Sasser, Council president.

Details of the preliminary figures will be given in a report to the community in connection with Boy Scout Week, the 59th Anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America, which is observed from Feb. 7 to 13, Sasser said.

According to an application to the Boy Scouts of America for the annual charter the Northwest Suburban Council serves 235 religious, school and community organizations with a total of 384 Scout Units, Cub Scout Packs, Boy Scout Troops, and Explorer Posts, and 15,710 registered members.

"The successes that we note in our annual report are the result of 5,500 volunteer adult leaders who have given dedicated leadership to boys from 8 to 18," Sasser said. "With this report as our foundation, we expect to expand our Scouting membership and increase our program quality as a part of "Boypower '76," the eight-year, long-range plan of the Boy Scouts of America which is now being launched."

During the past two years, the Boy Scouts of America has carried out a program with the theme, "Scouting rounds a guy out," and the new eight-year plan begins this year with the theme, "America's manpower begins with Boypower."

Other highlights of the annual report show that 5,038 Cub Scouts advanced at least one rank and 2,500 Boy Scouts advanced, with 97 reaching Scouting's highest rank, Eagle Scout. 5,881 Merit badges were earned during 1968 with swimming, personal fitness, first aid, camping and cooking being the most popular. The Council conducted 311 adult leader training sessions with 3,300 leaders receiving instruction in the skills of Scouting. 1,900 Scouts camped at one of the two Council's summer camps located in Wisconsin.

Piper Team

of their many trips, camping experiences, service projects and the fun they've had in Cadettes.

Piperettes elected to represent their troops at this meeting are Kim Mahnke and Linda Trochim from Troop 894; Mary Ellen Breckler and Debbie Baylow from Troop 667; Karen Meyers and Carol Dudek from Troop 341; Dottie Dunkelmeier and Debbie Skeltnick from Troop 552; Paula Shechtman and Sheila Levenson from Troop 100; Jeffrie Kon from Troop 402 and Jackie Coy and Barbara Bannon from Troop 367.

Troop 88

Troop 88 participated in the District First Aid meet Jan. 9 and the Bats, Hawks and Raven Patrols were awarded Yellow participation ribbons. On Dec. 14 they took the Skokie Lagoons hike which was the First Segment and plan to finish up the rest of them later this Spring. On Sunday, Jan. 25 they will have our annual Pancake Brunch at Edison school between 7 a.m. and 2 p.m. Coming events: Jan. 25 - 14 mile hike in Skokie Lagoons; Feb. 22 - 13 mile hike in Red Caboose Trail in Wheaton; March 8 - 13 mile hike in Mt-Tig-Wa-Ki Trail in Brookfield; March 22-23 - weekend campout; April 11-12 - weekend campout and 22-mile hike at Illinois Trail; May - Camporee and Canoe outing.

The skit is a take-off on the popular Rowan and Martin TV show. The 25th annual Variety Show will be presented in the Maine East auditorium Feb. 13, 14 and 15 at 8 p.m. Tickets will be on sale approximately a week before the production.

Original Space Fantasy For Children Jan. 25

"Oliver and the Green Men", an original space fantasy for children from 5 to 12, will premiere in the northwest suburbs, Saturday, Jan 25, when the Pinocchio Players Guild appears onstage at Maine West high school auditorium, 1755 S. Wolf rd., Des Plaines.

Curtain time is 2:00 P.M., and doors will open at 1:30. Tickets, at 75 cents per person, will be on sale at the door.

The production of "Oliver and the Green Men" is under the sponsorship of the Des Plaines Children's Theatre, which annually presents a schedule of plays for boys and girls by professional touring companies.

The Pinocchio Players Guild is Chicago's oldest professional children's touring company, according to Miss Pat Schoen, special activities director of the Des Plaines Park District, which conducts the annual program of theatre for children.

"Oliver and the Green Men," written by Paul Brady, professor of theatre at the University of Illinois, is as topical as today's headlines, according to Miss Schoen.

"It's the story of Emissary Oliver and his dog, Miranda, who make a forced landing on the Planet Upanisad while fleeing from the green men of the moon," continued Miss Schoen.

The play is a fast-paced farce with various adventures aimed at tickling the spines and "funny bones" of the youthful audience while stimulating the imagination, according to Loyd Brady, Pinocchio Players producer.

The production is the third in this year's series being presented by the Des Plaines Children's Theatre, which was organized by the suburb's park district as part of a national movement to provide cultural and educational benefits for boys and girls through the medium of drama.

Next scheduled children's play is "House at Pooh Corner" set for Sat., Feb. 15. "The Red Shoes" is slated for March 29, and "Jack and the Beanstalk" will be presented in April.

Information about "Oliver and the Green Men" or the Des Plaines Children's Theatre, may be obtained by calling the Des Plaines Park District office, 296-6106.

Did you ever think that the medicine your doctor prescribes tastes horrible? If so, consider the plight of your ancestors. In the 18th Century it was believed that the worst a medicine tasted, the better its power to cure. The people in the 18th Century believed that a disease could only be expelled from the body by a medicine even more fearful. Many of the weird later-day nostrums contained such things as: wood lice, dried horse's hooves and crude oil. Today's pharmaceutical firms strive to make each medicine as palatable as possible.

the base being constructed in Libertyville. Trustee Klein then made a motion to pass a resolution to oppose the proposed anti-missile base in Libertyville until a proper public hearing is held. The board passed the resolution.

Trustee Dick Flickinger said Mayor Schreiber sent a letter specifying the need for repair or improvement on certain village streets including Naragansett ave., in need of widening. The street will be made 43 ft. wide when construction is completed. However, even though copies of the plan have been sent to Clorba, Splies and Gustafson, work cannot begin until approval is given by the Forest Preserve. Once this is accomplished Motor Fuel Tax Funds can be used.

Neil Cashman, trustee told the board he would make a report on the financial status of the village after he has studied the report by Village Treasurer Eugene Kennedy. Cashman then noted Feb. 15 was the deadline for vehicle tags this year.

Builder Arthur Goebelt has submitted a petition for the construction of apartments on the Dilg property at 6330 Lincoln ave. The board voted to turn the matter over to the Plan Commission for rezoning.

Leroy Gunter read a letter from a citizen praising Officer Corsey for his aid after an accident. Howard Denenberg sent a letter to Fred Huber, asking that something be done as to the shortage of parking space at the Milwaukee RR station. The trustees agreed to look into the matter. Mr. Huber also received a letter from Melzer PTA requesting the placing of stop signs at Wilson terrace, Emerson and Lyons. Mr. Gunter moved to turn the request over to Chief Scanlon for his study.

Carl Klein reported the Board of Health held its regular meeting.

of his department (family counseling, mental health program, marital problems, juvenile problems, problems of unwed mothers and a possible family life series) would be next on the agenda.

Before coming to Niles, Renetzky, born in the midwest, was in the social work field since 1963. He was a former director of the Illinois Valley Economic Development Corp., set up to implement the OEO program in a 4-county area and, in 1964, set up the Department of Child and Family Services for an Illinois 4-county area. He and his wife, with their 2 children, a boy and a girl, reside in Hoffman Estates at present.

Renetzky, hired on a yearly basis at $13,000 per annum, has stressed all files are confidential, treated much the same as a doctor or lawyer treats files of patients or clients. Offered in a section of the old fire station at 7166 Milwaukee, Renetzky may be contacted by phone at 647-8062 or 647-8485. He will be working with the members of the Niles Family Service board of directors: Mrs. Theresa Costa, 8439 Ottawa; Stanley Frank, 7028 Crain; Sheldon Mantelman, 7053 Carol; Jerome Santowski, 7444 Kirk; Rev. D. D. Seleen, Niles Community church; Edward Vodvarka, 7029 Keeney and Norton Goodman, 7023 Carol, chairman of the board.

Funds for the Family Service dept. are provided in the Niles budget to date $25,460 pro-rated over an 8-month period of 1968. Additional funds will be figured when the 1969-70 budget is set.

Scheel also told reporters Monday morning Niles Police Dept. is seeking applicants for jobs as policemen. Applicants, in order to qualify, need not reside in Niles, but must pass written, physical and psychological tests as well as a personal interview. Additional informa-hockey program and the hockey players shooting pucks while the public was skating in an open rink plus the poor ice in Niles compared to surrounding towns were the main criticisms. Park president Lou Schreiner said these ice complaints are an annual criticism and noted the making of ice takes more than 24 hours restricting the ability of Niles to solve its ice problems with immediacy.

Walter Buesse, a park board candidate in April's election noted the ice hockey program year after year is poor and is disorganized. He said neighboring park district programs have already had as many as 15 games played by individual teams whereas in Niles it has been nil.

Director Barney McGill noted Niles has 5 ice rinks and it is beyond the park districts means tion may be obtained from the Niles Police Dept. Chief Clarence Erickson or any Niles policeman. The examination will be held Feb. 28.

to maintain them, based on the present work force the district has.

Resident Abe Selman suggested the village fire pumps be used in aiding with the creation of ice, noting the village used the fire equipment to cool off children during the summer-time.

Once more, park commissioners, particularly Mike Provenzano and Jerry Sullivan said there was poor cooperation between the village and the park district but recreation director McGill cited several examples where the village has aided the district in maintaining its equipment. He said at his level dealing with the village manager and public employees he received much cooperation though he did not know about the cooperation received by public officials at their level of dealing with one another.

These street alarm boxes are being installed for the convenience of every person who needs help of any kind within the village. The chiefs stated they hope that the boxes do not become playthings for the village children. Parents should advise their children that every time one of the telephones is lifted off the hook an emergency vehicle must respond to the scene to determine the person who lifted the phone is not in need of medical assistance and unable to speak. This creates a hazard for everyone in the village as well as for the men who must man the emergency equipment dispatched to the scene. To assist the police in stopping persons from turning in false alarms, there is a fine of $200 for maliciously turning in a false alarm from one of the new street alarm boxes. The chiefs were quick to add these alarm boxes may legitimately be used at any time by any person who has a need to speak to the fire or police department for any emergency.

The new street alarm boxes are being installed by the telephone company at the following locations: Northwest corner of Dempster and Central; Northwest corner of Dempster and Mango; Southeast corner of Dempster and Marmora; Northwest corner of Dempster and Austin; Northeast corner of Dempster and Moody; Northeast corner of Dempster and Callie; Southeast corner of Dempster and Waukegan; Southwest corner of Waukegan and Golf; Southwest corner of Waukegan and Beckwith; Southwest corner of Waukegan and Church; in front of 9008 Waukegan rd.; Fire station at Shermer and Harlem; Harlem ave., north of the driveway to Topp's Department store; Village Plaza Shopping Center in front of Jewel/Osco; Southeast corner of Oakton and Natchez; southwest corner of Oakton and Lehigh; Austin ave. in front of Bell and Gossett (IT); Austin ave. in front of Middleby-Marshall Oven Co.; Fire station at 8527 Callie ave.

Niles East Trojans Win 3rd Annual Aqua Pentathlon

The Niles East Trojans won the 3rd annual Aqua Pentathlon in their own pool Saturday. It was the second time in three years that the Trojans won the meet.

The Aqua Pentathlon is a five-event meet in which each event is scored on a base of 1000 points. The events are the 50 Free, 100 Butterfly, 100 Backstroke, 100 Breaststroke and 200 Free Style.

The winners of the events were 50 Free - Paul Katz; 100 Butterfly - Wayne Thomas; 100 Backstroke - Lee Bollow; 100 Breaststroke - Knut Bauer; 200 Freestyle - Don Berglund. The top 10 swimmers in total points were: Wayne Thomas (Niles East); Don Berglund (Evergreen Park); Lee Bollow (Niles East); Ralph Erickson (Woodstock); Kim Mills (Woodstock); Jim Simon (Niles East); Dave Bart (Evergreen Park).

Mike Sitorsky (Thornton North), Steve Busckoff (Woodstock), Rick King (Niles East). The final team scores were: Niles East, 1st; Evergreen Park, 2nd; Woodstock, 3rd; Elk Grove, 4th; Thornton, 5th; Bloom, 6th.

Next the Trojans swimmers journey to Morton East and then to Proviso West for the Panthers Relays where they expect to win and break several meet records.

2nd Place In Fencing Tourney For Niles East; Ties With Notre Dame On Bouts Won

Niles East's Fencing Team placed second behind Marshall in the University of Illinois Circle Campus third annual Invitational Fencing Tournament last Saturday. East tied with Notre Dame of Niles on bouts won, but was determined to be the second place winner on the number of points scored against each of the teams.

The team's scoring was led by senior Ken Fleischer, who was said to be the dark horse of the tournament. Until this time Ken has been seeded fifth out of the six boys on East's team. Ken was undefeated in the preliminaries with one shut-out, he lost two out of five in the quarter finals, won four out of five in the semifinals, and took two out of five in the finals which made him number four individual medalist for the tournament.

only lost one bout, but they both got in trouble in the quarter finals and were eliminated from the tournament. Junior Al Acker could not find himself and was defeated three out of five bouts in the first round, inexperienced junior Julian Solway was placed in a difficult pool where he won one out of six. This was Solway's second experience in varsity competition. Solway was a replacement for senior Marty Freeman who had to take a SAT exam for a scholarship to MIT. The Niles East's team has missed the superb fencing of senior Sid Milstein who had a knee operation before Christmas. This would have been Sid's fourth year of competition.

Individual's Results (Niles East)

Ken Fleischer -- Preliminaries, won 5 lost 0; quarter finals, won 3 lost 2; Semifinals, won 4 lost 1; Finals, won 2 lost 3.

Neal White -- Preliminaries, won 5 lost 0; quarter finals, won 4, lost 1; semifinals, won 2, lost 3.

Tom Fillipp -- Preliminaries, won 4, lost 1; quarter finals, won 2, lost 3.

Glen Dash -- Preliminaries, won 4, lost 1; quarter finals, won 0, lost 5.

Household Census Set For January

Families and households in this area will be included in a nationwide survey of home repair and buying plans in January, according to Theodore F. Olson, Director of the Census Bureau's regional office in Chicago.

Census Bureau interviewers will ask householders about any plans to buy a house, a car, or major household appliances during the next year. Questions about home repairs and alterations will concern those made during the past three months and those planned to be made in the near future.

The Census Bureau conducts a survey of buying expectations and home repairs every three months to serve as a guide to economic growth. A mathematically selected group of households throughout the nation serves as a measure of what U.S. families own and what they expect to buy in the near future.

For example, a similar survey taken last July indicated that about 62 percent of all households owned their home, 27 percent owned two or more cars, and about 24 percent owned color TV.

M.G. Park District

Among the many activities the Morton Grove Park District presents, one of the most popular is the new craze - "skiing."

A Ski Trip is being planned for all Teen club members (if you are NOT a member, apply at the Park Office 6250 Dempster; membership fee is $1.00).

This excursion is taking place Sunday, Jan. 26 (from 4 to 10 p.m.) leaving Harrier Park Pool building at 4 p.m. promptly departing for Holiday Park Recreation Area - Wooster Lake, Ingleside, Ill., route 134 and route 12 near Fox Lake.

Entire cost is $6.50 - includes rental of equipment (skis; boots; poles) slope fees and 1 1/2-hour lesson and transportation by bus.

The first ski trip was a success; if you are interested contact the Park District, Y05-1200 as quickly as possible as registration is limited.

The entire evening will be chaperoned by 2 or 3 of the Morton Grove Park District's staff members.

Wrestling Bear To Headline Vacation Show

Victor, the celebrated wrestling bear, who was the hit of the 1967 edition, will return for the 1969 Chicago's Famous Sportmen's and Vacation Show, Jan. 24 thru Feb. 2, at the International Amphitheatre.

With his owner-trainer, former wrestling champion Tuffy Truesdell, Victor will appear in the twice-daily stage and water presentation, "Parade of Outdoor Champions".

Others signed by Producer Tom Durant for the center arena attraction are Ma Ho Pin, Chinese lady tight rope walker in her "slide for life"; Bill Fontana and his burling dog, Peppy; northwoods lumberjacks in log rolling, canoe tilting and tub race competitions including the Peck brothers, Randy and Dalton from Nova Scotia; Wes Harrison, "Mr. Sound Effects", and John Bromfield of "Sheriff of Cochise" and "U.S. Marshall" fame in the movies and on television as M.C. A champion caster and one of the outstanding packs of retrieving dogs are to be signed.

Ann Clark, Champion archer and longtime Chicago sports show favorite, also will be present. Archery again will have a prominent role in huge outdoors exposition with announcement by Durant that the Windy City Bowmen of Chicago, Inc., for the sixth straight year will sponsor the archery tournament in the ten-day show.

The public will be treated to free fishing clinics in the huge Fishing Tackle Row and will have the use of two casting ponds for practice and tips from experts; fish for live trout, receive instruction on boats and accessories in the marine section, participate in skeet shooting and other forms of recreation, and be brought up to date on the latest in equipment and gear at the many hundreds of exhibits.

The exposition will open at 6 P.M. on Friday, Jan. 24, with one performance scheduled that evening of Parade of Outdoor Champions, and thereafter from noon to 11 P.M. Saturdays and Sundays and 1 to 11 P.M. weekdays with an afternoon and evening presentation of the stage-water show. A minimum of 6,000 free seats for show visitors always will be available for "Parade", according to Durant.

STATE FARM Mutual Automobile Insurance Company Home Office: Bloomington, Illinois

To the President and Members of the Board of Trustees Village of Niles, 7166 Milwaukee Ave., Niles, Ill. 60648

Gentlemen:

It is the sincere wish of the Board of Commissioners of the Niles Park District, that it be included actively, in the planning of any celebration honoring the return to Niles of Pueblo crewman, Richard Rogala.

It is the board's earnest desire to participate in this affair to no less degree than any other civic body.

Should the appointment of a committee be considered to conduct the proper observance of this memorable occasion, the Board of Commissioners respectfully requests that it be contacted immediately so that it may supply members to serve on the committee.

Thank you for your consideration of this request.

Respectfully,

Gerald J. Sullivan, Vice-president Niles Park District

Thanks For Assistance

Dear Editor:

The North Suburban Truth About Civil Turmoil Committee would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your assistance in making our 1968 programs a success.

During the course of the year this Committee has sponsored three public speakers (Lola Belle Holmes and Rev. Delmar Dennis were both former FBI undercover agents and Rex Westfield, West Coast Director of Public Relations for the John Birch Society). Just over six hundred members of the public attended these presentations.

The Committee displayed the civil rights film, Anarchy USA, fifty-eight times in private and public places with an average attendance of approximately thirty-five people, and numerous other films exposing the truth about civil turmoil were used on various occasions.

Our mailing campaign, of more than twenty-five hundred pieces of literature, sent to local businessmen in the Chicago and North Suburban area, has also brought encouraging response.

Thank you again for any help you may have given us in announcing these programs.

On behalf of all the Greater Chicagoland area T.A.C.T. Committees, we wish you a happy and prosperous New Year.

Sincerely,
NORTH SUBURBAN T.A.C.T. COMMITTEE

Award For Valor

Four firefighters of the 928th Tactical Airlift Group win the Command Civilian Award for Valor for quick action which saved a United Airlines aircraft, crew and passengers. This is the second time in Continental Air Command history such a high award has been presented. UAL's senior vice-president in charge of flight operations, "Gus" Sommermeyer, congratulates the recipients in recent ceremonies at the military portion of O'Hare. They are: Francis X. Kadow, Chicago; William A. Sellar, 5737 Theobald ave., Morton Grove; Raymond F. Ciezki, 2519 N. Parkwood in., Des Plaines and Arthur J. Gunderson, Jr., Glen Ellyn. The firemen are civilian employees of the Air Force Reserve unit based at O'Hare. The citation reads in part: "In recognition of outstanding bravery while performing duties as firefighter, 928th Tactical Airlift Group ... when a United Airlines aircraft ... burst into flames, (they) responded in an Air Force fire truck ... and extinguished the flames. (Their) mental alertness and bravery precluded any possibility of further explosion and personal injuries ... Such coverage reflects the highest devotion to duty and great credit upon (themselves) and the United States Air Force."

Prize For Prediction

Francis Jaegers, 9315 National ave., Morton Grove, watched Joe Namath of the New York Jets all season and had faith in him.

That faith earned him $20,000 as one of the five winners who predicted the score of the Super Bowl football game on the nose. Jaegers and the other four split a $100,000 prize package in the "Mr. and Mrs. NFL" game still in progress at service stations of the Standard Oil Division, American Oil Company.

L. W. Moore, president of American Oil, gave the winners their checks Friday in a ceremony that was taped for a commercial to be shown on television during the NFL All-Star game Sunday.

Jaegers also picked up a fee for appearing in the commercial.

Contest officials said that out of 75,000 entries received in the game, only 3,500 contestants picked the Jets to win and only five guessed the correct score. The entries had to be postmarked "on or before January 2.

Jaegers, an AFL fan, admires the more wide open, passing game in that circuit and he said he knew Namath could get the Jets at least one touchdown and could get his team within field goal range two or three times.

"I also figured the Colts would get at least one touchdown," he said, "and that's how I came up with the score."

Jaegers, a salesman for the Van Gogh Studios, watched the game on television and said "I nearly blew my stack" when the score (Jets 16, Colts 7) came out as he predicted.

As for the "experts" who almost unanimously picked the Colts to win, Jaegers said: "They snore. I have been watching all season, I did."

His wife, Lucille, said they haven't figured out what to do with the money. "We're going to put it in the bank and think about it a little bit," she said.

amount of record keeping he's involved in at the police offices and felt the need to make use of computers is a likely answer for the future, both in his present office, as well as in the clerk's office.

Pointing a Blase spear right at the heart of the campaign Frank said Marge Lieske, the present clerk, has promoted herself as being more important than the job. He noted Marge's "ego" and the desire for personal notoriety were being promoted in the office. He mentioned Marge promoted bake sales, Niles Days and solicitations via village telephones, often using personnel from this office, which was certainly not keeping within the province of the office. He emphasized with the manager to oversee the personnel, the clerk should mainly record the minutes at all meetings at the village hall.

Presently, Wagner noted the clerk receives $6,600 annual salary plus $3,400 supplemental income from the village. He noted neighboring Park Ridge and Arlington Heights, with managers overseeing, were paying their village clerks $600.

Finally, he thought his job handling the records in the police department, plus part-time handling of the clerk's office, would save the village $7,000 or more annually.

The above salvos of Wagner are the opening guns of this April's election in Niles which is going to center around 2 personalities, Marge Lieske and Nick Blase. Since you're part of The BUGLE family you're entitled to know what we know and it's simply that Wagner's opinions are Blase's opinions and the next three months are likely to see a great deal of anger generated by Blase and Marge Lieske. The two had a falling out some four years ago and since then feelings run strong on both sides...and they aren't very pleasant feelings.

It seems obvious by attacking Marge it can be expected she or members of her party will lash back at Blase. His business interests and his politicking will be the two areas where they're likely to strike.

While it may seem elementary it's obvious we're witnessing a power struggle. When Wagner mentions Marge is "running" the office instead of the village manager what Frank (and Blase) is talking about is "power". Blase thinks Marge is power-hungry and says she is the master puppeteer who'll be pulling the strings for her party.

Blase also, admits he's boss. He speaks bluntly about the need for strong leadership at the top and that the guy on top must forcefully lead the way. What he is really saying is "power" for himself.

The basic problem here is Blase's blustery ways and the dominant role the Niles Mayor plays has been created by Blase. Former Mayor Stankowicz never attempted to dominate as Blase does and Morton Grove Mayor Schreiber, among many, is merely one of seven public officials on the village board.

Blase created the overpowering-dominating Mayor role and the trustees sitting with him acquiesced. While Blase made the role life - size, the trustees shrugged their shoulders meekly and let him play the role of general. Partly, because of this, those opposing him finally blew the whistle. They decided they wanted to "up" their own roles in the village.

Through the years we've seen Blase tell Scheel to "shut up" at meetings and used to tear John Stanley apart when Stanley was going through a rough time in his life. Nick was brutal and the chickens are now coming home to roost. Thus, when the Blase forces begin to holler Marge Lieske has too much power they may be right, but they're leaving their right flank wide open.

There's little doubt that the coming months will be dominated by personalities. How much more important for all residents if those running for office would discuss: 1. the upgrading of the village manager post; 2. a conflict of interest ordinance which both Mayoral candidates opposed because they both are guilty of this charge; 3. why Nilesites taxes at the village level have increased over 200% with the addition of the utility tax plus the 1/2 cent sales tax.

While Blase made the role life-size, the trustees shrugged their shoulders meekly and let him play the role of general. Partly, because of this, those opposing him finally blew the whistle. They decided they wanted to "up" their own roles in the village.

Through the years we've seen Blase tell Scheel to "shut up" at meetings and used to tear John Stanley apart when Stanley was going through a rough time in his life. Nick was brutal and the chickens are now coming home to roost. Thus, when the Blase forces begin to holler Marge Lieske has too much power they may be right, but they're leaving their right flank wide open.

There's little doubt that the coming months will be dominated by personalities. How much more important for all residents if those running for office would discuss: 1. the upgrading of the village manager post; 2. a conflict of interest ordinance which both Mayoral candidates opposed because they both are guilty of this charge; 3. why Nilesites taxes at the village level have increased over 200% with the addition of the utility tax plus the 1/2 cent sales tax.
