Brebeuf School Figures Show Savings To Taxpayers

St. John Brebeuf School Board released figures to The Bugle in which it contends Brebeuf's school saves taxpayers' money by its students going to the parochial school, rather than to local public schools. The figures include "savings" realized by each school district and the "spending" by each district for public school pupils for the 1967-68 year. The per pupil figures were taken from a report in the Chicago Sun-Times June 3, 1969. The release also mentions "there are 11 other non-public schools which also affect the same 4 school districts".

The following are the figures released by the school board:

St. John Brebeuf Overlaps 4 Public School Districts	Number of St. John Students Residing In These Districts	Spending By Each District Per Public School Pupil*	Savings Realized By Each District
Niles, 71	275	$871	$239,525
Park Ridge, 64	130	$775	$100,750
East Maine, 63	820	$733	$601,060
Morton Grove, 67	125	$790	$ 98,750

Grand Total Saved - $1,040,085!

*This amount is for the school year 1967-68; there are 11 other non-public schools which also affect these same four school districts.

By David Besser Editor & Publisher

Sunday's open houses in parochial schools throught the Chicago Archdiocese dramatically portrayed the need for all citizens to take cognizance of the problems in these schools. In this week's Bugle you may also notice several stories concerning school district 63, it's need for funds, and material pertinent to its upcoming referendum.

These school problems are everybody's business, both parochial and public school problems. They are also problems which demand some deep-thinking by all of us. The old days, of allowing our prejudices to guide our decisions, and automatically support or resist referendums, no longer can be tolerated. We have to ask ourselves, "what is in the best interest of all residents?" and then find the best solutions for our problems.

We have grown up defending the very sound principle of separating church and state. History has taught us the encroachment of one upon the other was not in the best interests of the people. We would be hypocritical if we backed down from long-held beliefs that the parochial sector, which demands tax-exemptions for millions of dollars of holdings, and yet want public funds paid by all citizens, is alien and unreasonable.

We have grown up (the past 17 years) in villages and school districts, in which we personally know the burdens many of our friends are carrying which need help from outside sources. And the outside source we speak of inevitably has to be some government body, which must aid the very citizens which it represents.

If we could sit in a think tank for several days and try to compromise such diametrically opposing views, one position we might advocate is: having the public and private schools begin sharing time in classrooms. If religion and humanities courses were continued to be taught in parochial schools, and the physical sciences were taught at the public schools it would alleviate the lay-teacher burden in parochial schools. Likewise, if parochial schools would offer space for public students the decreasing of public school facilities would also result in a savings. Such a shared-time and space program would be one step to meet our immediate problems.

The second step is a concentrated effort by every public official, and every private citizen to ORGANIZE and demand the state legislature take a more realistic attitude toward increasing aid to public schools. With more money parochial students could continue to use the public schools for more of their education, and yet retain their private education as they choose.

This problem is critical and it must be met now. Public classrooms which have 20 to 25 students per classroom are going to have to increase in size. And teachers who have enjoyed the luxury of small classes are going to have to tighten their belts, just as all residents have been doing, in order to meet this essential problem.

Caucus Selects #207, #63 Candidates

At a meeting Thursday night the East Maine School Caucus voted to support incumbent Roy Makela and school district 63 board member Sylvia McNair for the upcoming Maine High School board election. The third candidate, who was not selected, was Reverend William Graham.

In the selections for the district 63 elementary district incumbent William Gurolnick was chosen for a third term and William Allen was selected for a second term. Newcomer Arlene Nidetz, a former president of the River Ridge PTA Council, was selected as the third candidate to receive Caucus support. Other candidates who presented themselves but did not receive Caucus backing were Michael Conway and Harold Schwartz.

The decision to offer Dr. Hendee the position of Superintendent of Schools was made by the Board of Education at an executive meeting on Monday night, Feb. 16. The Board will take final action offering a contract to Dr. Hendee at the regular meeting of the Board on Monday night, Feb. 23.

Dr. Hendee joined the Dist. 64 staff as Curriculum Director in 1966. The following year, he was named Assistant Supt. Curriculum and in 1968 he was made Assistant Superintendent.

Friends of Library Answer Niles Days

The following letter was submitted to the Niles Days Committee by the Friends of the Niles Public Library:

This letter is in response to yours of Feb. 10 advising us of the action of the Niles Days Committee at the regular meeting on Feb. 2 to the effect that the "unspent portion of $287,00" received from the proceeds of the 1968 Niles Days Festival be returned to the Niles Days Committee if not used for the same project this season. Since we no longer are members of your organization, we will not attend the March 2 meeting "to present our side" of the matter.

If you will refer to our letter of Oct. 10, 1969, you will note that we reported that $213,00 had been expended for the 1968-1969 season, and that $287,00 was "ear-marked for the 1969-1970 season - same project." Programs must be selected and contracted for at least four to six months before the season, altho the money is not actually paid out until the performance is given. Hence our letter of Oct. 10 accounted for the amount of $500,00 in its entirety. There were no "unspent funds."

When asking for the return of "unspent funds" at the Feb. 2 Niles Days Meeting, The Friends of Niles Public Library District should not have been cited as holding unspent funds, implying that they had not lived up to their obligations to expend the donation from Niles Days for the purpose requested. This, no doubt, tends to create a bad impression in the minds of some Nilesites. When we embark on fund-raising endeavors, such as our annual bake-sale, card parties and the like, we must depend on the GOOD-WILL and support of the entire community to make these successful.

At the March 2 Niles Days Meeting, we trust you will correct any false impressions which the misrepresentation of our position at the Feb. 2 Niles Days Meeting may have brought about.

Sincerely,
Raymond S. Koll,
President
The Friends of Niles
Public Library District

Blase Named Education Aid Chairman

Cook County Council of Governments early this week announced the appointment of Mayor Nicholas Blase (Niles) as Chairman of the Aid to Education Committee.

Announcement of the appointment came from Arlington Hgts. Mayor John Walsh, who also serves as president of the CCOG. In accepting the Chairmanship Blase commented,

"The major and most heated issue in the next several years will be that of aid to our school systems. Suburban taxpayers can't afford the continuous increased demands on their property taxes. The schools are now consuming 75 to 80% of each tax dollar. We can't keep turning back to these people with tax referendums to raise the building funds, or the educational rate of the school. Support must come from other means."

Blase feels that we haven't come to grips with what it costs to provide for quality education today. Illinois is the 3rd most affluent state in the union, but 47th out of 50 in terms of aid to education. And the affect of this gross problem is not confined to Cook County alone, but the entire state of Illinois.

CCOG in 1969 took a strong stand in behalf of a major increase in state aid to public schools. Blase, at that time the legislative coordinator of the CCOG, proposed the first order of business in 1969 would be to lobby the legislature for state aid. Meeting with school superintendents and supervisors to discuss ways of solving the crisis, Blase then recommended to the Illinois General Assembly a formula for increased state aid per pupil.

CCOG is a non-partisan structure whose function is to promote the policy most important to local bodies, which will effectively enhance government in Cook County.

Mayor Blase is also Vice-President of the Illinois Municipal League, serving as chairman of the Legislative Committee. A non-partisan structure, the League promotes programs serving in the best interest of cities and villages in Illinois, as well as keeping local governments well informed of each municipalities actions.

Blase contends, "Unless we promote legislation to seek relief in this vital area, the early 1970's will be preparatory to the ultimate disaster in our educational processes at the close of this century. The CCOG considers aid to education of top

The phenomenal growth of East Maine School District No. 63, which has experienced a jump from 1953 to more than 7,000 students in 15 years, was dramatically recalled at the Feb. 180 meeting of the board of education in connection with a tax-referendum scheduled for March 28.

"People ask what we've been doing the past several years, and why we keep asking for money," William Gerwinick, president of the District 63 Board, said, referring to the district's request for a 40-cent increase in the educational millage rate.

The tax-weary residents of the district are being asked a second time for additional funds which are needed to meet rising costs, operate the schools and continue a sound educational program.

Mr. Gerwinick followed up his comment by reviewing year by year figures of student population growth and the construction undertaken by the district to keep up with this growth. Seven elementary school buildings, one junior high school (second junior high school is now under construction), 17 additions and 16 mobile classrooms have been constructed in District 63 during the past 15 years. Construction of school buildings has been underway every year but one during that time.

East Maine School District No. 63 today has nine elementary schools, one junior high school with a second to open in the Fall, numerous mobile classrooms and more than 7,000 students. But just fifteen years ago, in 1955, District 63 was still a country school district with two elementary schools, Ballard school and Oak school (which had just opened), and 888 students.

In 1956, the number of students attending schools in District 63 had jumped to 1,137 and a third school, Melzer school, was constructed.

The student population climbed in 1957 to 1,708 and the first addition was built onto Oak school. In 1958, the student population topped 2,000 (2,112) and the first addition was built onto Melzer school.

The upward climb continued and in 1959 a new school, the Washington school, was built and the student population reached 2,684. East Maine Junior High school was constructed in 1960 — the student population stood at 3,233.

In 1961, the number of students jumped 1,000 — up to 4,041 — and Nelson school was constructed and Ballard school received its second addition.

Mark Twain school was built in 1962, along with additions to East Maine Junior High school, Nelson school and Oak school — the student population soared up to 4,441. In 1963, the number of students increased to 5,106 and there was a flurry of construction with additions built onto Melzer, Nelson, Oak, Mark Twain and Washington schools — and another new school, Wilson school, was built. The student population climbed to 5,631 in 1964. That was the only year, during the past 15 years that neither a new school nor addition was constructed.

Additions were constructed in 1965 onto East Maine Junior High school, Mark Twain and Wilson schools, the school district purchased six mobile classrooms and the number of students grew to 6,216.

In 1966 the Shelley Nathanson school was constructed, additions were added to Melzer and Nelson schools and five mobile classrooms were purchased. The student population continued to increase reaching 6,776.

An addition was constructed onto Washington school and one mobile classroom purchased in 1967. The student population numbered 7,119.

Stevenson school was built in 1968 and the student count was 7,345.

Last year, 1969, District 63 purchased two more mobiles. The student population: 7,185.

Ironically, just when District 63 seems to be on top of the problem of housing for its more than 7,000 students and just when growth is expected to begin to level off, the school district faces a financial crisis which could destroy the heart of the district's educational program, if not close the schools.

After a short business meeting, called to order by Mrs. Vincent Bugarin, Niles PTA president; Mrs. Pat Barton, program chairman introduced the speaker for the evening, Dr. Franklin Fitch.

ent-Teacher council delegates and members of the local medical profession and the clergy. Again this year, as a supplement to our health and science curricula and to the parent's instruction at home, Dr. Fitch will present his course in Human Growth at the junior high level.

Niles under the leadership of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Hoett and Mrs. Cynthia Russell presented the flag.

A social hour followed in the cafeteria. Refreshments were served by the 3rd grade room representatives. The 7th grade mothers sold bakery items before and after the PTA meeting in the cafeteria.

Dr. Fitch, a graduate of the University of Illinois College of Medicine, was associated with the Northwestern University School of Medicine until his retirement in 1967. He was appointed to the Illinois Sex Education Advisory Board in 1965 and has helped in forming policies for sex education programs in the public schools of the State. Dr. Fitch has been engaged in social hygiene education since 1930 and has written and lectured extensively on various phases of social hygiene.

A new family living and sex education program for 6th, 7th and 8th grade pupils was adopted by the Board of Education for this school year. Dr. Fitch has had a great deal of influence on this program which was shaped by a committee composed of parents, teachers, Par-

Woman's Auxiliary Maps Plans

The Feb. 6 meeting found the Auxiliary making important decisions for the new year, in the comfort of the home of President Mrs. W. Terpin. Every other month the meeting place will be in the home of an auxiliary member. All agreed it is a pleasant change in keeping with the times.

First order of business was Finance Appropriation. We have now established a $500.00 Death Benefit for each Auxiliary member or spouse.

Mrs. Martin Stankowicz was in charge of setting a table filled with Valentine sweets for the policemen on Feb. 14.

Mrs. John Morgan has urged all members to set aside the evening of March 17. We will entertain St. Benedict's Home for the Aged.

Our Bake Sale is also coming up on March 28, at the Bank of Niles. Easter is the following day, so if you are entertaining - don't bake. Set aside only 10 minutes to come to the Bank and buy your home made dessert for the holiday. The Bake Sale will be open from 9 - 12 noon.

Mrs. Jahns' "Unique" Letter Based on Misinformation

Dear Mr. Besser:

A response to the "unique" letter of Mrs. Jahns must be made. Her letter is very "unique" for it is based upon misinformation, admittedly rumor and lack of technical foundation. Mrs. Jahns, as a principal of a Chicago school, should use her expertise in a more intellectually honest fashion and should know where to go to obtain the proper information.

The Board of Education of Dist. 63 has never threatened it would close the schools if the March 28 referendum failed to pass. We have made the point that under the current financial picture and with certain assumptions which includes both state and local factors, it is theoretically possible that the schools would run out of money. It happened in Ohio. We all hope a state as rich as Illinois would not let it happen. We intend to continue to provide a quality educational program, which cannot be done if increasing assistance is not forthcoming.

As a principal, Mrs. Jahns must be familiar with Sec. 24-9 of the school code which provides the teacher's duty free lunch period must be equal to the regular school lunch period and not less than 30 minutes. Informed members of the community knew that volunteers were used when the lunch policy was instituted and the volunteer program did not succeed! As to state law requiring mandatory lunch programs - this only applies to destitute families and we, of course, will assist any poverty stricken family who applies for assistance.

The school has no intention of allowing unsupervised recess and it never has. Mrs. Jahns admits to rumors being the basis of her concern and her professional experience should have warned her to avoid rumor.

Our teachers have provided teaching and creative materials on their own time because of professional approach to teaching. This professional atmosphere in Dist. 63 is well known and last year we received in excess of 800 applications for teaching positions - without having the highest salary schedule in the area. It is not necessary to artificially make teachers spend time in school without constructive work assignments. When time is required, teachers are in attendance.

The annual Easter Seal Parade for the Crippled, a door-to-door request for funds for the Chicago Easter Seal Society will begin on Tuesday, March 17, and continue through Saturday, March 21, in Niles, according to Mrs. Charles L. Barbaglia, Assistant Vice-President of the Bank of Niles, 7100 Oakton St., Niles, Easter Seal Community Chairman of the Niles area.

The Easter Seal chairmen in the Easter Seal campaign are used to support two Chicago treatment centers. The centers, located at 5903 W. Fulton and 10411 S. Michigan, offer physical, speech and occupational therapy for crippled children.

It was "unique" that Mrs. Jahns did not enumerate the experimental programs she was criticizing. Is this because such programs as non-graded primary are now being used in the Chicago schools? The Chicago Today (Jan. 28, 1970, P.20) reported the reading level at 6th grade of Mrs. Jahns' school at the 16 percentile. A composite of Dist. 63 schools for the same grade is 69 percentile and vocabulary is at the 89 percentile! Expensive? Compare our expenditure per pupil with our surrounding districts!

The total music program and extra curriculum activities have been supported by many parents. They have seen their children have an opportunity for further self development and improved self image, whether it be in art or basketball. Will children develop better on the streets or at Golf Mill? Ask our juvenile officers about this matter. Constructively planned field trips can be an important addition to the educational program. Did anyone ever visit a museum in Chicago and see the number of children on field trips? Our children will eventually leave the immediate Niles area; they should be aware and be prepared for this event.

Communication with the public in Dist. 63 is difficult. There is no common newspaper so that the many news releases and issue of the East Main School News are our attempts to fill this gap. This newspaper has pointed out several times the openness of our policy and our efforts to reach the people.

The policy manual of the Board of Education and various teachers handbooks are available to the interested citizenry. Both documents start with the philosophy of the Board - that states that ours is a child centered school system. One can only say that Mrs. Jahns did not interview the Board of Administrators in Dist. 63 to obtain their attitudes; she assumed them.

Mrs. Jahns has failed to make her case. She has attempted by innuendo and appeal to emotion, to indict the school board. For what? She never does say. This is why her letter was so "unique".

W. Gurolnick
Pres. Board of Education
District 63

Quality Education in District 63 Schools

Gentlemen:

As a parent and as a teacher living in Dist. 63, I feel the letter written by Delores Jahns concerning our school system should not go unanswered.

As an educator, before we purchased our home, viewing the sign in bold letters in front of Woodrow Wilson school stating that the district was in dire financial circumstances, I decided to visit the school that my children would attend. I called the administrative offices requesting permission to visit classes. I also talked to the principal personally and he welcomed me and my children with enthusiasm and warmth. We spent an entire afternoon visiting the classrooms and talking to the teachers. We witnessed an atmosphere of innovative ideas, creative teaching and full participation of all children. My children were impressed with the size and the activities continually going on in each classroom. The contrast between my children's Chicago school situations and that of Dist. 63 was dramatic.

We have now been in the district for 5 years. During this time I accepted a position at Nelson school in the district, and therefore from firsthand experience I want to correct some of the erroneous statements which you made.

Regarding recess supervision, to my knowledge all children are supervised during recess periods by teachers. As for "unproved experimental programs", this statement is utter nonsense. We conduct a quality program, and our achievement scores in relation to intelligence scores are superior to many suburban systems and far surpass the Chicago test ratings. We do use the newest materials of proven worth and receive excellent help from our subject matter specialists and consultants.

We too, believe that schools exist for the benefit of the children enrolled. Our total curriculum is designed with this object in mind. Our Board of Education members are enlightened individuals and our administrative and teaching staff is composed of dedicated and competent personnel.

Very truly yours,
Sena Hirsch

Census Takers Needed

An appeal to residents of this area to apply for jobs as census takers for the 1970 Census of Population and Housing was issued today by Director Charles LaPlante of the Census Bureau's district office in Des Plaines.

Candidates for census jobs may apply and be tested in the Civil Service Room of the Evanston Postoffice, 1101 Davis St., on Friday, March 6. Hours for testing are 1:30 p.m., 2:30 p.m. and 3:30 p.m.

Applicants must be 18 years old or over. They will be required to pass a selection test demonstrating their ability to understand printed instructions and do simple arithmetic. Many will need a car in their work for which mileage will be paid.

Census takers will be paid on a piece rate basis designed to average $2 per hour nationally. Hourly earnings will vary depending on the diligence of individuals, according to the district director who pointed out that some will earn well above the average, while others who work less effectively will earn less. The average assignment for a census taker will last from 3 to 5 weeks in April and May.

A slowpoke driver on an expressway, says the Chicago Motor Club-AAA, is a serious hazard. Often he encourages other drivers to become impatient and pass dangerously. At other times, he is responsible for traffic congestion, particularly during morning and evening rush hours. Drivers who don't keep up with the general flow of traffic should either stay off the expressway or at least stay in the far right lane.

THE LIVER IN OUR LIVES

Science research has found cirrhosis to be the result of degeneration and destruction of liver cells. Viewed under the microscope, the architectural pattern of the cells and ducts is disorganized by inflammation and scar tissue. The appearance of the cell is also altered when the liver attempts to regenerate or rebuild the damage already done.

The liver functions are highly affected when cirrhosis sets in. Evidence of this is varied and often so remote they seem to be unrelated. Spider like veins may develop on the face and chest. The male breast may enlarge, and scalp and body hair may thin. Fluid accumulates in the abdomen and large veins develop in the liver area. The face is flushed, ankles swell, palms and soles redden and there is a tremor in the outstretched hand.

If any of these symptoms appear, your doctor should be consulted. If in turn medication is called for, BIRCHWAY DRUGS should be consulted. We like you, the customer, to feel the doctor and pharmacist are on the same Health Team protecting you. BIRCHWAY DRUGS...7503 Milwaukee Ave...Phone 647-8337.

The Niles-Morton Grove-Golf Mill-East Maine area obviously is a lower average income area than the North Shore areas to the east. And while we would all like to share the luxuries which accompany wealth, realistically we are not in a position to do it. It does not mean we can't demand quality education. Nor does it mean we need to compromise, either our standards or goals, in achieving education for our children. But it does mean we have to do more with less.

Chico Maki

E. Maine P. 1 cago Blackhawk. Standing 5'10" tall and weighing 170 pounds, he is still one of the fastest men in the league on a short spurt. As a right wing, his checking ability of opposing forwards is tremendous, and has made him a noted and praised Blackhawk player.

At the trophy presentation, Chico will address the Park District Hockey players and will be on hand to talk individually with them as well as signing autographs for his fans. The public is invited to attend this award night. It will give you an opportunity to learn about the Park District's seasonal hockey program, as well as meeting the ever great "Chico". Refreshments will be served.

"Clowns" At Village Hall

Margaret Holmgren of the Niles Art Guild will be exhibiting her famous "Mergie's Happy Clowns" at the Niles Village Administration Building for the next three months.

Margaret was born and raised in Evanston. In 1950 she and her family moved to Edison Park and opened the Edison Ridge Palm-Glass store. Margaret has been painting since she was three years old. Her mother gave her a pencil and told her to scribble on the paper. She studied art in high school and the Art Institute. She also took adult art classes at the Ebinger school, starting the second year the classes were in session and attending ever since.

The Holmgrens used to spend their summers in Wisconsin and Margaret sold her paintings to vacationers. She has paintings in 12 states and in Toronto, Canada. Einar Holmgren, Margaret's husband was president of the Edison Park Chamber of Commerce and president of the Lyons Club. After his death in 1962, she became more active in art than ever before, exhibiting at various art fairs, banks, theaters, etc. throughout the area. She has sold hundreds of her "Happy Clowns" adding a spot of beauty and joy to many homes.

Choral Soloist

Monroe Olson, 8117 Washington st., Niles, will sing the lead part in the Sunday, March 15, presentation of Mendelssohn's Elijah by the Festival Chorus of North Park college. The concert will be given in the Lecture Hall-Auditorium, Foster and Kedzie ave., Chicago. Director of the chorus and the accompanying orchestra will be Herbert Pankratz, professor of music and chairman of the division of fine arts.

Niles Denies District 63 Fund Request

A letter and resolution from the Village of Niles denying a request for a share of the State Income Tax funds was reviewed by the Board of Education of East Maine School District 63 at the Feb. 24 meeting of the board.

All villages included within the boundaries of Dist. 63 have now definitely refused to share the income tax funds they will receive with the schools.

Officials of the school district have from the beginning doubtful that any funds would be forthcoming for the schools because of the wording of the new income tax bill passed by the Legislature. No specific guidelines for sharing with school districts are included in the bill.

The letter received by Dist. 63 from Mayor Nicholas Blase of Niles, however, does indicate that there is "an intent to try to use the income tax money in a favorable reflection on our village tax rate" among villages in the District 63 area.

Quota Club Members

Jule Bode, 5741 Lyons, Edward Fritz, 7604 W. Sufferd, Nathan Gerstman, 8112 Central, and Marshall Eisenberg, 9026 N. Oleander, all of Morton Grove were honored at the Reuben H. Donnelley telephone directory company's Quota club dinner and presentation held Friday, Feb. 28, at the Sheraton-Blackstone hotel, Chicago, for top Yellow Pages sales people in the Illinois and Cincinnati areas.

This is the 4th year of annual Quota club membership for Mr. Bode, major account executive, Mr. Eisenberg, district sales manager, has qualified for the 3rd year. Mr. Gerstman and Mr. Fritz, both premise sales representatives, are second time members.

"Membership in the Quota club represents not only sales prowess," said William W. Geary, vice president and general manager of R. H. Donnelley, "but also a knowledge of the market and of the needs of individual customers, as well as a service-oriented attitude."

"Pinocchio" at Mill Run

"Pinocchio" (Anthony Arthur) comes to life as Giuseppe (Bruce Wright) paints his mischievous smile. The story of the puppet who became a "real live boy" will be appearing every Saturday and Sunday at 2 p.m. through the month of March, at the Mill Run Playhouse Children's Theatre. The theatre is located in the Golf Mill Shopping center (Golf rd. and Milwaukee ave., Niles)

Open Readings For "Tom Jones"

Des Plaines Theatre Guild, Inc. announces open readings for roles in their May production, "Tom Jones," will be held Monday and Tuesday nights, March 9 and 10, beginning at 8 p.m. in Guild Playhouse, 620 Lee st., Des Plaines.

Ed Sauer, 9700 N. Dee rd., Des Plaines, a long-time member of the community theatre group and active in other theatres in the area, will direct the rollicking comedy and conduct the try-outs.

The script for "Tom Jones" by playwright David Rogers is based upon Henry Fielding's famous 18th century novel about a "foundling" who found himself constantly pursued by ladies of high and low estate.

Sauer says the cast of characters calls for 13 men and 11 women, a total of 24 actors, however, if necessary, some doubling can be done on minor roles. Anyone interested in reading is cordially invited to attend the try-outs, regardless of previous stage experience or participation in Des Plaines Theatre Guild.

"With so many choice roles to cast, I am hoping for a large turn out of men and women at both try-out nights," says Sauer.

"There will also be plenty of jobs behind the scenes to fill-set design and construction, costuming (always a major challenge in a period play), props, technical crew, etc., so we hope anyone who has ever though he'd like to get involved in a live theatre operation will join us Monday and / or Tuesday nights!"

"Tom Jones" will be presented for three week-ends in May, Friday and Saturday nights, May 8-23.

Current production of the Des Plaines Theatre Guild, now in its 24th consecutive season, is the suspense thriller, "Until Dark," playing Fridays and Saturdays, March 6 through 21, at Guild Playhouse. For ticket reservations dial the box office, 296-1211 between noon and 8 p.m.

Niles Days...

Continued from Niles-E. Maine P. 1 changed (in 1969) which makes groups specifically cite what the money is to be used for and then necessitates reporting back to the Niles Days Committee the following year to explain how the money was expended.

Obviously, the creating of the 1969 by-law amendment after giving the money to the groups resulted in the Monday Night meeting. Some members of Niles Days contended there was a "moral obligation" for the groups to refund the money if it was not used. Admittedly, they realized the Niles Days Committee had no legal basis for such action.

The Niles Art Guild, which has a $900 balance in its treasury said it intended using the remaining funds for upcoming art activities and presenting an art scholarship to Colorado this summer for some young artist.

Donald Johns called for a vote on whether or not the groups should retain the money. It voted 18 to 1 in favor of the Niles Art Guild retaining the money and 16 to 3 for the Youth Congress to keep its Niles Days money.

SJB Holy Name Society

The Holy Name members, their friends, neighbors, boy scouts and cub scouts of St. John Brebeuf parish will receive Holy Communion in a body at the 8 a.m. Mass on Sunday, March 8. On Monday March 9 starting at 8 p.m. sharp, a meeting for members and their friends will be held in the school hall.

A Holy Name member should participate in all Holy Name and parish activities; for only through member participation will we achieve success. To the officers this is a serious problem and responsibility. They must lead us in the fulfillment and objectives of our society. The men of our parish must accept the responsibility of our church and community. This in itself is Catholic action. We belong to a religious group and we must do our share and take an important part in it.

Our Society is not for a few, for if it ever relies on only a few, then it ceases to have a purpose and a cause. The great thing is not so much where we are, but in what direction we are moving. The Holy Name needs your support and cooperation to take the Society over the many obstacles that await us in the coming months. The task of preparing to take the right road is a challenge in

Dist. 207 New Method of Class Ranking

A new method for determining class rank and recognizing outstanding scholars was approved by the Maine Township High School Board of Education at its regular meeting held Monday, Feb. 23.

The Board based its approval on the recommendations of a faculty committee report submitted to Dr. Richard R. Short, Supt. of Schools, and presented by him for Board consideration. For the past several months a faculty committee under the chairmanship of John Clouser, principal at Maine East, has been considering a change in the method of reporting class standing from a numerical rank to a percentile rank. The committee has also been discussing a new approach for the recognition of top students.

As a result of its deliberations the committee has recommended a percentile rank be used to determine the class standing and that those students in the 98th and 99th percentiles (approximately the top two percent of the class) be designated Maine Scholars. These Maine Scholars would select two of their members to deliver commencement addresses. There would no longer be a valedictorian and a salutatorian.

In commenting on the report, Dr. Short said the committee felt the difference between the top 2% of the graduation class was incidental rather than actual. He said the committee also believed students would be under less pressure in taking additional courses beyond the

Service With A Smile

Niles Girl Scouts Feature Displays

To celebrate Girl Scout Week, the Scouts of Niles will display their various projects in the window of the Photo Palace on the corner of Oakton and Milwaukee in Niles, March 7 thru March 21. Penney's, our uniform headquarters in Golf Mill, has generously offered to help us by supplying a completely dressed in uniform Girl Scout and Brownie mannequin.

Brownie Troop 598

Three cheers for the Brownies who represented Troop #598 so well at the Feb. 9 meeting of the PTA! Participating in the presentation of colors were: Sandy Berninger, Lynn Gafke, Maria Malinowski and Lorene Platt.

The Scanda House in Mt. Prospect was the scene for the recent Valentines' Day Luncheon attended by the Brownies of Troop #598 and their mothers. After a delicious lunch, the troop leaders gave the mothers the honor of presenting their daughters with the World Association Pin. These pins were earned by studying about Brownies around the world and their respective countries. Later the girls entertained their mothers with songs and a display of their projects and yearbook.

On Feb. 21, the Brownies, accompanied by their leaders Mrs. Jules Witek, Mrs. Russell Vann and Mrs. Jack Varon, attended the special children's matinee at the Mill Run Playhouse. Saturday's presentation of "Alice in Wonderland" was especially enjoyable for the girls, as well as the leaders.

We certainly hope that every-one sometime during those two weeks stops by to see what interesting and unusual projects the Scouts and Brownies have been working on this past year. We're pretty proud of them... you should be too! HAPPY 57th BIRTHDAY.

Brownie Troop 962

After caroling at the Golf Mill Shopping Center, Troop #962 went to Mrs. Adams house for its Christmas celebration on Dec. 19, 1969. Senior Scout, Barbara Hoozline was invited to play her guitar for the girls, and which the girls enjoyed. Thank you, Barbara. The Christmas gift for the parents involved sewing flowers on sack like material, making a frame for the finished product and putting the two together for a picture.

On Jan. 13, the girls made Chocolate Chip Cookies at their meeting. The girls voted for the officer of the day. A Brownie is elected each meeting to reside over the meeting. They also decided on what to make for Valentine's Day.

Jan. 20 was a special day for some Brownies in Troop #962. They received their Year Star pin. The Brownies who received them were: Sherry Miller, Sharon Schweigel, Pam Einspar, Jean Miller and Lori Henricksen. The surprise gift for Valentine's Day was handypot holders shaped like hearts, which the girls made.

Troop 238

On Wednesday, Dec. 10, 1969 Brownies Troop 238 held their Christmas Party at Oak School. With smiles on their faces and holiday spirit in their hearts the girls put the finishing touches on colorful decorated "catch-all" containers they made for their mothers and teachers Mrs. Lorraine Hartzell and Nancy Backstrom whose rooms they use to hold their meetings.

Vinyl eye glass cases were made for the girls fathers and the Oak school custodian who is so patient with them every week.

The Brownies later sang Christmas carols, recited poems and presented a skit called "The Night Before Christmas" which they themselves prepared.

Brownie Troop 238 gave their Troop Leaders Mrs. Rodger Kurgan and Mrs. Joseph Partipilo, Christmas gift certificates. The first year brownies received brownie nail file kits and the second year brownies received green girl scout nail file kits from their troop leaders as Christmas gifts. Cake and punch was served by hostesses Mrs. William Sinacore and Mrs. Louis Zajdel.

On Wednesday, Jan. 7, the Brownies resumed their weekly meetings after the holiday recess. With the girl scout laws in mind the brownies practiced the "Law of Thrift" gathering left over material from a previous project and combined with discarded tissue rolls each girl worked on a project called lored snake about 36" long whose head and tail is stuffed with cotton, the body consists of tissue rolls tied at intervals with yarn. The brownies call this creature "Mustgo" because all leftover materials must go in order to be thrifty. Helping the troop and leaders with this project was Mrs. Ernest Ciccone.

Brownie Troop 238 welcomes a new second year brownie Kathy Kosyk and a special thank you goes to Mrs. Frank Cicero for helping the girls and leader Mrs. Rodger Kurgan in the absence of co-leader Mrs. Joseph Partipilo.

where and how the business community can participate.

The agenda calls for a welcoming speech by Von Aswege, followed by a few words from Jule C. Bode, president of the village. Diamond Jubilee committee coordinator Bill Yates will take the floor to introduce the planning board of the jubilee committee and tell of their particular duties and assignments. Frank McTier, jubilee public relations chief, will brief the business leaders on the plans to date regarding the public relations aspect of promoting the Jubilee. Then Bill Cunnally and Jack Terrazas will show for the first time mock-up copies of the proposed program and updated history of Morton Grove in book form.

All businessmen are encouraged to attend this most interesting dinner and to notify chairman Marvin Von Aswege immediately of their intent so that reservations can be made. Said Von Aswege, "We want to be an integral part of this celebration and we're pledging in advance our cooperation and participation."

Drill held with surrounding neighbors joining in. Much equipment will be on hand and many demonstrations will take place. The outside activities will begin in the morning and the inside activities will start in the afternoon. During the hours of 10 a.m. until 2 p.m., traffic will be diverted on Ferris and Lincoln to accommodate equipment. After this is done, wreckers will proceed to demolish the building used.

Village Engineer Nick Ciorba said in reviewing the bids submitted on maintenance he had the following recommendations: For asphalt - Allied Asphalt Co. $2,863.50. For salt - Morton Salt Co. $9,315.00. Two bids were received for Street Lights and Traffic Control Maintenance, but since there was an error in the number of street lights along Waukegan rd., Mr. Ciorba suggested these bids be rejected, new specifications given (with the correction) and new bids accepted. The trustees agreed on all counts. Tony Fragassi of the Public Work Dept. said there was one water main leak last week and that the 50/50 tree program was underway.

John Hilkin stated the Beautification committee will meet on Thursday. He also said that Monsanto Co. has offered 500 sq. ft. of astro turf to the village. Engineer Ciorba suggested using this in areas where heavy traffic is found and a lot of salt is used. Mr. Hilkin also announced that the Board of Health has sent out letters with a reply card enclosed to be filled out by anyone who is an invalid or suffers from heart or any respiratory ailment. The Board of Health made 34 inspections last month, 18 regarding Air Pollution.

Herbert Houdt, trustee reported the Public Works Dept. has put up signs denoting the coming Diamond Jubilee at all entrances to Morton Grove. Ed Wilander said a letter was received from Trustee and Mrs. Richard Flickinger thanking the Fire Department for their competent aid to their mother when she was stricken with heart trouble in December. Trustee Wilander then said he had a report from Chief Glauner saying that several complaints had been received recently on small foreign autos being overturned. After investigation by some of our policemen, it was discovered that several neighborhood boys were responsible.

Mr. Harold Goslin a builder who has built several homes on Central ave. said he had a problem with water flowing from the alley which paralleled his property. He said the constantly pouring water is ruining these homes and told the board he has already invested $200 in stones and rock to prevent this. Mr. Goslin said he hoped the board would take some action to help alleviate this problem and Engineer Ciorba will look into the matter.

LWV Advocates Membership

Why join the Party? Because you are halfway disenfranchised if you don't. If you aren't a party member, active at least to the extent of voting in the primary election, you are depriving yourself of a vital part of your political rights.

Maybe it is apathy or a reluctance to let friends and neighbors know your political leanings, maybe it is distaste for what the word "politics" connotes that keeps you away from party affairs. Whatever the reason, if you don't vote in the primary election, you don't have a say in the election of a party committeemen. This committeeman, together with his counterparts in other districts, does most of the slate making; he fills vacancies in elective offices; he decides who the party's presidential nominee will be; he distributes patronage, in the form of jobs or other favors. Your choice of a committeeman and your letting him know what you think and want, can give you an effective voice in government. So choosing party officials is one big reason you should join the party.

Niles Professional Education Association

The teachers of the Niles District #71 Education Association are once again actively participating in their local chapter of the Illinois Education Association. The officers, Ray Blank (President), Tom Back (President-elect), Edie Heinemann (Secretary), Betty Matayka (Treasurer), and committee chairmen have conscientiously outlined the year's objectives.

The primary purpose is to promote, improve and raise the status of the teaching profession and to parallel common interests with the community in which they serve.

A teacher is a professional who works within an organization. He recognizes that the education of children is a responsibility he shares with the community, its representatives, and the administration of the schools. The teacher serves as a specialist in his classroom. He has the right to be heard on matters pertaining to his areas of competence, a right to be as free as possible to teach, a right to participate in making decisions that affect him and his work.

The teacher now lives in a period where concern for the child's welfare intermeshes with the community system. What the community gives - the teacher returns!

Dist. 63 To Continue Lunchroom Supervision

The Board of Education of East Maine School District No. 63 voted at the Feb. 24 meeting to rescind their previous action eliminating all elementary school lunchroom supervision and extracurricular activities.

The decision to continue these programs was made following a statement of opinion by Allen Schwartz, attorney for Dist. 63 that a follow-through on the original plan might result in litigation which would be more by the cancellations.

Mr. Schwartz also pointed out that such litigation might endanger the district's credit rating and, consequently, the ability to sell tax anticipation warrants and construction bonds.

Lunchroom, intramural and other after-school activity supervisors are paid an extra stipend for such supervision in the form of a "contract rider" attached to their basic teaching contract.

The district had intended to begin to conserve funds for next year, in light of the Jan. 27 tax referendum defeat, by cancelling these activities.

Although Mr. Schwartz has advised the Board that termination of the contract riders would be legally permissible, Superintendent Frank Dagne has reported that feedback from personnel concerned indicates that such district action might be challenged.

The most recent action means that lunchroom supervision, intramurals and all other after-school activities will continue for the remainder of this school year.

Lifetime Members

At a recent meeting of the Morton Grove Post #134 of the American Legion, life memberships were awarded to two Legionnaires who have performed services of note-worthy recognition during their Legion membership lifetime.

Post commander Al Nehart (left) is seen presenting the special lifetime award insignia to Arthur Loutsch, well known resident of the community of Golf. The second lifetime membership award was presented to past post commander Al Bixler who was also given this special honor.

Student Teacher

Illinois State University announced today that approximately 519 students in professional education are undertaking their teaching internships in more than 350 schools throughout Illinois.

From the Niles area is: Marilyn Mostek, 7848 Park, teaching deaf and hard of hearing in Illinois School for Deaf, Jacksonville and in Archdiocese of Schools, Chicago.

Reciprocal Borrowing Program

The Niles Public Library and 9 other public libraries, members of the North Suburban Library System, have joined with the System in starting a pilot Reciprocal Borrowing project, as an improved service to the users of the local library.

The program provides that subject to certain conditions, persons registered at one of the participating libraries may visit any other participating library and borrow books and pamphlets from that library. Except for normal library charges, for example, fines and charges for materials lost, this service is free. The participating libraries, in addition to Niles Public Library District are: Deerfield Public Library, Elk Grove Village Public Library, Glenview Public Library, Glenview Public Library, Northbrook Public Library, Schaumburg Township Public Library, Wheeling Public Library, Winnetka Public Library.

The Pilot Reciprocal Borrowing experiment started Feb. 1 and will continue for at least 6 months, but for not more than 1 year. If the program is successful, it is planned to make it permanent.

Dist. 64 Wins Court Action

The Appellate Court ruled in favor of School Dist. 64 in the latest action brought against the school district by Winifred Wells. Miss Wells had appealed the
