Twice in recent weeks I commented upon competing newspapers. In the area, or more precisely on the people behind the newspapers, April 15 I noted 3 of the newspapers are "blatantly partisan." I droned on that the "men who run the newspapers are poorly qualified, both by education and by their lack of objectivity."

On April 20 I received a letter from Louis Lerner who wrote he would be perfectly delighted in comparing his credentials with anyone I wish.

The Lerner letter was most welcome and opened up an avenue pertaining to local newspapering which I've long thought about. It deserves comment.

While this may sound like a cop-out to the Lerner's, the 3 newspaper owners I was referring to, were publishers of 3 partisan Republican newspapers here, which make no attempt to hide their partisanship. On many occasions Nick Blase and his cohorts have told me they cannot gain space in any other newspapers to further their cause. And as late as the past campaign independent candidate Bill Winter told me ours was the only newspaper which was giving him fair coverage.

Following the lead of local TV stations, which are belatedly recognizing their brethren by mentioning their stations and networks, but which is still a no-no in the newspaper business, I'd like to take note of the local papers.

There is no doubt among professionals the Lerner newspaper chain (48 newspapers) is among the very best in the country. And at our local level The Life newspaper is by far the best business organization, as well as journalistic enterprise here. On a 1 on 1, day-to-day basis, the competition from the sales force from this newspaper, is greater than all other newspapers combined. Their salesmen in the field are well-trained, and the guy who runs this sales force, Gene Calabrese, is far and away the best sales-business manager we've seen in publishing. In the news area, The Life also far surpasses all the rest of us.

The superiority of these people is a reflection from the very top. No organization is better than the men who run the company, and obviously, the men on top are most competent.

It was announced at Tuesday night's park board meeting the Ballard Park swimming pool should be ready by July 4 or before, weather - permitting. Resident architect Len Wisniewski said the Ballard Park plans are presently "20 days down" but he expects with good weather the entire park project should be close to being on schedule.

Park president Jerry Sullivan, indicating the park district must watch every penny. It expends, was the lone dissenter for the 3 session summer day camp which was approved by the 4 other commissioners. Because of the lateness of the tax bill collections, plus the inability of receiving the assessed valuation for the park district for the fiscal year, plus the possible loss of revenue from personal property taxes, the park board was playing it close to the vest in forseeing what could be expended during the coming year. A figure of $43,000 is being budgeted for the recreation program for the coming year of which about $21,000 will be used for a summer program. But, faced with the uncertainty of what monies the entire Board will receive, the entire Board manifested an air of "go slow" until they were sure of the revenues forthcoming.

It was explained unlike the village board, which received revenue from in state income tax, sales tax returns, and fees from licenses and permits, the park board only receives money from property taxes and personal property taxes. Because the personal property tax controversy is in question, with taxes which may be received only from corporations, the Board must wait until (July or August) before the assessed valuation will be known, which determines the revenue to be received.

Since money matters dominated the meeting attorney Barafato readied a tax anticipation ordinance which allows the park board to borrow $50,000 until the new tax money becomes available. A second ordinance provides the park district can borrow the money from its own referendum account, which presently is $573,000. The loan will be at 4% rather than a higher rate which would be obtained thru normal bank channels.

In other actions secretary-treasurer Olson, attorney Barafato and recreation director Norman were approved to serve the district for the coming fiscal year (May 1).

. . . A request for 21 football nite games under lites will be reviewed after it was stated the lite bill would be at least $25 per game.

The Ladies Auxiliary and Post of Niles VFW 7712 will participate in the Loyalty Day Parade in Bellwood on May 2. The parade will start at 1:45 and Governor Ogilvie will be there, also: Astronaut Gene Cernan. ### Niles Firemen Attend School

Two Niles firefighters recently returned from a four day forum on modern fire service problems. They were among over 2600 firefighters from throughout the United States, Canada and many other countries to attend the 43rd annual Fire Department Instructors Conference in Kansas City, Mo. The two were Lieut. Robert Larson and Inspector Alex Weber.

Since 1928, the conference has been a clearing house for an exchange of ideas and experiences for the betterment of the fire service. Many of the great improvements in fire fighting techniques, training and fire prevention methods came about as a result of this conference.

The conference is sponsored by the Fire Prevention Department of the Western Actuarial Bureau of Chicago. Among the subjects covered during the conference were teaching fire tactics to new fire officers, the seriousness of fire protection for large apartment complexes, industrial fire losses, programs for apprentice firefighters and managing a fire department.

ELECTION ANALYSIS Niles

RICH HARCZAK

Niles off-year election was a whopper... the winners whopped the losers good. Matter of fact, they whopped the losers better than Nick Blase and his cohorts did in 1969.

What do the results mean? What can Niles look forward to as the result of last Tuesday's village election? And how does the overwhelming victory affect the present village board make-up? And a question which can no longer be buried is, Will top vote-getter Rich Harczak contest Nick Blase for the Mayor's post in 1973?

Answering the last question first, Harczak's second straight leading-his-ticket-to-victory begs the interesting political question concerning 1973's election for village president. Would Harczak take on Nick Blase and his well-organized political machine next time out and if he did how well would he do?

In reviewing both off-year elections which Harczak ran in, one undeniable fact exists. Harczak wins all over the village, in the south end as well as the north end. His carrying his running mates in both elections attests to his popularity. Everyone in Niles knows Rich Harczak. And well they should. He's a director in a local bank. He's been active in the largest church in the community, in the Lions club, Chamber of Commerce. The name Harczak has been written across more bowling shirts in the area than any other name. The baseball leagues, donations to all local groups needing funds, have all been supported by Harczak's company. And it's the company itself, Harczak's sausage shop, which has given Rich a one-on-one relationship with Nilesites. The most casual customers to his shop all know "Rich."

You put all these pluses together and it cannot be denied Rich is a very attractive political force in Niles.

Despite Rich's assets Buglescope sees a 2-headed coin in looking over Harczak. On the one hand he doesn't seem to have that political gnawing which many candidates possess when they reach the village hall. He's not a John Stanley (a former trustee who ran for Mayor) who served the community well and thought he had the Mayor's job in his hip pocket. On the other side of the coin there is little doubt Rich is one of the most ambitious people in Niles. He is one of the most involved men the community has ever known. In addition to his previous mentioned activities he headed a committee promoting the welfare of the newly-elected state treasurer. In addition to his Niles shop he has other shops in the surrounding areas. He also manufactures and distributes sausage to independent stores thruout the Chicago area. His financial energies have taken him into fields which would exhaust an entire corporate group, let alone one man. And these energies seem inexhaustible.

The man he would oppose, Nick Blase, quietly stood behind Harczak and his friends in this election. There's little doubt many of the Blasesmen in the community were working the precincts and getting out the vote for Harczak and friends. This effort alone might prevent Harczak from taking on Niles village president. But it would prove interesting. Harczak, perhaps the most popular name this town has ever known, competing against a Mayor who does it all, Blase, with the All America award still tied to his belt, continuously adds more people to his organization. A new appointment here, a concern for resident problems there, and Blase continues to add to an organization which knows how to get out the vote.

Harczak would have many, many politically inexperienced Nilesites rallying around his flag. Blase would have many, many politically experienced Nilesites rally to his cause. While the odds seem to be tipped in favor of Blase it is not impossible for amateurs to upend professionals. It happened once in Niles. It happened in 1961 and Blase was the recipient of the upset.

HOW ABOUT MARCHESCHI?

While Harczak seemed to do it all his running mate, Ang Marcheschi, also well-outdistanced all the remaining candidates. Since this is Marcheschi's third-go-round as trustee it must be asked if Ang might not seek the top rung again in 1973. From this vantage point it is doubtful he would ever buck Blase again. The wounds caused by his 1969 opposition have still not healed. Last Tuesday many Blasesmen said they refused to work for Marcheschi, because they believe Ang betrayed them by opposing Blase in 1969. But if Blase was ever to move on you can bet a bob or two Angelo Marcheschi will be throwing his hat in center ring.

Trying to place his feet in both ends of two sides he has made enemies. But he also has a legion of loyal friends who are always willing to go the route with Ang. If Mayor Blase should become Judge Blase, or State senator Blase, or who the Blases knows, you can look for Marcheschi to be reaching once more for the top spot.

WHO HE, JOE MILLER?

Independent candidate Joe Miller's amazing 1,300 plus vote total last week indicates he should be selected to serve the village in some appointed position. Ranking two organizations with the many workers, Miller's vote total was most significant. His vote was only 300 less than the top man, Todd Bavaro, on the losing party's ticket, which indicates Miller has a future in Niles.

Miller, an open foe of Nick Blase, was not re-appointed to the Niles Zoning Board by Blase, who originally placed him there. It had been said his refusal to work for Blase in the 1969 campaign was the reason for the village president's action.

A supporter of Miller, Tony Guarnaccio, former village sanitation, was alleged to have been dismissed for the same reason. Yet when Blase needed an expert to discuss the recent phosphate problem, Guarnaccio was asked to come back to the village hall to aid the village.

If the above is accurate it manifests a picayunish attitude on the part of a village official who does not normally show such pique.

Borrowing a favorite word of the village president, it would "behoove" Niles officials to appoint both these men to significant posts in the village. They are highly qualified and would enhance the village by their involvement.

STEVE CHAMERSKI

Watching the returns come in Tuesday night the most surprising vote total was rung up by park commissioner candidate Steve Chamerski. Half-way thru the count, Chamerski was running neck and neck with the eventual winner, Bill Keener.

Chamerski, who was in the center of the TAM issues for so many years, obviously made points with many Nilesites who favored the acquisition of the golf course. While one park commissioner was quoted in another newspaper as saying, "Thank God, the other guy didn't win," referring to Steve, it must be said independent candidate Chamerski rang up a sizeable vote.

As one guy who works around Clark and Addison might be prone to say: "He ran SOME kind of race."

NILES ISSUES

While there can only be the number of winners equal to the political positions open in an election the dialogue caused by campaigning can serve a worthwhile use if the winning candidates will heed what had been discussed in the pre-election days.

Bill Winter noted many times he was opposed to the pre-meetings which are held before regular village board meetings in the rear of the council chambers. While Niles Mayor Nick Blase has commented many times the meetings are open to the public, still the pre-meetings seldom have the public present and we believe are illegal.

Representative Tony Scariano has a state bill named after him which forbids any meetings other than public meetings be held by public officials. If a meeting other than a regular meeting is held then it is the obligation of the public body to notify IN WRITING as to the hearing. Since the pre-village board meetings are held without notification we believe they would be deemed illegal.

While the GEMCO controversy was being discussed at the village hall some 50 residents trudged thru the snow to ask public officials about the GEMCO plans. When village president Nick Blase first refused to discuss the issue at that meeting, he said answers could not be received then but a special meeting would be held for this purpose. He noted no responsible representatives from GEMCO were available to answer the charges.

Within 5 minutes after Blase made that statement, the architect from GEMCO walked out of the room behind the chamber room, after having met with village officials at a pre-meeting. The following week he was on stage center to answer questions from Washington st. residents.

While the matter might be considered moot, nevertheless the public's right to know was abused by such a tactic. It was the most bare-faced reason why such pre-meetings should be barred, and is a fair example why the public has the innate right to have EVERY action and meeting of the men representing them appear only in front of them.

Morton Grove

While Niles was having its every-other-year-shoot-out quiet staid Morton Grove was doing its thing... in somewhat sensational fashion.

It went sort of like this... the guys who were on the outside looking in, moved inside. And the guys on the inside looking out, moved outside. Well, not quite... the old timers who were booted out in '69 didn't exactly come back, but the old timers' friends came back. And the new timers, who moved in '69, didn't move out. But friends of the new timers just didn't move in. So, the new timers are now the old timers and the old timers' friends are now the new timers. Which portends an interesting 1973. The old timers will be the new timers and the new timers will be the old timers

Dear Mr. Schuett:

We started advertising with The Bugle Newspapers in October of 1970. In identical ads running in the Bugle and a competing newspaper, which covers 8 suburban areas surrounding our store, The Bugle outpulled the other paper by a 5 to 1 margin, in a coupon test. As seen in the pictures the Blue & Gold dinner for Pack 83 was a total success. The dinner was held at the Gemini Jr. High and a total of 385 people attended the event which contributed to the success. Heading the evening was the presentation of colors by our Webelos group which now has a total of 25 boys.

Beautiful center pieces were displayed for each den table which really added to the dinner. Each den made favors or gifts for their guests and were placed around the tables. Dinner came first on the program as everyone was starved as it was. Fried chicken was the main meal topped off with servings of candy and chocolate brownies. A special table was also set up for our religious friends with their favorite foods. A special thanks to our Blue and Gold committee and especially to Les Mack and Art Berglund for their time spent on KP all afternoon.

We of Pack 83 set aside this date as a Leader Recognition Dinner. We feel that the leaders of our top ranked pack should be honored in some way.

The monthly meeting was held on Friday, March 12, at 8 p.m. in the Jefferson activity room. The theme of the month was "Cowboys & Indians" and the scouts and leaders were asked to dress in appropriate costume. A parade of dens in costume took place. Den 6 presented the flag ceremony. It was announced that Pack 251 would have a booth at the Scout-O-Rama show on March 27 and 28. Webelo Den 2 led the audience in an Indian yell and Dens 3 and 5 presented skits following the theme of the month. The singing of cowboy and Indian songs took place accompanying the group on guitar was Mr. Betts. Mr. Marsall read a story of the West

Special recognition was given to the Den Leader Coaches, Diane and Carole, as these girls have now put in 4 years in scouting, as Den Mothers and Den Leader Coaches. Thanks girls. Another special award went to Cubmaster Shelly Kornick. He was presented with a large walnut plaque with bronze engraving for his service to the Scouting Program. Following his award from the committee another award was presented to him. This time he was presented a personal Pack Flag from Mr. and Mrs. Vince Giorgi (life members). The flag made of white silk with gold fringe and displaying his "Kornicks Raiders, Pack 83" title, was welcomed by the cubs who gave a grand howl.

Awards were given to Sherm Faber, IR of pack 83, Mark Greenberg for his help with pack prizes during the year and Mr. and Mrs. Vince Giorgi for their help this year with the pack. All the Cub Scouts that attended the Blue & Gold dinner were given gifts from the pack committee. A specially designed drinking mug inscribed "Pack 83, 1970-71, and Kornicks Raiders."

Scout Books to Library

Mrs. W. M. Koss, Chairman of Morton Grove Service Unit #65 of the Girl Scout Council of N.W. Cook County presented books and records to the Morton Grove Library on behalf of her Service Unit which held two successful Square Dances to raise money for books and other equipment to be used by the Girl Scouts and Leaders in Morton Grove. The books are as follows: Moreabouts (program aids for Brownies and Leaders), 6 booklets of Brownie Stories of the World, Cooking Out-Of-Doors, and Trefoll Around the World. Two records were also donated: The Brownie Story Record and Listen and Learn (a sing-along record of Girl Scout songs). These books can be found in the Childrens Library. The library also invited the Scouts to put up displays during Girl Scout week which we hope everyone will stop in and see. Shown above is the Library Display which was done with the efforts and talents of Henne Weiss, Arlene Zimmerman and Zola Kernes, working volunteers of Service Unit #65.

Cadettes, Dads Plan Conservation Weekend

Cadette Girl Scouts and their fathers from the Northwest Cook County Girl Scout Council are planning a conservation weekend, April 30 at the Girl Scouts' camp, Happy Hollow in Wisconsin.

Girl Scouts, traditionally conservation-minded, have invited their fathers to work on improving the quality of their camp. One phase of the weekend is seeing that the campsite measures up as a model of environmental excellence. Among the activities planned, girls and their fathers will trim bushes and remove debris from existing nature trails to keep them open and up to date, transplant trees, develop new trails demonstrating conservation practices, and a soil erosion project.

Girl Scout leadership in ecological education recently was saluted when the Girl Scouts of the U.S.A., received one of the 1970 Holiday Magazine Awards for a Beautiful America, "given in recognition of individuals and groups in the United States actively devoted to the cause of conservation of our environment, and as an incentive for further efforts by all Americans."

The event is being coordinated by Mrs. Dantel Pappas of Niles and Mrs. Ray Blakeman from Arlington Heights, serving as the council conservation specialist.

Included from the Niles area are: Albert Dominick and Sharon; Maurice Joseph and Laura Ann; Bernard Manovicz and Jeannette and Margaret; Daniel Pappas and Kim and Nick; Ralph Pignato and Susan; George Voss and Peggy; Robert Westcott and Catherine; Robert Zleilnsky and Annette; Karen Hvelson; Holly and Melody Miller.

Brownie Troop 238

After participating in the recent Girl-Scouts-In Action at Grennan Heights and entertaining one and all with an interesting square dance demonstration, the Brownies have continued to maintain a busy schedule. One meeting featured a doll fashion show with each Brownie presenting her favorite doll in several different outfits, a really special event in any little girl's life!

Another spring-y project involved dyeing egg shells, filling them with soil, and then planting flower seeds which are already beginning to sprout.

A field trip to McDonald's proved to be an interesting and delicious adventure, since each Brownie was treated to a free hamburger and coke by the manager.

The most recent meeting included a presentation of First Aid methods by the leader, Mrs. Joyce Penner, which should prove very valuable with the approach of vacation days and outdoor living.

In the future, the girls are looking forward to a visit to the Dunkin Donuts Shop, preparing for the Fly Up ceremony, and a year-end hayride plus cookout.

The first few months have been very exciting for our Brownies! The first craft of the year proved really delightful for the Brownies who painted them and the mothers who received them - miniature fruit plaques with a really professional look!

On Feb. 13, in conjunction with Brownie Troop 498, the Brownies and their mothers enjoyed a delicious smorgasbord luncheon at the Scandia House in the Mount Prospect Plaza. The girls had also been working on special surprises for their mothers and presented each with a bright red heart-shaped pin cushion. Our special thanks go out to the Troop leaders (Mrs. Natalie Ciccone, Joyce Penner, Lee Witke, Bea Varon, and Marilyn Vann) who made all the arrangements for our luncheon, in addition to the usual time they spend with our girls.

The Oak school FTA invited the various Brownie Troops to participate in the Flag Ceremony at the Feb. 22 meeting. Nancy Erickson, Cindy Zywicki, Lisa Ciccone, Mona Verdemann, and Nancy Schmidt were selected for the honor and we were very proud of the efficient job they did.

Brownie Troop #598

The five girls shown above were represented by Troop #598 from Oak school, in presenting the colors at the Oak P.T.A. meeting on Feb. 22, along with girls from each of the Brownie troops from Oak.

The Brownies from #598, and two other troops, had a very enjoyable afternoon on Saturday, Feb. 13, when they attended a Mother and Daughter Luncheon at the Scandia House in Mt. Prospect. Each table was beautifully decorated with big red flowers, and place cards and Valentine favors all done in red and white.

Following a brief business meeting and singing of songs by all Brownies present, we had a most delicious lunch. Each girl in the Troop presented her mother with a gift of a handmade heart pin-cushion they had made.

The Brownies 1. to r. are - Lisa Henreid, Michele Kazen, Carolyn Dalessandro, Maria Malinowski, Laurene Platt and Diane Reeve.

Troop 602

Long hours of work were rewarded with merit badges as Troop 602 honored its girls from Oak school with a Court of Awards. During the candle lighting ceremony the girls repeated the Girl Scout Laws. As their names were called, the parents were asked to come forward to present the badges. Scouts receiving badges were Carol Bobula, Judy Catullo, Cindy Curtin, Nancy Forty and Cathy Gaza. Also included were Donna Hertzner, Ronda Hyken, Peggy Jones, Lydia and Kathy Kosyk and Mary Jo Kurgan. Barbara Olson, Donna Renaldi, Debbie Richmond, Cheryl Matyska and Kathy Obermayer got badges. The list continues with Debbie Ochal, Grace Partipilo, Christine Potter, Eva Sleghart, Dana Walder, Lisa Wilstrom and

'Spring College Night'

District 207's "Spring College Night" for students from all four Maine high schools will be held at Maine Township High School West, 1755 S. Wolf rd., Des Plaines, on Thursday evening, May 13, beginning at 7:30 p.m. Sophomore, junior and senior students and their parents are urged to visit the school that night to take advantage of the opportunity to meet and speak with representatives from colleges and universities from all over the United States. Parochial school students and their parents are also invited to attend.

About 130 colleges and universities are expected to participate in "Spring College Night." Students will be able to talk with representatives to obtain specific information about the college of their choice; or they may talk with various representatives to obtain general information about colleges. It is especially important for all juniors to find out as much as possible about the colleges of their choice so that they will be ready to fill out an application for admission in the Fall of their senior year.

Junior colleges as well as the four-year institutions will be represented. Because all of the state schools will undoubtedly have a large number of students interested in obtaining information from their representatives, it will be necessary for Maine students to visit them according to a prearranged schedule, which will be noted on the printed program for the evening.

There will be four college information sessions of 30 minutes each, with 10 minutes between sessions to enable students and parents to find their way to the next meeting. Maps with schedules will be available at the entrance to the building. Students will be on hand to act as guides.

The first of the four 30-minute sessions will begin promptly at 7:30 p.m. The fourth will be a browsing session. Coffee will be served from 6:45 p.m. until the beginning of the first session, and again immediately following the last session.

The Board of Education, East Maine School District #63, is pleased to announce that Astronaut, Commander Eugene A. Cernan, will be the honored guest speaker at the formal dedication of the District's newest school, Apollo, on May 1. The dedication ceremonies will begin at 9:30 a.m. in the school gym.

The public is cordially invited to attend this memorable occasion. Apollo school is located at 10100 Dee rd., Des Plaines.

Maine 'Open Campus' Proposal Under Study

About 75 parents of Maine high school students attended the District 207 Board of Education meeting Monday evening, April 19, at Maine East High school, to voice their strong disapproval of a proposal by students for an "open campus" policy at the Maine schools. Students are requesting a change in school policy which will allow them to leave the school buildings and school grounds during their free periods and at lunchtime if they desire to do so. A proposal to this effect was presented to the Board by the Maine East Student Council at the regular meeting in March. Board members assured both parents and students attending the meeting Monday night that many aspects of the "open campus" idea will be investigated and considered, and the views of many groups taken into account, before any decision is made.

Following the recommendation of its Education Committee, the Board authorized the formation of an ad hoc fact-finding committee to study the proposal. The committee will be instructed to report to the Board at the May meeting regarding the investigative procedures it will use to obtain information on the proposal. The Board anticipates that the findings of this committee will be presented for Board consideration before the opening of the Maine high schools in the Fall.

The ad hoc committee will be composed of 24 persons: 8 adults, to be selected from parents of Maine students, local business people, parents of elementary students, and local law enforcement officers; 8 students; 2 from each high school; 4 classroom teachers, one from each Maine high school; and 4 administrators, to be selected not only from Maine high schools but also from local junior high schools.

Students contend that "open campus," with proper safeguards, would encourage student responsibility. The parents in attendance at the Board meeting Monday night were obviously of a different opinion.

Pre-School Registration at Maine High Schools

Anyone wishing to register his child for pre-school classes to be held at all four Maine Township High Schools this Fall may make application beginning May 3 at the high schools. The classes, conducted by junior students under the direction of a certified child development teacher, are part of the "on the job" training program for the schools' Child Care Occupations course.

About 10 to 12 youngsters of pre-school age will be enrolled in each class. To be eligible for acceptance, children must be between three and one-half and four and one-half years of age on Sept. 20, 1971.

The Fall semester pre-school classes will be held four days a week from 12:30 p.m. to 2:30 p.m., beginning the week of Sept. 20. Because the "on the job" training of the Child Care Occupations class will be dependent upon the presence of pre-school age children, regular attendance by the children will be expected. The official District 207 calendar will be observed for holidays. Parents must provide transportation to and from the schools.

Maine East is located at 2601 Dempster st., Park Ridge; Maine North is at 9511 Harrison st., Des Plaines, in the unincorporated area between Golf rd. and Central rd., just east of the Tri-State Tollway; Maine South is located at 1111 S. Dee rd., Park Ridge; Maine West is at 1755 S. Wolf rd., Des Plaines.

Applications will be available in the main office of all four high schools on May 3. Anyone wishing to enroll his child in these pre-school classes may come in person to the Maine high school in his area and obtain an application blank. These application blanks will not be sent through the mail. The deadline for them to be returned is May 12.

All those applying for enrollment will receive notification the first week in June concerning the possible enrollment of their children. To defray the cost of supplies and refreshments, a registration fee of $20.00 will be charged.

A registration day will be held in September to enable children and parents to visit the facilities and to meet with the coordinator and members of the Child Care Occupations class. Children selected for enrollment must have obtained a physical examination before registration.

The Child Care Occupations course was developed in response to strong student interest in exploring careers in the care and teaching of children and to a growing need for pre-school child care and for teachers' aides.

The pre-school classes at the high schools enable Child Care Occupations students to observe the growth and development of young children and to gain experience in supervising their activities. Seniors in the program receive "on the job" training as paid, part-time employees in private nursery schools, day care centers, pediatric wards, and hospital nurseries in the area. All students receive related classroom training in the care and teaching of children.

Maine East Summer School Registration

April 15 marked the opening day for Summer School registration at Maine Township High school East. Students began signing up for Biology and U.S. History classes in order to have time during the school year for other required classes. A number of students have signed up for Typing while others interested in learning how to sew have enrolled in the Clothing I course.

Summer School this year will start on Wednesday, June 16, with most classes scheduled to last six weeks, through July 28. The cost for a one-hour credit

Dist. 64 Free Summer School

A tuition-free Summer School will be held in School District 64 this year. The program, approved by the Board of Education, will be open to all children residing in Elementary School District 64.

The tuition-free Summer School has been made possible through state support, according to Norman Duncan, Summer School Director. The Summer School state aid is based on a percentage of the school year state aid.

Anyone interested in obtaining a registration form and a list of courses and fees should call 825-4484 and ask for the Summer School office.

MNLL Season Opens Saturday

Maine - Northfield. Little League's minor and major division players will open their season this weekend newly inspired from the league's clinic held for them last Saturday and Sunday at Maine East High school.

Conducted by Wes Rinker, St. Louis Cardinal Scout and director of the Illinois Valley Baseball School for boys, and Lou Rosin, another former major league player, the clinic brought instructions in fielding, batting, running and throwing to all MNLL players from all divisions. It also was disclosed that Rinker will return to conduct a three day baseball school June 14, 15 and 16 at the MNLL field.

Three of Saturday's opening day games will be played at Glen Grove field, which has been newly refurbished in a cooperative program between the league and the Glenview Park District. MNLL president Ed Karlins has been high in his praise of the cooperation received from the District, which he said, "did a magnificent job in putting the field into shape."

Saturday's other three minor games will be played in MNLL's major field, which will be re-named and dedicated at 2 p.m. Sunday to Merv Schakowsky, manager and equipment officer who died last year. All of the late Mr. Schakowsky's friends are invited to attend the brief ceremonies preceding the game.

Leaning Tower YMCA Volunteer Wins Award

A 66 year old, honor tender has devoted over 9000 hours of volunteer service teaching physical fitness to handicapped mentally retarded and cerebral palsied children. On April 21 he was named metropolitan Chicago's 1971 Volunteer of the Year.

Mr. Newman was chosen to receive the Volunteer of the Year award as the representative service worker from over 200,000 other volunteers in the Chicago area. The VOY award, celebrating its 25th anniversary this year is co-sponsored annually by the State Street Council in cooperation with the Volunteer Bureau, Welfare Council of Metropolitan Chicago.

Newman's outstanding service was saluted at an awards luncheon today in the Grand Ballroom of the Palmer House. In describing his total dedication, Mrs. James R. Bremner, Jr., chairman of the Volunteer Bureau's judging committee said: "Through an abundance of love and understanding, Ray Newman has proved that the handicapped child can perform as many feats as a normal child and sometimes better. He does not work miracles with all his 50 students but nearly every one makes recognizable progress. Doctors have sent many children with learning disabilities and coordination problems to Newman for help. He was the first person in Chicago to form fitness and gym classes for perceptually and brain-damaged children. He believes his greatest achievement was teaching four children with cerebral palsy under the age of 5 to walk without crutches.

Newman and Wendy Slevert, also an award winner, accepted their gold pins from Arthur K. Muenzl, chairman of the State Street Council and president of Wieboldt Stores, Inc.

Hunger Hikers Seek Sponsors

"Will you sponsor me for the 30-mile Walk on May 9?" That's the question being asked hundreds of times this week at Golf Junior High school in Morton Grove and other high schools.

Mindy Jankofsky of Niles, an eighth grader, has volunteered to be chairman of getting walkers from the school's student body to report to Niles North High's north parking lot by 8 a.m. on Mother's Day. That's the time for start of the

Dist. 67 Kindergarten Registration

The little ones who are becoming big boys and girls at a pace faster than you thought possible may be registered for Fall kindergarten classes in School District 67 on Thursday, April 29, or Friday, April 30.

Registration will be at Golf Elem. school, 9350 Oak Park in Morton Grove, or at Hynes school, 9000 Bellefont, in the same suburb. PTA or PTC mothers will enroll the students beginning their school careers, between 9 a.m. and 12 noon and 1 to 3 p.m. on both days.

Children must be 5 years old on or before Dec. 1, 1971, to be eligible for the September term.

Required for registration is a birth certificate or photocopy of it. For children born in this area, one may be obtained for a $2 fee at the Board of Health, Civic Center, Clark and Ran-don, Mrs. James R. Bremner, Jr., chairman of the Volunteer Bureau's judging committee said: "Through an abundance of love and understanding, Ray Newman has proved that the handicapped child can perform as many feats as a normal child and sometimes better. He does not work miracles with all his 50 students but nearly every one makes recognizable progress. Newman and Wendy Slevert, also an award winner, accepted their gold pins from Arthur K. Muenzl, chairman of the State Street Council and president of Wieboldt Stores, Inc.

Parent permission by signature is required; Miss Jankofsky has cards available as well as information pamphlets about the hike. Sponsors for each walker pledge an amount per mile to be sent to the local Freedom From Hunger Foundation agency. The walk will be held regardless of weather conditions.

Last year, hundreds of walkers participated and raised many dollars to support foundation agencies.

Project 70 Hunger Hike May 9

North Suburban Walk Coordinators Terry Cosgrove and Debbie Goranstein in front of Project 70 Walk Office, 5248 Washington in Skokie.

Distribution of "Walk Cards" for the May 9, Project 70 Hunger Hike-Walk for Development has begun. Sixty school representatives in high schools and colleges in Northern Chicago and in the Northern Suburbs have started to pass the cards out to their respective community.
The "Walk Card" is actually a sponsor sheet listing pledges made by relatives, friends, or businessmen in the community. The sponsor pledges a certain amount per mile. Then the walker goes as far as he or she can along a pre-set 30 mile route. This year the route begins at Niles North High school across from Old Orchard Shopping Center. Afterwards the walker collects the amount of money pledged per mile multiplied by the number of miles walked.
The important part of this year's Hike is the education of the community on the problems of Hunger and Underdevelopment. Included with each walk card is a summary sheet which describes where the funds go.
To obtain Walk Cards or to sponsor a walker call the Project 70 office at 677-0979 or 673-7650.

congratulated the newly elected officials.
Administrator Fred Huber read a letter of thanks from Oakton Community college for approving their request for lights on Oakton and Nagle. Mayor Bode said he and Huber attended the meeting of the Chicago Area Transportation Study. Last Wednesday and announced there would be a meeting of the North Suburban Transportation Council on Thursday. John Nordberg reminded those present that the new trustees would be sworn in at the next board meeting.
In regards to the present moratorium concerning the density study on apartments David Cohen moved to direct Atty. Nordberg to draw up an amendment to the present ordinance stating that not more than 30 units should be allowed per acre. Jim Quinn said that the newly elected trustees should have a chance to vote on this and Neil Cashman agreed. Clerk Fred McClory then read a letter from John Hilkin (who was absent) in which he expressed the belief that a density factor of 30 apts. per acre should be established. Cashman then agreed to reconsider and the motion by Cohen was carried.

of recreation, said neighboring districts had such camps and Niles would fall behind her neighbors if she didn't initiate the program. She explained it will be a "nature-oriented" camp and buses will pick-up the children at designated stops. The program will include bus transportation, milk and tea shirts for a $32.50 fee. Commissioners agreed 60 children must be available for the program before it can be instituted and it will take 65 children for the program to be self-sustaining.
Federal funds may be available for open space though it is expected the money will go primarily for the inner cities.
Greenwood Estates, the outside the Niles Park District, desires to join the district's citizens committee, since a Niles park borders their area at Betty Drive.
Financial support will be given to a child in Niles who will attend a facility for retarded children in Skokie. Last year 2 children received Niles park district support. Park president Jerry Sullivan commented after this action, "This is what makes this job worthwhile."
The architect announced the building of the interior of the Ballard Park building is in "very good shape."
Three 2 week sessions for a day camp for children from 7 to 12 years old was approved. Janice Sanford, sup.
