By David Besser Editor & Publisher. The phrase "conflict of interest" has always an interesting connotation in the public-private sector and deserves more attention than it receives.

Most recently the charge Niles park president Jerry Sullivan had dual interests concerned his park board public role, and his private role working for an electrical firm, which did business with the park board.

Very simply, if a guy wants to serve in the public office he should devote himself of any personal concern with any private sector which does business with the public body.

A couple of years ago Niles Mayor Blase served as a director on the board of a local bank. Because village funds are handled by the bank we thought he was placing himself in a role where his position as a director (serving the best interests of the bank and its stockholders) was definitely in conflict with his role as Mayor (serving the best interests of the people who elected him).

Since the rule should be applied equally Niles trustee Rich Harczak still is on the Board, which we definitely believe places him in an untenable position. It is a definite conflict of interests.

How far can this rule be extended? Again, Niles Mayor Blase campaigned when he first sought office against men with a financial interest locally serving on a public board. Yet, as is often the case, the guy who yells the loudest is often the most likely offender of his own hollering (thou protesteth too much).

Voter Registration

Village Clerk Frank C. Wagner, Jr. would like to remind all residents in the Village of Niles, who are not registered to vote, that they may do so only until Sept. 20, 1971.

The Administration Building is open from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday. On Saturday, Sept. 11, the Administration Office will again resume Saturday hours from 8:30 a.m. to 12 noon.

Consumer Fraud to Enforce Price Control Freeze

Commissioner Frank C. Wagner, Jr. and Assistant Commissioner Thomas Flynn have announced that the Niles Consumer Fraud office has volunteered to assist the federal government in enforcing the President's recent price control freeze.

The freeze that was placed by the President includes both wholesale and retail items. Some of the items affected by this freeze include apartment rents, medical services, new and used cars, and also applies to such commodities as non-perishable food products, for example, canned goods and condiments.

The federal government has set up an Office of Emergency Preparedness in the Dirksen Federal Building, 219 S. Dearborn in Chicago. They have put in a hotline for inquiries at phone number 591-5111.

The name of the game Tuesday night was $$$$$$, as Niles village officials unanimously approved the annexation of 4 parcels of land northwest of the village which is expected to add 5,500 residents to the village in the next 5 years or less.

According to attorney Louis Ancel, representing developer Morris Suson, the plans approved by Niles will be worth $67,342,150. Ancel projected Niles would receive $137,535 from these real estate taxes annually, more than $128,370 in sales tax money yearly for retail stores planned, $42,300 annually for auto licenses, $37,320 from Illinois state income tax money and $59,000 from the utility tax every year.

School districts 63 and 207 offered no objections to the planned developments as their representatives had $$$$ signs dancing in their eyes as they anticipated the projected revenue from the plans. Because none of the apartments will exceed 2 bedrooms Ancel projected only 137 children will come into the #63 elementary district and 82 teens into the #207 Maine High School District.

Juvenile Improvement Program. Approximately 100 officials of the Chicago and Suburban Police Departments recently attended a program showing the Thillens Juvenile Improvement program in action at Thillens Stadium, Devon and Kedzie Avenues.

M.G. Legion Family Picnic

Morton Grove Post #134 American Legion 1st Jr. Vice Cmr. Tony La Rosa has announced plans for the group's annual picnic. Members, their wives and families and Auxiliary members and their husbands and children will participate in the 1 to 6 p.m. event scheduled for the Legion grounds Sunday, Sept. 5.

The Legion's favorite clown, Nicky May, will once again be on hand to run the games and races; and youngsters and grownups alike will vie for prizes. Legionnaires and their families may also swim in the Harter Park pool, which adjoins to the Legion Home.

There will be a souvenir for each kiddie and door prizes for the adults. Hot dogs, ice cream and soft drinks with other light refreshers are all part of the food items to be served up by the Entertainment Committee for this end-of-the-summer social event which promotes congeniality and good times for all Legion members and their families.

Golf Mill Commends "Chain of Kindness"

"I shall never forget July 24 for many reasons," said Mrs. Edward Webb of 7434 Beckwith rd., Morton Grove. "We were shopping at Golf Mill when my husband collapsed with a heart attack. Perfect strangers rushed to my aid. One called a Niles ambulance. One ran for my daughter, Denise, who is working as a checker at the National Tea Co. at Golf Mill. Others offered comfort, trying to relieve my shock."

This frightening event was the original link in a chain of kindness which defuses today's cynics, refutes those who cry America has become dehumanized.

The story came to light through Theodore R. Stanko, a supervisor at Avon Products, Inc. Stanko wrote the Golf Mill Merchants Association praising nineteen year old Denise Webb for her thoughtfulness and sense of responsibility. "I returned to my auto only to find that someone had creased my fender. Much to my surprise I also found under the windshield wiper, a hastily written phone number. I was both amazed and gratified that someone would have respect for the rights of others. Upon contacting Miss Webb, however, the enormity of this act of decency became so overwhelming I felt it had to be made known." Stanko discovered the emergency and Miss Webb's anxiety. "Yet she took time to leave a note!" he wrote. Stanko lives at 8974 N. Western in Des Plaines.

Mrs. Webb reported that Stanko and his wife had called to inquire about Mr. Webb's condition and had left a wedding gift for Denise, a junior at Northeastern university, who is to be married next year.

"This unusual thoughtfulness and concern really lifted our spirits during those days when my husband was in intensive care at Lutheran General hospital," Mrs. Webb said.

Miss Webb modestly disclaims credit for her part in the incident. "Really, I didn't do anything that great. It's what anyone would do," she insists.

It would appear a fine friendship between the Stankos and the Webbs was born out of an unfortunate experience. Mr. Webb's condition has improved, and a good recovery is assured. And perhaps Stanko's taking time to acknowledge his benefactor will extend the chain of kindness by way of inspiration. The merchants of Golf Mill offer commendation to Miss Webb, to Theodore Stanko and to the kind, unidentified shoppers at Golf Mill who so aptly practiced the Golden Rule.

Letter to the Editor

Thank You

Dear Editor,
Once again a pleasant season has closed for Maine-Northfield Little League, a season that was made especially successful thanks to the assistance and cooperation of you and The Bugle.

It is a great thrill to our boys and their parents and friends to see their names in the newspaper and to check the results of other teams. Additionally, however, our entire MNLL enrollment depends on its community newspaper as its principal means of communicating news of league events, make up games, etc. Without your help, this task would be enormous and we're happy to tell you our membership has been high in its praise of your efforts.

On behalf of all the officers, managers, parents and boys of Maine-Northfield Little League, I thank you.

Sincerely,
Ed Karlins
President

East Maine School Dist. #63 Board Actions

The East Maine School District #63 Board at its regularly scheduled Board Meeting held on Aug. 17 took the following actions:

After careful examination of an analysis pertaining to student accident insurance coverage which was submitted by 12 insurance companies, the Board approved the District's placing the students accident insurance with United Insurance Company through Gore and Lewis Insurance Company. Board member William Allen responded by stating that the plan is most comprehensive in accident protection for children. He further stated that the coverage offerred is substantial with regards to the premium.

Approved the following bids: Gym Towel Service which will be a cost of $4.50 per student; Milk Bid - with a charge of 4¢ per carton (which is the same as last year); Art Supplies Bid for the District; Landscaping Bid.

Board member, John DiPrima, reported that the Scholastic Transit Company will furnish bus transportation for District #63 pupils. The cost to the parents who request bus service will remain the same as last year - $32.50 per semester. Parents are to make necessary arrangements directly with Scholastic Transit Company. He further stated that the bids for the following year's bus service should be submitted during the month of February.

Further action by the Board included approval for the grant of 10 foot wide easements to the Village of Niles for construction and maintenance of a water main for the following locations:

1. Across southern boundary of Geminal school property from Cumberland to Greenwood ave.
2. Across northern boundary of Mark Twain school property from the eastern boundary of Mark Twain school property to Hamlin ave.

The Board also approved the recommendations that the District renew the lease for one year and check into what would be required to upgrade relocatable or mobile classrooms to make them acceptable as permanent structures.

Auxiliary Juniors Anticipate New Year

The Junior Auxiliary of the Morton Grove American Legion Unit #134 is an active group of girls and now that summer is drawing to a conclusion, they will eagerly be looking forward to a busy Fall season.

Juniors are daughters, granddaughters and sisters of Legionnaires, under 18 years of age. One of their prime purposes is to assist their mothers and older sisters of the senior Auxiliary with the rehabilitation program of hospitalized veterans. These former servicemen are treated to gay tray favors constructed by the young ladies which brighten up their day no end; along with gifts periodically during the year for special occasions which are also fashioned by the girls.

Several items are "collected" and turned in through the state and district junior areas, which also are used for therapeutic value and other various reasons. Presently postage stamps saved by the Morton Grove Juniors have reached a count of 33,000 this year.

Donna Selzer is the current chairman of the group. She, Kris Karsten, Judy Hoffman and Connie Hoffman helped Mrs. Sepsy plan the event for the group.

Maine - Northfield Little League action ended with an exciting playoff game that was suspended because of darkness with Golf Mill Bank leading Semmerling Fence 8 to 2 and ended, after resumption, in a 9 to 8 extra inning victory and the senior league championship for Semmerling.

George Kaufman was the starting pitcher for the Fencers and pitched the innings played prior to the suspension. In the resumed game, he was relieved by Tom Kramber who shut out GMB for the rest of the game and was credited with the win.

The decisive blow of the game was a single by Doug Zorn that drove in Ernie Eisenberg for run number nine. Earlier, Mike Karlins, who had a double and

Oakton Begins Competition in Skyway Sports Conference

Oakton Community college will begin its first year of athletic competition in the Skyway Community College Conference in early September. It was announced recently by Dr. William A. Koshlitz, college president. Events have been scheduled in baseball, basketball, golf, and cross-country.

Oakton's new Director of Athletics, Dr. Robert Hale, has successfully organized the college's participation in athletic competition with the other community colleges in the conference as well as planned practice games with other colleges in the state. According to Dr. Koshlitz, "In just two short months Hale has done a fantastic job of getting our students involved in athletic competition with students in other institutions. Hale has planned well and we are launching our intercollegiate athletic program with enthusiasm."

Fall baseball practice, which will be coached by Hale, will be held from Aug. 30 to Sept. 11. The first week of the fall practice will be used for work on fundamentals, drill, batting practice, and the final week will be used to play scrimmages against other institutions in the area, including Northwestern Illinois State University in Chicago, and Lincoln college in Lincoln, Illinois.

Newly hired physical education instructor Tom Jorcht will coach basketball at Oakton. Basketball practice officially begins on Oct. 15, when the Oakton team meets the College of Lake County in a home game. A significant number of student athletes has expressed desire to compete in varsity basketball for the 1971-72 season.

The golf season will get underway on Sept. 25 when the Oakton golf team will play against Annandale college's team. A preliminary tryout under coach Joe Barowski will be held early in September to determine who will comprise the varsity team.

A group of runners has been meeting informally during the summer months to prepare for cross-country competition which begins on Oct. 1 with a meet against Annandale college at Ritz Park, in Chicago. An encouraging number of students have shown interest in this varsity sport.

Oakton Community college joined the Skyway Community College Conference in November, 1970. Other colleges which hold membership in the Conference are Harper, College of Lake County, McHenry County college, Triton Junior college, Annandale-Maryland college, and Elgin and Waukegan Community colleges. The Skyway conference takes its name from the location of member colleges which form a cluster around O'Hare International Airport. Oakton Community college is committed to a 1971-72 schedule which calls for participation in the four intercollegiate sports outlined above. Participation will also extend to tennis and wrestling.

Carnival for Dystrophy a Success

A street carnival was held on the 8800 block of Elmore st. to help fight Muscular Dystrophy on Thursday, Aug. 12. The participating children would like to thank the following for their kind and generous donations: Dunkin Donuts, Amy Joy Donut, Dee's Meat Market (Chl.), Algiers Rest, (Chl.), Golf Mill A/C & Htg. and all of the mothers that gave up their time to bake and to help supervise. The children would also like to thank all of the people that donated items that were used as prizes, to help make this carnival a big success.

Another big THANK YOU goes to Mr. Scheels of the Public Works Department of Niles, for letting us block off the street on the day of the carnival. Also to the street department for picking up all the rubbish the following morning.

The children for all their effort were happy to be able to send a check in the amount of $200 to the "Muscular Dystrophy Association of America."

Thanks again one and all for:

making this carnival a big success.

Susan Michals, Lori Michals, Kevin Forneck, Chuck Williams, Michael Williams, Robert Pasente, Ronald Schaffer, and all other children that helped.

ACWA Grants

A group of college-age adults from the area are the recipients of cash grants from the Chicago Joint Board of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America union to be used for the purpose of higher education.

The cash grants of $700 per year (or $2,800 over a four-year period) are being given to young people whose parent or parents have been members of the ACWA union for 13 years or more.

Daniel Accardo, 7651 Waukegan in Niles, will attend Marquette university, and Merle Hildebrand from 8836 Western ave., Des Plaines has chosen Northeastern Illinois college.

The Amalgamated grants are not attached to tuition costs — if a student has a scholarship, he is still eligible to receive the grant. Murray Finley, manager of the Chicago Joint Board of ACWA, noted that "The grants are particularly meaningful to our members considering rising tuition costs, inflation, short hours and unemployment."

Mr. Huebner replaces James F. Boesen who resigned to accept a position as Assistant Principal of Niles West Senior High School, Niles.

Before taking over as principal at Mark Twain, Mr. Huebner taught and served as youth director at Bethlehem Lutheran school in Denver, Colorado, for two years. His junior high experience is exemplified by seven years of teaching language arts and social studies at Glenview Junior High School, Glenview, where he became active in curriculum revision.

He was responsible for the educational experience of 600 students and directed all administrative operations of the school, and maintained a personal liaison with school officials, parents, and the community. He became active in directing and implementing teacher in-service courses in the areas of retrieval and classroom management.

Donald Huebner received a Bachelor of Science degree in Education from Concordia Teachers college in River Forest in 1953 and received a M.A. degree in Education in 1962. He has also done post graduate work in educational administration at Northwestern university and DePaul university in 1969 and is currently completing the requirements for another M.A. degree from DePaul. Mr. Huebner, his wife, Doris, two sons and a daughter reside in Glenview.

As Assistant Principal at Apollo school he shared responsibility for opening the new school. In the area of curriculum development, Mr. Jablon was instrumental in implementing effective team teaching and individualized instruction. He was responsible for student orientation, supervision, discipline and special service resource personnel, including a psychologist, social worker, speech therapist and

Dist. 67 Board Meeting

Review of a drug information program will be a subject of the District 67 (Golf) educational board meeting. It is slated for Sept. 9 at 8 p.m. at the junior high.

Potter and Associates have been contracted by the Board to present a sex information program in recent years. This year, boys and girls of both 6th and 7th grade are tentatively slated to consult with the two discussion leaders. The male advisor is expected to review his material, objectives, etc. with the School Board at this same important meeting.

Budget Cut at Dist. 207 Board Meeting

An economy-minded District 207 Board of Education indicated at its monthly meeting Monday evening, Aug. 16, that, because of the serious financial state of the high school district, it would take an exceptionally hard look at all administrative requests for additional and replacement equipment needed to operate the Maine Township high schools for the coming year. Harold Markworth, business manager for the district, told Board members that $300,000 had been allocated in the district's tentative Educational Fund budget for such purchases, a cut of 37% from the $478,000 in equipment originally requested by the school principals. Mr. Markworth added that his office would continue to make every attempt to further whittle down the amount budgeted for school equipment.

John L. Means, chairman of the Board's finance committee, announced that the 1971-72 tentative budget will go on public display Friday, Aug. 20, at the district's Administration Center, 1131 S. Dee rd., Park Ridge, and will be available for public viewing for a period of one month. A public hearing on the budget will be held at 7 p.m. on Sept. 20 at Maine East High school, just prior to the regular September meeting of the Board of Education.

After thoroughly reviewing the district's program for trainable handicapped children of high school age, the Board determined that several trainable handicapped children from Maine Township now enrolled at the Julia S. Molloy Center in Skokie are to be served by the Special Education facility at Maine East High school this Fall. In denying a request by their parents to allow the students to remain at the Molloy Center, Michael J. Bartos, Board member and chairman of the education committee, explained that, because District 207 provides adequate facilities and a state-approved program of education for its trainable handicapped children of high school age, it cannot approve the payment of tuition for students wishing to participate in a similar program in another district. Such a practice, Mr. Bartos pointed out, would be a needless dissipation of taxpayers' funds.

In regard to salary negotiations that have been continuing between the Board and the District 207 Teachers' Association, William F. Wuehrmann, Board president and chairman of its professional relations committee, announced: "We do not know at this time just what effect the President's message of Aug. 15 will have on these negotiations. However, our last meetings with the Teachers' Association's Salary Committee have been fruitful and we believe we have the basis for agreement. The Teachers' Association has not as yet had the opportunity to communicate this agreement to its constituency."

A motion made by Mr. Means and unanimously approved by the Board tabled further plans for an Educational Fund tax levy referendum on Oct. 9 until such time as many points in the President's message can be interpreted and clarified. The Board accepted with gratitude the donation by G. W.

Lindstrom, a Park Ridge builder, of a 6-foot wide sidewalk from the student parking lot at Maine East to the southeast corner of the Maine East campus. Mr. Lindstrom donated the sidewalk as a measure of safety and convenience for the young people traveling to and from Maine East from the areas south and southeast of the campus.

In a resolution the Board, on behalf of the students and taxpayers, expressed appreciation to Mr. Lindstrom for his generous contribution "to the safety and well being of the students of Maine Township High School East."

In other action at Monday night's meeting, the Board: Transferred the administrative responsibility for the Suburban Low Incidence Development of Exemplary Services Program (Title VI, E.S.E.A., Project 306) to the Board of Education of Community Consolidated School District #64, Park Ridge.

Authorized the lease of portions of Maine North High school to the International Tri-M honorary music organization for a student convention and music workshop in June, 1972. The administration was authorized to establish a minimal fee to cover all operational costs to the taxpayers for the use of the facility.

Accepted the resignations of four members of the professional staff; approved the appointment of 12 new teachers and four non-certified personnel.

Approved the construction of storage facilities at Maine North and Maine West.

Accepted the low bid of Kipley Construction Company for replacement of sidewalks located north of the auditorium at Maine South in the amount of $2,519; as well as the low bid of Skokie Asphalt Company for blacktopping areas west and north of the spectator gym at Maine South in the amount of $2,710.

District 207 Tables Referendum Plans

Until it is made clear what effect the President's message, freezing wages and prices, will have on Maine Township High School District 207, the Board of Education has tabled any further plans for an educational fund tax levy referendum on Oct. 9. At the regular monthly meeting of the Board Monday evening, Aug. 16, at Maine East High school, John L. Means, chairman of the finance committee, made the following statement:

"We have held back over a year in setting a date for a referendum, knowing it was needed but realizing that taxes were escalating at a rapid rate. We had hoped that a significant increase in revenue for District 207 would develop from sources other than the local tax base. However, this has not happened, and we had decided to ask for a 37% increase in the educational fund tax levy and to set Oct. 9 as the date for a referendum.

"However in view of the dramatic message concerning the state of the economy made by the President of the United States on Sunday evening, Aug. 15, I wish at this time to move that any further action concerning the proposed Oct. 9 referendum be tabled until the implications and interpretations of the President's message as they relate to the Maine Township High School district can be assessed." The motion won unanimous approval of the Board.

Mr. Means emphasized that the Board was tabling but not abandoning referendum plans, and pointed out that the necessity for a referendum still exists.

"District 207's need for additional revenue remains as acute as ever," he said. "The district is deeply in debt. Our deficit of $3,200,000 will continue to grow larger each month if the present tax structure is not adjusted to bring in enough funds to offset rising educational costs. In light of the President's message, however, we now must review and re-evaluate our situation. With 80% of our budget normally earmarked for teachers' salaries, a national wage freeze will, of course, have a significant effect on our financial picture. Hopefully, within the next week or ten days we will have legal interpretations that will help us determine what effect the new regulations will have on District 207."

The March of Dimes has initiated a nationwide volunteer program in prenatal care, emphasizing its value in minimizing risks and increasing the number of healthy babies.

WHAT'S THE DIFFERENCE

PLENTY! The quality in Lennox furnaces begins where it stops in others. Compare the quiet resiliently mounted blower; the vast difference in filter size; the efficient design of the heat exchanger. The difference in furnaces could be the difference between your being completely comfortable and simply "getting by." Lennox furnaces are designed to handle the extra load of air conditioning.

L.G. Staff Presents Papers on Alcoholism; Trains Foreign Student

Two staff members of the Rehabilitation Center at Lutheran General hospital, Park Ridge, will present papers at the 22nd annual convention of the North American Association of Alcoholism Programs in Hartford, Conn., Sept. 12-17.

Presenting papers are Orville McElfresh, chief social worker and James McInerney, chief counselor.

The NAAAP is an organization providing a media of exchange of scientific and administrative information concerning education, research, treatment, prevention, rehabilitation and program planning in alcoholism and related fields of interest.

McInerney's paper is entitled "Bridge Group - A Bridge Between Treatment and Community." It deals with the Rehabilitation Center's group meetings among patients, successful alumni in the community, patients' families and employers.

"Bridge group was invented at Lutheran General hospital and has been successful in reducing patients' fears of returning to society," said McInerney. "Bridge group increases involvement between patients and their families, allows employers to learn norms and behavior expectations of alcoholics and creates a therapeutic relationship between patients and former patients."

Ecumenical Theatre to Enact Broadway Musical

The 45th Ward Inter-Faith Council, an organization geared to promote ecumenical dialog among the churches, the aldermanic office and the police dept., has again revived the efforts of the Jefferson Gentry Acting Co. This makes the third year this non-profit musical-drama group is in existence.

Under the direction of Floyd Rueger, a graduate of Luther North High school, and St. Olaf college, the Jefferson Gentry Acting Co. is presenting the second full-scale Broadway musical, "Finian's Rainbow."

Approximately 50 young people from 14 churches in the greater Jefferson Park area have combined efforts in acting, singing, dancing, and doing stage crew work to give the community four nights of wholesome family entertainment at the end of the season.

Performance dates for "Finian's Rainbow" are Aug. 28 at 8 p.m., Aug. 29 at 7 p.m., and Sept. 4 at 8 p.m., and Sept. 5 at 7 p.m. Tickets, $2.00 for adults, children 12 and under, $1.25, may be purchased at the door. The hosting church is McElfresh will present a paper "The Need for the Education of Mental Health Professionals on the Nature of Alcoholism." It was co-authored with William J. Filstead, associate director of research and education at the Rehabilitation Center.

Cleopas Msuya, a pre-medical student from Tanzania, East Africa, is one of many students receiving part of their education at Lutheran General hospital, during this summer.

He is no stranger to the operating room where he's working at Lutheran General since he was a medical assistant at the 160-bed Bumbull Lutheran Medical Center in rural northeast Tanzania for five years.

"Three years of training are required to become a medical assistant," Msuya explained. "Very often a medical assistant is the only one available to provide medical care, especially in rural hospitals. So he must do everything, including surgery."

"I'm getting very good experience here," Msuya said. "Most of the procedures done here I've never seen before."

This fall he will return to Springfield, Ohio, where he'll be a junior at Wittenberg university. Following graduation Msuya will return to Tanzania and attend the University of Dar es Salaam Medical school.

7th Dist. Legion & Auxiliary Installation

The second joint installation of officers of the 7th Dist. American Legion and their Auxiliary will take place this Saturday Aug. 14 at 8 p.m. at the Morton Grove American Legion Post #134 Memorial Home, 6140 Dempster. Last year the first such joint event took place when Mrs. Ed Czaja of Glenview and Jack Nixon of Skokie, both former leaders of Skokie American Legion Post & Auxiliary Unit #320 were installed respectively as president and commander of the two groups. This year the two top officers of the 7th Dist. and its Auxiliary both share the same Legion Post affiliation with each other, that of Morton Grove. Further a coincidence is that the new commander and president to be installed for the district also served together for the Morton Grove Unit and Post, during the 1968 organization year.

A pre-installation dinner will take place at Val's Restaurant, 6121 Dempster, in Morton Grove also. The gourmet dinner will feature prime rib steak as the entree. Reservations may still be made with Phil Cancellari, 8909 Meade, Morton Grove, 965-3098, until the capacity of the dining room is reached.

Auxiliary officers to be installed include: Mrs. Nina Bartholmy, Morton Grove Unit #134 president. Installing officer is Mrs. Ella Willrett, past pres. of the Dept. of Ill. and of Rogers Park Unit #108. Install 3 sgt. at arms is Mrs. Josephine Lange, past 7th Dist. Director, of Morton Grove Unit and installing chaplain, Mrs. Pat Specht, also a past 7th Dist. Director, of Rogers Park Unit.

Also participating is soloist Mrs. Janet Hintz, of the Morton Grove Unit. She will be accompanied by Mrs. Waunita day they bring them home from the hospital to 99 years of life. It gives "do's" and "don't's" on how to use eyes, shows the proper way for mothers to play with their children so they can develop stronger eyes, contains simple eye exercise to help develop eyes, discusses some of the problems of contact lenses. The visual handicapped child can self improve himself, by the helpful hints contained in this book, regarding eye movements necessary for reading.

The book also explains to parents what to look for when a child has a visual stress problem, generally the child that strains to see results in eye stress. "Eye stress brings a constriction of the perceptual fields... the child observes less, sees less, remembers less, learns less, and becomes less efficient."

Sometime this winter, the book will be available for resale at a cost of $3.95 at Dr. Nowak's office, 8150 Milwaukee ave., Niles, or at your local bookstore.

Institute Seeks Xmas Seal Designs

"Think Christmas" is the advice from Harold W. Gully, chairman for the 13th annual Christmas Seal Design Contest, to area artists.

Calling on artists over 18 who live or work in Chicago or suburban Cook County to enter the local competition, Gully explains "Christmas is definitely different things to everyone. For some it may mean a child playing with a new toy or a merry Santa delivering his gifts. Or maybe children reaching for their presents under the tree."

"Your idea about Christmas and your ability to portray it in stamp size," he told artists, "may bring you the $500 top prize in design contest sponsored by the Tuberculosis Institute of Chicago and Cook County."

"Excellence of design is vital," he added, "But there should be a universal emotional appeal in line with the Christmas spirit."

Entries in the local design contest must be received by the Tuberculosis Institute, 1440 W. Washington Blvd., no later than noon Sept. 7.

They will be judged by a panel of top-flight designers and art directors who will select those to be exhibited Sept. 14-24 in the Prudential Plaza lobby.

Prizes will be awarded there on Sept. 14.

Top prize of $500 is donated by Charles O. Finley, a Chicago insurance executive and owner of the Oakland Athletics and Oakland Seals. Finley, who successfully recovered from tuberculosis early in his career, has given the prize each year since 1963.

A $100 second prize is donated by Edmund K. Eichen-green, an insurance broker. In addition, five honorable mention awards will be given.

Selected local entries will be sent to NTRDA headquarters in New York City to compete for the $1000 grand prize.

The winning national Seal design will spearhead the 1973 drive to raise funds for the fight against respiratory diseases, air pollution, cigarette smoking and tuberculosis.

Because of the time involved in setting up production, the winning design is chosen two years in advance.

Musically Talented Youth

The winners of the annual Skokie Valley Symphony's Women's Guild scholarship competition for musically talented youth held at Devonshire Center were announced by Mrs. Ben Weiner, Chicago, chairman of the affair. One of the two first prize winners of $100 each was Robin Feller, 17, 7836 Lotus, Morton Grove, Niles West high school, flute.

Other contestants included: Debbie Erlebacher, 7827 N. Lotus, Morton Grove and Robin Green, 9022 N. Linder, Morton Grove.

Judges for the competition were Leo Krakow, musical director and conductor of the Skokie Valley Symphony Orchestra, Edna Levin, concertmaster, and Josef Zverov, principal flutist of the Skokie Valley Symphony Orchestra. The benefactors of the $200 first prize monies were Dr. and Mrs. Paul Hurwitz of Skokie, founders and long time supporters of the Symphony Association and the Women's Guild; the additional $150 was made available through Women's Guild fund-raising activities.

On Homecoming Committee

While the Northern Illinois university campus concentrates on the final weeks of summer courses under an August sun, thoughts of football, parades, dances, decorations and crisp autumn weather are part of 22 students' planning efforts for Oct. 23 Homecoming events. Northern's 1971 Homecoming activities will center around the traditional Saturday, Oct. 23 football game between the host Huskies and Ball State university at 1:30 p.m. on the Astroturf of the west campus stadium. Theme of the annual NIU celebration will be "ColorFall Dreams."

Student Homecoming committee members include: Judy Tobias, 7929 W. Lyons, Morton Grove.

Baxter's Crusade of Mercy Drive

John Moss (center), and Russ Abraham (second from r.) have been named by Baxter Laboratories chairman William B. Graham (r.) as co-chairmen of the company's upcoming Crusade of Mercy drive. Last year's co-chairmen, Jack McAllister (l.) and Bernard Jennett (second from l.), led a drive in which Baxter employees in Deerfield and Morton Grove pledged $37,000.

United Crusade Chairman

Dr. Arthur C. Colver, principal of Niles Township High School East, Skokie is chairman of the schools division for the 20th annual united community campaign of the Skokie Valley United Crusade. Nearly 4,000 employees with parochial, private and public schools serving Golf, Lincolnwood, Morton Grove, Niles and Skokie will be invited to contribute in support of the Crusade and its 12 human care and service organizations. Dr. Colver is a director on the Crusade's board.

Receives Degree

About 1,000 students received degrees Aug. 14 during the 148th University of Colorado Commencement. Among the candidates for degrees were: Morton Grove — Karen L. Stavnes, 8942 N. Birch, doctor of philosophy.

Named Chief Physical Therapist

Loyola University Department of Physical Medicine has named Mortimer H. Lewis, Morton Grove, as its new chief physical therapist, according to Arthur A. Rodriguez, M.D., chairman of the department. Lewis, who is a registered physical therapist, comes to Loyola from the Cook County Department of Public Health where he worked as a physical therapy consultant.

Born in Newark, N.J., he received his B.S. in physical therapy from New York University in 1949, coming to Chicago the next year to work in his field with Dr. Rodriguez at the University of Illinois Research hospital. He later got his M.A. in Educational Administration at Roosevelt University (1966) in Chicago. He also worked as a consultant for the Skokie Valley Visiting Nurse Association.

The new physical therapist is understandably big on exercise and does 15 minutes of free standing exercise (sit-ups, jogging in place, etc.) every evening and loves to take long walks with his wife on an evening. "We're the only couple in our neighborhood that goes for a walk in the evening," he said. Since he keeps in good physical shape, he may have the last laugh.

Lewis is a past vice-president of the Eastern District (Illinois Chapter) of the American Physical Therapy Association, and is a physical therapy consultant for the Aetna Insurance Company, Peoria. At Loyola, he will supervise 11 employees handling about 45 to 50 patients a day. The department treats everything from multiple sclerosis to "bad backs" and patients range in age from a 3 month-old baby to a 96 year old senior citizen.

"After 22 years in physical therapy, I have seen everything in crippling disease and ways to treat them," said Lewis. "Yet

Mortimer H. Lewis

I came to Loyola to learn. I want to research methods of retraining a paralyzed patient rather than just use general exercise with him. I am particularly interested in proprioceptive facilitation (using normal body reflexes to retrain paralyzed muscles)."

"It's time to question why we have been using certain physical therapy approaches for the last 20 years," he added.

activities are interesting and purists citing a conflict of interests might be able to make a case.

Some years ago the present head of the circuit court here was only a magistrate. Thru Blase's efforts, which included a personal trip to Springfield, the magistrate received a special dispensation in the law which made him eligible to become a circuit court judge. His salary of $3,500 to $7,500 zoomed overnight into the upper $20's and today exceeds $30,000, all because Blase made the effort on his behalf. Blase and his law friends do a great deal of business in the courts, and naturally much of it is done in this same circuit court. No one implies justice isn't being served but can the term "conflict of interest" be applied here? Without meaning a pun we would have to say, "you be the judge."

If the 'conflict of interest' charges have validity with public men holding dual interests then what about men in the private sector?

An interesting twist to the story concerning the park district's money problems with the Bank of Niles concerns the way the story was broken. The one newspaper in the area which said it had received from "reliable sources" the Bank of Niles was questioning the park district's quest for money, is owned by the Lerners. And a director on the bank happens to be one of the Lerners. Was he the 'source' of this information? If he was then it certainly is a clear violation of a conflict of interest. And if he is not then he has placed himself in an untenable position by this revelation.

As a guy who has money in the bank I wouldn't care for a director to go blabbing about personal matters to any newspaper. And since his newspaper broke the story which came from an "unidentified source," it places him in an unfortunate position. Is his first interest to the bank or his newspaper?

More than likely (we hope) the 'source' came from outside the bank. But the newspaper man makes himself vulnerable when he lends himself to such a directorship.

Some years back I was asked to serve on a local financial institution in a similar capacity. I turned it down because I thought it was obvious I was being asked because of my job on the newspaper. While it may be stretching the idea of "conflict of interest," nevertheless, the rule should certainly apply to newspaper owners as well.

Bodkin Lauds Successful Morton Grove Days

Tom Bodkin, Morton Grove Days President, stated that this year's Famous Funnies Days has been one of the most successful carnivals in years. "I have been a part of the Days Committee over the last 6 years and this has been the greatest year, with the possible exception of last year which was Diamond Jubilee Year," said Bodkin. President Bodkin was especially complimentary toward his officers and directors who have handled a myriad of chores to make this year's 'Days' successful. "I cannot single out any one person but must say thanks to the entire group," explained Bodkin.

There were many highlights starting with the Thursday evening opening and closing with the Sunday night grand prize drawing. The opening night special was reduced rides all evening, 6 rides for $1 and the Famous Funnies at the Bar featuring beer for 10¢. Friday featured the beginning of the nightly attendance drawings, several sack fulls of groceries donated by Hi-Low Foods. Carnival winners were Al Baker, 9133 N. Luna; Robert Shopin, 5829 Cleveland; Steve Serra, 8603 Monitor, Niles; and the big prize, a bicycle was won by Wayne Peterson of 6831 Beckwith rd., Morton Grove.

Annie, Pluto and Donald Duck caused a stir of excitement and drama. Oliver Warbucks had flown in to the Chicago area especially to attend the Morton Grove Days festivities. He was courteous and dignified and in spite of his heavy schedule and his world-wide financial interest, he made a speech at the raffle booth, signed autographs and toured the grounds before leaving for O'Hare. Punjab, according to most observers, was more than six feet, six inches tall. What a bodyguard! (Did you see that sword?) Orphan Annie was thrilled to be united with her famous "Daddy" Warbucks because they have been separated so many times over the years.

One of the high spots in the carnival occurred Saturday afternoon when the Famous Funnies Kiddie Parade approached the reviewing stand where they received refreshments and the judges rendered fact has been established or accomplished, the zoning has been approved and Niles intended grabbing onto the revenue. Objector Joseph Simon, Park-west Homeowners, said his area had been stung in the past with this developer and was concerned with the traffic in the Golf Road area, as well as the "muggings and burglaries" in the area. Niles police chief said he knew of no muggings and burglaries are inevitable everywhere. Blase said Golf Road will be widened by at least 2 lanes.

Edward Ozinski, Ballard Garden Homeowners, said Niles is allowing 24% more multiple units than the County, 109 more units of hi rise building, and at reduced square feet figures. He said he would like to "win one" from Suson but everything is in 1 direction favoring him. He cried out for justice for all. Blase countered with "Revenue" (for Niles).

A Mr. Peterson gave an impassioned speech the trustees should represent the people and the people were looking to them. The audience applauded his eloquence and passions, and Blase thanked him, and everyone knew they were applauding the "losing pitcher".

District 63 was concerned about the Dee Road extension which will be a 32 foot roadway extending north from Golf Road to the 2 new schools at Central. Suson also donated 3 additional acres to the district as well as the road improvement, and the work will commence with completion before the '72-'73 school year.

their decision for the best costumes. Saturday evening Miss Morton Grove Days was chosen and crowned that evening in the presence of her court. Jane Meyers of Shermer ave. was chosen as the Queen and the runner-up was Judy Washburn, Mango ave., Morton Grove. Other members of the Queens Court were: Pam Goldberg, Linda Ann Johnson, Rosemary Ledvora and Pat Kallman.

The big event for Sunday afternoon was the traditional parade that stepped off at 1:30 p.m. on Dempster st. featuring clowns, floats, motorcycle drill teams, marching bands and 3 different groups of baton twirlers from Zion, Woodlawn, and Bensonville and convertibles with local and regional dignitaries. The floats were judged and the winners were picked by staff members of the local newspapers.

spaces are now being averaged per unit in the area. When the discrepancy was noted he said the 1.50 spaces was only a figure the planner (for the village) arbitrarily used in estimating parking spaces. It was also brought out additional parking will be in the commercial parking lots surrounding the area, which will bring this figure to the 1.25.

Ancel also requested urgency be taken to move quickly so the developer can take advantage of the present economic freeze and can begin construction before the winter weather sets in.

The plans approved for the area include 4 parcels of property to be developed by Morris Suson. They include:
1. Dempster-Greenwood area Ballard Terrace Apartments which include 5 six story apartment buildings and 1 three story apartment buildings with 450 units on 9.6 acres. A possible restaurant may also be included.
2. Western-Greenwood area; Kingston Apartments which include 1 twelve story building with 109 units on 2.6 acres which will be an addition to the present Kingston Apartments.

3. Golf Road, (south side) west of the Kingston apartments, 4 six story buildings with 328 units on 6.6 acres.
4. Golf Road (north side) from Key East to Dee Road; Greenlake Apartments and Shopping Center on 50 acres which include 17 buildings, 12 six story and 5 twelve story buildings which include 1,800 units on 29 acres. An additional 3 buildings on 21 acres will be used for a shopping center and other commercial use.
