Niles became un-integrated a few months back when its one black family moved to Des Plaines. The story has no great social significance. The employer of the head of the household, John Viera, is Commonwealth Edison, and it desired the Viera's move into an all-electric home in the neighboring suburb.

The electricity engendered by their moving into Niles far exceeds all the electricity powering their new home. When they moved onto Merrill Avenue a policeman was placed on 24 hour guard at the corner of Main and Merrill. Automobiles drove around and around the block with curiosity seekers viewing the Viera home. Residents held nightly meetings in Oakton Manor in quest of ways of removing them from the community. One village trustee wanted the home inspected to make sure it remained clean. Firemen going door to door to solicit tickets avoided their home. A pillar in the community, active in the top levels in education and scouting, aroused a race-hating mob at a village meeting by inquiring how these people moved into Niles without prior notice to the community. And during that period a religious leader of a small church spewed undue hatred in the community. Another church leader was squeezed out of his pulpit by his liberal stands on this issue. And the largest church in the community lived by the words it teaches by telling its parishioners to accept this family into the community. It was one of Niles Mayor Blase's finest hours when he stood against the tide by stating he intended upholding the laws in the community, in defending this family's right to live here. And there were many many Nilesites who personally welcomed the new family into the village.

The Lerner newspapers, which should be praised for its efforts in digging into the Niles Park District's workings, nevertheless, showed poor judgment in some of its reporting. A couple of weeks ago it reported a secret meeting was being held with park board and village board members present. The following sentence reported a guy by the name of Besser was present from another newspaper. Somehow, we would feel somewhat abashed if we reported a secret meeting was being held and then noted a reporter from another newspaper was present. It would seem somewhat contradictory, or it would show our ballclub was not too aggressive.

The newspaper also mentioned Besser was against consolidating the village and park districts. It seemed unbelievably sophomoric they would mention what opinions the reporter had since they were neither pertinent, accurate, nor germane to the meeting. In the following week's issue a columnist re-hashed the first week's article, once more alluding to Besser being against consolidation. When we called up the first reporter he admitted he received the information second-hand, and said it would be corrected.

They're noting we are against consolidation is not true since we have stated several times, including at the meeting, an independent study should be made

Tuesday night Niles Park Board requested the village police department provide the district with police protection without charging them the annual $13,200 fee it has charged the past 5 or 6 years. The Park Board terminated the contract effective Oct. 1, noting it would pay for police services for special uses.

Park Commissioner Jack Leske citing an article which noted Skokie does not charge its park district for police service, said, "If Skokie can do it, why can't we?" Leske did note neighboring Morton Grove Park District pays a token fee of $6,000 for similar services. Leske also reminded the Board Niles Park District did have its own police department several years ago but it "did not work out." He said the private force did not have the professionalism nor expertise to satisfactorily do the job. Commissioner Walter Beusse stated Niles citizens should stand "behind our plea" in supporting this action.

In other actions the Board formally accepted the resignations of park director Webbs Norman, superintendent of parks Jack Philbrick and superintendent of athletics Wally Fromhart. The latter two submitted short letters citing personal reasons for resigning. Norman contended the financial problems of the district resulted in his handing in his resignation.

Commissioner Leske reported Norman had quit 3 times, returning twice at the request of the board.

It was also announced the Board was most pleased with the many applications for the director's job and the Board would announce a new director in 10 days, and were most pleased with their nominees.

In still other actions Beusse reported the ice rink is 75% complete. The Board desires to close in the two far ends of the structure with wood or metal but the village says this violates the building code. Park architect Wisniewski will meet with Village officials Wednesday in hopes of receiving a recreation building classification for the structure.

.....In absentia Nancy Leddy was awarded a plaque for her "outstanding and dedicated services to the district." Her Mother accepted the award. ....Approved $18,527 payment to

Niles Elementary Bike Safety Program

Pupils in the Niles Elementary School - North will be instructed Friday, Sept. 24 on bicycle safety. It was announced this week by President George W. Dunne of the Cook County Board.

Instructions will be given by a team of specialists from the Cook County Traffic Safety Commission. The youngsters first will be given a lecture covering traffic laws, courtesies of the road, the particular rules applying to bicycling.

They then will be required to ride through a testing lane that has traffic signs and simulated traffic conditions. Those passing will be given cards certifying their proficiency and making them members of the Bicycle Safety Club. A pledge to ride safely is included on the card. Slogan of the bicycle program is "The child behind the handle bars will be the adult behind the wheel."

The program has been introduced in most public and parochial schools within the county, outside Chicago, and even at some schools within the city. It is supervised by John J. McCleverty, traffic safety director of the commission, headquarters of which are in Room 2842, Civic Center, Clark and Randolph sts., Chicago.

Children in all grades hear the lectures, but only those in third grade and beyond are tested. There presently are 322,902 card-holding members of the club who have passed their safety tests. About 85% of the pupils tested are able to pass. Of the remainder, some 13% are classified as "border line" cases and are restricted to riding in their home areas only. About 2% fall outright, often because their bicycles are lacking fenders, chain guards, and front and rear lights. Those falling who are restricted will have another chance to pass.

Since the full-fledged beginning of the program in 1955, the number of bicycle accidents in Cook County has been greatly reduced. McCleverty said, "That the program is such a success is due in large part to the enthusiastic cooperation given the commission by school officials and teachers, the children themselves, the Parent - Teacher associations, fraternal organizations, local safety clubs, village officials, and especially the police departments."

Students will have an opportunity at this time to register their bicycles with the Village of Niles Police Department.

Morton Grove Needs Manager Government

"Morton Grove needs to modernize its government," says three of its trustees, Martin Ashman, David Cohen and Richard Hobs are members of the Modern Government for Morton Grove Committee which supports passage of the Nov. 2 Manager Referendum in Morton Grove. They point out that President-Trustee government was adequate during the years following incorporation of the village in 1895. Then the trustees did not administer a $4,000,000 annual budget, appoint the members of eleven official Boards and Commissions, or supervise 112 village employees. Nor did the elected officials have to cope with the problems of apartment developments, traffic congestion, bus company subsidies, flooding, off-street parking problems, or jet plane noise. In earlier times, trustees worked within the village and were available during the day for consultation and administrative supervision of the relatively few village employees and services. Today, commuting trustees spend as much as 20 evenings and weekend hours per week on village business. Even with this expenditure of time and effort, trustees agree that they are bogged down with administrative details and have little time for orderly long-range planning and policy-making.

The absence of clear lines of authority and clear assignment of responsibility in administration of government is another defect of President - Trustee government. For example, the Superintendent of Public Works is supervised by three separate Standing Committees, Budgeting, Purchases and details of administration should be cleared with the trustees assigned to the Streets and Sewers committee, Water committee and the Sanitation committee.

Purchasing in the village is not centralized. Ten village officials make purchases from suppliers of their choice, without coordination with other departments.

During the process of budget preparation, department heads and the individual trustees responsible for the various Standing committees, transmit their budget requests to the Finance Committee chairman. He works with the Finance Director and the Administrator and finally with the Board of Trustees as a whole to prepare the Appropriations ordinance. This diffusion of responsibility is characteristic of President-Trustee government, contributing to the significant increase in appropriations during the past several years.

Other officials who must work without clear lines of authority are the Police Chief and Fire Chief. They are appointed by the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners and are therefore responsible to them. In addition, they must answer to the Board of Trustees as a whole, as well as being under informal day-to-day supervision of the Village Administrator and the trustee who chairs the Police and Fire Standing Committee.

In the realm of building regulation, five boards and commissions, five village officials, a citizen's committee and the Fire Prevention Bureau have responsibility for policy - making and ordinance enforcement. Although all these officials are appointed by the President and board of Trustees, there is no one person who supervises and coordinates their work and to whom they are responsible. Yet these are the authorities who develop the Zoning Code, approve variations from it, approve building permits, inspect construction, and enforce ordinances designed to maintain the physical environment of Morton Grove. Lack of coordination and professional supervision has contributed to such vexing municipal problems as high density apartment buildings, inadequate off-street parking, with consequent decline in shopping center revenues, overloaded sewers, and the deterioration in appearance of our main streets.

Clear lines of authority and clear assignment of responsibility are basic criteria for effective, economical government. The appointed professional manager is delegated administrative power to implement their policy. This modernized structure of government will not automatically eliminate municipal problems. It will, however, provide a more efficient framework within which municipal problems can be solved.

Chamber to Meet Oct. 11

The first general meeting of the recently revived Morton Grove Chamber of Commerce will be held at the American Legion Home, 6140 Dempster, on Monday evening, Oct. 11, when the organization of the board of directors will be completed.

John Wydra, acting president, has issued a written invitation to everyone in the business and professional field in the village to attend. He urges them to attend and to participate in this meeting, even though they may not be members at present, as the session will mark the beginning of plans for the expansion of the program of the organization. The objective of the expanded program will be to serve not only the best interests of those in the business field in Morton Grove, but those of all the residents of the village.

The Chamber was reactivated about six months ago and during that period has maintained a regular office at 8530 Waukegan (Classic Bowl, Room 15). It has become an effective information center, handling inquiries not only from this community but written requests for assistance from all parts of the country.

Through its manager, Joseph M. Cooke, it has cooperated with various local groups and has been very active in its work with the village government, particularly in its cooperation with the consumer fraud program now operating in the village; in promoting cooperation of the businessmen and the village trustees in working out a proposed ordinance for the regulation of business signs; in encouraging the village in its work with the new district public transportation plans; in a study of the industrial development of the village; in general problems now being worked out by the village's beautification committee; in the study of local traffic safety problems, and in many other areas which have to do with the improvement of Morton Grove.

This general Chamber of Commerce meeting will be held on Monday evening, Oct. 11, at 8 p.m., on the second floor (side entrance) of the Morton Grove American Legion Home. Any inquiries on this meeting can be made at the Chamber of Commerce office - 8530 Waukegan rd. - phone 965-0330.

Fantastic! A phenomenal success! The highest superlative could not adequately describe the 1971 "Carnival Against Dystrophy" program. Over $49,000 was raised during the summer of backyard carnivals, thanks in part to your paper's cooperation.

Running stories and pictures about backyard carnivals certainly interested other children into having their own "Carnival Against Dystrophy". In excess of 13,000 kits were mailed, and over 2500 children actually held a carnival.

Muscular Dystrophy is a disease of the voluntary muscles which strikes, weakens, and kills. Sadly, most of those afflicted are children. The money raised thru the carnival program, the Jerry Lewis Labor Day Telethon, and other campaigns during the year goes a long way in finding a cure for this killer. Our next campaign is the Jerry Lewis "March Against Dystrophy" to be held on November 7.

One day, when this disease is no longer a mystery, you will have the satisfaction of knowing your generous cooperation, and that of your paper helped find that cure.

Thank you again for all you have done. With all good wishes, Madeline Sable-Carnival Chairman

"In the Spotlight"

With the business communities' mounting interest in beautification, the M.G. Beautification Committee takes pleasure in renewing its "In the Spotlight" series. While the series deals primarily with business establishments, all beautification efforts throughout the village will be acknowledged. Information regarding improvements and additions of beauty may be sent to the Beautification Committee, c/o Village Hall, 6300 Lincoln Ave., Morton Grove. Black Forest Finer Foods and Restaurant, 8840 N. Waukegan rd., appears in this week's Spotlight. On acquiring the property, market proprietor Robert Tschurtz gradually transformed the drab and unattractive structure to one of color and charm. Today it brings a touch of the continent to Morton Grove with its picturesque German architecture. Additional touches of beauty, of special interest to the committee, are window boxes filled with colorful blooms, entryway yews and hanging planters of delicate ivy. Each does much to create an inviting exterior. Visiting the interior of the Black Forest the committee found an impressive array of prime meats, homemade sausages (250,000 lbs. per year) continental pastries and imported delicacies displayed in spotless showcases. Softly lighted dining rooms attracted them to the attached restaurant owned by Joseph and Hilda Klein where sumptuous German cuisine was being served by costumed frauleins. This quaint restaurant is open for luncheon and dinner. A varied menu is available.

The committee congratulates Robert Tschurtz and Joseph and Hilda Klein. They exemplify quality, cleanliness and beauty in the Morton Grove business community.

Maine Moms Membership Drive

Mrs. Helen Grippio, president of the Maine Township High School East Mothers' Club, urges all mothers of Maine East students to join the club and support the scholarship fund. Letters are being mailed inviting participation in the group.

Mothers' Club maintains the scholarship fund and holds an Award Day to honor Maine East's top students. Since 1955 over $56,000 has been raised to assist some 145 qualified students in furthering their education. This has been accomplished by collecting membership dues, sponsoring an annual Antique Show and Bake Sale as well as bridge groups.

The eighth Antique Show and Bake Sale, the club's main fund raising event, is scheduled for Nov. 5, 6, and 7, with Maine East students urged to participate in the annual poster contest.

The first meeting is scheduled Wednesday, Oct. 5, at 8 p.m. in the Maine East faculty lounge. The program includes a presentation by Miss Peggy Smith, a private teacher in voice and piano who has given lessons at Maine East for the last two years.

For mothers who are bridge players there are two card groups. The ladies' afternoon group meets the second Friday of each month, October through May, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Joan Tompkins, 966-6836. If interested in playing in a couples' evening group, meeting the third Friday evening of each month, October through May, contact Mrs. Pat Stetz, 823-4602.

WHEN YOU SAVE DOES MAKE A DIFFERENCE

FIRST QUARTER SECOND QUARTER THIRD QUARTER FOURTH QUARTER

Some people tell us that, in spite of good intentions, their savings plans always seem to fall by the wayside. While others with less income make steady progress toward their goals.

The difference, we suggest, is not so much where you save as when you save. Our most successful savers make regular "payments" every payday to themselves, just as they do to others. They know that small, regular savings add up to big savings surprisingly soon.

So to build what you've got into what you want, simply decide how much you can set aside every payday. Then do it—as regularly as clockwork. When and where to get started? Right away at First Federal Savings of Des Plaines.

7th Dist. Legion Receives Awards

Mrs. Edward Czaja of Glenview, retiring president of the 7th Dist., American Legion Auxiliary, is happy to report many awards given her group and individuals within the district, on a unit level, for various Auxiliary programs at the recent state American Legion Auxiliary convention.

The event was held at the Sherman House, and incoming dist. president, Mrs. Jack Bartholmy of Morton Grove, was introduced along with the other newly elected district presidents from the entire state. The 7th Dist. was introduced as a 100% plus membership district, a most commendable task.

The district also received the Bea Allen Trophy Plaque for the highest percentage of contributions based on the number of Units in the District, through the Auxiliary Loan, Education and Scholarship Program with Cornelia Sugars, Chairman, conducting the year's activities. A monetary award was made because all the Units had contributed to this fund.

Citations were awarded Dolores Jenkins of the Morton Grove Unit and Maybelle Sonne of Trowel Unit for their fine National Security reports. Mrs. Sonne, in addition, as 7th Dist. National Security Chairman, received a Treasury Dept.

Mrs. Czaja says something new was added this year; the Dept. of Ill. recognizing members who wrapped gifts at the Armory prior to the Christmas holidays. These items are presented to the hospitalized veterans; and Dist. Auxiliary members so honored were Tillie Klarner, Gert Sargent, Vi Witke, Mary Schalk, Mary Nicholson, Monica Lamerdin, Florence Miller, Linda Bystrom, Marie Moore, Barbara Anderson, Evelyn Ross, Alyce Campanella, Jeanette Hack, Josephine Lange and Mrs. Czaja.

All from the Morton Grove Unit were poppy workers honored for helping the veterans fashion 826,000 of the little red flowers. They are: P.P's Alyce Campanella and Josephine Lange; and Barbara Anderson and Ruth Tegert.

Niles West Adopts Code of Behavior

Niles West High school has adopted a code of behavior which indicates acceptable and unacceptable student behavior and specifies disciplinary measures which school authorities must follow in dealing with offenders. The code was developed by West administrators with the advice of students and parents.

The code outlaws truancy, tardiness to class, insubordination or rudeness to school personnel, the use of vulgar, obscene, or coarse language, and the demonstration of affection. A student also may not engage in falsely sounding a fire alarm, theft and property damage, fighting, forgery, cheating, plagiarism, smoking or arson. Also considered illegal are the possession or the use of explosives, firearms, and weapons, the possession or the use of illegal drugs and alcoholic beverages, littering the school building or grounds, leaving campus without off-campus permission, loitering or misbehaving off-campus, intimidating others, gambling and generally misconducting oneself.

Penalties for violations of the code vary with the nature and number of occurrences of the offense. Penalties include: (a) restricted study, (b) suspension, (c) referral to the Director of Student Services, (d) police referral, and (e) expulsion. Students who feel that penalties have been applied to them unfairly may appeal a decision made under the Code to the immediate supervisor of the person who made the decision. If a student still feels he has been dealt with unfairly, he may ask for an impartial review of his case by a committee consisting of students, parents and teachers.

During any review procedure, a student has the right of counsel and of bringing witnesses to speak on his behalf. He also has the right of facing the person who initiated the allegation.

This grievance procedure does not restrict an appeal to higher authorities, including the Principal, the Superintendent, and the Niles Township High School Board. Students and parents may also appeal any decision of a school authority to the courts.

Maine East Speech, Debate Winners

Although facing stiff competition at summer institute programs, Maine East speech and debate students challenged all and came out on top.

Seniors Dave Novak and Cathy Karp, both from Morton Grove, attended the five week Northwestern University National High School Institute in Speech, Dave received the Robinson Award for his work in the program's extensive training in drama, it is the highest award presented during the summer course.

Seven Maine East debaters attended the two week summer debate institute at Baylor University in Waco, Texas. A national tournament concluded the session, and Neil Blumenfeld of Morton Grove won the varsity competition, Lynne Hofmeister of Park Ridge won second place, and a third place win in varsity competition at the tournament was shared by Bob Feldhake of Des Plaines and Harvey Morris of Morton Grove.

Maine East won a first in the novice division through the efforts of Keith Gershon of Morton Grove. Keith has worked with other Maine East debaters but never on a team or during the debate season.

Neil, Bob, and Harvey tied in gaining points for the highest speaker award at the Baylor program.

Out of the 74 students from across the country that attended, Neil Blumenfeld won the tournament as varsity champ, Maurine Arendt from Morton Grove placed third, and Bob Feldhake was top speaker, amassing the most points.

Veteran's Day Dance

Under the new "holiday system," Veteran's Day will be celebrated this year on Monday, Oct. 25. The Morton Grove American Legion will once again hold a parade to commemorate the event.

In conjunction with the observance of this holiday, traditionally a "veteran's Day Dance" has always been held at the Morton Grove Post #134 Memorial Home. Also customarily under the direction of the Post 1st Jr. Vice Cmdr., the event being chaired by Tony La Rosa is scheduled for Saturday, Oct. 23.

A package price donation of $12 per couple is being made with music being furnished by Dick Theiml and "The Continentals" and an evening including a buffet and other refreshments.

La Rosa indicates proceeds from the event as has been donated in the past, will once again be turned over to the Auxiliary Unit for their rehabilitation program; a fitting conclusion to an event held saluting this patriotic holiday.

Crusade of Mercy Campaign

Setting the stage for a meeting with his teammates, Gerald R. Bieffeldt (center) hangs a Metropolitan Crusade of Mercy flag at the A. B. Dick Company from where volunteers with the campaign industrial division of the Skokie Valley United Crusade started campaigning recently. Chairman of the division, Bieffeldt, of A. B. Dick Company, is backed by Robert C. Wordel Jr. (L), Teletype Corporation, general chairman of the Skokie Valley Campaign, which is being conducted in partnership with the Crusade of Mercy, and Stewart D. Cain, the United Crusade's executive director.

College Visitations at Maine East

Although school just began a few weeks ago, Maine East seniors are already thinking ahead to next September and which college or university they should plan on attending.

To assist them in making such a decision, approximately 150 colleges and universities from across the country will conduct question and answer sessions throughout the coming months at Maine East.

Such sessions will be announced in the daily bulletin, but if a senior is interested in a particular institution, he should consult with Keith Honn, career counselor, in the guidance center.

No limit is placed on the number of students attending the sessions, which generally average about one hour. School representatives, if requested by a student at the session, generally will make arrangements to visit with parents at home in the evening to answer further questions.

Carroll college in Waukesha,

Wisconsin, is the first scheduled college visit for the 1971-'72 school year. A member of the admissions office will be at Maine East on Sept. 23.

On Oct. 7 during periods 2-A and 3, representatives from the University of Illinois-Urbana will meet with interested seniors in the auditorium. This session has been scheduled since the University will not be represented at College Night on Oct. 14 at Maine West, which will host nearly 200 colleges and universities from across the country.

Mr. Honn suggests that students attending the sessions should question representatives about the composition of the student body, school regulations and policies, and required courses for admittance and graduation. In addition, they should inquire into the comprehensive cost of attending the college or university as well as asking about the availability of financial assistance.

Niles Adult Evening School will accept registrations from high school students for the Fall Term. "This is an effort to provide more community service and to enlarge the concept of the community school," says Mrs. Gladys Shute, Director of the Niles program. "Several courses of interest to this age group are being offered, and we have even designed some new courses with the high school student specifically in mind."

Self and the Culture Struggle will be an effort to explore and to dialogue the struggle for self-identity and cultural identity for all ages in America today. High school students are definitely needed along with adults for this course to be possible. Rev. David Fairchild of Evanshire Presbyterian church will act as moderator and suggests several paperback books to help stimulate thought and discussion. Students may attend the 8-week course for just $2 while adults pay the regular tuition fee of $12.80.

Northwest Symphony Begins 20th Season

The twentieth season of the Northwest Symphony Orchestra began on Wednesday night, Sept. 15. In the absence of Perry Crafton of Park Ridge, who is with the Chicago Symphony Orchestra touring Europe, Thomas Trimborn, Instrumental Music Director of Palatine High school, and member of the Northwest Symphony Orchestra Board, conducted the Rehearsal. Mr. Crafton, the orchestra's regular conductor, will return to the podium at the Oct. 13 rehearsal.

Forty five members representing almost every community in the Northwest Suburbs were in attendance, personnel manager Tom Gaines reported. Although this was considered a good turnout for a first rehearsal, Mr. Gaines expressed a need for additional Violins, Violas, Cellos and Bass Viols.

The symphony's first concert will be held on Dec. 12 at the Maine Township East High school.

Bulls Announce VIF Ticket Plan

General Manager Pat Williams of the Chicago Bulls, who brought exciting Basketball to the Chicago Scene, has announced a "VIF" (Very Important Fan) ticket sales plan, for those who wish to attend 21 or more basketball games at the home court, Chicago Stadium.

Any Fan who chooses 21 games or more will be assured the same seats for every game, and will be assured the same choice seats for the Championship Play-offs.

Seat Prices range from $1 and $2 second balcony, $4 1st balcony, $3 end court seats, $5 mezzanine and $6 for Loge Seats and Boxes.

Under this plan, the Fan who purchases 21 seats in the second balcony, will invest only $21 and be assured of tickets for the specific seats that he specifies. This is another important factor. The Fan is supplied with an application that gives the entire list of the 41 home games. The Very Important Fan indicates the number of tickets he wants and the games he wants to see, includes his remittance to cover the cost of the tickets and these seats will be assigned to him, during the 1971-72 season.

This assures the advance ticket purchaser the same seat for the regular game and assures him of seats for the play-offs.

Ticket information can be obtained by calling the Bulls Office at 644-4350, or by writing directly to Chicago Bulls, the Sheraton-Chicago, 505 N. Michigan ave., Chicago 60611.

M.E. Football Jamboree

Action at Maine East's annual Blue and White Football Jamboree. Herb Richter (70) and Doug Tucker (86) attempt to tackle fullback Mike Kan (34) on his way for a Demon score.

At the Sept. 10 Maine East football jamboree the White team, led by Guy Buck, crushed the Blue team, 28-0. Buck's two touchdown romps of 80 yards on an interception and 42 yards on a pass from quarterback Greg Maloney led the scoring for the white-clad Demons in this annual intrasquad scrimmage. Coach Al Eck also praised the line play of varsity linemen Ed Kleckner, Ed Knapik and Marty Novak.

Bears Ticket Raffle

Once again the Morton Grove American Legion Post #134 is offering members and residents of the community the opportunity to participate in a worthy cause and have an opportunity to be a winner of Chicago Bears football tickets.

Post Commander William Cunnally says 2 season tickets to 6 games will be awarded some lucky ticket holder at the post's regular fish fry on Friday, Oct. 8. Winner need not be present. The home games at Soldier's Field covered by the season pass include the Oct. 10 and 31 ones, Nov. 7, 14 and 21 and the Dec. 19 one. Choice east stand is the location. Tickets are available for a donation of $1 each.

Chairman of the Post's Nurses Scholarship Committee is past commander Herbert Houndt, 9101 Meade. He may be reached at 965-3891 for additional information. Tickets are also available at the post's weekly fish fries and from post officers and Cunnally, 7533 Wilson terr., 965-1114.

The American Legion regularly sponsors young ladies for their nurses training with the funds derived from this program. Several girls have already completed their schooling and others are still in their training with assistance financially from the local Legion.

N.D. Opens Doors

Notre Dame High School, Niles, opened its 1971-72 academic year with an enrollment of 1201 students. Special orientation programs preceded the official opening day, to familiarize new and returning students with the school's new seven period schedule. The new class day, designed to provide more opportunities for students to participate in individual and group counseling, will also provide increased opportunities for Notre Dame students to participate in the school's organized intramural sports programs and other extracurricular activities.

Seniors remain the largest class at the Niles school, with 329 members. Next largest class is the freshman class, numbering 293 boys. There are 292 sophomores and 287 juniors.

A Mass was celebrated on September 15 to mark the beginning of a new year at the school. The Rev. George Wiskirchen, C.S.C., has been appointed to the office of Chaplain at the school. Under his direction the newly established office will help to fulfill Notre Dame's goal of aiding its students in all areas of growth, personal as well as educational.

As part of his responsibility in the office of Chaplain, Fr. Wiskirchen will develop in-school and Sunday liturgies, geared primarily toward student involvement. The office of Chaplain will provide religious counseling for all students who desire it.

In addition to his new duties as Chaplain, Fr. Wiskirchen will continue to direct the Melodons, Notre Dame's highly acclaimed jazz band.

Also representing Maine East will be the pom pon squad, under the direction of Pat Lyons, field conductor Donna Wilson of Niles, and a number of Maine East Music Boosters.

Beware of Trojans bearing gifts is the watchword for Maine East students as Homecoming plans begin to take shape.

The weeks of hectic activity will reach a climax on Saturday, Oct. 2 "Defeating a Myth" the theme for this year's Homecoming is based on Greek mythology and the colorful floats parade and dance are all to follow the line of myths associated with the Trojan War, including the gods, goddesses and heroes.

Meetings have already begun concerning Homecoming activities, particularly getting ideas together for floats. The limit for the cost of a float is $100, but it is suggested that most clubs spend less than this. The cost of the rental of the flat is not included in the $100 limit.

The pace quickened Wednesday, Sept. 22 as students nominated senior girls for Homecoming queen. This was done during homerooms.

Thursday, Sept. 23 during homeroom and first period an all-school pep assembly will be held in the fieldhouse. At this time the candidates will be presented. Voting to determine the queen and her court will be held that day during the lunch periods in the fieldhouse hall. Students must present their I.D. card to vote and must select at the most five girls. Of the five, the girl they want to become queen should receive two X's before her name.

Students will also be able to vote Sept. 24 before school and during the lunch periods.

Floating begins Saturday, Sept. 25 from 9 a.m. to 12 noon in the fieldhouse. Work will continue Sept. 27-30 from 3:45-7 p.m. Friday, Oct. 1, float building runs from 4-9 p.m. with Student Council serving free food at 6 p.m. for those working. Students must present their I.D.'s. An invitation has been extended to all faculty to attend and assist in the evening's activities.

Floating begins at 9 p.m. that night. Evaluations will be made according to the three float divisions. Class Divisions; Giant Division, for larger clubs and organizations, and Midget Division for smaller groups.

For a second year, a firelight pep rally called "Vulcan's Victory Blaze," will be held after float building ends at 9 p.m.

Cheerleaders, pom pon girls, bands, coaches, football players, the Homecoming Court, firemen, and all Blue Demon enthusiasts will assemble behind the football field for the 9:15 p.m. burning of Maine's initials - M.E. Spirit will run high as fans sing pep songs, yell cheers, and whistle at the pretty girls.

Oct. 2, the day of Homecoming, begins at 9 a.m. as the parade gets underway. The route has been changed this year and it runs as follows: begin at school, north on Dee Road to Ballard, east on Ballard to Milwaukee Avenue, south on Milwaukee to Oakton, west on Oakton to Northwest Highway, Northwest Highway to Potter Road, north on Potter back to the school.

Afternoon events begin with the frosh-soph football game at 12 noon and the varsity face the Downers North Trojans around 2 p.m. in the all-important game.

During the game's intermission the winning floats in each of the three divisions will be announced as all of the floats parade around the field. The Homecoming queen will also be crowned between games by last year's queen, Maureen McConnell from Park Ridge.

Homecoming festivities will end with the dance that evening from 8-11 p.m. Tickets for the semi-formal dance, to be held in the cafeteria are $2.50 per couple.

Also continuing from last year will be the sale of Homecoming buttons for 25¢. Homecoming chairman Sandi Sellergren from Park Ridge says, "Council representatives will be selling the buttons, designed by Greg Wray, a 1969 Maine East graduate. No one should be without a little Maine East spirit."

Mike finished in 35th place, Maine East's fifth man in the state meet last year.

"Individually, our team is made up of two groups, kickers and pacers. The kickers usually reach their running peak later in the season, for they run a steady pace and kick at the end. They have to develop a tougher pace as the year goes on. But the pacers usually keep the same pace throughout the year. This helps balance the team's effort."

I asked Mike who Maine East's groups were comprised of. "Our kickers are Rick Phalen, Jim Molezzi, Pat Moyer, and myself, John Lovasz, Chris Bednarowicz, and Gary Marshak are basically the pacers."

All in all, "Mike concluded, "we'll probably have a terrific season, barring any more injuries (referring to the sore heel of Lovasz, the bad ankle of Bednarowicz, and Moyer's aching knee). We hope we can repeat last year's performance."

Maine East Band Visits Northwestern

Members of the Maine East concert and cadet bands have accepted Northwestern university's invitation to the sixteenth annual High School Band Day, at Dyche Stadium on Saturday, Sept. 25.

This year's performance will include over 8,000 high school musicians from almost 100 area high schools. They'll perform on the gridiron during half-time of the Northwestern Wildcat vs. Syracuse university football game.

Northwestern's band director, John Paynter, and his assistant, James Huddeth, will direct the entire company. Ted Vargas, music department chairman, and Robert Diehl, assistant band director, will assist in directing our band members during the performance.

Oakton College Utilizes Campus to Capacity

Oakton Community college which serves the residents of Niles and Maine Townships began its second year of operation on Aug. 30, with nearly three times as many faculty and students as it had during its starting year. When late registration closed on Sept. 3, a total of 2,253 students had registered. There are 130 persons on the teaching faculty. Of these, 82 are full-time teachers and 48 are part-time.

Space utilization at the interim campus, which is housed in the industrial complex at Oakton at Nagle, Morton Grove, is virtually complete. The four buildings in the complex are used to capacity from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. five days a week and from 9 a.m. to 12 noon on Saturdays. During Phase II modifications improvements were made in classrooms, laboratories, and special teaching areas in order to accommodate that influx of students and faculty.

Demonstrations will be followed by workshop sessions. The class will be held 7:30 to 9:30, for four Tuesday evenings beginning Sept. 28. It will meet at Maine Township High School East, Dempster and Potter, Park Ridge. "Picture Framing - Past" will be devoted to antique frames, with demonstration and workshop sessions on repairing and restoring, gold leaf application, and toning. This class will follow "Picture Framing - Present," beginning Oct. 26, for four weeks. The Maine Adult Evening School, 696-3600, may be called for information on tuition and registration.

Police Training

to 1/4 the normal size. The work is done very fast and it took one full day and part of the next day to fill it up. If we turn to this machine we can eliminate one crew in public works. It could mean a savings for the village and I think this machine would pay for itself."
A group of citizens from the Churchill area represented by Dr. Irwin Ginsburgh and Angelos Poulakadis told the board that since the new Animal Ordinance came into effect that they had no place to walk their dogs. "Our dogs are all leashed and are taken deep into the woods, and now our children are afraid to walk them since they may get a warning ticket or a regular ticket from the police," said Poulakadis. "We are here to ask the board what can be done," he continued. Dr. Ginsburgh said, "Our only question is, if we go deep enough into the woods, is it alright?" Dr. Ginsburgh said he had spoken with Forest Preserve officials who say walking dogs there except where signs are posted is permissible with them. Atty. Nordberg said he felt this was alright as long as there was no offense to anyone. Trustee Martin Ashman said he felt that going deep into the woods should be permitted if the dogs are leashed and John Hilkin noted this ordinance was passed to educate the public and to help teach them to train and contain their animals, whether they be dogs or cats. The final agreement was that animals would be allowed in the forest preserves where no signs are posted if leashed and not offensive to anyone. The police will be instructed towards this agreement and will encourage dog walkers to take their pets far into the forest preserves.

Atty. John Nordberg said Judge Egan ruled against the village in the Special Use sought at Lincoln and Austin by the Clark Oil Co. and he suggested we retain Special Council Richard Haupt to take this matter to the Court of Appeals. The board concurred. Mayor Bode said he and other officials attended the official opening of the Harms and Church Improvement project last Saturday. Since they were requested to attend a Board of Health meeting, the property owners of the Convent Food Store on Dempster across from Notre Dame High school have taken steps to clean up their premises.

Martin Ashman said that Victor Walchrik of the Cook County Housing Authority can attend our meeting on Wednesday, Oct. 5 and at 7 p.m. on that day, all are invited to hear a discussion on housing for the elderly in Morton Grove

Dist. 70 Fun Fair Saturday

Excitement, thrills and all around fun are on the agenda for FUN FAIR - "71" Morton Grove School District 70 will hold this annual fund raising event on the Grove School grounds, 8615 School Street, Saturday, September 25. The action will begin at 9:30 a.m. and continue until 2:30 p.m.

Along the midway you'll encounter something of interest for every member of the family. Mom may want to make her first stop at the ever popular "Bake Sale Booth," which will be in service by 9 a.m. Here she'll be tempted by a varied array of delicacies that will all be homemade, breads, pies and cookies for any occasion. This year, for the second time, will be featured a wide variety of sweets with an international flair, such as Plumb Cake-Germany, Baklava-Greece and Kolache-Poland. So whether your selection includes Kolache or American Apple Pie, the entire family is bound to be delighted with Mother's choice.

Continuing down the midway, you'll find such delightful games as "The Lollipop Tree," "Ring Toss," and the "Dart Booth" for the younger set. Teenagers will want to spend some time at the "Hat Bar," "Goldfish Booth" and the ever popular "Stuffed Animal Booth." As for adults, the "White Elephant Booth" will undoubtedly appeal to them.

An open invitation to stop for lunch has been extended to all by Ed Eckhardt, supt. of schools, and Ray Nelson, asst. supt. Faculty members will assist the Grove cook, Mrs. Howard Clark, to prepare and serve foods on the menu. This will be a perfect opportunity for you to meet with friends and fellow associates.

This year's festivities have been planned and coordinated by Mrs. Frank Hren and Mrs. Kenneth Pleper, co-chairmen. Hopefully, you'll plan to attend and make FUN FAIR - "71" the best ever. "White Elephant" contributions may be brought to the school or picked up by calling 966-8423 or 966-8909.

by "outside experts," who would bring an impartial recommendation concerning a merger.

What is wrong with the Lerner-type of journalism is they bring some horn-rimmed journalism students onto the scene to investigate an area which they're unfamiliar with, and then draw conclusions from pre-judgments, which they went into the investigation with. Because they didn't receive cooperation from the park representatives, when they wanted to review their books, they made the pre-judgment there was something which was hidden by this action. They then carried this pre-judgment to its next step, which would be there's hanky panky taking place.

What depressed their image with us was their flailing away at the secret meetings which take place in the district. We have been at every regularly scheduled monthly meeting this year, and have publicly stated at 3/4 of these meetings the Board is illegally conducting much of their meetings behind closed doors. Not only have no other newspapers objected at these closed meetings, but the Lerner newspapers have been most negligent in their not even being in attendance at many of the meetings.

The series has been important, but it has been conducted by people who know nothing about Niles park district's history, and has thus missed the essentials behind the district's present problems. Wet-nosed journalism graduates identified the individual board members as working men who have no administrative background in their work records. This implied certain guys should be elected to public office and certain ones shouldn't. The wet noses, whose Mommies and Daddies paid their way into their mid-twenties, judge "their" type of people are qualified to elected office, whereas the poor slob who went to work after high school should not run for elected office. We would be interested in knowing what administrative experience these pre-judgers have that they can afford to look down their noses at those whose Mommies and Daddies didn't wet-nurse them into their 20's.

On the other side of the coin, the information the park attorney is making $35 an hour is interesting. When the subject was broached at a recent park board meeting, a guy much interested in park activities, jumped to the defense of the park attorney, and said it was degrading this fee should the general contractor which completes 92% payment of the Ballard Park construction. ....Jonquil Terrace representatives once again asked the park board to pursue the land owned by district 64 for park land. It was originally condemned for school property but when the Board decided not to use it the original owner sued for its return. A lower court agreed with the owner but the case is now being appealed. While the price 10 years ago was $50,000 for the 5 acres the expected present price may be as high as $350,000. The park board attorney said the Board did not have money for such action, but resident Tom Flynn, an urban planner, said increased bond indebtedness could be undertaken by the Board. No decision was reached on the matter though Flynn was asked to discuss the technical aspects of a federal grant which he said the Board should consider for future development of the district.

....Water problems in the Grennan Heights gym delayed the paying of a final bill to the heating contractor. The park architect said design failure and judgment of materials used may have contributed to the problems. The contractor will be asked to attend the next meeting. ....November 15 should be the completion date for the laying of topsoil at the Washington Park alongside GEMCO. Sewer work and the building of a detention base slowed the progress for the park there. Because GEMCO will be grading the area, if the dirt is laid there now the district will have to accept the present grade commitment rather than the one which will be made during the next two months. ....The most optimistic report of the night was issued by Leske even be questioned. Obviously, the defender of the fee was also an attorney, and an investigation of the many thousands of dollars in legal fees (the true figure is $80,000 since 1966) should be reviewed.

What must be realized in past park district problems is the district did not have "experts" who served the district well. The commissioners, at former director Schreiner's insistence, hired an architectural firm, which had not been involved in park architecture in the past. The error was a major one, which proved expensive, and consumed much time as well as money.

The district recently had experts, perhaps too many, on the payroll, which had been hired in order to handle the greatly enlarged district. Combining this suddenly burgeoning payroll, with the tremendous number of new projects, had creased the district's bankroll. Without raising the tax rates the district is attempting to treble the recreation in the area, without seeking the necessary money to operate.

When school districts expand their facilities, they generally go to the voters for money for the enlarged program. Why should the park district not take the same route to the voters?

Getting to the most important action we do believe a thoro study should be undertaken regarding consolidation. The park district is money poor, and limited in the channels it has for receiving money. The village is money-rich, and has sales tax and utility tax bonanzas, which could be fed into recreation areas, if the program was a part of the village district. But the bogey behind such a plan, is whether an independent district would be preferable to a consolidated district, under the auspices of an all-powerful political figure.

We don't know the answer and we doubt if anyone in Niles has the objectivity to reach the right conclusion. It would seem obvious a group of experts, from outside Niles, could best study the problem. A committee comprised of attorneys from the village and park districts with diverse opinions, plus accountants from the village and park, who disagree with each other's figures, plus officials whose first interests lie in their own boards, is not our idea of an impartial objective committee, to study this all-important task.

Tryouts for both junior and senior Orchestral will be held Friday, Sept. 24, and Tuesday, Sept. 28, in room 166, with clinics being held Sept. 20-23.

A jazz routine will be taught, including an introduction to the basic forms of dance. Each girl will be instructed to choreograph her own routine in either ballet, modern dance, or tap.

There are two placement levels in Orchestral. A would-be member will be placed in either junior or senior Orchestral. Junior Orchestral is limited to those students who show interest in the club and basic dance skills.

V-Show will be the first major event for Orchestral this year. The highlight of the school year is the annual Dance Concert produced by members of both groups. In addition, Orchestral members will appear in the Spring Music Festival. All students are invited to tryout and become a part of this event.

This year's senior Orchestral officers are Cheryl Musolf of Park Ridge, president; Donna Wilson of Niles, vice-president; and Holly Kamikof of Morton Grove, secretary-treasurer. Sponsors are Miss Schmitz, senior Orchestral, and Mrs. Jan Clark, junior Orchestral.

Holly Miller Finalist in Sewing Contest

Holly Beth Miller, 14, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence L. Miller of 9021 Clifton, Niles, has been named one of the six finalists in the Sub Deb Division of the Singer World Stylemaker Contest. As a finalist she will fly to San Francisco on Oct. 10, to compete for the title of "Queen of Sewing" and a trip to Rome, Paris or London or $1,800 in cash or a scholarship fund. The finals will be held at the St. Francis Hotel on Oct. 14th.

Holly, a sophomore at the Maine East High School, would like to go to college and major in English and drama or music, as she is thinking of either a writing career, the stage or becoming a music teacher. Her other interests are macramé and she plays the organ. She is also a Senior Scout.

She has been sewing for four years. She makes clothes for her sisters, age 10 and 13, hats and stuffed animals.

For the contest, Holly made a three-piece knicker suit in black and white knit which she wears with a black knit turtle-neck and opaque stockings. The pattern is Butterick 6280; and the total cost was $30.

Her entry was judged by Ina R. Evans, Fashion Coordinator of Stacy Fabrics, Bell Rivers, Director of Talon Consumer Services, and Joanne Schreiber, sewing columnist for Newspaper Enterprise Association.

Holly, who is 5'5 1/2", has dark brown eyes and black hair. Her father is a food division manager for Gulf.

Holly has already won a Singer tape recorder in a local judging, and a "Touch & Sew" zig-zag machine by Singer at the regional contest level. Whether or not she wins the coveted "Queen of Sewing" title, she will be awarded $600 as well as the trip to San Francisco for being a national finalist.

There are three divisions in the Singer World Stylemaker Contest, now in its 19th year. As a finalist in the Sub Deb Division, Holly will compete only with the girls between the ages of 13 and 15 years. Other divisions are: Junior Miss (girls 10 - 12) and Deb (girls 16 - 18). A "Queen of Sewing" will be crowned in each division.
