End O'The Month Meanderings
A Niles lady telephoned last week to complain about the newly-installed carillons at Niles village administration building. She said residents living close-by to the electronic bell-ringing were hearing bells in their cranial bellfries. The lady said she dreads the days ahead when open windows will invite the bells' into every nook and cranny of her home.

Presently, the bells ring out every hour on the hour. At noon and 6 p.m. two songs are played which is supposed to bring added harmony to the community.

The bells were the brainchild of resident Alice Bobula, a Nilesite who went before the Niles Days Committee and suggested they drop $8,000 for the project. We were told because there were an unusually limited number of requests, the Bobula suggestion rang the bell with the Committee.

Another lady phone-caller reported the Ballard Park Sports Complex in Niles has a lack of direction and discipline, which is causing problems there. She noted the many fights, and the abusive language which teens heap upon young and old alike.

Park Board commissioner Jack Leske said additional adult supervision has been hired and hopefully the problems will be eliminated.

Niles Park District's hiring of an accounting firm to handle their books was long overdue, and a welcome step forward in park actions.

Financial chairman Leske said he was always apprehensive when giving a monthly statement of the district's financial condition, since it was so incomplete. A system of "fund accounting" will be instituted, which we assume means the Board will know exactly where it stands in all areas of park activity. Revenue and expenditures for two pools, an ice rink and a golf course, will now be separated, which will indicate a much clearer picture of each activity.

While you haven't read about it yet, another park referendum can be expected within the next couple of years. The 7 year Tam O'Shanter agreement will expire around 1974-75 and Nilesites will have to approve monies for the acquisition of the golf course. Since the success of the first months' program last summer indicates the course is a worthwhile venture (and a profitable one) it can be assumed voter approval could be forthcoming. The main problem is whether or not Nilesites will have the confidence in the park board members to vote them more money. The flak caused by the hockey rink, could be a deterrent to such approval, tho it can be assumed the hockey fans would likely offset those unhappy with the project.

We've also been told tennis courts, a swimming pool and other facilities might be included for TAM, which would give residents a Country-Club-like recreation there. Whether natives who bemoan the lack of park facilities close to their homes would go for such a project is anyone's guess.

Concertmaster Blase Orchestrates New Vote Bid

OPPOSE MARYHILL COLLEGE SITE

By David Besser

Niles only congressman candidate, Mayor Nicholas Blase, is turning into a concertmaster. At Tuesday night's village board meeting he orchestrated his second movement in 2 weeks, in leading his village board to approve a resolution which is aimed at giving him sweet notes at the ballot box in the March 21 primary election. The trustees approved a resolution they were against the Oakton College plan for its future site on Maryhill Cemetery property, and suggested the college board hold back its referendum until after March Trustee Rich Harczak, who introduced the resolution, said this Oakton College-Maryhill controversy has aroused more opposition from people he has spoken to than any action since the open housing controversy. Harczak noted 1100 signatures opposing the placing of the college on Niles border indicates this strong opposition, and he felt he should express the sentiment of his constituents in this matter. While Harczak said the petition was circulated near the proposed site Trustee Richard Gruenwald said he knew of no petition being circulated in his Greenwood Estates area next to the cemetery.

Vehicle Sticker—License Deadline

Village Clerk Frank C. Wagner, Jr. is reminding residents in the Village of Niles that they must obtain their vehicle stickers and dog tags for the year 1972. You may obtain the applications at the Administration Building, 7601 Milwaukee ave. or, if you wish, you may call 967-6100 and applications will be mailed to you. The deadline for obtaining these necessary tags is Feb. 15. After this date, the Niles Police Department will begin issuing summons to those who do not have vehicle stickers and dog tags. To avoid this unnecessary penalty, obtain these licenses before the Feb. 15 deadline.

Make A Child's World Brighter

Mrs. Willis Lynch of Dupont, state chairman for the Child Welfare program for the Illinois Ladies Auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars, has chosen for her theme this year, "Extend our Hands to make a Child's World Brighter." She believes, "He who has health has hope and he who has hope has everything."

Illinois is the only state in the national organization sponsoring this type of program. It is financed through auxiliary contributions, with each auxiliary making donations annually. The program started in Illinois 27 years ago to assist the families of children who were ill and needed financial assistance to help defray the medical expenses of the child.

Originally only children of VFW or auxiliary members were given aid, but as the contributions increased from individuals as well as auxiliary members, they were able to change the rules to include any child of a veteran, so long as the child is a restorative case, that is, the child can be restored to normal health.

Eligibility covers a child from birth to 16 years. Once a child is accepted as a case, assistance can be given until a maximum of $6,000 has been reached, regardless of the age of the child. Application forms can be obtained from the state chairman, Child Welfare chairman for Niles VFW Auxiliary #7712 is Helen Tiedt.

Voter Registration Closes Soon

Philip Raffé, Maine Township Clerk, recently reminded citizens that Feb. 21 is the closing date for voter registration. Under Illinois law no registrations can be accepted after that date, and registration will remain closed until after the March 21 Primary Election.

The Township Clerk's office is open regularly on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. However, to accommodate Maine Township residents, Mr. Raffé has stated his office will be open for registrations on the first 3 Saturdays of February, Feb. 5, 12 and 19 from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. The office will also be open on Monday Feb. 21 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

The new qualifications for registration are that one be a citizen, 18 years of age, a resident of Illinois for 6 months and election precinct for 30 days. The office of the Maine Township Clerk is located at 2600 Golf rd. (east entrance of building) in Glenview.

For further information call 724-6400.

As a hostess for Royal Welcome, Helen welcomes newcomers to the community. As part of a color slide presentation, which includes all of the civic points of interest, the new family is introduced to the "Royal Welcome" recommended businesses which sponsor the program in Morton Grove.

After a delicious lunch, progress and growth over the past year were reviewed. Many hostesses were recognized for outstanding achievement in specific areas.

Gurolnick Board Member 1964-72, Board President 1967-1972."

charge of Carillon selections, Pastor Paul Bossert of St. John Lutheran church commended village officials "for the pleasure given through the beautiful chimes."

Niles residents Ted and Dorothy Tyson, 7223 Greenleaf (two blocks south of Dempster near Harlem) have commented favorably upon hearing the Carillons, expressing pleasure at the thought of hearing them in the coming Spring and summer months.

A resident at Odell and Main Sts. indicated such great pleasure at "hearing the beautiful chimes when I was in my kitchen that I went outdoors to hear them more clearly."

The Carillons were purchased with funds from a Niles Days Committee grant in 1971.

WMTH Programs on Politics

With the 18-year-old vote politics has come to the high schools. WMTH is helping to bring candidates and issues to Main East, Lt. Governor Paul Simon came to Main East early this month for an interview, call-in show. He reached students as classes turned in to 88.5 a.m. and called in questions.

Simon is one of the candidates for Governor in the Illinois primary.

Another Democratic candidate for Governor, Dan Walker, also visited WMTH. "Many fourth and fifth period classes listened and called in. If they didn't have a radio, WMTH provided them to the classes," said General Manager William Mitchell.

The candidates are appearing on "Current Comment," WMTH's daily interview program.

Michael Fowler, auditor of public accounts, also appeared on WMTH. He is running for Secretary of State.

Other candidates appearing on "Current Comment" from 11 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. will include Rep. Aaron Jaffe on Feb. 2, from the fourth Illinois Congressional District; Floyd T. Fullie on Feb. 16, who is running for U.S. Congressman; Rep. Roman Pucinski on Feb. 18, who is running for U.S. Senator; Mayor Blase of Niles on Feb. 23, who is running for U.S. Congressman; and Donald Page Moore on Feb. 28, who is running for State's Attorney in Cook County. All of the political opponents have been contacted and may also come to WMTH. An unconfirmed guest for either February or March is Edward Hamrah.

Rep. Robert Juckett of the fourth Illinois Congressional District was on "Current Comment" on Dec. 6 as he made his first public announcement of his bid for re-election.

Blase Cites Objections to Oakton Site

An open letter to Dr. William Koefmice, President, Oakton Community College, from Niles Mayor Nicholas Blase:

From inception to its present (space) limited but successful operation, Oakton Community College has met with the public's positive response.

Equally positive is the public's attitude towards its necessity in our community and its need for larger facilities.

There has been considerable discussion and objection to placing the new junior college on the site presently Maryhill Cemetery, located at Dempster St. and Milwaukee Ave.

Objections to the location have been raised by people in the immediate area of the proposed site as well as others for several reasons: 1. The anticipated traffic problems created by this location, 2. taking hallowed land away from the church and, 3. the high cost of that specific land. All are reasonable objections.

I believe we are all in favor of a junior college, large enough to accommodate the needs of our entire community, but I also believe the junior college is making a serious mistake by starting out on its most important enterprise, the construction of its permanent campus, on such a negative atmosphere.

If less expensive property could be found for purchase on a site less inclined to create such turmoil (even though it might not be centrally located) restored public confidence would be of great benefit to the junior college in its future actions.

The referendum scheduled for March 4 amidst the present hostile atmosphere will have great difficulty. And, what with the reality of all school referendums today, the Board must work in a more favorable environment. In the interest of its success, I hope the junior college will reconsider its present site location.

Blase-Mikva Debate

A debate between 16th District Democratic Candidates for Congress, Mayor Nicholas Blase and Congressman Amos Mikva will take place tonight, Jan. 27, at 8 p.m. at the Devonshire Center auditorium, 4400 W. Grove St., Skokie.

Questions from the attending public will be answered by both candidates that evening.

Future Shock 'Therapy'

If the thought of "constructing" and flying paper airplanes, or designing and fabricating a long span bridge of drinking straws seems like child's play, think twice because these projects may be your key to survival in the age of technology.

According to a team of Harper Engineering Division faculty members, the paper airplanes and drinking straw bridges are two of the projects which "turn on" students in the college's introductory course to engineering and technology. "We use this beginning course to demonstrate what an engineer or technologist does by letting the students do projects using the engineering method of problem solving," says Kelly Barton of Harper's engineering faculty.

Barton teams up with Sander Friedman, also of Harper's engineering faculty, to teach the 1-credit course. During the upcoming Spring semester, Barton and Friedman are aiming the course at parents, wives, and others who have an engineer "in the family" or who deal with engineers.

Anyone who is interested in learning about what engineers and technologists do and how they approach problems can take this course, Friedman explains. Beginning Feb. 1, it will be offered on Tuesdays from 6:30 to 9 p.m. There are no pre-requisites for the course. "You don't even have to be a high school graduate

According to Barton, students with diverse interests benefit from the course. "People who have engineers in their families, salesmen who must call on engineering firms, technical writers, persons who build model rockets or airplanes, or even those who want to 'check out' their interest in engineering or technology before pursuing full time studies, all of these can benefit," he explains.

Friedman extends the relevance of the course even further. "Every employed person will need to stray himself in our technological society at least three times during his life. Because we must learn to control technology rather than 'it' controlling us, everyone should make sure that part of their 'retraining' includes some grounding in engineering-technology subjects," he recommends.

Barton and Friedman are both registered professional engineers. As a teaching team they combine 36 years of industrial experience with nearly 20 years in the classroom.

Registration for Harper's Spring semester began Jan. 19 for part-time students. Resident tuition for those in the Harper college district ($512) is $12 per credit hour. Applications for admission are available through the Harper Admissions Office, Algonquin and Roselle roads, Palatine. Telephone 359-4200, extension 207.

Flynn: Playing Politics with Personal Property Tax

Thomas Flynn, the Democratic Senatorial Candidate in the 4th District, last night accused the Republican Representatives and State Senator from the 4th District of playing politics with the abolition of the "hated" Personal Property tax. He stated, "The Democratic Party of Illinois has been trying to get rid of the personal property tax for over 20 years in a reasonable manner that would not hurt the Downstate cities, school districts, park districts and other local governments who rely on its revenue for survival. It is little known but should be well known that between 70 and 80% of this tax revenue are raised from income producing corporations and that only 20 to 30% of the tax comes from the individual tax payer."

Mr. Flynn then stated that Governor Ogilvie launched an all out assault on this tax in 1969 at the request of big business. He then said, "Our Governor tried to stop the 1969 referendum that exempted individuals from this tax while retaining the corporations duty to pay it. He continued his efforts in behalf of big business during the recent State Constitutional Convention by trying to get vested interest groups to support the abolition of all personal property taxes. Once again he failed to recommend any substitute taxes. Now he has ordered his Attorney General to fight for abolition of this tax all the way up to the Supreme Court of the United States and for what? He refuses to say that 70 to 80% of this tax comes from corporations and not individuals. He still refuses to say where the lost revenue will come from. He even has the audacity to say to us that he will not raise our taxes in 1972. What about 1973? Remember 1967 when this same man told us he would veto a State Income Tax and then went before the Illinois Legislature and asked for one. Where is the Governor going to raise the lost revenue from this tax? He is going to raise it from each and every one of us through an increased income tax, that is where he is going to get it from."

Persons wishing to have Mr. Flynn talk before their groups may write him at 8047 N. Milwaukee, Niles 60648 or call him at 692-3388.

Mikva Urges Ethics Reform in Government

Congressman Abner J. Mikva (D-Ill.) recently called for complete financial disclosure by public officials and strong ethics legislation to help fight corruption in government. In a speech to the Ethical Humanist Society in Evanston, the Congressman said even the best ethics legislation and campaign spending reform can only be the first step. Congressman Mikva said even the best ethics legislation will be meaningless unless there is campaign spending reform.

He said Congress had passed a proposal he supported to give individuals a tax deduction of up to $50 or a tax credit of up to $25 for political contributions. "Public financing of political campaigns is still a long way off," he said, "but we have made a beginning."

Citing the recent political scandals in Illinois, the Congressman said political corruption has a cumulative effect that generates an attitude of suspicion and mistrust on the part of the people. Congressman Mikva said the people must demand honesty in government because the effectiveness of the political system hangs in the balance.

Citizens for Paul Simon

Speaking before a large group of volunteers in the near north suburbs last week, democratic gubernatorial candidate Paul Simon indicated that the state's "priorities are out of balance" and that he is "running (for governor) to change this situation" for all the people of Illinois.

Simon indicated that along with a restructuring of priorities, he was particularly concerned with the state personal property tax which he said is "inequitable," suggested that greater political pressure on polluters would force them to "turn their liabilities into assets," and expressed deep concern over the plight of those persons being cared for by the state's mental health department whose performance "at best has been spotty." Mental health must be "one of our priorities when discussing the needs of the state," Simon said.

The Lt. Governor's remarks were made to a gathering of independent volunteers at the Morton Grove Community church in a meeting organized by the Near North Suburban Citizens for Simon Committee which encompasses the communities of Des Plaines, Park Ridge, Niles, Glenview, Morton Grove, Lincolnwood and Skokie.

Roy Schneider, Morton Grove attorney was coordinator for the event, and is responsible for independent Simon activity in the near north suburbs. Schneider indicated he was pleased with the large turnout, and urged persons interested in working for the local committee phone Simon headquarters in this area at 966-5778.

Junior Wrestling

Facing Riverdale-Brookfield, Maine East's junior varsity wrestling team defeated Riverdale-Brookfield, 42-21. Henry Querfuth and Chris Mikulski lead the team to victory by pinning their opponents.

N.D. Fencers Defeat New Trier

Notre Dame/Fencers defeated New Trier East last Tuesday 13-5. The meet began with NTW sweeping the first 3 bouts. N.D. came back to take the next 4 and then after a split, the N.D. varsity A team won the strip 5-4. Captain Tom Alcock saw action on the A strip for the first time since November when he was sidelined with an ankle injury. Alcock went 2-1, and co-captain Terry McConville went 3-0. The "B" strip fencers put it away when Gary Berlak, John Stobart and Tim Glass went 2-0 each. The substitutes finished up and when the smoke cleared, N.D. had won 13-5. Leading scorers on the N.D. team are McConville with a 10-5 record and Gary Berlak with a 10-3.

Varsity Wrestling

The team is now 4-1 for the season, their only loss coming at the hands of New Trier West while Alcock was injured. The real test will be this Friday when N.D. hosts New Trier West for the return match at 4 p.m. with the services of its captain. If both teams are up to full strength it should be a tough competition.

Varsity Wrestling

Last Saturday, at Gordon Tech, some of the N.D. fencers participated in the A.F.A. open as individuals. Tim Glass took 2nd place in foil and earned a "C" ranking. This makes N.D.'s second "C" for the year 7 out of the 8 that were won over the past

Varsity Wrestling

3 years by high school fencers. Tom Alcock took 4th place in foil.

Varsity Wrestling

In Epee, Tim Glass took 7th place in a "B" level competition. Grad Paul Quintiff took 8th place. So far this season, ND speelists have squeezed Paul out of placing in epee, the weapon in which he took 5th place in the Midwest last year. Quintiff is the Under 19 top seeded Foil and Sabre fencer this season.

On Jan. 14 Maine East's undefeated varsity wrestling team hosted York, and the final score of the competition was Maine East 49, York 9.

Maine East kept its unblemished record by dominating this meet with 6 pins, 4 wins by decision, and only 2 losses.

He immediately went to work, scoring eight points and controlling the boards. The Demons had a 21-15 lead after one quarter.

York closed the gap slightly by halftime at 39-34. But Maine, behind Bondeson and Castanzo, widened the margin to 62-45 after three periods. And the final quarter was no contest as the Demons out-scored their opponents 24-19. The score at the end of the game read Maine East 86, York 64.

Bondeson played superbly, scoring 33 points and grabbing rebounds at both ends of the court. McDonnell also had a fine game defensively and Anderson contributed 12 to the Demon cause.

Varsity Basketball

By Jim Fujimoto

The Maine East Demons split two games over the weekend, losing to undefeated Hinsdale Central, 65-42, and beating York, 86-64.

Friday night, the Demons cagers traveled to Hinsdale to take on the number two rated team in the Chicagoland area. Maine started out strong and battled the Red Devils throughout the first quarter, behind the rebounding of Mark Bondeson and the scoring of Russ Anderson. The score after one period was Hinsdale 15, Maine East 14.

The Demons went to a deliberate style offense during the second quarter. They succeeded in holding down the high-scoring Red Devils but could not put many points on the board themselves. The tally at the half read Hinsdale 28, Maine East 21.

The Red Devils rattled off 9 unanswered points to open the third session and that set the pace for the second half. From then on it was all downhill for Demon fans as Hinsdale held a 44-26 lead at the end of the third quarter. The Red Devils coasted the rest of the way for an easy 65-42 triumph.

Guard Jim Flynn led Hinsdale with 17 points. Bondeson paced the Demons with 17, and Anderson added 12.

Hobby Displays at Niles Library

Through the month of February the Niles Public Library will feature an exhibit of porcelain dolls by Mrs. Lucy Metzig. This is one of a series of hobby exhibits to be shown by Niles Public Library and exemplifies the artistic effects that can be obtained in fine handmade porcelain.

We all have some leisure time, time that is not required for the workday activities by which we earn our living or by which we help others to earn it. Whether we work in an office, in a factory, or in the maintaining of a home for the family, there is always some time that is not occupied by that work, this time we call leisure time. Whether there is much or little leisure time in our lives, how we use that time can add to the happiness of our lives or can end in boredom and dissatisfaction with life. It is during leisure time that a hobby pays off, not in money perhaps, but in an expansion of life, in greater happiness in life.

The Oxford Dictionary defines a hobby as "a favorite occupation or topic, pursued merely for the amusement or interest that it affords." So a hobby may be anything that gives us an outlet for the energies that we build up while doing the work-a-day jobs in which we are occupied throughout the working day.

What is your hobby? What do you find to do with those moments or hours of leisure time? Perhaps it is some form of sports; perhaps you enjoy putting in your workshop; perhaps it is sewing in any of its many forms. Many people use their leisure time in reading or combine reading with some other hobby. Have you thought of your library as a source of help in practicing your hobby, or in finding a new one?

Niles Public Library is offering some displays of hobbies that may give you new ideas for your leisure time, for widening your interests, and for bringing greater happiness into your life. Riding your hobby can do just that. And your library can help you to ride it better and help you to get even greater pleasure from it.

The hobby of porcelain making can be very rewarding. It demands close attention to detail, artistic ability and dexterity, but the interest and pleasure to be derived is tremendous. When carried to fulfillment in real works of art such as those on exhibit in the library, it can be a very demanding hobby calling for a great deal of time and expense, but as with any hobby there are infinite degrees in its perfection. In any hobby, success or failure is not the all important end. The important thing is that the hobbyist has enjoyed a new experience and has learned to use his abilities or has discovered the lack of them and so has found out something new about himself.

Mrs. Metzig has developed her hobby into a fine art, as the pieces on display will show. The library hopes that its future displays will help some people to find the special hobby that is right for them.

Mikva Cites Need for Prison Reform

Congressman Abner J. Mikva (D.-Ill.) has called the need for immediate and comprehensive prison reform "imperative if we are ever going to control crime in our society."

"We have got to make our prisons places that correct people, not places that corrupt people," the Congressman said, pointing out that the relationship between the rising crime rate and the number of repeaters in prisons is no accident.

"We can do something about crime," he said, "but not just by talking about 'law and order.' Instead, it is going to take hard work and dedication to some concepts less dramatic than the 'law and order' slogan — concepts like reform and rehabilitation rather than punishment and degradation."

Congressman Mikva told the Morton Grove Chapter of the National Council of Jewish Women about his recent tour of jails and prisons around the country as a member of the House Judiciary Committee.

He said, "If everyone could spend just a few hours in a county jail or state prison, there would not be a single argument about the desperate need for prison reform."

Congressman Mikva has been acknowledged as one of the leading experts in Congress on the problems of prisons. He has proposed a number of bills in the House of Representatives to remedy the problems and antiquated approaches that generate prison rebellion like the one at Attica State.

"So many people this society sends to prison ends up there again convicted of another crime," Congressman Mikva said. "The police end up catching the same criminals over and over again, and the crime rate keeps going up."

Congressman Mikva said that most experts agree on the way to improve the prison system — expanding parole, work release and family visit programs and emphasizing rehabilitation and shorter sentences instead of retribution and punishment.

Golf Mill Merchants Discuss New Year

Golf Mill Merchants Association officers, Sidney Ellman of Jackie's Circle, president (l.) and William Rand of Rand's Jewelry, vice president, discuss promotion plans with director, Mrs. Jane Brenner at annual meeting.

Golf Mill merchants set new goals for 1972 at their annual dinner meeting for members and their wives Jan. 19 at the Millonaires Club.

Sidney Ellman of Jackie's Circle, president of the Golf Mill Merchants Association, titled the slated goals for 1972, "We've Just Begun!" He named customer service as a major aim for the coming year. Personal attention, product knowledge and courtesy were cited as primary attributes. He cautioned merchants, "We can not rest on our laurels." Ellman attributed the success of Golf Mill Shopping Center, in part, to the fact that, "We're big enough to find what you are looking for," but not so big that a customer becomes exhausted "looking for it." Exceptional service underscores this virtue, he said.

Community service was named as another goal. Ellman pointed to the enthusiastic response to the Art Fair, the largest in the area, and the Junior Art Fair presented to encourage young people in constructive pursuits. High school band and vocal concerts will be repeated for the same purpose. Other entertainment events will be featured in 1972, he said.

Mrs. Jane Brenner, promotion director, outlined the advertising and events program for the year. She detailed the "YOW" promotion, a coupon program for February and the Leap Year "Wallflower Sale," another February feature. A stronger schedule of newspaper, radio and TV advertising is planned, she reported.

The evening was climaxed with an election of officers. Sidney Ellman of Jackie's Circle was chosen for a second term of office as president, William Rand of Rand's Jewelry resumes his post as vice-president, and Leonard Happ of Golf Mill State Bank as treasurer, Lorne Cook of Cook's Cards, secretary.

Officers include: Eldon Ray, J.C. Penney Co., James O'Connor, Lytton's, Allan Serstad, Little Miss and Mr. Shop, Charles Sheffek, Karoll's, Norbert Rosenhauer, Sears Roebuck and Co., A.A. Yort, Milwaukee Golf Development Corp., and Mose Wittkamper, Woolworth's.

Ellman thanked the members and Board of Directors for a successful year and paid special tribute to the hand working committees who served in 1971.

Why was electric heat installed in Chicago's proudest landmark?

Simple. Chicago's chilling winds and changing temperatures are tough on everything, inside and out—including 102-year-old landmarks like the Chicago Water Tower. So to help protect against these elements, electric heat was installed.

Now, the inside of the Water Tower has a constant temperature and even humidity, protecting the plaster and masonry from further erosion.

Commonwealth Edison is proud to have had a part in preserving the Water Tower as a permanent tribute to the spirit and vitality of the people who rebuilt this city.

NW Symphony Concert at Maine East

Perry Crafton, conductor, Robert Johnson, concertmaster, and Thomas Torchedio, soloist, discuss forthcoming Northwest Symphony Orchestra concert to be held on Jan. 30 at Maine East at 3:30 p.m.

The Northwest Symphony Orchestra, Perry Crafton, conductor, will hold its second concert of the 1971-72 season on Jan. 30 at 3:30 p.m. at the Maine East high school auditorium, Dempster and Potter rds. in Park Ridge.

The orchestra is privileged to have four hornists from the widely acclaimed Chicago Symphony Orchestra; Dale Clevenger, Thomas Howell, Richard Oldberg and Norman Schwellert; join them in opening this concert with Robert Schumann's "Konzertstueck" for Four Horns and Orchestra.

This composition is an early example of music written for the new valved French horn which originated as a hunting horn and, as such had no valves, thus producing relatively few notes of the chromatic scale. The addition of valves made it much more versatile and inspired composers to write more literature for the instrument.

Also on the first half of the program, Thomas Torchedio of Miles will perform Richard Strauss' "Burlesque," a display piece for piano that requires prodigious technique and subtle musicianship. This talented young artist has done much accompaniment work at Notre Dame High school and is an organist at Saint John Brebeuf Catholic church in Niles.

The second half of the concert will be devoted to Jan Sibelius' Symphony #5 in E Flat, a romantic work written in 3 movements that is characterized by exciting sonorities, and that rushes to a superb climax for full orchestra and ends with 6 widely separated enigmatic staccato chords.

Adult tickets, $2, and student tickets, $1, may be purchased at the box office prior to the concert. Children under 12 will be admitted free if accompanied by an adult, and Golden Agers will be admitted for $1 upon presentation of their membership cards.

"A Thousand Clowns"

Producer David Lonn announced that "A Thousand Clowns," starring Hugh O'Brian now playing at the Arlington Park Theatre, has been extended one week through Feb. 13 because of enthusiastic response to the production. Also starring in "A Thousand Clowns" are Melissa Hart, David Hull, Ben Speigel, Gordon Oas-Helm and Richard Reichg. The production opened on Jan. 13; and was directed by Harvey Medlinsky.

Mr. Lonn further announced that Burt Reynolds will return to the Arlington opening March 9 in Ronald Alexander's rollicking, but scathing comedy, about the topsy-turvy, often bruising world of big-time television. Burt Reynolds made his Midwest stage debut at the Arlington last summer when he appeared in "The Tender Trap" which sold out during its four week run. Since then he has made numerous television appearances, and recently completed motion picture filming on "Fuzz," co-starring Yul Brynner and Raquel Welch.

"Nobody Loves An Albatross," which the New York Times called "a hilarious comedy with a slashing satirical edge," will be directed by Harvey Medlinsky. Mr. Medlinsky directed Hugh O'Brian in "A Thousand Clowns," and is now at the University of Michigan preparing to direct a new play by a graduate student awarded the Shubert Fellowship For A Playwright which will be presented in February.

River Ridge Council of PTAs
River Ridge Council of PTAs will hold an open meeting on Wednesday, Feb. 2, 8 p.m., at Cumberland school, 700 Golf rd., Des Plaines.
A panel of 3 speakers will outline approaches they are using as "preventive medicine" for possible serious family and youth problems. In addition to council members and administrators, specially invited guests, including governmental, police and school officials in Des Plaines, Morton Grove, Niles and Park Ridge, will be present. Mrs. Michaels, who is in charge of the Niles project, will discuss specific cases she and the social work students have dealt with since the project opened last summer. Particular emphasis will be given to those cases involving children from elementary to high school age.

Rev. Russell will discuss the novel Place for People, which offers largely high school age youths a place to go as a social center, for counseling or to discuss problems such as drugs. Half of the program period will be devoted to a question and answer session.

There will be a short business meeting prior to the program. The public is welcome to attend.

Golf-Mill State Bank Growth Nears 25% Mark

Total assets of Golf-Mill State Bank, located in the Golf-Mill shopping center, Niles, experienced a growth of 24.9% in resources for 1971 announced President Robert A. Sharpe.

The bank, which this month broke ground for a new $2 million building immediately south of the shopping center, reported total assets of $26.9 million at close of business on Dec. 21, 1971, an increase of 24.9% over figure of $21.4 million.

Total capital accounts at the institution increased by 16.9% at year-end 1971, from $1.1 million to $1.3.

Growth in deposits of 24% from $20.1 million in 1970 to $25 million were experienced at Golf-Mill in 1971. Both time deposits, with a 26.5% increase, and demand deposits, with an 18.8% increase, accounted for the large rise.

"Demand for loans," Sharpe stated, "was strong throughout the year. And because of the continual growth of Golf-Mill State Bank, we were able to report a 28.9% increase in loans and discounts."

The bank reported $11.9 million in outstanding loans at year-end 1971, compared with $9.2 million the previous year.

"Most of the loan activity at Golf-Mill," Sharpe stated, "was in the installment loan and real estate mortgage fields. We have made, and will continue to make, a concerted effort to insure that our customers are able to find the financing they wish with our bank for automobiles, home improvements, and other needs. Activity in all categories of real estate mortgages, especially in single family residential and apartment building projects, was high last year."

Centel Pulls Switch

Blocking tools are pulled on the new Crossbar frame activating the system for "827" and "298" Centel subscribers early Sunday morning. The only noticeable difference for "827" customers was a change of dial tone sound. For "298" subscribers the dial tone sound remained the same as they were already in a Crossbar switching system. The #5 Crossbar manufactured and installed by Western Electric Company was selected not only because of its switching speed and efficiency, but also because of its direct compatibility with the Illinois Bell telephone operations in surrounding areas. Additionally, the system provides for expansion and touch dialing availability. Central Telephone Company of Illinois owns and operates more than 172,000 telephones with 120,000 of its stations in the Park Ridge District. The company is a division of Central Telephone & Utilities Corporation which owns and operates over one million telephones in 10 states and is the fourth largest independent telephone system.
