It Was A Bad Night For Maine Township Committeemen BLASE, FULLE DEFEATED DECISIVELY

From the LEFT HAND

By David Besser
Editor & Publisher

Don't ever underestimate the strength of the Kiddie Korps when trying to measure the outcome of these political elections. In the campaign headquarters we visited Tuesday night the winners had kids all over the place, and the one loser, Nick Blase had few youngsters in his township offices.

We first visited the Blase headquarters about 7:30 p.m., already knowing he was losing substantially along the shore. Walking into the lions lair the blue funk which goes with defeat was heavily hanging over the room.

Millicent Dachman was marking up the scores in Maine Township and already it was obvious the victory margins were not coming. We moved alongside one Blaseophile, and an old friend, who mumbled a few non-sequiturs, and moved off into the crowd. A couple of guys yelled out we had a "lot of guts" for dropping into this office after opposing Blase in last week's newspaper. There were a few leers, a wave from Todd Bavaro, and a rather disconsolate Mike Lavin yelled across the room about our indulging in "yellow journalism" in opposing his tiger.

They say you often travel the same road more than once. Here we were on Milwaukee Avenue and recalled 11 years ago, how our support for this same Blase almost resulted in our being carried out of the Ciccone offices, which were directly across the street from the present Blase offices. Chuck Giovanelli, an old friend, ran up to us on election night and pushed us out of the office, saying his fellow-Ciccone backers, were crazy enough to tear us apart if we stayed there. And lo and behold, as they would say in some fiction primers, one of the hostile guys of 11 years ago was waiting at the door as we left and gave us the same leer we received at Ciccone headquarters back in 1961.

We moved over to the North Shore Hotel in Evanston into a crowd which wore the smell of success. And unlike the Blase headquarters there were kids all over the place. Twenty-two year old Jim Geocaris, who was Mikva's campaign manager, let out a squeal when it was obvious his boy was home free. The Kiddie Korps was excited, but no more than their older brethren, who were bragging about bringing home their precincts. Surprisingly, we met Maine Township captain, who took their own precincts away from the expected winner, the Maine Township committeeman.

Amidst the beer cans and the shouting, in walked Ab and Zoe Mikva, amidst the shouts from the crowd, Mikva, a very warm and affectionate man, hugged and kissed his way down the aisle. It was a genuine love feast. When he got to the podium he reeled off dozens of names of people who helped in the campaign, amidst cheers from each of the township groups.

Around 9 o'clock in walked Nick Blase, along with his campaign manager Ed Warman. Both were

Maine East Science Winners

Maine East seniors Ronald Burton and Henry Querfurth of Park Ridge are among the 11 Chicago area science students named winners in the 31st annual Westinghouse Science Talent Search. Both young men are participants in Maine East's science research seminar program, under Dennis P. Dresen, instructor.

The Westinghouse contest entries of the two science students were based on their projects in behavioral biology. Ronald Burton submitted a research report on his two-year study of tropical fish. Henry Querfurth's report on the photoconditioning of crayfish.

Burton and Querfurth will be among 300 national winners who will receive an expenses-paid trip to Washington, D.C., where they will compete for Westinghouse college scholarships, starting March 21. The top award will be a $10,000 four-year scholarship. Two second-place awards of $8,000 scholarships will be given, as will three $6,000 scholarships, and four $4,000 scholarships. Other winners will receive $250 cash awards. The 300 national winners were selected from among 1,133 entrants in the contest.

Tuesday was a bad night for both Maine Township Committeemen as Republican Floyd Fulle and Democrat Nick Blase were defeated in their bids for their parties Congressional seats in the newly-formed 10th District.

Incomplete returns as of Wednesday morning had Congressman Al Mikva showing a 43,163 to 22,583 margin over Blase while Glenview attorney Sam Young held a 18,474 to 12,477 lead over Fulle.

Based on Tuesday night's incomplete figures Blase never received the support he needed in any part of the district. In his own Maine Township, where he had to win big, he only had a 3,831 to 2,797 lead in his own home area as of 10 p.m. for a 57.6% to 42.4% lead. In the remaining part of the district he was trailing by about a 3 to 1 margin, roughly 22,000 to 7,000 votes behind in the remaining townships.

Blase was swamped "along the shore." In Evanston he was losing by as high as from 5 to 1 to 10 to 1 there, and was doing poorly further to the north. Niles Township, which had several supposedly key political figures behind Blase, also moved into the Mikva camp.

Actually, Tuesday night's victory thruout Chicagoland was a victory for the independents.

Blase never had a chance. His hanging on to the tugging, low income housing and carpettagging issues, never rung true for the vast number of independent voters in the district. Not only were they anti-thema to the more liberal, well-educated voters, but they never garnered the much-needed vote in home areas which he so desperately relied on.

The logistics of the district were overwhelming, both to Blase's non-professional staff, as well as to Blase himself. He had to cut into the liberal strength of Mikva in the unincorporated area of Maine Township where many new voters have recently moved, as well as in Niles Township along the shore. His sticking to the very conservative issues lost any hope he might cut into this liberal bloc.

While Blase admitted Tuesday night it was a victory for the independents thruout the Chicagoland area, Mikva ran a low-key campaign, staying above the battle of personalities, and concentrating on national issues. It had great appeal to the voters who form the bulk of the new district.

On the Republican side the very conservative Sam Young proved successful in the moderate Republican district. It seemed obvious the recent disclosures con-

Oakton Begins Workshop

Oakton Community college begins a series of free workshops on auto emission control for garage owners, service station managers and auto mechanics on Sunday, March 25. The six-hour training session will be held 4 times during the next month, according to college officials.

The workshop will be offered on Saturday, April 15; Saturday, April 22; and Saturday, April 29. Session will be held from 9 a.m. until noon and from 1 p.m. until 4 p.m. Participants must attend both morning and afternoon sessions.

The program will present information about emission control equipment including maintenance, service, repair and diagnostic procedures for older cars as well as current production models. Each participant will receive a 1971 reference manual free of charge.

"Pending Federal and State legislation will soon require the testing of vehicles for air pollution," Mrs. Kathleen Arns, Director of Curriculum Development at Oakton Community college points out. "It is important that practicing mechanics avail themselves of this training."

Enrollment in each session is limited to 25 students. The program is sponsored by the State.

Slidesmobile Coming to District #71

Do you actually know whether your child is hearing and seeing normally? To find the answer to this question a hearing and vision screening program for preschool children is being offered by Niles Elementary School District #71, with the Niles Elementary Schools P.T.A., in cooperation with SLIDES, a supportive assistance is also given by Illinois Department for Public Health and Illinois Society for Prevention of Blindness.

Registration for screening will be held at Niles Elementary school South, 6935 W. Touhy ave., on Friday, March 24, from 9 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. and from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m.

For the best screening facilities SLIDESMOBILE is available at Niles Elementary school South on Monday, April 3, Tuesday, April 4, and Friday, April 7. SLIDESMOBILE is a unique, self-contained vehicle providing the best conditions for hearing and vision screening. It contains a soundproof room for hearing screening, and ideal conditions for vision screening.

The screening is for all children ages 3 through 5 years. However, kindergarten 5 year olds in public schools are screened by the school nurse. Even if your children were seen last year, come again.

The public is invited to attend the art show, while classes are in session, between the hours of 8:30 a.m. and 9 p.m. daily.

Family Enrichment

(By Larry Renetzky)

A distraught and concerned father called one night greatly concerned about his children who he discovered were on drugs. His question along with many other concerned parents is — "What can I do?"

Without the father realizing it, he and his wife had already done something. The lines of communication were open sufficiently between the parents and the children so that the children came to them. We were able to work with this family that was open and receptive and to effect a solution to the drug problem.

One of the most important things that I believe a parent can do is to keep the lines of communication open with their child. If your child really believes that you care and that you are open to their hurts, problems, concerns and mistakes, they will usually always come to you when they need to.

A young man that I am working with put it this way, "You know, Mr. Renetzky, if more parents were open to their kids and showed them that they really cared, then the kids would be more apt to go to their parents when they've got a problem." I think there is a lot of truth in what this young man says; however, I hear a lot of parents say, "What more can I do?" I give my kid all that he needs. In fact, he has got a lot more than I ever had. My response is, "Does the child have what he really needs and wants?"

I never will forget a family that I worked with that had 12 children. All of the children did well except for the youngest. The other children had known object poverty but there were no serious problems with them. Why the problems then with the youngest? What did mom and dad do differently with the youngest? First, they determined that they were going to give more to this last child — nice clothes, spending money, car eventually, and definitely a college education — good middle class values. They both went to work in the city where they moved to from the farm. They both worked hard to realize their goals for this last child.

What happened? It is pretty well summed up by the child in these words, "If only mom and dad were around when I needed them. I don't care about all these (blankie) things that they are getting me." The child, now a teenager, turned to his peers, then to a gang, for a sense of belonging, being recognized, feeling of importance and companionship. He became involved with drugs, stealing, being truant from school and home, etc. When he finally faced his parents with "why" they really took it in. They had the good common sense to see then that what they had given the other children was far more important than what they had given their last child.

As the parents reflected on this as all parents need to reflect from time to time, they recognized that they had given more of themselves (love, attention, supervision, recognition, sense of belonging, just being there, etc) to the other children, whereas they had given more things to the younger child.

I think it is time for all of us parents to stop and take a good hard look at what we are giving our children — ourselves or things? Of course, it is nice to receive some things, but not basically just things. I hear this more from the kids than anything else. The family, particularly mom and dad, are not meeting their needs — why? Isn't it true with all of us that if our needs are not met we look to others, things, clubs, more work, drugs, gangs, etc., to meet these needs?

When your child goes beyond curiosity and experimentation with drugs, hopefully your child will feel that he can come to you. Don't hesitate to seek out Niles Family Service at 966-1640 or some other professional counseling agency or counselor for some advice, guidance and possible counseling.

Let Betty Sansone tell you about Golf Mill State Bank's checking account plan...

It's FREE!

QUESTION: BETTY, CAN I REALLY AVOID ALL THOSE ANNOYING MONTHLY SERVICE CHARGES?

BETTY: Absolutely. In fact, you could avoid them completely... just by keeping as little as $200 in your Free Checking Account here.

QUESTION: BUT IS THAT TYPE OF CHECKING PLAN JUST AS GOOD AS THE KIND WITH THE SERVICE CHARGES?

BETTY: Actually it's much better. You have all the advantages (no standing in long lines to pay bills, keeping better track of your money and having cancelled checks as legal receipts). And yet, with all those features, you still cut out those monthly service charges... which can often run as high as $1.50, $2.00 or even $3.00.

QUESTION: ISN'T THERE SOME LIMIT ON THE NUMBER OF CHECKS I CAN WRITE?

BETTY: No limit whatsoever. With just $200 in your account throughout the entire month, you can go ahead and write as many checks as you want and there's still no monthly service charge.

QUESTION: WHAT HAPPENS IF MY ACCOUNT DROPS BELOW $200 DURING THE MONTH?

BETTY: It's still a bargain. A flat charge of $2 will be made for that month only. And you can still write as many checks as you like.

QUESTION: IS THERE ANY CHARGE FOR MAKING DEPOSITS?

BETTY: There's never a charge for making deposits... regardless of what your balance may be and no matter how many deposits you make to your account.

QUESTION: WHAT ABOUT CHARGES FOR THE CHECKS THEMSELVES?

BETTY: Your checks and checkbook of your choice are distinctively imprinted with your name and provided at cost. Your address may also be imprinted on your checks at no additional cost.

QUESTION: SOUNDS GOOD, BETTY HOW DO I GET STARTED?

BETTY: That's easy. Just fill out this coupon and forward to me at the bank. Better yet, give me a call at 824-2116 and I'll be glad to personally help you get your account opened.

QUESTION: BETTY, YOU'RE A DEAR. HOW CAN I EVER THANK YOU?

BETTY: You are thanking me and Golf Mill State Bank by opening your account with us. And we'll try to show our thanks by giving you FREE Checking Account Service. It's one more reason why Golf Mill State Bank is "A bank on the grow!"

Yes, I am interested in your FREE CHECKING ACCOUNT SERVICE.

"Where's mine?"
"I did this square."
"There's my picture."

These happy voices could be heard from first-graders at St. John Brebeuf school. They were referring to the designs they had created on material which was made into their teachers' dresses. The teachers were eager to share the creativity of their students with parents. Each of the 3 teachers, Mrs. Notter, Mrs. Ross and Sr. Marycolleen purchased a piece of plain material which they blocked into equal sections. Each child was given the opportunity to create a picture in one section. Permanent dry markers were used. Flowers, balloons, peace signs, geometric designs and messages of love appeared in a colorful array. The material was then made into very attractive dresses. The enthusiasm of the students was shared with parents when their teachers wore the dresses at group conferences which were held on Thursday, March 16. Shown above, l. to r., are teachers and students, Vincent Gutt, Sister Marycolleen, Antoinette Srnad, Mrs. Joan Notter, Michele Mc Mahon, Mrs. Dorothy Ross.

Northwest Symphony to Perform Resurrection Symphony

The Northwest Symphony Orchestra, Perry Crafton conductor, will feature the Skokie Valley Concert Choir and soprano soloists, Sally Stedman and Betty Myers, in its presentation of Gustav Mahler's Resurrection Symphony on Palm Sunday, March 26 at 8:30 p.m. at the Maine East High School Auditorium, Dempster and Potter Roads in Park Ridge. This is an unusual opportunity to hear a gigantic work of this kind performed by two community groups in the northwest suburban area. The orchestra consists of over one hundred players and the chorus of ninety singers.

Gustav Mahler, who conducted the New York Philharmonic from 1908 to 1910, was a classical romantic composer influenced by Beethoven, Bruckner and Wagner. He composed ten symphonies and 42 songs. His second symphony is a good example of all his work, being lengthy, scored for extremely large orchestra, restless and stormy in places and monumentally exalted in others.

The Skokie Valley Concert Choir, in its sixth year, is directed by Thelma Wilcox, who has received national acclaim for her work in choral and orchestral conducting.

Both soloists, Sally Stedman and Betty Myers, are currently performing professionally and teaching privately in the Chicago area. "Where's mine?"
"I did this square."

These happy voices could be heard from first graders at St. John Brebeuf school. They were referring to the designs they had created on material which was made into their teachers' dresses. The teachers were eager to share the creativity of their students with parents. Each of the 3 teachers, Mrs. Notter, Mrs. Ross and Sr. Marycolleen purchased a piece of plain material which they blocked into equal sections. Each child was given the opportunity to create a picture in one section. Permanent dry markers were used. Flowers, balloons, peace signs, geometric designs and messages of love appeared in a colorful array. The material was then made into very attractive dresses. The enthusiasm of the students was shared with parents when their teachers wore the dresses at group conferences which were held on Thursday, March 16.

Theodore Bikel Stars in 'Fiddler On The Roof'

You don't have to be a rich man to enjoy Theodore Bikel starring as Tevye in the musical hit "Fiddler on the Roof" opening at Mill Run's intimate theater-in-the-round on Tuesday, April 4 and continuing through Sunday, April 16.

The Mill Run Theater presents Theodore Bikel in "Fiddler on the Roof" on Tuesday, April 4 through Sunday, April 16.

"Fiddler on the Roof" is based on Sholom Aleichem's famous tale of Jewish life in a Russian community at the turn of the century. It has the distinction of being the longest running musical in American history.

The leading role of Tevye is played by the multi-talented Theodore Bikel, who recently starred in the Las Vegas production of "Fiddler on the Roof." He was Mary Martin's co-star on Broadway in "The Sound of Music" and has appeared in many other Broadway shows. He has applied his talents to virtually every top television show as actor or singer and has received several Emmy Award nominations.

Northwest Symphony to Perform Resurrection Symphony

The Northwest Symphony Orchestra, Perry Crafton conductor, will feature the Skokie Valley Concert Choir and soprano soloists, Sally Stedman and Betty Myers, in its presentation of Gustav Mahler's Resurrection Symphony on Palm Sunday, March 26 at 8:30 p.m. at the Maine East High School Auditorium, Dempster and Potter Roads in Park Ridge. This is an unusual opportunity to hear a gigantic work of this kind performed by two community groups in the northwest suburban area. The orchestra consists of over one hundred players and the chorus of ninety singers.

Gustav Mahler, who conducted the New York Philharmonic from 1908 to 1910, was a classical romantic composer influenced by Beethoven, Bruckner and Wagner. He composed ten symphonies and 42 songs. His second symphony is a good example of all his work, being lengthy, scored for extremely large orchestra, restless and stormy in places and monumentally exalted in others.

The Skokie Valley Concert Choir, in its sixth year, is directed by Thelma Wilcox, who has received national acclaim for her work in choral and orchestral conducting.

Both soloists, Sally Stedman and Betty Myers, are currently performing professionally and teaching privately in the Chicago area. Miss Stedman is a former faculty member of the North Carolina School of the Performing Arts and is primarily a recitalist and oratorio soloist. Miss Myers has been a featured soloist with the Lyric Opera Orchestra, the Florida Symphony and the Suburban Veteran's Chorus.

Adult tickets, $2, and student tickets, $1, may be purchased at the box office prior to the concert or by contacting Mrs. Elizabeth Brown at 823-2293. Children under 12 will be admitted free if accompanied by an adult, and Golden Agers will be admitted for $1 with membership cards.

Witnesses Observe Christ's Death

"Mankind's Deliverance into God's New Order" is the subject of a public address to be delivered next Sunday, March 26, 9:30 a.m., at the Morton Grove Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses. The lecture scheduled world-wide at all of the 27,000 Kingdom Halls, is the start of a special week of activity commemorating the death of Jesus Christ.

The lecture will be delivered by David Knoke, an ordained minister with the Morton Grove group. Knoke will discuss the Witnesses' conviction that God will do away with the present corrupt system within this decade and establish the righteous new order promised in the scriptures.

Next Wednesday evening, March 29, the memorial of Christ's death will be conducted by Richard Olson. Olson will outline the significance of Christ's death and why the anniversary date must be observed by Christians.

"The only date the founder of Christianity has instructed his faithful followers to observe," he explained, "is the anniversary of His death on the 14th day of the first month, Nisan, of the calendar used by the Jewish nation in Jesus' day. This year that day begins at sundown of Wednesday, March 29."

Emphasizing the importance of the celebration, scheduled for 8 p.m. at the Kingdom Hall, 6730 Beckwith, Morton Grove, Olson said that peak attendance was expected.

"This occasion will be observed in all congregations of Jehovah's Witnesses world wide. Last year more than 3,450,000 persons assembled at the memorial services of Christ's death," he noted. Olson indicated that most of the over 1,250,000 families that are currently studying the Bible with Jehovah's Witnesses will attend the sessions.

Senior Interview

By Barbara Kostak

One of Maine East's active seniors in the English department is Richard Brenner from Des Plaines. He plans to enroll in Southern Illinois university's school of communications.

Richard isn't sure which of the 3 fields - radio and television, stage, or writing - he'll branch off into yet. He's been preparing for one of these careers by working for radio station W.M.T.H., writing and editing for the school newspaper, and by spending much of his free time in the drama department, where he is vice-president of Theplans.

Rich has no real hobbies for there's not much spare time left between school and extra-curricular activities. He is also an impulsive person who will go do something when he feels like it, not when he's planned it.

relaxed as they sought out the winner. Spotting Mikva, Blase grabbed his hand and while the crowd was swirling in all directions, the two men spoke softly to one another. Blase said, "You're a good man...we'll get together." He later went on to say what a great job Mikva had done. During the brief exchange Mikva noted Maine and one other township were fairly close, but he, Mikva, had won Evanston by a large vote.

Blase and Warman then moved quickly out of the ballroom and Blase was stopped by a radio reporter who briefly interviewed him.

We moved down to Dan Walker's headquarters at the Sheraton on Michigan, and were once again surrounded by the tremendous number of young high school seniors. Walker was hugging on to everyone over Paul Simon, but the margin was tenuous. Everyone there remembered the narrow Kennedy victory in 1960, and the smell of the Daley tactics, in coming in with last minute votes, forced Walker to tell the TV-land he wouldn't tolerate any vote-stealing at this stage of the campaign, after the tremendous effort made here.

Here at Walker press headquarters we were in the big leagues. Campaign manager De Grazia's wife was telling us about her husband's past efforts for the Maremont foundation; and the work of Walker and her husband on behalf of Adlai Stevenson. And there were PR people all over the room, many showing off their credentials. "I was in the inner sanctum with Adlai when he walked Harry Truman," and lots of other people were trying to prove their credentials to anyone who would listen. Few of the people who really mattered cared. I was introduced to the chief fund-raiser for Walker and told him I only make contributions in $1 bills. He said he would be glad to accept them, any amount, for the fall election. I was about to head into the inner sanctum of the Walker suite itself, which is by invitation only, but the tension and the static was so intense, the invitation was vetoed.

Meanwhile, our number one son, was eating chicken and beef at the Sheraton Hotel with the Daley forces. It was a big night for my 17 year old, who likes to go where the action is. We spoke twice on the telephone, and he said he'd shaken Ed Muskie's hand, and was alongside Hanrahan, and was having one great time.

Just past midnight we headed toward the bridge on Michigan Avenue and bumped into Donald Page Moore, who had fought the good fight for state's attorney. We grabbed his hand and told him how proud we were of the effort he made. It was windy and a bit hasty, and Moore thanked us profusely.

Driving home we first heard another independent, Bob Mann, an old school chum, had won his race. We'd been with Mann only last week and were most pleased with his victory.

By the time we rolled into Morton Grove it was past one, and we were happy, and tired, and noticed the number one son was still wandering around the downtown headquarters.

Like all the winners, he's a part of the new Kiddle Korps, who are already making their impact on our elections. These kids are interested, intelligent and bring an enthusiasm into campaigning which bears well for the country.

The Mikvas, Walkers and the Manns were winners Tuesday night, and they did it with much help from the young. All these men are fierce independents, and have great appeal for the young.

It's the first hurrah for many of them. Long may they cheer.

cerning County money being placed in banks where County Commissioners had interests, proved Fulle's undoing. The bad publicity just before election time destroyed the favored Fulle. While he carried his own Maine Township substantially he, like Blase, couldn't overcome the shore vote which proved his downfall.

Young, who had been a former assistant secretary of state, and head of the Young Republican in Illinois some 20 years ago, is a rather folksy candidate, who leaves an indelible impression of being a straight-down-the-line conservative Republican.

In accepting the winner's mantle Mikva told his workers, "You are the greatest group of people... I'm just overwhelmed. You people were doing fantastic things..." and he reeled off their efforts in ringing doorbells and doing the nitty gritty politicking which pays off on election day. Mikva praised many of his key workers noting particularly the work of 22 year old campaign manager Jim Geocaris.

In speaking about his opponent Mikva said, "I hope I have his help. There are no hatchets to be buried." He then went on to say there's still an uphill battle to be fought and everyone there should take 2 days off before they start on phase 2.

Easter Seal Campaign Chairman

New services to help the handicapped, particularly adult stroke victims in need of occupational and speech therapy, will be made possible by funds derived from the 1972 Easter Seal Campaign, it was disclosed today by Mr. Charles Langfield of the First National Bank of Morton Grove, 6201 Dempster st.

 The campaign begins Feb. 28 and extends through Easter Sunday, April 2. This year's goal for Cook County is $407,000. Besides special aid for stroke victims, Easter Seals plans to expand its physical therapy services for all types of orthopedic conditions.

The Easter Seal Society of Metropolitan Chicago, serving Cook County children and adults, is a non-sectarian organization supported through individual and foundation donations. It has been providing service to thousands of handicapped for more than 36 years. All therapy programs are conducted by the Society's professional therapists with treatment given regardless of how much a family can or cannot afford to pay.

The door to your home not only serves as an entrance and exit, but as your protection. When the doorbell rings, it's natural to wonder who is there. The telephone door answering service permits you to answer the knock and identify the caller over the telephone. Your voice is transmitted to an outdoor speaker. This convenient feature is also handy when you can't drop everything and run to the door. Let the telephone business office wire your home for sound.

The program will run for 2 hours per night from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. Season starts - June 19. Registration deadline - June 16. Fee: $3.

Junior Leaders

Every summer the Park District offers an opportunity to 12, 13, and 14 year olds to help with the Park District programs. Boys and girls will work in our day camps, baseball programs, swimming, playground activities, maintenance, and office. In return there will be several special events scheduled throughout the summer. Junior leaders will go to Adventureland, ball games, picnics, and swimming. Besides, these junior leaders may join any other program we offer for half price.

Each junior leader will be able to work several programs over the summer and will have his choice of either morning, afternoon, or evenings to help in our programs. Being a junior leader means having responsibility, learning to work with boys and girls, developing skills in the recreational field, and just having a good time. Periodically all junior leaders will meet to discuss what they have learned, make suggestions, and ask questions about the programs they are working with.

To apply for a position as a junior leader with the Golf Maine Park District, come to 9229 Emerson, Des Plaines. Applicants must be 12, 13, 14 years old, a resident of the Golf Maine Park District, and have at least 4 hours free per week to work in our program. For any further information, please call 297-3000.

Summer is always a time for special activities at the Golf Maine Park District. This summer will be no different. Returning special events will be trips to Cub games, Sox games, Adventureland, and the Museum of Science and Industry. Once again we will sponsor a series of tournaments, including tennis, horse shoes, and volleyball, plus, for the first time this year will hold the Golf Maine Olympics. This will be for boys and girls from 6 to 60, featuring many of the regular olympic events and some of our own design. Awards for all winners will be given. Other special events will be our junior league all-star game, staff baseball game, our awards day and picnic, and many more. Our summer brochure and calendar will be out shortly, so be sure to keep the dates of our special events open.

Baseball

Registration for summer baseball has begun. Boys from 6-18 will find a program just for them. There is also a Men's Softball League for those over 18. Our information packet - baseball 1972 will be mailed to anyone calling 297-3000 and requesting one.

Basketball Wrap-Up

By Jim Fujimoto
 The LaGrange Lions ended the Maine East cage season by whipping the Demons, 63-49, in the opening game of the EIK Grove sectional.

It was LaGrange all the way, as the Lions jumped out to an early 7-0 lead behind guard Tom Netzel. Mark Bondeson tried to get Maine back into the game, but LaGrange was too powerful. The score at the end of the first quarter read Lions 17, Demons (Bondeson) 8.

LaGrange stretched the margin to 11 as forward Brad Warble tallied 9 in the second period. The Lions led 33-22 at the half.

Maine could not come back in the third quarter. They could muster only 11 points while LaGrange got balanced scoring from all of their starters and consequently pulled away to a 48-33 bulge after three periods.

But the Demons came roaring back on a basket by Mike McDowell, a basket and free throw by Bill Castanzo, and a three-point play by Mark Bondeson to open the final stanza. These points were unanswered and brought Maine to within seven at 48-41.

At this juncture, LaGrange settled down, though, out-scoring the Demons 15-8 to wrap-up the triumph.

who want some advanced instruction and a lot of playing time to practice. Also open is Learn-to-Swim, Basic, Wigmaking, and Mother's Little Helpers. Information on all programs can be obtained at 9229 Emerson.

So for the third time this season, the Lions were able to handle Maine East. Netzel led the way for LaGrange with 21 points. Warble added 12 in a winning game. Bondeson made his final game for the Demons a memorable one, almost single-handedly keeping Maine in the contest and contributing 26 points. Russ Anderson also concluded a fine career at Maine East with 8. Castanzo had 7, Larson had 4, and McDowell and Moorad each added 2 to complete the Demon scoring.

The Lions' good fortunes continued against Mark Township as they defeated the Hawks of Maine South to set the stage for their super-sectional confrontation with West Suburban Conference champ Hinsdale Central at Aurora.

Maine East ended the year with a composite 11-12 ledger. The season had to be satisfying, with the Demons bringing home their first regional title since 1966.

District 71 - Kindergarten Registration

Registration of children who reside within the boundaries of School District 71, and will be 5 years of age before Dec. 1, 1972, will be held on Monday, April 3, and Tuesday, April 4.

To facilitate the registration procedures, parents and their kindergarten-bound children are asked to come to Niles Elementary School South, 6935 Touhy Ave., at their scheduled time as follows: Last names A through B - Monday, April 3 at 9 a.m.; C through H - Monday, April 3 at 10:30 a.m.; I through L - Monday, April 3 at 1 p.m.; M through P - Tuesday, April 4 at 9 a.m.; Q through T - Tuesday, April 4 at 10:30 a.m.; U through Z - Tuesday, April 4 at 1 p.m.

At this time the children will spend about an hour in the kindergarten class, while the parent fills out a detailed form. To avoid delay be prepared to answer, among others, the following questions: 1. Child's physician address and phone number, 2. Father's business address and phone number, 3. Age the child started speaking, walking and talking. The child's birth certificate or photostatic copy of same must be presented at the time of enrollment on Aug. 31, 1972 (tentative). Hospital records, baptismal certificates or registration receipts are not acceptable. For children in Cook County, a copy of the birth certificate may be obtained from Edward J. Barrett, Cook County Clerk's office, 130 N. Wells St., Chicago, Illinois 60606, for $2.

Vision of the Third World

Joshua Hoffman, sculptor, anthropologist, and photographer, will bring his one-man show, "Vision of the Third World," to Oakton Community College at 7900 N. Nagle, Morton Grove, on Thursday and Friday, March 23 and 24.

Mr. Hoffman will conduct a lecture-workshop on Thursday, March 23, from 12 noon to 1:30 p.m. in Room 108 of Building 1 on the Oakton campus. He will set up an exhibit of photography and African artifacts in the student lounge in Building 4, on Friday, March 24. Mr. Hoffman will be presented to give information about the exhibit from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Friday.

Both programs are free to all Oakton students and to the general public.

"Visions of the Third World" is about tribal Africa and its relationship to tomorrow's urban America. A former student of Arizona Architect-Craftsman, Paolo Soleri, Joshua Hoffman planned a permanent program of sculptural and craft training at the Center for the Arts in Upper Volta, West Africa, while working alongside traditional African craftsmen. He continued producing his own sculpture while in Africa and also developed an extensive photographic essay of African life.

Hoffman's photographs and slides are of culturally distinct tribal groups involved in scenes of daily life, celebrations and craftsmen at work. These photos have been presented not only because of their anthropological value as a collection about little-known African peoples but also for their sculptural strength and sense of composition.

Oakton Community College is a public community college serving the 8 communities in Niles and Maine townships.

Take stock in America.

First Baptist

"When They Wave the Palms Again" . . . Are you going to be present when they wave the palms again? This appropriate message and provocative question will be presented by Pastor Roger McManus of the First Baptist church, 7359 Waukegan rd., Niles, at the 11 a.m. service on Palm Sunday.

The 9:45 a.m. Sunday School classes continue to increase their enrollment, and the Church hopes that many others will join them for profitable instruction. The practicing that the Children's Choir has been doing every Sunday morning at 9:30, under the direction of Mrs. Reiser, is producing some fine singing at the Sunday morning services.

At the 7:30 p.m. Sunday evening service Pastor McManus will continue his messages from the scriptures as they apply to today's time.

Prayer Service is held each Wednesday at 7 p.m. followed by instruction at 7:30 p.m. in "How to Understand the Bible."

The mixed choir will practice on Wednesday at 8 p.m., and the Ladies' choir will practice at 8:30 p.m. in preparation for the "Sing-A-Long" that will be held at the church on March 25, at 7 p.m. Refreshments will be served. Please call Mr. and Mrs. George Ostrin at 698-3579 for reservations. Admission is free.

Care for babies and toddlers will be provided at all services.

'Christ in the Concrete City'

An awakening to the stark reality of the passion and significance of the Easter story to our lives today will be portrayed by the Taylor University Religious Drama Company when they present CHRIST IN THE CONCRETE CITY at the First United Methodist church of Park Ridge, on Tuesday, March 28 at 7:30 p.m. The church is located at 418 Touhy, Park Ridge.

CHRIST IN THE CONCRETE CITY was written by Phillip Turner, a pastor in an industrial parish. His effort was to set forth dramatically the meaning of the passion of Christ in words and images understandable by the average person in a modern industrial city. Using both Biblical and contemporary characters, the author draws the undeniable parallel between the abandonment of the crowd who cheered Christ's crucifixion and the egotistical smugness of mankind today.

Developed and directed by Professor Allen Goetsch, Head of the Speech and Drama Department of Taylor University, and sponsored by that Department, the Religious Drama Company is composed of 7 students who have committed their weekends and Spring vacation to presenting Christ through the medium of theatre. Costumes for the production were designed by Jessie Rouselov, assistant professor of Speech and Drama. Lighting and make-up design is by Harvey Campbell, instructor of Speech and Drama. Members of the Company include Debi Carnetix, Omaha, Neb.; Jim Clark, Upland, Ind.; Kathy Jenkinson (technical assistant), Cowan, Ind.; Don McLaughlin, Miramar, Fla.; Jim Costling, Western Springs, Ill.; Don Rice, Louisville, Ohio; and Joyce Richardson, Peoria, Ill.

Dr. Joseph E. Dickerson, pastor of the First United Methodist church wishes to extend to the public an invitation to attend this challenging performance.
