Policeman's Sunglasses Found at Site of Restaurant Fire

"No Bill" Returned in Niles Policemen Arson Grand Jury Hearing

The Special June Grand Jury returned a "No Bill" Wednesday afternoon on the charges 2 Niles policemen committed arson last Halloween night where the Sandtrap Restaurant had been burned down.

After several hearing days the jury did not find probable cause after listening to a dozen witnesses appearing before them. The case can be re-opened any time within the next two years if additional evidence is presented.

While grand jury hearings are not open to the public The Bugle learned among the evidence presented was a pair of sunglasses and a watch. The glasses' 2 lens and frame were traced and found to be owned by one of the policemen under investigation. The glasses were found in the Sandtrap Restaurant area after the fire. The policeman admitted they might have been his glasses but said they may have been lost when he previously chased some young people from the abandoned building there.

The Sandtrap Restaurant, Harlem and Milwaukee, was an abandoned building which had two or three fires previously. Four $5,000 insurance policies were still in force when the last fire took place, which investigating officials considered "unusual."

An arson report was sent by the Niles Fire Department to the State Fire Marshal's office which recommended to the state's attorney's office there was evidence of arson. The two prior fires were also deemed probable cases of arson.

At the time of the Sandtrap fire two Niles policemen had temporarily been relieved of duty. According to Niles police chief, Clarence Emptson, one of the policemen had furnace trouble at home, and he went home to service it. During the repair he was severely burned which required two weeks of care at Lutheran General Hospital. During the same hour of his home furnace problem the Sandtrap fire occurred which resulted in the investigations.

(REPRINTED FROM SEPT. 18, 1969 ISSUE)

It wasn't any traumatic experience... and it couldn't even be considered a "tear-in-the-eye moment..." or a lump-in-the-throat feeling... but still, our "little girl" left the next Sunday, and Little Mother and Dad knew one era had ended and another one was starting. We had joined that ever-growing legion known as parents of a collegiate.

During the past week I had noticed Betty Coed's mother was lingering in her daughter's bedroom. She'd just sort of stand in the center of the room, and rather gloomily look about the room. She didn't say anything but I didn't tease her about her lingering.

Sunday at the noon dinner Betty Coed had her boyfriend alongside her and when her corny Dad gave a toast wishing her well during the coming years she gave me that, "Did you really have to say that?" look. Since there were three other younger ones at the table who generally spill their way thru a meal, the chances for any sentimental "last meal at home" were unlikely. The only sentiment I had was, "I'll be glad when she's gone, then I won't have to look at this boyfriend 6 times a day."

Tuesday night, September 12, Oakton Community College's public hearing at Niles North High School, will determine the position the Board will take when it confronts the Illinois State Junior College Board three days later.

At Tuesday night's regular board meeting more than 400 people turned up in anticipation of voicing their feelings about the Beckwith - Narragansett site, which presently is the preferred location by the majority of the board.

Board chairman LeRoy Wauck made it clear the Board would make its presentation regarding all considered sites at the Sept. 12 meeting, but allowed comments of those interested in speaking. Questions asked by the audience were deferred for the most part, stating such an exchange would

The enclosure of the Niles Park District's skating rink is in full swing headed for an enclosure date in mid-October. The full completion of the project is set for mid-December. Despite some unfavorable weather conditions, Bulley and Andrews Company, the general contractor has made good progress.

The enclosure will enable the Park District to have longer seasons and later hours and at the same time not infringe upon the comforts of the neighboring residents. Last year there were several complaints about noise coming from the ice rink, the enclosure should eliminate this noise problem. The enclosure will also keep the ice rink temperature stable which will add to the comfort of participants.

Information about the many different programs that will be provided at the ice rink is available at both the ice rink on Ballard rd, and at the Niles Park District offices at 7877 Milwaukee ave. The information will also be included in the Park District's Fall, winter, and Spring brochure which will be distributed this week.

Vehicle Stickers

Philip Raffo, Maine Township Clerk, has stated that his office has received quite a number of phone calls since the court decision of Aug. 28 ruled the unincorporated area vehicle tax to be unconstitutional. Many of these calls have been inquiries regarding a refund to those who had purchased the Cook County sticker. Since there has been no ruling regarding the disposition of these funds which have been held in escrow, and there will probably be an appeal in the case, it is unlikely, Raffo said, that anyone can expect a refund soon. People have also come into the Maine Township office to get their money back, but this tax was levied by the County Board, the money paid to the County Treasurer, and any refunds will have to come from the County.

Also, Raffo stated, it would seem a number of people did not purchase the County sticker, awaiting the outcome of the court suit, and we are now getting calls from people who want to know if the Maine Township stickers are still available. The answer is yes, there are still some 1972 stickers left and they may be obtained, free of charge, from my office. For more information on these, call 724-6400.

Begin Cleanup of River's North Branch

Many citizens of the Chicago area are unaware that a stream of great natural beauty and recreational potential flows down through the northern suburbs and into the city of Chicago. This stream is the North Branch of the Chicago River. Unfortunately, years of misuse have polluted the waters of this stream and filled its channel with natural and man-made debris.

Now, the first step in the restoration of the North Branch has begun. This step is the Army Corps of Engineers' project for clearing debris out of the section of river running downstream from Golf rd. to the junction with the North Shore Channel. Additionally, the project includes removal of selected whole trees or branches that are falling in the reaches of river between Golf rd. and Devon ave. and between the west boundary of Gompers Park and the North Shore Channel. The trees that will be removed were selected and marked during joint inspections made by officials of the Corps of Engineers and the forest preserve, park and city agencies responsible for this river.

Work on this project is being accomplished by the firm of B. Haney and Sons, Inc. of Franklin Park, under supervision of the Corps of Engineers. Great care will be taken by the workers to avoid defacement of the landscape in the project area, and any areas inadvertently damaged will be restored as nearly as possible to their original condition.

All work will be carried out during work days, and debris piles will be removed from public access areas prior to 5 p.m. on Friday afternoons. The project is scheduled for completion in December.

This first step will make a big contribution to the restoration of the environment along the north branch. Hopefully, it will be followed by other steps, such as pollution control, that are needed to complete this restoration and to preserve the stream once it is restored.

Lions Plan for Candy Day

The Lions Club of Niles is mobilizing for the Oct. 6, annual Candy Day Campaign with the appointment of Dominick Lo Verde, 7540 Nora, Niles as the club's general chairman.

Serving with Mr. Lo Verde announced President Tony Hubick, 7127 Breen, Niles are three committee chairmen.

Heading up the manpower committee is Steve Dawlec, 7133 Breen, Niles; Jim Matousek, 8558 N. Olcott, Niles is publicity chairman; and Mayor Nicholas Blase, 8424 Peter Terrace, Niles is underwriters chairman.

The Niles Lion's goal is $5,000 toward this year's $850,000 statewide goal. Funds raised go toward the Lions support of the Hadley School for the Blind, Winnetka, Ill.; Leader Dogs for the Blind, Rochester, Mich.; Illinois Camp Lions for visually handicapped children; Dialogue, a recorded service for the blind and Illinois Society for the Prevention of Blindness.

A portion of the funds raised remains in the Niles Lions Club treasury for local projects for help to the blind and visually handicapped in Niles.

Marzulo Establishes Athletic Scholarship Fund

A scholarship fund to benefit outstanding Maine East athletes has been established by Sam C. Marzulo, 746 Elmore ave., Park Ridge, former athletic director at Maine East High School. The fund will be administered by Maine Township High School District 207. The annual income from the fund will be awarded as a scholarship to the graduating senior selected to receive the Sam C. Marzulo Achievement Award. The money will be paid directly to the university or college the recipient plans to attend, to help defray tuition or other college expenses.

The first student to receive the scholarship grant is Russell Anderson, a member of the 1972 graduating class, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell L. Anderson, 7450 Seward ave., Niles. He will be attending Northern Illinois University at DeKalb this fall.

Since 1964 the Sam C. Marzulo Achievement Award has been awarded annually to the eligible Maine East athlete who in the judgment of a Selection Committee comprised of the school principal, athletic director, and dean of students has "attained the highest degree of academic and athletic accomplishments in relation to his natural capabilities; displayed seriousness of purpose and high moral character; and earned the sincere respect of his teammates and fellow students."

An award plaque has been given to each recipient, and his name has been added to the permanent Achievement Award plaque on display at Maine East. Henceforth, each Achievement Award recipient will also receive the Sam C. Marzulo Scholarship Grant, to be used at the college of his choice.

In 1969 the Board of Education of Maine Township High School District 207 expressed its appreciation to Marzulo for his many years of fine service by dedicating Maine East's new swimming facility the "Sam C. Marzulo Natatorium."

Before he retired in 1964, Marzulo had an impressive 38-year career at Maine East as athletic director, teacher and coach in the physical education department. He was especially noted for bringing out the best in his pupils and helping to develop traits of good sportsmanship, character, and citizenship in the students under him. The physical education program developed by him ranked high among all the schools in the area.

Marzulo was nationally known for his excellence as a swimming and track coach, with his Maine East teams winning many national and state championships in both sports. The Achievement Award bearing his name was established at the time of his retirement, to perpetuate his memory and to encourage in young men of the Maine high schools those qualities which he sought to instill in their predecessors during his many years of service to the school district and the community.

He was especially noted for bringing out the best in his pupils and helping to develop traits of good sportsmanship, character, and citizenship in the students under him. The physical education program developed by him ranked high among all the schools in the area.

Maine High Schools' Achievement Tests

Maine high school seniors will be given the Iowa Tests of Educational Development (ITED) on Wednesday morning, September 13, at Maine East, Maine North, Maine South and Maine West High schools. While the testing is in progress, a faculty workshop will be held at each school.

Seniors will report at the usual opening time at their respective high schools and will be dismissed for the remainder of the day at noon. Freshmen, sophomores and juniors will not be in attendance in the morning. They will report at 12:15 p.m., attend homeroom, and then proceed to afternoon classes.

A modified bus schedule will be in effect and students will be advised by their respective high schools of this schedule. Because of space problems and the time periods for testing, the cafeteria in the schools will not be open to the students that day.

Each year since 1963, as part of its education program, the Maine Township High School district has administered the ITED achievement test battery to all incoming freshmen. The tests are given again to students after they have been in high school three years. The areas covered in the ITED test battery are: reading, language arts, mathematics, social studies, science, English and vocabulary.

Incoming freshmen tests results are particularly useful in helping these students assess their background in specific academic areas. The tests give some tangible evidence of weaknesses and strengths which in turn enables students to make more effective decisions regarding the selection of courses in high school for appropriate educational goals.

Three years later, a similar test is given again to these students to evaluate, on an individual and group basis, the degree of growth that has taken place. Although individual student assessment is the primary value of this program, the school district itself can make certain judgments regarding its academic program by studying results of the tests. From available materials comparisons can be made on a national, state and regional basis.

Overall, the evidence collected over the past seven years indicates that performance levels of students entering the Maine high schools have remained consistently above the national average. This same sort of performance is reflected by subsequent testing three years later.

The achievement potential of incoming freshmen in this district has been determined to be at the 65th percentile. Test results of these students three years later indicate that this achievement at this level has been maintained. The evidence as shown on previous test results indicates that the instruction being given at all four Maine high schools in the basic academic areas has maintained the high level of student competency shown by the incoming freshmen.

Plan for Oakton's Permanent Campus

The Advisory Committee for Physical Education and Recreation for Oakton Community college met with Dr. Stanton Leggett, educational consultant who is developing the master plan for a permanent campus for Oakton Community college, on Monday, Aug. 14.

The five-man advisory committee was meeting for the first time with Dr. Robert Hale, Director of Athletics for OCC. Discussion centered around the allotted space for physical education for a permanent campus. The committee members favored a large activity area or gymnasium to two or three separate areas and felt that the college should have sufficient outdoor facilities, including tennis courts and areas for both intramural and varsity sports.

Committee members present were Jack Kerman, Director of Parks and Recreation, Park Ridge; James Kohler, Director, Park Ridge YMCA; Mr. O.D. Wilson, former Director of Athletics, Maine South High school; Jack Lindberg, Director of Parks and Recreation, Skokie; and Robert Kunkel, Director of Parks and Recreation, Des Plaines.

Oakton Community Relations Committee

Twenty-five members of the community and their guests were present for the meeting of the Community Relations - Community Service committee of Oakton Community College's board of trustees, held Aug. 14 in the college's board room. Present were Raymond E. Hartstein, Skokie, trustee and chairman of the committee; Paul Gilson, Skokie, trustee and co-chairman of the committee; Bob Gutschick, trustee from Morton Grove; Dr. Kohlman, college president; Bob Gulluly, assistant superintendent of high school district 207; Mrs. Gladys Shute, assistant director, Maine - Oakton - Niles Adult and Continuing Education Program (MONACEP); Bob Lettas, Skokie; Leonard Estrin, Skokie; Mrs. Doris Sopkin, Skokie; Roy Bible, Skokie; Mrs. Barbara Tuch, Morton Grove; and Dr. Lena Lucietto, assistant to the president, Oakton Community College.

Mr. Hartstein stated the purpose of the evening's meeting, to bring representatives of the community up-to-date regarding the present, immediate future, and long-range plans for the college. Presentations were made by various guest speakers.

Dr. Stanton Leggett, the college's educational consultant, presented a progress report on his work in developing educational specifications for the college's permanent campus. Dr. Leggett's role is to translate the educational plan into language which will be used by the architects in building the permanent campus.

Dr. Leggett reviewed his activities at Oakton during the past few months during which time he has been organizing the views of college personnel regarding the uses of space for the college's permanent facilities. He told of the importance of receiving good community feedback from members of the committee as well as other citizens. He stated that the real problem in building the permanent campus is the parking problem.

Dr. Paul Kunkel, director of development for Parkland Community College, Springfield, spoke on the steps to be taken in developing a college educational foundation. The objective of developing a college educational foundation is to search out and to receive financial help for the college from sources outside of the usual funding sources.

Dr. Kohlman reported briefly on innovations which are in operation at Oakton, such as the non-departmental or group organizational structure of faculty, the Semester for Self Directed Study, and Election Symposium '72, a twelve hour interdisciplinary political science course.

Tom Traves, Niles, a student at Oakton and a peer counselor, demonstrated the technique of peer counseling. Tom, who has been trained as a peer counselor to assist the student development staff in counseling students enrolling at Oakton, demonstrated the technique of using the college's directory of courses and sections in counseling Miss Martha Groves, a student at Northwestern University, who was one of the press representatives covering the meeting.

Part of the final discussion of the meeting was devoted to getting the Community Relations membership's opinion regarding the conduct of the college's bond issue referendum for the permanent campus in connection with the recent announcement regarding the college's desire to obtain the Beckwith site for a permanent campus.

Persons interested in joining the Community Relations - Community Service Committee should contact Dr. Lena Lucietto, 967-5120, extension 382.

Maine East Opening Statistics

The little red school house isn't so little when one takes a look at Maine Township High School East. As of Aug. 19, Maine East will house for the 1972-'73 school year 3,538 students, consisting of 891 freshmen, 949 sophomores, 874 juniors and 825 seniors.

A residential breakdown of the 3,528 Maine East students registered by Aug. 19 for classes shows that Niles has the highest number of Maine East students - 1,398. Morton Grove is second with 821, followed by Des Plaines with 750, Park Ridge with 550, Glenview with 10, and other areas with 9.

Of the 1,398 Niles students, seniors total 326, juniors 362, sophomores 357, and freshmen 353. Morton Grove showed 189 freshmen entering Maine East this Fall, followed by 204 from Des Plaines, and 142 from Park Ridge.

THE CORNERS of Where it's at and What's happening...

By Ed Hanson

George is a small businessman. He works hard, from 5 a.m. to 8 p.m., in his small restaurant which he opened a few months ago in Niles. It's called the new Niles Restaurant, 7685 Milwaukee ave. To stimulate business George decided to advertise some "specials." That's where I came in and designed an ad for the BUGLE'S "Dining Guide" pages. The ad read: TWO COMPLETE DINNER SPECIALS, only $1.19 each.

Now these "specials" were complete dinners, like Sirloin of Beef, liver and onions, turkey and dressing, etc. They included soup or salad and dessert.

Now that's a very cheap price, only a $1.19 for a complete quality dinner in these days of high prices and George expected to get some response to his ad.

Boy! . . . by George, George received lots more response to his Bugle ad than his wildest expectations. He even got many people coming in who wanted two dinners for only $1.19. You see after the price in the ad of $1.19 the word "each" was somewhat left off which wasn't George's fault.

Further, you'd think people in this age would know that a complete dinner for a buck nineteen is less than half the price it's worth. What do some people want? Beats me!

Anyway the moral to the story is: "It pays to advertise in the BUGLE if you want your ad read!"

From a $1.19 to $45,900 is quite a jump in price but Terry Frediani of Windsor Estates tells me Bugle newspapers is selling his prestige homes in Mt. Prospect. Frediani Developers at Golf and Landcaster, Mt. Prospect have been running a series of ads in Bugle newspapers offering their 3, 4 and 5 bedroom homes from $45,900 in the ideal community of Windsor Estates west. I'm told they are getting a lot of action from their Bugle ads in Niles, Golf Mill-East Maine and Morton Grove, particularly on their BRIGHTON model which they're currently been advertising. The BRIGHTON is a split-level home, incorporating modern design and comfortable spaciousness. The three bedrooms and one of the two baths are located on the upper level affording you the opportunity to entertain without disturbing the children. And they feature hardwood floors, natural or stained trim, insulated exterior walls and ceilings, deluxe cabinets and many great features. With no obligation, if you're home hunting, it will pay you to investigate WINDSOR ESTATES, just phone FREDIANI Developers, Golf and Landcaster, Mt. Prospect - 439-9043. They're open daily and Sunday 10 'til dark.

The moral to this story: The Bugle can sell homes from $45,900 and more, as well as a $1.19 dinner special.

And Bill Kenney (I spelled his name right this week) tells me customers are beating a path to his door since he started advertising in BUGLE newspapers. And what's he advertising (as if you didn't know) why - DOORS. . . storm doors! KENNEY A LUMINUM PRODUCTS, 7570 Milwaukee ave., Chicago has more than 60 door models to choose from. Kenney has 25 years experience in installing doors, doing aluminum siding, building porches, patio doors, awnings and canopies. For a free estimate just phone Bill Kenney 792-3700 or beat a path to his door for your door.

And Jake of JAKE'S RESTAURANT, 7740 Milwaukee ave., Niles, tells me he is still tired from all the action his BUGLE ads produced during his gala grand opening a week ago. Jake actually had to have traffic cops direct customers into his restaurant and overflow cars parked in the adjacent parking of his next-door neighbor, Apex Amusement Co. Jake is featuring his first-of-the-week specials again but informs me that he has another big promotion which he is going to spring soon.

I understand the response to the BEAM'N BARREL's grand opening announcements (two full pages appeared in BUGLE newspapers) was terrific. The Angelo family tells me they had large waiting lines, and they are sorry so many of their good friends and customers had to endure rather a long wait to be seated. Apparently the all new BEAM'N BARREL, restaurant and lounge, 7136 Milwaukee ave., Niles has really caught on with the public. It takes a lot of courage to completely change the image of a business which for years had been very successful. But the Angelo family recognized the need to change with the times and the entirely new concept of the BEAM'N BARREL was the result. It's cozy and rustic atmosphere has a wide appeal, both to the young and old. And their steaks, ribs, seafood and chicken are top quality foods prepared by those with years of experience in dealing with the public. The BEAM'N BARREL opens at 4 p.m., daily (except Monday) . . . if YOU haven't tried it yet - do so, for it will be an enjoyable experience to you and all members of your family.

Lorraine tells me that since advertising her new POLKA policy, Friday nights in BUGLE newspapers she's been seeing a lot of new faces at the LONE TREE INN, 7710 Milwaukee ave., Niles. The HARMONY KINGS are scheduled for Sept. 8 and the HAPPY NOTES on Sept. 15. And the LONE TREE INN offers TED GRAYSON on Saturday nights. For an evening of great entertainment, and wonderful American-Polish cuisine drop into the LONE TREE . . .

See you next week . . .

Park District Baseball League Spreads Good Will

The Niles Park District and the Niles Baseball League put out the welcome mat to over 40 city and suburban hardball teams. Players ranged from 8 to 16 years old competing in 5 separate divisions.

Teams representing Park Ridge, Arlington Hgts., Edison Park, Buffalo Grove, Morton Grove, Belwood, Skokie, Norwood Park, Berwyn, Elk Grove, Deerfield, Northbrook, Des Plaines, Orleole Park and Niles competed for the five division titles.

The Niles teams came up winners in the Peanut League Division (8-9 year olds), the Little League Division (10-12 year olds) and the Pony League Division (13-14 year olds). Park Ridge pulled in the other two titles in Pony Grad Division (15-16 year olds) and for the 6th successive year in the '5 ft. and under' little league division.

All teams involved highly praised the worth of the tournaments and how much they meant to their own programs. They also marveled at the top notch job the Niles Park District did on maintaining the playability of the fields through the heavy rains which prevailed through duration of the tournaments. Park Board President Walt Beusse, Niles Baseball League President Chuck Elin, Niles Baseball Commissioner Don Fergus and Tournament Director Dan Kosiba preside over the trophy presentations in each of the 5 divisions. The huge success of these tournaments revolved around the close knit cooperation between the Niles Park District and the Niles Baseball League.

Why is it wherever I go on vacation they're always having some kind of weather they never had before at this time of year?

Warman Replaces Brill in 4th District

(Alan Greifman News Release)

Charges of old time political bossism in the tradition of smoke-filled rooms were charged this week after local Democratic committeemen selected Edward Warman to run for the State House in the Fourth District, replacing Aaron Brill on the ballot.

Niles Township Regular Democratic spokesman, Alan Greifman, charged that the slating of Warman to fill the spot vacated by Brill, who was a winner in the primary, was most irregular. "It was a closed meeting," Greifman stated, "and as a matter of fact held before Brill, who was the candidate selected by the voters, had even taken the proper steps to resign publicly.

"Even though the committee had more time in which to make a selection, it chose to push this through in less than 12 hours. As a matter of fact, Brill's resignation was even written on Warman's own legal stationery."

One of the unusual aspects of this move is the way it crossed normal township political lines. Warman broke with his own Niles Township organization and aligned himself with Maine Township's Nicholas Blase in this move to take over the district. Warman was Blase's campaign manager in the heated March primary contest for Congress against Abner Mikva.

Present at the swiftly called meeting were Blase, Wheeling Township Committeeman James McCabe, Northfield Township Committeeman Bernard Peskin, and Greifman, who objected to the call of the meeting and appeared for Niles Township Committeeman Aaron Jaffe. Jaffe did not want to attend the meeting, because he considered it irregular and possibly illegal.

Warman, who did not choose to run in the primary for the Fourth District, originally filed petitions for the same seat in the Fifteenth District. He does not live in either one.

Maine Teachers Institute Day

It was "back to school" on Tuesday, Aug. 29, for about 740 members of the professional staff of the Maine Township High Schools. District 207 faculty members assembled on that date for a Teachers' Institute and a full day of activities in preparation for the 1972-73 school year.

A "coffee and rolls" breakfast served in the Maine East student cafeteria was followed by a general staff meeting in the school auditorium, with William P. Wuehrmann, president of the Board of Education, presiding. Dr. Richard R. Short, Superintendent of Schools, gave a short address in which he wished the teachers a successful year and outlined the programs, activities and goals of the school district for the coming months.

Richard J. Martwick, Superintendent of the Cook County Educational Service Region, was present to extend greetings to the teachers. Also on the program was Karl E. Miller, president of the District 207 Teachers' Association, and Shirley J. Sandelands, president of the Maine Education Association.

After the general session, faculty members convened at their assigned high schools for meetings with their principal, assistant principals and department chairmen. A get-acquainted luncheon was held at each of the four Maine high schools, followed by afternoon departmental meetings until adjournment at 3 p.m.

New staff members met on Monday, Aug. 28, in their respective school buildings for all-day orientation sessions at which they became acquainted with various aspects of the operation of the school system and were given information concerning curriculum materials, special programs and general organizational procedures of the district. They also attended the Teachers' Institute on Aug. 29.

Van Dellen to Speak at Hospital

Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen, the Chicago Tribune's Medical Editor of the "How To Keep Well" column for more than 25 years, will be featured at Resurrection hospital's first Community-wide Health Education program series on Wednesday, Sept. 13 at the hospital, 7435 W. Talcott ave., Chicago.

The program will begin at 8 p.m. in the west hall of the new dining area on the ground floor.

Dr. Van Dellen has received as many as 170,000 letters of inquiry from his readers in a single year. His columns appear regularly in the Chicago Tribune and in more than 100 other large newspapers in the United States, Puerto Rico, Japan and Canada, with a daily circulation of approximately 12 million.

The program is free and open to everyone.

GAA Swim Party

All Maine East girls are invited to attend a "Howdy Splash!" on Thursday, Sept. 7, from 3:45 to 5 p.m. in the pool.

Barbara Bovenmeyer, girls' physical education department chairman, said that the members of Maine East's Girls' Athletic Association feel that this is one of the best ways to kick off the year's program of activities.

There has always been a good turn out in the past for the swim parties, particularly by freshman girls, and G.A.A. hopes that more will join them in their expanded program.

LETTERS TO EDITOR

Young Clarifies Position on Food Stamps

Dear Editor:

Recently you printed a letter to the Editor from Mr. Thomas Flynn in which he distorted my position with respect to the use of food stamps.

My position was, simply stated, that people who voluntarily stop working under strike conditions should not be entitled to food stamps as long as the strike continues.

Let me also state that I consider myself pro-union, and believe that unions have made a vital and significant contribution to the welfare of millions and millions of Americans.

It is my position that government should be even-handed in its dealing with both unions and businesses. If the government furnishes food stamps to strikers, it is not being even-handed.

Mr. Flynn, acting as a spokesman for Abner Mikva, ignores a basic fact when he talks about tax write-offs for losses. Companies are in business to make a profit. If however, they suffer a loss, they are entitled to write off their loss against profits based on pure fairness. An individual can do the same.

Cordially,
Samuel H. Young,
Candidate for Congress,
10th District

MONEY TALKS

Will You Be Poor after 65? By Henry L. Ford Executive Vice President NILES SAVINGS

The increase in the average length of life in the United States is one of the striking phenomena of our time—from over 40 years of age in 1890 to well over 70 years today.

Attainment of this life span must be viewed as a mixed blessing. This is particularly true for those who have not made intelligent provision to enjoy it.

Many young Americans think of old age as a happy, serene time, free of responsibilities and day-to-day drudgery. Others view it from the opposite extreme of helpless physical and mental disintegration.

Neither of these impressions stands up under facts. On the one hand, sheer, stark poverty prevents many older people from doing the things that the "golden years" are supposed to make possible.

On the other hand, older people are healthier than most persons suspect. Most are active and vigorous. Even the sex life continues longer than was generally thought: Dr. Kinsey was "astonished" at its durability. "It cannot be said," Dr. Bernard Kutner observes, "that illness dominates old age."

Despite the "affluent society" in which we live, millions of Americans struggle at or below the threshold of poverty. Sociologist Michael Harrington says bluntly: "There are a hell of a lot of poor people in America today."

The largest single group of poor are those characterized as "aged." Today, as was the case fifteen years ago, the aged constitute almost one-third of poverty-stricken

Americans. The plight of the aged can be seen from these facts:

—Four-fifths of single persons over 65 are living on poverty incomes.

—Two-thirds of family heads over 65 have incomes of less than $4,000 annually.

—There are more than 1,000,000 Americans 85 years or older. This is the fastest growing age group in the nation.

—In the next 40 years, with no increase in life expectancy, the number of Americans past 65 years will more than double. Those over 75 will triple by the year 2000 (which you will be if you are now in your mid-40s).

What does all this mean to you and me? For one thing, whatever our present income level, we shall have fewer dollars to reckon with after 65 than we do now. "Poor people are the bulk of the old," wrote Arthur Herzog in the New York Times Magazine. "If you weren't poor before you reached your 65th year, you are likely to be so afterward."

—For one thing, we are probably going to live longer than we realize. This will aggravate the problem of poverty; the longer we live, the more funds we shall need to tide us over.

In view of this, people who "live for today" (and they are legion) are childishly thoughtless. Existing from year to year without plans for an enjoyable retired future, neglecting high-earning years to provide for little-income years, is like camping outdoors in summer with no concern for winter shelter.

stitute of CPAs. He is an elder in the Niles Presbyterian church. Fujimoto and his wife Margaret have two children: James and Jeanne.

Ashner Named Controller

Ashner resides at 7726 S. Karlov, Chicago, and Friedman at 6028 N. Francisco, Chicago.

New Civic Brochure

The sales campaign for the new Civic Brochure has gotten off to a fast start according to Charles L. Barbaglia, President of the Niles Chamber of Commerce and Industry.

The new Civic Brochure was endorsed by the Board of Directors of the Chamber and Windsor Publications was asked to produce the book. Through dramatic and effective pictures and words, it will cover all the important facts of the community: our history, government, schools, shopping, industry, residential areas, parks, churches, nearby recreation and our plans for future development.

"This new brochure will give us an effective sales tool that we can use to help attract more industry and more residents, teachers and doctors to Niles," commented Mr. Barbaglia. "We will mail it out in answer to all serious inquiries we receive at the Chamber, and it will also be distributed locally for use as a retail buyer's guide."

Centel Explains New Rates

Customers of Central Telephone Company of Illinois will find their telephone bills higher if they have made any intrastate calls or chose to have an operator place any local calls.

The new rates were granted Illinois Bell Telephone Company effective Aug. 18 after approval by both the Illinois Commerce and Federal Price Commission. C. F. Eskrich, District Manager, pointed out that Central Telephone Company concurred with the new rate structure since it deals principally with intrastate toll rates placed through the facilities of Illinois Bell Telephone Company.

The increases are as follows: . . . Customer-dialed station-to-station calls: Increases of 3 to 5 cents are assigned to daytime calls up to 166 miles. Daytime calls beyond 216 miles, within the state, are reduced 5 to 15 cents. Evening and night rates are increased 3 to 10 cents.

. . . Operator-assisted station-to-station calls: Increases of 15 to 40 cents were granted, with the greatest boosts assigned to short-distance calls. The 15 cent surcharge on credit card and collect, third-number calls was eliminated.

. . . Person-to-person calls: Increases of up to 40 cents were granted with the stress once again being placed on the short-distance calls.

. . . Local operator-handled calls are now subject to the minimum long-distance toll charge of 30 cents, plus an overtime charge of 10 cents a minute over the initial 3 minutes. Eskrich noted that if a Des Plaines customer chooses to have the operator complete a call to another Des Plaines customer or to any place within his or her flat rate calling area, the new minimum charge will be made.

Eskrich suggests that you dial it yourself and save, as the charge for any operator handled local call is applicable no matter what class of service is subscribed to.

If you live in the city there's no way you can keep both a dog and a car unless you're willing to devote all your time to walking and parking.

Notre Dame Begins Rotating Program Schedule

To increase student educational opportunities and allow for full faculty potential are the key phrases guiding Notre Dame High school for Boys new schedule this year.

Students received cards last week showing them their new rotating schedule that will allow them both freedom for extra study as well as provide them with a solid core of basic work. Each day of the week will be different allowing students a variety of study times. For example a student may have math the first period on a Monday and then have math the last period on Friday.

Based on a six period day students meet their 6 core classes 4 times a week for 55 minutes.

During the optional class periods ND students can choose to do research in the library or a research center; go to a lab for further work or spend their time in an unstructured cafeteria study.

Rev. Donald Haycock, c.s.c., Notre Dame principal, stated: "This new schedule is not change for the sake of change. We have a three-pronged objective. We want students to have free time to pursue individual interests; allow time for remedial work for students who progress at a slower pace; allow teachers the time to develop programs, study as a team and take advantage of inservice training."

Each of the 9 departments at Notre Dame will have a full school day each week to meet together as a faculty, make future plans and set up experimental programs. These "free" days each week will be under the guidance of department chairmen.

Father Haycock further said, "We decided to construct this type schedule we are using this year to permit students to carry the optimal class load while at the same time allowing both students and faculty the necessary time for individual research and academic development."

Surprisingly, packing all her gear in the car took only a short time and the ride up to school was equally fast. Carrying her brown cardboard box luggage into the new dorm was done amidst much huffing and puffing. And while the huffing and puffing was natural for me, when I came upon the hordes of young people who seemed to be coming from all directions, I vowed I'd begin getting into condition at the "Y" beginning Monday.

Eleven floors up is her bedroom, a 12 by 20 room which seemed too small for all her brown boxes. When I saw her roommate had an equal amount of the same kind of luggage it seemed impossible 2 teen girls would be able to live in that cubicle.

The hordes of young people, who were downstairs, were figuratively matched by the throngs who were on floor 11.

Amidst the brown boxes, the 2 teens and the little Mother and Father, an endless stream of Betty Coeds began squeezing into the room, laughing, griping about the food, shaking hands, squealing and just being friendly. They were from Edwardsville and Bensenville and "she worked at Lyttons" and "I remember you from orientation" and "boy, was the food bad... I was sick for 3 days with the flu... and I'm sure it was from the food." It was an endless stream of people, all young and full of talk.

It was suppertime and the number 1 daughter had very little for lunch so Little Mother said we'd take her out for a bite... but naturally, she wasn't hungry, and I gave Little Mother the "Let's get out of here and leave her alone" look.

She kissed us goodbye and Mother remembered she needed a few dollars cash. She kissed us again and I even counted a 3rd time, which was some sort of a record. It must have been that good clean corn-bearing DeKalb air.

As we left I borrowed an old standard bromide from a friend by telling the girls, "Have a good time and be good girls... but not necessarily in that order." They all laughed and then they all told me what their old Dads said and I realized all old Dads are much the same... pretty corny.

As we started the drive home we mullied over whether the school was too large. "Maybe we should've considered a smaller school." Little Mother worried because She missed supper and She wouldn't have anything to eat. "The least I could have done was left her some fruit," she worried and soon Mother was dozing as we headed for the tollway.

Exiting at Dempster Street I told Little Mother, "Look at it this way, 'You didn't lose a daughter, you gained a car.'" I thought it was kind of funny but she ignored the little morale booster.

When we arrived home the younger brigade peremptorily asked us 2 or 3 questions about "her school" and then reviewed the sprinkling fight they'd had, and lapsed into a finger-pointing battle over who did what to whom.

There's now 1 less finger-pointer at home... and we're going to miss her... but I realized as we sat down to dinner... it's only a matter of minutes before someone spills something... And I was right ... and I suddenly had a lump in my throat.

One of the changes made stipulates the Village Administration can be removed with cause at any time by a majority vote of all corporate authorities. Another important point is he will employ and discharge all village employees with the exception of department heads, superintendents, all board and commission members and all non-elective Village officials. He will have no authority over Fire Department and Police personnel.

A Morton Grove citizen questioned the right of those operating the Oktoberfest to have a sign hanging over Dempster St. and to be able to sell liquor. He said he thought no permits should have been issued for an activity of this sort since it is not a charitable affair, but one that is being run for profit. He requested that if the sign is found to be illegal, the village should see it is taken down. John Nordberg said he found the Forest Preserves and the Village did indeed issue permits, but added he was told that the German-American organization running the Oktoberfest does give some of its proceeds to charity. Martin Ashman moved to authorize Fred Huber to look into the matter and if he finds the group is not a charitable one, to revoke permission for the sign and the sale of liquor.

Tom Flynn presented the 1972 Catalog of Local Government Assistance to the board. Fire Chief Hildebrandt said he will attend the International Fire Chief's convention in Cleveland next Thursday. Joe Cook of the Chamber of Commerce told the board he checked the credentials of a Veteran's Organization who requested permission to sell peanuts in the village through local businesses and found them to be very reputable. He spoke to the Attorney General's office and to members of our own American Legion group. Fred McClory said the Village Hall will be open Thursday and Friday for registration. Martin Ashman said Sept. 15 was the last day to register.

The Beautification Committee will meet next Thursday at the Legion Hall.

Ed Brice reported 23 Police complaints last week. There were 3 assaults and 2 stolen bikes. Mr. Brice also reported the Traffic and Safety Committee would meet on Wednesday, Sept. 13. David Cohen announced the last General Tax receipts as the amount of $35,068.93. Trustee Dick Hols said he attended a Job Fair meeting in Niles last week. He also noted tomorrow night there would be a meeting of the North Suburban Mass Transit District. Herb Houndt said the 50/50 sidewalk replacement program was nearing its end. Mayor Bode said on Sept. 7, Trustee Houndt will represent the board at the Agenda meeting of the Oakton Community College.

David Cohen moved to have Administrator Huber send a letter to the owners of the Cottage Service Station on Dempster st. stating that if their vending machines are not put inside the premises, they could lose their Special Use Permit.

Dick Hols said Korvette's was entitled to an answer to their request for permission to have musical groups play on their parking lot Sept. 14 and Sept. 16. Ed Brice said he was informed the groups are to play for only one hour each night and then they will sell records. With this knowledge, the trustees agreed to give Korvette's permission to have the groups play.

MG Library Initiates New Systems

September is a month filled with innovations at the Morton Grove Public Library. Sunday hours will be inaugurated on the last Sunday in September and the change to a photo-charging system will make possible the renewal of books. Also, Village residents will receive a report on the results of a survey taken last Spring to which 21% of them responded.

The mailing of the survey results will include an informal annual report and a list of films, story hours and other programs to be presented during the 1972-73 year. Residents are urged to put the program on their bulletin boards, because it includes the dates on which registration for pre-school story hours begins as well as library programs. The number of story hours has been increased to 4 this year, with sessions at 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. on Tuesdays and Wednesdays.

The survey pointed up the need for the library to be open on Sundays, so, on Sept. 24, regular Sunday service will begin. During the academic year, with the exception of the 2 Sundays during the holidays and Easter Sunday, the library will be open from 10 to 5. There will be no Sunday hours during the summer months.

The new photo-charge system (Regiscope) will begin on Sept. 11. This system simplifies the circulation of library materials and expedites the return of those materials to the shelves. Therefore, any books except those designated 7-day charged out with Regiscope, may be renewed if they are brought to the library and if there are no reserves on them.

A feature of the Regiscope system is that all books will be due on Thursdays, which means that a "short term loan" (formerly 7-day) may be as long as 13 days, depending on which day it is taken out; a "long term loan" (formerly 3-week) may be 27 days.

Since any change in procedures can present problems, the indulgence of the Morton Grove Public Library patrons is urged during the transition period. This is another step forward in the library's aim to provide the best service possible to the residents of Morton Grove.

not be complete, thus, resulting in a less than fair hearing and understanding.

Board member Griff MacDonald introduced three resolutions, who along with Stephen Loska had issued a minority report disagreeing with the preferred Beckwith site of the Board. Tuesday night he introduced three resolutions which were all tabled until the Sept. 12 meeting. Board member Kamin offered the tabling motion in each case which was passed by the majority of the Board. Kamin said all decisions should be based "on the facts and the reaction" which result from next week's meeting. Kamin's tabling motions did not mean the resolutions might not be acted on at the public meeting. One resolution, to expand the site committee to include "a broad section of the public" was generally agreed upon by most of the Board members, but site chairman Gilson said such an effort should be studied and acted upon after much consideration.

The most important MacDonald resolution, to delay presenting its site selection to the state board from Sept. 15 to its October meeting lost by a 4 to 3 vote. Chairman Wauck joined with MacDonald and Loska in favoring this effort. Ray Hartstein spoke for the majority when he said it was important Oakton's board find out the feeling of the state board regarding the site.

MacDonald, who seemed to be the free spirit on the Board, said he had no confidence in the state board and called them "political phoney's." His remarks were referring to the Board's reversal of its original site, Maryhill Cemetery. Other Board members pointed out the composition of the Board has changed and it was important Oakton's Board have a rapport with the state board.

Unlike the local college board the state board is appointed by the governor.

Resolutions similar to MacDonald's were suggested by resident Saul Weiner. Other dissenting comments by the audience included resident Maria Hirsch's query why the public meeting was being held just 3 days before the state board meeting. Board members said they would retain an open mind and reach a final decision only after the Sept. 12 meeting. However, Board member Kamin said he would favor going ahead with the Beckwith site if opposition to the plan was not convincing Sept. 12.

Park Ridge resident Catherine Zaremski, who led the fight against the Maryhill site, aroused the Beckwith site opposers when she implied high rises might be built there. She was rebuked by several in the audience including some of the landowners in the Beckwith area who said no such plans have been considered. She said hi rises, shopping centers, or low cost housing could be placed there. She then said she was against the Maryhill site on religious and moral grounds and aroused a negative response when she said the "press was against the Catholics" (during the Maryhill controversy).

Evelyn Permer, who said her mother is the third largest landowner in the Beckwith area said, "My mother doesn't give a damn about the money" in suggesting Mrs. Zaremski was incorrect in assuming the land would soon be sold for other projects.

The Friday 10 o'clock meeting before the state board will be held at the Bismarck Hotel in Chicago and its expected many residents in opposition to the Beckwith site will attend that meeting. Chairman Wauck said residents desiring to write to the Board should address letters to Chairman Ray Brune, 544 Iles Place, Springfield, Illinois 62718.

Girls' Bowling Club

Maine East girls interested in participating in Girls' Bowling club competition this year are invited to attend an organizational meeting Wednesday, Sept. 13, at 3:45 p.m. in room 230.

Bowling will begin Sept. 20 at the Golf Mill Lanes. The weekly winning team will feast on a free pizza, and competition will be overly keen on various scheduled events, like the annual Turkey Shoot on Nov. 15. The Student-Faculty Scotch Doubles on Feb. 21, and the Beat Mrs. Bricker Night in the Spring.

Yearly dues will be $1, and the nightly bowling fee for the two games will be $1.35. Free bus transportation to the Golf Mill Lanes will be provided.

Girls' Bowling club officers for the upcoming school year are president, Dawn Boyd of Niles; secretary, Donna Rhodes of Niles; and treasurer, Toni Schwind of Morton Grove.
