"Halloween" - the children's night for fun, long dresses and spooky costumes, being out past dark, and "trick or treats," many times results in their becoming the victims of auto accidents, burns suffered from costumes catching fire, victims of falls because of costumes worn being too long and face masks obstructing views, and on occasion are victims of adults placing items which can cause serious harm into the treats given to the youngsters.

A few good steps parents should take to insure the safety of their child are:

1. Instruct children to cross at cross-walks, look before crossing, if crossing at a street with traffic wait for the proper signal before crossing.
2. Wear clothing altered to the proper length. Face masks should permit the child to have full vision to prevent serious falls or bumping into obstacles as they walk. Clothing should be light in color to aid visibility of motorists.
3. Parents should know the companions with their children, the route which will be taken, and especially with small children, adult supervision should be a must. Parents should set a specific time their children should be home.
4. Parents should check over items received "tricks or treats" before consumption. If discovery of any suspicious objects mixed in with the "treats" is made, the Police Department should be notified.

The Niles Police Department staff is especially heavy for Halloween in order to protect both life and property. Just a reminder, Halloween falls on a Tuesday this year and the curfew ordinance will be as usual, 10:30 p.m.
 "Have a happy and safe Halloween."

Political Potpourri

If we can mix-up a few metaphors we might mention local politics are doing a bit of bumping and jousting as they round the final turn and head for the homestretch in this year's local political races.

While the metropolitan newspapers are filled with the hue and cry from the national candidates and the state and County candidates, down here at the local level we've got a few rip-roaring battles which seem to be up for grabs at this point. And "up for grabs" means there's a great deal of intense feelings which are causing candidates to be looking for law officials to look into, stymie, and generally get some extra new coverage, which just might push them over the top in their races.

Monday Ab Mikva held a press conference in which he released news he was seeking an investigation by the attorney general's office about an

BOARD VOTES TO SUPPORT TOWNSHIP REFERENDUM

By Gary Goodfriend

A resolution supporting the elimination of township government in Niles was passed unanimously by the Niles Village Board Tuesday night. The Board also endorsed calling for a referendum on the issue.

The Board endorsed a position statement on township government by the League of Women Voters of Niles-Morton Grove. The LWV stated, "there is no justification for retaining the unnecessary archaic structure of township government." Mrs. Carol Panek, vice-president of the Niles-Morton Grove League presented the statement to the Board.

The vote came after a shouting match between Trustee Pete Pesole and a Niles resident, Roy

The Time is for Decision

November is almost here! That means election day! Don't neglect your vote. We need you. Your party needs you! Your candidate needs you and most of all your country needs you! Voting is your duty!

Each and every vote is needed, and is significant. Here are a few examples to prove it: In 1960 John F. Kennedy barely topped Richard M. Nixon with a national plurality of only 112,253 votes out of almost 69 million cast - a margin of less than one-vote per precinct. In 1948 Harry S. Truman carried Ohio by only 7,107 votes out of nearly 3 million cast, and California by only 17,865 votes out of 4 million cast - razor thin margins. There are many many more.

Remember your state and local candidates are often elected by even narrower margins. A classic example is Marcus Morton elected Governor of Mass. by one vote in the year 1839. There were 102,066 votes cast.

If we can do anything to help you vote please call on us. If you need a lift to the polling place call Elaine Lassers, League of Women Voters 966-0584. If you can't get out because you need a sitter call Elaine Lassers, League of Women Voters of Morton-Grove and Niles - 966-0584 - we will help!

"Candy Day" for Mental Retarded Children

North American Martyrs council #4388 of the Knights of Columbus are holding their annual "Candy Day" on Friday and Saturday, Nov. 10 and 11 with all proceeds to go toward the mental retarded children's fund in Niles.

Officers and members are asking for the public cooperation and support in making this affair a tremendous success. Remember them on these two days, by contributing to members who will give their time for a good cause.

Fire Dept. Award

An Award of Excellence, recognizing the department's efforts in the Junior Fire Marshal Program, was presented to the Niles Fire Department recently by the Hartford Insurance Group.

The plaque, citing the department's "outstanding achievement in fire prevention and safety instruction" was presented to Capt. Gordon Michalsen, head of the department's fire prevention bureau, by Gordon Faller, head of the Yorktown Insurance Agency, Lawrencewood Shopping Center, and Deanne Neal, the agency's executive secretary. The agency is the local sponsor of the program for the Hartford group.

According to Capt. Michalsen, the program involves the distribution to local schoolchildren of miniature, plastic fire helmets, fire prevention literature, while enlisting their aid in developing an awareness of fire hazards in the home and school.

Premarital and Young Marriage Workshop

Larry F. Renetzky, executive director of Niles Family Service, has announced that a workshop for engaged and newly married couples (less than one year) will be conducted by a husband-wife team from Niles Family Service, starting Wednesday, Nov. 1, at 8 p.m. The leaders of the workshop, Rona and Stan Levi, believe that the normal changes in relationships after marriage often surprise couples and temporarily immobilize them. Hopefully, these relationship changes can be discussed and prepared for in a group of couples sharing their concerns and ideas.

Both of the Levi's are trained social workers who each have 4 years' experience in working with couples and families. Rev. D. D. Selen, chairman of the Niles Family Service Board, states: "As a pastor, I am delighted to know that the Niles Family Service is sponsoring a premarital conference. In these days of increasing difficulty in maintaining a stable marriage, every means of strengthening family life should be encouraged -- especially in the area of preparation for marriage."

The workshop will be held at Niles Family Service, 251 Lawrencewood, Lawrencewood Shopping Center, Niles. Phone: 966-1640. There will be a slight charge for the workshop.

Parents Attend Bilingual Classes Meeting

Parents of Maine high school students taking English as a second language met at Maine East high school on Thursday evening, Oct. 19 to hear Victor Costanza, school psychologist, speak about the purpose of the program and its value to students of foreign extraction who find it difficult to function in regular classes in high school because of their inability to speak or understand the English language. He also discussed the progress that has been made by many students in the program.

Mrs. Sue Morrisroe, the district's second language teacher, was present to welcome and visit with the guests.

This is the first year that bilingual classes have been part of the regular school curriculum although similar classes were held during summer school for the past two years. The summer school classes were highly successful, with students making an average gain of six months in grade ability and achievement in the areas of reading, writing and speaking English. As a result, during the regular school year, these students have been able to demonstrate greater classroom participation, enjoy more social contacts with other students, and gain greater self-confidence toward academic work.

The bilingual classes are federally funded under Title I of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act.

Clothing Drive at St. Martha's

"Hooween" Party

Hymns & Bells, the social fellowship group of the Lutheran Church of the Resurrection in Niles, is having a "Hooween" party Saturday evening. Those attending should be certain to be dressed as witches, goblins, ghosts and plan to meet at the church at 8 p.m.

Niles Elementary Receives Safety Award

The Niles Elementary school South has received a certificate of Exceptional Merit and has been placed on the National School Safety Honor Roll of the National Safety Council. Superintendent Culver announced recently.

This is the 19th year the school has received this honor.

"We are encouraged by this recognition of our efforts to build a good safety education program," Mr. Culver said. "We will continue to teach our young people to protect themselves and their fellow students as long as accidents remain the chief cause of death among school-age children."

The Honor Roll was initiated in 1944. To gain a place on it, a school must present a detailed report of its safety program to a local committee, composed of the school principal, the president of the local parent-teacher association or similar parent group, a student leader, and the president of the local safety council or the school's safety education supervisor. Upon the recommendation of this committee, the report is forwarded to the National Safety Council to be listed on the Honor Roll.

For the first year of participation, the Council does not outline a specific program for a school to follow; but it does recommend that the school adopt a safety policy statement and initiate a student accident reporting system.

In the following years, the school must upgrade its program by continually adding safety activities in order to develop a well-rounded program which served local community needs. Included among the activities of the South school were:

A student safety organization conducted safety activities throughout the year.

One person was designated to channel safety information from the school system's safety education supervisor or administrative office to the teaching staff.

An average of one fire drill a month was held at unannounced times under conditions simulating actual fire conditions.

Safety committees were established to provide coordination between the school safety education program and the community safety program.

Regular safety exhibits or bulletin boards were displayed.

The school cooperated in a pedestrian instruction program and held supervised practice for younger pupils in crossing the street, using school equipment, and riding public and school transportation. Special safety instruction was provided for holidays.

Regular safety inspections of buildings and grounds were conducted to eliminate hazards and to ensure that building conditions and fire safety activities complied with recommended standards in addition to state and local legal requirements.

With increased official agencies and lay groups, the school participated in periodic surveys to review school crossing protection needs. It provided and instructed school safety patrols, adult crossing guards and police officers.

An Open Letter to Aaron Jaffe

Dear Aaron:

A review of events since the announcement of my candidacy for re-election as State Representative from the 4th District have made your devious tactics quite clear. I went into this race with two opponents only — Republican incumbents Robert Juckett of Park Ridge and Eugene Schlickman of Arlington Heights on the ballot for reelection. It has become increasingly obvious that you do not, (and never did) consider either Juckett or Schlick-man your opponents. Rather, you have chosen to oppose my candidacy.

You apparently feel there are no real issues and problems to be solved in the 4th District as well as the nation other than me. My campaign has been and will continue to be run on the issues concerning our 4th District constituents and how I may once again for a 4th term best represent my constituents in the Illinois State House.

I accept your challenge of my candidacy and now must disqualify the facade of innocent, injured party you have been diligently building before the public eye. I am disturbed at these 'panic tactics' since they insult the intelligence of and regard for the people of our district and it is these tactics I wish to disqualify.

First, any derogatory remarks made recently by members of the Niles Township Regular Democratic Organization are your comments, because you are supposedly their leader. Or are you Aaron?

You're making a deliberate and calculated effort to ignore my candidacy and to bar me from the open meetings of the Niles Township Democratic Organization and to that I shall document events to support my accusations.

At the first meeting of our Niles Democratic Organization following the stating of my candidacy by the 4th District Committeemen you summarily appointed Cal Sutker to my position of deputy township committeeman and then you fired me without so much as the courtesy of a note. At that same meeting held in the Oakton Park fieldhouse Cal, introduced all those Democratic candidates present and called for them to speak before the members. All candidates were introduced including you Aaron. On your orders, Cal refused to acknowledge my candidacy and refused to call upon me to speak. Before the entire meeting, I publicly reminded Cal that I am a regular candidate of the Regular Democratic Organization on the Regular Democratic State Ticket for reelection as State Representative. You scream foul play while being its creator.

At the Niles Township Democratic organization's recent fund raising dinner at Shangai Lils in October, all candidates for public office who attended were announced including my good friend and former legislative colleague, Abner Mikva. Once again you chose to ignore my candidacy and refused to introduce me. You arranged to ignore inviting me to Secretary of State candidate Michael Howlett's breakfast meeting at the Skokie Holiday Inn. However, appearing on my own as a Democratic candidate, you again, publicly refused to recognize my candidacy and refused to announce my presence. By ignoring my candidacy and my presence, what do you hope to gain?

I would remind you Aaron, when Ray Krier resigned during his term as Committeeman, I was instrumental in seeking the precinct captains support to elect you as Ray's successor. The truth of the matter Aaron, is that I have personally helped you further your political career while you have never helped me. It has since become a case of your turning on me instead of the false picture you are trying to create.

Let us go on to the selection of Ed Warman as the replacement candidate for Aaron Brill. On Sept. 1, when Brill resigned it became necessary for Bernard Peskin, the Democratic Legislative chairman of the 4th District to call an emergency meeting to select a replacement candidate. Aaron, you refused to attend that meeting and boycotted it because you claimed you didn't like the way it was handled.

Let us discuss how in these past weeks you have undertaken to harass your precinct captains if they display any sign of loyalty to my candidacy, subject to removal from the 4th District by you Aaron, via Cal Sutker, Marge Sherman, a member of your organization and employed by the Circuit Court of Cook County has been threatened by you not to campaign on my behalf or she would lose her job. She has refused and is willing to fight for what she feels is justice.

You masquerade as an independent political committeeman when in reality you handle the Niles Township Democratic Organization as a ward boss would in the City of Chicago. You are harassing your precinct captains with the loss of their jobs.

I suggest Aaron you get off the garbage trail for the final 2 weeks of this election and begin talking about the issues. Leave the mud slinging to the Republicans and leave the issues to the Democrats and in the end we will both be victorious.

Traveling Overseer Visits Jehovah's Witnesses

The traveling overseer of Jehovah's Witnesses finds himself in a situation similar to that of the apostle Paul. As Paul traveled throughout Asia Minor, Greece and Italy, visiting and inspecting the Christian congregations, so does the modern-day traveling overseer of Jehovah's Witnesses with his assigned congregations. As the apostle Paul received no salary for his Christian services, neither does the traveling overseer. Consequently, his expenses are assumed by the congregation during his visit. The members of the congregation open their homes to the traveling overseer and his wife for meals and accommodations, as the early Christians did for Paul. Norman H. McKinney is one of these traveling overseers for Jehovah's Witnesses. Currently he is making his semi-annual visit to the local congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses. The local congregation is one of 23 Chicago and suburban congregations that McKinney visits. The aim of his visit is to assist all in the congregation. "During his six-day visit with our congregation he will deliver a variety of Bible discourses and assist many in the congregation with their ministerial duties," noted Dan Strege, presiding overseer of the congregation. "The week of special activity for the congregation will conclude Sunday, when McKinney will deliver the advertised address, 'Who Is Your God?' It will be presented at the Morton Grove Kingdom Hall, 6730 Beckwith, Morton Grove, at 9:30 a.m.

Dr. Shipman to Speak on Food Obsession

"Nutromania: Our Obsession with Food and What it Means" is the topic for discussion at the "Speak-Out" on Nov. 2 at 8 p.m. at the Mayer Kaplan Jewish Community Center, 5050 W. Church st., Skokie. Dr. William G. Shipman, Chief Psychologist at Michael Reese hospital and Medical Center, will discuss the results of his research into the psychological causes of obesity. Dr. Shipman believes that the problem of over-eating can be directly traced to parent's excessive concern for their children's eating habits, and the teaching of anxiety and guilt which hounds the children the rest of their lives. Dr. Shipman will also reveal the results of his study on sex in obese women, parts of which were recently written up in Newsweek Magazine. The public is invited to attend and join in the discussion following Dr. Shipman's presentation. Admission: Members, free; non-members, $1 and students, 50¢.

SJB Peace Parade

St. John Brebeuf Holy Name Society is holding its annual peace parade on Sunday, Nov. 12, starting at 10 a.m. from Greenan Heights field grounds (rain or snow), 8300 Oketo ave., Niles, for the 10:45 a.m. Mass at St. John Brebeuf church. The Officers and Priests invite all members, their families, and parishioners to participate in this "Prayers for Peace" parade. We pray that Mary, through the immense goodness of Her Mother's heart, will be moved by this march of peace and grant peace to the families of our parish, the community and to all nations of the world; and arouse in each of us the love of the truth . . . the justice . . . and the charity of Her Son, Jesus Christ. The beloved founder of the Christopher movement in his book, "Make each day count," said, "That a tremendous challenge faces each of us who lives in this atomic age. We may be at the threshold of the greatest peace the world has ever seen or of the most terrible catastrophe." What part are you playing in this great drama of life? God expects you to play a special role. He has given you talents, a few or many, to use not only for yourself, but for the benefit of others as well, come and join us. Also participating are the Niles VFW Post 7712, color bearers, the Formarty's Fourth Degree club and the Third Degree members of North American Martyrs Council 4338 of the Knights of Columbus, the Niles Boys and Cub Scouts, Girls Scouts and Brownies, St. John Brebeuf Church Choir, the young peoples' "Teen club," the Women's Catholic club and many other organizations, with our nuns of the parish leading us in prayers.

Overcome Language Barriers

Emphasis on the individual student is basic to District 63's program. Each child has specific needs and specific talents that each teacher in the district focuses upon.

children within several schools whose individual needs are obvious, but whose individual talents are incapable of developing to their fullest: the English as a Second Language Program.

Try to picture yourself sitting with a group of people, able to hear, see, and speak — but being totally unable to communicate with those around you. This is the situation of the children in the Second Language program.

Mrs. Joyce Recker, the teacher in charge of the program, currently visits Ballard, Melzer, Washington, Nathanson, Stevenson, and Gemini schools. At the present time, she is working with students whose native languages are Hebrew, Spanish, Korean, and Japanese. She has already worked with other children in the district whose native languages are Italian, Arabic, Greek, Ukrainian, Chinese, Polish and Thai.

The Second Language program, funded in part by the state, stresses the basic communication skills of speaking, listening, reading, and writing. Equally important is the fact that the sessions provide the child with a tremendous amount of positive reinforcement. As every classroom teacher knows, it is impossible to give enough personalized attention to each child.

The Second Language program helps provide this personalized attention. Classroom teachers and reading and speech coordinators are also involved with the program. The intent of the English as a Second Language program is to help students overcome the barrier to their realizing their full potential. It is one of many programs in District 63 designed school.

Family Enrichment

(By Larry Renetzky)

A great man once said, "Love your neighbor as yourself." In spite of this commandment, I used to think of loving self as a sin. This caused me much inner turmoil and many outward problems.

I came to discover that it was important to like and love yourself so that you might better like and love others, including your spouse and children.

In other words, if you ended up with a 0-5 percent rating for self when you did your x-ray or survival circle as discussed in the last two articles, then self (you) is hurting.

I had a woman in counseling you gave self a 0 rating and felt more of a maid, dishrag and doormat than wife. As she reflected on self, she didn't love, like, respect, appreciate or believe in herself.

Furthermore, she didn't believe that she was important, wanted, loved or needed as a person, only as a maid and mistress.

Certainly, this woman's poor self-image was helping to create all kinds of problems for her, particularly in her roles as wife and mother. She permitted her husband to use her as a doormat and dishrag. He saw her more as a maid and mistress rather than as a wife.

This hurt her very much, but she permitted it most of the time because she felt she didn't deserve any better.

Unfortunately some men will take advantage of their wives when they feel this way rather than being understanding of them and trying to help them or see to it that they receive professional help.

Many times this is a deep-seated problem and definitely requires some professional help with the other spouse participating in the counseling. In marital and family living we can build ourselves in relation to the other spouse or family members.

The whole idea is that it is very difficult to give love, trust, etc., to others when we don't have a love, trust and belief in ourselves. To put it another way, "As a man or woman thinketh in their heart so are they."

Heart here means feelings. Therefore, if a man or woman is thinking and feeling such negative thoughts of unworth, such as they don't love themselves or they don't deserve to be loved, then actions usually follow to reinforce these negative thoughts and feelings.

How do you see yourself? Do you like yourself, in fact, love yourself? If you do, then you are a much healthier person and better able to really love your spouse, children and others. Now you can truly give and receive and not just go through the motions and constantly be hurt.

Of course this doesn't mean everybody or even your spouse and children will always respond in a loving and trusting way to you.

But you can have a more meaningful and satisfying relationship when you do like and love yourself, so you can better like and love your spouse, children and others, and in turn better receive and respond to their love.

Next, Beware that the liking and loving of self doesn't become a selfish love.

Call, write or come into your Niles Family Service about your concerns and problems at 251 Lawrencewood, Niles, Illinois 60648 - phone: 966-1640.

FOR STATE REPRESENTATIVE 16th DISTRICT

VOTE REPUBLICAN

Files Suit Against 'Society Against Mikva'

Statement by Congressman Abner J. Mikva:
 During my years in the Illinois legislature and for the last 4 years in the U.S. Congress, I have worked for strong handgun control legislation. It is one of the best ways we have to cut the crime rate. In those efforts, I have been opposed by the National Rifle Association, the state rifle associations, and the other groups that constitute the gun lobby. I have seen the kinds of tactics

Young Campaign Not Connected With 'Society Against Mikva'

A spokesman for Samuel H. Young, Republican candidate for Congress in the 10th District said today there is no connection between the Young for Congress Committee and an organization known as the "Society Against Mikva."

In response to a news conference held Monday morning by Democratic candidate Abner Mikva, Young's administrative aide Robert Alberding said:
 "In early October, this headquarters received a copy of a letter from the 'Society Against Mikva' opposing Mr. Mikva for his advocacy of restrictive firearm legislation and supporting Mr. Young's candidacy.
 On Oct. 9, 1972 I sent a letter to Mr. Stuart Gordon, 5109 Brown St., Skokie, signer of the letter and identified as chairman of the 'Society Against Mikva' the lobby uses and they are not always pleasant. Of course, those groups have every right to advocate their position vigorously, as long as they do it without breaking the law.

Earlier today (Oct. 23), I asked the United States Attorney and the Clerk of the U.S. House of Representatives to investigate promptly and thoroughly possible violations of Federal law by a group calling itself "Society Against Mikva." A letter bearing the group's name was sent to residents of the new 10th Congressional District advocating my defeat and specifically supporting the campaign of my opponent. In doing that, the "Society Against Mikva" may have violated Title 18, chapter 29, section 612 of the U.S. Criminal Code and several sections of the new Federal Campaign Practices Act. Those sections require:

1. . . . that any political material used in a Congressional election contain the complete identification of the people and the group responsible for it. It requires that the officers of the group be named. In the "Society Against Mikva" letter, Stuart Gordon is listed as chairman. He is not the chairman. He told me he has specifically refused to be an officer of the group. In addition, the address given in the letterhead is a false address. An answering service is at that address and has the same phone number as the one listed for the Society, but the answering service told me they have no knowledge of a "Society Against Mikva."

2. . . . every political committee working "on behalf of" any candidate must get that candidate's authorization. (Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, Title III, section 302 (a)). If the candidate does not authorize the group's support, it must say so in its literature or mailings. Since there was no such disclaimer in the "Society's" letter, it either has violated this section of the law or it has the authorization of my opponent, Mr. Young.

3. . . . political committees to file a "statement of organization" with the Clerk of the House. (Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, Title III, section 303 (a)). Section 304 (a) requires political committees to file a report of receipts and expenditures with the Clerk of the House. Section 309 (a) requires that copies of these statements be filed with the Secretary of State's office for Illinois. "Society Against Mikva" has not complied with either of these provisions, even though they solicited funds in the letter.

4. . . . political committees to include a special notice on the front of any literature which solicits funds. The "Society Against Mikva" specifically requests funds, but does not carry the required notice.

5. . . . political committees to have a chairman and a treasurer and specifically provides that no expenditures or contributions shall be made while there is a vacancy in either office. These laws are intended to insure fair and open political campaigns by requiring that groups like the "Society" explain who they represent and who is responsible for them. These laws are so serious that breaking them may result in a fine or imprisonment or both. There may be other laws that have been violated — in addition to those I have cited. The people of this district demand fair and open campaigns, and that is why I have asked the U.S. Attorney and the Clerk of the House to investigate this group and their mailing. This mailing — with inaccuracies and errors in substance — is an example of how the gun lobby works at election time.

Excellent Candidates on Both Parties

To the Editor:
Less than 30 independent minded members of the Illinois House of Representatives voted for a bill introduced into the legislature in 1971 which would have abolished the one party lever on election machines. Thus the people of this state were denied an opportunity to assure discriminating and selective voting, by the very politicians who depend more on party labels for perpetuation of their political careers than on their own direct relationship and commitment to a constituency.

Fortunately, the number of voters disregarding this one big lever and choosing to select worthy candidates regardless of party labels, has been steadily growing throughout the state. This is particularly encouraging if we consider that the only ones to benefit from the one lever are those undistinguished candidates who have little to offer, and whose ambition is limited to the hope of being elected by riding on someone else's coat-tails.

There are a number of excellent candidates of both political parties on the November ballot, and while we certainly do not expect everyone to agree with the particular choices of this organization, we would like to point out just a few examples to illustrate the disadvantage of voting a straight ticket. People voting straight Democratic will be passing up the chance to mark for a distinguished candidate like Senator Charles Percy, and an effective official like Attorney General William Scott, both Republicans. Those voting straight Republican will be missing the opportunity to help re-elect an unusually gifted national leader like Congressman Abner Mikva, and a dedicated legislator like Aaron Jaffe in the 4th District, both Democrats.

We urge citizens, no matter what their particular political leaning may be, to learn as much as possible about each candidate in this most crucial election year, and to consider the enormous advantage to an electorate, of being represented in government by lawmakers who have been carefully evaluated and selected by voters on the basis of individual merit and capabilities, instead of just an identification with one particular political party.

Scouts Thank Park District

President and Board of Commissioners
Niles Park District
Niles

Gentlemen:

On behalf of the Boy Scouts in Niles, may I express our appreciation and thanks to your again helping make the scouts' summer swimming program at the Niles Park District Pool an outstanding success.

The Niles Scouts used the pool for 12 consecutive Sunday mornings when the pool was not otherwise in use, and reimbursed the extra cost of attendants, thus causing no additional financial burden on Niles taxpayers.

The swimming program was under the direction of Don Schmelzer of Troop and Post #45, and Ralph Kozeny, of Troop 175, assisted by adult leaders and senior instructors from the participating 17 scout units. Niles scouts availing themselves of this opportunity represented scout units sponsored by the Niles Community church, St. John Brebeuf, St. Isaac Jogues and Our Lady of Ransom parishes, and the Oak school PTA, and covered all ranks in scouting ranging from Cub Scouts, Webelos and Explorers.

All together, some 492 boys participated, eight completing their first class swimming requirements, 18 earning the swimming merit badge, 13 the life saving merit badge, and 5 completing the one-mile swim, traversing the length of the pool. More important, all had fun, and many overcame their fear of the water under ideal circumstances.

The Boy Scouts in Niles thank the Niles Park District and its Dressler, Pool Manager Kevin Mulcrone, and Guard Jim Kozelka, for their fine cooperation and assistance in making our program such an outstanding success for the sixth consecutive year.

Grateful For Returned Watch

Dear Editor:
On Friday evening, Oct. 20th while attending a performance at the Des Plaines Theatre, I noticed that a watch and chain which I had been wearing had disappeared.

Upon checking with the manager of the show, he said someone had turned it in to him after finding it in the aisle.

I would like to express my heartfelt thanks and sincere appreciation to the person who did this. The watch was especially precious to me because it belonged to my mother who passed away last year.

Gratefully,
Lucille R. Nelson

Check Ability and Integrity

To the Editor:-
With the wide differences in experience and philosophy among candidates of the same political parties who will be on the November ballot, it is hard to imagine how any voter can choose to vote a straight ticket in this election.

I am proud to say I'll be moving back and forth on the voting machine, casting my ballot for Republicans like President Nixon, Governor Richard Ogilvie and Senator Charles Percy, and Democrats like Congressman Abner Mikva and State Rep. Aaron Jaffe.

Maybe if we pay more attention to the ability and integrity of a candidate rather than the party affiliation before casting our vote, we will be rewarded with public officials who are more responsive to the needs of the people than the wishes of a party organization hierarchy.

Performances on Friday and Saturday, Nov. 3 and 4 and Friday and Saturday, Nov. 10 and 11 will begin at 8 p.m.; performances scheduled for Sunday, Nov. 5 and Sunday, Nov. 12, will start at 7 p.m. The play will be performed in the new open-stage area of Building 6 on the O.C.C. "The Odd Couple"

Quite possibly the factor that made "The Odd Couple" one of the most successful Broadway comedies of the 1960s is that it cut to the bone of contention in most families, the conflict over neatness-versus-disorder in homes. It clearly comes out of a true experience of the play's happy author, Neil Simon.

When this play opens on Nov. 15 at the Niles West auditorium, players will see the battle drawn in one particular household, in which two divorced husbands are sharing an apartment and are miserable in their domestic arrangements.

THE CORNERS

of Where it's at and What's happening...

By Ed Hanson

Party time ... last Sunday the World Champion M's celebrated in their clubhouse upon winning the 7th and deciding game in the World Series ... they had a champagne party while the Reds came in their hour.

Another champagne party is upcoming. Bill Livaditis, off William Jullie's Beauty Shop, 7358 N. Milwaukee ave., is throwing a champagne party for one of his beauty operators, Miranda Wilts. Seems that Miranda just returned from Greece where she married Jim Moulton. Bill Livaditis says everyone is invited to celebrate this happy occasion at the MADAM JULLIE Beauty Shop on October 26, 27, 28 and 29. So, why not drop in and attend this gala "open house" event.

And the Morton Grove American Legion Post No. 1334 is holding a big party dance that will salute the re-instituted Veteran's Day of Nov. 11th. The Legion Home, 6140 Dempster, will be the scene for this social event benefiting the hospitalized veteran's program. On that Saturday night (Nov. 11) the Dancers' Orchestra will provide the dance music and entertainment. I understand the evening includes many surprises plus a late evening catered buffet table. Reservations are urged in advance. Junior Vice Commander, Jerry Strive is Chairman. He'll be glad to hold a table reservation if five couples reserve it in a group. Donation is $4 per couple. Strive's committee, who also have tickets, is composed of Ralph Blum, 965-3000; Howard Keenan, 965-4744 and Joseph Schmidt, 965-0739.

Traditionally the Post contributes the proceeds to the Auxiliary Unit. The ladies group is widely acclaimed in the state for their on-going rehabilitation program for VA confined former servicemen. So, make your reservations for this Morton Grove American Legion dance — you'll not only have a wonderful time but you'll be supporting a very worthwhile cause at the same time.

Like Halloween parties? Jake of JAKE'S RESTAURANT, 7740 Milwaukee ave., has a fantastic party planned for October 31st. Jake tells me he'll have the Embassy Trio who'll be in Halloween costumes and they'll travel from table-to-table and will sing your favorite song requests. The entire restaurant will be decorated in a Halloween motif, complete with "Spooks" and Goblins. There'll be candy for all the kids and free popcorn balls for every customer. And Jake will feature a Club Sandwich menu special for Halloween night only. This could be a great place to take the kids on Halloween for they'll not only have a ball but it's a safe place, too to celebrate Halloween. So, if you want to have fun on Halloween why not drop into Jake's Restaurant, in Niles, and attend his gala party.

And every night is party night at the GROUND ROUND, Dempster and Waukegan, Morton Grove. For the GROUND ROUND offers "live" entertainment, old time movies, clowns throughout the week. And even in the daytime too. For example, on Mondays and Wednesdays they have a fashion show at lunch time plus door prizes and other entertainment the public can enjoy. And always the GROUND ROUND offers ice cold beer by the mug or pitcher; giant cocktails; free peanuts and popcorn at every table. Your choice of songs of the 20's, 30's and 40's on their nickelodeon and free games and toys for the kiddies. Drop into the GROUND ROUND when you're hungry for good food and thirsty for a good time ... and there is always something going on at the Great Ground Round ...

Greek party time? Every Wednesday is GREEK Night at ARVEY'S RESTAURANT, 7141 Oakton, Niles. Authentic Greek cuisine and pastries are served that you'll enjoy. And everyday now ARVEY'S is featuring 16 different low priced but high quality luncheon specials. And, in addition, they offer two more luncheon specials daily, served with soup or salad, for only $1.50. Arvey's offers large portions, top quality and very reasonable prices for both their lunches and dinners — try 'em, you'll like 'em.

Maine East Homecoming 'Damp and Muddy'

On a rainy October afternoon, the temperature in the forties Maine East "lost" their fourth straight Homecoming game 17-12 to the New Trier West Cowboys. On the opening kickoff, Rod Clendon, an end for the Cowboys, took the ball and went 80 yds for the touchdown. The Cornsion failed, so 20 seconds into game, the Demons were already down by 6 points. Maine East couldn't get a first East ... and following their punt, Jim Morelli capped a long Cowboy drive with a 4 yard touchdown run. This time their point try was good. Then with twenty-eight seconds left in the first quarter, Demon John Wolff got around end, and ran over a tackler to score for Maine. The Demons' try for a two point conversion failed, leaving the score at 14-6. With time running out in the first half Maine East fumbled deep in their own territory and New Trier recovered. The Demon Defense came in and forced the Cowboys to settle for a 12 yard field goal. There was no more scoring in the first half and the Cowboys remained ahead 17-6. During half-time the ceremonies that usually take place on the field were moved into the fieldhouse because of the rain and mud. The senior float was awarded first prize in the class division, the terrapin club won the midget division, and the Tri-M choral group had the best decorated car.

Following the float competition; the homecoming king and queen were announced. The choosing of a king was begun this year, and seemed to be popular with the students.

The number of king and queen candidates was reduced to 5 each at the firelight rally held Friday night. The candidates for king were Jim Sylvester, Corey Carbonara, Arnie Schaffer, Doug Moorad, and Jim Cromer. The queen candidates were Karen Becker, Bonnie Wilson, Jeanne Aiello, Lynn Dirksen, and Jo Beth DiVito. After introducing all the candidates, Miss Dieter, student council sponsor, announced the two winners — Jo Beth DiVito and Jim Sylvester. The Maine East marching band and Pom-pon squad then performed several routines, followed by the start of the second half.

The rain that had fallen all of Friday night and Saturday had now turned the field into a quagmire. The second half play was slowed by the mud and the penalties began to appear more often. The only other scoring came in the fourth quarter when with two minutes left in the game, John Wolff scored his second touchdown of the game for the Demons. The two point conversion was stopped and time ran out with the score standing at 17-12 in favor of the Cowboys.

The homecoming royalty — Karen Becker and Doug Moorad, members of the court, Jo Beth DiVito and Lynn Dirksen, homecoming queen and king, Arnie Schaffer, and Bonnie Wilson, other members of the court.

Some of the victorious seniors by their float — "Fastest Gun in the East" include Kris Klein, Marcel Perlman, Glenn Binstein, Andee Borgeson, and Donna Glick. On the float are Arnie Schaffer, Randy Farmer, Gary Latkow, and Steve Excel. Due to the inclement weather, the parade was not held.

Both teams had a difficult time distinguishing between the mud covered players.

St. Viators Shuts Out ND Dons 28-0

By Mike Lemanski
Notre Dame lost its second game of the season Friday nite against St. Viators. The final score was 28-0. The score does not indicate the closeness of the game, as N.D. was in it until 5 minutes remaining. The 4th quarter was a defense battle until Notre Dame started getting careless. Twice they had turnovers inside their own 30 yard line. St. Viators capitalized on both. On the second, with 1:11 left, a small fight started. Both benches were emptied. That ended the scoring of the game. Defensive standouts for Notre Dame were Mark Mandolini and Marty DeVolder. Offensive stars were Greg Mandolini and Marty O'Malley. Offensive standouts for St. Viators were Tom Maher, HB, QB Stan Bobowski and end Ciescak.

Freshman Soccer

When asked about Maine East's freshman soccer team's top performers, coach Chuck Kessler spoke highly of Louie Zubillaga (wing), Mike Tietz (halfback), and Jim Pappas, alias "Fish," (inside).

He continued, "In the first three games of the season the team scored 15 goals and only six were scored against us. The team plays very well together although there is a lot to learn before the end of the season."

When posed with the question of who was the toughest opponent so far this year for the squad, Coach Kessler answered, "New Trier East, who we tied 4-4. They were a strong squad for several reasons, they played together in junior high, practiced regularly this past summer, and they are highly regarded by the soccer coaches at New Trier East."

Maine East's freshmen will play at Maine South on Oct. 20. Their opponent's record is impressive, and the game promises to be a tough contest.

The season opened against New Trier East with a tie, 4-4, recorded, but the Demon squad surfaced with two wins - against Proviso West, 6-0, and Maine West, 5-2. Pappas was credited with five goals in these first three games, Tietz had four, and Zubillaga had two goals to his credit out of the total of 15 scored in the first part of the season.

Demon Guard

Maine East's "Learn To Swim" program which began recently would find the swimming rough if it weren't for the services of 45 eager Demon Guard members.

The group, under the direction of Miss Verne Hoos, Mr. Paul Nelson, and Mr. Art Belmonte, hopes the program, beginning its second year, will provide an accessible, inexpensive, and professional swimming program for the safety and recreational needs of the elementary school districts which Maine East serves.

The season began Sept. 30 and will conclude with swim races (Little Demon Relays) on June 3. Demon Guard members from Des Plaines are Pam Hendrix, Paul Ketchik, Ivy Poncher, Linda Rosenberg, Pam Rugen, Carol Schatz, and Larry Shakman.

Morton Grove Demon Guard members are Harry Abrams, Brad Bold, Jamie Brosnan, Eda DiPrima, Peter Giannis, Patti Iaman, Julie Prorok, and Donna Ujlite.

Rounding out the list of Demon Guard participants are the following:

Girls' Bowling

Members of Maine East's Girls' Bowling club have been keeping up a hectic pace on Wednesday afternoons at the Golf Mill Lanes.

On Oct. 4 Dawn Boyd of Niles had the high individual game (155), and the team high series and the free pizza for the best performance went to the Jason Gutter Balls with captain Nikki Summers of Des Plaines. The team high series was 1,543.

Nancy Wolf of Park Ridge on Oct. 11 had the high individual game (166) and the high individual series (284).

The Gutter Girls won the free pizza for the afternoon's competition.

Bantam

The Bantams played the Bellwood Bears at Bellwood under similar conditions as the Midgets and won 26-0. All points were scored in the first half. Halfback, Bill Serentoni scored on 50 yd. sweep, H.B. Gary Benkin scored twice, once on a 40 yd. sweep and a 10 yd. burst up the middle. Fullback, Dave King scored on a 5 yd. smash off tackle. Neither team scored in the last half, as the field became a quagmire.

Awarded Service to Youth Plaque

M. Marvin Lotz, Executive Director of the Leaning Tower YMCA, announced recently the presentation of a special plaque to Senator Robert J. Egan, State Senator of the 16th Legislative District. The award given to Senator Egan is the YMCA Service to Youth Plaque, which is presented to individuals for outstanding service to the community. A maximum of six such plaques are awarded annually.

Marvin Lotz stated that the Board of Directors of the Leaning Tower YMCA felt that Senator Egan deserved this award for his efforts in securing the traffic light at the corner of Touhy and Mobile aves.

The traffic light to be installed is due to the joint efforts of the State of Illinois, the City of Chicago and the Village of Niles. This light will assist pedestrians, especially children and senior citizens, in reaching the YMCA safely.

Shown above is Senator Robert J. Egan (D-16) receiving the Service to Youth Plaque given him by Marvin Lotz, Executive Director of the Leaning Tower YMCA.

LWV Lauds Court Ruling on Repeal of Township Collector

Maine Township Leagues of Women Voters hailed last week's State Supreme Court ruling which again dismissed an appeal filed on behalf of 29 township collectors to reinstate their office. A 1970 court order prohibited township collectors from keeping 2% of the property taxes paid in the township, virtually wiping out the office of township collector.

A spokesman of the leagues' research committee stated that, "This re-affirms our conclusions that township offices are archaic and duplicative. Most, township officers act as collector and assessor, the county officers provide the work for processing tax bills and assessments."

The appeal filed on behalf of the township collectors is one of the many legal maneuvers the LWV is encountering in its efforts to get a November 7th referendum on dissolution of township government in Maine, Northfield, Niles and Palatine townships. Township officers have mounted an all out legal battle, financed by township taxes to thwart residents of each township the right to vote on this issue. However, on Oct. 20th ruling on Northfield Township by Judge Dahl has given support to the LWV's position. In that ruling, Judge Dahl stated, "It is most important that the people be given their right to vote on this question. What complication may arise if the proposition is successful will have to be dealt with later."

"It's inconceivable to us," said the league's spokesman, "that township government can be so unresponsive to the democratic process."

AN OPEN LETTER FROM SAM YOUNG TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 10TH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT ON CRIME AND DRUGS

The recent shocking murders in Skokie, Morton Grove and Evanston, all in our District, highlight the need for a Congressman who will be truly representative of our views, and who will support Federal programs to help local government confront and solve the crime and drug problems. Please keep in mind that crime and drugs, while essentially a local problem, also have major state and national aspects.

1) President Nixon, in a major thrust against organized crime, sponsored in Congress "The Organized Crime Control Act of 1970." It provided for special grand juries, immunity for witnesses, prohibition against use of crime syndicate funds in legitimate business, and penalties for bombing of public places. It passed the House of Representatives by a vote of 341 to 26. My opponent, Abner Mikva, voted against this law. On the contrary, I stand solidly for it.

2) President Nixon proposed extremely important legislation aimed at drugs, entitled "The Comprehensive Drug Abuse Prevention and Control Act of 1970." This law categorizes drugs into degrees of danger as to use, it provides for prevention and rehabilitation, and it strengthens enforcement of our anti-drug laws. This Bill passed the House of Representatives by a vote of 341 to 6. My opponent, Abner Mikva, failed to vote for this legislation even though he was present in Congress on the day the bill passed. I am unequivocally in favor of it.

If you support President Nixon and his efforts to bring crime and drug abuse under control, give him a Congressman who will work with him to achieve that great and urgent goal.

Sincerely,
SAMUEL H. YOUNG

AN OPEN LETTER

Dear Neighbor:

I am asking for your support as a candidate for the State Senate (16th District).

I am the former Executive Editor of the Niles-Golf Mill Review and have been an Alderman for the past nine years.

When I was Editor of the Niles-Golf Mill Review I exposed gangland coin machine operations along the Milwaukee Avenue strip.

As an Alderman for the past nine years I have always been a leader of the economy block in the Chicago City Council cutting millions of dollars of waste and fat.

My Democratic opponent - the present State Senator - is a mouthpiece of the Chicago Machine in Springfield.

We need a State Senator who will represent us - not the Machine. The Democratic Machine is not concerned with the problems of our suburbs.

As a former newspaper editor and an Alderman, I know how to get things done.

I will work for you.

Sincerely yours,

EDWARD T. SCHOLL

'Listen-In's at Niles West

There are a number of ways students at Niles West High school can make their complaints and wishes known to the powers that be, and one of these is when West's Principal, Dr. Nicholas Mannos actually goes out after student dialogue.

In a number of lunch hour meetings Dr. Mannos calls "Listen-Ins," students get a chance to informally discuss what is bothering them.

Dr. Mannos spends at least one or two lunch hours every other week in the cafeteria in an open forum meeting. Students are invited to gather around and pick his brain.

Such matters as curriculum offerings, drivers education, teachers' evaluations and other topics are discussed.

Dist. 63 Board Discusses Budget Revisions

A group of approximately 100 parents, teachers, and community members gathered at Ballard school on Oct. 17 for the regularly scheduled meeting of the East Maine School District 63 Board of Education.

The major topic discussed was proposed changes in the Educational Fund budget for the district. The total amount of state aid income for the 1972-73 school year has been reduced by $94,620.28 because of a decline in average daily attendance.

The original budget was developed to incorporate an anticipated increase in the teaching staff needed by the district. The decrease in attendance made this increase unnecessary. As a result, $145,098 became available from Educational Fund salaries that were originally budgeted but now are not needed.

The net result to the district, after subtracting the decreased state aid, was $50,477.72 in funds that are no longer needed for teachers' salaries.

Dr. G. Allan Gogo, District 63 superintendent, presented a list of suggested changes in the budget to enable the district to utilize the additional funds. This would not result in any increase in the total budget.

Areas that were identified by Dr. Gogo as needing additional funds included printing and publishing for the office of the Director of Communications, classroom supplies and audio-visual equipment for classroom use, increased cost of hospitalization insurance for administrators, chairs for the district conference room, and the purchase of two mimeograph machines and a primary typewriter for use in schools.

In addition, increases were recommended for physical education equipment, health equipment, the addition of a secretary for the district business office, part-time secretarial help due to illnesses, and the addition of two Teacher's Aides to assist with the physical education program.

Henry O. O'Neill, President of the East Maine Education Association (EMEA) read a letter to the Board from his Association which reads as follows: "It has come to our attention that Dr. Gogo has made a recommendation for increased expenditures of some $39,000. We feel that these expenditures are not directly related to classroom needs, which we consider pressing and urgent."

"We do not quarrel with the fact that these recommended changes may well be needed or desirable. However, we do seriously question the priorities implied by them."

"On Friday, Oct. 13, a delegation from the East Maine Education Association met with Dr. Gogo to discuss the more critical needs that directly relate to students in the classroom."

"As more than half of these recommended increases are solely for the administrative function of our schools, we strongly object to the fact that these monies are even being considered before classroom needs. The next regularly scheduled meeting of the Board will be held at 7:30 p.m. on Tuesday, Nov. 7 at Nathanson school.

OCC New Program in Urban Studies

Chicago will be the subject of a new interdisciplinary program in urban studies which will be offered by Oakton Community College in the spring semester beginning in January, 1973.

Focus: Chicago will be a combination of courses designed to let the student concentrate most of his work during the semester on the many aspects of Chicago's life, times and problems. Richard Storinger, assistant professor of communications, is chairing the committee which has developed the Chicago program.

"Focus: Chicago aims at understanding the intricate pattern of relationships among politics, the arts, ecology, and the life of every man, woman and child in the city and its suburbs." Mr. Storinger explained. Credits earned in this program are eligible for the college transfer, he pointed out.

Students enrolling in the Focus: Chicago program must sign up for 12 semester hours of credit in courses designed to broaden understanding of the social and artistic dynamics of Chicago and its metropolitan area. These courses include:

1. Environmental Science—study of the various forms of pollution in the metropolitan area and their causes as well as the solutions already in effect or possible with present technology.
2. State and Local Government—investigation of the problems that face local government, the nature of urban government and the resources in various parts of the metropolitan area.
3. Modern Culture and the Arts—study of the social and physical textures of the city with the aim of seeing the relationship between the arts and the society that produces them.
4. Literature—investigation of the fiction of Vonnegut, Wright and others for insight into Chicago.

Activities of the program will include weekly visits to and discussion sessions and special research in the environmental lab every third week.

"Students will have an opportunity to see where New Town is going and what's happening in the ethnic neighborhoods on its fringes," Mr. Storinger said. "They will study the patterns of life in the ghetto and guess what will happen to Chicago and its suburbs when Mayor Daley steps down. They will investigate causes for the fish corpses that litter the lakefront every spring and pinpoint sources of air pollution. They will prowl through the skyscraper canyons downtown and learn something about why Chicago's buildings are known and admired all over the world."

In addition to Mr. Storinger, instructors in the Focus: Chicago program are Mary Mittler, instructor in Humanities; Maurice Weiglauf, instructor in Environmental Science; and Bill Taylor, instructor in Political Science.

Other courses will also be offered in the urban studies program in addition to Focus: Chicago. They will offer their students an opportunity to see their subject matter in relation to the problems and opportunities inherent in life in Chicago. Course options will include: Introduction to Data Processing; Modern Culture & the Arts; Introduction to Literature; Introduction to Architecture; Introduction to Philosophy; Ethics; State & Local Government; Social Psychology (2 section team-taught; Individual in Modern Society and Social Problems.)

For further information about Focus: Chicago, contact Mr. Storinger at Oakton Community College (967-5120, Ext. 350). Registration for the spring semester is scheduled for Jan. 10-12. Classes begin on Jan. 15, 1973. A day-care center is available on the campus for students with pre-school children.

Illegal action from a non-registered group which distributed a letter under the name of "The Society Against Mikva." The Congressman noted it was in violation of a federal law for unidentified, non-registered persons to indulge in this type of activity.

Meanwhile, Niles lone candidate, Tom Flynn threatened to go into court last week over previous statements made by his opponent, John Nimrod, who is competing for the state senator post in most of our district. Tom held a press conference a week ago Monday in which he answered charges leveled at him by Nimrod, who himself had the press to lunch the previous Thursday. At the Monday press conference Flynn documented each item which Nimrod had mentioned, making a thoro and methodical presentation which consumed about 2 hours time. But as Tom moved along in his presentation he became increasingly irritated with the charges and in a display of utter frustration called his opponent a name which disparaged his legal birthright. Tom had noted he was getting flak from Skokie his opposition had been using endearments such as "Communist" and "queer" in labeling Tom, and his sudden explosive epithet sort of caught all of us a bit off guard.

Perhaps the most unusual and interesting bit of testiness is coming from the Democrats who are vying for the state representative's post. Incumbent Aaron Jaffe and former representative Ed Warman are battling one another rather than their Republican opponents, in what is shaping up as the biggest civil strife ever to be seen here inside the same party. Warman accused Jaffe of double crossing him and Jaffe opposed Warman's last minute entry into this race.

The result of all the bickering is Jaffe is likely to have all his captains in Niles Township "bullying" only for him, while Warman will be seeking a similar effort here in Maine Township.

Warman had served as committeeman Nick Blase's chairman in his unsuccessful bid in last April's primary race for Congress against Mikva. Blase's disappointing showing resulted in his group looking critically at Jaffe's Skokie area, which helped defeat Blase. While committeeman Jaffe stated he was neutral, many of the Blase people found it difficult to believe when they saw how well Blase's opponent did there. And it was not too much later Blase was in the forefront in substituting an unknown candidate with his friend Warman.

Normally, this district only sends one Democrat to the Springfield House. But the upsurge of Democratic strength in the election 2 years ago might indicate this year may have been the year for 2 Democrats to head for the capital. But with the likelihood Jaffe will get all 3 votes in most of Skokie, and Warman may get all 3 Democratic votes in Maine Township, it seems highly unlikely both of them will win. However, in Park Ridge, Incumbent Bob Juckett generally wins these elections most substantially, which indicates he makes sure his captains tell the voters to give him all 3 votes, rather than splitting their votes between Juckett and his running mate. And if the Juckett turnout follows past patterns he may take enough votes away from Eugene Schlickman, his Republican running mate, which could make the opening for the second Democrat.

Board Supports...

Pesole said, "If the Board is interested in saving money for the taxpayers, we should go on record for abolishing the township government." Pesole added that this would also end patronage systems found in many township governments.

Bergquist accused Pesole of making a political speech and demanded that both sides be presented.

At this stage, both men began shouting. Mayor Nick Blase intervened, threatening to throw both men out of the meeting.

Bergquist told the Board, "If you pass this, you will be criticized for acting politically and like puppets." Bergquist told The Bugle he was not representing any political group or affiliation, only himself.

The League's statement contended that the limited functions of township governments could easily be carried out by either county or municipal governments and also stated Niles Township spent $97,000 last year, of which only $23,000 went for services not available from the village or county.

The League hopes to put this issue to a referendum in the upcoming election.

Trustee Jerome Skaja told The Bugle, "representing the citizens of Niles, I voted to endorse the referendum. The people should decide this issue."

Trustee Angelo Marcheschi said, "The Board's intent is to put the issue on the ballot. But the resolution does endorse abolition." As far as presenting both sides, Marcheschi said, "The Township has not protected its position."

In other actions, the Board continued to delay voting on a zoning change request for Gino's Rustlers Steak House at 8805 Greenwood ave. and 8384 Dempster st. Gino's has yet to come up with a definite building plan that satisfied the Board.

Attorney Leo F. McLennon, representing the firm, said the cost of drawing up a final plan before acquiring the zoning change would cost too much money.

Mayor Blase told McLennon that questions concerning seating capacity and traffic flow must be answered before the Board votes on this request. The vote was continued until the next Board meeting.

McLennon told The Bugle he did not know if the firm would come up with a complete plan. The Board also delayed voting on a minor change for a Planned Unit Development at 8855 Greenwood ave. and 8855 Chester ave. Trustee Pesole wanted the Board to study the plans for the changes before voting on it.

Only the shape of the building and the yard will be changed. The reason for the change is the original plot plan was for a high rise building. The number of units was cut, but the plot was not changed. The condominium-type complex will have 33 units.

The Board passed an ordinance allowing the selling of alcoholic beverages in Niles on Election Day, Nov. 7. The action came after the State of Illinois abolished the old law which prohibited this.

The Board also appointed Tom Argyrakis, 7921 Nordica ave. and Richard Machnowski, 7160 Wright terr. and reappointed Ralph Braun, 8640 Ozanam ave. to the Niles Youth Commission.

Menard Alley...

allowed to put in a garage as they wished only those residents directly involved would have an alley in back of their homes.

Dick Hols moved to have the money received by the village for the sale of this land go for legal fees (if necessary). Martin Asman amended this to raise the price to $1 per square foot in order to allow for any legal fees which might be incurred. This would come to about $360 for a .45' lot. In order to have the alley vacated there must be 100% participation by all families concerned.

With Halloween just around the corner John Hlkin announced some suggestions for parents to follow to insure a safe and happy Halloween. They are as follows: Keep "Trick & Treating" to one night, Oct. 31. Have the children go out from 3 p.m. to 8 p.m., and have them stay within 2 blocks of their home. Parents should accompany very young children and children should accept only those items which are wrapped.

questing permission to hold a parade at 10 p.m. Sat., Nov. 18, on the way to the Niles West High School Recycling Center. They also requested a police escort. Permission was granted so was the police escort.

Trustee Ed Brice reported that last week the police had 206 complaints, including 3 burglaries, 8 thefts and 37 traffic accidents. During the same period the Fire Dept. had 20 alarms including 12 ambulance calls.

David Cohen reported the July Sales Tax receipts as $74,407.33 and the Sept. State Income Tax as $17,756.66.

Police Chief Norman Glauer thanked the board for permitting him to attend the International Convention of Police Chiefs in Salt Lake City, Utah.

John Hlkin said that the tree planting program was starting on Waukegan road tomorrow.

Chief Hildebrandt announced Dec. 31 as the new date for the Paramedic program at North-west Community Hospital.

A citizen reported that someone is living in a panel truck on Callie and Capulina. He said two trucks were parked there. The police will look into it.

Ed Brice said that he will accept bids until Nov. 14 at 5 p.m. for 3 squad cars with no trade-ins.

Trustee David Cohen presented a proposed resolution regarding the zoning for multiple dwelling units. This calls for the Plan Commission to hold public hearings on the amending of the 1968 Apartment Code and suggests that the trustees restrict certain areas for this type of construction. The Board will consider this proposal next week.

Legion to Salute Veterans Nov. 11

The Morton Grove American Legion Post #134 will salute the re-instated Veteran's Day of Nov. 11 with their annual dance benefiting the hospitalized veterans' program that very night. The Legion Home, 6140 Dempster, will be the scene for the social event beginning at 9:30 p.m. that Saturday night.

Joe De Luca's Orchestra will entertain, and the evening includes many surprises, all liquid refreshments in the "package donation" and a late evening catered buffet table.

Reservations are urged in advance. Junior Vice Commander Jerry Brice is chairman. He will hold a table reservation if 5 couples reserve it in a group. Donation is $14 per couple.

Brice's committee, who also have tickets, is composed of Ralph Hintz, 965-3090; Howard Karsten, 966-4744; and Joseph Schmidt, 965-0739.

Illegal action from a non-registered group which distributed letters under the name of "The Society Against Mike." The Congressman noted it was in violation of a federal law for unidentified, non-registered persons to indulge in this type of activity.

Meanwhile, Niles lone candidate, Tom Flynn threatened to go into court last week over previous statements made by his opponent, John Nimrod, who is competing for the state senator post in most of our district. Tom held a press conference a week ago Monday in which he answered charges leveled at him by Nimrod, who himself had the press to lunch the previous Thursday. At the Monday press conference Flynn documented each item which Nimrod had mentioned, making a thorough and methodical presentation which consumed about 2 hours time. But as Tom moved along in his presentation he became increasingly irritated with the charges and in a display of utter frustration called his opponent a name which disparaged his legal birthright. Tom had noted he was getting flak from Skokie his opposition had been using endearments such as "Communist" and "queer" in labeling Tom, and his sudden explosive epithet sort of caught all of us a bit off guard.

Perhaps the most unusual and interesting bit of testiness is coming from the Democrats who are vying for the state representative's post. Incumbent Aaron Jaffe and former representative Ed Warman are battling one another rather than their Republican opponents. In what is shaping up as the biggest civil strife ever to be seen here inside the same party. Warman accused Jaffe of double crossing him and Jaffe opposed Warman's last minute entry into this race.

The result of all this bickering is Jaffe is likely to have all his captains in Niles Township "bullying" only for him, while Warman will be seeking a similar effort here in Maine Township.

Warman had served as committeeman Nick Blase's chairman in his unsuccessful bid in last April's primary race for Congress against Mikya. Blase's disappointing showing resulted in his group looking critically at Jaffe's Skokie area, which helped defeat Blase. While committeemen Jaffe stated he was neutral, many of the Blase people found it difficult to believe when they saw how well Blase's opponent did there. And it was not too much later Blase was in the forefront in substituting an unknown candidate with his friend Warman.

Normally, this district only sends one Democrat to the Springfield House. But the upsurge of Democratic strength in the election 2 years ago might indicate this year may have been the year for 2 Democrats to head for the capital. But with the likelihood Jaffe will get all 3 votes in most of Skokie, and Warman may get all 3 Democratic votes in Maine Township, it seems highly unlikely both of them will win. However, in Park Ridge, incumbent Bob Juckett generally wins these elections most substantially, which indicates he makes sure his captains tell the voters to give him all 3 votes, rather than splitting their votes between Juckett and his running mate. And if the Juckett turnout follows past patterns he may take enough votes away from Eugene Schlickman, his Republican running mate, which could make the opening for the second Democrat.

allowed to put in a garage as they wished only those residents directly involved would have an alley in back of their homes. Dick Hols moved to have the money received by the village for the sale of this land go for legal fees (if necessary). Martin Ashman amended this to raise the price to $1 per square foot in order to allow for any legal fees which might be incurred. This would come to about $360 for a 45' lot. In order to have the alley vacated there must be 100% participation by all families concerned.

With Halloween just around the corner, John Hilkin announced some suggestions for parents to follow to insure a safe and happy Halloween. They are as follows: Keep "Trick & Treat" to one night, Oct. 31. Have the children go out from 3 p.m. to 8 p.m., and have them stay within 2 blocks of their home. Parents should accompany very young children and children should accept only those items which are wrapped.

Mayor Bode announced the selection of the following men for the Sign Appeals Board. They are: Gabriel Berrafato, Chairman; Jerry Brim, Harry D'Eath, Lionel Lindheimer, David Hirsch, Joe Allett and Jim Kavortis. The board will decide on this matter next week.

Herb Houndt said that there have been 21 street signs stolen recently. The cost of replacing them will be about $500 including labor. Houndt said that if a youngster wanted a street sign he should go to the village garage and would probably be able to obtain one. Jerry Verhune suggested that a reward be offered, but Houndt said he thought this measure a bit harsh when dealing with children.

Mr. Houndt also moved to pay the sum of $91,518.79 to Clorba, Spess & Gustafson for the 1972 resurfacing program. The board passed the motion.

Administrator Fred Huber noted that the fence along Topps Department Store is now under construction. He also reported that traffic signals were being installed at Oakton and Austin. Clerk Fred McClory announced that there would be no meeting on Nov. 7, the night of election. He read a letter from the Morton Grove Woman's Club requesting permission to hold a parade at 10 p.m. Sat., Nov. 18, on the way to the Niles West High School Recycling Center. They also requested a police escort. Permission was granted so was the police escort.

Trustee Ed Brice reported that last week the police had 206 complaints, including 3 burglaries, 8 thefts and 37 traffic accidents. During the same period the Fire Dept. had 20 alarms including 12 ambulance calls. David Cohen reported the July Sales Tax receipts as $74,407.33 and the Sept. State Income Tax as $17,756.66.

Police Chief Norman Glaumer thanked the board for permitting him to attend the International Convention of Police Chiefs in Salt Lake City, Utah.

John Hilkin said that the tree planting program was starting on Waukegan road tomorrow.

Chief Hildebrandt announced Dec. 31 as the new date for the Paramedic program at Northwest Community Hospital.

A citizen reported that someone is living in a panel truck on Calle and Capulina. He said two trucks were parked there. The police will look into it.

Ed Brice said that he will accept bids until Nov. 14 at 5 p.m. for 3 squad cars with no trade-ins.

Trustee David Cohen presented a proposed resolution regarding the zoning for multiple dwelling units. This calls for the Plan Commission to hold public hearings on the amending of the 1968 Apartment Code and suggests that the trustees restrict certain areas for this type of construction. The Board will consider this proposal next week.

Board Supports. . .

presenting the firm, said the cost of drawing up a final plan before acquiring the zoning change would cost too much money.

Mayor Blase told McLennon that questions concerning seating capacity and traffic flow must be answered before the Board votes on this request. The vote was continued until the next board meeting.

McLennon told The Bugle he did not know if the firm would come up with a complete plan.

The Board also delayed voting on a minor change for a Planned Unit Development at 8555 Greenwood ave., and 8555 Chester ave. Trustee Pesole wanted the Board to study the plans for the changes before voting on it.

Only the shape of the building and the yard will be changed. The reason for the change is the original plot plan was for a high rise building. The number of units was cut, but the plot was not changed. The condominium-type complex will have 33 units.

The Board passed an ordinance allowing the selling of alcoholic beverages in Niles on Election Day, Nov. 7. The action came after the State of Illinois abolished the old law which prohibited this.

The Board also appointed Tom Argyrakis, 7921 Nordica ave., and Richard Machnoski, 7160 Wright terr., and reappointed Ralph Braun, 8640 Ozanam ave., to the Niles Youth Commission.

Trustee Jerome Skaja told The Bugle, "representing the citizens of Niles, I voted to endorse the referendum. The people should decide this issue."

Trustee Angelo Marcheschi said, "The Board's intent is to put the issue on the ballot. But the resolution does endorse abolition." As far as presenting both sides, Marcheschi said, "The Township has not protected its position."

In other actions, the Board continued to delay voting on a zoning change request for Gino's Rustlers Steak House at 8805 Greenwood ave. and 8384 Dempster st. Gino's has yet to come up with a definite building plan that satisfied the Board.
