Final Chapter - Russia

Last week we mentioned the tremendous contrasts we were aware of in observing the Russians.

We flew on SAS across the ocean and received the same services aboard the plane we would receive on an American plane. The hostesses were exceptionally efficient and pleasant and the girls were very pretty. When we boarded the Aeroflot Russian plane in Copenhagen the contrast was evident. The Russian pilot came back in the cabin, shouted there was a baggage mix-up and waited for one of the passengers to retrieve a ticket they failed to process. The abruptness of the Captain raised our antenna and made us perhaps overly-aware of everything Russian.

Unlike the very pretty Scandinavian hostesses the one Russian hostess was short, middle-aged and rather matronly. But the second hostess was beautiful, a tall willowy black-haired girl who was most helpful. Aboard the Scandinavian plane the hostesses were marvellously efficient, balancing 3 and 4 trays, when serving meals. Aboard the Russian ship the cart carrying the equally good food was jolted, causing some food to fall onto the carpeted floor. It remained there during the entire flight.

When we landed in Moscow there were uniformed policemen or soldiers who were on duty, guarding the plane the moment it landed.

The first evening in Moscow we walked along Gorki st. and wandered into several food stores. The ladies behind the counter all used abacuses to figure the total purchase and the bakery breads were handed to the customers unwrapped.

We had supper in a small cafe along Gorki st. and the meal consisted of small apples, salad with garlic dressing, onions, one piece of chicken and a glace of cocoa moco. The cost for two was 5.16 Rubles or about $4.

Back in the Intourist Hotel, a beautiful modern hotel two blocks from Red Square, our room had all the modern appointments and accommodations of an American hotel. However, in the bathroom there was no clothes hook nor shower curtain and the towels were of thin muslin and one of very coarse cloth. We had to ask the lady on the floor for soap and she dispensed 2 small bars of hotel-sized soap.

The following morning breakfast in the hotel consisted of a soft-boiled egg, cold meats (ham and baloney), tomato and apple juice and tea served in a large glass with a holder.

We took a bus to the American consulate and passengers voluntarily placed their coins in the unattended coin box. We walked back and used several underground passages which go for several blocks under Moscow's main streets. In the three cities we were in we moved under an intersection, rather than attempt to cross the busy street. Women are constantly sweeping the walks underground and in the late evening hour we still saw women sweeping.

Flying to southern Tbilis our hostess was most gracious and provided my wife with a window seat when the plane

PARK DIST. SEEKS FED FUNDS FOR 5 PROPERTIES

Niles Park District has made application for $1,080,000 of federal funds for open space and flood land acquisition, which is about 50% of the total value for 5 pieces of land which will be part of a referendum in November. The estimated $2,160,000 acquisition will be for the 35.9 acre property presently known as the Little Tam golf course; a 3.381 acre land on Oriole Street in Jonquil Terrace; 1.5 acres at Milwaukee and Mulford; 1.75 acres at Hamilton Drive and Sherman Road and 2.797 acres at Betty and Chester.

The application was first submitted to NIPSI, the planning group for northeastern Illinois, which okayed it in 3 days. It then is sent to Springfield where the left-over funds are distributed by the open space state agency.

Park Director Helmut Dressler told the Bugle the application for these federal funds is for left-over undistributed funds Uncle Sam has not made use of for the fiscal year ending June 30. While Dressler indicated the opportunity for such funds is slim, he noted submitting the application at this time would enable the Niles Park District to be near the first applicants for the ensuing fiscal year.

Dressler also noted because the Little Tam property is in a flood plain area, the 45.3 acres would certainly be eligible for the federal grant.

The Park Director added the application is based on past park and village master plans. He said a more recent land evaluation plan has not as yet been taken.

The 5 properties are land previously considered by the Park Board. The Tam proposal is part of a 7 year option the district must pick up, or else forfeit the land to another public body, or give back to the original owners. The Jonquil Terrace land is the remaining 3.381 acres of the 5 acre plot owned by School District 64. The Milwaukee-Mulford land is the contiguous land to the present park property where the first swimming pool and administration building is located.

Ken and Abe, Ed and Bob

Congratulations to all the men in the Niles Public Works Department and to their director, Ed Bacher. The Department recently received the Award of Honor for 1972 from the National Safety Council for completing the year without one injury. This award is the highest recognition given for an outstanding safety record. Since Public Works handles many different hazardous projects during a year, they are to be commended for their record. Every taxpayer benefits from such performance since injuries create medical expenses and valuable time lost on the job.

INFOPASS- something new at Niles Library

Library and information users in Niles Public Library now have a means of obtaining information and using library materials not available in their own library. A n "Information Passport" (Infopass) is a new kind of library card which can be issued to patrons of over 140 libraries in the Chicago metropolitan area. The Infopass Program, in effect Jan. 10, is an extension of existing library services offered to patrons of school, special public and academic libraries which are members or affiliates of the Illinois Regional Library Council. Infopass will be needed only if the request cannot be filled through the North Suburban Library System.

To install traffic light at Dempster-Lehigh

A joint agreement between the village of Morton Grove and the State of Illinois to provide new traffic signals at the Dempster st.-Lehigh ave. intersection has been announced by the Illinois Department of Transportation. The improvement consists of replacing the existing traffic signal equipment with fully actuated traffic signals (signals that change according to traffic volume.)

This improvement is part of the federally sponsored TOPICS (Traffic Operations to Increase Capacity and Safety) program. The estimated total cost of the project is $55,000. The federal government will pay one-half the cost through the TOPICS program. The State will pay approximately 25% with Morton Grove paying the remaining 25%. As a result of the joint agreement the village of Morton Grove is responsible for the preparation of the plans and specifications and will directly supervise construction.

The Department of Transportation will let and award the contract and provide administrative assistance for the construction which is scheduled to begin in the Fall, 1973.

Summer classes

The Adult Education Department announces a culinary addition to its class schedule: "Cooking in the Cool Kitchen." The course will concentrate on salad making and warm weather recipes. The class begins on Thursday, June 21 at 10 a.m. Most classes will be held inside the Center in air-conditioned comfort, however, some groups will take advantage of balmy days, and hold sessions out-of-doors.

Int. House of Pancakes Colts 3 - Phillies 5. Singles by F. Chryznowski, J. Walsh, Dave De Santis, and P. Cagliardi and one by J. Lepak didn't help our cause, but the boys sure tried.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK...

WHERE SIZE MEANS SERVICE

What is the right size? Lincoln said a man should be just tall enough for his feet to reach the ground. So it is at First. We believe we should be large enough to always offer the services our business and personal customers need and expect of their bank.

Service means different things to different people. At First a qualified business can borrow up to $750,000 or a youngster may open a $1.00 junior savings account. A busy lady can cash a check from her car at the auto-bank or a manufacturer may have his entire plant payroll handled automatically by our on-premise computer. Multi-dollar receipts can be credited to commercial accounts the same day through a mail lock box program or your valuables may be protected in a safe deposit box for $6.00 per year. Christmas Club? Yes. Or certificates of deposit to meet your requirements. In all, over 40 different services are at the disposal of business and individuals every day.

Service has kept the First growing these past 60 years, faster than any other bank in the community. Our year end, 1972 resources exceeded $122 million—a growth of over $11 million as compared to year end 1971. And, as services expand to fulfill your financial needs, so will the First continue to be the largest and most diversified financial institution in the community for the next 60 years.

So drop in soon and find out why size means service and what First service can do for you.

Urge 'yes' vote on lowering of School Board age

Dear Editor:

The Niles West High school PTSA Board 1972-73, which unanimously endorsed P.B. 425, the bill to lower the age requirement for members of Illinois school boards from 21 to 18, welcomes the news that this worthwhile piece of legislation has passed the State House of Representatives.

We believe that young people, close to the reality of the actual school experience, can bring an added dimension of consideration to school problems.

As the bill's sponsor, Rep. A. Ron Jelle pointed out, "this legislation gives these interested young people a chance to offer their qualifications and ideas for approval at an election."

We now urge members of the State Senate to vote YES to the bill which has been proven successful in 42 other states in the country that have already enacted this legislation into law.

Dear Mr. Besser:

The Northwest-Italian American Society wishes to respond regarding an article in your April 15, 1973, issue of the Bugle. However, before we do so, we would like to explain the purpose and scope of our organization so there will be complete understanding of this correspondence.

We as an organization are dedicated to combine all the Italian-American energies in the United Society without religious or political prejudice, to use all the goodwill between our members and all conationals, to help preserve justice, liberty and equality at all times, to uphold and honor American laws; to coordinate and carry on civic, educational, non-political, non-sectarian, charitable and social welfare activities which best serve our fellowman and the interest of humanity. . . also, to enhance the image of Americans of Italian heritage.

Mr. Besser, the latter words in the above paragraph brings us to the issue at hand regarding the inference you made on April 5. In your Left Hand Column you made reference to one of our members as a "Hit Man." While we realize you are somewhat friendly with the person you referred to, it is the feeling of our organization, that your statement of "Hit Man" is directly related to the unsavory elements of the underworld . . . a "killer."

For many years the Italian-Americans have strived hard to erase the stigma that has labeled all Italians as underworld characters. Therefore, we feel as members of the Northwest Italian-American Society, you have not only defamed the individual, but all persons of Italian origin or heritage.

We feel confident we can count on your understanding, consideration, and support in future articles that will enable us to attain one of our goals, that of enhancing the image of Italian-Americans to the stature they so rightfully deserve based on the many contributions to mankind by our ancestors.

We hope you agree with our feelings not only for all Italian-Americans, but also for all conationals regardless of race, color, or creed.

Sincerely,
Northwest Italian-American Society
Thomas Imburgia
President

Thank you

Dear Mr. Besser,

Thank you so much for the excellent coverage you have St. John Brebeuf's Catholic Women's club and the Girl Scouts of this area. I really appreciate your interest in our organizations.

Thank you again,

NIU Alumni board member

New officers and directors of the Northern Illinois University Alumni Association who will take office on NIU's All-Alumni Day, Saturday, June 2, have been announced by assistant alumni director Mary Ann Morrow. New at-large directors added to the present board include: Judith Tobias, '73, Morton Grove.

Clean-up Week every week in Morton Grove

Every week its clean-up week in the Village of Morton Grove. Since the Village has a policy of picking up almost anything that residents can think of throwing away every week along with the regular garbage pick-up it is not necessary for the Village to participate in the Annual Clean-Up Week campaign sponsored by the National Fire Protection Association. Fire Chief Christ Hildebrandt and Captain Fred Huchler of the Morton Grove Fire Department both stated that they are certain, although unable to prove, that the fact that Village residents can get rid of combustible materials and are not required to store them along with all the old throw-away furniture and appliances in the basement, garage or attic where they become serious fire hazards.

Public Works Superintendent James Dahm stated that the Village had instituted a new combined garbage and rubbish pick-up procedure on April 30 of this year. Under the old method, garbage was picked up on one day of the week and rubbish on another. Under the new system all items are picked up on the same day by the same compactor type truck. All residents have to do to get rid of old unwanted furniture, stoves, refrigerators, hot water heaters, etc. is to place them at the curb or in the alley with their garbage. The new system is also designed to pick up small amounts of dirt, sod and rocks as well as branches and bushes. Dirt, sod and rocks must be placed in moisture resistant containers and cannot exceed a size or weight that can be handled by one man. Branches and brush must be cut into lengths not exceeding 48 inches and they must be bundled securely.

Superintendent Dahm wished to remind citizens that branches exceeding 3 inches in diameter and tree stumps will not be picked up since they can seriously damage the compactor. The Village will not pick up construction material either. These items will have to be hauled away by a private scavenger service. He also stated that a Morton Grove Village Ordinance prohibits garbage and rubbish from being placed curbside prior to 6 a.m. on the day before your scheduled pickup. Any Morton Grove resident desiring additional information on the new garbage/rubbish pick-up system or schedule may call the Public Works Department at 965-4100.

GIVE YOUR HAIR A PHYSICAL CHECK-UP

DID YOU EVER THINK YOU MIGHT HAVE - SICK HAIR? MANY PEOPLE DO, YOU KNOW.

There's a way to determine the health and condition of your hair. That is through Hair Analysis. It's like giving your hair a physical check-up.

It begins by taking samples of your hair. These samples are tested on a sensitive instrument called a Micro Gram Scale. Readings taken off the Micro Gram Scale register your hair's tensile strength and elasticity. (That is, is your hair dry, brittle, weak, etc.)

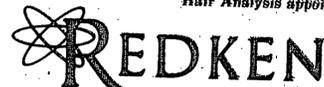

Then a photomicrograph is taken of your hair. This photograph is returned to you. From it you are able to actually see the internal structure of your hair shaft. Is it broken, damaged? Is the shaft rough, split?

All this information is examined by trained hair analysts. They diagnose your hair problem and recommend a corrective program.

Our salon Hair Analysis program works in conjunction with Redken Laboratories. Our trained cosmetologists study the corrective program designed for you. They set up a treatment schedule to rebuild and maintain the health of your hair.

If you suspect you might have "sick" hair—shouldn't you make plans to give it a check-up.

Call today for your Hair Analysis appointment!

CHURCH & TEMPLE NOTES...

Christian Day School anniversary

Saint Matthew's Evangelical Lutheran church of Niles will be celebrating the 75th anniversary of its Christian Day School on June 10 with special services.

The Christian Day School was started in the Spring of 1898, two years after the congregation was founded. Besides his duties as the first pastor of a growing congregation, Karl Buenger also served as teacher for the 5 years he was with St. Matthew's. Classes were conducted in an annex of the original church building in German. For the next 20 years, until a teacher was called to serve the congregation, the church's second pastor, Julius Toepel, held classes in the church. Pastor Toepel served St. Matthew's for 50 years before resigning in 1953 because of serious illness. In 1922, the same year as the church celebrated its 25th anniversary, the congregation voted to have a school built. With a few changes having been made to the interior, this building is still being used.

On Sept. 23, 1963, during Pastor Howard Henke's 16 years as pastor of St. Matthew's, a new church at 9081 Maryland st. is located directly behind the old church. The original building has been converted to use as a gymnasium for the school's students. In 1955 kindergarten was added to the curriculum. It is presently being taught by Mrs. Eria Schwarz. Louise Riek teaches grades 1 through 4 in one of the school's large classrooms. Grades 5 through 8 are taught by Lynn Kuetner. Mr. Kuetner also serves as principal of the school. In all, 37 dedicated teachers have served St. Matthew's.

On June 10 services commemorating the anniversary will begin at 10 a.m. with a worship service and the graduation of the 75th class. Pastor Lyle Luchterhand, the fourth and present rector of St. Matthew's, will lead this service. Immediately following, the Ladies Aid Society will serve a buffet dinner in the church auditorium. At 1:30 a special 75th anniversary worship service will be held. The guest speaker for this service will be Rev. George Boldt, pastor of Jerusalem Lutheran church of Morton Grove. Rev. Boldt served as St. Matthew's vacancy pastor for over a year and a half prior to Pastor Luchterhand's installation in July of 1970. After the 1:30 p.m. service, St. Matthew's Christian Day School will hold an open house. There will also be reunions of all the graduating classes in the school auditorium with coffee and cake being served. The school is located at 9200 Milwaukee ave.

installs public welfare chairman

At its May meeting at the Morton House the Morton Grove Womens Club installed Mrs. Kelley Brown as its new Public Welfare Chairman. Mrs. Brown, Jinger to her friends, has been a member of the club since 1962 and has held various jobs in the club, including that of treasurer, before assuming this sensitive position. The Public Welfare Chairman handles all philanthropic activities of the club, which, after all, is what the club is all about. For the past 20 years since its inception, the club has been at the center of Morton Grove, assisting local students with scholarships, giving a helping hand to our residents in trouble, participating in civic activities such as the Blood Drive . . . and all philanthropy projects fall under the guidance of this chairman. Twice each year the Shut-Ins of the town are remembered with a small gift and a visit from members of this committee. Consequently, the chairman is chosen with great care, as she must be someone who cares . . . cares enough to do the little things that matter to someone who hasn't been remembered in a long time. Jinger Brown will fulfill this position perfectly.

In order to achieve all the philanthropies planned for the next year, funds are a necessary evil, but will be earned easily and beautifully this coming October when Mrs. Brown and her committee will present a luncheon and prestige couture fashion show. Mark October 4 on your calendar and prepare yourself for an afternoon of extreme pleasure at the new Algiers Fireside in Northbrook. Watch this newspaper for more news and details of the event. It is only through support for this annual affair that the M.G.W.C. which is an affiliate of the Illinois Federation of W.C. that we can continue local charities.

Maine North parents urge start of phase II building

About 250 parents from the Maine North high school area attended the May meeting of the District 207 Board of Education on Monday evening, May 21, at Maine East high school to press for early construction of Phase II of Maine North's building program. The expansion program would give Maine North an additional 100,000 square feet of space and would include an auditorium, large swimming pool, a performing arts area for music, speech and drama, a woodshop, art area, home economics laboratory and additional classrooms. The accommodations are needed to make the facility comparable to the district's other three high schools.

The parents in attendance had two spokesmen, Mrs. Russel DiPrima, 527 Hazelwood ct., Glenview, and Mr. Albert Nidetz, 9937 Warren Oval, Niles. Mrs. DiPrima told the board: "We are happy with the quality of teaching at Maine North and feel that the administration and faculty are doing a great job. But we have been concerned for a long time about the uncompleted condition of the school and about the fact that our children cannot enjoy the same kind of facilities that are found in the other schools. As taxpayers we feel that our children have a right to the same educational opportunities and accommodations provided all the other children in our district. We are here to tell you of our concerns and to press for a timetable for completion of the school."

In his remarks to the board, Mr. Nidetz also commented on the excellence of the school's faculty and program but pointed out that the program was handicapped by lack of proper facilities. Until the present, he said, the school has been unable to have an effective sports program for either boys or girls because of the lack of a football practice field, pool, tennis courts, baseball diamond, golf driving range, or areas for archery, field hockey, or touch football practice. All of these and more were included in the original specifications for the school, he reminded the board.

He stated he was also concerned that the school had no woodshop or photography laboratory for students interested in industrial arts, and that business education facilities and art areas were inadequate. He mentioned that music students were presently using science rooms as practice rooms, causing noise problems for students in nearby classrooms. He said he felt that lack of a performing arts area was the primary reason why students were not motivated to stay at school after their regular classes to take part in plays or in speech, drama or debate clubs. "I feel that building an adequate, well-planned school facility is one of the wisest investments we can make," said Nidetz. "The bonds needed to build it, will be paid off in ten years or less, but the building itself will serve—not only the children—but the entire community for fifty years or more."

The parents views were well received by board members. Roy O. Makela, chairman of the Building and Grounds Committee, assured the parents that all members of the board were eager to have the school completed.

"We, too, have been concerned about this matter for a long time," he said. "But in assessing the feeling of the voters, we have realized that, for the past few years, the climate has not been right for a referendum. Now there is a real drive to complete Maine North, and we must accomplish this in a way that will be least troublesome to the people of the entire community. We assure you that we are trying our best to work out the problem, and that it will be worked out. We will not put the issue aside."

Leonard R. Grazian, board member, Morton Grove, also spoke to the parents, telling them he shared their views concerning completion of the school. "As I attended the recent musicals at the other Maine schools," he said, "I again realized how much school spirit and loyalty and pride is developed by such activities, and how much Maine North students need proper facilities for these activities. The same can be said of our sports program. We can, and will, provide outside facilities. Our tennis courts and baseball diamond will go in this year; a football practice field and other accommodations will follow next year."

"But indoor facilities, such as an auditorium, and pool, are part of a construction program and must await voter approval. We recognize what an asset a pool would be for our students; we think it should also be looked upon as a community improvement as it is a facility that would be used by many organizations, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, park district programs, many civic groups."

Robert C. Claus, board president, pointed out that the other Maine schools would also benefit by the completion of Maine North. "Bussing Maine North students to our other schools to use their facilities is obviously inconvenient for everyone. It is often a very real burden on the school whose facilities must be shared." Mr. Claus thanked the parents for sharing their views with the board, and urged their support and help in the months ahead as the board seeks ways to obtain the money needed to make the building program possible.

Learn to swim week at YMCA

As part of the YMCA's aim to drownproof America, the Leaning Tower YMCA announced a special Learn to Swim Week, June 18 - June 22. Registration for non-Leaning Tower YMCA members will begin June 11, 9 a.m. and June 13, 9 a.m. for Leaning Tower Y members. The classes are designed for non-swimmers only who will meet 5 consecutive days for 45 minute instructional sessions. Eight and 9 year old children will register for the 9:45 a.m. class; ten and eleven year olds, 9:45 - 10:30 a.m. class; twelve to fifteen year olds, 10:30 - 11:15 a.m. class.

There are 2 good reasons for learning to swim - the first is safety. Drownings are the third leading cause of accidental deaths in the United States. Two thirds of the victims didn't know how to swim.

Most beginners can be taught to swim in 5 lessons. At the end of the week, beginners should be able to swim 25 feet and be ready for more advanced instruction.

The second good reason for learning to swim is because it is fun; aquatic sports are among the most popular forms of recreation and an excellent means of physical exercise. Water recreation should never be attempted by non-swimmers.

Parents wishing additional information on registration may phone the Leaning Tower YMCA at 647-8222.

Inflation hasn't changed the price of ashes.

But it has changed the price of your home. For example, if you bought a $20,000 home in 1968—today it's worth about $27,000. Don't be left with a costly pile of ashes. See me about a State Farm Homeowners Policy that will cover your home for all its worth... and keep it that way with automatic Inflation Coverage.

NOW! Round the clock interest from day of deposit to day of withdrawal Round the Clock Interest, another great first from the First of Skokie. Now, every time the clock goes round you get 4 1/2% interest on your passbook savings. Daily interest, figured every day, every 24 hours, every time the clock goes round. Interest figured from the day of deposit to the day of withdrawal. And your interest is compounded daily. On the total amount you have in your savings account on that day.

For example, let's say you deposit $1,000 on the 14th of the month. Then, withdraw $300 on the 24th and make no other transactions during the quarter, we'll pay you interest on the full $1,000 for the 10 days it was on deposit. You will also receive full interest on the $700 for the balance of the quarter. And since your interest is compounded daily you'll earn interest on your interest.

It's the big-pay way. If you're not getting Round the Clock interest on your passbook savings, round up your cash and bring it over to the First National Bank of Skokie. Don't lose a minute, or you're losing money.

OCC folk guitar classes

Instructors from the Old Town School of Folk Music will again offer courses in folk guitar technique during the summer session, according to college officials.

The Old Town School of Folk Music, 909 W. Armitage, Chicago, will teach two courses in beginning guitar technique, utilizing methods developed by Ray Tate, director of the school. The class method creates a group feeling in which each student progresses at his or her own level, free of competitive pressure.

The course is open to both full and part-time students. Registration is now open at Oakton Community college, 7900 N. Nagle, Morton Grove. Registration ends on June 15 and summer session classes begin on June 18. The Music 133 classes will begin on Tuesday, June 19.

Gracefully falling
From the fluffy sky above
Come small melt-a-ways
That sparkle with the sunlight
On a frosty winter's morn."

Volkman visits Twain school

Harry Volkman, meteorologist for WMAQ-TV Channel 5 in Chicago, presented a program for students at Mark Twain school in Des Plaines on May 11. The program included a discussion of weather and methods of weather forecasting. Volkman's presentation was attended by students from Teams 3, 4, 5, and 6. This program was one of a number of speaker programs arranged through the East Maine School District 63 Volunteer Talent Bureau, under the direction of Ruth Conrad, the Volunteer Bureau assistant teachers throughout the District by arranging for guest-speakers to supplement the regular school program in virtually any subject matter or field.

District 63 Music department

The East Maine School District 3 Honors Band, Orchestra, and Gemini school Eighth Grade Chorus recently completed their annual Spring concert tour. The tour included concerts at all 11 schools in the District.

The tour is held as a culminating event for the school year, and is also designed to give exposure to elementary school students about the possibilities that exist for instrumental and vocal music at the junior high school level.

More than 125 students participate in the 3 musical groups, under the overall guidance of Donald Filla, Director of Instrumental Music for District 63. The Orchestra is directed by Dennis Gibbons and the chorus is led by Charles Olson.

Graduates receive recognition from SIU

Annually Southern Illinois universities officials give recognition to those students who are demonstrating high scholastic achievement.

Lower Division students with 4.50 grade point averages and Upper Division students with 4.25 grade point averages are to be honored along with recipients of various scholarships and students elected to membership in honorary scholastic organizations.

Recognition was in the form of a Scholastic Honors Day Convocation, which was held Sunday, May 13. Sixteen Maine East graduates were recognized for their achievements.

1969 graduates recognized were Robert Meyer and Nancy Tait, and from the Class of 1970 were Marlene Goodman, Nancy Karas, and Elliott Marks. There were 5 students from the Class of 1971 recognized for their scholastic standing. They are Linda Bleshaar, Lesley Cutler, Gary Engelman, Pam Kartinos, and Wendy Shaw. Lastly, 6 students from the Class of 1972 at Maine East were recognized. They are Patricia Anderson, Jami Esposito, Maralee Joseph, Jeri Kornstein, Phyllis Marder and James Tobin.

Students create Mother's Day gifts

Kindergarten children at Mark Twain school in Des Plaines made presents for their mothers for Mother's Day, May 13.

Children in Mrs. Doris Barsky's morning and afternoon classes made gifts from self-hardening clay in the shapes of fish, turtles and owls. The children glazed and fired their creations, and then applied felt backing to the finished work.

Kindergarten students in Mrs. Ingrid Ecklund's morning class and Mrs. Kathleen Landin's afternoon class made bowls for presents. Each child brought a 33 - 1/3 non-breakable record to school. The records were molded by softening them in boiling water and then shaped into bowls. The children then painted and decorated the bowls with enamel paint.

THE CORNERS

of Where it's at and What's happening.
By Ed Hanson

"Why, oh why, do I do it, darling," I said to my doctor.

"Because we love to hurt the ones we love, Ed," my doctor replied.

"Aw, sugar plum, that's an old psychiatric saw-all head shrinkers say that. Why do I do it?"

"Do what, Ed?"

"This!" I sat upright on the huge couch and handed her my last week's column about the Cubs. "Why does a person like me who is by disposition, charitable and loving to all mankind, say such bad things about a nice bunch of guys like the Cubs?"

"Because deep down, you probably love the Cubs, Ed."

"If your analysis be true, then those Cub fans who are phoning and writing nasty, acrid things to me because I've been saying mean and bad things about their heroes, the Cubs, in reality all love me."

"You could say that, Ed," my doctor replied as she ran a silver-manicured finger nail across the blue shadow above her large Kelly green left eye.

"Oh boy, Luv," I said, "I'm sure that a 71 year old Cub fan who phoned me twice last week will be glad to know that. His name is Charles Ringham, 7453 Seward, Niles, and he told me he is proud to be a Cub fan, and I should be ashamed to write bad things about his northside heroes."

"He sounds like a very nice man, Ed."

"Yes, he is, but then there was a widow in a Niles tavern (Go-To-Blases) who said some things to me about that Cub article; that no gentleman should say, No wonder I have weird dreams."

"You do, Ed? Do you ever dream about baseball?"

"Never on Sunday, but every other night of the week I dream I'm playing baseball. But there's a funny thing about this dream . . ."

"And what's that, Ed," the lady psychiatrist asked as she picked up pen and pad.

"I'm always playing on a girl's baseball team. And the bases are always loaded when I come to bat and"-(I paused as I leaned back on the huge ornate couch and placed my hands behind my head in a more relaxing position.)

"And?" the good lady doctor prompted.

"I always hit a grand slam homer but then comes the frustrating part, lamble ple . . ."

"What is the frustrating part?" the lady head shrinker asked with an intonation of rising interest.

"Not a man scores! Imagine, not a man scores even tho' I belt a homer!"

"Then what-happens, Ed?"

"The dream ends, I awaken. It's morning. I'm sweating, coughing and tired, I stagger around my Fireside Hotel room trying to get my third blood flowing. Shaving, even with a Gillette, is a difficult chore. Pulling on my stretch-socks saps my remaining strength. I sort of fall into my clothes, stagger down the stairs, breathe in the morning haze and with my last ounce of vigor, I manage to turn the key in the car door lock, slide inside and "white" out."

"You mean 'black' out, Ed."

"You said it, I didn't, honey bun."

"Feeling so badly, how do you manage to work, Ed?"

"I don't, peaches & cream."

"Retired?"

"No, I sell display advertising space. But it's getting so I can barely muster enough strength for the 3-hour week the average display sales person works."

"Your mind is one thing, your body another, I think I should start with your body, Ed."

"Thought you'd never ask, Doc. What do you have in mind?"

"Geritol, some vitamin pills, perhaps a tonic."

"I failed to become the Bobby Darin of the Geritol set, Doc. Vitamins, didn't even raise my eyebrows. And even gin and tonic bombed."

"Meanwhile, Ed let's get back to the dream; is the baseball dream the same every week night?"

"Yes, doc darling. It's a girl's baseball team. The bags are loaded or the bases are loaded with bags, or the bags are full of babes. I'm at bat and swat a homer. Not a man scores!"

"Not true, Ed. Even if it was a girl's baseball team and you hit a home run you would score the fourth run, see Ed."

"Right off, Doc. You see in my dream I'm a 12 year old boy playing on a baseball team that's made up of big, bouncy, full grown broads. You dig?"

"Well, that explains everything, Ed. You didn't tell me that when you were a little boy you were playing with big grown girls."

"You mean that you've discovered something significant about my childhood?"

"Oh, indeed, Ed. It also explains why you say such mean things about the Cubs."

"I don't agree, Doc. I have no wish to hurt the Cubs. In fact I'd like to see them win something for a change. But my logic and thorough knowledge of baseball combines and arrives at the conclusion that the '73 Cubs are just a poor ball club. They're in first place now only because they're playing over their heads. All things being relevant, they'll soon return to form and go into a nose dive. I paused for breathe and continued.

Major league baseball, due to the fast buck boys, has shown a marked deterioration from what it was its peak in 1938, as far as the perfection of playing skills was concerned, and from this time on became slowly a game of former bonus college players rather than tough, tobacco chewing, hard drinking, all-out pros who never did anything in their lives but play baseball. They were baseball "bums" but they were far superior to what we were playing in the major leagues today, barring a few notable exceptions."

"Interesting, Ed, but I have another appointment. Can you make it next week, same time?"

"Yes, luscious lady," I said, I collected my fee and departed.

The lady psychiatrist mentioned is not a figment of my imagination. She's for real. A M.D. but does not now practice medicine. Her function in psychiatry is unique but not motivated for financial gain. She frequently provides free psychiatric counsel, if it suits her research reasons, and on occasions pays the so-called "patient." Very wealthy, she is a magnificent mystery for she rarely leaves her large servant-cared-for home located in a private and remote place in this area. Unmarried, she is a woman endowed, generously so, with all the admirable attributes that nature can bestow upon a woman. Add to this, breeding, charm and intelligence and you have, at least on the outside, an outstanding creation of the female species. I shall say in closing her small list of "clients," save for me, are very distinguished, some VIP's but all are -males. You shall, thru me, hear more about her from time to time, and you'll find it of fascinating interest, I assure you.

After leaving the lady doc, I hurried to Alipio's Restaurant & Lounge, 6474 N. Milwaukee ave., got into a back booth and dashed off the aforementioned. John Countanis, your host at Alipio's has a new gimmick and a good one. On Monday & Tuesday nights 5 to 9 p.m., "all you can eat and drink for only $3.95." Niles East Math awards.

The Illinois Honor Roll for his individual high score. In addition to this honor, Cooper has been selected as one of the top 100 high school students in the nation to take a second math test, called the U.S.A. Mathematical Olympiad. Results from this contest will be announced in early June.

Cooper's 2 teammates who also scored quite well for East are junior Dave Levy and senior Dave Steitman.

Last year East finished eighth in the state contest and 12th in its region, which includes Canada, Minnesota, Wisconsin and Illinois. New Trier East High school of Winnetka, won first in the state, and Niles West High school of Skokie, ranked ninth.

Van Cleave and Principal Dr. Arthur Colver, along with other math teachers, are quite proud of East's performance - and the students who made it possible. "Many people don't really like math; they say it's too hard because everything's sequential, everything's got an answer - and only one," explains Van Cleave. Although he's one of the first to admit math isn't easy, Van Cleave also believes it's rewarding. And he adds East is looking forward to next year's contest.

Other East students who fared well in the math competition include freshmen Richard Cope, Bill Datchman and Judy Vels; sophomores Alan Eilenby, Michael Levin and Scott Fector; junior Gary Pineless; and seniors Scott Bleher, Leonard Soffer and Dave Tresley.

was about to land. The plane had every seat occupied, but several passengers volunteered to move so we could see the Caucasus Mountains and the Georgian City of Tbilis.

Our one-year old hotel in Tbilis was very modern, 14 stories high, and already in its first stages of decay. Chunks of plaster were in the hallways, and the outside concrete had several pock marks where chunks of decay had left holes in the outside walls. The carpeting in the hallways in the hotel were already worn, though the thin carpet looked like the padding we use under our regular carpets.

On the counters in the lobby were about 20 newspapers from many countries. There was a Morning Star from London, L'Humanites from Paris and even an American newspaper. But sadly, all 20 papers were Communist newspapers.

In our first morning in Tbilis a cab driver refused to charge us for our ride to Leninplatz. We gave him American cigarettes which he did accept.

We strode down one street off of the Circle and then turned into an alleyway and found an old synagogue at the rear of the alley. About 15 elderly men were praying on this Saturday sabbath, and the 3 women sitting off to one side embraced my wife even though the language barrier was difficult. We had been told Judaism is dying in Russia and the lack of any young people in the synagogue seemed to substantiate this.

A second synagogue about one block away was in contrast to this old Ashkanzi temple. It is a beautiful building with much inlaid tile in the steps which women upstairs. It was a Sephardic or Georgian synagogue and the 75 men and 5 women inside were both young and old.

After the service many of the men walked onto the street with their headscarves (Yarmulkes) still being worn which indicated their lack of fear of outside harassment. We walked in warm sunlight with 2 young men and found out one was leaving for Israel. It cost him 9,000 Rubles to leave (about $7,500). The second young man insisted we come home with him and even though we had only 30 minutes we went to his home. The family greeted us warmly and gave us sabbath dinner of many fishes and hot meats. Strangers though we were, such warmth and hospitality were overwhelming.

We went with our family on many outings. We rode the funicular down the side of a mountain, being swallowed up by the unbelievably beautiful twinkling lights of the city down below. We drove into the country and saw a fortress where it was alleged the queen of centuries ago would take the largest and strongest men from her army, keep them as lovers, and then throw them into the ravine below when she was bored with them. And a beautiful old timber church over 1,000 years old had the arm of the architect etched in the concrete near the top of the building. It was alleged the arm was removed so he could not design another building to compete with this marvel. Both stories may be apocryphal and both stories are true remembrances of Russia.

We went to the marketplaces in the center of the city and saw shepherds bringing their sheep to market, wandering down the main streets of this modern city. And we saw Tartars behind the market counters, and a huge parade of high officials literally sweeping thru the market.

brushing aside the marketeers who had filled the aisles.

In this Republic of Georgia, Stalin is still revered. Unlike the rest of the country where his name is forgotten, Stalin's mother's grave has visitors attending it daily leaving flowers alongside it. Georgian writers are much revered. Once I asked if Dostoyevski, a reactionary by their standards, was still remembered. With incredulity the interpreter said, "But of course, he is a writer." Graves of many writers were prominently placed in the cemetery, and were obviously revered by the many.

At one home we visited, a bakery was in the basement. While the baker asked me not to take pictures, still he sent upstairs several different tortes and sweet cakes as his gift to 'the Americans.'

We went to the old city inside Tbilis and drank Georgian beer and a fermented water which came from bread. We went into an old tiled bathroom which had mineral waters which restored good health to those who partook of its wonders. In this same area we visited a second bakery where they made only bread. The baker had to hang over and down into the huge round oven and then slap the dough onto the urn's side, the way it had been done thru many hundreds of years.

On the night of May Day we went to an amusement park and watched the fireworks. I showed off by throwing balls at wooden bottles, showing how an American lefty couldn't miss such an easy target. The first ball missed by ten feet, and just like at home, there was still one standing when I had finished throwing the third one.

We rode the rides with the children, flying high above the speckled city which was down below. And two of the heartier relatives rode rope-like ladders which swung high above the ravines and then swooped down into the merry-go-round center, as the riders grabbed the ropes of their friends. More adults than young people were riding on these ladders.

The 49 year old doctor, who acted as our interpreter this night, was quoting Tennyson and Longfellow as we ambled back toward our car on this very warm and lazy evening. He reminisced during World War II he was in Romania and Czechoslovakia. He said the American soldiers he met were "tourists." He noted how well fed and clothed they were. He said he wasn't in Germany but if he had been he would have killed every German, saying the Germans were criminals in the war.

The doctor, as well as the family and friends we briefly knew, had strong feelings for the Republic of Georgia. We sat around the piano, while nearly everyone took turns playing, and they sang many songs of the city of Tbilis and Georgia. They had a genuine love of this Georgian republic, and sang with much joy.

We had one mix-up of traveling plans and it indicated the gap in our thinking. We told the hotel touristist aid "we wanted to go" to a seaside resort. But when she didn't make plans and we asked her why she said, "You only said you wanted to go... you did not say, 'You want to go.'" The difference was a fine one but we reluctantly understood. Another time we were a bit short of temper and sounded off about the poor planning which would have got us on another plane which left 12 hours earlier. The touristist guide looked at us with disbelief, saying, "It is too late now, why even concern yourself with it." We wanted an ounce of satisfaction, but her pragmatism completely squelched us.

We went on one museum tour with a guide. We asked her about a 'partisan award' which was displayed and she said it was for those who fought in Spain, Italy, Romania and Czechoslovakia. We asked her if there was an award for fighting in Greece and she indicated the Russians didn't fight there. But while everyone knows about the Russians fighting during the Spanish Civil War, we were somewhat surprised to see this outward acknowledgement of Russian participation in Czechoslovakia, Italy and Romania.

We remember one conversation with the doctor. He told us the Cuban confrontation in 1962 was caused by Khrushchev, who was testing Kennedy. He said he thought Kennedy was too young and not tough enough and was testing him. Another time he mentioned he thought the English and the French were 'soft' but he thought the Americans were 'hard.' We believed this hero of World War II, an intellectual, was a man to be listened to. We also assumed he was a Party member.

Our last remembrances are of the lady in the hotel restaurant who was cutting the paper napkins so only individual pieces could be taken at one time. And at the very modern Moscow airport, on a very dark and dreary day, all but one of the fluorescent lights were off. We assumed no unnecessary expenditures, neither of lights nor napkins, would be needlessly used.

Oakton tennismen end year

The Oakton Community college tennis team completed a winning year in Skyway Conference and overall play last week turning in 5-2 and 6-4 records respectively. The 5-2 Skyway record, good for third in conference, was a complete reversal from their 2-5 record in 1972, their first year in the conference. Coach Tom Jordt was extremely pleased with his team's play this year.

"Steve" Paull continued winning and Kevin Kelly reversed his record from 2-5 last year to 5-2 in 1973. And the addition of Roger Junge as our number one singles player was probably one of our greatest assets," said Jordt. He mentioned that Junge will return with teammate Bruce Bozelka next year, but the rest of the team will have graduated or not be eligible to play in 1974.

The conference records for individual Oakton tennismen in 1973 were: Roger Junge 3-4, Jeff Nelson 3-4, Steve Paull 5-2, Kevin Kelly 5-2. The record for doubles teams were: Junge and Nelson, 2-2; Junge and Paull, 2-1; Nelson and Kelly, 1-2; Paull and Kelly, 2-2; Tom Duffy and Bruce Bozelka, 0-1; and Bruce Bozelka and Craig Christiansen, 3-3.

Glenn Beckert opens boys baseball camp

A special camp to help boys 8 to 15 develop and improve their baseball skills has been established in Niles by Glenn Beckert, All-Star second baseman with the Chicago Cubs. The camp will be conducted at Notre Dame High school under the direction of Ken Maziarra, head baseball coach at Notre Dame.

The main purpose of the camp is to give boys the opportunity to get the right start in baseball by receiving individualized professional instruction early in their career. Beckert said, incorporated in the instruction are safety factors which make baseball a safer game. These safety factors have been recognized and supported by the "National Safety Council," Beckert added. Concentrated lessons and supervised practice on key fundamentals and techniques of hitting, pitching, catching, fielding and baserunning will be emphasized on a non-competitive basis. No skill level is required to attend the camp. Register now for sessions beginning June 18. Space is limited and is filled on a first come, first serve basis. So call 282-8032 in Chicago to tentatively reserve your space. All reservations are confirmed only after full tuition is received. Tuition for a two-week 20 hour session is $35.

AREA SCOUT NEWS

Boy Scout Lunch-O-Ree

It's Boy Scout Lunch-O-Ree time again. The Northwest Suburban Council of the Boy Scouts of America is planning their next Industrial - Utilities Lunch-O-Ree to be held in the Durante Room of the Arlington Heights Towers Hotel in Arlington Heights on June 14 at 12:15 p.m.

General chairman John T. O'Neill, and general manager of Western Electric, Inc., has the job of co-ordinating all the volunteer efforts from northwest suburban industries and utilities toward this year's important fund raising banquet. Both management and employees of major suburban corporations pool their resources and talents to help raise the needed $25,000 from this event.

Funds are needed each year to help finance the office, field and program services of the Northwest Suburban Council. This money goes directly into developing new programs, camping facilities, professional staff, training aids and other necessities which insure a rewarding Scout experience for over 18,000 boys.

This year's Lunch-O-Ree will have Channel 5 TV weatherman,

Harry Volkman as emcee. Special guest speaker will be the new football coach at Northwestern university and former Big Ten "Coach of the Year," John Pont. Typifying the recognition of Scouting by industrial leaders, the main speaker will be William Harrison Fetridge, president of Dartnell Corporation and vice president of the Boy Scouts of America.

Another ceremony will be the yearly presentation of the "Good Scout" award to a leading citizen of the industrial community. This year, the award goes to Robert W. Galvin, chairman and chief executive officer of Motorola Inc. In all, the entire program reflects the "pride of sponsorship" of industry and their realization that the Boy Scouts of America are developing our greatest natural resource.

Brownie Scout Friendship Day

Service Unit #65 of the Girl Scout Council of Northwest Cook under the co-chairmanship of Mrs. W. Koss and Mrs. M. Horvitz held their 2nd annual Brownie Scout Friendship Day at Miami Woods West. Brownies from Troops 948, 274 of Golf school; 810 of Hynes school; 282, 762, 797 of Melzer school; and 863, 324 and 472 from Nelson school went to different locations in the woods to play the traditional Wide Game. At each location (or station) they were met by Cadettes from Troop 100, Juniors from Troop 906 of Melzer, 532 of Nelson, 26 of St. Luke's church, 686 and 664 of Golf Junior High who taught them songs, circle and field games, the yarn craft of making God's Eyes, and to cook doughboys coated with cinnamon and sugar on long sticks.

Before beginning the game, the Brownies had a picnic lunch after which the Cadettes of Troop 100 entertained them around the opening friendship campfire. After the opening flag ceremony by Troop 906, the whistles sounded by Mrs. Koss and the older Scouts designated the Wide Day Game was to begin. At 20 minute intervals the whistles indicated everyone was to move on to the next station. Friendship bracelets with colorful beads were given at each station they visited. The day was concluded with lemonade for all, the retiring of the colors and the singing of Green Trees and Taps.

BSA Bicentennial

To take part in the bicentennial era, the Northwest Suburban Council, Boy Scouts of America, begins this year a program of emphasis that will carry through the 200th anniversary of the Nation in 1976.

The local BSA council intends to meet the challenge from the President of the United States to "forge a new national commitment, a new spirit for '76, and a spirit which will unite the Nation in purpose and in dedication to the advancement of human welfare," Arthur J. Allen, Scout Executive said.

The 1973 emphasis is on citizenship and is designed to encourage the 17,963 members in this area to become deeply involved in a demonstration of citizenship through service. Beginning next September, the 3 annual programs of emphasis will be Get Involved for Them (GIFT), Be Prepared for Life, and Spirit of '76. The latter program from September 1975 through August 1977 will be three-fold featuring Heritage '76.

"Our commitment to the President and to the American Revolution Bicentennial is to deliver to the Nation in 1976 a new generation of prepared young citizens," Allen said. "We'll provide opportunities for our members to have a meaningful involvement in the bicentennial area and to develop their own plans to be carried out in their units."

Two of the major national projects which will continue through the bicentennial era are Project SOAR, the conservation good turn, and Operation Reach, the drug abuse prevention program, Allen said.

Claus elected district 207 president

Robert C. Claus, 943 2nd ave., Des Plaines, was elected President of the Board of Education of Maine Township High School District 207 at the regular monthly meeting of the board Monday evening, April 16. Mr. Claus, an attorney, has had considerable board experience. Before being elected to the District 207 board in April, 1972, he had been a member of the District #62 board in Des Plaines for six years, serving two terms as president.

At the meeting Monday evening, votes from the April 14 school board election were canvassed by Board Secretary Harold Markworth. Michael W. Bartos of Des Plaines, Leonard R. Grazian of Morton Grove, and Roy O. Makela of Niles, all incumbent members of the board, were re-elected, with Bartos receiving 2,866 votes, Grazian, 2,741, and Makela 2,544.

Edward H. Gregory, Park Ridge, submitted his resignation as a member of the board, effective April 16. Gregory, who has accepted a position with the United Nations which will necessitate moving to New York, had completed one year of a three-year term of office. Board members passed a resolution thanking Gregory for his service on the board, and unanimously approved the appointment of John L. Means, 1061 Alfini dr., Des Plaines, as his replacement, to serve until the next school board election, to be held in April, 1974.

In making the motion to appoint Means, board member Bartos pointed out that it has been customary for the board to fill any unexpired term by appointing one of its former members to serve until the next regularly scheduled election. Means was on the District 207 Board of Education from April, 1966 until he resigned a year ago at the end of his second three-year term. During his time on the board he served as president, vice president, and as chairman of several committees. As chairman of the board's Finance Committee, he provided leaders hip in seeking ways to finance the Maine high schools and in urging legislative changes that would bring additional financial aid to the school district.

The board authorized continued participation of District 207 in the Vocational-Technical Education Program of the Office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction. The district will seek continuing state support for its vocational-technical education program by submitting its 1973-74 plan for the program to the Division of Vocational Education and Rehabilitation. The plan will detail many aspects of the program such as administrative organization; objectives; policies; program descriptions; short and long-range plans; sources of income and major categories of expenditures as related to vocational-technical education.

The low bid of $50,300 of the Singer Company for two driver education simulators was accepted. The simulators will be installed at Maine South and Maine West high schools and will be used in driver education classes in combination with behind-the-wheel training. Fifty percent of the cost of the two simulators will be paid for by the Illinois Department of Transportation from National Highway Safety funds. Simulator training is now being provided at Maine East high school, and a simulator will be recommended for Maine North when the student population at that school makes it economically feasible to do so.

In other action the board approved the continuation of the district's summer counseling and guidance program, with expenditures not to exceed $11,419. It also approved certain changes in district policy regarding personnel leave for the purpose of servicing on school evaluating teams.

A list of textbooks was approved for use in the 1973-74 instructional program. The books were recommended by the Textbook Review Committee composed of Dr. Michael J. Myers, Administrative Assistant to the Superintendent of Schools, the Assistant Principals for Staff of the four Maine high schools, and the department chairmen and professional staff members of the departments involved.

Roy Makela, chairman of the Building and Grounds Committee, reported that word has been received through the Village of Niles officials that the engineering plans for the extension of Deer rd. from Golf rd. to the Commonwealth Edison power line at the south-east corner of the Maine North property has received final approval from the Chicago Metropolitan Sanitary District and that construction of the new access road to Maine North high school and Apollo Junior High school will begin soon. He reported that approval from the Superintendant of Schools, Dr. Richard R. Short, to make an immediate start on the project so that the road will be ready for use when school opens in the fall.

OCC chem tech program

What are the options for a young man with a family in a dead-end job that he really doesn't like?

Al Ohlson, a Des Plaines resident who now is a student at Oakton Community college, faced this problem last Fall. His solution was to investigate new career possibilities and begin retraining for a new career in an entirely different field. He is now enrolled in the chemical technology program at OCC, while still working at his factory job.

An Air Force veteran, Ohlson had been trained as an aircraft mechanic and, after his discharge in 1968, worked for General Dynamics in Fort Worth and Lockheed-Marietta in George. Both jobs were phased out when aircraft production was cut back in the early 70's.

"I enjoyed working with aircraft. I liked the individual responsibility and being on my own. This is something I don't have in my present job in a steel plant," he explains.

"This is the reason I became interested in training to become a chemical lab technician," he said.

The hardest part of his new life as a part-time student and full-time breadwinner has been to re-develop study habits, but Ohlson feels that his training in Air Force schools has been helpful.

The chemical technology program at OCC is planned as a practical, applied program to meet the needs of students like Ohlson. Based on the Chem/Tech program of the American Chemical Society, new chemistry and laboratory technique courses have been developed at Oakton, according to Dr. Phillip Jaffe, professor of chemistry and coordinator for the chemical technology program.

Continued from Niles-E, Maine P.1 The triangular Hamilton Drive-Shermer land is the Jewish cemetery property at the northeast end of the village and the Main-Greenwood land borders the Park Ridge Park District where several hundred Niles families live, but who are park of the Park Ridge park district.

Illinois was $15,622.50 for 60 trees. John Hilkkin noted that on a heavily traveled street such as this good sturdy trees were necessary to survive. He then moved to refer the bid to Fred Huber and Jim Dahm for their recommendations. The motion was carried.

John Nordberg read the ordinance permitting Shaf Builders to build a 12 unit condominium at the northwest corner of Lincoln and Morton. John Hilkkin moved to adopt the ordinance including all recommended amendments, but the motion died for lack of a second.

Regarding the tree planting program on Waukegan Road the bid from Sidel of Prairie View,

The board was advised by Business Manager Harold Markworth that District 207 is eligible to receive approximately $278,631.80 in additional State Aid under the State Aid Density Factor-House Bill 1485 (Amended). The board authorized the school administration to apply for these funds and to use them for the improvement of instruction in the areas of special education, health education, Afro-American studies, low level biology, humanities, and fundamentals of mathematics, and for the improvement of media services.

Approval was given by the board for the transfer of $750,000 to the Educational Fund and $50,000 to the Building Fund from the district's Working Cash Fund to pay April bills.

mentioned that if Morton Grove Days doesn't go into the red there will be fireworks on July 4. John Hilkkin said that our Blood Drive will be on June 27 and that on Sunday, June 10, the Walk for Blood Program will take place. Hilkkin also reported that our measles inoculation program will be on Sunday, June 3, at the Julia Malloy School from 1 to 4 p.m.

Concerning the skunk problem in certain parts of Morton Grove the march against skunks will begin on June 1.

Herb Houndt reported that 19 inches of sewer had to be replaced on Waukegan Road last week.

Mr. Houndt said that the village will be collecting papers for re-cycling on June 4-8, the former trash collection day.
