Plan for Niles Days

Plans and arrangements for the largest and most modern Niles Days Festival are in the completion stage, coming to the Lawrencewood Shopping Center on July 18 and running thru Sunday, July 22.

Niles Days is a family affair, since families from 27 different fraternal, religious, civic, and cultural organizations share in the operation of this great event. And, of course these same families are among the thousands of families that come to the Festival each year to have the fun and entertainment that goes along with the rides, concessions, eats, and entertainment during these 5 days.

There will be over 25 high-styled rides for youngsters and oldsters alike, and of course the culmination of each nite's events will be a raffle — every raffle ticket sold (five for $1) good for each of the 5 nite's prizes. These prizes include, and the winners need not be present —

Wednesday — AM-FM radio and a complete family dinner for the winner donated by Jake's Restaurant; Thursday — large bushel of wine and groceries donated by Minelli Brothers; Friday — case of whiskey donated by Booby's Restaurant; Saturday — 16" TV and a clock-radio donated by a friend of Niles Days; Sunday — 1973 Plymouth Satellite and a trip for 2 to Disneyworld Florida with air-fare included.

All excess funds raised by the Niles Days Committee are distributed upon request to various projects, the most recent being the founding of the Niles Days Kidney Satellite Center — a mini-hospital for the treatment of kidney disease. Over the last 5 years, over $85,000 have been distributed to worthwhile causes — remember the new ambulance purchased for Niles 4 years ago? So, have a good time, bring the family, and enjoy — enjoy — enjoy.

The following organizations have benefited from previous Niles Days profits:

1966 — Friends of the Public Library, Firemens Benevolent Assoc.

1967 — Orchard School for Retarded Children, Firemens Benevolent Assoc., Firemens Benevolent Assoc., Friends of the Public Library, Garden club, Art Guild, Baseball League, Police Benevolent Assoc., Youth Congress, Senior Citizens, Scholarship Fund.

1969 — Niles Ambulance.
1970 — Senior Citizens, Niles Police Benevolent Assoc., Womens Aux/Niles Police Benevolent Assoc., Garden club, Baseball League, 11 Scout Units.
1971 — Senior Citizens, Grandmothers club, 11 Scout Units, Niles Art Guild, Baseball League, Carillon Bells, Womens club.
1972 — Knights of Columbus,

Ghantous from the North-Suburban Nephrology Assoc., June Haase, and Ed Brasch, President of Niles Days.

Rifle Squad donates to MG Days

The Morton Grove American Legion Post #134 Rifle Squad voted at their last meeting to donate $150 to the Morton Grove Days Committee for that group's 4th of July fireworks program this year. A huge crowd turned out at Harrer Park last Wednesday evening to watch the colorful display at dusk.

Squad Commander William Cunnally, a past post commander, was in attendance at the July 4 program; and for the Legion itself, thanked master of ceremonies Phil Cancelleri for the Krazy "Vegas" Daze Weekend mention, this event to replace the former yearly carnival Legion function.

The Legion's Rifle Squad are an honor guard unit. They participate in the wakes of their comrades; post cooks at their own and other organization's meetings and special functions; march in parades; and promote patriotism and Americanism wherever possible.

MNLL mourns loss

Maine - Northfield Little League's flag flew at half-mast over the senior and major fields last week in tribute to the late Bob Hoffmann, who passed away Sunday, June 24 after suffering a heart attack while attending a Glenview baseball game.

A long time member of the Maine-Northfield Little League organization, Hoffmann was a national major league manager this year and recently led his team to the first-half championship. He also served as the league's official scorekeeper and has been an active member of the board of directors.

Two years ago, Hoffmann was the recipient of the MNLL's award for outstanding service to the league. At the time of the presentation, he was cited for his honesty and fair play and his many contributions toward baseball for the youth of the area.

Said the MNLL president, "Bob's death is a great shock and a great loss to the community, to the league and to me personally. I doubt that any man has been more dedicated to Maine-Northfield and has fought harder for integrity than he did. There just aren't enough men of his calibre in the program and he will be hard to replace. I think evidence of the high esteem his associates in MNLL held for him has been the many who attended his wake and funeral and the tremendous number of phone calls the officers have received from people who want to do something in his memory.

At this time, all such inquiries are being channeled to one person for coordination. Other projects are being considered by the league's officers.

Mr. Hoffmann is survived by his wife, Edith, and a son Gary. The Hoffmanns live in Glenview.

Cubs 4 - Padres 1. Mike Laussen hit a tremendous home run into left field with 2 men on base. Other hits were made by Bill Simon, Glen Magnus, and Kevin Gill. RBIs were made by Laussen (3) and Gill (1). Jeff Dionne pitched a good game but was relieved by Mike Stone in the 4th. The game was delayed several times by rain.

On June 21 the first place Cubs did battle with the Braves in the last game of the first half of what already has been an exciting season.

The Braves jumped off to an early 4 to 1 lead after the first inning but displaying some real power hitting. In the fifth the Cubs began to make their move and for awhile looked like they were going to make this a real contest. They loaded the bases with none out and then the Braves executed a rare triple play. Mike Laussen the excellent Cub pitcher hit an infield fly with no outs and the bases loaded. The wind caught the ball and it got away from Braves 2nd baseman Al Sherman, the Cubs baserunners began to run in spite of the infield fly rule, and after all the running, shouting, and action had ceased, the Braves completed their first triple play and the side was retired.

After that the Braves coasted to an easy victory behind Steve DiBasehos' tight pitching. The Braves featured some of the best hitting seen all season, Mark Berns had 8 total bases with 2 triples and a double and 4 RBIs. Jeff Mueller and Don Hoks also were 2 for 4.

Nevertheless the Cubs hung onto first place and won the first half's competition with an overall 7 wins and 3 loss record.

June 28 saw one of the finest pitching duels of the year when the Braves sent Mark Berns against the Cardinals' Ralph Dynek and Fred Winkler.

Until the bottom half of the 6th inning both teams had only one hit apiece. In their half of the 6th the Cards bunched 3 hits including a long triple by Jim Oroham to drive in the 2nd run and put the Cards ahead 2 to 0.

The Braves challenged in their half of the 7th. Jeff Mueller led off with a single. Stu Epstein and Mark Berns both made long outs, but Kevin Trausch hit a long 3 base hit to drive in the Braves' first run. It all ended for the Braves though when Greg Falcos' sharp grounder was fielded cleanly by Tom Johnson.

Some of the leading hitters for the Braves as we go into the 2nd half of the season are: Stu Epstein - .344, Mark Berns - .323, Steve DiBasilio - .300, Jeff Mueller - .300, Kevin Trausch - .294, Don Hoks - .280; and Mike Africk - .278.

Des Plaines - Mt. Prospect came back in the bottom of the second with 2 runs to tie things up. Greg Polcyn led off with a walk; John Plough singled to right and Mark Taub was safe on an error. Polcyn was out going home on Mike Stapleton's fielder's choice and Plough scored on a walk to Don Trenhille. Taub scored the tying run on Mitch Glickman's long fly out to G-N's center fielder Wally Pinas. Mark Faden's infield out retired the side.

The lead bounced back to Glenview-Niles in the top of the third when Pinas singled to center and scored on a double to right field by Linderman. Ed Volkman singled and took second on the throw but his teammates couldn't bring him in. Both sides went down one, two, three in the fourth and Glenview - Niles unleashed its power in the top of the fifth. Pinas led off with a triple and scored when Volpe was safe on an error. Linderman singled again and Volkman bunted safely to load the bases. Dolezal walked, scoring Volpe, and Linderman and Dolezal scored when DeMarco was safe on an error. That was the end of the game's scoring.

For the first time out, there was some fine fielding and strong hitting on both teams. Both batteries, Glickman, Plough, and Knauer (c) for Des Plaines-Mt. Prospect and DeMarco with Tom Travis and Dolezal catching for Glenview-Niles, looked very good.

Knauer's triple in the first inning just missed being a homer for D-M and Linderman collected hits his first three times up for G-N. Tom Correy had a long left field double for G-N.

The same two teams were slated to meet again this week with Glenview-Niles doing the hosting. Getting a Big League into action this season has been a major project of Maine-Northfield this year. The young men playing in the league represent a number of Northwest communities and they range in age from 16 to 18. Although both team rosters are filled at the moment, young men interested in the program are invited to call Bill McCarty at 299-1286 for information concerning possible play this year or next year.

THINGS YOU MAY NOT KNOW ABOUT CONSERVING ELECTRICITY

How an attic fan can take some of the load off your air conditioning.

If you've ever been up in your attic on a summer day, you know how hot it gets. All that heat up there is what makes it so tough to cool the downstairs—even with air conditioning.

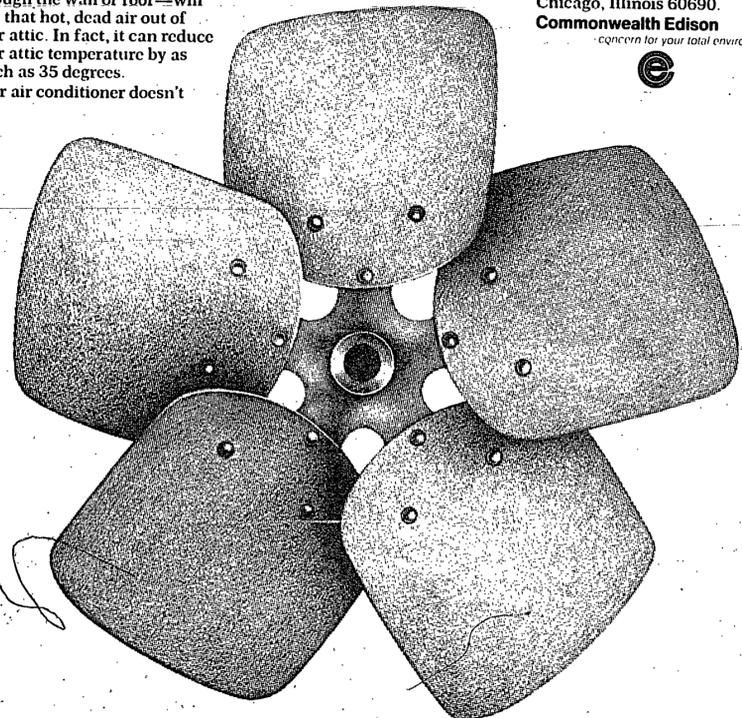

Well, here's a hint: install an attic fan. An attic fan—whether it's at a window, gable vent or through the wall or roof—will pull that hot, dead air out of your attic. In fact, it can reduce your attic temperature by as much as 35 degrees.

Your air conditioner doesn't have to work nearly as hard when it isn't fighting a hot attic. It doesn't switch on as often or run as long. You're just as comfortable, yet you're saving money. With an attic fan, you can also reduce the amount of air conditioning equipment you need.

Contact your heating or air conditioning contractor for the attic fan installation that's best for your home. This hint is included in our booklet "101 Ways to Conserve Electricity at Home." For your free copy, write Commonwealth Edison, Department AV, P.O. Box 767, Chicago, Illinois 60690.

'Up in Arms'

The zany antics of Danny Kaye will be shown on the screen on Thursday, July 19 at 7:30 p.m. when the Mayer Kaplan JCC, 5050 W. Church st., Skokie presents "Up in Arms."

This was one of Kaye's first movies, and film buffs will remember the side splitting theater lobby scene, where Danny displays his remarkable talents, flanked by Dinah Shore and Virginia Mayo.

It's family fare all the way. Movie-goers are invited to come early and share in an old fashioned ice cream social. (Ice cream will be sold.)

Donations for the film are: members, 75¢; member - families, $2; non-members, $1; non-member families, $3.

Legion issues annual report

Morton Grove American Legion Post #134 commander Frank Hilbert, in one of his last official duties before retiring from office, has issued the Post's annual report to the residents of the community. A yearly tradition, the Legion tells residents how their money was spent and asks for support of what has been up to the present, their carnival, the biggest fund raising event.

Due to many circumstances, this year's carnival operation was dropped; however, the Crazy "Vegas" Daze Weekend is being planned in its stead, from Wednesday, July 11 through Sunday, July 15.

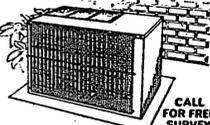

Hilbert's letter indicates the grand prizes originally scheduled to be awarded at the carnival's conclusion, will be offered the Sunday night of the weekend as a finale. They include a 1973 Oldsmobile, 19" RCA tv and kids' bike.

The local Legion cite their many programs carried on this past year for which revenue was needed: hospitalized veterans rehabilitation, blood program, nursing scholarships, child welfare activities for retarded and handicapped youngsters, donations to groups such as Cancer Society, Easter Seals, Orchard Center, U.S.O., March of Dimes, Heart Ass'n, and co-sponsorship with the Morton Grove Days Committee of the Santa Claus Comes to Town and Easter Egg Hunt; also monetary support of Little League and many other programs, too numerous to mention.

STEWART-WARNER says: This central air conditioner is specially made for easy installation

This system installs... without muss or mess... in just a few hours, because all our men have to do is add a cooling coil to your furnace, then install a condenser outdoors.

The cost of the system is surprisingly low, too. And look what you get: a home that stays as clean and cool as a mountain cabin... even during the dog days of August.

Lions Club exchange student to arrive Monday

The Japanese student who will be visiting this country as a guest of the Niles Lions club is scheduled to arrive at O'Hare airport on Monday, July 16. Several dignitaries from the Lions club and the Village of Niles will be on hand to greet him. Also there to meet him will be Mrs. Walter Zimm in whose home he will spend the first 2 weeks of his visit.

The following letter, handwritten, arrived from the 18 year old boy last week:

"I am very happy to be one of the YEPs (Youth Exchange Program) this summer and that I will spend my visit at your district.

"This will be the very first experience for me to be abroad, especially to such a beautiful country — USA.

"I am sure I will have a very wonderful time and I wish I could avail this occasion to see much and learn much of the USA.

"Looking forward to seeing you with much interest and pleasure.

Yours very truly,
(signed) Naomi Fukui"

On Monday evening he will get a chance to relax from the long flight and get to know the members of the Zimm family.

A special treat has been arranged for the boy on Tuesday, July 17. Lion Dick Hartzak has obtained tickets for the Cubs game. The seats are right behind the Cubs' dugout and the boy's reaction to his first American baseball game should be interesting.

Legion's press

The Morton Grove American Legion Post #134 has been advised by the Department of Illinois that their press book entered in this year's contest has won first prize. The Post will be presented with an engraved plaque in honor of this accomplishment during the yearly state convention to be held the third week in July in Chicago.

Retiring commander Frank Hilbert will be presented with the press book during the formal installation ceremonies in the fall when his successor takes over. The memento of his year contains 474 clippings arranged on 103 pages. An even 100 articles are actual photos. The 12 month period of newspaper releases covers all programs of the local Legion for this past year.

The entry was the work of public relations director past commander Al Nehart who was assisted by his wife, Nehart has served as this chairman for 8 years.

Winning press prizes has been somewhat of a happy habit for the post. Under Nehart's direction, the Morton Grove Legion won honorable mention the first year they entered this competition, 1966. They again won a runner-up prize in 1971. No entry was made for the 1969 year.

However, this year's state first place is the fifth such award the publicity chairman has garnered for Post #134. Nehart's entries for the years 1967, 1968, 1970 and 1972 all won first place plaques also. About-to-be past commander Hilbert complimented Al and his wife Lorry for their expertise in writing the weekly releases and covering all programs of the Legion and also for another duty falling under this chairmanship, the editing of the Post's monthly newsbulletin sent to each of the 750 members on the roster.

6/24. Golf Mill Chrysler Red Legs 3, Northwest Honda Twins 3. Singles by John Placko and Dave DeLorenzo in the bottom of the 7th inning gave the Redlegs 2 hard earned runs to tie with the Twins. Fine pitching highlighted this tightly pitched contest. All three Twin runs were unearned as Placko and DeLorenzo combined to limit the Twins to 3 hits. Marc Elatkin, in relief for the Twins, saved the game by pitching out of a no-out, bases loaded situation.

6/24. Artistic Trophies Pirates - Memco Senators rained out.

6/26. Golf Mill Chrysler Red Legs 4, Artistic Trophies Pirates 2. John Obermaier and Terry Adams led the way with 2 hits each as the Redlegs jumped on the Pirates Dennis McInerney for 4 runs that stood up for a 4-2 win. Tim Jacobs yielded only 2 hits and struck out 9 in 4 innings to gain the win. Jacobs also drove in the game winning runs with 2 sharp singles. The Pirates Tom Jankowski hit the Redlegs over the final 3 innings.

6/26. Northwest Honda Twins 10, Memco Senators 3. Strong pitching by Briars, Mendrala, and Bob Fergus plus a seven run 3rd inning got the Twins back into the win column. A 13 hit attack was led by Pat Fergus, Don Maycan, Mark Elatkin, Rich Cline, and Ron Reeve, between them they had 9 hits and 5 walks.

6/26. Tam O'Shanter Racquet Club Astros 8, Schmieser Meats Red Sox 7.

6/28. Northwest Honda Twins 14, Schmieser Meats Red Sox 5. Behind 5-2 after 4 innings the Twins exploded for 6 runs in the fifth and 5 more in the sixth to win 14-5. Jeff Briars had 3 hits, 2 singles and a double and Ed Mendrala, Marc Elatkin, and Larry Bender each had 2 hits apiece. Bender also had 3 RBI's. Callero & Catino celebrate 18th year

Eighteen years ago when Niles was referred to as the "boon docks," a friendly pinocle game sparked a partnership that led to today's very successful building enterprise. Eighteen years later, Callero & Catino, still headed by the same founders, Frank J. Callero and Frank T. Catino, have diversified greatly.

From their early knowledge of this growing market, they have expanded from mainly home building to a full line service in real estate brokerage, land development and commercial building.

Locally, Callero & Catino contributed to the growth of our town by building subdivisions such as Niles Manor, Callero & Catino Terrace, Golf View, Ransom Ridge Estates and others. Just a few years ago, they expanded into Glenview with their now fully completed Longmeadow Subdivision. Currently, their "James-towne" Mt. Prospect Subdivision is in its last phase.

With the strong demand for custom housing in the near northwest suburban area, Callero & Catino plan residential - condominium subdivisions, some 2-6-12 apartment buildings and commercial. This planning will necessitate the opening of a new office with a new commercial and investment department.

As the market grew, Callero & Catino have increased their complement of professional salesmen to 14 men to keep up with the increasing activity of the Niles office which has for the last several years become the largest real estate office with services in sales of residential, commercial and investment real estate as well as insurance.

It is noteworthy that the houses in this market have been appreciating at an annual rate of 5%, and, in some years, as much as 8%. Some of the most outstanding real estate transactions in their successful subdivisions have seen homes originally selling under $50,000 only 6 years ago now approaching the $100,000 value. "Of all the suburban markets, our market here seems to be the strongest and most constant," says Frank Catino.

Spoken like a true Cub fan

The Corners
Ed Hanson

Dear Sir:
In response to your column of June 14, in which you have the audacity to predict that my beloved Cubs will lose 14 straight games, I say this: let me know whether you like mustard or ketchup when you eat your words, as I am saving this part of the column till July.
Rather starting July 10, as per your prediction. Now as I feel sure that you are a Sox fan (phooey), this is what I must get off my chest.
Harry Carey makes me sick, always crying about the Sox injuries and that if they had not happened what a great ball-club they would be.
The Sox do not have any bench strength, period. The Cubs have better players sitting on the bench than the Sox have in their regular line-up when they are all in good health.

P.S. Don't forget, let me know where you can be met some time in July.

THE CORNERS
of Where it's at and What's happening.
By Ed Hanson

It was dark that night at the corner of Clark and Huron, Chicago, when the car containing two young punks and a gal stopped in front of an open super mart.
They dimmed their lights and waited....
Across the street two men, Chicago police officers, in unmarked cars and in plain clothes also waited....
One was to gain fame, as Chicago's greatest and toughest cop - the other to die.
Neither one, at that time was, of course, aware of what destiny had in store for either of them.
Because that's how destiny or fate operates. Or you could say, the M. O. (Modus Operandi) of fate or destiny is strange.
These cops were not on a stakeout. They just had a feeling that something wasn't right about this car and its occupants.
And they also knew that two ex-cons and a gal were recently specializing in holding up super-marts or large grocery stores. In fact, two grocery men had lost their lives in stick-ups due to this unholy trumvirate.
Frank said to his partner, "Let's check those guys out."
So a man by the name of Maurice Friedman and another detective by the name of Frank Pape approached the car.
The occupants of the car opened fire with '38's before either Friedman or his partner Detective Pape got within 10 feet of the car.
Friedman went down with most of his head gone and two bullets in his lungs. He was dead when he hit the street. Pape went down too, but only as a precautionary measure. He rolled over, took aim and put two '38 slugs in the head of the driver and then 'feeling' that his partner was dead, went after the other punk. The other hoodlum in panic, fired point blank at Pape's head.

But somehow he missed and that was the last act of his young life as Pape poured hot lead into this ex-cons face and neck. Pape received a citation for this which was among 25 others which he received over the 37 years he served the Chicago Police Dept. and its Chicago citizens.
Pape never cared much about the citations or the glory. He had a job to do and he did it to the best of his ability.
"Hell", he said to me. I killed nine hoodlums in my time and arrested more than I can count. But you know the thing that bugged me most, Ed?
"No, Frank", I replied, "What was that?"
"The smirk on the faces of some of these S.O.B.'s when some smart shyster got 'em off in a court of law."
"That really hurt, eh, Frank?"
"Like a powerful punch in the guts, Ed... sometimes - and I did a few times - actually throw up!"
"In your many years on the force, Frank, you must have spent many hours in court. And from what you tell me, many times it was futile - against a good criminal attorney."
"Yeah, Ed, I'll never forget what a good and honest judge once told me."
"What was that, Frank?" I asked.
"He said, Ed, these top criminal lawyers come to court so well prepared, connected, and are so gifted in the loopholes of our jurisprudence system that in most cases, a cop even with an alright case just doesn't have a prayer of getting a conviction."
"Nothing except that smirk on the fact of the defendant who actually was guilty as hell."
"Too bad, Frank, that someone who's been beaten, robbed, raped or stabbed can't see that smirk."
"If they could, Ed, I feel certain that the victim would have the urge to maim or kill."
Captain Frank William Pape told me these things recently at the Arlington Park Race Track where he heads up security. For some years he was security officer of this race track when Marge Everett was its guiding head. Now, Frank Pape has his own security company called, PAPE SECURITY.

Captain Frank W. Pape

His security company is headed by himself and his handsome son, Jerry. They not only handle Arlington Park Race Track, but also provide security to many industrial plants throughout Illinois. They have trained German Shepherds, specially equipped cars, jeeps and electronic "walkie-talkie" communication equipment.
Frank W. Pape is now 61 years old, just a year younger than I am, but he's in splendid physical shape. Although I never knew him personally until recently, I had heard plenty about him when I was with the Illinois Crime Bureau, as an unpaid public relations counsel many years ago. Dr. Lois Higgins, a Chicago policewoman and good friend of mine at that time headed up the bureau. It was she and big Jim Dougerty, the former crack crime reporter for the Chicago Tribune, who told of his many acts of heroism and his almost unbelievable acts of police achievement under fire. After all, a man doesn't receive 26 citations for heroism above and beyond the call of duty unless he's worthy of it.
And there is another cop I know by the name of Michael Fitzgerald, who was once a partner of Pape's, who today is a frequent patron of a place where I visit - Go-To-Blases." Soon I will do a special story on Mike - another great Chicago Cop.
In closing Captain Frank W. Pape joined the Chicago Police Department when he was 19 year of age. (he lied about his age because you're supposed to be 21). But Frank wanted to be a cop, so what the hell's a white lie.
Frank Pape is married to the same woman for 40 years and has two children, a boy, (now his partner named Jerry) and a girl, Judy.
He resides with his wife in Park Ridge, Illinois.
He feels, and I agree with him, that the police today are handcuffed when it comes to handling criminals.
He believes that capital punishment should not be abolished. That the death penalty is a deterrent to capital crimes.
"If you had it all to do over again, "Frank", I asked, "would you become a cop?"
"Ed, under the conditions that exist today in this country, my answer would be no."
Frank Pape concluded.

that the place would be closed," he said. "People around here don't know what is happening, because you don't have good public relations."
Lieder also criticized the board for failing to inform the press or public about their plans to enlarge the Police Department Building and the Public Works Department garage with revenue sharing funds until 1 week before the federal notification deadline for use of the money.
The board's plans, announced last month, drew sharp criticism from citizens' groups who felt more money should have gone for recreational purposes. Lieder said at least some of the criticism stemmed from the fact that people didn't know about the plans in advance.
"If people could be informed about the Board's plans in advance, they wouldn't be surprised all the time," Lieder said. "You could explain your long range plans and people would understand what you're trying to do."
"Many people around here think that this village is overflowing with money, that it's all piled up in shoeboxes," Lieder said. "But I know it's a tight budget, I know it's a publicly audited budget."
He said "the rumor mill would kill you."
However, Mayor and Village President Henry A. Proesel said he didn't "see any need to change."
"A lot of people - when we announce we have to build something in the next 5 years - ask 'why don't you do it now?' - and we get into cats and dogs over this," Proesel said.
Trustee Marvin Schmidt said most of the Board's doings were "matters of business judgment - not objective situations that could be argued."
The whole dispute broke out after the board finished questioning Charles O'Brien, Parks and Recreation director, about the swimming meet. Since 1,210 youths entered the meet, he said, 500 more than he'd hoped for, the meet dragged on all afternoon both days.
O'Brien said the unexpected enrollment made the meet "most successful - we had kids from DeKalb, Joliet, Geneva, Indiana, Lake Forest and Lan-

Medical record coordinator attends workshop

Mildred Marx, coordinator of the medical record technology program at Oakton Community college, is attending the American Medical Record Association Teacher Preparation Workshop at the University of Wisconsin in Madison from July 8-20.

Industrial management supervision

The Industrial Management/Supervision program at Oakton Community college not only qual-ifies men and women for employ-ment in the fields of industrial services or products but also trains those already in superv-isory position to move up the managerial ladder.

"Opportunities are really un-limited," according to Bob Ma-looley, program coordinator and instructor in business at Oakton. "The program is set up to give those people who wish to obtain industrial positions a chance to upgrade their skills and for those already in supervisory positions a chance to earn promotions."

One of Oakton's 22 career pro-grams, the industrial manage-ment/supervisory program stresses accounting, communica-tions, and psychology in addition to the core of business and in-dustrial courses.

Admission to the industrial management/supervisory pro-gram is still open for the Fall semester which begins on Aug. 20. Classes will start on Monday, Aug. 27. For further information, call the Office of Admission, Oak-ton Community college, 967-5120, ext. 392 or 393.

4th of July parade a success

Dear Mr. Besser,
The first annual Niles 4th of July parade is now history but it will return bigger and better next year. The over 4,000 persons who attended the parade and Memorial Ceremony enjoyed themselves and hardly a drop of rain fell on them. It's impossible to mention each of the 44 organizations that marched but not impossible to express my thanks in behalf of the citizens of Niles, Morton Grove and Skokie to each of them. A special thanks is reserved for the Maine East and Niles West HS Bands that played so well for us all. We should also take note that Father Folger, Rabbi Karzen and Rev. Seleen conducted an inspiring Memorial Ceremony along with the Skokie and Niles VFW Posts.

A successful parade is always the result of a good Committee and ours was no exception. Veda Kaufman organized and directed the whole line of march. She was ably assisted at Notre Dame by Ted Bieniek, Charlie Kaufman, Mike Provenzano, and 8 volunteers known only to themselves. Nick Constantino and Ed Brash of the Niles Days Committee along with 5 more volunteers distributed over 3,500 American Flags to the children along the parade route before they all collapsed at Lawrencewood, Frank Wagner and the Niles Public Works Department worked hard before and during the parade and gave up most of their holiday. Finally, there would not have been a parade except for the support of Mayor Blase and the Board of Trustees. I believe that it would be nice of you to thank all of these above volunteers the next time you see them and once again thank you for attending our first parade.

Sincerely,
Thomas W. Flynn
Parade Chairman

Dist. 207 Board to meet twice a month

The Board of Education of Maine Township High School District 207 will henceforth hold 2 regular monthly meetings instead of one. The meetings will be held on the second and fourth Monday of each month at 8 p.m. in the Faculty Lounge of Maine Township High School East, 2601 Dempster st., Park Ridge, or at such other place as may be from time to time, designated by the Board.

Found - a bunny

A brown and white bunny was found in the vicinity of Harlem and Oketo in the 7200-7300 blocks late Saturday afternoon. His finder reports he's very friendly and lonesome and obviously was a pet.

If the owner will call 966-6720, they will be glad to return him to you.

The fourth Monday will be a regular meeting with a full agenda. Extensive Board action matters that cannot be handled during the fourth Monday meeting and other pending actions needing Board attention will be handled at the meeting on the second Monday of the month. At this meeting, which will be somewhat less structured than the fourth Monday meeting, the Board also will deal with such matters as committee reports.

Adjourned meetings of the Board of Education may be scheduled as needed, and will be conducted in the same manner as regular meetings.

Meetings are scheduled for the 1973-74 school year as follows: July 9 and 23, 1973; Aug. 13 and 27; Sept. 10 and 24; Oct. 8 and 22; Nov. 12 and 26; and Dec. 3 and 17; Jan. 14 and 28, 1974; Feb. 11 and 25, March 11 and 25; April 8 and 22, May 6 and 20, and June 10 and 24, 1974. The public will be notified in the press of any change in the time, place or date of a meeting. All regular meetings are open to the public and visitors are welcome.

Attends convention

Eleven student delegates, both undergraduate and graduate majors in psychology, and 3 faculty members from the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh recently attended the 3-day Midwestern Psychological Association convention in Chicago. The students attending were mainly members of Psi Chi, national honor society in psychology.

The student delegates included: Steve Schreiber of Morton Grove.

New program for chemical technicians

Philip Jaffe, professor of chemistry at Oakton Community college, recently told members of the Illinois State Academy of Science that Oakton, realizing that the training of technicians must be different from that of the chemist, has developed a special program for the training of chemical technicians.

Dr. Jaffe explained the chemical technology program at Oakton Community college in a paper presented at a meeting held at the University of Illinois, Champaign-Urbana.

"With the aid of our ChemTech advisory committee, we have developed a curriculum which emphasizes laboratory techniques, skills, procedures," he told the scientists. Theory is taught but just enough to understand the unifying concepts and what is being done and why, Dr. Jaffe added.

"It must be recognized that the work done by chemists and technicians is different," he said. "The chemist is concerned with theory, overall planning, interpretation of results while the technician is a person who gets into the lab and actually does the laboratory work. As a result, the technician must be very knowledgeable in laboratory techniques, procedures, and related areas.

Dr. Jaffe pointed out that 12 new courses had to be developed, ranging from chemistry to industrial safety. Only the math that is needed to function as a chemical technician is taught. New experiments had to be developed and, in some cases, specialized equipment constructed.

"Many schools offering programs in chemical technology use essentially the same courses that chemistry majors take," he said. According to Dr. Jaffe, the graduates of these ChemTech programs, as a result, are weak in lab skills. The program at Oakton reverses this emphasis.

Students interested in the Chem Tech program at Oakton may still enroll for the Fall term, Dr. Jaffe said. There is both a one-year certificate program and a two-year associate of applied science degree program. Individuals interested in enrolling as either full or part-time students should contact Dr. Jaffe at 967-5120, ext. 302.

Ken Scheel told us Evanston and Danville have been inspecting residences for many years. And while the legality of the action may be established by these other communities' inspections, nevertheless, Ken said it is not Niles' intention to go into court to force a Nilesite to open his house to inspection.

It's obvious the object of the program is to prevent the community from becoming rundown, both on the inside as well as outside of its homes. Scheel emphasized the village is not looking to see if a housewife has her house in good order (whether she's sweeping any dirt under the carpet), but it is concerned about room divisions and home-made electrical and plumbing jobs which are contrary to code. It will also be interested in finding homes which have been converted into apartments.

Ken noted Niles has no intentions of using gestapo tactics in its quest to keep the community ship shape.

It is the official village's thinking they want to work with realtors, having them notify Niles when they have a house for sale. Scheel said at that point Niles would inspect the home before it is sold. He contends this will protect the new homeowner, as well as keeping up the value on the home.

Scheel admitted there has been some static, both from realtors and residents. The invasion of a man's castle offends some residents while the realtors believe such inspections may hinder their sales.

Ken used one of our time-worn stand-bys when he noted, "We'll just have to play it by ear." He said it's the intention of Niles "to keep the village viable," and certainly it is not its intention to throw anyone out.

Niles, Skokie, Morton Grove and Golf. The group, which received $21,500 from the park districts of the various suburbs, needs $17,000 to maintain their existing program.

"This organization is obviously very legitimate," Blase said. "This will let the other communities know we're interested and that we're taking the lead. The vote on the appropriation was 4-0 (trustee Keith Peck was absent)."

Other matters, including possible expansion of the village's obscenity ordinance, mandatory insurance requirements for service-oriented buildings and restrictions on charity soliciting, were deferred until the July 24 meeting while Village Attorney Richard Troy does more research on them.

The possible anti-obscenity action stems from the recent Supreme Court decision giving local communities the right to set their own standards for the definition of obscene literature, movies, plays and music (as long as they are based on the Court's criteria of being patently offensive, appealing solely to prurient interests and being without serious literary, artistic or social value).

Blase said he did not "want to jump in on this matter," but wanted Troy to "come up with suggestions." "There's a lot of different local actions going on on this matter that can be very confusing to people," he said. "There's no great community pressure one way or the other on this... my own inclination is not to go very far."

"As long as we have young people protected (the board has passed an obscenity ordinance last winter regulating it's sale to those below 18), I'm satisfied."

Blase also asked Troy to draft an ordinance forcing the owners of all "service-oriented" businesses, such as cleaners, television repair shops, jewelers or fur storage companies, to insure against fire, theft or explosion all private goods left at the business. Such insurance would be necessary before the village would grant the business a license to operate. The action was precipitated by a recent fire at an uninsured dry cleaning firm which then did not pay customers for stored clothing that was destroyed.

Morton Grove firemen earn nearly $14,000 per year and they are on duty one day and are off two days. In addition he stated that they get fringe benefits amounting to more than $2,786.00 annually per man. The mayor said he welcomed options from village residents and businessmen on this subject.

Carol Grabowski, speaking for the Blood Drive in which we are associated with the Michael Reese Hospital said there has been a blood shortage for the last 7 days and that this usually occurs 15 days before and after July 4 and Christmas. She said that if possible donors should give blood during that time. Furthermore, Nurse Grabowski said that Chicago needs 250,000 pints of blood as a minimum this year or 650 pints a day. Last October legislation was passed that made it necessary for each unit of blood to be labeled paid donor or volunteer.

13 and 14, a miniature Vegas operation will be held. Donation is just $2 per person. Attendees will play games of chance for play money. In turn residents may obtain prizes for their winnings. Over-all chairman Al Nehart, a post past commander, indicates those attending will not have to wait until the end of the evening for an "auction" as many groups have; the prizes will be displayed and winners may obtain them at any time during the evening.

The Auxiliary Unit will operate a kitchen throughout the weekend. Bratwurst, hot dogs, sliced beef sandwiches, coffee and doughnuts will be available at nominal cost. Liquid refreshments to cool off with are also available.

Sunday, July 15 will find another two $500 jackpot each bingo games scheduled. The first is at 2:30. During the afternoon a beer stub will also be held on the Legion patio. Entertainment although featured throughout the weekend, will be accented this day. Before the evening bingo, Miss Morton Grove will be selected. Sen. John Nimrod is to be one of the judges.

To conclude the evening, the big grand finale is the awarding of 3 top prizes: a 1973 Oldsmobile, a 1973 RCA tv and a gift for the kids.
