DIST. 207 BOARD OK'S MAINE NORTH EXPANSION

By David Besser
Editor & Publisher

The pizza-maker got zonked, the throw-away boxer thought he was in a street fight, part of the crowd was bombed, and the suburban Mayor said, "No More," as the result of Monday night's brouha at Mill Run.

Monday night's fights inside the ring precipitated a near-riot outside resulting in a thrown chair conking Niles policeman, Roger Wilson, as well as boxer Jimmy Carter, the guy who was supposed to be little more than a punching bag for the favored Rocky De Fazio. And De Fazio, on furlough from his pizza-making, was sort of the hometown boy with the knockout punch, was reported to have supporters who bought $6,000 worth of tickets, angered to the point of rage, when their boy was getting pounded after he was knocked to the canvas 14 seconds after the fight began.

And Mill Run, the beautiful theater-in-the-round, which has heard the litting sounds of the world's greatest entertainers, Monday night heard sounds of crude crescendos, foul-mouthed broads, and 100 proofed guys toss the place up for grabs.

There was a booze-haze, and a four-letter crowd, which became infuriated when De Fazio was knocked down and then stomped upon by Carter. The aroused crowd began tossing paper cups, a chair, and anything they could get their hands on, as the fight was stopped. It was reported boxer Carter knocked down his opponent, continued bopping him while he was down, stomped him once or twice, and then pushed the referee into the ropes when he tried to lead Carter away. The crowd, which had booed its way thru the earlier evening, began hollering, which led to the chair being thrown into the ring which hit the policeman, as well as Carter.

While skin flicks are not welcome in Niles, skin upon skin flicks from guys fists began landing all over the area. Niles cops jumped into the ring to protect Carter and Captain Bill Mehring smartly called for help, when the scene began heating up. Five different suburban departments, including the Sheriff's police responded, and as late as 11 p.m., long after the last chair was thrown, outside boppers were still knocking each other around, mostly over uncollected bets, which were being disputed as the result of the screwy fight. Only 4 guys were booked for disorderly conduct, all by the Sheriff's gendarmes.

In a morning-after conversation with Nick Blase he said he would recommend to the village board the fights be discontinued. He said Niles was not equipped with its 50 policemen to handle the situation, and he believed only Chicago could control a similar encounter.

There have been 3 previous fight nights without incidents but Monday night's donnybrook will end future fight promotions here.

League seeks new members

Women with opinions are encouraged to attend the special summer unit of the League of Women Voters of Morton Grove-Niles. The topical subject of campaign methods for improvement will be discussed, Shelley Mesulam, Karol Verson and Harriet Ritter will chair the meeting. The discussion meeting will be on Wednesday, Aug. 8 at 9:15 a.m. at the home of Sheila Shulman, 7919 Nordica, Niles, 966-7973. Sitter service is available.

The League of Women Voters was established in 1920, the year that woman suffrage was finally incorporated in the Constitution of the United States. The League was originally part of the National American Woman Suffrage Association which led the 72 year drive for full and equal suffrage for women of the United States. The League was founded primarily to help 20 million newly enfranchised women carry out their new responsibilities. If you would like to join the league in its effort or would like to receive its bulletin, please call Barbara Blonz at 966-8533.

At the District 207 Board meeting on Monday evening, July 23, the Board authorized the administration to enter into a contract with Erickson, Kristmann, Stillwaugh, Inc., school architects, for the development of design specifications for a 110,000 square foot expansion to Maine North High school. This will include a swimming pool, woodshop and graphic arts area, and a fine arts area which will house an auditorium, art rooms and music rehearsal rooms. Basically, the design is to be a modification of the original plan for the building which would have added 198,000 square feet of space in a Phase II construction project.

In other action the Board approved the use by Oakton Community college of a portion of the Maine North spectator gymnasium one night a week during the basketball season on a per-evening rental basis, providing the gymnasium is available and not needed for a Maine North activity.

Board approval was given for a new evening high school credit program which will accommodate certain young people 16-21 years of age residing in District 207 who do not function appropriately or successfully in the regular high school program. In recommending the program, Dr. Richard R. Short, Superintendent of Schools, described it as rela-

Rep. Samuel H. Young (10th, Ill.) has introduced a resolution in the House to designate each Oct. 14 as National Friendship Day in honor of the memory of President Dwight Eisenhower.

The day would fall each year on the anniversary of President Eisenhower's birth.

The resolution, requesting the President to designate an annual National Friendship Day, notes that there "is a need to increase the friendship and brotherhood between people of every color, creed, race, and religion within the United States and among all nations."

President Eisenhower, the resolution reads, "during his lifetime, exemplified the spirit of friendship and brotherhood among all peoples of the world."

Congressman Young, in a statement cited President Eisenhower's service to the causes of world peace and national well-being.

"A National Friendship Day," Congressman Young said, "would be a time to reflect on the essential goodness and respected leadership of President Eisenhower, particularly since we are striving to reduce tension and belligerency abroad while facing serious questions about our national institutions at home.

"Dwight David Eisenhower first served this nation as a man of war. He unified the Allied forces during World War II and succeeded in ridding the world of the threat of Nazism."

"Then he served this nation as President and took on a new role, that of peacemaker. He ended the Korean War and brought this nation to a degree of domestic prosperity that has not been equaled since.

"A National Friendship Day proclaimed in President Eisenhower's memory would serve to remind us of that earlier time. It would be a day in which to recognize that which is worth preserving in our nation and to strengthen our resolve to correct that which is wrong."

Rossini's ace qualified him for the Rusty Nall Hole-in-One Sweepstakes, a national competition sponsored by the Drumbule Company of Edinburgh, Scotland.

Morton Grove South Majors

A substantial crowd was on hand as the Braves beat the Pirates 7-4 Wednesday night to clinch the championship of the South Majors in an extra-inning contest at Mansfield park. Dave Koza pitched six innings to win his fourth game against three losses. Along the way he struck out four Pirates while walking only one. Scott Zimmer came in to pitch in the 7th inning to save the victory for Koza.

The scoring started early for the Braves when their first batter, Marcus Koch, slammed a home run into deep center field, his first of the year. But the Pirates got out of the inning without suffering further damage. They were held scoreless in their half of the first as shortstop Bob Palka made a fine catch on Edan Levey's fast-sinking pop fly in shallow left center to retire the side.

In the top of the second Jim Latal led off with a single, moved to third on Brian Latal's double, and scored on a fielder's choice by Eric Goranson. Marcus Koch then tripled in Brian Latal but was stranded on third. The Pirates threatened in the second but couldn't score. Catcher Scott Zimmer made a fine throw to third baseman Goranson who tagged the runner trying to steal third to end the inning.

Pirate pitcher Edan Levey held the Braves scoreless in the 3rd and 4th innings, allowing only two hits; a single by Goranson and a double by left fielder Dave Prorok. But Braves pitcher Dave Koza also threw shutout ball in the 3rd and 4th, with the benefit of an unassisted double play in the 4th by first baseman Marcus Koch. With a runner on first, Koch made a leaping grab of a line shot for one out, then raced back to the bag and doubled the runner off. The Braves started the 5th inning with a single by Dave Koza, who was out trying to steal second, on a fine throw by Pirate catcher John Olander. One out later, back-to-back doubles by Dave Prorok and Bob Palka brought in another run to make the score 4-0, Braves favor. But the Pirates put it together in the bottom of the fifth, scoring 4 runs to tie the game. The sixth inning saw no scoring by either team.

The seventh inning for the Braves began with singles by Koza and Zimmer, followed by a double by Dave Prorok, and Koza scored. Bob Palka cleared the bases with a long, deep fly ball which was caught by the Pirates center fielder, Jim Latal then walked, and advanced as far as second, but the side was retired before the Braves could bring him around.

Scott Zimmer came in to pitch the seventh inning and the first batter he faced hit a drive deep to center field, which was caught by Gary Kaplan. Then, with runners on first and second, and two out, the batter grounded to pitcher Zimmer who threw to first, and the Braves became the South Majors champions.

the readers write Cong. Young defends Office personnel

Dear Sir:
 Recently you published a letter from Mrs. Marilyn Kramer of Niles, Illinois, criticizing what she claimed is the manner in which employees in my Skokie District Office provide service to constituents. Mrs. Kramer sent this letter not only to your newspaper, but also to at least four other newspapers in what appears to have been an effort to achieve wide circulation of her criticism.

I would, of course, be greatly concerned if courteous, prompt and careful response were not given to the public by employees representing me, and I would take appropriate steps immediately to correct the situation if that were the case. On investigation, however, my District Office employees deny the statements attributed to them by Mrs. Kramer.

In brief, Mrs. Kramer complained that she telephoned my Skokie Office, seeking information about my Congressional voting record, and that she was told "someone from Washington" would contact her with the answer. My District Office staff has no record of such a call from Mrs. Kramer, and such records are kept as a matter of routine.

I would like your readers to know that copies of the Congressional Record, which contains all information about my House votes, are available to Mrs. Kramer or anyone else at my District Offices in Skokie and Des Plaines. In addition, I aranged some time ago to send subscription copies of the Congressional Record to every library in the 10th Illinois Congressional District. Newspapers and such services as Congressional Quarterly regularly publish how each Congressman votes on legislation, and I regularly issue reports to 10th District news media on my positions on Congressional issues, including how I vote.

Consideration of Mrs. Kramer's letter in its total context leads to the unmistakable conclusion that her motive in writing was to publicize critical comments about my office. Her letter—the best evidence—clearly shows that she has the very information she said she was seeking by telephone.

That being the case, I can only point out that all of the best intentions in the world and all of the best service possible on the part of my staff will not, nor can they hope to, prevent critical comment from persons motivated as Mrs. Kramer appears to be.

The best answer to the public is this: Contact my office and determine for yourselves whether you are treated promptly, courteously and correctly. If not, let me know directly and immediately, and furnish me with the name of the offending employee.

Yours truly,
 Samuel H. Young

Praises young men

Dear Editor:
 We all have something to say about today's young people, but I have to say a good word about our two young men who work on the garbage pickup truck.

On Friday, July 13, as I was putting up my American flag, I noticed the garbage truck with two young men in it in front of my home. They saw me putting up the flag and stood at attention until the flag was up. I thought this was a very patriotic gesture and wanted to let people know about these young people. Their names were Alan Casper of Tinley Park and Frank Hunt of Wheaton.

Inflation hasn't changed the price of ashes.

But it has changed the price of your home. For example, if you bought a $20,000 home in 1968—today it's worth about $27,000. Don't be left with a costly pile of ashes. See me about a State Farm Homeowners Policy that will cover your home for all it's worth—and keep it that way with automatic Inflation Coverage.

Girls baseball - Morton Grove

The Wednesday night girls softball league moved into the final third of the season as the two leaders Trippichios and Conlon Architects pulled away from the pack.

Trippichios, the league leaders, took an easy win from tall ender Rexall Drugs while the Conlon team pulled out of a tight one with Jo-Jo Jets by a score of 3 to 2.

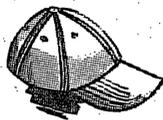

In the seventh inning, the Jo-Jo Jets put "girls" on second and third after two outs with the big hitters coming up, when the Architects called a pick off play on second. They caught the Jets pitcher/manager "leaning" on a toss from pitcher Jean Schawacker to Chris Winkler. Paula Grear led the scoring with two hits and two runs and Cindy Blindauer with two hits and one run. Lisa Helmfer sparked at third and kept the Jets from moving around the bases.

The two leaders meet again on Aug. 1 and the league final game is a week later. An all star inter-league game will be played Sunday, Aug. 12, at 8 p.m. in Harrer Park NW Diamond.

Season tickets are $10. Single-game tickets are $2.50, 50¢ for children under 12. All home games are played at Notre Dame High school, 7655 Dempster st., Niles.

Tickets are available by mail from the Saints' business office, 8203 Ozark ave., Niles, Ill. 60648. The Saints have evolved from the city's Austin Bears of the 1960's. They are one of several semiprofessional football teams which play in the northern suburbs.

Troop 175 jamboree bound

This is 1973, the year of the jamboree. Every four years the Boy Scouts of America conduct a National Jamboree which attracts several thousand scouts and leaders, not only from the fifty United States, but several foreign countries as well. Because of the large number of scouts desiring to attend the Jamboree, this year for the first time, two sites have been selected to accommodate as many scouts as possible. Troop 175 of Niles, sponsored by the St. John Brebeuf Holy Name Society, will be attending Jamboree East which is being held in Moraine State Park, located on the northwestern area of Lake Arthur, thirty five miles north of Pittsburgh, Penn. At the Jamboree, scouts from Troop 175 will camp and participate in a week long program with 44,000 scouts and leaders from all fifty states and over twenty foreign countries. The program will consist of ceremonies and shows, competitive events, daily programs, exhibits and displays, religious programs, Jamboree Journal, and youth participation. What's it like planning and preparing to attend a Jamboree? Let us tell our story.

It all started last August, when the troop committee held a reorganization meeting at the home of Scoutmaster Dick Covey. The prime purpose of the meeting was to put together a strong troop committee, and after this was accomplished, the conversation turned to the program for the new scout year. One item discussed was the possibility of the troop attending the 1973 National Jamboree.

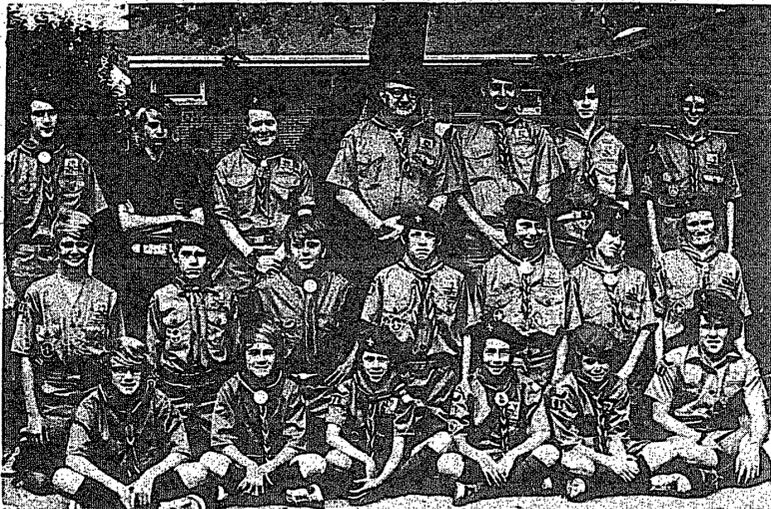

At a follow up meeting held in September, the committee pledged to do all in its power to assist and make it possible for the scouts to attend the Jamboree. Five leaders made a decision that evening to provide leadership at the Jamboree, namely, Scoutmaster Dick Covey, Ass't SM Joe Patne, Ass't SM John Baranowski, Ass't SM Bob Cain and Troop Committee Chairman Andy Beierwaltes. A parents night was held in the St. John Brebeuf school on October 13. Our plans were presented to the parents and eighteen boys were signed up to attend. In subsequent weeks, four additional scouts added their names to the list. So here we were with twenty-two scouts and five leaders. Sounded great.

As the days and weeks passed, the scouts were busy earning money to purchase the official Jamboree uniform and personal equipment each scout attending the Jamboree is required to have. Since the troop was in need of some additional equipment, a troop fund raising pancake breakfast was held in March, and because of its great success we were able to purchase six new tents, five patrol dining flies, five patrol charcoal stoves, and other equipment. What a big help.

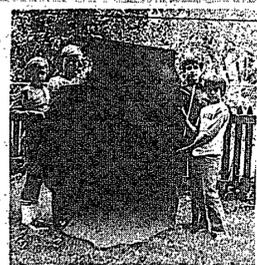

On May 22, a final meeting was held with the parents with the hopes of putting it all together. After travel plans and the itinerary was explained, volunteers were solicited to make patrol food boxes, which is a real project in itself. Three of the fathers, Florian Mackowski, Pete Krebs, and Bill Feid volunteered their services. God bless them.

Each troop attending the Jamboree has been asked to make an entranceway to their campsite using all the ingenuity they possess. After discussing this with the scouts, it was decided Troop 175 would erect two tall towers out of poles we luckily had in our possession. We would place a tower at each end of our campsite and suspend a large carpet from a rope connecting the towers. The State of Illinois, approximately 5' x 7' in size, would be cut out of the carpet giving those walking thru the opening the impression they were walking in the State of Illinois, and the scouts went to work. Above the cutout of Illinois the scouts painted in large letters, WELCOME TO ILLINOIS. On the left side of the cutout it reads TROOP 175, and on the right side, NILES, ILL. Our spirits were dampened when we were told the poles we had planned to use for our towers could not be used, since they were limbs from large dead trees and possibly diseased, and could infect other growing matter at the Jamboree. We then recalled that Troop 73, sponsored by the St. Isaac Jogues Church of Niles, displayed some beautiful extra large and thick bamboo poles in constructing their prize winning tower at a Scout Pioneering Contest held in the Golf Mill Shopping Center this past March. Troop committee chairman Andy Beierwaltes contacted Troop 73 Scoutmaster Bill Reider who not only offered the use of the poles but the car top carrier to transport them as well. Real scouting spirit.

On June 15, 16 and 17 the troop attended a pre-jamboree weekend camping with other units from surrounding towns and villages that will be attending the Jamboree. This was conducted at Camp Lakota in Woodstock, Ill. At the campout each scout and troop was inspected to make certain they were properly uniformed and had sufficient equipment to attend the jamboree. Sessions were held, briefing the scouts on what to expect at the Jamboree as far as programming, meals, campsites, activities, etc. In the late afternoon of June 16, violent weather struck the area, and heavy winds and rain leveled several tents. When calmer weather prevailed, the scouts pitched in and once again set up their campsites. As one scout put it: "Well, no matter what type of weather we have at the Jamboree, we're ready".

Making plans for the lettering that will be put on the State of Illinois cutout are (from left) Tom Philippsen, Steve Majewski, Rick Loboda and Dave Beierwaltes. The troop will present this to the Village of Niles, Ohio for the hospitality they are extending to the troop.

shall White Ford was offering us the use of a Ford Van to transport our equipment. How nice can people be.

A special troop Jamboree flag was designed for troops attending the Jamboree, but since our troop treasury was all but depleted by this time, we decided it would be impossible for us to purchase one. When news of this reached our sponsor, the St. John Brebeuf Holy Name Society, they contacted us and offered to purchase the flag for the troop. So much to be thankful for.

Since all the scouts and leaders from the troop are members of St. John Brebeuf Parish, a special Mass of thanks will be said by Monsignor John Flanagan in St. John's church at 7:00 a.m. on Aug. 1. All the scouts and their families will be in attendance. Immediately after the mass, our caravan will hit the open road. All our planning, hard work and frustrations will be forgotten as we realize a vision we had last August. If you think there's anything more fun than scouting, you're wrong. We know.

The following scouts are attending the Jamboree: David Baranowski, Peter Baranowski, Andy Beierwaltes, David Beierwaltes, Gerald Bianchi, James Covey, Brian Douglas, James Elder, William Feid, Edward Klancnik, Michael Krebs, Tim Lenahan, Richard Loboda, Rick Lumkes, Tom Lenahan, Tom Philippsen, David Lumkes, David Mackowski, Steven Majewski, Matthew Patne, Michael Philippsen, and Joseph Wilkins. And as previously mentioned, these five leaders: Scoutmaster Dick Covey, Ass't SM Joe Patne, Ass't SM John Baranowski, Ass't SM Bob Cain and Troop Committee Chairman Andy Beierwaltes.

A problem long confronting us was that although we had ample room in our four station wagons to transport the scouts, how would we possibly be able to transport all the troop equipment. Back to Mayor Blase we went. The mayor put through a call to Marshall White, of Marshall White Ford, in Niles, and related our problem to him. Within a short time we were told the elated news. Mar-

Diabetic youths attend camp

More than 90 diabetic youngsters are enjoying a summer of camping with no concern for diet or planned activities, thanks to the Diabetes Association of Greater Chicago.

The young people, impartially selected to attend the camp, represent a cross section of Illinois — wealthy, underprivileged, and all races and creeds. They are participating in a carefully scheduled three weeks of fun and activities aimed at teaching the children the discipline necessary to live easily and comfortably with diabetes.

The camp season for 1973 started July 15 and ended August 5. Youngsters were selected and reviewed on a first come, first served basis. Since almost half of the youngsters have been subsidized all or in part by the Diabetes Association, lack of money was no factor in their attendance.

Of some 100,000 people with diabetes in this area, 10,000 are under the age of 15. Habits developed at this early age make for a normal life with few inconveniences in terms of diet or exercise functions.

The camp is located at Holiday Home in Williams Bay, Wisconsin, about 40 miles north of Chicago's downtown area.

Attending from the area: Richard Ballarini, age 11, 8419 Dempster, Niles; Steven Jaffe, age 11, 9819 Maynard Terr., Niles; Keith Nathan, age 9, 9835 Robin rd., Niles and Robert Van Dine, age 12, 8041 N. Octavia, Niles.

Auto pollution testing

A five-day program of free auto pollution testing will be held Tuesday through Saturday, Aug. 14-18, at Golf Mill Shopping Center, Golf rd. and Milwaukee ave., Niles. Hours of testing will be 10 a.m. — 5 p.m. daily.

The tests will be conducted by Chicago Lung Association, formerly the Tuberculosis Institute of Chicago and Cook County, as part of an area-wide program to reduce air pollution from cars. Cooperating in this effort are the Niles Health Department, Golf Mill Merchants Association, Bank of Lincolnwood and the Golf Mill State Bank.

"Controlling pollution from automobiles must be the responsibility of every motorist," said John E. Egdorf, executive director of the Christmas Seal agency. "He or she alone can make certain that a car is kept in top operating condition for greatest efficiency and drive carefully to avoid excess pollution."

"Getting a car pollution tested like we'll be doing here is just the first step in fighting air pollution caused by cars and trucks," he said, "and that's where we must begin."

To be performed on equipment provided by the Atlantic Richfield Company, the tests will measure a car's output of carbon monoxide and unburned hydrocarbons as well as test the efficiency of the positive crankcase ventilation (PCV) system. A clogged PCV system may result in engine damage.

Each motorist will get a written report on his car's condition along with a list of suggestions for improvements if it does not pass the tests which are based on the new Chicago vehicle emission standards.

Christmas Seals provide the funds for this service as part of Chicago Lung Association's programs to protect the lung health of all citizens.

Brookwood Convalescent Center lauded by mayor

The City of Des Plaines has proclaimed August as "Brookwood Convalescent Center Month," it was announced today. In a proclamation issued by Des Plaines Mayor, Herbert H. Behrel, the Convalescent Center, now celebrating its 10th year of service to the north and northwest metropolitan area, was singled out as "an outstanding facility with a highly professional staff and for its outstanding service to . . . and growth in behalf of our community."

Brookwood, whose five-story addition in 1968 makes it one of the largest private nursing homes in Illinois with 290 beds, began in August 1963 as a 110-bed facility.

Brookwood is fully accredited by the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals and is certified as a participating extended care facility for the Medicare program and the Blue-Cross plan for Hospital Care. The hospital-like facility, which was originally designated by its founders as a model for what a nursing home should stand for, offers registered nurses on duty 24 hours a day; a registered pharmacist, physical therapist and an activity director on full time status. "It continues to add facilities, equipment and services designed to enhance patient comfort, safety and care, despite its recognition as one of the most outstanding facilities of its kind in the country," stressed Mayor Behrel.

In conjunction with its 10th anniversary, Brookwood is offering tours of its facilities during August and will sponsor a complete activities program and open street dance with resident participation on Sunday, Aug. 5.

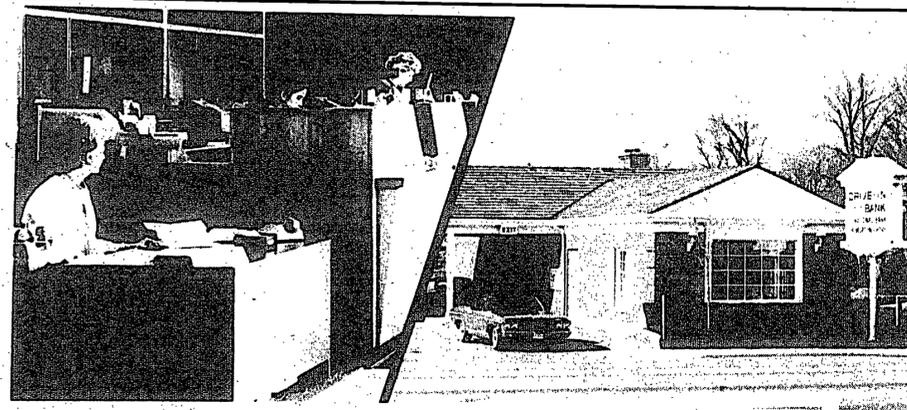

The administrator of Brookwood Convalescent Center is James D. Bowden, a resident of Highland Park, Illinois.

More than 90 diabetic youngsters are enjoying a summer of camping with no concern for diet or planned activities, thanks to the Diabetes Association of Greater Chicago.

The young people, impartially selected to attend the camp, represent a cross section of Illinois—wealthy, underprivileged, all races and creeds. They are participating in a carefully scheduled three weeks of fun and activities aimed at teaching the children the discipline necessary to live easily and comfortably with diabetes.

The camp season for 1973 started July 15 and ended August 5. Youngsters were selected and reviewed on a first-come, first-served basis. Since almost half of the youngsters have been subsidized all or in part by the Diabetes Association, lack of money was no factor in their attendance.

Of some 100,000 people with diabetes in this area, 10,000 are under the age of 15. Habits developed at this early age make for a normal life with few inconveniences in terms of diet or exercise functions.

The camp is located at Holiday Home in Williams Bay, Wisconsin, about 40 miles north of Chicago's downtown area.

Attending from the area: Richard Ballarini, age 11, 8419 Dempster, Niles; Steven Jaffe, age 11, 9819 Maynard Terr., Niles; Keith Nathan, age 9, 9835 Robin rd., Niles and Robert Van Dine, age 12, 8041 N. Octavia, Niles.

Brookwood Convalescent Center lauded by mayor

The City of Des Plaines has proclaimed August as "Brookwood Convalescent Center Month," it was announced today.

In a proclamation issued by Des Plaines mayor, Herbert H. Behrel, the Convalescent Center, now celebrating its 10th year of service to the north and northwest metropolitan area, was singled out as "an outstanding facility with a highly professional staff and for its outstanding service to... and growth in behalf of our community."

Brookwood, whose five-story addition in 1968 makes it one of the largest private nursing homes in Illinois with 290 beds, began in August 1963 as a 113-bed facility.

Brookwood is fully accredited by the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals and is certified as a participating extended care facility for the Medicare program and the Blue-Cross plan for Hospital Care. The hos-

Auto pollution testing

A five-day program of free auto pollution testing will be held Tuesday through Saturday, Aug. 14-18, at Golf Mill Shopping Center, Golf rd. and Milwaukee ave., Niles. Hours of testing will be 10 a.m. - 5 p.m. daily.

The tests will be conducted by Chicago Lung Association, formerly the Tuberculosis Institute of Chicago and Cook County, as part of an area-wide program to reduce air pollution from cars. Cooperating in this effort are the Niles Health Department, Golf Mill Merchants Association, Bank of Lincolnwood and the Golf Mill State Bank.

"Controlling pollution from automobiles must be the responsibility of every motorist," said John E. Egdorf, executive director of the Christmas Seal agency. "He or she alone can make certain that a car is kept in top operating condition for greatest efficiency and drive carefully to avoid excess pollution."

"Getting a car pollution tested like we'll be doing here is just the first step in fighting air pollution caused by cars and trucks," he said, "and that's where we must begin."

To be performed on equipment provided by the Atlantic Richfield Company, the tests will measure a car's output of carbon monoxide and unburned hydrocarbons as well as test the efficiency of the positive crankcase ventilation (PCV) system. A clogged PCV system may result in engine damage.

Each motorist will get a written report on his car's condition along with a list of suggestions for improvements if it does not pass the tests which are based on the new Chicago vehicle emission standards.

Christmas Seals provide the funds for this service as part of Chicago Lung Association's programs to protect the lung health of all citizens.

Brookwood Convalescent Center lauded by mayor

HEART DISEASE ALERT

The National Center for Health Statistics reported on Monday, July 23, that deaths from heart diseases have risen this past year in spite of an increase in life expectancy for the country as a whole. Heart diseases remain the number one cause of death nationally. The incidence of fatal heart disease went up 0.8 per cent, climbing from 358.4 per 100,000 persons in 1970 to 361.3 in 1972. According to the Heart Association of North Cook County, this chilling report makes a review of the symptoms of possible heart attack extremely pertinent since many deaths could be avoided if people were totally familiar with the danger signs and acted immediately.

The Heart Association says the symptoms, singly or in combination, are:

1. Prolonged, heavy pressure or squeezing pain in the center of the chest, behind the breastbone. (Heart attack pain seldom occurs over the heart.)
2. Pain may spread to the shoulder, arm, neck or jaw.
3. Pain or discomfort is often accompanied by sweating, nausea, vomiting and shortness of breath may also occur.

Sometimes these symptoms subside and then return. Minutes count when heart attack strikes. Act immediately. Delay may cost a life.

What should the patient or his family, friends or co-workers do? The Heart Association says the physician should be called immediately; however, if he cannot be reached within moments, the local Fire or Police department (whichever handles emergencies in the immediate area) should be called.

It is estimated that many lives are lost needlessly due to delay on the part of the patient or his family says the Heart Association. Cut out the emergency telephone form provided by the Heart Association and place it beside the telephone. Be sure to alert each family member to the symptoms of possible heart attack and review with them the emergency procedures to follow.

For further information about heart diseases call your Heart Association at 675-1535 or write the Heart Association of North Cook County, 440 Westmoreland Building, Old Orchard rd., Skokie 60076.

The sixth graders had a bridging ceremony into Cadette Troops and left for Maple Lane Farm.

'JAFTE INTRODUCES MOTORCYCLE LEGISLATION'

Legislation requiring operators of motorcycles to wear protective helmets and shoes is being prepared by State Rep. Aaron Jaffe (D-Skokie). The proposed bill will be introduced during the fall session of the Illinois General Assembly.

"I am appalled at the 87% increase in motorcycle fatalities in the first half of this year alone," stated Jaffe.

"During the 17 months that Illinois had a law requiring riders to wear protective helmets, there were 93 motorcycle deaths. In the 19 months after repeal of this law, the number of motorcycle deaths leaped to 208.

"This helmet law was repealed when the Supreme Court ruled that we cannot force motorcyclists to wear protective gear for their own safety. However, I am confident that we can make a compelling argument that the non-helmeted or properly shod motorcyclist is a very real threat to pedestrians and drivers on our streets and highways. There is considerable proof that blows to the head from ricocheting objects in the street and delayed or misplaced reaction by bare feet or stubbed toes do cause needless accidents.

"While I can't begin to understand why so many ill-gear'd motorcyclists are anxious to gamble with their own lives, they certainly must not be allowed to endanger the lives of others through their own deliberate negligence.

"An Illinois study for the years 1966 through 1970 revealed that motorcycles were involved in fatal and injury-producing accidents three times more often than automobiles. The statistics are too overwhelming to ignore. I believe it is the obligation of the General Assembly to pass this legislation in the interest of public safety," Jaffe concluded.

1st National of MG announces record gains, Wednesday opening

Major increases in growth, assets and business hours have been announced by the First National Bank of Morton Grove.

Substantial gains in deposits and loans over the past 4 months have enabled the bank to exceed $61 million in total assets, according to president Marvin von Aswege.

"Our assets increased more than $2.5 million since March 30, reflecting growing public acceptance of the bank's ability to provide a complete range of services with the utmost convenience," he said.

To accommodate continuing growth, the bank has extended its hours to include Wednesdays in the main bank and loan center. These, together with the drive-in and walk-up facilities, are now open a total of 92 hours a week.

"The Wednesday opening is a departure from traditional bank schedules," noted Von Aswege. "But we're more concerned with the wants and needs of the community than we are with tradition."

The new schedule permits customers to transact business as early as 7:30 a.m. six days a week, up to 8 p.m. Friday and to 1 p.m. Saturday. Drive-in and walk-up facilities alone are open 60 hours a week.

"Our bank initiated longer hours last May, recently increased rates on all savings accounts and introduced a new 7 per cent plan," concluded Von Aswege. "And we will continue to exert leadership in other service and convenience innovations as we grow."

Social security for women

Sixty percent of adults getting monthly social security payments are women, according to Donald B. Schneider, manager of the Des Plaines social security office.

"Twenty-three million adults are paid social security benefits," Schneider said, "and 13.8 million are women. About 6 million women get monthly retirement benefits based on their own social security work records — 20 times as many as in 1950."

About half of the women getting retirement checks became eligible on their husbands' earnings records, he said.

A working woman can retire at 62 and get reduced monthly payments on her own record. Or she can wait until she's 65 and get full benefits as well as Medicare coverage.

"But if she's entitled to higher benefits as a wife or a widow on her husband's record, she'll be paid the higher amount," Schneider pointed out.

The working woman has both disability and survivors protection from social security. If she becomes severely disabled and cannot work for a year or more, she and her family may be eligible for monthly cash payments from social security. And starting July 1, 1973, workers of any age who've been getting social security disability payments for 2 years or more may be eligible for Medicare.

About 460,000 children get monthly social security payments based on their mother's work record. "A child who is entitled to monthly social security payments based on the mother's record can get them even though the child's father may be working at a full-time job," Schneider concluded.

tively first step in the area of alternative education, giving the student who is "turned off" from education an alternate way to obtain a high school diploma.

The new program will be administered by MONACEP (Maine-Oakton - Niles - Adult and Continuing Education Program). Participating students will attend evening sessions up to 4 evenings per week while being eligible for supervised on-the-job learning programs.

About 100 Park Ridge residents living near Maine Township High School South attended the District 207 Board of Education meeting Monday evening, July 23, to present their views for and against the closing of the Hamlin ave. entrance to the school.

Paul J. Boehme, 770 S. Hamlin, acted as spokesman for residents whose homes are directly east of the Maine South property. He told the Board that the east access to the school had become a meeting place for school trouble makers and a hangout for non-student groups.

Board President Robert C. Claus stated at the outset of the meeting that the Board was interested in hearing the views of the community and in obtaining as much factual information as possible Monday evening but would defer making a decision until it had given the matter further consideration.

of Where it's at and What's happening...

By Ed Hanson

A person who loves small children and all dogs doesn't have much good in them. But let's skip the kids and go-to-the-dogs. The old saying, "He's a dirty dog" is founded upon fact. And fact is dogs are just about the dirtiest animals in the whole animal kingdom.

However, they are edible and depending on how they are prepared, are even more tasty than an Armadillo. During World War I, for example the French practically devoured the entire dog population of France.

Now as we all know we are faced with a meat shortage and rising prices for same. "Beat-the-meat shortage!"—no, don't suck your thumb, instead, "Eat your dog!"

There are about 30 million dogs in the U.S. of all sizes and descriptions who are owned as 'pets.' And there are about 5 million running around wild dirtying up the landscape of America, the beautiful.

By eating your dog or your neighbor's dog, you will not only help beat the meat shortage and strike a blow against inflation, but you will be making a patriotic gesture to your country.

For almost 20 million pounds of 'dog droppings' are daily dropped on the lawns and landscape of America, the beautiful. This in turn attracts and breeds flies which, in turn, breed rats. The rat population of the world outnumbers the people population of this world and some day some mad scientist will breed a 300 pound rat and think of what could happen to us.

Just imagine some of these 300 pound rats prowling thru the alleys at night saying, "Here kitty, kitty."

Soon they would kill all the cats and we would be at their mercy. Therefore, logic dictates that we must rid this beautiful land of all dogs, large or small.

A famous French chef once created a delectable dish called sauteed, "Dog Livers," which believe me, is more savory than snails. And another dish he created was, broiled "Dog Thighs." And still another was "Dog's Nose served on toast with marinated Dog's Nostrils."

You can see there are infinite dishes which creative cookery can dream up.

I think a National Week should be set aside called, "Eat Your Dog Week" and with a unified effort on the part of all of us the only dog left in America will be the 'hot dog.'

And that's the only dog I've ever really liked.

Sunday I attended the Fred Astaire Dance Studios 1973 Mid-West Dance-A-Thon at the Sheraton-Chicago Hotel on Michigan ave. A gal with 9 children by the name of Jenny who's quite a dancer accompanied me.

It started at 1 p.m. and lasted until midnight. It consisted of professional dancing by the many instructors, both male and female who work for the Fred Astaire Studios throughout the middle west.

Bob Garvey of the Fred Astaire Studio here in Niles was a most gracious host and his group which consisted of Mr. Drake, the Studio dance director and their male and female instructors who competed professionally against other Astaire Studios.

Miss Fontaine, who wore at least a half dozen different dazzling gowns did the Cha Cha with Mr. Hunter and they were super. Miss Serina and Mr. Drake danced the Samba and they were really something. Miss Inet and Mr. More also did the professional Samba, with professional grace. And to top it all off, Miss Fontaine and Mr. North did a theatrical professional number which was really a show stopper.

In next week's Bugle there will be pictures of this affair which I'm sure can capture the beauty and grace of this wonderful affair far better than any words of mine.

The Twist, the Monkey, Frug, etc., are going-to-the-dogs for ballroom dancing with all its grace and beauty is returning once again to the American scene.

See you next week...

Family square dance

Whether you've never do-si-do'd before or whether you've been promenading around the hall for years, Caller Paul Collins invites individuals and families to join in the fun on Thurs. Aug. 9 at 7:30 at a Family Square Dance at the Mayer Kaplan Jewish Community Center, 5050 W. Church, Skokie.

The square dancing will take place on the patio at the center, weather permitting, or inside the building in air conditioned comfort. Admission is 75¢ for members, $2 for member families; $1 for non-members and $3 for non-member families.

Orchard Center benefit

N.E.W. Players, a group of about 40 high school students from Niles North, East, and West high schools have spent the last six weeks, five nights a week and all day Saturdays, to put together two fine productions; the hilarious comedy "Arsenic and Old Lace" will play Aug. 1 and 2 at 8:15 p.m., and the musical "Cabaret" to be presented on July 27 and 28 and Aug. 3 and 4 at 8:15 p.m. at Niles West Auditorium, Oakton at Edens Expressway, Skokie. These students have devoted themselves completely to make these shows a success, for they know that they are for a very worthy cause. Partial proceeds from these shows will go to the Orchard Center for Mental Health.

The paradoxical title, "Arsenic and Old Lace," refers to the attire and the activities of the Brewster sisters, Abby and Martha, two of the most charming and lovable old ladies who ever filled a cellar full of cadavers.

Cabaret, based by Joe Masteroff on John van Druten's 1952 play "I Am a Camera" and Christopher Isherwood's 1932 book of "Berlin Stories" which inspired Van Druten, and with songs by John Kander and Fred Ebb, "Cabaret" is a tale of tarnished innocents abroad in a land with no time for Innocence-Berlin in the years just before Hitler came to power.

Jerry Vale and Louis Prima, two stars who have commanded top billing in night clubs from coast to coast for many years, are the headline attractions at the Mill Run Theatre on Tuesday, Aug. 7 through Sunday, Aug. 12. Prima's exciting trumpet playing combined with Vale's romantic singing style will provide a highly entertaining show sure to keep the Niles-based theatre-in-the-round overflowing during a 6-night engagement.

Performances will be held on Tuesday through Thursday at 8:30 p.m., Friday and Saturday at 7:30 p.m. and 10:30 p.m., and Sunday at 8 p.m.

Oakton photography exhibit

A travelling exhibition of photography by Jerry Uelsmann will be displayed in the William Koehline Gallery, Building 4 of the Interim Campus, Oakton Community College, from Aug. 15 through Sept. 14.

Uelsmann is noted for the techniques which he employs — combining printing, the negative sandwich, and "blends." His one-man exhibitions have been featured throughout the United States and his work has been included in group exhibitions both in the United States and in Italy and Canada. His photography has also been included in such publications as "The Photography Annual," "U.S. Camera Annual," "Contemporary Photographer," and "Art in America."

Uelsmann's composite techniques engage the past, yet enable the realization of a richer pictorial ethic and recognition of the real," according to the critic William E. Parker.

A professor of art at the University of Florida, Uelsmann is a founding member and currently on the Board of the Society for Photographic Education.

Japanese flag at Glenview State Bank

Motorists who passed the Glenview State Bank Building at 800 Waukegan rd., recently may have seen a Japanese flag on one of the dual flag poles in front of the building.

Flown to the right of the American flag, at the same height, and same size, the Japanese flag was a courtesy gesture to a large group of businessmen from that country who were visiting the Cummins-Allison Corporation offices located in the building.

John Jones, President of Cummins-Allison, noted, America is engaged in a bitter struggle to maintain its place of prominence in world trade, Cummins-Allison is actively engaged in this struggle to market its products overseas thereby adding to the favorable balance of trade for the United States. As a courtesy gesture to foreign businessmen who visit our offices to view our products, we have arranged to display the flag of their nation as a courtesy gesture. Mr. Jones further noted "It is important in international etiquette that the flag of a foreign nation be flown at the same place of prominence and of the exact same size. Recently a company flew the flag of West Germany at a lower level than that of the American flag and greatly offended the guests they were attempting to please."

Glenviewites may take pride in the growth of their village as a stopping off point for foreign visitors calling on the corporate headquarters of international organizations located in their village.

First National Mundelein expands parking facilities

First National Bank of Mundelein has expanded its south parking lot area for customer use, according to Raymond C. Kublank, executive vice president.

A new parking area totaling 7,500 square feet opens for bank customers on or about Aug. 1, he said.

An additional 22 cars can be accommodated in the expanded area, bringing the total parking capacity in the south lot up to 33 spaces. With the north lot's 17 spaces, a total of 50 customer cars can park at the bank.

The additional space, measuring 50' x 150', was made available after the bank acquired property immediately adjacent to its former parking lot area. A 2-story frame house on the property was razed, its foundation removed and sand was used to fill in the remaining excavation.

A new, heavy-duty asphalt surfacing was used to cover the area with yellow striping to be added upon completion for traffic direction and parking guides.

Three arch lights are to be installed on existing poles to illuminate the additional area.

According to Mr. Kublank, "with our new parking facilities, bank customers will be able to have much more convenient use of the south lot which we had found was filled to capacity sometimes in the past. Transactions conducted within the bank and at our two walk-up windows were growing rapidly along with the large volume serviced at our 4 drive-up windows installed one year ago."

Motorists enter the lot from Seymour st. and then egress out the east end via a newly-paved alley leading to Chicago st.

Mr. Kublank said new electric exit signs will be installed soon to indicate the exit lanes. General contractor for the bank project was A. W. Heinson and Co.

Golf Mill State Bank
new record highs

New record high in growth were achieved during the first six months of 1973 at Golf Mill State Bank President Robert A. Sharpe announced today in releasing the bank's semi-annual statement of condition.

The bank, which moved into its new $2 million building last Dec., reported new record highs in both total deposits and total loans at the end of the six-month period on June 30, 1973.

Growth in deposits of 22.3% from $25,671,000 a year ago to $31,411,000 at mid-year 1973, resulted in the new record high. Capital accounts realized a growth of 9.1% over the same time span, from $1,428,000 last year to $1,558,000 on June 30, 1973.

Reflecting the overall economy's demand for loans, activity in total loans and discounts increased by 32.8% over the past 12 months: $18,691,000 at mid-year 1973 as compared to $14,068,000 a year ago.

"Our expectations for continued growth, in both size and service," Sharpe said, "are high." With the opening of our new bank building facilities, we have been able to offer customers six lanes for motor banking transactions plus many other improved service features.

Bernstein named
Senior Vice President

Dayton T. Bernstein has been named Senior Vice President of Superior Tea & Coffee Company, it was announced today by Sanford Cohn, president.

Bernstein had served as Vice President, Operations of Chicago headquartered Superior, one of the nation's largest food suppliers, dealing exclusively with the foodservice industry.

A native of Chicago, he attended Illinois Institute of Technology prior to service in the armed forces during World War II. After leaving service, he was in the beverage business for a brief period. He joined Superior in 1953 as a route salesman.

Three years later he was named general manager of the Dayton Spice Mills, Dayton, Ohio, following its acquisition by Superior.

In 1961 he returned to Chicago as coordinator of operations and, in 1966, was named Vice President of Operations.

In 1970 the company entered into an agreement to purchase Hawaii's entire Kona coffee crop the only commercially grown coffee in the United States.

Bernstein was given the additional duties of General Manager of Pacific Operations, supervising the distribution of both coffee and food products to restaurants, hotels, clubs, retail stores and supermarkets in Hawaii as well as in the South Pacific, including Pago Pago, the Western and American Samoa Islands, the Caroline Islands, Palau, Papua, Guam, Okinawa, Fiji and the Marshall and the Gilbert Islands.

He is a member of the International Foodservice Manufacturer's Association and Vice President of the Food chapter of the City of Hope.

He and his wife, Eileen, live at 7642 Maple, Morton Grove. They have two daughters, Holly, 18, a freshman at the University of Illinois, and Caryn, 13.

Glenview State Bank reports
record growth

Glenview State Bank reported a gain of 23% in total assets to a record $109,525,949 for the year ending June 31, 1973.

In commenting on the Increase Paul Jones, Chairman, stated, "We are pleased to report growth of 26% in loans and discounts to $57,231,366 providing for re-employment of a corresponding 25% increase in total deposits which reached a record $97,824,663."

The Bank recently moved its main offices to 800 Waukegan rd., Glenview, providing an additional 60,000 sq. ft. for tenants and customers. In commenting on the move, John H. Beaulieu, President, noted "It is our hope that the completion of this new building with the attendant landscaping and formal garden will not only increase the scope of services available, but also contribute significantly to the beauty of the community of which it is a part."

accomplishes the unusual

Glenview Guaranty Savings and Loan Association, 990 River dr., has accomplished the unusual. They were challenged to achieve identification of their newly created "Saver's Mall" on Waukegan rd. and River dr. adjacent to their present building. The obvious answer was a sign. But Glenview rd. and Waukegan rd. have plenty of signs already. The Board of Directors, interested in not only the continued success of the financial institution, but also the beautification objectives of the Village, decided to be a bit more creative.

R. C. Dahlquist and Associates, Glenview architects, were commissioned to design a "functional landmark" at the threshold

bank in Edgewater

H. Robert Bartell, Jr., Commissioner of Banks and Trust Companies for the State of Illinois, issued July 26 a permit to organize the Community Bank & Trust Company of Edgewater. The organizers include Austin L. Wyman, Jr., Bartley J. McKee, Thomas P. Conrardy, and John M. LeBolt, all of Chicago, Lynne L. White, Jr. of Winnetka, John T. Mooney of Northbrook, Kenneth E. Reed of Wilmette, and Waldemar Hultgren, Jr., of Glenview. Additional prospective directors include James Heraty of Skokie, Leon Wolin of Lincolnwood, William G. Jennings of Kenilworth and James N. Lesparre of Midlothian. It is contemplated that Mr. Lesparre, bringing 32 years of banking experience with a major banking group to the job, will be selected as President of the new Bank following organization.

The Bank is proposed to be located in that portion of Edgewater known as "Andersonville" in recognition of the area's heavily Scandinavian heritage. The bank building, to be built on the site of 5336-42 North Clark st., Chicago, will be 2 stories high, containing 7500 square feet with room both for vertical and horizontal expansion, and will provide all commercial banking services.

Participating McDonald's include: 400N. Lee st., Des Plaines; 9815 Milwaukee, Des Plaines and 7937 N. Milwaukee, Niles.

Chicago children will join the nation-wide fight against muscular dystrophy by supporting Carnivals Against Dystrophy this summer. They will be assisted by the McDonald's restaurants in this area, which will supply request forms for Carnival Kits to help them with their fundraising endeavor.

The kits will contain complete instructions for running the carnivals, including suggested contests and games, tickets and other carnival supplies and will be sent directly to the youthful sponsors by muscular dystrophy organizations.

Funds raised at the carnivals will add the fight against muscular dystrophy and related diseases afflicting millions of persons. The fund-raising effort is under the direction of the Muscular Dystrophy Associations of America, which conducts research into the cause and treatment of the muscle-wasting disease.

of the Village, Ronald Dahlquist, 1701 Lake ave., Glenview, designed a free standing wing, utilizing brick, stone and metal to complement the Association's building. The result was a pleasing background for the raised metal lettering "Glenview Guaranty Savings." At the base is a seasonal planting area indirectly lit in the evening hours.

Richard W. Wilde, Jr., President of Glenview Guaranty Savings, has commented that this unique approach to commercial identification has already received numerous complimentary responses from the public and thus the project accomplished its purpose.

Future of America fair

Arlington Park has been known for its fine equines for many years. This Aug. 24 thru Sept. 3 will mark the beginning of Arlington Park in Arlington Heights as the home of an outstanding fair. The Future of America Fair, in its first presentation, will cover the 650 acre grounds with amusement rides, hundreds of exhibits and displays, the Circus Americana, special events and acts by internationally known stars. For 11 days, seasonal horse racing will make way for the half million people or more that this exposition is expected to draw.

Taking advantage of the outstanding facilities on the grounds, 11 days of horse and livestock shows plus agri-business displays will be presented. Along with agricultural exhibits in the commercial and industrial lines, educational agricultural exhibits will be part of the Future of America Fair. A competitive exhibit program worth $5,000 in prize money for both youth and adults has been created to present the consumer a complete picture of agri-business and its importance.

Eleven days of both livestock and horse shows will rival any others in the Midwest. All breeds will compete in the beef show, where 8 classes have been provided for the showing of a young herd of 6. A new format in the showing of beef cattle, exhibitors will be vying for $8,200.

Competition will also take on the new look in the Dairy Show. Instead of putting an individual animal against another of its own breed, one young herd will compete against other herds, and then against other breeds. Prize money for the dairy show is $6,500.

The Market Livestock Show, using the same type of competition, will provide the consumers with a valuable look at the animals that provide the most desirable meat for their table. Steers, barrows, and wether lambs will be involved in the showing, which will culminate in an auction sale.

A horse show was a natural inclusion for the Future of America Fair, and not one but 6 horse shows with more than $15,000 in prize money are drawing entrants from a great cross-section of the nation. Halter and performance classes, open class, pinto, quarter horse, Arabian and Appaloosa horse shows will make the program of interest to exhibitors, participants, and fairgoers whether they're familiar with livestock or not.

For a gate admission price of $3 for adults, (advance sale tickets are $2.25 from the Arlington Heights Chamber of Commerce), $1 for children 6 to 11, and free admission for those under 6, the Future of America Fair will draw big names and crowds again at Arlington Park Aug. 24 thru Sept. 3.

While in San Diego, Kitty Hawk will conduct training operations in preparation for deployment to the Western Pacific in the fall.

Playgrounds hold penny carnival

The ten Niles Park District supervised summer playgrounds will hold their Annual Penny Carnival at Grennan Heights Park on Thursday evening Aug. 9. Each playground will sponsor at least two booths which will be operated by the children from the playground. Booths will be one, two and three cents. Prizes will be given away.

The Carnival will be held on the tennis courts starting at 7 p.m.

OCC offers Music Theatre course

A course introducing students to the music theatre will be offered for the first time at Oakton Community College for the fall term. Named Introduction to Music Theatre (Humanities 106-01), the class will be taught by Patrick Casali, assistant professor of foreign languages and humanities.

The course will introduce the students to the basic repertory of standard operas, ballets, musical comedies and even a few outstanding examples of film music, according to Mr. Casali.

"Many people are afraid of opera and have a preconceived notion that it is dull and boring," he says. "But it isn't necessarily so. It is one of the most thrilling and exciting of all art forms when you understand its development and learn to listen."

The course, open to both full or part-time students, will meet on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons from 2:00 to 3:15 p.m. No previous music study is necessary. A child development center is available for women with pre-school children who wish to enroll at Oakton for the course. Mr. Casali explains that the course will trace the significant development of music through its various styles and periods, relating these to styles or periods to other arts. Field trips to performances of the Lyric Opera during this fall, with discussion and criticism before and after the performances, will be highlights of the course, he said.

Mr. Casali pointed out that a typographical error in the fall class schedule lists the course as

Introduction to Music Theory. "The correct name and description of the course is given on page 122 of the OCC Directory of Courses and Sections for Fall, 1973" he said.

Open registration for the fall term is scheduled for Wednesday and Thursday, Aug. 22 and 23. Classes start on Monday, Aug. 27. For further information call the office of admissions, Oakton Community College (telephone: 967-5120, Ext. 394).
