Blase, Service Station owners agree on ticketing

By Diane Miller

In a special meeting held on Monday afternoon, Mayor Nick Blase met with approximately 30 Niles service station owners primarily for a discussion on congested traffic conditions around service stations caused by the gas shortage.

At the onset of the meeting the mayor made it clear to those in attendance that he was not there to discuss gasoline prices, service to "customers only" or gas sales on an "appointment only" basis. Blase also stated that the service station operators are not creating the problems, but are merely the middle guys. He said he was only interested in "the traffic control problem and an efficient way to handle it."

Blase then opened the meeting to the service station owners and asked them for any suggestions they may have which would help alleviate the current traffic situation. He stated that "the village has the power to legislatively control the ingress and egress of traffic around the service stations, but would only do so if the service station operators so desired."

Many of the operators present stated their problems have been innumerable since the energy crisis arose. Several of them instituted their own traffic control by blocking driveways with tires and wooden horses. As one owner stated, "Obstacles such as tires and horses just didn't stop them. Drivers ran over the tires and smashed the wooden horses I put in my driveways." Another service station owner said to Mayor Blase, "How would you like to step into the line of waiting cars outside your station and tell them to leave because you want to close the station? Believe me, you are taking your life in your hands today when you try to do that," Blase said he was sympathetic toward their predicament.

Thursday night Oakton College hosted a public meeting to discuss the alternative locations for the permanent site for the school. Unfortunately, there were no more than 25 troops attending, including a few students, who may have wandered in out of the cold, or were leftovers from earlier classes.

The "Mayors" of Morton Grove and Niles were scheduled for the program but only Jules Bode was present. Bode, who somewhere along the line must have taken a few courses from the Toastmasters Club or the Carnegie Course, must have missed the lesson which taught the speaker to state something significant or meaningful. Still, a rather handsome man, with a ruddy complexion which looked reddened from southern shores, Bode moved to the podium, made a lame joke about speaking briefly, and then lived up to his word by saying only a few words, and then departed. Blase, who generally is all over the map, wasn't there, and Board member Tom Flynn excused his fellow-Democracy stating he was attending another meeting.

Bode told the audience the Morton Grove board was in favor of the Des Plaines campus. On previous occasions it had been reported the M.G. board was against a permanent campus at the present industrial site, and had gone on record opposing the Beckwith site last year. And previously Niles board had passed a resolution opposing the campus site on the Maryhill Cemetery property.

Black, Wife Injured In Auto Crash

Lou Black said Sunday from his hospital bed that he would continue his campaign for the March 19 election for Niles Township Republican Committeeman, family conditions permitting.

Black and his wife, Mickey, were struck in a head on automobile collision at 40 miles per hour at Dempster west of Kenneth in Skokie at 1:30 a.m. Sunday morning. Both sustained extensive and serious injuries. Mrs. Black is expected to be hospitalized for at least several weeks.

According to police reports, Carmell Jackson, 20, of Chicago was traveling westbound on Touhy Avenue. Jackson said his family "obviously must come first." He added that he is counting on volunteers to carry his campaign to the people. Campaign co-chairmen Allen Wilsey and Lee Prince will fill in until Black returns.

"There is no campaigner like Lou," Prince said. "But the volunteers that have been coming in are going to turn this tragedy around and give the Blacks a present on election day: a resounding victory."

It was believed the board had a 4 to 3 majority favoring the Oakton site, but the eastern board members, those living in Skokie and Lincolnwood, who indicated previous preference for the interim Oakton Street site, switched their positions in the interest of presenting a united front.

In recent weeks an ad hoc committee culminated 18 months of study by recommending the Des Plaines site by a 5 to 3 vote. Representatives from Sharp School in Skokie were particularly vehement in their desire to keep the school's location closer to Skokie. And even after Tuesday night's decision one of the members was ardently vocal in speaking to school board president Gilson regarding the Oakton Street site.

GASOLINE LEAD LEVELS TO BE REDUCED - EPA

Proposed final regulations for reducing the amount of lead in all grades of gasoline were released by the Environmental Protection Agency on Nov. 28. The new regulations restrict the average lead content, measured quarterly, in all grades of gasoline produced by any refinery to 1.7 grams per gallon by Jan. 1, 1975; 1.4 grams per gallon by Jan. 1, 1976; 1.0 grams per gallon by Jan. 1, 1977; 0.8 grams per gallon by Jan. 1, 1978; and 0.5 grams per gallon by Jan. 1, 1979.

The total amount of lead used in gasoline at the present time amounts to well over 200,000 tons a year. The new regulations are an effort to prevent lead in the environment.

Young cited by Rail Passenger Group

Rep. Samuel H. Young (10th, Ill.) has been cited by the National Association of Railroad Passengers for his efforts to promote use of public mass transit facilities by commuters transportation for passengers.

The Association (NARP), with headquarters in Washington, D.C., will report Congressman Young's selection as a "friend of the railroad passenger" in its February newsletter to members across the nation.

Specifically, NARP cited Congressman Young for:

1. His sponsorship of legislation to provide for a Federal income tax deduction for commuters who use public mass transit systems to ride to and from work. The bill would permit a taxpayer, when he computes his Federal income tax, to deduct from his gross income the full public mass transit fares he pays. No similar deduction would be allowed for a commuter who drives.

2. His successful effort to get Amtrak, which operates rail passenger service throughout the United States, to retain the "Floridian" passenger train running between Chicago, Miami and St. Petersburg. Congressman Young protested Amtrak's earlier decision to discontinue the train. Amtrak later withdrew its petition to the Interstate Commerce

OAKTON CLOSES IN ON SKYWAY LEAD

The basketball Raiders of Oakton Community College, third place in the Skyway Conference, traveled to Waubonsee college Tuesday, Feb. 5, upset the league leader 69-62 and moved to within one game of first place.

The night before, OCC downed Mayfair college 94-92 at the Raiders' home court, Niles East high school.

With a 8-4 record, Oakton remains in third place trailing Triton which is 8-3 and Waubonsee at 9-3. The Raiders are 1-1 against each of these teams and have defeated every other school in the conference at least once.

Oakton Coach Tom Jorndt called the Waubonsee game, "The best defensive effort of the year. We held the conference leader to 62 points."

Dan Welter, third highest scorer in the league, and Denny Wilson, who was just recently named to the all-section squad, each scored 17 points to pace Oakton. Roy Sanders followed with 14, Tony Reibel with 11, and Ray Sanders with 10. This was the third game in a row that all five starters were in double figures in scoring.

Welter was high for his team with 16 rebounds while Willison and Ray Sanders had 12 each. The game's leading scorer was Waubonsee's Leon Crimes, currently the number one point man in the conference with 26.

Against Mayfair on Feb. 4, Dan Welter provided the punch necessary for Oakton to win. Scoring 32 points and grabbing 20 caroms, he led both teams in each department. Willison scored 23 points, followed by Ray Sanders with 14, brother Roy Sanders with 13 and Reibel with 12. Mayfair led 48-41 at the half.

Jorndt attributed this victory to a defensive move: "In the first half we weren't getting back on defense and weren't quick at all. They were getting inside on us and scoring." He continued, "In the second half we moved Welter out of the middle and put Willison in there. That seemed to stop their inside shooting."

Cycling Club

Maine East's Cycling club is restlessly sitting out the cold winter weather, but members are meeting monthly now so they can be ready for Spring.

During these meetings members review basic bicycle maintenance such as changing tires, fixing gears, adjusting brakes, and oiling bearings. Besides this, they are working on the details for fund raising projects.

Sponsor Al Hinke hopes that the club, as soon as weather permits, will start venturing out on 6-10 mile short trips to get in shape for more extensive biking.

Don cagers end conference with loss

(By Mike Lemanski)

Notre Dame's Dons ended their conference season on a disappointing note last Friday by losing to Carmel 51-49. ND now finishes 8-6 in the S.C.C., good enough for only third place.

The game started out slow with only 11 points scored in the first quarter. Second quarter action picked up, but at halftime the score read a low 18-18. Both teams had poor shooting in this half.

The third quarter was completely different. Carmel's huge center Bob Stuetz began to score big as did forward Joe Fenwick. While this was going on, ND's big guns "Buzz" Naughton and Mike English were having a lid put on them. They managed to score 19 points between them, ND's leading scorer was Rick Ferine who had 15 points.

Carmel continued domination until the end of the fourth quarter. After building up 10 and 8 point leads, the Corsairs began to choke. ND closed to within one, but with 11 seconds remaining, Carmel's Dave Weiler hit two free throws to put the game away.

The team will have five returning varsity players—Louise Heben, Lynne Lampert, Sue Webster, Eileen Santry, and Mary Santry.

Coach Bricker was quoted as saying, "This year's team will be much stronger because of improved skill level and experience. We're going to be someone to worry about in the divisions, and we intend to be in the play-offs."

Not only will this year's team be taller than last years, but it will also have a much more aggressive defense than last year's team.

Other tough teams in the conference this year will probably be New Trier West, Maine North, and Maine South.

Last year's record was a deceiving 3-4 because two of the losses were in overtime and the other two were very close.

Girls' gymnastics competition

Maine East's girls' gymnastics team finished second in the League meet with 167 points, edged out by Highland Park in the final day of competition.

In preliminary compulsory competition on Friday, Feb. 1, four out of the six girls qualified for the finals, in vaulting Melody Miller scored an 8.03; in beam captain Bonnie Gallagher scored an 8.8, Mary Winkel scored an 8.73, and Melody Miller scored an 8.90; in uneven bars Bonnie Gallagher scored a 7.97 and Cindy Di Vito scored a 7.73; and in floor exercise Melody Miller scored 8.90, Mary Winkel scored 8.67 and Cindy Di Vito scored 8.63. Also competing in vaulting and optional routines were Ellen Barrett and Kathy Herbst.

In the final competition on Saturday, Feb. 2, Melody Miller placed second in the optional vault with a score of 7.5; Bonnie Gallagher placed second on balance beam with an 8.53; and she also placed second on uneven bars with a score of 7.53. In the final combined totals of compulsory and optional routines, senior Bonnie Gallagher placed second on beam and bars, Melody Miller placed third in vaulting and fifth in floor exercise, and Cindy Di Vito placed fifth in uneven bars.

In the all-around competition star sophomore Melody Miller placed fourth, scoring a total of 62 points in compulsory and optional routines.

Maine East girls' basketball

(By Murray Rodnick)

Maine East will be opening its second season of interscholastic girls' basketball against New Trier East on Feb. 21, and Coach Alice Bricker had a few comments on the upcoming season.

The team will have five returning varsity players—Louise Heben, Lynne Lampert, Sue Webster, Eileen Santry, and Mary Santry.

Coach Bricker was quoted as saying, "This year's team will be much stronger because of improved skill level and experience. We're going to be someone to worry about in the divisions, and we intend to be in the play-offs."

Nancy L. Majewski, 6937 Jonquil terr., Niles, is among the twenty North Central college athletes names "Outstanding College Athletes of America." Miss Majewski, a senior at North Central, was elected to the honorary fraternity as a result of her participation in volleyball at the liberal arts college.

North Central college athletic director Allen Carlucci announced Miss Majewski's selection made by the board of advisors of "Outstanding College Athletes of America," an annual awards volume published to honor America's finest college athletes. Coaches and athletic directors from individual colleges and universities across the nation nominated the winning athletes on the basis of their displayed abilities, not only in athletics but also in community service and campus activities. Other criteria for selection included strength of character, leadership both on and off the playing field, and scholarship.

Miss Majewski is the daughter of Mrs. and Mrs. Edwin Majewski and is a 1970 graduate of Niles West high school. She has served as captain of both the women's intercollegiate volleyball and basketball teams, and participates on the women's intercollegiate tennis team. Niles Family Service Thought For The Week

By Larry F. Renerzy

'I Love Life'

The above is more than an expression. It is a song. It is a song that I sang as a boy and it has become the song of my life. "I love life and I want to live and drink of life's fullness, take all it can give."

Unfortunately, I find too frequently in my counseling that there is more taking than giving. This was one of the major problems of a family that I was working with. I challenged them to try to give to one another; to find at least one positive quality or aspect within each of their lives. Dwell on this rather than all of the negatives or always looking for or anticipating what you are going to get. A great man once said, "Give and it shall be given unto you, good measure pressed down and running over."

The song continues, "I LOVE LIFE, every moment must count, to glory in its sunshine and revel in its fount, I LOVE LIFE! I want to Live! I love Life!"

The above family began to find more sunshine in their own life and in the life of their family as they discovered the blessings in giving to one another. One of the meaningful laws of the universe in the area of relationships is, "As you relate lovingly to others, others will so relate to you; as you give to life, life will give to you."

Yes, your song too can be "I LOVE LIFE." Life can be beautiful and meaningful whether you are single, married, widowed or you are 10 or 20, 40 or 50, 70 or 80. Ask yourself how you are giving to life and it will tell you what your song of life really is. If you don't like what you see or hear do something about it. If you need help with your life, marriage or family, call 966-1640 or come into Niles Family Service, 251 Lawrencewood.

what figured to be a replay of their first meeting which saw the Gamecocks winning a squeaker 46-44. The rematch was as exciting as the first meeting and the score going into the 4th quarter was tied at 36. Todd Taylor's hot hand and a key basket by John Cannistra with seconds remaining put the Gamecocks ahead by one. The Reddevils' Ron Parker scored 8 points in the 4th quarter to keep the Reddevils close. At 46 Gamecocks with 9 seconds left a shot was missed by the Reddevils and Paul Koehler pulled in the rebound. The Gamecocks called time and converted at the horn to make the final score 49-46. George Leddy led the Reddevils with 16 points followed by Ron Parker's 14. Todd Taylor led the Gamecocks with 18 to preserve their undefeated record. District 63 summer school

The Faculty Advisory Council (FAC) of East Maine School District 63, is surveying all staff members asking them what type of summer program they recommend for our proposed summer session. Individual teachers have expressed a desire to work in such a program and have related these interests to their elected building representatives.

At the same time, the District has circulated a questionnaire to parents eliciting their interests in a summer program including preferences in the following offerings:

1. A remedial academic program, i.e. language arts, reading, math,

2. An enrichment academic program, i.e. language arts, reading, math, science, social studies.

3. Non-academic program, i.e. arts & crafts, music, home economics, industrial arts, typing, physical education.

If your child neglected to bring this survey form home, please call Mrs. Norma Schultz at 824-1102, ext. 216.

The more fact that a tube 'lights up' in your TV set by means of a filament that is operating properly. It must be placed in a multi-control tester to check for shorts, leakage, low emission gas and other defects. And the test results must be interpreted in connection with the circuit in which the tube is used. All adjustments must be made in the circuit or damage will follow. Various circuits and components are often tested individually to make sure they still maintain the exact requirements of current, voltage, resistance and current as the case may be. This is all-important in keeping your TV operating at top efficiency and for a maximum time.

St. Isaac Jogues continuing trends in education

St. Isaac Jogues Elementary School opened its door in 1957. Its goal has been the educational and moral development of its students. The students of the school have gone on to the finest high schools and universities. The aim of the school's educators is to present a guided curriculum for their 720 students.

The highlight of St. Isaac's this year has been the opening of its kindergarten. Two half day sessions daily provide a first introduction to formal learning for five year olds. The classes are based on many of Maria Montessori's independent learning techniques.

Three years ago St. Isaac's undertook a progressive step by becoming one of 30 I.G.E. elementary schools in the Chicago Archdiocese. I.G.E. means Individually Guided Education. This program began in the field of Language Arts and has expanded this year to Mathematics. Briefly, the program is achieved through the multi-aged, multi-unit structure, in which teachers function as a team, planning, critiquing and deciding on individual's program and process. The program for each student is built on a continuous cycle of assessment, specifying objective, diversified learning opportunities and reassessment.

The school also has a library complete with ample audio-visual equipment, research equipment, research materials, and books on all reading levels.

The national physical education program has been implemented as well as extracurricular volleyball, basketball, and cheerleading teams.

A volunteer aid program provides clerical and in the classroom help to teachers. The aides are students' mothers and seniors from Notre Dame High school for Boys.

Two well established programs at St. Isaac's are music and science. The students are offered band lessons and have provided the school with a concert and a marching band. The science program produced first place winners at the Illinois Science Fair, Niles Township and the Morton Grove Science Fair.

"Nothing Fuelish About This Idea"

During any crisis there's always somebody that can rise to the emergency and come up with a constructive idea.

Take the current gasoline shortage, for example. While many service station owners have been complaining about it, only ONE of the many area service stations did something about it.

I refer to Ron Bryski, manager of the NILES SERVICE STATION, 7005 N. Milwaukee ave., Niles. Last week in all five Bugle newspapers, Ron published a full page ad, at his own expense, which explained to his customers why his gas supply had been drastically reduced. His published letter was short and to the point, and in case some of you may have missed the ad, I repeat it as follows:

"Due to the recent mandatory allocation of gasoline, our supply has been reduced drastically."

The previous operator of this service station pumped an average of 7,000 gallons per month during their first six months of 1972. We increased our business in the second half of 1972 to a monthly average of 30,000 gallons.

Although our supplier is cooperating fully with us, they have to comply with the government ruling which limits us to the actual 1972 gallonage, month by month, less an allocated percentage.

We are open within the limits of our allocated gallons - however we are still maintaining a full service outlet for your convenience. Thank you for your indulgence and full cooperation."

Signed (Ron Bryski, Mgr.)
Niles Service
7005 N. Milwaukee Ave., Niles

At the bottom of the ad there was a notation to the effect that his body and repair shop would be open as usual - all work by appointment only - 647-7386.

In a nutshell, Ron Bryski, thought enough of his customers to spend his money to tell them what his situation on gas was, and why it was. By his actions in this matter and his forthrightness, it seems to me that Ron Bryski is the kind of guy we'd all like to do business with.

Another reliable guy to do business with, in case you need a new or used car, is George M. Economus, of the Marshall White Ford Agency, 9401 Milwaukee ave., Niles. George, who has been with Marshall White Ford for 12 years, is a star salesman who has won many Ford awards because he treats each and every customer the way he'd like to be treated. George always comes up with the best deal in his power to make and handles each customer's needs on a personal basis which is why he has built up such a large list of satisfied customers during his many years in the car business. If you have need for a new or used car, see George Economus personally - give him a jingle at 965-6700 and make an appointment.

Another guy who really takes care of his store and personally sees to it that his customers are satisfied is Jake Joseph, owner of JAKE'S RESTAURANT, 7740 Milwaukee ave., Niles. Recently I did sort of a history on Jake and his restaurant experiences and Jake was so appreciative, he gave me one of his fruit pies which was delicious. Jake tells me that his home-baked fruit and cream pies which cost from $1.65 to $1.95 are selling better than ever. Many people are taking home these whole pies and raving about their flavor. And lots of ladies have told Jake that at the price he sells 'em, it's cheaper than they can bake 'em.

Last week I was in error when I said that Jake had "all you can eat" specials on Sundays. His "All You Can Eat Specials" for only $1.75 are Monday thru Saturday. On Saturday and Sunday Jake offers five items on the menu for half-price for children 12 or under. So all the moms can bring the kids to Jake's Saturday or Sunday and take advantage of the half-price children's specials.

Jake tells me that his popcorn gimmick for Valentine's Day met with great success. I understand he gave away about 1,000 big bags of FREE popcorn and this idea met with such enthusiastic response on the part of his patrons that Jake is planning to MAKE FREE POPCORN a regular monthly feature. Infact, Jake tells me he may buy an antique popcorn machine, like the one he used in his restaurant last week, so his customers can have freshly popped popcorn.

And to start the day right, don't forget you can get a big breakfast special at Jake's for only 68 cents ... who says there's inflation? What else is new? Jake has installed beautiful new drapes throughout his restaurant, they are especially designed drapes that have the therapeutic value of resting the eyes. So go into Jake's and stare at his new drapes ... and don't worry because he plans no increase in prices to pay for the elegant new drapes.

New entertainment ... Ken Stacki, accordianist supreme, and Nancy Taylor, popular local singer, are appearing at the LONE TREE INN, 7110 N. Milwaukee ave., Niles, on Wednesday and Thursday nights at 7 p.m. and on Sunday night at 6 p.m. So when you drop into the LONE TREE for a delicious dinner you can enjoy the music and songs of these two top entertainers which will make your evening a memorable one. And remember, the LONE TREE offers dinner specials (see ad in this section) Monday thru Friday.

Another popular restaurant man is Andy, owner of La Venece Restaurant, 8743 Milwaukee ave., Niles. Andy has a right to be proud of the fine business he has built up at La Venece in a rather short period of time. His recently introduced Greek specialties, the Gyros plate with onions and the Gyros sandwich on Pita bread, quickly won popular favor with the area residents. La Venece is open for breakfast, lunch and dinner and features a chef's special at noontime for only $1.50 and their menu offers one of the largest varieties of American and Greek foods in the entire area.

See you next week ...

Art show

It is not often that a bank executive develops a reputation as a prominent sculptor, but such is the case of Donald Bremer of Glen Ellyn, Vice President of the Metropolitan Bank and Trust Co. of Chicago.

Bremer's unusual and creative sculptures will be on sale at the Mayer Kaplan JCC's third annual art show, "Collectors' Choice," Feb. 23, from 8 p.m. to 11 p.m., and Sunday, Feb. 24, from noon to 5:30 p.m.

DINING & ENTERTAINMENTStudent art work on display

Art students from Maine West and Maine East are represented at the "Chicago Six" exhibition in Millikin University's Kirkland Fine Arts Center. The exhibition began Feb. 10.

The "Chicago Area Art Invitational" presents two and three dimensional art works from six high schools. Schools participating are Rolling Meadows, Maine East, Maine West, Deerfield, New Trier East, and New Trier West.

According to Marvin Klaven, chairman of the Millikin University art department, "The purpose of the exhibit is not only to honor the schools' art programs but to indicate to our students and to Decatur the quality produced in an art program which has support from a participating community."

$36 million assets at Bank of Commerce

Total assets at the Bank of Commerce & Industry, 6100 Northwest Highway, are now nearly $36 million, announced Richard F. Larsen, ECI president.

The bank's statement of condition as of the close of business on Dec. 31, 1973, reported total assets of $35,964,752.72, an 11% increase over total assets of $31,835,841.48, reported as of Dec. 31, 1972.

Deposits increased $3,306,033.55 during the same period to $29,48,846.84 as of Dec. 31, 1973.

Furthermore, the bank's capital structure neared $5 million, and included capital stock of $1 million, surplus funds of $3 million and undivided profits and reserves of $976,101.28.

"More than 9,000 people in the community have made the Bank of Commerce & Industry their community bank," said Larsen. "Our wide variety of plans for savings, checking and loans plus other banking services makes it unnecessary for our neighbors to conduct their financial transactions in downtown Chicago."

The production is being produced and directed by Earl Bass of Morton Grove. Technical director is Bob Root of Des Plaines and musical direction by Kathy Dammann of Skokie and choreography by Judi Malantis and Teena Sweet of Des Plaines.

Centel modernization plans of facilities

More than $48,000 per day will be spent during 1974 by Central Telephone Company of Illinois for construction and modernization of its facilities. Approximately $17.7 million has been budgeted for construction and modernization, with $15.3 million appropriated for use in the Des Plaines-Park Ridge and surrounding service areas.

The final step in Centel's conversion to Crossbar Switching equipment is one of the major items in the budget. Close to $4.2 million will be used for the equipment necessary to replace Centel's only remaining Step-by-Step Switching Office in Des Plaines with the faster, more efficient Crossbar equipment. This installation is expected to be completed and put in service in 1975.

Architects for the graceful new concrete and steel structure were Hertel, Johnson, Elpern and Stoppa, Glenview, and construction was by Pepper Construction Company, Chicago.

Exterior columns were sheathed in precast concrete, embedded with quartz aggregate, rising up into tulip-shaped tops which form the elliptical shapes framing the windows.

Consisting of three stories and a mezzanine, the $3.3 million, 75,000 sq. ft. building was designed to produce an image of dignity, stability and security without seeming extravagant.

The new bank building replaces the bank's quarters at 1825 Glenview rd. which now remains as one of their motor banks.

In connection with this same project, $92,300 will be spent this year for the three-story addition to the Des Plaines building at 767 Pearson. Two floors of this addition will house the new Crossbar equipment, with the third floor designated for future expansion. Total cost of the addition.

In addition to these specific projects, the routine capital expenditures during 1974 will amount to $7.6 million. Of this, $6.6 million will be used for the purchase of telephone instruments, related equipment, and connection of this equipment on customers' premises.

Another major project in this year's budget is the completion of the Traffic Service Position System (TSFS) installation. The initial installation of these cord-

EVANSTON FEDERAL EXEC SEES MORTGAGE FUNDS LOOSENING

"Mortgage funds are once again available in this area to home buyers," Robert E. Schrader, president of Evanston Federal Savings and Loan, expressed this view in a recent interview on the subject of "availability of mortgage money."

Schrader concluded by posing the question, "When the cost of money is as high as it is currently, wouldn't it be to everyone's advantage to remove the out-dated state usury restrictions thus making more money available in the state for home loans?" Obviously, no lender could charge an unrealistic rate as it would price him out of the market."

During a tight money period, Schrader said, "savings and loan associations must rely on home loans as their basic line of activity for income."

Schrader explained by posing the question, "When the cost of money is as high as it is currently, wouldn't it be to everyone's advantage to remove the out-dated state usury restrictions thus making more money available in the state for home loans?" Obviously, no lender could charge an unrealistic rate as it would price him out of the market."

In explaining the cost of money (interest rate) Schrader made the point that money is a commodity much the same as any item purchased in a store.

The retail price of an item is the storekeeper's cost plus his mark-up to cover overhead and profit. Thus, a financial institution's cost is the competitive price for money paid to depositors in the form of interest on savings," he said. "This savings money is then loaned at a slightly higher rate to cover overhead and provide for necessary reserves."

"Last Summer the savings and loan industry, which provides over 60% of all home loans in the country, was caught in a money squeeze when savings interest rate restrictions were removed from some forms of savings and many financial institutions were advertising up to 8 1/2% interest," he continued. "This interest rate on savings was in excess of the interest rate that could legally be charged in this state for a home mortgage loan. It simply meant that mortgage money became unavailable in Illinois and lenders were looking for other investments where yields were commensurate with the cost of money."

"While banks and insurance companies can move into other loans and investments not covered under the current usury statute for other investments where yields were commensurate with the cost of money."

Centel's McGrew to head Southern Nevada Division

W. R. McGrew has been appointed Vice President and Division Manager of Central Telephone Company's Southern Nevada Division. He is currently Vice President and Division Manager of Central Telephone Company of Illinois, a post he has held since 1965.

Succeeding Mr. McGrew will be Walter T. Geary, currently Vice President and Division Manager in Centel's Nevada Division. Both appointments are effective March 1.

Centel's Operating Headquarters said the new assignments are part of program to strengthen overall operations by rotating senior executives with broad managerial experience into new operating environments. Centel is the nation's fourth largest independent telephone group with phone companies in nine states.

Mr. McGrew has been with the company for 36 years, beginning his career in Havana, a small town south of Peoria served by Central Telephone Company of Illinois.

After three years in Havana, Mr. McGrew worked in Pekin, soon becoming Pekin District Manager. In 1952, he went to La Crosse, Wis., to serve as Division Commercial Manager.

Later that year he became Illinois State Manager in Park Ridge and in 1956 he was named Park Ridge District Manager.

In 1960, Mr. McGrew was on the move again, this time to Hickory, N.C., to serve as Division Manager.

After five years in North Carolina, Mr. McGrew returned to Park Ridge as Illinois Division Manager and Vice President.

While in Park Ridge, he has been active in numerous community and business organizations.

He was regional vice president of the National Independent Pioneers of America; former member of the Park Ridge YMCA; director and former president of the Illinois Telephone Association.

Community paper drive

The first collection for the paper drive sponsored by the Morton Grove Community Church in conjunction with Boy Scout Troop 82, Cub Scout Pack 82, the Heartstones, the Firesides, and the Group is complete. Approximately five tons of the 150 ton goal has been collected so far.

Paper drive chairman Larry Schulte is confident that as the paper drive momentum grows, the 150 tons will be collected during the remaining drive dates.

Four collection dates remain. The next collection date is Sunday, Feb. 24. Remaining dates are Sunday, March 10 and 24 and the final drive on Saturday, April 20.

To maximize the collection of waste paper the paper drive effort consists of on call pickups for the February and March dates.

Residents who have accumulated bundles of newspaper can call any of the following phone numbers and arrangements will be made to have the bundles picked up: 965-2982, 965-5331, 967-5999, 966-2526, 967-8993.

Volunteers are still needed to help pick up papers, drive, or provide temporary storage space for accumulations of paper bundles. Interested persons should phone 965-2982.

Refreshments will be served following the program. For information about Des Plaines Theatre Guild activities, or tickets to the March production of "You Know I Can't Hear You When The Water's Running," phone the box office, 296-1211 between noon and 8 p.m.

Jim Bedda of Buffalo Grove, president, will conduct the business meeting beginning at 8:30 p.m. The program is directed by Steve Strong of Chicago, assisted by Bonnie Master of Lincolnwood. Guild Playhouse is located at 620 Lee st., second floor, in downtown Des Plaines (corner of U.S. 45 & U.S. 14).

The Cabaret Theatre is a touring company, sponsored by Des Plaines Theatre Guild, which will perform a variety of skits, songs, and entertainment for clubs and organizations. Bookings are handled by Bonnie Master, phone 674-8214.
