New Park Commissioners sworn in

Jones new Park President

by David Besser
Editor & Publisher

There's a story in school district 63, a most interesting one, but we're not sure we can relate exactly what it is—but we'll try.

The story is really one of gentle people...as opposed to not so gentle people. And it has a history which dates back a few years.

The previous administrator in district 63 was Frank Dagne, a sweet guy, who'd been working in the district for about 15 years. Unfortunately, it wasn't long after Frank moved to the top post, the make-up of the school board changed. Instead of the very good board the district had during its critical years, it became dominated by people who had an anger and a vindictiveness which manifested itself at many of the meetings. And it bode a poor future for Frank in district 63. Two of the board members, both women, decided the rather gentle superintendent wasn't the man for the job. It was all rather sad because the teachers in the district had a great relationship with Dagne. They used to tell me the very ebullient superintendent would come into the classroom and get down on the floor with the younger kids and get involved with what they were doing. In its very simplest term, Frank was passionately interested in the kids. This was what schools and teachers were all about and Frank had that feeling for kids which comes from an absence of anger but a great deal of love.

We were at lunch with Frank one time and he was so excited about a new program in the schools, we sat in rapt attention while Frank wend his way thru 4 courses of enthusiasm describing what was going on in the schools. Truly, a lovely man.

Okay new District 63 lunchroom program

District 63 school children will have a limited lunchroom program beginning next fall as the result of action taken at Tuesday night's board meeting.

In a split 4-2 vote (Deckowitz and Kipnis voting 'No'), children in grades one thru four, who have both parents working, will have a one-hour lunch program in their individual schools. The Nathanson School, which has a greater demand for this program, is not included in this program but will have its own program, probably announced at the next meeting.

Deckowitz and Kipnis both supported a 35-minute lunch program with the children returning to classrooms after the lunch period. The approved plan is likely to have a 30-minute lunch and .30 minutes of recreation in the playground.

Supervisors will be teachers and/or parent aids, both of whom will be paid for this supervision. Presently, about $600 is spent on the present supervision but the

Niles Community Garage Sale

The second Niles Community Garage Sale will be held Saturday May 24 at the Niles Sports Complex. Thanks to the response of both sellers and buyers alike, the Niles Park District will sponsor the second in a series of Spring and Summer Community Garage Sales.

Once again the Sports Complex will become a Garage for a Day of selling and buying. This 20,000 sq. ft. arena is fully indoors and air conditioned. Plenty of free parking is available.

Admission to the public is free. Booth space is available for both residents of the Niles Park District and non-residents. A 10' by 15' booth is $5 for residents and $7.50 for non-residents. For booth information, call Ken Siora at the Sports Complex, 297-8010, weekdays 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The Sports Complex is located 2 blocks south of Golf Mill at Ballard and Cumberland.

Poppy Day

The Niles V.F.W. Post 7712 and Ladies Auxiliary will have their annual "Buddy Poppy Day" on Thursday, May 22. Every Buddy Poppy sold by the V.F.W. is assembled by disabled veterans in VA and state veterans homes, a task for which they are paid. Sometimes the poppy assembly is used as a therapy program, under the direction supervision of hospital personnel, to provide exercise for fingers and hands crippled by wounds, disease, and effects of old age.

The sale of the Buddy Poppy provides the local Post and Auxiliary with funds to carry out their work in the hospitals in their areas, and for the assistance they give to veterans and veterans' families in their community. A portion of the proceeds of the Buddy Poppy is also used to help in the support of some 200 orphans of veterans at the V.F.W. National Home in Eaton Rapids, Michigan.

When you are approached to buy a poppy, give generously and wear it proudly. "Honor the dead by helping the living."

(By Alice M. Bobula)

A new look came over the Niles Park Board Tuesday night, May 20, as Park Commissioner Millie Jones took office as President of the Park Board.

A possible forerunner of portending innovations, a woman president of the Park Board is a "first" in Park District history. Park Commissioner Jack Leske was elected vice-president.

Tuesday night was also the evening for a changing of the guard. Steve T. Chamerki took office as Park Commissioner for a 6-year term and Jeffrey Arnold the 2-year term.

Retiring Park Commissioners Walt Beusse and Robert Romano were honored with individual plaques crediting each in their term of office as... whose dedication and service to the Niles Park District and the community has earned the highest esteem of his fellow commissioners. The plaques could well have carried an additional inscription... "and of the residents of the Niles Park District."

Each was outstanding in duties performed to the park district. Subsequent action by the newly elected president, Millie Jones, quite evidently took Board members by surprise. In delaying the usual appointments of treasurer, secretary, board attorney and park director, President Jones appointed a committee of Comrs. Leske, Keener and Arnold "to study the evaluations and responsibilities of these positions for a report back to the Board at the next meeting."

Prompt urging by Board members resulted in the president's request to and acceptance by former Park Comr. Romano to remain as park treasurer.

As the prior counsel, President Jones, in the first minutes of her new position on the Board, restructured standing committees to "some old and some new committees."

Comr. Keener was appointed chairman of the Facilities Committee; Jack Leske to a new Inter-Governmental Relations Committee which, explained Pres. Jones, would be a public relations type of committee in co-relation dealings with schools, village police and other future intercommunication. Steve Chamerki was named as secretary.

Open window burglary

Apparent burglary Monday, May 12, of a home on the 7700 block of Nordica resulted in an $800 loss of a watch and ring.

There were no signs of a forcible entry, according to Niles police. The victim reportedly left the watch and ring on her dresser top next to a jewelry box. She left for Mill Run Playhouse leaving 2 children at home. Returning home at midnight she noticed the house was very cold due to an open window.

The next morning the children told her they had retired at 10 p.m. and were awakened later by the sound of furniture being moved in the mother's room. Investigation revealed several chairs had been moved around, according to police reports.

Senior Citizens' NEWS AND VIEWS

by Diane Miller

SENIOR CITIZENS CLUB OF NILES

Senior Citizens Club of Niles sees Passion Play in Bloomington

On Sunday, May 4, 32 members and 11 guests of the Senior Citizens Club of Niles went to see the original American Passion Play at the Scottish Rite Temple in Bloomington, Illinois.

They left the Recreation Center at 9 a.m. promptly but not before our Jim Skaja brought us delicious rolls and large hot cups of coffee to eat and drink on the way there, and sandwiches, pickles and lemonade for our evening supper on our way back.

It is approximately a 3-hour drive each way. We had a very good careful bus driver so we sat back and relaxed. Martin Dworak, our Program Chairman, had picked out two games we could play as we drove along. We each donated 10 cents for the first game and dropped a card with our phone number on it into a box. Then two names were drawn, which were the winners. First winner was Marie Waak and the second winner was Pauline Raabe, who received money as prizes. We then had our coffee and rolls and were feeling great.

The second game, we each donated a quarter and the winner would be the one that guessed the closest time that we would arrive at the Illinois House in Bloomington where we would have our lunch. The three winners were: Marie Waak, Mary Balogh, and Marie Okruto. They also received money prizes.

Josephine Florio went to the loud speaker and asked us to sing a song in memory of our departed member, Helen Skaja. We sang old time songs such as: "Let Me Call You, Sweetheart", "I'm A Donkey", "You Are My Sunshine", "Oh, You Beautiful Doll", "Just A Song At Twilight" and then "God Bless America". Then Anne Dworak got up and sang to her husband Marty, "Darling I Am Growing Old", which was very nice.

We were then arriving in Bloomington and passed the St. Joseph's Hospital and the beautiful huge State Farm Insurance Building with lovely gardens one block square.

Arriving at the Illinois House in Downtown Bloomington at 11:47 a.m. we went to the dining room where we were served salad, rolls, turkey, dressing, corn, apple cobbler for dessert and coffee.

The Passion Play started at 2 p.m. which was only a few blocks away.

The Niles Senior Citizens Club would like to thank Josephine Bain and Martin Dworak for the nice front seats they had reserved from last December when they made the reservations and also thanks to Jim Skaja for the wonderful arrangements of the lovely dinner in the Illinois House, the rolls and coffee for breakfast on the bus, and the sandwiches and lemonade for our supper on our way home in the bus. It was so nice. A day never to be forgotten by us all.

GRANDMOTHER'S CLUB HAS LUNCH AT SABATINIS

At 11 a.m. on Wednesday, May 14, 38 Grandmothers and their guests left the Recreation Center by bus to go to Sabatinis on Rollins rd., North Shore of Long Lake in Ingleside, Ill. to have luncheon.

The bus drove north on Milwaukee ave. to Golf rd., then to Rand rd., Route 12 past the Randhurst Shopping Center, then we drove by the Old Orchard Country Club, we then saw stands that were selling flowers of all sorts in flats for planting. We sure would have like to stop!! We then went by the North Point Shopping Center where some men were setting up a carnival. Then we went past Lake Zurich, Wauconda, and McHenry. We went by the Big Hollow School in Ingleside where the children were playing outside at recess time, reminding our school days when we went to school, which doesn't seem like too long ago...

We arrived at Sabatinis around 1 p.m., and by then we were all very hungry. We then seated ourselves at tables in one of the large banquet rooms and were served tomato juice, lettuce salad, rolls and butter, Perch or Beef, mixed vegetables, baked potato in half shell, then peppermint sherbert and coffee. Everything tasted very good, and our thanks to Phyllis Ruffalo, our program chairman who had arranged the reservations for the day.

We had a lovely drive home with the sun shining, and singing all the old time songs led by our choral director, Josephine Florio.

A lovely time was had by all as we arrive at the Recreation Center at 4:30 p.m.

Morris conducts clinic at Northwestern Stables

Northwestern Stables in Morton Grove, hosted a teacher's clinic given by George H. Morris, one of the top equitation instructors in the United States. One hundred teachers and trainers attended the day-long session on April 14 at Northwestern Stables, which is owned by Frank M. Jayne, Jr. Those attending came from throughout Illinois and from out-of-state cities including Iowa City, Iowa; Milwaukee, Wisconsin; St. Louis, Missouri; and Fort Wayne, Indiana.

The primary purpose of the clinic was to instruct the teachers and trainers on the principals of teaching beginning riders. Mr. Morris lectured the group and demonstrated at times on horseback. He also used two groups of riders from Northwestern Stables—one during the morning session and the other larger group in the afternoon—as examples for the audience to see first-hand Mr. Morris' teaching technique in action. Included in Mr. Morris' lecture on teaching basic riding were the principles of basic dressage, position in the saddle, use of the aids, use of equipment, beginning jumping, and the concepts of discipline, simplicity, and communication as tools for the instructor. Mr. Morris discussed his "Exercise System"; that is, using an exercise to solve a riding problem. These principles were broken down into sub-topics and discussed in great detail.

Nimrod fails ERA

Dear Editor: Senator John J. Nimrod (D-4th Dist.), voted "present" on getting the Equal Rights Amendment out of Executive Committee and on the Senate floor in Springfield. Formerly a Supporter of the Amendment, Nimrod voted yes in 1973. The ERA has passed the Illinois House by a vote of 113 to 62.

Nimrod has promised supporters just hours before his vote that he was voting yes. He called Dianna Burgis of Park Ridge, and Inga Hampe of Des Plaines to congratulate them. "John is playing games with us," said Ms. Burgis, NOW president in the area, "the proponents of ERA, many of whom helped John get elected, are outraged—my phone has been ringing constantly." Inga Hampe, Coordinator of the ERA Coalition has been telling supporters "not to give up hope, that Nimrod still morally believes in the Amendment."

Why he has voted "present" after committing himself to a yes vote? "Only the inventors of political trickery can tell you that," said Ms. Burgis. Cecil Parte, sponsor of the ERA in the Senate was also surprised at the outcome. "The votes were carved in Granite," he said. "The ERA still could bypass the Committee and come up for a vote in session. It must be ratified in two houses within one session to make Illinois the 34th state to stand up for equal rights."

Dianna L. Burgis

Disillusioned residents

A short time ago we, the residents of District 63, went to the polls. After attending two board meetings with the new and old Board Members in attendance, we wish a new election could take place tomorrow. How disheartening it is to a parent of children in District 63 to find how some of the Board Members have sold our children down the river! You cannot admire a majority of the Board who chose to rescind a motion to build an Educational Service Center that had been approved before two new members were seated, without coming up with an alternative, or can you?

Praises Sherman and Feder

Dear Editor: The taxpayers of Niles Township should be made aware of, and give a vote of thanks to, Auditor Marjorie Sherman and Dr. Harold Feder. These two fine, dedicated, community-minded individuals, through their tireless efforts were responsible for the termination of the illegally created position of Executive-Director of the Niles Township Senior Citizen Commission, which will result in a savings of $12,000 per year of taxpayers' money. Hopefully, these two "minority" members of the Niles Township Board will continue to wage and win more battles for the benefit of the taxpayers of Niles Township.

Thanks Camp Fire Girls

Dear Mr. Besser: There have been some incidents that happened that you might not have been aware of. On Thursday, morning (May 1st) I opened my bicycle shop front door and found a small gift alongside the door. It consisted of a 2 1/2 inch clay pot with a wax begonia planted in it, and the pot inside an empty cottage cheese container with a little newspaper between the two to keep the pot upright. There was a note attached with a braided piece of colored yarn which read - Happy May morning from the Camp Fire Girls, Maine-Niles District, 732 S. Fairview, Park Ridge, Ill. There were lots of blossoms on the begonia, and it was just like a breath of spring!

Thanks Skokie Board for handgun resolution

Dear Editor: I would like to thank the Board of Trustees of Skokie and Mayor Al Smith, who introduced it, for voting to send a resolution to the U.S. House Judiciary Sub-Committee on Crime, asking them to propose "reasonable but enforceable legislation regulating the manufacture, sale, transportation and use of handguns."

Skokie is the first Village to go on record advocating Federal legislation because this country can no longer afford the waste in human life and misery left alone the cost in dollars and cents that the handgun is causing. Thus the Village joins other civic leaders that cuts across political and social lines imploring its legislators to do something such as Mayor Dale, State Attorney Bernard Carey, Rep. Abner Mikva, Superintendent Rochford, the Illinois State Congress of Parents and Teachers in their recent convention, the Conference on Mayors, plus religious and social groups too numerous to mention.

We are all aware that the causes of crime are many and complex. The easy acceptance of an atmosphere of crime in many homes and in our entertainment helps perpetuate the frontier mentality that the gun is the law. I also consider that the lack of swift, sure punishment in our courts contribute to the breakdown of law and order. Nevertheless, I believe controlling the ever increasing number and circulation of handguns is the most feasible first step toward reversing the violence, fear and death that has engulfed this country. Banning the concealable handgun has become necessary and inevitable! What statistics are we waiting for?

A Niles woman was the victim of a purse snatcher as she unloaded her shopping cart by the National Tea store in Golf Mill around 4 p.m. on Monday, May 12, according to Niles police. A witness to the incident later stopped a Niles patrol car, to inform police of the incident. The victim, who drove to the police station at 7200 Waukegan rd. to report the incident, told Niles police that the man, 5 ft. 10 inches tall, with long blonde hair and wearing a suede jacket, grabbed her purse from the shopping cart. The purse, she said, contained credit cards, her personal checkbook and about $15 to $20 in currency. She told police that the purse snatcher fled south on foot, in the Golf Mill Bank parking lot.

ND cager enrolls at Illinois State

Rick Ferina, all-Chicagoland guard from Notre Dame H.S. of Niles has signed a national letter of intent to enroll at Illinois State University this fall.

The 6-foot-4, 180-pound Ferina was voted the best offensive player, best defensive player and most valuable player at Notre Dame.

He led the team in scoring with an 18-point average, and ranked second in rebounding with 10 per game. He also was the team's most accurate free throw shooter at 78 percent.

Ferina is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Ferina, 8738 Elmore, Niles.

Ferina was on the all-Suburban Catholic Conference team, and was all-area and all-Chicagoland. He received special mention on the all-state team.

He earned three "most valuable" awards—from his teammates, the Chicago Tribune, and in the Notre Dame Christmas Classic.

Ferina played for Coach Ralph Hinger at Notre Dame. One of Hinger's former players is Tom Les, scrappy guard at Bradley who was noted for his fierce desire. Ferina is cut from that mold.

He's very determined and dedicated," said his mother, Mrs. Ann Ferina. "He sets high goals for himself, and isn't satisfied until he makes it. He started out playing football in grammar school, and didn't play basketball until he was in the seventh grade. He worked very hard to make himself a good basketball player."

Approached by many schools, Ferina narrowed his list to Illinois State and Southern Methodist before making his final decision. "He was considering another fine school," Mrs. Ferina said, "but he picked the one with bigger competition, and that's what he needs." Ferina said he plans to major in corrections. "I like Illinois State's program," Ferina said. "The coaches are good, and it looks like we will have a good team next winter." Ferina was a two-year starter at Notre Dame. Notre Dame had a 13-13 record last season, but won seven of its final eight conference games and upset Mt. Carmel, the state's sixth-ranked team. Ferina had a single game high of 29 points against Marmion of Aurora. Ferina is the third basketball star to sign a national letter of intent to enroll at ISU.

Respect Life Walk

The biggest single "life-related event of a few years ago—a tragic one—was the U.S. Supreme Court decisions on abortion depriving unborn children of virtually all legal protection. There is no denying that the decision was a shattering blow to the pro-life movement and a boon to anti-life forces. But in the last few years it has begun to seem as if the court may not have spoken the final word on the subject.

A few years ago the Catholic Bishops of the Country launched the first National, "Respect Life" program to defend the proposition that all innocent lives are sacred and deserving of respect. Respect Life is an ideal to which everyone or just about everyone, in the United States would subscribe. The crunch comes in deciding whose lives are to be respected. Basically there are only two answers: all innocent lives without exception of some lives under certain conditions.

Interest in the problems of the aged, abortion, ecology and endangered species will be brought into focus in a "Respect Life" walk to be held on Sunday, June 1. Assembly time is 8 a.m.

Sermons on the supernatural

St. John Lutheran Church, 7423 N. Milwaukee ave. in Niles, invites the community to come and worship with them, or at least to hear some very interesting and timely messages on the subject of the supernatural.

The pastor of the congregation, Rev. James M. Herzog, has made that subject a specialty in his ministry and has had a great deal of experience in that area. He served for five years as an evangelistic missionary to the natives of New Guinea. He has an abiding interest in and a basic knowledge of the supernatural as practiced by the primitive tribes. This interest led to over ten years of research and included the modern revival of interest in the occult sciences in civilized countries such as our own.

Rev. Herzog has developed a course of instruction in this area, aimed primarily at the Christians who are concerned about the supernatural. The messages began May 18, entitled, "The supernatural power of the Holy Spirit", and will be continuing thru the month of June reflect many years of experience and research. He will share very interesting and unbelievable stories with the listeners. You are invited to come and bring a friend. Services are conducted twice each Sunday morning 8 a.m. and 10:30 a.m.

Board questions morality of exhibiting 'exotic' animals

[By Alice M. Bobula]
Village officials are considering an amendment to the Niles code of permitting the exhibition of 'wild' or 'exotic' birds and animals. Action was delayed until the May 27 board meeting.

The present code allows the exhibit under a village permit, which means that the individual who desires to exhibit the birds or animals must come before the village board to first secure a permit to do so.

Amendment to the code is a permissive phrase which allows the exhibit under a pet shop license.

The Animal World Pet Shop, 7525 Harlem ave., Niles, has had a llama, a chimpanzee, a baby donkey and a lion club on exhibit in the village until recently when the animal warden received a complaint from a representative of a Chicago organization for animals.

Ira Spector of Fund for Animals, 200 E. Ontario, Chicago, appeared before the board Tuesday night to protest exhibit of the 'exotic' animals. The term 'exotic' as defined by Spector, means any animal or bird other than a household pet.

Altho Spector did not explain the function of his organization, he made it quite clear he was in the protest of such an exhibit.

"Animals are not made to walk on concrete," he told trustees. "Their foot structure will eventually become weakened." He pointed out that so-called 'technicians' of the shop are not qualified in his estimation to care for such animals. Also, he questioned how the animal can be confined to a small cage with exercise only in the morning, in a parking lot.

"How can a llama be exercised in a parking lot?" he asked. "Exotic animals belong in a natural habitat (zoo), free to roam in an outside area."

"I believe there should be a more thorough examination on your part for keeping exotic animals inside cages," he cautioned village officials, "whether here in Niles or elsewhere."

John Santoro, operator of Animal World, appeared before trustees during the May 13 board meeting in defense of his exhibit of the animals.

"Without these animals as an attraction to the public," he said, "our business could not exist." In the 8 months of existence on the corner of Harlem and Milwaukee "we have broken even (in cost of operation)."

According to Santoro there are only two other pet shops, one in Chicago - the other in Des Plaines, which have similar exhibits.

Santoro claims that the exotic animals are well maintained, that they are not for sale. "We rent the animals from a renting farm near Elgin."

Spector said that earlier in the evening he had been told by a cashier at the pet shop that he could purchase the lion cub "if he had $600 and another $600 for the cage."

Mayor Nicholas Blase expressed a morality concern by the village of Niles. "We are primarily interested in the well being of the (exotic) animals and in the safety of the people in the shop," he told both men.

The question is, he said, "Is the Village right in allowing the exhibit as it is now?"

In a previous discussion Trustee Carol Panek stated that it was her contention that such animals belong in a zoo, for their proper welfare.

Niles resident Beverly Furniss appeared before the trustees at a previous meeting, to protest the exhibit of the exotic animals, also stating "these animals properly belong in a zoo."

Trustee Ang Marcheschi requested professional specifications for a healthy habitat for exotic animals. He also questioned the exercise of the animals in the parking lot, which could be a violation of Niles' nuisance ordinance.

Village Director of Licensing William Hlavacek was directed to bring all ramifications of the amendment for review at the next board meeting, before action is taken.

Legion Auxiliary
meet

The past presidents of the Morton Grove American Legion Auxiliary Unit #134 met Friday, May 16 after a long duration due to the illness of several of their officers.

Former heads of this large women's service organization rotate performing hostess duties. The group usually meet on a bi-monthly schedule between fall and spring.

Mrs. Ed Lange of Skokie was hostess for this luncheon-meeting which was held at the Morton House in Morton Grove. She planned the afternoon, including prizes and refreshments, sent out the invitations and made all the other necessary arrangements.

Jo Lange is the perennial Veteran's Affairs' Chairman of the Unit. In this capacity she visits the hospitalized vets in the various Chicagoland VA facilities; conducts bingo and other parties there, distributes gifts at holiday time, necessities during the year; and also serves refreshments and assists in a paraplegic bowling program.

Mrs. Lange served as president of the Auxiliary for the 1975 term.

Nilesite accepts band directorship

Frank Charles Wichlac, 21, has accepted the position of Band Director in Petoka, Illinois.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wichlac of Niles.

A 1975 graduate of the University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign with a Bachelor of Science degree in Music Education, Wichlac has been on the honor roll for 4 years, maintaining a 4.7 average.

Frank is following in the tradition of the family, said his proud father, since his grandfather is a well-known Chicagoland organ builder.

A graduate of Maine East High School, Wichlac is a member of Phi Kappa Phi and Phi Eta Sigma, both of which are Honors Scholastic Fraternities.

She and her husband, "Butch", are one of the husband-wife duos who both led the Legion Post and its Auxiliary as the presiding officer. Lange was the 1951 year's commander. He, too, is still active with the Post. In fact, coincidentally, he also performs for them, the same chairmanship as his wife—known as the Rehabilitation Officer.

In the Senior events, only foil was significant for Illinois. Mike Gerard, NDHS, took 4th place. While brother Pat was knocked out in the semi's. In the Junior events, Pat Gerard took second by a touch, his attack at a la-belle score failed and the stop hit by Herring was good. Fire causes $500 damage to Niles insurance building

A dense smoky fire Saturday evening, May 17, caused an estimated $500 damage in the Koenig-Schoner and Associates Insurance Building, 8101 Milwaukee ave., in Niles.

No injuries were reported and no one was in the building which was closed for the weekend, according to fire department records.

The fire originated in the basement and was of undetermined origin, said Niles Fire Chief Albert L. Hoelbl, who was on the scene with Deputy Fire Chief Charles M. Bobula.

Dense black smoke poured from the front entryway of the building on approach of the firemen, alerted to the scene by a phone call from a teenager at 7:30 p.m. Saturday.

The smoke was emerging thru a stairwell and into the lobby of the one-story brick insurance building located on the northeast corner of Keepey and Milwaukee ave.

A couch and rubbish burning in the windowless basement created a dense smoke making a difficult approach for masked firemen, said the spokesman.

"It was not a large fire, just one in a place difficult to get to," said

David T. Ritchey

May 10—Marine Private David T. Ritchey, of 7307 W. Conrad, Niles, has reported for duty with the 2nd Marine Aircraft Wing, at the Marine Corps Air Station, Cherry Point, N.C.

the Niles Fire Chief. "Fires located such as this one (was) are very treacherous. With a build-up of heat such as existed in the area," he noted, "masks are not much protection."

There was no structural damage to the building, which was heavily charged with smoke. A tentative estimate of "under $500" damage was set on the contents of the building.

Two tenants have offices located in the building: a Coast Guard Recruiting office and Swap Shop, Inc. Flea Markets, whose owner, Jim Pierski, has been called to the scene of the fire by neighbors.

Smoke ejectors set up by the firemen created a mechanical ventilation to clear the building. Firemen remained on the scene for an hour and a half.

The fire remains under investigation by the Fire Prevention Bureau.

Home Loans Dependent on Status of Interest Ceiling Rate

Savings institutions may not be able to make home loans during the next year and a half if the interest ceiling rate falls below 9 1/2 percent, says a statement of the Illinois Savings and Loan League. And the less affluent and young people will be hurt the most.

The trade association of the state's 440 savings and loan associations said this week in the policy paper that "if the General Assembly reduces the present 9 1/2 percent mortgage ceiling, there can be no assurance that savings and loan associations will be able to remain in the market during the next 18 months."

Home mortgage interest rates in Illinois will return to the former and permanent rate of 8 percent after June 30 unless the present temporary 9 1/2 percent rate is extended.

A bill to extend the interest rate for a year and a half was deadlocked in a Senate committee last week, and a further attempt will be made to bring it up for reconsideration towards the middle of May.

Skokie Federal Saving's President John R. O'Connell said that "as savings costs continue to rise, mortgage costs will continue to rise." He also indicated that in the past many savings associations were paying as high as 8.17 percent on certificates of deposit in order to attract money to be lent.

O'Connell was part of a savings and loan delegation who recently left for Springfield to make their views known to the state legislators.

The Illinois Savings and Loan League's statement continued: "If money market rates go up during the next 18 months, the savings and loan associations will not be able to hold their savings accounts unless they can meet this competition."

"The proportion of money changing over to higher yielding certificates is increasing each day. The federal government can impact the money market by large excursions into the bond market."

With the ability to obtain a better return on government bonds than they can in home financing under an 8 percent ceiling in the state, associations are likely to be putting their money in investments other than mortgages.

The Illinois League statement also noted that "low down-payment loans are currently in a border line position and would be the first to be eliminated from the market if the cost of savings continues to rise."

Low down-payment loans, it noted, are ranging from 9.3 to 9.5 percent and prime loans are presently quoted at 8.8 to 9.1 percent.

The league statement noted that "small upward swing in the long-term money market would have the effect of eliminating the low down-payment loans, made primarily to less affluent and young people."

The bill to extend the interest ceiling at 9 1/2 percent is House bill 602. It passed the House chamber by a wide margin and is now before the Senate Finance and Credit Regulations Committee.

FNB two millionth car contest

A 1913 Stutz Bearcat model car and radio will be awarded to 20 people who come closest to guessing the exact time the two millionth car will use the drive-in facilities at the First National Bank of Des Plaines.

According to Arthur R. Weiss, bank president, the two millionth car is expected sometime shortly after June 4th. "Over 1,975,000 customers have used our drive-in facilities during the past 18 years," he said.

Any person can stop in at the bank between now and June 4th and enter one guess as to the exact day, hour and minute the car will arrive at FNB's drive-in facility. The prize, an authentically detailed model of the Stutz Bearcat automobile equipped with a solid-state 6 transistor radio, commemorates the year the bank was founded — 1913.

In 1957, the First National Bank began offering its customers drive-up convenience with two drive-up windows behind the bank. Today customers are serviced at four modern pneumatic tube operated stations located in the bank's parking lot at 740 Lee st.

Drive-in banking hours are: 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. Monday thru Thursday; 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. Friday and 7 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday.

For further information and to enter a guess, visit the First National Bank of Des Plaines at 733 Lee st., or the drive-in facilities at 740 Lee.

Vapor Chairman dies in Florida

He was born in Guelph, Ontario, Canada, where he got his first job as an office boy for a carriage manufacturer at fourteen.

In 1909, at twenty-two, Mr. Bruce started as a storekeeper with Chicago Car Heating, fifty-four years later he was elected Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the company, now known as the Chicago-based Vapor Corporation. He retired as Chairman in 1968 but continued as consultant, maintaining his office at the Niles plant.

Survivors include his wife Elizabeth, his two daughters, Nina Lewis and Barbara Jordan, two sisters, Mrs. George Hood and Mrs. John Kest, both of Canada, 11 grandchildren and 7 great-grandchildren. He was buried at Memorial Park Cemetery, Skokie.

Centel provides modern switching system

New home for Crossbar...The $1.3 million, three-story addition to Centel's Des Plaines Switching Office at 767 Pearson houses the fifth installation of Crossbar. With the cutover of the fifth installation May 17, Centel fulfilled a $22 million promise to provide its customers with a modern switching system.

New Crossbar equipment...in the new Crossbar installation, calling volumes will be recorded by the compact Autrax unit (foreground, right). This unit is one of the new features of Crossbar and eliminates the need for cameras which periodically recorded the calling volumes registered on meters. Testing out one of the new frames is Central Office employee Mike Kirsch.

With the May 17 cutover of its fifth installation of Crossbar switching gear, Central Telephone Company of Illinois fulfills a promise to provide a modern switching system for all its customers.

Since 1967, Centel has spent more than $22 million to keep that promise. With the cutover of the fifth installation, costing $5.4 million, all Centel customers in the area now enjoy the benefits of a switching system directly compatible with surrounding Bell equipment and specially designed for the needs of a heavily populated area. Besides faster, more efficient switching of calls, Crossbar also makes Touch Calling available to all customers.

The fifth conversion to Crossbar occurred at 12:01 a.m. May 17, directly affecting approximately 11,000 customers with either 296 or 299 prefixes. In addition, this Crossbar installation will handle the new prefix of 635.

Centel employees worked thru the night to complete the conversion. The early Saturday morning hour was chosen because calling volumes are lower at that time.

Prior to the cutover, a total of 60,000 man hours were expended installing approximately 125,000 feet of wire and 425,000 feet of cable tied in with 2.5 million connections. Following the installation, 8,500 man hours were spent testing it to make sure the cutover would go smoothly.

Customers with the two prefixes encountered only brief interruptions in service, with emergency numbers cut from the old system last and transferred to Crossbar first.

The new Crossbar installation is housed in the three-story, $1.3 million addition to the Des Plaines switching office at 767 Pearson.

Centel's conversion to Crossbar along with other improvements—such as the $5 million all-electronic TSPS toll switching system, the $900,000 conversion of its 1,700 pay telephones to Dial Tone First, and the construction of several building additions to house new equipment—have all been accomplished with only one general rate increase in more than 10 years.

Suburban Firemen stage thrill show at Randhurst

(By Alice M. Bobala)

"WOW!" exclaimed a wide-eyed, open-mouthed 10 year old Mt. Prospect resident Mark Reynolds. He was watching 35 northwestern and north suburban fire department units converge on Randhurst Saturday, May 10, to participate in the Annual Fire Service Recognition Day Thrill and Skill Show.

Fire Recognition Week, May 5 to 10, was observed at Randhurst for the 5th year, through nightly exhibitions by specialized fire units in the mall. Hosted by the Mt. Prospect Fire Dept., there were demonstrations of paramedic services, of home fire safety for kitchen equipment, water safety and furniture salvage.

In contrast to previous years of overcast skies and rains, Saturday's weather was sunfilled, providing the beginners of sunbathers to the thousands of spectators gathered in the huge parking area north of Wieboldts Saturday morning.

Recognition began shortly before noon with the participation of 22 suburban fire departments in a water competition for annual possession of a 3 ft. tall traveling trophy, the Randhurst Cup. During a 3 hour trial by elimination, a fire dept. team of 4 compete with another dept. in directing a stream of water to propel a barrel strung 40 feet up in the air on a 100 ft. wire between 2 telephone poles. Purpose of the waterfight, said Mt. Prospect firefighter Paul Watkins, is to demonstrate the skill of firemen in directing the stream of water.

Winner for a second year, the Franklin Park Fire Dept. took possession of the Randhurst Cup and a 1st place trophy; La Grange firemen were awarded 2nd place and the 3rd place trophy was won by Glenview Rural Fire Dept.

"Today is for everyone," said Glenview Rural Lt. Larry Lundberg. "Ours (firemen) is to display equipment and skills; and the public to see what we are trained to do."

"Harvey," the Dalmation mascot of the Arlington Heights Fire Dept. was on the scene with G. Nehring, a paramedic for the past 2 1/2 years. Paramedics are a relatively new breed of firefighters specially trained to treat heart attack victims and other emergency cases.

The outdoor Thrill and Skill Show began in early afternoon and included life-saving techniques in a simulated bus-auto accident; firefighting techniques; and concluded with exhibitions of skill demonstrations in extinguishing a simulated fire.

The first of many thrills were provided by a 2-car, overturned bus "accident." Sirens screamed as fire units from Roselle, Niles, Mt. Prospect, Skokie, Buffalo Grove, and Prospect Heights responded to the "disaster" call.

The paced, dramatic extrication "rescue" of auto and bus victims, narrated by Mt. Prospect Chief's Aide David Gold was realistically "injured," another team of firefighters cut thru the bus top, extricating "bloodied victims" from the wreckage.

As senior paramedic on the scene, Niles Fire Dept. Richard Valkanet was in charge. Extricated victims were taken to a safety area for 1st aid treatment. "The training which the paramedics have received is exhibited here," said Gold. Direct, telemetry, communication with hospital and doctor provide basic treatment of the more "critically injured." "Dead" victims were transported to another area.

A state trauma helicopter was on standby, ready to transport the critically injured.

"In view of the large number of injured," observed Niles Lt. Carl Fox on the scene, "everything was done according to the principles of the paramedic program." He stressed the well co-ordinated teamwork demonstrated by the suburban fire departments in extrication of victims from bus and cars. Approximately 30 "victims" were removed, treated and in transport in less than an hour.

In another area, Prospect Hts. Chief Donald Guold directed a fast fire stoppage of flaming gasoline with carbon dioxide and with dry chemical powers. Flaming oil-covered waters were effectively reduced with water spray.

In a final demonstration, skills were exhibited by participating suburban fire units in extinguishing a simulated fire on the roof of the Wieboldt store.

"Once the companies are on the scene," said the narrator, "firemen are committed to search the building for rescue of possible victims." Following the removal of two young boys "overcome by smoke inhalation" to a waiting ambulance, firemen on positioned snorkels and a ladder truck struck the "blaze."

"It was an excellent show," said Mt. Prospect Chief Lawrence Pairitz, who gave great credit to all the firefighters who volunteered their time. "They are all dedicated men."

Civilians working for the government, firefighters Dan Marshall and firefighter Jerry Prokopen held in readiness the Glenview Naval Air Station aircraft firefighting and rescue truck. The two men had previously served as firemen with the air force during the war.

In commenting on the excellence of the thrill show, North Maine Fire District Capt. Richard Leibach said, "Firemen were able to demonstrate various types of trained skills and many pieces of equipment designed for different needs, to the interested taxpayer."

Other participating units were from Leyden Fire Dept., Bloomingdale, Buffalo Grove, Deerfield, Skokie Civil Defense.

Also Wheeling, Glenside, Carpentersville, Palatine, Elmhurst, Rolling meadows, Des Plaines, Highland Park, Rosemont and Chicago Civil Defense.

Extensive exhibits inside on the mall at Randhurst featured antique and new fire apparatus, equipment and fire safety. Highlighting the various exhibits were an oldtime hand pumper which originally cost $1,000 from Naperville; an Ahrens-Fox pumper owned by the Mike Dalton Co. of Barrington and an extensive collection, privately owned, of shoulder patches from suburban fire departments throughout the area.

Purpose of Fire Recognition Week is to make the public aware of fire safety, and to establish better communications between individuals and between fire departments.

The teachers used to come to our office from time to time waxing adulation for Frank. When the union confrontation raised hackles in the district, one teacher told us union officials said they could never have created the union with Frank heading the administration. He was just too nice a guy and the teachers felt no reason to join together so long as a superintendent who understood them headed the district. Union officials said they needed a more autocratic, abrasive guy to buck before they'd be able to successfully organize the district.

The previous superintendent, Hugh McGuigan, also had this same great rapport in the district. Hugh was a public relations man. He knew who to stroke and how to do it, and he practiced his craft with aplomb. Not only was there little flak among the teachers but Hugh had a love affair going with the Board members and the parents which made the more difficult years in the district run with remarkable carefreeness.

As the years moved on, McGuigan moved to a Long Island school district and the very smooth-running school board was inherited by two distaff members whose limited experiences and abilities resulted in axing Dagne and appointing another superintendent. And this new guy was a whole new kind of cat.

From the very gentle superintendent, we transferred power to a much sharper kind of guy—a Cadillac owner as opposed to a Chevy man. And this whole Cadillac psyche moved into school matters, in a very highly-horsepowered manner.

While the former superintendent was mixing it up with the kids on the floor, the new man would stroll into classrooms and open teachers' desks reminding them the desks belonged to the district, not to the teachers. And when he wanted to stress a point or two with the teachers, he'd remind them about that great reservoir of non-working teachers, who were emptying out of college classrooms each year and were quite willing to replace them.

Union organizers smacked their lips when the new man came in. He was the perfect superintendent for a district which hadn't previously been organized. He was autocratic, abrasive and the kind of confrontation guy who causes a great stir, often winning small battles while eventually losing the big war. Following many, many months of deep battle wounds, the teachers got their union. After years of peaceful co-existence with teachers and parents, the district had its first chaotic disruption, in the opening years of the new superintendent's contract. After the smoke died down the superintendent started another fight, this time ending in personal victory 9 days ago, when he got his new administrative offices. Again, the rather sharp cunning man bumped up against a more gentle man, and like Dagne, the gentle man yielded.

Board member Larry Reiss turned his vote around in 2 consecutive board meetings, first voting against the superintendent's new offices, because he sincerely believed they were a waste of money. But when the superintendent and his allies on the board applied pressure, Reiss said he would prefer to give them their offices than "tear the district apart." After Reiss's motion was approved to eliminate the new offices, board member Barbara Kipnis took after Reiss and let it be known Reiss's own area would be the best place for the offices, dislodging many children there. Immediately parents there went a bit wacky, and the calls and petitions and children's wailing caused Reiss to reverse his vote rather than have the kids manipulated or moved.

It was clearly a moment when the superintendent could have exercised the leadership he is being paid $40,000 for, by preventing the chaotic situation to exist. But instead of lessening the tension he increased it by suggesting about 60 children be moved out of Nelson School and 60 children be moved into Nelson School from Oak School. All in all, the cunning manipulator was quite willing to disrupt the children and their parents, in his attempt to get his new offices. As an Olcott resident told the Board, the superintendent did not exercise leadership and the children were being used as pawns in the attempt to get the new offices.

When the enrollment was at its apex in 1970 the superintendent, McGuigan, didn't ask for new offices. And a couple of years later when Dagne moved into the top chair, he was much more interested in the children than erecting more mortar and bricks. But now, with the drastic drop in enrollment we get a new man, who's spent much money on carpeting floors...and who has told district people a lot of "important people" come into the district, implying the need for presenting a better front to outsiders. It's that same Cadillac psyche...you've gotta put on a good front.

As we noted in the beginning, we're not sure this story landed on the right peg. The gentle people, like the old board members, and the Frank Dagnes and the Larry Reisses, took a beating from the less gentle, from the more angry people. And while we won't endorse Leo Durocher's "good guys finish last" theory, we do know the more cunning manipulators often run the world. And considering the state of the world today, we can understand a little better why it is like it is.

Circus Troupe performances

Recently the Maine East circus troupe made its television debut on Chicagoland's favorite childhood TV program, Bozo's Circus.

Miss Betty Axelson, sponsor of the circus troupe, was extremely pleased with the group's performance, and several professional circus people have commented to her that the high school group had many potential Ringling Bros. performers.

The troupe had every trick perfected and timed to the second since they had to fit teeter board, tumbling, trapeze, unicycle and mini tramp tumbling acts all into a seven-minute act.

Performers on the show included Ross Anzelone, Jeff Davitt, Andi Gross, Terry Gross, Mike Schwarz, Ellen Barrett, Kathy Brizolara, Fran Daugard, Nancy Goldsmith, Gaby Isola, Sue Kane, Debbie Lepich, Donna Mancini, Melody Miller, Robin Rhemer, Gina Salerno, Terri Schwind, Paula Schultz, Lynn Sullivan, Suzie Taylor, Cathy Westcott, Jean Westcott and Mary Winkel.

Two of the girls' gymnastics team members, Mary Winkel and Melody Miller, were also on the Phil Donahue Show with guest star Cathy Rigby, former Olympic gymnast. The girls demonstrated routines on the balance beam and uneven parallel bars as Cathy Rigby commented on the various skills involved in gymnastics routines.

ED HANSON

"Bad to Worse ..."

The two skin flicks Pornography in New York and The Devil in Miss Jones, rated X, which currently have been the week's screen fare at the Morton Grove Theatre, are shocking examples of hard core pornography at its worst. Pornography in New York is bad enough but The Devil in Miss Jones is worse. This pix would even shock a moral-leper with the instincts of a swamp adder and the morals of an alley cat. Georgina Spelvin as Miss Jones brings both a new depth and a new dimension to human depravity that puts all of the other X-star actresses to shame. And it's a shame that such films which should be tossed into a garbage dump can find their way into a theatre in a community such as Morton Grove.

From bad to worse ... as I write these lines the cocky Cubs move into L.A. for a 4-game series with the tough Dodgers. The Cubs, having just received some bad bumps from the Padres, should be in for a much worse beating from the future World Series champs of '75 — the Dodgers!

The signs are showing that the Cubs are "cracking up". This is what happens to persons or teams who run scared or perform over-their-heads. The Cubs, who have been getting all the good breaks thus far, will discover that "luck" evens out after a while and only talent is left. This, of course, will leave the Cubs somewhere out in left field and they'll soon remember who they really are — The Chicago Cubs! Once it dawns upon them that they are the lowly, last place Cubs they won't be happy until they're back where they belong — last place.

And next year, during the winter, the young Cub players can snap their bubble gum as they read their press notices about how well they did early in the season. At the same time they will read how poorly the White Sox did early in the year but how well they played in the last half and nearly copped the title.

I tell you these things about the Cubs and Sox not because I enjoy it but because it's true. Nothing would make me happier than to see the Cubs win it all but it just can't happen in this century.

Or the next, for that matter! Next year, I have it on good authority, tennis may replace baseball at Wrigley Field: For that matter, chess would be more interesting to watch than the Cubs when they hit the skids which will be soon.

Forget the Cubs — here's something where you have a good chance to be a winner. All you have to do is guess the day, hour and minute that the 2 millionth car drives into the drive-in facility of the First National Bank of Des Plaines. According to the handicap dope First National's 2 millionth car should wheel into the First National's drive-in facility sometime shortly after June 4, 1975. Now the drive-in hours are 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. Monday thru Thursday, 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. Friday and Saturday 7 a.m. to 2 p.m.

The 20 closest guessers to the exact time the 2 millionth car drives in can win a 1913 Stutz Bearcat model radio. This Stutz Bearcat auto model has a solid-state 6 transistor radio inside. There's nothing to buy, just fill out an entry blank and place it in the ballot box in the lobby of the First National Bank of Des Plaines, Lee and Prairie, and you may win. After all, you'll have more chance to win the Stutz Bearcat radio than the Cubs will have to win the pennant.

I just told a lady Cub fan that the Cubs don't have a chance of winning the pennant this year and she promptly bet me a lunch at the Chinese Kitchen, 214 Greenwood, Glenview, that they will. Tony, the owner, told me that he's won many new customers with the coupons which have appeared in Bugle newspapers. I'm not surprised, for the Chinese food served at Chinese Kitchen is the finest obtainable and their extensive menu offers a choice of so many delicious Chinese foods that one often has difficulty in making a choice. But whatever the choice, you'll discover that any Chinese foods served at the Chinese Kitchen are the best in quality and quantity.

Some of the Cubs when they're in town often drop into the popular Beam 'N Barrel, 7136 Milwaukee ave., Niles. Some go for the delicious lobster which Beam 'N Barrel offers for only $6.95 and that includes a complete dinner and your choice from their large salad bar. This is one of the best seafood buys in all Chicagoland!

Who? Benny Hue? Benny Hue! Oh, he's that 119-year-old Chinese man who used to play with the first Cub team 99 years ago! Now, at the age of 119, he owns the Palace Restaurant, 9236 N. Waukegan rd., Morton Grove. The Palace specializes in delicious cantonese foods and you can eat in or carry out. Benny Hue, who attributes his longevity to eating cantonese foods, said if the Cubs would eat nothing but cantonese foods they'd surely win a pennant.

See you next week ...

Soroptimist dinner

Car care and starting tips will be the topics at Soroptimist International of Des Plaines next dinner meeting on Tuesday, May 27, at Seven Eagles Restaurant in Des Plaines. Cocktail hour is at 6:30, preceded by a business meeting at 5:30 p.m.

Several new members will be inducted into the classified service organization of executive business and professional women, affiliated with Midwestern Region of Soroptimist International of the Americas, Inc. Also officers for the coming year will be elected, according to Esther Britton of Quality Letter Service, president.

Dinner reservations for guests, or cancellations by members should be made before noon Monday, May 26, with Soroptimist Rosemary Schoenberger, 439-6700.

Guest speaker for the evening will be Paul Demay, service manager of Ladendorf Motors, Inc., Des Plaines, who has been active in the automotive service business since 1949.

Ramona Newton of The Workshop, program chairman, will introduce Mr. Demay, a recent resident of Buffalo Grove, who joined Ladendorf Olds in January of 1974. In addition to giving the ladies some of his know-how on automobile maintenance, he will show a film produced by General Motors Training Center titled "How To Start Your Car."

Demay started in the auto service business as a mechanic and student at General Motors Institute in 1949, completing the course in 1951. He worked as mechanic, service controller and assistant service manager, becoming a service manager in 1959.

He has worked as an Oldsmobile dealer service manager ever since then, except for four years when he was with the Olds Division of G.M. as district service manager in the Kansas City zone. Demay and his family moved to Illinois and his present position with Ladendorf a year and a half ago.

Last weekend Miss Piazzi won the Beethoven Competition, which is sponsored by the Society of American Musicians. She was one of six finalists chosen in the 1975 Chicago Symphony Youth Auditions.

Her May 27 recital will feature works of Haydn, Rachmaninoff, Debussy and Ravel.

"The Price"

Performances of "The Price", Arthur Miller's brilliant human drama being presented by the Open Stage Players of the Mayer Kaplan JCC, are receiving standing ovations, according to Director, Leon Palles. Therefore, an extension of the run is scheduled to include Memorial weekend performances on Saturday, May 24, at 8:15 p.m. and Sunday, May 25 at 7:30 p.m.

Cultural Arts Supervisor, Robert Komaiko says that these additional performances will enable all those who have not planned their evening of "The Price" to include this powerful play as part of their holiday.

The production features Skokians, Harold Terchin and Robert Goodman; Morna Ryan of Lincolnshire and Harry T. Stein of Glencoe.

Tickets may be purchased in advance at the "J", 5050 W. Church Street, Skokie, or at the door. Members $2.25, non-members $3.

 merski was appointed to the Parks Committee; Jones appointed herself to head a Legislative Committee for inter-relationship with legislators; and Jeff Arnold to the Finance Committee.
 Park Director Bill Hughes would be called upon in areas of other eliminated committees said the president.

In other action the new Board of Commissioners unanimously approved a request from the State's Attorney's office to use Jozwiak Park Saturday, June 22, for a charity program, predicated on a rental fee by the Niles Park District to cover expense incurred by the park to maintain the event. A softball game with Station WIND participation is intended. The charity was not named at this time.

Park Commissioners approved a letter request from Niles Mayor Nicholas Blase to meet with village officials on the question of parking and on teenage occurrences in the village.

Approved an exchange agreement with Jerry's Fruit Market to accept trees and shrubbery in exchange for an emergency 2-week use by the Market of an 8 ft. piece of park property for storage purposes. The 2 weeks have expired and the park property has been restored to normal useage.

Comrs. announced a public hearing of the Combined Budget and Appropriation Ordinance on June 3 at the Niles Park District Administrative Office, 7877 Milwaukee ave. Public inspection of the Budget and Ordinance is set for the Administrative Office June 14 thru July 14 with final approval of the budget scheduled for the July 15 Park Board meeting.

Divers continue search for body of drowning victim

Scuba divers from northwest suburban fire departments continue to search Beck Lake for the body of a man believed to have drowned in a boating incident Monday, May 19. Beck Lake is located near East River rd. and Central ave.

The Glenview Rural Fire Dept. received a call for divers at Beck Lake at 2 p.m. on Monday, said a fire dept. spokesman.

Niles, as headquarters for the Mutual Aide Box Alarm System (MABAS), an inter-fire departmental aid plan, was notified that Glenview Rural requested divers at the scene. A call for aid was sent out to surrounding fire departments for known divers from the area.

Approximately 16 divers have responded from the suburbs, said Niles Fire Chief Albert L. Hoelbl.

There are. Passbook accounts, more than any other kind of account, provide the saver with a record of accomplishment. Page after page, as the balance grows and the interest compounds, the pride of savings satisfaction increases. But there's more, lots more. A First Federal Savings passbook is designed for the undecided. If you want funds quickly, they are there, with no loss of earnings.

First Federal pays 5 1/2% annually on every dollar, every day it is on the day of withdrawal. Insured safety. And above all First Federal Savings pays postage both ways on all transactions. You should have a First Federal of Des Plaines passbook. After all, it's the reasonable thing to do.

A record of accomplishment. Maximum flexibility. Easy accessibility. High

Nordica Apartment Sustains $2,500 Damage

Niles firemen responded to a late Saturday afternoon fire, close to the dinner hour, in the 1st floor apartment unit at 7800 Nordica, where spreading smoke and flames involved the upper and lower apartments. Firemen remained on the scene for an hour, and boarded the outside damaged areas against possible weather changes.

Fire caused an estimated $2,000 damage to a ground floor apartment at 7800 Nordica in Niles late Saturday afternoon, May 10, plus another estimated $500 damage to contents of the apartment.

No injuries were reported. Electrical in origin, the fire apparently originated in Apt. 1-H, occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Carl W. Jansen, said a fire department spokesman.

Jansen, 79, a retired chemical engineer, who had moved into the housing unit with his wife last April 10, told the Bugle, "My wife smelled smoke and I saw flames curling up the side walls of the apartment...so I went over and pulled down the window drapes, and called the fire department."

Peter Guss, a tenant in the adjoining, east, apartment, was asleep in his bedroom and unaware of the fire until his son awakened him, stating, "There's a fire next door...call the Niles Fire Department. Those firemen were fantastic, they arrived within minutes," said Guss.

Firemen noted smoke coming from the second floor apartment directly above Apt. 1-H, on their arrival. Investigation of both units revealed the fire apparently originated from an electrical outlet which held the plug of a table lamp, located in the ground floor apartment. The smoke and flames traveled up the walls to the second floor unit, said the spokesman.

The fire had apparently been going on for sometime, he said, because of deep charring of the studs within the walls of the building.

Two other callers reported the fire. Mrs. Dorothy Wilkinson, the tenant in the adjoining, west, unit was cooking her dinner, she said, when her electricity was interrupted at 6 p.m. and smoke began to fill her apartment.

Mrs. Harriet Tarlow, a tenant located across the court north of the fire, said she noticed smoke coming from the roof and alerted Niles firemen.

Smoke ejectors were set up by the firemen after the fire was struck. It was an unusual type of fire, noted Niles Fire Chief Albert L. Hoelbl, one which originated in what apparently was a safe outlet which was not overloaded.

Prompt action by the tenants in reporting the fire and fast response by the firemen, he said, minimized the damage to the building and the apartments.

The latter school may have a double mobile to provide lunchroom space for those children.

The life safety factor varies from a minimum of 149 students in the Ballard School to a maximum of 216 children at Stevenson School. A capacity of
