Zoning Action delayed on Four Flagg's Bank

The Niles Zoning Board August 27 delayed action on a Special Use variation petitioned by Four Flagg's Bank for construction of a building and drive-up facility in the Four Flagg's Shopping Center at 8199 Golf Rd.

Commr. Ken Cohen moved for a continuation of the case for purpose of legal opinion on banking law requirements after commissioners were advised that rezoning approval is necessary prior to obtaining a state charter. Another 18 months to 2 years would be required for granting of the state charter, said bank officials. Complicating the issue is a recently amended ordinance to the Village code which nullifies a Special Use if not used within 3 months.

Petitioners protested upon learning the rezoning would not be approved Wednesday night. "You can't expect us to spend enormous amounts of money in planning and construction then find we don't have proper zoning," said Leslie Sanford, Chicago attorney for the petitioners.

Approval of the zoning variation, replied Zoning Commissioners would require repositioning every 3 months. "Aside from that," said Commr. Cohen, "how can we project approval of rezoning to 2 years, a rezoning which may not be used, due to changes in the area?"

Cohen admitted it to be a "unique" situation. "It is the first time we (Zoning Board) have been confronted with a situation of this type," he said, noting that in previous cases a charter had already been obtained.

According to Sanford, the proposed bank would be a full-purpose, autonomous inter-community bank, "completely independent with no allegiance to any other institution."

The proposed bank site according to Four Flagg's developer Charles Fiorito would be located north of the Jewel Oso on Golf Rd. with drive-up facilities for 6 tellers. A two level building will have a first floor and lower level.

Zoning commissioners looked critically at the favorable comments offered by the petitioners. "What makes you think the Bank will be such an instant success?" asked Board President Jack Frick, "when Four Flagg's has so many empty stores?"

Developer Fiorito said the Center would be on the way to success by the first of next year, with the expected opening of a Racquet Ball club in 4 to 5 weeks.

The Zoning Board, July 23, denied a special use variation to Unity Savings & Loan of Chicago (requested for Four Flagg's Shopping Center) on the basis of a glut (excessive number) of banking institutions in the Niles area. Unity is expected to appear before the village board in September in an appeal to overrule the Zoning Board denial.

In other business the Zoning Board denied petition by LeRoy W. Rybski for a Special Use variation for a carwash and service station at 7300 Waukegan Rd.

Zoning commissioners concurred in their denial of the proposed carwash for this area in view of the extensive renovations and inconvenience caused to motorists over recent months.

"The State has gone to considerable expense to make this (Milwaukee-Touhy-Waukegan) intersection improved for safety," averred Commr. Ken Cohen.

Projected traffic caused by the carwash would nullify such safety precautions, he said. In view of the 30,000 cars which daily traverse Milwaukee Ave. and of village planning to incorporate beautification of the area triangle, "Milwaukee Ave. is not the proper location for a carwash," he said.

A unique cleaning and drying of cars by 2 blowers had been proposed for the carwash by operator Don Reese who said the building would have a capacity for 100 cars per hour as compared with the 30 per hour by MacClellan's Carwash.

Niles Little League 5 ft. & over All-Stars

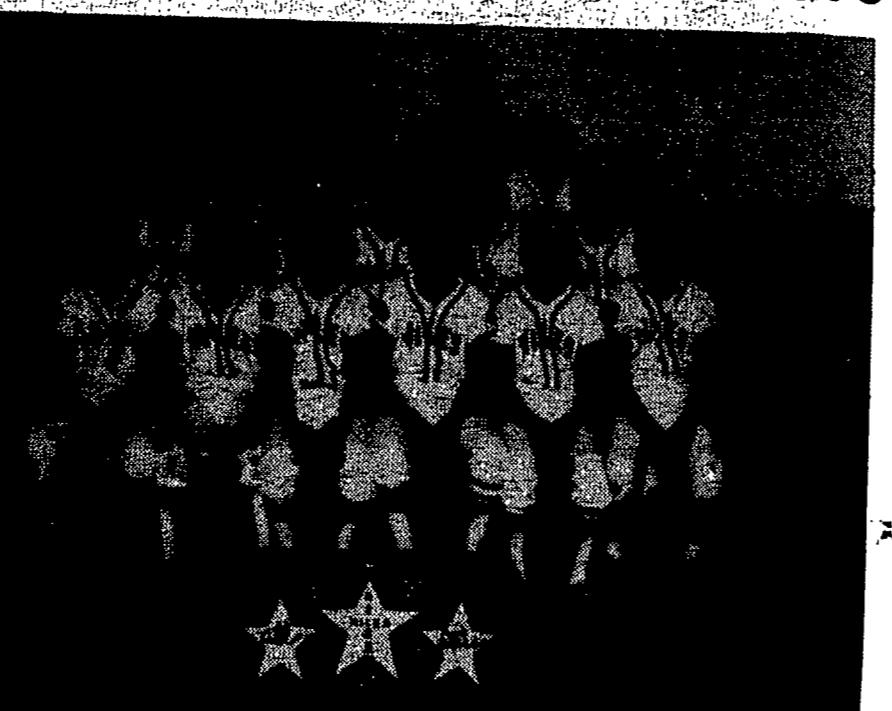

The Niles 5 ft. & over all-star team entered four tournaments this year. The team members are John Allegretti, Jim Berg, Dan Busiel, Joe Calderone, Steve Furmanski, John Gibson, Kevin Goczeski, Steve Hanrahan, Pete Leddy, Jim Les, Jeff Majewski, Bryan Peterson, Ken Sall and Chuck Ugel.

In a game played Aug. 23rd Niles lost to Harwood Hts. 10 to 9. This loss game Niles was 3rd place in the Norwood Park Tourney. Bob Heath pitched 3 innings in this 90 degree plus heat, Joe Marino went 3 innings and John O'Brien pitched in the seventh. Niles was down 6 to 3 after 2 innings, but scored 1 in the 3rd, 2 in the 4th, 2 in the 6th and 1 in the 7th. Steve Romano 1 hit, Chris Piazzesi 2 singles, Tom Ryan a single and a triple, John O'Brien 1 hit, Rich Schumacher 1 hit and Scott Chamness 1 hit.

Defensively Chris Piazzesi made a super catch on a sinking liner, Scott Chamness a tremendous back hand stop and throwing out the runner, Joe Booker tagged a runner out making the turn at 1st on a bad throw from the outfield. A smart delayed steal pulled off by Joe Booker getting in a run down and allowing Scott Chamness to score and both boys safe at home and second. Even though our boys lost Steve Romano, centerfielder, Chris Piazzesi right fielder, Ken Borowski and Rich Schumacher in left Tom Ryan our designated hitter, John O'Brien and Bob Heath at short stop, Joe Marino at 3rd base, Tom Barto behind the plate, Scott Chamness at second base and Joe Booker at first base.

Bill Keener Jr. the Manager of this team worked hard and deserves a lot of credit to bring the team 1st place in the Niles Pony Tourney and 3rd place at Norwood Park. Bill was ably assisted by Todd Peterson, Jim Jasinski and Ron Chamness who coached first base. On a short notice when Todd and Jim returned to College.

Again thanks to Manager and Coaches and of course to the boys of the Niles Baseball League who played their hearts out who represented the Village of Niles in these 2 tournaments, thanks.

bottom of the 7th with Chuck Ugel drawing a walk with the bases loaded. Busiel and Hanrahan, each 2 for 4, led Niles hitters. Pitching again was the name of the game as Joe Calderone and Dan Busiel combined to pitch a 4-hitter as Niles defeated Deerfield 7-3. Allegretti and Hanrahan were each 2 for 3 at the plate. The championship game was one in every sense of the word pitting the Evanston Nationals against Niles. There were many heroes in this game. Jim Les pitched great ball, Bryan Peterson caught a fly ball in deep right field and threw on the button to force the runner going from first and Jeff Majewski made a diving catch in the final inning with men on base for the last out. Big bat for Niles was Joe Calderone's triple with two men on to tie the score in the last inning. Les's double drove in the winning runs. Final score 7-5, Niles over Evanston.

Final stop for Niles was the Skokie tournament where they were defeated in the semi-final game against McNally 9-1. This game was Niles's 2nd of the afternoon. They had defeated Deerfield 5-1 in the first game of the afternoon behind Pete Leddy's 3 hit, 10 strike-out performance but 2 games in a row on a hot, humid afternoon proved just too much for our athletes. Earlier in the tournament, Niles defeated Skokie Boys 16-0 with Busiel, Hanrahan and Kevin Goczeski each going 2 for 3. Niles faced a strong Elmhurst team and put up a good fight before being defeated 9-5. Busiel was 3 for 3 with a home run and a triple and single; Hanrahan, Majewski, and Leddy were also strong hitters.

Norridge Ams NWSBL champs

For the second year the Norridge Ams have become champions of the Northwest Suburban Big League as a result of winning two out of three over the Norridge Nats in a league championship playoff.

The Ams won two games 12 to 1 and 18 to 3 with Kevin Klein and Alan Sanders to the winning pitchers while Kurt Aloisio had pitched for the Nats' 7 to 3 win. Greg Simkowski tripled, Rick Kohler had two doubles, Sanders two doubles and triple, John Meo doubled and had five singles and Klein and John Adanczyk doubled for the Ams. For the Nats Bill Schlae and Alan Bauries homered with Schlae adding a double and three singles and Aloisio and Jack Alden doubled.

There was a bit of irony in Northwest Suburban Big League championship playoff in that a number of boys from both teams had played together on the NWSBL tournament team that Parents who are concerned about the growth and development of their very young children often feel isolated. There are few places they can obtain information and help cope with the challenges and problems children present during the first three years of their lives.

NCJW present check to Orchard Center

Orchard Center for Mental Health is providing services to help these parents with their concerns through its Early Intervention Program. Now in its second year, the program has helped over 30 families with a wide variety of concerns.

When parents suspect their baby is "slow" or not quite as responsive as other children they want one of two things: reassurance that everything is really all right or identification of the problem and prompt help for it.

Prompt and appropriate information or help at the earliest possible age may prevent small problems from becoming more serious at a later stage. "This last year we have dealt with several children whose parents were concerned about their development and growth, and we were able to assure them that their children were all right," reports Mr. C. G. McAndrews, the program coordinator. "We also worked with several children whose language and motor development were somewhat delayed. We showed their parents how to stimulate their children's development, and now they no longer need our help. We graduated them into the neighborhood and

The NCJW has given a generous grant to the Center for several years, and the members continue to take an interest in its Early Intervention Program which provides therapy for infants and children up to three years of age. Any parents who are concerned about the growth and development of their very young children may obtain information about this program by calling Orchard Center at 967-7300. Mr. Greg McAndrews is the program's coordinator.

we feel that these children will live normal lives."

Parents are more often concerned with how to cope with a new person in the house, how to get all the housework done. Mr.

McAndrews stated. Other concerns have been about an infant or child who is ill frequently, doesn't eat or sleep as well as he should, or is nervous and restless. Often having twins or adopting babies are also concerns.

Children with identified handicaps are helped to maximize their potential through their services of the Early Intervention Program.

Services include activities for parents and children. Concerned parents can obtain specific information by calling Orchard Center at 967-7300.

The Evanston-Niles Section of the National Council of Jewish Women has awarded Orchard Center a grant to help it continue this program for another year. This is the second year the National Council has supported the program. Additional support for the program comes from the Niles Township Administration.

Niles Family Service Thought For The Week

By Larry F. Benetsky, ACSW

How To Get Through The Day

Just for today I will live through the next 12 hours and not tackle my whole life problem at once.

Just for today I will adjust myself to what is, and not try to adjust everything to my own desires.

Just for today I will be agreeable. I will look my best, speak low, and be courteous and considerate.

Just for today I will not find fault with friend, relative, or colleague. I will not try to change or improve anyone but myself.

Just for today I will have a program. I might not follow it exactly, but I will have it. I will save myself from two pests—hurry and indecision.

Just for today I will exercise my soul in three ways. I will do a good turn and keep it a secret. If anyone finds out, it won't count.

Just for today I will do two things I don't want to do, just for exercise.

Just for today I will not be afraid. Especially will I not be afraid to enjoy what is beautiful and to believe that as I give to the world, so the world will give to me.

Reverend John P. Jewell Jr. of St. Luke's United Church of Christ in Morton Grove received his Doctor of Ministry degree this summer from San Francisco Seminary in San Anselmo, California.

Dr. Jewell did a three year research project in the Chicago area for his dissertation entitled: "The Meaning of Renewal for the Local Church."

The study focused on five churches in the Chicago Metropolitan Area which were selected by over two hundred clergy as churches which had discovered renewal. The dissertation then pulled those principles of renewal from the case study churches which could be applied in any local church.

Dr. Jewell received his undergraduate degree from William Jewell College in Liberty, Missouri and his seminary degree at St. John Lutheran family movies

St. John Lutheran Church in Niles has run a series of family movies this summer for the church and the community. The response was tremendous as between 60 and 90 people came to sit in the out-of-doors with refreshments to enjoy the films.

The final one of the year is a special one. The story is old, but the perspective is up-dated and brought into sharp focus by the film THE GOSPEL ROAD to be shown at the church on Sunday Evening, Sept. 7th, at 7:45 Milwaukee. The showing will begin at 8:00 p.m.

THE GOSPEL ROAD, distributed by World Wide Pictures, was conceived and produced by Johnny Cash and his wife, June Carter Cash, whose desire was to tell the story of Jesus Christ in a realistic and meaningful way.

The film is unique blend of scripture-based narrative, an abundant supply of specially written songs, and a series of in-depth character portrayals, with Israel itself as the mixing bowl.

You are there, walking beside the Jordan and the Sea of Galilee; you are there, seeing Him in many human situations that establish a practical and personal rapport with every viewer.

You are there, being introduced to the disciples, and gaining insights into their varied personalities. You are there, experiencing the highly charged emotional impact of the trial before Pilate, and becoming so personally involved that you feel sympathetic pain when Robert Elfstrom, in an outstanding portrayal of Christ, suffers the physical attack that precedes the Crucifixion.

Adding to the effectiveness of THE GOSPEL ROAD in its endeavor to convey reality for this day are: the fascinating treatment of the Crucifixion, making this tragedy an event of significance that reaches from its own time across the years to take on meaning for all men of all ages; and the songs and background music of Johnny Cash and other outstanding musicians, whose contemporary style is not out of keeping with the story....a story that reveals that His darkest day has become our brightest.

If you would like to enjoy a good Christian family film, plan on coming over. It's free, fun, and inspirational--for the family.

INTRODUCING A COIN PHONE YOU CAN USE WHEN YOU DON'T HAVE ANY COIN.

Have you ever tried to make a call from a coin phone and not had the right change? Or deposited your money only to find the phone wasn't working?

You won't have these problems with Dial Tone First service now being introduced at coin phones in Morton Grove.

Because Dial Tone First means just what it says.

When you pick up the receiver, you get a dial tone first--before you deposit your dime or nickels. And that means two things:

- When you hear the dial tone, you know the phone is working. Then you can deposit your money and make your call.

- If you don't have change, you can dial the Operator, who will place a local call for you. The operator will dial the number and make the call "collect." Or you can arrange to charge the call to your home phone or credit card. (The rate for the call will be higher, however, because the call was placed for you.)

The Operator will also dial emergency calls to the police or fire department for you--without charge. And you can call Directory Assistance and Repair Service without a dime.

With Dial Tone First you still place your Long Distance calls as usual. But now, you won't need a dime to reach the Operator.

Look for the Dial Tone First coin phones now being introduced in Morton Grove.

You can identify them by the blue and white instruction card.

Dial Tone First. Coins will never stand between you and an important phone call again.

Registration will continue until October 2, on Monday through Friday from 11:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. at any of the following local high schools: Maine East, Dempster and Potter, Park Ridge; Maine West, Wolf and Oakton, Des Plaines; Maine South, 1111 S. Dee Road, Park Ridge; Niles North, 9800 Lawler, Skokie; and Niles West, Oakton at Edens Expressway, Skokie.

Evening registration will be available from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. according to the following schedule: September 15 at Maine South; September 16 at Maine East; September 17 at Maine West and Niles North; September 16 and 18 at Niles West.

The project will establish consensus goals and objectives for the high school that reflect the needs and desires of Maine East students, the community, and the faculty. The staff will study these goals and objectives in-service programs and also departmental workshops; and they will become the criteria by which the curriculum and total high school program is developed.

For further information about classes or registration procedures, call MONACEP, 967-5821.

The project was proposed by Dr. Lynn P. Dieter, Maine East

Maine East seeks residents' opinion on school objectives

Letters have been sent out this summer to about 1,200 persons in the Maine East attendance area requesting participation in a unique project to redefine goals and objectives of the high school. A Title III, ESEA, mini-grant in the amount of $6,643 has been made available by the federal government through the State of Illinois for the one-year project.

The project will establish consensus goals and objectives for the high school that reflect the needs and desires of Maine East students, the community, and the faculty. The staff will study these goals and objectives in-service programs and also departmental workshops; and they will become the criteria by which the curriculum and total high school program is developed.

A questionnaire method - the Delphi technique - will be used to develop group consensus on given issues. Beginning in September, a series of three questionnaires will be sent to each participant. The letter explains, that, because each group represents a potentially different viewpoint, each response is vital to the formation of the consensus.

The first questionnaire will ask for a list of opinions involving judgment on a given issue. The second will include a copy of the list of opinions, with participants asked to rank each item by a criterion. The third questionnaire will include the list of opinions and the ratings, and will indicate the consensus, if any. Each participant, at that point, will be given the opportunity to revise his opinions or to specify his reasons for remaining outside the consensus.

The Delphi Technique combines all the advantages of the discussion method by allowing many diverse groups involved with secondary education at the local school level to participate with feedback, so that all groups have input into the generation and ranking of the school's goals and objectives.

He brings to his students and staff an exceedingly strong background of information in Safety and Driver Education, and has been instrumental in the development of the school's superior programs in these areas.

He was among the first to recognize the value of the Driver Simulator as an instructional tool, and it was largely through his efforts and leadership that one was added to the Maine East program in 1968. These educators are now in competition for one of the five national awards given by the program. Each national winner will receive a $500 unrestricted grant and an award certificate commemorating their selection.

was still the girl for the fall (which seldom happened) you'd stroll away toward home, often taking 2 hours to make the 20 minute walk. We had a park to walk thru, a lagoon to wander down to, and it was warm, and the girl of spring still looked pretty good, and it was the first day of school.

The first day of school meant a new beginning. Every first dayer was pledged to getting good grades, doing all his homework...it was a new beginning. And after school, first dayers began throwing around a football. It was hot and sweaty in those long corduroys, but you ran...it was a thrill and you caught and you played the first game of the new year.

The first day saw you dressed in those white underwear-like gym suits, and if it was your first year and you hadn't been in a gym suit before you stood around self-consciously, joined in laughing at the fat guys, and the skinny guys. The athletes seemed more noble, grabbing the ball...baseball, softball, volleyball or basketball, and did their thing with incredible ease.

The first day before the bell rang we'd all get to school early. While hundreds of first dayers milled about someone would drop a pencil, and contagiously we yelled and hooted at the pencil on the ground. Someone hooped and hollered, someone else danced Apache-style around the yellow stick, and everyone laughed because it was senseless and fun and everyone was together again.

The first day after World War II was a bit different. Freshmen came in all sizes and forms. The green 17 year olds were little classmate with 30 year old fathers. The white bucks and the cashmere sweaters sat next to the GI faded khakis and the washed out field jackets. Leather jackets with worn-out Disney figures and squadron numbers painted across the back sat next to burr-headed high school jocks who had loads of pretty girls surrounding them in the beer hall. First day beer drinkers included the liberated youngsters, and their first beers which could be drank out in the open, and the bulky football players from Gary, who must have been majoring in brew-meistering, it's doubtful they saw the inside of any classroom except the gymnasium during the entire semester.

The first day in school also meant taking the kindergartner to her class. And when you came home from work and heard she wouldn't stay in school you just laughed and told her mother to try again tomorrow. When she came home with mother for the second day father took over and stayed with her the third day. You stayed in the room, gradually walked out the door, while those terribly sad blue eyes watched you, ever-fearful she'd never see you again. Outside the door, you peered in, making sure she could see you, and then after awhile you slipped outside, waited awhile, and then slowly walked home just a little bit sadder.

The first day meant riding your bike to school, and riding to a new job after school. You were only 14, but it was much older than 13, and you were in high school, and you had a job...which you knew made you older.

The first day meant you went up to the gym after school and watched the varsity taking shots long before the practice season started. You just watched, because they were the older guys, and they were the stars of the team, and the familiarity of the past summer on the playground court was soon forgotten when they re-joined their teammates. You'd vow when you were in their gym shoes you wouldn't forget the younger kids just starting out, but they did, and you did, some three years later.

The first day you found one guy who drove a car to school and he was a man to know. And the teachers said to stay out of the car during school hours, and some didn't, and the policeman dragged them before the principal, who called for their folks; who were told their daughters' good names had been jeopardized, just by sitting in the car, and wrestling away some harmless energy.

The first days meant after-school notebook shopping, and scissors and paste-buying, those stickers for the notebook paper rings. And first day meant a quick game of pool down the block, juke-box playing, and lots of talk about the summer of '35 or '38 or '42 or '47.

Paraphrasing that old Frank Sinatra song, "It was a very good first day." They were nice to have. And we hope today's first dayers will enjoy them every bit as much.

Mikva: FAA may have to be abolished

Congressman Abner J. Mikva (D-10th) warned in a major address on the House floor that the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) may have to be abolished if it continues to ineffectively control airport noise pollution.

Mikva, who has introduced legislation that would cause federal regulatory agencies to "self-destruct" unless they could justify their continued existence, made his remarks while the House considered a two-year extension of the Noise Control Act of 1972.

The Act authorizes the FAA to form regulations to control airport noise and requires the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) to undertake studies on the best ways to control airport noise.

"Although I have supported and continue to support the Noise Control Act, I must take note of the dismal record of the EPA and FAA to date," Mikva said. "We have had a few studies, fewer recommendations and almost no definitive action."

"If substantial and quick-improvements are not made by both the EPA and especially the FAA, which currently has primary jurisdiction to regulate airplane and airport noise, perhaps we should abolish the FAA and initiate alternative procedures," he said.

Mikva has already introduced legislation which would provide one alternative—Community Airport Noise Impact Boards, which would consist of representatives from the communities that surround airports. The board would have the power to order airports and airlines to implement safe, economically feasible procedures to reduce noise pollution.

"We consider your contribution a vote of confidence in our organization," Mrs. Weltman commented. "This is, and has always been, of extreme significance to our board and to our staff."

In accepting the $500 gift, Center President Mrs. Evelyn Weltman expressed appreciation on behalf of the not-for-profit health screening agency.

over and put in phones wherever you want them.

Then, next time you get settled down and the phone rings, you won't even have to lose your place in your book to answer it.

CENTRAL TELEPHONE COMPANY

We'll put you in closer touch.

Seems like you just get settled down when the phone rings. In another room.

The last time that happened, you probably mumbled something about needing more phones around the house.

Then forgot about it until it happened again.

Fortunately, the simple little luxury of an extension phone is easy to come by.

The cost? Pennies a day.

Just call our Business Office and we'll make a date to come
