But Who's to be the Governing Authority?
Committee sets need for Youth Center

(By Alice M. Bobala)
An ad-hoc committee appointed by Mayor Nicholas Blase to research problems at the Youth Center came up with a positive decision during their second meeting March 9, of determining that a need exists for a Youth Center in Niles.

The committee of 9 were charged by the Niles Mayor Feb. 10 to make a 3 month independent study of the Teen program and return to the Board with recommendations of whether the program "could" or "should" be improved.

The Youth Center at 8060 Oakton was closed Jan. 20 due to damages sustained when several teens kicked through an internal wall within the building. Damages totaling $1,000 have occurred repeatedly at the Center since the Trident Community Building opened on November 24, 1974.

Trustees also questioned further finding of youth activities due to decreased teen attendance. The committee, chaired by Irene Montwill, a Niles resident and personnel director at Teletype company, includes, Village Mgr. Ken Scheel; Trustee Carol Panek; Larry Renetzky, director of Niles Family Service; Don Timm, director of the Leaning Tower YMCA; Millie Jones, pres.

One man injured in double car collisions

The driver of one of two cars struck Feb. 29 in separate accidents at Dempster st. and Harlem ave. by a third motorist was taken to Lutheran General Hospital with injuries.

Hospitalized with head injuries was Mark Youngman, 18, of 6846 Lincoln ave., Lincolnwood.

Police said that Youngman, eastbound on Dempster and with a green light at Harlem ave., was allegedly struck with a car driven by Ralph Nagrodess, 19, of 7133 Keeler, Lincolnwood, northbound on Harlem ave.

Following the accident said police, Nagrodess pulled into the gas station at 7145 Dempster, driving thru the station to exit on Harlem ave.

Upon leaving the station according to police records, he allegedly struck a '73 Chevrolet driven by Richard J. Santino, 20, of 4942 Albany, Chicago, northbound on Harlem. Apparently making no attempt to stop, the Nagrodess car crossed over the median line and left the area southbound on Harlem ave.

Alerted by radio dispatch from Niles, Morton Grove Police Officer Pantalea apprehended the fleeing motorist at Shermer and Point dr. Investigation of the stopped car revealed fresh damage to the front of the auto. Paint found on the front of the vehicle was allegedly the same as the cars involved in the accident.

Nagrodess was taken into custody at the Niles police station and charged with leaving the scene of an accident, disobeying a red light, failure to yield and leaving the scene of an accident.

Morton Grove Library Happenings

A review of the book Valley Forge by Mackinlay Kantor will be given by Barbara Todd at the Morton Grove Library on Monday, March 15, at 7:30 p.m.

This best-selling novel presents the story of that terrible winter of 1777-78, as seen thru the eyes of the soldiers who endured it with their leader, George Washington. The flavor and pulse of the American Revolution is felt and the human beings who participated in it are drawn with authentic detail. This is a fine book with which to mark our Bicentennial celebration.

An array of dramatic pictures fills the large display case in the lobby of the Library where the Morton Grove Fire Dept. has an exhibit of facts and events in the history of our fire Dept. The exhibit presents a survey of the services the Fire Dept. performs for the community and shows some of the awards the Dept. has received. Early pictures of the original fire station and its men in 1905 are most interesting, as are some action pictures of a few bad fires in Morton Grove.

Lightning strikes Niles Administration Building

(By Alice M. Bobula)

Lightning struck the Niles Administration Building Tuesday morning, March 2 scattering stone and epoxy across the parking lot almost to Milwaukee Ave.

No one was reported injured. Damages were estimated at $250 to $300 according to Village Manager Ken Scheel.

Four village officials already within the city said they actually heard and felt the lightning strike shortly after 8 a.m.

"The building actually shook," said Housing Director Ben Mankowsky who had been standing near the middle area of the building with Building Director Joe Salerno, Village Engineer Robert Kahler and Building Inspector George Braun.

The men were near the reception desk looking out through the windows at the darkened skies when a huge V-A-R-O-O-M split the sky and lightning struck the pylon at the southwest corner of the building.

Fortunately, Mankowsky said, no one was walking across the parking lot at the time. Stone and epoxy from the pylon were hurled 30 feet westward, across the parking lot toward Milwaukee Ave.

Several women employees had been sitting in their cars outside the Administration Building and were waiting for the rains to subside, said Mankowsky. The downpour prevented their view of the lightning when it struck.

Scheel described damages to the building as "being minimal with no structural damage...the area near the top of the pylon looks as though someone threw a cannonball at it." He had been enroute to the village building, he said, arriving after the incident occurred.

Admitting it was the first time he had ever been really frightened, Mankowsky said, "I talked to the Man Upstairs, but he told me to call back in about 25 years."

Gymnastics meet participant

Sue Nicewick of Niles, a freshman at Northern Illinois University, scored third in Floor Exercise in the intermediate level in the recent State Gymnastic Meet of the Illinois Assoc. of Inter-collegiate Athletics for Women. Her Northern Illinois gymnastic team scored second in overall points in the meet.

Sue also had the honor of being elected "Senator" from Lincoln Residence Hall to the student Council where she will be serving on the Recreation Committee of the University. Sue was formerly a student at Maine East High School and was a member of the gymnastic team there. Sue attributes much of her proficiency in gymnastics to her training in Maine East's excellent gymnastic program under coach Betty Axelsson.

In spite of a valiant effort by Jerry Jones, the Oakton Raiders lost their bid for a berth in the NJCAA state basketball tournament Friday afternoon, losing to Mayfair City College 90-75.

The Mayfair cagers dominated the game, both offensively and defensively. Roy Coulter, the 6'2" sophomore from Chicago, paced the Mayfair Falcons with 23 points.

The North Division of the Chicago Metropolitan High School Hockey League has announced its yearly All Star team of 22 boys. Another 8 boys were given honorable mention. Deerfield has 4 boys named, Evanston 5, Glenbrook North 2, Lake Forest 2, Loyola Academy 1, New Trier East 3, New Trier West 2, and Notre Dame has 3 and one honorable mention. Notre Dame players honored are goaler Matt Berrafato, centre Don Hitzel, right wing Tony Salemi, and centre Mike Schwass. Head Coach Jim Meyer from ND was one of 3 coaches named.

Berrafato, a senior from Morton Grove, was selected for the third consecutive year. This is an honor given to only two athletes this year. Matt was also selected as the outstanding goaltender in the Loyola Tournament at Thanksgiving. Salemi, the volatile right wing from Chicago, is also a senior. Tony ranks second on ND's career scoring list and was an All Tournament selection at the Niles Prep Holiday Tournament held after Christmas. Schwass, the injured senior from Des Plaines, was given honorable mention by the league coaches. Hitzel, a junior from Norridge, was named for the second straight year. He owns almost every offensive record in ND's book. Like Salemi he was also an All Tourney selection at the Christmas Niles' Tournament. Meyer, dean of coaches in the North Division, was honored by a vote of fellow coaches. Niles Family Service

(by Jay S. Karant, ACSW, Assistant Director)
WHAT PSYCHOTHERAPY IS NOT

As Assistant Director of Niles Family Service, one part of my job is to handle intake, the process of responding to calls requesting and inquiring about our counseling service. Many people express their reluctance in calling, some make an appointment and decide not to come in, and still others come for one or two sessions and drop out. Why does this occur? Have the problems and anxieties that motivated them to call dissipated? From all indications and feedback to me, the answer is generally no. The sense I make out of this "drop-out" rate, which occurs at all counseling services and clinics similar to ours, is that many people are not clear on what the therapy and counseling process is. I hope in writing this article to clarify issues and dispel prevailing myths.

The way I would like to begin is to describe what therapy or counseling (I will be using these terms interchangeably) is not, as a means of learning what it is. It does not consist of advice giving. The role of the therapist is not to tell you how to run your life. If you only want advice, you can talk to a friend or write to Ann Landers or Dear Abby. It would be presumptuous of me to think I know what is best for you. You are a unique person with your own unique experiences which are different than mine. From your uniqueness, you can determine what is best for you. When I am asked for my opinion, I can only share what I might do in your circumstances and why. As a Social Worker, I belong to one of the "helping professions". However, I do not believe that doing for you what you can do for yourself is helpful. The work of therapy is to find out how, and perhaps why, you are preventing yourself from effectively dealing with your problem. Hopefully, a climate of trust can be created in the counseling sessions in which a crisis can be resolved, change can begin to take place, and personal growth can occur. If I solve the problem for you, somehow I will have taken the responsibility for solving your problem away from you and you will have nothing to show for it. I would be supporting the unhealthy notion that you are too inadequate to find your own solution. No learning will have taken place. The lyrics of the problem will then change over the months, but the melody lingers on and on.

The purpose of counseling is not to assign blame to the bad wife, the insensitive husband, the defiant teenager, or to the misbehaving child. It becomes instead a process of owning responsibility for your own feelings and behavior. With increased insight and self-awareness, you can then begin to change yourself. Counseling is not, finally, a one way process, in which you passively receive a prescription that will cure your ills. Successful therapy comes about with your involvement and your readiness to take risks in exploring areas that may be painful and unfamiliar. Therapy is, at best, a learning experience for all involved. You might learn more about yourself, and those close to you. You might learn a different way of expressing your feelings and solving your problems, and I will learn more about myself from participating in this process with you.

If you have individual, marital or family problems, or want to enhance your personal, marital or family growth, call Niles Family Service, 692-3396, or come in to 8060 Oakton St., Niles.

be viewed at the 14th Annual Art Fair to be held on April 24th and 25th at the Indoor Mall of the Candlelight Courte, Southwest Corner of Milwaukee and Oakton Street, from 10:00 a.m. until dusk.

The above member, John Banas, who has lived in Niles for the past 52 years was raised in St. Hedwig's Orphanage in Niles and still resides in the Village. He has combined the hobby of carving and painting on styrofoam. His carvings, as shown above, are of landscapes, Chicago skyline and buildings and take on an unusual 3-D art form originated by John Banas.

The process for 3-D art is styro, as he has named his work, is fairly simple. The styrofoam is carved (with Exacto blades), glued and painted (with Polymer acrylic colors), mounted on overlays to give the 3-dimensional effect. This in turn is glued on a stretched canvas. The frames are also carved to match the settings.

A carving of the Chicago skyline, the John Hancock and Sears buildings were on display at the Northwest Federal Savings in Des Plaines recently. John will have his work on display at the Niles Art Fair in April. He is carving a special Bicentennial picture for the Niles Days Bicentennial Fair this summer.

LETTERS to EDITOR

Concerned parent urges retention of professional nurses

Dear Dr. Gogo: I am writing to you as a concerned parent - concerned over the health and safety of our school children. And, I am sure I do not stand alone in my feelings in this matter.

At the Board Meeting on February 17, 1976, a decision was made to eliminate the professional nurses at our schools.

Request is herewith made for Exercise your right to vote

Dear Editor: The guns roared and the cannons shouted and some Americans fell in the defense of our basic freedoms. All too sad that so many Americans died just for the right to vote. It is sad today because so many of you won't find the time to vote on March 16.

There are others who would like to vote but they will not have the opportunity. The senior citizens saw Dan Walker veto their tax relief last year and would like to vote. However, many are not physically able. The school kids whose programs have been abolished because Dan Walker reduced state aid to local schools would like to vote. However, they aren't old enough. The mentally ill forced out of a Dan Walker closed state institution and living in a half way-house would like to vote. However, they now live in high crime rate areas and it isn't safe to go out even to vote. The handicapped that now live with reduced state services would like to vote. Unfortunately, they may not be physically up to it. Perhaps, you would like to vote in the Democratic Primary for some of these people. Perhaps, you can take their places and vote for Mike Howlett for Governor. I pray to God that some of you do just that.

Sincerely, Thomas Flynn, Democratic Delegate Candidate

Thank District 67 residents for referendum defeat

Dear Editor: We wish to thank the citizens of District 67 for their support in defeating the late unlamented school tax referendum. It is hoped that the school board and administration have received the message loud and clear; and that we can all work together now and end the divisiveness that has polarized the community and turned neighbor against neighbor.

To implement our program, we will run a slate of three candidates in the school board election to be held April 10. These candidates will be pledged to improve the quality of education in District 67 and to vote against any tax increase referendums in the foreseeable future. We are looking forward to your continued support.

We also wish to thank the newspapers for their fairness in printing both sides of the issue, thus allowing an informed electorate to express their opinions at the polls.

Harold G. Cohen, Parents' Committee for Better Education

you and the Board Members to Reconsider this decision to eliminate the professional nurses at our schools.

WHO, that is qualified, will replace them?

I fully realize that school enrollment has dropped and that there is a monetary problem. But, I also very strongly feel that the health and safety of the children are of the utmost importance. Accidents and illness continue no matter what the size of enrollment. Who knows better than a professional nurse (or doctor?) how to handle, treat, judge or evaluate these situations, no matter how few or trivial they may be or seem to be.

Surely, in my opinion, a professional nursing staff at our schools is by far more important than carpeting.

Further, it has been my personal experience since our first son began Nelson 7 years ago to have need of the school nurse's aid and opinions. Her availability and help was and still is of great value to me.

Sincerely, Mrs. Martin (Phyllis) Melton, 7841 Churchill, Morton Grove

Teen dislikes being "categorized"

Dear Mr. Besser, This is in response to Mr. Ed Hanson's column of March 4.

I realize that Niles is basically a conservative, middle-class community; and that local newspapers usually reflect the town's feelings, but when Mr. Hanson refers to young people as looking like "fugitives from a ragbag" and worse than "bums on skid row", I think he has gone too far. While I'll admit that some teenagers are not particularly well kept, to imply that all young people are pigs who "cram their mouths with popcorn", or are "slopping it down with pop", is wrong. Very much wrong.

How many people do you actually see like that? Sure one or two, but most teenagers are conscious of how they look and act. Go through a school like Maine East or Notre Dame, and try to find people with long "stringy, unwashed hair", you would find few students who dress like that.

Maybe Mr. Hanson is right. All young people should be locked up somewhere until they turn 25 or so. Or maybe we could put all the little children in camps, that way they could be trained into being little Cary Grants.

I am 17 years old, go to Maine East, and resent being categorized by someone who is out of touch with reality.

Sincerely, Victor Shankapolous, Emphysema program

Emphysema and Chronic Bronchitis is the topic of a public program at 8 p.m., Thursday, March 18, in the chapel auditorium of Lutheran General Hospital, Park Ridge.

G. Stephen Scholly, M.D., will be the speaker. He will discuss the diagnosis, treatment and research of emphysema and bronchitis.

Grateful for theatre that caters to kids

Dear Editor: I am neither a sex and violence freak, or a Walt Disney lover. I, too, like most of the films named, and many more in that category, Mr. Berger.

But I do want the Lawrencewood Theater to continue its present trend. My children and all their friends have thoroughly enjoyed all these shows. Children don't always want to go to show on Saturday afternoons, when it's much nicer to be outside playing.

The Morton Grove Theater is almost completely opposite with their tedious supply of X-rated junk.

Why don't you try Golf Mill Theater. There is always a good variety there - and that is the "spice of life".

With 3 theaters in the area, it's great to have one that caters to the kids.

Thank you, Margaret Re, 7112 Wright Terrace Niles

Flynn urges total commitment to Democratic principles

Tom Flynn, Delegate Candidate for the Democratic Convention, today called for a national commitment to Democratic Principles. He said that emerging nations founded upon Democracy must be supported by the United States. Flynn pointed to the numerous African countries trying to develop democracies. He said we must remember that communism means a loss of freedom and democracy means freedom.

Flynn said, "Men and women everywhere want to be free. The International Communist movement is opposed to individual freedom wherever it comes to the forefront. We cannot forget that communism is waging a total economic and secondary military war against our country. We cannot accept the view point of a small minority of ultra liberal politicians that communism wants to coexist with us."

"I urge you to remember that the next President will be faced with a growing communistic movement throughout the world. He must be strong and we American people must have the strength it will take to survive. We must not surrender our freedom for a temporary material life. The next four to ten years will determine if we will remain a free people. I urge you to vote for delegates to the Democratic Convention who will put the country first and their own interests second. I promise you to vote for a man who feels as I do. I am pledged to Adlai Stevenson and believe that he is such a man."

Flynn ended his remarks by saying he was number forty on the Democratic ballot and that a vote for him will support a strong America.

Democratic gubernatorial candidate Michael Howlett and Circuit Court Clerk Morgan Finley will be among the featured speakers of the Niles Township Democratic organization Thursday evening (March 11) at 8 p.m. at Oakton Center, 4701 Oakton, Skokie.

"This is our final meeting before the March 16 primary election and we consider it extremely significant that we have been able to expect our state and county ticket," Niles Township committeeman Calvin Sutker said. Admission is free.

Judicial candidates check campaign photos

"Not bad campaign shots," say four of nine suburban Republican-endorsed judicial candidates for Circuit Court—(left to right) Edward C. Hofert (Mount Prospect), Themis (Ted) N. Anastos (Morton Grove), Robert L. Sklodowski (Park Ridge) and State Rep. Brian B. Duff (Wilmette)—as they finalize plans for their election campaign.

They are running in the primary election, Tuesday, March 16 with John A. Nordberg (Golf), Donald E. Joyce (River Forest), Richard J. Petrarca (Flossmoor), State Rep. Romie J. Palmer (Blue Island) and George M. Marovich (South Holland).

Grazian endorsed by Evanston GOP Women

Leonard R. Grazian, running for judge of the Cook county circuit court from the suburbs, received another endorsement Feb. 26—this time from the 900-member Womens-Republican Club of Evanston.

Grazian, a 25-year practicing attorney and president of the Maine Township high school board, previously was endorsed by both the Maine and Niles Township Regular Republican Organizations, the ICP, Twelfth District Conservative Caucus and received 55 per cent of the vote of the Evanston Township Regular Republican Organization.

Feichter urges Humphrey support

Patton Feichter, Humphrey Delegate, today asked for voters to support Hubert Humphrey for President. Feichter said each primary produces a winner of the week but not a Democratic winner for November. He said that only Senator Humphrey can and will unite the Party in victory in November.

Feichter said, "I have the greatest confidence that Hubert Humphrey is the most qualified Democrat to serve as our next President. He has served the nation with distinction for over twenty years. He has the experience and the determination. I believe that he will restore our tarnished image in foreign lands, the poor lot of the working man and woman. I believe that he will listen to the cries of the disadvantaged in America. We must believe in our great nation and our democratic principles. Hubert Humphrey is the man to lead us. I urge you to vote for him by voting for his 10th Congressional District Delegates."

Marks announces Howlett endorsement

Alvin Marks, Democratic Candidate for State Representative, 4th District, today endorsed Michael Howlett as the Democratic nominee for Governor of the State of Illinois.

There are four basic reasons that Marks endorsed Howlett. First, Howlett is the only Democrat that will be able to win in November and to help carry the rest of the Democratic slate with him to victory. Second, he will be able to unite all political factions, all Democrats, the Republicans and Independents to begin moving this State forward once again. Third, he was able to cut his budget by ten million dollars while everyone else was raising theirs and fourth, he knows and understands the financial crisis we face in the State of Illinois.

"I am proud to endorse Howlett and while I am personally not involved in a primary election contest, I will be going through the district seeking support on behalf of Mike Howlett," stated Marks.

Voter Registration

An estimated 1,400 persons used the facilities of the Maine Township clerk's office for voter registration purposes last year. Maine Township Clerk Philip Raffe announced today.

Raffe said that approximately 90 of those persons registered on the three Fridays and Saturdays following Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's Day, times when most other registration offices were not available to citizens.

Raffe also said that nearly 310 persons registered during the month of January 1976, prior to the close of registration on Jan. 30. Raffe said he interpreted the large number as an indication of interest in the primary election to be held March 16.

Raffe added that although the 1,400 figure was substantial, he did not believe it was a record, but he pointed out that the large number indicated the township was providing a valuable service to its residents.

activities, and was a delegate to both the 1972 Democratic National Convention and the 1974 Democratic National Conference. Dick Troy lives in Chicago with his wife and six children.

Ms. Marzullo has been involved and labored relentlessly for passage of S.B. 3 Pension Reform Bill. She is married to Sam Marzullo, a member of the IBEW, Local #134 for 29 years.

Maine GOP endorses Pullen

Miss Pullen shares the endorsement with Rep. Eugene F. Schlickman (R - 4th-Arlington Hts.), the district's lone Republican incumbent to seek re-election.

Penny Pullen, 28, of Park Ridge, is a candidate for nomination in the March 16 primary to the seat now held by former Senator John W. "Bill" Carroll (R - 4th-Park Ridge), who was appointed a year ago to fill the unexpired term of the late Rep. Robert S. Juckett, also of Park Ridge. Rep. Carroll will not seek election to the post.

Jaffe endorsed by Teachers Union

Rep. Aaron Jaffe of Legislative District 4 has been endorsed by the Chicago Teachers Union for nomination as a candidate for Representative in the March 16 Democratic Primary.

Rep. Jaffe's endorsement by the 28,000 member CTU followed an extensive study of his record on educational matters in previous sessions of the legislature.

"We feel that Rep. Jaffe understands the importance of excellent public schools to our state and that he will continue to support education in the next session of the General Assembly," said Chicago Teachers Union President Robert Healey.

"We must have good schools, they are the cornerstone of our society," Healey said, "and we know, from his record that Rep. Jaffe can be counted on."

Morton Grove student attends classroom

Marcia Rosen of Morton Grove visited the office of Congressman Abner J. Mikva while Rosen was one of 350 high school students attending the Presidential Classroom in Washington Feb. 7 to 14.

The Presidential Classroom program enables young people from throughout the United States to observe first-hand various aspects of the federal government, especially the legislative branch.

"This type of personal contact with the workings of federal government gives the students a special insight unattainable from reading civics books," Mikva said. "I am pleased that so many of my Tenth District constituents attend the classroom sessions each year."

Rosen joined Sandy Horwitz and Dick Meltzer Congressional aides on Mikva's Washington staff who explained how a Congressional office operates.

Rosen, 18, lives at 7701 Maple St., Morton Grove, and is a senior at Maine East High School.

The Presidential Classroom for Young Americans is a nonprofit, nonpartisan organization that was started during the Johnson Administration. The organization contacts high schools about having students participate in the program. Once a school selects a student, he or she is automatically accepted to attend.

The students are responsible for travel and living expenses while they are participating in the program. For information, write to A Presidential Classroom for Young Americans, P.O. Box 19084, Washington, D.C. 20036.

Flynn urges support of Adlai Stevenson

Tom Flynn, Democratic Candidate for Delegate, today said that there remained only a few viable candidates for the Democratic Presidential nomination. He said that Senator Adlai Stevenson was among those viable candidates. Flynn is pledged to Senator Stevenson. He said that as each Eastern primary election is held the field narrows slightly. Flynn called upon the voters to seriously consider the candidacy of Adlai Stevenson.

Flynn said, "Throughout the United States two names keep coming up as Presidential hopefuls and neither is on the ballot.

They are Senators Stevenson and Humphrey. Personally, I feel that Stevenson is the better man but he is equally qualified to serve as Vice President. I believe that we should elect Stevenson Delegates in the 10th Congressional District to give him the base for Vice President. It is a fact that the man with largest following outside of Presidential Candidates is usually picked to run for Vice President. Adlai Stevenson is that kind of man.

I will support Stevenson for President of Vice President. He is the one man who can give geographic, social and political balance to our ticket for either Office. I urge you to support Adlai Stevenson of Illinois by voting for his Delegates in the 10th Congressional District. We need a man like him as President or Vice President. Only you can make this a reality. Vote for Senator Adlai Stevenson of Illinois, on March 16th. If you don't, it is a distinct possibility that you will be voting for George Wallace for President and Dan Walker for Vice President next November."

Bergquist states position on gun control

Republican candidate for State Representative from the 4th District Roy H. Bergquist stated today that he favors mandatory jail sentences for persons convicted of using firearms in the commission of a crime, and will work to introduce such legislation when he is elected.

Bergquist said the increasing use of guns, particularly handguns, by criminals demands strong methods to stop their use. Automatic jail sentences for gun-carrying felons, he said, are necessary to protect the life and rights of the law-abiding citizen.

The average citizen, he said, is frightened by the increasing number of violent crimes and feels increasingly concerned for his personal safety. Strong deterrents to violent crime must be found; mandatory imprisonment is one.

O'Connell, Arthur A. Wolfensohn and Kenneth Cohen; Unqualified James J. Chrasika.

Circuit Court of Cook County County Wide - Democratic Primary: Well Qualified - Anthony Scotillo, Barry Grossman, Thomas Durkin and Thomas O'Brien; Qualified - John Bullaro and Robert Hoenig.

This is the first time the Northwest Suburban Bar Association has conducted a screening process before the Judicial Election, according to Robert A. Bush, president of the 400-plus member organization. Voters in the March 16th Primary will find the Judicial candidates listed on a separate paper ballot.

Judge Holzer receives endorsement

Republican candidate for election to the Illinois Supreme Court, Circuit Court Judge Reginald J. Holzer, (center) wins support of competing candidates for the 10th District Congressional seat during a weekend brunch at the Regency Hyatt House, in Lincolnwood. GOP hopefuls John Nimrod (left), of Skokie, and former Congressman Sam Young, of Glenview join hands with Holzer whose stated campaign goal is to improve the method by which judges are selected in Illinois. More than 200 guests attended the event.

"Young for Congress" in Morton Grove

A volunteer group supporting the 10th District Congressional candidacy of Samuel H. Young has been organized in Morton Grove.

The chairman is Thomas R. Street. Serving as vice chairmen are Mrs. Kay McClory and Ronald C. Henrici.

Mr. Street noted the widespread interest in the Republican Primary contest pitting Young, who held the seat in 1973 and 1974, against Daniel Hales of Winnetka and State Senator John J. Nimrod of Glenview. The incumbent is Rep. Abner J. Mikva (Democrat, Evanston).

"This is a crucial campaign in every respect, and our group is convinced not only that Sam Young's views best represent the District, but that his record entitles him to a return to the Congress," commented Street.

The three campaign officials encouraged interested citizens to call 673-9036 to volunteer for assignments and become involved in a variety of campaign activity.

Chairman Street, a resident of Morton Grove for nine years and a 1964 graduate of North Park College, is a senior account executive for Allstate Insurance. He served as Morton Grove chairman for Young in his 1974 race and is vice president of Morton Grove Citizens Party.

Mrs. McClory is a realtor and active in a wide range of community activities, including the Morton Grove Woman's Club. Her husband, Fred McClory, is a structural engineer, and the couple has two sons.

Mr. Henrici is an educator and currently is a doctoral candidate at Northwestern University. He has served in administrative and teaching posts at Niles East and Niles West High Schools, as well as at the University of Wisconsin-Madison.

Friday night at the library movies

The next program of the Friday Night at the Movies series will be presented by the Children's Department of the Niles Public Library District on Friday, March 12, at 7 p.m. in the Audio-Visual Room of the Main Library, 6960 Oakton St.

The March 12 program features two films. The first, Lone Wolf (40 min. color) has rural Finland as its setting. The story is about a boy, Ranko, who befriends an army dog left by the Germans after World War II. The men of the village are convinced that

"Hund" is the wolf which has been killing their sheep for years. They set off to kill him, bringing danger to Ranko as well. (ages 6-14)

The second film cannot be advertised in newspapers because of restrictions by our film service. It is in color, 22 minutes in length, on a subject that will appeal to children and adults.

The film series is planned for children of elementary school age. Older children, parents and other adults are also invited to attend. The March 12 program will end shortly after 8 p.m. The next Friday Night at the Movies will be on April 12.

Students residing in the library district in Grades 3 to 8 are urged to come to the Niles Public Library, the Branch Library or the Bookmobile to register for the Art Poster contest sponsored by the Friends of the Niles Library.

Madrigal Singers

This year's Madrigal, a small singing group made up mostly of members from Maine East's concert choir and a few from the underclass choruses, is organized under the direction of Miss Pamela Zeigler, a new faculty member of Maine East's music department.

The group has already caroled at one of the large inner city banks during the early part of December and recently sang a benefit at the Niles Public Library sponsored by the Niles Ladies' Club.

The types of music sung by Madrigal vary greatly. They perform various pieces of modern music as well as the traditional religious and madrigal songs for which the group was named.

Madrigal practices Mondays, Tuesdays, and Thursdays, from 7:30-8 a.m.

Participants in Madrigal at Maine East are sponsors Nancy Andjich of Niles, Cynthia Glassman of Morton Grove, and Chris Glowacki of Niles; (all sopranos); altos are Cindy Bridges of Park Ridge, Jeanne Fujimoto of Niles, and Judy Shipp of Niles; tenors are Randy Crutchfield of Niles, Steve Levitt of Niles, Daryl Mirza of Morton Grove, and Bob Tisch of Niles; and bass John Lianos of Morton Grove, Sande Schimel of Des Plaines, and Don Zierke of Des Plaines.

Maine North Norsemen Festival

Maine North will be the scene of the fourth annual Norsemen Festival on Saturday, March 13 from 4 p.m. to 9 p.m. An after dance featuring "Episode" will climax a day of activities. The Norseman Festival, sponsored by the sophomore class, will feature 20 carnival booths and games from Maine North's various clubs and organizations. Nominations for the Norseman King and Queen will be held this week. A King and Queen will be selected by "penny voting"—students placing pennies in jars marked with the candidate's names. The candidate with the most pennies becomes Norse royalty. The winners will be announced at the door. There is no admission charge to the carnival. Admission to the dance is $2.25 at the door or $2 at the bookstore.

"Over 25 Dance" at LaRay's on March 20

Another "Over 25 Dance" is scheduled at LaRay's Executive Caterers for March 20, 1976. LaRay's (formerly Wellers Elbow Room), at 7225 Caldwell, Niles, will feature "live music" by the RHYTHM-AIRES with their danceable tunes of the late 40s, 50s, 60s and 70s on Saturday, March 20.

Admission is $1.50. There's champagne (a bottle) which is given away free every hour.

The dance starts at 9 p.m. on Saturday, March 20. There's a cash bar — mixed drinks are only $1.25, beer $1.

And there's a gourmet buffet dinner for $5 (all you can eat) from 7 to 9 p.m. The food is out of this world, for Ray is one of the finest, if not the finest, caterers in the world, having served three presidents of the United States (Truman, Eisenhower and Nixon). At the Nixon affair there were more than 10,000 in attendance. And Ray received a letter from all the presidents he catered as to the excellence of both the food and the wonderful service supplied by his own crew of culinary experts.

So you can have a "ball" at this upcoming ball. I would suggest that you get your reservations in early. It's informal — you can come as you are or you can dress up — whatever pleases — your fancy.

All persons, 25 or older, are cordially invited to come and have fun by your genial host, Ray, who will personally see to it that you have a "ball". LaRay's also has banquet facilities for your special affairs.

Children's theatre

The Act III Touring Company will feature an afternoon of participating theater for children in Kindergarten thru third grade at the Oakton Community College "Community Day" Sunday, Mar. 28, 2 p.m. in Building 5.

The Company, who have performed throughout the North Shore area and specialize in children's and adult theater and seminars, will present "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs".

The group consists of three former Oakton Community College students, Denise Billitteri, Bob Klein and Kathi Noone. They appeared in a number of plays and reviews while attending Oakton.

Des Plaines Historical Society Speaker

Connie Blanchette, antique dealer, will be guest speaker for Des Plaines Historical Society on Tuesday, March 16th, at 8 p.m. in Webster Hall, First Congregational Church, Des Plaines. The public is invited, refreshments served, and it's all free. Her talk will be centered around beer mugs and bronzes.

"Oklahoma"

Anyone looking for the freshness and sunniness of our elusive spring, might want to try an alternative — attending the fresh and sunny musical Oklahoma at Niles West March 17-20.

A romantic tale of the prairies in the early years of this century, when cowboys were first beginning to be supplanted by farmers, Oklahoma tells the tale of the courtship of two pretty farm girls by their cowboy swains, despite the rivalry of two other men; an itinerant peddler, and a sour-tempered hired hand.

The courtship is told, in part, through the celebrated Rodgers and Hammerstein songs, like,

"Peter Rabbit"

The first sign of spring has arrived with a Mill Run Children's Theatre announcement that "The Musical Tale of Peter Rabbit" will return this season on March 20th through May 1st. Written by Fred Spielman and Janie Torre, a prolific songwriting team nationally renowned in musical circles for their scores, lyrics and plays; this delightful musical enjoyed a highly successful world premiere engagement last year at Mill Run Children's Theatre. Based on the stories by Beatrix Potter, "The Musical Tale of Peter Rabbit" is an all-professional production directed by Harry Lee Rogers.

Performances will be held on Saturdays at 1:00 p.m., and tickets — priced at $2.25 — may be obtained at showtime. Advance reservations are essential for groups of 30 or more and may be made by calling (312) 298-2333.

Mill Run Children's Theatre also presents special weekday performances for school groups and prepares free study plans in advance for classroom use.

The Mill Run Children's Theatre is located on Golf Road and Milwaukee Avenue in Niles.

These local residents are part of a group of 2,500 volunteers responsible for securing items to be featured during the Channel 11 Auction, to be televised live Saturday, April 24, thru Saturday, May 1.

Individuals, retail stores or companies interested in donating merchandise or cash to the 1975 Auction for on-air recognition may call Bernard Gutow at 966-7932 or 782-2868.

Last year, volunteers gathered more than 10,000 items for the Auction, producing a record income of $737,000 which made possible approximately 2 months of WTTW's broadcast year. Channel 11 provides more than 10,000 televised programs, 17 1/4 hours of color transmission daily.

Persons wishing to volunteer and be a part of the Morton Grove effort should contact Mr. Gutow at 966-7932.

Jim Post, the folk singer from Texas who calls Dundee his pal, is a core member of the Chicago folk milieu which includes Bonnie Koloc, Steve Goodman, and Bob Gibson.

Heading the bill with Post and Dundee is Corky Siegel who sings, plays harmonica and piano in his "simple sounding, but complex, blues-influenced" manner. As half of the now-disbanded Siegel-Schwab Blues Band, he continues to perform in clubs and on campuses across the country.

The "coffeehouse" program, sponsored by Oakton's Board of Student Affairs, is open to the public. Admission to this performance is 50 cents for OCC students; $2.50 for others.

For further information, contact Lou Pettica, Director of Student Activities, at 967-4120.

OCC

Film Society

The clash between idealism and political graft provides an evening of entertainment when the Oakton Community College Film series presents "Mr. Smith Goes to Washington" on Friday, March 12, at 8:15 p.m.

The 1939 film directed by Frank Capra stars James Stewart, Jean Arthur, and Claude Rains in a sensitive comedy-drama. Stewart takes the role of a naive man elected to the U.S. Senate who refuses to conform to the pattern expected by his backers; his filibuster scene has been called "one of the great moments for the American common folk."

The spring film series, "Moments to Bicentennial", is sponsored by the OCC Board of Student Affairs. Films are held in Building 6 on the Oakton campus, Oakton and Nagle, Morton Grove.

Admission is free to OCC and MONACEP students; a 50 cents donation is asked of others.

ED HANSON

In This Corner...

IS DAPPER DAN WALKER. He proved he could walk the State of Illinois but couldn't run it. For the only thing faster than Walker's legs is his mouth.

He has proved himself a great talker, a walker, a proclaimer and a champion arguer. He'll fight anyone and everyone at the drop of his political hat.

He's achieved the distinction no other politician has ever accomplished in the political history of this great State of Illinois. He's alienated EVERYONE!

He has succeeded, damn near, in making this State a disaster area in practically every function of government.

When told that he had some political enemies he says, "I'm perplexed, I'm puzzled, why anyone should dislike me? I've never did anyone a favor."

Walker is a moral man and a good family man, but apparently suffers from an overdeveloped ego. The choice of a capable leader is up to the voters and there is only one way this can be achieved—at the POLLS, next Tuesday.

FOR IN THE OPPOSITE CORNER YOU have the choice of nominating his opponent, MICHAEL J. HOWLETT who has a proven 15 year outstanding record as a State official and excellent administrator is the exact opposite of dapper Dan, the candy-man.

As the late Al Smith used to say, "Let's look at the record!"

HERE IS HOWLETT: Michael J. Howlett has been a state official for more than 15 years. He is the only Democrat in Illinois history elected to four consecutive four-year terms. When he ran for Secretary of State in 1972, he won the endorsement of 134 newspapers from throughout Illinois and received the largest plurality of any Democrat.

Howlett has spent most of his life as a professional administrator. In 1934, he left his studies at DePaul University to work as a bank examiner.

From then on, his experience has been entirely administrative, as NYA director, as a Navy training director, as a park district executive, as regional director of the Office of Price Stabilization, and as vice president of the Sun Steel Company (1952 to 1960).

As Auditor, Howlett earned recognition from newspapers, civic groups and tax watchdogs as an apostle of economy, efficiency and accountability in government. Since January 1973, he has taken hundreds of steps to provide better service while conserving the taxpayers money in the office of the Secretary of State.

Howlett has moved to change the office's business conducted "behind closed doors" image of the past. He has appointed more than 200 business and professional men and women from outside the office to 29 volunteer boards and committees. All are experts in their fields. All serve without pay.

One group, a task force of driver educators, helped rewrite the Rules of the Road. Another conducted a Bicentennial License Plate design contest that marked the first time that any state involved the public in selection of its plate's color or design.

HOWLETT'S RECORD OF... Economy - Politicians like to talk about economy in government. Howlett is one public official who practices it. He set the pattern during his first year in office, when he turned back to the state treasury unspent $600,628.26. When he left the Auditor's office in 1973, it was doing more work with fewer employees at a lower cost than it was when he took over in 1961. Despite a spiraling inflation that has swelled the cost of living almost 20 percent, the Secretary of State's office is providing more service for each tax dollar spent than it was when Howlett took over in January, 1973. Its number of regular employees has decreased almost ten percent.

Efficiency - At the same time, Howlett has moved to improve service in the Secretary of State's office.

He has cut more than 150,000 unnecessary road tests each year because there was no evidence this testing had reduced traffic accidents or deaths during the four years it had been used.

Howlett replaced 24 different forms used to apply for license plates and title certificates with two.

Howlett successfully backed legislation to eliminate the notarization requirement on all car and truck applications. Through Howlett's efforts, a bill was passed in 1973 that eliminated the need for a notary on all driver's license applications.

Integrity - As Regional Director of the Office of Price Stabilization, Howlett smashed a sensational racket of selling horsemeat for beef. Later, as a candidate, he exposed corruption in the state Auditor's Office that had resulted in the embezzlement of more than two million dollars.

After his election in 1960, he campaigned for a series of auditing laws that extended accountability to all levels of government.

Throughout his career Howlett has maintained a truly open office. The Springfield press correspondents have given him a "Gold Fish Bowl Award" for keeping the public business always open to public scrutiny.

IF YOU vote for MIKE HOWLETT you'll put an able, top administrator back in the Governor's chair. And a man who, as Governor, will take the State of Illinois out of the red and put it in the black again, as well, I'm sure, of seeing to it that all the many other functions of State government are also put back on the track again.

VOTE FOR MICHAEL J. HOWLETT!

Name East Maine Caucus candidates

Zoning Board okays Dempster-Greenwood Restaurant

(By Alice M. Bobala) Contingent upon final decision by village trustees Niles zoning commissioners Wednesday, Mar. 3 stamped approval on a Special Use petition for a full service and carry-out restaurant in the Dempster-Greenwood Shopping Plaza.

Irving's for Red Hot Lovers for "a hot dog you can't resist" is projected, as third of a chain for 8786 Dempster St. The original restaurant is in Wilmette; a second is planned for Skokie.

Hearing on the case was withheld Wednesday night until property owner Morris Suson was located for approval of the Dempster property lease.

SJB first grade registration

Registration for first grade at St. John Brebeuf School, 8301 N. Harlem; Niles; will be held on Monday, March 15, from 7 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. in the school library and during the week, Tuesday thru Friday, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the school office. Transfer students will also be accepted at this time.

The student-teacher ratio at SJB averages 23 to 1 and in addition to regular academic classes the school provides two full time learning center coordinators, a full time physical education instructor, an inter-mural sports director, a part time speech therapist and two full time music teachers who also offer private music lessons.

St. John Brebeuf furnishes a total Catholic education utilizing successfully established progressive concepts of teaching. All community families are welcome to enroll their children. Call Sister Theresa Jungers at 966-3266 for further information.

Petitioner Irving Greenspan of Wilmette, owner of the business for operation by his daughter and son-in-law, had appeared before the Board unprepared to furnish contract on the property, necessary to obtain in the Special use zoning.

Advised that the case would be continued to the April hearing, Greenspan said he could not afford the 4 week delay.

The alternative offered by Commr. Chuck O'Grady was an interim Special Hearing which he said was unlikely "due to village cost of $350." Greenspan's offer to underwrite the expense was declined by Building Director Joseph Salerno who said it was "highly improbable that the village could accept the payment."

The stand-off was resolved when zoning commissioners agreed to delay action pursuant to Suson's appearance before the Board.

Special Use zoning for the restaurant was conditioned to exclude seating along the front window of the store, for installation of receptacles for discards outside the business and for maintenance of the area to prevent litter.

The restaurant will hold 9 tables and serve hot dogs, roast beef, polish sausage, skirt steaks and soft drinks.

"You will be very pleased with our hot dogs," Greenspan told the commissioners.

In other action the zoning board approved rezoning from residential to manufacturing for Vapor Howard Corp., 6420 Howard St. and Salerno-Megowan Inc., 7777 Caldwell, to bring existing buildings into conformity with present use.

Rezoning from business to manufacturing was approved to Cleveland Twist Drill, 6400 W. Touhy Ave., to update the area which is zoned for manufacturing.

Commr. O'Grady directed a letter be forwarded to Salerno-Megowan asking for removal of trucks parked on Caldwell Ave., "a request made last December to the cookie company."

"The whole purpose of the greenbelt (landscaping) on Caldwell Ave. is for beautification," said O'Grady in his objection, "not for parking of trucks."

Zoning commissioners approved removal of banks from a permitted zoning listing, placing future bank petitions in a Special Use category which automatically requires a Hearing before the Zoning Board.

Commissioners approved, on a 4-2 vote, an amended definition of "family" to include foster children. The amendment states also that "family" may be defined not to exceed 3 persons not related (by blood, marriage or adoption) provided that such unrelated persons live in a single dwelling and maintain a common household. The new definition also provides for inclusion of domestic servants and a gratuitous guest.

Commr. Syd Mitchel objected to the amendment on the basis that he favors the original definition of a family as related by blood or adoption, etc.

O'Grady objected to the revised definition because "we don't want to create rooming houses in the area... Residential areas are single family homes and not rooming houses. Under the new revision," said O'Grady, "a man could rent out rooms."

According to Commr. Ken Cohen "I problems arise along those lines, village fathers can pass ordinance dealing specifically with the problems."

ent help, etc. Mr. Levy, however, said he felt that even though the mayor had said the number of licenses issued was limited, there should be room for more with the village growing as it is. He also said that if he wanted to take the risks involved, it should be up to him. The mayor then said that Mr. Levy should study the ordinance and appear at a public hearing to determine what can be done.

George Holt, Village Engineer said the asphalt bids for maintenance will be opened on March 12.

Ron Henrici said he attended the Council of Governments recent meeting on behalf of Mayor Bode. He said we have applied for federal funding in order to buy property on which to build a new police station. Mr. Henrici then informed the board that he was not pleased with the slow rate of construction on the Public Works garage, and stated that he has sent a letter complaining of this. Now, it seems that things are somewhat improved. Henrici then moved to pay $16,184.00 to the contractor for work on that building and the board agreed to pay him.

Mayor Bode, then read a proclamation designating March 14-21 as International Demolary Week. This is to honor young men ages 13-21 for their fine efforts in serving their community, etc.

Youth Center

A suggestion by Scheel to share services by library, park, village and schools was termed unfeasible by Park Pres. Millie Jones. "It's difficult to get governmental bodies to share. Each is fearful of contributing more than the other," she said.

Agreement was unanimous on replacement at the Center with a professional co-ordinator. Pointed out was the lack of female guidance at the Center. "We should have had female as well as male supervision," said Yasgur.

The Niles Youth Commission came under heavy censure on Thursday evening for not "properly supervising Youth Center programs."

"The Youth Commission was good at the time of inception in 1963," said Scheel, "but times have changed. We need a coordinating body. The Youth Commission should be restructured, with proper guidelines, to get an input of representation by several services."

A $10,000 Youth Commission budget covers an annual essay program, softball and marathon projects, Youth Center dances and programs. Approximately half of the budget is spent for salaries of the Youth Center Supervisor and for Niles Youth Commission secretary services.

Yasgur agreed to the need of implementing the Commission. "I've been a Youth Commissioner for over a year and I'm not sure of its purpose." He intends to resign from the Commission upon cessation of the ad hoc committee, for personal reasons.

The group attempts to gain insight to youth center activities thru teenager Dan Jasinski who is apparently not sure of what is expected of him. He said the teens would appreciate viewing movies with films donated by the library and perhaps a dance once a month, possibly through park services.

The fundamental issue which is where the program belongs, under park or village guidance was not fully resolved. Everyone has had a try at it—the youths with an unsuccessful program in Law-

Accident

Can'dir's 10-year-old son Frank was in fair condition at Mercy Hospital.

Fred Barnes, a spotter for the Illinois Central Railroad, said he and a fellow worker saw the accident.

"We were a short distance away (in the IC yards), heard a crash and saw the car hurtling toward the ground," he said.

Barnes and Franklin Ship ran over to the car and dragged out Can'dir and his son.

"We thought the car was going to explode because we could smell gasoline," he said. "After we got the first two out, the little boy begged us to get his sister. He kept repeating 'please save my sister.'"

Barnes said that when they returned to rescue Irene, "Her neck was twisted at an impossible angle and we knew that she was dead."

Barnes said the car must have fallen at least 70 feet.

Another witness reported that Can'dir's car was heading south on Damen Avenue when it went out of control, spun around, and crashed through the restraining wall.

Village sets high security level for banks

A village ordinance which provides for more than the minimum safeguard federally required for financial institutions and the public was unanimously approved Tuesday night, March 9 by village trustees.

The security ordinance which carries minimum security standards as set by the Federal Bank Protection Act of 1968 also calls for implementation of bank security plans for use in emergencies and a direct alarm hookup to the Niles Police Department.

A two-month study for the proposed ordinance was authorized last year by village officials due to the great influx of financial institutions into Niles, totaling 13 at last count. Purpose of the study, said Mayor Nicholas Blase Tuesday night was to provide the best and proper protection against burglary and robbery.

He also commended Police Lt. John Christie, Sgt. Frank Wichlac and village consultant Tad Tanaka for their systemic investigation which resulted in the new statute.

A 7-man committee appointed to research banking security chaired by Village Manager Kenneth Scheel included the two Niles police officers, Tanaka and 3 members of financial institutions in Niles: R. Lezak of gym. Coffee and sweets will be served. On Friday, March 19, spaghetti and the various donated foods from the table will be served beginning at 4 p.m. until 9 p.m.

St. Joseph is universally beloved in Sicily. Of all the saints he is closest to the hearts of the poor. He not only symbolizes humility and goodness but is the patron of carpenters, cart makers, orphans and defends young women in the greatest of their misfortunes. He is always an understanding friend.

In Sicily, on the eve of March 19, all the streets are bright with bonfires in honor of San Giuseppe. In the small towns a bandstand is set up over the fountain. A small child dressed as an angel used to slide down a rope from one balcony, stopped before the saint (statue) to recite a prayer, and was then pulled up to an opposite balcony. This little act, called the "Volata" or Flight has been performed as long as people can remember. In recent years this flight has been discontinued because the local authorities have deemed it too dangerous for the child.

After the midday ritual is over, on the 19th, the Banchetto di San Giuseppe is celebrated outdoors, with a priest and notables of the town in attendance. Everyone is welcome to eat of the Tabolata (table).

The foods on the table are the favorite dishes of the donors. The dishes vary with locale and the wealth of the community. Some tables feature spaghetti and other traditional meatless dishes such as Sfinzi, Pinulata, Minestra, Fritada, Canolli and many others. A great many festive cookies and sweets are also featured.

To make this Table as successful as the last two, we need servers, bakers, clean-uppers, and others. If you can help one hour or half a day, we need you — for either Thursday and/or Friday.

Donations both monetary or meatless dishes, fruit, bakery goods, etc., are needed and welcomed.

Please bring all donated foods to the gym beginning at 9 a.m. on Thursday, March 18.

Tanaka

A 16-year consultant in the security field who works for Wells Fargo in San Francisco, stressed the importance of the alarm system and implemented bank plans in case of holdups.

The ordinance, over and above minimum federal standards requires training and periodic retraining of bank employees for security, notification to village police of updated bank schedules, semi-annual inspection of security devices, periodic testing of police-connected alarms and installation of surveillance systems.

Violations of the 7-page ordinance provides up to a $500 fine for each occurrence according to Village Attorney Richard Troy.

New financial institutions have up to 90 days to comply with the new code. Existing bank facilities are given 6 months from the March date of the village statute to act in accordance with its requisites.

In other action Blase appointed a committee of trustees Richard Haczak and Ralph Bast chaired by Trustee Peter Pesole to study the League of Women Voters annual report, for preliminary report to the Board in 30 days.

Trustees approved a $100 Village Purchase Award to the Niles Art Guild Annual Art Show to be held April 24 and 25 at Candlelight Courte.
