Harczak, local businessmen purchase Dempster Plaza Bank

(By Ed Hanson) EXCLUSIVE — Richard Harczak, of Harczak Sausage fame, told the Bugle newspapers that he and a group of Niles businessmen have purchased the Dempster Plaza Bank, Dempster and Greenwood, for an undisclosed sum.

Richard Harczak, well known Niles businessman and trustee of the Village of Niles will immediately take over the duties of President and Chairman of the Board of the Dempster Plaza Bank which currently has assets of approximately 16 million dollars.

According to Harczak, the new group is strongly oriented to community affairs, and the new Board of Directors will consist of the following local Niles businessmen: Ted Przybylo, owner of the House of the White Eagle; Frank DiMaria, of DiMaria Builders; George Welter of Welter Real Estate of Niles; Ray Adreani of Norwood Builders; Bob Mack of Niles; Norbert Klausen of Klausen & Associates Engineering and Bene Stein, general manager of Golf Mill Theatres. Anthony Buckun, attorney-at-law, is also one of the investors. Other bank officers will be announced in a subsequent issue of Bugle newspapers.

The writer will have an in-depth profile of Richard Harczak in an upcoming issue of the five Bugle newspapers.

Includes 6% salary increase for Village employees
Board ok's $7.5 million budget

(By Alice M. Bobala)

The Village Board Tuesday, June 8, approved a $7,531,696 appropriation ordinance for the fiscal year 1976-77.

The budget exceeds last year's $6,915,129 appropriation by eight per cent as compared with seven per cent the previous year, 1974-75.

"It reflects what inflation does to any municipality fund," said Kenneth Scheel, village manager, "although the biggest component is personnel." A six per cent raise (same as last year) to employees accounts for most of the increase.

"Other items," said Scheel, "include $9,000 for village elections, $40,000 for increased employee hospital and medical programs; $40,000 in higher comprehensive village insurance (a 100% increase); $20,000 for a new Bike Safety program; $47,000 for storm feasibility studies of midwest Niles and a study of the Milwaukee-Dempster intersection; $26,000 in sidewalk-curb-alley programs; a $3,000 increase in senior citizen programs and $5,000 for payment of commission members."

A decrease came in Youth Commission funds, said the village manager, comparing the $2,500 provided with the $10,000 of last year.

Niles is working toward a management by objective program over a 5 year period, said the village manager, which is result-oriented rather than input-oriented.

The village came up with $6,774,508 to meet the budget, about $58,338 short. According to Scheel the remaining funds are Bugle Bits ...

At Saturday night's policemen's ball Ang Marcheschi told me the sad news former Chamber of Commerce president Ed Baumer died 2 months ago.

Ed was our first landlord when we moved into his building at 8032 Milwaukee ave. He was a great guy, at the top of his game, in his early 30's. He was a very successful insurance agent, extremely knowledgeable, with a great deal of expertise. Most of the businessmen in town were clients of Ed's and they were well served by this very personable man.

In our first days of Bugling we joined the Lions Club in Niles, which was comprised mostly of young guys in their 20's and 30's, who were full of vinegar and vitality and whatever else goes with that phrase. Ed and Ang and Rich Harczak led a band of guys who did a great deal of good for the community, and had a great deal of fun doing it.

Joe Conti, who ran the butcher shop at Rainbow Foods on Waukegan rd., first brought me into the Club. When I was first publicly introduced I said a few words, then sat down, and was followed by a loud bomb-like noise. One of the Lions threw a fire cracker in the middle of the floor, which was my initiation into the club. That was the modus operandi of the Lions and you could be sure Baumer was at the center of the action.

In subsequent years Ed became president of the Chamber of Commerce. Marcheschi and Baumer brought along their hi-jinks from the Lions Club, waking up this dead body, and moving the group off its no-action dead-center. At one rather fancy affair, while the very sedate members were expecting a very quiet evening, Baumer and Marcheschi co-M.C.'d the evening in rousing style, alternating sentence after sentence throughout the evening, as they led the older guys and their gals thru a hysterical evening.

Ed could have taught this other insurance man, W. Clement Stone, a few lessons about positive thinking. Ed thought big and he moved in circles which required more and more money.

Zoning Board denies Dempster PUD; Golf-Washington PUD under consideration

(By Alice M. Bobrin)
A petition for rezoning to Planned Unit Development for 8 two-flat apartment buildings on Dempster st. near Prospect was denied by the Zoning Board June 2; a second petition for annexation to Niles and PUD of 13 acres at Washington and Foster, formerly the North Shore Camp for Boys, was continued to a July 7 hearing.

In almost swift action Wednesday night, zoning commissioners denied a PUD request at 8114-8124 Dempster st. for "lack of planning" as required under the original established concept of a PUD.

Plans presented by Jos. McNerney of Niles indicated construction of 8 two-flats on the site with garage at the rear of the buildings.

Comr. Ken Cohen motioned for denial of the petition stating the Niles code for PUD was originally set for unique design and benefits by opening land area to residents living within the development. "The ancillary matters (landscaping, greenery, recreation areas) are missing from these plans for a PUD," said Cohen. Comr. Charles O'Grady supported the denial which was made unanimously by the Board.

The "land with a history" the Dempster site had been denied an R4 (multiple family) zoning in June, 1975, for 8 3-flats. Then, owner, McNeill & Cross, appealed the zoning decision to the Village Board in Sept., 1975, changing the rezoning petition to R3 for 6 two-flats. The R3 zoning was approved in November. Predicated on lack of financial feasibility, the owners sold the property to present owners, McNerney & Goslin, who purchased two additional lots to gain the required land area needed for the PUD, which was denied Tuesday night.

In second action Zoning Commissioners heard a 2 1/2 hour presentation by Niles Investment Co. seeking annexation to Niles and a PUD of an R5-zoned Cook County site at 9500 Washington st., prior to continuance of the petition to the July 7 hearing.

Niles Investment Co., a subsidiary of Niles Savings & Loan Assoc., 7077 Dempster st., proposes to build a PUD on a 13-acre site located on the northwest corner of Washington st. and Foster ave. in the unincorporated area of Cook County immediately north and east of Niles. The development calls for 58 six-flat units or 348 total dwelling units, both attached and detached from one another with projected recreational facilities.

The plan differs from earlier plans 3 years ago for construction of hi-rise apartments which had been rejected by the County Zoning Board.

Perry Snydermann of the law firm Rudnick & Wolf introduced witnesses on behalf of the owners indicating conformity with development in the area and a tax impact study has shown the PUD will benefit Niles. Of the total area 23% will be covered with buildings, 26% with paving, 9% in easements and 41.4% in open greenery and recreation.

Variations in parking requirements were also requested, from a required 2 parking spaces to 1.6 and reduction in size from 9 1/2 ft. by 20 ft. to 8 1/2 ft. by 18 ft.

Comr. Cohen objected to a statement by a witness of "excess parking in the area" ... "where," he queried, "do you find excess parking in Niles except in unsuccessful shopping centers?" Commissioner O'Grady asked what the petitioner intended to do with the other half of the car by reduction in parking space to 1.6 cars.

Approximately 70 area residents present Wednesday night were volubly opposed to the plan of density for the proposed PUD.

Angelo Ferrara, owner of 3 apartment buildings on Foster Lane, said he has paid $1,300 for additional parking at one building and $2,200 on another and "still there is not enough parking."

Morton Grove resident Jack Skolnick noted "traffic problems in the area were the cause for rejection by the County 3 years ago."

"We don't have a malpractice ruling for traffic engineers," was the comment by Earl Simon, President of Golf Mill Homeowners Assoc.

Consulting engineer and resident at Washington and Foster, George Koogen pointed out "flooding problems in the area every time it rains."

Father Klug of St. Isaac Jogues School located immediately north and west of the proposed PUD site drew laughter when he told commissioners, "There won't be a parking problem here. They'll all park on my school playground!"

Resident rejection of the proposed site plans was indicated thru inquiry by a Golf Mill Homeowner as to the number of signatures needed on objecting petitions to the PUD.

"There'll be more of us next month," they promised on exit from the Hearing.

The current Village Comprehensive Plan recommends that the area be used for park and recreation purposes.

Zoning Commissioners indicated that their decision would be based on traffic, flooding and the effect of the PUD on the community as a whole.

NILES ALL AMERICAN SENIORS CLUB

June 1st dawned foggy and dismal but, in spite of the inclement weather, 47 happy All American Seniors gathered at Trident for the scheduled trip to Cedar Creek some 25 miles north of Milwaukee.

On our agenda for things to see this day was Stallman's Cheese Factory at Mapleton, a suburb of Oconomowoc, where we learned about the processing of their prize-winning cheese - Bon Bree. This particular cheese was developed by an old Swiss cheesemaker in southeastern Wisconsin, and its smooth texture attests to the quality of the superior milk product going into its manufacture. After the tour, generous samples of this cheese were provided and disappeared rapidly which was proof of the tastiness of Bon Bree cheese. In fact, some of us liked it so well that we purchased cheese to enjoy at home.

Our next stop was dining at the Grafton Hotel, formerly a spacious hotel built in 1892 and which has not been converted to dining only. Much to the delight of all of us, Bruno Liput added a little historical (not hysterical) note that at the turn of the century Teddy Roosevelt had slept and dined at the Grafton Hotel. Dinner consisted of an ample portion of roast pork or turkey with all the trimmings, topped off with a generous piece of cake and ice cream. We all left happy and well-fed — ready to do a lot of walking.

Our last and most interesting stop-off of the day was at Cedarburg on the Milwaukee River better referred to as Cedar Creek where an old five story Mill had been converted into a modern enterprise consisting of a winery, blacksmith shop, cheese store, general store housing antiques, and numerous craft shops. Our special tour here was the Stone Mill Winery. Our young tour guide was very informative and thorough regarding the history of the winery and the procedures for making their famous Cherry Wine made from cherries grown in Door County. After the tour we went to the "sampling room" where we were instructed in the art of proper sipping this delectable cherry wine.

From then on we were on our own and many of our All American Seniors who are Macramé experts (having learned the craft at Trident) went into ecstasy over intricate and beautiful things made out of just plain colored rope of various thicknesses. Others explored the numerous shops housing antiques, apparel and utensils from by-gone days, and some stopped by the old-fashioned ice cream parlor but were too well fed to partake of anymore. Our men found interest in the Blacksmith shop where a young man was forging a horseshoe out of iron. And the nearby river (or creek) held the interest of other men, especially when they learned fishing was good.

So after an hour and one-half of delightful browsing and buying, we enjoyed the scenic ride back home in the late afternoon sunshine.

Niles Police Beat

Attempted auto theft

An attempt to steal a 1975 Oldsmobile while parked on the east side of Golf Mill was unsuccessful said police on Wednesday, June 2.

The Des Plaines owner guessed the intruders were apparently frightened away when they broke a car window by undue pressure with a pry tool.

Suspicious activities

What police termed suspicious activities at Ballard School, 8320 Ballard, on Wednesday, June 2, turned out to be a school janitor apparently under the influence of liquor said police going about his duties accompanied by his 15 year old daughter.

Busboy injured

There are still a few Niles residents who are not aware that a Niles ambulance is at their service, free of charge.

While on patrol shortly after midnight on Monday, a Niles police officer noticed a 1974 Ford moving erratically on Milwaukee ave.

Investigation revealed that a busboy had injured his arm at Queen of the Sea restaurant, 7710 Milwaukee ave. In attempting to transport the lad to the hospital, the owner of the restaurant became confused, causing his car to weave around, he said.

Thefts from cars

About $20 in household items, $355 in clothing, a $350 Sony TV and $175 in miscellaneous were taken from a 1975 Hornet parked near Mary Ann Silks in Golf Mill on Tuesday afternoon.

The owner told police she parked the car at 3 p.m. and returning an hour later found the items missing from the car.

A $100 tape deck and $200 in assorted tapes were stolen from a 1969 Ford wagon parked at Jewel Osco, 7900 Milwaukee ave., on Tuesday, June 1, said police.

The cables on a Delco battery valued at $55 were cut and the battery stolen from a '69 car parked at Eagle Sheet Metal Corp. on Tuesday, June 1.

A citizens band radio was stolen Tuesday from a Des Plaines resident's car parked at 7210 Lehigh, Leroy Welding, said police.

Sophisticated heist

Approximately $4,185 in records was removed from Goldblatt Bros. in Lawrencewood Tuesday evening by an "employee" from a record shop.

Police said a man identifying himself with Lieberman's Records telephoned the Goldblatt store at 8 p.m. on June 2 telling the clerk his "new employee" was behind schedule and would the store clerk assist in packing some records for return.

Upon inquiry by the clerk, the record store man told her the records were being picked up to make room for new stock arriving the next day.

The man showed up a half hour later, said police. He neatly noted the number of records taken, leaving an identifying slip on the shelves and made 2 to 3 trips out of the store to take the records to his truck.

The man was described as 6 ft. tall, 180 to 190 lbs., wearing shoulder length blonde hair and a handkerchief mustache. He wore aviator-type glasses, a denim suit and black and brown shoes with cushion heels.

He had no special taste in records noted police.

Cash, watch taken in apartment heist

Some $135 in cash and a wristwatch valued at $250 were stolen when burglars entered an apartment on the 6900 block of Rosemary Lane said police Tuesday, June 1.

The victim said entry was gained thru a screen storm window which had a faulty lock. Burglars took the cash from a shelf in the bedroom as well as the watch.

Refuses repair bill

A La Grange customer who became enraged over a $12.50 repair of his phone-answering machine picked up the repaired instrument and left the Radio Shack at 9515 Milwaukee ave. on Wednesday, June 2, without paying his bill.

Altho the customer was advised that the type of repairs on the mechanical device did not cause his telephone to be shorted out of service, the man picked up his property and left the shop, said police.

No charges were preferred.

2 car collision caused by no brake lights

A 20-year-old Chicago motorist was injured Monday in a collision on Milwaukee Ave. south of Dempster St. when the car he was driving was struck in the rear by another Chicago motorist.

Taken to Lutheran General Hospital with leg injuries was Santos Velleda Guerra, 4750 Sacramento.

According to police a personal investigation of the car driven by Guerra revealed no brake lights. Police observation also noted the lens were not broken due to the accident.

Police said Guerra was stopped in traffic 40 feet south of Dempster on Milwaukee Ave. and was struck in the rear by a '74 Olds driven by Mary C. Jerot, 16, of 6760 Fern in Chicago.

Jerot said the brake lights of Guerra's car were not lighted at the time.

Neither motorist was charged.

Maine East summer swim program

Why should your child miss a swimming lesson due to inclement weather? At Maine East Demon Guard has successfully taught over 2,500 youngsters in its organized swimming program. The summer classes will be taught by 12 high school members of the Demon Guard and will provide the most convenient and inexpensive professional instruction available in this area.

One $8 ticket provides the student with 8 lessons, which includes a large group warm-up, 35 minutes of class, and a short free play period. The program offers a student the opportunity to advance from station to station at an individual rate as well as the convenience of taking the 8 lesson series during any day or class until July 30th.

The permission form and fee may be taken care of by the parent at the pool office on the morning which the student plans to begin his lessons. Classes will begin quarter past the hour, but students are asked to arrive 15 minutes prior to their lessons. Caps, suits, and towels are not provided by the school.

Out or Safe?

Freshman Al Masini makes a perfect slide at 2nd base on the 8th grade shortstop Chris Wiesefer. Both boys are from St. Martha's School at 8519 Georgiana in Morton Grove.

These two teams represent just one of the 4 softball games recently hosted at Thillens Stadium by St. Martha's.

Because the Thillens facilities were donated free of charge the nearly $400 raised at the game went directly to St. Martha's athletic fund.

The freshman team in this game crushed the 8th graders by a score of 18 to 6.

Mikva names OCC designated depository library

Congressman Abner Mikva (D-10th District) announced the designation of Oakton Community College as a depository for U.S. Government Publications in a special ceremony on the OCC Interim Campus on Friday morning, May 28.

Oakton will be one of two official depositories for federal documents, reports, and publications in the 10th District, according to Joseph F. Borowski, Director of Learning Resources at Oakton. In 1876 Northwestern University Library, along with the Chicago Public Library, became designated depositories. The only other depository in Illinois is the Monmouth College Library.

"This will enable the Oakton Library to provide both students and the people of the OCC district with much better service," Borowski said. "Oakton has been purchasing a number of these publications, totaling about $2,000 annually."

The Depository Library Act provides that depositories other than regional libraries may select publications they desire and for which they have the facilities to receive, store and circulate.

Oakton will be a partial depository for the time being in view of space available in the library on the Interim Campus, Borowski said. However, the depository will be moved to the permanent campus in the Fall of 1976, with the Des Plaines campus serving the western part of the Congressional District and North-western the eastern part.

For Oakton to qualify to be a designated depository, holdings must be at least 10,000 volumes. Oakton presently has approximately 38,000 volumes in its library. Borowski said, "Most government publications will be merged into the regular library collection. First volumes under this program will be received at Oakton in July."

Publications placed in these depositories are available for free use of the general public within the 10th Congressional District and will remain the property of the United States. Individuals wishing to use publications from the federal collection at Oakton may make requests at the library circulation desk, IRC, Building 4, OCC Interim Campus, Oakton and Nagle, Morton Grove.

Mikva seeks tax deduction for renters

Congressman Abner J. Mikva is cosponsoring a bill to reduce the amount of income tax that apartment dwellers have to pay each year.

The proposal would allow occupants of rented units to deduct from their federal income tax the amount of their monthly rent that is used to pay property tax on the building in which they live.

The amount that would be saved would depend upon the taxpayer's income tax bracket. In some areas, 25% to 30% of a person's rent is used to pay the property taxes.

Mikva is cosponsoring the bill, which was introduced by Congressman Herbert E. Harris and is before the House Ways and Means Committee. Mikva is a member of the committee. According to research prepared by the Harris staff, 27.5% of the living units in the Tenth District are rented.

"Landlords would not be affected under the proposal," Mikva noted. "While the owner of a building would no longer be able to claim the property tax paid by renters as his deduction, the landlord would not have to include that same amount as income when he files his income tax return."

The Congressman added: "I feel that this is a way to distribute the tax burden more equitably — by allowing the person paying the rent to use the property tax deduction. The alternative would be to upset the long-standing expectations of homeowners by taking away their deductions for taxes, an alternative which I oppose."

Under the proposal, when renters receive their lease they would be notified of the total rent on the unit, plus what portion of the rent is used by the landlord to pay property taxes. At tax time, the renters could then claim their property tax payments as a deduction.

For example, on a typical suburban three-flat building worth $95,000, the owner pays approximately $2,500 a year in property taxes. Each renter in the three-flat would thus be paying $896 a year, or approximately $75 a month, in rent toward the property tax bill.

Under the present tax code, individual homeowners may deduct from their federal income tax the amount of property tax as well as interest on their mortgage that they pay each year. Apartment dwellers pay a share of the property tax on the building in which they live in the rent they pay to the landlord, but they are not permitted to claim it as a deduction.

Niles Days reverts to 100% disbursement of festival proceeds

[By Alice M. Bobala]
 The 1976 Festival Days must net $29,395 to cover money requests from organizations this year.
 Otherwise, on the basis of a revised recommendation by its Executive Board, delegate members of the Days Committee Monday night voted 27 to 4 for proportionate allocation of the 1976 Festival monies to 14 groups asking a total of $21,895.
 An additional $7,500 has already been committed "off the top of excess '76 funds" to the Niles Bicentennial Commission to partially fund the Bicentennial Fourth weekend (covering a July 3 Community Fair, July 4 Parade and July 5 Fireworks Display).
 At the May meeting the Board's recommendation on excess funds asked for a 50% cut in each of 12 group requests, excepting two $100 requests. A Board letter sent to delegates later in May revised the initial, 50% cut, recommendation and provided for a 100% allocation of funds. No reason was given for the Board's change of mind.
 If the Days does not net $29,395, each of 14 group requests will be reduced proportionately to meet the net amount of proceeds.
 The Board does not expect the 1976 Festival to earn the monies needed for the 100% allocation of the requests, according to Niles Days co-chairman Ed Brash.
 "However, we do believe each organization will get at least 90% of its asking price," said Brash Monday night. "Dependent on weather conditions," he noted, "it looks like we'll have a good year and we expect to clear in the $20,000's."

 Had Board recommendation been rejected by the committee vote by written ballot, delegates would have had to vote on a preference of 4 selections of the 14 requests with first choice receiving 1 point, to 4th choice of 1/4 point.
 A committee alternate-delegate member Monday night asked that future allocations of Niles Days excess funds be more prudent. He pointed out that the Baseball League (this year requesting $3,000) is parent-sponsored and fund-supported; Boy Scouts (in for $925) are self-sustaining... "Some organizations have been receiving funds from Niles Days annually for 10 years," he said, also pointing out that the Hockey Assoc. (1976 request - $3,300) already has a tax supported, excellent skating rink. "We can't continue sponsoring organizations such as these," he cautioned delegates Monday night. "Why must they continuously keep returning for more and more money?"
 Other organizations asking for 1976 funds are Garden Club of Niles, $2,500 to refurbish 60 ten-year-old flower baskets on Milwaukee ave.; Grandmothers Club, $1,000 to cover bus fares for 55 members for 1976; Niles Policemen's Benevolent Assoc., $1,900 for life insurance for 53 members of the Association; Senior Citizens Club of Niles, $1,500 to cover cost of 7 bus trips; Niles All-American Seniors Club, $1,000 to defray cost of bus trips; Lions Club of Niles, $2,500 to the Niles Public Library for purchase of materials for the visually handicapped.

 Also, Niles Falcons Jr. Football Assoc., $1,764 to purchase jerseys and equipment; Niles Art Guild, $1,100 to fund programs, artists and demonstrators; Maine-Niles Campfire Girls, $100 for purchase of plants and materials for shut-ins; Knights of Columbus, $1,200 for purchase of equipment for Jefferson School handicapped children; and the Morton Grove/Niles League of Women Voters, $100 for printing and distribution for Voter Guides.
 The 1976 Niles Bicentennial Festival planned for Wednesday July 21 thru Sunday, July 25, is scheduled for 8251 Golf rd.
 In other business finalists in the Mr. and Miss Liberty contest were introduced by contest chairman Dorothy Tyse as Carol McCabe, 19, a college sophomore; Cindy Mack, 18, a Ballard Pool lifeguard; Leslie Leske, 18, a sophomore at U. of Ill.; Georgia Becker, 18, Maine East graduate; and (not present) Jeannette Namovitz, 17, who will attend Northern Illinois U. in Sept.
 Also, Tom Miller, 17; Tom Sebastiana, 18, Maine East graduate; Phil Berquist, 21, a second year law student at Univ. of Ill.; Cory Carbanara, 20, student at Univ. of Ill.; and David De Lorenzo, 18.
 The top winner in male and female categories were selected Wednesday, June 9, at the Trident Community Center (after presstime).
 Total number of candidates for the two contests were 25 said Ms. Tyse, as well as 2 candidates excluded by reason of being Morton Grove and Skokie residents.

Nortran Announces Bus Route Changes

At their regularly scheduled May meeting, trustees of the North Suburban Mass Transit District (NORTRAN) announced revisions in two present bus routes, Bart T. Murphy, of Niles, NORTRAN Chairman, stated that Route 8, currently running from the Davis "L" in Evanston to Old Orchard on weekdays and continuing from Old Orchard to Golf Mill on Saturday, will now run from the Davis "L" to Golf Mill via Old Orchard six days a week, Monday thru Saturday. Also, Route 21, will be revised to run from Park Ridge to the Jefferson Park Transit Center starting at Lee and Touhy and running via Mannheim, to Higgins, to Devon, to Cumberland, to Higgins, and to Jefferson Park. These revisions will go into effect on June 13, 1976. "The changes were recommended and approved after studies of ridership," said Murphy. "The Saturday service between Golf Mill and Old Orchard was a success and there seemed to be a good demand for weekday service as well."

Staff members cautioned that, in schedules, maps, and time tables for these new routes, distributed by the Regional Transportation Authority (RTA), the routes will be identified as 208 and 221, while identification on the buses will remain 8 and 21. Joseph DiJohn, NORTRAN Executive Director, explained: "We're moving to a regional system of route numbering which uses a 200 prefix on all routes. However, for the time being, all riders have to do is relate the last two numbers on new time tables and maps to the route identification numbers on buses."

In other Bus Operations business, Murphy reported that April bus ridership was up 30% over the same period last year. "We're very gratified over the continued growth of the new bus service," Murphy said. Walter B. Flintrup, of Skokie, Chairman of the Bus Operations Committee said that a request has been made of the RTA for permission to change Route 13 so that it would run from downtown Highland Park to Deerfield, near the Milwaukee Road station, rather than continue north to Fort Sheridan. Flintrup said: "Service north to Fort Sheridan will be continued by the Highland Park Bus System." A request was also made to provide a Shopper's Special from Jefferson Park to the Loop, on Monday and Thursday, leaving Jefferson Park at 9:50 a.m. and returning from the Loop at 2:30 p.m., and timed to meet connecting routes. "We hope routes will be approved shortly," Flintrup said.

Trustees also approved a minimum NORTRAN standards for each bus route so that the over-all system will meet RTA requirements.

Frances Komer, SJB teacher for 19 years retires

Mrs. Frances Komer, a resident of Niles since 1957, will retire from teaching at St. John Brebeuf School where she has served the community for 19 years.

Mrs. Komer received her degree from California State Teachers College in California, Pa. She taught in the public school system of Pennsylvania for 17 years before coming to Niles.

Specializing in the teaching of reading, most of her work has been in that field on the intermediate grade level. In the course of her 29 years of teaching, Mrs. Komer has seen many educational trends come and go. From a totally structured program that allowed no freedom of choice and very little creativity on the part of the student, Mrs. Komer has watched the educational environment shift to a more flexible climate that considers the individuality of children and personalizes the learning environment to meet the various differences.

She has seen the school system encompass religion and physical education as vital parts in the formation of the total person. A rigid handwriting program has been relaxed to allow for expression of individuality.

A standard curriculum of study has given way to one that stimulates a child's curiosity and sense of wonder, and motivates him to pursue his natural instinct for learning along those lines.

Problem solving and decision making situations are normal in the curriculum of the student of today, thus preparing him for his life in the future.

Mrs. Komer is well-known among her friends for her punctuality and dependability. She is a bowler and plays basketball and tennis. She looks forward to spending more time at the organ, another of her hobbies.

She will continue to serve St.

Notre Dame Alumni plan annual meeting

The evening will begin with a short meeting for the election of new officers at 8 p.m. All the faculty have been invited and refreshments will be served. Wives are also welcome.

The school asks that each alumnus contact as many of his classmates as possible and invite them to the meeting. Members of the ten year class of 1966 are asked to make a special effort to attend and contact each other.

Six members of the original faculty are still assigned to NDHS. They are Fathers Andrew Wohman, William Brinker, John Corcoran, Peter Sandonato, Thomas Markos, and Joseph Stroot. Father James Blaes and Brother Leo Quirion first joined the faculty in 1956. Father Norbert Hess and Jack Cole have been on the faculty since 1957. Jack Burke, Bill Casey, Peter Livorsi and Thomas Podock joined the faculty in 1959. Alumni can obtain further information by calling the school at 965-2900 from 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Morton Grove Library happenings

Young artists will receive prizes for their contributions to the Art Contest held in the Children's Room of the Morton Grove Library on Saturday, June 12 at 2 P. M.

Winners will be chosen in 4 categories: Pre-School and Kindergarten; 1st and 2nd grade; 3rd and 4th grade; and 5th and 6th grade. Prizes will be books, records, and puzzles, and the winning pictures will be hung on the walls of the stairwell leading down to the Children's Room.

A stunning collection of Canton China and antique watches is featured in the small display case of the Morton Grove Library this month.

The deep blue and white porcelain from Old China is very difficult to find and this particular collection dates back to 1809.

The old pocket watches are contained in little glass globes which show off their etched gold cases. Also in this display are several old samplers made in the early 1800's.

Mrs. Komer lives with her husband, Albert, at 7831 Odell, Niles. One son, George, a graduate of SJB, Notre Dame High School, and University of Illinois, Champaign, is presently employed at Eli Lilly and Company of Indianapolis.

Cronin graduates from Coast Guard Academy

Michael J. Cronin, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Cronin of 8734 Oketo ave., Niles, has been commissioned an Ensign and received a Bachelor of Science degree upon graduation from the Coast Guard Academy in New London, Conn.

As a cadet at the Academy, he underwent four years of extensive study of engineering, mathematics, physical and marine sciences, management and government. In addition to an active physical fitness curriculum, he studied military justice, leadership and maritime history and completed a variety of elective courses leading to his baccalaureate.

Summer programs provided him with an opportunity to gain professional experience on board both the Coast Guard's sailing ship, USCGC Eagle, and operational Coast Guard cutters. During training cruises, he received practical instruction in basic seamanship, navigation, ordnance and gunnery, and communications. He participated in battle drills, search and rescue exercises and accompanied cutters on actual patrols. Ensign Cronin's first assignment as a commissioned officer will be aboard the Coast Guard cutter Valiant, homeported at Galveston, Tex. He is a 1972 graduate of Notre Dame High School for Boys.

DINING & ENTERTAINMENT

Joan Rivers & Robert Merrill at Mill Run

Comedienne Joan Rivers is returning to the Mill Run Theatre this season with an all-new show of hilarious anecdotes on Tuesday, June 15, thru Sunday, June 20. Appearing on her show as Special Guest Star is Robert Merrill, top ranking baritone of the Metropolitan Opera.

Although Joan is best known as a leading comedy performer, she is equally adept as a screen writer, author, and creator of comedy routines. Joan launched her entertainment career in Greenwich Village clubs. After a one-year stint with Second City in Chicago, she landed a job as a writer on "Candid Camera" and became comedienne in residence at the Downstairs at the Upstairs. Her "big break" came in 1966 when Joan made her first appearance on the "Tonight" show. One of the world's most celebrated artists, Robert Merrill, is well known to millions through his countless performances on opera and concert stages as well as frequent appearance on television and at major music festivals. Acclaimed by critics as "one of the great natural baritones of the century", Merrill is one of the few opera stars to excel in other media, including musical theater and guest appearances on TV specials. In addition, his numerous best-selling recordings have brought him worldwide recognition and critical acclaim.

Showtimes are on Tuesday thru Friday at 8:30 p.m., Saturday at 7:30 p.m. and 11 p.m., and Sunday at 5 p.m. and 8:30 p.m. Tickets - ranging in price from $7.50 to $8.50 - are now available by mail order and at the Mill Run Theatre box office as well as Ticketron. Over 16,000 attend artist fair at Oakton

The 1976 Starving Artist Arts and Crafts Fair, held May 29 and 30 on the campus of Oakton Community College, was a resounding success, according to chairman Jay Wolin.

Over 16,000 people attended the show, despite a gloomy Saturday and a rained-out Sunday afternoon. This is twice the attendance of last year.

In accord with the "Starving Artist" theme, the maximum price on any piece was $25. The crowds who attended came to buy and several artists found themselves sold out on Saturday. Because of the jury requirement for new artists, a high level of quality was maintained.

A new feature was added this year - the Children's Art Fair. This separate room was filled with pieces of art created by the displaying artists and priced under $3. Only children under 12 were allowed into this room, where they could select their own works of art without "help" from their parents.

Mary Darling, chairperson of the Children's Fair, reported that over 500 children participated, resulting in the sale of almost every piece of art on Saturday. In addition, many children created their own works of art in the children's "art studio".

Needlecraft expert at NW Federal

Needlecraft expert Wanda Swiet will be in the lobby of North West Federal Savings Arlington Heights office, in the Surrey Ridge Shopping Plaza, Algonquin and Golf rds., Saturday, June 12, to demonstrate various stitchery techniques. Mrs. Swiet will be in Des Plaines at North West Federal Savings, 2454 Dempster St., on Saturday, June 19.

Mrs. Swiet, long-time needlecraft instructor for Marshall Field and Company, will give instruction and assistance from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., at both locations. Interested needlecraft hobbyists are invited to stop by the association with their individual stitchery problems and questions.

Seven pieces of art were purchased from the displaying artists and were given away as "door prizes". Free tickets for the drawing were available at the fair, and the drawing was held late Sunday afternoon. The winners were:

Sidney Patt, 8209 N. Knox, Skokie, won a sculptured metal bird created by Joseph Hindley of Kenosha, Wisconsin;

Stan Walczak, 2180 Mary Jane, Park Ridge, will receive a wooden candle holder made by Donna Woody;

E. Wasielewski, 10568 Touhy, Rosemont, held the lucky ticket for an oil painting painted by Thomas Grilli, of Des Plaines;

Jeff Patt, 9069 Hollyberry, Des Plaines, won a covered stoneware pot thrown by David Geyer of Osceola, Indiana;

C. Wainscott, 1409 S. Fifth, Des Plaines, is now the owner of a stained glass picture created by J. A. Roberts of Evanston;

"A Family Affair"

Lincolnwood Community Theatre's production of the delightful musical comedy A Family Affair opened May 28 to enthusiastic audiences. The play by James and William Goldman, with music by John Kander of Cabaret fame, was very well received.

Audiences will still be able to see the play on the final weekend, June 11, 12, and 13 at Lincoln Hall, Farwell and Crawford, Lincolnwood, at 8:30, except Sunday at 7:30 p.m. Further information may be obtained by phoning: 674-0677. The story concerns the children of the Nathan and Slegal Families, who want a nice simple Jewish wedding, and all the hilarity that happens on the way to the canopy. It features the talents of over thirty people from all over the suburban and Chicago areas, and boasts a ten piece orchestra.

Tilly Siegel, far left, played by Patti Barnes, Lincolnwood, can't wait to spread the news of her son's engagement in "My Son, The Lawyer," from A Family Affair, still playing June 11, 12, and 13 at 8:30 p.m. except Sunday at 7:30 p.m. Also pictured, top row, are Marlen Sachs, Lincolnwood; Rosh Kagan and Sheila McCormick, Morton Grove; Gloria Terzis, Lincolnwood; Joyce Stern Greenberg and Laura Millman, Niles; and Pam Scavo and Sherry Cohen, Niles.

Indecent exposure

Police said a motorist lured a 12 year old east Niles resident closer to his car with a smile and a crook of his finger on Thursday, June 4. The young girl said she was walking north on Cumberland ave. shortly after noon when she observed a 4-door sedan stopped eastbound on Clara dr.

The driver motioned to the girl while smiling and when she approached the car, she noted the man was not dressed from the waist down.

She described him as approximately 50 years old, wearing a T-shirt. She became frightened she said and ran home.

Niles budget...

expected to come from carry-over surplus funds from this fiscal year.

The $6.7 anticipated revenue figure is on the conservative side. Surplus funds are set aside for emergency expenditures during the year, such as the village computer purchased last May for $66,680.

Major source of village revenue is sales tax which has gone up from last year's 38% to 41.3% this year.

Water sales, the only profit-making account in the village, for 20.9% of the revenue, or $1.4 million.

Utility taxes account for 10% of the revenue; State income taxes for 6%; property taxes 3 1/4% or $225,000; and vehicle licenses 3%.

The village budget for the year May 1, 1976, thru April 30, 1977, is:

Gen. Corp. Fund	$4,968,229
Village Auto. Fund	220,848
Vil. Veh. Tax Fund	212,500
Road & Bridge Fund	32,000
Social Security	200,000
Gen. Ob. Bond Fund	78,750
Water Fund	1,389,369
Police Pens. Fund	210,000
Fire Pens. Fund	220,000
Total all appropriations	$7,531,696

The $4.9 million General Corporate Fund is increased over last year's $4.4 million. Budgeted within the 1976-77 General Fund is $1.6 million for police (24% of the total departmental budget); $1.3 million for Public Works (19%); $1.1 million for the Fire Dept. (16.2%).

Ed had halcyon (and hell-cyon) days prior to his downfall. He discovered the commodities market in the 60's. Buying on 10% margin you could invest $1,000 and own $10,000 worth of pork bellies. Ed, being a high roller, bought many times those figures and for a while was on top of the world. Former friends told me he could drop $8,000 at the race track without whinnying a gray. Mater of fact, Ed briefly owned a string of 16 race horses, one of which he was offered $35,000. He turned it down and the next time the horse left the paddock he injured his leg, which ended his racing days and blew Ed's potential $35,000 windfall.

Like all gambling, Ed's commodities' market investments turned sour, and when he had to cover the other 90% of his investments, he furiously tried to hunt up and even create artificial money to cover himself.

He invested in a cement business and from then on his days were numbered. He began having problems with his insurance policies, and at one time Niles Park District could have been in a very bad bind because the policies they paid for were never submitted for payment. Ed was moving the premium money around, trying to keep his head above water. Subsequently, he became involved in an illegal loan scheme with a downtown bank, which sent him to jail for a year.

Baumier's positive thinking in 1960 helped start the first Niles bank in town since the depression. His insurance policy problems were in evidence there subsequently forcing him to leave his directorship on the bank.

In those more carefree days Ed once submitted a cement contract bid to Niles Village Board. Bids had to be sealed and in the clerk's office by a pre-meeting time and date. But at the board meeting one of the trustees took Ed's bid out of his pocket, handed it to the Mayor, and the already open envelope "just happened" to have the low bid inside.

When he returned to the area Ed's life was irrevocably broken. He could no longer practice the insurance business, and his family life had been badly damaged by these many problems.

Two months ago Ang related Ed suffered a heart attack and subsequently died at Resurrection Hospital. At his funeral Ang noted there were only 3 cars in the procession which led to the cemetery. Aside from Harczak and Marcheski, few other local people were at the funeral. In days bygone Ed may have been the most popular guy in town.

On a happier note we'd like to join with his many friends in congratulating Rich Harczak on his group's purchase of the Dempster Plaza State Bank. Rich, Frank DiMaria, Ray Andreanni and Bene Stein are among the directors, all local people who work or live in Niles.

Rich's ascendancy to the presidency of the bank is extremely gratifying. It wasn't too many years ago he was driving a truck in his sausage business. And it seems only a short while ago he helped start the Bank of Niles. His business acumen has been a great success story which we will feature in a future Bugle story.

Our world is moving so quickly it's difficult to keep pace with it. A neighbor of ours, a surgeon in Chicago, had a request from his son to hypnotize the boy, so he would do well in his college entrance tests at Niles West High School. The 16 year old boy wants to follow in his father's footsteps. The youngster was very tense worrying about the tests which he said would determine his entire future. Thus, his request was granted. He said he was "floating on air" after taking the tests and was completely devoid of the pressure which he had previously experienced.

Saint Mary's grads

Saint Mary's College, Winona, Minnesota, conferred degrees upon 310 seniors and graduate students at commencement exercises May 15. Of the total number of degrees, 246 Bachelor of Science or the Arts were granted. Graduates included: Donald W. McAllister, of 7845 Lotus in Morton Grove and John William Kolb-High Honors-of 7845 N. Luna Ave. in Morton Grove.

library this fall. At Monday night's board meeting the budget included money for tape to be placed in the bindings of all library books at Maine South. Students exiting from the library who had not first checked out books will have the magnetized books set off a system which will block their exit. Only by first going to the librarian can their books be de-magnetized.

Maine High School's Board also denied a request from the Maine Secretaries Association that the group be recognized for collective bargaining negotiations. The Board stated because of the confidential nature of their work (their access to confidential data and material) places the secretaries and clerks in a different relationship than other non-certified employees.

focusing on its activities and past leaders, in conjunction with the Order of the Eastern Star, Rainbow Girls, and DeMolay. The Skokie Park District, in cooperation with the A.Z.A. and B.B.G. chapters of B'nai B'rith Youth Organizations, will provide fun games for young and old alike throughout the afternoon, with such contests as bubble-gum blowing, watermelon eating, frisbee toss, gunny-sack races, and others.

In addition, the Park District, under the coordination of Geni Erenberg, director of Oakton Community Center, will man 10 booths with more sedate games designed to entice and amuse the less-athletically inclined. The Skokie Imperial Drum Corps will appear in concert in the stadium about 3:30 p.m., according to their business manager, Manny Tucker. The Children's Petting Zoo and the hayrides — such big attractions last year — will be back, bigger and better than ever.

About 7 p.m. all of the activity will move to the stadium where Skokie Valley Symphony Orchestra will perform in a special Bicentennial Concert. It will be during this period, leading up to the fireworks display about 9:30 p.m., that Rotarians will auction the beaver hat Mayor Smith has been wearing the past several weeks.

The Old Town School of Folk Music will be on hand to entertain. And Chm. Gorell will award all prizes won in the various contests and races. And, of course, Ben Mostow will be out there strutting his stuff followed hopefully by a hundred others.

And for those who remember Roger Bannister when he became the first to run a mile in less than four minutes, think about this:

A couple of months ago, Mostow set Miami and Ft. Lauderdale folks on their collective ears when he clipped off 20 miles with his heel and toe routine in less than 4 hours. Most runners in the Boston Marathon (over that 26-mile route) would have a difficult time keeping up with this fabulous Skokian.

There will be more added to the schedule, so plan on spending this birthday party at home.
