NILES ALL AMERICAN SENIORS CLUB

December 14 started out bright and beautiful for our Christmas Party at the Lido. 105 people turned out for it, and we really missed the few that couldn't make it.

Miss Dee Dee and Miss Candy from the Dee Dee Dance Studio furnished some of our entertainment by teaching us the "Bump" and the "Hustle". Those that participated really enjoyed it, and those gals are wonderful.

Frank Youkoubek (our Musician) as usual was at his best with all our old favorites and it really looks good to see all our friends on the floor, all dressed up and having a good time. Frank played till 4 o'clock and we danced till 4, we never waste his music.

Our "President", Ruth Ritzmand had a ball giving out door prizes which were won by 15 lucky members. She gave ten bottles of Mogen Daivd herself to ward off the flu bug. Not a bad idea!!!!

A wonderful Christmas to all, and especially to the Bugle staff who print our news all year round. A big Thank You Too!!!!!

Summer job books available from Mikva

College students and high school seniors who are looking for summer jobs may obtain a brochure from Congressman Abner J. Mikva on employment opportunities with the federal government.

Each summer, the United States Government hires thousands of students for a variety of positions, Mikva said. Since there are many more applicants than positions, however, the students are encouraged to apply for other jobs in addition to seeking government employment for the summer.

The positions available are in Washington, D.C. and throughout the country.

"The requirements vary from agency to agency, but many of the positions are filled according to performance on a competitive examination. The deadline for applications to take this required test is Jan. 13," Congressman Mikva said. "Other jobs have different deadlines."

The examination is to be administered locally in February. The time and place of the test are still to be announced.

Students who are interested in obtaining the brochure may call Ilene Grossman in Congressman Mikva's Skokie office, 676-1350. The address is 4016 Church st., Skokie, Ill. 60076.

Gift wrapped babies

Babies born at Lutheran General Hospital, Park Ridge, during the Christmas season will be sent home in red Christmas stockings. The giant size stockings were hand made and decorated by members of the Morning Star Guild of Our Lady of Ransom Church, Niles and distributed by the hospital's Service League. Dolores Janus, Des Plaines, chairman of the Guild (left) and Mardell Richardson, Des Plaines, head nurse of the LGH nursery, gaze at Todd Matthew Smiley, Des Plaines, snuggled in one of the stockings.

Christmas festivities at Lutheran General Hospital

Family and friends who visit patients at Lutheran General Hospital, Park Ridge, on Christmas Eve are invited to enjoy holiday refreshments at the east end of the hospital's main lobby. The refreshments, cookies, coffee and punch, will be served free of charge by members of the hospital's Service League from 5 to 7 p.m.

"The holiday season can be a difficult time for patients and their loved ones," said Sandee Main, director of the Service League. "We hope to make the holidays, especially Christmas Eve and Christmas Day, as comfortable as possible for them."

At 5:30 p.m. on Christmas Eve, the 26 foot high cross atop the new eight-floor west wing addition will be lighted during a ceremony which is open to the public. The cross has been unlighted since last September when it was moved to its new location upon completion of the exterior of the addition.

Sister Mette Hagen, a 101-year-old Lutheran deaconess, will light the cross by remote control from her room in the School of Nursing, east of the hospital's main Building. Others participating in the ceremony will be able to view the lighting from the hospital's front lawn, where brief prayers will be offered and Christmas carols will be sung.

The cross is the same one that was lighted atop Lutheran General's original seven-story building when the hospital was officially dedicated on Christmas Eve, 1959. The ceremony and a tour of the new hospital was telecast by WLS-TV (then WBKB-TV) is an hour-long special program narrated by Norman Ross.

A special patient menu for Christmas Day is planned and patients may select an entree of roast prime rib of beef au jus, baked ham with raisin sauce or tomato stuffed with salmon salad, along with holiday eggnog and an ice cream Yule log.

Those visiting the hospital during the holiday season are also invited to view a historic exhibit in the hospital's coporate offices at the west end of the lobby. The exhibit consists of photographs, artifacts and memorabilia from Lutheran General Hospital's beginning in 1897 as the Norwegian Lutheran Deaconess Hospital in Chicago.

After she complied with his demand, the robber told her to go behind some clothing racks from where she heard him depart the store according to police.

He was described as 5 ft. 10 inches tall with dark hair and wearing a blue ski jacket, blue jeans and a blue ski cap.

Burglar Finds Victim at Home

It would have been difficult to determine who was more surprised--the burglar or his would-be victim after confrontation in the front hallway of the north Oriole resident's home on Sunday evening.

The victim told police he and his wife were alone in their basement around 8 p.m. when he went upstairs to investigate a noise, coming face to face with a stranger standing in his front hall.

The intruder ran out the front door and north on Oriole. Entry had been gained thru breaking the glass in the front door, according to police.

Attempted Breakin

The Palatine owner of an apartment building at 9042 Cumberland told police someone attempted to break into the basement apartment on Thursday evening. Cost to repair the lock and damage to door was estimated at $300.

Women's World

OCC women's classes

Skills and strategies which can improve educational, family, and career situations are the topics for two semester break "mini courses" planned by the Oakton Community College Women's Program.

In "Decision-Making Skills", participants will learn to explore their decision-making processes and obstacles and conflicts which prevent them from making the best possible decision. Leading this "mini" will be Gale Grossman, career counselor for Oakton's Adult Career Resource Center. The class, beginning, Jan. 4, will meet Tuesdays and Thursdays from 9:30 a.m. until noon for two weeks.

"Effective Study Habits" is aimed particularly at the woman who is considering a return to school but feels she has forgotten how to study. Instructor Kathy Riordan, who has taught at Mundelein College in Chicago, and for MONACEP, Oakton's Adult and Continuing Education Program, will outline effective study skills which increase the enjoyment of learning. Beginning on Jan. 3, this class will meet Mondays and Wednesdays from 9 a.m. until noon for two weeks.

Tuition is $10 for "Decision-Making Skills" and $12 for "Effective Study Habits". For further information, or to register, call 967-5120, ext. 350.

Assertiveness training

Beginning and advanced classes in assertiveness training will be offered as "semester break minis" by the Oakton Community College Women's Program.

Designed for those with no previous background in assertiveness, "Assertiveness Training I" teaches participants to express their beliefs in an honest, direct, and appropriate way, without being either aggressive or non-assertive.

"Assertiveness Training II", open only to those who have learned the fundamentals of assertiveness in previous workshops or classes, will emphasize behavior rehearsal, role playing, and reinforcement of assertive actions.

Both courses will be held on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 1-3 p.m. for two weeks, beginning on Jan. 4. Tuition for either workshop is $20.

For further information, call the Women's Program Office at 967-5120, ext. 350.

Psychology of personal growth classes

It's not too late to register for special women's classes offered during the spring term at Oakton Community College, according to Patricia Handzel, Director of Non-Traditional Student Programs.

Many community women have taken Psychology of Personal Growth (PSY 107F; which is designed to build self-confidence, understanding of self, and development of life-time goals, she said.

She announced that special sections of this class will be offered for the spring term for women over 25 both on campus and in convenient community locations such as St. John's Lutheran Church, Lincolnwood; Northwest Suburban Jewish Congregation, Morton Grove; First Congregational Church, Des Plaines; and the Mayer Kaplan Jewish Community Center, Skokie.

These three credit hour classes meet once each week at times and locations which are convenient to most women.

Another special class for women offered in spring semester will be "The Individual In Modern Society: Focus on Women" (SCC 101-04) which is taught by Trudy Bers, associate professor of political science.

This class will be offered on the Oakton Interim Campus on Wednesdays from 12:30-3:20 p.m.

For information concerning registration, contact the Women's Program office, 967-5120, ext. 350.

OCC grad wins writing scholarship

Eva Gross of Skokie, a 1976 graduate of Oakton Community College, has been awarded a four-year talent scholarship from Northeastern Illinois University.

The scholarship, awarded for excellence in student publications, was presented to Ms. Gross for her chapbook, "Defiance", published last spring by the Oakton Writers' Club.

Ms. Gross received an associate of applied arts degree from Oakton and is currently studying at Columbia College in Chicago. "Defiance" is catalogued at the Skokie Public Library and is available for sale at college and university bookstores throughout the Chicagoland area.

In addition, Ms. Gross has had many favorable comments on her work, including letters from U.S. Rep. Abner Mikva (D-10) and television newsman Walter Jacobsen.

Boy Scout Troop 175

On Friday, Dec. 17, Boy Scout Troop 175 commuted to Maryville Academy in Des Plaines, where they entertained at a Christmas party for the residents. The scouts led those in attendence in the singing of Christmas Carols and then performed several skits for the enjoyment of all. Each of the troop's patrols organized and wrote their own skit as a Christmas project for this party. The highlight of the evening was the appearance of Santa Claus, who distributed the gifts which were provided by Boy Scout Troop 175.

Pack 45

With the scouting season well under way, Pack #45 from Oak School has been busy taking a bike hike, a car trip to Green Meadows Farm in Wisconsin, swimming at Maine East High and having a paper drive and a bake sale, with the help of all the scouts' moms and dads.

This year's activities came to a close with a Pack Christmas Party which was highlighted by two pinatas made by Mrs. Socorro Galindo, and, of course, a visit from Santa Claus.

To start off the new year, the scouts are planning a roller skating party to be held Jan. 12.

NEVER JUDGE A BANK BY ITS COVER.

It's true. We admit it. Right now, we aren't the best looking bank in the world. And it may be several months before our building and redecoration is finished. But—we've got our assets. Millions of them.

What we want you to know is, we're very, very much in business. We're making loans. Small ones. Big ones. We're paying top interest on savings accounts. We're a full service bank. We're close. We're convenient. In other words, we're a great bank to be in, even if we're not quite glamorous yet.

We welcome you to stop by. To bank. To borrow. To save. Or to do all three. Get to know us. Give us a chance to be your friend. And remember: Looks aren't everything.

DPTG holds open readings for March comedy

Open readings have been scheduled for Jan. 9 and 10 at Guild Playhouse in Des Plaines for Des Plaines Theatre Guild's March production, The Silver Whistle. Tryouts will begin at 2 p.m. on Sunday, and 8 p.m. on Monday at 620 Lee st (U.S. 12-45 North at U.S. 14).

Richard Sitt of Chicago will direct the Robert McEnroe comedy about a hobo and confidence man who hides out in a retirement home pretending to be 77 years old, tho he is really only half that age. While living among the old folks, this fanciful vagabond brings magic and enchantment to the elderly inmates, keeping them so busy with exciting activities that they recapture a zest for living they had thought forever lost.

The Silver Whistle provided actor Jose Ferrer with one of the most colorful roles of his career when the comedy was first presented in New York, and was equally successful for Lloyd Nolan on tour, and for Clifton Webb in a movie version of the story titled "Mr. Belvidere Rings A Bell".

Besides the leading character, Oliver Erwenter, roles to be cast include Miss Tripp, the young and pretty manager of the old folks home, Rev. Watson, her fiance and minister of the church next door, and Emmett, the vagabond's restless pal.

Other characters to be cast are Mrs. Sampler, a coy and flirtatious former belle, thrice-widowed and looking for husband number four; Mr. Bebee, an old codger who still dreams of himself as quite a card with women; and a half-dozen other assorted elderly men and women who live in the retirement home.

The Silver Whistle will be presented for three week-ends, March 4 thru 20, following Des Plaines Theatre Guild's current production, The Night of January 16 which is playing Jan. 7 thru 23. For further details, or ticket reservations, call the Guild Playhouse box office, 296-1211, between noon and 8 p.m. daily.

North Shore Hilton offers 2 New Year's Eve parties

Do you hate the sobering thought of driving home after a festive New Year's Eve party? The North Shore Hilton Hotel in Skokie has a solution that not only provides you with a gala New Year's Eve party, but with a hotel room!

The hotel, located at 9599 Skokie blvd. (kitty-corner from Old Orchard Shopping Center), has two parties from which to choose, but if you choose the festivities downstairs in the ballroom, a hotel room comes with the deal.

For a price of $42.95, partygoers may choose the Big Band Party in the ballroom. Included are dinner, dancing, and a room for overnight. Starting at 8:00, there is a cocktail hour followed by a prime rib dinner, dancing to the Big Band Sound of Bill Porter and His Band, a champagne toast at midnight and all the party favors, noisemakers and hats. Brunch is served the next day.

If you're inclined to going home after a full night of partying, the North Shore Hilton is also offering a late night dinner party at the Top of the Hilton, the room that offers diners a thrilling view of downtown Chicago and a glittering, glowing North Shore. This is a black-tie only affair.

Starting at 10:00 and running through 2:00, the party offers an open bar all night, full dinner with a choice of main entrees: Rack of Lamb roasted in herbs, grilled twin tournedos or walnut fried Boston sole. Music and dancing starts at 10 -- at 11:30 Frank D'Rone, well-known nightclub singer, beings to entertain. Favors and hats and noise makers plus a champagne toast at midnight are also included. This package costs $38.95 and reservations are a must. Half payment for the evening is due by Dec. 17 as the hotel can accommodate only the first 200 reservations.

If you can't make either party, the North Shore Hilton can accommodate you for dinner at the Top of the Hilton from 6 until 9. This is a "mini-package" of the gala party. Diner, for a set price of $18 per person, will enjoy the same dinner as the 10:00 diner, and the meal includes wine.

All prices include tax and tip.

Community theatre

"Community Theatre — Is There A Place For Me?" is the topic of a two-session course offered by the Oakton Community College Women's Program during the college's semester break.

Scheduled for Thursday, Jan. 6 and 13, the class will include a discussion of all aspects of community theatre — which groups are available, and how one gets involved, opportunities other than acting, and preparing for an audition.

The sessions will be led by Karol Verson, a Niles resident who has been active in community theatre for over 15 years and has built her avocation into a career.

Tuition for this course is $10 and child care is available for children over three for an additional 60 cents per hour.

To register or make child care arrangements, call the Women's Program Office at 967-5120, ext. 350.

Martha's Vineyard to feature "Mariah" as main attraction

Mariah, a song-and-dance group, has been signed by Vineyard '77 as the feature attraction of the annual stage-and-cabaret show produced by St. Martha Church in Morton Grove.

The 11-performer group, which has appeared with such stars as Bob Hope, Jerry Lewis and Marty Allen, has a wide selection of musical and dance routines.

The gals and guys of the Chicago-based show group, who provide their own sound and instrumentation, has something of variety to suit all ages.

Vineyard '77, the fifth show produced by St. Martha's, 8523 Georgiana, will open for two consecutive weekends on Jan. 21, featuring four cabaret shows in addition to the main attraction, Mariah.

"Everything is meshing smoothly as we head into the final weeks toward dress rehearsal and showtime," said Mary and Phil Saigh, of the Vineyard planning committee.

"Vineyard '77 promises to be a wonderful variety delight."

Lydia Boetto, ticket chairwoman, said the advance sale of tickets has been brisk.

1st National of Morton Grove offers holiday gifts

Picking out a Christmas gift at First National Bank of Morton Grove is a pleasant task for Dorothy Cozzo (left) of Morton Grove and Audrey Krusnis of Des Plaines. Choice of seven gifts --- including corn popper, coffeemaker, blanket and cookbook -- are available to anyone who deposits minimum of $300 in new or existing savings account during the holiday season.

Nostalgia Party at Northwest Federal

Chuch Schaden, Chicago's nostalgia radio host, has written a Nostalgia Party Planner which will be available free of charge to visitors to any office of North West Federal Savings during Auld Lang Syne Week, Dec. 27 thru 31.

Schaden's Nostalgia Party Planner offers suggestions for a Roaring Twenties party, a Hard-Times Thirties get-together, a Frantic Forties fun-fest, and a Fabulous Fifties gathering.

Schaden will make a special personal appearance in the lobby of North West Federal's Harlem-Irving office on Thursday evening, Dec. 30 from 6 to 9 p.m. He'll be on hand to autograph copies of his Nostalgia Party Planner and to reminisce with visitors about the early days of radio. There will be an exhibit of various vintage radio premiums and souvenirs as well as a display of antique radios from the 1920s and 30s, courtesy of Pequod's Restaurant in Morton Grove.

Poster Contest winners

The two winners were in the city-wide poster contest sponsored by the Chicago Area Council of Savings Associations.

Steven Pelkowski of Des Plaines is a sixth grade student at Friendship School. He won first prize of $100 in the fifth and sixth grade category.

John Letscher of Niles is a fifth grader at St. John Brebeuf School. He won a $50 second place prize in the same category.

Both boys entered their posters in the judging through North West Federal Savings. Kapolnek awarded the prize money at the association's annual Christmas party for young savers on Dec. 5.

In state-wide judging, John and Steve were awarded honorable mention.

Save 1976 tax dollars with IRA

Individual Retirement Savings Account

Under new pension reform legislation, a qualifying individual may set aside as much as $1500, or 15% of income, with taxes deferred until retirement. Compounding of tax-deferred interest on these savings over the years generates more dollars to build a retirement fund much, much larger than would be possible with taxed dollars. Ask Skokie Federal to show you the surprising figures. And don't wait. Use 1976 tax dollars to start building your retirement fund.

Brookwood preparing Christmas gifts

John Young and Tom Lysiak, residents of Brookwood Healthcare Centre, 2380 W. Dempster, Des Plaines enjoy their work on the salad bowls they plan to give as Christmas gifts this year.

They first sand the bowls and then oil them well with mineral oil. Children, teens and adults as well as the elderly can enjoy adding their own labors as well as creative touches to the bowls. They can even be stained, burned with special wood burning instruments or left in their natural wood tones.

The 14" unprepared "salad bowls" can be purchased at craft stores for much below the price of finished bowls.

They make inexpensive gifts with the added deminsion of being "hand worked."
