Court ok's ITC position on Niles township ballot

Elated by the 4-2 decision of the Illinois State Supreme Court returning its candidates to the April 5 Township election ballot, the Independent Township Caucus campaigned with renewed enthusiasm this week. "The Cook County bosses attempted to install one-party rule here through political control of the county election board and the circuit court," said Charles Anderson, Supervisor, but they have failed again as they failed four years ago.

The Independent Caucus announced their renewed opposition to a county plan to build a courthouse-jail in Niles Township unless "local public hearings are

County Board President George Dunne's curt refusal even to consider public hearings angered Anderson and his party, causing the party to enter an official protest statement into the county board records, a statement presented in person by Anderson on Monday.

Citizens committee chairman Abe Eiserman, a former suburban mayor and member of the Metropolitan Sanitary District Board of Trustees, expressed disbelief that President Dunne could dismiss the legitimate concerns of this community with a casual "Sorry about the public upset."

In a letter to the editor of a local newspaper chain, the Independent Township Caucus re-stated their opposition citing a Sun-Times poll of March 20 showing 95% of the 12,476 persons polled said street crime was the No. 1 issue among 23 presented.

You really have to pump yourself up before each election time in our communities in order not to become as disinterested as most of the residents. It's really the job of the newspapers to stimulate the community's interests so they will at least read about the candidates, and hopefully, go to the polls and make a reasonable choice.

In both our township elections, residents should be in there slugging it out with the candidates. And in our village elections, there should be many questions asked before voters support any candidates.

In Morton Grove, the David Cohen fiasco, which sent the former trustee to jail, should be a well-banded issue in the village election. And in Niles, even though there is no competition for village posts, residents should be asking Nick Blase and his trustee candidates about the many problems which have centered around the police department thru the years. Three grand jury investigations indicate all is not well in the department.

Over in School District 63, one of the three candidates was alleged to be the candidate of the Maine Township Democrats when he ran previously. And a second candidate indicates he supports the superintendent's handling of the school district while the incumbent is quite wary of the district superintendent.

Unfortunately, unless the community newspapers bring out issues, there is little light shed in our many districts. And residents, who find little time to attend public meetings, blindly pay their taxes and accept what goes on within their many public districts without a whimper.

In Niles the reason why Nick Blase is free of opposition for the second time is not because he is doing an exceptional job. He has devoured any opposition to his Party by gathering in all people who begin to show an interest in public matters.

Morton Grove needs a complete catharsis. The only community without a village manager in this area, it needs professional help badly.

In both Niles and Morton Grove, they should borrow a page from School District 63 by hiring a management firm to

Village presents $5,000 check to Library

Village of Niles Trustee Carol Panek is shown presenting Martin Hodes, president of the Niles Library Board, a check for $5,000. The money, given by the village, is from revenue sharing money and will be used to further equip the Niles Branch Library in Shoppers Walk.

Trustee Panek, chairman of last year's bi-centennial commission, also presented Mr. Hodes a book entitled "The Spirit of '76". The book contains short stories of lesser known Americans who made history during the last 200 years. The book is now available for all to see and read at the Niles Public Library.

Proposed improvement of library facilities

The Board of Library Trustees of Niles Public Library District, Cook County, Illinois, at a regular meeting held on Wednesday, the 9th day of March, 1977, adopted a resolution approving a plan for constructing and equipping an addition to, and remodeling, the present library at 6960 Oakton st., purchasing for library purposes the site and existing building known as "Shoppers' Walk" at 9030 N. Milwaukee ave., and an estimate of the cost of such project. The plan and the financing therefor will be considered at a regular meeting of the Board of Library Trustees to be held at 6960 Oakton st., on Wednesday, the 13th day of April, 1977, at 8 o'clock p.m., and at which time the Board will adopt an ordinance calling an election on the proposition to issue bonds to finance said project.

The plan and estimate of cost are available for public inspection at the office of the Secretary at 6960 Oakton st., Niles, during regular business hours.

NILES ALL AMERICAN SENIORS CLUB

St. Patrick's Day was celebrated in a very unique manner by our Seniors. A White Elephant (or more appropriately a Green Elephant) took over the traditional day. Many beautiful and useful articles were donated by our members. Raffle items not only increased our treasury fund, but also brought joy to the lucky winners who, no doubt, must have been carrying four leaf clovers this day.

This event proved to be a very successful affair as one's discard became another's treasure. Refreshments were served following the event after which many a club member happily headed homeward with their prized possession.

The James Dowlings recently returned from a three week stay in Florida. They advised the weather was just about the same as that we are enjoying here in Niles these days. They enjoyed the rest and change in scenery very much.

Best wishes were extended to Marie Richlowski and Florence Mulhall after they bade farewell to fellow members. They are now residing in the Chicago area and promise to visit us, occasionally, in the future.

Maine South stops Notre Dame 4-1

Maine South ended the hopes of this year's Notre Dame hockey squad in the state tournament with a hard earned 4-1 victory on Mar. 17 at the Oakton Recreation Complex in the finals of the Park Ridge Sectional. Notre Dame had gained the finals the night before with an 11-1 trouncing of Forest View after the Hawks of Maine South had downed Gordon Tech 7-0. Against Forest View, Don Hitzel and Dave Doody both tallied three and Bill Madura chipped in with two. Chris Vana, Larry DeSalvo, and Mark Entwistle had solo markers as the Dons rolled to a 42-19 advantage in shots on goal.

Against Maine South, the Dons jumped out to a quick 1-0 lead when Don Hitzel pounced on a rebound of a Bill Madura shot with only 13 seconds gone in the first period. The Hawks roared back for the equalizer two minutes later when Bob Havlic converted a pass out from Danny Sullivan. After Hawk netminder Tyler Hofnagle was able to stand off ND, the Hawks took a lead they were never to relinquish on a score by Sullivan with three minutes left in the period. The second period was scoreless with both goalkeepers turning in brilliant performances and ND's Bob Miller was particularly sharp in stopping Marshall of South on a breakaway. South opened a 3-1 lead on Mike Sifferman's tally with five minutes left in the 3rd period. A clearing shot by the Hawks settled in the empty Dons' net with another showing on the scoreboard and Notre Dame's season had come to an abrupt end. The final ledger showed ND at 51-17-4 for the season.

Niles Hockey League

Midget AA
Niles Midgets clinched first place in the Continental Division with a 5-1 win over Schaumburg and a 2-0 win over Deerfield. Niles' goalie Ed Burke registered the shut-out with Jeff Sliva and Joe Glasgow scoring the goals. Ed Hoffman, Dave Siegel, Vince Corona and Frank Angiulo had the assists. Congratulations Niles Midgets!

Squirt AA
In an exciting hockey game at home, Niles and Hoffman Estates skated to a 4-4 tie. Jeff Malik scored two goals for the Sharks and Pat Aquilla and Jonathan Cohen each contributed one. Composono, Christiansen and Hajduk each got an assist.

The Niles Squirts played host to the Fort Wayne 76ers and each team came away with one win. The first game went to the 76ers by a score of 6 to 3. On Sunday morning, the Sharks came out ready to avenge that defeat and handed the Fort Wayne team a 2-1 loss. Mike Composono and Jeff Dash assisted on Jeff Malik's two goals. This was truly a team win as every Shark came on the ice determined to skate their hardest and play their best. Chuck Heintzelman played an especially great game in the net.

Soccer player earns recognition

Maine East junior John Lee of Morton Grove has been selected to the All-Midwest soccer team. Only 33 players from an 18 state area were chosen.

John has played soccer for Maine East since his freshman year. On varsity this past season he started as center halfback, but he was then moved to center forward.

Welfare experts recommend changes at Mikva conference

The federal government should pay the full cost of welfare, but administration of the program should remain at the local level, a group of welfare experts recommended to Congressman Abner J. Mikva Saturday.

Sixteen witnesses testified on welfare reform at an all-day conference sponsored by Mikva in the Wilmette Village Hall, and discussed topics ranging from job training for the poor to elimination of welfare fraud. The consensus of their testimony favored removing all burden of funding from the states.

After the conference, Congressman Mikva said he is convinced that bureaucratic red tape is strangling the effectiveness of the programs including Medicaid, Medicare and Supplemental Security Income, and that fraud must be eliminated to effectively assist those who need help.

"Several witnesses testified about the negative impact of proliferation of welfare programs that overlap, regulations that contradict each other and the web of paperwork that consumes most of their time. One caseworker said it took 20 minutes to fill out the papers to obtain one pencil. This is just the kind of inefficiency and waste that should be cut if the worthwhile aspects of Medicare, Medicaid and the other programs for the needy are to work," Mikva continued. He also emphasized that local administration will help cut fraud from the various programs.

The Congressman called the conference to gather from people who work with welfare their expertise about their experiences, problems and recommendations. The House Ways and Means Committee, of which he is a member, will receive the Carter Administration's proposal for welfare reform later this spring. Mikva also plans to forward the testimony to HEW Secretary Joseph Califano and to the other members of a Congressional welfare reform task force on which Mikva is participating.

Many witnesses said that welfare is a national program that can best be worked into budget priorities at the national level, thus relieving the states of part of their financial burden during this period when many states are in such a tight budget situation. Their testimony stressed that it is equally important to allow state and local governments to administer welfare because they are closest to the recipients and are most familiar with their needs. State Representative Roger Keats said in testimony that the states could have tight budget control to cut welfare fund.

There was less consensus about the advisability of splitting welfare into two parts -- one program for the employable poor and another for those whose handicaps or other medical problems make them unemployable.

Panelists at the conference were Mikva; Harold Richman, dean of the University of Chicago's School of Social Service Administration; Gerald Goldstein and Bernard Friedman, professors of economics at Northwestern University, Evanston.

In his testimony, Joel Edelman, former director of the Illinois Department of Public Aid, recommended that the federal government set standards for welfare, insure uniformity of benefits throughout the country, set broad guidelines, conduct audits of expenditures and monitor performance. The states should supply part of the funding implement the system within federal guidelines and be accountable for the outcome and for meeting specified targets, according to Edelman's recommendations.

Dr. Joyce Lashof, former director of the Illinois Department of Public Health, said Medicaid has been successful in improving the health of many needy people, but added that many poor are still ineligible under the program's requirements. She said a national health insurance plan is necessary to provide high-quality health care for all Americans.

Clyde Downing, an HEW regional commissioner from the Chicago regional office, said it is the responsibility of the federal government to end the disparities among states' welfare levels. Another HEW official, Leza Gooden, said one of the primary goals in welfare reform should be improvement of coordination and communication among the different levels of government involved in welfare delivery.

The League of Women Voters strongly supports having the federal government set national welfare standards and emphasizes that any reform package should include job counseling and meaningful job training for welfare recipients, according to testimony by Janet Otwell of Evanston, vice-president of the Illinois League of Women Voters.

Officials from Evanston, Niles and New Trier Township stressed the desirability of administering welfare at the local level. Those offering testimony supporting

Skyway All-Conference Team member

Tom Arns, guard for the Oakton Raiders, was selected to the all-conference team by the Skyway Community College basketball coaches.

Arns, a freshman, gained all-conference status by leading the conference in assists, averaging almost 10 per game. The 5'8" graduate of Niles West is a fine team player and Raider Coach Tom Jorndt expects him to be a standout in the conference again next year.

Woman jailed in attempt to marry her girlfriend

by Alice M. Bobala
A 23 year old Chicago woman was sentenced March 18 in Niles Third District Court to 364 days in jail following an attempt to gain a marriage license to marry another woman.

Nancy Davis had been arrested for picketing the Marriage License Bureau in Chicago after she and her girlfriend, 21 year old Toby Schneider, were turned down for a marriage license. Police said Nancy was arrested shortly after the 5 p.m. closing of the Bureau for "interfering with the operation of the building". Toby said she went home because she didn't want to go back to jail.

Both women had 2 prior convictions in their attempt to obtain a marriage license; a jail sentence for 30 days and another for 364 days in Dwight (Ill.) penitentiary. Both had been released last Feb. 26 police said after serving 8 months of the 364 day sentence at Dwight. Nancy Davis was arrested again in March at the Chicago Bureau.

Dressed in knee high boots, jeans and a T-shirt Nancy appeared before Third District Circuit Court Judge George Zimmerman with a court appointed, assistant Public Defender Allen Spector. Altho her attorney cited previous similar cases which had been thrown out of court, Judge Zimmerman ruled in favor of State Prosecutor Edward Bienuzis that "by denying the right to close the Bureau and allow employees to go home (the defendant) interfered with the building operation," sentencing Ms. Davis to another 364 days in jail.

Toby Schneider, present during the court proceedings, said in an interview that both women were members of the Civil Rights Gay Action Coalition, a Chicago chapter of 30 members.

"There is no law we can't get married," she said. "Bernard Carey is just voicing an opinion." With Nancy behind bars ("she'll be out in 10 months if she goes to County Jail and in 8 months if sent to Dwight") 21 year old Toby said she would be "working on a Writ of Mandamus, a court order authorizing the County Clerk to issue marriage licenses to homosexuals ... there is no law against members of the same sex marrying," she insisted.

Toby said she was "openly gay for 5 years," having previously worked for two lesbians.

Accompanying Toby was Jeff Graubert, 24, who said he was also a member of the Gay Coalition group formed in 1973. "We demand equal rights ... federal and state laws for every citizen are blocked when it comes to us," he said, noting he had been a homosexual all his life ... "I didn't know others existed ..."

"(President) Jimmy Carter said everyone living in sin should get married ... we're just trying to do what he says."

ITC candidates kick-off rally Sunday

Township Trustee Ed Kaufman of Niles this week invited the general public to "get aboard the freedom train" by supporting candidates of the Independent Township Caucus who have won the approval of the Supreme Court to get back onto the ballot after having been "thrown off" by their opponents.

"Everyone who wants to preserve the two-party system, with freedom of choice, and freedom from domination by outside bosses, is invited to join us Sunday, March 27 from 4 until 7 p.m. at the Morton House, 6201 Lincoln ave. in Morton Grove for a kick-off rally for freedom in Niles Township," said Kaufman. "Tickets are $10.

"We have just completed a bicentennial celebration marking 200 years of individual liberty and freedom of choice throughout America," said Kaufman. "but freedom is in danger on April 5 right here in Niles Township. We urge everyone to help."

Help Fire Department protect your home and life

Our local Fire Chief, Albert L. Hoelbl, has provided this 13 article series on fire prevention and emergency procedures in the interest of greater safety in the community. The material and statistics have been compiled from information which comes across Chief Hoelbl's desk. He feels, in sharing this with the local citizens, some fire losses may be prevented, and perhaps even unnecessary loss of life.

This article is No. 1 in my series on fire prevention and emergency procedures relating to your fire department. So many times, after we find ourselves heartsick because we can readily see that often the great financial and personal losses, and many times even loss of life, could have been avoided or lessened if only the occupants of the home involved had known what to do, or had not panicked.

Latest figures on national fire losses show that last year 2.85 billion dollars worth of buildings (all types of structures), were lost to fire. And, as if that were not bad enough, loss of life was approximately 12,000 people. The number of structural fires in the nation was 2,512,000. The residence category was the highest with 542,380 fires involving private homes, with a total dollar loss of $486,540,000. Of course, it would be difficult to say how much of these losses could have been avoided, but statistics indicate a great many lives could be saved and residential fire losses could be drastically lowered if people were made aware of the dangers they court in common, everyday practices in the home.

Over the next 12 weeks I want to give the people in the community helpful suggestions which I have gleaned from national statistics. Some of the subjects we will cover in this series are: Family fire drills and why you should conduct them ... ridding your home of potential fire hazards ... fire extinguishers ... when to call the fire department and what to do while you await the arrival of the firemen ... electrical danger signals that could mean fire ... carelessness and how it causes fires ... home use of flammables ... spontaneous combustion, what it is, how it works ... explosives in the home ... fire hazards in your yard ... fire detection devices for home use. We'll also discuss what to do after you've called the fire department rescue squad ... in case of heart attack ... drowning ... severe burns ... escaping gas and other emergency situations.

For those in our community who are familiar with all this information the series ahead will serve only as a good reminder of things that should be kept in mind. Others, who find some of the information new, will do well to clip each article for family study and future reference.

I want to assure everyone that the local fire department wants to be of service to the community in every possible manner. If we can prevent just one unnecessary loss of property or life we will have served the citizens well in our constant search for better methods of fire prevention and life-saving.

Be with me next week in this paper when my subject will be Family Fire Drills.

Facts about the Knights of Columbus

There are over 5,000 local branch councils in the Knights of Columbus with North American Martyrs council #4338 in Niles being a branch council.

The society has four degrees of membership dedicated to the lessons of Charity, Unity, Fraternity and Patriotism. These form the four basic pillars on which the idealism of the association is built.

Among its many activities the society spends almost $1 million a year to foster moral principles and an understanding of the teachings of the Catholic Church. It also underwrites a number of scholarship and educational programs with an estimated value of almost $3 million a year. The order is also a leading sponsor of Boy Scout groups and other youth associations and recently has pledged $50,000 to support a Boy Scout leadership training project. In addition it conducts leadership training programs for the young through its own youth organization, the Columbian Squires.

The K. of C. has several programs in which the Knights become community involved, the K. of C. Retardation drive held yearly, the Newman apostolate program which has distributed more than an estimated $1 million to Newman centers on secular campuses in the State and State Disaster Fund that has given churches, hospitals, schools and communities damaged by fire, flood or high winds more than $60,000 in the past years.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH Resurrection parents' clubs meeting

The First Baptist Church of Niles (The Country Chapel), 7339 Waukegan rd., concluded their contest "Mount Up As Wing's As Eagles" with Mrs. Arletta Rieser of the Red team defeating Mrs. Fay Wilson, leader of the Blue team.

During the contest, the teacher who had the higher percentage of increase in his class was honored by wearing a trophy during the Sunday service. But, "woe unto the teacher" who had the lowest percentage, he had to wear the onion during the service.

Mr. Rich Smierciak, teacher, of the junior boys, won the trophy for having the most increase of attendance over that of the adults. The success of this contest was due to the pastor, teacher, students, and the Lord.

of Interest to Women

Woman's Club of Niles celebrates 23rd birthday

There are 23 candles on the birthday cake for the Woman's Club of Niles and as the saying goes, "they're not getting older; they're getting better!"

The Woman's Club, affiliated with the Tenth District Illinois Federation of Women's Clubs, was organized on March 25, 1954, by a dozen or so civic-minded women who saw a need for philanthropic service within the village. Their monthly evening meetings were arranged with social activities and programs that emphasized both education and entertainment. But there purpose was not all "coffee and..." because through the years the ladies have combined their talents and organizational abilities and can now take credit for an impressive list of accomplishments.

The first public library was spearheaded and manned by a small group of members who saw to it that a little room set aside at the Grennan Heights Fieldhouse offered a temporary library facility to a village that was fast growing and in need of such a service. After Niles Public Library was organized, the Woman's Club regrouped and became the Friends of the Library, a public relations agency to promote better library service and facilities. Cash donations and gifts have been contributed and recently a perpetual garden and fountain was presented as a memorial to past-president Vivian Egan.

In addition to adopting an Amerasian child through the Pearl S. Buck Foundation, the Woman's Club has this year been asked to run the Village Cooperative Blood program. Preparations are now being made to take over this most important function. Each year workers are provided for the TB mobile unit, the Salvation Tag Day, the Niles Days booths as well as nurse and clerical volunteers for the pre-school visual screening, polio vaccine clinics, measles inoculations and other health clinics. Together with the General Federation of Women's Clubs they have helped provide Kidney Disease Detection Kits for use in grade schools.

Their musical group known as "Kitchen Kut-ups" provide funds for scholarships. Another achievement, organization of the Niles Art Guild, is dedicated to promoting art culture in the village. Niles Historical and Art Society, a newly established organization was founded by Woman's Club members as well as other community groups. The society has assisted with five operettas as fund-raising projects in the hope that some day a building to house a museum and art center will be a reality. Last year as a kick-off to the Bicentennial celebration in the village, the Woman's Club and the Niles Bicentennial Commission co-sponsored a musical comedy about American History entitled "America, We Love You! or A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Bicentennial". This production earned $3,000 which will help fund a historical plaque to be erected at "Dutchman's Point" to honor our early settlers. As a tribute to these early settlers the Woman's Club decided to emulate them and through their Sewing Group they designed and made a Bicentennial quilt which was entered in several local contests and won awards.

The following projects have been aided directly or indirectly by the club through the years: Park Ridge School for Girls, Orchard Association for Retarded Children, Veteran's Hospital, Servicemen, Nursing Homes, Drug Abuse Centers, the Indian Center, the Village Ecology Recycling program, Forgotten Children's Funds, the Niles Paramedics Program, Visiting Nurses Assoc., Leukemia, Diabetes, Kidney and Cancer Research Foundations, Conservation, Music, Art, Indian, Nurses and Psychiatry Scholarships, Channel 11 and others.

There is a sewing group, pinnoke, bridge, bowling, and book review groups, art classes, Maj-jong lessons, monthly luncheons and new this summer an eight week golf league, besides a monthly program that is varied and always entertaining.

Though they number only 100 in membership, the Club has the energy and vitality of a thousand. For information on how to become one of them, please phone 966-0916.

Mr. and Mrs. Goldstick will be calling on community leaders and institutions asking them to help tell about the need for foster parents.

Boys and girls who need foster parents often have had distressing and difficult experiences; they need families who will care for them. Foster parents volunteer their love, care and home. The Jewish Children's Bureau pays for the child's expenses and provides additional services like counseling and special education and recreation programs if the child needs them.

Couples who would like to know more about foster parenthood are encouraged to call—without obligation—Mr. or Mrs. Goldstick at 967-9098 or Mrs. Charlotte Ruark, supervisor of community care at the Jewish Children's Bureau, 346-6700.

LETTERS to EDITOR

Alan Soell writes "an open letter"

Dear Editor:

An Open Letter to the taxpayers, faculty, administration, staff, students and friends of Oakton Community College:

"Dear Dr. Koehnline:

I have just read an article which appeared on page twelve of The Bugle, Thursday, March 10, 1977 under "Letters to the Editor". I am shocked, appalled and incensed that my name was used under such a malicious article. I have never written or had communication of any kind with any newspaper or other media with regard to Oakton Community College or its administration.

It is my understanding that other article(s) have appeared in other newspapers above my name. I have neither written nor authorized any such article.

You may be quite sure that I will pursue to the best of my abilities and to what lengths the law allows the origin of these spurious and slanderous statements attributed to me.

When I left Oakton Community College I made every effort to make the termination of my employment as positive as possible. It grieves me that someone or some group has taken it upon him(them)self to destroy what I worked so hard to achieve.

There are a number of people at Oakton Community College who I count as close professional associates and personal friends. Articles of the type which appeared in The Bugle are misleading and at least incongruent with my feelings.

I would appreciate any help you may be able to render in assisting me to identify the origin of these articles and wish, at this time, to offer you the same.

Sincerely,

Alan Soell"

Between the time that I have written this letter to Dr. Koehnline and the time that I have written this letter to you, he has contacted me and has given me his personal support in my efforts to find those involved with this slander. This brings me to an even far more reaching issue involving the newspapers themselves. I realize that many people write "Letters to the Editor" and it is necessary for the paper to publish the most relevant ones affecting the people of the community. But also involved is the responsibility of the Editor and the paper to make sure that they are authentic and legitimate by a process of thoroughly checking to see that the person(s) is sincere and accurate in their statements. Hopefully, this reckless attempt to take a "cheap shot" at the college will soon be resolved and not taken as a "true portrayal" of the way things are at Oakton. There are a lot of hard working and dynamic people at

Chicago, Ill. 60656

Dear Alan:

Thank you for your letter of explanation dated March 11. It was a relief to me to know that you had no connection with the two letters to which your name was signed. One of two letters in The Bugle used your name, and both letters in the Lerner Life used it. I believe both newspapers owe you an apology.

It is sad to think that the chances are that one of the persons you count as close professional associates and personal friends might have used you so shabbily. If I can identify the perpetrator beyond question, I will do so. Unless I have a very strong case, however, I will not point the finger of guilt. I would advise you to be equally cautious. Even telling the truth can be a libel.

I'm sorry to have been misled by the forged signature. All that I

The Bugle urges all its readers to submit Letters to the Editor pertaining to local issues or in response to editorials appearing in the paper. All letters must be signed and contain the name, address and telephone number of the writer. No letter will be printed in The Bugle unless this information is furnished. Of course, this information will not be printed if the writer requests same to be withheld.

TAP candidate 'keeps facts straight'

Dear Editor:

As long as Mr. Raffé is calling people "liars", I feel I must respond to one of his comments.

I am a candidate for township trustee. According to Mr. Raffé, all of the Awareness Party candidates are "card carrying Democrats" and have been either Democratic precinct captains or Democratic election judges.

I have never been a member of the Democratic Party. I have never been a Democratic Party precinct captain. I have never been a Democratic Party election judge.

Please try to keep your facts straight, Mr. Raffé.

Sincerely,

Glenn Kalin

Reader objects to Hanson and Besser columns

Dear Sir:

I agree with the letter in your March 10th issue of The Bugle. Mr. Ed Hanson's weekly columns are boring and written on a grade school level. His childish reply in this same issue verifies this.

More serious, however, is your column in the same issue regarding the "brown skinned" young man, Dexter Brown. While I am not personally acquainted with him I resent and take issue with your bigoted statement that half of the neighborhood would be up in arms if he moved next door.

No doubt there is still some prejudice remaining (racial and religious). However, I feel that we have made progress toward that day when we will have eliminated all barriers. Columns such as yours only postpone that day.

Very truly yours,

OCC professor responds to March 10 letter

Editor:

Too frequently individuals feel the necessity of sharing old problems with new groups until they find an audience receptive to their own particular solutions. I am referring to the difficulties anonymous faculty and staff of Oakton Community College claim to have with the school as printed earlier in your "Letters to the Editor" section.

Oakton administration, faculty and staff have pioneered a long needed community school of higher education. Unlike similar organizations College District #535 became fertilized in hard times when state and federal funds were becoming scarce and teachers were a dime a dozen. Fortunately for all, Oakton continues its growth when established colleges are experiencing enrollment decline. Furthermore, Oakton will complete its gestation with the birth of a new multi-million dollar campus along the Des Plaines river during 1978. No referendums or extra community tax dollars were asked for since conception back in 1969.

The seven past years have given most employees a sense of security. The school had opened and functioned with the concept of treating students and employees as human beings rather than the assembly line parts and products previously housed in the converted plant buildings. The great majority have appreciated this, but an insatiable minority are of the opinion that very little has been achieved through such new approaches.

And what an opportune time to bring their concerns to the community with four Board of Trustee seats open for the April election.

Recently faculty themselves have been confronted with the potential panacea to relieve further growth pains. The American Federation of Teachers has established a small chapter on campus. Until there is a 51% membership, it is highly unlikely that this body will be recognized as the speaking and bargaining agency in faculty governance. Their membership now stands at only about 15%.

Oakton like its sister institutions is under the careful watch of four year (transfer) colleges and universities, as well as the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, the Illinois Board of Higher Education, the Illinois Community College Board, the North-Central (accrediting) Association, the Division of Vocational-Technical Education and the leaders of our community trades and businesses who employ OCC grads. We have achieved their standards with few or no complaints.

I believe the issues and crisis here are of an internal nature and are primarily political. The public should be aware of this. It is difficult to present an accurate and complete story when over 300 employees and almost 12,000 students are involved. After reading similar letters critical of Oakton's administration and educational process in other papers by the same group, I am reminded of the proven tactic that if you frequently repeat something, to enough people, they begin to believe it.

Taxpayers are interested in and know what is really going at Oakton. They go to school here.

Sincerely,

John J. Mikulski

Park Board president responds to candidate Beusse's accusations

Dear Mr. Besser,

In last week's issue of the Niles Bugle headlines stated "SOS group charges park with hedging on promises". The article was supposed to be an unbiased report on our March 15 Park District Park Board Meeting. At least that was what I thought because it wasn't in the editorial column. The Bugle has had a fine reputation for objective news coverage but this reporter must have misplaced half of her notes. The article contained only accusations and comments made by individuals attending this meeting — not one word of the response made by board members.

I would like to take this opportunity to make all of the facts known. The people of Niles deserve the full story. The board was charged with "non-fulfillment of promises ... to the people of Niles" under the 1973 referendum by both Peter Salamoun and Candidate Walter Beusse. It was further stated that there is a surplus of $412,000 which should be expended immediately and "... that the board is not aware of what is going on" — "there is no plan".

Let it be known that the Niles Park District had a plan prior to the 1973 referendum. We would not have requested the residents to support a referendum if we didn't have a plan as to why we needed the money. This plan has remained basically the same since its inception, being updated each year. Work on the referendum items has proceeded steadily with few interruptions since the spring of 1974. Even though the referendum was passed in November of 1973, actual monies were not deposited into the Park District Account until January of 1974. Actual referendum money still remaining is $312,000 and this has been prudently invested so that the interest will bring additional benefits to the park district in the future.

Land acquisition was the number one priority following the referendum. ($2,200,000 of the total $2,715,000 was for land acquisition.) By May of 1976, almost all land for parks had been purchased. At the same time we had been working on development and as of the summer of 1976, over 500 trees and shrubs had been purchased and planted, 14 new tennis courts constructed, 5 shelters installed, 42 pieces of playground equipment purchased and installed, new drainage added, 4 new basketball courts constructed, picnic tables and benches purchased and placed in the parks, close to 800 feet of fencing erected, additional lighting put into the parks and much much more. Walt Beusse was quoted as saying "...nothing has been done in the past two years." If that is nothing, then it is an awful lot of nothing.

We have a fine staff of supervisory and maintenance personnel who have worked diligently to fulfill the referendum development plan but they are not super human. Only so much can be accomplished each year and I feel that an excellent job has been done so far.

No, we are not finished yet. When the weather permits, we will continue with our planned projects. True, we have not done any parks development since last fall. Mr. Beusse, have you ever tried to plant a tree or pour concrete when the temperature is twenty below zero?

The items left for completion will be used for additional improvements to facilities and parks. Items under consideration now are a new parking lot at the Recreation Center, renovation of the basement room at the ice rink for pre-school and other activities, additional drinking fountains in the parks and many more. We are definitely not lacking in ideas. I am sure that we have more ideas than we have money available. Mr. Beusse, please have the facts straight before making criticisms. You said, "I don't think you are aware of what is going on ... at Golf Mill Park." Golf Mill Park has received constant attention since its acquisition in 1975. This was a completely undeveloped site which had been used as a dumping ground for many years and has thus required more work than any other site. It has been excavated by two contractors, trees planted, rocks removed, playground equipment installed, 2 lighted tennis courts constructed, security lighting added, bumper posts installed, fencing erected and the park fertilized and seeded. No, the football field is not completed. Because of the nature of the site, we have had difficulty getting the seed to take but we have not abandoned any of our plans for this site. Would Mr. Beusse want us to sod a five acre park? I prefer waiting for the seed to grow.

We will complete our referendum plan. And as always, we will be on hand to meet with any citizens group who requests our attendance. I will personally meet with Mr. Walt Beusse so that he may become an informed candidate running for the Park Board.

Sincerely,

Millie Jones
President of the Niles

Numerable park district accomplishments

Dear Editor:

I have never written a letter such as this before but I felt I could not leave certain statements by Walt Beusse, candidate for the Niles Park Board, unanswered. This man seems to feel that nothing has been done in the park district for the last two years. I wonder where he has been during this time, certainly not observing the park district. To list all the things accomplished would take too long but I would like to name a few: eliminating or combining positions to cut expenditures, joint purchasing of supplies to reduce cost, landscaping of parks, improvements of facilities, new and exciting recreation programs and a closer working relationship with the village. This last item resulted in the purchase of two buses for the park district by the Village. Revenue Sharing Funds will be used for the purchase so that this acquisition will not cost the taxpayers anything.

These are but a few of the outstanding accomplishments of the Niles Park District Board and staff in the past two years. I have been observing the park district. My wife has been President of the Board since 1975.

I hope all Niles Park District residents will come to the polls on April 19 and vote for those candidates who will keep up this trend of forward thinking and cooperation. Jeff Arnold and Dan Kosiba are the candidates who will provide the necessary representation to continue this trend.

Sincerely,

G. Jones

Henrici nursing program scooped by Skokie Valley Nurses

Dear Editor:

It was with great interest that I read that one of the foremost programs that concerns Morton Grove mayoral candidate Ron Henrici is a full time nurse and a home nursing program. Doesn't trustee Henrici know about the services provided by the Visiting Nurse Association of Skokie Valley? This service is for all residents of Morton Grove, as well as all residents of Skokie, Niles, Lincolnwood and Golf.

Not only is home nursing care provided by Registered Nurses, on written orders of a Physician, but also the placement and supervision of home health aides, physical therapists, speech therapists, social workers, and maternal and child health programs, to name a few. The fee for such services is on a sliding scale; that is, from full pay to no pay, depending upon the family situation.

Why should tax payers' money be used to implement a new program, which would definitely be duplication of existing services, when the Visiting Nurse Association has, for over 20 years, and continues to serve the health needs of our communities.

As a resident of Morton Grove for the past 15 years, and active in community programs and services, I am continually working for the betterment of all people, but I will not support duplication of services.

The United Crusade of Skokie Valley supports the Visiting Nurse Association, therefore, the residents are already contributing to this need.

Sincerely,

Fraternity brother commends Kenny Slaw

Dear Editor:

In today's world, where too often it is who you know and not what you know, I had the privilege of meeting a unique person.

Kenny Slaw, 7809 Lake, Morton Grove, is a sophomore at the University of Illinois, currently in the pre-med curriculum. However, his life right now is devoted to giving aid to high school students who have the decisions of college to make in the near future. Kenny has appeared at Maine East three times in the last two years preaching his philosophies of college. He opens up the college life to high schoolers in a unique way. "Through dreams," Kenny says, "and making them become real, everyone can get the very most out of their college career."

You can be safe in saying that Kenny practices what he preaches because in his long list of accomplishments at the U. of I. he insists they are all merely dreams he wanted to make real. Aside from his curriculum in pre-med, Kenny has just written a rock opera entitled "Midnight Blues", which will be performed next year. He is also acting a lead part in an upcoming college production: "The Wonderful Ice Cream Suit", written by Ray Bradbury. He has a biweekly column in the school newspaper, and if this isn't enough, spends ten to fifteen hours a week working for the community.

When asked about where he gets the process by which he can make his dreams real, Kenny simply states that everyone, no matter what age, can go out and accomplish any one of their dreams. It takes some personal get up and go, a good degree of patience and the drive to complete what you started dreaming about. Everything Kenny has done is related to this process.

High school students in the area can be sure of seeing him at a future assembly, talking about flexibility in life, college, and other related affairs.

I know I have taken in his philosophy, and am anxiously awaiting word from Reader's Digest to see if they have accepted a small piece I have sent them. "Keep on dreaming."

Feichter questions Township pay raises

Dear Editor:

I have just learned from reading a newspaper that the Maine Township officials are going to give themselves a raise. I read this in a newspaper that is published in another Township and could not possibly reach the voters in Maine Township. This is another example of what the Maine Township Awareness Party means when it says that the present officials are not responsive to Maine Township.

The newspaper article said that the Maine Township Supervisor and Clerk would receive some unknown raise in salary. It said that Maine Trustees would also receive an unknown salary raise. In other words, the Republican officials of Maine Township will not even tell you they are raising their own salary nor how much. I reject this and pledge not to accept any raise after I am elected Maine Township Supervisor. I believe that all the Maine Township officials are paid too much now. Unless we of the Maine Township Awareness Party put in much more work hours than our opponents, we will not raise our salaries. Finally, we will tell the public if we raise our salaries. We have nothing to hide.

Sincerely,

Patton Feichter

Muldoon named M-NASR executive director

The Board of Directors announces the appointment of Mr. Michael J. Muldoon of Des Plaines, Illinois, to the position of Executive Director of the Maine-Niles Association of Special Recreation. Muldoon, 29 years of age, and Campus Recreation Director for the University of Illinois Medical Center in Chicago, will assume responsibilities for the Maine-Niles Association on March 21, 1977.

The new Executive Director, a graduate of North Central College and the University of Illinois, will be replacing the position left vacant when Ms. Barbara Sternfeld resigned to assume a position with the Western DuPage Special Recreation Association.

Chairman of the Board, Allan Weissburg, speaking on behalf of the Board, is extremely pleased with the recommendation of the Personnel Committee and appointment of Muldoon. Weissburg explained that "Muldoon was the Board of Director's first choice after reviewing applications from numerous candidates and interviewing the top six applicants."

Muldoon earned a Bachelor's Degree at North Central College in Naperville, Illinois, in Physical Education with a minor in Biology in 1971. In August of 1974, he received a Masters of Science from the University of Illinois, Champaign.

His experiences have included Assistant Intramural Director and Coach at the College of DuPage, Glen Ellyn, Illinois and Intramural Supervisor and Football Coach at the University of Illinois, Champaign, Illinois. Most recently Muldoon has been the Campus Recreation Director responsible for recreational programs and facilities, personnel management, program and facility development and human performance center functions at the University of Illinois Medical Center in Chicago. During the past year he has also been program coordinator for the Cardiac Program for the Maine-Niles Association.

Mr. Muldoon, in his new capacities, will be responsible for the administering of operations of the Maine-Niles Association of Special Recreation, a multifaceted program serving the recreational needs of handicapped individuals in the Maine and Niles Townships. He will be working in cooperation with the park districts of Des Plaines, Golf-Maine, Morton Grove, Niles, Park Ridge, Skokie and the Lincolnwood Recreation Department.

Muldoon is married and presently resides in Des Plaines with his wife. His special interests are cardiovascular testing and rehabilitation, football, tennis, racquetball and jogging.

TAP condemns Maine Township budget

The Maine Township Awareness Party today condemned the proposed Maine Township budget. They demanded to know how big the proposed raises are for Maine Township officials.

TAP spokesman Patton Feichter said, "The present Maine Township officials have proposed secret and unknown raises for themselves after the April 5th election. They propose to raise the amount of money paid the Township Supervisor for each meeting he attends. They propose to raise the amount of money paid to Township Trustees for each meeting they attend. They refuse to tell Maine Township citizens how much money is being appropriated for "expenses" next year and for what these so called "expenses" are to be used. The Herald ran a story listing the amounts of raises proposed by the other five local Townships but Maine Township officials refused to release the amounts of their raises. I believe that Maine Township citizens have a right to know how much these Maine Township officials have raised their own salaries. I remind you that Maine Township officials are paid with local tax money. The Maine Township Awareness Party will never hide public salaries nor raise our salaries without telling the public."

Feichter went on, "It is common practice for the Maine Township officials to hide their activities from the public. The hiding of raises by these people is clear proof that 100 years of Republican Party rule in Maine Township is long enough."

Sports Complex burglary
An unknown amount of money was taken from the Ballard Sports Complex, 8435 Ballard rd. sometime during the early morning hours of Sunday, March 13.

Police said someone remained hidden within the Complex when it was closed Saturday evening and later ransacked offices and the Pro Shop.

Currency was taken from two cash registers after they were pried open said police.

He was later released under $3,000 bond with a court appearance set for April 15 and his 16 year old Niles girlfriend was turned over to Niles Juvenile authorities.

Police said the girl attempted to hide a syringe in her purse when the motorist was stopped for questioning at 2:30 a.m. Both were taken to the Niles police station where investigation revealed the purse held a 4 1/4 inch bladed knife, a hypodermic needle, 2 bent spoons and 2 razor blades.

Too much too soon
An 18 year old Northlake, Ill. motorist charged with improper lane usage, drunk driving and transportation of open liquor in his car Saturday was released on a $500 bond. His 16 year old male companion was released to the boy's parents in Northlake.

Police said they stopped the car after observing erratic driving on Harlem near Touhy ave. Further investigation revealed a strong odor of alcohol and open bottles of beer in the car.

Theft
A 32 year old Glenview housewife arrested Saturday for theft of a $11.95 spice rack from Sears in Golf Mill was later released on a $1,000 bond with an April 22 court date in Niles Third District Court.

Indecent exposure
Police said a male in his 30's was practicing nude behavior at Golf Mill stores last week.

A young sales clerk said the 6'2" man weighing around 200 lbs. "but not fat" came out nude from a dressing room where he had gone to try on a female sweat suit.

A clerk at another store reported he came out of the dressing room in a tank suit which was too small, leaving him exposed.

On both occasions he returned to the dressing room, got dressed and left the stores.

He purchased a pair of jeans at another store which he returned for refund police said but the Chicago address he gave "did not check out."

Victims said no physical advances were made.

Threatening call
A 49 year old Niles housewife told police she received a phone call threatening the life of her husband if she did not cooperate. The caller said he lived nearby and hung up.

Rubber checks
Police said Sears in Golf Mill was the recipient of numerous bad checks last week.

An undetermined amount of money and checks were reportedly stolen from Shell gas station, 8657 Milwaukee ave. on Monday.

Police on routine patrol observed a broken window at 1 a.m. Investigation revealed burglars unlocked a metal cabinet removing the contents of a cash box. Nothing else seemed to be missing according to the owner.

Burglary
Approximately $790 in tire, generator and battery charger was reportedly stolen Wednesday, March 16 from the Division Headquarters of the Cook County Forest Division, 6633 Harts rd. according to police.

Police said burglars entered the garage area by breaking a window on the Harts rd. side.

Police said a storage cabinet inside had been cut open and the power tools taken.

Druggist arrested; released due to court error

by Alice M. Bobala

A Niles pharmacist was arrested March 19 on a bond forfeiture warrant but later released when the court acknowledged the defendant had not been notified of his court date.

Skipper Andrade, 36, a pharmacist and owner of Niles Drugs, 8001 N. Milwaukee ave., was arrested early Saturday morning shortly after an agent of the Metropolitan Enforcement Group (MEG) informed Niles police that Andrade had not appeared for a 9:30 a.m. arraignment hearing Friday in Des Plaines court.

Judge Francis Glowacki issued an arrest warrant at noon on Friday for Andrade, bonding him for $150,000 when he or his attorney failed to appear in court.

The owner-pharmacist was arrested at Niles Drugs and charged Jan. 4 with 7 counts delivery, without prescription, of controlled substances of Diazepam and Diethylpropion on four separate occasions to an undercover MEG agent and released the same day under $100,000 bond to await trial.

MEG agents said the suburban undercover drug-investigation unit had been informed Friday of the arrest warrant and called Niles police. Officers James Olbrich and Donald Leavitt arrested Andrade 10 a.m. Saturday in the Milwaukee-Oakton drugstore as he conducted business.

The suspect offered no resistance said police and was taken to the Niles police station, subsequently appearing before Judge George Zimmerman in Third District Court.

Andrade's attorney said his client was not informed of the March 18 Des Plaines court hearing date and therefore could not be present.

MEG agents said a previous court hearing had not required the defendant's appearance in court and that the court apparently erred in not notifying Andrade of the Des Plaines arraignment hearing.

"Someone slipped up somewhere and the notice was not mailed." Subsequently Judge Zimmerman vacated the new bond and freed Andrade Saturday morning under his original $100,000 bond to await a new court hearing.

Niles Mayor Nicholas Blase said he had been told specifically Saturday that the pharmacist was not dispensing drugs at the time of his arrest.

"He was given until May 30 to sell his business during which time he agreed not to dispense prescriptions," said Mayor Blase.

MEG is a suburban law enforcement agency which concentrates on apprehending violators of drug laws.

Park candidate Sheriff's Academy graduate Arnold

Two years ago Jeff Arnold of 7140 Carol ct. incumbent candidate for the Park Board expressed concern over the large deficit occurring at the Ballard Ice Rink. The deficit was a real burden not only to the rink itself but was a threat to the overall financial stability of the entire park district.

Something had to be done and Jeff spent long hours discussing the alternatives. The rink had to be turned into a year round facility not just a nine month ice rink. With Jeff's support a miniature golf course was added which not only brought additional revenues but also an increased awareness of the entire Ballard Sports Complex. Jeff saw too that increased participation in winter programs was essential for a permanent reduction of the deficit. Joint agreements were negotiated with area park districts. With more people coming into the rink, the financial picture improved and skating programs increased. As an extra benefit, the mutual agreements provided for additional facilities and activities outside of Niles but at resident rates. "We receive the benefit of increased close to home programming without the burden of construction costs and maintenance, while the deficit at the ice rink is steadily reduced," Jeff said. Niles residents can now play racketball at the Morton Grove Racketball Courts and under a new proposal will be able to partake in boating and fishing at Lake Park in Des Plaines. All of this at resident rates.

Although the deficit at the rink has been reduced substantially, Jeff Arnold believes it can be eliminated completely. He will work with the board as he has done in the past toward this goal. Jeff Arnold is a responsible individual dedicated to serving the best interests of the Niles Park District residents. Jeff is a member of the team of Jeff Arnold and Dan Kosiba seeking election to the Niles Park Board on April 19.

Contrary to statements made by candidate Walt Beusse that "...the park district has been idle for the past years", Dan feels that the years 1975-77 have been the most productive, probably due to the absence of "special interest" board members such as Walt Beusse. "Special interest" board members who serve a single purpose of representing specialized groups. Mr. Beusse was the most vocal backer of construction of the ice rink, a facility which has shown a deficit since the day it opened. It has only been in the past two years that a concerted effort by board and staff has significantly reduced this deficit. "When a need for a program or activity arises that is particularly

Candidate Kosiba

Dan Kosiba, candidate for the Niles Park Board elections, based his decision to run on the fact that the present direction of the Board is one of accomplishments and success and he wants to insure the continuance of this trend.

In 1974-75 when Walt Beusse served as Facilities Chairman, the gym was under his direct committee responsibility. It was during this period that the gym came under heavy fire for poor attendance, lack of programming, low staff morale, high vandalism and a general reputation for being the place not to go. In the past two years, vast improvements have been made both in the interior of the building and in the programming. The present board saw the problems and with the staff created a new look at Grennan Heights gym. There now exists a pleasant atmosphere with programs and activities for all ages. Vandalism is down and the gym is now the place to go for games and other activities. Dan Kosiba has been able to observe this drastic change at the gym through his close contact with the Niles youth and the gym.

"Let's keep the present trend going — we don't want to slip back into the mistakes of the past," said candidate Kosiba. Dan Kosiba has always had a dedicated concern for the youth of Niles. He has shown this through his many hours of coaching and other youth activities. His concern for the youth of Niles is but another reason that he is seeking election to the Niles Park Board. Special interest candidates have no place on a public board — vote for the team of Jeff Arnold and Dan Kosiba on April 19.

Mr. Niles of Niles Avenue

Village of Niles Trustee Abe Selman, a fourteen year resident of Niles, is truly a representative of his community. Not only was he voted Mr. Niles by the people in his village, but he, his wife Leta and family also live on Niles Avenue!

In addition to his other major duties, Trustee Selman has been and is presently chairman of the very active Niles Youth Commission. His dedication and leadership to the youth of Niles has, over and over again, displayed understanding to the requests of the teenagers of Niles. Because of his direct involvement with the youth of his community, Trustee Selman worked as co-chairman on the Niles Park Advisory Recreation Committee for the successful passage of the Niles Park District referendum. Due to his interest in Niles youth and in the Park District, Trustee Selman was named liaison commissioner representing the Village Board in fostering relationships with the Park District. Working with Niles Park District Commissioner, Jeff Arnold, the village and park were recently brought closer together. This new friendship between village and park has resulted in complete cooperation that will benefit all those who live in the Village of Niles.

A graduate of Northwestern University, Trustee Selman holds the position of Superintendent of the Budget Department for the Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America, a company he has been employed by for the past 27 years.

Trustee Selman has served as director and past president of the very active Chesterfield Garden Homeowners Improvement Association; was co-chairman of last year's Diamond Jubilee Committee and past vice-president of the Hynes School PTA.

Trustee Selman—community minded—truly "MR. NILES OF NILES AVENUE"! On Tuesday, April 19, vote to re-elect Trustee Selman and the entire "Era of Economy Party". Mayor Nicholas B. Blase, Clerk Frank C. Wagner, Jr. and Trustees Carol E. Panek and Peter Pesole.

George W. Henning Jr.

Tell Your Wife We've Been Thinking About Her.

Of all you cherish, what's most important to you? Your wife — of course. Just think of all she does for you and your family. She's irreplaceable and if she should die dollars can't take her place. But an adequate life insurance policy could help to get some of her many jobs done and to keep your household going. Ask your State Farm agent for details.

could dismiss the legitimate concerns of this community with a casual "Sorry about the public upset."

In a letter to the editor of a local newspaper chain, the Independent Township Caucus re-stated their opposition citing a Sun-Times poll of March 20 showing 95% of the 12,476 persons polled said street crime was the No. 1 issue among 23 presented.

"We think our opposition to building another county jail facility here in Skokie, regardless of the fancy names being attached to it by its sponsors, relates directly to the concerns of our local residents," said Dr. Harold J. Feder, party chairman.

Mrs. Erna Gans, currently chairman of the Skokie Youth Commission, has long urged improved local juvenile facilities. However, according to Mrs. Gans, "there are much better ways of accomplishing this and without raising taxes to pay the $25 million this building is expected to cost."

Township Trustee Ed Kaufman of Niles said, "This proposal will raise our taxes; it will create new problems of traffic and public safety in our neighborhoods; it will pry open the door to county takeover of the suburbs and finally, it clearly demonstrates the contempt of county bosses for local opinion."

"The naked power play in the electoral board and the circuit court to try to rule our party off the ballot and the brazen refusal to listen to public demand for local hearings on the courthouse-jail are all part of the county package of denial of individual freedom of choice. The issue is clear, the voters will make the decision on April 5 and we think it will be for the Independent Township Caucus and for individual freedom of choice," Dr. Feder concluded.

seems like an obvious way to handle this position in the township."

The STP slate also plans to issue press releases each month on the amount of general assistance money spent. This is not done by the current board, and STP trustee candidate Tim Doron said it is typical of the "clandestine" way in which the current board treats general assistance.

Doron said, "We believe, the public deserves a month by month accounting of the amount of general assistance money we give out. Many other townships issue releases on the increase or decrease in the spending, and if we are elected Niles Township will also."

Doron said STP would in no way breach the confidential nature of the township aid. "We would release no individual names, but simply give the taxpayers information on how much money is spent. This is in keeping with our philosophy of public accountability in spending procedures."

review their administrations. Niles should have their police department thoroughly investigated by outsiders. And Morton Grove should have their entire operation reviewed by a similar firm.

We have mentioned many times public officials quickly realize no one is watching the public store. They attend meetings month after month while the public stays at home. And they eventually serve without anyone looking over their shoulders.

The payoff mess in Morton Grove, the police department woes in Niles and the problems in School District 63 in past years, which culminated in the teacher strike, all resulted because public officials operated without the necessary safeguard of the public watchdogs helping them govern.

Unless there is more public involvement, and unless there are more active newspaper stories, these public districts will not operate in the best interests of the people they are supposed to serve.

It's a complex system in which the public shares a responsibility with public officials. If either group shirks its duty, then the aforementioned abuses are likely to occur.

Results of educational survey in District 63

The results of an educational survey conducted in the East Maine Public Schools recently indicates that, in general, citizens of its school community have very positive feelings regarding their schools' programs and personnel.

In January all parents throughout the school district were requested to respond to the questionnaire. The information was compiled and analyzed by research specialists at a university computer center.

Briefly a review of the data indicate:

1. Parents prefer class sizes of 20 and under for the primary grades (K-3) and 25 and under for grades four through eight.
2. Parents are reasonably well satisfied with the amount of discipline at all grade levels. However, it appears that parents feel that discipline should be more strict at the fourth through eighth grade levels.
3. Parents generally feel that the amount of homework assigned at all grades is appropriate. However, a substantial number (27 percent) of the parents responding to this question indicated that no homework should be assigned at the primary level (K-3).

4. Parents feel that all of the schools' programs and activities are of a moderate to high quality.

5. Parents feel that the districts' professional and classified staff members are competent to very competent.

6. Parents were strongly opposed to extending public education to include three year olds, and indicated they would not favor increasing taxes to do so.

7. Parents were opposed to extending public education to include four year olds and indicated they would not favor increasing taxes to do so.

8. Nearly 80 percent of the parents responding to the question felt that success in life is closely related to one's educational level.

9. Over 90 percent of the parents responding to the question feel they are being kept well informed concerning activities in the East Maine Schools.

10. Parents indicated they would favor increasing taxes for (1) special programs for children with special needs; (2) maintaining existing programs; (3) maintaining and/or improving class size.

11. Data indicate that 97 percent of the parents responding believe their schools are satisfactory, very satisfactory, excellent or outstanding. Only 3 percent of the respondents indicated the schools were mediocre or poor.

12. Parents indicated their most used sources of information about their schools are (1) children, (2) direct communications, (3) school publications and (4) teachers.

13. Ninety-six percent of the parents responding feel that the district's philosophy of providing educational opportunities tailored to each child's individual needs is being done either most or some of the time.

Should parents desire further clarification regarding any item within the questionnaire, please contact the Superintendent's office at 299-1900.

ED HANSON

A mechanic's mechanic

In this day and age of the "rip-off" a good, honest, reliable auto mechanic is hard to come by. I met one recently in the person of Ron Kotowski, owner of Suburban Auto Sales and Service, 214 N. Greenwood (just north of Milwaukee ave.), Glenview.

Kotowski, with more than 20 years of diversified auto mechanical experience, opened his Glenview shop almost a year ago and since then has been devoting his entire time, and that of his qualified staff of mechanics, to both major and minor automobile repair.

In that relatively short time, he points with pride to a growing army of satisfied customers who have not only returned for his services but have recommended him highly to friends and neighbors.

Kotowski said to me, "Ed, there's a real need for both competent and reasonable car repair — especially on major repair jobs. As we know, the public, due to rip-offs, has come (often with justification) to distrust the competency and ethics of many repair shops."

You may recall the recent series on major TV stations and newspapers that acquainted the public with dishonest practices by auto shops in running up the repair bills. Even so-called reputable auto dealers were found to have doubled their original estimates. These shoddy practices proved very costly to an unsuspecting and naive public.

Kotowski has official recognition from the National Institute for Automotive Service Excellence. This organization issues certification documents to mechanics who have successfully completed their official test. According to Kotowski, this examination is fully comprehensive and is a grueling 12 hour long test of all phases of automobile mechanics. Kotowski estimates only one out of every 100 mechanics have this certificate.

"Ron," I asked, "when you tune up a car, just exactly what do you do?"

"Ed, here at Suburban Auto Service our quality tune up consists of the following: remove plugs, test compression and report; install new spark plugs; replace points and condenser with original equipment; check and test ignition coil and cap; clean and adjust automatic choke; scope test; test alternator output; test starter amperage draw; clean battery posts and cables; service battery; service positive crankcase and ventilation system; check and correct vacuum lines for leaks; check air cleaner filter and fuel filter; service air cleaner and components; lube hood locks and hinges; fill windshield washer reservoir; check master cylinder fluid level; road test car."

"And, Ed, another example is our quality brake overhaul which consists of the following: install new heavy duty premium front disc pads or brake shoes; install new heavy duty premium rear brake shoes; rebuild front hydraulic calipers or wheel cylinders; rebuild rear hydraulic wheel cylinders; resurface front brake rotors or drums; resurface rear brake drums; repack front wheel bearings; replace front wheel grease seals; lubricate all shoe contact points; lubricate all self adjusters; inspect master cylinder, power booster, all hydraulic lines; bleed and refill system with heavy duty fluid; inspect rear axle seals for leakage; inspect and adjust parking brakes linkage; road test car."

Ron Kotowski's Suburban Auto Sales and Service is a full service repair shop — no job is too big or too small. According to Kotowski, all of his work is fully guaranteed. And there are no hidden costs, no gimmicks and no tricks. If your car is sick and needs attention, Ron Kotowski may be just what the doctor ordered ... a reliable mechanic's mechanic.

Angelo, owner of the Beam 'N Barrel, 7136 Milwaukee ave., Niles, tells me they are now featuring a lobster dinner special for only $6.95. And, mind you, this is a complete lobster dinner which includes soup, selections from their large salad bar with your favorite dressing, baked potato, hot sour dough bread, dessert and no charge for coffee!

"Pajama Game"

Pajama Game is the Broadway musical to be presented May 6, 7 and May 13, 14, 1977 at Maine Township East High School. The cast was recently selected and rehearsals are now in full swing.

Pajama Game involves a long dispute between management and the girl workers in a midwest pajama factory. Since Babe (she's Union) is head of the grievance committee and Sid (he's management) is the foreman, it is inevitable that there is a clash between them. This is not helped by the intrigue going on between Hines, the erratic efficiency expert, and Gladys, the private secretary to the boss. After much confusion, Sid solves the problems, the workers get the raise, he gets Babe, and everyone is happy!

The Maine East cast members are: Babe, Gayle Krefit; Gladys, Marci Shore; Mabel, Claudia Mesch; Mae, Heide Schwerdt; Poopsie, Melissa Lubrich; Hasler, Tom Reed; Hines, Robert Tisch; Prez, Steve Forsythe, Pop, Sande Schimel; Sid, Daryl Mirza.

rehearsal from 1-4 p.m., preparing music for the four or five concerts which they give a year. When asked why he joined, he replied, "Because I enjoy playing the violin." That's a good enough reason for anyone.

When Harold was in second grade, his father started him on the violin and was his first teacher. Today he takes lessons from Mrs. Christensen, who takes lessons from Victor Etue, who is the concert master of the Chicago Symphony. To keep up with his teacher's demands, he practices about an hour and a half daily.

Although Harold doesn't plan to major in music, he would like to continue it as a hobby and a way to relax. Harold also keeps busy with school. This year he's taking Concert Orchestra, Math II Accelerated, English II Accelerated, French II Accelerated, and Accelerated Chemistry, which he says is probably his favorite subject.

He was also first singles on the frosh-soph tennis team last year, and during the summer he plays as much as possible. To keep in shape for the upcoming season at Maine East, he plays about once a week now.

With Harold's talent, he'll be playing music for many more years. Who knows, maybe he'll be the next Jack Benny!

Niles Savings Grand Opening to headline star athletes and give-aways

Free one-pound cans of coffee will be given away to all new customers of Niles Savings during the Grand Opening celebration of the Morton Grove office of Niles Savings it was recently announced by Henry L. Ford, executive vice president.

In addition, said Ford, there will be Grand Prize drawings for two microwave ovens, personal appearances by sports stars, and discounts on the Regalware line of Betty Crocker approved cookware to all depositors.

Free balloons, fortune cookies, and cooking demonstrations will also be featured. "We want to involve as many people from the community as possible. That is why we have planned for a variety of prizes and events ... something for everyone," said Ford.

The schedule of events is as follows: Grand Opening March 24-April 30 at both locations; Microwave Oven Grand Prize Drawing Saturday, April 30, one microwave at each office. Enter as often as you wish at both locations; Stan Mikita autograph session 10 a.m.-12 noon, Saturday, April 2 at 7077 W. Dempster; Bob Avellini autograph session 11 a.m.-1 p.m. Saturday, April 23 at 5741 W. Dempster; Cooking demonstration 4-8 p.m. Friday, April 8, 9 a.m.-1 p.m. Saturday, April 9 at 5741 W. Dempster.

Also, every new customer who opens up a new savings account of at least $50 during the Grand Opening period will receive free a one-pound can of coffee. (One per family; offer good while coffee lasts.)

And, said Ford, persons who deposit larger amounts or current savings customers depositing at least $50 will be able to purchase, at great discounts, any (or all, with multiple deposits) of the pieces in the new line of Regalware cookware. This new cookware is the first ever given the Betty Crocker seal of approval, said Ford. It is made of heavy duty cast aluminum and is coated with Dupont Silverstone, the successor to Teflon, he added.

Ford concluded that anyone interested in finding out more about the Grand Opening should call Niles Savings at 967-8000.

Notre Dame National Honor Society inductees

Rev. Milton Adamson, CSC, Principal of Notre Dame High School, Niles, has announced that 17 seniors and 25 juniors have been elected to membership in the Father Basil Moreau, CSC, Chapter of the National Honor Society. The Father Moreau Chapter received its charter in 1959. It is named after the founder of the Congregation of Holy Cross, the religious order of priests and Brothers who opened NDHS in 1955. It was Father Moreau who sent Father Sorin, CSC, from France to the United States where he founded a small boarding school which became the University of Notre Dame.

To be eligible for membership in the NDHS seniors and juniors must have achieved at least a 3.00 cumulative average. In addition, they must meet standards of leadership, service, and character.

The NHS ranks as one of the oldest national organizations for high school students. More than two million dollars in scholarships have been awarded to senior members since 1945.

Seniors elected this year to the NHS are Richard Baumeister of Chicago, John Dlutkowski of Skokie, Wesley Fenton of Wheeling, Robert Frederick of Niles, Donald Hitzel of Norridge, Frank Jevitz and Joseph Koziol of Glenview, Christopher Krajci of Park Ridge, Henry Kurzawski and Alexander Kuta of Chicago, Michael Maloni of Niles, Brian McCauley of Evanston, James McNab of Niles, Kenichiro Muranaka of DesPlaines, Lawrence O'Connor of Niles, Jerome Podzaski of Chicago and Timothy Re of Niles.

Juniors elected are Michael Ball of Niles, Michael Burke of Lincolnwood, John Bunce, James DiMaria, and Edward Eshoo of Niles, Raymond Feltes of Park Ridge, Charles Frazzeto of Chicago, Thomas Gaeding of Morton Grove, Henry Glodny of Niles, John Heinz of Skokie, Richard Hillsman of Morton Grove, Michael Koch of Skokie, Timothy Lenahan of Niles, Jeff Lisowski of Glenview, James Musso of Chicago, Anthony Popok of Niles, Christopher Prout of Park Ridge, Stephen Radler of Skokie, Michael Ross of Northbrook, John Schulz of Niles, Jeffrey Seymour of Skokie, Ralph Solarski of Park Ridge, Scott Stearney of Chicago, Mark Swanson and Mark Weick of Morton Grove.

Twenty-six of the present senior class were elected last year as juniors. Two of these seniors, Rocco DeGrasse of Park Ridge and Michael Nosek of Chicago, were elected by the students to apply for the NHS scholarship.

Rev. Peter Sandonato, CSC, has been the faculty adviser since 1959.

Local banker speaks to Apollo students

Richard Smith, of the First National Bank of Morton Grove, recently spoke to Kenneth La Pete's Math class at Apollo School, East Maine School District 63. His topic was Banking and Interest Rates and the information Mr. Smith provided made the students aware of the calculations and mathematics they will be needing for their own use in the very near future, when they will be earning their own living.

Programs such as these, which bring vital and up-to-date information, as well as topics that enrich the everyday curriculum, are brought to the students of District 63 through the efforts of the Volunteer Bureau and the Volunteer Bureau Coordinators. Ina Goldman, Coordinator for Apollo School, planned the Banking program.

If you would be interested in sharing your knowledge and skills with children and would like to participate as a volunteer, please contact Mrs. Ruth Conard, Registrar of the Volunteer Bureau, at 299-1900.

Joint Legion and shareholders meeting

American Legion Post 134 Commander Donald Huber and Corporation President William Kramer conducted the joint annual meeting of the Morton Grove Post and the Corporation's annual shareholders meeting.

The highlights of the regular meeting conducted by Commander Huber was the report by membership chairman, Jim Haberkorn, who stated that the post needed only 15 more members to reach its 100% for the year. The Morton Grove Post has 681 members; and visits by the 7th District Commander, Kenneth Kearns, and Jr. Vice Commander, Henry Adler, who emphasized the importance of a strong membership, and good public relations for the post's activities. Announced at this meeting was the annual 7th District Queen contest to be held March 16 at the North Shore Legion Post.

Other events coming up are: the Ice Capades at the Chicago Stadium, hosted by Child Welfare Chairman, P.C. Tony LaRosa. Tickets and bus fare are $4.50 per person; the Legion Annual Blood Drive to be held April 7 by Blood Donor Chairman Tad Kimura and Auxiliary Blood Donor Chairman Millie Hoffman; the continuing Paper Drive conducted by the SAL - residents can drop off papers at the receptacle located on the post grounds; and the annual Post Carnival to be held mid-July.

The Corporation, headed by President William Kramer, is responsible for the care and maintenance of the building and grounds. The purpose of this meeting is to give a report to members on its financial position and to elect new members to the Corporation Board of Directors. After last year's minutes were read by Secretary of the Corporation, Milt Erickson, Enterprise Treasurer, Joe Schmidt, and Corporation Treasurer Les Berg gave their financial reports. The financial reports indicated that the costs and expenses in maintaining the building and grounds are increasing at a much faster pace than the income and that new sources of revenue have to be found if the Legion is to remain a viable enterprise.

The election of officers was conducted by P.C. Ed McMahon assisted by P.C. Ed Martin and John Rieser. Elected by the membership for five year terms were: Chet Eckman, Mel Baily, and Don Root, and for a four year term, John Slater.

After adjournment of the Corporation meeting, seven new members were accepted into the Post; Chet Kelmis (Army); John McWilliams (Navy); Ralph Palm, (Army); Don Root, Jr. (Navy); Al Sodin (Army); Ernest Span (Army); James Stern (Air Corps).

Commander Huber extends an invitation to all veterans to stop in at the Legion home and become members of the American Legion, whose slogan this year is "It's Great to Know You Belong!"

Also at this meeting a resolution was read by P.C. Ed McMahon endorsing P.C. Joseph Schmidt as Junior Vice Commander of the 7th District. Joe was Commander of the Post in 1975 and is one of its hardest workers, serving on the Corporation Board, Co-Chairman of the annual Flea Market, and a regular caller at Bingo and host of one of the weekly Fish Fries held every Friday.

An evening with Don Newcombe

The Maine Township Council on Alcoholism will co-sponsor "An Evening with Don Newcombe" on Monday, April 4 at 8 p.m. in the Maine Township East High School auditorium. Newcombe was the outstanding major league pitcher of 1956.

"Newk" will speak about his personal experience with alcoholism, its effect on his career and family, and his recovery from the disease.

Newcombe, the first winner of baseball's coveted Cy Young Award, won 17 games and lost 8 in 1949 when he was named Rookie of the Year by both the Baseball Writers Association and Sporting News. In his 10-year career in the majors, he won 149 games and lost 90, and pitched in three world series and five all-star games.

His successful battle with alcoholism was the subject of a July 1976 Reader's Digest article, "Don Newcombe's Biggest Win." Other articles have appeared in People, Good Housekeeping, Ebony, The New York Times, and the Washington Star.

He is currently a consultant and field representative-at-large for the National Clearinghouse for Alcohol Information, and travels extensively to speak on alcohol and its effects. Newcombe also serves as director of Community Relations for the Dodger Corporation.

Male "Yell Leaders" at Maine East

Seventeen husky, athletic male students have joined girl cheerleaders at Maine Township High School East in forming what they believed to be the first high school coeducational cheerleading squad in the State of Illinois.

Called "yell leaders", the lads are athletes in their own right, and have the pep, agility and acrobatic training to perform a variety of complicated routines. They and the talented and attractive girl cheerleaders are colorful figures at varsity games, enthusiastically cheering the home team on to victory and entertaining the spectators at half time by performing cartwheels, aerial splits, back flips and human pyramids.

The idea of having a coeducational cheerleading squad at Maine East was that of faculty advisor, Bill Bolton, who took over the duties as cheerleading sponsor this year. Knowing that many colleges now have boys on their cheerleading squads, Bolton felt it was time to introduce the practice at Maine East. With the help and support of football captain, Sam Donatucci, he successfully promoted the idea of "yell leaders" with sophomore, junior and senior athletes.

Trustees were asked to list priorities for the next Public Hearing scheduled for April 12. Scheel said Niles received $90,000 quarterly last year, of which an annual $75,000 is in constant use for the Courtesy Bus System. Second biggest use for revenue sharing funds according to Scheel was in purchase of the Trident Center, a reported cost of 1/2 million dollars.

During the Tuesday night board meeting trustees referred classification of Bingo Parlors to the Plan Commission. Recent requests received by the village to lease store fronts as Bingo Parlors could invite congestion, money security and other axillary problems, noted Mayor Nicholas Blase. The Plan Commission will consider accessory use (by churches and other organizations) as well as a Special Use category.

In other action Blase promised action on increased street lighting for the 6900 block of Birchwood to approximately 20 residents concerned over a recent home-invasion armed robbery incident.

Appointed a committee of Tr. Ang, Marcheschi and Ralph Bast in consultation with Bart Murphy (NORTAN) to review wider service by the Courtesy Bus System for report back to the Board.

Trustees continued action on a Special Use permit request by Danny Boy Oil Co. at 6901 Milwaukee ave., for clarification of lease status and a sufficient gas allotment to permit continued station service.

Approved a Special Use permit to Joseph Judah Jr. and Casting Engineers for Investment Casting at 5701 W. Touhy ave.

Approved an increase in pay from the village for election judges, from $25 to $35.

Requested Building and Zoning Director Joseph Salerno to attend a Cook County Zoning Hearing April 1 for Special Use Zoning of 15 acres at Deerlove rd. and Central rd. for multi-family homes.
