

Doug Barlett named outstanding RIT scholar

Douglas M. Barlett of Morton Grove, has been named one of 39 outstanding scholars by Rochester Institute of Technology (RIT).

The Outstanding Undergraduate Scholarship Award, given for the first time last year, recognizes students who have completed at least half of a four-year study program with a minimum RIT grade point average of 3.85 out of a possible 4.0.

Mr. Barlett was selected thru the deliberations of a special review committee in RIT's College of Graphic Arts and Photography, which also considered a wide range of interests complementing academic activities, such as creative work, service on student committees, civic activities, employment and independent research.

Barlett is a printing student. His interest in printing began at Maine Township High School East. He worked for the Bugle Publications as a cameraman for several years.

An Illinois State and National Merit Scholar, he participated in the RIT Outstanding Freshman Scholarship competition. He is a member of RIT Chorus and the Christian Fellowship.

He is the son of Joseph and Miriam Barlett, 7633 Lake, Morton Grove, Illinois.

At a March 23 ceremony at RIT, the students received bronze medallions designating them as Rochester Institute of Technology Scholars. Designed by Professor Hans Christensen of RIT's School for American Craftsmen, the medallions bear traditional symbols of wisdom and respect -- the Athenian owl and olive branch.

Dr. Rowland L. Collins, chairman of the English Department, University of Rochester, delivered an address, "Technology and the Human Spirit." The ceremony was followed by a reception for students and their guests.

In announcing the award winners, Dr. Todd H. Bullard,

Provost and vice president for Academic Affairs, recognized their accomplishments. "Their devotion to excellence is an inspiration to all of us," Dr. Bullard said.

District 63 Wrestling Team

School District 63 wrestlers were among 2,500 boys from 126 different teams who participated in initial State wide tournaments in the Illinois Kids Wrestling Federation. The first State wide tournaments are called District tournaments and the boys who placed 1st, 2nd, 3rd, and 4th in the District tournaments then advanced to wrestle in the Sectionals which were held March 11 and 12 at Fenton High School. The boys who placed 1st and 2nd continued on to the State Finals held in East Moline, Illinois. At this point the top sixteen boys in each weight division were left to compete for the State Title on March 19 and 20.

Scott Kaghan at 90 lbs. from Apollo School with a record of 15-4, Brock Wittkamp at 112 lbs. from Apollo with a record of 19-0, and Jim O'Connor from Gemini School with a record of 15-1, went to the East Moline Finals representing District 63. In these finals Brock Wittkamp placed 4th in the State and he brought home a green ribbon award.

The boys are coached by Mike McEvilly and Ron Silverstein from Apollo School and Donald Blitz from Gemini School.

District 63 congratulates all their fine young athletes and their coaches.

Oakton wrestler wins Skyway Championship

Oakton Community College's wrestling team finished their 1977 season this month, but not before Oakton's Dave Schwartz (r) won the Skyway Conference wrestling championship, at 190 pounds.

Ron Silverstein, who is the OCC Wrestling Coach, complimented Schwartz by stating, "Dave's a remarkable wrestler and he did very well this year despite all of the problems we had." The "problems" that Silverstein mentioned were the lack of facilities at Oakton and, secondly, the lack of wrestlers for competition.

As a matter of fact, besides Dave Schwartz, there was only one other wrestler on the Oakton squad and that was Greg Milewski (l), who wrestled at 167 pounds.

At the beginning of the season the team was a little larger in number, but, Silverstein explains, "because of the constant weight control and the hard work that goes with wrestling, the squad quickly diminished until there was only Dave and Greg left."

Coach Silverstein was also pleased with Milewski's performance over the season. "Greg did remarkably well for a person with no previous wrestling background," he pointed out.

In the Illinois Community College Regionals, OCC's Dave Schwartz finishes in fourth place, losing out by one point the right to advance into the National Community College wrestling championships.

The top ranked wrestling team in the state this year was Triton College with Du Page College finishing a close second.

Henrici cites garbage 'sweetheart' contract

The recent five year extension of the village's garbage contract is another example of Mr. Houndt's poor leadership. As a trustee I did not vote for, nor do I support the new "sweetheart" contract. I cannot support the contract for the following reasons:

1. The contract did not go out to open bid.
 2. The contract provided for a maximum 10% escalation clause.
 3. The present labor and disposal cost, upon which the 10% escalation is based, was not substantiated nor was it included in the contract.
 4. The village was not provided with an escape clause.
 5. The contract was executed three months prior to its expiration date with an election pending prior to the expiration.
 6. The cumulative 10% escalation of the contract over the five year period would cost $370,000.
- A review of the dollar figures indicates that in 1977 $331,800 will be paid for a once-a-week garbage pick-up. In 1978, the cost for this once-a-week pick-up, if increased 10% will be $365,400. In 1979, assuming the maximum increase, the village will pay $402,360 or 21% more than the 1977 rate. With a maximum increase in 1980, the village will pay $422,680 or a cost 33% higher than 1977 $331,800 rate. In the final contract year 1981, with another maximum increase, the village will pay $487,200 or a cost 47% above the 1977 rate. I could not support the action of Mr. Houndt's board in approving such a contract without first going to open bid.

If Mr. Houndt would have approved such a "sweetheart" contract in industry, he would have lost his job. I believe he should not be reelected to the office of mayor.

Mikva bill would end saccharin ban

Legislation to modify the standards followed by the Food and Drug Administration in testing and restricting food additives was introduced last week by Congressman Abner J. Mikva.

Approval of the proposal would effectively rescind the ban on saccharin. It would require FDA scientists and doctors to evaluate test data to determine whether a reasonable causal link exists between the cancer found in test animals and the probability of its occurrence in human beings. If no causal relationship could be predicted, but if the cancer in test animals persists, the FDA would issue a warning to consumers about whatever risks might be entailed in consuming the additive.

Mikva's bill would amend the Delaney Amendment to the Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act that requires the FDA to prohibit any food substance found in tests to induce cancer in animals or humans.

The Delaney clause was intended to reduce the incidence of cancer cases by banning carcinogenic substances. "As the recent ban on saccharin demonstrates, however, this law irrationally prohibits additives that have never been proven to cause even a single cancer in human beings," Mikva said.

"Beyond the serious risks to those on restricted diets, such automatic prohibitions seriously undermine the agency's credibility in the eyes of millions of Americans who have used these additives for many years without harmful side effects," the Congressman added.

Mikva said he believes his proposal provides "an adequate balance between consumer choice and information and genuine health protection."

Coin Collector's Show

Eighteen experts will have exhibits on display and will be available to appraise and identify any coins, medals, tokens or paper money presented. All persons interested in coin collecting are cordially invited to attend.

Fire hazards can lurk from basement to attic

Our local Fire Chief, Albert L. Hoebl, has provided this 13 article series on fire prevention and emergency procedures in the interest of greater safety in the community. The material and statistics have been compiled from information which comes across Chief Hoebl's desk. He feels, in sharing this with the local citizens, some fire losses may be prevented, and perhaps even unnecessary loss of life.

This is article No. 3 in my fire prevention campaign series, and ridding your home of fire hazards is perhaps the most important portion of this subject matter. We will cover it in three articles, this one on electrical dangers and the other on spontaneous combustion. Some of this will be basic truths many people have learned in early youth. However, it all bears repeating and, if you find one thing you did not know before or had forgotten, then time spent in reading will have been worth-while.

Did you know that 32 percent of all fire deaths over the nation are unattended children? That's right, nearly 1/3rd of ALL deaths by fire are children whose parents have left them home alone, if only for a few moments! About 2,100 children are killed in home fires every year and a large percentage of these fires and deaths are caused by the age-old problem of children playing with matches! Now, it is logical to teach a child the dangers of playing with fire, but not just with a simple statement, "don't play with matches, Johnny." Time should be taken to sit down with the child and show him, in detail and on several occasions, the dangers involved. NEVER overestimate your child's ability for good judgment where fire is concerned!

About Smoking: 21 percent of all home fires and 11 percent of home fire deaths are caused by cigarettes, cigars, pipes and matches. Do you allow yourself the luxury of smoking in bed? If so, it could develop into the costliest mistake you ever made! Your Water Heater: Many people make a habit of storing old newspapers, and other items seldom-used, in the enclosure where the water heater functions. Often clothes are dried here and cleaning items line the area. This is extremely bad practice as statistics show this to be a place of high fire potential.

Your Attic: Most attics look like a disaster area. If your own falls into this category, and you sincerely want to cut fire hazard, do these things: Sort through everything stored there and get rid of old newspapers, loose clothing of no further use, cardboard boxes, etc. Don't store flammable liquids or aerosols in the attic, due to the extreme temperatures that build up in summer. Old pictures and other paper items that could never be replaced should be stored in fire-resistant cabinets or locked boxes. In short, throw out the unnecessary junk, while packaging and arranging those things you must save in proper containers. And, be sure your attic vents are clear of leaves and debris, with fine screening protecting them from entry of foreign matter.

The Garage: This can also be the source of fire. Keep it neat and orderly. Do not use it for storage of things you are going to throw away "someday", especially newspapers, rags, old clothing, etc. And, above all, see to it that no greasy rags are left in waste cans or piles. (We'll cover this later.)

The Crawl Space: If you have no basement, you no doubt have a crawl space under the house. Frequently, depending on how tight your foundation and ventilation openings are, leaves and other trash will accumulate here. Go under the house and clean out all unnecessary material.

Your Basement: This is probably the most difficult area of all to keep free of fire hazard. As with the attic, neat and orderly and proper packaging are the keys to successful storage without danger. Flammables, in small quantities are best stored here due to the lower temperatures year 'round. But, they should be kept under lock and key to prevent misuse by curious youngsters. Heating units installed in the basement should be checked for efficient operation each year in the late summer prior to cool weather use. As you see, more fire prevention rules are just good efficient housekeeping.

The Eaves, Guttering and Downspouts: Eaves always have ventilation openings. These should be kept clear of dried leaves and debris. The same holds true for guttering and downspouts. If a neighbor's house should burn, few things make it easier to endanger your home than gutters full of leaves and tree twigs.

Your yard and how it is maintained is another important fire prevention subject. We will cover your yard care and fire-retardant plants in a later article.

YMCA Tension Control Class

The Leaning Tower YMCA will offer a class in Tension Control during the 10 week spring term. Classes due to begin on Thursday, Apr. 7. Tension Control class is for men and women, designed to teach them how to recognize the signs of nervous tension and immediately utilize techniques of relaxation. The techniques used in the class have been developed by Dr. Edmund Jacobson, noted physiologist and M.D. The instructor of the course was trained in Dr. Jacobson's methods of Progressive Neuromuscular Relaxation. The following are a few of the basic assumptions of tension control:

"Habitual muscle tensions give rise to nerve impulses, which may go unnoticed by an individual.

"People can learn to increase their sensitivity to, or awareness of, these tensions.

"At this point, a person can consciously reduce tension in any or all muscles at will.

Research by Dr. Jacobson and others, has linked the ability to relax muscles with a lowering of blood pressure, energy conservation, improved sleep, and a general relaxing of the digestive organs. Besides learning to relax all muscles, a person can learn to regulate tensions while active in daily affairs, thus developing a more effective use of muscular energies.

The ability to relax is a skill, and can be learned through this systematic class approach. The class meets on Thursday evenings, from 7:00 to 8:00 p.m., beginning April 7, for 10 weeks. Pre and Post testing for tension is included with the class instruction. The fee is $25.00 for YMCA members; $30.00 for associate members.

For individuals interested in utilizing the methods of bio-feedback for tension control, the YMCA offers biofeedback training sessions. This relatively new approach to tension control has also proven to be helpful in allowing individuals to achieve a more effective state of relaxation. Biofeedback training is not a part of the Tension Control Class. Hours must be arranged and a fee is charged. For more information: contact John Joyce at the Leaning Tower YMCA, 647-8222.

Niles nursing home may face revocation of license

by Alice M. Bobula
A village license revocation hearing was held April 1 to consider revoking or suspending the business license of Pleasantview Manor, a nursing home, at 6840 Touhy ave. in Niles, resulting from numerous complaints charging the home with failure to return deposit refunds.

Niles' Hearing Officer Gerald Murphy said he would review all evidence presented during the hearing which would be forwarded with his recommendations to Mayor Nicholas Blase for a decision. Murphy emphasized the April 1 investigation as an administrative hearing, not a criminal trial.

According to Niles ordinance a license may be suspended or revoked "when the conduct of any licensee, agent or employee is so inimical to the public health, safety and general welfare as to constitute a nuisance and thus give rise to an emergency..."

Director of the village Consumer Fraud Division Frank Wagner testified that 5 complaints had been lodged against Sidney Borenstein, part-owner and operator of the nursing home on alleged violation of the ordinance. All 5 charged Borenstein with failure to return refunds ranging from $65.46 to $720 to relatives of patients, some no longer at the home.

Wagner said complainants were unsuccessful in numerous attempts to collect refunds from Borenstein until after formal charges had been filed with the Consumer Fraud Division. Having received their money he said only three of the five chose to appear at the Friday afternoon village hearing.

A Chicago woman alleged entitlement to a $396 refund on prepaid care for her mother to December of 1976 after her mother died Nov. 13. Unsuccessful in attempts to collect the money, she received the refund soon after she filed charges with Consumer Fraud.

A Niles resident claimed a $720 refund deposit was due her for her mother's care in August, 1976, refundable upon Medicare's payment in full to the home. Altho her mother died 10 days later she was unable to collect the money until she went to Consumer Fraud.

Another Chicago resident testified he was "treated rudely" in asking a $65.46 refund following transfer of his mother to another home in November, 1976. Altho his mother was a private care patient he said a spokesman at the home insisted no refund could be forwarded until the home received a check from Medicare. When the refund came in Feb.,

1977, it was $24 less than he was entitled, he said.

In two other cases refunds of $660 (April, 1976) and $436.73 (Sept., 1976) were made only after formal charges had been filed with Consumer Fraud.

Borenstein's attorney William Borenstein blamed refund "delays" on increased costs to the home during cold weather, cash flow problems and delays in receiving Medicare checks for patients.

Owner Borenstein charged the home "has not received a cost-of-living increase from the state for the past 4 or 5 years ... our heating bills have doubled ... village water rates have increased 25% ... homes are in a squeeze," he said.

Hearing Officer Murphy noted that private care patient refunds should not be categorized with Medicare payments. When he asked, "Why didn't (private care) receive his refund promptly?", Borenstein replied, "All monies belong to the home and were used to pay utility bills."

He admitted to "other outstanding cases (requesting refunds)", cases which have not been filed with Consumer Fraud, but declined to elaborate.

Consumer Fraud Director Wagner noted that of the six nursing homes in Niles, the village "has received no complaints other than Pleasantview Manor".

Executive Director of Illinois Health Care and Facilities Hillel Yampol, not permitted to testify unless his statements specifically referred to Pleasantview, later said he "had received complaints regarding 2 or 3 other institutions in Niles" over the past year, but "could not recall the specific facilities."

Oakton faculty members dispute unfair letters

Dear Sir:
We, the undersigned faculty members at Oakton Community College, object to the unfairness of the letters that have recently been published in the local papers under the names of "Concerned Faculty and Staff, OCC, Names withheld on request".

The content and tone of the letters reflect an attempt to discredit Oakton's administration and the quality of education offered at the college. None of the letters suggests a constructive plan of action for improving the supposed inequities that they enumerate. Nor do they reflect any indication of the spirit of good will and cooperation that we believe is necessary to maintain academic standards, to develop quality programs, and to treat each other fairly.

According to an initial statement in a letter of March 6, for instance, "Taxpayers and Students at Oakton Community College are being ripped off due to poor administration in all areas of college operations." This, we believe, is a gross overgeneralization. Further, it is in direct contrast to the content, tone, and use of supportive evidence in a letter of rebuttal by Saretta Parrault, a student at Oakton, which subsequently appeared in several papers.

Saretta attests, for instance, that she had been given acceptable reasons for classes not being offered or dropped and was also helped to select alternative classes. That is not to say that such has been the experience of every student, not that there are not problems in any of the areas enumerated by the letters. Oak-ton does have its problems, as does any organization. However, it is also taking constructive steps to address them.

Placement is an example of one of those problem areas. Proper placement of students has been an ongoing concern; and the process of finding a meaningful and manageable method for assessing student skills has been evolving over several years.

Currently, all full time students registering through Life and Career Planning Workshops take assessment tests in math, composition, and reading. All students wishing to enroll in a math course take a math assessment test. Also, beginning with registration for the Fall, 1977, students who wish to enroll in freshman composition will be required to satisfactorily complete a diagnostic assessment test in writing.

Regarding academic policy and procedures: the North Central Association, the agency that grants accreditation to colleges, evaluated Oakton last year and granted the institution full recognition. In fact, the agency's report was an unusually positive document. After spending three days on campus talking to students and employees, exploring college records, and examining college procedures, the investigators found little of substance to criticize. They concentrated, instead, on praising the college's achievements. For instance, in a report to college officials at the conclusion of the visit, the chairman of the NCA team stated that the team found the college "an alive and healthy institution performing a great and valuable service to this community."

Most of us who work at Oakton share this assessment and are proud of the college that we have worked cooperatively with students and administrators and the board to build. We feel that the college has done its work well to merit the respect of the community it serves; and we would not like to see the community misled by "concerned faculty and staff" who would have them believe otherwise.

There is an election on April 9th

Dear Editor:
I seriously question the idea that most citizens are aware of the value and meaning of education in their society. Most people give lip-service to the importance of education for getting better jobs and are willing to give minimal support to the "system." But, as far as a thorough awareness of what "schooling" means to our lives and the future, ignorance is rampant. There is an election on April 9th.

We have a "system" of schooling in our community that fulfills part of the necessary educational function. The system can assist us in "making it" or committing suicide. We can develop and grow by open, fearless, honest, knowledge-based action. We can commit suicide by narrow-minded, fearful, superstitious, past-oriented action.

The lack of interest in the election for trustees for the Board of Oakton Community College on April 9th is a function of ignorance. The inability to appreciate the role of the college as one of the most forward looking in the country is sad. The hatred and negativism from many in the community reflects a reactionary inability to cope with the reality of living in the last quarter of the 20th century.

"Our educational 'systems' have done a good job. We have learned much that is in our own worst interest.

There are twelve persons running for the Oakton board. Persons with substantive intelligence should be able to determine which ones have positive, educationally sound, human attitudes, reasons, & qualifications for those unpaid jobs. If one cannot discern fear, vindictiveness, a master-slave concept, and most of all an unawareness of

Seniors enjoy Ballard Ice Show

Dear Mr. Weides: (of the Ballard Sports Complex)
We seniors wish to thank you for inviting us to the Ice Show March 24th. We certainly enjoyed every minute of it.

As grandmothers and grandfathers, we know the amount of energy that was put into this show and it was really wonderful from the "Little Ones" through the teen-agers. Their parents deserve a lot of credit too, for it takes plenty of encouragement to keep youngsters practicing. Also we knew the costumes were hand made.

To Sue Welch and her teachers -- Beautiful skating!!! and a job well done. (I heard some of our grandfathers saying they were coming in to sign up)

Thank you again. Don't forget us next year. We wouldn't miss it!

Respectfully,
Ruth Matts

Results of Oakton research project

On April 9th, there will be an election of trustees for the Oakton Community College school board. An important issue in the forthcoming elections has become special programming for various groups of Oakton students, specifically "Returning Women Students" and "Senior Adults".

I am an independent researcher from Northwestern University in Evanston and not a member of the community college district. However, I just completed a 16-month doctoral research project in the field of adult education. The work was conducted at Oakton and Northeastern Illinois University in Chicago. Since the findings of the study affect the issue involved, I wish to make public the following results for the voters' benefit:

The study population included 69 adult women between the ages of 33 and 66; 20 faculty, staff and administrators; and 25 average-aged students. It was found that there are steps in the process of learning in adulthood which are tied to events in the college experience of the student. The following institutional practices were found to be key variables in promoting student growth and development: 1) Older students use faculty members as models for their behavior; 2) The identification of older students with young students and other older students effects the rate at which they move through the system and the ease with which learning is accomplished; 3) Psychology of Personal Growth classes (especially those which utilize a "transactional analysis" model) provide an excellent socialization mechanism and are very effective in facilitating change in older students fairly quickly; 4) The needs of women for homogeneous age and sex groupings are probably related to particular stages in their college career development.

Thank You,
Dorothy May

Beusse cites Bugle for "irresponsible journalism"

Dear Mr. Besser:
Your "Left Hand" editorial on political byways which appeared on Thursday, March 31 is a classic example of "irresponsible journalism", and I wish to cite some facts which will clarify your misrepresentations. First of all, you stated I objected to certain Park Commissioners opposing my candidacy. At the park meeting, in which you were in attendance, I clearly stated that my objection was in regard to Park Commissioners currently holding office who are acting as campaign managers for a park commissioner candidate in the coming election. Park Commissioners during the entire existence of the Niles Park District have been elected by the people to serve as independents, not as part of a majority coalition. Certain board members are not independents but a political group which will be a "rubber stamp" board, stifling internal checks and balances and choking independent voices and ideas.

You also stated I attempted to operate within the Park administration beyond my elected responsibilities and this statement is based on the "opinion" of one present board member. Biased opinions and insinuations (particularly by board members whose main interest at the current time are not for the residents of Niles but an election campaign for their cohorts) should be replaced with some true facts. My efforts produced many recreation programs which are still in existence.

In regard to the ice skating rink and its programs which allegedly were my only concerns, I wish to state the 1968 Park Referendum committed the Park District to construct an ice rink. If you check the records, Alper and Alper, Park Consultants, made a study under the direction of the Park District many months prior to the 1968 Referendum which promoted the feasibility of an ice rink in Niles and forecasted that the ice skating revenues would exceed the costs thereof. The Park Board and the Niles residents, based on the Alper study approved the ice rink as part of the referendum. Also if you check the records, I was elected to the park board in 1969, one year later, so your comment on my one-minded effort on behalf of the rink is not true. Yes, I pushed and shoved as you claim, but only to complete a delayed facility that was already approved, committed to and on the drawing boards months before I was a Park Commissioner. With the ice rink's completion in 1972, the programs had to be related to ice skating. The entire board at that time not only promoted ice hockey as you infer, but figure skating, learn to skate, speed skating, open family sessions and the ever popular ice show. As you know, starting any program from scratch requires extensive research. Education and training of staff personnel and residents cannot be done overnight.

In addition, at that time, I emphasized to the board that a complete year round indoor revenue producing facility had to be developed to obtain maximum revenue. The enclosing of the facility, expansion of the parking lot, mini-golf, indoor summer batting cages, and an athletic club similar to a YMCA were some of my recommendations in 1973-75 which have been or are now being instituted. It is because of the implementation of these very programs that they are now seeing increased revenue. It is now acclaimed by certain members of the present board as their contribution, when it really was introduced by yours truly.

Also if you check park records, the Park District in 1974 realized that the Niles residents alone could not overcome the annual cost of the ice facility, so merger discussions with the village of Morton Grove was initiated.

In addition, I did balance the entire park program during my reign 1969-75. Some of my responsibilities were, chairman duties for the golf course, gymnasium, swimming pools, and parks, the initiation of the free bus service between park facilities and the promotion of a successful 1973 Referendum.

In summary, Mr. Besser, your homework for the editorial was not only incomplete but inaccurate.

Very truly,
Walter M. Beusse
Niles Park Board Candidate

Ask the man who is one!

Dear Editor:
Having 16 year tenure as a Commissioner on the Niles Park Board, this Park District is something special in my life & its performance is of exceptional concern to me. Therefore, it is normal that I help develop and attempt to promote tenure continuity of outstanding Commissioners. It makes my job easier - it certainly makes your Park District better.

Jeff Arnold has been most impressive during his 2 year term. His work with other governmental bodies and on finances have been exceptionally sharp. Jeff is the type person we cannot afford to lose. Jeff Arnold's performance warrants your elective support.

Mikva backs direct election of president

Congressman Abner J. Mikva has endorsed President Carter's proposal to abolish the electoral college and replace it with direct popular election of President and Vice President.

"The perils of the electoral college system, which is indirect voting by the general public, are pointed out almost every time there is a national election," Mikva said.

According to the procedure of the electoral college, a candidate for President could receive a majority of the popular votes but lose the election on the basis of the number of electoral votes.

Mikva noted that three times candidates with fewer popular votes than their opponents have been elected President of the United States.

Another hazard of the system, Mikva said, is that the electors of the electoral college are not bound to vote for the candidate who receive the majority of votes in their particular state.

"While the electors have rarely exercised this prerogative, an elector can overrule the wishes of a majority of voters in his or her state. The elimination of the electoral system would prevent this from happening," Mikva said.

The change would also be a symbolic affirmation of the direct participation of the American people in the electoral process. "Every American would know their vote carried equal weight," Mikva said.

A constitutional amendment is needed to change the voting procedure. The amendment must be approved by two-thirds majorities in both houses of Congress and then by 38 of the 50 state legislatures before it becomes a law.

The electoral college is an elected group of state residents who cast the official votes for President and Vice President. Each state receives one electoral vote for each Senator and representative in Congress. Illinois, with two Senators and 24 Congressmen, has 26 electors.

Off the NILES POLICE BLOTTER

Sports minded
A curly-haired blonde woman got away with approximately $500 in sportswear Friday noon from Lytton's in Golf Mill.

A store employee saw the thief run out of the store with a giant bundle of clothing concealed under her coat and enter a 1970 car with a male driver which left southbound on Milwaukee ave. according to police.

She was described as 20 years old, 5 ft. 8 in., weighing 150 lbs. and wearing a white blouse and fur-trimmed red coat.

Armed
Two 22 year old Des Plaines youths carrying a rifle in the Golf Mill parking lot were stopped for questioning by Niles police Friday midnight and later turned over to Cook County Sheriff's police for further investigation in a youth shooting, according to police.

Vandalism
Eight windows were broken at Oak School, 7640 Main st., over the weekend causing an estimated $925 in damages.

Police said two windows were smashed with bricks and rocks above the trip bars in a door, indicating possible attempt to enter the school. Five second floor classroom windows were broken and a wired glass window in the gym.

Dance studio burglary
Burglars took $900 in musical equipment from the Fred Astaire Dance Studio, 7403 Milwaukee ave., March 27.

Thieves entered thru the rear door taking two speakers valued at $300 and a $600 receiver.

Peeping Toms
In two separate instances police investigated reports of male "peepers".

Complaints of a man looking in houses, cars and driveways sent police to Octavia and Mulford Saturday where they apprehended a 21 year old Niles youth acting "high" and smelling of beer. He was later released without charges police said.

On Sunday a Niles couple on the 9000 block of Grace st. reported a peeper at their bedroom window who fled past the Gemini School when chased by the resident. The peeper was described as 17-20 years old, weighing 170 lbs., 6 ft. tall and wearing an orange windbreaker and levis.

Easter is coming
The Treasury at 9675 Milwaukee ave. reported a $223 loss in 15 canned hams stolen March 29 between 6 p.m. and 8 p.m. according to police.

Thefts from autos
A Nordica resident told police someone removed 2 steel belted radial tires and wheels valued at $200 from the left side of her car in the parking lot at the rear of her home. Further damage to the car caused by the theft was estimated at $25.

Thieves took an estimated $1,270 in equipment from a 1976 Olds Cutlass parked on Carol st. overnight. Police said the trunk lock had been punched out resulting in theft of a spare tire, ladies golf clubs and bag, men's golf clubs and bag and a CB radio.

Police said an estimated $15,000 in 2 violins, cases, bows and sheet music were stolen from a 1972 coupe parked Sunday at 9078 Golf rd.

Four wire wheel covers valued at $350 were stolen Sunday evening from a 1975 Ford parked in Golf Mill parking lot.

Cash missing
Thieves took approximately $120 in currency Friday from a safe-type filing cabinet at Gould Fluid Components, 6565 Howard st.

Police said the cabinet had apparently been left unlocked after auditors finished business and that numerous people had access to the cabinet between 6 p.m. and 8 p.m.

Dancing in the dark
A 17 year old Chicago girl observed dancing near a parked auto in the Clayton-Smith Forest Preserves near Harts rd. Thursday night was later charged with unlawful possession of alcohol.

Police said they advised the girl and her 3 companions to leave the area and saw the car later southbound on Caldwell with no taillights.

Investigation revealed open liquor in the car. All four occupants were taken to the station where the 16 year old driver was charged with transportation of open liquor and having no taillights. A 15 year old Chicago girl was released without charges and her 23 year old Harwood Heights companion was cited for contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

They were released under individual $1,000 bonds pending a May 6 court date.

Burglary
Thieves netted little in ransacking the Park St. home of a 25 year old public relations man according to police March 29.

The victim arrived home Tuesday at 1 p.m. and called police when he noted blood on the door. Police said the upstairs bedrooms had been ransacked and there were traces of blood in the bedrooms, hallway, carpet, walls, front door and storm window.

While dresser drawers and jewelry box were rifled and a piggy bank broken open, not touched were TV sets and stereos, according to police.

Police noted a Des Plaines youth was ticketed for speeding at 3 p.m. in Morton Grove who had bandages on a bleeding left hand and who appeared to be nervous.

Shoot out
Two Chicago men and two Chicago women were charged with alleged participation in shooting out windows of Jahre Corp. at 6333 Howard st. in Niles on March 28.

Charged with disorderly conduct were Marina Monterosso, 27, of 931 Gunnison; Gustavo Monterosso, 30; and Rosa Ortega, 33, of 927 Gunnison. Cesar Reyes, 26, of 927 Gunnison was charged with criminal damage to property. All four were released under individual $1,000 bonds pending a May 6 court date.

Police responded to complaints of the shootout Monday afternoon and found 7 windows had been broken by BB guns. Advised by the plant maintenance man they apprehended a white Camaro at Gross Point and Croname rd. where investigation revealed a fully loaded Daisy BB gun in the car.

Annual Judges Night

Plans are complete for Northwest Suburban Bar Association's Annual Judges Night on April 13, and Law Week observances the first week of May, according to attorneys John E. Owens of Park Ridge and Matthew L. Salita of Highland Park, chairmen of the two events.

Over 200 judges from the Circuit, Appellate, Federal, District and U.S. Court of Appeals courts have been invited to Judges Night, says Owens. The event will begin with a social hour at 6:30, followed by dinner at 8 p.m. at Park Ridge Country Club, 639 N. Prospect, Park Ridge.

Reservations are mandatory, and are being handled by NWSBA's executive secretary, Judith C. Bush, phone 253-2562. Mrs. Bush can also handle requests for Law Week programs, or these may be telephoned to Matthew Salita at his Chicago law office, 372-2861.

A special feature at the Annual Judges Night dinner will be presentation of the Edward J. Bieg Award, named in memory of a past-president of the association. It is presented annually to a member of NWSBA for outstanding service to the organization and the legal profession.

Attorney William J. Moore of Arlington Heights, a law partner of the late Edward J. Bieg, is serving as chairman of the award and will present a plaque to the 1977 recipient of this high honor.

President Richard R. Rochester of Northbrook has proclaimed Law Week (May 1-6, 1977) "Partners in Justice" to commemorate the relationship of the ordinary citizen to law. He stresses that this occasion is not one to laud judges, public officials or lawyers, but to consider the importance of law in the maintenance of our society.

Northwest Suburban Bar Association will provide speakers without charge as a public service to groups of thirty or more for observance of Law Week during May and on a variety of other legal subjects.

Niles West plans 'Opportunity Plus' night

On April 27, the Niles West High School Guidance Department, with the cooperation of the Niles West PTSA, will hold Opportunity Plus, a district wide career information evening. More than 160 occupations will be represented that night to offer help and advice to students and their parents. The advice, in this case, will be given by people who actually hold these jobs and should know.

Opportunity Plus is for everyone, according to Bob Redig, Niles West counselor and Opportunity Plus coordinator. Some of the occupations represented require college educations, others a high school diploma, plus vocational training, and still others a high school degree plus on-the-job training only. "What we're trying to do is to provide a broader base of knowledge concerning the 25,000 plus careers available in the U.S. today," said Redig. And in his opinion, it's never too early to start gathering information.

Opportunity Plus is scheduled from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. on April 27. "Try it yourself" kind of exhibits are scheduled for the Niles West contest gym and other presentations will be made in various classrooms.

It is expected that many communities throughout the north and northwest suburbs will proclaim Law Day - 1977 or Law Week, and will participate in the observance by holding moot court trials, panel discussions, or special programs open to the public.

Groups desiring to schedule such an event may receive further information by calling Matthew Salita or Judith Bush at the numbers given previously in this article.

A few topics program chairmen could choose, according to Salita, are "Have You Updated Your Will?", "What Are the Rights of Men and Women Under Recent Changes in Divorce Laws?", and "Women's Rights in Present Day Society."

Richard R. Rochester, president of Northwest Suburban Bar Association, greets three of the 200 judges invited to the group's Annual Judges Night dinner on April 13 at Park Ridge Country Club. Left to right: Judge L. Sheldon Brown of the Chancery Division, Rochester, a Chicago attorney and Northbrook resident, Judge James Geocaris and Judge Anthony Scottillo of the Third Municipal District in Niles. Speakers from the NWSBA are available for Law Week observances the first week in May, and on a variety of other legal subjects by calling the executive office of the bar association, 253-2562, or Law Week Chairman, Matthew L. Salita, 372-2861.

Cub Scout Pack 175

Pack 175 (Dens 3 and 4) held its annual Blue and Gold dinner Feb. 27 at Flanagan Hall, St. John Brebeuf Parish in Niles.

The highlights of the dinner which is held for the Cub Scouts and their families once a year are the distribution of awards and prizes for work done by the Cubs during the past year.

The welcoming address was made by Pack Chairman John Styczen, invocation by the Pastor Father Duggan. Cubmaster John Baranowski continued as master of ceremonies.

Arrangements for the delicious dinner were handled with great expertise by Mrs. Emily Casaccia and Mrs. Lacorte. Catering was by Spicers. Cub mothers supplied condiments, jello molds and baked goods. For the beautiful job of decorating the hall and tables we wish to thank the pack committee and den mothers.

Brownie Troop 682

Oak Mill Mall was the scene of this year's "Mini-Expo" and like good brownies, Troop 682 was a part of it.

The girls exhibited some of their previous projects and then made some "on the spot" ones — plaques with the Brownie promise spelled out in little letters and hot trays for hot pots made from popsicle sticks and beads. They ended their exhibition with a game, and a very enthusiastic one at that, to see who could eat a chocolate bar first but, of course, first putting on a hat and mittens and eating it with a knife and fork. A lot of laughing and screaming went on, so you could say the girls thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

Mayor Albert J. Smith, of Skokie, and John G. Woods, vice president and general counsel, UOP, Inc., of Arlington Heights, have been named recipients of the 1977 "Good Scout" Awards, given by Northwest Suburban Council 751, Boy Scouts of America.

Flickinger denounces incumbents for 'unethical behavior'

"The incumbent village government in Morton Grove will be most remembered for its unsavory, unethical behavior, for its wild spending of the taxpayers' money, and for its gross ineptitude in the management of the business affairs of the village," declared Richard Flickinger, Action Party candidate for Morton Grove Village President.

"In addition to touting an exorbitantly expensive and luxurious municipal complex upon the people, to be paid for by greatly increased taxes, the same Village Board has established a self-serving, escalating pattern of costly personal benefits for themselves, also all paid for from village taxes."

Flickinger continued, "This Village Board, that serves only on a part-time basis, unanimously appropriated $25,000 to fund an unjustified pension plan for themselves. They collectively then proceeded to approve an assuming budget of $8,000 for trustee expenses — expenses which the records show are used by them primarily for high-priced dinners and liquor. Not satisfied with all of the generous allowances they already receive, they have now started a new campaign to get another whopping increase by promoting a second expense allotment for their personal automobiles.

"There has been one story after another in the local and metropolitan press concerning questionable purchases of village property and unauthorized servicing of personal cars for elected village officials, again all at village expense.

"In most communities, elected officials believe that holding public office is an honor and privilege. The present village administration apparently believes that the honor and privilege must also be accompanied by ever-increasing monetary sweeteners.

"Somewhere between elections the present Village Board forgot that the people trusted them to use their hard-earned taxes for the benefit of Morton Grove, not as a personal pork barrel.

"The sorry record of the incumbents is an unending litany of misuse of public funds and abuse of public trust:

1. Multi-million dollar contracts for service entered into without competitive bidding and in blatant violation of accepted business practices.
2. Ongoing investigations of scandal by the U.S. Attorney and the States Attorney of members of the administration for unlawful behavior in office.
3. Unchecked, increasing local taxes, despite the influx of millions of dollars in new revenue from federal and state sources.
4. Use of the village for outright political patronage.
5. Appointment of a trustee who has a built-in conflict of interest and is incapable of voting on vital issues."

6. Failure to employ the most remedial modern business procedures to provide basic administrative services to the people of Morton Grove.

"All of this, and the incumbents have the colossal nerve to ask for still another term in office!

"It is clear that the present village administration no longer has or deserves the trust or confidence of the people. If the village is to survive and retain the respect of the North Shore community, there must be an immediate return to a local government of integrity, sound leadership, and fiscal responsibility. The Action Party offers that to Morton Grove," Flickinger concluded.

USE EASTER SEALS

Schuhrke plans new programs

A three-pronged program to initiate an annual mailing of vehicle sticker and pet license applications to residents of Morton Grove, to microfilm all important village records, and to issue a regular quarterly village newsletter, was revealed by Jerry Schuhrke, Action Party candidate for Village Clerk.

Schuhrke, explaining how his ideas would save the village money and permit it to function in a more efficient, businesslike manner, stated, "Morton Grove now loses the use of valuable revenue from vehicle sticker and pet license fees because residents are not reminded of these annual local requirements.

"As Village Clerk, I would see to it that all sticker and license forms are sent out, possibly at no additional cost to the village, by including them with other scheduled village mailings.

"This type of service, would, in addition to encouraging an early return of applications and fees, be especially helpful to the elderly, the handicapped, and to those persons whose work schedules conflict with village business hours.

"I know that everyone in Morton Grove would appreciate the convenience of being able to automatically conduct their business with the village by mail. The citizens of other neighboring suburbs have been enjoying this successful service for many years.

Schuhrke, explaining the need to microfilm village records, stated, "It is frightening to contemplate the chaos that would result from the destruction by fire or other natural disaster of our existing set of local records. Recognizing the vulnerability of invaluable legal documents and other local records, the Illinois State Records Commission strongly recommended years ago that all municipalities have all records microfilmed. Despite the very low cost of a microfilm system, Morton Grove still has not implemented this important suggestion. In addition to eliminating the need for massive storage areas, microfilm files greatly reduce the potential fire hazard of vast accumulations of paper. The use of a microfilm reader would provide any resident with easy access to all public records — an incomparable tool with which to shed public light on government activity, and in part a fulfillment of our own Action Party platform promises for open door government."

Schuhrke continued, "Another way of communicating with the people about Morton Grove government is through a general distribution of a quarterly, informative village newsletter. The newsletter we now receive in Morton Grove, supposedly a quarterly report, is generally sent to residents only once every two years, usually right before our local election. It is actually a thinly disguised propaganda sheet, a tool of the party in power paid for by tax money.

"I suggest that a legitimate quarterly village report to the people, totally devoid of political overtones, be sent to every resident as a perforated addition to the water bill. The people's right to know must be respected. Village business is the people's business, and we will see to it that they are completely and regularly informed about it," Schuhrke concluded.

CitizensBank offer suits many Citizens Bank & Trust Company, Park Ridge, reports a good response to date for its special spring savings promotion offering warm-up suits and Frisbees.

During this promotion, anyone making a one-time deposit of $250 or more into a new or existing regular 5% savings passbook account is entitled to purchase one warm-up suit for $14.95 plus tax and receive one free genuine Frisbee. The offer will continue thru April 23 or while the supply lasts.

A bank spokesman attributes the demand for the 100% polyester triple-knit suits to two factors. "With these high quality suits normally retailing for $25 to $30 each, people are aware of a good buy. Secondly, after the bitter winter people are particularly ready to get outside and do things. These suits fulfill a need," according to the bank officer. Persons with questions on this special offering should call Richard C. Rushkewicz, Director of Marketing, at 825-7000, ext. 220.

Centel raises quarterly dividend

Directors of Central Telephone & Utilities Corp. today raised the quarterly dividend 10.3% to 37 1/2 cents per common share from 34 cents per share. The higher dividend is payable April 30 to shareholders of record March 28.

The new quarterly rate will bring the indicated annual dividend to $1.50 per share. The company noted that it has now improved its dividend 15 consecutive years, and in 22 of the last 23 years. The last dividend increase was in April 1976.

In other developments, directors elected Richard M. Smith to the newly created post of vice president-marketing for Central Telephone Co. Smith, who will join the CTU subsidiary April 1, has been senior vice president of Xtel Company.

CTU also said it will seek shareholder approval to increase the number of authorized common shares to 30 million. The company is presently authorized to issue up to 25 million common shares, of which 22.4 million are outstanding or reserved for conversions.

The additional shares will be needed for automatic dividend reinvestment and employee savings programs, the company said, as well as for any acquisitions.

Oakton Board candidates

John J. Prochaska III

Mr. Prochaska, of Glenview Ave., Park Ridge, is a seven year resident of Park Ridge and the community college district. He was recently appointed Internal Audit Manager for the University of Illinois Chicago Circle Campus. A Certified Public Accountant and Certified Internal Auditor, he received his M.B.A. in Finance and Accounting from Northern Illinois University in 1970, and his B.S. in Finance from N.I.U. in 1966. Mr. Prochaska, for the last three years, has been employed by the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago as an Audit Supervisor and Senior Budget Analyst. He has also held auditing/accounting positions with the Keebler Corp., Central Telephone & Electronics, and the A.C. Nielsen Co.

Mr. Prochaska is the Adjutant and Past Commander of Mel Tierney American Legion Post #247, has served as a delegate to the District 64 School Caucus, and is a member of the Park Ridge Jaycees. His professional affiliations include: the Institute of Internal Auditors, the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, and the Illinois Society of Certified Public Accountants.

Mr. Prochaska has been a candidate for the District 535 Board of Trustees for the past several years. He attends many of the public meetings of the Board of Trustees, and has developed a working relationship with many of the college administrators and several of the current board members.

The Prochaska family consists of John, age 33, his wife Cynthia, and two daughters, Amy and Jean. The family attends Our Lady of Ransom Church in Niles. During his college years, Mr. Prochaska was a member of the Student Senate and Board of the Campus Leadership Development Commission at Northern Illinois University, as well as serving as an officer of a number of student organizations. At Wright Junior College, he served as President of the Student Government and the Business Club.

Bernice Lesser

Bernice Lesser, incumbent, was selected by the OCC Board of Trustees to fill the unexpired term of Trustee Vivian Medak, who resigned when she was appointed to the Illinois Community College board. As an Oakton Trustee, she has gained the respect and admiration of other board members, faculty, students, and members of the community. Mrs. Lesser is a highly qualified Trustee. She was a member of the Lincolnwood School Board District #74; President of the Lincolnwood PTA; Delegate to the Niles Township Department of Special Education; Officer of the Skokie Valley Council PTA; Caucus delegate for districts 74, 219, and 535. She was also a member of the Skokie Valley Council PTA delegated to study the need for a community college, and worked with that committee to pass a referendum for oakton Community College.

Mrs. Lesser is little in stature (5'11") but spunky in nature. She's not afraid to stand up before the administration and ask them for an accounting. "Let's face it, I've stood up to them and questioned some of their judgements and decisions because I felt that those decisions weren't in the best interest of the community and the students. For example, I recently learned that the OCC administration had knowledge that a teacher was hired to teach in the Baccalaureate Program without a college degree.

Poor administrative judgements like that are not in the best interest of the students and the community because the school could suffer embarrassment with the North Accreditation Association.

Lesser firmly believes that as a Trustee she is the "Voice of the Community", and that as an elected community officer, she must be the "Spokesman" for those who elect her. "A Trustee who merely sanctions everything the administration does, violates the confidence and trust given them by the community." A Trustee must maintain a constant vigilance over the administration to protect the students and the community.

Walter E. Kramer

Dr. Walter Kramer, who is a candidate for a three-year term on the Board of Trustees of Oakton Community College, says that the most important issue in this election is civilian control of Oakton. The voters of this community exercise control of the College through the members of the Board of Trustees they elect. The Board of Trustees sets the policy for the College and the administration carries out this policy. The Board of Trustees acts as a watch dog, seeing that the college is properly run, that the costs are kept to a minimum, and that rigid academic standards are maintained.

Dr. Kramer believes that a trustee must not interfere with the daily operation of the College and that the administration in turn must be neutral in the election of board members. It is perfectly permissible and legal for the members of the administration as private citizens to support whomever they favor. However, the Oakton administrators are using the college facilities, resources, and personnel to aid and abet the candidacy of two three-year candidates and two one-year candidates in an illegal and unethical fashion. If they succeed in electing their four candidates, the citizenry of this community will lose all effective control of the college. The administration will then feel free to do as it pleases without fearing the disapproval of the Board of Trustees.

Dr. Kramer feels that this must not be allowed to occur. The only way you can guarantee civilian control of the College is to support him and Janet Juckett for the three-year terms and Stephen Loska and Roselyn Evans for the one-year terms. Remember that the election is on April 9th and that the polls are open from noon to 7:30 p.m. Vote to safeguard your control of Oakton College.

college to continue its overall commitment to excellence in its service to the community.

Roselyn Evans

Open communication between administrators, instructors, students, board members, and taxpayers of Oakton Community College District 535 is vital to the continuing growth of the college, according to Roselyn Evans, candidate for a one-year term on the OCC board.

As a 20-year resident of Morton Grove, a former Oakton student, an OCC employee for six years, Roselyn Evans can assess Oakton's needs from a broad perspective. As a resident who worked hard for the establishment of the college and as the mother of former Oakton students, Roselyn Evans has a sentimental, as well as a practical "dollars and cents" reason for offering her abilities as a board member.

"Considering Oakton's rapid growth and the many changes taking place in preparation for the move to a permanent campus, each individual in the Oakton community should have a link to the college where he/she can find out what is happening at her/his school," Evans believes.

As an OCC board member, Roselyn Evans will become that link — between those with information and those who want to know, between those with ideas and those who are able to implement them.

Frank J. Chulay

Frank J. Chulay is a candidate for election to the Oakton Community College Board of Trustees. Mr. Chulay and his wife Altanah are residents of Lincolnwood.

Frank Chulay has a strong background in accounting and financial management to bring to the Board of Trustees of Oakton Community College. He believes the college needs to operate on a sound financial basis while it builds its new campus in Des Plaines. He believes that Oakton should continue to strengthen and expand its academic and career programs and its offerings for community residents with special needs and skills. He wants the

Zenith quality control manager

Richard A. Pagel of Monroe Street, Niles, has been promoted to the position of quality control manager for Zenith Hearing Instrument Corporation, Chicago-based manufacturer of hearing aids and testing equipment.

A native of Highland Park, Pagel joined Zenith's Rauland Division in 1965 as manager of quality assurance for the firm's X-ray image intensifier tubes. Rising through the ranks he served in the company's line of special products and was then promoted to Zenith Radio Corporation's optical systems group. Before his present appointment he was supervisor of quality audits in Zenith's corporate quality control department.

Pagel is a member and secretary of the Chicago chapter of the American Society for Quality Control. Recently he was appointed vice chairman of the society's host committee when the group will hold its national convention in Chicago in 1978.

Pagel attended North Central College in Naperville before entering the service in 1957. He served as an airman first class in the U.S. Air Force until 1961. Prior to joining Zenith, he was employed as an aircraft systems inspector for Rockwell International North American Aviation.

Crusade awards Silver Plaque

The employees of First Federal of Chicago, Niles, recently were awarded a Crusade of Mercy Silver Plaque for their Outstanding support of the 1976 Crusade campaign.

Employees of more than 180 organizations earned Gold or Silver Plaques for the 1976 campaign. Campaigns earning Gold Plaques have 75 per cent or more of employees making Fair Share contributions. Those earning Silver Plaques have 50 to 75 per cent Fair Share givers. In addition, employees of nearly 200 companies and social service agencies received Bronze Plaques for 25 to 50 per cent Fair Share contributions. Fair Share is defined as at least one per cent of gross annual income for employees earning $15,000 or more and one day's pay for all others.

Crime Prevention Tips
A look out your window occasionally may prevent a crime from being committed in your neighborhood.

During April Uptown Federal savers will also have the opportunity to obtain their choice of three life-saving home and security items free or at greatly reduced prices.

The items are a smoke and fire detector, a fire extinguisher and a cordless electric timer.

Smoke detectors have recently become mandatory for Chicago apartment buildings which are not rated as fire-resistant.

Studies show that most fires occur between 10 p.m. and 6 a.m., when most people are asleep, and that most people who die in fires are killed by toxic gases in smoke.

Uptown Federal's smoke detector is a battery-operated Westclox ionization model. It sounds a loud, continuous alarm at the earliest possible stage of a fire before visible smoke or high heat.

With a $250 deposit, savers can buy the detector for $17.99, substantially below the typical retail price.

The fire extinguisher featured at Uptown Federal is a Gillette Captain Kelly model rated to fight all classes of common household fires. Complete with a handy wall bracket, it is available for $6.99 and a $250 deposit.

The timer, a Westclox model that plugs directly into any outlet and automatically turns lamps or appliances on or off, is available free with a $250 deposit.

Federal regulations specify only one gift per family with the initial savings deposit.

Home security equipment at the Niles office of Uptown Federal Savings is examined by Arlene Duggan, Uptown's office manager; Lieutenant Al Weber, Niles Fire Department, and Sergeant Jim Gerhardt, Niles Police Department. Police and fire safety exhibits will remain on view through April as Uptown Federal features home safety premiums for saving.

asparagus fern, or a purple passion. They're also free with a $100 deposit, and can be picked up at the First Federal branch nearest you. (Sorry, no mail orders on house plants.)

The Big Knife, starring James Farentino, Michele Lee, and Nehemiah Persoff, opens Friday, April 8 at the Arlington Park Theatre, 3400 W. Euclid Av., Arlington Heights, Ill.

The Clifford Odets drama about the decline and fall of Charlie Castle, a fictional movie star of enormous magnitude in the days when Hollywood was king, will be directed by Harvey Medlinsky, Arlington Park Theatre's producing director.

Mr. Farentino and Mr. Medlinsky previously worked together in the Arlington Park Theatre production of "One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest" which resulted in a barrage of critical acclaim, the Chicago Drama Critics Award and six Jefferson Awards, including Best Actor and Best Director for the 1972-1973 season.

Mr. Farentino plays Charlie Castle, once a stage actor of great promise who was lured to Hollywood and a stunning career that has cost him his soul.

Michele Lee, popular singing

ED HANSON

High prices are a boon to our economy

High prices and high wages are the best indicators of a country's prosperity. Ask any top economist. They are also essential to peace as well as prosperity.

I vividly remember the great depression of the 30's. Everything was dirt cheap, including black soil. Food, rent, taxes and clothing were at bed-rock. But most people couldn't afford these low prices. Then, if steamboat whistles were 10 cents, most Americans couldn't buy the 'toot'.

But, even then, people, women mostly, were 'yapping' about high prices. Women thru the ages have been the biggest 'yappers' about high prices. Yet for the most part, women have not been the 'breadwinners' of the family. Men have. Men don't generally complain. Perhaps, they don't get much chance to.

Women seem to get a sadistic pleasure complaining about food prices. I suppose it's because they do most of the family shopping. I suspect, in many cases, this is because high food prices make it difficult for them to divert some household monies for their beauty parlors, clothes and cocktail needs. Some, I've heard, even filch a few bucks for bingo and horse bets.

The feminine gender's chief 'yak' now is coffee prices. But coffee, even at five bucks a pound, is still a cheap drink. Coffee, properly brewed should yield at least 50 cups per pound. That's only 10 cents a cup. Still much cheaper than a man has to pay for a shot of booze in his friendly neighborhood tavern.

Even at ten bucks per pound, coffee still is a cheap drink — only 20 cents a cup. That's cheaper than most restaurants charge and you save a tip. And that's still a hell of a lot cheaper than a man has to pay for a shot of booze at his friendly neighborhood tavern.

Men, being more astute than women, know that high coffee prices improve our foreign relations. Consider how happy South Americans will be if coffee in the U.S. goes up to ten bucks a pound. South America, and all those south of the border countries, will feel very friendly towards us. And, the way things are with Russia now, we need all the friends we can get.

Gasoline prices: with more women drivers than ever before, women have found something other than high food costs to "yak" about — gasoline prices! To get to the store, to and from the beauty parlors, bingo parties, health clubs, and the afternoon cocktail hour, suburban women use a lot of gas which (mostly) they pay for with their husbands' money or his credit cards.

But even if gas goes to a buck a gallon, it's still cheap. Say a gallon takes the family 15 miles; that's still cheaper than using public transportation or a cab. And 15 miles will also just about cover milady's route to her beauty parlor, bingo game, health club and afternoon cocktail hour. "But, oh," she says, "aren't gas prices terrible!"

But again men realize that even if gas goes to $2 a gallon, it helps our foreign relations. The Arabs will feel more kindly towards us and this will help to cut down on the terrorist problem and promote international peace and goodwill thruout the Middle East.

Besides, we'll get it all back at the gaming tables in Vegas from those rich oil sheiks.

Another thing suburban women now "yak" about at their beauty parlors, bingo games, bridge clubs, health gyms and afternoon cocktail hours is real estate tax increases. What they don't realize is the next time their real estate taxes increase, they should jump up and down with joy. For what they don't realize (and some men, too) is that these taxes are based upon the worth of their property. Thus, their property is worth more. The next time your real estate taxes are increased, have a block party with your friends and neighbors. Compare your increases with those of your neighbors. If you feel your taxes weren't increased enough, write your Congressman or local politician. If necessary, hold a protest meeting for higher real estate taxes.

I understand the M.R.G. (Men's Rights Group) is planning an educational campaign primarily directed at the feminine gender of this country to change their thinking in regard to high prices. The "Up Beat" rather than the "Down Beat" will be emphasized.

In time even a new era in merchandising may evolve. Merchants, instead of offering "sales" and low prices, will advertise: "We've Got The Highest Prices In Town — Next Week They'll Be Even Higher!"

It's the new "up beat" theme. For example, our financial institutions have been using the "up beat" theme for years now. You've never heard of a bank or savings and loan advertising, "We've Got The Lowest Interest Rates In Town". And these people are 'money smart', that's how come they got all the money.

Some day it is hoped the day will come when a smart woman shopper will say, "Suzy, I aint shoppin' at Sears till next week cause their d says prices will be higher next week — and you know, Suzy, higher prices mean greater prosperity. That's why we got three cars in our garage and three chickens in our pot."

It's the only way to fly — UP! See you next week ...

Contest winner

The reason why senior Patti Sullivan of Niles is special is because she won the General Mills Search for Leadership contest at Maine East.

Patti will now receive a certificate from General Mills, sponsor of the annual educational scholarship program, and becomes eligible for state and national honors.

Patti has many hobbies, including skiing and swimming. Here at Maine East she developed these talents in Demon Guard, Ski Club, and Terrapin.

This year she is taking mainly courses in the home economics department. They include: Clothing IV, Home Planning, and Child Development.

After graduation in June, Patti plans to go to Harper Junior College for two years and then to the University of Wisconsin-Stout to earn a degree in textiles. Patti's very excited about it, but one thing - don't call her a "Suzy" Homemaker."

President's honor roll member

Jake plans giant Easter celebration

Easter is coming, and Sunday, April 10, Jake of Jake's Famous Restaurant of Niles is planning the biggest and best Easter party in his history. Bring the whole family to Jake's Easter party and you'll have a ball. Particularly the kids, for they have the opportunity of picking an egg out of a big Easter basket. If they pick out a red egg, they'll win a shiny new half dollar. And, if the kids pick out a green egg, they'll receive a big silver dollar, compliments of generous Jake. And, of course, all the little kids (1 to 12) get a free new toy from Jake's big Treasure Chest.

Jake will also have some large, expensive stuffed animals on display and everyone will receive a ticket upon which they will fill out their name, address and phone. At 9 p.m. Easter evening, the drawing will be held and the lucky winners will take home one of these big, cuddly stuffed animals. (Winners need not be present to win.)

And, for Easter Sunday there'll be "live" entertainment plus the personal appearance of that famous TV character, Chippo the Clown. And direct from the Playboy Club Jake is having a real live Bunny (the two legged kind). This bunny, I'm sorry to inform the gentry will not be raffled off.

And Jake's Easter menu will have a large variety of traditional Easter favorites: Roast Lamb, Roast Turkey, Baked Ham, Roast Duck and many, many more. These complete Easter dinners, I'm happy to report, will be priced very low. Cheaper, in fact, than you could prepare a comparable complete dinner at home. So, relax Easter Sunday, enjoy the free live entertainment, the prizes and the delicious dinners at Jake's gala Easter Day party. There'll be plenty of free parking in Jake's and the adjacent lot so you'll have no car worries.

Just for the fun and pleasure of it, this Easter Sunday, April 10, make a date with Jake.

Houndt urges voters to disregard "mudslinging"

Morton Grove Mayor Herbert F. Houndt took the gloves off this week in urging residents to reject the dishonest, mudslinging of the past few weeks and re-elect the Citizens Party candidates who have made this one of the most outstanding communities in the north suburban area.

"One of my opponents last week described the contractual arrangements thru which Morton Grove's unlimited, free garbage and rubbish pickup operates as a "sweetheart" contract. I hasten to assure the people of this village that in this age, when there are only a couple of dump sites left, that any contract which effectively disposes of our wastes at the lowest price as this one does, is a sweetheart for the people of the village.

"The company which removes our garbage started with the village when old, respected Mayor Max Finke's administration found running garbage trucks was no longer economically feasible and negotiated the first contracts. Throughout the past twenty years, in compliance with state and local laws, this service has been negotiated by the board, under the supervision of Village Attorneys James Orphan, John Nordberg and Gabriel Berrafato," the mayor said.

"The garbage contracts from 1960 thru 1973 were negotiated by the Village Board dominated by the Action Party and two of my opponents today, Action candidates Dick Flickinger and Neil Cashman. The contract has been bid only one time and that was during the term of office of the Citizens Party administration.

"We have had excellent service with our present company during the Action years and during our term; the price has always been lower here for comparable service and any more of this type of 'cheap-shot' charge should be seen for what it is, campaign rhetoric," said the mayor.

"Perhaps the Action Party's swashbuckling style of campaign was all right for the 1950's and 1960's, but the fact is that time has passed them by. Morton Grove has matured and the Citizens Party administration has kept abreast of the times, even ahead when we consider that we are one of the few municipal governments today which operates with a balanced budget and cash in the bank.

"Taxes are low, services are excellent, modern day needs are being met thru expanded Paramedic programs, blood programs, the new CB patrol, tree planting, sidewalk repair, flood relief and a host of other programs which benefit the people of the village.

"Low taxes, low public debt, good services, balanced budget and cash in the bank, all the hallmarks of the Citizens Party administration are immensely preferable to the tiresome, mudslinging of its opponents," the mayor concluded.

Park Ridge swim club

The Park Ridge Swim Club recaptured its first place crown at the Central AAU Junior Olympic Class "A" Swimming Championships held March 25 to 27 in Springfield, outswimming runnerup Hinsdale by a margin of nearly 50 points.

Two of the PRSC's 15-year-olds stroked their way to victory and became the high point winners among girls at the event. They are Dawn Jensen of Niles, who took first place, and Leslie Dellefield of Northbrook, who came in second.

Jensen also took first place honors in four events for girls 15-18 years of age: both the 100- and 200-yard breaststroke, the 200-yard butterfly and the 200-yard individual medley. Leslie Dellefield was first in both the 100- and 200-yard backstroke events.

NILES PARK DISTRICT

Kosiba refutes statement by fellow candidate

Dan Kosiba is a candidate for a four year term on the Niles Park District Board. Elections will be held on April 19. There are four candidates seeking two positions on the board.

Dan feels that this competition for the board shows community involvement and stirs interest in the upcoming elections. But the residents must be given factual information on which to base their decisions. Candidate Walt Beusse has turned this campaign into a charade. He is taking credit for everything that has occurred in the park district for the last 8 years from basketball to remodeling of the Tam clubhouse and even claims to have started the Village Free Bus System. Most of the accomplishments of the park district which he has laid claim to, became a reality after he left the board and were realized through the efforts of five board members and a full staff of recreational professionals.

This candidate has also expressed concern that referendum plans have not been expedited properly. If his interest was so great for this project, why then did he leave the Park Board in 1975 and seek election to the Village Board. This was at a point when he has said that the board was starting to slide in its fulfillment of the referendum, yet this was when he chose to abandon the park district to further his own personal political career. Where was his concern for the residents in 1975?

Dan Kosiba has shown continued dedication to the residents of Niles, particularly his youth. Jeff Arnold, who is running with Dan, is an experienced board member with a proven record of integrity and leadership. Vote April 19 for the team of Jeff Arnold and Dan Kosiba for continued progress in the Niles Park District.

All registered voters who will be out of the County on Tuesday, April 19, should make application for their absentee ballots early. Voted ballots must be returned so that they can be delivered to the polling place before they close at 6 p.m. on Tuesday, April 19, in order to be counted.

Orchard Centers early intervention program

The Early Intervention Program at Orchard Mental Health Center of Niles Township is a program for residents of Niles Township with infants and young children. Its goal is the working together of professional staff and parents to help young children grow and develop.

Mrs. Raskin, Coordinator of the program, considers the establishing of confidence in the parents' capacity to provide for her child to be a key element in the help the program offers, regardless of the severity of the child's problem.

Therefore, she attends carefully to the establishing of a trusting, open relationship between herself and the parents. Parents contact the center for a variety of reasons: concern about their child's lack of speech, noticing that their child seems to tune them out, doesn't look at them, is unresponsive to their direction, has trouble resting, eating, sleeping, seems to have more upsets and tantrums than other children in the family or neighborhood, or else parents are simply perplexed as to what to expect, they wonder what is normal behavior, what is cause for concern. Talking things over can offer immediate relief to the parent who feels that he or she is carrying a solitary burden in caring for a child who is cranky, restless, withdrawn, sickly, or overly demanding.

"Anchoring" a child — helping the child to focus and attend to other people and things is a second important ingredient in the Early Intervention Program. Here, Mrs. Raskin helps the mother by demonstrating for and with her, how to "anchor" her child. If a child can't respond to verbal direction and seems to be "all over the place", sometimes its helpful to provide a low-keyed setting, eliminate a whole lot of distracting toys, and help the child focus on the people, and one activity at a time. Little children respond to touch, the warm involvement of adults. Routines and regularity can help anchor a child who is restless and over stimulated.

Finally, mother begins to take a more active role and tries out her new found skill in engaging her child, intriguing him with her interest in a new toy. Its not just the toy that holds his attention, its her involvement in the whole process. The goal is to help parent and child become more attached to each other, more responsive to each other's cues. We are attempting to strengthen the bond between parent and child while in the basic structure which permits later emotional development: the capacity to form close relationships with other people. This basic attachment is also an important ingredient for a sense of well-being and security.

In addition to seeing children and parents who come to the Center with a specific concern or problem, the Center is offering a "Drop-In Morning" at 8600 Gross Point Road, Skokie, on Tuesday mornings from 10-11:30 a.m. This is a time for parents and children, age 3 and under, to come to the Center for a relaxed morning of play and talk. There will be a chance for parents to compare notes on what works for

Oakton Raiders compete in Nationals

Two of Oakton's top running athletes along with their Coach, Pat Savage, traveled up to Detroit, Michigan, to compete in the National Junior College Indoor Track Championships on March 18 and 19.

Tom Riley ran his best time in the 1000 yard run but it was not good enough to make the finals. Larry Edington tied his best time in the 60 yard High Hurdles and ran a tenth slower in the 60 Yard Dash but that also was not fast enough to make the finals.

Savage said that both runners gained the experience necessary to make it easier when they qualify and run in the National Outdoor Meet later this year in Houston, Texas.

The other Oakton runners traveled to Sterling, Illinois, that same weekend to compete in the Central AAU Indoor Championships. The relay team of Norm Gonzales, Bill Chamberlain, Ken Hampe and Kevin Craig set school records them, to exchange ideas, and an opportunity for their young toddlers to meet their peers, explore and participate in a variety of developmental activities, and most important, practice their growing ability to move away from and back to their parents, in their secure quest for growth and independence.

Workshop for school board members

The Niles Township's Council of School Boards Consortium on Community Relations is sponsoring a workshop for all newly elected Township Board members. The workshop will be held on Saturday, April 23 at the District #219 Board Room, 7700 Gross Point rd., Skokie. The workshop will begin at 9 a.m. and run through 12:30 p.m.

The primary reason for this special workshop, according to Consortium Chairman, Norbert Leeb, is to inform these new Board members about some of the important issues they will be facing as Board members and to give them some insight on the "life of a Board member." As soon as election results are available, the Consortium will send an invitation to each new Board member with additional information about the agenda for that morning.

Plant fire set at $2,000

A pre-noon fire Monday, April 4 caused an estimated $2,000 in damages to Pathfinder Auto Lamp Co., 6201 Howard st., Niles, which manufactures accessories for automobiles.

No injuries were reported. Cause of the fire was not determined said Fire Chief Albert L. Hoelbl but firemen are investigating the possibility of careless smoking. Employees were in process of moving numerous big boxes of equipment out of an office area when the fire started.

The blaze set off several sprinkler heads located in the office said a fire department spokesman.

When firemen pulled up to the building, they saw flames thru the big plate windows on the second floor. Firemen broke thru and extinguished the flames.

The blaze was confined to the second floor office. Other than losses incurred in the main area of the fire, very little heat or smoke damage was reported.

Gogo resignation...

administration's relationship with the school board and the teachers. The report concluded the first order of business in the district was improving relationships with these groups. It concluded the educational process would be hurt if these immediate problems weren't rectified.

The past 2 1/2 years Gogo has been in the center of several controversies. He was the primary mover in convincing the board the district needed a new $400,000 administration wing at Apollo school, at a time when decreasing enrollments indicated money problems were the paramount problem in the district. Subsequently, he got caught in the middle of a teacher strike, in which superintendents have the dubious role of being caught between teachers and school boards in a "no win" position.

While the very independent superintendent received a 3 year contract just before the old board majority was unseated in 1976, his contract this year was not renewed for 3 years, a standard practice of preceding boards. It was the last sign his days were numbered in the school district. More acute board watchers predicted his continuance in the district would be short-lived after the 1976 board was seated.

As the board begins a search for a new administrator it will seek the 6th superintendent since 1960. Twice during this period a more open democratic board has been elected which has resulted in similar changes in the school district. In the late fifties a very conservative board had superintendent Jim Bagg as its head man. When the early sixties had a more liberal board elected Bagg's no-language, no-music, half-year kindergarten era was replaced by a more progressive era which culminated in the administration of Hugh McGuigan, a very open public relations-minded superintendent. When a more conservative board replaced this group, the woman-dominated board sought a father-image who would administer a more authoritarian administration. Gogo filled this bill well. With last year's newly-elected board the pendulum moved toward more openness for the second time which conflicted with Gogo's more tight-handed administration.

It is expected at the April 12 meeting the school board will select a search committee which will begin to find a new administrator. The 11 school district superintendent, with an attached $42,000 salary, should give the board a wide choice of candidates.

Have your blood pressure checked.

Vote the Green Ballot for Oakton

On Saturday, April 9 between noon and 7:30 p.m. polls will be open for the election of Trustees for Oakton Community College. Polling places will be the same for Oakton as for the elementary and high school elections in each community of the college district. Remember to ask for the Green Ballot to vote for Oakton Trustees.

Four vacancies are to be filled at this election: two for three-year terms and two for one-year terms. The three-year seats are presently held by Stephen J. Loska, Des Plaines and Harriet Ritter, Morton Grove. The two one-year vacancies resulted from the resignation of Vivian Medak and Howard Levin, the present Board Chairman. Medak resigned in August on being appointed to the Illinois Community College Board and Levin is stepping down because he will be moving out of the Oakton district.

Six candidates have filed for two regular three-year terms on the OCC Board. They are Janet T. Juckett, Park Ridge; Lloyd Gillet, Niles; Fred Swinnerton, Park Ridge; Frank J. Chulay, Lincolnwood; Walter E. Kramer, Niles, and Bernice Lesser, Lincolnwood.

In addition, six candidates have filed for two unexpired one-year terms. They are Roselyn Evans, Morton Grove; Stephen J. Loska, Jr., Des Plaines; John J. Prochaska III, Park Ridge; Paul Stiefel, Skokie; Wayne P. Hansen, Morton Grove; and Christine Anderson, Morton Grove.

For additional information about the Oakton Board of Election, contact Mrs. Klekpa at Oakton Community College, 967-5120, ext. 372.

Diamond leads Illini fencers

Art Diamond, sophomore fencer at the University of Illinois, closed out the regular season with more victories than any other fencer on the squad.

Diamond, who helped lead Niles West High School to the 1975 Illinois State Championship, has compiled a 54-9 record in foil going into the NCAA Championships.

Diamond wound up third in the Big Ten for the second straight season. After last season's performance he was awarded the Most Valuable Player trophy. Diamond is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Diamond, 7327 N. Karlov, Lincolnwood.

While we found Kramer's accusations flimsy, we personally know Walt is a highly-qualified candidate who deserves serious consideration. He is a chemist who formerly served on District 71's elementary board. He and his wife have made major contributions to educational matters in the Niles Township high school area which warrants your consideration. He has been dedicated, he has served as a school board member, has been a teacher at Oakton College, and has volunteered countless hours on behalf of education in Niles Township.

Keeping you tuned in on local village matters, a notice on Niles Police Department's bulletin board indicates policemen might meet with Niles' village manager in late April regarding certain grievances. Indications this might be the beginning of organizing the police department under a union flag is premature. But the seeds of such a movement could be planted in the coming months.

Announcement that Vince Pelletieri, this year's "Police-man of the Year", has resigned is still another indication all is not well at the department. Lack of opportunities for advancement, unless you are part of the favored establishment, are reasons given by several policemen for the dissatisfactions in the department. We're sure many Niles policemen would favor an outside study be made of the Niles Police Department. That All-America image Niles once had is becoming a bit smudged by what has been happening down at the old station house.

Vision and hearing screening

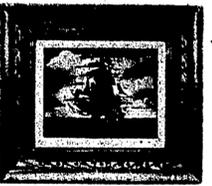

"Healthy eyes and ears in a healthy body" is the theme of the program being conducted by School District 63 and the Illinois Department of Public Health for pre-school children 3 to 5 years of age. Trained vision and hearing technicians from the Illinois Department of Public Health will do the testing.

Registration will be held on Wednesday, April 13 at Oak School, 7640 Main Street in Niles. The hours of registration are 9:00 to 11:30 a.m. and 1:00 to 2:45 p.m. When the child is registered an appointment will be made for the vision and hearing screening. Also, games will be distributed to prepare the child for the program. Parents should practice these games with their child to prepare him/her for the actual screening process to be held April 21st and 22nd.

It is important that parents understand the advantages of periodic vision & hearing screening, and prompt follow-up if the child does not meet the minimum standards of the tests. Screening is done to find and refer children in need of an examination by a specialist. Each year thousands of boys and girls suffer from uncorrected visual and hearing defects. The critical period in developing acute vision is between the ages of 1 to 7. Detection of faulty functioning eyes and ears at an early age is the most pressing problem.

A child's health, happiness, and success in school depends to a large measure on his eyes and ears. A child's ability to see and hear well is directly related to his ability to learn.
