Zoners tighten restrictions for Bingo Parlors

The Zoning Board of Appeals amended the village code to permit operation of bingo as an accessory use to church organizations, but set Bingo Parlors under a Special Use category which requires new petitioners to appear before the Zoning Board.

Establishment of bingo operation as an "accessory use limited to the occupant of the premises" allows church organizations and schools to run bingo but restricts subleasing of their property to unrelated organizations.

Also said Zoning and Building Director Joseph Salerno "setting Bingo Parlors in Business Zoning under a Special Use will require petitioning operators to come before the Zoning Board."

Future requirements under the B1 Special Use, of security, parking, safety precautions and times of operation remain under consideration by the Zoning Board.

Zoning Chairman John Frick prior to Board action Wednesday, May 4 said "We have no control over Bingo presently ... by putting it under a Special Use category (except where defined as an accessory use) we can exercise restrictions according to area."

Village action was initiated after several inquiries were made last January to Salerno regarding leasing of store fronts for operation of bingo games. Officials feared such procedure could invite traffic congestions, people problems, security worries and other axillary problems.

In other business Zoning Commission for a second time tabled action, to June 1, on a petitioned height variation from a maximum 36 ft. to 68 ft. by W.W. Grainger, 5959 Howard st., for an automated storage rack building at Jarvis st. and Menard. Petitioners were asked to consider amending their request to Special Use for the property as a whole.

Grainger attorney Harvey Lichter earlier asked for petition amendment to Special Use for the computerized building and allow the remainder of the area set under manufacturing zone requirements "in the event of future Grainger expansion".

Niles to study gas self-service

by Alice M. Bobala

Village trustees decided to delay action on self service gas operation Tuesday night, asking instead for a feasibility study by the Plan Commission of self-service implications.

Requests from 7 existing Niles Service Stations to the State of Illinois had been forwarded to the Niles Fire Dept. for consideration. Five are for full service and partial (self) service; two call for self-service only.

Niles' Code contains no restrictions on self service operation other than meeting State regulations and village Fire Dept. requirements which include an outside fire extinguisher and station signs restricting smoking near the pumps.

Regulations on self service state an attendant in the station building must be in full view of all self service pumps in order to control power to the pumps.

Village officials pondered the question whether to place restrictions on self service in the "best interests and safety of residents" or leave it to simple state regulations.

Trustee Peter Pesole fought for the delay in action: "Chicago May 4 removed a city prohibition Continued on Page 31

Buglebits

We received a very nice note from Lorraine Hartzell. She mentioned "things are looking up now" and she expects to return to Oak School in September. She noted during her illness she heard from many of her students and friends from many states which gave her a real lift during the holiday season.

I'm sure many of his Niles friends are pleased with the promotion of former Nilesite John Viera to vice president of Commonwealth Edison.

John's family was the first black family to move into Niles back in the 60's. The incredible reaction of many residents in the community was so astounding, it was necessary Niles police post a 24-hour guard at the corner of Main and Merrill. A parade of autos used to circle the block when the Vieras first moved in. Several Merrill Avenue families held nightly meetings to figure what they could do about the "situation". One former Niles trustee said he wanted the home inspected periodically to make sure it was maintained. A fireman going door to door in the neighborhood would not stop at that house. A very successful executive would not let his kids play near the house which was just a few doors away. They quickly sold their house. A highly emotional meeting was held upstairs in the Public Works Building and when a local priest tried to gain entrance, the audience took a vote before allowing him to enter. He received many negative votes. A newsletter sent from St. John Brebeuf told the parishioners this family was a member of their parish and they were expected to treat them cordially. During this same era Reverend Maple from the East Maine Baptist Church brought hatemongers from all over Chicagoland to protest open housing laws in Niles. And Nick Blase, who has many shortcomings, stood 10 feet tall through all this harassment. John Viera, 2 degrees in engineering, a former naval officer, now vice president of Commonwealth Edison, was resisted by many All America Nilesites. And ironically, while the resisters were so upset by a black family moving into Oakton Manor in Niles, they were not the least disturbed a white hoodlum dealing in dope traffic and jewelry thefts was freely moving about the neighborhood living only a block away from the Vieras.

OCC athlete qualifies for Israeli competition

David Schwartz of Des Plaines, a student at Oakton Community College, will represent the United States, in the wrestling competition at the 10th Maccabiah Games this summer near Tel Aviv, Israel.

Schwartz and his brother, Marty, both 1972 graduates of Niles North High School, qualified as Maccabiah athletes in the 220 lbs. and 180 lbs. weight divisions respectively, at trials held recently in Shaker Heights, Ohio.

In addition to capturing the Skyway Conference wrestling championships, David Schwartz recently placed fourth in the Illinois State Regional Wrestling Competition. Marty, a 1976 graduate of Yale University where he was captain of the wrestling team, currently attends American University Law School.

The brothers started wrestling in high school, but gained extra practice every evening as they wrestled for several hours to see who would or wouldn't wash the dishes, David Schwartz said.

The Maccabiah Games, planned for July 10-22, are held every four years in Israel where Jewish athletes from around the world gather to compete in Olympic events.

In 1973, teams from 26 countries participated in the Maccabiah Games which are now considered a living memorial to the 11 Israelis murdered in the 1972 Olympic games in Munich.

Maine-Northfield LL. has no hitter thrown

Major American Jim Freese of Carl Miller & Son Realtors pitched a no hit, no run game against a strong Just Games team 3-0. His catcher, Dave Weiss cracked out a triple and single to aid the cause. Chris Anderson saved it with super plays in the field. Ro La Motive Auto Parts beat Lochtan Ins. 12-2. Darren Pacholski ripped out 2 double and singled, Peter Savio homered and singled, Loren Coles double and single, Scott Weinstein singled with the bases loaded to break the game open. Pacholski picked up the win and Rich Wiltse got the "Golden Glove" award. Bob Traush homered and Buddy Klinger singled twice for L. Ins. Bristol House Restaurant won over Ready Electric 7 to 4 as Bryan Byrne scattered 5 hits and wiffed 11. Ray Panfil and John Johanson doubled and singled, Mitch Klinsky and Byrne each doubled.

Major National solid hurling from Mitchell Opperheim (Morrie's son) and Randy Levy plus Mark Protus' 3 hits followed by 2 hits each from Chris Moog and Robert Sheck, gave Lochtan Ins. a 12-6 win over Cellini Pipes. Cheap Jeans won 4-2 over Gus Wilkens Landscaping as Marc Alberts went 6 strong innings back-up by Bob Orlowski, over shadowed Marc Bartolotta's relief stint where he faced 11 batters and struck them all out in a losing cause. Jerry's Fruit and Garden Center beat "Little Buckey" in a score that was kept secret, though Todd Projansky said he got 2 hits for J F & G.

Minors Dells Family Apparel edged out Ignatz & Mary's Grove Inn 7 to 6. Mitchell Silverman, Steve Dick, Dave Kuehn and Craig Futterman each had 2 hits each for Dells. Bryan Siegel struck out the side with the bases loaded to save the game. Shelly's Deli deposited 23 runs on Northwest Federal Savings dividend of 10. Rich Cooper hammered a "Grand Slam" while Larry Rubin had 3 hits, Steve Price and Steve Sangerman tripled, Craig Stevens doubled, Andy Fernsten, Marty Shellist and Chris Cirone all got 2 hits each. Vince Gerage was the winning pitcher, Phil Weiss and Assoc. won 10 to 4 from Hackney's on Lake. Jeff Edfors and Bob Passarella were the pitchers. Bob ripped out a double. In the battle of big banks, Golf Mill State overcame an early lead by Glenview State to squeeze by 9-5. Andy Masur and Phillip Dymbicz pitched, Robert Saper doubled and singled, and David Subar was outstanding in his glove work.

Maine East girls' varsity softball

Maine East's varsity softball team is a very young team, with two seniors being real assets to the Maine East effort. Carol Richards, a relief pitcher who normally plays center field, handles game pressure very well, according to Coach Betsy Bricker, and catcher Mindy Benson has a batting average of .462. However, Benson may be out the remainder of the season with a knee injury from the recent Niles East game.

Sophomore Bylo Farmer is Coach Bricker's steadiest fielder and has only one error for the first five games of the season. Judy Liebsch, also a sophomore, is one of the team's outstanding pitchers.

Two freshmen round out the varsity's strongest players. Kathy Plank is excellent in the outfield, and while petite in stature, she is a powerful hitter, having a .400 batting average. Irene Hatchko is doing an excellent job at third but soon she will be converted to the catcher's position.

Coach Bricker said the team's batting is coming around, but there is inconsistency in the field. For example, Maine East committed 11 errors in the game with Niles East.

Against Glenbrook North the Demons lost 4-3, but the team could have won 3-2 if in the top of the seventh they hadn't committed two errors.

Demon outdoor track

Maine East's boys' varsity track team won the sixteen team Prospect Invitational held Friday, April 29.

Maine East placed in ten of the seventeen events to win easily. Upcoming competition for the varsity is the Friday, May 6, Maine East Relays then the freshmen will be competing on May 12, Glenbrook South Invitational.

Niles Jaycees benefit auction Saturday

This Saturday, May 14 at 7:30 p.m. at the Golf Mill State Bank, 9101 Greenwood, Niles, the Niles Jaycees are sponsoring an auction. The proceeds from this auction will be used to send one or more exceptional children to the Illinois Jaycees Children's Camp at Camp New Hope, Mattoon, Ill. These are retarded children who otherwise would not have an opportunity to attend camp in the summer due to the exceptional care they require.

Shown above is a piano, just one of the many items to be auctioned. It was donated by Karnes Music Co.

Several hundred other items are available including such interesting items as Carol Burnett's maid cap and autographed photo, a key chain and letter from Glen Campbell, an art book of Washington from Congressman Abner Mikva, an autographed football from the Chicago Bears, an autographed Constitution book and pen from Senator Charles Percy. Several appliances, gift certificates for dinners and playhouses will also be auctioned.

Chairman for the auction is Neal Kosnoff and Co-Chairman is Jerry Goldstein. Auctioneer Mike Ackerman of Industrial Plants Corp., Skokie will conduct the auction.

The Niles Jaycees extend their special thanks to Jim Martin of the Golf Mill State Bank for his cooperation in donating the use of their building and security for the auction.

So be sure you don't miss this special event on Saturday, May 14 at 7:30 p.m. In addition to the opportunity of being able to purchase several interesting and useful articles, you will be helping the Niles Jaycees accomplish their goal of sending exceptional children to summer camp. Call Jerry Goldstein at 299-5506 for ticket information. Tickets will also be sold at the door.

Living room fire causes $5,000 damage to home

Fire of undetermined origin Saturday, May 7 caused an estimated $5,000 in damages to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Kennebeck, 7946 Oketo.

No one was home at the time according to a fire department spokesman.

Niles Fire Chief Albert Hoelbl said the origin of the blaze occurred in the living room. The bulk of the fire was confined to the room, mainly to furniture, he said, with heavy smoke and heat damage to the walls.

Firemen were reportedly alerted to the scene shortly after 7 p.m. by a neighbor who saw smoke coming from the house.

Flames were visible to the firemen upon their arrival according to the fire chief.

Deputy Fire Chief Charles Bobula and three firefighting units responded to the alarm and remained on the scene for less than an hour.

The fire remains under investigation by the Fire Prevention Bureau.

On dean's list

Local residents are among 371 University of Denver students named to the dean's list for academic work completed during the 1977 winter quarter. Included were:

How does spontaneous combustion occur?

Our local Fire Chief Albert L. Hoelbl has provided this 13 article series on fire prevention and emergency procedures in the interest of greater safety in the community. The material and statistics have been compiled from information which comes across Chief Hoelbl's desk. He feels, in sharing this with the local citizens, some fire losses may be prevented, and perhaps even unnecessary loss of life.

Our subject for today is spontaneous combustion ... meaning fires that are caused by self-ignition. Basically speaking, combustible material when stored in quantity is subject to self-ignition beginning with a slow oxidation process.

Let's suppose for a moment that you have a pile of rags in the corner of the garage; they have been gathered over a long period of time as you worked on your car, and were used for grease clean up. The process of oxidation produces enough heat, deep in the pile of rags, to raise the temperature quite perceptibly. Additional air seeps through the crevices in the pile and the temperature gradually raises until ignition occurs. It is a long process, and conditions have to be just right for this kind of fire to start. But it does happen with enough frequency that precautions should be taken to prevent it.

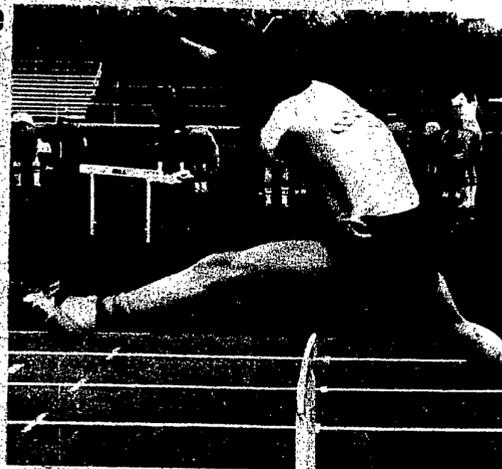

A good example of this action taking place is when you have just finished mowing your lawn. You rake up the cut grass and stuff it down in your trash container for later pick up. After it has been in the container for a few days, go back and put your hand down deep in the pile. You'll find it to be quite warm. Left there long enough, it could self-ignite and if the container were close to a building, you'd have a fire!

Soft coal, in small size, is particularly subject of spontaneous combustion. If you must store this type of material in or around your home, the pile should be wet down frequently with your hose.

If you live in the country, you will want to avoid letting cut weeds, animal manure, and other waste materials accumulate in quantity near your home or outbuildings. If you live in the city, your chief areas of concern will be your basement, attic, and garage. But, here again, good housekeeping is the key to eliminating this danger.

Be with me again next week when our subject will be Fire Prevention in Your Yard. I know you'll find it interesting and informative.

Lose Weight Naturally with

The NaturSlim Weight Loss Program is a 100% natural way to lose that extra fat and those unsightly inches. It comes with a special formula food that is eaten twice a day in place of any two meals of your choice. You'll actually look forward to eating this wonderfully nutritious and great tasting food.

Here are some Common Questions and Answers About NaturSlim.

- Q. What exactly is NaturSlim?
A. NaturSlim is a pleasant tasting, vanilla flavored food high in protein that is mixed with either lowfat milk or unsweetened fruit juice for both breakfast & lunch.
- Q. How much will I lose?
A. That depends on three things: How much you have to lose, your body metabolism, and how much you cheat. Most of our customers lose in the range of 10 to 25 pounds in the first month.
- Q. What about dinner—what can I eat for the 3rd meal?
A. A well balanced meal, including meat, fish or fowl, a vegetable of your choice and a salad if desired.
- Q. How many calories in NaturSlim?
A. A rounded tablespoon contains only 35 calories.
- Q. Is it like Metrolcal?
A. Only in that it's consumed as a liquid. Metrolcal contains artificial chemicals, less protein, and more calories. NaturSlim is completely natural, nothing in it is artificial.
- Q. Is it expensive?
A. No — NaturSlim comes packed in one pound cans — a months supply — and costs only 38¢ a serving — less than coffee & a doughnut.
- Q. Are you sure NaturSlim and 8 oz. of milk will fill me up for 4 to 5 hours?
A. Yes, because NaturSlim contains brewers yeast and it can fill you up for that amount of time. If you want to snack though, you can have 2 pieces of fruit or as many raw vegetables like carrots or celery as you want.
- Q. I want to try NaturSlim — where can I buy it?
A. NaturSlim is now available at the following locations:

Most Important Years - Birth to Three

Burton White, the Harvard Early Education specialist has been telling everyone who would listen the importance of education in the first three years of life. Developmental specialists agree that early stimulation and care set the stage for the child's social style, the foundations of his intelligence and most of his language patterns.

But what about the developmentally delayed child? Or the visually and hearing impaired child? Or the multiply handicapped child?

Since 1974, the federal government, through grants to the state offices of education has made it possible for children from birth to three years old to receive free help for their special needs through a system of regional programs. There are fourteen regions in the State of Illinois. In this area the Regional Service Agency, established in 1974,

The RSA has a mandated responsibility to identify, diagnose and recommend treatment programs for youngsters with potentially handicapping conditions. The agency is staffed with trained specialists with experience in serving low incidence handicapped children from birth to three. The staff also works cooperatively with school districts in the region providing specialized services for low incidence handicapped children from three to twenty one.

If you suspect your child may have a handicap, call the Regional Service Agency at 9301 North Keating in Skokie. The number is 679-7950.

NEW RETIREMENT BENEFITS FOR I.R.A. COUPLES

Recent legislation has brought new savings opportunities to couples taking advantage of an Individual Retirement Account (IRA).

Starting January 1, 1977, many married couples (with only one employed spouse) previously limited to a $1,500-per-year IRA deduction have been given a chance to qualify for a $1,750 yearly deduction--16% more tax-deductible dollars.

If you are married, and qualify for an IRA, you could also be qualified for the new higher rate, providing:

- (A) You and your spouse are less than 70 1/2 years old during the entire year.
(B) Your spouse will not earn any salary or self-employment income during the year.
(C) The total IRA contribution is split, so half goes to an IRA in your name, and half to an IRA in your spouse's name.

As with a regular IRA, you need not make deposits each year. (With the provision that non-contributory years cannot be made up later.)

If you want to take advantage of this new provision, call our Financial Vice-President, Mr. Robert Foy, at 761-2700; or stop by either office of Cook County Federal Savings, and pick up a copy of the "Expanded $1,750 IRA Tax Deduction" booklet.

It could be worth $250 a year to you.

Free hearing test on Saturdays

If you think you've experienced a hearing loss you can check it out on Saturday, May 14 at Skokie Federal Savings. The free tests will be offered to all area residents between 9-1 p.m. at the main office, 4747 W. Dempster, Skokie.

The tests are part of Skokie's Free Health Fair which gives residents an opportunity to take a different test on each succeeding Saturday in May. Three Public Health Nurses will be administering the tests.

In a discussion prior to the testing Skokie Health Director Dr. Sam Andelman stated, "There are many diseases which may affect hearing. It may be affected by drugs, toxic substances, or such illnesses as mumps, scarlet fever, a cold or swelling of the mucous membranes, all of which could make a person temporarily hard of hearing."

"There are several types of hearing loss such as catarrhal deafness which is generally caused by chronic infection of the sinuses, tonsils and adenoids, or other organs in the respiratory system. There is also inherited deafness as in types of conduction deafness in which abnormal bone growth immobilizes one of the middle ear bones. This type of deafness most frequently develops in the teens and is progressive until mid-life. The final type is nerve deafness, which results from the degeneration of the hearing nerve which transmits impulses to the brain. This is frequently found in older citizens."

At the Saturday morning testing residents will be able to take a preliminary screening test to determine the possibility that a hearing defect exists or hearing is impaired. They will then be instructed to visit an otologist to decide on the nature and method of correcting hearing impairment.

The hearing test is part of Skokie Federal Savings' Free Health Fair, and in the remaining two weeks tests will be administered to check for glaucoma and tuberculosis.

Avondale reports record year for loans and savings

Assets and new homeowner loans set records at Avondale Savings and Loan Association in the past year. President Julius M. Boberski reported to the annual meeting of members this afternoon at the Association's headquarters at 2965 Milwaukee ave., Chicago.

The increase in savings was the highest in Avondale's history. Assets were up 17% and loans to homeowners and others increased $24.3 million, President Boberski said. Total assets rose to a record $156 million and profits after taxes to $1.6 million for the Association's fiscal year ended March 31, 1977.

Avondale also retained its position as one of the most strongly capitalized savings and loan associations in the industry.

Reserves and undivided profits totaled 11.3% of total savings. This is one of the highest in the Chicago area. Avondale's outside auditors told the members.

Loan activity continues strong with the outlook good for the housing industry, according to Mr. Boberski. At the same time savings by depositors are expected to continue to be healthy. Avondale is looking forward to continued growth this year, and full participation in these favorable conditions, he said.

Special credit for Avondale's record growth was given by President Boberski to the support of Avondale's customers and staff and the communities where its offices are located in Chicago at 2965 Milwaukee ave. and in Niles at Milwaukee and Oakton.

Internal thefts
Police said Coca-Cola Bottling Co. at 7406 Oak Park ave. was the victim of two separate internal thefts totaling approximately $13,650.

The sales promotion manager reported a loss the fourth week in April of 7,500 coupons valued at $13,000 from locked cabinets. The coupons, logged by serial numbers, were redeemable for cartons of Coke, Tab, Fresca and Sprite.

According to police the coupons have begun turning up in St. Charles and in Niles stores.

In a second incident April 22 officials noted theft of 20 Polaroid cameras taken from the advertising room.

The manager said the thieves had to climb over a 12 ft. locked fence in order to remove the cameras, which were to have been used in a sales incentive contest for employees.

Thefts from cars
A Glenview resident who parked his 1976 Pontiac in the 5960 Touhy ave. parking lot told police he came back around 6 p.m. to find the drivers door ajar. Taken were 24 eight-track tapes valued at $144 and further estimated damages to the door of $30.

The night manager of a company parked his '77 Chevrolet at 6300 Touhy ave. Saturday night returning to find $200 in clothing and a $485 cassette player stolen after forced entry into the car.

A Round Lake resident told police he parked his 1977 Oldsmobile in the Golf Mill parking lot for 20 minutes and returned to note loss of a CB radio valued at $175.

A CB radio valued at $95 and his wallet were stolen from a 36 year old Chicago resident whose Ford van was parked the morning of May 3 at 6101 Gross Point rd. Estimated damages of $15 were caused when thieves broke the side vent window to gain entry to the car.

Counterfeit prescriptions
A pharmacist at Jewel-Osco, 8730 Dempster, told police that a 20 year old woman attempted to obtain controlled substances Friday with 2 phony prescriptions.

When she observed the pharmacist using the phone to call Niles police, he said she fled the area.

In another instance May 4 the druggist at Osco drugs, 7900

Milwaukee ave., reported a 60 year old man attempted to get a prescription filled for Preludin.

When the pharmacist became suspicious and said he would have to call the doctor for verification the man immediately left the store.

Police said the Chicago doctor labeled the prescription a fraud, that approximately 500 blank forms had been stolen from his office several months ago, which were not reported to the police.

Auto thefts
At least 3 autos were reported stolen in Niles last week according to police.

A 30 year old resident on the 7900 block of Nordica said his 1974 VW valued at $2,500 was taken overnight May 2 from its parking place on the street.

The owner of a 1973 Buick valued at $3,500 said he parked near Penney's in Golf Mill the afternoon of May 4 for an hour of auto missing.

A Morton Grove resident told police he parked his $5,000 1976 Olds Cutlass in the Notre Dame parking lot May 4 to attend an evening class and came out to find it gone.

Purse snatch
A 55 year old Chicago woman had her purse stolen May 4 from a chair where she placed it while square dancing at Mark Twain School at 9401 Hamlin in Niles.

She said two youths dressed in jeans, ages 10 to 12 years, one a blond and the other brown-haired, picked up the purse and ran out of the school. The purse contained $20, credit cards and a drivers license.

Indecent exposure
Two teenaged youths playing tennis near Neva and Kedzie Saturday afternoon told police a 55 year old male motorist exposed himself to them from his car.

The boys said the man had stopped his car to watch them. As one boy ran after a ball the driver opened his car door and exposed himself. When the boys observed his actions they yelled at the man who immediately drove off in his car.

At gunpoint
A motorist told police he was harassed by another driver Thursday afternoon while stopped in traffic who he said then came up with what appeared to be a .45 cal. automatic.

The victim said he was at Oakton and Harlem when the other driver stopped next to him, began calling him names, finally pointing the automatic.

The victim seeing the gun exited his car to run toward the other car but the driver turned against the red light and drove off.

Police said the license plates of the fleeing car were registered to a mid-Niles resident.

Smoker's theft
Winers Liquors, 8006 Oakton st., told police a young man in his early 20's was observed a week ago to steal 3 cartons of cigarettes valued at $14.10, returning May 3 for more.

This time he was seen taking the cartons and when the clerk chased him, dropped a carton of Kents.

The thief escaped in a car whose plates checked out to a Chicago resident, but the store owner said he will sign a complaint.

Bazaar receipts gone
The owner-operator of Pleasantview Nursing Home, 6840 Touhy ave., told police May 2 that $133.26 receipts from a bazaar held in the home were taken overnight from a steel money box left in an office desk. Police said there were no signs of forced entry.

CB theft
A CB radio valued at $149.95 was reported stolen from the Radio Shack at 9515 Milwaukee ave. May 2.

Police said two youths ages 17 to 20 entered the store around 1 p.m. going directly to the rear of the shop and while the clerk was busy with another customer, left with the radio.

Violation liquor laws
Three Mount Prospect teens were arrested April 29 and charged with possession of alcohol by a minor, and a 25 year old Chicago man was charged with sale or gift of liquor to minors.

Police said the Chicago man was observed purchasing beer at a north Milwaukee tavern, subsequently giving the beer to three 17 and 18 year old girls in his car. The four were apprehended at Maryland and Callero dr. when the driver left his vehicle.

All four were released under individual $1,000 bonds set by Judge J. Gannon of Niles Third District Court.

Phone threat
A Des Plaines resident according to police records May 3 called Lyttons in Golf Mill to dispute a $19.45 refund.

The man, who gave his name and address to the store clerk, said if he did not receive a handwritten letter from the store he would come and "shoot people".

by Alice M. Bobula

A Glenview housewife was swindled out of $5,000 Friday, April 29 in what police termed a classic pigeon drop con game which began in Woolco on Golf rd. around 11 a.m. and finalized in a mall at Golf Mill Shopping Center.

The woman told police she was first approached by a woman about 30 to 35 years old in the greenery section of Woolco who struck up a conversation revolving around an envelope she found in a phone booth at Woolco. They were joined by a second woman about 35 years old and the three exchanged comments about the envelope which supposedly held a number of rare stamps from around the world.

The first woman offered to show the stamps to her boss, an alleged attorney named Moore who supposedly had offices in Golf Mill Shopping Center. She returned to say he offered to buy the stamps for $30,000 but the women would have to put up "faith" money.

Woman bilked in Niles con game

The victim told police she agreed but since she had only $14 went to her home accompanied by one of the women to get the savings book on a Glenview Bank. They went to the bank and withdrew two $5,000 cashier checks, returning to meet the other woman at an agreed spot in Golf Mill.

Following a conversation about the checks, the victim accompanied by one of the women returned to the bank where she cashed only one of the checks because she didn't want to carry the large sum of $10,000 in her purse. The second check was re-deposited in the victim's account.

They returned to Golf Mill where the victim handed over the $5,000 to the first woman, who claimed to be a resident on Bruce dr. in Niles. The second woman told the victim the attorney and his partner wanted to see her.

When the victim reached the fifth floor of the building, she was unable to locate the law firm and when she returned to the ground floor, the women had left.

The first woman was described as about 115 lbs., 5 ft. 3 in., with blond hair page-boy fashion and wearing horn rimmed glasses. She was dressed in a blue short coat, dark slacks, gray blouse and blue shoes.

The victim described the second woman as 135 lbs., 5 ft. 8 in., with black hair and dark eyes. She was wearing a beige slack suit and dark shoes.

Prisoner makes unsuccessful dash for freedom

A 22 year old Evanston man charged with possession of a stolen auto made an unsuccessful attempt to escape from the Niles jail Friday morning, May 6 but was apprehended and returned to the lockup.

Police said the states attorney would probably file charges for attempted-escape against Errol Nugent of 130 Clyde in Evanston at a May 12 court hearing in Niles Third District Court.

Nugent appeared in court before Judge Simon Porter shortly before noon Friday under a $5,000 bail bond charged with possession of a stolen car and had received a week's continuance to May 12 by request of the defense attorney.

According to police, Nugent had asked to make a telephone call and as he was being escorted to the telephone, made an unexpected lunge toward the courtroom doors. The impetus of his dash for freedom carried him through the doors and across the hall into the office of the village clerk.

Before he could move further, two court bailiffs and several policemen surrounded and subdued him.

Niles Police Sgt. Frank Wichlac put handcuffs on the prisoner, assisted by Police Officer John Morgan, Sr., and court bailiffs John Daly and Russell Harner and he was taken back to jail.

Police said Nugent had extensive police records including 3 convictions for auto theft and was presently on 5 year probation for stolen auto, having served 1 year in jail on the charge.

Currently, according to police,

Nugent had been apprehended April 29 at the Dempster Plaza Shopping Center, 8750 Dempster, for possession of a stolen car. A male companion, 18, was charged with criminal trespass to the auto and released under $1,000 bond. Two female companions, residents of north Niles, were also arrested. The 19 year old girl was charged with possession of marijuana and released under $1,000 bond. Her sister, 16, was turned over to juvenile authorities.

Police said the four came under suspicion when one of the girls tried to fill a phony prescription at Osco drugs in Dempster Plaza Friday but left when the pharmacist became suspicious.

A call from the druggist caused Niles police to set up a surveillance of the Dempster st. parking lot. When they observed a young girl sitting in a car fitting the description given by the druggist, they closed in and asked for identification of the occupants.

The druggist failed to identify the suspect as the girl who attempted to purchase drugs said police but investigation of the car revealed it to be stolen, resulting in arrest of the driver and occupants.

"Rough campaign tactics" for OCC candidate Ross

Dear Editor:

Violet Ross of Glenview who was elected student member of the Board of Trustees of the Oakton Community College last week, won the seat by a huge majority of the campus vote. Ross is a well known personality in both the college district and the adjacent Northbrook, Wilmette and Evanston areas, for her long-time interest and participation in social and political community affairs.

As a candidate for the Board seat, Ross had to face some rough campaign tactics. She told me that she obtained the restraint order to prevent the college from re-scheduling the election, only after she was unable to discuss the planned re-scheduling with college officials. First, she said, she called on Lou Pettica, Director of Student Activities, who had charge of the election, to learn why there had to be a change. But, Pettica said he did not have to tell her anything and angrily told her that she should "shut up and butt out". Then she went to see Mr. Donahue, Vice President of Student Development, and Pettica's boss, but he was not in, and he did not return any of her repeated telephone calls. Concerned about her name on the ballot, she finally called her own attorney to obtain the restraint order.

On election day, Ross faced a write-in candidate whose campaigners blatantly and falsely said Ross was a threat to the Women's Program and to the handicapped. Both charges were ridiculous. Ross has three adopted handicapped children and for many years she has worked ardently for accommodations and opportunities for the handicapped in all public institutions. (I was a trustee of the college during the past three years, and at this point I want to comment that Oakton College did not have ramps, sanitary facilities and low-reach telephones for the handicapped student until about a year ago, even though the college opened in 1970).

As for Ross being a threat to the Women's Program, the charge was groundless too. Ross, herself, has been a student at the college for several years, and she has participated in the Women's Program consistently. It is regrettable that a small group within the program should use it as a political tool to attack one of their own women, simply to further the personal interest of a few.

I feel assured that the Trustees of the Oakton Community College Board will welcome Mrs. Ross warmly, and they will appreciate sharing her compassion, and her deep understanding of both individual and community needs in all areas of education.

Forget the Niles Library referendum

Niles Bugle:

Yes, I agree with Mr. Besser the Niles Public Library does not need two mediocre libraries. We could use improvements of facilities at the main library for instance better selection of books for college students, who are using nearby libraries instead of their own. Forget the branch library.

The Shopper's Walk complex is located in a very poor area. There is a congestion of traffic, no parking space and not readily accessible to young children because of the traffic hazards.

I speak not only for myself but for a number of taxpayers who are tired of paying for every whim that their board members may have for their own laurels.

Forget the referendum.

A Milwaukee-Oakton beautification suggestion

Dear Editor:

On the corner of Milwaukee and Oakton there is a big dumping place. It is messing up that shopping center. I have a suggestion. I think it would be pretty if people made it a park, with trees and flowers, benches and maybe some picnic tables. It would be sort of like a stop and rest place.

My mother shops there and my brother and sisters could play, while my mother shops. Also for travelers, it could be a big attraction to Niles.

Yours truly,

Karen Guerrieri

Seek volunteers for M.D.A. summer camp

Help! Help is needed and needed immediately! The Muscular Dystrophy Association is seeking men and women age 16 to 30 to serve as volunteer attendants for the 1977 Bob Kennedy Muscular Dystrophy Summer Camp in Lake Villa, Ill. No experience is necessary to apply for one of the two one-week sessions scheduled for Camp Hastings, June 19-25 and Camp Ravenswood, June 26-July 2.

Volunteers play a vital role in the camp operation because they are assigned as attendants on a one-to-one basis with the patient/campers, most of whom are confined to wheelchairs. Volunteers enable the campers to participate in a vast range of activities beyond their ordinary capabilities, including swimming, hockey, horseback riding, baseball, boating, bowling, fishing, archery, arts and crafts and other special programs.

Camp volunteers are needed to help a muscular dystrophy patient enjoy a week of summer fun. For many victims of muscular dystrophy, both young and old, Summer Camp represents one of the few opportunities during a year for outdoor recreation. Camp

Volunteers are urged to phone the M.D.A. Summer Camp office at 663-1686. Volunteers make it possible for victims of muscular dystrophy to have a summer. The camp program needs help, right now.

Mikva: Local flood control project clears another hurdle

Implementation of a major Tenth District flood control plan drew a step closer when a House subcommittee voted last week to recommend appropriating $200,000 for an Army Corps of Engineers study, according to Congressman Abner J. Mikva.

Because the project along the north branch of the Chicago River is to be financed with a combination of federal, state and local funds, plans must be reviewed and approved by the Army Corps of Engineers. The Corps is reviewing the plans designed by the Metropolitan Sanitary District, the Soil Conservation Service and the State of Illinois. The House Appropriations Committee's Subcommittee on Public Works is to report its recommendation to the full committee later this month and to the House in early June. Communities expected to experience less flooding as a result of the flood control project include Glencoe, Glenview, Morton Grove, Northbrook, Northfield, Skokie, Wilmette and Winnetka. Mikva is pushing for early approval of the appropriation.

The $200,000 appropriation would be for fiscal 1978, which will begin Oct. 1, 1977 and would enable the Army Corps of Engineers to proceed with its review of the project, including its environmental and economic aspects, as part of an overall general design memorandum. The results of the study and the comprehensive memorandum will determine whether federal funding is forthcoming.

"I am pleased that plans for this much-needed flood control project are moving and I hope that the Army Corps of Engineers will proceed quickly with its review," Congressman Mikva said. "This is a good example of intergovernmental cooperation to address a major problem."

It has been projected that without a flood control plan, the river would cause an average of $2.9 million in damage. When completed, the project is expected to cut the damages by nearly 90%.

FISH of Des Plaines meeting

What makes some children act the way they do, causing disturbances in the home, school and at play?

FISH of Des Plaines volunteers will get some insight into this complex subject when Dr. Edward Baronowski, executive director of Maine Center for Mental Health in Park Ridge, speaks at their next general membership meeting on Tuesday, May 17, 8 p.m. in the Blue Room of Des Plaines Public Library.

Dr. Baronowski's topic will be "Emotionally Disturbed Children" and the meeting is open to anyone in the community interested in this subject or in learning more about the operations of FISH.

FISH is the neighbor-helping-neighbor organization which offers emergency assistance to local residents through its 24 hour phone number, 296-5677, and the many dedicated volunteers who serve as contact people for the calendar, as drivers, providing meals or temporary lodging, or other services to those in need.

The bi-monthly FISH meetings give these volunteers a chance to touch base with each other and compare notes on how they have been able to handle the varied requests for emergency help that have come up since the last gathering.

Donations of time and money to keep FISH operating around-the-clock are always needed and appreciated, says FISH chairman Ken Knorr. Anyone wishing to offer assistance may call the FISH number or Peg Krebs, recruitment chairman, 824-0415.

ED HANSON

"I'm bruised, Ma -- but unbowed"

That's what I said to my 91 year old mama Last Sunday when she asked me how I was feeling.

You see, I'd just returned from Las Vegas. I was feeling as mean as a junkyard dog, and so low I could have slithered under a serpent's stomach with a stove pipe hat on. I understand many folks have experienced a similar feeling of disgust and depression upon leaving this "Disneyland for Adults" — this famous, fabulous city of sin that shines like a multi-colored jewel in the bright desert sun. I was no exception.

My aged mother put her pale hand upon mine, saying softly, "Don't worry, my son, have some chicken soup, some rest and everything will turn out for the best."

I took her advice. I wish I would have 45 years ago. Anyway, maybe it was the chicken soup which relaxed me for afterwards I went into a deep sleep and dreamed a long and dramatic dream. Or was it the chicken soup that caused the dream? No matter, upon awakening I immediately scribbled down on the pad, which I have at my night table for such emergencies, as much as I could recall about the amazing, dramatic dream. It turned out to be rather voluminous since my notes totaled 32 pages.

Dreams, to be retained, must be immediately written down upon the instant of awakening. That's what all the gypsies and "shrinks" say. And it is documented that author Robert Louis Stevenson wrote one of his greatest classics by immediately writing down the plot that came to him in a dream. That's how Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde was born. And historians say Stevenson always kept a quill pen and paper by his bedside so he could down his dreams. Me, I'd rather have a pencil with lead in it than a quill pen anytime — you can never tell whom may drop in.

Anywho, in my dream, among a myriad of verbiage was the odd definition for the word "never". I quote this weird definition from my dream: "Never means the next time."

Most dreams, dear readers, spring from the deep subconscious or subjective mind. This subjective mind has a shorter memory in dream form than the conscience or objective mind in women. Therefore, men and women have two minds. However, I've known some women who have neither. But these were the ones who wound up rich.

The word "never" at this propitious moment of my existence had great significance. For remember, I was returning from that capital of gambling Las Vegas. When I boarded TWA flight 228, departing from Las Vegas at 11:20 p.m. and handed my pass to the flight attendant, I paused, turned my head back for one last look at that Bagdad of the Desert, thrust my tongue out between my lips, and with all the breath I possessed, I let go. The sound wasn't heard 'round the world but you can make book it was heard in Lexington. If it could have been recorded for posterity, it would have made the Guinness Book of Records as the longest, loudest "Bronx cheer" ever to burst forth from the tongue and lung of man.

"Never," I shouted, "will I visit this bleep, bleep, friggin' City of Sin again!"

The attractive female flight attendant, after giving me a rather strange look, said, "Your seat, sir, is 15C."

"No kidding," I replied, "I thought I lost it in Las Vegas — where did you lose yours, at the Sands?" I was, indeed, in an ugly mood — but with good reason.

To digress, it had taken all the charm, all the cunning and all the sales personality of which I am so generously endowed to get on this flight (228) as a standby. What preceded was 6 hours of hell and anguish at McCarran Airport which must have been designed by a greater idiot than a man who loses his money and laughs.

For I arrived there, six hours before takeoff in a body that was completely dehydrated of food and water. My feet were swollen and sore; after a six mile hike, resulting from wearing terrific looking but terribly tight new patent leather shoes. My eyes were red, almost shut with sand after bucking a 50-mile per hour wind that continually blew sand into my face. A face which was unshaven because of the lack of two-bits to purchase a Gillette throwaway.

This was only the beginning ... Once inside McCarran Airport I said to the TWA ticket seller, "Any flights tonight to Chicago?"

"One, but it's filled," said the TWA ticket seller. "Want to try as a 'standby'?"

"What are my chances?"

"Not good," replied the ticket seller, as he played with the computer in front of him.

It was then I turned on the charm and explained my predicament.

He yawned. "We can get you out in the morning, sir."

"I won't live that long," I wheezed desperately.

Anyway, I gave him one hundred thirty eight dollars for the ticket to Chicago, as a standby. I had a dime left.

"If I don't get on this flight, can I get my money back?"

"Certainly, sir. But you see I leave here at 11:30 - sharp! No one will be here till morning."

"When will I know if I get on the flight?"

"About 11:10 sir."

I looked at my ticket. "The flight leaves at 11:20 — how far is boarding gate 19?"

"About a quarter of a mile, sir."

"Hell, I said, "Even O.J. Simpson couldn't make it back here. I gave him the saddest smile I could conjure up."

The ticket seller relented. "I'll wait an extra ten minutes for you. I'll phone upstairs and if you're not confirmed I'll wait — but only 10 minutes, okay?"

"Okay," I wheezed. "Where's gate 19?"

"Take the escalator to the right, sir — then walk to gate 19."

"I hate to ask — but how many gates are there?"

"20, sir ..."

Now before you can get to the boarding gates at any airport in the U.S.A. — you must go thru what is known as "security". Now, it's got to look a little suspicious for anybody to arrive 6 hours before their flight takes off. Particularly a guy who is unshaven, nervous and has the look in his red bloodshot eyes that he would love to maim someone — anyone.

To generate more suspicion, when such a person goes thru the security system it lights up like a pin-ball machine. Before I knew it, they were patting my fanny! For in my pockets were my car, hotel, office keys, my Sheriff's deputy junior patrol badge, a nail file and a metal social security card.

Finally, after I told them the long, sad story, they cleared me and I was on my way to gate 19. If the engineer who designed McCarran airport is still alive, I would love to meet him in a dark alley some night with a lead pipe.

Now you can understand why I gave forth with that uncouth "Bronx cheer" or "Brooklyn raspberry" as it's also known as I took my last look at lousy Las Vegas. To me, it's a city of hips, lips, pips, punks, dips, gyps, tips, drips, hookers, stickmen, stickup men, muggers, sluggers, druggers, boosters, and crap shooters. Can you blame me for vowing never to return?

But, that was before visiting my mother and taking her advice about having some chicken soup and some rest ...

Because, after the chicken soup I went to my room at the Leaning Tower "Y" and went to sleep. And during the deep, long, peaceful sleep came the dramatic dream.

After the dream I awoke the next morning and the desire to maim was gone. Instead my cup runneth over with the milk of human kindness. My swollen feet returned to normal. I shaved, showered and put on my best Sunday suit. The 3500 reasons I had for hating Las Vegas had vanished. Thanks to the dream I was so relaxed, so calm I could even say this sentence quickly: The sixth sick sheik's sixth sheep's sick.

And the dream made it possible for me to know how to pronounce and spell the longest word in the Oxford English dictionary. Floccipaucumhiliplification. Definition: "The action of estimating as worthless."

And the dream told me that there were words in the English language which have as many as 3,600 letters but that they are confined to either the medical or chemical profession.

These are just infinitesimal samples of the many strange but true facts which my dream imparted upon my objective mind. Merely used by the dream to prove the veracity of the dream itself, so that I would accept the more substantive part of the dream which related to the dice system used recently by me at Las Vegas. In my dream the fact was made crystal clear to me that I must abandon this puny dice system of mine which at best can produce a paltry five or six thousand dollars at best. And sometimes it even loses.

As I feverishly wrote down what I remembered from my dream, it began to become clearer and clearer that I must return to fabulous Las Vegas at my earliest opportunity. For my dream had provided me with a method of winning not a paltry few thousand but hundreds of thousands, even millions of dollars.

My dream pointed out the error of my ways and the fault lay not with spectacular Las Vegas, its people, the airlines, its hookers, its crap tables or even its slot machines. The fault was mine because I had set my sights too low by wanting to win a lousy five or ten thousand — that's peanuts, when with the same effort, the same bankroll, I could win a hundred thousand and maybe a million dollars or more.

So, I shall return again soon to that wonderful "Disneyland for Adults", that giant jewel that sprawls in the desert sands of Nevada — spacious, gracious Las Vegas — "It's my kind of town!"

New Summer School Course at Maine East

Summer school at Maine East officially begins Monday, June 20, and among the course offerings is Alpine Ecology, offered as a minor for 1/2 credit to students from District 207 high schools. The course, from July 31 to August 6, is taught in Keystone, Colorado, and uses the facilities of the Keystone Center for Environmental Education. The tuition for the course is $320, which includes registration, transportation to and from O'Hare, a round trip flight to Denver, a bus to and from Keystone, instruction, food and lodging for the week, and a required insurance policy.

Emphasis of instruction will be on ecological relationships, survey of plant and animal life, history and role of man's impact on the Keystone area, geology, and improvement of environmental perception and ethics. Field trips will be conducted daily as formal activities, with each trip led by a qualified instructor. Instruction is conducted almost entirely in the field with evening programs presented outdoors.

For further information on Alpine Ecology, contact the science department and/or Mr. Fred Wagner, science teacher, at Maine East 825-4848.

Mail registration for OCC summer session

Mail registration for the Summer Session at Oakton Community College will continue through Saturday, May 21, according to John Gagin, director of admission and records.

Students who were unable to register prior to May 21 may come to the open registration on June 6 and 7, he said.

Gagin urged students planning to attend the Summer Session to register now in order to select courses and sections desired. "Many classes are filled and closed before open registration. Students waiting until then do not have the options that they have now," he said.

Summer Session classes will begin on Monday, June 12. Classes will end on Wednesday, August 3 and final exams are scheduled for August 4 and 5.

Student parking permits for the summer will be sold on Wednesday, June 8. Day parking permits will be assigned by computer through a random selection system. The list of students receiving permits will be posted in the Office of Public Safety, Building

5. OCC Interim Campus, on June 8 between 9:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. Stickers must be purchased by 7:00 p.m. Proof of automobile ownership must be presented at the time permits are picked up. Students may call the Public Safety Office (ext. 395), and the Student Information Center (ext. 363, for information).

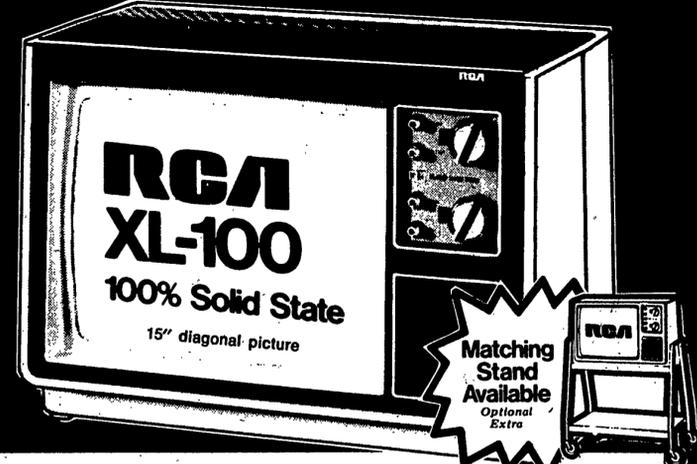

"Evening parking permits will be sold on a first come, first served basis in Building 6 from 7:00-9:00 p.m. on June 8. Cost of both day and evening permits is $5.

attorney should be under contract and not appointed so that they would not be terminated as had just happened. He also said that we spent over $50,000 in outside legal fees last year and that considering this we should hire a full time attorney who would work for 40 hours weekly. Mayor Flickinger said he felt we were not ready for this yet.

In other actions the new Village Board supported a motion to reconsider (the Special Use granted to Vamsted Builders) made by Ron Henrici and heard a statement from Barry Nekritz the attorney for the Silverman family who are owners of the Delaine Farm property. Mr. Nekritz said that he and his clients were made aware of what was going on regarding their property when a friend showed them an article in a local paper. Nekritz stated that when the parcel was sold they (his clients) felt that the 10 acres would need a retention site of its own. They had no idea that it would be broken up into smaller parcels to avoid this. Now, however, they learned that the Vamsted people would have more property to build on and he said that his clients do not want to have to pay for their "fair share" of any other retention/detention site on their property. Discussion on this matter was then tabled, and Mayor Flickinger appointed a committee consisting of Ron Henrici, Joan Dechert and Don Sneider to study this problem.

Police Chief Norm Glauner said that on Saturday night the police caught a burglar at the Capitol Table Co. in Glenview on Golf rd. Also on May 6, two suspects were arrested for burglary that was committed that same day. These men were found to be responsible for at least 10 other burglaries in M.G. as far back as Feb. 21, 1977. Property taken in these crimes could range from $40,000 to $50,000 or more. The chief said that the police who did this fine work should be commended. They are Det. Robert Davis, Det. Robert Smolen, Det. Thomas Riesenmy, and Sgt. Patrick McKenna, directing the investigation. Chief Glauner said that he felt the Crime Prevention Program has helped greatly and feels that this was really an all out community effort. Juanita Goldberg said that the Beautification Committee is hoping to upgrade the petunia program that was started last year.

Mr. Flickinger then said Rev. Conway Ramseyer of the Morton Grove Community Church returned our check for the village election saying they did not want to charge for this service to the community. This gesture was greatly appreciated.

Ron Henrici reported from April 24-May 8 the Fire Department handled 90 alarms. He also noted that Chief Glauner submitted the Annual Police Report which is very informative. Trustee Don Sneider thanked Public Works Supt. Jim Dahm for giving him a tour of the Public Works garage. Sneider said he felt it is set up very well and was quite impressed with the way vehicles are repaired and maintained.

Mayor Flickinger read a proclamation designating June, 1977 as Burglary Prevention Month. He also said that as of May 1, 1977 the office of Code Enforcement was vacant. When questioned about this, he said that Fred Huber attended to this matter and Mr. Huber said it was a question of insubordination. Trustee Henrici said M.G. will receive a $63,000 grant to hire a planner and conduct a study. Henrici said we would make a study of reimbursement of funds for vehicles privately owned and used for village business.

Ed Brice said that he felt the drivers of the Senior Citizen van should be getting some remuneration and would like to discuss this in next year's budget hearings.

A resident living on Davis st. said she had a bad problem for some time concerning skunks and implored the board to offer some help and solutions. Mayor Flickinger appointed a committee to study this problem, and Juanita Goldberg invited the lady to attend the next meeting of the Board of Health which she agreed to do.

Student honored...

Cont'd from Skokie-L'wood P.1 render him an exceptional person, one most deserving of this fine honor and recognition," stated the selection committee.

Rob's name will be inscribed on the permanent plaque housed at Niles West High School. He will be especially honored and presented with an individual plaque at the Spring Awards Assembly on May 11. He will receive the plaque, and a cash award, from Miss Elyne Chaplik, sister for the former student, Ivy.

Other seniors who were honored through their nomination for this fine recognition are John Anastos, Sam Berezin, Janet Eickhoff, Ken Erickson, Mickey Fenchel, Laurie Holman, Mike Minkoff, Joyce Nelson and Beth Rosenberg.

Another nice letter was received from Naomi Krone, who is now living the life of a very leisurely lady in San Diego, California. Naomi, former editor of several local newspapers, including The Bugle, said she's found her Shangri La along the ocean blue. She and her Doc-are doing a great deal of fishing and Naomi teaches a journalism class part-time.

When we begin to hear contemporary friends are retiring, we realize time is moving on ... and much too quickly. It doesn't seem that long ago Naomi was graduating in journalism and seeking her first job (during the late 40's).

North Suburban residents plan "Walk with Israel"

North Suburban residents who "Walk with Israel" May 15, won't have to hike home, or be picked up from the Bernard Horwich Jewish Community Center, 3003 W. Touhy, Chicago, where the 29 kilometer trek begins and ends.

Synagogues, Jewish schools and JCCs in Wilmette, Glencoe, Highland Park, Northbrook, Skokie, Morton Grove and Des Plaines have agreed to open their doors so that Walk participants may be dropped off close to home.

Walkers who just miss a bus will have plenty to occupy them at the Horwich Center, where the 29 kilometer trek will be culminated with a Jerusalem Fair in celebration of the 10th anniversary of the reunification of that city. Music, refreshments, movies and dancing will be provided by several community organizations.

Sunday marks Chicago's 6th Annual "Walk with Israel", and the first in which participants here were part of a national Walkathon held in 100 U.S. communities under the auspices of the United Jewish Appeal.

Funds raised will be used by the Jewish United Fund-Israel Emergency Fund for vital humanitarian programs in Israel, including resettlement of immigrants, housing, health care and education.

For residents of Northbrook, Deerfield, West Highland Park, part of Glenview, and Buffalo Grove, a third route has been established with stops at the Sager Solomon Schechter Jewish Day School, 363 Lee Road, Northbrook, and the North Suburban Jewish Community Center, 817 Waukegan Road, Northbrook. A bus will leave for these points from the Horwich Center at 2.4 and 6 p.m.

One bus will leave the Horwich Center for Skokie, Morton Grove and Des Plaines at 2:30 p.m., 4:30 p.m. and 6:30 p.m. This bus will stop at the Mayer Kaplan JCC 5050 Church St., Skokie; the Northwest Suburban Congregation, 7800 Lyons, Morton Grove; and the Main Township Jewish Congregation, 8800 Ballard Rd., Des Plaines. A Youth Council spokesman said that route would also serve some Glenview residents.

St. John Brebeuf Girls Softball The Warriorettes "B" team went down in defeat to St. Genevieve by a score of 7-1 on Monday, May 2. The Warriorettes "B" team's only run came in the fourth inning with Maureen Smith on second base. GERALYN CHRISTIE smacked a base hit into right-center field which scored the only run. Sharon Sok, Ann Leddy, Carla Jurica, Julie Burke and Mary Lunkes all had hits in the game.

On Wednesday, May 4 the Warriorettes "B" team played Our Lady of Victory and lost 24-0. All six runs came in the third inning, with 1 out Maureen Smith led off with a hit, followed by a walk by Sharon Sok, JoAnne Daugird followed with a double which drove in 2 runs. Dianne Paustian also hit a double, followed by hits from Ann Leddy, Marge Likvan, GERALYN CHRISTIE and Mary Lunkes.

Board member Phil Deckowitz, whose business background is in management, said the approved firm will interview candidates in detail, taping interviews, and submitting the tapes, as well as the summary and analysis to the board. He said he was most impressed with the methodology of the firm, considering it most professional.

Board President Reiss said the firm will interview all board members, many teachers and administrators, PTA board members and community representatives. Board member Howard Lessin added liberal and conservative views will be sought enabling the SRI to have all views represented before recommending the choice of the next superintendent.

While board members will also be interviewing, the SRI firm will only be aiding in the scrutinizing of candidates. Board members make the final choice.

A brochure will be published describing aspects of the school district which will be of interest to prospective superintendent candidates, and which will be mailed throughout the country. Information will include the superintendent's salary, which will be "no less than $38,000". Other information will include the number of buildings in the district, number of teachers, assessed valuation of the school district, location of the district in the metropolitan Chicagoland area, total personnel and the school budget.

In a secondary action concerning superintendent matters the board told Superintendent Gogo it wanted to review the upcoming newsletter in the district before it was published. In the April letter it was reported Gogo would list his accomplishments and send a personal message to parents in the upcoming letter. President against self-service gas and prescribed self service gas be 10% cheaper than full-service gasoline," he pointed out. "Let's wait and see if the prices are actually reduced ... if this does not happen then we can lead (other villages) by positive action."

Village attorney Richard Troy agreed, recommending a feasibility study, by the Plan Commission, of traffic volume, time required in self-service and other problems akin to self service. Trustees also asked the Planning Board to distinguish between Reiss told Gogo it first wanted to review what will be published. While the remark was brief it indicated the distrust the school board continues to manifest toward its outgoing superintendent. Board members have been miffed over several actions in past weeks in which they believe they were "undercut" by Gogo. One board member said they should have let him go immediately rather than wait for the June 30 date when his resignation would go into effect. Gogo was described as being "cunning" by a member, indicating the difficult relationship the board continues to have with the superintendent.

In still other actions the Board honored art student Charlotte Dulak for a gold medal national high school art award she received this spring. Also recognized by the board was her art teacher, Virginia Ryan.

Business manager Jim Bowen will attend a Thursday morning meeting at the State of Illinois building at 160 N. LaSalle where a hearing on the multiplier factor for tax appraisals will be discussed. Bowen said the 1976 tentative multiplier was accurate eliminating any protest pertaining to its determination but he will ask why it went down from its previous figure.

Cont'd from Niles-E.Maine P.1 self-service stations and partial self-service stations.

Village action was initiated by Gov. Thompson's order for a change in state fire regulations to permit self service gas operation beginning May 1 in Illinois.

Currently only North Dakota and Oregon prohibit self-service gas stations.

Members of the Gasoline Dealers Ass'n. argue that self service is a "plot" by major gas companies to close down service stations, that independent full-service stations cannot compete with a station across the street that offers only self service and does not do mechanical or emergency work.

They said "consumers won't save money because the gas companies will jack the prices back up after the initial price reductions offered by self-service."

Critics charge that State decision to allow self-service is aimed toward softening the action of a potential increase in the State Gas tax. Legislation to hike the 7.5 cent a gallon tax is pending in General Assembly.

happy about hi-profile buildings," noted Comr. Charles O. Grady. "Special Use rezoning of the entire area would give us control over future expansion."

"Niles has tight zoning ordinances now," replied the attorney. "What more control do you want?"

W.W. Grainger presently owns 28 land acres in Niles with more acreage in Skokie.

Unanimously approved a petitioned side yard variation by Perry Anderson of 7616 Madison st. at 7618 Madison st. for construction of a home, provided all village requirements are met

Board of annexation and Planned Unit Development (PUD) for a 220 unit hi-density housing development at Foster Lane and Washington Street.

Plans by other developers for hi density on the 13-acre site in unincorporated Maine Township at 9500 Washington, were rejected twice by the Cook County Zoning Board and by the Niles Village Board Oct. 26, 1976, following vigorous objections by nearby residents.

Niles Investment Co., a subsidiary of Niles Savings & Loan, petitioned last year for a 348 unit density, reducing the hi-density to 306 and finally to 240 units which finalized in a denial — due to hi-density — by the Niles Board of Trustees.

A new concept for development of the property was petitioned by Builder Raymond Adriani Tuesday night in asking Niles to annex the land and grant a re-hearing by the Zoning Board for a zoning change from single family residential to PUD.

Architect Dan LeNoble told the board 220 condominium apartments would be located in 5 identical buildings as compared to previous developer plans for 40 and provision made for a 2-car garage.

Withdrew a Special Use petition by Flair Aluminum Products, 6637 Touhy ave., for sale and storage of recreational vehicles, by request of the petitioner.

Approved a Special Use petition by the First National Bank of Niles for construction of a computer room at 7108 Oakton st.

Unanimously approved petition by Glen Wood, 8700 Ballard and the First National Bank of Des Plaines for variation in lot lines for subdivision to 8 lots of property bounded by Emerson, Greenwood and Delphia.

buildings on the site. Building heights would be 4 story as compared with the previously proposed 2 1/2 story. Assessed valuation (new) was 4 million as compared with previous $3 million.

Joseph Bernstein, attorney for Adriani, told the board the high cost of the land makes it unfeasible for single-family use.

Residents of Morton Grove and Niles objected strenuously "as before," they said to the project which would bring hi-density, increase traffic and cause safety hazards to school children.

Benjamin Cohen, Trustee of Golf Mill Homeowners Ass'n., objected to projected traffic problems and safety hazards and told the board, "A high density of 220 is not much less than the 240 proposed hi-density of previous planning." He accused new petitioners of "trying to snowball the village board into reconsidering new planning which according to procedure should go before the Zoning Board."

A Niles property owner on Washington st., Vern Yeager objected to hazards of increased traffic flow.

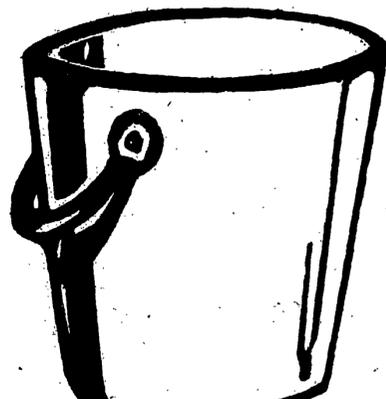

Morton Grove resident Gerald Brim of the Morton Grove Planning Committee cited problems of density, safety and traffic.

"Existing traffic is already a problem ... we should not add to traffic flow."

Troy told the Board they were to consider only the 220 unit density proposed for the area.

Should the density be denied no further Board action is required.

Mayor Nicholas Blase broke a 3 to 3 tie Board vote in approving a PUD petitioned by Edmund Beaulieu at 7850 Caldwell where the petitioner reduced the 76 planned units to 68. Trustees previously objected to hi-density in the area.
