Zoners consider 14th banking facility for Niles

by Alice M. Bobula
Niles is fast approaching "boundary to boundary" banking facilities.

The Plan Commission Wednesday, July 6 continued action to August 3 on a fourteenth petition to come into Niles, this time from Cragin Federal Savings & Loan, for a building with drive-in services at the northeast corner of Touhy and Harlem Ave. in south Niles.

Action was delayed to allow the petitioner to clarify plans of stacking cars, to avoid traffic problems, for the drive-in facility.

Louis Cordogan, attorney for the savings and loan whose home office is at 5200 Fullerton in Chicago, told zoners of plans to demolish the closed existing gas station at 7201 Harlem Ave. and construct a new one story bank building of masonry and glass.

Commissioners also asked for establishment of a traffic pattern for what they termed "one of the busiest corners in Niles."

In other action Plan Commissioners recommended approval of annexation and a zoning change petitioned by Niles Investment Co. for a Planned Unit Development (PUD) for 12 1/2 acres at Foster Ln. and Washington St. in unincorporated Maine Township.

The highly controversial property was twice denied high-density rezoning by the County, received approval from the Niles Plan Commission for a 306-unit apartment complex and was turned down last October by the Niles Village Board on the basis of 240 units.

The board vacated its denial May 10 on the basis of a major change presented by new develop-

Wilson-Jones plans 'security' fence against invading children

Niles firm seeks o.k. for 10 foot fence

by Alice M. Bobula

A request by a loose leaf products company for construction of a ten foot high fence topped by a three-strand barbed wire was postponed by village trustees Tuesday, July 12 to their next meeting of July 26 for purpose of investigation and discussion.

Trustees looked askance at the petition for the barrier, labeled a security protection against children at Wilson-Jones, 6150 Touhy Ave.

Company representative Irving Rosenbaum said the request was initiated by area theft and the firing of a trailer as well as the tendency of children to play ball there. "We seem to have an attractive nuisance," he said.

The barbed wire and height of the fence, which exceeds the 6 ft. industrial height limitation set by the village, was not to keep burglars out, he explained, but to deter the children. "If a profes-

by David Besser

That ongoing soap opera, "What's New Down At The Niles Police Department?", had some interesting episodes the past weeks. We left off some weeks ago reporting the guy who received Niles Policeman Of The Year award quit because of the lack of opportunities in the police department's closed society. If you're not "one of the boys", you may as well get out because you have no place to go.

The new episodes, which have unfolded in recent weeks, have two more of the outsiders moving out of the department. And lo and behold, the guy who pulls the strings for the Mayor, the police chief himself, has been telling anyone who'll listen, he'll be quitting next year when his retirement benefits merit such a move. He's only a youngish fifty years old so his intended resignation from a $27,000 a year job leaves a faint smell of sourness surrounding the whole department.

Presently, the department has two highly paid captains sitting on the sidelines inside the police offices because they're not part of the "ins". Village manager Ken Scheel told us one of them, Ed Dennis, will temporarily be lent to his office to act as Natural Disaster Co-ordinator.

Captains Dennis and Bill Mehring, who have been in the center of the departments as long as The Bugle has been around, are relegated to trivial desk duty. They're not part of the establishment so they've been shunted aside, rocking back and forth in their offices, doing meaningless work, at an expenditure of at least $40,000 annually.

Two of the police officers who have recently left the department include a very young bright guy, Dave Esposito, who Nick Blase told us asked to be transferred to the Public Works Department. But what Blase failed to mention was Esposito asked for the transfer because he was so frustrated by what he had seen going on in the department. Esposito, like the policeman of the year, Vince Pelletieri, are the type of young men who should be groomed for leadership posts in a clean, honest department. But Niles police department has been so bereft with charges of payoffs and favoritism for friends of the clique which runs the department, that the good guys are fast being replaced. The morale of so many of the better policemen has been devastated, creating a grave handicap to performing their jobs well.

B.L.I. Awards Roadway Bid

The Board of Local Improvements Tuesday night awarded the contract for the 1977 Roadway Improvement Program to August H. Skoglund Co. of Melrose Park for $430,025.36 as lowest of five bidders ranging to a high of $484,711.13 from Lo Verde Construction Co. of Niles.

In second action the Niles board approved, securing proposals for spraying of parkway trees in mid-August and the spring of 1978.

Village action was initiated by reports of unhealthy maple, locust and elm trees affected by the cottony maple disease.

Village growls at pet shop owner

by Alice M. Bobula

The village of Niles held a license revocation hearing July 8 citing the owner of Animal World, a pet shop at 7525 Harlem Ave., for sale of an alleged sick animal. Under Niles code a business license may be suspended or revoked pursuant to public hearing, if it is determined the conduct of the owner is adverse to "public health, safety and general welfare as to constitute a nuisance." Hearing Officer Gerald Murphy noted that numerous complaints had been placed against the Pet Shop since it opened in August, 1974. He needed "a week to review findings on the current grievance" prior to his report to the Mayor who will decide final action, he said. He also noted complaints of vulgar language "and not for the first time" by owner John Santoro, Sr. "If you want to do business in Niles," he told Santoro, "it would be well to curb your temper."

Recent charges had been filed against Animal World by Al Rosen of Skokie who declared at the Friday administrative hearing that he purchased for $312.90 an Old English Sheepdog April 21 which had symptoms of vomiting and diarrhea the same day after he took the dog home.

Rosen stated he had the dog examined at the Spira Animal Hospital in Skokie whose veterinarian testified the 4-month-old dog appeared to have "indicative signs of a bacterial or viral infection of the intestinal tract." She said she advised Rosen to return the animal.

A friend of Rosen's also testified the dog appeared ill with symptoms as described above, that he advised return of the dog.

Rosen said he took the pup back to Animal World. After Santoro refused to exchange the animal for another pet or issue a credit slip, Rosen left the dog at the store. He charged Santoro with vulgar language over the telephone and at the store.

Santoro testified the dog "to be healthy." He had the animal examined by another veterinarian, he said, "who attested in writing that the dog was healthy." Two store employees, both with degrees in animal science said the dog appeared healthy.

Santoro said the pup was sold 6 weeks later at the same price with no complaint from the second buyer. At no time, he said, did he use vulgar language.

The Friday hearing was the second investigation of similar complaints against the pet shop since it first opened 3 years ago.

An April, 1976, hearing stemmed from 12 complaints received over the previous year and a half from people who had purchased sick animals from Animal World, according to Village Clerk Frank Wagner.

Based on evidence from 6 complainants said Wagner, it had been the contention of the Hearing Officer that patrons of the pet shop were being abused when they returned with complaints about their purchases.

Hearing Officer Gerald Murphy at that time stated that while the "complaints may or may not be valid, a theme of verbal abuse ran thru all the witness' testimony," recommending a strong letter be sent to Santoro notifying him that "any further abuse of his patrons would result in immediate loss of his license to do business in the village."

Another complaint in May 1975 was originated by the Fund for Animals, an animal protection agency, which protested display of "exotic" animals in Animal World such as a lion cub, llama and chimpanzee.

NILES ALL AMERICAN SENIORS CLUB
June 21st, our long awaited day arrived to see the "Treasures of Tutankhamun" and it was well worth the wait. The tour was handled beautifully. We had a five minute wait when we lined up, and our tour guide arrived and escorted us to the exhibit. Since the discovery in 1922, only a few of these objects have left Egypt, but now 55 of the most beautiful and best preserved treasures will be making a six city tour of the United States, and aren't we lucky they included Chicago.

Wall to Wall Murals greet you when you enter, and you must read all the information on each exhibit and mural to realize that this is the most spectacular archaeological find of the 20th century.

Among those on display were the gold mask of King Tut, the wooden gilt statuette of the Goddess Selket, a small gold shrine of exquisite craftsmanship, "Tut's" funerary jewelry and furniture, many beautiful pieces of jewelry, animals of gold, etc. We could go on and on, but it will suffice to say don't miss it. 50 of our Seniors are very glad that we made the trip. Something we will never forget.

For the White Sox, good pitching by Dimaria and Bacci who also each got 2 hits. Joe Gabel hit a homer.

White Sox 10 Tigers 5
The White Sox came from behind to defeat the Tigers 10-5 despite heavy hitting by the Tigers, Wagner, Paulis, and Dudgeon. Fine defensive plays by Mike Quinn, Brian Benarz and Alan Wilson for the Tigers. The White Sox pitchers were good. A great defensive play by Mike Speciale helped the White Sox to win this game.

Red Sox 0 Indians 10
The temperature registered 95 degrees and the bats for the Indians were just as hot as they shut out the Red Sox 10-0. Superb pitching by Johnson, Gattuso, Pullen, and DiNapoli kept the Red Sox scoreless in 6 innings. There were homers by Beyer, and a special home run by Joe Barrett (which was hit for his new baby brother, born that afternoon.) Other hits by Gattuso, Allen and Schoen. The Red Sox managed only 3 hits with a double by Dombrowski and one single by Goldberg and Ruschinski.

Twins 17 Angels 3
Good defensive play by M. Mueller who showed the fans an unassisted double play and T. Schreier with a fine catch along with solid hitting by Luppino, Kuhr Mueller with 2 hits apiece and a grand slam by J. Miceli led the Twins to a 17-3 victory. Solid pitching by Henreid, Schreier, and Ciecko.

Hitting stars for the Dodgers were Englund going 3 for 3 (all doubles with 3 RBI's), Gambio with 3 hits, all singles in 4 at Bats with 1 RBI and Ugel with 2 for 4 with one double. Cubs 9, Cardinals 5
The first place Cubs again combined timely hitting, a defense which reeled off two double plays, and excellent pitching by Overbeck to remain one full game ahead of the Pirates. It was a total team effort, every Cub contributing defensively and offensively.

June 27
Expos 22, Pirates 4
Cardinals 16, Redlegs 2
The Cardinals again exploded for 16 runs to win their eighth game of the season. The Cards combined great hurling and defense along with four hits off the bat of J. Kline to clobber the Reds.

June 28
Cubs 2, Dodgers 1
This thrilling contest featured great pitching and defense by both teams. It was a shame that this game had to have a loser because each team played very well. The Cubs mound crew struck out a season high of 13 Dodger batters. Offensively the Cubs managed only four hits off some good Dodger pitching, but those hits were timely ones.

June 29
Phillies 8, Expos 4
The Phillies needed the pitching of Piontek, Sinacore, and Woloszyn, the hitting of Woloszyn and Sheffer and great defense by Fanella, Nowak, and Sheffer to post this extra inning win over the Stumping Expos.

July 5
Cards 10, Dodgers 4
Those rampaging Cardinals again put it all together to clobber the Dodgers. Cardinal ace Zajdel hurled four strong innings, the Cardinals offense again produced a ton of runs, and their defense was again superb.

The Dodgers fought to the finish in this game which ended in a loss to the 1st place Orioles by only 1 run. Dodgers made too many errors which cost them the game.

Giants 5, Red Sox 3
Dan Jasinski homered for two runs in the second to start the Giants to their fourth straight victory. Don DeSantis made a game saving leaping catch of a fine drive besides making two other fine plays on second base. Scott Hoffman, Al Wilczewski and Ken Ugel all had RBI singles. Rob Pullen pitched 4 fine innings for the losers, giving up only one run. Dave Murray went behind the light poles twice to prevent Giants extra-base hits off Mike Ziebell bat. The winning pitchers for the Giants were Chris Piazzi, Joe Becker each pitching 3 innings and Mike Ziebell going 1 inning. For the Red Sox the losing pitchers were Dan Busiel, Dave Murray, Rob Pullen and Rich Rinka.

Braves 11, Expos 5
The Braves cracked out 16 hits and scored 11 runs, with Barry Schrenkel going 2 for 4 including a double, and Pete Leddy had a bases loaded triple to put the Braves ahead to stay. Phil Raffin had a great day at bat going 4 for 5, and Bill McGrath had 3 hits in 3 at bats, and scored 3 runs: Bill McGrath pitched a great 4 innings, striking out 8 Expos, allowing only 2 hits. Then in the 5th when Pete Leddy, now pitching got into trouble, Tracy Parker came in with bases loaded and no outs and retired the Expos without allowing another run. Tracy Parker also had 2 key hits, with men on base and really did a great relief job. Not enough can be said about Brian Grabbe, who played hurt and still had 2 hits at 3 at bats, including 2 RBI's. Certainly a great team effort for the Braves.

Padres 13, A's 7
Padres beat A's 13 to 7. Pitching for the Padres were Ken Borowski, Mark Menich and Mike Tai. Ken Borowski hit a long home run, Mike Tait, Dave Thimm, Jeff Sliwa, John Brizzolara, Jim Sliwa, and Rich Szatkowski all hit for the Padres. The Padres hit the A's with 7 runs in the final inning to wipe out a 7 to 6 A's lead and go on to wipe the A's 13 to 7. Don

Him. Bible lessons were taught with excitement and variety through use of various teaching methods. Students were challenged and involved through such activities as songs, Bible study, interesting visual demonstrations "rap" sessions, craft making and other methods that teach the concept theme: "Lord Jesus, Teach Me." ## Niles Baseball League

DeLouis cracked a three run homer for the A's while Tom Lober, Dave Reiner, Scott Channess, Ron Bielski and Jim Twarowski had one hit each Dan Pioro added a pair of singles.

Expos 5 - A's 3

A much improved game by the Expos to give them their 1st win. Bill Fratto and Mike Linhart teamed up and gave only 5 hits. Bill Fratto made the defensive play of the day, in the last inning with a diving catch of a low liner at 3rd base. It is a pleasure to see smiling faces. The A's committed 4 errors in the 7th inning to homer the Expos their first win 5-3. The A's continued to be snake out as they dropped their fourth straight. As in their last two games the A's took a one run lead into the final inning but again the defense faltered and handed the opponent the ball game. "Oh well that's the way the ball bounces."

Don DeLouis with two hits led the hitting attack with Dave Reiner, Tom Lober, and Ron Bielski added one hit each. The A's infield continued to be super as they turned a D. Riemer to S. Channess to J. Twarowski double play their 6th in 7 game. Ron Bielski again turned in a stellar pitching performance for 4 innings.

Braves 13 - Red Sox 5

The Braves got excellent pitching with Bill McGrath, Barry Schrenkel, and Tracy Parker, allowing only 3 hits between them. The Braves let down on defense a little by committing 5 errors, but the pitching made up for it. Bill McGrath went 2 for 2 and drew 3 walks and scored 4 runs and Barry Schrenkel had 2 hits including a double and scored 3 runs. Pete Leddy came up with a 2 for 4 nite including a double and a triple. To knock in 5 runs and played a terrific game. Tracy Parker had a 2-run double and pitched a great 2 innings allowing no runs and striking out 3 Red Sox.

Expos 17 - Red Sox 1

The teams on top had better look over their shoulders because the Expos are putting it all together and playing the type of ball they are capable of. Pitchers Bill Fratto, Mike Linhart and Dave Cohen allowed only 2 at bat, as did Dave Dohn. Dave's big hit of the night was a booming home run. Bob Peterson also had 2 for 3 at the bat.

Padres 11 - Braves 0

The Braves deserved to lose this one, as the Braves committed 6 errors, and the pitching gave up 14 walks, to seal their fate. The only bright spots for the Braves were Bill McGrath's two hits and Tracy Parker's two hits. Also Mike Goldberg got a good hit and played excellent defense in left field. Bill McGrath is now hitting at a .687 pace for the 1st 8 games of the season.

Giants 9 - Padres 9

The Giants came back from a 5-0 deficit with a 5 spot of their own in the 5th inning after two were out. Chris Piazza 4th hit of the game was instrumental in the rally. The Giants couldn't hold on to a 8 to 5 lead, giving up 4 runs in the top of the seventh. Don DeSantis singled and scored the tying run in the last of the seventh. Mike Ziebell pitched 4 innings of shutout relief, other pitchers for the Giants were Dan Jasinski and Ken Ugel. Pitchers for the Padres were Ken Borowski, Mike Tait, and Mark Menich.

Oakton requires testing of basic skills for new students

In response to growing public concern about the teaching of basic skills, Oakton Community College has intensified its diagnostic testing program for the 1977-78 academic year, according to college officials.

A mathematics test will be administered to students who are registering for their first math course at Oakton.

Reading and composition exams will be administered to students who wish to enroll in Communications 101.

These tests will enable college personnel to make accurate placement recommendations and will help to ensure that students know which courses are appropriate to their skill levels.

Oakton offers a full range of developmental courses in composition, reading, and mathematics for students whose skills are not up to college level.

Testing dates will be scheduled regularly throughout the summer, as follows: July 11, 5:30 p.m. - 8:45 p.m.; July 18 8:45 a.m. - 12 p.m.; July 25, 5:30 p.m. - 8:45 p.m.; August 1, 8:45 a.m. - 12 p.m.

Recommendations will be available to students during regular registration times. College personnel will also be available to provide academic advising and counseling.

Oakton officials have emphasized that students will not be allowed to register for Communications 101 or a first math course until they have been tested. Students who normally wait for the final registration dates will need to consider this information in planning their schedules.

Questions regarding diagnostic testing should be directed to the Office of Student Development, 967-5120, ext. 324.

Jaffe passes divorce reform legislation

State Representative Aaron Jaffe (D-Skokie) was the House sponsor of Senate Bill 801 which reforms the marriage and divorce procedures and substantive law, and which passed both Houses of the Legislature. Jaffe stated, "Divorce reform is necessary to remove the emotional trauma experienced by the parties and to allow for equitable settlements between parties. Although Senate Bill 801 would retain the present Illinois law provision that fault by proven before a divorce is granted, it would eliminate much of the hostility during pleading of grounds. The party seeking the divorce need only state the name of the grounds being accused without detailing the underlying facts. This new provision in the law should alleviate much of the emotional trauma presently occurring during the pleadings. SB 801 also would reform child support, custody, and property settlements."

The bill also makes provisions for "marital property." Representative Jaffe stressed the importance of marital property which entails all property acquired by either spouse subsequent to marriage regardless of how title is held. The courts are guided in this division of property by ten criteria including the contribution of each party to the acquiring and upkeep of property; economic circumstances of parties; the age, health, occupation, amount and sources of income, vocational skills, employability, estate, liabilities, and needs of the parties. This property can be divided by the courts regardless of marital misconduct.

"The court may protect and promote the best interests of the children by setting aside a portion of the jointly or separately held estates of the parties in a separate fund or trust for the support, maintenance, education and general welfare of any minor, dependent, or incompetent child of the parties. This is the first time in over a hundred years that it has been possible for the Legislature to pass reform legislation in the field of divorce law," stated Jaffe.

This is the Area bounded by Dempster on the South, Central on the North, the Tollway on the West and Greenwood on the East.

protection, lack of enforcement of building codes, facilities and other problems. The Mayors feel that the area ultimately must incorporate into its own community, but before this can be done, there must be an evaluation of the problems and financial base of the area to determine whether a new community can sustain itself.

Illinois Department of Local Government Affairs, to examine the situation. They are asking for funds to be allocated for planning studies in the area. The Mayors are well aware that further deterioration of the unincorporated area will not only affect people living there, but will affect the communities around it, such as Des Plaines, Niles and Park Ridge.

These are just a sampling of the comments following the Gemini Jr. High School Chorus and Folk Dance Ensemble tour to Bethany Home and the Swedish Retirement Association recently. ### PEOPLE HELPING PEOPLE

"Markus" Johnson enters 10th District Republican Primary

Mark "Markus" Johnson, Tuesday announced his entry into the Republican primary for the Tenth Congressional District now represented by Democrat Abner Mikva.

Speaking at The North Shore Hilton, Johnson also revealed his campaign theme: "The Issue Is Thoughtful Leadership." "The issue in the primary," Johnson said, is not merely which Republican is most likely to defeat Mikva, but which Republican will be most able to discuss traditional Republican principles in ways that appeal to non-Republican voters. National-level Republicans are keenly aware of their desperate need for this kind of thoughtful leadership."

"It would be unrealistic for candidates in the primary to ignore the political situation outside the Tenth District. Republicans should ask themselves which candidate can do the most for the party after defeating Mikva."

Johnson observed that he was best qualified on the big issue because of his inherited intellectual ability and his thoughtful political shift from left to right. "From now on," he said, "my opponents in the primary will be on the defensive because they will either have to ignore my call for thoughtful leadership or else they will have to compete with me on my issue."

"I will demonstrate throughout the primary and on election day that I am the man best qualified to oppose Abner J. Mikva."

Johnson added: "I already have several assets essential to victory in Congressional primaries: ten thousand dollars of my own money up front, an identifiable campaign theme, and definition of a key issue. And I expect to acquire a reputation for producing more than my share of memorable quotes and ideas." Johnson exclaimed: "There is a growing feeling in the country today that government is the problem instead of the solution. I take the stand that many government activities are harmful because government bureaucracy can only correct and improve itself at the expense of the public. Historically government solutions have been conceived in haste, and the self-correcting features of traditional Republican institutions were overlooked."

"Democrat Mikva's big government programs ignore human frailty and society's limited resources. In the course of my campaign I will show that this means Mikva is really prejudiced and destructive."

"Furthermore, I will write my own speeches. Unless Mikva does the same, and says so, he is an unthinking appendage of his ghost-writer."

"After the primary, look for Johnson-Mikva exchanges that will overwhelm the media with exciting news."

In closing, Johnson invited people who think that Republicans need thoughtful leadership to write him at Box 686, Morton Grove 60053.

Old Nortran farebox to ring up contributions

Richard K. Waltmire, administrator of Bethany Terrace, Morton Grove, accepts a 35-year-old farebox from Joseph DiJohn, executive director and general manager of NORTRAN (North Suburban Mass Transit District).

The farebox, Number 114, has been in service since it was built in 1942 on buses operated by NORTRAN and its predecessor companies. The box will be placed in the lobby of the intermediate and skilled care facility where it will collect donations which will be used to buy a specially equipped bus. The bus will take Bethany Terrace residents, especially those confined to wheelchairs, on outings. Later, Waltmire said, the farebox will be auctioned off. "Fareboxes are much wanted items among transportation buffs," Waltmire said. "We are grateful to NORTRAN for giving it to us, and we know that it will bring a good donation for our special bus which will cost nearly $21,000."

Ronald C. Bryski wins Award of Merit for excellence in business achievement

BUGLE'S Businessman of the Month

By Ed Hanson

A young man of spirit

It was a typical Polish wedding. The beer and whiskey flowed freely. The Polka music was loud and robust. And everyone danced with the bride. It was held at Przybylo's, Division & Western. The bridegroom was loud, happy and loquacious, even tho' he was broke. Matter of fact, he'd borrowed three hundred bucks from a friend prior to the nuptials.

But, the groom, Ronald C. Bryski wasn't worried about his future or his financial destiny. For he was a young man of spirit. A man with the courage of his own convictions and an unshakable belief in his own abilities.

Even then, at the tender age of 20, as he whirled his bride, Gloria Jean Aide, around the dance floor, he had a dream. "My dear bride", he whispered in her ear, I will retire when I'm 39."

He realized that dream, but he did not retire. For such men never do. They have too much "get up and go" to "sit down and stop". Their basic innate natures won't permit them to rest upon their laurels or oars.

But it came to pass. What happened before and after, is what comprises this story. The saga of Ronald C. Bryski is about to unfold.

A modest beginning

On a gloomy day in May -- the 25th -- 1930, the doctor slapped Ronald C. Bryski upon the back. And this baby took a bow. Maybe the doctor should have slapped Ron on the mouth because intermingling with his first cry, was something garbled which caused the surprised doctor later to say, "I know this is impossible ... but it sounded like that infant said, 'I'll have a shot and a beer' ... zany, isn't it." The doctor shook his head.

Ron was born in a cold water flat at Bosworth & Ashland. His parents were: Casimir and Mary Brzyski. (This was later changed to Bryski - hence, Brisk.)

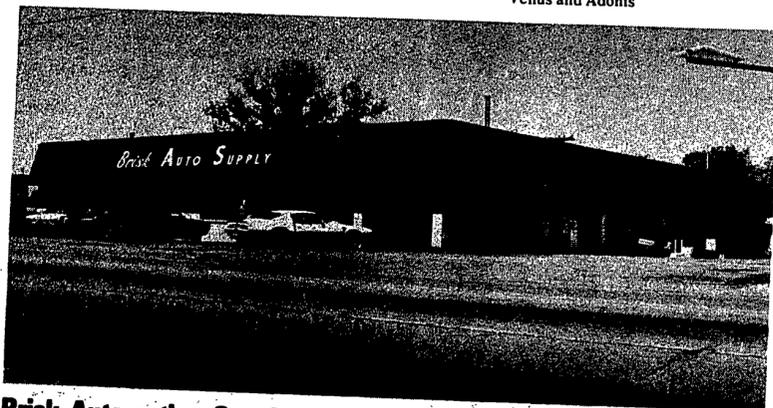

His mother Mary, maiden name, Neebalawender, (Polish, but born here) passed on when Ron was three, in childbirth. Ron's father, Casimir was born in Krakow, Poland, 1906. (He recently passed away at age 70.) He came here when he was 13 with Ron's grandparents, Stanley and Julia Brzyski. Calmit, with barely a grade school education, became an automobile mechanic at 16. He bought, repaired, and sold used cars.

You could say "cars run" in the Bryski family for grandfather, father and son. Ron, have been keeping cars "running" almost since the combustible engine was developed, by a Frenchman in the late 1880's.

After Ron's mother died, his aunt cared for Ron 'til he was 5. At this time, Ron's father remarried Marie Orlovski. Ron's stepmother had 3 girls, Patricia, Constance and Dorothy, and a set of twin boys, Eugene and Fran (half brothers to Ron). Ron, now 13, was already helping his dad with repairing cars and learning the rudiments of the automotive business.

Ron's grade school education and graduation was at St. Mary's Of The Angels, (He was an altar and choir boy there). He later went to Carl Schurz High School for a year and transferred to Wells High School, Augusta & Ashland. He graduated in '47. One of his school chums at Wells was Pete Pesole, Niles Village Trustee.

Then Ron's dad, Casimir, whose moniker was "Casey", purchased a tavern at 1636 W. North Ave. This was a "shot and a beer" joint which was run by Ron's stepmother, Marie. It was a lucrative operation and three years later Casimir sold it and purchased a grocery store. The store was on the ground floor and above it was 12 apartments. Ron's dad "Casey" made a practice of always purchasing "income" property and letting said income pay off the property and buying more. (This has been the M.O. of many Polish people I have known thru the years, having been born and raised in a Polish neighborhood.)

First gas station

In 1942, Ron's dad, "Casey", purchased a Phillips 66 gas station at 1900 N. Clark. (Again, I must interject with comment. About this time, I sold the White Sox baseball games on WIND for $18,000. The price was reduced from $25,000 because the baseball season was ready to begin. I was selling time for WJJD then, when they were a 5000 Watt station and I had two shows on the air which I wrote and four others which I was receiving commissions for. Not being authorized to sell for WIND, I asked Herb Sherman, then sales manager for both WJJD and WIND, if I could sell the Sox games. "I think I know where I can sell them," I said, to the former sales manager of local WBBM, Herb Sherman. After receiving a verbal okay, I presented the Sox games to Mr. Moon, who was then the regional manager of Phillips Petroleum Co., Bartlesville, Okla.

"Mr. Moon," I said, "why not have the Phillips 66 dealers of Cook County bring the White Sox games to bla, bla ... Anyway, they bought 'em but I never got a dime from it, which is another story. While interviewing Ron, I mentioned the name of handsome Mr. Moon, who had appeared as a witness on my behalf, in a legal action. Ron knew and remembered him well. So, again I say it's a small world. I believe, the older I get, that there is some divine blue-print on the lives of us all. Or, in other words, nothing you experience as an individual is wasted - there's a reason for it.) Anyway, Ron Bryski followed in his father's footsteps using his dad's modus operandi in the automotive business and in buying and selling income real estate. But strong-willed Ron had his own ideas and wanted to achieve his own success. He did not want to "shine" by reflected light.

More education and a family

After a year at Loyola and a year at DeForrest Electronic school (nights), Ron, age 20, married Gloria Jean Aide, a beautiful German-Irish lass not only long on looks but brains and energy as well. Their union resulted in 7 children, 5 boys: Larry, Danny, Ronnie Jimmy and Paul. The two girls, Robin and Ann-Marie, an angelic child, who died at age 8 of a brain tumor. Their grandson is Jeff Bryski.

This circumstance (the long illness and subsequent death of Ann-Marie at age 8) changed the destiny, almost fatally of Ron Bryski. He became a "high roller" and drank even heavier. But his luck held and he was able to pay the enormous cost of uninsured hospital expenses.

Parting of the ways

Ron and his dad (Casey) had a serious disagreement which resulted in Ron buying his father out of the Phillip's 66 station. His dad had, by this time, amassed considerable money but Ron wanted to run his own show. He managed to borrow a considerable sum and he became the sole owner of this gas station.

The station was a prize money-maker but Ron earned every penny he made because he was putting in a 17-18 hour day and studying by night. When he slept only God knows.

At age 24 Ron sold the Phillips 66 station. He purchased Ronnie's City Service, Agatite & Milwaukee Ave. He also owned several other income properties at this time.

Business expansion

Later, Ron purchased Ronnie's Mobile Service station at Hutchinson & Milwaukee and a tavern across the street. (Like father, like son, in this case or the apple did not roll far from the tree.)

The tavern was called "Gloria's Lounge", and it was run by Ron's wife Gloria. (And again the same pattern - for didn't Ron's step mother Marie do the same?) This tavern was successful. It was a "poor man's lounge patronized by the 'shot & beer' working-man gentry. These are the taverns that make money. They had some coin machines and these gadgets always help the profit structure. Most taverns in Niles would like the return of coin machines. I predict some day they'll be spinning away merrily as they did in days long ago.

Ron's brief transgression as a high roller stood him in good stead. For Ron's favorite game was a floating "crap-game" where the "shooter" would be coming out with 10 to 20 grand on the table. Although Ron today has given up all forms of gambling, he still has the "free and easy" style of the swinging gambler. These are the "buy the house" a drink guys, the "big tippers and spenders. (I know, I used to be one.)

For example, when Ron had his grand opening of Gloria's Tavern (remember his gas station was across the street) he invited everyone who came in for gas or repairs to come to his "party" as all drinks were on the house. Traffic, I understand was so blocked by parked cars, the cops had to come over and alleviate the jam.

After selling the tavern and the gas station, Ron purchased more income property, more gas stations and finally moved into Niles, Illinois, the "All American Village" on Merrill Ave. in Aug. of 1971. "In Niles, Ed, I found a permanent home" Ron said.

As I said at the beginning, Ron is a man of "spirit" and he Continued on Page 15 frequently likes some. He wandered into the Landmark Tavern, Dempster and Milwaukee one day, and sort of adopted the place. It was 'his' kind of spot. Later, at one of Matty's parties he met Mayor Nicholas Blase, the man who made the Village of Niles the finest run town anywhere.

An active Nilesite

Ron subsequently joined the Niles Chamber of Commerce, and Industry (He's on the Board of Directors) and the Lion's club and today is very active in community affairs. He plans to become even more active than he has been in the past. Ron is also a member of the Illinois Retail Merchants Association, Automotive Wholesale Association and is active in Niles Township Olympic Committee.

Ron did make good his promise to his bride, Gloria about retiring when he was 39. That is, he could have but he didn't. The reason he didn't is because of his children. Ron started Brisk Automotive in July of 1974. This was a spin-off from Niles Service which he owned in March of '72.

A model business

Brisk Automotive is today one of the finest automotive parts supply houses in the world. His inventory comprises more than 200,000 different parts for just about any car made. Robin ably manages the office and Ron and his sons take care of the rest. Ron, incidentally is an early riser. He often has a days' work done while the sun is still rising.

Ron works hard -- and he plays hard.

He refers to himself as a "Work-A-Holic. Frequently, people get the mistaken idea he is a 'bon-vivant'. Well, he is, AFTER HE GETS HIS DAY'S WORK DONE! For Ron is a man who first takes care of the store. He doesn't have too. He does it now for one reason only -- for his kids. He teaches them and sets an example by doing. He preaches, Nobody gets nothing for nothing, in this life. And he rules his biz with an iron fist. And not even those he cherishes most can break the rules for success and get away with it - not his kids nor any kin. For someday the grandsons and great-grandson will take over the operation.

Nobody loves a good time, or good whiskey better than Ron Bryski. But he knows how to handle it. He's extremely well read and very intelligent but often he plays "dumb like a fox."

Ron is well organized in his thinking. Like a good general, he plans ahead. At present he's thinking ahead about importing. And some day if by chance, some traveling Nilesite sees Ron in some quaint Spanish bar, buying drinks for the house and living it up, they wouldn't be able to separate the playboy from the businessman.

For how would they know?

of 1980 Olympic potential living in Niles Township. Four of these athletes are residents of Skokie, two from Morton Grove, and one from Niles. All are graduates of our local school system.

Bruce Conner, Celeste and Denise Chlapaty are World Class speed skaters and are prime prospects for the 1980 Winter Olympics. Fencers Tim Glass and Howard Labow reached the final round of competition for the 1976 Montreal Olympic games and both were selected as NCAA All American Fencers for two consecutive years!

Neal Sher as a college gymnastics freshman reached the final round of NCAA National competition. Bart Conner is considered the finest young gymnastics prospect in the United States and competed for the United States in the Olympics in Montreal and the Pan Am games in Mexico City.

These athletes have the ability to compete at the national and international levels. A difficult problem for them, however, is the high cost of competing at this level of competition. Most of the expenses that they incur competing at the national and international level are not reimbursable by the schools they attend or athletic associations.

During the next three years national and world competition is scheduled to help athletes qualify for the 1980 Olympics. We need help from a large segment of the businesses and citizens in Niles Township to help these athletes. We need your help!"

Mr. Brisk has decided to help in this most worthwhile endeavor and details of his fund raising program are outlined in his ad on Page 15 of all Bugle editions.

Additional information on this program may be obtained by calling the Niles Township Olympic Committee at 631-7456 or Brisk Automotive Supply at 647-7470.

Morton Grove Little League

North Majors
The M.G. Little League North Majors is pleased to announce their 1977 All-Star Team. The team is managed by Bill Morewitch, manager of the Midas Muffler Red Sox who finished in 1st place, and is coached by Dave Huber of the Yankees. The team is strong in all areas of play. Pitching fins Andy Kupciet of the Red Sox who was the strikeout leader of the league; Joey Rodgers of the ITT Bell & Gossett Athletics; John Herbert of the Pedian Rug Company Yankees; and Jay Lehrfeld of the First National Bank Tigers. These four should make for a very solid pitching staff. The infield is another team ston point. Combining superb defense with powerful hitting are Bob Lauesen of the Gore & Lewis Insurance Royals, Dave Olszowka of the Red Sox, John Wrzala of the Yankees and Bob Gurolnick of the Monogram Model White Sox. In the outfield speed and strong arms abound with Dave Kloser of the White Sox, Bob Wolf and Bob Elliot of the Red Sox, and John Vaessen of the Athletics. Rounding out the squad are Dave Wortsman of the Yankees and George Katsoulis of the Athletics. Alternates include Mike Kupciet and Ken Lammersfeld of the Red Sox, Mike Huber of the Yankees, and Fred Stokes of the Tigers. The North's first tournament game will be versus the Skokie Indians at the Skokie VFW field on Sunday, July 17, at 1 p.m. Manager Horewitch stated, "I feel that this team has all the making of a winner."

South Majors
CARDINALS SOUTH MAJORS CHAMPIONS!!

The final game of the second half of the season found both the American Rivet Cardinals and Kohl's Giants tied for 1st place for that half. The Cards had clinched the first half, so a victory in this game would eliminate the need for a playoff game. In a very exciting game the Cardinals locked up the division championship by defeating the Giants 5-2. A grand slam home run by Cardinal shortstop Steve Karbowski after timely hits by Ed Gersham, Kevin Garner, and Peter Joseph, accounted for 4 out of 5 Cardinal runs. Peter Joseph, who went the distance for the Cards, held the giants to just 2 runs on 4 hits, walking 2 while striking out 8. The Giants' pitching duo of Mike Weiss and Paul Calerone held the Cards to 8 hits, giving up 2 each to Mike Borre and Kevin Garner. Obviously great defense and outstanding pitching were the key works in this game because it was a low-scoring affair.

Outstanding defensively for the Cardinals were Scott Hewicker, Mike Borre, Brian Nopenz, Kevin Garner, and Steve Karbowaki. Other boys deserving credit for their fine offensive and defensive efforts are Mike Fautch, John Dethloff, Danny Vishny, and Matt Wilstein. Said manager Bob Garner, "In all honesty, this was the best-played game of the entire season on the part of both teams. The fact that we won can be put down to team work. This was a team effort; all 12 boys on the roster participated and contributed to this victory."

MINOR AMERICAN LEAGUE

In the Minor American League the Mariners took 2 last week, romping over the Twins 15-1 and shutting out the Orioles 2-0. Dan English started both games for the Mariners and held the Twins to no hits, striking out 9 and walking 6 in his 3-inning stint. He was 3 for 4 at the plate with 2 doubles and 3 RBI's. Tom Conrad and Jeff Horwitz each had a hit and drove in a run and Pat Ruehrdanz had a hit and 3 RBI's. Bob Stejskal, Bob Jupille, and Dan Masciopinto each drove in a run and Dan Richman went 2 for 3 with a double and an RBI. Kevin Sandstead in his only turn at bat singled and Craig Israel was 2 for 4 with a double and 2 RBI's. For the Twins, Andy Braje went 1 for 2 while Brian Ruby and Dave Ruth both went 1 for 1. Defensively, Stryble, Stejskal, and Richman sparked the Mariners with excellent catches while Ruehrdanz in addition to handling fly balls made a grab of a screaming line drive. The Mariners' victory over the Orioles wasn't easy to get. Oriole shortstop Joel Biales played an outstanding game belting out the only Oriole hit of the day and robbing Bob Stejskal of a sure base hit. Tony Cotter and Greg Jones combined to strike out 8 Mariners, walking none, but a home run by Dan English and an RBI single by Kevin Sandstead gave the Mariners all the runs they needed for this victory. An impressive defensive play was made by Mariner center fielder Dan Richman as his throw to third baseman Masciopinto gunned down an Oriole runner.

NORTH MAJORS

In a big game for the Midas Muffler Red Sox, Manager Bill Horewitch started ace pitcher Andy Kupciet (5-0) and the Pedian Rug Company Yankees manager Dave Huber responded by starting pitcher John Herbert.

After a scoreless 1st inning the Red Sox took the lead with a single run in the 2nd as Dave Olszowka's deep sacrifice fly scored Willie Flax. The Yankees exploded for 3 runs of their own in the top of the 3rd with a walk and 4 straight hits. Only a super throw by left fielder Dave Kozuch saved a 4th tally. A sacrifice fly by Mike Kupciet cut the lead to 3-2 in the 3rd inning. In the top of the 5th the Yanks hit relief pitcher Mike Kupciet for two more runs, helped by a walk, a single, and a double. But the Red Sox's bats came alive in the 5th. Bob Wolf led off with a double but in trying to stretch it he was out at third. Then singles by Andy Kupciet, Mike Kupciet, and Ken Lammersfeld made the score 5-4. After a walk to load the bases Mike Geiger came through with a triple scoring 3 runs. Olszowka's second sacrifice fly ended the inning's scoring at 6 but the damage was done and the Red Sox led 8.5 going into the last inning. The Yankees fought back to tie the game on 2 singles and a double sandwiched around a walk and a Sox error. The Red Sox however did not give up. New Yankee pitcher Mike Huber retired the first 2 batters before an error and a base hit by Flax brought up Ken Lammersfeld who responded with a hit up the middle giving the Sox a 9-8 victory. Great shortstop play by Dave Olszowka shut off many threats by the Yankees. Due to a 3-game week, in their next game the Midas Muffler Red Sox had to dig deep to find a starting pitcher. They not only found one but have a new star. Willie Flax, making his first start after 3 relief appearances, was just super. He struck out 6 Royals and gave up just 4 hits as the Red Sox overwhelmed the Gore & Lewis Insurance Royals 10-2. He also had 3 hits and 3 RBI's. The Red Sox struck in the 1st thanks to a lead-off triple by Olszowka and a single by Flax scoring 2 runs. In the Sox second, singles by Olszowka, Bob Wolf, Andy Kupciet, and Flax mixed with a double by Bob Elliott, all after 2 outs, resulted in 6 runs, making the score 8-0. It stayed that way until the Royals scored once in the 4th. In the Sox 6th a lead-off single by Andy Kupciet started a 2-run outburst to give the Sox a 9 run lead. After a shaky 6th inning start by Flax he settled down to allow just one run and gain a 10-2 win. Fine defensive play by shortstop Dave Olszowka and Ken Lammersfeld helped Flax to victory. The Royals had previously handed the Sox their only loss of the season, making the win all the sweeter.

SENIOR AMERICAN LEAGUE

The O'Brien Electric A's again went down in defeat against the First National Bank White Sox 7-2 as Scott Pegararo and Tom Winkler combined to throw a no-hitter against the A's. Bill Hewicker in his first starting pitching assignment, held the White Sox to one hit through the first 4 innings. The hit, a single up the middle by Pegararo, gave the White Sox their first run, scoring Brad Fine who had reached on a walk. Tom Winkler, who had also walked, was out at the plate on a perfect throw from left fielder Steve Colen to catcher Dan Egan who put the tag on Winkler. The White Sox scored 2 more in the second, as Hewicker, having control trouble, walked the bases full and walked in the two runs. The A's fought back, however, scoring 2 of their own in the top of the 3rd to cut the White Sox lead to 1 run. Mark Jacobson walked and stole 2nd, reaching 3rd on a throwing error. Egan walked and took 2nd as the attempted pick-off at first went over the first baseman's head. Jacobson scored on that play. Egan then stole 3rd on a wild pitch. The bottom of the 3rd and 4th saw the A's sparkle defensively. Steve Colen made a beautiful running catch of a ball hit to deep left and Mark Jacobson made two outstanding plays at second to end the 3rd inning. In the 4th, with 2 out, Dan Egan threw to Pete Meehan at third as they got the runner out. Egan enjoyed another superb game behind the plate, sharing the defensive honors with Mark Jacobson and Steve Colen. In their next outing, the A's faced the league-leading Nil Metals Services Tigers and lost in 4 1/2 innings under the slaughter rule. The A's were blanked 11-0, the first shut out thrown against them this year. Jim Johnson faced a triumvirate of A's pitchers; Steve Colen, Tim Loftus and Dan Egan. The 1st inning was scoreless for both teams. Colen walked Tiger lead-off man Jerry Spivack but got Johnson to pop up to 1st baseman Paul Calderone, brought up from the majors for this game. Spivack stole 2nd and then catcher Dan Egan threw a strike to Pete Meehan at 3rd for the second out of the innings. This play, catcher to third, has become an Egan trademark, as he guns down an average of four runners a game. Joe Falkovitz

Larry Goldwater has a super day. Led by Larry Goldwater's 2 home runs and single, Ro La Motive Auto Parts crushed Loochtan Ins. Agency 20 to 6. Darren Pacholski was the winning pitcher (4-0) plus hitting his 4th home run, triple and single. Rich Wiltse and Jason Rose added 2 hits each and rifle arm catcher Mike Conidi, cut down 3 base runners and singled, as Pete Savio, Lorin Coles and Scott Weinstein were cited for fielding plays. Tony Schor and John Stamatis tripled, Les Lynn had 3 hits and Brad Bersh and Buddy Klinger stroked 2 hits each for L.I. Loochtan's next game was a 15 to 8 win over Just Games. Brett Gorman doubled, Klinger, Bersh and Kevin O'Neil had 2 singles each, Joe Darcy tagged one to the fence, and Barry Cherney's flawless play at short gave the win to Bob Trausch. Jeff Wise and Chris Dixon got 2 hits each with Herb Finn making the catch of the week (backhanded) in right field. Ready Electric snuck by Loochtan 2 to 1 as the victory belonged to Fred Goldman and the save to Steve Borg on a one hitter. Mark Manhart doubled for R.E. Brad Bersh went 6 suspenseful innings in a tough loss. Ready Electric then took Carl Miller and Son Realtors 13 to 8 as Mike Piazza went the route for the win. Borg doubled and singled twice, Fred Goldman lined 2 hits and Dave O'Brian, Randall Barnes, John O'Brian and Todd Stevens were noted for their hustle. Bristol House Restaurant picked on C.M. & Son in a 18 to 12 game. Andy Marlow smashed a home run, double and 2 singles. John Degrazia tripled and singled, Ray Panfil had 3 hits, John Johanson 2 hits, and Teddy Spears ripped out a double.

Mikva praises Carter decision to scrap B-1

President Carter made a wise and courageous decision for the country by recommending against further development of the B-1 bomber and for shifting our defense emphasis to the Cruise Missile, according to Congressman Abner J. Mikva.

"From a national security standpoint and from an economic standpoint, the President's decision was the correct one. It would be wasteful and ridiculous for Congress to continue pouring billions of dollars into the B-1 when a superior and far less costly defense weapon, the Cruise Missile, has been developed," Mikva said.

"The B-1 was obsolete before the plans were off the drawing board and the lobbyists, Congressional spokesmen and military proponents who have persisted in arguing for the B-1 have displayed narrow and selfish interests and insensitivity to what our national priorities should be," the Congressman continued. In June, Mikva organized a major position paper listing the reasons for discontinuing the B-1. The arguments were included in letter to President Carter that was eventually signed by more than 90 Members of Congress who urged the President to decide against further development of the B-1.

Commenting further on the President's decision, Mikva noted the effectiveness of the Cruise Missile and its relatively inexpensive production cost compared to the B-1. "Cruise Missiles cost about $1 million apiece, compared to the price tag of more than $100 million for each B-1 bomber. Adding the per-plane cost to the nearly $3 billion that have already been spent on this white elephant, the wastefulness of this program is readily apparent," the Congressman said.

Mikva concluded that he is hopeful that Carter's decision may help to achieve a major breakthrough on strategic arms limitation talks with the Soviet Union, noting that U.S. technology on the Cruise Missile is believed years ahead of the Soviet Union.

'Mame' opens at Maine North

Maine North High School Summer Theatre Workshop will present the sensational Broadway musical, Mame, as their summer production. Mame, with music and lyrics by Jerry Herman, is based on the novel by Patrick Dennis and the play Auntie Mame by Jerome Lawrence and Robert E. Lee. "The production is lively, fast paced and exciting," says Miss Carla Oleck, choreographer for the production.

Joe Schlanger, Maxine Stein as Mame and Steve DiMenna "dance to a new rhythm" during a rehearsal for Maine North's Mame which opens Thursday, July 28.

The Summer Theatre Workshop combines past, present, and incoming students of Maine North who work together for six weeks to prepare the show. In addition to the North students, the workshop is fortunate to have three theatre students from Maine West joining the company. The company of 37 students participate in all aspects of the production, from acting, dancing, and singing, to lighting and set construction. "We feel the 'company' we form brings the students closer together during the production. There are no divisions between actors and crews. Everyone does a little of everything. It proves to be a worthwhile experience for all," says director of the workshop, Mr. K.W. Steinhauser.

Who is Mame? There's surely one in every community, often in every family. Some of the wild exploratory spirit of Mame bubbles into everyone's life who really believes that "life is a banquet." Mame is a happy happening. She lives in New York at the peak of the twenties, and is surprised by a "wonderful present", an orphan nephew named Patrick. Young ten year old Patrick needed his Aunt Mame who is his only living relative. This is new for Mame to be needed and it changed her whole life. Together she and Patrick open new windows on life.

The depression hits, and Mame faces poverty like any other woman of her time. She marries a millionaire, Beauregard Burnside. Together Mame and Beau travel the world, leaving young Patrick behind. When she returns she finds that Patrick has grown up, a process that has begun many complications. Again, Mame must learn to "dance to a new rhythm."

The orchestra for Mame is directed by Mr. Walter Wolodkin, the show is choreographed by Miss Carla Oleck and directed by Mr. K.W. Steinhauser.

Performance dates are set for Thursday, July 28, Friday, July 29 and Saturday, July 30 at 8 p.m. in the Maine North Theatre. Tickets are $2 and are available by calling 298-5510 or 729-4934. Group rates are available for groups of 25 or more. Full information is available from Steve DiMenna at 729-4934.

OCC Prof. tells of early Illinois pioneers

Thomas Conway, associate professor of history at Oakton Community College, spoke before the annual meeting of the Grove Heritage Association on June 26.

Standing in the shadow of the pre-Civil War home of Dr.

Kennicott in Glenview, Dr. Conway spoke of the pioneer experience in early Illinois. His topic was the "Grove on the Prairie".

The purpose of the talk and the meeting was the revival of historical interest in the early history of Northfield, Niles and Maine Townships around the celebrities of Dr. Kennicott and his son Robert, the explorer of Alaska.

Both of the Kennicotts were avid naturalists and promoters of education, according to Dr. Conway.

Cubs only 20 games out of last place

Hey! Hey! The Cubs are on their way . . . To last place! My computer findings are in. The number of games (as of last Friday) the Cubs won, thus far, by merit, was 10. Therefore, (as of last Friday) the Cubs standing should show: 10 wins-69 losses. But due to a freak of 'over play', luck and accident, they surprised everyone except me. Projecting this performance over the rest of the remaining games of the '77 season, (83), and deducting the 'luck' factor (because luck, breaks, etc. evens out over 162 games) the Cubs should lose two-thirds of their remaining games, (83), or 54 ball games.

This loss should put the Cubs into last place or a tie for last place at the end of this season.

Next year . . . the Cubs won't be here and here's why: Recently, I attended a private hush-hush meeting with the powers that be concerning the fate of the Cubs. When I presented my projection, there wasn't a dry eye in the room, except mine. However, once the doom of the Chicago Cubs was sealed, my suggestion of what to do with Wrigley Field and the profits accruing therefrom caused everyone present to jump up and down with glee. For nothing makes rich people happier than when they can gain more moola and capital gains.

This is an exclusive! Temporarily, this may be denied -- but don't be misled.

Next year . . . Wrigley field will be known by the new name of Plaza Del Toros and will offer Bull Fighting. The lowest price of admission will be $25. As soon as the baseball season ends and Wrigley gives the Cub team away, remodeling will begin at Wrigley field. Such remodeling will include building a chapel, small hospital, and a place for the fighting Spanish bulls, etc. Other changes, though not too major, will also be made. Lights will be installed so that night, as well as day, bull fighting can be held at Wrigley field.

Isn't it ironic, that the Wrigley's who would never permit night baseball will now provide night bull fighting. It's all a question of money and the gross offered by bull fighting will be fifty times that offered by the Cubs.

Besides, the Cubs have had such lousy teams over the past 32 years and their accomplishments on the diamond in all the years previous can be counted on three fingered Brown's hand.

Getting rid of the '77 Cubs does present a problem. Who wants 'em? As Charlie Finley said to me, "I wouldn't give 12 bucks for the lot of 'em even if they threw in six tons of bubble gum!"

Bob Hope told me, "My team may be a bunch of Indians, but they're not crazy enough to want any Cubs . . . include me out!" Bing Crosby commented, "I would have to put a lot more vodka in my orange juice to be silly enough to consider buying the Cubs or any one of 'em."

So it goes, comment and cross-comment. But the consensus of baseball's moguls is that the Chicago Cubs are bad news . . .

If the plan goes ahead, and it looks like a lead-pipe cinch, a small pamphlet about the History and Art of Bull-Fighting will be distributed in late September to the few die-hard Cubbies, who will stagger into Wrigley field for the last time and watch their heroes battle to keep out of the cellar. In fact, the Cubs have spent so many years in the cellar that many former Cub greats have become rich as mushroom growers. So, never let anyone 'dampen' your spirits.

Ah, yes, I can see the final day late in September. A few bowed, bald heads will be scattered in the stands. The organ will softly play 'Auld Lang Syne'. A few tears. Jack Brickhouse will blow his nose. Eddie Schuett, as he leaves Wrigley field, with tears in his eyes and a pint on his hip, will say, "I-I always stuck wid 'em...sniff...sniff...they was a great bunch of guys."

See yuh at the Bull Fight!!! Next year, Pinky.

Frank Kleinkemper of Ditto Inc., and a member of the 4th district VFW - the First Niles VFW post No. 7712 which started in 1946 adopted the song "Pearly Shells" a beautiful song with marvelous lyrics. The man responsible: Frank Kleinkemper, a hell-of-a-guy in his own right. This song, in this post is second to the national anthem. Next time you're in the Bunker Hill VFW and Frank is there ask him to sing it. He's got a pretty good voice - for an old guy. It's on the juke box at Bunker Hill and the flip side is great too

P.S. - The Werewolf story will definitely appear next week. Interviewing a Werewolf is not only difficult but downright dangerous. I have to avoid doing it during a full moon. Besides, I don't know if this is a girl Werewolf or a boy Werewolf or even a gay Werewolf. Meanwhile, don't go tramping thru the woods at night unless you're carrying a gun with silver bullets or a blowtorch.

P.S.S. Next week - update on "Best-Dressed Man" Race.

New Oakton voc-tech program planned for auto mechanics

Automotive Service Excellence, a new Vocational Technical program will be offered for the first time this fall at Oakton Community College. It is designed for students who already have some background in repairing cars and are working for repair shops, car dealerships, or service stations.

The 16-credit-hour certificate program includes four "hands-on" courses dealing with the practical application of automotive fundamentals, as well as instruction in automotive theory, repair, and troubleshooting, according to Robert Duncan, the program coordinator.

The Automotive Service Excellence curriculum is less "in-depth" than Oakton's Automotive Technology program which Duncan also coordinates, but it is an excellent refresher for those already working in the auto trades," he explains.

Duncan also pointed out that the new program prepares students for the certification test administered by the National Institute for Automotive Service Excellence. This certification is required by many car dealerships and repair shops, he said.

The average salary for a beginning auto mechanic is over $10,000 and many mechanics earn up to $16,500 after two years of experience, according to Duncan.

"Engine Repair and Tune-up: (ASE 111); Brakes and Front Suspension (ASE 112); and Electrical Systems and Air Conditioning (ASE 113). Each course carries four hours of college credit.

Registration at Oakton Community College is now underway and will continue until August 5. Applications for admissions should be submitted now. Tuition is $12 per credit hour for district residents; $6 for residents 60 years of age or over. Open registration for the fall semester at Oakton is scheduled for August 22 and 23. Fall classes begin on August 29.

College offerings for mature adults

Are you newly retired with a lot of extra time on your hands? Have you launched your children after many years of child-raising? Are you searching for a career change after a number of years in the same job?

The Non-Traditional Student Program at Oakton Community College may have the answer for you.

Mature adults are increasingly returning to the college classroom for opportunities to update or learn new skills or to seek mental stimulation in their leisure time. Oakton Community College is meeting this need by scheduling weekly orientation sessions for adults returning to college.

During the two hour orientation sessions, the career programs and special classes for adults are discussed. Participants have an opportunity to share their reasons for returning to school and to discover ways in which many other adults have achieved their goals. Registration for classes will be available also.

Future orientation sessions are planned for Tuesday, July 19 and Tuesday, July 26 from 1-3:30 p.m. Evening sessions are scheduled for Thursday, July 28 and Tuesday, August 2 from 7-9 p.m.

To register for one of these free workshops, please call the office of Non-Traditional Student Programs, 967-5120, ext. 350.

New Architectural technology courses

Three new Architectural Technology courses have been added to the curriculum at Oakton Community College for the 1977 fall term, according to Les Jacobs, coordinator of Architectural Technology.

Two of the courses are open to students who are not enrolled in Oakton's Architectural Technology program and will be offered during the late afternoon for the convenience of working students.

These courses are Building Codes and Zoning (ARC 216-01) and Mechanical Equipment in Building (ARC 217-01). The former, meeting on Monday and Wednesday afternoons from 5 to 6:20, will include a comprehensive study of Chicago, B.O.A.C., National, and N.F.P.A. building codes and how they affect the design and construction of a building.

The course on Mechanical Equipment in Buildings, offered on Thursday afternoons from 4 until 6:30 will familiarize the student with the basic principles involved in plumbing, heating, ventilating, air conditioning, and electrical systems in buildings.

The third new course (ARC 251 Practicum) is open to second year students in Architectural Technology during the spring term only. The student will gain practical on-the-job experience while working as a draftsman in an architectural, engineer or contracting office.

"This is an excellent opportunity for a student to gain work experience and hopefully earn some money while receiving college credit," Jacobs said.

Jacobs also pointed out that the Architectural Technology schedule at Oakton has been designed so that a student can take all courses for an associate of science degree at night while working full time during the day.

For further information about Architectural Technology at Oakton, contact Jacobs at 967-5120, ext. 246.

Off the NILES POLICE BLOTTER

Vandalism-Theft
Vandals caused damage estimated at $150 to the home of a Clara St. resident over the Fourth taking a mailbox valued at $25. It was not known if the box contained Social Security checks. Police said a downspout was torn down and bent out of shape, a wall and sidewalk lantern were broken and a gate damaged. The victim said he has had problems over a year with neighborhood boys, one of whom he apprehended recently setting off firecrackers. Firecrackers have been taped to his doors and windows he said and ignited.

Stolen Autos
A Streamwood resident said his 1970 Ford Mustang valued at $600 was stolen overnight July 2 while parked on the north side of the Golf Mill show.

A 1973 Chevrolet Vega valued at $1500 was stolen from a Niles engineer while the car was parked overnight in the 6300 Touhy parking lot. Also taken was a $60 jacket and a box containing tools worth $100.

Suspicious Auto
Three women en route home to Niles from Elmwood Park June 30, at 2 a.m. couldn't elude a car following them and finally drove to the Niles Police station to report the situation. The car was last seen going east on Touhy.

Stolen Bikes
Thieves stole two ten-speed bikes belong to Olcott st. residents July 6 around 2 p.m. left unlocked at Birchway Drugs while the owners were in the store shopping.

(These are only two of the numerous stolen bike reports received weekly by police.)

New Mail Delivery
A mailbox was blown from its wall mount with firecrackers at a home in the 9200 block of Maryland July 6 around 10 p.m. Police said only 2 of the half dozen 1 1/2 inch firecrackers exploded in the first explosion which blew the wicks off the other firecrackers.

The mailbox was slightly dented but re-usable they said.

Sporting Theft
Thieves entered an open garage in mid Niles overnight, June 29 taking fishing equipment valued at $123. Stolen were rods reels and a $50 tackle box.

Home Invasion
A 37-year-old Rolling Meadows man was seized by police after he entered, uninvited, the apartment of mid Niles residents July 3. He was later released, charged with criminal trespass, under a $1000 bond pending a July 29 court date.

The housewife told police she left the apartment door unlocked for her husband. When the door opened she thought it was her mate, but looked up to see the intruder. She said she told him to leave but he refused so she called the police.

Burglary
Thieves using vice grips entered a motel room at 7247 Waukegan rd. occupied by a Palo Alto, Cal. resident, ransacking his luggage and taking $50 in currency July 2, near midnight.

Kids and Cans
Approximately 40 beer cans were thrown into a Niles yard by a group of boys shortly after midnight July 2.

Residents on the 8600 block of Ozanam said they were sitting in their living room when they heard a thumping sound on the roof. Investigation revealed the beer cans.

A neighbor said she saw a group of 6 boys running north on Merrill at approximately the same time.

The victims asked for frequent police patrol because of past, similar incidents.

Thefts from Cars
A 17-year-old Park Ridge student told police that speakers and stereo valued at $330 were taken from his car during the time it was left for repair work at United Transmission, 7460 Milwaukee ave. during the week of June 24.

A Skokie resident reported a CB valued at $225 missing from his 1977 Ford Mustang during the time he left the car for repairs at Dave Corey Ford, 6200 W. Touhy.

Thieves climbed the link chain fence at Marshall White Ford, 9401 Milwaukee ave. the first week in July, jacking up a 1977 Ford stationwagon to steal the rear left tire and two belted tires valued at $162.

Windows Shot
A resident on the 9300 block of Western ave. told police that vandals shot several pellets thru the thermo pane window of his home July 6. Cost of replacement was set at $200.

Lyttons, a retail clothing store in Golf Mill reported holes shot thru 2 huge windows on the west side of the building over the Fourth of July weekend.

Theft from Construction Site
A Mt. Prospect construction company told police that 3 wheelbarrows and 5 shovels, with a total value of $230 were stolen from a construction site at 7421 Waukegan rd. after thieves cut a security chain over the Fourth of July weekend.

The victim noted later that 2 of the stolen shovels were being used by another construction company.

AREA SCOUT NEWS

Brownie Troop 682 fly-up

Flower baskets, plenty of food, bright sunshine, fresh air and 13 happy girls made for a beautiful fly up ceremony for five of the Brownies of Troop 682, on May 10.

On hand to welcome Diane Mimp, Cindy Drexler, Jackie Kimmeth, Patty Hill and Susan Boscapomi into Girl Scouts was Mrs. Karen Kreher of Troop 595. This combination fly up - picnic took place at the home of their leader, Mrs. Dolores Bratek. As a parting gift to her girls, the ever ingenious Mrs. Bratek gave each girl a hand-made lei made of candy and money - really very pretty. And to her departing co-leader, Barbara Eshoo, a lifetime contract to return to scouting.

Receiving numerous awards were remaining Brownies - Karen Beftink, Cathy Bratek, Krista Eshoo, Kim Grendzinski, Cathy O'Grady, Leeann Peterson, Cathy Romanek and Doreen Ochal. Congratulations to the new scouts and many thanks Dolores and Barbara.

Brownie Troop 326

The Brownies of Troop #326 having dedicated themselves to a program of civic beautification recently planted petunias in the large blue planter outside the children's room of the Niles Public Library.

Scout leaders honored as 'Lamplighters'

Six Scout leaders of the Northwest Suburban Council, Boy Scouts of America were honored recently as "Lamplighters." The recognition is for persons who organize a new Cub Scout Pack, Scout Troop or Explorer Post, and takes its name from the trophy awarded the organizer.

The awards and a recognition dinner were sponsored by Bud McMahon of Century 21, McMahon Realty in Hoffman Estates. Those recognized who are local leaders include: Bob Burns, Des Plaines, for organizing a Scout troop for the United Pentecostal Church and Dick Pawell, Niles, for organizing an Explorer post for Our Lady of Ransom Church.

FNBOS purchase award painting

A purchase award is an agreement in advance, by a sponsor, to purchase a painting - the painting is then selected by the judges. These purchase awards are an incentive to the artists and give the sponsor the advantage of expert opinion in the selection of a work of art.

FNBOS has been a regular sponsor of the Skokie Art Fair and the Purchase Award Paintings from past years are displayed in various locations within the bank, for all to enjoy.

Anniversaries at 1st National of Morton Grove

Employment anniversaries at First National Bank of Morton Grove were observed during June by this smiling quintet. They are (l. to r.) Harriet Bochek, 11 years; Ely Strehl, 12 years; Nancy Brandt, 6 years; Alan Obenberger, 5 years; and Barbara Miles, 1 year.

said the Plann Commission recommended rejection of this application and the trustees concurred, but unfortunately the Ritters took the case to court where finally the present ruling was made. Richard Vician said the people don't want multiple dwellings on that land and Don Sneider moved to have this matter discussed in executive session to the agreement of the other board members.

Alan Goldberg submitted a report on a request for re-subdivision on the Fir Tree farm property now owned by Albert S. Jacobs. The preliminary plan was submitted showing 29 lots on 10.4

acres and is to be known as Morton Woods. The property is now zoned R1 and there are 28 lots to build on and one existing lake. This development must have MSD approval and all utilities should be underground. There were several items which Goldberg advised should be given close attention such as storm water runoff and detention, ownership and liability of the existing lake, etc. Tentative approval was given by the Plan Commission and a letter has been received by Atty. Ashman who said he was 95% satisfied with the project proposals, and the fact that it states the village will not be held responsible for the existing lake. Mr. Lieberman, atty. for the builder asked Mr. Mooney, their engineer be heard and the trustees listened to him carefully. He stated they would comply wherever needed to obtain board approval and said without their approval and that of the MSD they could not proceed further. On that note Alan Goldberg said his group would recommend approval of the temporary linen and Neil Cashman moved to give board approval subject to an O.K. from Atty. Ashman. The motion carried.

Fred Huber said the low bid for a new station wagon for the Public Works Dept. was from McGinnis Ford of Harvard, Ill. for $5,143 with our trade in. He also read bids for cleaning our sanitary sewers and the low bidder for that project was the Sewer Equipment of America at 35 cents per ft. for all size sewers. Both bids were approved.

Our new Director of Disaster Control Mr. Memhart gave a very complete and excellent report on the status of that organization. He has made several arrangements for emergency communication help for M.G. in case of a natural disaster and has looked into all other problems facing his group. At this time they are in need of new equipment and he has discussed this with Ron Henrici and Neil Cashman who said it should be covered in next year's budget. Also, Memhart said we could be eligible for some grants from the federal government and may be able to purchase some necessary equipment for Civil Defense purposes and natural disasters with these funds. He then said a drive was now under way to recruit male and female members for this group who are 21 years of age or older. Mayor Flickinger thanked him for a fine report.

Jake's salad bar packin' 'em in

By Ed Hanson

"I wish I would have installed a salad and fruit bar when I first opened, Ed", Jake said to me. "If you had, Jake", I replied, "you'd have to squeeze 'em in with a shoehorn."

Since Jake's Restaurant installed their fruit and salad bar, business has zoomed. It offers the making of every type of salad and there's cucumbers, radishes, celery, corn relish, bean salad, macaroni, cole slaw and other savory goodies too numerous to mention.

The other evening I saw a woman who not only took seconds, but fifth's and sixth's. She piled each plate high with red watermelon and juicy cantalope, luscious grapes plus just about everything on the salad bar. I watched her in amazement as she made trip after trip.

Finally, I could stand it no longer so I approached her:

"Pardon me, madame, permit me to introduce myself. I am with the Guinness Book Of World Records... we have a museum in Las Vegas at Circus-Circus. I believe you have just set a new world's record for the consumption of fruit and salads. We would like to build an effigy in wax of you to place in our museum. Tell me, madame what do you weigh?"

"Tree hunter fifty", she gasped almost choking on a mouthful of red, juicy watermelon.

"In that case, madame, I'll have to withdraw my offer. You see, at present, there's a nationwide shortage of wax. However, you're happy to have made my acquaintance and if I should return during my absence, leave a note for me as to what time the balloon will go up."

Seriously, the fruit and salad bar at Jake's is great but make sure your eyes aren't bigger than your tummy.

Any interested persons should call George Brabec, project coordinator, at 432-1440.

Bill Hammers, who was involved in the stolen gun incident (along with 3 other policemen) resigned. Blase contended Hammers would likely have appeared before the Police and Fire Commission to review the charges which brought back a "No Bill" before last spring's Grand Jury. According to Blase, if he was recommended for discharge, the cost of appeals and legal fees would cost the village several thousand dollars. Hammers thus resigned while receiving pay for the next 6 months. Blase contended this would be the approximate equivalent money which the village would have invested in the case.

Critics of this procedure contend once again Blase and the Police department pick and choose. When a past grand jury investigation had another policeman before it, the jury also voted a "No Bill" on an arson charge. The evidence was so overwhelming, though circumstantial, but Blase and friends let it pass. The policeman was then a member of the club, Blase's and Emrikson's club, so he was not sent before the police and fire commission for review. When another cop was accused of asking for money in order to guarantee a new policeman's job, again Blase and Emrikson brushed it aside, even though the charges had come from more than one applicant seeking to come into the department. Again, there was no review by the commission. And why? Because the cop is one of the key members of the establishment.

What we're trying to relay is only the tip of an iceberg which is abhorred by many of the 'straight' cops.

When very bright young policemen resign, when the police chief counts the days until he can get out, perhaps 10 years before a normal resignation from a very sweet job; when 3 grand jury investigations are made within 5 years of one department; when old line police captains are shunted aside because they're not members of the club, its time somebody other than the Mayor begins to look into the workings of the village.

There's 6 trustees elected by the people who are there to serve Nilesites' best interests. While Nick Blase has run this town with an iron fist, it's time village officials begin to assert themselves. It's the people of Niles who have given a mandate to the trustees to serve them. It's time they began exercising it.

In our 20 years in Niles, we have never seen a time when one public department has been so wracked with tension, so demoralized by what is going on 'inside the department. If Niles' own family doesn't do something about the condition, an outside agency will likely have to take over. I doubt anyone in the village family would relish that, most of all Nick Blase.

Recycling...

Cont'd from Skokie-L'wood P.1 way of handling the center's growth. It was the feeling of the advisory board that self service recycling would be more convenient for the contributor. They also felt that having citizens sort their own materials would not create an inconvenience or be any more time consuming than the present system.

The recycling center, which is located at 7929 Austin Avenue in Skokie, will be open to the public four days each week, year round, including all holidays, Wednesday, thru Friday, 12 noon to 5 p.m. and Saturday 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. The recycling center will be closed Sunday thru Tuesday. Materials collected at the center include glass bottles, and jars, bi-metal and aluminum cans, newspapers, and magazines and cardboard boxes.

Recycling center personnel suggest that pre-sorting and preparing materials will make the trip to the center quick and pleasant. The following are suggested as guidelines:

Glass bottles and jars should be sorted into three color categories: clear, green, and brown, with all metal rings removed. A pair of inexpensive wire cutters will remove your rings quickly and safely. All bi-metal and aluminum cans can be mixed together in one bag. Newspapers and magazines may be placed together in the paper bin. Broken down and bundled cardboard boxes may be deposited in the cardboard bin.

For further information on location or material preparation please call 966-3800, ext. 416.

Zoning Board...

Cont'd from Niles-E.Maine P.1 per Ray Adriani of Norwood Builders and approved a condominium prospect of 5 buildings with a total 240 units, lakes, swimming pools and other recreational facilities.

The development will bring about 600 new residents into Niles. The property, formerly the North Shore Camp for Boys owned by V. Winchell Helm insurance trust, is for sale at $1,015,000. Nearby residents and village board members favored use of land for single family homes.

Building height will be four floors over a garage with underground and outside parking.

The 20 one-bedroom apartments will be sold at $50,000 each; 60 two-bedroom apartments at $60,000; and 140 two BR units with den will go for $70,000.

Recommended approval was predicated by aeration of retention pools if required by village (cost monies to be set in escrow by Adrianni); improvement of Foster Lane; dedication of 17 additional feet on Washington St. for widening; water main size to be established by computer; sidewalks around property as proposed; landscaping in conformance with the plan rendering; and fencing along St. Isaac Jogues School boundary.

Labelling himself a dissident for prior PUD petitions Comr. O'Grady lauded the Foster-Washington proposal as "excellent." In retrospect said O'Grady "I have felt other PUD petitions to be an imposition upon the village... this is the first, in my time on the Zoning Board, to reflect the true concept of a PUD, with proper landscaping, aerated retention ponds, saunas, tennis courts...

Former petitioners stated it was not economically feasible to encompass these needed ecourments... both the village and the developer are benefiting with this PUD."

Residents from nearby villages, officials from School District 63 and representatives from St. Isaac Jogues parish have protested volubly against the proposed project, citing child safety, increased traffic problems, density, flooding and additional burden on village services.

The Plan Commission tentatively approved, 4 to 2, a Special Permit to W.W. Grainger Co. at 5959 Howard St., setting a precedent for construction of a 68 ft. high building, above the 36 ft. limit permitted by village ordinance. The balance of the 28 acre property remains under M1 (manufacturing) zoning.

Prior to vote Comr. Charles O'Grady warned fellow Board members he would negate the Special Use permit for the building, unless the special use restrictions were extended to the land owned by Grainger.

"We are setting a precedent in allowing an almost doubled height for this building which will be seen from Howard St., Touhy Ave, and from Caldwell... the land should also be put under Special Use for future control by the village. If Grainger should decide to remodel, build new additions or expand, an appearance before the Plan Commission would be mandatory."

Comr. Syd Mitchel said he could not vote to increase building height... "if we endorse it now, we'll have to sanction the next, and the next..."

Other Board approval followed a clarification letter of opinion (in which O'Grady did not concur) from Village Attorney Richard Troy indicating "it would be improper to condition use of the remainder of the land..."

Grainger officials do not desire a Special Use set on the property noting Niles ordinances were already "tightly restricted" with enough "teeth to M1 zoning."

Petitioners had requested the additional height for construction of an automatic storage and retrieval warehouse, permitting more storage of merchandise per square foot of land space. They said the building at the northwest corner of Jarvis and Menard would be four times more effective than expanding regular storage and would permit no personnel, only computer memory to service merchandise.

Cost of implementation is $6 million due to the height and the automation.

W.W. Grainger is a national distributor for industrial products, primarily Dayton motors, pump compressors, power tools and hardware items.

Niles Village Board...

Cont'd from Niles-E.Maine P.1 sional wants in, he'll get in." Zoning Director Joseph Salerno noted that use of barbed wire has been granted elsewhere in the industrial sector, but no fencing over the 6 ft. limitation.

In other actions trustees approved, 4 to 1, a Special Use permit to W.W. Grainger Co. for construction of a hi rise Stack and Storage warehouse at Jarvis and Menard.

Board action set a precedent for the 68 ft. industrial height (comparable to a 6 story building) also permitting steel enclosure as opposed to the 60% masonry village requirement.

Village officials noted the 11 to 12 story high Golf Mill Professional building and the 9 story Huntington senior citizen structure were erected prior to village ordinance 2 years ago setting a 36 ft. building height limitation.

Declaration by William Jarvis, Distribution Manager for Grainger, to stay in Niles should the petition be approved by the Board fired Tr. Pesole's vote to veto... "Grainger is a good company," he said, "but Board judgement should not be influenced by a petitioning business which threatens to move out of Niles unless their request is approved."

Approved a pre-annexation agreement petition by Niles Investment Co. for a Planned Unit Development of 240 units at 9500

Washington. Annexation plans include Library and Niles Park Districts.

Endorsement, under requirement by law, by the North Maine Fire Protection District will bring the plans for the 12 1/2 acre unincorporated site at Foster and Washington back to Niles for approval as a Planned Unit Development.

Referred to administration for recommendation three bids on a new Fire Dept. ambulance, from Northern Illinois Fire Apparatus of Hinsdale, $27,467; Able Fire and Safety Equipment Co. of Chicago, $26,500, and Midwest Ambulance Sales, Inc. of Wilmette, $24,247. No bids were received from 4 other companies contacted.
