MEG program discontinued due to lack of funding

(By Diane Miller)
Niles Police Chief Clarence Emrikson appeared before the Niles Village Board on Tuesday evening and reported that the Metropolitan Enforcement Group (MEG) has been discontinued due to lack of state funding as of June 30, 1977.

MEG, which originated in July, 1971, handled the investigation of drug sales in southern Lake and northern Cook County through the cooperation of the Cook County Sheriff's Department and 25 suburban police departments.

Funding for the continuation of the MEG program was approved by the Illinois House of Representatives and the Senate, but never received the final signature of the Governor. Chief Emrikson told the Board that during the past few months, Governor Thompson had merged the Illinois Bureau of Investigation and the Illinois State Police investigation departments and possibly felt that these two departments could capably perform the functions previously handled by MEG.

During the six years the Niles Police Department took part in the MEG program, Chief Emrikson stated the cost to the village was approximately $25,000 a year which included the salary and expenses for a Niles officer to participate in the program. He also said he had received a request from the Wheeling and Franklin Park police departments asking Niles to continue with them in this effort to control the sale of illegal drugs. The cost, in addition to the original $25,000 would include approximately $9,000 more for a vehicle for the officer and vehicle operating expenses based on 20,000 miles yearly usage. Chief Emrikson felt this expenditure of $34,000 to Thursday night we saw Tobacco Road at AFT theatre at Barat College, and the performances were lyrical. The play-it was earthy. The acting was so superb you forgot you were watching actors perform.

The previous week we went to Ravinia and saw Sarah Vaughan. We've seen her many, many times. But she did one medley which was golden. It was magic and you "began feeling it" half-way thru the medley.

There's artistry and grace and moments of glory you can find every once in a while which makes you appreciate the very best.

During the White Sox recent homestay Bump Wills, Texas' second baseman, fielded a grounder backhand behind second base. No chance of straightening up and getting the runner. But shortstop Campaneris came across second base and instinctively Wills flipped the ball to Campy who rifled a fastball to first base nipping the runner. It was a ballet-like play, smooth and rhythmic, and a joy to watch.

Moments of magic are rare but when you see them you know it's magic. Years ago an unknown named Mimi Hines first sang, "There were bells...til there was you" on a late night T.V. show. The audience sat hypnotized, and even being a television set away, you knew this was a special moment. When she finished, the audience rose in acclaim. It was a golden moment and if you saw it, you knew it was special.

If you enjoy good writing I'm sure you're aware of the rhythm of words. Somerset Maugham, like Willa Cather before him, wrote about placing words alongside each other which have a natural flow, a sort of rhythm. Hemingway's short choppy sentences have a definite hit-you-over-the-head effect. Faulkner's never-ending sentences can make you as drowsy as the summer clime he wrote so much about. But Maugham's south sea tales have a smoothly constructed sentence structure which is soft and melliforous as the south sea breezes.

Golden moments in sports are a joy to watch. The long-spiral pass to a loping receiver 60 yards north of the passer is a joy to watch. The perfectly executed basketball

LVW to host 4th District State reps

The League of Women Voters Morton Grove-Niles is presenting an evening meeting at the Niles Library 6960 Oakton, Niles, 8 p.m. Tuesday, August 16.

The meeting is open to all who are interested in meeting your State Representatives from the 4th district Aaron Jaffe, Penny Pullen and Eugene Schlickman. Anyone interested in joining our local League, or if you have any questions, please contact Barbara Blonz, President at 966-8533.

At the Niles Village board meeting on Tuesday evening, trustees approved seven (7) additional stop signs in the area surrounding Golf Mill Park. It was noted this additional control of traffic in the area was necessary due to complaints by residents of the unsafe conditions which prevail. Many children use the park facilities and have difficulty reaching them due to the lack of stop signals and signs in the area. Speeding vehicles have created a problem which prompted Niles trustees Marcheschi and Pesole to check the area and their recommendation for the seven (7) stop signs should regulate the flow of traffic in the Golf Mill Park area, thereby creating more safe traffic conditions.

The signs are scheduled to be erected at the southwest and northeast corners of Davis and Grace sts., the northeast, south-

Niles Bicycle Safety Patrol

For the second straight year the Village of Niles Bicycle Safety Patrol are patrolling through the entire Village of Niles. The Village of Niles was the first community to start such a program, which since has been initiated by several other villages.

The main function of the Bicycle Safety Patrol is to help reduce accidents involving bicycles and motor vehicles. Violators who disobey driving laws are issued a summons and have to appear with a parent at a bicycle violations hearing.

Maine GOP at Sportsman's Park

Demos complete 4th District candidate screening

The Democratic Committees of the 4th Legislative District have completed their first session of Candidate interviews. Nicholas Blase, Maine Township, Cal Sutker, Niles Township, Don Eslick, Northfield Township and Don Norman of Wheeling Township have interviewed potential candidates from each Township for State Senator and State Representative. They have indicated that there will be further candidate interviews in November.

Mr. Blase said, "I was surprised at the number and quality of persons seeking our endorsement for the 4th District positions. The Democratic strength is growing in the 4th District." Mr. Sutker added, "We have interviewed many fine men and women for State Representative and Senator in the 4th District. It will be difficult to choose from this fine list of candidates."

Don Eslick stated that he was in favor of one more interview session in October or November of this year. He said, "I feel that many more persons will be interested in running in the 4th District. Evidently, there is a feeling that 1978 will be the year to elect a Democrat as the 4th District Senator." Persons interested in being interviewed for the Democratic Candidates for State Representative and Senator should call 692-3388 for further information.

Oakton to display proposed budget in local libraries

Copies of the proposed budget for Oakton Community College for 1977-78 will be displayed beginning August 12 in the public libraries of all communities in the college district, including those in New Trier and Glenbrook which were annexed to Oakton on July 22, according to David Hilquist, vice president for business and finance.

Hilquist said that the proposed budget will be balanced, the ninth consecutive year that Oakton has kept expenditures within its income. He estimated that the new budget will exceed $10 million for the first time. The tax rate of 22.5 cents per $100 assessed valuation will remain unchanged.

NILES ALL AMERICAN SENIORS CLUB
Fifty of our Seniors spent the day at our second annual outing at Arlington Race Tracks. We dined in the spacious air-conditioned Classic Club on a sumptuous chicken dinner enjoyed by everyone in our group. From our tables we had a panorama view of the countryside, a very good view of the tracks and were seated within a stone's throw of the para-mutual windows. Time passed by swiftly until race time as we studied our programs on the merits of the horses, odds, jockeys and special comments pertaining to the horses. This paid off as we had several Daily Double and Quinella Winners. Much to our surprise the third race was dedicated to our Niles All American Seniors Club. Naturally, since this was 'our race' members placed their bets on their favorite. "Extra-Extra" was the winning horse, and as an extra bonus a group of us had our picture taken with the winner. Whether we won or lost we all agreed it was an exciting and wonderful day.

Clara and Len Leonard recently celebrated their 54th Wedding Anniversary. We all wish them many, many healthy, happy years.

Niles Fire Department to hold CPR classes

Classes in Cardio-pulmonary resuscitation (CPR) for the residents of Niles will be held beginning in September under the direction of the Niles Fire Department's paramedics.

According to Fire Chief Albert L. Hoelbl, the weekly sessions will be held each Monday evening beginning September 12, from 6:45 p.m. until 10 p.m. at Fire Station #2, 8360 W. Dempster Street.

CPR, as it is commonly referred to, is the most advanced and efficient life saving technique developed in recent years, primarily used for heart attack victims. Thousands of victims, who most certainly would have died, have been given a second chance at life because someone knew how to administer CPR.

According to Firefighter Richard Valkanet, Coordinator of the department's paramedic division, and a paramedic himself, anyone over 18 is welcome to attend. He urged that participants should wear casual clothes because training will include actual simulated rescue attempts with Recording-Anne, a life-like rubber mannequin. Also included in the training will be the viewing of an extraordinary film called "The New Pulse of Life."

CPR combines external chest massage and mouth-to-mouth breathing by either one or two rescuers. The technique will be practiced with the mannequin on the floor, where most victims are found.

Those interested in the classes should contact the Niles Fire Department by calling 967-6104 Ext. 12 as soon as possible.

Local students inducted into Honor Society

Mr. Frank Ahrens, Principal of St. John Lutheran School, Niles, is proud to announce that three of their young students have been inducted into The Society of Distinguished American High School Students. Students from St. John's are Lisa Gracenic, Sandra Rappold, and Julie Schmidt.

The Society, which is one of the nation's foremost high school honoraries, inducted these students because of their excellence and leadership in church and civic achievements according to Mr. Ahrens and Rev. James M. Herzog, Pastor of the Church.

The National Awards Program is sponsored by 21 of America's finest colleges. Thousands of dollars in scholarship funds from these colleges are made available to Society members. Sponsor F. Ahrens received a National Appreciation Award for his efforts on behalf of the students and stated that "I am extremely proud of these exceptional students and the honor that they have received. It's surely one that they will cherish the rest of their lives."

One of the Society's guiding principles is to "promote both academic and civic achievement on the high school level by recognizing students in its Membership Registry. The Society of Distinguished American High School Students, which is published annually.

Skokie Valley VFW wins State Convention

Winners of the first place trophy for marching units at the recent Illinois State VFW Parade held in Des Plaines, Illinois were the Skokie Valley Post No. 3854 of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and its Ladies Auxiliary, shown here as they prepared to step off at the parade, which was held in connection with the Illinois State VFW Convention.

Following the all-state parade at the recent State VFW Convention in which Skokie Valley Post No. 3854 of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and its Ladies Auxiliary were awarded the first place marching trophy. Commander Frank Tunk (right) happily served refreshments to members of the Military Color Guard that marched as part of the winning Skokie unit (left to right): Petty Officer-Second Class Mike Ranly of the Navy; an unidentified Marine Sergeant; Air Force Staff Sergeant Jim Compton; and Army Sergeant Nick Zavadin.

Skokie Valley Post No. 3854 of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and its Ladies Auxiliary captured the first place state trophy for their marching units at last month's Illinois State Convention of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and its Ladies Auxiliary held at the Ramada O'Hare and Sheraton O'Hare Inns, Rosemont.

A military color guard comprised of a representative of the Army, Navy, Marines and Air Force led off the contingent and the Post and Ladies Auxiliary were both well represented in the marching ranks. A spirited and comely girls' precision drill team, the Lowery Cadets of Glenview, marched with the Skokians and added a dash of verve and color to the marching display.

Peanut League- World Series

Number One

of the first inning with walks by Bobby Gattuso and Jack Pullen, a double by Fred Beyer and a triple by Nick DiNapoli to score the only two runs of the entire game. The second inning for the White Sox had single hits by Dargis and Bacci but left the inning scoreless. After that, the game turned into a pitchers duel and excellent defensive play on both the Indians and the White Sox Teams. Indian pitchers were starter Scott Johnson, Bobby Gattuso, Nick DiNapoli and Jack Pullen. Solan, Richardt, and Bacci were the White Sox pitchers. This was the final game of the World Series as the victor only had to win two games to take the series. The Indians won this second game by a score of 2-0.

Now that the season is over for the Indians team, the players would like to say a special thanks to you Ralph Lietz, Manager, who donated more than ample time to the boys for practices and games and also a special thank you to the coaches, Jack Stephensen, Bob Gattuso, and Fred Beyer and to all the parents for re-arranging vacations, and suppers to enable the team to become NUMBER ONE!

Frank Goldberg made a great diving catch in right field. The Orioles pitchers Johnsey and Aaknes did a fine job allowing the Pirates only 2 runs.

Cubs 8, Astros 0:

This was the 3rd shutout of the season for the Cubs which broke the tie for 1st. Outstanding pitching by Allegretti and Calderone. Gambro hit his 1st homer of the season and also collected a single. Calderone had 2 hits and Allegretti, Hazen and Zangara each had 1.

Giants	12-3-2
Braves	11-3-2
Padres	6-7-4
A's	6-10-0
Expos	5-11-1
Red Sox	5-11-1

Padres 6, Red Sox 6
Padres tied the Red Sox 6-6 for their fourth tie this season. Bill Norek had 3 hits including a home run. Rich Szatkowski 2 hits and Mark Menich 2 hits. Padres defense let game, slip away, led 6-0 at one time.

Braves 18, A's 7
Winning pitchers for the Braves were Bill McGrath, Pete Leddy, Tracy Parker and Barry Schrenkel. Bob Berg tripled with bases loaded. Phil Raffin and Barry Schrenkel each had 2 hits. Pitchers-for-the-losers were S. Chamness, D. Pierrro, D. De-Louise and D. Reimer.

Ron Bielski pitched three perfect innings. As the A's took an early lead and went on to defeat the Expos 7 to 3, Dan Pierrro had three hits to lead the hitting attack. Ron Bielski added 2 hits also collecting 1 hit were Scott Chamness, Tom Lober, Dave Riemer, Dan Palowski and Dan Frank.

Giants 6, Padres 3
Ken Ugel homered for 2 runs in the 1st inning to get the Giants started toward their 11th win. Although the Padres tied the game off single runs in the 2nd and 4th the issue was decided with some finality in the last 2 innings when the top 4 men in the Giants order went to work. They accounted for all six runs in one way or another, they were M. Ziebell, C. Piazza, J. Booker, and K. Ugel. C. Piazza pitched 3 innings yielding only 1 unearned run while striking out seven in addition to getting two hits. Joe Booker struck out five in his 3 inning stint. M. Ziebell had 2 K's

Astros 8, Twins 3:
Excellent pitching by Fred Schimmel and Ken Reeve, each going 4 innings. Schimmel saves the game with spectacular catch in center field. 5 runs in 8th win this game for the Astros. Ken Reeve lead an attack with 3 hits including 8th inning triple. Bruce Carbonara had 2 triples, and Bill Murray and Jim Koscher 2 hits each. Fulmanski, Mike Croke and Kevin Croke also hit safely.

Orlotes 6, White Sox 5:
The Orioles beat the White Sox in this game 6 to 5. Leading hitter was Aakness who went 3 for 3. Watts, Johnsey, Larson, Phillips, Nawrocki and Krippinger had 1 hit each. Keeping the pitching going strong for 3 innings for the Orioles was Bob Phillips.

Cubs 13, Pirates 6:
Another win to keep them in first place for the Cubs. Harry Jaffee led the team with 3 hits and 4 RBI's. Hazen, Privratsky, Allegretti, Calderone and Zangara each had 1 hit apiece. Along with the good hitting in this game the pitching by Allegretti, Privratsky and Calderone helped us along too.

Reds 9, Dodgers:
Another win for the Reds to even their loss record with the Dodgers. Good pitching for the Reds by Selden, Borowski and Berg. For the losing Dodgers it was Hanson and Ugel each going 3 innings.

in his single inning. Conversely the Padres succeeded in striking out only 2 Giants. The Giants were more then K. Borowski and M. Menich could control in this 6 to 3 victory.
Giants 5, Braves 3
Chris Piazza suffered through a siege of wildness but kept the Giants in the game with seven strikeouts in 3 and a 1/2 innings or until the Giants bats could take over. They tied the game at 2, yielded a lead run in the 3rd but came roaring back with 3 in the last of the 5th. Most of the game was played in a drizzle under darkened skies creating some problems for the fielders but the contest was relatively free of errors and appeared to be one of the better games of the year as benefits 2 teams trying for 1st place. Bill McGrath matched Chris Piazza pitch for pitch, perhaps even being slightly superior but T. Parker and P. Leddy couldn't keep up the pace against Joe Booker who struck out 6 batters, walked 1 allowed 2 hits and gave up no runs in 3 innings. Al Wilczewski had 2 hits as did (Mike and Ray) the Ziebell brothers and C. Piazza. D. DeSantis also hit for the winners.
Red Sox 12, A's 5

The Red Sox with a 12 hit attack, went on to defeat the A's for their 5th victory. Leading hitters were Rick Rinka who went 2 for 3 including a clutch double. Dave Murray who went 2 for 3 including a triple, Bob Pisani and Rick Colen who both went 2 for 4. Kevin Goczeski took the place of an injured Rob Pullen at shortstop and turned in some fine defensive plays. Pullen with a sore arm played an excellent first base and chipped in with a hit. Dan Busiel pitched 4 strong innings to hold the A's in check. Steve Gattorna, Jim Ratcliff and Dan Busiel also had hits for the Red Sox.

The A's used a walk and back to back doubled by Scott Chamness, Ron Bielski and Dave Riemer to take a 5 to 1 lead, but couldn't hold it as the Red Sox rallied for a 12 to 5 victory in a rain soaked mes. F on Bielski again pitched two perfect innings.

Get rid of the most wasteful part of your air conditioner.

The dirt inside.

Save with regular cleaning.

Your air conditioner does more than just cool. It cleans, too, by filtering dust and dirt out of the air. After awhile, the dirt builds up on the filter, and clogs the air flow. This makes the unit work harder. And that costs you money. Take a few minutes to get rid of that dirt and you'll hold down your operating costs.

How to clean window-unit filters.

Check your owner's manual for specific instructions. If you don't have one, do the following: Pull the plug, and remove the front panel. Lift out the filter and vacuum it. If your filter is made of a sponge-like material, wash it in warm water and detergent. Then let it dry, and put it back in place.

How to clean central-unit filters.

Your central cooling system has a filter, too, usually in the blower section of the indoor unit. Before opening the access panel, turn off the power. If the filter is reusable, vacuum it. If it's washable, wash it. If you have a throw-away filter, or your filter is too dirty to clean, replace it with a new one of the same size and material (note arrow on side of filter indicating direction of air flow).

If your heating and cooling system has an electronic air filter, be sure to follow the cleaning and maintenance procedures recommended by the manufacturer.

Get professional help when necessary.

Occasionally, your air conditioner's condenser coil, refrigerant charge, or motor may need attention from a qualified serviceman. Maintenance of these parts may be best left to the professional. Remember: the less energy you waste, the more money you save. And a clean air conditioner can save you plenty.

Students attend Journalism workshop

High school journalists from the Niles area participated in Ball State University's 12th Annual Journalism Workshops this week, the first of four week-long sessions.

The first week of the BSU workshops, which feature small classes designed for learning the basics of producing high quality high school publications, attracted 236 high school photography and newspaper students.

Niles area students attending the newspaper and photo sessions included Roseann Dalmaso, an employee of Bugle Publications, and Maureen Dulen, newspaper, from Marillac High School.

Students work closely with instructors to solve individual journalistic problems. The success of the workshop is aided by the instructors willingness to spend a great deal of time with individual students, passing along their expertise, according to Marilyn Kimble, workshop director.

All photo-journalism techniques are taught and practiced by the photography students under the directorship of Joseph Glowacki, director of radio and television at Connersville high school.

Students shoot, develop, and print photographs taken during the week. These photos are then critiqued by the students' instructors.

Elements of the modern news and feature writing are examined

Soft shoulders!

This semi-driver found more trouble than he bargained for when he tried to pull his rig off Golf rd. in front of the Key West Apartments and sunk in the soft shoulder of the road caused by the recent heavy rains. The tilting of the body of the truck also caused his load to shift to one side thereby lifting his wheels off the ground. North Maine and Niles Fire Departments and police were on the scene to direct traffic and hose down the highway.

UNICEF's 1977 Jewish New Year card

UNICEF's 1977 Jewish New Year card is very special this year. Designed by Joan Murray of Jamaica, W.I., it features the Star of David in a cut-paper design, laced with gold, and is now on sale at UNICEF headquarters, Room 1502, 5 N. Wabash ave., Chicago, IL 60602. The cards are also available by mail.

The Star, or Magen David in Hebrew, is the universal symbol of Judaism, and the State of Israel, and this year celebrates the year 5738 for Rosh Hashanah, beginning Sept. 13.

Israel, which is receiving UNICEF aid in a special pilot project for pre-school education, is a contributor to UNICEF again this year, as it has been for many years.

The 1977 Jewish New Year cards come in boxes of 10 for $3.50; other favorites are also available priced from $2.25 a box at the Chicago Area UNICEF Information Center, and may be imprinted through the Chicago office. The cards carry the message, "May the New Year bring you peace, good health and joy," in Hebrew and English.

The Chicago UNICEF office is open year-round with holiday and all-occasion cards and gifts with an international flavor. To receive an illustrated brochure, write UNICEF, or call 372-5359.

LETTERS to EDITOR

An open letter to the District 63 Board of Education

The members of the East Maine Education Association Professional Negotiations Team are deeply concerned about the progress of Negotiations to date. Formal sessions have taken forty hours, and eight meetings have taken place: March 15, April 20, April 28, May 19, May 26, June 7, July 18, August 4.

At each session, we have indicated our willingness to meet several times per week; however, the above dates are spaced up to five weeks apart, each representing the earliest possible meeting date available to the School Board Negotiations Team.

The School Board has shown no substantial movement; less than half of the Professional Negotiations Team 77-78 Proposal has been discussed at length; a mere handful of paragraphs have reached the point of Tentative Agreement.

We feel that it is possible, for both parties to reach agreement in just a few sessions of SERIOUS bargaining, for the teachers of

The Bugle urges all its readers to submit Letters to the Editor pertaining to local issues or in response to editorials appearing in the paper. All letters must be signed and contain the name, address and telephone number of the writer. No letter will be printed in The Bugle unless this information is furnished. Of course, this information will not be printed if the writer requests same to be withheld.

'Left Hand' needed to alert residents

Dear Sir:
We read "The Bugle" every week and like it very much. A couple of weeks ago in your column "From the Left Hand" you wondered if your readers were interested in your watch dog part that you look into affairs of Niles. We are two readers who are very glad there is someone like you who brings the affairs of Niles to the attention of your readers. You sound very level headed and are not afraid to tell things as they are. Please don't ever be a yes man to anyone. We need you to alert us. There are a lot of us in Niles who are not happy with some things that go on but we do not know what to do about it or who to see.

District 63 wish to begin th 77-78 School Year with a 77-78 Collective Bargaining Agreement.

Thank you very much for your enlightening articles.

Sincerely,
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gloriana

Mostow's 74 mile walk raises $$$$

When 74 year old Ben Mostow proposed "walking his age", 74 miles in two days for Muscular Dystrophy, First National Bank of Skokie agreed to sponsor the event with a generous contribution to the cause. They even went so far as to offer a trophy prize to the team of walkers who could finish the walk first and pledged a hundred dollars for any team of walkers that could finish up $300 more if Ben was beaten.

That seemed like a fairly safe bet since those of us who had watched the mighty Ben pace off 76 miles for the Bi-Centennial with his 30, 30 inch strides a minute, had literally eaten up the competition at that event.

Ben has been walking over five miles a day since he was a teenager and, though he is 74 years old, his muscle tone and body rival that of today's teenagers... at least that's what First National Bank of Skokie assumed when they made the challenge.

Meanwhile, a group of students down at the University of Illinois Circle Campus; Sigma Alpha Mu members; social affiliates; and The Little Sisters, picked up the gauntlet and went into training for the FNBOS Miracle Marathon Walk, as the event was dubbed.

They rode bicycles and jogged to toughen their muscles but, most importantly, Richard Fogel, who captained the effort, organized four teams of walkers and established the logistics of getting the food and water delivered to the Niles North High School track, the site of the marathon walk...water, coke, gator-ade, Arby sandwiches, potato chips and hamburgers - the fare that makes these young folks run - arrived at the track at regular intervals so that they never had to stop. The invasion of Normandy was no better planned and organized. (Ben makes his walks on a diet of water only.)

The students, staging sprint walks every couple of hours, where they would try to lap the relentless 74 year old Ben, managed to get in the lead and hold it to the end.

The toughest part, according to the students, was to walk away from Ben who carried on a running conversation with the students as they walked alongside him for the two day event. They were all impressed by Ben's endurance and even more by his seemingly endless knowledge of so many different subjects. Ben, on the other hand, commented that these were some of the nicest young folks he had ever met. So everyone won, the students, Ben, and most of all, The Muscular Dystrophy Association.

It's still not too late to send in your contribution - make a check payable to the Muscular Dystrophy Association and send it to First National Bank of Skokie, 8001 Lincoln ave., Skokie, Ill. 60076 care of Carroll R. Layman, Vice President.

Nimrod sees little change in new Workmen's Comp law

As part of his effort to inform the public about significant legislation passed during the recent session in Springfield, Senator John J. Nimrod (R-4th), main sponsor of workmen's compensation reform (Senate Bill 600), told a group of Illinois businessmen that the new Workmen's Compensation law signed by the Governor does not provide meaningful change.

Addressing the Auto and Truck Recyclers of Illinois at their July 28 meeting in Waukegan, he said, "If we are to stop the business community from leaving Illinois with the resultant loss of jobs, the labor-dominated legislature in Springfield must pass meaningful legislation to remove the anti-business attitude which prevails."

The legislation which was adopted made only three changes instead of the nine needed reforms which my bill would have provided. And among those three I have found a defect in one causing that provision to revert to its original status in January 1978.

"I have asked the Governor to include Workmen's Compensation in his call for a special session of the legislature and am optimistic that at that time we shall be able to add the additional points."

Sen. Nimrod, a member of the Illinois Senate Labor and Commerce Committee who also serves on the Labor Study Laws Commission, discussed the abuse of unemployment insurance and emphasized the need for legislation to correct the problems and pass laws on product-liability.

District 207 tentative budget on display

The tentative budget for the Maine Township High Schools for the 1977-78 school year has been submitted to the District 207 Board of Education for review prior to going on display August 5. The preliminary amount budgeted for all district funds is $32,821,750, up 4.3% over last year's budget.

According to Donald E. Kenney, the district's Assistant Superintendent for Business, the hike in budgeted appropriations is necessary because of the increased cost of employee salaries, the continuing increase in the cost of all supplies, services and equipment related to teaching, and to higher heating bills and insurance premiums.

The proposed budget will be on display at the district's Ralph J. Frost Administration Center, 1131 S. Dee rd., Park Ridge, weekdays from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. from August 5 through September 6. It will also be available for public inspection at public libraries throughout the township.

A public hearing on the budget will be held at 8 p.m. on Tuesday evening, September 6, at the Administration Center. Interested persons are invited to attend the hearing and to ask any questions they may have about the budget. Explanatory material will be distributed to members of the press and to all visitors at the hearing.

Official consideration will be given to the adoption of the budget at the regular monthly meeting of the Board of Education immediately following the public hearing.

Central Telephone reports 19.7% second quarter increase

Central Telephone & Utilities Corp. today reported a 19.7% rise in second quarter net income and expressed optimism for its 10th straight year of record earnings.

Primary earnings from continuing operations for the quarter ended June 30 were 73 cents per average common share, up 15.9% from a restated 63 cents per average share a year ago. Net income increased to $16.2 million from the year-earlier $13.6 million while revenues rose 15.3% to $118 million from $102.4 million. The company also noted a 4.5% increase in average shares outstanding.

Robert P. Reuss, chairman and president of the Chicago based diversified utility, attributed the earnings gain to higher demand for telephone services, improved electric earnings and lower interest costs.

Telephone net income increased 18.4% to $14 million from $11.8 million in the year-ago quarter, Reuss said, while revenues climbed 13.7% to $97.1 million from $85.4 million. Net income from electric operations was $2.3 million, up 50.2% from $1.6 million in the same 1976 period.

The company said stronger demand for telephone services in its 10-state service area boosted the growth rate for telephones added over the last 12 months to 7.4%, with the Sun Belt states of Nevada and Texas nearly double the rate. Long distance call volumes ran 11% ahead of the June, 1976 quarter.

For the 12 months ended June 30, CTU's primary earnings were $2.66 per average common share, up 14.2% from a restated $2.33 per average share in the corresponding 1976 period. Income from continuing operations rose 15.4% to $58.2 million from $50.5 million. Revenues advanced 12.6% to $447.6 million from $397.4 million.

"While it would be premature to anticipate that the exceptionally favorable operating results attained in the first half of 1977 can be sustained through the year," Reuss said, "we believe a tenth consecutive year of record earnings is well within our reach."

Sox tickets at Chicago Savings & Loan

White Sox Tickets are now available at all four Chicago Saving & Loan offices. According to Chicago Savings President, Mrs. Philomena D. Pakel, ticket orders will be handled through special Public Service windows at each Chicago Savings location.

"The best available seats will be confirmed instantly through our computer hookup with the White Sox ticket office," said Mrs. Pakel. Then she emphasized, "This service will be a convenience for customers as well as non-customers."

Where mailing time allows, tickets will be mailed to the purchaser's home. All other buyers will be given a receipt (showing their seat selections) which will be redeemable for tickets at Comiskey Park's Pickup

Window on the day of the game. In this way, the purchaser avoids waiting in long lines for tickets bought at the gate, and saves himself a separate trip to the ball park for tickets in advance.

"This is the first of several new community services that Chicago Savings will introduce in the coming months," continued Mrs. Pakel. "As a White Sox fan, I can't think of a better way to start our program of new services. We hope all Sox fans will find our ticket service convenient."

Chicago Savings & Loan main office is at 6245 S. Western ave. in Chicago. With full service offices also at 1065 Oakton, Des Plaines; 3434 W. North ave., Chicago; and 8301 S. Cass ave., Darien.

Glenview State Bank offers student loans

G.S.B., along with the parents of college students, is well aware of the increased costs of higher education today. Because of the financial strain on an ever-growing number of families, the bank reminds the public of their student loan program.

Contrary to the experience of other banks nationally, the Glenview State Bank has had enviable record of extremely low delinquency and very few losses on student loans. Marvin Milazo, Vice President of the bank, attributes the bank's fine record mainly due to the fact that the majority of the loans have been made to the sons and daughters of established customers.

Glenview State Bank has always strived to provide the community with a full range of services, and the student loan program has enabled many hundreds of our young people to achieve a college education, which otherwise might not have been possible due to rising costs.

Under the program, which is run in conjunction with the Illinois Guaranteed Student Loan Program, headquartered in Deerfield, Illinois, loans are granted to students ranging in amounts from $1,000 to $2,500. The loans are made directly to the student, parents do not guarantee the loans.

Interest charged on the loan is at the rate of 7% annual percentage rate and repayment of the total loan amount is not due until after the student graduates, and then it can be repaid in small monthly installments.

Quarterly interest payments must be made on the loan while the student is in school, however, in certain cases this can be waived and interest is paid by the state. For further details on this excellent program, contact the Glenview State Bank.

Chicago Savings conducts women's finance seminar

As part of its on-going program to assist the communities it serves, Chicago Savings and Loan Association, whose Des Plaines office is located at 1065 Oakton, recently conducted a free seminar for all area women that covered every aspect of finance and money management.

Shown above in the Antler Room, Des Plaines' Elks Club, is Margaret A. Beleckis, a representative of the renowned investment banking firm of E. F. Hutton, who conducted the comprehensive presentation.

Some forty women attended the event, and in addition to a multi-media presentation covering such subjects as investments, insurance, taxes, and savings programs each participant received a fact-filled loose-leaf binder for future reference.

According to Philomena D. Pakel, Chicago Savings' President, the event was so successful that further seminars are being planned within all the markets served by the Association.

Besides its Des Plaines branch, Chicago Savings operates full-service savings facilities at 3434 w. North Avenue, Chicago, and 8301 s. Cass, Darien. Its Main Office is at 6245 s. Western, Chicago.

ED HANSON

"How to turn your spare time into sleep" - and other subjects (X rated)

Someone should write a book, one of those "how-to-do-it books", on turning your spare time into sleep.

A man I feel is admirably qualified both from a standpoint of talent and writing technique is Matty Pokuta, esteemed owner of The Landmark, Milwaukee and Dempster, Niles. I wish Matty would write such a book, "HOW TO TURN YOUR SPARE TIME INTO SLEEP". I just know it would become an over-night best seller and make a mint.

I've always felt that everyone has a write, (right), to my opinion. Perhaps, that's why I only like the things I'm fond of. And I've learned to never put off 'til tomorrow what you can completely avoid.

A recent change has occurred -- there'll be no bull fighting at Wrigley field next year as I recently reported. Because the Chicago Cubs finally seem on their way down to the cellar, a new meeting was hastily called to see if their attendance could be bolstered during September. It was at this meeting an idea was born that could change the whole destiny of not only the Cubs and baseball, but the entire sports world. This is what nullified Bull Fighting in Wrigley Field.

In a smoke filled room, at one of our major hotels, Mike Hunt, president of Incest Pictures said to the small but distinguished group present (of which I was one), "Have you ever considered the Cubs playing nude baseball during the month of September?"

Everyone, including the Wrigley spokesman was shocked and stunned. After a silence of a full moment, the Wrigley spokesman spoke: "Just what do you mean, Mike?"

"As you gentlemen know, I own many things, breweries, magazine and book publishing firms, newspapers, several radio and TV stations and so forth." He paused then continued, "But my 'blue' movies, which are more or less of a sideline, are one of my most lucrative enterprises."

"Is such a thing legally possible?" I asked and the others nodded.

"Certainly", replied Mike. Chicago has nude dancing, porno shops, and hard core movie houses. Anyone can find anything they want in Chicago.

"Except bookies", I cut in sadly.

"Except bookies", Mike agreed. "They're bad!"

"Mike, I know you're considered a genius when it comes to making money but ..." the Wrigley spokesman faltered.

"Genius is ten percent inspiration and fifty percent capital gains", explained Mike. He added, "The admission price could be kicked up three times."

One of the lawyer's eyes lit up and he said, looking directly at the Wrigley spokesman, "This could be something -- something big. Let's let Mike finish, gentlemen."

"I would first suggest a test ... say, Friday, Sept. 2nd which is Ladies Day but instead of lettin' 'em in free which has always been a loss, we charge 'em six bucks a head."

"But what about kids?" someone asked.

"No Kids", said Mike. "You gotta be 21 or over. Besides to me, children should be obscene and not heard."

Everyone, except me, laughed at Mike's wit.

"Geel I don't know - I just don't know - will the Cub players go for x-rated baseball Mike?", asked the spokesman.

"Cut 'em in on the big take" replied Mike.

"What about the opposing teams, do they --?"

"No! No! Just the Cubs will shed their uniforms, except for their steel hats and shoes, that is."

"Nude baseball", I said to myself, what is this world coming to.

The matter is under advisement. I certainly hope it will not come to pass. While nude x-rated baseball would give the Cubs a chance to show their raw speed, raw power and raw courage, I think it might give the game a bad name. Mike points out the ancient Greeks in the early Olympic games performed nude and clothes are an invention of man, but still I'm against the idea.

For what if this idea should carry over to other sports - say football.

I can just imagine what the ad-freaks and press agent weirdo's would do to the Chicago Bears, for example.

"Watch the Chicago Bears tonight ..." they'd say, "Be a loyal Bear fan!"

To me the whole idea is unbearable.

"Damn it!" Pinky cried. "Because of my job, I can never get to Wrigley Field on Fridays!"

P.S. The Arab story is postponed because of this important development! Next week the Arab story 'til then write your Congressman and nip nude baseball in the butt.

Craft demo at New Salem

Visitors to Lincoln's reconstructed New Salem village near Springfield will be treated to a special demonstration of old-time crafts on the third Sunday of each month until October, Rep. Pullen (R-4th) reported this week.

"Consumed members of the Federated Junior Club of Springfield will conduct the demonstrations," the legislator said. Members of their families will staff the historic village's cabins, impersonating the original residents and participating in household and farmstead activities typical of the daily chores performed by the villagers in Lincoln's time.

"New Salem is just one of the many historic exhibits to be toured in the Springfield area," Miss Pullen said. She urged everyone to visit the state capital and its environs during the summer season.

If your answer to any of these questions is yes come to the Niles Public Library at 6960 Oakton st., on Saturday, August 13, at 1 p.m.

In addition to the slides there will be many other visual materials pertaining to the King Tut exhibit. Free tickets are available at the desk.

slightly higher at $5.50 per person. Mail reservations may be made by making checks payable to the Men's Foundation and mailing to: Polka Party, Resurrection Hospital, 7435 W. Talcott ave., Chicago, Ill. 60631.

Yankovic won the title of "America's Polka King" in Milwaukee, Wisconsin in 1950. All the major recording companies had their polka bands compete in the contest, and Frank Yankovic has borne the title ever since.

The orchestra scored a big hit with dance patrons at last year's gala benefit party in the hospital's parking facility. Frank and his orchestra offer a broad variety of musical selections, but it's the polkas that really turn on the dancers.

Smolen of Niles is featured as Lieutenant Walker in Lucille Fletcher's startling spingetinger "Night Watch," opening July 20 and running through July 24 in Grunow Theatre at the National Music Camp, located in northern Michigan. The thriller is the season's second offering by high school drama majors in the camp's Theatre Arts Department.

Lee, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Smolen (7014 Carol ave.), is majoring in radio and drama this summer, his first at Interlochen.

Site of the event is Przybylo's House of the White Eagle, 6839 n. Milwaukee ave., Niles. Exhibition hours are from 4 to 11 p.m. each day. Admission is $2.50 per person.

Ronald Herbert and Richard J. Owens of Chicago Cinema, provides a stirring view of the nation's past and present. The film features an English narrative with a background of Polish song and music.

Refreshments, snacks and full dinners will be available. A dance band will entertain nightly in the dining room.

Opening ceremonies commence at 3:30 p.m. on Monday, August 29, 1977, with Connie Exhibit applications and tickets may be obtained by writing to Polish American Exhibition, P.O. Box 48124, Chicago, Ill., 60648.

Safety hints

By Alan J. Dixon (Secretary of State)

Majority of the 6.7 million drivers license holders in Illinois are concerned about their driving records and anxious to protect their right to drive.

The Secretary of State's office receives many inquiries, asking if convictions in other states on driving while intoxicated or moving violations are recorded on their Illinois license.

If convicted in 40 of the states, the answer would be "yes". This is through reciprocal agreements with individual states which report each conviction to the licensing authority of the licensee's home state.

All convictions in other reciprocal states which provide suspension, revocation or limitation of the license to operate a motor vehicle in Illinois are reviewed by the Secretary of State's office when received.

1. Manslaughter of negligent homicide resulting from operation of a motor vehicle;

2. Driving a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or a narcotic drug;

3. Any felony in the commission of which a motor vehicle is used;

4. Failure to stop and render aid in the event of a motor vehicle accident resulting in the death or personal injury of another. (A copy of the newly revised Rules of the Road will be sent to you upon request. Write to Alan J. Dixon, Secretary of State, Springfield, Ill., 62756.

PARK DISTRICT NEWS

"Playground balloon launch" Niles Park District champs

The adventure of free ballooning! Where will the wind carry me? Children enrolled in Morton Grove Park District's Playground Program had the opportunity to find out when they launched, on Tuesday, July 5, 1977 helium balloons carrying self-addressed, stamped post cards in water tight bags. Each card carried the message, "I would appreciate it if you would put your name and address on this side and drop it in a mail box. It will be fun hearing from you! Thank you for your trouble". And the cards are coming back! From Lake Michigan. From the state of Michigan. From Toledo, Ohio! As the cards are returned, the location of where they were found is being plotted on a map which will tour the parks in Morton Grove and then be up on Display at the Prairie View Community Center.

regional representative of this firm said he'd like the chance to discuss with village officials a way to "make everyone happy".

Capt. Schey said he had a record of many citizen complaints and Mr. Shlickman insisted a formal complaint should have been filed so they could appear before a judge to see if the policy of the village had been violated. Residents present said that in 6 years they have complained and never had any cooperation from Jack-in-the-Box before. Juanita Goldberg said she voted against the ordinance because it was discriminating and moved to repeal it. The motion died for lack of a second. Mr. Jansen said the day they were notified of the ordinance being passed against them, they called Fred Huber. Ms. Goldberg then moved to stay the ordinance and after a lengthy period of determining if it could be passed on a 3 to 1 vote with two trustees absent and Flickinger making the vote 3 to 2, the board decided to stay the ordinance for 30 days.

The Plan Commission voted to amend the Special Use Ordinance to limit parking time on the property at 8730 N. Austin to 2 hours time with no exceptions. This request was made by Fred Linsky, owner of the property in question. The board concurred. Then a report was given concerning a Special Use for the property at 8814 Oak Park Ave. where a two unit apartment bldg. is to be built. After an amendment to the original request was offered making a change in the den, the Plan Commission voted unanimously in favor of granting this permit. The board concurred and Juanita Goldberg will call a special meeting of the Beautification Committee to get their approval for this project.

Fred Huber said he had a request from Oakton Community College asking for the privilege of purchasing 1000 gallons of gas per month from the village. Mr. Huber said this was no problem and the board approved this request for 6 months.

Atty. Ashman said he drafted an ordinance regulating garage sales and some provisions are a home may have a sale just once a year, things sold must be owned by the occupant. This does not apply to churches, synagogues, etc.

Mayor Flickinger then reappointed Dr. Carl Moore as head of the Air Pollution and reappointed all of the other members as well. He did the same for the Board of Health and Wm. Simkins will remain chairman of that group.

The mayor then read a letter of resignation from Ruth Sudan who has served as collector for M.G. for many years. He said Fred Huber was planning a party to honor her for her many years of fine service to the village and then appointed Tom Downes as the new village collector effective Sept. 1, 1977.

Joan Deckert said on Aug. 4, there were 95 pints of blood donated.

Juanita Goldberg noted our Sanitarian made 34 food inspections last month, and reported there were 14 dog bites and 12 animal control complaints.

Ron Henrici said that from July 25 to Aug. 7, the Fire Dept. handled 82 alarms. The paramedic equipment was used 8 times. Trustee Don Sneider said he made a study of depressing curbing for the handicapped, and estimated the cost would be about $30,000. He asked Bill Arndt to look into the possibility of securing a grant from the federal government for this purpose since we have no available funds now.

The Village was not feasible since neighboring towns with twice the population of Niles did not participate in the MEG program. However, he did state that the Niles Police Department will continue to cooperate with the Cook County Sheriff who still has 15 men assigned to MEG and Niles will provide help if requested by them.

Chief Emrikson noted the biggest problem with the operation of MEG was the acquisition of "buy" monies. A contingency fund of $15,000 was set up for this purpose, but when this money was used to make a drug purchase by MEG agents, it was non-retrievable since it was used as evidence in court and tied up.

In other business the board approved the adoption of the Revenue Sharing - Appropriation Ordinance in the amount of $280,138 for the entitlement period from January 1, 1977 to Sept. 30, 1977. Ken Scheel, Village Manager stated that this sum involved projects which had already received approval from the Niles Village Board.

.....Ordinance passed approving plat of subdivision at 8635 Stolting rd. where 100 ft. wide lot could be sub-divided into two 50 ft. lots.

.....Ordinance passed approving plats of utility easements for Victoria Station restaurant being constructed at Howard and Caldwell.

.....Vacating of alley approved North of Oakton, South of Keeney, west of Elmore and east of Wisner.

.....Vacating of alley approved south of Church st., west of Maryland and east of Milwaukee ave.

.....Zoning applications referred to Zoning Board from U-Haul of Chicago Metroplex requesting change from B-1 to B-1 with Special Use to allow outside storage of trucks and trailers at 7644 N. Milwaukee. Second request was for change from R-2 to R-2 rear yard set back from required 40 ft. to 38 ft. at 9835 Huber ln.

for long period of time. He said this contingency fund of $15,000 was not sufficient to carry on the MEG program efficiently and since Niles was not going to participate in the program directly, he felt that if the village could make a donation to the Sheriff's office to increase the contingency fund, this would help them to carry on this most worth-while program.

Carol Panek, president pro-tem for the meeting in the absence of Mayor Blase requested Chief Emrikson bring up this proposal at the next meeting of the Niles Village Board on Tuesday, August 23 since Trustees Harczak and Pesole were also not in attendance at this meeting.

Mikva aircraft noise conference slated for Sept. 10

Congressman Abner J. Mikva is sponsoring a conference on the problem of aircraft noise on Saturday, September 10, in Des Plaines. The featured speaker will be Langhorne Bond, administrator of the Federal Aviation Administration and former Secretary of Transportation for the State of Illinois.

The conference will be from 1 to 4 p.m. in the Des Plaines Civic Center, 1420 Miner Street, Des Plaines. People living in the vicinity of O'Hare Airport are invited to testify and anyone interested in presenting testimony is asked to contact Joel Lieberman of the Congressman's Des Plaines staff, 297-0515. Mikva announced the conference after conducting an informal sound survey of a noise-impacted area of Des Plaines at the edge of O'Hare Airport. The Congressman was accompanied by John Cyrocki, regional director of the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA), and Robert Schwank, regional noise abatement officer of the FAA.

"We saw and heard first-hand what it is like to live under a flight pattern leading to the world's busiest airport," Mikva said. "The noise from planes flying overhead every minute or so was so loud and piercing that any kind of conversation was impossible."

In addition to monitoring the sound levels of aircraft, Mikva and the two FAA representatives spoke with residents of the area, in the vicinity of Estes Avenue and Greco Street, about the effects of the aircraft noise on their daily lives. Residents of Des Plaines, Glenview, Niles and Park Ridge have written Mikva about the noise problem.

"The residents confirmed what I have learned from the large volume of complaints I receive from my constituents in the western portion of the Tenth District - that any normal pattern of living is precluded by the whine of the jets, their hearing is affected and in general, they are forced to build their lives around the din of the flights."

The impact on schools is particularly serious as Mikva noted that in many classrooms located in schools under flight patterns teachers must cease talking when aircrafts are flying overhead.

He cited the insensitivity of both the federal government and the City of Chicago for not acting to curb the noise at O'Hare. "Rerouting flights is only a very partial solution. Mostly, rerouting thrusts the problem on other people's ears. The older aircraft must be modified to reduce the noise to a level that is bearable," Mikva said. "The airlines and the aircraft manufacturers will not use noise-cutting technology unless they are required to do so because it is so expensive. The federal government and the City of Chicago, which owns and operates O'Hare, must assume the leadership on this issue if anything is to be accomplished."

Mikva suggested two alternatives for curbing noise. Congress should pass legislation setting strict noise limits and a stricter timetable for implementing noise-cutting procedures and technology. A second way would be to establish regional boards, including representation for those people affected by aircraft noise, to make decisions about acceptable noise levels in the vicinity of major metropolitan airports.

The latter suggestion is the basis of a bill that Mikva has introduced. The legislation is before the House Committee on Public Works and Transportation's Subcommittee on Aviation.

fast break, where the back and forth passes between the lead men precede a layup, is artistry.

Last year in the worst theatre in Chicago, The Arie Crown, we saw Gilbert and Sullivan perform with perfection. We've seen the Geoffrey City Ballet dance majestically. And we thought Joel Gray's role in the film Cabaret, was sheer electricity.

Mike Royko writes the best column in Chicago. Yet, perhaps one out of ten or twenty-five columns is sheer magic. When you read it, you know this is "the one". He can't do it every time. But when he's on target he's superb.

There are unexpected moments of magic. If you've ever flown in a glider, the joy of floating is something very special.

In your younger days you danced with a lovely bit of fluff, and when she floated around the room effortlessly, you knew it was something special.

Music soothes our most savage instincts. We don't appreciate classical music but we know there are golden moments when the Chicago Symphony reaches near perfection. There's a genuinely poor jazz singer named Matt Dennis, who can't sing much, but we can sit for hours and listen to him. He communicates and we can catch certain sounds which we understand.

Thirty years ago we frequented the basements along New York's 52nd st. and often heard magic when saxophonist Coleman Hawkins and trumpeter Dizzy Gillespie played off each other. We thought Dizzy's crazy bop sounds were ridiculous. But together they meshed and the strange sounds had an aura of wonder about them.

Magic is what we're writing about. Magic doesn't belong to the young. It belongs to all of us. And when you get a moment of it - grab hold of it. It's beauty and eternal and you should go to the ends of the earth to rhapsodize with it.
