Zoners consider proposed Kingston conversion advantageous

Board favors conversion to condos

by Alice M. Bobula

A proposal by real estate developer Morris Sison to convert the 12-story Kingston Apartments to condominiums was favorably received by the Zoning Board of Appeals during a second hearing Nov. 2.

Zoning commissioners said the conversion of the apartments at Golf rd. and Western ave. in Niles to condominium ownership Planned Unit Development (PUD) would be advantageous to Niles but declined to hear the petition for lack of documentation required under village code.

Further action was tabled to Dec. 12 predicated on presentation of a certified copy of the trust agreement, action on the village planner's recommendations, an engineering study for projected cost of building repairs, and a report on financing of improvements.

Plans call for 327 apartment units to be divided into 3 buildings of 109 units each. A fourth lot on the land is proposed for a 32-car parking garage, with 2 tennis courts and a putting green on the top of the garage. Also projected is construction of 32 townhouses on 10 acres at the rear of the property which abuts the Golf-Maine Park District.

4 year terms for District 63 school board

School District 63 board member Dick Smith reported Tuesday night 4 year terms for school board members, with elections in off years in November, are likely to become law for the November, 1979 election.

Park Board President Millie Jones told us Tuesday windows in the administration office have been broken twice which have resulted in replacement costing $300 for each window.

Three times in the past five weeks at Grennan Heights, the windows in the doors have been broken costing $200 each time they were replaced.

Millie said graffiti on the slides, and equipment broken with baseball bats have been done wantonly. She added the young trees have been destroyed by peeling off bark, and in many cases, breaking the smaller trees in half.

Park Director Bill Hughes said about $8,000 is spent yearly for replacing vandalism-related damage.

Hughes said Ms. Jones is setting up a study on Nov. 15 to review the vandalism problem as well as the security problem in the park district. She had noted an altercation last week among spectators at Ballard ice rink brought out several police cars to restrain the offenders. Hughes said the park district may have to initiate stronger action to eliminate trouble-makers from the district. Ms. Jones regretfully predicts policemen may have to be hired to police park activities.

In School District 63 vandalism has cost taxpayers about $10,000 annually though business manager Jim Bowen thought it is beginning to lessen there. He said weekends and summertime are the worst times for this destruction. As many as 20 or 30 windows have been broken in one school during one rampage. He recalled Mark Twain School in the unincorporated area had 14 windows broken during one spurge.

In School District 71 Superintendent Clarence Culver contends vandalism is non-existent in his district. A couple of years ago, when there was a problem, he said he went to the PTA and told them their tax dollars were being burdened by this problem.

The Sax girl's body was found in the courtyard of the Madison Elementary School, 5100 Madison st., Skokie by the school's custodian early Monday morning. Skokie police said she has been stabbed several times and a paring knife with a blood-stained blade was found near the body.

Ramazon Genc, 19, a close friend of the juvenile, was charged with concealing a homicide. His last known address was 4915 Hull st., Skokie and he is unemployed.

Lions' Candy Day big success

President of the Niles Lions, Bud Hanson presents a plaque of appreciation to Chuck Gerace, Dean of Students of Niles College. Dean Gerace arranged for the 48 students to help on Candy Day.

Bill Danaher, who singlehandedly collected $114 for Candy Day receives a $25 Savings Bond from chairman Dennis Burns. In the background are many of the students who participated. The money for the bond came from Lion funds and not from Candy Day collections.

With the enthusiastic help of 48 students from Niles College, the Niles Lions Club reached a new high in Candy Day collections. Donations from the public on Friday, Oct. 14 combined with generous donations from business and industry brought the total to just over $5,800.

The Niles Lions will retain about 10% of the net proceeds to aid local residents with vision related problems. The balance will go to the Lions of Illinois Foundation which distributes funds to many facilities geared to help people with sight or hearing impairments. To name just a few — Hadley School for the Blind has provided correspondence courses for many years; Leader Dog trains guide dogs to make the sightless independent and mobile; Dialogue is a recorded magazine which keeps its subscribers informed and entertained.

Candy Day chairman Dennis Burns said, "We thank everyone connected with this effort — the Lion members, their families and the Loyola students. Above all, it is the kindness of the public in donating coins and dollars which made it a big success."

Noted speaker at

Futures meeting

Dr. Hillary Sandall, psychiatrist and Assistant Superintendent of St. Louis State Hospital, was the featured speaker at the Oct. 27 "Futures" meeting at Maine Center in Park Ridge. Representatives from suburban and urban community mental health centers as well as representatives from the Department of Mental Health were on hand to hear Dr. Sandall tell of her experiences in developing "Places for People", a St. Louis based program providing community living as an alternative to long term hospitalization.

In their home environment rather than shelved in State institutions." She further stated that "once the community sees State hospital patients close-up, its fantasy fears evaporate."

In developing community living facilities for hospital patients, Dr. Sandall stressed the importance of developing community allegiance and involvement. Dr. Sandall suggested that in the years to come communities will be developing and supporting apartment programs and group homes as alternatives to hospitalization. State hospitals will focus primarily on servicing the severely mentally ill. She is very optimistic that these programs will be acceptable to the majority of established communities.

"Recipe for Youth" takes top prize in Essay Contest

Food for Thought

BY YOUR FOOD EDITOR
JEAN CRAIG

Youth, as you know, is a delicacy that is sweeping the country. It can be enjoyed in almost any restaurant. In my opinion, as a gourmet chef and your Food Editor, Youth is at its best when brought up by good, loving, and caring parents. Many restaurant owners, cooks, and housewives will agree with me.

Another suggestion for best results after making youth is a good education for it. Below is the key recipe for Youth. Try experimenting with it, but don't mix it with alcoholic beverages because the result is terrible.

YOUTH

Dry ingredients:
2 cups intelligence or common sense

1 cup leadership qualities
1 cup friendliness
2 tbs. happiness
1 tbs. peace

Optional: 1 cup beauty (if not available inner beauty is good)

Moist ingredients:
1 cup conservation
½ cup helpfulness
½ cup care
2 tbs. love
2 tbs. generosity
2 tbs. faith

(for best-tasting Youth use choice ingredients)

Sift dry ingredients: intelligence, happiness, leadership, friendliness, and beauty in a mixing bowl. This way youth will learn the importance of being able to cooperate with people of another color, race, creed, or idea. In another bowl mix moist ingredients: conservation, love, care, and helpfulness until thoroughly combined.

Put mixer on low speed and slowly add moist ingredients to the dry ingredients for 5 minutes. Put in a greased 13 x 9 x 2 pan and let it sit for 1½ hours. Put a dry cloth over pan and watch carefully so that none of the ingredients leaks out. Now bake in a hot oven at 350° for 2 hours. While baking, in another pan melt 2 tbs. of generosity and fry peace in it. When Youth is done, pour fried peace over it and let it cool for an hour. Put it in a refrigerator when cooled and put tin foil over it and let it be for 2 hours. No matter what happens don't ever walk out on it. Serve with 2 cups faith and optional vanilla or chocolate unselfishness. Makes 6 servings.

This delicacy should be enjoyed by all and it should be taught to be a good and helpful citizen. Some grown-ups hurt and discourage Youth because it makes mistakes. But all must learn the Youth must be treated as the apprentices or learners. They will be the future leaders or failures with your help. Remember, a good Youth is one of the ingredients to a good and happy life.

New owners at Krispy Roll Bakery

After 17 years of successful operation, Michael and Marie Bacik, owners of Krispy Roll Bakery at 7633 N. Milwaukee, have retired.

The business has been taken over by Karl and Rosemarie Bornschlegl, who are well known in the area as former owners of the Niles Pastry Shop, 7521 N. Milwaukee, where they have been making all kinds of bakery delights for the past 6 years.

The "Niles Pastry" name will be used at the new address, and Karl and Marie hope their many friends and customers will stop in and see them.

The following statement was read by LWV Vice-President Joan Goldberg to the Niles Village Board of Trustees at a recent meeting in reference to the comprehensive development plan for Milwaukee ave.:

"I am Joan Goldberg, Vice President of the League of Women Voters of Morton Grove-Niles, a non-partisan, grass-roots organization which is concerned with an informed and active citizenry."

The League was very pleased when it was announced that a Comprehensive Development Plan for Milwaukee Avenue was undertaken by the Village. We have examined the recently completed Milwaukee Avenue study conducted by George Marsh, in the context of League concerns, and we want to share with you some of our observations.

"As Niles trustees are aware, the League of Women Voters has been very much concerned with the appearance of Niles. It was one of several issues covered in our "Limited Study of Niles" (1975-76) and presented to this Board last February.

"On page 9 we stated that "Poor appearance, congestion, and lack of proper maintenance bring about decay, decreased property values, and loss of revenue." The League report also mentioned "Ugly signs, the lack of greenery, vacant shopping centers, congested traffic, too much concrete, and the general dearth of beauty and good taste in the village."

"On page 4, section 2, in the Marsh report, similar criticisms are stated. "The image along sections of Milwaukee Avenue has become less pleasant and no longer reflects the high standards sought by the community. Buildings are beginning to show their age. Maintenance and upkeep have fallen off in some properties. Parking areas have become overcrowded and difficult to park in."

9 injured in Niles collision

A Niles man was cited by police Friday, Oct. 28 after a four-car collision at Milwaukee ave. and Oakton st. in Niles which injured 9 people.

Paul Pitrone, 26, of 9215 Woodland was charged with failure to reduce speed to avoid collision after his Buick reportedly ran into the back end of a car driven by Mary F. Lupo, 17, of 679 Castlewood Lane, Deerfield, causing chain-type reaction collisions with cars driven by Carl Campisi, 38, of 6330 W. Holbrook, Chicago and Alberta Sullivan, 74, of 3527 Central rd., Glenview.

Taken to Lutheran General Hospital by Niles Fire Dept. ambulance were Paul Pitrone; Josephine Pitrone, 48; Ida Pitrone, 16; and Joseph S. Pitrone, 9, of the Woodland address; Mary Lupo and passengers in her car, Eileen Joyce, 17, 6804 N. Wildwood, Chicago and Theresa Lupo, age 16; Carl Campisi and his passenger, Karen Campisi, 34.

Police said the four cars were northbound on Milwaukee ave. around 7 p.m. and as the vehicles crossed Oakton st. traffic stopped. According to police Pitrone did not observe the other cars come to a stop because of a violent sneeze.

LWV pleased with proposed Milwaukee Avenue development plan examples of the many concerns we share in regard to the improvement of Niles.

Village employee aids heart attack victim

For well over a year the Niles Police Department, through its coordinator Officer Robert Klein, has assembled a group of Niles residents in the formation of a CB (Citizens Band) Club. This group is known as the "Niles Citizens Alert Patrol". Their function is to patrol village streets, shopping centers and parking lots and to report to the Police Department any suspicious activities or emergencies they might see. This program has been very successful in aiding the Niles Police Department in deterring crime, as well as providing more immediate aid to people involved in an emergency.

Recently one of the Village of Niles employees, Building & Zoning Director Joseph Salerno, while in his car, was monitoring a CB emergency channel when a call for help came over the air. The voice of a man stated he was parked in his car and felt he was having a heart attack. Mr. Salerno, and his son, ascertained the man's location and contacted the Niles Fire Department who subsequently summoned an ambulance to the scene.

The victim, who had a past history of heart trouble, was transported to a local hospital for medical attention; perhaps the man remained alive due to the alertness and help of two CB listeners, Joseph Salerno and his son, Joey.

The Niles Police Department will continue its "Niles Citizens Alert Patrol" and if you are interested in joining this worthwhile volunteer group, you may call the police representative, Officer Robert Klein at 637-2131.

Our problem at Elaine Revell today is not finding temporary jobs for secretaries and typists, it's finding more secretaries and typists to fill the jobs we have. Gans seeks post of county commissioner

Erna I. Gans of Skokie has announced she will seek endorsement by the Cook County Republican slatemaking committee to run for county commissioner.

Mrs. Gans was a candidate for state representative in the 15th legislative district in 1976 and has long been active in civic affairs. She is chairman of the Skokie Youth Welfare Commission since 1967, a member of the Mizrachi Women of America, and president of the Dr. Janusz Korczak B'nai B'rith Lodge. In 1977 she became the first woman ever to be elected as president of a B'nai B'rith Lodge in the United States.

She has been a Republican precinct captain in Niles Township 15 years and is a past secretary of the Skokie Caucus Party. She served as co-chairman of the Skokie-Lincolnwood League of Women Voters.

"Within the Republican Party we have the impression that there is some dissension and dissatisfaction among the Republican commissioners," she said. "As one who has put in many years of dedicated service to my party as well as to my community, I think I could work to bring the Republican commissioners together in fighting for suburban interests. In every work I have undertaken," Mrs. Gans said, "I have performed in a way which has brought pride to those who have supported my efforts for opportunity."

RON BRISK SAYS:

Your Body

RON BRISK

BRISK AUTOMOTIVE

7007 N. Milwaukee Ave., Niles

Your body needs a good massage at least a minimum of twice a year by loving and caring hands. (Fall and spring are the best times.) I am talking about your car body. It is as sensitive and as tough as your own body. It needs a bath to get rid of the dirt deposited on it, and like yourself, your car body likes to be pampered. Instead of powder, it likes a good wax job!

Here are some things to do before waxing. You should check your car for small or large rust spots. Just like a skin rash, rust should be taken care of before it starts to spread, like cancer.

Sand the rust down to clean metal and be sure to use a primer paint as soon as possible, because depending on weather conditions, rust can start up immediately. Then primer paint should definitely be used on raw metal as it helps retard rust, and acts as a bonding agent for paint.

After touching up all the rust, wax the car. Road tar accumulated during the summer can be removed easily with tar remover. If the paint is oxidized (dead paint film), a cleaner should be used (rubbing or polishing compound) before waxing. Chrome and Aluminum can be cleaned easily with different jellies (naval). Whitewall tires that turned yellow can be cleaned with a bleach-type cleaner, and brass brush, to sparkle like new. Car upholstery and rugs are easily cleaned with shampoos and soft brush. (Clean upholstery and rugs last a lot longer.)

Important! Picking out a product to do the job! Stay with a name brand that has been proven and tested. Simonize-Du Pont-J Wax-Turtle Wax, etc. They are proven brands and highly competitive among themselves. Read the cans! Different waxes do different jobs. They are all good! They all do the job they specify. With the salt and bad weather coming, protect your car body with a coat of some sort.

Any problems or questions, feel free to call me.

LETTERS to EDITOR

A satisfied senior citizens club member

Dear Editor:

As a member of the Senior Citizens Club of Niles for the past six years, I am very disturbed by what has happened to our Club in the past seven months and feel all the insults that have been printed about our Club should be clarified.

Our slate of volunteers to work for the Niles Days was set up when most of those members left our Club to join another Niles Senior Club, and it was too late to recruit another set of workers, because of people going on vacation. We have been faithful workers at Niles Days in the previous years.

We all abide by our by-laws of the Club and do not slander other clubs. We keep our membership to 125 members so all seniors of Niles have the opportunity to join a club of their choice.

Rotary fund raisers Girl Scout Center moves to new quarters

Dear Editor:

The letter by Holli Rosenberg in the Oct. 27 issue containing a reference to Rotary Club and street solicitation is not accurate. For the record, the Niles-Morton Grove Rotary has not solicited contributions on the street. Our fund raising activities and personal involvement with community needs are all off the street projects.

While we agree that street solicitation for funds can be hazardous to both the driver, and to the solicitor and inconvenient, our club neither supports the practice nor condemns it. Everyone recognizes the money benefits that accrue to the community from the efforts of all service organizations. Each of these organizations have various programs for fund raising. On behalf of all service organizations we thank the general public for its unselfish support and contributions.

RETAIL SALESMAN USE COMPUTER POWER

If computers helped man to the moon and beyond, a computer can help a commissioned salesman or small businessman stay on top of the competitive field of sales. Tough competition means all your past customers and possible future customers are valuable. Fast, efficient computerized customer follow-up and record keeping is now available for only a few cents per customer. Keeping an active record of proven customers who may buy from you again and following up on sales leads can put dollars in your pocket. Finally the small businessman or single salesman working for a large retail chain can profit by using a computer in the same manner as a salesman for a Standard Oil or IBM.

Very simply, you can make more money by better using what you already have, established customers.

If increasing your income without using a lot of time or effort agrees with you call Galaxy Data today.

Brownie Troop 326

On Oct. 26 Brownie Troop 326 of SJB held its candlelighting investiture ceremony. Lana Bandaccari, Cathy Ann Beierwaltes, Alison Duffy, Susan Drexler, Diane Kuhn, Sandra Keopold, Kristine Miller, and Amy Surace received their pins by taking the Girl Scout Oath and Promise. Mrs. Beierwaltes and Mrs. Miller led the troop in a song program for their mothers. Older girls in the troop are Amy DeLorenzo, Jacelyn and Joann Matlak, Crissy Reid, Janet Rzepiela and Cathy Romanek. Afterwards there was a Halloween party.

A recent gift from the Western Electric Fund gave a welcome boost to the effort. Michael Bochenek, Public Relations Associate, and Robert Hayman, Director of Personnel, presented a check for $1750 to the Council. Stephanie Vick of Elkhorn Grove received the check on behalf of her sister Girl Scouts. The gift raises the total receipts of the capital campaign to $27,835.

Donations from local industry and individual banks have furnished the Girl Scout Shop, the Council meeting room, the reception area, and the staff lounge.

Donors include: Amoco Foundation, Bank and Trust of Arlington Heights, First National Bank of Des Plaines, Gould, Inc., Motorola Foundation, Universal Oil Products, Western Electric Fund, First National Bank of Niles, First Arlington National Bank, and Wheeling Trust and Savings Bank.

The move has proved advantageous; it provided more space, better facilities for volunteers, and a central location in the Council jurisdiction, according to Clarine Hall, Executive Director. "Our volunteers sometimes are using the Center seven days a week," she notes. "We are open on Saturday mornings, we have conducted first aid classes on Sundays, and night meetings go on all the time because many volunteers work during the day."

Records show that a typical busy month might see 500 customers purchasing badges and insignia in the Girl Scout Shop. 75 leaders coming in to borrow everything from compasses to slide projectors, 75 volunteers taking training, 30 committee meetings and countless small informal meetings.

Camping equipment goes in and out the back door in constant rotation during troop camping season.

The campaign continues, with a goal of $56,115 to cover the balance of first priority costs of renovation and furnishings.

"Spartacus," the 1960 star-studded film directed by Stanley Kubrick, will be presented by the Oakton Community College Film Society on Friday, November 11.

Appearing in the film are Kirk Douglas, Jean Simmons, Peter Ustinov, Laurence Olivier, Tony Curtis, and Charles Laughton, with Douglas portraying the Thracian slave whose thirst for freedom turns him into a leader of the slave revolt against the Romans in 75 B.C.

The Levin Foundation supports a number of worthwhile public causes, including the Portes Cancer Prevention Center, to which it make an annual contribution.

Called "a top notch film for admirers of big spectacles," this picture has been praised for many facets -- from Kubrick's perspective on the manhood story and the personal drama involved to the excellent, literate script by Dalton Tumbo. The film includes some well-done, exciting, and graphic scenes set in a gladiator school and a bloody encounter in the arena.

The film will begin at 7:15 p.m. in Building 6 on the Oakton Interim Campus, Oakton and Nagle, Morton Grove. The screening area is accessible to the handicapped.

A donation of 50 cents is requested from Oakton and MONACEP students; $1 from others.

'Train Ride'

MONACEP travelers are invited to join William Stockdale on Wednesday, November 16, for "The Great Train Trip -- Across Siberia and Around the World."

This segment of MONACEP's popular Travel and Adventure Series will begin at 8 p.m. at Maine East High School, Dempster and Potter, Park Ridge.

Stockdale, a free-lance writer, is a frequent contributor to the travel pages of the New York Times and other newspapers and magazines, but he first gained attention during a seven-month walk across the United States in 1949. With his new bride and their dog, Stockdale made his way across 3,525 miles, gathering source material for a series of articles.

He became a professional motion picture producer in 1950 and, since that time, has specialized in filming and writing about unusual aspects of travel, often focusing on such unusual destinations as Baja California, Uganda, and Brazil.

On November 16, Stockdale's itinerary begins with a train trip from Springfield, Massachusetts to Montreal and Nova Scotia; from there, he takes off for London, Scotland, Paris, Prague, and Moscow. He shows how train travel still prosters in many areas of the world, and leads travelers through the longest train ride in the world, aboard the Trans-Siberian express, stopping off in the backwoods on occasion. He continues to Japan where he rides the Japanese "Bullet" and again crosses the ocean to Vancouver for a train ride home.

Admission to this travel program is $2; residents of the Oakton Community College district age 60 and older, $1. Season tickets for this and 6 later traveltours are $8 or $4 for seniors.

LGH's Ambulatory Care Center offers new approach to health care

Pediatrics

A new Ambulatory Care Center, designed to meet community health care needs, recently opened at Lutheran General Hospital, Park Ridge. The center, located at 1775 W. Ballard, provides medical care for families and individuals of all ages in a group practice setting. In addition to providing quality service to patients, the Ambulatory Care Center provides a base for training primary care health professionals.

Primary medical care refers to personal health care that begins with the first contact between patient and physician, usually in an office setting. It expands to continuing and comprehensive care. Much emphasis is placed on preventive practices and the preservation of health.

At Lutheran General's Ambulatory Care Center, physicians in the primary care disciplines of Family Practice, internal medicine and pediatrics are available. According to Jerome Hahn, M.D., director of the center, an individual or family registers for their continuing health care with one of these medical programs. A family may choose to register with Family Practice or it may register children with Pediatrics and adults with Internal Medicine. An Obstetrics/Gynecology program will be available in 1978.

"Each program at the Center has its individual services and facility," says Dr. Hahn, "but there is an overall coordination and cooperation among the programs. An important feature is that patients will have their own personal 'health care team' whose interaction provides a continuity of care. The core of the team consists of an attending physician, resident physician, a doctor of medicine who is acquiring advanced clinical education and experience, a nurse clinician, a registered nurse who has had specialized training, and the patient.

The resident physician works under the supervision of a highly qualified physician who has had years of experience in private practice. Patient care aides complete the patient's team and social workers, pastoral counselors and nutritionists are available as resource members of the team.

Patients at the Ambulatory Care Center receive services comparable to those available from physicians in private practice in the area. X-ray and laboratory services for routine tests and a pharmacy are also available for patients registered at the Center.

According to Dr. Hahn, "We've looked at current trends in health care in the United States such as preventive medicine, patient education and access to quality care and have incorporated these concepts into the Center's programs. Members of a patient's health care team share health information with patients individually or in special group programs. They teach and show

Auditions

The Devonshire Playhouse of Skokie Park District, 4400 Grove Street, Skokie, will hold auditions for the forthcoming Neil Simon comedy "The Good Doctor" at 7:30 p.m. on Monday, Nov. 28, Wednesday, Nov. 30 and Friday Dec. 2.

Persons interested in make-up, costume-making, set-construcor behavioral problems. Each child referred to the program receives a comprehensive evaluation and specific recommendations for treatment. The DAS staff works closely with the child's school and helps the child's family obtain as much help for the child as possible through the school's resources.

"By pulling all these services together," says Dr. Hahn, "and by viewing each individual as a unique, whole person and not fragments of an illness, the Ambulatory Care Center will provide the best possible care for patients and families of the community. This is in keeping with the Human Ecology philosophy of care of Lutheran General Hospital."

Further information about the Ambulatory Care Center may be obtained by phoning or visiting the Center. The center is open Monday through Saturday. Hours vary with each medical program. Patients are seen by appointment and an answering service responds when the center is closed. Physicians of each unit are on call for patients' emergency consultations.

Mortgage rates change at First Federal of Chicago

First Federal of Chicago has announced new mortgage rates effective Tuesday, Nov. 1.

In the 81 to 90 percent category, the new rate for loans to $55,000 will be 9 percent with a 1 percent service charge, private mortgage insurance and $50 closing fee. Previously, the rate had been 8½ percent with a 1½ percent service charge.

In the 80 percent and under category, the new rate for loans under $100,000 will also be 9 percent, plus a 1 percent service charge and $50 closing fee. The rate previously was 8½ percent with a 1½ percent service charge.

Loans over $100,000 will remain 9½ percent, plus a 1½ percent service charge.

"The demand for mortgages in Chicagoland has been exceptionally strong the last several months, and it appears there will be no significant let up through the end of the year," said James C. Fitzmaurice, senior vice president of First Federal of Chicago.

Fitzmaurice said that in the last 90 days at First Federal, a quarter of a billion dollars in loan applications had been received. August and September mortgage application figures set all-time records for First Federal.

To help insure mortgage money would be available in the local market, First Federal recently pioneered in a $75 million public offering of mortgage-backed, pass through certificates. "The

Northwest Suburban Bar Association

Marshall Auerbach, author and sponsor of the newly enacted Illinois Marriage and Dissolution of Marriage Act, discussed the implications of this new law for members of Northwest Suburban Bar Association and their guests on Oct. 12.

The first program meeting of NWSBA's 1977-78 season began with social hour at 6:30 p.m. and dinner at 7:30 p.m. at Club El Bianco, 10067 Skokie Blvd., Skokie, on Wednesday, Oct. 12.

He is a former chairman of the Illinois State Bar Association Family Law Section, a member of the American Bar Association Family Law Section, and a Fellow in the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers.

His talk to Northwest Suburban Bar Association was the first seminar conducted in the State of Illinois on Senate Bill 801, of which Auerbach is the author and sponsor. He reviewed its provisions, touched on new pleading methods, covered amendments to the Paternity Act, changes in marriage, divorce, annulment, separate maintenance and custody, new property and support criteria, and distributed suggested practice forms and other

He feels the district teaches its children to respect themselves and other people. He emphasized the district has a good relationship with the Niles police department which aids in this problem. The P.D. comes into the schools and helps with drug and bicycle safety programs, which Culver believes creates a favorable climate between the children and the police. The lack of vandalism, he believes, is a result of this rapport.

From time to time residents have reported personal vandalism has taken place on their property. Often they fear public disclosure would only increase the likelihood more would take place.

Bill Hughes was unsure whether a structured program to combat this waste would be effective. He said the program would likely reach the majority of people who are family-trained against becoming involved in these crimes.

Whether an advertising campaign publishing the cost of damages would be helpful is questionable. But certainly a concentrated campaign to combat this waste should be considered.

The psyche which says, "Let's do it just for kicks," is kicking everyone in their pocketbooks. It's stupid, it's criminal and it should be handled as a crime.

Youth charged . . .

A resident who saw two youths near Madison School on Sunday evening provided detailed descriptions of each one that matched Gene and his friend. According to Skokie police, Gene implicated his 16-year-old friend after the two had been brought into the police station along with other acquaintances of the girl.

Police said an autopsy would be conducted to determine if there were any other injuries in addition to the stab wounds.

Friends and neighbors, shocked over the horrendous crime, rushed to the family home to offer sympathy and consolation.

The First National Bank of Morton Grove has established a memorial fund in the name of Andrea Sax and Marvin von Aswego, president said the bank has donated $100 to the fund.

Anyone wishing to contribute to this fund should mail their contributions to the: Andrea Sax Memorial Fund, c/o First National Bank of Morton Grove, 6201 W. Dempster, Morton Grove, Illinois 60053 or bring it into the bank personally.

All contributions will be turned over to Andrea's parents and it is indefinite at this time whether the funds will be used for a scholarship fund or November elections.

Municipal, state and national elections would be held only on the even-numbered years. While the cost factor and the voter turnout number are significant, keeping school elections away from other elections would lessen the chance for political parties to become a part of the school election process.

If the legislation becomes finalized, present school board candidates elected in 1977 will have a 1-1/2 year extension of their terms until 1981. Board members elected in 1978 will have a 6 month extension as will 1979 board members.

The opportunity for a referendum to increase the board members terms to 6 years would also be included in the new package of election bills.

In a second discussion Tuesday night, the district citizens' committee, looking into the possible closing of schools, has asked for a door-to-door census in the entire district. Finance predictions will be based on the pre-schoolers in the district. Since every residence unit will be contacted, a complete census of all school children is likely to be included.

It was suggested the PTA groups might help in the door-to-door interviews and the results would be fed into a computer. Business manager Jim Bowen said the computer cost would be about $400, but the follow-up keypunch operation would take 23 days, which would be more costly.

While no decision was finalized, a Nov. 15 report from citizens' groups may activate a census. Superintendent Moe said the figures will be needed quickly to assess future school plans for next year and the winter weather could be an obstacle if the census wasn't started early.

Smith is the East Maine district's representative to the Illinois School Board Association, which will pass resolutions on these two major issues and may well have significant ramifications on future elections.

Presently, board members are elected for 3 year terms. The elections are held each April with 2, 2 and 3 members being elected during the 3 year period. There is never a majority elected at any one election. Under the proposed changes, a majority could be elected every 4 years since 4 members are elected one term and 3 members two years later.

The consolidating referendum for all public bodies for 2 dates a year has been suggested by the League of Women voters and other interested groups which believe this is a necessary economy move. It would also increase the number of voters who would be turning out to vote for candidates at either the April or November elections.

The SAX auto, a 1969 Pontiac, was found Monday morning abandoned in a residential neighborhood about four blocks from the school where her body was discovered.

Andrea was described by her friends and neighbors as a cheerful, well-behaved girl who was quite popular. She was a straight A student at Niles West High School, enrolled in an advanced biology course and

clarifies tax levy basis

Recent newspaper publicity has indicated that taxing bodies such as the Park Ridge-Niles School District levies ten to fifteen percent more money than what the district actually needs. For School District 64, this is not the way levies are established.

For the majority of their tax revenue, school districts are limited in the amount they can levy by fixed tax rates that are approved by the voters of the district. For example, the District 64 Educational Fund has a limit of $1.96 per hundred, of equalized assessed valuation. The recently defered referendum was an attempt to raise this tax rate above that limit. At that time, the district publicized its deficit position. The law provides that no matter how high the assessed valuation, the Educational Fund tax rate for School District 64 cannot exceed $1.96. This fact holds true for funds which make up 88 percent of the total levy. The debt service fund levy is determined when the bonds to build buildings are sold. In the other minor funds which make up less than 8 percent of the total, the levy is determined by the amount of money actually needed in those particular funds. For these funds, the process is exactly the same as used by the City of Park Ridge in that they determine how much money they need and then file a levy in that particular amount.

In the funds where the maximum rate is determined by voters, schools that are in a deficit position traditionally levy an amount sufficient to guarantee that the full rate will be extended. Therefore, the District 64 Board filed an amount of $4,900,000 for the 1976 Educational Fund levy (collected in 1977) but the voter approved limitation of $1.96 called for an actual extension by the County Clerk of $4,447,000, of which the district will eventually collect approximately $4,225,000 because of non-payment of taxes.

For the 1977 levy (to be collected in 1978) the Board adopted an amount that would have taken into consideration a successful referendum in the Educational Fund. Therefore, the levy was extended in an amount of $6,900,000 but due to the referendum defeat, it is expected that the County Clerk will extend approximately $4,704,000.

The net effect of the school district's levy is that the tax rate charged to individual tax payers cannot exceed the voter approved rates in individual funds, plus the rate required in funds such as the Bond and Interest Fund, where the specific amounts needed are levied.

discount priced contingent on Niles approval for conversion, are concerned over presently needed repairs, cost and improvements financing, flood waters and swimming pool repairs.

Chicago attorney Joseph Denenberg representing 70 tenants who have signed options to buy their units told zoning of his clients' concern over present condition of the buildings. "Sun has begun and never finished repairs to building roofs, and not completed the fencing project."

His clients were willing to convert and to pay the price but, Denenberg pleaded, "make Sun comply with village building ordinances" and "have the protective clauses in the condominium conversion ordinance re-enacted."

One tenant who asked that he be heard Wednesday night noted that "some people prefer to rent rather than buy." As a 6-year renter, he said he failed to see how conversion could help the village.

"Most of the buildings should be left rental units," he argued. "If condominiums are wanted, let them erect new buildings."

Com. Charles O'Grady replied that "ownership gives one pride and concern about the building you live in... rental units attract transients," he noted. "When you have people turnover, the buildings deteriorate. Occupied is always better as compared with renter-occupied."

O'Grady noted the possible likelihood that several condos could be bought under single ownership as a "good investment" with projected intention of leasing those not intended for the owner's use.

The study is expected to assess all phases of the Department, in operational techniques, management, leadership and manpower with particular attention given to effectiveness.

Research will be conducted thru village statistics, examination of police records on types of calls, response time, rate of incidents and handling of cases; interviews will village officials and members of the police department; on-the-scene observations and meetings with officials of the judicial system who interact with police members.

Conference to highlight debate on Former Kennedy aide to speak to Niles Democrats

The pros and cons of any national health care proposal spark lively discussion. A full range of opinions on the subject will be aired at a citizens' forum on national health care on Saturday, November 19, in Wilmette.

The forum, which will also give the public an opportunity to express opinions about this controversial topic, will feature a panel discussion by spokesmen for disparate sides of the issue. Panelists will include representatives of the American Medical Association, Blue Cross Association, one of the largest unions in the country and three universities.

The forum will be from 9:15 a.m. until 3 p.m. on November 19 in the Bell School, 3000 New Glenview Road, Wilmette. There will be a break for lunch from 11:45 a.m. until 1 p.m.

There is no charge for admission, but registration is requested by writing to the Consumers' Health Group, 828 Davis Street, Evanston, Illinois, 60201 or by calling 475-0909. Box lunches will be available at a cost of $2 per

Panelists will be Sol Brandzel,

Niles Days committee to headquartered at Trident Center

by Alice M. Bobula

In a second move since inception of Niles Days, the Committee meetings will be held the first Monday of the month at the Trident Center, 8060 Oakton St., beginning next December 5.

Chairman Terry Shevchenko told group members Monday night that the Village Council Chambers were no longer available, for reason of the change. Initially Days meetings had been held in the old Village Hall building at Milwaukee and Touhy, presently the Third District Court.

As chairman for 1978, Shevchenko said he would welcome suggestions and new ideas for the annual July Festival Days. Proposed by the Woman's Club of Niles delegate, new projects suggested for receipt of Festival monies included a Historical Society building and/or land; carillons for the north end of the village; construction of a carillon tower on Administration Building grounds; restoration of Blue Boy, the antique fire pump for use in parades; a structure for preservation and display of the fire pump; perpetual care at Dutchman's Point; and funding of committee for preservation of historical landmarks in Niles.

Also proposed was a Niles Community Fair and Auction to be held as an alternate to the annual Festival Days, for rejuvenation of community interest.

During the Monday night meeting, the Niles Senior Citizen Club of Niles accepted 1977 Festival monies for $382.50, at the same time expressing profound regrets they were unable to provide Theodore Sorensen, former aide to President John F. Kennedy, will be returning to Chicago for the first time since his nomination for Director of the Central Intelligence Agency. He will be the guest speaker at the Niles Township Regular Democratic Organization's dinner on Nov. 19.

Sorensen has been prominent in national Democratic politics for a number of years. He began his career as an aide to Senator John F. Kennedy. When Kennedy became President in 1960, Sorensen joined the Administration as one of Kennedy's closest advisors and sat in on all of the major decisions of that Presidency. Sorensen has been described as Kennedy's alter ego by many veteran Washington observers.

During the last presidential campaign he was an advisor to Jimmy Carter. A man of strong views, Sorensen became the center of great controversy when President Carter nominated him for Director of the Central Intelligence Agency. Sorensen's nomination was subsequently withdrawn. Presently he is engaged in the private practice of law in New York City.

The dinner will be held at the Sheraton O'Hare Hotel, 6810 N. Mannheim, Rosemont. Cocktails at 6 p.m.; dinner at 7. Dancing. Tickets $35 apiece, may be obtained at Democratic headquarters, or by sending a check to the Niles Township Regular Democratic Organization, 4654 W. Oakton, Skokie, Ill. 60076. For more information, call Pat Morowitz, 679-6857, or Carla Sutker, 677-3132.

The afternoon session will be devoted to the panel discussion. Morning session speakers will be Ms. Stoiber; Lawrence Lavergood, professor of business history in Northwestern University's School of Management. Congressman Mikva will give brief remarks. Richard A. Salem, president of Consumers' Health Group, will chair the forum.

Anyone wishing more information about the citizens' forum on national health care, may call the Consumers' Health Group, 475-0909.
