Golden Agers, Niles Seniors at odds over dual membership

Golden Agers from the senior citizens group which meets at St. John Brebeuf complained to The Bugle Tuesday they're unable to be members of the Senior Citizens Club of Niles because the latter group will not allow dual Niles membership.

SCCN president Eugene Koster said the Golden Agers "took" 32 of their members when they left his group and joined the Golden Agers.

Stan Gozdecki, Theresa Land, Eleanor Benson and Walter Jabczyk, all former officers and members of the SCCN, complained they would like to remain members of both groups and believe President Koster is acting arbitrarily in preventing them from retaining their SCCN membership.

Koster told The Bugle his group has a waiting list of 20 members. The 125-person membership is unwieldy, being overcrowded when the group has social functions. He said regular meetings often have 80 to 90 person turnouts each Thursday at the Niles Park Recreation Center. By-laws limit membership to 125.

The Golden Agers contend the Seniors' use of the park facilities, plus its receiving free coffee and biscuits from the park district, makes it indirectly supported by a public body. They contend their tax dollars are helping to support the seniors who meet at the park facility and thus they should also be allowed to join.

Niles also has a 3rd 125-member senior citizens group, the All Americans, which meet every Thursday at the Trident Center. It has a waiting list of 40 persons.

Park opens war against vandalism

by Altee M. Bobula

Niles Park Commissioners have declared war on the ever-constant vandalism and security problems which have been plaguing the District.

The Park Board Tuesday, Nov. 15 set themselves as a Study Committee of five for total review of problems in the parks and to consider possible solutions. The Committee will meet periodically until satisfactory results have been obtained.

Noting that malicious and ignorant destruction to property is "not unique unto Niles but a national problem" Park President Millie Jones called for an all-out war on all park problems...

time we sat down to review every incident.

While "vandalism is always with us," she said, "we must strive to get some definite solutions."

Thousands of dollars are spent by the park district annually in replacement costs of shattered windows, broken park equipment and damage to trees and shrubbery.

The committee favors the possibility of extra park lighting as a deterrent to vandalism and loitering but commissioners will also consider the formation of a park police patrol.

Passing thoughts from The Bugle Book ...

The best (and ultimately, the only) way to make a "good impression" is by becoming who you are, not by trying to conform to anyone else's standard of what you ought to be. Sidney Harris, Chicago Daily News

Washington Post's publisher hired Ben Bradlee as her managing editor, not as much for his news philosophy, but for his ability as a talent finder, because essentially that's what any business is all about.

For more than 30 years, a Chicago junior high school English teacher has taught her pupils to stop reading any book that does not interest them in the first couple of chapters. She figures if the book doesn't hold attention, it is either above or below the intelligence or just boring. Substituting "interest" for "intelligence", her lesson is a useful rule-of-thumb for adults to follow.

Village warns drivers of winter traction problems

While most of winter's cold weather is still ahead, it's not too early for local drivers to review recommended measures for handling winter's seasonal driving difficulties, and Niles Police Chief Clarence Emrikson suggests that traction problems on snow and ice are a good starting point.

"Fortunately, we in Niles aren't the only ones concerned about winter-slick street problems," Chief Emrikson pointed out. "Winter driving research conducted annually by the National Safety Council's Committee on Winter Driving Hazards, has already given us sound information on how to start, go, turn and stop on ice and snow." NSC skid test recommendations are also endorsed by the International Association of Chiefs of Police and, according to the Chief, by road service crews who have to rescue stalled or ditched motorists who were not "winter wise" in winter's ways!

THE WAY TO GO

Pulling traction is the way your car is able to start and keep going in snow or ice; and pulling traction is directly related to the kind of tires or traction aids you use. NSC test findings have developed these facts:

Conventional snow tires offer only a 28% improvement in pulling power as compared with regular highway tires on ice; but they provide half again as much traction as regular tires on loosely packed snow.

Reinforced tire chains pull 4 times better than regular tires on snow; 7 times better on ice.

If you're stuck in snow, turn your front wheels back and forth to push snow away from your tires. Shift to the highest gear; and, with a gentle foot on the throttle, try to ease out without spinning your wheels.

THE WAY TO STOP

Stopping -- a major problem on ice or packed and polished snow -- also depends on tires or traction aids.

Conventional snow tires offer no advantage over regular highway treads in stopping on ice.

Reinforced tire chains are best -- cutting braking distance in half on glare ice.

Regardless of traction aids, "pump" your brakes to slow or stop. This technique helps to maintain steering control.

THE WAY TO STEER

Don't be overconfident just because you have special tires of chains on the rear wheels. Traction aids are of little value in cornering unless they are used on all four wheels. Otherwise, the front end skids out and you lose steering control.

The way to steer is steady and smooth -- anticipating all maneuvers well in advance. Sudden lane changes or turns can put you in a spin.

And Chief Emrikson couldn't resist this final warning to all local drivers:

"In no case can speeds on winter-slick roads begin to approach those on dry pavement regardless of the traction aids you use. You can see why the officers of our department take a dim view of drivers who don't know the way to adjust their speed to conditions -- especially when conditions aren't the best!"

November named Mental Retardation month

"The month of November may mean Thanksgiving to the majority but to thousands of public spirited citizens and to over 1,900 local Associations for Retarded Citizens, it also means Mental Retardation Month," states Sandi Pernick, President of Orchard Village, 7670 Marmora Manor, Skokie, Ill.

"This year's theme for the month," Sandi Pernick added, "is 'Together, we can do more.'"

Sandi Pernick also said that this year Mental Retardation Month has a special meaning as the National Association for Retarded (NARC) embarks on a new campaign that should have wide, and lasting significance -- a search for cures for mental retardation.

In announcing the new campaign, Sandi Pernick stated that the NARC President, Dr. Frank J. Menolascino, had commented, "we have made great gains in helping retarded persons but now we must rank the crusade for cures for mental retardation as the most momentous decision the Association has made since its inception in 1950."

November generally is the month designated as a focal point for all the local and national activities in mental retardation during the year, Sandi Pernick pointed out. It is the period when radio/TV networks concentrate their public service time on mental retardation messages, when the local units launch their most important special promotions, newspaper coverage, displays and other specific fund raising activities.

Mikva high school interns study prison reform

The need for prison reform and the role of a national prison watchdog group in proposing and accomplishing reform were discussed by Congressman Abner J. Mikva's high school interns at their recent meeting in the Skokie Public Library. The interns' guest speaker was Don Jensen of the John Howard Association's Chicago area chapter.

According to Mr. Jensen, the John Howard Association was formed to direct reform. He cited the disclosure of prisoner abuse in Cook County Jail as a recent local example of the association's efforts to improve the conditions of persons imprisoned in correctional institutions.

An integral part of the group's work involves appealing for public support for efforts to improve the penal system and lobbying in Congress for legislation to effect prison reform.

In another phase of its operations, the John Howard Association offers consultant services to prisons that contract with its specialists to evaluate existing programs and to offer guidelines for their improvement.

Mr. Jensen said that the philosophy of the John Howard Association stresses rehabilitation over incarceration, on the belief that isolating inmates in institutions deters their re-assimilation into society. He suggested community-based treatment work release programs, better counseling services and required restitution to victims as more effective alternatives to imprisonment.

Congressman Mikva's interns meet on a bi-weekly basis to discuss topics they have selected for study. The issues chosen for the 1977-78 academic year include national health care and health delivery systems, the elderly in America, and the world food situation as affected by population growth.

High school students who would like more information about the Congressman's intern program or who would be interested in participating may contact Joel Lieberman at Congressman Mikva's office in the Des Plaines Civic Center, 1420 Miner Street, Des Plaines, Ill. 60016, 297-0515.

Tenth District students who attended the intern meeting are: Caryn Danz, Nick Gumbinger, John Hartnett, Mary Hawley, Bob Jordan, Lisa Jordan and Selim Sekili from Glenbrook North High School, Northbrook; Mike Greenfield and Tom Pissios from Maine Township North; Des Plaines; Larry Diamond, Mike Foran and Harry Rhodes from New Trier East, Winnetka; Abbe Cohn and Florence Rapp from New Trier West, Northfield; Laurie Dubin from Niles East, Skokie; Matt Keenan from Niles West, Skokie; and Howard Packowitz from Niles North, Skokie.

Zubillaga scored the first three goal hat trick of his collegiate career and added an assist. He now has five goals and three assists in 1977. As a senior at Maine East, he earned all-conference and all-state honors.

Ludkowski enjoyed one of his best games of the season in dominating mid field play and igniting the Regent offense in the Rockford College win over Trinity. He has contributed one goal and five assists to the Rockford College offense that has outscored its foes 35-14. As a Maine East senior, Ludkowski was all-conference, all-state, and all-American.

Demon wrestling preview

The Maine East wrestling team should improve greatly over last year's 6-10 record with 10 lettermen returning to the team this year. The two team captains, Brian Boliux and Emil Hernandez, both won district championships last year.

The team is young but certainly not inexperienced. Containing 3 to 5 seniors, the team is mostly a combination of juniors and sophomores.

Returning lettermen are small but mighty 105 pounder Dave Kolbaska; at 112 pounds is tough Bob Coleman, last year's 98 pound district champ; Mike Styne at 119; 126 pound captain Brian Boliux; 132 pound captain Emil Hernandez; solid 138 pounder Darren Van Paymbrouck; Rich Uslander at 145; 167 pound Marc Poulos; big 185 pound Dave Pink; and giant heavyweight Guy Boliux.

Coach Jerry Mucciante says, "We're shooting for goals of district and conference championships, and if we have the right attitude and no injuries, we should do the job."

The Demons take on Forest View at home to open their season November 18. The next day they go to Proviso East.

Porter legislation would prevent SST landings

State Rep. John Edward Porter (R-Evanston) has introduced a bill that would effectively prevent the landing of the Concorde and other supersonic transport airplanes at Illinois airports.

"The people who live near airports that are potential SST landing sites deserve this kind of protection until the impact of noise pollution generated by the large aircraft is fully determined," Rep. Porter said. "There's no doubt that sonic booms and engine noise from the SST's are significantly greater than more conventional commercial airliners, and until the effects of the higher noise levels on health are determined, we shouldn't subject Illinois citizens to these hazards."

Rep. Porter's bill would require the state's Pollution Control Board to set standards for airplane noise levels, and would prohibit supersonic transports from landing at Illinois airports until the noise guidelines are established.

"The statutes that give the Pollution Control Board the authority to set these kind of specific standards state that 'excessive noise endangers physical and emotional health and well-being, interferes with legitimate business and recreational activities, increases construction costs, depresses property values, offends the senses, creates public nuisances, and in other respects reduces the quality of our environment,'" Rep. Porter reported.

State police offer highway condition info

The telephone number for this area is 312/283-6204.

Weather phones are also located in these Illinois State Police Headquarters: Sterling 815/625-6015, Rockford 815/962-7051, Elgin 312/742-7642, Joliet 815/727-5471, Rock Island 309/788-0856, Metamora 309/383-4334, Springfield 217/782-5730, Pesotum 217/867-2217, Maryville 618/345-1330.

Nimrod heads committee on student proficiency

This week Senator John J. Nimrod (R-Glenview) was appointed chairman of a legislative committee concerned with remedial competency testing of grade and high school students. The purpose of the committee, which involves legislators from both the Elementary and Secondary and Higher Education Committees, is to make sure that students do not receive diplomas without being proficient in the basic skills.

The Senator, who is Minority Spokesman for the Committee on Higher Education, has submitted two bills before the Legislature which require that students be tested at the start of their first and second years, and that those who are lacking be given assistance during the year.

The Senate earlier this year passed a resolution requiring the State Board of Education and the Board of Higher Education to submit reports on their testing programs, remedial courses being offered and the amount of money spent on the projects. Noting that the reports are now in, Senator Nimrod said he will present them to the committee, which will hold public hearings if necessary and make a determination on the disposition of the two bills, "so that the Legislature can address this very important problem."

Senator Nimrod will take part in a Panel on Mandatory State-wide Competency Testing Program on Nov. 19 at the Palmer House.

Niles first graders study hospitals 'first hand'

During Pediatric Orientation, Sandy Richter, RN, explains basic procedures children undergo while in surgery while students acting as doctors observe.

More than 25 first graders from Jefferson School, Niles, recently participated in Holy Family Hospital's "Pediatric Orientation" Program. This new community service program is being held every Monday afternoon at the hospital throughout the school year.

The children participating in the play wear hospital garb and explanations are given by various hospital personnel in a child geared terminology. Conducted as realistically as possible, the program enables a child to "undergo" routine hospital admission procedures, receive nursing care, pretend laboratory and X-ray tests and surgical procedures as their peers observe.

Designed for first grade students, the program helps children understand what a hospital is like — to see it as a place of helpful and friendly people, rather than a frightening one.

Using a setting resembling a hospital room and various medical personnel, Pediatric Orientation involves the children in a role playing situation to explain what hospitalization involves. One child acts as the patient, one as the father, one as the mother, and two others as doctors.

Pediatric Orientation lasts about an hour and the participants are given souvenir kits of harmless hospital items to take home. In addition, every youngster receives a certificate stating that he has successfully completed Holy Family Hospital's Pediatric Orientation Program.

Jaffe bill to enlarge state central committee

State Representative Aaron Jaffe (D-Skokie) today introduced a bill to double the size of the State central committee of both political parties.

As the law presently stands, the State central committee of each political party consists of 24 members. The bill would now increase the size of the State central committee to 48 members. Twenty-four members of the State central committee of each party will be elected in the March primary. Under the provisions of the new bill, an additional 24 members would be chosen in 1980 for a two-year term. In 1982 and every four years thereafter, all the members of the State central committee will be elected for a four-year term.

Jaffe stated: "It is becoming more and more apparent that the State central committee of each political party is becoming more important in the selection of candidates and in the day to day operations of each political party. Under present law 24 member seems to be quite restrictive and does not permit participation by a great cross section of the populace. By increasing the membership two-fold, it is the hope of people who support this type of legislation that women and other groups which have not traditionally been represented in the party councils will now be able to run for those party offices and be successful in attaining them."

Safety Hints

- This is the time of year when the danger of driving in fog at night is always a possibility, and can cause not only a collision but a chain series of accidents.
1. The best rule for fog is to avoid driving. If you must drive, there are some things you can do to cut down the percentage of accidents.
    1. Sharply reduce your normal driving speed.
    2. Reduce speed still more when you see headlights or red taillights. The headlights may be on a vehicle which is being driven down the center of the roadway, and the vehicle with the taillights may be stopped on the road, or just barely moving.
    3. Be prepared for an emergency stop, and keep within the limits of your vision. If the fog becomes so dense that you can barely see, cautiously pull off the roadway and stop.
    4. You will see more clearly if your headlights are dimmed. Certain types of fog lights are helpful.
    5. If you have a passenger or passengers, alert everyone to watch for lights ahead on the road.
- (A copy of the newly revised Rules of the Road booklet will be sent to you upon request. Write Alan J. Dixon, Secretary of State, Springfield, Ill., 62756.)

Forum invites public opinion on national health care

The health consumer who is concerned about the quality and cost of health care today is invited to express an opinion about national health care at a citizens' forum on Saturday, Nov. 19, in Wilmette.

The forum is scheduled to stimulate public discussion on such questions as whether a national health care program is needed, who should be covered by such a program, who should pay for it, who should administer it and what will happen to the quality of patient care under a national health care plan.

There is no charge to attend the forum, but registration is requested by calling 475-0909. The forum will be from 9:15 a.m. until 3 p.m. on Nov. 19, in the Bell School, 3000 New Glenview rd., Wilmette. There will be a break for lunch from 11:45 a.m. until 1 p.m.

The forum is being sponsored by the Consumers' Health Group, an Evanston-based citizens organization, Congressman Abner J. Mikva and Northwestern University's Center for Urban Affairs. Special guest Susanne Stoiber, director of the special committee that is gathering information for President Carter's national health care proposal, will speak and hear citizens' comments at the forum.

To stimulate discussion, the morning session will include remarks by Ms. Stoiber and Congressman Mikva. Lawrence G. Lavengood, professor of business history in Northwestern University's School of Management, will give an historical perspective of national health care. Consumers' Health Group president Richard Salem will chair the forum.

During the afternoon session, a panel discussion by six representatives of widely differing views on the health care issue will be the starting point for public discussion. The panelists represent the American Medical Association, Blue Cross Association, one of the largest unions in the country, and three universities. The committee headed by Ms. Stoiber is gathering information and opinions on national health care from throughout the country before submitting its report to President Carter. The President is expected to announce his national health care proposal in his State of the Union message in January, 1978. (Ms. Stoiber is director of National Health Insurance Analysis for the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare's Office of Planning.)

This forum is the only information-gathering session being held in the Chicago area before the committee submits its report to President Carter, and is made possible by a grant from the Illinois Humanities Council.

The panelists during the forum's afternoon session will be Sol Brandzel, manager of the Chicago and Central Cities Joint Board, Amalgamated Clothing and Textile Workers Union; Alfred Faber, M.D., a member of the American Medical Association's Committee on Legislation and its executive committee, Neil Hollander, vice president, health care, Blue Cross Association; Theodore R. Marmor, associate professor at the University of Chicago's School of Social Service Administration; John L. McKnight, associate director of Northwestern University's Center for Urban Affairs; and Gwynne R. Winsberg, associate dean of Loyola University's Stritch School of Medicine.

Reviewing the program for the Citizens' Forum on National Health Care are (l-r): Karen Hillman of the Consumers' Health Group; Richard Salem, president of Consumers' Health Group; Congressman Abner J. Mikva; and Lawrence Lavengood, professor of business history in Northwestern University's School of Management.

House considers social security package

Congressman Abner J. Mikva authored two major changes in the Social Security law that would enable retired persons to increase their supplemental income without losing their Social Security benefits and make the system fairer to widows who wish to remarry.

The Congressman's proposals were approved by the House Ways and Means Committee and included in the Social Security reform package sent to the House for consideration this week. Mikva is a member of the Committee and its Social Security Subcommittee.

"The current ceiling of $3,000 per year on outside earnings is considered by many pensioners as insufficient to sustain a decent standard of living," the Congressman said. "They should not be penalized if they want to continue working."

Under Mikva's proposal, a retired person would be able to earn up to $4,000 in supplemental earnings in 1978 before losing any Social Security benefits. The income ceiling would rise to $4,000 in 1979.

The bill also changes the benefit program to assure equal treatment for men and women. One of the changes is the abolition of the "sin tax", a provision that revokes a widow's individual Social Security benefits upon her remarriage. The new proposal would allow senior citizens to remarry without fear of losing their individual benefits.

The overall impact of the Ways and Means Committee's version of the legislation is to strengthen the Social Security system by shoring up its trust fund.

"Gloomy predictions about the fate of the Social Security system have confused many senior citizens and caused them unwarranted distress. The Social Security system is not being allowed to go bankrupt. The measures proposed by this legislation will relieve pressure on the system and keep it strong," Mikva explained.

Over 300 compete in Skokie roadrun

The Annual Skokie Youth Commission Roadrun was held under clear skies for the seventh time since 1969. The running athletes traveled the streets of Skokie beginning and ending at Niles West High School. Meet director, Pat Savage and his assistant, Ron Campbell along with Sue Goldberg of the Skokie Youth Commission organized a really terrific roadrun.

The Skokie Youth Commission Roadrun was the first big-time roadrun when it was first held in 1969. Now, on almost any weekend, you can find runners and joggers competing in meets.

The start of the race would have made good newsreel coverage as the over 300 runners followed the Skokie Police down Austin and on to Oakton Street. Traffic has to be halted as the onrushing crowd of runners ran nearly the width of Oakton. As the athletes crossed the Eden Expressway, they were packed tighter than rush hour traffic on the Edens. As the runners again crossed the Edens at Niles Center, they were spread out single and double file for a half mile. Nearly as many spectators as runners cheered the athletes as they neared the finish line.

Top finishers from the Skokie area included Ed Santacruz who won the high school division, Tom Riley and Bill Chamberlain of Oakton College who place 2nd and 4th in their division. Pat Savage of Niles West who finished 4th in the Coaches Division, John Armour of NW and H. Stanstead of NE who ran 2nd and 4th in their division, Ron Campbell of NW who ran 2nd in his division, and Jenny Campbell who ran 4th in the Grammar School Girls division.

A 41 year old Skokie accountant parked in the Golf Mill parking lot Nov. 5, and returned to find the car estimated at $2,000 missing. Also gone was an $830 stereo tape player, a radar range and 2 color TV sets worth $463.

Phone calls
Approximately 30 telephone calls were received Nov. 4 between 9 p.m. and midnight by a 38 year old north Niles resident who said the caller said "Hello" and then hung up.

A Nordica housewife told police Nov. 7 she was overwhelmed by unwelcome attentions of (1) harassing phone calls from a woman who wanted to enroll a child in the victim's nursery school, (2) visits from a burglar alarm repair man to her home (she had no burglar alarm), and (3) home deliveries of pizzas which she did not order. A telephone caller with a midwest accent threatened the life of a north Niles housewife and her husband around 10 p.m. Nov. 7.

Lost or stolen
Approximately $3,500 in jewelry was reported lost or stolen by a 43 year old personnel manager while in process of moving from Des Plaines to Niles at the end of October.

She told police she placed the pouch containing her bracelets, rings and earrings on a side table during the move and has been unable to locate it to date. Police said there were no apparent signs of forced entry.

Lawrencewood broke a small sliding door and 2 windows during the early morning hours of Nov. 5, causing $100 in damages. Tijuana Taco, a restaurant at 7830 Milwaukee ave., reported a rock thrown thru 2 glass doors Nov. 4 causing $100 in damages.

An Elizabeth st. resident said vandals broke his apartment window with a rock at 10 p.m. Nov. 5 and returned 45 minutes later to break another one, causing estimated damages of $100.

Theft from auto
A CB radio valued at $150 and $250 in 8-track tapes were reported stolen from a 1973 Ford wagon parked in the Golf Mill parking lot between 7:30 p.m. and 10 p.m. Nov. 5. The victim said thieves also broke into the glove compartment taking registration and other personal papers.

Bad checks
A local savings and loan reported cashing 2 fraudulent checks Nov. 8, one for $487.78 at its Niles building and another for $944.64 in Morton Grove.

Both checks drawn on a Court Reporters firm were made out to a Niles resident who said someone forged her signature.

Officials learned approximately 2,500 checks had been stolen between the printers and the Reporters offices and that the checks are being cashed in this area.

That's a crock!
A Des Plaines dock helper was approached in Golf Mill around 10 p.m. Nov. 9 by a man in his early 20s who offered to sell him a $90 crock for $20, which he said was stolen.

When the victim refused to buy the man fled. He was described as 6 ft. 2 in., weighing 180 lbs., with reddish brown hair and dressed in blue levis and yellow T-shirt.

Theft of wallet
A Des Plaines accountant reported theft of his wallet while in a retail store in Golf Mill during the evening of Nov. 9.

He told police while trying on several pairs of pants in the men's dressing room, he placed wallet and checkbook on a chair in the room covering them with clothing.

He returned to find the clothing and checkbook on the floor and the wallet gone containing $18 in cash, driver's license and 17 credit cards.

Four hubcaps valued at $480 were taken Nov. 2 from a McHenry dentist's 1977 Cadillac coupe parked in the Millionaires Club parking lot at Golf Mill.

Tapped out
Property damages of $1,000 were caused in Motel 6 at 6450 Touhy ave. when vandals turned on faucets and closed drains in a rented room Nov. 5.

The manager told police he investigated complaints of water dripping down into rooms under the one he rented to several young males earlier in the evening. He found the room drenched in water, broken chairs, mirror and twin beds. Extensive damage was reported to the rooms below to carpeting, walls and ceilings.

Possession of marijuana
An 18 year old Niles girl who attempted to elude a police car at 2 a.m. Nov. 9 was charged with possession of marijuana and making a left turn with no signal. She was released under bond pending a December court date and her 18 year old female companion was released without charges.

According to police the girl accelerated her car when she noticed the patrol car behind her and attempted to outwit police by turning into a driveway and shutting off the car lights. Police said the motorist exited the car in an attempt to escape and dropped a plastic bag containing marijuana.

Thieves broke into the Washing Well, a carwash at 8595 Dempster st. overnight Nov. 8, taking $100 in cash and causing an estimated $25 in damages to the door.

Your Heart

Your car battery is the heart of your car. Without it, you can't start your car, make it run, light your way, clean your windows, defrost your windows, heat and cool your car, light your cigarette, supply music, signal your turns, etc. Golly, it sure does a lot of things, doesn't it? Things you have taken for granted. If you bought your car new, the manufacturer put a battery in that would take care of all these needs PLUS!!

Let's assume old Betsy (my bride Gloria's term for her car) is now about 2 1/2 or 3 years old. Old Betsy's heart is about to need a transplant. After three summers and three winters of extreme heat and cold, her heart is tired. If you're like the average person, your old Betsy has about 30,000 miles on her. She's not worn out by any means, just that her heart is tired. Old Betsy has been good to Glo, and she has a choice of several hearts to get for her.

The "Can't Hardly Die Heart" - sounds like a real good one and priced right. Glo said to me: I said to her, "Say babe, do you remember when I had the Service Station? Our buddy Stasch came into our station and bought everything from us." "Yes, I remember," she said. Well, for three years or more I checked his battery, filled it with water, kept his terminals clean, and serviced his battery. Then one day I took a test on the battery and told him that it was getting weak. The first cold snap might prove fatal for it. I said he would probably need a new battery before fall. He took my advice. He went out and bought the equivalent of a "Can't Hardly Die Battery." I flipped out! After servicing his old battery for three years at no charge (I gave full service). He said to me, "Ron, you couldn't beat the price." Two months later we had a cold snap, five days of temperatures around 10 degrees above zero.

The "Can't Hardly Die Battery" died. I got a phone call at home from the local friendly pub at one o'clock in the morning. You guessed it right. It was my old buddy Stasch. He said to me, "Hey old buddy (hic) I'm in trouble. My battery is dead and I need a jump." Needless to say, I went over and jumped his battery for him. (Times like this my bride Glo referred to herself as a service station widow.)

The battery was guaranteed. He went to the store the next day to get his battery adjusted. They adjusted him alright, another $25 worth. They told him he bought the sale battery and his car needed more comp. Meanwhile his wife Mania, who went with him, just to pick up a few things, spent a cool one hundred dollars in the store.

Like one PR man told me, "You got to get them to come back. Like buying a case of coke, you get them to bring back the empties and you've got them for another sale."

So why leave the gang every time the phone rings?

Evanston Federal sponsors retirement savings clinics

How qualified persons can establish a tax-sheltered retirement savings program will be explained during clinics which will be conducted by Evanston Federal Savings and Loan Association in its Community Room, Evanston, on Nov. 29 and Dec. 13. Both clinics will begin at 7:30 p.m. Both are free and open to the public, but reservations are required.

The clinics on Nov. 29 will deal with Individual Retirement Savings Accounts (IRSA). The clinic on Dec. 13 will review Keogh Retirement Savings Accounts for the self-employed.

These clinics are intended for persons not already participating in a qualified pension or profit sharing plan. Such persons may set aside a percentage of their annual income in an IRSA or Keogh plan. For Federal Income Tax purposes, contributions to a personal retirement savings plan are deductible from gross income, and taxes on such contributions and the interest they earn are not due until retirement, when most people are in a more favorable tax bracket.

Those interested in attending either of the retirement savings clinics should reserve a place for themselves by calling Mrs. Petersen, 869-3400, ext. 63, no later than Nov. 25.

Centel loses bid for PP&L control

Central Telephone & Utilities Corp. has agreed to Pacific Power & Light Co.'s request to terminate negotiations for the purchase of PP&L's 80.4% controlling interest in Telephone Utilities, Inc., Ilwaco, Wash.

On Sept. 30, the two companies announced an agreement under which CTU would have acquired PP&L's stock in TU for the equivalent of about $54 million. TU is an independently operated holding company which serves 150,000 telephones in five states. The companies agreed Nov. 8 to end further negotiations after PP&L indicated a desire to retain the telephone properties in its corporate structure. Don C. Frisbee, chairman of PP&L, further indicated that his company has no plans to dispose of its stock holdings in TU in the future.

"We regret the decision," said Robert P. Reuss, chairman of CTU. "Telephone Utilities would be an exceptionally attractive addition to our System.

"Nonetheless, we respect and abide by Pacific Power's wishes."

Basil Paoulos

Joseph M. Des Parte

Basil Paoulos, Joseph M. Des Parte and William R. Alston of ERA Callero & Catino Realty in Niles have reached the $2 million plateau in real estate sales for 1977.

Their performances marked the first time in the firm's history that three sales associates sold $2 million or more worth of real estate in the same year.

Paoulos, a Niles resident, has earned Million Dollar Club honors for five years in a row.

Des Parte, who lives in Glenview, has exceeded the $1 million mark for seven consecutive years. Alston, also a Niles resident, has been in the $1 million-plus category annually since 1974.

All three are members of the Northwest Suburban Board of Realtors.

Joining the Electronic Realty Associates (ERA) marketing group last year has greatly contributed to these and other outstanding sales efforts we are experiencing," said ERA Callero & Catino executive vice president W.C. Walters.

"ERA offers such effective sales tools as buyer and seller protection plans, computerized listings and national referral systems that help our sales staff immensely," he added.

Property taxes

by Henry L. Ford, Executive Vice President, Niles Savings

Property taxes affect almost all of us. If we own our own home, we pay our taxes directly. If we lease, the cost of the tax is included in our rent.

Either way, none of us enjoys paying property taxes. Often, we ask why they are so high. We at Niles Savings have prepared a series of four articles to help you comprehend the factors which contribute to property tax bills.

The series will also explain ways of reducing your tax bill, and tell what can be done if you think your bill is unfair.

We hope these articles are beneficial to you. And, we invite your comments on any or all of them.

PROPERTY TAXES — HOW ARE THEY DETERMINED?

Your property tax bill is based on a series of formulas which take into account three basic factors: assessment (by Cook County), equalized valuation (by the state) and actions of local taxing bodies (your township). Let's look at all three in detail.

COOK COUNTY — THE ASSESSMENT

First of all, what is an assessment? Basically, it is a value placed on property for tax purposes, which represents a certain percentage of the property's fair market value. Percentages vary in different types of properties as explained later. Your assessment is not the actual fair market value of your property.

How does the assessor figure the fair market value of a piece of property? This is accomplished through a review of all the real estate records of sale in the county.

Then, the assessor uses a sophisticated computer program to match these sales, first with their corresponding property assessment, and then with the assessments of similar homes in the same neighborhood. From such comparisons come market value figures for all properties in the county.

After the assessor has computed the fair market value of a piece of property, he applies the appropriate "assessment ratio" to determine the assessment. This ratio enables him to assess different types of properties according to their types, or "classifications".

In other words, the assessor first determines the fair market value of a property, then lowers that figure to a percentage determined by law. Currently, these percentages are as follows:

Single family residential (including condos, co-ops, and apt. buildings with six units or less)	16%*
Rental-residential (over six units)	33%
Unimproved vacant	22%
Miscellaneous property (not for profit)	30%
All other (commercial & industrial)	40%

*To take effect in 1978

This classification system means a tax break for homeowners in Cook County. Here, commercial and industrial property is assessed at 40% full market value, more than twice the rate of homes.

THE STATE OF ILLINOIS — EQUALIZATION FACTOR

After property is assessed and classified by the County, the state applies its "Equalization Factor". This term refers to the process of adjusting assessed values to a single average level, so that there is uniformity in applying tax rates. The purpose of equalization is to promote the equitable distribution of the property tax burden throughout the state.

Equalization is necessary because property tax owners in different townships could, for example, belong to the same school district. If the townships were assessing at different levels, the actual tax bills for residents could vary greatly, even though both towns were in the same school district.

In 1976, the equalization factor for Cook County was 1.4153, which means the state increased the county assessment by over 40%.

YOUR LOCAL TOWNSHIP — THE TAX RATE

We are now down to the final step in the computation of your property tax bill. This is the Tax Rate, which is established as a result of levies by your local governmental bodies. Below is a sample tax bill showing levies by separate governmental bodies.

Once a year, the governing board of each taxing unit (township) determines how much money will be needed to operate during the next year. The Tax Rate is then computed at the level necessary to raise the required amount of money.

In other words, the overall formula for computing the property tax bill is as follows:

Property Taxes = fair market value X assessment ratio X equalization factor X tax rate

Example: A home in Morton Grove with a fair market value of $80,000 may have a property tax of $80,000 X 16% X 1.4153 X = $1,800.

The above county, state and local factors can influence your property tax bill. For example, the Cook County Board has decided to reduce the tax assessment level for homeowners to 16% for next year (from 17%). This does not mean that all tax bills will be reduced. A school bond issue or decision to increase sanitary district expenses could cause higher tax bills for the township which approves them.

In fact, the biggest factor in increasing property tax bills is not the assessment. Nor can the inflated values of homes be held fully responsible.

The most important contributor to your property tax bills is the amount of service provided by the township. If a new school bond issue is approved, your tax bill could conceivably go up, no matter what happens to the assessment level of your home.

Suppose after reviewing the factors which go into computing your tax bill, you still feel it is unfair. Can you do anything about it? Yes, you can. There are several ways to appeal or protest your property tax bills. We will cover these in Part 2 of our series, to appear in this same paper next week.

James L. Morrison, Assistant Vice President of Citizens Bank & Trust Company, Park Ridge, was the featured speaker at a recent bank-sponsored seminar entitled, Exploring the Land Trust Myth. The two-session program, designed to acquaint northwest area realtors with the benefits of land trusts for their clients, attracted a total crowd of over five hundred people.

'Warmth for Saving' offer

"The sets were manufactured exclusively for Norwood Federal," Babicz commented. "And, they are appropriate gifts for both young and old alike."

First National resources reach record level

The First National Bank of Des Plaines recorded significant gains for the period ending Sept. 30. In commenting on results, Mr. Arthur R. Weiss, president, stated, "Total resources increased $23,040,604, or 13.5%, reaching a record level of $193,558,544 compared with $170,517,940 a year ago. Total $5.50 per set whenever an additional $50 is deposited to an account.

"Unfortunately, the supply is limited," Babicz continued. "And if last year's experience is any indication, the items will be in great demand; so we urge interested savers to stop by one of our four offices soon to take advantage of the offer."

Besides the main office, Norwood Federal operates full-service branches at 5415 W. Devon and 6205 N. Northwest Highway, Chicago, and 980 N. Northwest Highway, Park Ridge.

deposits increased $22,087,609 to a new high of $158,651,368, a gain of 16.2%. The bank attained a 16.8% increase in net loan levels, reaching $98,734,788, an increase of $14,201,833.

"While the bank recorded increased earnings," Weiss continued, "consolidated net income reflected the increased cost of occupying our bank's new headquarters building, an investment for the future. Net income declined 6.9% to $2.30 per share compared with $2.47 per share for the comparable period a year ago. As occupancy of the new building increases, the bank's carrying charges will diminish."

"The bank building is 60% leased, with the newest tenant being General Telephone Directory Company. The adjacent shopping mall is now complete and many stores are open for business."

Notre Dame Open House on Sunday, Dec. 4

Notre Dame High School for Boys, 7655 Dempster, Niles, will conduct its annual open house on Sunday, Dec. 4, from 1 to 5 p.m. All boys in both parochial and public grade schools, especially those in seventh and eighth grades, and their parents are invited to be the guests of the school. Teachers are also invited to attend.

Members of the Notre Dame administration, faculty, and students will be present to greet the visitors and conduct tours. Displays and equipment of the various departments will be presented. All student organizations and sports will also be represented. Refreshments will be served in the cafeteria throughout the afternoon.

The present freshman class of 278 boys comes from 38 Catholic elementary schools, 29 public elementary schools, and one private grade school. In recent years approximately one out of every five boys in the freshman class, or 20%, has come from a public grade school and remained for four years. In this year's freshman class, 51 boys have at least one brother in school and it is not unusual for some boys to have four and five older brothers who are alumni of NDHS. In the entire enrollment there are 92 families with two sons in school, four families with three sons in school, and one family with four boys in school. These figures remain fairly constant through the years.

Notre Dame High School opened its doors in 1955 and its first seniors were graduated in 1958. Alumni now number over 6,000 in all professions but many have gone into medicine, law, accounting, and dentistry. The school prides itself on an atmosphere rich in the tradition of Catholicism, academics, and athletics. Eleven of last year's seniors are now enrolled at the University of Notre Dame in its freshman class of 1,611 which was culled from the largest applicant pool in the University's history and shows it academically. Two NDHS June graduates are attending Princeton for the first time although other Ivy League schools have been represented in other years. A total of 200 June graduates are in either four or two year colleges.

Private and parochial schools were featured in articles in the North Shore edition of the Suburban Trib on Oct. 19 and 21. The titles were "Insuring Success Can Cost Plenty" and "New Trends Buoy Parochial Schools".

The first article stressed the much closer parent-teacher-student relationship in these schools than can be true in the large public schools. One school administrator said, "We really are an alternative to public schools because we're more demanding, intense, rigorous, and more caring. Students will do better and do more here than in other schools." The second article stressed that parochial school administrators are secure that their strongest draw remains "The fourth R", Religion.

The admissions process for all next year's incoming freshmen starts with a placement test which will be given on Saturday, Jan. 14, 1978, at the school from 8:15 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. Each boy is asked to bring two #2 pencils and a $10 registration fee which covers materials, scoring, and reporting of the test results.

In planning an individual program for a freshman, the school considers scores from the placement test, the recommendations of his grade school principal and teachers, and conducts an interview with his parents.

For further information, please call 965-2900 on school days between 8:30 a.m. and 4 p.m.

Maine Teacher Learning Center Open House

On Thursday, Oct. 27 the Maine Township Teacher Learning Center held an Open House in its new quarters at 8257 Harrison St., Niles.

The Teacher Learning Center was formed over 2 1/2 years ago by teachers from Des Plaines, East Maine and Park Ridge to serve teachers in these communities as a facility in which to produce instructional aids for use in the classroom and as a place to hold classes to promote their own professional growth.

For almost 2 years the Center was located in office space in Des Plaines. In an effort to keep operating expenses at a minimum, the TLC Board of Directors have reached an agreement with the East Maine School District to utilize vacant mobile units behind Woodrow Wilson School. The purpose of the Open House was to introduce the new facilities to the local districts' school boards and administrators.

In attendance was Richard J. Martwick, Superintendent of the Educational Service Region of Cook County. Mr. Martwick is and has been an ardent supporter of the TLC and the growing role it is playing in the professional development of teachers in this area. His financial and moral support have been invaluable in the success of the TLC.

Superintendent Kenneth Moe and Larry Reiss, School Board President of District 63, as well as most of the School Board members, were present and have been most supportive and cooperative. Robert Cowell, Assistant Superintendent, Ann Schillmoeller, School Board Member, Department Heads and Principals representing Des Plaines were present. Park Ridge was represented by Mrs. Jeanne Patt and several principals.

Enrolls at Podiatric Medical school

Enrolling this week at the Illinois College of Podiatric Medicine in Chicago, Neal R. Frankel joins the select freshman class of 177 students.

Frankel, the son of Mrs. Anita Frankel, 8926 N. Oak Park, Morton Grove, will receive a Doctor of Podiatric Medicine (D.P.M.) degree after completing the four-year curriculum. Much of his training will take place in the college's own clinic, the largest non-profit foot clinic in the world with more than 41,000 patient visits recorded annually.

Frankel earned a bachelor's degree from the University of Illinois in Urbana.

ED HANSON

Finally ...

I'm resuming where I left off before I got sick. What made me sick was I read a flock of my old columns that have appeared during the past few years. For several weeks I couldn't write a column without gagging after the first few lines.

Finally, I solved the problem. By holding my nose and typing with one hand I could manage to knock out a short column. In time I'm hopeful I'll be able to gradually increase the size. However, nothing pulls mail like when that little notice appears saying, "Ed Hanson's column will be resumed next week." Many Cub and Bear fans write in saying nice things, like, "I hope your column resumes the year when the Cubs win a pennant." Or, "Why don't you hold off writing a column until the Chicago Bears appear in the Super Bowl?"

Incidentally, my illness affected my brain, too, because after last Sunday's "Bear/Chiefs" thriller, I'm predicting the Bears will win the Super Bowl.

Arvey's Restaurant, 7041 W. Oakton st., Niles, will be open for Thanksgiving. According to George Arvey they'll be featuring Roast Turkey with all the trimmings as well as many other traditional holiday favorites. And remember you can get those super Caesar salads free at Arvey's 7 days a week. Arvey's will also be open for breakfast Thanksgiving Day, too.

Beam 'N Barrel keeps on rolling along with their great food values such as their Lobster Special for only $6.95, their great steaks, both butt and strip, and their Tamous Bar-B-Que ribs. The Beam 'N Barrel is open 6 nights a week. Closed Mondays.

Do you know who the only restaurant in Niles is that offers live music?

It's the Chambers Restaurant, 6881 Milwaukee ave., that offers the ultimate in quality lunches and dinners. Yes, and the Chambers Restaurant offers "live" music - Wednesday thru Sunday with Jo-Ann Karl at the organ.

The Chambers is featuring a November special which consists of the sandwich of the day and a stein of beer for only $1.95. The Chambers serves the finest of gourmet foods for both lunch and dinner 7 days a week.

Jake Joseph, owner of Jake's Famous Restaurant, is rolling out the red carpet - as he always does - for Thanksgiving coming up Nov. 24. Jake will offer a special Thanksgiving menu of turkey and many, many traditional holiday favorites. And Jake's treasure chest will be stocked-up with all sorts of new toys for the little girls and boys. Jake's famous salad bar will offer an array of goodies which are free with all holiday Thanksgiving dinners off the menu.

If you're looking for a place to take your entire family and enjoy the competition of electronic games, pool and foosball, be sure to stop in at Play It Again, Sam!, a new electronic game room located at 9700 N. Milwaukee ave., Des Plaines, next to Finocchio's Pizza.

Play It Again, Sam! caters to the family groups and also has Ladies Nite on Monday evenings. A coupon is offered on Page 6 of this week's issue of all five Bugle Publications with which you can get 2 free games as a Grand Opening feature. Play It Again, Sam! is open 7 days a week, Monday thru Thursday 3 p.m. to 11 p.m., Friday and Saturday 3 p.m. to 1 a.m. and Sunday 2 p.m. to 10 p.m. Also, as a special bonus, if you bring this column in with you you will receive an additional free game.

See you next week ...

Last weekend to catch "Mousetrap"

Agatha Christie's eerie comedy of murders, "The Mousetrap", was first presented in London in November, 1952, and has been running continuously there ever since. Des Plaines Theatre Guild is marking the 25th Anniversary of Miss Christie's most successful mystery melodrama with nine performances of the play this month, ending this week-end at Guild Playhouse, 620 Lee st., Des Plaines.

Curtain time is 8:30 Friday and Saturday, and 2:30 Sunday for "The Mousetrap", which is the second production in DPTG's 32nd consecutive season. Following the final curtain calls by the cast, the set of Monkswell Manor, a lordly manor house in rural England, will be struck to make way for a musical revue on Dec. 2, 3 and 4 by the Guild's Cabaret Theatre. Tickets for either production may be reserved by calling the boxoffice, 296-1211, between noon and 8 p.m. daily.

In "The Mousetrap" Renee Reade of Morton Grove and Edward Ogorek play Mollie and Giles Ralston, a young couple who have recently inherited the manor house and decide to run it as a small hotel. They are expecting their first guests as the curtain goes up. Upon arrival, these guests turn out to be a set of secretive and highly suspicious folk - each of whom has reason to be alarmed when a detective sergeant arrives at the snow-bound lodge by skiing over the snow-drifts. Each of them, including the inexperienced hotel-keepers, seem to have a possible connection with a London murder that is told of over the radio.

It is soon apparent that one of the people in the snowbound house is the psychotic murderer of the London victim, and another is marked as his next victim - but which?

After a number of false clues that point suspicion at each person, and one additional murder is accomplished in stage darkness, the murderer and his third intended victim are unmasked. One is arrested while the other is saved - to the accompaniment of guesses, gasps and goose-pimples in the Guild Playhouse audience.

Michael Sheehan plays the police sergeant who enters on skis

"The Roofer" wins big at Washington International

Will Simpson from Northwest Stables in Morton Grove rode "The Roofer" to victory in the Washington International Horse Show. This show, the second of the three large A.H.S.A. National end-of-season shows, was held from Oct. 22 thru 30 in the Capital Center Arena in Landover, Maryland.

Competing in a field of 35 top junior jumpers, Will piloted "The Roofer" to win the Reserve Junior Jumper Championship. "The Roofer", a 16-hand bay gelding, is owned by Horst Stuckenbrock of Chicago. Will and "The Roofer" took the blue ribbon in the first of the four Junior Jumper classes of the show. They were first to go in to the class and finished as the only clean round!

Will and "The Roofer" won the last class of this division, as well Time First Jump-off - with a perfect first round and a clean and very fast jump-off.

Highly qualified riders and horses come from all over the United States to compete in these three large indoor shows, which start with the Pennsylvania National in mid-October and end with Madison Square Garden's National Horse Show in early November. Entrants are chosen by submitting their ribbons to each show committee; the committees then determine the best records and make their final selections.

Laura Rubenstein tied for second in the singles division in the all-conference selections by the coaches while Maria Bondon, Park Ridge, placed third. Oakton's doubles team of Cindy Nelson and Jill Bocksay, both of Des Plaines, tied for third place in the coaches' doubles ranking.

Maine East ski club activities

Interested in skiing? Maine East's Ski Club plowed into action with its first meeting Oct. 27, but students can still sign up in room 234 before homeroom.

Ski Club has its first Friday night Wilnot trip planned for Dec. 9 so think snow! The prices for each Friday night trip will be $9.75 for lift and bus, and $14.90 for lift, bus and equipment rental. A bus will leave at 2:30 for those with early dismissal, and another one will leave at 3:15.

If you've never skied before, there will be special clinics for new members on Nov. 30 and Dec. 1. Experienced students will explain the equipment to you and also tell you where to go once you get to Wilnot.

This year's Ski Club officers are President Scott DeGraf, Vice President Jon Karr, Co-Secretaries Pam Kirsh and Carol DeFrancesca and Treasurer Mary Beth Fabian.

North West Community Center opening

An open house program is planned to inaugurate the grand opening of the new North West Community Center on Sunday, Nov. 27.

The Community Center is a two-story, 12,000 square foot addition to the Irving Park office of North West Federal Savings, 4901 W. Irving Park rd., Chicago. The ground level of the Center contains a large hospitality room, an activities area, a customer service center and community and public relations staff offices.

The second level of the Center houses the Clyde B. Reed Auditorium, dedicated to the memory of North West Federal's founder and first president. The Reed Auditorium is a fully-equipped facility with 300 theatre-style seats, a large stage, projection booth and refreshment area. It will be used for most of North West Federal's regular on-going programs, clinics and special events and will be made available for use by recognized, non-profit organizations within the community.

Entrance to the Center will be through North West Federal's Irving Park office lobby or directly from the parking lot on Dakin st., just west of the Association's rear entrance. David J. Denwood, North West Federal president, says, "We hope that our new Community Center will be just what the name implies: a center for the community. This fourth major expansion of our Irving Park office since 1950 reflects not only the growth of our Association and our confidence in the community, but demonstrates our continuing efforts to provide additional service to our customers and friends.

"We trust that the Center will be more than just a nice place to visit. We hope its comfortable setting will provide the ideal atmosphere for the many informative, educational and entertaining programs that regularly appear on the North West Federal agenda," Denwood said.

"We extend an invitation to everyone in the community to visit the new Center during our Open House program from 1 to 5 p.m. on Sunday, Nov. 27th," he concluded.

Chicago Mayor Michael A. Bilandic and other city, state and local officials and community leaders have also been invited to the Open House program.

Visitors to the Community Center will have an opportunity to tour the building and meet many of the people who participate in North West Federal's regular program activities including sports director Bob Elson, plant expert Ginny Beatty, needlepoint whiz Wanda Swiet, and nostalgia radio host Chuck Schaden. Rusty Rooster, favorite of the youngsters will be on hand and so will members of North West Federal's newly formed Clown Club.

A number of other special events have been planned for the 10 days following the Open House program: NEEDLECRAFT WORKSHOP, conducted by Wanda Swiet in the activities room, Monday, Nov. 28, 10:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. No charge.

CHICAGO BEAR QUARTERBACK Mike Phipps will be Bob Elson's sports guest and will sign autographs in the hospitality room on Monday, Nov. 28 from 6:30 to 8 p.m.

FUN WITH HOLIDAY DECORATIONS will be presented by plant expert Ginny Beatty in the hospitality room on Tuesday, Nov. 29 at 2 p.m. No charge.

THERE'S NO BUSINESS LIKE SHOW BUSINESS, the Technicolor musical film, will be presented Wednesday morning, Nov. 30 at 10 a.m. in the Reed Auditorium. No charge.

A BARBERSHOP HARMONY SHOW will be offered on Wednesday evening, Nov. 30 at 7:30 p.m. in the Reed Auditorium. Admission, $1.

A MULTI-MEDIA look at North West Federal Savings, Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow will be presented by Chuck Schaden on Thursday and Friday, Dec. 1 and 2 at 2 p.m. and again at 7 p.m. in the Auditorium. No charge.

A RETIREMENT SAVINGS CLINIC dealing with IRA and Keogh plans will be held on Tuesday, Dec. 8 at 7:30 p.m. in the Reed Auditorium. No charge, reservations required.

THE ALVERNIA HIGH SCHOOL CHORUS will present a program of Christmas music on Wednesday, Dec. 7 at 7:30 p.m. in the Auditorium. No charge.

For further details of these special grand opening events, or to make reservations, call North West Federal's Irving Park community service center at 777-7200.

TV production classes

Gary Schutte's advanced television production classes are in the middle of their second project. It is a continuation of their first assignment when they had to try to get across an idea by using visuals only. Now they are bringing audio into play by adding words to the pictures.

They spent the first few weeks in class learning terms and equipment operations. Later this semester students will be involved with producing 30 second commercials, newscasts, and interview shows. Then, at the end of the semester, they will each be doing an individual project. More individual study will highlight the second semester for the students.

To get to advanced television production, the students must have successfully completed inroduction to broadcasting and radio production. The second year class deals more with the technical aspect of TV, as opposed to stressing acting before a camera. "I've found that more boys have taken the broadcasting classes since I took over three years ago," Schutte says.

The fifth year Maine East teacher takes pride in the fact that 70 per cent of his intro to broadcast students tried out for WMTN, the school radio station, and most made it. They will be using the radio station's newly acquired UPI news wire when doing their newscasts. They'll have an hour to get the news from the teletype, edit it, and perform the newscast for one of their grades.

Commissioners marked incidence of a spectator quarrel at the Ballard Sports Complex Ice Rink during a recent Notre Dame hockey game and of intoxicated youth in the parking lot. Solution to this episode will result in employment of off-duty policemen to oversee the next 4 or 5 games, according to Park Director Bill Hughes, with equal costs borne by the Niles Park District and the fathers of the hockey players club.

Ms. Jones noted a new park policy of keeping spectators inside the park building could stabilize conditions. "If they leave, they will have to pay another admission price to get back in."

In other action commissioners unanimously passed a resolution congratulating Nilesite Annette Rogers Kelly on her induction into the Angola, Ind. Track Hall of Fame.

In gaining lasting fame, read the resolution, Ms. Kelly "by her efforts has demonstrated the abilities necessary to accomplish these feats and has now established high standards by which the efforts of others can be measured . . .

Koster said the problem is "...we don't have the facilities", pointing to the overcrowding of his group. He suggested Mary Kay Morrissey, the professional social worker at Trident, should form additional groups to satisfy all those who desire membership. Koster said the park district has nothing to do with the group he heads except provide the Thursday facility.

3) For a period of 120 days, any tenant shall have the right to purchase the apartment at a discount even after the first of the new year. (But he also feels the village can't tell the developer how much to charge for the apartments.) 4) The apartments shall be shown only during the last 120 days of tenancy and only during certain specified hours. 5) Tenants should get a one-year warranty that everything is in good working order and good shape including the unit and its appliances. 6) No deed shall pass unless all provisions of the Village Code are met.

In connection with this building, Commissioner Hajek said he was drawing up a form and before the deal is closed, each apartment will be inspected by him prior to purchase. Tenants said they received a letter stating the building was sold to the Uptown Service Corp. and was being managed by Baird and Warner. Then on Nov. 2, 1977 they were notified the building would go condo. They needed to put up $1,000 by Nov. 15, and then another 10% by Dec. 15. They said outsiders have been coming in and deposits have been taken from some of them. After much discussion Don Sneider moved to adopt the ordinance drafted by Atty. Ashman as read. The ordinance was passed unanimously.

Administrator Huber said it was recommended the low bid of $8.80 per hour from the Nels Johnson Co. of 912 Bitner ave. in Evanston be accepted for the tree-trimming program. The board agreed.

Chief of Police Norman Glauner reported the loss of Patrol Officer Sam Spina who passed away after serving with his department since March of 1960. Chief Glauner said many attended a Mass for Spina today and stated he will be greatly missed by all.

The chief then noted Officer Rossler will be speaking on Senior Citizens at the University of Illinois.

Clerk Jerry Schuhrke announced new Vehicle Stickers will be on sale at the Village Hall for $15 and should be purchased by Feb. 15. There is a discount for Senior Citizens.

Atty. Ashman said municipal employees are now covered under Unemployment Compensation. Trustee Gregg Youstra said his Transportation Committee is still studying a request to have recreational vehicles park on village streets and mentioned a report would be coming soon. He also stated some senior citizens are looking for homes or apartments in Morton Grove and would like anyone having something available to contact him. Reduced taxi fares subsidized by the village are still available for seniors and they are urged to take advantage of this. Youstra also announced that Dec. 1 is the last day for seniors to file for Senior Citizen tax rebates.

and biscuits served were a courtesy the park district provided the seniors. She was exasperated when she was told the Golden Agers complained about this use of public funds.

Koster also thought the coffee and biscuits was "much ado about nothing". He laughed when The Bugle informed him Golden Agers complained he was selling some of the biscuits his group receive free from the park district. He said 10 or 12 biscuits left over were sold to persons desiring to take rolls home. He said they just threw their dimes on a table informally.

Koster continuously inquired, "Why are they taking our members?" Koster also said in 1974 seniors applied for funds from Niles Days money. He said it was then agreed only one senior group would receive the funds. He said since then the groups have applied for funds from Niles Township as well.

According to the Golden Agers the park seniors have $2,800 in their treasury and received $500 from the township and $382 from Niles Days. Dues are $4 for membership for one year, ending Dec. 31.

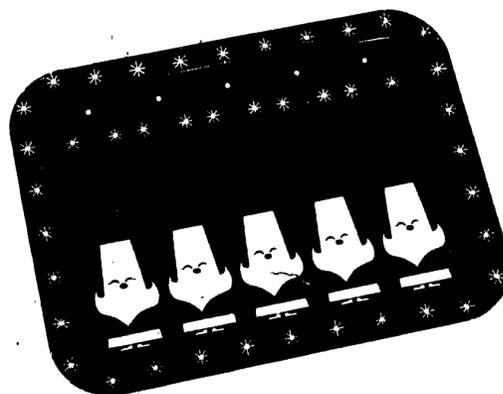

The Golden Agers note they have paid their SCCN membership thru this year but they are not being allowed to attend this year's Christmas Party. When The Bugle inquired, Koster ended the conversation by saying, "We don't want to go into it. This is as far as we want to go with this," though Koster said he would meet in person to discuss the matter.

The Golden Agers came to The Bugle to resolve their problem. Stan Gozdecki said, "We don't have long to go," and would like to join as many groups as they desire. He said they had asked Mayor Blase for help with this matter but Blase told them he did not want to get involved.
