Delinquent drugstore owner promises restitution

Police Tuesday located the owner of a Niles drugstore for information regarding bills paid under drugstore agency which allegedly had not been turned in to utility, newspaper and photo film companies crediting customers with payment. Edmund Laski, pharmacist of Niles Drugs, 8001 Milwaukee ave., came to the Niles police station late Tuesday morning as a result of police inquiries. He had become concerned over decreasing income at the drugstore he told police and simply "locked up the store and went away for the weekend." Consumer Fraud Director Frank Wagner earlier had received a dozen inquiries which he had turned over to the State's Attorney's office Friday, Feb. 10 for investigation.

Wagner said consumers began calling the Fraud Division in Niles after they received notices from utility companies that their bills had not been paid although they had made payment thru the drugstore agency. A spokesman in the State's Attorney's office said Monday they had received "up to 100 calls" and at that time requested callers to bring in Xeroxed copies of receipts bills to be placed on file at 7166 Milwaukee ave. Most calls originated from Niles she said. Asst. State's Atty. Terry Sullivan said Monday no formal charges had been made. "The case had been referred to us by the Village of Niles and we are in process of compiling all facts and information to determine whether there has been a violation of the State Criminal Statute." Early last week a "closed" sign had appeared on the door subsequently followed by a 5-day landlord's notice dated Feb. 24 and a Certificate of Occupancy charging new tenants to report to village authorities prior to opening.

632 East Maine residents jammed the Apollo gymnasium Tuesday night to hear District 63's school board announce it will be closing Ballard and Wilson schools effective July 1, 1978. The Johnny-come-lately audience, power groups which fought for keeping their local schools open, sat in muted silence when the school board voted on whether or not to close three schools in the district - Ballard, Melzer and Wilson. Melzer residents, who were the loudest and the largest group, continuously voiced objections to its school closing, based on the danger of crossing Golf rd. and going to the proposed new receiving school, Washington. Had Melzer been closed, students north of Beckwith would have been transferred to Washington and those south of Beckwith would move to Nelson School. But after Melzer parents hammered at the board not to close their school, the Board unanimously voted against closing Melzer. In the last vote taken around midnight, the Board voted 4 to 3 to close Wilson School. The 3 to 2 tie was broken by Board President Larry Reiss, after he Continued on Page 25

While the upcoming management report on the mismanagement of Niles' police department will be couched in very gentle business terms, the word "Boss" will be the key term spelling out the problems down at the old police station. The "boss" has three connotations: one - the present Niles police chief is really not the boss; two - the real boss, Nick Blase, runs the department with the same lack of personnel expertise as has existed for the past 25 years, and three - the Boss' boss is the police chief's eager beaver who is really running the department.

Melzer School parents are up in arms since hearing their school may be one of those closed in School District 63. We were told parents have held 3 meetings since Saturday, incensed their wunderkind will have to move to another school.

Attending the public meetings, as well as school board meetings, we attendees anticipated there would be fireworks when school closings were announced. Where, oh where, have these parents been? As long as their apple cart wasn't upset they stayed away from the meetings. Now they are directly involved, so they're finally showing up at meetings.

Old "Doc" Lessin, a District 63 school board member, got his come uppance at a Caucus meeting 2 weeks ago. The Caucus, a ragbag group of residents who know little about school matters, did not give Lessin the necessary 10-vote majority which would give him endorsement by the group. Meanwhile, fellow school board member Phil Deckowitz received 18 of 19 votes, clearly getting Caucus support.

Deckowitz spoke in very general terms in citing school board accomplishments. Lessin, a rather windy guy, told Caucus members about his personal accomplishments as a Board member. Continued on Page 24

Maine East pancake day Diabetes screening program at MG Library

A smile goes with the service on Saturday, March 4, when the Maine East High School Athletic Boosters offer all the pancakes you can eat with sausage, juice and coffee or milk for just $1.75 donation. You can have breakfast, brunch or lunch from 8 a.m. until 1 p.m. in the school cafeteria at Dempster st. and Potter rd.

Many people do not realize the serious health problem posed by diabetes. It is the third leading cause of death by disease, the leading cause of blindness and a major contributor to heart attack. Neglecting to identify and treat diabetes may lead to increased risk of high blood pressure, stroke, gangrene and kidney disease or failure. Anyone can become a diabetic. Statistics indicate that one of every twenty people will suffer the illness. Detection of diabetes in its early stages is vitally important, for once detected the disease can be treated and controlled. In a continuing effort to identify health problems, the Morton Grove Health Department plans a free diabetes screening program for Village residents. The screening will take place on March 13 at the Morton Grove Public Library from 9:30 a.m. until 3 p.m. The test is free but an appointment is necessary. The blood-sugar test is to detect new diabetics, not for previously diagnosed cases. Test results will be available immediately. To make an appointment or for more information, call the Morton Grove Health Department at 965-4100. Transportation for senior citizens is available, but limited. Seniors desiring rides are encouraged to call the Health Department as soon as possible.

Jones bids adieu to Park Board and Niles

by Alice M. Bobula
Niles Park Commissioner Millie Jones said last week she will not fulfill her 6-year term on the Park Board. Her final Park Board meeting as a commissioner will be in April. Regretful at the necessity to leave Niles, Ms. Jones pointed out the need of a larger home for her family.

While she may suggest a candidate for the 1-year vacancy created by her departure Jones indicated final decision by remaining Board members; "although it will be difficult finding someone with an interest in the park district."

Intentions to remain in Niles gradually dimmed said the blonde commissioner after looking at available homes. "Niles is very attractive but the type of house Glenn and I are looking for are at a premium within the village and in the surrounding areas."

Relocation with husband Glenn and their two sons to Bloomington, 20 miles distant, will be intricate she noted, with future sale of their Niles home and acquisition of the new one whose owners are building elsewhere.

Jones, 33, turned her interest toward the Niles Park District two years after moving into Niles from Chicago. She was the first woman to seek a park seat on the Board and won election for a 6-year term in 1973.

In review the park commissioner noted the "Park District is presently at its best in programs offered and is very well balanced among ages in

Niles... "the most recent, known as Ladies Choice program, has enjoyed fantastic participation."

"Participation in park programs draw best from central Niles, which seems to be where votes come from," she offered.

On present park issues it was her wish the commissioners continue combined efforts to resolve park problems "not only vandalism, but people in parks doing things they shouldn't be doing and causing difficulties for area residents."

Co-operative efforts between village and park have improved greatly... "we've made fantastic strides in that area," she said noting two park buses received thru village revenue-sharing funds, reciprocal borrowing of equipment and adoption of village ordinances on vandalism and police security.

"I would hope this will continue... the co-operation was something that came somewhat slowly and will result in ultimate benefits to both park and village," she commented.

With a further look to the future Jones spoke highly of the recent $120,000 Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA) grant under which security will be maintained by park rangers. "If all goes well we may be able to obtain further funding to continue the program."

Rumblings have lessened over acquisition of nearby homes to expand Jerry's Fruit Market's parking lot she said.

Jones spoke of the Park District's need for a maintenance garage "we really need one but can't decide where to put it."

Also needed is more gymnasium space, "but not to the point of construction... it would be better to pursue more agreements with school districts similar to the use of Gemini Jr. High thru District 63."

Jones was put on the finance committee as her first responsibility to the Board, later becoming vice president then president of the Park Board.

Notre Dame Cagers on all-conference basketball team

Notre Dame's senior forward Jeff Patton (r) and junior forward Ed Puisis (l) have been named to the East Suburban Catholic Conference All-Conference basketball team. Patton and Puisis were named to the ten man squad by a vote of the conference coaches.

Patton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Patton, 8307 Olcott, Niles, led Notre Dame in rebounds, averaging 10 per game, while scoring better than 10 pts. per contest.

Puisis followed Patton closely in the rebound department, averaging 9 per game, and he was virtually tied for team scoring honors in conference play with senior Ed Eshoo at 13 pts. per game. Ed is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Puisis, 332 Crescent dr., Glenview.

The all-conference team was led by all-state candidate Isaiah Thomas of St. Joe High School. Conference champions, St. Joe placed three men on the all-conference team; Notre Dame followed with two, while all other conference members placed one player each.

Senior guard Ed Eshoo (Mr. and Mrs. Edward Eshoo, 8113 Osceola, Niles) and senior center Joe McEnerney (Mrs. L.D. McEnerney, Skokie) were listed as all-conference honorable mention selections.

Special guest for the evening was Mr. John Gottselig, former player, manager, and coach for the Chicago Blackhawks. Mr. Gottselig played with the Blackhawks for 17 years and is acknowledged as one of the best stick men of his day. His contributions helped the team to two World Championships during the 1933-34 and 1937-38 seasons. From 1945 to 1948 he was the Blackhawks manager and coach, and then he became publicity director and subsequently the 'Voice' of the Blackhawks on radio and television until 1963. Mr. Gottselig's stories of his active days in the National Hockey League proved most entertaining and informative for all those in attendance.

Some ways to reduce tax liability, according to Steiner, are: State and local gasoline taxes are deductible; you can deduct the cost of preparing your income tax return; fees you incur in connection with determination or collection of taxes are deductible; each casualty and theft loss in excess of a net loss of $100 is deductible; education expenses that maintain or improve your job's skills are tax deductible; starting in 1977, eligible alimony payment are allowed as deductions from gross income and as a result, individuals making alimony payments can use the standard deductions rather than itemize as previously required.

Everyone attending the seminar will receive a free copy of Steiner's book, "Pay Less Tax Legally."

OCC's Anderson seeks re-election

Oakton Community College Trustee Christine Anderson announced last week that she will seek re-election to the OCC Board in the April 8 election.

Anderson, 27, of Morton Grove, was elected to the Board last April to fill one of two unexpired one-year terms. Chairperson of the board's educational programs committee, she has been actively involved in academic concerns. She states that "as construction of the new campus progresses, the forthcoming change from a single to a multi-campus college must be planned for now." She is concerned with the locations where programs and services will be placed "so that the community will not suffer ill effects during the move from Morton Grove to Des Plaines."

Of particular interest to her is extending service to the two newly annexed high school districts, New Trier and Glenbrook. "Off campus courses are increasingly important as the district grows," she states. Anderson wants to use existing facilities for an eastern presence "since so many of our local schools are closing."

Calling herself an activist in promoting better relations between the board and faculty, she initiated a program at the regular public board meetings where faculty make presentations to the board on various aspects of curriculum. "The new exchange between the faculty and the board has created an atmosphere of harmony; this leads to an ideal environment conducive to student learning."

Stressing board interest in quality education, she states that "while the building of a permanent facility is ongoing, educators and boards have a tendency to get so caught up in bricks and mortar they forget the real reason they're there."

Anderson has a masters degree in educational administration from Northwestern University and is a certified teacher. She is familiar with college administration thru her former work at Northeastern Ill. University and at Oakton several years ago. She and her husband have one child.

On Dean's list

Ronald Steven Parker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Weston Parker, 8134 N. Osceola, Niles, was named to the Dean's List of the College of Education of the University of Idaho.

OCC trustee Stiefel seeks re-election

Paul Stiefel, a member of the Oakton Community College Board of Trustees, this week announced plans to seek re-election to a three-year term on the board in the April 8 OCC election.

Before his election to a one-year term on the OCC board in 1977, Stiefel spent six years on the Skokie District 73 Board of Education, serving as president for one year and chairing the Finance Committee throughout his two terms.

Stiefel brought a fresh viewpoint to the OCC board, but in his nine months as a board member, he has become "a firm believer in the community college concept."

"I have seen that anybody in the community who wants either to further his education or to take a refresher class or to study for a vocation or avocation has a place at Oakton," he said.

Stiefel continued: "I like what I see and I am very much impressed by the spirit on the campus—if everyone in the Oakton community can do that good a job in an interim facility, they'll be fantastic when they get to the new campus."

Currently serving as chairman of the board's Finance Committee, Stiefel pledges to represent residents of the entire Oakton Community College area, including the newly annexed New Trier and Glenbrook high school districts.

Stiefel, an engineer, and his wife Senta live at 7452 Kenneth in Skokie. They are the parents of three children.

CHECK IT OUT FOR YOURSELF WITH YOUR ON-BOARD COMPUTER...

We will finance 80% of the sticker price of your car. (This does not include sales tax, optional warranty or "special" options). The annual percentage rate will be 8.86% based on 36 equal monthly payments.

For example, here's how Golf Mill State Bank's new auto loan works with a car having a sticker price of $6,000.

$6,000	Sticker Price	will give you the maximum figure you can borrow on your new car. $6,000 - $1,200 = $4,800
-1,200	Down payment (cash or trade)
$4,800	Loan Proceeds	3. Multiply .0475 by the amount you can borrow and then multiply this answer by 3. $4,800 x .0475 = $228 x 3 = $684. This gives you the total interest you'll pay for the loan over the three year life.
+684	Total Interest for Three Years
$5,484	Deferred Price or Total Principle and Interest	4. Add the amount to be borrowed and the interest to give you the deferred price or total principle and interest. $4,800 + $684 = $5,484.
	or $152.33 Monthly Payments	5. Divide the deferred price by 36 months to determine your monthly payments. $5,484 ÷ 36 = $152.33.

ED HANSON The Entrepreneur...

In response to the many people who have written or phoned as to why I stopped writing my column, the answer is simple. During The Bugle fire last December my Thesaurus became waterlogged. It took all this time to dry out. It is now bloated to three times its normal size but still usable.

Without a Thesaurus I'm powerless because I often have trouble spelling three-letter words like "kat". What hair was to Sampson and is to Farrah Fawcett Majors is what a Thesaurus means to me.

Even the title of this column would have been impossible without my Thesaurus. No way could I spell the word "Entrepreneur" - could you?

The subject of this column is a young energetic man named Tom Ferraro Jr. of Niles. He's a young man we should all make friends with because it won't probably be long when we'll be borrowing money from him. For Tommy is possessed with qualities of which tycoons are made. Some months ago he opened an emporium called Play It Again Sam, 9700 Milwaukee ave., a family game-room with foosball, pool and many electronic fun games. It's doing a thriving business.

And in this issue, he advertises his latest venture - the opening of Boy Blue Ice Cream and Sandwich Shop, 8740 Shermer rd., Niles. (He also has a successful one in Wheeling at Dundee and Milwaukee ave.)

Tommy already thinks big, like a tycoon, because in announcing the opening of his latest Boy Blue shop, he contracted for the back page in all 5 Bugle newspapers. And if you read the ad you'll discover you can get a free morning newspaper with a Ham McEggar breakfast for only $1.09. And for lunch he'll offer sandwiches such as Heros, hot or cold, hot beef, sloppy Joes and Kosher hot dogs. And Tommy Ferraro will feature delicious ice cream specialties all the time.

On behalf of this energetic entrepreneur, Tommy Ferraro Jr., everyone in Niles is invited to come to the Boy Blue at Shermer and Dempster ... this includes our famous and long-time Mayor of Niles, Nick Blase, and all the trustees, including everyone's favorite, Pete Pesole. And all the policemen, firemen, public works guys, Chamber of Commerce members ... in fact, everyone is invited. And Little League coaches can get special team discounts. Boy Scouts, Cub Scouts, Brownies and Girl Scouts can hold their parties at Tommy Ferraro's new Boy Blue.

In this case little Boy Blue didn't blow his horn, he blew a Bugle instead ... you all come now!

Say, if you have trouble with your car getting to Tommy Ferraro's Boy Blue, maybe you need a new one! In that case give Tom Pappas at Dave Cory Ford a ring (647-0444) and make an appointment. For Tom Pappas is both a truck and car specialist and he can put you in a new Ford or a good used car. And for a limited time Tom Pappas will give you a free set of floor mats with the purchase of any car or truck.

By the by, if you need financing for that new car or truck do this: just call the phone that never sleeps - 729-6601 - at the Glenview State Bank, 800 Waukegan rd., Glenview. Loans for new cars are processed fast and you can get a low interest loan for all sorts of worthwhile purposes, vacations, home improvements, tax payments, etc.

And the "phone that never sleeps" even takes applications for Master Charge and American Express Gold Cards ... so ring its bell anytime. Just call 729-6601 and your loan seeking work is done!

See you next week.

Talented Marillac Senior

Under the direction of senior Sue Samorez of Morton Grove, Marillac High School of Northfield kept its tradition of winning performances alive, as the Catholic school captured first place in Loyola Academy's annual Talvuc competition.

The first place award came in the large group category as the girls of Marillac performed dances to a medley of songs entitled "A Rhapsody in Shades of Blue." According to Ms. Samorez, the group was composed of 38 members from the student body and she believes that the enthusiasm of the girls was one of the important elements of their winning performance. "We organized and arranged the act ourselves. It took a lot of work and time to get things together but after capturing the award we all felt it was worth it," noted Ms. Samorez.

Ms. Samorez, a very talented dancer and singer, did almost everything. She auditioned students for parts as singers and dancers, chose members of the band and choreographed the act. Ms. Samorez put in long hours to make the act a winning one, but to her it was a very practical experience. At the moment she is auditioning for a dance spot in the stage play Chorus Line, now appearing in Chicago.

Savings on deposit at the start of the year stood at $240,333,750 and the net of new deposits and interest added increased by $61,117,802 to bring the total at year-end to $301,451,551. The third major benchmark of association activity, first mortgage loans outstanding, also rose significantly in 1977. During the year the total volume of first mortgage loans in the GreatAmerican Federal Savings portfolio moved up from $248,632,065 to $300,851,979. The increase was 21 percent, or $52,219,894.

Dometer credited the association's improved position both to aggressive marketing and continuation of an expansion program launched in 1972. The association opened three new offices and completed a merger with Bellwood Savings & Loan in 1977 to expand to nine the number of its office locations. Three more openings - in Niles, Arlington Heights, and Park Ridge - are expected in the next several months.

Offices now in operation are located in Bellwood, Deerfield, Elmhurst, Elmwood Park, Franklin Park, Oak Brook, Oak Park, and in downtown Chicago at 300 S. Wacker dr. and 230 N. Michigan ave.

W.W. Gizmos tips hat to Niles

by Diane Miller

For those of you who have never been fortunate enough to have had a Dohicky, a Gizworthy or a Universal Widget, now is your chance to enjoy a new experience in the culinary arts.

W.W. Gizmos, 9003 N. Milwaukee ave., Niles is now open to the public and in addition to an extensive breakfast and luncheon menu, the dinner menu features such entrees as Ham Steak Hawaiian, Chicken Cordon Bleu, Lasagna and Mostaccioli. Breakfast specialties include Blitzzes, filled with cheese, and served with your choice of sour cream or a homemade compote. Eggs are served the way you like them with your choice of bacon, ham, sausage, but steak, skirt steak or corned beef hash. French toast, Belgian waffles and pancakes are also available and are bound to appease the hardest appetites.

The sandwiches with the catchy names include the Dohicky, grilled ham and melted cheese between slices of French toast; the Gizworthy, chopped zircon with your choice of 4 cheese toppings on black bread, and the General von Steuben Rubeen which consists of corned beef and sauerkraut piled high on rye and covered with melted cheese. Other eye catchers and appetite appeasers are the Overstuffed Club, Ginger T. Snap, and the Admiral Wacker.

For those who delight in ice cream creations and after-theatre treats, the Shussboomer, a fountain delight consisting of 3 scoops of assorted ice cream flavors topped with strawberries, pineapple and fresh bananas and chocolate sauce. The final touch is mounds of whipped cream, chopped nuts and a maraschino cherry.

Don't miss your chance to visit Niles' newest eatery and enjoy not only the fantastic food, but an extremely attractive mirrored and chandeliered interior.

First National of Des Plaines tops $202 million

A record high of $202,387,452 in total assets for year end 1977 was announced by Arthur R. Weiss, president of the First National Bank of Des Plaines. This is a gain of 15% over $175,398,624 one year ago. Deposits increased 16% to $170,512,552 from $146,956,782 and Gross Loans rose 12% to $102,274,508 from $91,275,550 in the same twelve month period. Consolidated Net Income decreased 5.9% to $1,778,691 from $1,882,973. It was noted that this decrease was expected due to increased costs of investment in the bank's new headquarters building. These costs will be offset as the building is occupied. Dividends of $1.30 per share were paid shareholders in 1977. This is the sixth successive year dividends have been increased. Shareholder equity grew by $1,056,040 or 8.2% during the year to total $13,918,407 at year end. The book value of the common stock increased from $23.14 at year end 1976 to $25.04 per share at the 1977 year end.

Talman Federal curtails lighting on displays

In order to comply with Illinois Governor Thompson's request for voluntary energy conservation, Talman Federal Savings and Loan Association will curtail the lighting in all of its outdoor display advertising, announced Charles Jarasek, President. The curtailment of electrical usage will be in effect for the next two weeks, or longer if the present strike by coal miners continues.

In making the announcement, Mr. Jarasek said, "While there is no immediate energy shortage in northern Illinois, many of our neighboring states are experiencing serious energy problems because of the current national coal strike. Since Illinois may be asked to supply power to those states in need, the Governor has asked that all businesses and private citizens begin now to take voluntary conservation measures.

"Specifically," Mr. Jarasek continued, "the Governor has asked businesses to eliminate all nonessential lighting, especially advertising and display lighting. Talman will, in this regard, turn off all lighting on display signs at the home office and nine branch locations, and on all billboards containing Talman messages including the large illuminated time and temperature sign on the Stevenson Expressway at California ave. In addition, we will be lowering the heat in all ten Talman offices and investigating other methods of power conservation."

HEW secretary to speak to Maine Demos

Nicholas Blase, Democratic Committeeman of Maine Township, announced today that Joseph Califano, Secretary of the U.S. Dept. of Health, Education and Welfare, will be the guest speaker at the Maine Township Regular Democratic Organization Dinner Dance on March 17. Califano is in charge of one of President Carter's most important cabinet departments. HEW's budget is second only to Defense and it administers such diverse federal programs as National Public Health, Federal Aid to Education, Day Care programs and Federal Public Aid efforts.

Blase said that he and Abner Mikva, Representative from the 10th Congressional District, invited Califano to speak in Maine Township in order to increase communication between citizens in our North Suburban area and the Carter administration. Blase said, "One of my functions as Maine Township Democratic Committeeman is to make the Federal Government more responsive to our needs as suburban residents. Since we cannot bring Maine residents to Washington to voice their opinions, we are bringing the Carter cabinet to Maine Township." Blase expects 1000 Maine citizens to attend the dinner-dance which will take place Friday, March 17 at the Chateau Ritz, 9100 Milwaukee ave., Niles, at 7 p.m.

Chris Cohen, newly appointed Midwest Regional Director of H.E.W. and Michael Bakalis, Democratic candidate for Governor, are also expected to be in attendance. The Maine Township Regular Dinner Dance is an annual fund raising and social affair for the members of the Maine Democratic Party and interested residents. "With Joseph Califano," said Blase, "this promises to be the best dinner dance in Maine Democratic Party history." Congressman Abner Mikva and Committeeman Blase will pick up Secretary Califano at O'Hare Airport and a press conference will be held.

Tickets are $20 per person and they may be obtained by sending a check to the Maine Township Regular Democratic Organization, 8074 N. Milwaukee ave., Niles, Ill.

Tenth District business conference

Donald Lubick, a key government official in the development of national tax policy, will be one of the seminar speakers at the Tenth District Conference on Business and Government, Friday, March 10, 1978.

As Acting Assistant Secretary for Tax Policy in the Department of Treasury, Lubick will bring his expertise to the 11:30 a.m. session on tax laws, as they relate to business.

Congressman Abner J. Mikva, who is sponsoring the day-long conference with local chambers of commerce, said he is very pleased about Lubick's upcoming talk with area business people. He said, "Donald Lubick will provide his audience with timely, first-hand knowledge of President Carter's tax reform proposals."

As announced earlier by Congressman Mikva, Charles L. Schultze, chairman of President Carter's Council of Economic Advisors, will be the day's featured speaker at the conference luncheon. The conference, which begins at 9 a.m. will be held at the Sheraton-North Shore Inn, at 933 Skokie blvd., Northbrook.

Registration to attend the seminars may be made in advance by contacting Mikva's Skokie office, 4016 Church st., or phoning 676-1350. Registrations for the seminars will also be accepted at the door, the day of the conference. However, luncheon registrations must be made on or before Monday, March 6, 1978.

and the community. Elected vice president of the organization was Joe Franz, of Des Plaines, public relations representative for Central Telephone Company of Illinois; re-elected secretary was Alan Blitz, of Skokie, publications editor for Holy Family Hospital in Des Plaines; and elected treasurer was Joan Blake, of Glenview, manager of office operations for Oakton Community College's MONACEP program.

Dangerous parking problem at Niles postoffice

Dear Mr. Besser:

As I try to remember the two main reasons taxpayers were asked to build a new post office in Niles, I believe they were to ease overcrowding inside the building, and to improve on the seven parking places for postal patrons.

This morning as I went for my mail at 7:30 a.m., I found seven vehicles parked in the spaces plainly marked for "Customers Only". Six of the cars bore U.S. Postal Service signs on their windows and one was a U.S. Postal Service Jeep. I was the only patron in the building.

When I left the post office I drove through the rear parking lot to see if it was possibly filled thereby causing the employees to park in the front, but there were about twenty empty spaces.

This afternoon I had to return to the post office to mail some letters and I found the same cars still parked in front. Five or six customers' cars were now parked in various improper places in front and on the side of the building causing a serious parking problem.

As anxious as some of the Village Trustees were to obtain the new post office building in the first place, perhaps now equal effort could be expended in utilizing their influence in curbing this in convenient and sometimes dangerous parking problem.

Flynn refutes Wilson charges

Dear Editor:

My Democratic Senatorial opponent, Earl Wilson, has made two serious but totally untrue charges against Tom Flynn, Sam Berger, Cal Sutker and Nick Blase. They are that I am the secret Maine Township Democratic Organization candidate and also that I was put up by Sam Berger to take away votes from Earl Wilson and insure Mr. Berger's victory. Please note that it is impossible to be a secret candidate running to win and at the same time be a put up candidate running to lose and help another candidate.

I am shocked that Mr. Wilson would attack the integrity of Sam Berger who is an Ordained Rabbi. I urge Mr. Wilson to apologize to Mr. Berger and his family. Mr. Wilson's wife is the campaign manager of Jim Puccio, who is running against Nick Blase. These charges are nothing but an attempt to help Mr. Puccio by smearing those mentioned above. I hope that Jim Puccio rejects this kind of help. I want you to know that Thomas Flynn is running for State Senator because I believe that I am the most qualified and experienced candidate. I am in the best position to beat the Republican and no amount of false charges can alter these facts. If Mr. Wilson does not retract his charges and apologize to Mr. Berger then he does not deserve to be the candidate of any political party.

Respectfully,

library district for the village of Lincolnwood. More than 400 volunteers distributed campaign literature and conducted public forums urging the creation of the library.

An opposing citizens' group, the Lincolnwood Neighbors for Fiscal Sense, vigorously opposed the proposition based on the higher taxes which would be created by the passage of such a proposal. The Fiscal Sense committee charged the 20¢ tax rate would be almost half of what the Lincolnwood residents are now paying for village services with the village rate of 43.7¢ per $100.

But the Friends of the Library group counter-attacked with the statement that the 20¢ rate would only add 3.65 per cent to the tax burden when the tax rates of the other taxing districts are added together.

The Friends of the Library also noted the 20¢ tax rate is one of the lowest for library districts in northern Cook County.

While Lessin had the winds taken out of his ego, he first called attention to his self-importance last September. While being the main protagonist in ousting the former school superintendent, Lessin was the lone dissenter opposing the new superintendent. He handed out a 2-page letter citing his objections to the new man. His main concern was the new man didn't have a Ph.D. Coincidentally, Lessin is now studying for an advanced degree.

We're not in the business of embarrassing people. But we're wondering how many times a guy has to strike out before he realizes his batting stance needs changing. Somewhere in his education he must not have been listening.

Writing about getting your come uppance, we got "ours" Monday. Niles trustee Ang Marcheschi greeted us at the Dempster Plaza State Bank. We told Ang we were now doing public relations for The Bugle. He told us we were a loser. He said with the number of enemies we have in town, there's no way we could enhance our public relations. With friends like Ang...

We stopped over at the champagne party at the new Gizmos Restaurant Monday night. It was a wall-to-wall people crowd wolfing down some very elegant hors d'oeuvres. The chandeliered restaurant has been completely renovated and designed most handsomely. But the interesting story is the owner, young, handsome 28 year old Chuck Aiello who, 8 years ago, started the Tasty Pub stand next door to the new restaurant. Chuck told us he had just opened another restaurant across the street from Loyola University on Sheridan Road.

Another young tiger, Tom Ferraro, has opened the Boy Blue Sandwich Shop and Ice Cream Creations, next door to us on Sherman rd. Tom is also opening a second shop in Wheeling.

These young guys have a lot going for them. They're young and aggressive and very personable. We'd have to put them in the "can't miss" category when it comes to being successful.

remain open for washing from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. and could stack as many as 23 cars if necessary. It seemed to the Plan Commission that all of the village requirements would be met and they recommended the permit be issued to the applicant. Tentative approval was given by the board.

Next on the agenda was the reconsideration of the present density code. The Plan Commission voted unanimously in favor of adopting the following changes: 1 - The 45 ft. height limit should remain; 2 - Each apt. shall require 2,175 sq. ft. of land (presently - 1,250). This would create a density of 20 per acre; 3 - Each apt shall provide 2.2 parking spaces (presently 1.75 required); 4 - Maximum land coverage shall be 50% with 50% remaining in greenery (presently 60%/40%). The purpose of hearings held was to reconsider the present density in the existing M.G. ordinance regarding Special Use provisions for Multi-Family dwellings and permitted use of Multi-Family dwelling in the R-3 residential district. After some discussion amongst board members, Ron Henric moved to table this until the next meeting and all agreed. Alan Goldberg then reminded the trustees the moratorium was still on concerning multiples and suggested they give this some consideration soon.

A poster contest was held for M.G. schools by the Police Dept. Crime Prevention Bureau. All entrants received certificates and winners were honored at the board meeting. The sixth grade winner was entered in the statewide contest and won 3rd place. She will be given a $25 Savings Bond by Gov. James Thompson. The winner is Jacqueline Flonus from Parkview School.

In other business Fred Huber, Administrator, asked for board permission to purchase 8 new police cars thru the State of Illinois purchasing program; and put the old cars up for auction. Approval was given.

New PUD plan offered for Touhy Avenue property

by Alice M. Bobula

For the third time the Niles Plan Commission and Zoning Board of Appeals tabled action Feb. 27 on a zoning change from manufacturing to R1 Planned Unit Development (PUD) of a 23-acre Niles site immediately south of 5701 Touhy ave.

The delay in action came after Attorney Jerome Schain, representing Joseph Judah, the developer, offered an amended plan for the property. Both the preliminary plan calling for 624 units offered at the Dec. 5 Board Hearing and a second planning reduced to 354 units brought protest from Chicago area residents who crowded into the Niles Council Chambers.

Revised plans Monday night called for reduced density to 266 units, of 74 single family detached homes and 192 condominium units in four 4-story buildings, each building housing 48 units.

After Louis Ancel, attorney for the Edgebrook Community Association objected to the proposed 5,000 sq. ft. single family lots as compared to Niles code requirement of 7,500 sq. ft. under R1 zoning, Zoners proposed amendment of the petition to R2 zoning (6,250 sq. ft. lots) with 10 per cent variation for 5,625 sq. ft. single family lots.

Area homeowners on two sides of the triangular-shaped site bordered by Niles industrial and Chicago residential property pleaded with zoners to retain the present M (manufacturing) zoning or allow for single family homes, objecting to condominiums "which set a precedent for Chicago". They also cited increased traffic problems, overcrowding, street safety and possible increase in school load.

Director of Zoning Joe Salerno indicated manufacturing use could generate 976 cars daily in the area. Zoning Comr. Charles O'Grady showed surprise that residents abutting the area would prefer industrial buildings as compared to cosmetic view of single family homes.

At one point Atty. Schain objected strenuously to charges by Ancel that the "man who bought the property under manufacturing zoning is not building under manufacturing but now changing this to a cash register." Schain labeled the remarks as "unfair" and "not lawyer-like".

Previous charges by Ancel necessitating delay from the Jan. 23 Open Hearing concerning incorrect publishing of zoning application; incorrect re-zoning, approval of preliminary plan and that witnesses were not properly sworn in prior to testimony were judged to be "without foundation" by the village attorney.

The petition was continued to April 3 for study of the revised plan as compared with PUD standards.

In other action Barbara Blonz, president of the Niles-Morton Grove League of Women Voters, read a statement to the Board in a critique of Milwaukee ave. image. She asked for participation from the public and cooperation from the Zoning Board, requesting proper landscaping and other amenities as set forth under the $35,000 Comprehensive Plan recently set before the Village Board of Trustees.

*Zoning Commissioners recommended approval of a Special Use petitioned by Niles resident Anthony Bellino for a drive-in eatery with no seating at 7301 Milwaukee ave. (formerly Carvel's) predicated on landscaping, improvements to the building, closure of the north driveway, restructure of a south entrance, establishment of a driveway on Waukegan rd. and restriping of the parking lot.

The fast food drive-in will offer hot dogs, beef, sausage and hamburgers as well as a soft-serve ice cream similar to Carvel's.

The Zoning Board continued action to March 13 on petition by developer John McNeill of side variations for home construction at 8400 Peter Terrace and 8440 Cumberland ave.

Delay in action came after objections by area resident Bob Wordel that elevation of the proposed home at 8440 Cumberland could cause severe water and drainage problems to his property.

According to Zoning Director Joseph Salerno the village engineering dept. will review grade and elevation of both areas for recommendation to zoners.

briefly conferred with the school attorney.

The closing of the northeast perimeter school will result in the shifting of many students from Washington School to Nelson and Melzer, pupils living south of Golf rd. in the Courtland Park area. Wilson students will move to the Washington School.

The first vote of the evening closed the Ballard School. While most residents were aware the oldest district school, Ballard, in the center of the district, was on the chopping block, the emotion surrounding the discussion to save the school kept the audience on the edge of their chairs.

Teresa Frain, 8905 Oswego, a school teacher at Ballard, cited the historical significance of saving this oldest school, of the recent renovation of Ballard and the energy-efficient school, which should remain open.

Signs on the side walls of the gym stated: "And the little children cried, 'Please don't close Ballard'."

The little children then got up at the meeting and asked their school should remain open. Two Ballard pupils asked the Board to keep open the school.

The most emotional speech came from Board member Dick Smith. He said one of his Ballard School children asked their daddy not to close the school. But Smith said he told both of his children he represented 4,000 children in the district, not just his two personal two. His vote was part of the 5 to 2 majority which voted to close the school.

John Alford, assistant superintendent in the Department of Planning and Research for Schools in Illinois, said the composite rankings of schools which should be closed in the district are Ballard and Washington. Citing maximum building capacity, location, zoning, population stability and the quality of the building structure, he said the aforementioned schools were the most expendable in the district. Alford cited the 35% enrollment decrease in 7 years in the district and expected the decrease to be 40% by next year, down to 4,300 from a high of 7,216 in 1970.

Alford emphasized his recommendations were entirely objective. He said until this fall, long after studying the schools, his study group first heard of the names of the school in the district. He said, "No one leaned on us," and his group's recommendations was entirely objective.

Board president Larry Reiss remarked several times the sole criteria used in determining closing of schools was what adverse affect closing would have on the district's children.

In the voting by Board members the least courageous board member was Phil Deckowitz, who said he would vote "No" on any school closings until 1979. Coincidentally, Deckowitz is seeking re-election in April.

In the vote to close Ballard Mark Davis joined Deckowitz against closing that school.

All board members voted against closing Melzer.

Deckowitz was joined by Howard Lessin and Dick Smith in opposing the closing of Wilson.

Open hearing set for April 4

Set Milwaukee Ave. beautification meeting

by Alice M. Bobula

Niles Trustee Richard Harczak Tuesday set April 4 as the first Open Hearing of the Beautification Committee to be held in the Village Council Chambers at 7200 Milwaukee ave.

Harczak was named Chairman of the Committee of four trustees following acceptance last September by the Village Board of Trustees of a Comprehensive Development Plan for the Milwaukee ave. corridor as a guideline for future development and enhancement of Niles' primary thoroughfare.

The committee was initiated to encourage implementation of the Plan by the public during Open Hearings which will be held periodically prior to final approval of the project.

Harczak said he has already received several suggestions for the planning which will be discussed at the April hearing.

In other business Mayor Nicholas Blase broke a tie vote in approval of a package liquor license requested by Woolco in the Greenlakes Shopping Center, Trustees Harczak and Angelo Marcheschi dissenting.

*Unanimously approved involuntary annexation of a 1/3 acre piece of vacant property at the rear of St. Isaac Jogues rectory as requested by the Church. The site may be annexed by news publication since it is totally surrounded by Niles municipality.

*Delayed action for reason of clarification on petition for dedication of footage along Harrison st. in the Virginia subdivision.

*Referred to the Plan Commission and Zoning Board of Appeals a petition by Theresa L. Bubula for rear yard variation at 8708 W. Bruce dr. from the required 40 ft. to 38 ft.

*Appointed Charles Kohlerman as Village Finance Director for the remainder of the fiscal year 1977-78.

During a pre-board meeting Tuesday evening trustees elected to retain the services of a structural engineer to test the remaining structure of the building at 9000 Courtland ave. ravaged in a pre-Christmas blaze. Owner John Brillakis has petitioned to remodel the first floor after topping the razed second floor and roof.

The building, constructed in 1938, was annexed by Niles in 1957 and does not conform to village building code for further construction.

Salamon proposal would benefit handicapped

Gene Salamon, Republican candidate for Congress in the North Suburban 10th District, called yesterday for "fair and equal treatment for the handicapped people of Illinois, and the nation", and proposed specific reforms in the CETA (Comprehensive Employment Training Act), program which, if adopted, would open up many employment opportunities for the handicapped.

Salamon cited the unfair treatment handicapped individuals must go thru when applying for a job under the CETA program. "In order for a handicapped person to be eligible for participation in the CETA program," the 10th District Republican explained, "he or she must meet a maximum income requirement. Many handicapped people are receiving disability payments which they need and deserve. Yet those same disability payments are counted as income when they apply for employment under CETA. This is particularly unfair since other people who are not handicapped, but who are receiving SSI (Supplemental Security Income), do not have those payments counted as income, and consequently are able to get jobs thru CETA. This is the kind of callous treatment of the handicapped that has been condoned by Abner Mikva and the Democrats in Congress."

- Gene Salamon is a Republican leader with the courage and dedication to confront America's most serious problems, high taxes, mounting inflation, financial irresponsibility.
- Gene Salamon cares, listens, understands and responds to the 10th district needs.
- Gene Salamon is concerned with helping people at a time when people need help.
- Gene Salamon needs you and the 10th Illinois district needs him.

PAID FOR BY CITIZENS FOR SALAMON IN CONGRESS' Dennis Block, Chairman; Sheldon Weiss, Treasurer

Absentee ballots for primary election

Voters who expect to be out of town or physically incapacitated at the time of the Republican Primary on March 21 may contact Sen. John Nimrod's office, 26 Main St., Park Ridge, 698-3400 or 692-9444, for an absentee ballot application.

Nimrod's office is open from 9 a.m. Monday morning thru Thursday, most evenings, and most Fridays, Saturdays, and Sundays.

Nimrod stated that applications differ, depending on the reason the voter will not be able to appear at the polls. He asked that anyone calling for an absentee ballot specify why it is needed.

Ballot applications may be obtained for servicemen, college students, vacationers, people traveling for business reasons, those who will be hospitalized, women expecting babies in March or April, and permanently disabled voters.

Ballots may be mailed to the home of someone who is physically incapacitated or who expects to leave within a week before the election March 21, Nimrod said.

Rueckert wants 'Hot Line' for better communication

Tom Rueckert, 4th district Republican State Senate candidate said that he will establish a toll-free telephone hotline to his office in Springfield when elected.

In a release issued Friday, the Maine Township High School Board member said that such a communications system would remedy the absence of communication with the incumbent.

Under Rueckert's plan, one night a month would be set aside so that citizens could call his legislative office, collect to discuss their problems with State government, and voice their opinions on issues.

"Several Congressmen have instituted this system, and I think it would do much to make the State Senator's office more responsive to the people of the 4th district," Rueckert said.

Rueckert was critical of his GOP primary opponent, J.J. Nimrod for not communicating with his constituents. "The only time you ever hear from Nimrod is through an occasional newsletter around election time," he said. "I intend to be an accessible and responsive State Senator," Rueckert said.

Flynn supports new law for police and firemen survivors

Thomas Flynn, Democratic Senatorial Candidate, today said he would support a new system of benefits for survivors of policemen and firemen killed or disabled in the line of duty. Mr. Flynn said we must recognize that police and fire personnel are increasingly becoming disabled and killed. He said that present legislation does not recognize the terrible problem of surviving aged parents, widows and children.

Mr. Flynn said, "Policemen and firemen need a new state benefit law to protect their survivors if they are killed or disabled in the line of duty. I will introduce legislation that will increase their disability benefits, pension payments to survivors, allow free college education for their children at state colleges. The legislation will include a clause for increases in the cost of living and also that a widow who remarries still has an economic need for her children by her first marriage."

Flynn also said that he was tired of seeing individuals who have not contributed to America receive benefits while deserving Americans are denied benefits in their time of need.

Berger supports merit selection of judges

Sam Berger, Democratic Candidate for State Senator (4th District) today announced his complete support of merit selection of judges. Berger stated that this issue would be another of his top priority goals when he is elected in November.

Berger stated that merit selection of judges is long overdue. Other States such as Missouri have adopted systems which use a blue ribbon non-partisan panel to select judges.

This panel should be composed of persons directly involved with the legal profession and persons with respected reputations, that are not directly involved in the practice of law.

Berger went on to say that "only a judicial system, free from political control and political loyalty can best serve the people of Illinois and insure them of the fairest and most honest treatment."

MTJC Early Childhood Center

Maine Township Jewish Congregation's Early Childhood Center, 8800 Ballard rd., Des Plaines, announces the opening of its Parent-Toddler group for the third ten week session which begins March 21.
