O.K. Zoning appeal over Chicago threat to close streets

Zoners back plan for Touhy PUD

by Alice M. Bobala
Despite strenuous objections from an overflow crowd of approximately 250 Chicago homeowners, the Niles Plan Commission recommended approval Monday night, April 3 of a Planned Unit Development (PUD) of 23 acres immediately south of 5701 Touhy ave. and a zoning change from manufacturing which will allow the property to be developed as a condominium and single-family home complex. The parcel is bounded on 3 sides by residential property and by manufacturing on the north.

Approval followed a tempered exchange between Zoning Commissioners and Ald. Roman Pucinski (D-41 ward) whose testimony before the Zoning Board culminated in an open threat by the Chicago alderman to close off Ionia ave. (to Chicago) should the PUD petition by developer Joseph Judah be approved by Zoners.

Called to testify on behalf of the Edgebrook Community Association objectors by their attorney Louis Ancel, Pucinski, who drew applause from the crowd several times Monday evening with dramatic statements, said he wrestled with himself earlier Monday afternoon over the street-shutdown, that he didn't want to "sandbag" zoning commissioners with his decision. However, he told Zoners, "I am here as your friend to bring you

In School District 63's election Saturday, three candidates are well qualified. Alphabetically, Phil Deckowitz, Joan Futterman and Howard Lessin are worthy candidates to serve the district. There are openings for 2 board members. The fourth candidate, Claudia Twarski, filed her petition after the board announced the closing of Ballard School where she is active in the PTA.

The never-ending turmoil in District 63 requires the best representation available. Deckowitz and Lessin are incumbents who have made major contributions to the school district. Futterman served as vice president of the Citizens Advisory Committee which was appointed to make recommendations to the school board lessening the district's financial burden.

The recent announced closing of two schools in the district will likely bring out the many voters Saturday who normally refrain from going to the polls. It is unfortunate these same people have not taken a more active role in their school district.

Saturday's election is not a one-issue election. Board members often spend 20 hours and more weekly, wrestling with the many problems in the district. Selecting well-qualified board members is incumbent upon all of us if we expect the district to reach its true potential.

Deckowitz' strength lies in his financial expertise. Lessin was the leader in creating the teacher learning center and having test scores made available to the public. Futterman is currently Mark Twain PTA president, has been active on the luncheon committee and served as secretary of the Citizens Advisory Committee. Twarski is a member of the Ballard PTA and says she has been attending board meetings since January.

In Saturday's election it is possible the discontented parents whose schools will soon close could band together and support candidates who will attempt to reverse the school closing action. Such an effort would be disadvantageous to everyone in the district. The school closing issue is only a very small part of the activity school board members have participated in during the recent years. To vote in favor of a candidate whose sole interest is keeping

Grant (incumbents), and Margaret Rajski; for four-year term - Chester F. Lasken (incumbent) and Rita Breitbart; for two-year term - Susan Kravis (incumbent) and Harry Pestine. # School elections Saturday

Voters head for the polls again Saturday to elect school board members in several districts.

School District 63 Incumbents Phil Deckowitz and Howard Lessin are seeking their second terms. Deckowitz is the lone Caucus-endorsed candidate.

Newcomers Joan Futterman and Claudia Twarski are also seeking the 2 three-year terms open on the school board. Neither candidate appeared before the Caucus, both filing their petitions after Caucus hearings.

Mrs. Twarski filed her petition after the school board announced it will close Ballard and Wilson Schools at the end of this school year. She is a member of the Ballard School PTA. Mrs. Futterman is President of the Mark Twain School PTA and was secretary of the Citizens Advisory Committee, which studied and recommended reducing costs in the district.

The explosive school-closing issue resulted in Deckowitz not voting to close any schools for '78-'79 though he said he favored closing two schools the following year. Lessin voted to close Ballard but opposed the closing of Wilson. Polls are open from noon until 7 p.m.

School District 74 In Park Ridge-Niles School District 64, Gerald Peter Shostak and Lawrence Helmick, Jr., an incumbent, are seeking the 2 openings for three years. Glen Phillips seeks the 2 year unexpired term. Poll hours are noon-7 p.m.

Niles Township GOP rebuilds organization

The new Niles Township Regular Republican Organization took the first steps in a rebuilding program this week as the fifty leading Republicans who attended a meeting Sunday saw their new Committeeman sworn in and ratified the appointment of a Deputy, a new President and a new Chairman of the Board. Newly elected Republican Committeeman William R. Kearney (r) was sworn in by Circuit Court Judge John Nordberg (l) and named Lester Brownstein to the post of Deputy Committeeman. Dominic R. Fichera of Golf-Glenview, a lawyer, former Township Assessor with offices in Skokie and Chicago became the new organization President succeeding Morton C. Kaplan. The post of Chairman of the Board went to Skokie Corporation Counsel Harvey Schwartz.

A high point was discussion of a new Cook County Republican Chairman and the organization concurred in the Committeeman's wish to cast Niles Township votes for J. Robert Barr of Evanston who was elected to the post on Monday. Committeeman Kearney told the group he had been contacted by the Governor's office in this regard and indicated the future interests of Niles Township would be best served by the election of Barr.

Mikva supports memorial vigil in Skokie

Congressman Abner J. Mikva announced today that he will participate in a vigil scheduled for the middle of April in Skokie which is planned as a memorial to the millions of lives lost at the hands of the Nazis before and during World War II. The announcement was part of Congressman Mikva's statement about a Nazi group's plan to demonstrate in the community. "I do not want the Nazis to march in Skokie," he said, "and I continue to hope the courts will eventually rule that the Constitution does not permit it." Congressman Mikva previously commended Mayor Albert Smith of Skokie for pursuing every judicial remedy available in the matter, and along with others, urges him to continue in this regard. If the courts finally rule that the Nazis have the right to march in Skokie, Mikva said, "I hope the vigil in April will also set the tone for a peaceful counter-event, that should be held after all judicial remedies are exhausted." # LETTERS to EDITOR

Thanks from Marillac

Dear Mr. Besser,
Please accept my heartfelt appreciation for your fine coverage of our highly successful Benefit '78.

All of us here at Marillac know the importance of newspaper coverage for fund-raising events and I personally feel that the Niles Bugle did indeed help to make the Benefit a success.

I look forward to keeping you informed of all future Marillac activities.

Sincerely,
Bruce Stevens, Director
Development and Public Relations

An irate Blase bell-ringer

Dear Editor:
I was very angry when I read your editorial about precinct captains being puppets to Mayor Blase. I feel I am not a puppet to anyone. I rang many door bells and sent out letters for Mayor Blase because I respect him and think he is the best Mayor and committeeman the people could ever have chosen.

When you said he was involved in the sale of land, this is the man's private practice as lawyer and not as his duties of Mayor or committeeman. You must remember his duties and long working hours as a Mayor and committeeman is only a rewarding job and not much of a paying job.

Yours truly,

Elaine Heinen
Precinct Captain 137
(Not A Puppet)
8627 N. Oleander
Niles, Ill. 60648

Editor's Note: The key word in your letter is rewarding.

Thanks from Tom Rueckert

Dear Editor,
As a candidate for State Senate in the recent March 21 Republican primary election, I would like to take this opportunity to warmly thank the many people who were so supportive of my candidacy.

The fact that our effort was unsuccessful can never negate the very kind and selfless efforts made by so many on my behalf. For those efforts, I wish to express my deep personal gratitude.

It is my sincere hope that those who have worked so hard on my campaign will continue to work hard for our Republican candidates in the November election, and continue to stand up for our Republican philosophy of limited government and responsive concern for the legitimate needs of the people of our North suburban area.

Again, my sincere thanks.

Sincerely,
s/Thomas E. Rueckert

No show

Dear Sir,
If and when the American Nazi Party stages its march through the streets of Skokie, how would it be if...

No one, neither Christian nor Jew, united as one, showed up for the parade?

What good is a parade if there's no one there to watch it?

Sincerely,
Karin J. Riemer

Clerk Carrier exams

Postmaster Louis G. Principali has announced that Clerk-Carrier exams will be given this Spring and urged that all those interested apply to take the job-related tests that can lead to Postal Service employment.

"We have not opened our register since September, 1976 and an examination of it has led us to believe that it is out of date, and that many of the names on the register are people who have moved or for some reason are no longer available to take postal jobs," Mr. Principali said.

"I do not want to give the impression we will be hiring great numbers of people in the coming months," the Postmaster said. "I anticipate approximately 15 vacancies will occur in the next two years that will be filled by hiring people from our updated job register. We need qualified people who will be willing to accept employment and want to offer people in the local community the chance to compete for these openings by signing up for and taking the exams."

The postmaster said the Postal Service established the policy two years ago of extending eligibility indefinitely for those on the job register because little hiring was being done. "On October, 8, 1978 those who have been on the job register for more than two years will lose their eligibility. They will have to reapply to compete for a standing on the new register," he said.

Postmaster Principali explained those wishing to take the exam could apply by filling out application at Morton Grove Post Office, 9114 Waukegan rd., Morton Grove, Ill. 60053, between 8:30 a.m., Monday, April 24, 1978 and 5 p.m., Friday, April 28, 1978. The date, time and place of examination will be sent to you.

OCC Board candidate

William Spaulding of Glenview has announced his candidacy for the Oakton Community College Board of Trustees election on April 8, 1978.

This election for the OCC Board will be the first one in which voters of Glenbrook and New Trier High School Districts are permitted to participate as a result of the annexation to OCC last summer. Representation on that board from the North Shore is therefore possible for the first time by voting for Mr. Spaulding.

With four years of active work on the Community College issues, he comes well equipped to deal with the current problems. Those years of work include serving as Chairman of the North Shore Community College Study Committee, Chairman of the North Shore Referendum Committee and initiator of the Spaulding vs ICCB court suit to preserve the right of voters to decide their Community College choice.

Current issues which Mr. Spaulding is interested in addressing include increased course offerings within our districts, reduction of the current 22.5% tax rate and annexation of the Evanston District to OCC.

Saturday, April 8 is the voting day unless you vote by absentee ballot prior to that time.

OCC Board election

Voters will elect two trustees to the Oakton Community College Board at the annual school board elections on Saturday, April 8. Polls for the Oakton election will be open from 12 noon until 7 p.m.

Polling places for the Oakton Community College election will be located in the same locations as the elementary schools. College officials point out that voters who are not in line to vote when the Oakton polls close at 7 p.m. cannot vote.

The five candidates for the Oakton Board seats are Christine Anderson, Morton Grove; William Spaulding, Glenview; M. Stanley Hughey, Wilmette; Jerome Cole, Glencoe; and Paul Stiefel, Skokie.

Absentee ballots may be cast until 4 p.m. Friday, April 7, in the Office of the Vice President for Business and Finance, Building 3, OCC Interim Campus, Oakton and Nagle, Morton Grove.

For information about the Oakton election, call 967-5120, ext. 373.

Discover the security of a Talman savings account

These days many people who want a high return for investment funds have discovered Talman's regular and certificate accounts provide just that, plus this bonus—security.

And this discovery can mean a lot to you, too. For example, if you deposit $5,000 in a 7 3/4% Talman certificate by the 10th of the month and leave the principal and interest undisturbed, you'll have $8,014.69 when this account matures in six years. There are no "ifs" or "buts" involved. A 7 3/4% Talman certificate yields 8.17% annually—an excellent return in itself, but doubly so when multiplied by security and peace of mind.

Of course the returns on Talman's four types of certificate savings accounts vary according to the sum invested and the length of time for which they are committed. So if you would prefer to invest your funds for a shorter period of time, Talman has one-year, 30-month, and four-year certificates that will give you high-yield plus that security bonus too. And, for maximum flexibility, many investors choose Talman's regular 5 1/4% savings account which produces interest compounded daily and paid from date of deposit to date of withdrawal.

But, no matter which Talman account you choose, your funds are additionally secured by our substantial reserves and 56 years of sound fiscal management. Whatever your investment needs may be, Talman invites you to stop in at any of the ten convenient Talman locations and discover what security can mean for you now.

Skokie Trust salutes National Library week

Leroy J. Plaziak, President of Skokie Trust & Savings Bank confers with Mary Radmacher, Chief Librarian of the Skokie Public Library about materials to be displayed during National Library Week.

The Skokie Public Library will display books about "Consumer Related Financial Services" at the main office of Skokie Trust & Savings Bank during National Library Week, April 2 through April 8.

According to Mary Radmacher, Chief Librarian, "The Skokie Public Library offers a collection of business and financial information that can compete with any library in the state." Sandra Palmore, Community Services Librarian and Steve Oserman, Reference Librarian have coordinated the financial materials which is to include: Periodicals, Statistics, Economics, Law & Government, Commerce, Engineering and Manufacturing information. The Skokie Public Library is a member of the North Suburban Library System, which offers reciprocal borrowing to the North Suburban Area.

Morton Grove Beautification Committee

Morton Grove's Beautification Committee is finalizing plans for an extensive tree planting program for the Village. These plans include landscaping the area of Dempster Street adjacent to the Edens expressway entrance and exit ramps, thereby providing what Village architect-in-residence John Miller deems an effective "entrance statement" into the community.

The Beautification Committee is also working with Village Planner Charles Scheck and architects John Miller and Gary Greenfield in the drafting of an ordinance designed to ensure proper consideration is addressed to creating and maintaining an aesthetic quality to parking lots and other paved areas within the Village.

The Beautification Committee also review plans for new construction within Morton Grove, thereby ensuring adequate attention is directed towards landscaping of the site.

National Library Week Niles Library display features Indian crafts

The week of April 2 to 8 is National Library Week. The Niles Public Library would like to celebrate by making as many of our services available to you as possible. It is our goal to supply patrons with the materials they need as quickly as we can. For example, you have heard the slogan, "let your fingers do the walking." Did you know that it is possible for them to do too much walking? When you sit at your phone and turn your fingers around that dial calling several libraries in an effort to find a particular book, they are logging excess mileage, since one call to our Reference Department (967-1125, 967-8534) will do the job much more efficiently. If we have the book, we will hold it for you. If we don't, and you need it in a hurry, we can then phone the North Suburban Library System Union Catalog office to learn what other System libraries own the book. From there it is a simple matter to call a library and ask them to hold the item for you.

Today's ojos are colorful, often intricate, patterns of yarn or thread woven tightly around two or more woven sticks, fashioned in many different shapes and sizes. Those on exhibit range from one to three feet in diameter. As often is the case in the history of art, what was once strictly to serve a utilitarian purpose has evolved into fine creative craftsmanship.

Jean Mueller has been a Niles resident for nine years. She has exhibited her work in many art shows, both in Chicago and the suburbs. She has won several ribbons for her work, the most recent coming from the Skokie County Fair.

Library hours are: Monday thru Friday 9-9, Saturday 9-5, Sunday 1-5.

"What You Should Know Before You Improve Your Home" will be the topic of the first of six Home Improver Workshop sessions scheduled this spring by North West Federal Savings.

This comprehensive series of programs will begin on Tuesday, April 11 and continue every other Tuesday evening through June 20. The sessions are held at 7:30 p.m. in the Clyde B. Reed Auditorium at North West Federal's Community Center, 4901 W. Irving Park rd., Chicago. Each program will conclude at about 9 p.m.

Participants will describe how to plan a project and how to estimate costs. They'll tell which steps to follow in locating a reliable contractor and how to decide whether or not you can do it yourself. They'll offer valuable information concerning home improvement loans and the effect of home improvements on property values.

Among those participating on the panel in the first workshop session will be attorney Sherwin Fagan, representing the Professional Remodelers Association; Donald Adams of Fagan Plumbing and Heating, director of the Plumbing, Heating, and Cooling Information Bureau; and Clarence W. Kojak, Jr., North West Federal vice president and improvement loan officer.

Subsequent workshop sessions will zero in on specific home improvements.

April 25 - Room additions, garages, siding and gutters. This program will deal with methods of determining specific expansion needs, what types of construction quality to look for, and which steps to follow in planning and carrying through the improvement.

May 9 - Bathroom remodeling, one of the most popular home improvements. Speakers will talk about selection of fixtures and how to plan for style and quality.

May 23 - Insulation and conservation. This session discusses steps to make a home more energy efficient and how to save both money and energy.

June 6 - Kitchen remodeling. How to get ideas and which materials should be used for an up-to-date kitchen is on the agenda for this program.

June 20 - Heating and air conditioning. This session will help the homeowner analyze heating and cooling requirements.

A question and answer session will follow each of the six programs.

Registration for this trip is being accepted at the Niles Park District Administrative Office, adjacent to the Recreation Center, during regular office hours. A choice from the menu will be made after registration is taken. The registration deadline is April 22; however, the trip is limited to 41 ladies and a word to the thirsty should be sufficient. For additional information call your Niles Park District Recreation Staff on 967-6633 with your inquiries.

District 64 plans 1978-79 class size

The Board of Education has made a decision relative to the program and class size for the 1978-79 year. The decision was based on the premise that the total expenditures for the Educational Fund and the Operation, Building and Maintenance Fund should not exceed the total anticipated income to those funds. It is the determination of the Board to carry over the 1977-78 Educational deficit of an estimated $1,100,000 in the 1978-79 Budget.

As indicated in the Staff Bulletin of March 1, 1978, the administration made specific program and class size recommendations to the Board based upon the above premise. On March 13, the Board took action directing the Budget to be prepared based upon those recommendations. Of prime concern to the administration and Board has been the need to maintain balance in the instructional opportunities provided for boys and girls, account for declining enrollment and limit expenditures in all areas possible.

Based on the present enrollment forecasts for 1978-79, a class size average of about 27.2 pupils is anticipated. The average increase should not exceed 1.5 pupils per class. This results in a classroom teacher staff need of 133 positions, or 20.33 less than 1978-78. About half of these reductions are attributed to declining enrollment and the other half are attributed to increased class sizes, thus budget and financial reasons.

This increase in class size will make it possible for the special subject programs to continue at approximately the same levels at 1977-78, recognizing the effects of declining enrollment and increased class size. In the areas of art, general music, foreign language, physical education, industrial art, and home economics, the 1977-78 staff included 46.18 positions. For 1978-79, it is anticipated there will be 6.83 fewer positions.

For instrumental music, there were four staff members in 1969, with a fourth through eighth grade enrollment of 3,710 pupils. The staff was reduced by one during 1971-72, but that position was reinstated, and since then, including 1977-78 when the fourth through eighth grade enrollment was 2,884 pupils, there have been four positions in this department. It is commendable that more children than ever are involved in the instrumental music program this year, but it appeared this department could not be overlooked when all other areas of the program were being reduced, and the anticipated 1978-79 enrollment was 2,423 pupils for grades four through eight. Therefore, the staff will be reduced by one position for 1978-79.

Anderson supports Oakton's adult programs

Speaking with a group of community residents on Saturday, Oakton Community College Trustee Christine Anderson said she wants to continue expanding and improving college-level courses and support services for adult students returning to school at Oakton.

Ms. Anderson, a candidate for re-election to Oakton's Board of Trustees in the April 8 election, said "Oakton's current services for adult students, particularly the adult resource center and the women returning to school organization, are certainly among the finest provided anywhere."

Ms. Anderson is particularly aware of the need for such programs. "While awaiting the birth of my son, Christopher, now almost a year old, I decided to complete work on my master's program at Northwestern. The question of whether the degree or Christopher would arrive first was settled for me - I just completed the degree last month," she laughed.

According to Ms. Anderson, the problems faced by adults who wish to return to school are different from those faced by traditional just-out-of-high school students. Whether in search of a first career, new career directions, intellectual stimulation, or just something worthwhile to do, adults returning to college are often nervous about this academic re-entry. "It is so important to make their first encounter with the college a pleasant, helpful experience." Ms. Anderson believes services such as the information seminars provided by the adult resource center, as well as professional counseling and community outreach services, enable Oakton to serve this student population well.

Noting that in four years the adult student population at Oakton Community College has increased by 1,700 students, Ms. Anderson expressed confidence that "This is not a fad. Adults will continue to return to college, and we in turn must continue to provide quality services for them."

As chairperson of the Oakton Board of Trustees educational committee, Ms. Anderson sees this committee as responsible in part for educating the board itself on the services Oakton provides. Such activities as those sponsored by the adult resource center will be the focus of a committee presentation to the Board of Trustees. "I am proud that my committee is able to provide the medium through which academic and special service offerings of the college can be brought more directly to the attention of the Board. This is, as I see it, the educational committee's most important function."

In seeking re-election, Ms. Anderson hopes to continue encouraging such programs to expand and improve, in keeping with the mission of Oakton Community College to serve all segments of its population.

ED HANSON

Watch the Cubs with a FREE 19" Color TV

The Cub opener at Wrigley Field is just around the corner. Get a new TV - a color one - free from the First National Bank of Niles. According to Chuck Barbaglia, Vice President of the bank, this 19" Quasar Color TV has been one of the most popular gift items they've ever offered. So don't get shut out with the baseball season up on us. Here's how: just bring in a friend or relative, who is not a member of your household, and have them open a First National Bank of Niles certificate of deposit for $10,000 for 6 years. And it pays a whopping 7 1/2% interest per year. As the sponsor you get a free Quasar Color TV and your friend gets interest on his savings from the very first day of deposit.

I don't know why I'm explaining all this because there is a full page ad in all five Eagle newspapers this week, which Chuck Barbaglia prepared, that explains the whole deal. In fact, to make it even easier for you, Chuck put in a convenient coupon, which you can fill out in a jiffy, bring it in and take home your color TV.

When you get home, you can invite your friend over and watch the Cubs play ball. Now that may be an overstatement because the Cubs haven't "played ball" for the past 33 years and this year is probably no exception.

Great things are expected from Kingman. I expect Dave Kingman to come thru. One record I'm sure he'll break is the National League strikeout record. Another is the record for eating the most hot dogs during a game. As for the home run record, if he "hits" five, he'll be batting over his head.

The Cubs have a great chance to set a new team record for the most consecutive losses in a single season. With luck they can lose 164 straight games. However, with your new color TV, which you can get free from the First National Bank of Niles, look at all the other things there are to watch besides the Cubs.

Situation comedy, for example.

This year there's a great new comedy team called the Chicago White Sox. It's about a group of guys in an institution called Comiskey Park who think they're major league baseball players. Their antics on and off the bases are very funny to behold. The best thing about their act is their crazy, mixed-up scoreboard which is what most of their fans really go to the ball park to watch.

I hope there will be a city series this year between the Sox and Cubs like there used to be in the old days. After all, when two last place teams get together, it's always interesting to find out who deserves the booby prize.

If you go out to Wrigley Field or Comiskey Park these chilly spring days, better fortify yourself with a good breakfast. At Jake's Restaurant, Niles, you can have your choice of a stack of pancakes or French toast, or two large country fresh eggs for only 75¢. This special, low cost breakfast is being served to 11 a.m. thru Friday, April 7. "The biggest breakfast for the smallest price in town," says Jake Joseph, the owner of Jake's Restaurant.

See you next week...

Dr. English is the President of Eduscope, Inc., a Willmette consulting group to schools and industry. He is the father of four children. He has three degrees from the University of Wisconsin, has taught at various institutions, and has been the keynote speaker at many educational conferences.

Mikva consolidates congressional offices

The Evanston Civic Center will be the new home for the Tenth Congressional District Office of Congressman Abner J. Mikva. As of Monday, April 3, the three present district offices will be consolidated into one, on the center's second floor, at 2100 N. Ridge ave. in Evanston.

While the consolidation means the closing of Mikva offices in Skokie, Des Plaines and Chicago, the present level of staff and intern positions will remain the same. Congressman Mikva said, "We feel that the cost saving factor plus equivalent space at one accessible location will continue to provide the people of the Tenth District with the most efficient service possible."

Congressman Mikva is the first major tenant of the four story Civic Center. The red brick building, constructed in the late 1800's, was once the Marywood Catholic High School for Girls. It had stood vacant until the City of Evanston, beset by municipal growing pains, decided more than two years ago to purchase and rehabilitate the property. The city also found the building compatible for renting additional office space to other appropriate services and agencies.

"The Congressional District Office is a vital link between the people and the federal government," noted Congressman Mikva, "and with government services increasing, the district office becomes more important in people's lives. I hope the new office in the Evanston Civic Center will be accessible and useful to the residents of the Tenth Congressional District," he said.

People living in the western sections of the district will still be able to reach the office by dialing the present number: 297-0515. The new number for the remainder of the district is: 864-9595.

Morton Grove health programs

The Morton Grove Health Dept. recently sponsored a diabetes screening program at the Village's public library. Irene Kohut, a registered medical technologist from the American Diabetes Association, administered the blood-sugar test to participants.

Maggie O'Malley, Village community health educator and coordinator of the screening program, said the testing was successful: Of the 70-residents screened, six per cent were found to have a high blood-sugar reading, a condition suggestive of diabetes. These people were then referred to their personal physicians for further examination.

The Health Dept. is planning future screening programs for early detection of other illnesses. They also act as an information and referral service, directing residents to the agency best able to answer their health needs. The Health Dept. telephone number is 965-4100.

Gym demonstration for handicapped

The Leaning Tower YMCA Conqueror's Gym Program will present a special Gym Demonstration by children with Learning Disabilities, the Mentally Retarded, Physically Handicapped, Autistic, Blind & Deaf, on Sunday, April 9, 2 p.m.

The purpose of the demonstration is to present exercises and activities from which the handicapped & disabled child may benefit. Activities using trampoline, balance beams, hoops, jump ropes, wands, and balls will be presented as aids to improve perception, balance, muscular coordination and strength.

The demonstration will be under the direction of Mr. Ray Newman, volunteer director of the Conqueror's Gym program. The Leaning Tower YMCA is located at 6300 W. Touhy ave., Niles. Parents, teachers, and all interested individuals are invited to attend. Admission is free. For further information, contact: John Joyce at the YMCA, 647-8222.

Open House

The Niles Historical & Art Society will have Open House on Sunday, April 16 between 1 and 4 p.m. at the Trident Center 8060 Oakton, Niles.

On display are articles from residents of early Niles including furniture, antique lamp, clothing, perambulator, jewelry etc. A preview showing of the History of Niles by junior members of the society will be at 2 p.m.

New members will be welcome and donations will be accepted at Open House. Refreshments.

District 67 Board votes school closing

Board members voted to close one of the two (K-5) elementary buildings in September 1980. Either Golf or Hynes will be reorganized to a K-4 school and Golf Jr. High will become a 5th through 8th grade school.

Study will begin immediately as to which of the elementary buildings will remain in service. That is to be completed by the first of the year. Search for a tenant for the unused school will begin at that time.

The decision to close came about after lengthy consideration of enrollment and financial projections.

Enrollment will continue to decline for the next two years. The interim will permit reorganization in 1980 without crowding and without program impairment.

The schedule allows optimum time to advertise a building rental.

Mail delivery.

Cont'd from Skokie-L'wood P.1 office to pick up your mail accumulation and to notify us to resume delivery.

You also can arrange for mail to follow you, for up to 90 days, while you are away. Inform the post office to forward your mail for a specified time, then to hold it for your return. If you should move while on vacation and wish to have your mail forwarded, leave instructions to forward your mail to your new address.

When you return home, promptly notify the post office to resume your regular home delivery.

You may not be near a post office while traveling, so it's a good idea to buy enough stamps in advance. Unless you can get to a post office, deposit your mail in collection boxes in business districts. They have more frequent and later pick-ups.

Use sufficient postage. If you are traveling abroad, your letter, cards and parcels back to the U.S. will require the postage stamps of the country from which you mail.

Finally, Postmaster Principal suggested writing or typing the names, addresses and ZIP codes of friends and relatives and your own home address and ZIP code on envelopes or labels before you leave home. This saves time and helps keep addressing legible and accurate.

Niles group researches Milwaukee Avenue planning

Members of the Niles Beautification Committee held a Public Forum Tuesday evening for citizen input into the planning of the Milwaukee Ave. Corridor.

The April 4 Hearing was intended to give Niles residents and businessmen the opportunity to make recommendations to Comprehensive Development Plan for Milwaukee Ave., a study prepared for Niles in 1977 by the engineering firm of Metcalf & Eddy.

Copies of the Plan are open to public inspection at the Niles Public Library, 6960 Oakton st., the Niles Park District at 7877 Milwaukee Ave. and the Administration Building at 7601 Milwaukee Ave.

Niles trustees approved the concept of the Plan last September and with sufficient input hope to use the study as a guideline to improve conditions and appearance of the mile-long Niles "Gateway to the Northwest."

The Plan calls for major improvements in parking, roadways, traffic channelizations, signaling, landscaping and general appearance of the thoroughfare in the interests of motorists, pedestrians and residents.

Committee Chairman/Trustee Richard Harczak Tuesday night stressed the importance of "friendly and common interests in beautifying the Milwaukee Ave. Corridor."

Many of the almost 10 participants who appeared for the Hearing later said "it gave us a good chance to vent our feelings... several recommendations were good... we hope the people will continue to attend the Hearings..."

The village plans to hold numerous public hearings on the proposed planning before implementation of recommendations.

Some of the citizen input at the Tuesday hearing concerned:

"A barricade set on Seward st. near Milwaukee Ave. The barricade placed several years ago to prevent a traffic overflow into Seward from a nearby shopping area was strenuously opposed by area residents who said they were "cut off from Milwaukee Ave."

"Traffic safety, parking and health hazards of Jerry's Fruit and Garden Center at 7901 Milwaukee Ave. came under critically severe questioning numerous times.

"Severe lack of landscaping along Milwaukee Ave. was criticized. Committee member Angelo Marcheschi noted that "businesses were waiting for recommendations by the village."

"Auto patrons of an eatery at Keeney and Milwaukee Ave. were censured for blocking Milwaukee Ave. pedestrian right-of-way. A senior citizen charged Mayor Nicholas Blase with being a daily offender.

"Overhead wires, proper landscaping, traffic safety and outdoor signs were concerns voiced by a representative of Shoppers Walk at 9000 Milwaukee Ave.

"Ghetto-like" conditions near the Lawrencewood Shopping Center drew objections from an Oketo resident.

Committee Chairman Harczak noted the input of planning as "good" following the Tuesday night criticisms and indicated another public forum would be held in 30 to 60 days.

"Watch your local newspaper for the date and time."

Niles Zoning

that "the people in this room do not want to see the equity in their properties erode in face of this developer's planning."

By a 5 to 1 vote, Comr. Syd Michel was the lone dissenter who indicated he did not believe the planning best for Niles. In the motioning for approval of the amended PUD petition, Comr. Kenneth Cohen stipulated the following measures:

"that the open areas be shared by the single family dwellings as well as the condominiums.

"no valid testimony had been presented as to cost of improvements comparing Niles with Chicago costs.

"recommended a 10% variation in rear yard setback to 36 ft. from the village required 40 ft.

"that schools could absorb the additional children.

"Ionia Ave. provided it is not closed, be widened (as requested by its residents) according to Comr. Charles O'Grady) to a full street at the expense of the developer.

"that construction of the condominiums be of concern and attention by village trustees.

The decision followed 5 public hearings by the Zoning Board. The original plan offered before the Board Oct. 5, 1977 of 624 units was reduced to 354 multiple units, then to 192 condo units and 74 single family homes and was amended April 3 to a 258 density of 192 condos in four buildings, four stories high, together with 66 single family, detached homes with 2-car garages.

All planning received protests from area residents who crowded into the Niles Council Chambers Monday night. Objectors indicated preference to industrial development of the property. Zoning commissioners indicated the zoning change from manufacturing to multiples was not beneficial to Niles but to develop the property industrially would generate a 960-car traffic for the area.

Numerous charges by the objecting homeowners' attorney Louis Ancel raised during the January Hearing in an obvious attempt to discredit the PUD petition were cleared by Niles attorney Richard Troy at the February Hearing. At that time Zoning Commissioners requested a more creative and innovative use of the land under PUD planning.

During the April 3 hearing, Jerome Schain, attorney for the developer, presented an amended condo-single family planning for 258 units which, he argued, was "the highest and best use of the land."

An alternate plan for 97 single family homes by the objecting Homeowners' Planner Alan Traylor was regarded as "not feasible" and unfeasible by commissioners.

Audience spokesmen called forth Monday night by Zoning Chairman Jack Frick based objections to the petitioned planning on existing narrow roadways, excessive traffic, sewer and water problems, school bus travel and danger to handicapped children in the area south of the parcel.

Speakers as a whole showed very obvious displeasure over the Zoning approval.

In July, 1977, Chicago vetoed a land trade with Niles which would have given Chicago the 23-acre property in exchange for Niles acquisition of a triangular piece of property bounded by Milwaukee, Harlem and Howard streets occupied by the Shell open schools, despite a potential $10,000,000 deficit, would be a disservice to everyone in the district.

Deckowitz, Futterman and Lessin are well-qualified people who have devoted years to the school district. Failing to elect two of them to the board would be short-changing the people who are most affected by board decisions, District 63's children.

The move by Glenview to annex the Zenith Company property in Northfield Township has repercussions for our immediate area.

Gerald Feldman, who has been trying to incorporate the area west of Greenwood and north of Dempster, has been quoted as saying incorporation efforts are dead as the result of Glenview's intended annexation.

Niles Public Library also includes Zenith as part of its district. But if the Glenview annexation goes thru, that town will include Zenith in its library district. Since the library system is a part of the village district, it would have priority over Niles Library District.

The inability of incorporating the East Maine-West Northfield area is a sad commentary. For years public officials have warned the highly-dense East Maine area has all the earmarks of a potential slum. Because the county is the sole governing body there, the deterioration of the area has a high potential. Because building and zoning codes were less strict than the surrounding communities, more and more people moved into a smaller area.

If you drive down Ballard rd. on the way over to Maine East, then drive down one of the side streets leading to the school, you can already see the pot-holed streets which are fast being gutted. And because no local government is overseeing the area, this same deterioration is likely to affect the buildings there.

It would not be unfair to write a simple formula to measure the quality of any community. The further away the seat of government is to a community, the poorer the community will become. Unlike incorporated areas, this high-density populated apartment area has no government to protect the residents from the many abuses there. The quality of life in this area inevitably must deteriorate as the years go on.

As the unincorporated area diminishes in quality, it is likely to affect its neighbors. And then, when it's too late, these neighbors will seek to turn-around the downward trend in the area.

Years ago Nick Blase said it was important these areas become incorporated, whether as a new town or as parts of neighboring incorporated areas. It was another meaningless proposal by a guy whose performance does not match his word. For it was the same guy who led the way to annexing the Dempster-Greenwood Plaza as well as the Green Lake Center on Golf rd. Both these areas should be a part of a new incorporated community enabling it to receive initial funds. But Niles, like Glenview, looked to its own self-interest, annexed these shopping areas, and took away what little tax base the unincorporated area might have.

Glenview's effort will enhance that community when Zenith is added to its tax base. Niles received more revenue when it moved into the Dempster-Greenwood Shopping Center area. But together they raped its unincorporated neighbor by eliminating what little extra revenue it might get to put the area on its own financial feet.

In years to come, we will all be faced with the burdens of the unincorporated areas. Glenview and Niles will both share the burden and responsibility caused by holding back progress there. Nick Blase and Glenview's 1970's politicians will long be gone from the seats of government. But 1990 residents are going to ask where were Niles' and Glenview's people when they were needed back in the '70's.

Approval was predicated on the Niles Beautification Committee recommendations concerning Milwaukee Ave.

"Unanimously approved a rear yard variation to John Bubula at 8708 Bruce dr. from the required 40 ft. to 36 ft. for a family room addition of brick with a shed roof.

"Recommended to the Board of Trustees that the 90-day Special Use termination date be amended to 180 days to permit research when needed for required information.

In other action Zoning Commissioners Monday night recommended approval of a Special Use rezoning from manufacturing to Ted Przybylo at 6839 Milwaukee Ave. to permit construction of a Catering Hall addition and full service restaurant at the south end of his existing restaurant.

The addition will include a bridal room with a (future) chapel and 2 large rooms which will accommodate 500 to 600 guests.
