Register now for OCC fall term

Registration for the 1978 fall term at Oakton Community College is now underway, according to college officials. John Gaglin, director of admissions and records, said that students planning to attend

Oakton for the first time this fall should send in applications for admission as soon as possible, rather than waiting until open registration when many classes will be closed. The first day of class is Monday.

August 28. New students, when accepted, will receive registration appointment cards informing them of date and time of registration. New full-time students are required to attend a daylong Life and Career Planning

Workshop at the time of their registration. In addition to testing and academic and career counseling, students have an opportunity to get acquainted with Oakton and its faculty and staff through the workshops, Gaglin explained. Open registration will be held on August 21 and 22 from 9:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m. and from 5:30 - 7:30 p.m. Tuition at Oakton is $12 per

by David Besser
Editor & Publisher

We never knew the guy. But he often caught our eye while we were lunching at Arvey's Restaurant.

He wore a Yul Brynner haircut. His skin-clean dome had an almost pink color as it shone among his more-hirsute friends.

He came on kind of strong. He'd bounce around the restaurant, greeting and kidding the waitresses. They would laugh and he would laugh.

He was flamboyant without being offensive. He was a motorcyclist and he was an associate professor at Oakton College.

Thursday we were thumbing through the Niles Police log and the report read in the same fashion as all the other reports. Amidst the neighbor complaints and the auto collisions were the cold straight facts. Car number 2 entered the northwest lane of Milwaukee ave. nearest the yellow line. Number 2 began to turn left into the Dunkin' Donuts parking lot and was struck in the driver's door by number 1, a motorcycle, which had been northwest bound in the lane nearest the double yellow line.

A few pages later we read a nurse O'Dwyer had telephoned from Lutheran General Hospital and the above victim, the cyclist, Dennis Lamping, 39, had died at 0150, July 13, 1978.

The next day at the restaurant, George, the owner of Arvey's told us the cyclist was among the finest men he ever met. Even though he was a customer, George lost a true friend for whom he had high regard. He said Dennis was the kind of teacher who devoted much time to resurrecting students who were flunking out of school. George cited two students he knew who returned to school because of this devoted teacher, and the students wound up with high marks because of a teacher who genuinely cared about them.

Saturday afternoon about 300 people gathered at the Madonna Della Strata Chapel on the Loyola University campus to attend a memorial service for Dennis Lamping. The three priests celebrated a mass in which they spoke of a joyous man who had been such an important part of Loyola. Twice he had plans to become a priest, only to have illness prevent it.

Bugle ad brings results

Mrs. Robert Wolflick, 8915 N. National, Morton Grove recently ran a classified ad in The Bugle for a yard sale she was holding. After a very successful sale, Mrs. Wolflick wrote, "Thanks! Nice results." She was very gratified with the number of people who attended her sale and the amount of merchandise sold and attributed this to her Bugle ad.

Two houses for a playground? Rumors of a possible expansion of the Jerry's Fruit and Garden Center property were in the air once again at the July 18 Niles Park District Board meeting. Oketo st. residents brought to the attention of the board the likely intent of Jerry's Fruit and Garden Center to "swap" 2 residences on Oketo (owned by Jerry's) for a section of park district land adjoining the Garden Center parking lot on Milwaukee ave. Residents were concerned Jerry's would build additional parking on the land and possibly install and Oketo st. exit. Park President Jeff Arnold said the board had not yet been approached. He went on to say if this was proposed, he felt public hearings should be held, with

Niles Bike Safety Patrol

The Niles bicycle safety program has drastically cut the accident rate in the three years it has been in effect, according to Niles Police Sgt. James Gerhardt. The Niles program is serving as a model to other communities in Illinois. Sgt. Gerhardt said he has been contacted by the police of many communities and others have sent observers for a first hand look. Sgt. Gerhardt explained that the Niles Bicycle Safety Patrol is manned by ten college students, each working a full eight hour day. The village of Niles has been divided into four sectors, each patrolled by two students on bikes. Each team covers 4,000 miles during the summer. In 1975, before the safety program was begun, there were 17

Poison Prevention stickers

"Mr. Yuk" Poison Prevention stickers are the topic of discussion between Roger Field, Health and Science Reporter for WBBM-TV, and John R. O'Connell, president of Skokie Federal Savings and Loan.

When applied to household chemical contents the stickers help deter children from swallowing their poisonous contents.

Skokie Federal will be giving away these free stickers at all of their offices during the months of July and August. The program was initiated as a result of Mr. Field's original Health Series telecast earlier on WBBM-TV.

In addition, Skokie Federal will be offering home eye tests for preschoolers. One child in twenty has a vision defect and the type of tests can help parents detect these defects and begin correction treatment early.

Robert C. Gremley has joined the First National Bank of Morton Grove as a vice president, announced bank president Marvin von Aswege.

He previously had his own bank consulting firm. Before that he was a vice president at State National Bank in Evanston and was affiliated with American National Bank & Trust Co. of Chicago.

A University of Illinois graduate, Gremley is a member of the Illinois Bankers Assn., American Institute of Banking and Robert Morris Associates. He is current president of the Niles Twp. Sheltered Workshop.

Gremley resides in Golf with his wife Mary, their daughter Paula and sons Robert and Andrew.

Welter Sales Associates Pass Brokers Exam

George and Ken Welter of Century 21 Welter Realtors, 7514 N. Harlem Ave. (at Milwaukee Ave.), are proud to announce that 4 of their 22 sales associates recently passed their State Real Estate Brokers Examinations.

Frank Bruni, Vince Scarpelli, Karen Schumann, and Joan Sieczkowski worked very hard to complete all the necessary requirements to qualify for this very difficult examination.

Welter said continuous education in their profession and service to their customers and clients has been the secret to success for these four sales professionals.

Frank Bruni and Vince Scarpelli are members of the Illinois Million Dollar Sales Club, and "both of these men made it into the club in their very first year," according to George Welter.

Joan Sieczkowski and Karen Schumann are "well on their way to Million Dollar volume years themselves", Ken Welter points out, "and they are in their way first full-time years respectively."

Realty World training program saves customers time and money

Realty World, an international real estate marketing program, has introduced a new type of sales training program to the real estate field. Several on-going courses will be offered to staffs of member offices — courses which are conducted by a professional real estate instructor.

According to Hal London and Bob Rauchenburg of Realty World - Key Realtors, 8146 Milwaukee ave., Niles, the course has the 3 ingredients essential to a successful training program: 1) It has been carefully planned and field tested, 2) it has the right tools for instruction and 3) it has a professional instructor who totally understands business methods, teaching methods, and the psychology of teaching.

Currently, the course being taught at Realty World headquarters, 2625 Butterfield rd., Oakbrook is, "How to List Real Estate." Courses in "How to Sell Real Estate," and "Management and Operation of Real Estate Offices" are also offered. The current listing program is a 30-hour course taught mornings for ten consecutive weekdays, or nights for part-time people.

According to Steve St. John, director of Realty World's training program, "Most courses are developed around a motivational course which is a kind of 'Pep Rally,'" St. John said. "Everyone leaves the course 'keyed-up', but without really learning very much. In a lecture course," he said, "students are told what they are supposed to know."

By contrast, St. John believes Realty World's course is a total learning experience. The course involves lecture-presentation followed by practice sessions where students practice on each other rather than on the customers. This procedure, called role-playing, enables the students to complete the course with more confidence in themselves because they have acted out — or actually participated in — doing that which they have learned.

According to Hal London "Realty World's educational method is a positive approach to learning." Many Real Estate brokers are accustomed to giving new sales associates a desk, a phone, and instructions to go out and sell. With the Realty World training program, students learn how to do everything they need to know to better serve the public.

If you are interested in learning more about a position in real estate selling, call Hal London or Bob Rauchenburg at 692-7000, or stop in the office at 8146 Milwaukee, Niles.

On dean's list

The following students were named to the Elmhurst College Dean's List for the second semester of the 1977-1978 academic year: Deborah A. Poole, Enfield rd., Morton Grove; Randall Jay Jaacks, Milwaukee ave., Niles; Julia Ann Mazik, Conrad st., Niles; Paul M. Puttrich, Waukegan rd., Niles.

Down the Street... the ultimate in fine dining

Turn of the Century decor promotes relaxation at Down the Street

Down the Street... for your drinking and dining pleasure

The Gazette... ... A Menu or a Newspaper of Yesteryear

The Down the Street Gazette reads something like an old fashioned newspaper, complete with ads featuring American Beauty Corset, ladies' hats at $1.95, and boys' Russian blouse suits for $8.15 (sizes 3 to 8)...and something like a dinner menu, which is exactly what it is.

The first item under Specialties of The House is Bar-B-Que Baby Back Ribs, for which Down the Street is most famous. The ribs, like all the entrees at Down the Street, include choice of potato, chef's salad, and your choice of dressing.

The decor, like the menu and the lady with the old-fashioned parasol (who has become the signature of Down the Street) is turn-of-the-century style making it easy for diners to imagine that they have turned back the hands on the clock several decades. Inside the charming restaurant, away from the hustle and bustle of Milwaukee ave., the old-fashioned saloon atmosphere prevails and offers your favorite drinks, good old-fashioned hospitality and great food.

Down the Street, 6913 N. Milwaukee ave. is open six days a week. Luncheon is served Monday through Friday from 11:30 and the kitchen is open until 2 a.m. Mon. thru Thurs., and until 3 a.m. Fri. and Saturday nights for your late-night dining pleasure. The bar closes at 4 a.m.

YOUR GUIDE TO... Food, Fun and Entertainment

Maine North Summer Theatre presents 'Bye Bye Birdie'

Maine North will once again sponsor its Summer Theatre Workshop. The workshop, now in its third season, combines past, present, and incoming students of Maine North who work together for six weeks to present a musical show. In its first two seasons the workshop has had a great success with its "company" system of working. The 43 members, form a "company" of workers, each taking an active role in all phases of theatrical production, from sets and costumes, to acting, dancing and make-up. There are no divisions made between cast and crew, the responsibilities are shared by all 43 members of the company. This is a unique system for educational theatre, in that it offers a wider range of opportunities for the students, in the field of theatre. It also allows the students to share their experiences in theatre, with the fellow company members. New students have the opportunity to learn from the more experienced ones, as the older students find new dimensions from watching the new students grow. The individual talents of each student are blended together culminating in a total theatrical experience that is a musical comedy.

The company is working each night this summer, toward a full-filled blend of these talents in presenting the Broadway sensation, Bye Bye Birdie. The curtain will rise on this mixture of old and new at 8 p.m. on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, July 27, 28, and 29. Bye Bye Birdie is the result of a special mixture of hard work, friendship, and fun. Bye Bye Birdie is the story of a rock and roll singer about to be inducted into the army. It is one of the most captivating musical shows of our time. The singer, Conrad Birdie, is to deliver his "last kiss" to a randomly selected member of the "Birdie Fan Club." The chosen girl, Kim lives in a small

Ohio town where her boyfriend's jealousy causes problems. In addition, Birdie's manager, Albert is having problems of his own. Rosie his faithful secretary, is in love with him. However, his over-protective mother, who follows him everywhere tries to discourage Rosie's overtures but to no avail. Meanwhile the town is in complete chaos because Birdie and the kids have decided to revolt against their parents. The show is tops in imagination and frivolity. It is certainly a show that will be enjoyed by the company as well as the audience. The workshop director, Mr. Kurt Steinhauser says of the "company system": "The system of forming a company has proved to be an immense success for us, as was apparent from last year's success, Mame. We used it first with Damn Yankees in our first season and found it to be fun as well as extremely educational. I wish we could use it more often." Mrs. Missy Schlomer, dance instructor from Maine South will be serving as choreographer for the show. The orchestra, like the company, is made up of past and present students, who work in the evening to reproduce the fine music provided by composer Charles Strouse. Mr. Strouse is most recently known for his Broadway success, Annie, has written a delightful score for Birdie complimented by the masterful lyrics of Lee Adams. The show includes the well known songs, "Put on a Happy Face" and "Kids".

Some of the cast includes, Steve DiMenna, a graduate of 76, playing the part of Birdie's manager Albert, complimented by the talents of Charlotte Volkman, also of 76, as Rosie. Steve Payne, a present student at North, will play Conrad Birdie, with Carolyn Braunz as Kim Mac Afee. Tickets for Bye Bye Birdie are $2.25 each. Group rates are available, as well as senior citizens discounts. Reservations may be made by phoning the box office at 298-5510 from 7:30 a.m. to 9:30 p.m.

"Hello, Dolly!" opening July 28

Theatre 219 is celebrating its fifth anniversary with a revival of that history making, Tony award winning musical, "Hello, Dolly!" "Dolly!" celebrates that familiar and fun-loving meddler Dolly Levi, a character that Carol Channing made so popular in the longest Broadway run of any musical up to its time.

In anticipation of opening night, the talented and enthusiastic cast, chosen from people of all ages from the entire community, is hard at work rehearsing one of the most lively musicals ever written. In addition to the ten leads, Sheila McCormick of Morton Grove will be playing Mrs. Rose, Kitch Lemsky of Lincolnwood and Sue Mahnke of Morton Grove will play the horse, Richard Brody of Skokie and Mike Myers of Lincolnwood will play the two policemen, Bill Geismann of Skokie will play the judge the Troy Pottsman of Lincolnwood will play the court clerk.

Backing these people up is an experienced and talented dance chorus providing zeal and excitement reminiscent of the original production. Slated to play the singing/dancing waiters at the swanky Harmonia Gardens Restaurant where Dolly is greeted with "Hello, Dolly," one of the most famous songs in American musical comedy, are

Curtain going up

The Open Stage Players of the Mayer Kaplan JCC, 5060 W. Church st., Skokie, will soon raise the curtain on its sixth annual summer musical, I Can Get It For You Wholesale. Performance dates are July 23, 26, 29, 30, August 2, 5 and 6. Sunday and Wednesday curtain is at 7:30 p.m., Saturday curtain at 8:30 p.m. Call 675-2200, ext. 216 for reservations.

"Previous summer shows such as "Little Me", "Allegro", and "Babes In Arms" were enthusiastically received by standing room only audiences, said director Leon Palles, and we hope this will make that list as well."

"Wholesale" based on the book by Jerome Weidman with music and lyrics by Harold Rome, is a lively show with an exuberant Yiddish flavor set in the garment district of New York. Veteran local players featured are Vivian Weiss, Lincolnwood, Brad Miller, Joyce Stern Greenberg, Alan Ezrin, and Glenna Hecht. Skokie, Bonnie Bierman, Des Plaines, Marianne Lubershaie, Wilmette, and Marv Maron, Chicago.

Glenn Adilman, Paul Crane, Lee Goldberg, Ricky Levine and Troy Pottsman of Lincolnwood, Jack Glick, Andy Goldstein, Phil Martini and Phillip Masterton of Skokie, and Steve Gan, Ray Rueb and Steven Solomon of Morton Grove.

Complimenting the men is an equally as fine female dance chorus, with Denise Leavitt and Kitch Lemsky of Lincolnwood, Gretchen Witte of Skokie, and Sue Mahnke, Kathy Orser and Amy Tolsky of Morton Grove.

The townspeople chorus, performing such exciting production numbers as "Put On Your Sunday Clothes" and "Before the Parade Passes By," has also been hard at work in preparation for opening night. Included in this versatile chorus are Robin Borenstein, Allyson Harris, Sue Levine and Mike Myers of Lincolnwood, Michael Albert, Michael Brody, Richard Brody, Denise Drucker, Bill Geismann, Lowell Knobloch, Ronald Packowitz and Joe Sochacki of Skokie, Marge Gump, Evie Krueger and Sheila McCormick of Morton Grove and Wendy Joseph of Niles.

"Hello, Dolly!" will be performed two weekends on July 28, 29, August 4 and 5 at 8:15 p.m. and on July 30 at 7:30 p.m. at Niles West High School, Oakton at Edens in Skokie. IOLANTHE is Gilbert and Sullivan's delightful political satire involving a band of immortal Fairies and Britain's House of Lords.

Mr. Frank Miller, principal cellist of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra, is the Music Director for IOLANTHE as he has been since the Savoy-Aires was organized in 1965.

Chorus members include Jan Kraft of Niles.

Niles Library exhibits

We are displaying two fascinating exhibits at the Niles Public Library.

Inez Mueller, a Skokie resident, is exhibiting her collection of prune dolls. These dolls are copied from the 'Zwetschgemanle' dolls sold at the Kris Kindle Mart in Nuremberg, Germany.

Mr. Mueller became familiar with them when her daughter worked in Germany, attached to U.S. Army Special Services, and she began making them about a year ago. Her dolls are more refined than the german originals. They are composed of figs, prunes, walnuts and peanuts. Figs are used for their bodies, prunes for their arms and legs, walnuts for their heads, peanuts for their feet, and raisins for their joints. Some of the dolls have real human hair. All are mounted on a wire and stand on bases made from tree limbs. Mrs. Mueller sewed all the costumes herself.

Also on exhibit in the small display case is a collection of political memorabilia consisting of such things as campaign buttons ('Win the War Quicker with Dewey and Tricker' with Dewey and Quicker' and autographs from Presidential and Congressional elections. It is owned by Chuck Bernstein, a 16 year old resident of Morton Grove.

Visit the Niles Public Library and enjoy these two exhibits. If you have a collection of your own that you would like to display, please call Mr. Art Galati or Ms. Mary Klinger at 967-1125.

"Dirty Work at the Crossroads"

Tony Randall, popular star of TV and stage's "The Odd Couple," comes to the Arie Crown Theatre, McCormick Place, Tuesday, August 1 through Sunday, August 20, in America's favorite musical, "The Music Man."

Starring as the fast-talking con artist, "Harold Hill," Randall sings and dances his way into the heart of "River City," Ohio, in this timeless revival of the 1957 musical, which has a book, music and lyrics by Meredith Willson and Franklin Lacey. Repeating the staging for this production will be Morton da Costa, who masterfully staged the original Broadway production as well.

Starring opposite Randall as the delightfully memorable "Marian Madame Librarian," will be Linda Michelle, with Barney Martin.

Representative works by Evanston watercolor artist Jackie Sullivan will be on display in the Koehnline Gallery at Oakton Community College from July 19-August 4.

Ms. Sullivan will be present at a reception in the gallery on the opening evening, July 19, from 7-9 p.m.

Her brilliantly colored watercolors reflect the movement of sky, atmosphere, light, and water in the world around her. Koehnline Gallery is open Monday through Thursday from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m.; Friday from 9 a.m. - 12 noon; closed on weekends. The public is invited free of charge.

ED HANSON

"I never met a horse I didn't like"

When Will Rogers said, "I never met a man I didn't like," I was just a kid. My reaction at the time was I wanted to throw up.

Will Rogers, the beloved, homespun wit couldn't survive on the "Gong Show" today. The old frontier is long gone. Times change, tastes change.

Well, the Messenger Services are closed or are they? They can appeal their case to the Supreme Court if they want. I have a feeling they'll be back....

Gov. Thompson, over TV, gave out with the heroics over the closing of the Messenger Services. I got something better for him to do. Close down Arlington Park Race Track for selling tickets to minors.

Many years ago when I was at Citizen's Newspapers in La Grange, I wrote that not only were many of the tickets sellers "touts", but they were selling tote tickets to minors. Ogilvie was sheriff then and I sent him a copy of my column. He acted, raided Arlington Park, arrested some 20 tickets sellers and many minors. One way the kids get tickets is to stand by the window and ask a guy in line to get 'em a ticket on number 2, for example. They give the guy the dough and he hands them a ticket. This cunning is compounding the felony and Ogilvie arrested several of these boots too. Ogilvie was not only a good sheriff but a great governor but the public was too dumb to appreciate him.

It says in the front part of the Arlington program, "This race meeting is under the supervision of the State of Illinois, license No. 634. "Right under that appears this: HON. JAMES THOMPSON, Governor.

It is illegal to book bets at race tracks, it is illegal to indulge in "touting" and it sure as hell is illegal to SELL TICKETS TO MINORS.

Hon. Gov. Thompson-get this: The racing license could be yanked for permitting the Madison Square Garden Corp. (who is really owned by a big oil company) for selling tickets to minors and for "touting" on the part of their own employees. Now how do you like those apples?

One more time! How come they let kids from 6 months to 20 years old into the race track? No other tracks around the country do. Well, I'll tell you why! BECAUSE THOSE KIDS-EVEN A BABE IN ARMS-HAS TO HAVE A FULL PRICE TICKET paid for by the guy or gal which brung 'em.

Recently, I traveled west thru California, to Las Vegas and to Reno, Carson and Virginia City and a funny thing happened. I make friends easily and like to talk to people. The subject of restaurants came up and I met people in almost every place I visited who knew about ARVEY'S RESTAURANT. A dealer in Vegas told me that on a recent vacation to Chicago, someone told him about the great gourmet food served by ARVEY'S RESTAURANT, Waukegan and Oakton, Niles. "I went there and the food was fantastic," the dealer said.

At a dude ranch I rented a horse, a big black stallion, and the cowboy who loaned me his chaps and spurs and I got talking. Turned out this guy also knew about ARVEY'S IN NILES and said he eats there whenever he comes to Niles to visit his mother.

And just about everywhere I went, I found somebody who knew about ARVEY'S RESTAURANT...small world, isn't it? No wonder "ARVEY'S" foods are internationally famous."

Say, try one of those super, special steaks ARVEY'S is offering for only $4.95 with a FREE Caesar salad....they're like me, "The Greatest!"

It's nice to have me back, huh!

OCC telecourses based on "Ascent of Man"

A unique college course in history will be given on closed circuit television through the Telecourses program at Oakton Community College this fall.

Participating students will receive three credits upon completion of the course. The course is based on "The Ascent of Man," a series of 13 films prepared and narrated by the late Jacob Bronowski, renowned scientist, mathematician and poet. It shows the history of man through his scientific achievements.

Dr. Bronowski, who died August 22, 1974, devoted the last years of his life to this project, which took 3 1/2 years of preparation and filming and cost more than $4 million.

Acclaimed for its high degree of scholarship, the series received great acceptance from British Broadcasting Corp. viewers who were from diverse economic and social strata. This is largely due to Dr. Bronowski's ability to explain science in humanistic terms and the interrelationship of scientific advances and history of man.

The ideas developed in the informative television films will be explored in Monday night discussion sessions led by OCC faculty member Gwen Fortune.

For further information about Oakton Telecourse Coordinator, at 967-5120, ext. 239, or Learning Cluster III, ext. 310.

Career workshops

Evening workshops in "Decision Making" and "Skills Assessment" will meet from 7:30-9:30 p.m. on July 24 and 25 at Oakton Community College.

"Decision Making," meeting on Monday, July 24, will help those considering a change in lifestyle or career to identify their personal values, evaluate information on alternatives, and plan effective strategy.

On Tuesday, July 25, "Skills Assessment" will help participants to translate their present skills into language applicable in today's job market and to pinpoint specific careers utilizing these skills.

Each workshop will be led by Gale Grossman, Oakton's career counselor. The sessions will meet in Building 3, Room 343, on the OCC Interim Campus, Oakton and Nagle, Morton Grove. The cost of each session is $3.

For further information, or to make reservations, call Oakton's Adult Career Resource Center, 967-5120, ext. 350.

Gone and forgotten?....No way!!!

Remember when a young man's status was measured not by how fast he could run the mile, or how dazzling he was on the floor of the disco...but, rather, whether or not he could take his "steady" out for a ride on a Summer evening with the top down? Yes, for those young men of the 50's and early 60's, steadies were in no short supply. I know, because I was one of the young ladies who regularly lined up in front of the malt shop to go for a "convertible ride."

In fact, the girls in the Class of '61 had quite a collection. They didn't particularly want the guy's class ring (with all the gummy tape on the back so that it didn't wash down the drain), or even his class picture for their wallets...but, a snap shot of his classy looking car, IF it was a CONVERTIBLE, was passed around the study hall to be oohed and ahed over so many times that it was dog-eared by the end of the first day. A set of ignition keys to this classy convertible however, was enough to ruin a young lady's reputation permanently.

Styles changed. The style of the automobile did not lend itself to the silhouette of the convertible, for several years. Life-styles changed to the point that the word "reputation" was virtually erased from the English language and his ignition key regularly came on the same key ring with the key to his apartment. The mini-skirt came...and went and as fashion designers became more and more conservative the automobile designers followed their lead. Finally, the convertible, as we knew it, disappeared

... It's a $2,754 option... and it's worth it!

They don't make 'em like they used to... who said?

completely. More and more convertible lovers switched to foreign made sports cars or sat at home day-dreaming over those old snap shots of the "Good old days" and made vague comments when called upon to select a new car from a show room floor..."They just don't make 'em like they used to."

Even more recently we have been hearing reports that the cars of the future are going to be even more practical, have even less pizzaz, and resemble somewhat, miniature box cars.

"Enough of all this nonsense," said Paul Danca, president of Golf-Mill Chrysler/Plymouth, "I'm going to give my customers what they want!" And, sure enough, there it is, on the show room floor, a grand, brand new, 1978 Chrysler Cordoba CONVERTIBLE! Complete with air conditioning, power steering, power brakes, power windows, etc., etc., (not at all like they used to make) this beauty lists for $9785.45. The custom convertible body work is a $2754 option. But, for convertible lovers everywhere...it's worth it!

No doubt, by the time you get over to have a look at this phenomenon of the seventies, someone will have snapped it up. But don't fret, you may order your own convertible from Golf Mill Chrysler-Plymouth, 9229 North Milwaukee. So, stop day-dreaming over those old snap shots of the "Good old days" and make your Summer of '78 one you will long remember with a brand new Chrysler CONVERTIBLE from Golf Mill.

A beauty of an automobile... from any angle

New All-in-One Accounts at Glenview State Bank

Glenview State Bank has introduced a unique new packaged services account which combines a broad range of existing bank services and makes them available - free of charge - to bank customers. Promoted as the All-in-One Account, this Bank service package includes a high yielding savings plan, free checking with no minimum balance requirement, overdraft, protection which permits the customer to overdraw their checking account by any amount up to their pre-authorized limit, which may be as high as $5,000, a 24-hour Automatic Banking Card and a special skip payment privilege on personal loans which may be exercised during any December/January holiday season.

While some major downtown Chicago-area banks have introduced packaged services accounts in the first to our knowledge to combine some diversified range of services and the first, to our knowledge, to be offered in the Glenview area.

According to John H. Beaulieu, President of the Bank, "We believe the All-in-One account will afford our present customers and others the opportunity to more conveniently capitalize on the many banking services available to them locally."

Mr. Beaulieu admitted that the packages offered by downtown Chicago Banks were a consideration in the development of All-in-One: "We've always felt that our bank was able and ready to offer the same type and quality of service afforded by large complex banking institutions in Chicago. As more of our customers expressed serious interest in a combined services package, we decided that there was, in fact, a need for such a program."

Mr. Beaulieu continued, "In developing the All-in-One Account, we tried to select those products and services that best served a cross-section of our customers' financial needs. In this way, we feel we offer a program that is unmatched by any other bank in Illinois. Furthermore, the All-in-One Account is available at no charge whatsoever. We believe that increased customer satisfaction and reduced administrative costs will compensate to a great degree for the added cost of this program. At Glenview State Bank, profit-per-transaction has been-and will never be-our primary business objective. It is our opinion that our present-and future-success lies in the continued, personal, full service financial business provided by our bank."

Those interested in applying for All-in-One Accounts may apply in person at the Glenview State Bank, 800 Waukegan Road in Glenview or by telephoning 729-1900.

Dennis Lamping, whose whole life was dedicated to youth, would have a hall at the school named after him. He had been involved in a youth center at the university during his younger days. His dedication to youth would be etched on a building which he had worked on behalf of for so many years.

While the strains of the "Battle Hymn of The Republic" were being played, the chapel gatherers were leaving the chapel at the rear exit. You walked into a glorious summer day. The blue lake had sailboats lazily drifting back and forth.

On the lawn behind the chapel, tables were set up and coffee, cakes and punch were served. Dennis Lamping obviously led a happy life. His friends memorialized him the only way they knew, with a quiet, dignified, but not unhappy celebration of a man who moved so many of them.

We really didn't want to intrude. We asked one group of students what Dennis' classes were like. They said he always put on a show. They laughed and the warmth of their memories told much about Dennis.

There's another story which unravels from what seemed like a routine police report. The driver of the car involved in the accident was a 17 year old. It could be a bad memory to live with for the rest of his life. But it was an accident. It was unintentional, unexpected without deliberateness. Life is filled with chances and misfortunes. It is all a part of living. Hopefully, the young teenager will understand this.

Motorcyclists, moving in traffic with heavy autos, are living a high risk adventure. The number of paralyzed victims lying in local hospitals who've been maimed for life by a motorcycle accident are criminally high. Ask anyone who works in a hospital.

One man, who contributed much to youth, died living the kind of life he chose. Another youth, with a long life ahead of him, hopefully will put all this in perspective.

In other action, a lease agreement with Notre Dame High School was unanimously approved and signed. Park Attorney Berrafato said the lease provides the park district the option to renew for 2 years. In the event Notre Dame sells the property, the right to the option ceases and permanent improvements the park has made on the site would belong to Notre Dame.

Berrafato reported the purchase of additional land at TAM to be used for parking. The lot is scheduled for completion on October 15 but Berrafato expects a delay due to the fact that when the old club house was torn down, the cement foundation was not accidents involving cars and bicycles. In the first year of the bicycle safety patrol, the accident rate dropped to three.

Sgt. Gerhardt said the Bike Safety Patrol enforces all traffic laws. For example, if a bicyclist ignores a stop sign, the rider would first receive a verbal warning. A second offense would require appearance at a Saturday morning hearing.

The "Court of Peers" consists of two young people, chosen by the Niles Youth Commission on the basis of academic and athletic achievement. The safety violator appears with his parents.

Sgt. Gerhardt said the objective of such a hearing before the Court of Peers is to make youngsters aware that the Rules of the Road apply to bicyclists as well as motorists, and that defensive riding protects them as well as other riders.

An important part of the bike safety program is a McDonald's educational film called "Bicycles are Beautiful," starring Bill Cosby. The film was donated to the program by Don Conley's McDonald's on Milwaukee and Oakton, and is used for bike safety seminars.

"This is a great film, and Don Conley's community involvement is helping to make the Niles Bicycle Safety Patrol program a success," commented Sgt. Gerhardt.

Because of being involved in the bicycle safety program, two former members of the Patrol were encouraged to make law enforcement their profession. They recently took the police exam and hope to join the Niles Police in the future.

Sgt. James Gerhardt will be happy to answer any questions regarding the Bike Patrol. Phone-647-0400.

MG Library...

Continued from MG P.1 addition. The addition will include typing and conference rooms, additional office and storage space and a meeting room with a capacity of 50.

The revision of the original construction plans became necessary when the bids received for the original project were in excess of $600,000 which was more than the library could handle. According to librarian Stewart, the revised plans should be approximately $500,000 which is $100,000 less than the original cost proposals.

The library plans to finance the project with $219,000 in general funds and anticipates getting a mortgage for $300,000 on the balance.

removed, but instead filled in. Berrafato said there would be no payment until the completion of the project.

In still other actions, the board received a petition from St. Isaac Jogues for annexation to the Niles Park District. Berrafato pointed out if SIJ was annexed, they would not pay taxes since they are a non-profit organization. But, he commented, "If they sell, we would then have the right to collect taxes."

It was announced the tax bills for the 2nd installment have been mailed. Payment is due Aug. 1. Berrafato said he understood some bills were not received by July 1. The law states bills must be received 30 days prior to date of payment. Berrafato advised residents who did not receive their statements on or before July 1 may be eligible for an extension.

Park Director Bill Hughes announced the installation of security lighting at Courtland Park. Two lights will be installed over the playground area and basketball court to increase visibility. Previously, the Golf Mill Homeowners Association had requested the additional lighting. Commonwealth Edison is completely responsible for the upkeep of the lights with the district paying a fee of $99 annually.

*Awarded printing of Fall/Winter Brochure to Associates Printing Service for $2494. Commissioner Steve Chamerski requested sealed bids for printing services next year as they were not used this year.

*Commissioner Luella Preston, M-NASR representative, told the board of the increased budget for M-NASR and the intent to increase the M-NASR district's tax rate to .0123 from .01.

*Currently, 17 1/2 positions exist in the CETA program, Hughes said. The district is working under a $120,000 grant.

Congressman Mikva said, "With government services increasing and becoming more complex, these occasions for meeting with the people are taking on a more important role." He added, "I am glad our office will continue to be a significant link between the federal agencies and the residents."

The Congressman's staff can aid people in dealing with the Social Security Administration and Veterans Administration. They are also able to answer questions about legislation, health care, immigration, unemployment compensation, taxes and other topics. The post office visits are an extension of the Congressional office working hours and part of the service provided to the residents of the Tenth District.

Congressman Mikva's new district office is located at 2100 N. Ridge ave., Evanston 60201. The phone number is 864-9595.

there's not, you can figure it out yourself. Everything you need to know in order to calculate the EER is contained on a metal plate attached to the unit.

To find the EER, just divide the BTU's by the watts. In our example, the EER divides out to 8.7.

7500 BTU's ÷ 860 Watts = 8.7

What's the recommended EER? We recommend an EER for air conditioners of 8 or higher. Lower rated units waste energy, and the energy wasted costs you money.
