New OCC computer system serves key roles

Oakton Community College, on Sept. 29, became the first educational institution in the United States to install an IBM 3031 Computer System, IBM's most advanced series of high-speed, advanced-function processors.

"Use of the system allows Oakton to offer an outstanding curriculum for students pursuing careers in computer technology," said Gary Saben, director of Information Systems at Oakton.

Paul Stiefel, chairman of the Finance Committee of the Board of Trustees, indicated that the decision to purchase the 3000-series computer was the result of a five-year plan at Oakton. The plan includes the development of data-base systems, enhanced computer-based instruction, and support of the computer systems at both of Oakton's future locations. Oakton has an interim campus in Morton Grove and a permanent facility is under construction in Des Plaines. When the permanent campus opens next year, it is planned that CAI, admissions and registration for the college and MONNACEP, and data processing will function immediately and fully at both sites.

The 3031 computer is being purchased through a loan from the First National Bank of Skokie. This arrangement, stated Stiefel, provides a substantial advantage over the lease rate from IBM.

By next summer it is planned that Oakton students will no longer use keypunched programs. Instead, they will use IBM's Conversational Monitoring System (CMS) to perform on-line programming and to learn computer concepts. On-line means programs are directly and immediately available on a screen.

With keypunch, "information" holes are punched into a card at a machine. The card must be taken out and inserted into a computer. The computer then produces a "readout" on long sheets of paper or on cards. However with CMS, information is requested by pressing several buttons at a console. Within seconds, the data may be read directly from an adjacent screen.

Saben estimated a maximum of two to three seconds response time under peak load with the new computer. This makes the computer very attractive to students, he said, explaining that waiting half a minute or more between responses when a student is requesting many pieces of information can be a problem with other computer systems.

Data processing is currently the fastest-growing career program at Oakton. Over 600 students are enrolled, representing a more than 25% increase since last year. According to Saben programmers trained in the IBM 370 languages and concepts are in constant demand, and command excellent salaries.

The 3031 computer will be useful to other students as well. It will be used for a computerized vocational information system, the interactive problem-solving language called BASIC, and computer-assisted instruction (CAI).

The new computer will also meet the needs of the Niles Township High School District. Under a joint agreement established in October, 1973, Oakton has worked closely with Niles to develop economical, on-line information systems in areas such as registration, student accounting, budget accounting, and payroll/personnel applications. Both Oakton and Niles are now able to perform, very quickly, such functions as registration, production of student schedules and bills, determination of class sizes, display of transcripts and other services.

Sharing computer services has reduced these costs for both Oakton and Niles, said Mr. Stiefel, yet it has made it possible to implement computerized systems that would not have been feasible by either institution separately.

Auto engine repair

Automobile engine repair (TEC E35 01) a special weekend lecture and demonstration program for car buffs and amateur mechanics, will be offered on Friday, October 13, from 7 to 10 p.m., and Saturday, October 14, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. The course will meet at Maine East High School, Dempster and Potter, Park Ridge.

The program is sponsored by MONACEP, the continuing education division of Oakton Community College, in cooperation with the Maine, Niles and Northfield High-School districts.

Al Brower will teach participants how to dismantle and reassemble an automobile engine in a systematic, efficient manner. There will be a demonstration on a regular automobile engine.

The fee for residents and non-residents of the Oakton Community College district is $25; for district residents 60 years and over it is $12.50.

One may register for the course by mail or in person at most of the nine MONACEP centers from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m., Monday through Friday or at the MONACEP office at Oakton Community College, Oakton and Nagle, Morton Grove. Registration will also be taken at the first class session, if space permits.

For persons who are "afraid of math," a special session will be held at Oakton Community College. "Overcoming Math Anxiety" (MONACEP MAT E01 61) will meet on Tuesday, October 17, from 6:30-9:30 p.m. at the OCC Interim Campus, Oakton and Nagle, Morton Grove. The cost is $6 for Oakton residents and others; for seniors it is $3.

New CETA grant approved for Park District

by Alice M. Bobula

Niles Park District officials received conditional confirmation Tuesday, Oct. 10 of a $151,000 grant under the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA) to be used for public relations, additional supervision of park programs and improvement and maintenance of parks and facilities.

Park application for the grant was made Aug. 1, followed by a meeting with CETA officials Aug. 25.

The grant covering a 12-month period was approved on a quarterly basis and the first federal funding of $37,775 is available thru Dec. 31. If the program is continued, according to Park Director William Hughes, indications are the Park District will get the full $151,000.

Re-authorization of the CETA program has passed both Houses of Congress but differences remain which must be worked out in a joint Senate/House committee prior to final approval.

The Park District previously received a $119,953.45 CETA grant covering an 8 month period beginning Feb. 1 thru Sept. 30, 1978 to fund 15 full time park positions. Federal monies issued thru the Cook County Office of Manpower Services had come in late last year Hughes said and applications had not been approved until Feb. 1.

Taxing bodies and non-profit agencies can qualify for CETA grants to hire long-term unemployed persons if they have no way of funding the proposed projects themselves.

Hughes said the Niles Park District basically became involved due to "an acute need for park policing to reduce vandalism and the need to improve and renovate aging facilities and park sites."

Jackson's job assured until June

Librarian gets raise, new contract

Niles librarian Edith Jackson had a new contract approved until June 30, 1979, after new board members failed by one vote to have it extend only until February 1, 1979.

At the Oct. 11 Niles library board meeting, the meeting adjourned at 1 a.m. after the older four board members, defending the controversial administrator, overrode the three votes of the newly-elected board members, who wanted to review Mrs. Jackson's future in the district 60 days prior to February, when they preferred her contract should expire.

Mrs. Jackson's salary will be $18,500 until February when she'll receive a $1,200 annual boost to $19,702. Former administrator Francis Allen received about $17,000 plus benefits during his last year in 1977.

The controversies between old and new board members surfaced in the middle of the meeting when new board member Rita Breitbart read a committee report on employee-management relations. Mrs. Breitbart read several statements citing Mrs. Jackson "must" do

Library to host speaker on nutrition

On Wednesday, Oct. 25 at 10:30 a.m., the Niles Public Library will initiate a program of speakers and/or discussion sessions entitled Live at the Niles Library. As often as possible we will host interesting professional people who will present a variety of timely and provocative programs.

For our first session we are pleased to announce that our guest will be Teri Gargano, a nutritionist who will address the all too common plea "Help! My kids won't eat right." By assessing the inter-relationships between what we eat and how we behave, she will try to help us understand the subtle forces which play upon your dietary habits and suggest how you may control them. You might be surprised how television's commercials affect your family's eating habits, now supermarket shelf arrangement influences your grocery shopping selection, how often your friends' habits weigh upon yours, and how blatant quackery is used to undermine people's nutritional needs for the profit of others.

Well, we were lucky again! Sept. 26 turned out to be a beautiful day for our trip to Potowanami Park. The ride out was beautiful with all the pretty colors and the fresh country air. The boat ride down the Fox River was very calm and enjoyable with singing, dancing. The meal in the Pavilion was very delicious even with our uninvited guests, the Bees. Everyone was a good sport and just ignored them.

Our trip back was very relaxing with George Hall, Fr. Cerniglia, and Jo Florio leading us in song. And boy, oh boy, can we sing! Pictures were taken and with any luck, if they turn out, you will be seeing them soon in print.

Two injured in Harlem-Main car collision

A Northbrook woman and a Chicago man were injured in a two-car collision Oct. 12 after the male motorist allegedly ran a red light on Harlem Ave. at Main St. shortly before 5 p.m.

Taken to Lutheran General Hospital with injuries were Margaret Doyle, 26, of 3643 Salem Walk North, and John D. Karson, 19, of 6828 Northwest Highway.

According to police Ms. Doyle was making a left turn from Harlem onto Main St. when the southbound Karson car allegedly went thru the intersection after the traffic signal turned red, striking the woman's car and causing both autos to spin.

A witness said the Karson car was "wrapped around" an electric pole and a traffic standard on the southwest corner of Harlem Ave. The car driven by Doyle was spun around facing east in the northbound lanes of Harlem Ave. Both cars were towed to Skokie Automotive, 7254 Milwaukee Ave. Karson was ticketed for disobeying a red light and for damage to village property. He is scheduled to appear in Niles Court on Nov. 9.

Suspects seized on marijuana charge

Two Chicago youths were arrested Oct. 8 at Carol St. and Cumberland Ave. in Niles and held on charges of allegedly possessing marijuana according to police.

Steven Wagner, 20, of 7707 Summerdale and Paul Nelson, 19, of 7650 Summerdale were charged with possession of cannabis and released under individual $1,000 bonds pending a Nov. 3 hearing in Niles circuit court.

On routine patrol around 3:30 a.m. Sunday morning, Officer Don Leavitt said he observed a car parked on the grass facing south on Cumberland at Carol St.

Investigation revealed the driver and his passenger both had in their possession plastic bags containing a green leafy substance, each weighing 28 grams.

A second passenger asleep in the rear of the car was released without charges.

Attempted burglary

An attempt to break into Pankau Drugs at 7946 Waukegan rd. overnight Oct. 8 was apparently blocked by a crossbar across the door.

Police said someone tried to get into the drugstore by kicking in the rear door.

The store, however, had been entered on two previous occasions in the same manner and the owner had replaced the old door and set in a new crossbar which prevented the Sunday breakin.

Damages were estimated at $150.

Guns stolen in house burglary

Police said numerous guns were taken in burglary of a Nordica home sometime between 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. Friday, Oct. 6.

Thieves broke into the apartment thru a rear window. Once inside they took a cassette recorder, a Mauser rifle, two .22 cal. rifles, two 12 ga. shotguns, a BB rifle and a BB gun, and left thru the rear door of the apartment.

Don golfers win conference title

Sparked by junior Bob Dickman's record-breaking one under par round of 70, the Notre Dame Dons won last week's East Suburban Catholic Conference Golf Championship which was held at the Rob Roy Courses.

It is by no means a cliché to call the Dons' first Conference title since 1965 a "team victory". Notre Dame's overall total of 310 broke the former ESCC record by two full shots! Magnificent as it was, Dickman's round might not have been enough if not for the depth provided by Chris Swift's 78, John Mas' 79, 83's by Carl Cepturn and junior Tom Govern, and an 84 by Jim Plink.

Coach Fran Willett's golfers were strong throughout the dual meet season as well, finishing with a perfect Conference record and making some very impressive showings against other area schools. In post season play, Dickman continued his outstanding shotmaking by finishing in a tie for second in the Prospect District Meet, thereby qualifying to advance in State Championship play.

So a note of congratulations is in order for the 1978 Notre Dame Varsity Golf Team, their showing being one of the best in the school's history. They showed the mark of a great team in any sport: they were consistently good.

Niles West runners victorious

The running Indians from Niles West High School posted their fourteenth dual meet win of the 1978 season as they ran over Taft High School. The score of the meet showed West with 22 points and Taft with 33. The Indians suffered their fifth loss of the season to Maine East with East scoring 20 points to West's 43.

The Indians were without the services of their second and fourth men. Ricky Bedony started the race but because he is still suffering from an infection was not able to complete the three miles. Guy Brilando has been bothered by stomach pains and could not complete.

Rick Arendt won the meet with a very good time of 15:19 for the three mile course. Second man for West was sophomore Steve Rosenblum who is having a super season.

Niles West will host the CSL Conference meet on Saturday, Oct. 21 at Niles West. The meet starts at 11 a.m. with the varsity running at 11.

Brian Piccolo Scholarship Party

The name has changed but the spirit, purpose and determination goes forward when the 8th annual Lou Malnati-Brian Piccolo Scholarship Party will be held on Monday, Oct. 30 at Lou Malnati's Pizzeria, 6649 N. Lincoln ave., Lincolnwood, starting at 5 p.m.

Tickets for the scholarship dinner party may be purchased at the door. Your contribution for the complete evening is $25. Make checks payable to the Lou Malnati-Brian Piccolo Scholarship Fund (tax deductible).

Gymnastic performance

Maine North's gymnastic club, the Marmosets, will swing, tumble and dance to "Music Through the Ages" on Thursday, Oct. 19, and Friday, Oct. 20, at 7:30 p.m. in the auxiliary gymnasium.

The show will include performances on the trapeze, the winging ladder, the bars and the balance beam. Floor exercise, tumbling and dance will also highlight the show.

ND Dons roll over St. Pats 14-0

Due to a lack of size in the interior line, the Notre Dame Dons have gone to the pass a great deal this season. After some initial frustrations, things are beginning to come together. Last Friday night both the offense and defense turned in effective performances as the Dons beat conference rival St. Patrick 14-0.

Notre Dame got all the scoring they needed on two touchdown passes from Rich Dietz to outstanding senior wide receiver Mike Rigali and the defense never really let the Shamrocks of St. Pat's get any offensive momentum. The victory was a very important one in that it gives the Dons an excellent chance at their first winning season in a couple of years, along with the possibility of a strong finish in the East Suburban Catholic Conference race. Next Friday night Notre Dame travels out to face Carmel of Mundelein. The Corsairs have not proven to be the soft touch of recent seasons, exhibiting a very stingy defense throughout the year. But if the Don offense can continue its noticeable week by week improvement, they should leave Mundelein with victory number four.

Halloween masks can be a safety hazard

Halloween masks can be a safety hazard, warns the Northern Cook County Optometric Auxiliary.

According to a spokesperson of the Auxiliary, masks can slip out of place or have such small eye holes that they block a child's view of approaching cars, objects on the ground, steps, curbs and holes in lawns or streets.

"A safe alternative to masks is to use non-allergenic makeup to disguise your child for Halloween fun," the president said. She added the makeup should be applied by an adult to avoid accidents with makeup applicators.

An Illinois Optometric Association optometrist also pointed out that some simple costume decorating tricks can help protect children from accidental injury by making them safely visible to drivers.

"Adding retro-reflective material to a costume is the easiest and best way to increase its visibility to safe levels. According to optometric studies, the material makes pedestrians safely visible to drivers traveling even at the excessive speeds of 70 and 80 m.p.h. The tape should be applied to the front, sides and back of the costume.

The optometrist also reminded parents to have their child's eyes examined regularly. "Poor vision can be a handicap not only at Halloween but throughout the year," the Illinois Optometric Association optometrist said.

ERA Brokers, Bulls to raise funds for MDA

Electronic Realty Associates (ERA) of Northern Ill. and the Chicago Bulls have joined forces in the fight against muscular dystrophy.

Arrangements have been completed for part of the proceeds of ticket sales for the Bulls-San Diego home opener Oct. 20 at the Chicago Stadium to be donated to the Muscular Dystrophy Assn.

A special block of tickets for the game, priced at $4 and $7, is on sale at any of the 81 ERA offices throughout the Chicago area.

A percentage of each ticket sale made at an ERA broker will help the MDA wage its continuing battle against muscular dystrophy, according to Robert L. Zaun, president of the ERA brokers council.

In addition to seeing the Bulls make their home debut, fans attending the game will be treated to a halftime show in which local celebrities will display their skills at shooting baskets.

Lined up thus far for the event are Sen. Charles Percy of Ill., Mike Pyle of WGN, former Harlem Globetrotter Nate (Sweetwater) Clifton, Mike Downey of the Chicago Sun-Times, Ron Britton of WCFL and Tim Weigel of Channel 7.

More information can be obtained by calling the ERA of Northern Ill. headquarters in Schaumburg at 695-1622.

What is a realtor, and why do you need one?

"If you own a home, or you're planning to buy one, you're talking about the biggest, most important cash investment you'll probably ever make," according to Bob Rauschenberg and Hal London, realtors and co-owners of Realty World, Key Realtors, 8144 Milwaukee, Niles.

Rauschenberg continued, "The median cost of an American home today is $50,300.00, and where it's going is anybody's guess." A realtor is a real estate professional who will help you to look after that investment when you're ready to buy or sell. A realtor is also the only real estate professional who belongs to the National Association of Realtors and voluntarily subscribes to a strict code of business ethics. Anyone else is a real estate agent or real estate broker.

Rauschenberg went on to say, "When you consider the price of a home and how much it means in terms past savings and future earnings, you can't afford to make a mistake. That's why you need a realtor. Realtors who belong to the Realty World marketing system can provide many real estate services, including:

- * Free comparative market analysis.
 - * Yard signs and free advertising for your property in local and metropolitan newspapers.
 - * Color brochures of your property made from professional color photographs of interior and exterior shots.
 - * The convenience of having open houses completely planned and conducted right down to the furnishing of cookies and coffee. The seller doesn't even have to be present.
 - * The scheduling of appointments at the buyer's convenience, which means that the seller doesn't need to spend his Saturdays and Sundays conducting tours of his home, waiting for "no shows", and spending his valuable time on endless details.
 - * Guaranteed sale of your home, which is a special service offered by Realty World brokers.
- "If you would like to have more information about buying or selling real estate, stop in at our office at 8146 Milwaukee, Niles, or call us at 692-7000," Bob Rauschenberg said.

First National Bank building nears full occupancy

The new First National Bank Building in Des Plaines, which opened its doors in May, 1977 and quickly became a bustling metro business center, is nearing 100% occupancy, according to an announcement by Arthur R. Weiss, bank president. Currently, nearly 500 people are employed with the 27 tenants in the building.

Conveniently located in downtown Des Plaines at 701 Lee st. near rail, air and highway transportation, occupancy of the prime office space now exceeds 80%. Full occupancy is expected by the end of the year, according to projections by the building's developers, J.R. Gottlieb & Associates.

The First National Bank of Des Plaines occupies three levels and has the largest number of employees. Approximately 145 of the bank's 175 part and full time employees are located in the building. Other tenants listed on the roster employ as many as 40 and some as few as two.

Sciences, G.T.E. Service Corp., Dun & Bradstreet, Liberty Associates, Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States, Economics Laboratory, Inc., and Lex Hotels, Inc.

Also with offices in the building are Travelers Aid Association of America, HEW Area Director, Dept. Health, Education, Welfare Social Security Administration, Melvyn H. Berks, Atty., Harry M. Charatz, M.D.S.C., DeHaan & Stronberg, Attys., Gem Shop, Inc., Ray Griffin Associates, Hayman Uniform, Hume-Silber Associates, Norman Wallace, D.D.S., and Automated Accounting Systems.

The First National Bank Building connects at three levels with the adjacent Des Plaines Mall thus offering the convenience of a variety of retail shopping.

The building is the fifth home of the First National Bank which is celebrating its 65th year and has total assets of over $210 million. The bank first opened in 1913 with assets of $60,000.

The First National Bank Building, designed by Erickson & Stevens, was awarded the Des Plaines Chamber of Commerce and Industry 1977 Architectural Award for Outstanding Achievement.

Northwest Parishes celebrate Credit Union Day

Responding to the theme, "All kinds of people should get together," members of the nation's 22,400 credit unions are getting together to celebrate International Credit Union Day on Thursday, Oct. 19.

Members of Northwest Parishes Credit Union will be among those participating in the nationwide celebration, scheduled each year to recognize the credit union contribution to the American way of life.

Local activities will feature an Open House in the Northwest Parishes credit union office at 7267 W. Talcott ave. on the grounds of Immaculate Conception parish. It will begin at 9 o'clock in the morning, when the doors of the credit union open for business and will close with a drawing for a Sunbeam toaster oven at 5 p.m. Between times visitors to the credit union will be treated to kolachky, apple strudel and coffee and will receive a metric converter in the form of a slide rule.

The theme for this year's celebration of Credit Union Day is based on the Burt Bacharach song, "All Kinds of People Should Get Together."

"The song calls for people getting together and helping one another," explained Joseph A. Bosco, Northwest Parishes Credit Union president. "Credit Unions are good examples of the message in this song, since they are made up of people getting together to help each other with their financial needs," he added.

This year, more members than ever have occasion to celebrate the benefits of credit unionism during Credit Union Week, which extends from Oct. 15 through Oct. 21. "The national credit union movement has been growing at the astounding average rate of five new members every minute of every day," remarked George W. Spencer, treasurer/manager of Northwest Parishes Credit Union.

Credit unions are non profit cooperative institutions organized to provide financial thrift services to members. To become a credit union member, one must have a "common bond" with members of the credit union. Common bonds involve working at the same firm, living in the same residential area, or belonging to the same club, church, or association.

Pilgrimage to Our Lady of Snows

by Michael Provenzano
 Pope Paul VI in the year of 1973 said, "We must renew our devotion to the "Blessed Virgin", if we wish to obtain the Holy Spirit and be sincere followers of Christ Jesus. May Her faith lead us to the reality of the Gospel. Grand Knight Joseph Bachochin and Chairman and Past Grand Knight Augie Pranske of North American Martyrs Council #4338 of the Knights of Columbus in Niles with 16 members and their wives recently spent a weekend at "Our Lady of the Snows" in Belleville. The shrine is open year 'round and is located in a wooded area of southern Illinois atop a hillside overlooking the historic Mississippi River and world-renowned Gateway Arch in St. Louis. Inspiring is the word for the visit to the Shrine of Our Lady of the Snows. The entire family will revel in a joyous experience. Beauties of nature are majestically displayed in a vast 200-acre garden dotted with architectural gems. You'll thrill to the magnificent soaring Outdoor Altar cradled in a natural bowl surrounded by blooming roses in season. Wander hillside to the Annunciation Garden with the Mothers Prayer Walk and chiming Byzantine bells. Stroll along the Way of the Cross significantly portrayed by three-dimensional lifelike scenes. Marvel at the Lourdes Grotto tucked snugly within the hillside; an exact replica of the famous shrine in France. A wonderment of all earthly things will grip your senses as you contemplate the newest memorial scene - the Resurrection Cave in the Garden of Hope. There is so much to absorb for people of all ages, interests and faiths. The Rosary Courts, mosaics of artistic splendor; the Bronze Doors, largest ever cast in the United States; Christ the King Chapel, tastefully indicative of today's contemporary architecture - all this awaits you. The Shrine's sparkling natural and architectural beauty creates an unforgettable impression. You may wish to pause a moment and whisper a quiet prayer. ED HANSON

Gunsnoop

Actually, the Electro-Time-De-Materializer belongs to Commander Sur. I use it once in a while to beam myself back-in-time or ahead-in-time.

That's why I was able to write today's column in the Long Branch saloon in Dodge City, Kan., on Oct. 17, 1871. I have just finished my interview with that famous, fearless U.S. Marshal of Dodge City - Matt Dillon.

Matt left to chase some rustlers, so between sips of beer from a king-size stein, which costs only a nickel, I am penning what posterity will proclaim the world's most unusual personal interview.

I am very anxious to get done with it because Kitty, the rather over-painted but pretty lady who runs the joint, promised to introduce me to one of her charming dance hall girls. So pardon any errors and remember that back in those days, they didn't know as many words as we do today.

After the Electro-Time-De-Materializer put me back in Dodge City, in 1871, I high-tailed it to the Long Branch saloon where, I understand, the Marshal hangs out.

It was mid-afternoon, of a pleasant day, when I pushed in the swinging doors of the Long Branch and strode into the saloon. At this time of day, there were very few customers. The joint certainly wasn't jumping; about a half dozen drovers and a whiskey drummer were the only occupants.

Except, of course, for that big galoot with the ten gallon hat, who seems to have established permanent residence in the Long Branch. I refer to none other than that famous western Marshal - Matt Dillon.

Matt Dillon was slouched in a chair, facing the door and he spotted me the instant I spotted him. As I introduced myself, he gave me that famous steely-eyed stare of his, then he relaxed, shook hands and invited me to join him.

"Want a beer, mister?" he asked. I nodded, and after we

"What yuh expect young cowpokes to drink - milk?"
 "But he's a minor, Marshal."
 "I don't care if he's a Major, mister. Want another beer?"
 "Hey, look over there, Marshal! Those two drovers are having a fistfight!"
 "Let 'em fight - the boys are just working off a little steam."
 "Say, Marshal, there goes 'Doc' again, going up the stairs with another dance hall girl."
 "Long's it ain't Kitty, I don't pay it no mind, mister."
 "Oh, by the way, Marshal, how many men you killed in gun fights?"
 "About six hundred - not countin' Injuns, mister."
 "I've heard you're pretty fast with a gun, Marshal."
 "Want to find out, mister?"
 "Hell, no - the only thing I shoot off is my mouth."
 "Figures - want another beer, mister?"
 "Yes, thanks - say how tall are you, Marshal?"
 "Six feet, six inches - eight feet, two inches with my hat on."
 "Look, Marshal, there goes Festus up the stairs with a pretty dance hall girl. His spurs really do jingle."
 "He'll take 'em off once he gets upstairs, mister."
 "Almost two hours had passed during my interview with the Marshal. Finally, I said: "Well, Marshal, I enjoyed interviewing you - let's see if my facts are straight."
 "Shoot, mister."
 "Well, Marshal Dillon, you're the law in Dodge City. As chief law enforcement officer I find that you permit some strange things. For instance - you allow alcoholic beverages to be sold after hours to minors and unescorted women. You permit your girl, Kitty, to carry on the world's oldest profession. You ignore open gambling and fighting. When you're not gunning down people in the streets of Dodge, you're sitting around all day in the Long Branch guzzling beer or playing poker. Anything you wish to add, Marshal?"
 "Yep. There's a stage leaving Dodge at six in the morning. You be on it!"
 "But why? What have I done?"
 "One thing I don't tolerate in this town, mister, is a troublemaker. Be on that stage, if you know what's good for yuh!"
 "With that, Marshal Dillon rose to his majestic height of eight feet, two inches with his hat on, staggered out of the Long Branch saloon and rode off into the sunset."

were served I got right down to business.
 "You're the famous U.S. Marshal of Dodge?"
 "Yep."
 "How long you been Marshal?"
 "About 15 years."
 "You once had a deputy, a guy called Chester, with a gimpy leg..."
 "Yep."
 "I often wondered, what happened to him?"
 "Busted his other leg chasing an Indian maiden."
 "You try to run a pretty good town - you uphold law and order, eh?"
 "Yep - want another beer?"
 "Yes. Say, what's your relationship with Kitty, Marshal?"
 "Now look, mister - you're getting pretty personal."
 "Sorry about that - but my readers would like to know."
 "Kitty and me - we're just good friends, that's all, mister!"
 "Okay, look, Marshal, we're men of the world - you get any graft from letting the Long Branch keep open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week?"
 "That's my business, mister."
 "You have the image of being a fine, honest, upstanding Marshal, Marshal. Say, look at that pretty dance hall gal coming down the stairs followed by 'Doc'!"
 "That's Doc's business, mister."
 "What goes on in those upstairs rooms - I understand the Long Branch has a lot of pretty dance hall girls."
 "That's Kitty's business, mister."
 "Say, look over there Marshal - they're starting a poker game at that table and they're playing for money."
 "That's the player's business, mister."
 "Well, you're the Marshal - aren't you going to do something about the gambling?"
 "No harm in a little honest poker, mister."
 "Well, what about that young cowpoke over at the bar? He can't be more than 16. He's drinking whiskey."

Park District spook house

Do you dare enter the unknown? The Skokie Park District invites you to their Spook House, where getting in is just as hard as getting out. Once you make it through the maze the rest is child's play... or is it? See the mad scientist's laboratory; but don't get too close or you could end up like last year's tourist.

Visit the Spook House at Oakton Center, 4701 Oakton St. The hours are 3-6 p.m. on Monday and Tuesday, Oct. 30 and 31. Admission is 50¢. Treats will be given; but, please no tricks! The Spook House is for children in Grade 5 and under. 647-1500.

Rock Concert

Emerson Junior High School, 6101 Cumberland, Niles, is sponsoring a Rock Concert on Tuesday, Oct. 24, from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m.

This year's concert will feature "Stained Glass", a four man rock group. Tickets are $2 in advance which may be purchased at the school office, or $2.50 at the door. Maine East Concert Choir

"When your read, you begin with A,B,C, when you sing you begin with Do, Re, Me..." Just ask any one of the students from Concert Choir, at Maine East. They would probably be able to tell you a lot more than you already know about music.

Concert Choir is the most experienced chorus in the music department, along with being the most popular. It is the only choir which requires an audition.

There are about 70 students in the Maine East concert choir, and they perform both in and out of school. Their first in-school concert is Wednesday, Oct. 25. They will be performing along with the Maine East Singers and Choralliers.

All of the students involved in the Mixed Chorus I, II, and III seem to work toward Concert Choir. "It seems to be the final goal of the music students because it has always been an outstanding, social, musical organization," says music teacher Craig Johnson. "They perform at numerous concerts throughout the entire Chicago area."

Mr. Johnson, a graduate of Northwestern, is the director of the choir. He has been teaching music for four years, and this is his second year at Maine East. He has studied music just about all his life. He has a degree in vocal performance and is still continuing his work in music.

Concert choir benefits its students by exposing them to the community, and giving them different settings to perform in.

The Metropolitan Youth Symphony Orchestra announces that after a successful audition, Thomas Silvestri of Des Plaines became one of its new members. Thomas, a percussionist, is a sophomore at the American Conservatory of Music.

The Orchestra, under the direction of Mary K. Rosen, a DePaul University School of Music faculty member, will perform its first concert of the 19th season on Sunday, Dec. 10, at 3 p.m. in the St. James Cathedral, Wabash and Huron, Chicago. Admission is free.

Musically advanced high school and college age students interested in joining the Metropolitan Youth Symphony Orchestra may arrange auditions by calling the Conductor at 677-7265. Auditions are held throughout the year.

OCC film society

"The Graduate" and "The Misfits" will be featured by the OCC Film Society on Friday, Oct. 20, as part of the fall semester series "Roots of a Hollywood Anti-Hero".

Dustin Hoffman stars as a young college graduate who returns home to his middle-class parents in "The Graduate". He finds himself protesting against the values their world represents but at the same time takes time to have affairs with a neighbor's neurotic wife (Ann Bancroft) and her daughter (Katharine Ross). A film about the great U.S.A. dilemma - lack of communications between the generations - was filmed in 1967 and directed by Mike Nichols.

"The Misfits," filmed in 1961, is the last appearance of both Clark Gable and Marilyn Monroe before their deaths. Directed by John Huston, the film depicts the struggle between expectations and realizations, something both of them contended with off the screen as well.

Later presentations in the "Hollywood Anti-Hero Series" include performances by such actors as Peter Fonda, Woody Allen, Jack Nicholson, Paul Newman.

All features begin at 7:30 p.m., in Building 6, OCC Interim Campus, Oakton and Nagle, Morton Grove.

The screening area is accessible to the handicapped. A donation of 50¢ is requested of all Oakton and MONACEP students and $1 of all others.

Now open -- Friendly's Red Hots and Ice Cream Parlor

by Ed Hanson
An old Niles landmark for 25 years, formerly known as Carvel Ice Cream, has been completely remodeled and renovated and magically transformed into Friendly's Red Hots and Ice Cream Parlor at 7301 Milwaukee ave., just a few feet from Waukegan rd.

The owners of this fine, new emporium are Ron Lewis and Tony Bellino. They also own the Friendly's Red Hots and Ice Cream Parlor in the Meadowdale Shopping Center in Carpentersville, Ill. It has been highly successful and the same format is being utilized to insure the same success of their new business in Niles.

The new owners insist upon top quality ingredients, cleanliness and fast "friendly" service.

Their menu is quite extensive, featuring the following: Vienna pure beef red hots, beef burgers, Polish sausage, steak and tamale sandwiches, homemade Italian beef and sausage sandwiches, bar-b-q beef sandwiches, french fries, ice cream creations, ice cold beverages, and beef filled, homemade chunky chili.

Both Tony Bellino and Ron Lewis invite your patronage. I direct your attention to their advertisement on page 38 which offers free coupons. I have on several occasions enjoyed their red hots, sandwiches and super ice cream creations and highly recommend them to all my friends and readers in the Niles and Maine Township area.

Then in the Ides of Nov., the 14th, is the day for an interesting trip to Chinatown. Bringing a bit of the Far East closer to home, Chinatown offers the fascinations of the east as we take a guided tour to the Chinese Community Center, House of Buddha, the Chinese Christian Union Church, St. Therese's Catholic Mission, and the many shoppes along the way. We will be dining at Chiams for lunch, known as one of the favorites in Chinatown. Please join us for this trip to the "near" Far East.

Sign up at the Park District office, 7877 Milwaukee ave., for these and other interesting trips scheduled for the Ladies Choice Program.

Mikva honored by Senior Citizens

U.S. Congressman Abner J. Mikva (right) was presented the Award of Merit from the National Council of Senior Citizens. Presenting the award in the Congressman's Washington office was Executive Director William R. Hutton (left) of the senior citizens' group.

United States Congressman Abner J. Mikva (D-Illinois) has been awarded the coveted Award of Merit of the National Council of Senior Citizens, it was announced in Washington.

The National Council of Senior Citizens makes its Award of Merit to one Senator and one Representative each year. NCSC has 3,000 clubs representing more than 3.5 million members in the nation.

Executive Director William R. Hutton of the National Council of Senior Citizens said in announcing the award that Representative Mikva "has a most distinguished record for advocacy and achievement on behalf of senior citizens."

"Congressman Mikva," Hutton said, "has been in the forefront of efforts to improve the quality of life of older Americans."

"Congressman Mikva was one of the principal movers in the House for passage of the important Social Security Amendments which provided a sound financial basis for the social security system into the next century."

"Congressman Mikva, always a strong ally of senior citizens, watchdogged the Social Security Bill through the House Ways and Means Committee. He successfully beat back attempts to raise the retirement age for Social Security and to decrease Social Security benefits."

Porter receives top rating from Chamber

Rep. John Edward Porter, Republican Candidate for Congress in the 10th District, received a 96% rating from the Illinois Chamber of Commerce for the 1978 legislative session.

Porter was placed near the top of the Illinois House by the Chamber's Illinois Political Action Committee.

"I am very proud of my record in the legislature in support of our free enterprise system," Porter said.

"Although my opponent (incumbent U.S. Rep. Abner Mikva) and I have many differences, this issue is perhaps the one in which we disagree most fundamentally," Porter said. "Mr. Mikva has consistently supported excessive government controls on business enterprise that have increased paperwork, increased costs of doing business, increased prices to the consumer, undermined capital formation and, in the long run, caused unemployment."

Porter said his philosophy and approach is "to allow the free enterprise system to work for all of us and to encourage the capital formation that provides new plants, new equipment and real jobs and real income for our people."

Porter differed with the Chamber's positions on 14 key bills in only one instance - when he supported legislation ending the mandatory retirement age at 65. That bill passed the House but was not considered by the Illinois Senate.

Porter, a three-term lawmaker in the Illinois General Assembly has consistently received ratings above 90% from the Illinois Chamber of Commerce.

Mayors for Nimrod Committee

The mayors of seven communities in the Fourth Legislative District have formed a Mayors for Nimrod Committee supporting the re-election campaign of State Sen. John J. Nimrod (R-4th).

Mayor Martin Butler of Park Ridge is chairing the committee, which includes Mayors James Ryan of Arlington Heights, Herbert Volberding of Des Plaines, Thomas Smith of Glenview, Alan Helverson of Golf, Carolyn Krause of Mt. Prospect, and Richard Wolf of Prospect Heights.

"As mayors, we know how vital it is for our local government leaders to have a good working relationship with our state legislators, who can serve as liaisons to the state government," Butler stated. "We have always found in Senator Nimrod a good ear to our problems and an effective spokesman."

Butler joins Des Plaines City Clerk Eleanor Rohrbach in co-chairing the committee of elected officials who have pledged their support to Nimrod.

"I have the utmost respect for these local leaders," Nimrod said, "and I am especially pleased that all the independent mayors in the 4th District are backing me as well as the Republican mayors."

The local legislator is seeking his third term in the Illinois Senate. From 1961 to 1972 he served in local government as a township official in Niles Township.

He is Republican spokesman on the Committee on Higher Education and a member of the Committees on Appropriations and Labor and Commerce. He has previously served as Republican spokesman on the Senate Revenue Committee.

Nimrod's campaign headquarters is at 25-B Main St., Park Ridge. Telephone is 692-9444.

Nimrod lives in Glenview with his wife Inga and their four children.

Pullen named to ALEC Committee

State Rep. Penny Pullen (R-4th) was recently elected to the executive committee of the American Legislative Exchange Council (ALEC), a nationwide association of state legislators and congressmen.

She was chosen for the prestigious post by the ALEC board of directors, to which she was elected a year ago. Miss Pullen is one of two board members who will sit on the executive committee aside from the council's six officers.

After her election to the executive committee, Rep. Pullen was appointed to the committee which edits the book by ALEC chairman State Rep. Donna Carlson of Arizona.

Included in ALEC's 1977 book were such proposals as required minimal competency testing for high school students, a modified version of which was introduced by Sen. John Nimrod (R-4th) in 1977 and passed and signed into law this year for Illinois.

Nimrod also is a member of ALEC, which was founded four years ago by Totten and is now the fastest-growing organization of legislators in the nation, now numbering over 700 members.

Members of the general public are welcome to attend. Please call 236-0030 if interested.

United Mine Workers endorse Berger

The political action committee of the United Mine Workers of America this week announced its unanimous endorsement of Samuel S. Berger for State Senator in the Fourth District.

The Skokie Democrat said he was delighted by the endorsement, particularly because it demonstrates that his qualifications as a candidate extend beyond the interests of the local area.

"While, of course, the problems and concerns of the Fourth District would always be my highest priority as a Senator, I believe this important endorsement is proof that my vision and interest encompass all areas of state concern," Berger said.

"As one of the largest coal producing states in the country, Illinois has a critical need for improved mine safety and efficient energy operations. The United Mine Workers have recognized my commitment to this by giving me their support," he said.

The endorsement is the latest in a series of actions taken by professional and labor organizations on behalf of Berger's candidacy. He already carries the backing of the AFL-CIO, the United Auto Workers, the Illinois Education Association and the North Suburban Teachers Union.

"The concerns of all professional and working people in the Fourth District are my concerns. I believe the voters will demonstrate that it is time for someone who truly represents their interests - and not those of big business special interests - to be their State Senator, he added.

LETTERS to EDITOR

Help the leaders of tomorrow - today

Dear Editor:

A few of our youths have turned to criminal action and organizing gangs, either for profits, excitement or from sheer boredom.

As parents we should be concerned and encourage our youngsters to keep busy as idle hands and idle minds have a way of getting into trouble if for no other reason than escaping from sheer boredom. Sports and hobbies are a safety valve for youthful energies. Our parks can play an important part in preparing our youngsters to become better citizens by giving them the best sports that would best interest them. Children must respect the value of the property of their neighbors and our parks. This is the responsibility of the parents. It's a sad affair when parents are afraid of their young ones! They must be taught to respect life, their religion and obey the Ten Commandments, and from this we could build a neighborhood with better understanding and love. We must teach them to take the right road to success. We must give them our cooperation and support; they duly deserve it. I am sure that if a greater number of unselfish people took some of their spare time and energy years ago in dealing with the problem of juvenile delinquency it would not be the grave problem that it is today. It's never too late to unite together and work for the future of our youngsters.

The welfare of our children is a real concern and problem. There must be a solution.

Roses for Abner

Dear Editor,

Rep. Abner Mikva should be congratulated for voting against the wasteful public works bill before it got to President Carter's desk.

Only three Congressmen (Mikva, Edward Derwinski R-4 and Philip Crane R-12) had the good fiscal sense to nix this pork barrel before the public outcry for tax relief caused Congress to uphold the President's veto of it.

This is another example of Mikva's ability to vote on budget cuts discriminately and realistically instead of using the hatchet approach which seems to have become the battle song of so many myopic politicians.

The park director said he had asked for funding of 18 jobs under new application this year but CETA said no more could be funded than had been previously.

The three eliminated were an architect-engineer for updating of blueprints and plats of surveys, an assistant ice rink supervisor and an athletic instructor for the Grenman Heights gym.

The new park proposal calls for an ice rink supervisor to improve public relations at the Ballard Sports Complex; 6 park rangers (increased over the previous three rangers) who will patrol parksites 4 p.m. to midnight; 4 maintenance laborers (2 year-around and an additional 2 for the summer months) to maintain playground equipment, collect garbage, for grass-cutting and making of ice; 1 mechanic to work on equipment and assist the Park mechanic; 1 recreational supervisor and 2 skilled laborers, responsible for special projects and constructions and for use in emergency procedures (electrical, carpentry, plumbing, etc.).

Should the CETA program be discontinued after Dec. 31, Hughes said park commissioners were seriously giving thought to extension of the Park Ranger positions to be funded with local monies.

While vandalism has not been eliminated "and we'll never be able to accomplish that", Hughes said Park Rangers have reduced acts by vandals and in some instances have apprehended juveniles with restitution by parents.

"We have made people using the parks aware of park patrol and we have given residents, particularly those adjacent to park sites, a needed feeling of security, that someone is keeping an eye on things."

The increase in the number of rangers for patrol was geared to public relations he said.

With official confirmation received Tuesday, the park district is taking applications for employment. Applicants must be 18 years old; a suburban Cook County resident; a U.S. citizen or resident alien; a member of low income family; and have been unemployed 15 out of the last 20 weeks.

Applicants hired previously came from Niles, Des Plaines, Skokie and Park Ridge said Hughes who noted employees hired under the CETA programs must be certified thru the Mt. Prospect office of the Illinois State Employment Service.

Niles Park Board hears noise pollution complaint

by Alice M. Bobala

An otherwise placid atmosphere of the monthly Niles Park District Board meeting Tuesday, Oct. 17 was lightened by appearance before commissioners of a Jonquil Terrace resident who complained again of noisy and littered environmental conditions existing at Kirk Lane Park at Jonquil Terrace and Waukegan rd.

Moreover, she humorously noted receipt of a recent letter signed by a park commissioner (later identified as Louella Preston) urging re-election of a congressman (D.) who has spoken out against noise pollution.

The Kirk Lane area resident whose home abuts the Niles park said she was going to send the congressman a copy of the letter and "tell him about my noise problems."

Tuesday night's charges concerned lighting of fireworks from slide-runs, golf ball shots toward area homes and noise from youths playing ball from the tops of playground equipment. "The noise was so awful," she said, "I couldn't eat dinner tonight."

Further, she told the board members of two women who come to the park and pass cigarettes out to the children. She said the youngsters take the proffered cigarettes and run under the shrubbery to light them.

Numerous previous visits before the park board charged noisy and foul language by youngsters using the park, of debris, garbage and left-overs thrown into neighboring yards and of destruction to park equipment.

Park Board President Jeffrey Arnold told the beleaguered resident that Park Rangers would begin a regular patrol of the park to bring conditions under control.

Also appearing before the Park Board Tuesday night, former park employee Gene Wdowiak asked why he had not been granted notification of a closed hearing to vindicate himself of charges on which he had been fired.

The former golf course starter was fired last September allegedly due to unfavorable publicity resulting from open criticism of park management. His request for a Park Board hearing, granted by commissioners was predicated on Wdowiak's written criticisms for review and evaluation by the Board prior to the hearing date.

Arnold said Wdowiak's comments had been received and a date for the hearing was under consideration by park commissioners.

In other business Park Attorney Gabriel Berrafato said the park district will hold election for 2 commissioners with village elections the third Tuesday of April, 1979.

In the attempt to consolidate all elections, Berrafato noted that Governor Thompson recently signed House Bill 2554, extending the plan to consolidate elections to Dec. 1, 1980. Since park elections are held in odd-numbered years, the district will not hold election under the new law until 1981.

Berrafato set Jan. 8, 1979 as the first date to file for two expiring park terms, stating Jan. 22, 1979 as the "last date to file."

Comr. Steve Chamera said he would formally initiate Board discussion next January of Residency Rule for the park district. Reason for the delay he said was due to his concern over fellow board members' peace of mind for the upcoming holidays.

Comr. Dan Kosiba reported efforts were "still in the talking stage" toward use of the Trident Center for Maine-Niles Association of Special Recreation (M-NASR) activities.

"It is possible that M-NASR may get a one-day a week slot on an experimental basis," he noted, difficult to obtain due to the numerous programs in operation at the Center.

"Kosiba further noted review of a proposed sidewalk to the south of Ballard rd. at Washington Terrace Park remains under consideration by the Niles Park District, Village of Niles, School District 63 and the Eagle Shopping Center, "with nothing to report."

*Park Director William Hughes indicated bills in excess of $5,000 for repair and replacement of freon at the Ballard Ice Rink due to a suspected leak not found until this year.

certain things in her dealings with employees who work with her. Older board member Diane Hanson said the report was in poor taste noting the word "must" was not a proper word to be used in such a report. She said it was a command which demanded Mrs. Jackson act a certain way, which Hanson felt was distasteful. She asked what the report demanded of employees and added it had no feedback from Mrs. Jackson which she thought would be appropriate. Immediately after Mrs. Hanson's objections, the Board went into executive session, prior to publicly discussing and voting on the new contract for the new administrator.

At the public meeting new board members fought for the administrator's contract ending in February. Peg Rajski thought Mrs. Jackson, who has been employed in the district since the beginning of the year, should have a six-month evaluation, the same as other library employees. Rita Breitbart, also serving her first term, along with Rajski and Pestine, said it was not reasonable Jackson should receive the $11,800 pay boost without an evaluation. She also thought the administrator would be in her job for 18 months, by the time the June contract expires which she also felt was not reasonable without having an evaluation. The third new board member, Harry Pestine, agreed Jackson would be employed one year when the February deadline arrived and felt a review of her work should be forthcoming then. Mrs. Breitbart said things in the library district are not moving forward and it would be detrimental to extend the time of the contract. She said it would be extending the time of confusion in the district and would be detrimental to the public.

Attorney Schechter, representing Mrs. Jackson, said the situation in the district has not been stabilized and said the library board may or may not be obstructionist in its dealing with the Jackson problem. He noted with the arrival of the new board members the board has allowed itself to be disputatious, rather than standing behind the administration.

Board president Lloyd Gillet admitted the board does have some problems but he felt if the contract terminated in February, the board would not have sufficient time to evaluate the situation.

The board voted on three contracts before finally reaching a decision at 11 a.m. Board president Gillet broke the tie votes each of the three times. The final vote for Mrs. Jackson receiving a contract until June with a $1,200 raise in February bringing her salary to $19,702 per year effective February 1, 1979.

Burglars hit Osco Drugs

An undetermined amount of drugs were taken Oct. 8 in burglary of Osco Drug store at 8201 Golf rd. When police responded to a call at 7:30 a.m. Monday, they discovered a window had been smashed on the west side of the building allowing the burglars to crawl into the store. Fast change artist

The cashier of the Ponderosa Steak House, 7237 Dempster, was conned out of cash change and a $20 bill by a "fast change" artist Saturday, Oct. 7. She said a 28 year old man accompanied by a woman carrying a baby ordered a piece of pie and paid for it with a $20 bill. Immediately after getting his $19 change, the man asked to pay for the pie with a $10 bill.

The cashier told him he already had paid, showing him the twenty which he took and put into his pocket. Then, said the girl, he displayed four $10 bills, asking her for two $20 bills. At this time the restaurant manager advised the con man that he knew what was going on, so the ripoff artist left.

Take cash from register

About $68 in cash was stolen Oct. 10 from a front cash register located in Toy by Rizzi in Golf Mill. Employees of the toy store said four men entered the store just before 8 p.m. and two of the men kept the clerks occupied while the other two remained at the front of the store. The theft was discovered at closing time.

Under the hood sessions for high school drivers

Under the hood mechanics at Golf Mill Chrysler/Plymouth to learn preventative auto maintenance are Maine East High School students Adrienne Breitbart, Niles; Julie Turk, Niles; Hafina Janik, Niles; Ken Peterson, Des Plaines; and Ron Asien, Niles.

High school driver training courses teach students how to operate an automobile safely and the rules of the road, but new drivers usually are oblivious of auto maintenance needs and how to cope with emergency road problems.

"Most high school driver training graduates do not know how to change a tire, start a stalled vehicle safely with a jumper cable, or even why the engine oil should be checked regularly," asserts Paul Dance, president of Golf Mill Chrysler-Plymouth in Niles.

"New auto drivers," Dance maintains, "are vulnerable to safety hazards when their vehicles need emergency maintenance."

To help correct this situation, Dance has organized as a public service, an "Under the Hood" auto maintenance instruction session for high school students taking driver training courses.

Directors of the driver training programs at all of the Maine Township and Niles Township High Schools have been informed about the program, and invited to arrange for after-school instruction sessions at the auto agency, located at 9229 Milwaukee ave., just across from the Golf Mill Shopping Center.

More than 400 driver education and auto service students from Maine East and Maine North High Schools are now scheduled to participate in the program on a volunteer basis. There is no charge for the sessions.

Mechanics on the Golf Mill Chrysler-Plymouth Service Dept. staff will conduct the sessions under the direction of Fred Settanni, service manager.

The "Under the Hood" auto maintenance sessions will cover three major topics: "Making Your Car Road Ready", "Preventative Maintenance", and "Common Road Problems and How to Cope with Them".

Making your car road ready will cover the 31-point checklist that Chrysler Corporation dealers follow in their new vehicle preparation. Preventative Maintenance explains how and why auto owners and operators must regularly check power steering, exhaust system, brakes, transmission, wheel joints, drive belts, tires, cooling system and all fluids, including oil levels. Common road problems pointed out in the "Under the Hood" sessions include flat tire procedures - how to stop the car safely, how to use different types of jacks, and tire changing procedures. Instructors will explain how to safely remove a stalled vehicle from the roadway, how to signal for assistance, and how to properly and safely start the engine using battery booster cables.

Tire care will be stressed, including the importance of proper pressure and the safety features of various types of tires. The hazards of do-it-yourself electrical installations, including auto sound systems, will be pointed out, and the Golf Mill mechanics also will discuss the proper way to maintain the exterior and interior appearance of an automobile. Some of the high school driver training directors will offer students extra credit for attending the "Under the Hood" sessions. Interested parents also are welcome to join the students, adds Dance.

David B. Franks Marine Private David B. Franks, son of Ted F. and Joan Franks of 8323 N. Odell, Niles, has completed recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego.

During the 9-week training cycle, he learned the basics of battlefield survival. He was introduced to the typical daily routine that he will experience during his enlistment and studied the personal and professional standards traditionally exhibited by Marines.

He participated in an active physical conditioning program and gained proficiency in a variety of military skills, including first aid, rifle marksmanship and close order drill. Teamwork and self-discipline were emphasized throughout the training cycle.

The class is designed to save lives and reduce insurance costs by prevention of accidents while driving. One may register for the course by mail, in person at most of the nine MONACEP centers from 10

Niles West National Merit Semifinalists

Niles West High School's 15 National Merit Semifinalists for the 1978-79 school year are not only among the nation's most academically talented students, but are collectively also the largest group selected from the school since it became a four-year school in 1962. There is one Merit Semifinalist for every 187 students attending Niles West this fall.

Merit Semifinalists are selected by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation on the basis of the students' Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test/National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test (PSAT/NMSQT) scores and their state's percentage of the nation's total graduating senior class. They represent the top half of one percent of their state's graduating seniors.

Semifinalists advance to Finalist standing by meeting further requirements and are then eligible for various scholarships offered by the Corporation. The names of Merit Scholarship winners will be announced next April. The fifteen are David Alpern, Richard Arendt, Kathleen Bychowski, Pamela Chen, Peter Clarke, Gregg Cohan, Phyllis Ellin, Natalie Gilbert, Michael Horberg, Daniel Hurwich, Michael Kochman, Danita Fleck, Jeffrey Reiter, Steven Shavel, and Hugh Shonfeld. Fourteen of Niles West's students demonstrated exceptional academic promise on the PSAT/NMSQT and were named Commended students. These are Susan Glaberson, Daniel Greenberg, Christopher Iripino, Gordon Kummel, Ronald Levin, Robert Levy, Christine Mayer, Edward Rice, Laurence Samuelson, Anthony Scott, Karen Sprogis and Cynthia Tao.
