Niles unites to curb vandalism

Due to an increase in vandalism over last year, Mayor Nicholas Blase called a meeting of school superintendents, village officials, church representatives, and the youth section of the Niles Police to take a united stand against vandalism in Niles.

Niles Police Sergeant James Gerhardt, in a study he presented at the meeting, projected that vandalism will cost the Village of Niles and its residents $71,000 in 1979.

Mayor Blase commented that ten years ago, juveniles would paint graffiti on fences, today they tear down the fences. Juveniles seventeen years old and under are responsible for 90% of the vandalism. If parents are aware of the problem, and the amount it is costing the community, he felt we could all work together to curb vandalism.

Sergeant Gerhardt, Niles youth officer, explained that due to the parental responsibility ordinance which went into effect in May, 1976, in Niles, there is a higher rate of restitution in Niles than in neighboring communities.

Mayor Blase has declared the week beginning April 16th as Vandalism Awareness Week. Posters will be distributed throughout Niles, and flyers will be given to parents during conferences at their local schools.

McDonalds on Milwaukee and Oakton is the first business in Niles to comply with the city's attempt to cope with vandalism. McDonald's is offering a reward of $500.00 to anyone supplying information leading to the arrest and conviction of anyone vandalizing McDonald's property. Other local businesses are expected to follow.

Buglebits ...

We had very mixed feelings about the proposed appointment of Ab Mikva to the Federal Appeals Court. On the one hand, we were most pleased he was selected for such a prestigious post. His scholarly background plus his long years in public service merit such a selection. And the tremendous upheaval in his life to maintain his Congressional seat by the every-other-year campaigning certainly begs the man should get off such a roller coaster existence. But we're sorry to see him move out of our political lives. It was exciting and stimulating to be a very small part of the Mikva campaigns. To have a Representative with such grace and style, such warmth and intellect, made all of us supporters proud.

It was a shame Mikva didn't run for the Senate, opposing Chuck Percy. Despite Percy's good looks and North Shore connections, he is an appallingly weak candidate. Had they competed against each other, Percy's shortcomings would have become all too apparent. Percy's recent statements favoring Dick Ogilvie for Mayor of Chicago were typical remarks of a guy who just is not with it. At a time when Republicans are trying to improve the image of their Chicago Mayoral candidate Wallace Johnson, Percy notes how great it would be if Dick Ogilvie was the candidate.

Down here in the boonies, we received a telephone call from former Park Commissioner Jack Leske, who is deeply concerned with the number of Nick Blase people seeking to gain seats on the Niles Park Board. While Jack did not spell out his fears, he is concerned about the Blasesmen running the park district, as well as the village. While Leske did not say additional Blase people might result in the park district being Pie tasting and history will be subjects of the April meeting of the League of Women Voters of Morton Grove-Niles. While sampling from a large variety of pies, members and guests will enjoy an afternoon learning some of the history of their local villages. Slide presentations will be made by the Morton Grove Historical Society and the Niles Historical and Art Society.

The meeting will be held on Saturday, April 7 at 1 p.m. at the Prairie View Community Center, 6834 Dempster, Morton Grove. Admission will be $2 and the public is invited to attend this interesting meeting.

A threatened dispute Tuesday evening March 20 between industry and the Niles Baseball League over use of park district ballfields was avoided when both factions arrived at amicable resolution of differences.

Representatives of the NBL said they became concerned when an industrial ball league requested use of fields used by the NBL, which would necessitate an "impossible" scheduling change in the NBL operation.

Appearing on behalf of A.B. Dick Co. at 5700 Touhy ave. in Niles, former Nilesite Jack Leske told commissioners his company had no intention to supersede the NBL schedule of play.

It was only recently said Leske that he became aware of the baseball scheduling problems when company personnel approached him, as a former Niles Park District commissioner, for assistance.

"The extent of floating rumors and of projected lawsuits," said Leske, induced him to appear before the park commissioners Tuesday night. Following realization that Diamonds 4 and 5 at Jozwiak Park were "per-

3 charged in restaurant brawl

Police from Niles, Park Ridge, Morton Grove, Glenview and the Cook County Sheriff's Office were required to break up a fight late Sunday evening, March 11 at Jonathon's Restaurant, 8501 Dempster st.

Niles police arrived at the scene to find a huge crowd watching fist fights in the parking lot and called for police assistance from neighboring villages.

Police said the battle began shortly after a restaurant cook, Denis Tsilibiris, 20, of 9404 Golf Terrace, Des Plaines, was allegedly hit in the stomach with a billy club by one of several men waiting in a nearby car in the restaurant parking lot.

Tsilibiris said he left the restaurant around 9 p.m. to join his brother George and a cousin who were waiting to drive him home from work. The fight began after he was attacked and fell to the ground.

Demetrius Lekkas, 28, of 118 Lawrence ave., Chicago, was charged with 2 counts of battery, for allegedly striking Tsilibiris and Niles Police Officer Dean Strzelecki.

Theodore Katselis, 20, of 4725 Washtenaw, Chicago, and Athanasios Bairaktaris, 20, of Elk Grove Village, were also charged with battery after they refused to stop fighting and allegedly struck Police Officers Vito LoVerde and William Ortlund.

The three men were released under bond pending a March 23 hearing in Niles Circuit Court.

Niles All American Seniors Club

The big snowstorm of '79 kept many of our seniors homebound in January and February. However, every week since finds more and more of our members leaving the security of their homes and apartments to attend our meetings.

Many new innovations are planned for this spring and summer. As an example on March 15 in celebration of St. Patrick's Day, our various table groups selected their own manner of celebrating. Some tables had the traditional corn beef sandwiches, and at other tables the ladies made potluck casseroles, bowls of salads and many ethnic dishes. The refreshments consisting of cake and coffee were furnished by the club. And, as a result, quoting the old cliché, a wonderful time was had by all.

This winter the Florida warmer weather and sunshine lured several of our members, among them the Al Browns, the Dave Matts and the William Meyers, all of whom returned with that enviable Florida tan.

A nominating committee has been formed consisting of Irma Conrad, William Clawson and Donald Ericson for our upcoming officers election.

Membership dues are now due and should be paid by month's end. Our very deepest sympathy to the relatives and friends of Louise Marzullo who passed away recently.

Senior Adult Center Leaning Tower Family Y

One of the many popular programs at the Senior Adult Center of the Leaning Tower Family Y is the Senior Aquanastics class. This is a co-ed class of exercises in the water, geared specifically to Seniors. Swimming skills are not required, as the class is held in the shallow end of the pool. The class meets Mondays and Wednesdays from 12:15 to 1 p.m. For further details, please contact Shirley Spears at 647-8222, ext. 539.

Another favorite program at the Senior Center is the Choral Group, which meets every Wednesday morning for rehearsal. One does not have to be a member of the Center to participate. Being able to carry a tune is the only qualification you need to join. Reading music is NOT a requirement; as you will learn as you sing.

Progress through the eyes of economy

"Progress with Economy" is the theme and party-name of the three incumbent Village of Niles trustees running for re-election on April 17, 1979.

Angelo Marcheschi (r), the senior trustee, has been a village official since 1963 and has resided in Niles for the past twenty-seven years. He is an insurance and real estate broker and has been an active citizen of the community for a majority of the time since moving into the village. Mr. Marcheschi was twice residential chairman of the Niles Leaning Tower YMCA fund raising campaign and in 1964 he was selected as Mr. Niles. When the Village of Niles decided to enter the All-American City competition, Mr. Marcheschi was one who spearheaded the drive that eventually brought about this honor to the village. He is a member of the Niles VFW Post 7712, Niles Chamber of Commerce and Kirk Lane Community Association. Perhaps Mr. Marcheschi's proudest achievement is his involvement with the Niles Lions Club where he has served in a number of capacities. His many hours of dedication to the Niles Lions Club have been recognized by the many titles bestowed upon him such as: Lifetime member and director; Past District Governor of Lions International; President Emeritus Lions of Illinois Foundation; and recipient of the Ambassador of Good Will award from Lions International.

Bart T. Murphy (l), Village of Niles Trustee, is a senior Vice President of Bankers Life and Casualty Company. He and his wife, Peggy, have five children and have resided in the Village of Niles for the past twenty-three years. Mr. Murphy, before becoming a village official, was one of the founding trustees representing Niles from 1972 to 1978 on the North Suburban Mass Transit District (NORTRAN). He served as Nortran's Vice-Chairman of Finance (1972-1975) and as the NORTRAN Chairman from 1975 to 1977. Mr. Murphy and his family are active members of St. John Brebeuf Parish. Festival V and the first Chairman of the St. John Brebeuf School Board. Mr. Murphy is presently serving on the Village Board's Finance, Insurance and Transportation Committees.

Ceramics Provenzano expresses concern for Niles youth

On Friday evening, March 30 at 7:30 p.m. the Niles Public Library, 6960 Oakton, presents Jeanne Costello, a local ceramist who will give a demonstration which should prove of great interest to anyone who is contemplating or has already adopted ceramics as a hobby. Ms. Costello will describe what is involved in hobby ceramics, the equipment needed, and she will demonstrate the steps any ceramist should follow. After her talk she will be open to your questions.

Ms. Costello has been a ceramist for seven years and is a National Ceramic Manufacturers Association "Certified Teacher." She feels that her program will be a good opportunity for people to become acquainted with a hobby which, for the past five years according to Ms. Costello, "has been the fastest growing avocation in the country."

On Thursday, March 22 at 7 p.m. the Library will present the film "World Without Cancer," a documentary study of the Hunzas, an Asian people whose society is nearly free of cancer. The question of just why they do not suffer this affliction, broached in terms of environment, diet and life style, will be explained. Narrator will be Paul Hampton, Chairman of the Freedom of Choice in Cancer Therapy and Representative to the International Cancer Victims and Friends. Literature is available.

Both these programs are free of charge.

Orville C. Ottow (c), who is now serving as Village of Niles Trustee, is Vice-President and co-founder of Tri-Pack Corporation, which manufactures point of purchase advertising displays with facilities in Chicago, California and New Jersey.

Mr. Ottow and his wife, Beverly, have five children and two grandchildren and have lived in Niles for twenty years. Mr. Ottow has twice served in the United States army, once in World War II and again during the Korean conflict. His rank at discharge was Captain in the artillery. Mr. Ottow is a graduate of Loyola University in Business administration and has a background in specialized courses in traffic and personnel management. He is past president of Our Lady of Ransom Holy Name Society and before becoming a Village of Niles Trustee, Mr. Ottow was a member of the Niles Planning and Zoning Board of Appeals and for 13 years he was secretary to this functioning board. Mr. Ottow is presently the Liaison trustee to the Niles Family Service Bureau.

Marcheschi, Murphy and Ottow, this is the team that requests your support in the upcoming Village of Niles election on April 17. Their name speaks for them and for you. "Progress with Economy." Let's continue it!

Provenzano has a progressive outlook for Niles future. He said, "nothing just happens—things must be made into reality by people concerned and he is vitally concerned and involved." When talking about the future he stated that the youth of Niles are part of the future and we must help curb juvenile delinquency by encouraging them to keep busy as idle hands and idle minds have a way of getting into trouble.

Sports and hobbies are a safety-value for youthful energies and when elected, Provenzano will work with the Niles Park Commissioners. This is part of a concerned trustee's interest in the future of Niles. As a former Niles Park Commissioner and a Big Brother active in youth activities aimed at rehabilitation of delinquent youth, Provenzano is concerned. He is also concerned about neighborhood problems, senior citizens, and personal communication with the people of Niles who have village problems. As an independent, without commitments, he speaks for himself and would like to speak and represent you on the Niles Village Board.

Trio charged in Radio Shack burglary

Police credited a Niles resident and a Park Ridge News Agency driver with furnishing information March 14 which led to apprehension of three Chicago men shortly after the trio allegedly burglarized the Radio Shack at 7245 Dempster st.

Arriving police units observed the entire front plexi-glass window of Radio Shack out of its frame and lying on the ground. Two stereo units valued at $1,000 were missing from the display area. At 3:38 a.m. the observant Crain st. homeowner again phoned police to report three men entered the parked van and were speeding eastbound on Conrad toward Harlem.

Police said they received a call from a Conrad st. resident at 3:24 a.m. Wednesday stating a van was parked at 7313 Conrad st. and its occupants were peering into backyards along the street. The men were gone on arrival by police who began a squad surveillance of the parked van. About 10 minutes later a news agency driver stopped near the police car stating he had gone into the Harlem-Dempster shopping center to deliver a paper when he heard a burglar alarm activated and saw 2 men running between the stores. A third man was observed coming out of Radio Shack. Niles and Morton Grove police curbed the van at Main st. and Harlem ave. where the three suspects were placed under arrest. Police said all three had previous police records on various charges including armed robbery, burglary, auto theft, and possession of drugs.

OCC track team ready for state meet

The Oakton Raider track team tumbled up for their upcoming State track meet with good performances at the Sauk Valley Invitational held on Friday, March 2.

Pole vaulter Jim Joren scored a first place in competition, tying his own school record with a vault of 12'8". Joren also placed fourth in the triple-jump.

Roy Jensen broke Larry Edington's record in the 300 yard dash with a time of 34.3 seconds and placed fifth.

Other Oakton placers were: Ken Maier, third in the two-mile; Mark Sharning, fifth in the two-mile; and Mike Okazaki, sixth in the 1000 yard run.

The Raiders also have two women runners who have performed well throughout the season. Peggy Noble set school records for the one-mile and 800 yard run, while Kathy Pannier broke the 60 and 300 yard dash records.

Gymnastics meet at Niles West

Female gymnasts from 32 Illinois high schools will converge on Niles West high school on Saturday, March 24, for the biggest, and reputedly the classiest gymnastics meet in the state. On that day, each invited school will send its best two performers in each event to the annual Niles West Invitational. "We've invited the best teams in the state to be here that night," said John Burkel, Niles West's head girls' gymnastics coach. Among them will be last year's state championship team, Addison Trail, perennial powerhouse Maine East and Lori Erickson's home, Palatine. Other teams that definitely will deserve some attention that night, according to Judi Sloan, Burkel's assistant and the creator of the Niles West Invitational, are top rated Hinsdale Central, mid-suburban league power Hersey and the strong teams fielded by Evanston and New Trier East. "And don't forget Niles West either," said Burkel and Sloan, "we've been doing very well this year so far and we're ready for the challenge." According to the two, this meet has become kind of a sneak-preview of the gymnastics talent that will be in state competition a few weeks after the invitational.

Since Burkel and Sloan are noted for their showmanship as well as their coaching, the Niles West Invitational has always been somewhat of a production as well as a gymnastics meet. In the past, there's been music, flowers, audiovisual effects and other audience-directed theatrics. They're not saying what they're up to for this year's meet, only that they've enlisted the help of their assistant and dance specialist, Gina Dryden, who's expected to add a dash of flamboyance to the Burkel-Sloan plans.

The action will start at 6:30 p.m., in the Niles West contest gym, Oakton at Edens, Skokie. Admission is $1 for students, $2 for adults.

SJB Cager win tournaments

St. John Brebeuf's seventh grade basketball team after a slow start this season is now in high gear, winning two tournaments in a row. For the first tournament championship trophy, they bested St. Henry's of Chicago in a closely contested quarter-final game hosted by St. Peter's of Skokie. In the semi-final game, St. John's completely overpowered St. Joseph's. In the championship game, St. Peter's was beaten soundly with all of the players on the team participating about equally.

A few days later this same St. John's team took home their first place trophy at the Notre Dame tournament. In the first game they met and beat St. Mary's of Des Plaines. St. John's beat St. Peter's again in the second game. In the semi-final game, Immaculate Conception of Chicago eventually succumbed to the St. John's full court press. St. John's met St. Juliana in the championship game. This game sawsawed back and forth until David Wells sank a free throw with 16 seconds left. An indication of St. John's tenacious defense was the inability of St. Juliana to inbound the ball and get a shot off during the last 18 seconds of the game. This defense was anchored by Tim Flynn and Glen Pietrazewski. Paul Leddy at point guard initiated every offensive formation. Brian Whittle who averaged about 20 points a game was named as All Star. Dave Wells was also named an All Star for his outstanding play.

A championship team invariably has an excellent sixth man who has the versatility to fill in at any position. The sixth man must know the intricacies and defensive plays. This position was filled by Rich Fallon. One observer who has attended nearly every one of the games played by this seventh grade St. John's team remarked, "I can't give enough praise to these players and their coach Dan Kosiba. This team was very green at the beginning of the season. The first time they faced St. Juliana this season they lost by about 20 points, the second time by about 15. Now after extensive practicing, the boys know what to do at all times. They keep the pressure on constantly to force turnovers and steals. The St. Juliana's team is still a very good team, but St. John's team now plays as a team and everyone participates." The other members of this championship team include: Brian Murphy, Andy Galassini, John Murphy, Frank Calarco, Dan Makowski, Mark Gawronski, Tim Flynn, John McCaarty, John Kosina, John Nowak, and Mike Nicholas.

100 years of outstanding service

Fr. Peter Sandomato, C.S.C.

Fr. Joseph Stroot, C.S.C.

Brother Leo Quirion, C.S.C.

Fr. Thomas Markos, C.S.C.

Notre Dame High School in Niles is celebrating four very important anniversaries during March. The special occasion is the milestone of twenty-five years of religious service by each of four men: Fr. Thomas Markos, C.S.C., Fr. Joseph Stroot, C.S.C., Fr. Peter Sandomato, C.S.C., and Brother Leo Quirion, C.S.C.

Each of these remarkable men were part of the original Notre Dame faculty when the Holy Cross Order first started the school back in 1955. Both Fr. Stroot and Dr. Sandomato have served at the school continuously since its inception, and, as with the others, their services has gone far beyond the classroom.

Fr. Stroot founded and still moderates the school's invaluable Cross and Anchor Organization, which has been responsible for providing all types of services for the public at the High School's various events. In addition, he runs Notre Dame's Alumni Association and is chairman of the school's annual Mardi Gras Carnival, which benefits the Holy Cross Missions throughout the world. In addition to teaching his classes, Fr. Sandomato served for many years as Moderator for the school newspaper and is presently Moderator of the Notre Dame Mother's Club.

Fr. Markos has also made an important contribution to the dynamic growth of Notre Dame.

First Baptist Church of Niles

The First Baptist Church of Niles (The Country Chapel), located at 7339 Waukegan rd., welcomes you to come worship with us this week. Bible classes for the various age groups start League.

Visitors are cordially invited to be present at this and the remaining midweek service: Wednesday, April 4 - "The Antonia/Praetorium" with guests from the Maine South High School Concert Choir.

He was the founder and first director of the school's excellent theatrical group, the Jugglers. He has also served as Dean of Students and Academic Dean, Assistant Principal, Father's Club Moderator, and Alumni Association Moderator. Fr. Markos presently serves as Notre Dame's seventh Principal.

Fr. Leo Quirion first came to Notre Dame as the Director of Maintenance. He next served for a number of years at Notre Dame University in South Bend, Indiana as a Seminary Librarian. Brother Leo then turned to Notre Dame High School where he presently works as the school Librarian.

There have been two celebrations set up for these very hard working men. The first, on Sunday, March 18th, included a Mass at St. John Brebeuf Church in Niles followed by a reception at the High School. The second will be held for the immediate Notre Dame High School Community on March 30, with a Mass for the students followed by a luncheon for members of the Holy Cross Order, as well as the faculty and staff of the school.

It is virtually impossible to adequately express what the work and selfless devotion of these four men has meant to Notre Dame High School over the years. So let us simply say: Congratulations, gentlemen, for a job well done!

Maine East Child Development Class

When should Dick or Jane cut teeth, stop thumb sucking, take that first step, or gurgle out "Dada"?

The answer can be found in Margaret Wichert's Child Development class at Maine East, designed to study children thru preschool. The course covers various stages a child goes thru while growing up. Sophomores, juniors and seniors, guy or gal, can enroll in this one-half credit, semester course.

Class requirements include projects applicable to the subject currently being studied. Various subjects during the semester include child care centers, reproduction, pre-natal care and infant care.

Discussion, speakers, and films are also part of the curriculum. Some of the visiting speakers have been biology teacher David Kovy on the subject of birth defects; a representative from La Maz natural child birth; a registered nurse from Lutheran General Hospital; and mothers with various aged children, including Maine East guidance counselor Verne Farrell with her seven-month-old son, Matthew, on the subject of parenting.

The student can receive additional experience in child care by planning a day's activities or organizing a birthday party for a child. After taking Child Development, if the student wishes to continue further in child care, he or she can take Child Care Occupations in or out of school. In-school the student works in the school's nursery school, and out of school the student works at a preschool or at a nursery school in the area.

Maine cooperatives sponsor fashion show

The Home Economics Cooperative Education programs of the four Maine Township High Schools are sponsoring their first fashion show, 8 p.m. Thursday, April 5 at Banquets by Brigante, 2648 Dempster, Des Plaines.

The show, titled "Spring into Fashion," will see students and teachers in Maine's child care, clothing/interior/design and foods occupations courses serving as models for merchandise from 21 stores in the northwest suburban area.

The stores participate in the high schools' cooperative education program by providing on-the-job work experience to students during a segment of the school day.

The purpose of the joint program, Barbara Meyers, food occupations coordinator at Maine East, said is to have cooperative education students from all four Maine schools work together towards a mutual goal. She noted the show will go to the Home Economics Vocational award, a $100 award presented to a home economics student and which must be used to help further that student's career.

Meyers said that besides modeling, food occupations students will be serving hot and cold hors d'oeuvres and beverages to the fashion show guests. Meyers added there will be door prizes with a top prize of a 10-speed Austrian Racer bicycle. There will also be live music provided by Jeff Jacobs, a Maine East student.

Stores participating in the fashion show include: Albert K, Boy's Place, Fashion Action, Fashion Plus, Fashion Conspiracy, GAP, Hermann's World of Sporting Goods, Jr. Attitudes, Kay Campbell's, La Salle, William A. Lewis, The Limited, Loehman's, Lytton's, Margie Bridal's, Park Lane, Parson's, Pines Mens' Store, Tree House, Montgomery Wards, and Wonklemans.

MaineStay offers art classes for youth

Oak Mill Mall will be the new location of the free art classes offered by MaineStay Youth Services. The Community Room, donated by the management of Oak Mill Mall, will provide more space and better facilities for the students," said Anthea George, executive director of MaineStay.

The art classes are taught by professional artist Norm Siegal, and are currently meeting at the Hinge, a coffeehouse in Park Ridge. Mr. Siegal individualizes student instruction and offers basic and advance drawing, painting, charcoal, and graphic arts instruction as well as more specialized training. He also is available to discuss career options in the art field with interested students. A new session will begin April 2 and continue for nine consecutive Monday evenings from 7 to 9. Classes are open to young people over 16 who have a serious interest in developing their artistic talent. Students supply their own materials although if these costs would be an obstacle special arrangements can be made.

Those interested can call MaineStay at 296-6644 for more information or can register by attending the first night of class. MaineStay is a community service of Maine Township Government providing a variety of services to young people and their families.

LETTERS to EDITOR

District 207 Board clarifies teacher layoffs

Dear Editor:

We, the members of the Maine Township High School Board of Education, want Maine Township residents to know that 42 teachers in District 207 have not been fired secretly, as a candidate for the High School Board has alleged in letters to local newspapers. In fact, no one has been fired; nothing has been done in secret.

If we look at what the facts are, 42 teachers were notified there was no defined assignment for them for the forthcoming school year because of declining enrollment. Following established procedures for such situations, as outlined in the Substantive Agreement between District 207 and the Maine Teachers Association, the tenured teachers - those with more than two years of service at Maine - were given 24 hour written notice to participate in conferences with the building principal and affording each one the opportunity to be accompanied by a representative. Furthermore, each of the non-tenured teachers also had personal conferences with their principals.

These personal conferences were conducted between February 15, 1979 and March 1, 1979.

These are the same procedures and practices Maine has followed for three years in laying off teachers because of declining enrollment, all of which are careful implementation of the School Code of Illinois. These are not adversary proceedings. The only villain here is declining enrollment.

As far as the allegation the District provided teachers little opportunity to find employment elsewhere next year, this is absolutely false. Teachers are notified as soon as possible. Just as important is the fact that at the beginning of the school year, each non-tenured teacher is informed by letter that the teaching position is for one year only and is subject to close examination of school enrollments.

One of the purposes of the personal conference is to give teachers whatever assistance the District can, like informing them about school districts that may be hiring and discussing with them opportunities for re-training and areas of other employment. The District has on-going contact with school districts state-wide and nation-wide in an attempt to place teachers into other positions.

The allegation of secrecy is even more absurd. The very day, March 15, that the writer's letters were appearing in some newspapers, most area newspapers were reporting - some on the front page - not only about the 42 teachers but the District expectation it may have to lay off another 100 or more by 1983 because of declining enrollment.

This information had been presented by Dr. Richard R. Short, District 207 Superintendent, to 1,200 employees of the four Maine High Schools during the week of February 26.

It is truly regrettable to have to honorably dismiss teachers hired so carefully because of their particular excellence. We are proud of the professional and personal manner with which we relate within our professional staff.

District 207 tax rate at '69 level

Dear Editor:

I would like to respond to a letter which appeared the week of March 5 from a candidate for Maine Township High School Board of Education.

The writer is exaggerating grossly when he claims that our high school tax payment "is the largest single tax payment" we make each year. Obviously, our federal and state income taxes are much larger - so large, indeed, that they are deducted from our pay checks in "little" bites so as not to overwhelm us on April 15!

But even of the local government taxes which appear on our property tax bills, the high school District 207's is not the largest. The rates for all of the elementary districts which feed into Maine high schools are higher than that of District 207. In fact, our present high school rate is down at the same amount it was in 1969 and 1970!

Recycling hours extended

Niles Township High School's Recycling Center, located at 7929 Austin Ave. in Skokie, has extended its winter hours thru March 31 due to the severe weather conditions we have experienced this year. The Center operated by the high school district 219 accepts newspaper, glass and household cans.

Broken promises deserve letter from residents

Dear Editor:

In 1968 Gov. Ogilvie, Mayor Daley and the leadership of the Illinois House and Senate promised us a reduction in school taxes and increased state aid. They were going to provide the monies from the newly enacted State Income Tax. Unfortunately, no one kept their word to the hard pressed taxpayers of Illinois.

Gov. Thompson's 1979-80 school aid budget will not keep up with inflation and will require increased local real estate taxes by local school districts. You and I and every other tax payer in Maine Township must pay for the politicians incompetence and their pork barrel pet projects.

I urge you to write your State Senator and State Representatives and demand a state aid budget that at least keeps up with inflation. I urge you to write to Gov. Thompson and tell him you know that he has shifted a state tax responsibility to the local school district. It is patently unfair for you to blame your school board members for increasing school taxes when the blame belongs with Gov. Thompson and the Democratic and Republican leadership in the General Assembly.

Respectfully,
Thomas W. Flynn
Maine Township High School
Board Candidate

Howard M. Blassman, of 9251 Dee rd., in unincorporated Maine Township, has announced his candidacy for the Maine Township High School District 207 Board of Education. After graduating from Maine East High School, Blassman, a labor attorney specializing in negotiations, arbitrations and National Labor Relations Board proceedings, received both his law degree and B.A. in economics from Northwestern University, where he was also certified as a secondary school teacher, having completed his student teaching in economics and government at Maine South High School.

Blassman has been a member of the Elementary School District 63 Caucus for the past seven years, and has also served on the Illinois State Scholarship Commission General Advisory Committee, the Student Advisory Committee to the Illinois Board of Higher Education, and was elected to three successive one-year terms as one of two student members on the Illinois Board of Higher Education.

Blassman perceives the role of a board member as an advocate of the interests of his constituency, a responsibility which he believes not only requires a sound knowledge of the issues facing the district, but also demands an awareness of the views of the members of the community regarding these issues. As a board member, Blassman would ensure that community members and teachers have available a readily accessible forum for making known their ideas concerning the issues confronting the school board by attending meetings of community groups that are concerned about education, such as PTA's, homeowner associations and religious organizations. "Only by seeking a cross section of community opinion on the critical issues that I, as a school board member, will be confronted with, could I feel confident in the integrity of my decisions," Blassman said.

Blassman believes that the main issues presently facing the school board include poor articulation regarding curricular and calendar matters between the elementary school districts that feed into the Maine High Schools and the high schools themselves, declining enrollment and its ramifications on the quality of educational services the district can offer, the unfavorable educational climate created by the serious disciplinary problems in the high schools, and low teacher morale.

"As an articulate, energetic advocate with a background in economics, education and labor relations, I believe that I can work with the school districts' teachers and administration, and the residents of District 207, to maintain the quality of education I know all of us believe the young people in our community deserve."

District 63 school board candidate

Donald Weiss, who lives in Morton Grove with his wife Ilene and his daughters Jennifer, who attends Melzer School, and Jodi, who is in the Pre-Dict Program at Oak School, has recently received additional support in his campaign for School Board when the East Maine General Caucus endorsed his candidacy at their Feb. 21st meeting.

A special education teacher in Chicago schools for eleven years, Weiss received a B.S. in Speech and the Communication Arts from Southern Illinois University and an M.A. in Teaching Children with Behavior Disorders from Northeastern Illinois University where he is currently enrolled in advanced graduate work in Educational Administration.

Continually involved in many community activities over the last five years, Weiss has also served on the Chicago District 6 Educational Council, District 63's Citizens' Facilities Committee, and the Boards of two local PTA's.

During Weiss' address to Caucus, he stated how the present Board is extremely sensitive and hostile toward citizens presenting themselves during public participation. He feels the SRI problem should be dealt with and further use should be postponed until its validity could be verified. He further feels as a Board member he would investigate the development of a gifted program in the district in order to help children who's needs are inadequately being met, improve educational quality so that the children can attain maximum potential and achievement, establish a district wide set of standards for discipline, and increase communication between Board-Administration and community and remove any restrictions levied in order that people may be heard at Board meetings.

Weiss stated, "I know what's been done in the past, what isn't being done now, and what can and must be done immediately."

Brill announces District 63 candidacy

Forty-four year old Richard Brill of Glenview has announced his candidacy in the forthcoming April 14 District 63 School Board election. His decision was prompted by his concern about many issues currently facing the District.

"My wife and I attended a Board Meeting a couple of months ago because of a safety problem that affects our daughter and over a hundred other children in our area. Since that time, we have become very rapidly interested and educated in many District problems," he said. Brill indicated he felt that major difficulties exist because of a lack of communication between the Board and the community and an apparent deficiency in directional and organizational structure in the District and on the Board.

An attorney, who lives with his wife, Donna, and their six-year-old daughter, Heidi, Brill is currently a member of the Board of Directors of the Roosevelt HMO (formerly Roosevelt Hospital). "I felt a personal obligation to Heidi as well as a sense of civic responsibility when I made this decision," he said. "The experience I have gained in the legal profession and my involvement in many other areas will prove invaluable in service as a School Board member."

Flynn objects to 'secret firing' of teachers

Thomas Flynn, Maine Township HS Board Candidate, today stated his opposition to the "secret firing" of 42 teachers. Mr. Flynn said he was shocked that no public notice was given. He said the firings would affect teacher morale and possibly affect the quality of Maine Township HS education.

Flynn said, "I have been informed that between 42 and 47 teachers have secretly been given notices they were fired. Teacher Contracts are now being signed throughout the Midwest. Teacher Contracts are governed by State Statute. The fired teachers will have little if any opportunity to find employment anywhere for next year. This is morally wrong and socially unfair. I am concerned for the welfare of these teachers, their families and their students. It is a slap in all their faces."

Flynn went on, "I propose these teachers be rehired for next year with the understanding they may be terminated next year. That all other teachers being considered for termination next year be told and given the opportunity to seek employment elsewhere. Finally, I call upon the Administration to apply immediately for special HEW funds to cover this emergency with Federal money. It is my opinion that we must show a fundamental fairness to these loyal teachers."

Illinois Bell revises 'Take and Save' plan

Illinois Bell telephone customers who move and take their telephone sets with them to their new address will now receive additional credit for taking more than one phone, under a revised "Take and Save" plan.

Customers will receive $5 billing credit for the first set taken to their new address and $3 credit for each additional set. Previously, they were credited only $5 regardless of the number of sets taken along.

In order to obtain the credit, customers are required to take every eligible instrument with them when they move. If any eligible telephones are left behind, no credit will be given for any phone.

Eligible telephones under the plan include all portable residence phones, residence desk-type non-button and one-button phones and Trimline wall telephones. Certain sets are excluded, such as panel and standard wallphones.

Illinois Bell advises customers who are moving to call their business office to determine whether their instruments are eligible for the credit and how to return the phones to the company.

Customers discontinuing service or moving out of Illinois Bell territory may also turn in their instruments at Illinois Bell public offices or PhoneCenter Stores to receive the new credit.

The allowance will be in the form of a billing credit only and may be applied only to the account associated with the disconnected instruments.

Mrs. Westland, who began her insurance career in March, 1976, formerly was a claim reviewer in the office.

A 1975 graduate of Taft High School, she continued her education at Mayfair Junior College.

For two years while a high school student, she served as a nurse's aide at Norwegian Old People's Home, Norwood Park.

50th Anniversary painting program at Citizens

Citizens Bank & Trust Company, Park Ridge, is offering a special spring painting program to depositors in conjunction with its 50th anniversary year. The program, which runs from March 22 through April 23, features commemorative, handpainted watercolor prints of distinctive area scenes.

During the program, anyone making a one-time deposit of $200 or more into a new personal checking account or a new or existing savings plan at Citizens can choose one of these 11"x14" matted prints free of charge. These limited edition prints, painted exclusively for CitizensBank, are ready for framing. Hardwood frames with gold trim and customized decorator color mats are available at reasonable prices.

Persons can select one of six area scenes depicted in yesterday/today series.

Yesteryear prints include a winter scene of Maine Township High School in 1930, the Park Ridge NorthWestern station during the summer in the early 1900's, and the Rand Road bridge over the Des Plaines River during fall in the late 1800's. Available in the today series are prints of Uptown Park Ridge in the summer, the Park Ridge Community Church in the fall, and the Park Ridge City Hall in the winter.

For subsequent deposits of $100 or more into a savings plan, persons will receive a certificate worth $5 toward the purchase of an additional watercolor print. With this certificate, additional hand-painted prints can be purchased for $6.95 each.

The process by which each print is created is unique. Each step is done by hand. A plate is made of the monochrome of each of the six original scenes, and a limited number of copies are printed. A team of artisans applies the watercolor to each print by hand. These individual prints are then matted. After the supply of each print is exhausted, the lithograph plates of the penline will be destroyed, making each of the prints part of a limited edition.

The entire collection of prints is currently on display in the bank's lobby. Persons are invited to stop into the bank and view this information. Those seeking more information on the 50th anniversary painting program should contact Richard C. Rushkewicz at 399-4100.

ED HANSON

Bedtime Fairy Story for Adults

Everytime this modern world starts to make sense to me, rather than consult a psychiatrist, I go down by the river.

The Des Plaines river near Algonquin rd. because on a warm day that's where you'll find them.

Just go into the woods, near the river bank, and pretty soon you'll see them, just a hippity-hop from the river.

Their names are Hippo and Hoppo. They're two enchanted bullfrogs. What else?

Every so often, to get away from the grim and depressing realities of this mad world, I watch and listen to them.

Last Sunday, as they relaxed on the soft ground, they began to discuss things of a serious nature.

Hippo, the older, wiser one, said in his deep basso voice, "Hoppo, there's a human! Now, careful, stay but a hop from the river."

Hoppo's eyes, bulging in my direction, said, "Are they all like him?"

"No, humans come in assorted colors - white, black, brown, red and yellow," croaked Hippo.

"Have they anything in common?", asked Hoppo. "Yes," replied Hippo, "had habits, hate and potential madness."

"What's that in his mouth with clouds around it?", asked Hoppo.

"One of their bad habits," croaked Hippo. "It's a poison sucker, contains nicotine and nine other toxic poisons."

"Do all human beings poison themselves?", asked Hoppo.

"Most of them are drug addicts of some sort," explained Hippo. "More than four-fifths of humans use some sort of drug daily. Some combine several."

"Are they crazy?", croaked Hoppo.

"Most of them - as their usage of drugs expands, they'll all eventually go mad and destroy one another," said Hippo.

"How nice," said Hoppo, and added, "...will their use of more drugs hasten it?"

"Yes," replied Hippo. "They're now using opium, hashish, heroine, betel nut, marijuana, nicotine and caffeine. Lately, they've been gobbling up billions of aspirins, tranquilizers and sleeping pills, too."

"Gee," croaked Hoppo, "what else?"

"Billions are daily users of stimulants and depressants. Millions are now slaves to some sort of drugs. Many of these drugs, caffeine, the opium derivatives, and, in many cases, alcohol and nicotine, become indispensable to their false-feeling of well being and they can't kick the habit."

"What's a habit, Hippo?"

"That which is too weak to be felt until it's too strong to be broken, Hoppo."

"Gosh," croaked Hoppo, "how terrible."

"Yes," agreed Hippo. "Some of their young eat goof balls and even sniff glue."

"Golly," croaked Hoppo, "you've been around."

"Indeed, I was once captured by a young girl and her father. He put me in a box and stopped by a Niles saloon. When he showed me to the barkeep, I got a look around."

"What did you see?", croaked Hoppo.

"Lots of humans drinking alcohol and eating poison suckers - I almost croaked!", said Hippo.

"Burr," said Hoppo. "You sure been around."

"Yes," agreed Hippo. "And they spend money to make themselves feel bad."

"They must be mad," croaked Hoppo. "How did you get away?"

"I hopped away after the little girl got me home. I was lucky she didn't kiss me," said Hippo.

"Why?", croaked Hoppo.

"Because, you fuddy-duddy, I'd have turned into a Prince and become a human being!"

Here's something that is no fable. That's Arvey's Special Bar-B-Q Ribs, served with that secret Arvey's tangy sauce. Last week I dropped into Arvey's Restaurant, Waukegan and Oakton, Niles, and ordered a full-slab. Believe me, these are the finest ribs I've ever tasted. They're thick and meaty, juicy, and cooked to perfection. A full slab is only $5.95 a la carte but, if you desire, you can order them as a complete dinner for only 30¢ additional.

Here's something you may not know. You can order Arvey's Bar-B-Q Ribs to take out. In just a few minutes you can have your order, and take 'em home with you at the regular menu price. And they're specially packed to keep 'em hot!

Arvey's is also offering another super special. It's a broiled T-Bone steak, a big He-Man sized steak, that's broiled to perfection the way you like it. For only $6.95 a la carte this is the finest steak in town or anywhere for that matter; and for just 30¢ extra this T-Bone steak can also be ordered as a complete dinner which includes soup, salad, potato, rolls, butter and dessert.

All profits from the event go directly to the forefront of cancer research to benefit present and future generations against this dreaded disease.

Appropriate attire requested. For ticket information, contact the Center on Deafness at 729-5620. ## Appraiser Schmitt is bullish on Chicago real estate

In some ways appraisal firms are considered the umpires or the referees of the real estate market and yet their responsibility goes much further. They must interpret trends and anticipate movements within the market which will materially affect not only current or close future pricing but also real estate values during the term of an anticipated mortgage.

One of these firms is R. J. Schmitt & Associates. It has Prospect Heights, downtown Chicago and Hickory Hills offices. Its president, Gregory C. Schmitt, is optimistic about maintenance of prices and level of housing activity in the Chicago area.

Schmitt is particularly concerned, however, over the number of amateurs that have gotten into the Chicago area investment market as far as housing is concerned. Imbued with the philosophy that the only way real estate prices can go is up, up, and up, these novices have pushed up the value of single family homes to the point where many young families are unable to take their first step in home ownership. And these same overextended novices are being hurt by even the slightest hesitation in market. They are not prepared like the investment pros in bending and flowing with vicissitudes of the market.

Schmitt feels that real estate investing should be limited investment type properties only. And that unless lending firms and regulatory agencies commence governing such practices, government legislation should come into the act. Amateur investors, Schmitt points out, have been caught and hurt double-dipping in the market. Living in one home and paying a healthy mortgage and paying another mortgage on an investment property. Many thought that if they should run into any problem as to resale of this second property, it could be rented. But the rental market for single family homes has not been good. This development will make the amateur investor cautious in the future.

Although he recognizes stability in the general market, Schmitt is concerned about the office glut that is commencing to occur in the northwest suburban area. Particularly with the large office complexes having 100,000 to 200,000 square feet of rental space. No problem exists he says with the smaller type office structure catering to other than major corporate tenants.

Phillip E. Johnson, senior vice president of the firm, says that commercial projects with corporate headquarters behind them have the greatest strength. He expects to see a steady growth in the hotel/motel field for convention-oriented facilities. These, he feels, will be stronger in the city than on its periphery. He foresees a steady demand for industrial space. Office space is strong, and existing tenant expansion continues. All space under construction, especially in the downtown area, will be absorbed. In fact, a tight market may exist. He, like Schmitt, is concerned with the overbuilding of office facilities in the northwest suburban area. However, he recognizes a balanced supply and demand in the Edens/Tri-State corridor and the Oakbrook/Downers Grove corridor.

Prices will remain at the present level through April and pick up afterward, says Raymond J. Schmitt, Jr. In fact, he thinks interest rates may even roll back. Some price alteration has occurred particularly in tract suburbs where several homes of the same model were available and people seeking to buy had a choice of the lowest priced unit.

Prices are generally one to two percent above those of boom months. A spurt later in the year may see one half to one percent per month or six to 12 percent a year if all influences are favorable.

Executive vice president and general manager, Jack Purcell, expects the market slowdown to continue until people familiarize themselves that ten percent is the real thing as far as interest rates. Ten percent, according to Purcell, is here to stay unless it goes higher. Mortgages will tie themselves to a point or point-and-a-half underneath the prime rate and remain there.

People, especially amateurs, should get rid of the attitude that you can get rich by buying real estate. Phillips says condo market appears good simply because the younger buyer feels it is the only purchase many can make without overstraining their abilities. Even at that, many are making payments that outstrip the combined income of husbands and wives. Some of these "kids" are going back under their parents' roof or are falling upon the old folks for supplementation of housing dollars. Purcell comments:

"These goose that laid the golden egg for many amateur investors is coming back to haunt people with fixed income."

Marlene Kaplan to be honored

Mrs. Howard (Marlene) Kaplan of Morton Grove, who was among those Chicago area women instrumental in the success of the 1978 Israel Bond campaign, will be presented with special award at the 1979 State of Israel Bond Women's Division tribute luncheon, Monday, April 2, 11:30 a.m. at the Pick-Congress Hotel.

Marusek seeks to improve family park programs

Mary Marusek (left), Niles Park District Commissioner, is shown sinking a shot while guarded by her daughters Mary Jane and Joan at an outdoor basketball court the district is considering lighting. If you look closely, you can still see the remains of the 1979 snow in the background. However, with the weather in the 60's on Sunday, all the outdoor basketball courts seemed to have considerable activity as Mary checked out several parks with her family looking for an open basket to use.

Mary is especially interested in supporting park district recreational activities that are family oriented. Mary related, "Our family has enjoyed playing basketball together for the past couple of summers. When other adults or youngsters join in, everyone has had a good time. My husband, John, has been a volunteer basketball coach and he loves to involve the parents in games. On one occasion a team which was supposed to play his 7th grade St. John Brebeuf girls' team didn't show up. The girls took to the court against the dads who played in stocking feet. Although trounced by their daughters, the dads had a very enjoyable workout and the girls ages 9 to 18, teams will be formed and leagues set up. If sufficient interest is shown, teams will be registered with the North Suburban Recreation Association of traveling teams. Sign up as soon as possible. Softball on a tee is for had a great time. It would be nice to capture these precious moments more frequently. As an incumbent candidate for Niles Park District Commissioner, I would like to continue to work for programs that involve parents and children enjoying such activities as family fun nights, softball, volleyball, floor hockey, tennis, etc."

"The general deterioration of Niles field houses and other park facilities is a shameful commentary on the park district of an All-American City," said Elaine Heinen, candidate for Niles Park District Commissioner. "My primary goal if elected would be to put more quality into the Niles Park System so we can have longer-lasting parks."

Park slide show

Harold and Doris Davis (left and center) of the Ballard Park Estates Townhouse Association are seen discussing facilities and programs of the Niles Park District with Commissioner Louella Blaine Preston (right). The Citizens Awareness Committee sponsored a slide show and discussion at the Ballard Sports Complex, Thursday, March 15.

The program gave local residents an opportunity to informally express their views and offer their suggestions to Park Commissioners. Through programs of this nature, better lines of communication can be established between the Park and its' community. If you would like to sponsor a program of this type for your area, please call the Niles Park District at 967-6633.

Park candidate Elaine Heinen promises to work for improvements

Noting that surrounding communities of comparable population and personal income do not seem to have this problem of deteriorating parks, Mrs. Heinen further proposed "to investigate and then change those conditions that started and are continuing this downward trend in our park system."

"If vandalism is the cause," she explained, "then we must have better supervision and security. If neglect is the reason, then we must upgrade our maintenance and repair plans." To help determine the best solutions, she also plans to seek the assistance of neighboring park district administrations.

"We in Niles can have longer-lasting parks," Mrs. Heinen continued, "without any increase in taxes by drawing judiciously from the surplus funds that I believe are available nearly every year. An All-American City such as Niles should have an All-American Park District. Together we can make it happen."

Mrs. Heinen is a 14-year resident of Niles, residing at 8627 Oleander with her husband, John. For the past 11 years she has been a law clerk for a Chicago corporate law firm. Prior to that she was a supervisor in the publications department of Extension, a magazine published by the Chicago Archdiocese.

First place in State Speech Competition

Success with capital letters best describes the record of the Maine East speech team for this year.

The team took first place in district competition and second place at sectional competition. Team members that qualified for state were Richard Goodman in original comedy and Michael DiGiola (right) and Lawrence Nathanson (left) in dramatic duet acting. Larry and Mike also took first place in state. This is the first time in six years someone on the team won state. The scene they did was from the play "Home of the Brave" by Arthur Laurents. Previously, Michael and Larry have won second place three times at various tournaments with this scene. They have also competed this year with the humorous duet from "The Good Doctor" by Neil Simon. They have swept three tournaments with first place. Both Larry and Mike plan on continuing with a theatrical career. Larry, a senior, hopes to study at Boston University; Mike, a junior, is hoping to study in New York when he graduates.

Harczak 'roast' to benefit needy Polish

RICHARD HARCZAK, one of Niles Prominent citizens, will be "roasted" on Thursday evening, March 29, at The House of the White Eagle, 6839 North Milwaukee Avenue, Niles. Heading the list of roasters will be Sonny Mars, who has roasted many celebrities throughout the country.

This roast will not only honor Richard Harczak for his contribution over the years to the Village of Niles but will also provide funds for a very worthwhile organization - The Polish Welfare Association, a nonprofit organization founded in 1926. Dedicated to helping needy Polish families, orphans and the aged, the P.W.A. is funded completely by citizens of Polish descent. In order to continue their important work, the P.W.A. is sponsoring this benefit.

The evening will begin at 7:00 P.M. with an open bar and followed by dinner. The donation is $25.00 per person and is tax deductible.

Tickets are available at the Dempster Plaza State Bank 298-5300 or Ted Przybylo at The House of the White Eagle 647-0660.

The boys will receive 3 weeks of instructional training on the rules, strategies and basic fundamentals of the game, followed by 3 weeks of actual game experience.

The program will be held on 6 consecutive Saturdays, beginning May 5 and ending on June 9. Cost of the program will be $5 per boy (non-residents 1/2 more), which includes a t-shirt.

Registration will begin on April 2 at the Park Office, 6834 Dempster st., during regular office hours, Monday/Friday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

St. Benedict's residents enjoy entertainment

On Tuesday, March 6, Cella Hansen, Assistant Cashier of Dempster Plaza State Bank, went to St. Benedict's to present Danny Orleans, magician, for the entertainment of the residents. Refreshments included two large cakes.

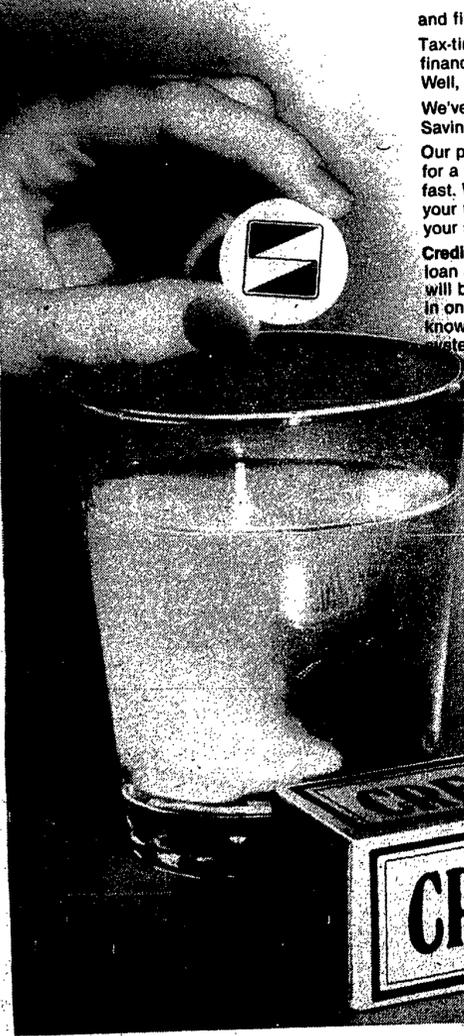

What a pleasant surprise to find out only the residents waiting for the program but also Brownie Troops #610 and #1855 of Queen of All Saints there both to enjoy the magic show and provide popcorn, home-made cookies and punch for the residents. The magic show was enjoyed by the Seniors even more than usual because of the enthusiasm of the youngsters. After a delightful show the Brownies helped serve the refreshments and sat at the tables talking with the Seniors. Congratulations to Brownie Leaders Marilyn Antonik and Therese Schneider for having their young girls take part in entertaining our elder citizens. This is a marvelous character builder and great teacher of caring, patience and concern for others. For the Seniors, it is always a treat for them to be able to be around young people. It was a beautiful afternoon for all and the seniors were grateful to have enjoyed the festivities presented by Dempster Plaza State Bank.

Thanks for caring through your Fair Share pledge to the Crusade of Mercy. *** disbanded and being a part of the village district, his implications left little doubt he thought patronage jobs could result from Blase's people moving onto the park board.

What is equally disturbing is the lack of competition for the Niles Village seats. Blase's Party swallows up all potential candidates before they have a chance to form opposition. And while village seats have been filled by excellent candidates, nevertheless the lack of competitive races for village offices leaves Niles in a poorer position. Competition not only stimulates community interest in its public affairs but the give and take debates with opposition candidates bodes for better administration at the Village Hall. The competition for village offices would enhance the importance of those village seats. The village and its residents suffer by one-party government. Too much power resulting from too many years in office suffocates the political process in Niles.

Sam Berger and Ken Cohen are 2 of the 36 candidates for about 18 openings on the Circuit Court. Sam ran for the State Senate last fall which has resulted in the Party slating him. And Cohen is Blase's law partner. While Berger would make an excellent Judge, such a system of selecting by political bosses is very inadequate. Men, whose legal background is very sketchy, being in the position of appointing Judges, is an incredibly poor system.

Down at the Niles Library District, March 29 will be the date when the Board is likely to announce its decision about retaining the present librarian.

Two Board members, Felix Dospil and Diane Hanson, recently resigned from the Board, which leaves the three newer board members in the voting majority. Last year they were opposed to retaining Mrs. Jackson. It's likely they have not changed their position. Last week about 35 people attended the Board meeting, mostly employees in the library district. While we have no inside information, the likely change at the top seems evident.

New system . . .

The purchase will result in an immediate $60,000 per year reduction in telephone expenses.

"Part of the savings can be attributed to the fact that the district had been operating with one telephone system for all three high schools," says Ronney L. Harlow, PriTec president.

All calls were answered at West and routed to the proper school.

"As a result they were paying huge mileage bills for off premise extensions to Niles East and Niles North," he explains.

According to Harlow, the new telephone systems will not only save the district money but will provide faster communication, more sophisticated features and better service.

"Each system is actually a full programmable computer," he explains, "which can be instructed to perform virtually any conceivable function now or in the future."

The computerized switchboards also take a role in their own maintenance service, monitoring operations and logging abnormal test results on an ongoing basis.

Installation of the three systems was completed February 28.

Funding for construction of Phase II has been given top priority by the Illinois Community College Board and the Illinois Board of Higher Education and is now in committee under consideration by the state legislature.

Oakton occupational programs which are planned to move to the Des Plaines campus next spring include Architectural Technology, Medical Laboratory Technology, Physical Therapist Assistant, Radiology Technology, Fire Science, Accounting Associate, Data Processing, and Child Care Services. Laboratories for art, photography, chemistry, biology, engineering and natural science will also be located on the new campus.

Three learning clusters will be located on the permanent campus as well as most administrative offices and the computer center. Classes which do not need special facilities, such as communications, mathematics, history, etc. will be offered at both the Des Plaines and the Interim Campus in Morton Grove.

Vandalism . . .

Sergeant Gerhardt commented if individuals realize that they and their parents will pay the consequences when they damage someone else's property, he thought we would see a sharp decline in vandalism.

Mayor Blase added that our bicycle safety patrol, which is a model for communities throughout the United States has tremendously reduced bicycle related accidents. Young people know we are enforcing bicycle safety, and we mean business. If parents, village officials, schools, churches, and police, work together, we can keep vandalism down and have a common effort to reinstate respect of other people's property.

petually tied up by the NBL," he said the solution was simple. The industrial baseball league would go to Jonquil Terrace Park at Oleander ave. and Mulford st.

Commissioners indicated "no major change in schedule for the Little League players, except perhaps for a few minor changes over the summer."

In other business commissioners gave unanimous approval to the proposed budget of the Maine-Niles Association of Special Recreation (M-NASR) for the year ending April 30, 1980.

Of the total $298,360 budget Niles' share of $31,657 was endorsed payable on a 50%, 20% and 30% time schedule in May, August and October respectively.

Of the remaining Park District members of the Association Des Plaines will contribute $48,533; Golf Maine $5,851; Lincolnwood $16,000; Morton Grove $21,782; Park Ridge $28,828 and Skokie $59,424.

Awarded a contract for printing the park district summer brochure to Associates Printing Service, Inc. of Niles for $2,025 as second lowest bidder of five received.

The Niles firm was recommended on basis of reliability and excellent past service in performance.

Other bids came from V & G Printers, Inc. of Mt. Prospect $3,380; Viking Printing Co. of Niles $2,792; Universal Press, Inc. of Skokie $2,625 and Commercial Lithographers, Inc. of Waukegan, Ill. $2,015.

Heard a report by Park Director William Hughes on the Comprehensive Employment Training Act (CETA) grant that a $4,300 increase this month over the previous month brings total grant monies to $71,289.50 thru April 30.

The year grant initiated Oct. 1, 1978 on an approved park district application for $149,861.51 continues on a month-to-month basis. Hughes said Federal authorities have requested for filing March 21 a revised Niles Park District (CETA) budget from March 1 thru Sept. 30, 1979.

Were advised by the Citizens Awareness Co-ordinator that Ballard Park Estates and Grand Prospect Townhouse Association members requested the Niles Park District explore possibilities of a July Fourth celebration similar to the Bicentennial '76 program; update the Sports Complex marquee; and requested a showing of summer movies at the Ballard Sports Complex.

Hughes said the gasoline allotment to the Park District is expected to be the same as last year's, to be received on a month-to-month basis with a close watch on use because of special bus trip programs.

program has been admired and studied by congregations in communities throughout the country.

The program is offered to the entire community and information can be obtained by contacting any of the participating synagogues. They are as follows: Temple Beth El, Beth Hillel Congregation, Temple Beth Israel, Congregation B'nai Emenah, Congregation Kol Emet, Temple Judea Mizpah, Temple Menorah, Maine Township Jewish Congregation, Niles Township Jewish Congregation, Northwest Suburban Jewish Congregation and Jewish Reconstructionist Congregation.

Stated the April 17 Park District board meeting was rescheduled to Thursday, April 19 at the Park District Administrative Offices, 7877 Milwaukee ave. for canvass of election results.

Recognition of visitors from the more than 60 in attendance Tuesday brought comments and complaints to park commissioners.

On complaint of a Nilesite that the Grennan Heights Gym was being monopolized by non-residents of Niles, Park Director Hughes said he had become aware of the situation over the past month.

Admitting the situation "is getting way out of hand," Hughes said the district has considered I.D. cards or a fee charge and is presently evaluating other park districts for a solution.

John Greenland of the Niles Hockey League offered league equipment to the Niles Park District with two restrictions: that it be used under the name of the Niles Hockey League and that hockey banners won by the League be left on display at the Ballard Sports Complex.

Mother of a house hockey league member, Elaine Murray told commissioners of needed repairs at the Sports Complex. Also, she said, "battles are waged constantly at the Complex with no one to stop them... things are thrown around and no one cares..."

A Niles Baseball League parent asked for needed improvements at Jozwiak Park. "Park Ridge parks are much better," he observed. The refreshment stand at the park was noted as "a disgrace".

While candidate-for-park commissioner Elaine Heinen called for regular inspection of park sites by the Director, candidate Walt Beusse said a successful park referendum four years ago provided financing for park improvements... "Landscaping and needed improvements should have been accomplished by this time," he charged.
