As of Tuesday (when this is being written), Bill Terpinas' suit against the Niles Little League and the Niles Park District is scheduled to be heard Wednesday, April 4, after The Bugle goes to press.

Bill told us Tuesday, "I don't want them to get off with this," when we informed him the "League" will have another registration this Sunday. Bill contends registration should be available to all young Nilesites during the entire season, and not be restricted to a short period of time.

In this week's Letter to the Editor column, the Little League answers Bill citing the amount of logistics involved in preparing for the upcoming season, necessitating a cut-off date.

Starting the scenario from the beginning, Terpinas sent The Bugle a letter last week citing the League for its inflexibility. When he failed to register his son before the deadline, admitting he erred, a Little League official told him to register the younger Terpinas in the Skokie League. It infuriated Terpinas. He said another official "proudly announced" the League had turned down another boy, even though his doctor recommended participation would be therapy for the boy.

Golf wins secession from District 67

The residential area of Golf and the Glenview subdivision of Golf Acres won their battle Monday to pull out of Niles Township Elementary School District 67. They are now free to join the Glenview Elementary School District 34.

The Cook County Regional School Board voted Monday to allow the detachment of Golf and Golf Acres, but a large portion of the highly-taxed commercial property will remain in District 67 according to an amended petition. The boundaries of the seceded area are Golf Road on the south, Waukegan Road on the west, Central Parkway on the north

Zoners test new format for PUD's

A new format, of pre-application conference for petitioned Planned Unit Development (PUD), was tested April 2 by the Plan Commission and Zoning Board of Appeals during two informal hearings held Monday evening.

Purpose of the informal hearings is to permit the developer to present his proposed PUD. Should the presentation be in conformity with general zoning criteria for the intended site, the petitioner is advised to proceed with formal planning.

Pre-application conferences were set into village code only recently. Due to village requisites for a PUD and the high cost of application fees, a minimal, $250, is now charged for an informal hearing (at the request of the petitioner) before the Plan

Commission on the proposed PUD to determine whether the plan meets minimum standards of the Village.

If the proposed plan meets village criteria, the developer may apply for a formal hearing before the Commission. His pre-application fee of $250 is applied toward the application charges for a PUD, which run from $1,250 to $2,750, dependent on the size of the location.

If the plan runs short of necessary requirements, the petitioner loses only the $250 fee. Commissioners gave the green light during the pre-application conference Monday evening to Sim Construction Co. of Skokie for construction of PUD condominiums at 7201 Milwaukee ave. In a second hearing, planners committing vandalism should report it to their local law enforcement agency. April 16 thru 21 is Vandalism Awareness Week. Help keep your community

Michael Provenzano, an Independent for Niles Village Trustee, has distinguished himself as an individual dedicated to the cause of civic affairs for 20 years in the Village of Niles and over 30 years of Government experience including City of Chicago, County of Cook and the State of Illinois. Michael is married to Wife Joan and has a daughter Camille and son Michael B.

He was previously with the Recorder of Deeds County of Cook as Chattel Mortgage and Real Estate Cashiers and Tax Searcher, was Senior Clerk of the Municipal Court of Chicago, Cook County Rabies Inspector, Cook County Forest Ranger and Cook County Highway Department. He is currently with the State of Illinois Commerce Commission as a Law Enforcement Officer, Motor Carrier Division. He is also a member of the Illinois Police and Italian American Police Associations.

Mike is past president of St. John Brebeuf Holy Name Society and a member. He is organized in his parish and is a Big Brother, designated to represent the Archdiocesan office of youth activities in its program of correction, aimed at rehabilitation of Delinquent youth in his Parish. He is Past Grand Knight of Sheridan-Carroll Council of the Knights of Columbus for two terms, a 3rd degree member of

As the annual April 15 tax deadline nears, many citizens become increasingly aware of how much they pay in taxes. In addition to federal and state income taxes, one of the largest taxes we pay is the real estate tax. "How many people really know how their real estate tax dollar is spent" was a question raised at a recent meeting of the Village of Niles Progress With Economy Party Trustees, Angelo Marcheschi, Bart Murphy and Orville Ottow. "While I am certain most Niles' residents are aware of their low village tax rate, perhaps we should illustrate what a Niles real estate tax bill looks like" responded Village Trustee Bart Murphy.

Pictured above is an actual 1977 real estate tax bill for Niles from School District 63 in Maine Township. Of the total, $1,119.40, the Niles village portion was only $59,000! If the assessed equalized valuation was $10,000.00 instead of the $14,355.00 indicated on the sample bill, the total tax would have been $779.80. Then the Niles share would be $41.10 or slightly over 5%. This percentage will vary somewhat as the school district and township rates differ throughout Niles. Specifically, the Niles village rate is two to three times lower than most suburban village rates. "Overall the Village of Niles has one of the lowest tax rates anywhere in the suburban area and yet offers many services the other towns do not have" stated Orville Ottow, Niles Trustee. "Niles is fortunate to receive a good deal of sales tax revenue" noted Trustee Angelo Marcheschi. "Business is attracted to Niles because of our fine services and the business climate in Niles is good" he added. Good fiscal management by the Niles Village Board, working with capable, dedicated village administrators insure that every Niles Tax dollar is well spent. Continue Niles' progress with economy by voting for Trustees Marcheschi, Murphy and Ottow on April 17, 1979.

North American Martyrs K. of C., 4th degree member and recording secretary of Formarty's Club of North American council and a member of Bishop Hillinger 4th degree council. He was chosen Knight of the Year in 1973 for his outstanding contribution by North American K. of C. council.

Provenzano is a former Niles Youth Commissioner of Niles and a former elected Commissioner of the Niles Park District for 6 years. He was instrumental with other commissioners in placing in service the first Niles free Courtesy Bus for the Citizens of Niles for transportation from one Park to another. Also as Commissioner, he made motion that the board go on record, that the 6 year term for Commissioner be abolished and a 4 year term replacing it which is now a law in the State of Illinois. He is member of St. Isaac Jogues 55 plus Senior Citizens Clubs. He is for personal communication with the people of Niles who have Village problems, better support and cooperation with Homeowners Associations, Senior Citizens clubs and Youth Groups.

Provenzano received the Distinguished Service Award from the United States Committee for the United Nations and the Village of Niles, in appreciation and recognition of Public service in promoting the Nationwide observance of United Nations Day. A man of Action - A man on the move, an Independent who would like to represent and speak for you on the Village Board. A man who does not believe in platforms. They are promises which sometimes are forgotten once a Candidate is elected.

Niles Historical Society seeks artifacts

Have you embarked on that madness called "Spring Cleaning?" Throwing out the old to make room for the new? Are you tired of looking at the same old object year in and year out? If so, don't just throw it away. It may have historical significance.

The Niles Historical & Art Society is seeking clothing or objects dating back to early Niles to exhibit in the display cabinets at the Trident Center. Any object too large for the cabinets will be stored until more space is available. If you wish to donate or give on loan your possession of the past, please call Marge Berles, 823-4703 or Marilyn Brown, 647-0185. Your cooperation will be fully appreciated.

Safety hints

Cold weather is definitely with us, says the Chicago Motor Club, and drivers shouldn't be fooled by brief period of warm sunshine. Frost can cause a slippery glaze on streets and highways, especially at night and during early morning hours. Special caution is urged when driving on bridges, overpasses and ramps where frost is likely to accumulate this time of year.

1st Nat'l. of Morton Grove named Sox ticket outlet

The First National Bank of Morton Grove has been designated a Chicago White Sox ticket outlet for the 1979 baseball season.

Beginning April 2, reserved-seat tickets for all White Sox home games can be ordered at the bank during regular lobby hours.

The bank will not keep a supply of tickets in stock, but instead can order the tickets through any of two arrangements:

1. Mail Orders - If the order is placed seven days in advance of the game, the tickets will be mailed to the customer directly from the White Sox.

2. Will Call Orders - If the game is less than seven days away, the customer can pick up his tickets at the main Comiskey Park box office by presenting his copy of the order form.

Tickets are priced from $3.50 to $6, plus a 50-cent service charge for each order placed at the bank.

Making it more convenient for baseball fans in the northern suburbs to order White Sox tickets is another way our bank can be of service to the community," said bank president Marvin von Aswege. "We hope fans take advantage of the new service often during the season." The bank is located at 6201 Dempster st., Morton Grove.

(EFFECTIVE ANNUAL YIELD: 8.32%)

You can even save on your 1978 income taxes if you act before April 15, 1979!

If you're employed, but not participating in a qualified pension or profit-sharing plan, and you're under 70½ years of age—you can start your own tax-deductible retirement plan at CitizensBank.

A Citizens Individual Retirement Account (IRA) earns you 8% interest, compounded daily, to give you an 8.32% effective annual yield. No other bank or savings and loan can offer you a higher IRA rate.

With a Citizens IRA plan, you can deposit any amount up to 15% of your earned income to a maximum of $1,500 every year ($1,750 with a separate account for a non-working spouse).

Contributions are Tax-Deductible

What's more, your annual contributions are tax-deductible, and you pay no income tax on the interest these deposits earn until the money is paid out to you, at which time you will probably be in a lower tax bracket.

During Holy Week, the wooden Lenten cross which has stood in the front of the Church through Lent will become even more rich in its symbolism. This cross is made from the trunk of a former Christmas tree, pointing to the merging of Christ's birth and atonement. Many nails have been placed on the cross, and during the Holy Week Communion Services, which will be held at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, and Thursday, each person in attendance will receive a small card to sign and will then place it on the tree as they go forward to receive Holy Communion. Children will be given the opportunity to put their names of the cross at the last Lenten service on April 11. By Good Friday, the cross will be covered with many names, illustrating in a very visual way how Jesus personally carried the load of our sins in His own body when He died on the cross so that we can be finished with sin and live a good life from now on.

Marusek to continue seeking park improvements

Mary Marusek, incumbent candidate for Niles Park Commissioner in the April 17 election, intends to continue her involvement with the park district by working for excellent programming, attractive parks and a financially stable district.

Mary's concern for the physical condition of the parks stems from her work to pass the referendum in 1973 to purchase land and make improvements in the existing parks. Since working to pass that referendum as a result of her support of a League of Women Voters study of the Niles Park District, Mary has continued her concern for well equipped, attractive parks.

This year, the proposed budget which Mrs. Marusek is considering as Finance Chairman of the Niles Park Board, contains provisions for many improvements to neighboring parks. Mary will continue to work for improvements to the physical condition of the parks by supporting landscaping projects, playground and baseball diamond work.

Mary is uniquely familiar with the park district as a result of having children who have participated in the program for the past 13 years, being a pre-school teacher in the district, serving as League of Women Voters observer to Park Board meetings before her appointment to the Board, and now as a result of serving as Finance Chairman for the Board.

Mary Marusek has strived to combine her unique knowledge of the district with her long term concern for the park district and for her community. To retain a commissioner with experience and concern, Go Around with Mary...again!

Mystery Tour

With spring now within reach and most of the snow melted, Skokie Park District feels that now is the best time for children to discover the wonders of nature. To get you in touch with nature a "Magical Mystery Tour" is scheduled from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Tuesday, April 10, at Emily Park, located at Brummel and Kenton aves. (4600 West - 7700 North). The tour is open to children in grades 1 to 3.

Each child will be given the opportunity to learn more about nature through participation in special awareness, games and craft projects emphasizing fun in the out-of-doors.

The cost is $5 per person and each child should bring a sack lunch. Drinks will be provided. Register by April 3 at all Park District Recreation Centers. For further information call 674-1500.

Park commissioner Preston seeks retention

Louella Blaine Preston has been serving the people of Niles since June, 1978 when she was appointed a commissioner of the Niles Park District to complete the term of former President Millie Jones. Louella is a candidate for one of two park positions in the April 17 election. She was appointed at a time when all current Park Commissioner candidates applied for the vacancies.

Commissioner Preston currently holds two positions on the Park Board. As chairwoman of the Citizens Awareness Committee, she is trying to inform the citizens of Niles of the variety of programs the Niles Parks offer to them and to give them an opportunity to voice their opinions. So far, Citizen Awareness Committee meetings have been held with St. Isaac Jogues 55 plus, St. John Brebeuf Golden Agers, The Grand Prospect Townhouse Association and The Ballard Park Estates Townhouse Association. She also serves as the Niles representative to the Board of Directors of the Maine-Niles Association of Special Recreation. This association serves the citizens of Maine and Niles Townships who need special recreation facilities and/or programs.

Commissioner Preston brings to the Park Board 14 years of experience working with children and young adults. During her undergraduate college days, Louella worked at the Irving Park YMCA as a recreation specialist and Director of the Day Camp Program. After she received her B.S. from the University of Illinois Chicago Circle, she went into teaching. Her first two teaching positions were at the high school level which included teaching at Maine West High School. For the last 8 years, she has been a faculty member at Luther Burbank Elementary School in Chicago. While at Burbank, for 5 years she volunteered her time coaching boys' basketball, softball and floor hockey and girls' volleyball. Her teams competed inter-scholastically in the Chicago Park District's elementary school tournaments. After receiving her M.A. in Special Education from Northeastern Illinois University, Louella started teaching physically handicapped children in a 6th grade classroom. It was this expertise that led to Louella's appointment as Commissioner.

In addition to her park service, Louella, 32, is married and lives with her husband John at 9267 N. Maryland in St. Isaac Jogues Parish. She plays trumpet and recorder with the guitar ensemble at church. She also actively participates in the League of Women Voters of Morton Grove-Niles and the Chicago Council for Exceptional Children. Commissioner Preston has demonstrated that she cares about the community around her. Louella Blaine Preston would like to continue to serve the citizens of Niles as Commissioner of the Niles Park District.

TAM GOLF COURSE TO OPEN

The Niles Park District is very proud to announce the opening of one of its most unique facilities, the Tam Golf Course, 6700 Howard St. Tentatively and hopefully weather permitting, the golf course will open April 14. We're ready, if Mother Nature consents, to swing into the new season with daily hours 6 a.m. to 6 p.m., 7 days a week.

The nine-hole course is a challenge to all levels of golfers. Hazards and obstacles (water hazards seem popular this Spring) give even the most advanced golfer some debatable strategic maneuvers. Need some practice? The Driving Net will be open and available to all golfers to swing back into shape. Golf lessons are available by appointment. And, again this year the clubhouse concession will be open to cool you down after that work-out on the course. For any information give the Tam Golf Course a call at 965-9697.

SOFTBALL STARTS SOON

The Niles Park District has opened registration for all girls interested in this year's Girls Softball and Softball on a Tee programs. C'mon and sign up now. If enough interest is shown, teams will be registered with the North Suburban Recreation Association of traveling teams. But you must sign up now so we can get ready for some Summer softball fun!

Softball on a tee is for ages 6 to 8, girls only, interested in learning the basics of softball. The program is designed from the popular boys tee ball, but has won its own credits from all the girls who participated in last year's program. It starts April 28. Four weeks of instruction is given followed by league play. We meet on Saturdays from 1 to 3 p.m. at Grennan Heights Park. Join the Niles Park District Softball on a Tee and have a ball this Summer!

Walt Beusse is performance

The most impressive things about Walt Beusse, a Niles Park Board candidate - free from any political influences, are his inventiveness, diversity of ideas, dependability and willingness to assist the community. Look at some of his experiences, accomplishments and most important, his service to the people of Niles.

Elected to and served on the Niles Park Board in 1969 thru 1975 and presided as President in the 1972-73 period. During his term, Walt also performed as Chairman over the Niles Park District facilities (golf course, swimming pools, ice skating rink, gymnasium) and also was responsible for committee functions such as Finance, Public Relations, Recreation and Maintenance.

While on the Park Board, Walt initiated the idea of making the Park facilities and programs convenient to the people with the Free Bus Service. With the foresight of the Park Board and its Director at that time, this bus service became so popular with the Niles residents, it has been expanded for Village use.

The original vehicles acquired by the Park were personally shopped for by Walt Beusse, Mike Provenzano, Bill Keener and Gerry Sullivan, former Niles Park Commissioners. This service program is now operated by the Village of Niles for the benefit of all senior citizens, youngsters and adults.

In conjunction with other local Park Districts and after many preliminary organizational meetings, the special residents-the handicapped - The Maine-Niles Association Recreation Program designed for the handicapped was founded. Walt Beusse, for his outstanding efforts, was appointed its first chairman and in the year 1972, proudly administered its activities along with a professional staff.

In addition to his Niles Park District accomplishments, Beusse has participated actively in other community functions. He was elected to the School Board of St. John Brebeuf Parish and as a member of its maintenance committee during the past three years, initiated and coordinated special maintenance crews who upgraded various school rooms, offices and remodeled the galley in Flanagan Hall. Other financial services are rendered to the Niles Lions Club as its treasurer.

In prior years, Walt Beusse not only assisted in many administrative functions in the Niles Baseball League and Niles Amateur Hockey League, but also gave coaching guidance to the participants. He was effective in the past years and he will be effective in future years. Remember that Beusse is dedicated; he is experienced; he is service to the people and most of all, he is dependable.

On April 17, Vote for Walter Beusse.

Heinen calls for two-pronged attack on vandalism

A two-pronged attack on the problem of vandalism in the Niles Park District is being called for by Elaine Heinen, candidate for park district commissioner in the April 17 election.

"We must first have the full cooperation of all Niles residents," she explained. "This means reporting vandalism when we see it being committed, as well as taking steps to prevent it when possible. After all, our taxes will be used to make repairs, so we should all be concerned."

Secondly, she believes responsibility should rest with those who commit the acts of vandalism, not the parents. "The Niles parent-responsibility ordinance passed a couple of years ago," Mrs. Heinen stated, "has reduced cases of vandalism to a degree. But I believe this does not treat the problem. pay the damages and never take any corrective action with their children; this doesn't really discourage vandalism."

She also pointed out that a New England state supreme court recently ruled a similar parent-responsibility ordinance to be unconstitutional. Other courts, however, have upheld "community service" type sentencing for acts of vandalism.

"With greater concern by Niles residents for their own parks," she commented, "plus a willingness to have vandals answer for their own actions, I think we can make rapid progress toward having an All-American park system for the Village of Niles."

(Profitable Automatic Transfer)

A new plan that combines the benefits of checking and saving accounts.

How does PAT work?

Instead of depositing money in both your checking and savings accounts, you put all deposits in a PAT plan. Every time you write a check, you continue to earn interest on savings until the check clears the bank. Then funds are transferred to your checking account to cover the check.

How much interest does PAT pay?

5%. And that's on money that never before earned interest.

Are there any service charges?

Yes, if your savings balance falls below the minimum. However, because you're earning interest on your savings, the charges are minimized by the accrued interest.

When do you get a statement?

You receive one statement every month showing all transactions for each account, plus the earned interest.

How do you open a PAT account?

It's easy. You first open a 5% savings account in which you must maintain a specified balance. Then, if you do not have a checking account, you open one to facilitate the check-writing.

Where do you sign up?

Firing teachers doesn't solve District 207 problems

Dear Editor:
There must be a better answer to declining enrollment than to simply fire teachers. We owe these teachers something for the many years they dedicated to our children. I cannot and will not accept a solution that affects adversely wives and children of teachers. We must be more creative and certainly more humane.

In a press release this week I suggested that we develop a special program for marginal graduates and potential dropouts. I ask the Board to prepare a Demonstration Project grant and ask the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare for funds. This is only one suggestion on how to retain our teachers and not fund it with local taxes. I cannot understand why we cannot develop in office and in industry programs for employees of business. Let's send teachers out to business and help it to help themselves. We can sign contracts to fund the teachers salaries. Certainly, we can come up with additional programs to retain teachers. All it takes is dedication, a sense of loyalty and the will to succeed. Let's do something other than simply fire our teachers.

Sincerely,
Thomas W. Flynn

Public Works employee expresses thanks

Dear Mr. Besser:
I know this is a little late, but better late than never. As for myself and my fellow workers at Niles Public Works, I would like to extend our thanks to all the wonderful residents who were so thoughtful in offering us hot coffee and cookies. And especially their help by moving cars onto driveways which made our jobs a lot less hectic and safer for snow plowing the streets. Our extra long working hours were made more bearable by these wonderful residents.

And also our thanks to Gullivers, Gismos, Tasty Pup, Booby's, Arvey's and Pandera Bros. who offered us breakfast, hot dogs, sandwiches and pizza. An extra big thank you to those who wrote you to say we did our jobs well. It's nice to be appreciated. As for Sharon Levin who wrote you last week and complained about Caldwell Avenue and her being disgusted with the Village of Niles, she should have investigated whose responsibility the maintenance of Caldwell belongs to. Her complaint should have gone to Gov. Thompson and the Illinois State Highway Department and not to the Village of Niles. Thanks.

Leske endorses Park candidate Marusek

Dear Editor:
Mary Marusek was my choice to replace me on the Niles Park Board last year. Her philosophy and approach to government is almost like an extension of mine. If you believed in and approved of my performance during my 17 years of service to the Niles Park Board, you can "continue" this service by voting to return Mary Marusek to the Niles Park Board on April 17. Also, be sure to vote for one of the other fine candidates.

Caldwell belongs to State, not Village of Niles

Dear Editor:
In response to Sharon Levin's complaint of March 29, 1979 regarding potholes, it should be pointed out that the Village of Niles does not maintain Caldwell Avenue. This is under the maintenance and jurisdiction of the State of Illinois.

LETTERS to EDITOR

Niles Baseball League responds to Terpinas' charges

Dear Editor:
 We, the members of the Board of Directors of the Niles Baseball League, in response to the letter written by William Terpinas which was published in the LETTERS TO THE EDITOR column in the March 29, 1979 issue of the BUGLE, will herein present the facts relative to the closing of baseball registration, and the exclusion from participation in 1979 League activities of all who failed to meet the time criteria.
 Mr. Terpinas neglected to mention several key facts:
 ...Local newspapers published the "Registration Week" and late registration dates (Six in all, double the number in past years) for three or four weeks.
 ...A letter and postcard detailing registration information were mailed to all who were members of the League in 1978, including the Terpinas home.
 ...100 bright red and white posters, placed in schools, shops, etc., around town promulgated the same information.

 ...Mr. Terpinas works in a building which had a poster on the front door, and the marquee in front of the building for ten days carried the registration message.
 ...The Terpinas household was contacted several times per phone by a Board member urging the registration of Billy, yet Mr. Terpinas states that on the "15th day of March, early in the morning, I realized I did not register my son". Registration closed the evening of the 14.
 ...Mr. Terpinas letter further stated "I guess the word must have gotten around, because I received a call from the President of the Niles Park District". In fact, the call Mr. Terpinas received from the President was in response to a call he had received from a Chicago attorney-informing him of Mr. Terpinas' intention to file suit to force late registration of his son. The President "could not understand this whole thing" because he was unaware of the facts, not necessarily because he was in sympathy with Mr. Terpinas' position.

 ...In his calls to several Board members following the close of registration, in an attempt to have his son admitted after the fact, Mr. Terpinas admitted that he had "goofed" and didn't know how he could possibly explain the situation to his son.
 Mr. Terpinas' reference to "Where do we stop?" as the "question of the century", and his suggestion that registration remain open all season long evince considerable naivete concerning the management and operation of the League...The number of teams that will be fielded in each division; the number of managers and umpires required; the number and sizes of uniforms needed, and the scheduling of some 1000 games are all determined by the number of players that register, and the teams are hopefully competitively balanced via the draft by the managers from the pool of registered participants. Relaxation of the registration cutoff would lead to abuses, such as the stacking of teams, resulting in demoralization of many players, and rightfully drawing the ire of the vast majority who opt to conform (448 in 1979). Mr. Terpinas further states "that kids could care less if they get a uniform, they just want to play ball". Twelve players on a team decked out in double-knit, pro-style uniforms, and one in a T-shirt and shorts, eh Bill? Would you care to explain that one to the affected players and parents? Incidentally, order to delivery timing on uniforms is six to eight weeks, exclusive of time required for sewing of patches and sponsor information.

 We as a Board, elected by the membership, are charged with the responsibility of acting in the best interests of the entire League. We are coaches, managers, parents committed to the establishment and maintenance of guidelines, parameters, rules...whatever tag you care to place on them, which will ensure consistent and judicious management of the League. Rules found to be unfair can and will be changed, not broken or bent to serve the whim of a few. We hold ten open meetings a year, and actively solicit suggestions from the membership in our efforts to constantly improve. Those who dissent should, at the very least, personally appear and air their views, if not run for election to the Board and donate a goodly portion of the thousands of man-hours required to manage the League.
 To young Billy, an All-Star in both ability and attitude, we know that some day, if not now, you will understand why you are not playing organized ball in Niles this year. There is not a manager in the League who would not want you on his or her team. We sincerely hope that you will register next year.
 The fact remains, however, that the registration rule in absolutely necessary, and we stand 100% behind it.

Sincerely,
 The Board of Directors, Niles Baseball League

Little League parent responds to Terpinas' letter
 Dear Editor:
 I would like to offer my feeling to Mr. Terpinas' letter concerning the Niles Little League Commissioners. Instead of condemning these men because of one father's neglect to register his son, they should be praised for all the fine things they are doing for the league. Just as Mr. Terpinas said "Was the league formed to accommodate our children or must the children accommodate the league?" I ask "who accommodates the board members?" Where do the uniforms, sponsors, schedules, etc., come from? They just don't fall into place by themselves. Many hours are spent arranging, getting and following through on these things. Hours, days and weeks which I'm sure these men could be spending at home with their families, relaxing after a full day's work, but no, they're out there getting things done and for what - their own personal benefit or a high salary. Afraid not, they're out there because they care for the kids and the game enough to give up their own personal free time without compensation of any kind. I don't see Mr. Terpinas donating any of his free time to the league, and from all the calls and letters, it looks like he has a lot of free time to

Students jump rope for health

Niles Elementary School-South students tried jumping their way to health on Wednesday, March 21, when over 100 first through fifth graders joined in a Jump Rope-a-Thon held for three hours. The event was sponsored by both the Chicago Heart Association and the physical education department of the school, according to Mr. Gates and Mrs. Bosy, the physical education instructors. The children formed six-member teams, each team consisting of all ages, and took turns jumping rope for the 3-hour stint. Before the event, children collected pledges for money that would be donated for each minute jumped, with all the money going to the Chicago Heart Association. The marathon served to get money for heart disease research, and to advertise the importance of jumping rope as a good means of cardio-vascular exercise, Gates explained.

Hohs lauds expanded paramedic service

"The expansion of our paramedic ambulance program under the Acton Party administration has resulted in far more effective emergency service to all areas of Morton Grove," declared Richard Hohs, Acton Party candidate for Trustee. Hohs, a former Trustee and lifelong resident of Morton Grove, further stated, "This has been one of the most outstanding achievements of the past two years for our village, and it has really brought peace of mind to a lot of people. With the addition of another six highly trained paramedics and a new Mobile Intensive Care Unit ambulance, we're now in a position to provide swift response to calls for help from anywhere in Morton Grove. People who are in need of immediate assistance will no longer have to worry about the frustrating and possibly life-threatening delays caused by a single ambulance caught on the wrong side of slowly passing train or tied up miles away at a fire or other emergency.

"Many of our local residents who have chronic heart conditions and other serious medical problems, and especially our Senior Citizens, know our ambulances are equipped with full life-support systems, and that our paramedics know exactly what they have to do to save lives." Hohs continued, "They're also trained to deal with car and home accidents, ingestion of poison, and almost any other kind of imaginable medical emergency involving newborn infants to our most elderly citizens. In case of fires, the units are sent to the scene right along with the fire engines so that any injuries can be given immediate attention.

"The citizens of Morton Grove truly appreciate the quality of protection they're getting. We hear nothing but compliments from so many grateful residents who have already benefited from this service.

"It has been just another way our Acton Party administration has demonstrated its vigorous response to the vital needs of our community; and there is no greater priority than the health and safety of the people who live here," Hohs concluded.

MaineStay seeks volunteers

MaineStay Youth Services is looking for interested community members to work in two of their youth programs.

Volunteers who are interested in outdoor stress-challenge camping will be trained to work with young participants in the Outdoor Adventure Program. Volunteers will be trained in rappelling orienteering and teams course as well as be involved on camping, backpacking, and canoe outings with staff and youth. Time commitment in the program is flexible. A letter stating a brief autobiography and a personal interview is required for acceptance into this program.

Those interested in working on a one to one basis with a young person between the ages of eight and fourteen are invited to apply to become a Big Brother or Big Sister volunteer. This program links a youth with an adult volunteer who spends a minimum of four hours a week with the youth involved in activities of mutual interest. These are young people in need of an adult they can spend time with and who can be a positive influence in their life. In order to become a Big Brother or Big Sister volunteer one must submit an application and the names of three individual's the agency can contact for personal recommendations. Once these papers are received the applicant is asked to attend an orientation session which will familiarize them with the program. A personal interview is then held to determine if the individual will be accepted as a volunteer and to get a sense of what type of youth they would be most effective working with. Once the volunteer is matched the volunteer will receive ongoing supervision and will be invited to attend all volunteer rap groups and volunteer/youth organized activities. MaineStay's program is affiliated with Big Brother, Big Sisters of Metropolitan Chicago.

Maine Stay is a community service of Maine Township Government. For more information on these volunteer opportunities call MaineStay at 296-6844.

Big demand for home improvement loans at First National of Niles Chuck Barbaglia, Vice President of the First National Bank of Niles attributes the large demand for home improvement loans to one of the worst winters in history.

According to Barbaglia, "record breaking snow and cold have caused all sorts of wear and damage, with leaking roofs one of the major causes for immediate repair. Flooding has also created the need for new carpeting and garage and home repairs."

Further stated Barbaglia, large fuel bills have caused home owners to install new storm doors, windows and to become more aware of the necessity of insulating attics and wall and to make other money saving repairs to reduce next winter's high fuel bills."

The First National Bank of Niles, 7100 West Oakton, can arrange to help you with a home improvement loan now to make your home safer, more livable and add to its resale value.

Innovative campaign in District 63

An innovation in local school board election campaigns has been undertaken by District 63 candidates Dennis Tugander, Allana Marks, and Howard Lessin. They plan to survey District residents regarding key issues that have been raised in the past several months.

When reached by telephone, Tugander said that they realized the survey would be limited in scope, but they hoped to reach a few hundred people through circulation at several coffees that have been scheduled and by several of their supporters contacting friends for neighbors.

Mrs. Marks said that one of the more disturbing factors is the current Board's total failure to communicate with the residents and respond to community input. "We each have our own opinions on several of the issues," she said, "but all three of us agree that it would be a good idea to see how people feel now, rather than wait until anger gets the best of a situation."

Howard Lessin, a former Board Member who has had some experience with surveys said that the three candidates were very fortunate to have the survey evaluated by District residents who not only were aware of the issues, but also were able to provide professional input that eliminated any bias in what he called the "mini-survey." "It consists of twelve questions, that with the exception of the last which is open-minded, seek grades of opinion from 'Strongly Agree' to 'Strongly Disagree.' While the number that we have had returned so far is relatively small, they do confirm our feelings that there is much dissatisfaction with current management of our elementary school system."

Smith seeks re-election to District 63 Board

Richard M. Smith, 37, of Niles has announced his candidacy for re-election to the East Maine District #63 Board of Education.

Smith, a 12 year resident of the East Maine community, is completing his first term on the District #63 Board and has served as chairman of the Board Policy Committee, chairman of the Board Legal Committee, chairman of the Board Legislative Committee, member of the Facilities and Property Utilization Committee, ED-RED representative, and IASB delegate. In addition, he has been active in numerous community organizations including Big Brothers and YMJC.

With an educational background in business administrations and law, Smith is currently chief operating officer of Navis & Smith Co., Inc., a Chicago based manufacturer of home furnishings and decorative accessories.

Dick and his wife Judi have two children, Jackie and Brian, both attending Stevenson school.

"My priorities for the District" says Smith, "are first to help restore trust and confidence in the Board by opening the lines of communication and seeking more community and staff involvement in the decision-making process. Second, I would like to see the Board develop, with the staff, administration, and community, a positive program for the future of education in East Maine through the 1980's. Lastly, I would like to see the Board devote more of its time to policy planning and educational assessment."

"I am deeply concerned about the children of East Maine and hope, in some small way, to be able to contribute to providing a quality educational program for all children despite the many problems and obstacles which declining enrollment and limited resources present. While constrained by resources, we can meet our goal of educating children to the maximum through a determined cooperative effort on the part of Board, administration, staff, and community. I want to be a part of that effort."

Richard M. Smith has been endorsed for re-election by the East Maine General Caucus. You are urged to contact Dick at 299-1541.

An election for members to the East Maine District #63 Board of Education will be held on Saturday, April 14, from noon to 7 p.m. Voting will take place at the local elementary school attendance centers.

Flynn solution to District 207 teacher firings

Thomas Flynn, Maine Township HS Board Candidate, today proposed a possible solution to the problem of terminating teachers due to declining enrollment. Mr. Flynn proposed a three year Federally funded Demonstration Project grant. The project would be directed toward the potential marginal graduate and dropout. His concept would employ special teams of teachers to work with small groups of students.

Mr. Flynn said, "I believe we can identify at the end of the Freshman year those students who may become marginal graduates or dropouts. Presently these students are not achieving their maximum potential. Using a low student-teacher ratio in special teams of teachers working with small groups of students we can expect to increase the academic achievement of some students and keep some potential dropouts in school. The program will require a larger number of teachers than normal programs and thus we can give employment to additional teachers over the next three years. The Board can apply to the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare for Demonstration grant funds. Normal resignations and retirements can be utilized to reduce faculty numbers according to declining enrollments. Thus, we can hopefully employ the potential 150 teachers to be laid off in the next three years."

Mr. Flynn went on "The student who may never achieve his goals in life will be the one who really benefits from a program of this type. I would urge our Board to study this suggestion and implement it for the benefit of both our students and our teachers. If the monies come from the federal government, the local tax payers will not have to fund it."

Six candidates file for Oakton Board

Six candidates have filed for the three vacancies on the Board of Trustees at Oakton Community College.

The candidates, in the order of filing, are Ray Hartstein, Skokie; William E. Spaulding, Glenview; Michael S. Treitman, Niles; Bruce Friedman, Lincolnwood; Samuel Sorkin, Lincolnwood; and Stephen B. Rudolph, Wilmette.

Both Hartstein and Friedman are presently members of the Oakton Board. Friedman has served as chairman of the Board during the past year while Hartstein, a member of the founding Board, served as chairman in 1969-72 and 1975-76.

Spaulding, a member of the North Shore Community Inter-district committee, was a candidate for the Oakton Board in 1978. Treitman is with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency while Sorkin is a certified public accountant and corporate tax officer with Harris Trust and Savings.

Rudolph, a former employee of Oakton, is manager of production services for Center Video Center, Chicago.

The Board election will be held on Saturday, April 14. Polling places will be shared with the underlying school districts. Voters can apply for absentee ballots by mail until April 9 and in person until April 13.

Rules are made everywhere. Look around you! We have rules in our schools, government, and work. Everywhere we turn, there are rules to be followed. We, as parents, set rules in our own homes for our children and we expect them to follow them. For example, we have an election coming up. Polls are open from 6 a.m. to 6 p.m. Because some people will forget to vote during the specified time, should they be allowed to vote after closing? If we did, we'd be counting ballots for weeks, maybe even months. How could things be organized. They would be subject to constant change.

There were a specified amount of days allotted for registration, plus one day the following week for late registration. Lots of advertisement before hand to notify all of registration, mailings, newspaper notices, posters, one at the Niles police station marquee in Niles. There is really no excuse for not registering except of neglect on one's own part. These men did everything in their power to notify the public. They must have done a great job, because over 400 remembered to register. Mr. Terpinas feels registration should be kept open all the time. That would be great if it would work out, but to keep something organized, there was to be limitations drawn. Without this we'd end up with kids sitting on the bench all season because there was no place for them to play because they came in late. We might even end up with teams cropping up in the middle of the season. Who do they play since schedules are made up at the beginning of the season? How could you rate a teams' standings at the end of the season when they only played part of the time?

On uniforms, Mr. Terpinas, I totally disagree with you. Children like having the uniforms and that's one of their most important concerns when they join a organization that has them. Without them they don't truly feel like they belong. It is difficult to get uniforms after the orders are in. Do you think a manufacturer will stop running their full orders for one or two uniforms when a league needs them, no, and why, because they're organized.

The league registered over 400 kids during the allocated time. That is a higher average of parents who remembered to take the time for their kids than the ones who forgot. All the other parents who forgot except for one, understood the reasoning of the board for closing registration and why and accepted. A lot of organizing went into the registration long before it actually took place and I feel the results were great. We all sometime in our lives have to learn what the word "no" means and be able to accept it. In this case it means keeping something organized in a great way and running smoothly.

Don't start bending the rules FELLOWS for anyone. You're doing a great job, keeping the league what it is, a good place for kids to have fun and to learn sportsmanship. The hardest part of sportsmanship to teach anyone is to learn you can't always be a winner. Some have to lose and to learn to lose gracefully and not be a poor sport by slandering others who are doing a TERRIFIC JOB!!!

The purpose of presenting a percussion concert is twofold, according to Jeger. He hopes that the audience will enjoy the experience and also wants everyone to realize that percussionists are musicians and not just "noise makers."

Jeger has taught music to high school and college students for over 20 years and also works as a free-lance musician, having performed on television shows, musical revues, club engagements in Chicago, and recordings for RCA and Universal Studios. He is also an author of several books on jazz drumming and compositions for the percussion ensemble.

ED HANSON

The Gift Of Serendipity

All newspapers get lots of letters.

Many are humdrum, most are just routine. But every once in a blue moon, a letter comes in that a dream...a real dream of a letter.

Take the one I received this week. It came from an elderly, sweet, kindly lady. She lives in Niles, and has for many years.

For the past 10 years this wonderful, gentle soul has lived all alone in her modest home with no one but her pet parrot, Penelope. One could almost feel the gentle warmth of her personality in the tone and quality of her writing. When I learned of her plight, I thought that other gentle, kindle souls, of which I'm sure Niles abounds, would want to help her with her problem.

But, let me give you the story, in her own wonderful words, as I quote directly from her letter:

My Dear Mr. Hanson:

I am an elderly lady, well along in years. I live in Niles, and have for many years. For the past 10 years - friends and relatives having passed on - I have lived alone. My only companion is my pet parrot, Penelope.

Penelope is a fine parrot. She's the most expensive breed, an African Gray parrot or psittacus erithacus. She is 14 inches high, which is large for the female of this species. In color she is an ashy grey, more pale on the rump and abdomen. Her flite feathers are dark grey, while her tail and tail-coverts are red and her irises are a canary yellow. She is, all in all, a brilliant specimen of the African Gray parrot. She has but one fault...she doesn't speak.

In the 10 years I've had her, she has never uttered a single word or sound. Although I always hoped and prayed that she would learn to talk, she never has. Despite this, I have loved Penelope, have spoken and read aloud to her, hoping she would learn to speak.

Despite the fact she is mute, she is company for me. It's lonely being alone, and the sound of another voice in my solitude would be a welcome sound.

During the years I have tried everything. I have read aloud to her from the great books. I have read to her from magazines and newspapers; I am an inveterate reader myself, having once been a school teacher but all my efforts have been to no avail.

Until, that is, just a few months ago. I know this may be hard for you to believe, Mr. Hanson, but you can verify this if you'd like to see if what I say isn't the absolute truth.

I was lining the bottom of her cage, and I just happened to select a page from The Bugle (always very popular with me) that contained your column and picture. As I began to smooth out the page, I read from your column aloud (I suppose from force of habit.) The most amazing thing occurred. Penelope uttered a "squawk" and then another "squawk". It was the first sound she had ever voiced in the 10 years I have had her. And then...

She actually spoke the word, "Ed" and this was followed by another word, "Hanson". I looked at her and saw that her feathers were not ruffled, as they would get when I read aloud from Sidney Harris' or Mike Royko's column. She used to fly in to a terrible rage every time I read Sidney Harris or Royko to her: she would beat her wings, then bury her beak in her shoulder feathers.

For several weeks thereafter, each time before I lined her cage with your column, I always read it aloud to her. She began to speak more and more. Her voice gained timber, she enunciated her words more and more clearly.

And suddenly, I knew how it happened. It was the gift of serendipity. I'm sure you know what that means...it's the proclivity or gift that a person has for discovering some unexpected and wonderful thing while one is looking for something else...

At first it was like a miracle to hear the sound of another voice shattering my shrieking silence. You can't appreciate my initial happiness, Mr. Hanson. And then, Penelope began to talk incessantly. From words, she began to utter complete sentences, and finally, she came to quote your columns in their entirety, over and over again.

Well, Mr. Hanson serendipity is a two-way street. At first it was wonderful but now that Penelope has discovered how to speak thru the gift of serendipity, she never shuts up.

I tell you, Mr. Hanson, this silly parrot yaks, yaks and yaks your column until...

This cotton-pickin' Polly is driving me out of my mind.

It has become impossible to make her keep still; even putting a cloth over her cage is of no avail. I have actually, although I am ashamed to say it, come to hate this old bird and it is only out of my former love for her that keeps me from wringing her neck.

Having to listen to your columns over and over again (and they sound even worse than they read) could replace capital punishment. It could, and is, about ready to drive me, a respectable, refined old lady to the funny farm.

Or worse, make a parrot murderer out of me!

I feel you share a responsibility in this matter. The fact that Penelope has memorized and constantly repeats your columns over and over again is nerve shattering.

Could you, thru your clum, find a home for my parrot, Penelope? Please...

ANYBODY out there in Bugleland want what I consider the smartest Parrot in the world?

Two charged with tire theft

Two young men were charged with theft March 24 after allegedly taking a tire from a van to replace a flat tire on their car while in the parking lot of the Golf Mill Shopping Center.

Joseph Dentamar of 29 Schoenbeck rd. in Wheeling and James Frenzel of 1400 Hollywood in Glenview were charged with theft and possession of stolen property. Dentamar was also cited for criminal damages to a van. Both were released under bond and scheduled for an April 6 hearing in Niles Circuit Court.

While on routine patrol around 1 a.m. Saturday at the shopping center a Niles policeman said his suspicions were aroused when he observed Frenzel attempt to put a tire on a jacked-up car, then roll the tire into a clump of bushes at Maryland and Milwaukee ave.

Unobserved the policeman inspected the tire and found it in good condition and mounted on a chrome wheel.

Interrogated by the officer, Frenzel said his friend "Joe" had taken the flat car tire and departed to look for a gas station.

A police search of the parking lot turned up a 1977 Dodge camper with similar wheels as the disabled car. The van was found open and a spare tire and 8-track tapes missing. In addition said police, the interior of the customized van had been severely damaged.

When Dentamar returned to his car, he found police waiting for him. Four 8-track tapes, an extension cord and a 10 inch knife were found in the rear of his car.

Police said the tire and the jack holding up the care were imprinted with the name of the van owner.

Niles couple ask aid with son

A young Niles couple are seeking volunteers to aid in programmed instruction of their 2½ year-old son who has brain damage.

"T.J." as he's affectionately known to family and friends was born in November, 1976 and placed on an 18-month waiting list for treatment with the Institute for the Achievement of Human Potential, in Philadelphia.

Programming treatment covering 10 full waking hours daily for the child was started at home 6 months ago by his parents and relatives, assisted by volunteers from the Catholic Women's Club of St. John Brebeuf Church.

T.J. has developed under the "fantastic" teaching of the institute and is evaluated at 3 month intervals according to his mother, Debbie.

Recently returned from a third visit to the institute the mother said more volunteers are needed under added practices required for the child.

The needed help is simple she said and requires the aid of 2 to 3 women - or men - who can give 2 hours of their time between 7:30 a.m. and 11:30 a.m. or 3:30 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. for one day, two days or more toward the 7-day-a-week program.

Three people are required to assist the young boy in patterning movements, two for swinging movement and several in the new technic of teaching T.J. to walk.

Coupled with routine household duties and care for her kindergarten-age daughter, Debbie said "it requires my whole day" for care of her son.

Since she has little time left to answer the phone, the mother asks that interested volunteers come to a meeting in her home at 8327 New England on Monday, April 9 at 8 p.m. in order that she may better inform and personally thank them for their help.

As head of the Catholic Women's group, Mrs. Mary Steinert will co-ordinate volunteers, but, said the young mother, "We desperately need 50 to 80 aides to assist in T.J.'s learning processes... please help us."

So you're making a good salary. But you're not saving any of it. Instead, you want to go after the "big deal" that's going to make you a cool million. Maybe. What happens if your big scheme goes sour? You've still got to get through the future. And, let's face it. Nobody can afford to take tomorrow for granted.

So maybe you'd better join the Payroll Savings Plan now. Just sign up at work. An amount you specify will be set aside from your paycheck and used to buy U.S. Savings Bonds. That way, you can still afford to take a few financial risks, if that's your bag. But you'll always have a solid cash reserve to fall back on. And, that's being smart.

Now U.S. Bonds pay 6% interest when held to maturity of 5 years (1% the first year). Bonds are registered if lost, stolen or destroyed. When needed, they can be cashed at your bank. Interest is not subject to state or local income taxes, and federal tax may be deferred until redemption.

Take stock in America. Join the Payroll Savings Plan.

Terpinas got legal counsel and filed a suit. Monday the representatives from the Baseball League telephoned us, and placed an ad in our paper allowing late registration April 8.

As of Tuesday morning, Terpinas told us he was still intending to go ahead with his suit, feeling registration should not be closed but left open during the season so participants could play, no matter when they register.

The NBL letter this week notes the scheduling of 1,000 games during the season requires the League know ahead of time the number of boys in the program. The ordering of uniforms requires 6 to 8 weeks lead time to enable delivery to be in time for the season.

The League also takes Terpinas to task for his failure to respond to the many notices for registration, including the cardboard notice at the police station where Bill is employed, as well as a 10 day notice on the police marquee in front of the station.

Are Terpinas' comments for open registration justified? And is his criticism of the League for its inflexible attitude a fair assessment? The failure of Terpinas to participate within the rules is pointed up by the Little League response.

An outsider reading about the imbroglio might contend the matter is "Much Ado About Nothing." But it really is much ado about something. It's a community matter which affects many hundreds of families. And even though we've been critical of over-organized sports, it nevertheless arouses much controversy each year. Obviously, if more than 400 participants are in the League each year, it is likely 25% - 50% of Niles families have participated in the program through the years. It's a small potatoes story for the metro newspapers, which they would not likely publish. But this story is what community newspapering is all about. It's important to those community members who are involved. Thus, it's an important story for a community newspaper. The story began in The Bugle Letters to the Editor column. It spilled over to its advertising columns this week, and is continuing in our "Letters" column. It once again proves the need for a local community newspaper which is genuinely interested in its community.

In a second action the Board accepted the resignation of Edith Jackson as administrator of the library. Mrs. Jackson was paid for the remainder of her contract which expires June 30, 1979. She will continue to receive hospitalization benefits from the district until June 30 unless she finds new employment.

Ruth Mackowski, assistant to Mrs. Jackson, will serve as interim administrator until the new library head has been selected.

Lloyd Gillet, board president, told The Bugle he expects it will take about 6 months before the position is filled. The next meeting will take place Monday, April 9.

BUGLE PUBLICATIONS

NILES, ILLINOIS 60648

indicated reluctance to PUD planning petitioned by Bencor Ltd. and Oscar Garber of Skokie at 7436-50 Milwaukee ave. Zoning commissioners said the planning did not meet the "unique" demands of a PUD and recommended petitioners seek an R4, multiple family, rezoning for the property.

Rezoning plans to B2 Special Use for PUD at 7201 Milwaukee ave. call for a 48 unit, 5 story building on the northeast corner of Touhy and Milwaukee ave.

Architect for the petitioner, Dan Le Noble said in addition to the 96 parking sites requested by village code, an additional 20 sites would be provided for guest parking on the 1.7 acre area. He noted that 56% of the site would be open space including amenities of a patio and swimming pool, with complete landscaping of the area and pressurized corridors.

Plan Commissioners commended the petitioner on the detailed presentation (credited by Comr. Syd Mitchel to former Board member Charles O'Grady, who appeared on behalf of the petitioner).

Comr. Kenneth Cohen noted the proposed building was of "unique" design. While "overall planning is good, and I recommend your utilization of planning, especially in the underground parking," Cohen said he would "seek lower density" under formal application to the Zoning Board.

In a second pre-application hearing commissioners were critical of planning presented for a proposed PUD at 7436-50 Waukegan ave. but indicated petitioner Ray Bender of Bencor Limited could file formal application if he desired to do so.

Comr. Cohen noted "a PUD should be something unique to gain the benefits of higher density, and planning should include benefits known as amenities." He did not consider parking and the removal of deteriorated buildings on the 1.4 acre site as amenities, he said. Cohen's comment that the proposed plans would change the character of the community without giving any benefits to the area brought applause from area residents at the hearing.

Cohen's opinion was seconded by Comr. Syd Mitchel who said he was "not certain what the developer had in mind" and Comr. Stan Lowe who observed the presentation was "not of PUD planning."

Area plans called for a 4 story building containing 40 units of 35 two-bedroom units with 2 baths and 5 one-bedroom units. The petitioner noted provision for 84 parking sites with 32 indoor sites underground.

Bender said the R4 multiple family zoning as recommended by planners would be "too restrictive for this property," that he "preferred to remain in the B2 commercial zoning."

Area residents objected to projected high density and congestion of cars, to the proposed building as being a "hi-rise"; that the planning would change the character of the community; and of projected flooding for the area.

In final business plan commissioners continued to May 7 a petition by William Witt of 8130 Oak ave. for side yard variation from 5ft. 3.19 ft. and a rear yard variation from 30 ft. to approximately 27 ft. for construction of a two story addition next to his one-story home.

The delay will provide time for the petitioner to present alternate ideas for the addition said commissioners who indicated the planning did not conform to neighborhood design.

shall High School, 80 to 50. Japely hit 20 points to lead all Niles shooters. Anderson scored 15 points, Erickson, 14, and Ataves, 13, in the well-balanced attack.

Coach Gene Earl, in his first year as coach at Niles, said he hadn't recently been in a victory parade like the one he was in Sunday, and added he'd like to do it again. The return of several veterans may give Earl his wish again next year.

Library Program on stress management

Patricia Rogers, a social therapist on the staff of Forest Hospital, will present a lecture entitled "Stress Management" at the Niles Public Library, 6960 Oakton st., on Tuesday, April 10. The program will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Ms. Rogers talk will center on proven group oriented techniques anyone can employ to better deal with the pressures of modern day living. Most people, given the choice of either dealing with the pressures they encounter during their lives or of being crushed under their collective weight, would probably choose the former. Perhaps heeding the simple hints and procedures to be described by Rogers will be the first step in your campaign to experience the complexity that is our twentieth century in a more positive vein.

"Stress Management" is one facet of a "Holistic Health" approach to life favored by Ms. Rogers, a system in which one views his lifestyle as a single entity rather than a random group of disparate parts.

normal condition. Village Administrator Fred Huber testified that when he suggested $700 would be a fair price for a used police car, Houndt countered with his offer of $350. Both Houndt and his son, Herbert Houndt, Jr., testified as to the poor condition of the two cars. The younger Houndt stated the vehicle had no reverse gear when he got it and called the Superintendent of Public Works, Jim Dahm, to tell him of the apparent transmission problem. Houndt, Jr. testified Dahm told him he would take care of it. The car was sent to a repair shop and the repair bill of $318.67, Houndt testified, was never sent to him.

According to the transcripts of the village board meeting in February, 1975, Houndt voted with the rest of the board of Morton Grove trustees to approve all pay vouchers at that time without inspecting them individually. Included in the vouchers was Houndt's repair bill for the car he had purchased from the village.

In his final argument, Prosecutor Frank Deboni stated, "Ignorance of the law is no excuse."

Project Big

The smiles on the faces of members of the Career Education Advisory Council of Maine Township High School District 207 suggest that this group which sponsors Project Big, Maine's annual district-wide Career Night, has some very special plans for the 10th Anniversary celebration of Project Big, to be held this year, Wednesday, April 18 at Maine South. Reading, from left to right, are Kenneth Reese, Co-ordinator for Project Big '79; William Zibell, guidance counselor, Maine North; Stanley Benthall, industrial education chairman, Maine South; Josephine Petrucci, office occupations co-ordinator, Maine East; Dan Morava of the O'Hara International Bank; Holmes McLendon, Management Response Corporation, Park Ridge; and John Maloney, Sears Roebuck and Co.

District 207 clarifies employee count

Maine Township High School District 207 has reported that it employs about 1,356 persons, including full-time and part-time employees.

Candidates running for the District 207 School Board have released statements saying that the district has over 2,000 full- and part-time employees.

This is incorrect, Superintendent Richard R. Short, reported. There may be a misunderstanding, he said, because District 207 distributed 1,890 W-2 forms in 1978.

The Superintendent explained that this larger figure includes W-2 forms given to employees holding the same job during 1978. Not every person working for the school district in June returns in September, he noted. Also, some employees leave and others are hired throughout the year.

The district uses many substitute teachers and not always the same teachers are hired, he said.

Dr. Short said that the 1,356 figure was obtained by having the district payroll department report the number of employees in the district during an average month. Using November 1978 as the average month, the District employed 687 teachers and administrators; 83 Maine Township Special Education personnel; and 586 non-certified office staff, paraprofessionals, teacher aides, cafeteria workers, custodians. The 586 figure also includes 73 substitutes and 27 students.

Awards for Niles West students

Niles West High School sophomores Daniela Olkiewicz, Lincolnwood, and Rose Seiler, Morton Grove, will be specially recognized at an awards program for scoring outstandingly high on a recent examination, administered under the auspices of the American Association of Teachers of German (AATG). Both students were among the few Chicago and suburban high school students to score at the almost perfect 99th percentile. In making the announcement of the students' achievement, the AATG commended the Niles West German teachers "for excellence and enthusiasm in foreign language education, the quality of which is quite evidently reflected in the accomplishments of their students". German is taught at Niles West by Katherine Beck, George Brink and Peter Zorn.

Thirteen other Niles West German students scored at the 90th percentile or better on the same test. They are Bernard Ebeling, Rose Goppert, Ani Kuan, Sue Manner, Barbara Plutz, and Michael Schmidt from Morton Grove; Heidi Jesswein, Ellen Kaufman, Norbert Rock and Elizabeth Snyder from Lincolnwood and Debra Himmeler, Kurt Lemke and Christine Reichetter from Niles.

Mrs. McGuinn also coached Dean Phelus to a state championship in 1975. He is currently a junior at American University where he is majoring in political science.

In a short address to VFW Post members, Mrs. McGuinn expressed the students' appreciation for the financial aid which has benefited the winners.

Mrs. McGuinn has taught at Maine North high school for eight years. She also coaches the award winning Readers' Theatre, the contest play company and the group interpretation ensemble.

Hartstein to "hold the line" on taxes and tuition

Ray Hartstein, founding Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Oakton Community College who is seeking re-election to the Board on April 14, spoke to a large audience at the college on "Taxes and Tuition in the Period Ahead."

"We must again reduce taxes as we have at Oakton for 5 of the last 9 years and maintain our low tuition, despite skyrocketing of tuitions at neighboring colleges if we are to keep our high quality, low cost education within the reach of our citizens" he said.

Hartstein told of the joint operations of Oakton with the high schools on adult education and the establishment of a non-profit Foundation to avoid duplication and reaching for taxpayer dollars.

"Since the same taxpayers and students are involved, I would like to build a total educational network from elementary school to college to have all segments in the district cooperate in planning programs, facilities, enrollments, and financing," he added.

Besides aiding in the establishment of the college, Hartstein has been involved in every aspect of growth and development of the college since 1969 to date. He served as Founding Chairman and Chairman for 4 years and Vice Chairman for 2 years.

"We are rather proud of our record at the college," he said. "Having started 'from scratch' in 1969 with no money, curriculum, faculty or facilities, we built a top-notch, fully accredited college now providing educational services for over 20,000 citizens, having started with only 800 students."

Oakton College is entering a very crucial period. State Boards and Agencies are attempting to restructure the curricula and limit course offerings, revamp the financial set up and curtail or limit the funding and slowing production of the permanent campus facilities.

Hartstein's business, financial and educational know-how, his experience and understanding of these problems and his working relationship with key personnel and state agencies can aid immeasurably in protecting Oakton's base.

Ray Hartstein is President of the State Trustees Association which devotes its energies on behalf of Oakton and the 50 State colleges; represents the Board with State agencies, Governor and Legislators; and has testified before the U.S. Senate Committee on behalf of the community colleges.

District 207 Board Candidate cites disciplinary problems

Howard M. Blassman, a candidate for the Maine Township High School District 207 Board of Education, cites insubordinate behavior, verbal and physical abuse of staff members, truancy, chronic tardiness and cutting classes as serious disciplinary problems that demand immediate board attention.

Blassman proposes that the school board confront the discipline problems in the Maine High Schools by supporting the teachers and deans in their efforts to curb disciplinary infractions, educating the members of the community about the disciplinary problems that occur, and working with parents, teachers, administrators and students to develop solutions to the problems.

Blassman rejects one incumbent board candidate's suggestions that the discipline and vandalism problems should be held down by providing the district's paraprofessionals with security training through a law enforcement class. "The goal must be to eliminate the disciplinary problems that detract from the educational climate at the Maine schools, not to control them by creating a prison like environment with security guards patrolling the halls," Blassman said.

As regards disciplinary sanctions for minor infractions, Blassman advocates the district wide use of the "in-school suspension" being tried this year at one of the Maine High Schools as a "constructive manner of dealing with students who create disciplinary problems." "The prospect of being required to spend time in a supervised study location should certainly act as a disincentive to students who contemplate further misconduct," Blassman said.

District 207 absentee ballots

Absentee ballots are now available for voters, who will be unable to cast their ballots in person, in the Saturday, April 14 Maine Township High School Board election.

Donald Kenney, Secretary, Maine Township High School Board of Education, reports that applications for absentee ballots can be obtained by eligible voters by either calling, coming to, or writing the Ralph Frost Administration Center, 1131 South Deer rd., Park Ridge, 60068. The phone number is 696-3600.

He said that voters coming to the Center can fill out the required application and cast their ballot immediately. This will be possible, he added, until 4 p.m., Friday, April 13, the day before the election.

Requests for applications for absentee ballots through the mail or by phone must be received at the Center no later than Monday, April 9. Ballots will be sent out immediately, Kenney said. They must be returned to the Center either in person or through the mail no later than April 13.

Kenney said that voters should request absentee ballots only if they will be absent from the county on April 14 or if they are unable to vote because they are incapacitated or it is a religious holiday.

He reported that only one absentee ballot was cast in the last District 207 School Board election in 1978. There are sure to be more absentee ballots in this year's election, he said, because his office has already sent out 19 applications for absentee ballots.

There are three seats to be filled in the April 14 District 207 School Board election. Five candidates have filed, including incumbents, Mrs. Anne Evans, current Board President, of Des Plaines; Mrs. Arlynn Warrack of Morton Grove; and Thomas Rueckert of Glenview. On the ballot for the first time are Howard Blassman of Des Plaines and Thomas Flynn of Niles.

The program will open with the first movement of Lalo's "Symphony Espagnol" for violin and orchestra featuring Taft High School student, David Niwa. Fifteen-year old violinist David Niwa of Chicago is the son of professional musicians. His father, violinist with The Chicago Symphony Orchestra has been his only teacher. David won a number of competitions, including the Society of American Musicians Primary, Junior and Intermediate Awards in 1974, 1976 and 1978.

The Northwest Symphony Orchestra cordially invites you and your family to attend. The orchestra suggests that children attending in groups have adequate adult supervision.

Democrats begin screening for Mikva successor

Tenth District State Central Committeeman Calvin R. Sutker today announced that screening sessions will be held shortly to find a successor for the soon to be vacant seat of Congressman Abner Mikva (D-10).

"We assume Ab Mikva will be confirmed as Judge of the Circuit Court of Appeals," Sutker said, "so now we are initiating a search process to find prospective candidates."

On the prospect of a Democrat succeeding Mikva, Sutker commented, "Democrats have carried this district in the past and will do so in the future." He cited Senator Adlai Stevenson, Secretary of State Alan Dixon, Cook County President George Dunne and Diana Hunter, a suburban candidate who narrowly lost the 1974 election for Cook County Commissioner.

Screening sessions will be open to anyone. Individuals interested in running or who wish to speak on someone's behalf are urged to attend. Three screening sessions are anticipated the first to be held in Skokie some time in April. In addition to the screenings, the Tenth District Congressional Committee will seek out worthy candidates who might not be available at the time of the screenings.

All interested participants are requested to send two copies of their resumes, one to Calvin Sutker, State Central Committeeman for the Tenth District, and a second copy to their township committeeman.

Members of the Tenth District Congressional Committee are:

- Maine - Nicholas B. Blase, 8070 Milwaukee, Niles 60648.
- Evanston - Thomas S. Fuller, 1020 Church st., Evanston, 60201.

Dempster Plaza State Bank entertainer

Aviva May, Israeli Folk Singer, entertained the patients at the Goldman Nursing Home on Thursday, March 15.

Dempster Plaza State Bank is delighted to have the opportunity to present to some Senior Facilities this very talented and versatile performer.

Celia Hansen, Bank Assistant Cashier, brought in cakes for refreshments appropriately decorated for St. Patrick's Day. The Bank is also giving each of the Senior Facilities night lights for every residents' room to help assure everyone's safety. The lights are ideal as they use no electric current and glow constantly becoming brighter as it gets darker.

The staffs are delighted to receive this worthwhile and timely gift for their residents.

Jewish Council afterschool programs

The Mid-North Branch Board (MNBB) of the Young Men's Jewish Council will be sponsoring two Spring afterschool programs. Both programs start Friday, April 20 and run for seven sessions until June 8. (Class will not meet on April 27).

The first program, KIDSPORTS is a fun, non-competitive class geared toward improving children's basic athletic skills. It will include warm-up exercises, and games and sports. All activities are chosen according to the children's skill levels. This class will be offered to children in grades K-4 and the schedule is as follows: Grades K-1, 3:30-4:30; Grades 2-4, 4:30-5:30.

The second program is the ever popular PUPPETRY. Taught by a professional puppeteer, children will learn how to create a world of imagination by making their very own puppets. Storytelling and stage shows are an integral part of the program. This class is for children in Grades K-4 and will run from 3:30-4:30 p.m. The fee for each program is $14 which also includes a snack. The programs will take place at the Melzer School in Morton Grove.

The Mid-North Branch Board is a community activity of the Young Men's Jewish Council, a non-profit social service agency. It is comprised of a group of community parents and leaders who help to develop and implement high quality programs in their area. The Branch Board programs (which are non-sectarian) also include SUBURBAN DAY CAMP (for children 5-11), and holiday and family camping trips. MNBB serves Morton Grove, Niles, Skokie, Glenview and Des Plaines.

FNBS TWIN INTEREST

Savings Accounts Earn Interest....

... So the more money you can keep in your Savings Account, the more money you earn. For example, if you keep the bare minimum of $1,500 in your Twin Savings Account (that gives you free checking) you earn over $6.25 every month. (more than $75.00 a year). If you have more in the account you earn more.

You make all your deposits into your Twin Savings Account where it earns daily interest.

You put it in Savings and it stays in Savings, earning daily interest, until

Checking Accounts Don't Earn Interest...

Checks you have written on your Twin Checking Account come back to FNBS for payment... Then, we automatically transfer just enough money from your Twin Savings Account to your Twin Checking Account to pay your checks that have come into the bank for payment that day.

You never have any idle money just sitting in the Twin Checking Account... It is what we call "Zero Balance" checking.

Checking is Free if you keep a minimum of $1,500 in your Twin Account. If the balance drops below that minimum, there is a $5.00 service charge that month, but that is more than offset by the interest your Twin Savings earns.

Automatic Transfer ACCOUNT

If the Twin Account interests you, open one with a FNBS Customer Service Representative.
