On the OTHER HAND

by Diane Miller

Orchids...to those who responded to the story about Niles speed skater Patrick Moore which appeared in the August 9 issue of The Bugle.

Pat, 17, a student at Maine East High School, resides at 7244 W. Breen, and has been skating since he was 10 years old. He is on the National Indoor and Outdoor Team of speed skaters for 1979 and is also a member of the World Indoor Team which consists of the 8 top skaters in the United States. Pat's next goal is an Olympic Gold Medal at Lake Placid in February 1980.

According to his parents, this very dedicated young man spends his training time in West Allis, Wisconsin where the only Olympic Rink in the U.S. is located other than the one being constructed for the Lake Placid Winter Olympics next year.

In order to accomplish his goal of qualifying for the United States Olympic Team, Pat will have to travel to Innsbruck, Austria, Inzell, Holland, and Berlin in October to train with the World Team of which he is a member. He trains with Eric Heiden, internationally recognized as the world's best speed skater. When the team arrives home early in December, they will return to the West Allis rink where time trials will be held in late December and January.

During the past 7 years, Pat's family has backed him 100% in his endeavors, but it has been a big drain on the family's budget and while his mother admits the sacrifice has been well worth it, the upcoming trip to Europe for final training before the Olympics will cost about $2,000. Even his skates run $200 a pair and separate pairs are needed for indoor skating, outdoor skating and also metric skating which Pat has been doing for the past two years.

While speed skaters Diane Holum and Anne Henning were able to make our neighboring suburb, Northbrook, a household word when they won their Olympic gold medals a few years back, Nilesites would certainly pop a few buttons on their chests if they could claim a gold medal winner from our town. But these things don't come easy. It takes a lot of dedication, sacrifice and money and unfortunately, our athletes receive nothing in the way of financial aid.

It then becomes a way for us to say "thank you" to these young people who seldom make the front pages during their formative years and only occasionally get a few lines on the sports pages. If what they were doing was wrong or criminal, they would be on the front pages.

Pat needs H-E-L-P!!! It's that simple. We know many of you are willing to help a young man who will give you his all and make Niles proud of him. Checks can be made out to the Patrick Moore Skating Fund, c/o Dempster Plaza StateBank, Dempster and Greenwood, Niles, Ill. 60548.

Onions...to the powers that be in the Village of Morton Grove who have made the decision not to enforce their village ordinance which bans the sale or possession of drug paraphernalia.

Two Morton Grove businesses which operate as a record shop and a T-shirt shop carry a complete line of drug related items such as "roach" clips, pipes, bongs, and the papers used to roll marijuana. Numerous bicycles are parked outside these stores during the day and if you venture inside, many of the kids are not looking at the latest record albums or the newest sayings for t-shirts, but are lined up in front of the paraphernalia counter checking out the items. The salesmen have been reported to be very cooperative in explaining the various uses for the items to the youngsters who were observed to be between the ages of 9 and 13.

We are sure most parents are probably not even aware these stores carry these "additional items" since they are not advertised on the outside.

Niles has had an ordinance against paraphernalia sales for the past few years and police enforce the ordinance while neighboring Skokie requires a license to sell such equipment, and buyers must be 18 years of age and register their purchases at the store.

Why would the Morton Grove Village Board pass an ordinance against paraphernalia sales in town and then not require their police department to enforce the law?

Associate Professor

Albert C. Y. Jen of Morton Grove was one of 32 faculty members at Northeastern Illinois University to recently receive a promotion. Jen has been named an Associate Professor in the university's Library. Zuegel, Chairperson, Board of Trustees; Clark Holt, Senior Pastor; Mrs. Melvin Douglas, wife of the artist; Melvin Douglas, artist and donor of the mosaic.

A four foot by five foot mosaic of the crucifixion of Jesus, entitled "Father, forgive..." was presented and dedicated at the First United Methodist Church on Sunday afternoon, July 15. A group of interested members and friends gathered at the church for the 3 p.m. service conducted by the Rev. Clark Holt, senior pastor. Mr. Melvin Douglas, designer and creator of the mosaic, and a Park Ridge resident, made a brief statement of presentation. Mr. Herbert Zuegel, president of the First Church Board of Trustees, accepted the gift on behalf of the congregation. The mosaic hangs in Jorgeson Hall at the church, and among the guests for the service were Mrs. Grace Pate and Mrs. Dorothy Hayes, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. F.C. Jorgeson, after whom the hall was named.

The artist, Melvin Douglas, is a graduate of the University of Kansas. He also studied at the New York Art Students League. During the Chicago World's Fair he did scientific paintings for the Hall of Science. This led to a position as a patent artist, a career he has pursued to the present. For many years he has been associated with the Romeo Studios.

The mosaic, "Father, forgive..." was first conceived about 1930. Numerous changes in design and plan occurred through the years. Serious work on the creation of the mosaic started in 1978 and it was completed this spring. A volume of design drawings and pictures of progress on the work was also presented to the church and will be on permanent display.

Maine Township public aid report

The number of persons who qualified for public aid from Maine Township during the first half of 1979 decreased substantially from the same period last year although the number of cases processed increased, according to Maine Township Supervisor James J. Dowd.

Dowd said 560 persons received aid from the public assistance fund between Jan. 1 and June 30, down 21.1 per cent from the same period last year when 710 persons qualified.

In contrast, the number of cases (families and individuals) processed rose 24 per cent for the period, from 316 to 392. Dowd said this reflected the fact that fewer families and more individuals were applying for aid.

Dowd stated that the current semi-annual statistics were "encouraging" in that they are the third lowest recorded during the past eight years and equal only 29.5 per cent of the all-time, sixth month high registered in the first half of 1975.

OCC gives senior adults half-rate tuition

Senior adults who have steered clear of colleges or continuing education for one reason or another will find that Oakton Community College is working hard to dissolve any barriers blocking their return to school, according to Pat Handzel, director of the OCC Office of Community Outreach.

"Oakton and its students appreciate the wisdom and knowledge that senior adults bring into the classroom. They're tremendous, and we are always trying to make Oakton a safe, enjoyable, and not too expensive place for them to learn and share," Ms. Handzel stressed.

Residents of the OCC district who are 60 years of age and older pay only $6 per credit hour and are not charged any fees.

To help answer any questions or misgivings which form barriers for some seniors, Oakton has advisors available in the Office of Community Outreach.

"Our advisors welcome any questions from senior adults and will work with them to help solve their difficulties or apprehensions," Ms. Handzel said.

For more information about the benefits and services offered to senior adults, call Oakton's Office of Community Outreach, 967-5120, ext. 350.

District 71 Free lunch policy

Niles Elementary Schools, District 71, today announced its policy for Free Meals or Reduced Price Meals for children unable to pay the full price of meals and milk served under the National School Lunch Program.

Local school officials have adopted the following family size and income criteria for determining eligibility:

Family Size	Family Income	Family Income
	Free Meals	Reduced Price Meals
1	FY 80 $4,590	FY 80 $7,160
2	6,040	9,420
3	7,490	11,680
4	8,940	13,940
5	10,390	16,200
6	11,840	18,470
7	13,290	20,730
8	14,740	22,990
Each Additional family member	1,450	2,260

Children from families whose income is at or below the levels shown are eligible for free meals or reduced price meals.

In addition, families that do not meet these criteria but have expenses such as unusually high medical expenses, shelter costs in excess of 30 percent of income, special education expenses due to the mental or physical condition of a child, or disaster or casualty losses are urged to apply.

Application forms are being sent to all homes in a letter to parents. Additional copies are available at the principal's office in each school. The information provided on the application is confidential and will be used only for the purpose of determining eligibility. Applications may be submitted at any time during the year. To discourage the possibility of misrepresentation, the application forms contain a statement above the space for signature certifying that all information furnished in the application is true and correct. An additional statement is added to warn that the application is being made in connection with the receipt of Federal funds, that school officials may, for cause, verify the information in the application, as that deliberate misrepresentation of information may subject the applicant to prosecution under applicable State and criminal statutes.

In certain cases foster children are also eligible for these benefits. If a family has foster children living with them and wishes to apply for free or reduced price meals for them, the family should contact the school. If a family member becomes unemployed or if family size changes, the family should contact the school to file a new application. Such changes may make the children of the family eligible for reduced price meals, or for additional benefits such as free meals and milk if the family income falls at or below the levels shown above.

All children are treated the same regardless of ability to pay. In the operation of child nutrition programs, no child will be discriminated against because of his/her race, sex, color, or national origin.

N DOLLARS AND SENSE

by Robert Chodil, President

With the help of our customers we have formed our own community here at the FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF NILES. By giving us the opportunity to serve you we are able to provide time-saving and efficient full banking services. Your individual needs are the most important function of our bank.

The biggest problem facing the American consumer is continued inflation. Inflation seriously hurts all Americans on fixed incomes and erodes the purchasing power of workers so that even substantial wage increases bought little if any more than their wages bought a year earlier. The confidence in the U.S. Dollar greatly declined.

During 1978 Congress passed several new bills to help the consumer during inflationary periods, including bills dealing with cooperatives, bankruptcy, college expenses and home insulation. The family income limit for Basic Education Grants was raised from about $16,000.00 to $26,000.00. Homeowners gained tax benefits from the energy bill passed November 9, 1978, a 15% tax benefit on the first $2,000.00 spent for insulation and fuel conservation. Public utilities are now required to provide information on request, including names of local contractors to customers who want to know how they can save fuel, how much the savings will be in terms of dollars and how to finance the costs. The law allows customers to repay loans for such purposes on their monthly utility bills.

SAVINGS TIP: To help ease the pain of inflation, make yourself aware of the consumer protection laws by contacting your local government office.

Dear Editor:
 Judge Murray's decision on Aug. 17, 1979, to return the issue of detachment of Golf-Golf Acres, to the Cook County Regional Board was favorable to District 67. The Judge wants to see facts substantiating the Regional Board's decision to allow the Golf-Golf Acres petitioners to detach...frankly, I too, would like to see such facts.

The children of the petitioners have participated in District 67's extra curricular programs for years. As a Cub Scout Den Mother, I had boys in my group from Golf and Golf Acres. The Bluebirds this past year met at a home in Morton Grove, and had girls from Golf-Golf Acres as members. The Boy Scout Troop has boys from the petitioners area partaking in their projects. The Gym Show, the two Gifted Child programs, the after school intra-mural program, and other District 67 activities, have had children from the petitioners area as participants. These are facts which I can substantiate.

The petitioners have claimed that Golf Road is a barrier preventing their children from joining after school programs...the only barrier I see is the one recently erected by the petitioners themselves.

As a taxpayer, and a parent of two children presently in the District 67 schools, I would like the petitioners to come forth with sound, logical information as to why they want, at any cost, to detach from a school district that has been and is providing quality education geared to the "total child". I am also anxious to read factual testimony from the Cook County Regional Board substantiating their decision to grant detachment.

Theatre patrons see 'stars' over misrepresentation

Dear Editor,
 On Friday, Aug. 17, my friend and I decided to see the movie STAR WARS at the Morton Grove Theatre at 7300 Dempster in Morton Grove. Even though we both saw the movie before, we went again mostly to see the greatly advertised preview of the continuation of STAR WARS entitled THE EMPIRE STRIKES BACK. This special preview WAS to trail the movie.

We went to the theater and saw signs in its window advertising STAR WARS and the special preview for THE EMPIRE STRIKES BACK. After paying

$1.50 each we found seats and began watching STAR WARS. When STAR WARS ended the large curtain which covers the screen when no movies are being shown began to close. My friend and I then got up to ask if the trailer was going to be shown. We saw an usher talking with two other people who were also looking for the added feature. He told them and us the preview would be shown in nine minutes. We returned to our seats.

The curtain reopened and we saw previews for THE JERK and also THE IN-LAWS. After those clips the lights dimmed and they began rolling THE 3:15 SHOWING OF STAR WARS.

Disappointed, my friend and I walked out seeing others who were also expecting the preview. I asked for my money back but as I expected I was told I couldn't get it back. On our way out we passed a large sign resembling the advertisement enclosed.

Isn't this false advertisement? Shouldn't the theater have not put up those signs or at least informed the public they didn't have the preview? Who's responsible? Don't I and the others deserve our money back?

Sincerely,
 Jim Janus

10th District election to be hotly contested

Dear Editor:
 It appears that the 10th District Democratic Primary will be a hotly contested election. The candidate who wins the primary may have little outside support from his present opponents. I have publicly stated that Mr. Weinberger was sent here from Washington D.C. to organize and lead a Delegate slate committed to Mr. Carter. I have heard Mr. Sutker and other supporters of Mr. Weinberger deny this but I have not heard one word from Mr. Weinberger including his announcement that he is a candidate.

I propose that Mr. Weinberger publicly state that he will not organize, participate or run for Delegate pledged to Mr. Carter. I further ask him to state that he has vacated his Washington D.C. apartment and permanently moved here to the 10th District. I also ask him to state that he will disclose all the sources and names of his campaign contributors as he receives the money in order for us to see where his money comes from and who gives it to him. Finally, I ask him to publicly disavow any relationship with Mr. Carter now and for the future in order to insure that he will not be rewarded after the primary or election.

If Mr. Weinberger can make these public commitments to the citizens of the 10th District, then we may assume he has some real interest in running for Congress.

Sincerely,
 Thomas W. Flynn
 Democratic Candidate for Congress, 10th District

Cites Niles Bike Patrol for reckless riding

Dear Editor:
 I would like to warn the bike riders of Niles not to ride in the same unlawful manner that the Niles Bicycle Safety Patrol does. This can be hazardous to your health.

On August 7, in the midafternoon, my friend and I followed two bicycle safety officers. In the two blocks that we followed them, they broke seven laws. They were eastbound on Monroe st. They turned right on Ozark, however they failed to stop at the stop sign and to use proper hand signals for the turn. The pair of officers then turned left into the park again failing to use proper hand signals. After refreshing themselves with a drink of water from the fountain, they returned to the street to continue violating the law. They made a complete U-turn near the intersections of Oakton and Ozark, again not using hand signals. The officers then turned right, into the alley. This turn also was not signalled. After coming out of the alley, they again failed to signal the left turn they made on Overhill. After the turn they rode to Oakton. When they approached the stop sign of Overhill and Oakton, they did something correctly. They stopped. Their manner of waiting for traffic to clear, so they could cross safely, was rather inconsiderate and dangerous, however. They stopped next to each other. When a car pulled up alongside to our friendly officers, the car had to go about five feet more to the left side than it would if the two lawbreakers were single file, like they're supposed to be. When traffic cleared on Oakton, they turned left, again ignoring the fact that they are supposed to use hand signals.

Out of the six turns they made in those two blocks, not once did they use hand signals. They only stopped for one out of the two stop signs they came to, not to mention the fact they were riding next to each other the entire two blocks.

Bicycle safety is very important in this time of energy shortages. It seems more and more people are riding them. A bicycle safety patrol is an excellent idea, but isn't it a shame that the Niles Bicycle Safety Patrol cannot set an example for other bike riders. The Bicycle Safety Patrol is human, and I agree they can make mistakes. In spite of their humanity, I find it hard to believe that breaking so many laws in such a short distance is a honest mistake. In my opinion, this is disobedience of the law...the law which they are supposed to enforce.

My conclusion is the same as my beginning. "I would like to warn the bike riders of Niles not to ride in the same unlawful manner as the Niles Bicycle Safety Patrol does." This can bring your death. Follow the rules and regulations. They're there for your safety and good health.

I would like to add that who I am is not important. What I saw is important. If I saw this in the eyes of a child and rode in the same manner, I may not have been able to write this letter.

Flynn opes closing of military bases

Thomas Flynn, Democratic Candidate for Congress, today said he was opposed to the closing of Fort Sheridan and Great Lakes Naval Training Station. Mr. Flynn said he had learned that the Department of Defense was still considering the closing of both these military installations on the North Shore.

Mr. Flynn said, "We have few military installations in Illinois and little Defense Department business. Illinois is being shortchanged in the amount of tax dollars it receives from the Department of Defense. Now they are still considering closing our two largest military installations. The closing of Great Lakes and Fort Sheridan will have a devastating economic affect on all of Northern Illinois. We will lose almost five thousand jobs and billions and of dollars in local income."

Mr. Flynn went on, "President Carter may be waiting until 1981 before he closes three military installations. I want a public statement now by the Defense Department that they will not be closed after the 1980 election. As a Congressman from the 10th District, I will oppose any closing of these military installations. You as citizens can express your concern by writing the Defense Department."

SCHOOL NEWS

District 63's teachers verify impasse in talks

The East Maine Education Association, the School District 63 teachers union, agreed with a news release from District 63's administration there is an impasse in negotiations as of Tuesday.

According to a union representative, the board sought a 3 year salary agreement with a 20% salary increase over this period. The union desires a one-year salary contract based on the cost-of-living rate and a re-negotiation for the second year or a cost-of-living increase for this same period. While no official word has been released, a two-year contract is likely.

Union officials said after-school hours are also being negotiated. The Board recommended twenty-75 minute after-school hours be included in the upcoming contract. After discussion the Board has revised its demands to eight 75-minute sessions. Some principals contend they need the time for in-service programs, for curriculum reviews. Union people point out they now arrive at school at 8 a.m., five days a week. Last year they arrived at 8 a.m., three days a week and 8:30 a.m., two days.

Union people contend the board will not discuss this matter. The union recommends a minimum and maximum size for classes, and the administration should strive to retain the present ratio of 23:1 for primary grades and 27:1 for junior high school grades. If the superintendent recommends larger class sizes, a committee comprised of 2 or 3 EMEA members should meet with the superintendent before adjusting the class size.

Union officials noted the board indicated it would implement a 5-year plan to reduce spending and close additional schools. The union felt such a plan is very important to teachers since such actions could reduce staff sizes as well as increase class sizes.

While the issues is not one of the three major ones, the "opening-up of lanes" to teachers is a concern of the union. It feels about one-third of the teachers will be frozen at their present pay schedules if board proposals hold. Increased pay is recommended by the union official for hours less than a masters degree but beyond a bachelors degree as well as additional hours beyond a masters degree.

District 63 teacher negotiations at impasse on contract

(School District 63 Release) On August 16, the East Maine Education Association and the Board of Education of District No. 63 declared that an impasse had been reached in the negotiation process for a contract beginning with the 1979-1980 school year. In accordance with contractual procedure the parties will use the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service in an attempt to reach a settlement on an agreement to replace the contract which has expired.

The Association and the Board have been meeting since March in order to reach a settlement on a new contract. The Association presented the Board with some eighteen demands and the Board offered a proposal similar to the then current agreement with some changes in the teachers work day, some recommendations for increases in stipends for extra duty activities, and increases in salaries and fringe benefits.

The major unresolved issues concern salary increases, rehiring procedures, teacher work day, after school meetings, and class size.

The Board has made available to the Association copies of five year projections showing an accumulated deficit in the Education and Operations, Building and Maintenance Funds of over $9,000,000 in 1984. The budget, as adopted by the Board for 1979-80, including revised projected revenue figures and the Board's current offer reflects a projected deficit in the two funds of $187,000 in June, 1980. Over the past three years the Board has taken action, including the closing of two buildings, to better align income with expenditures and reduce the amount of the projected deficit. It may be contemplated that increases in the projected deficits may hasten possible curtailment in programs and closing of additional schools.

The projected deficit figures do not reflect the demand of the EMEA for a 12.3% increase in salary and fringe benefits for the first year of a contract, and an amount equal to the full increase in the consumer price index for the second year. Based on current cost of living figures this would result in excess of a 24% increase during the contract period. Under this demand, While teachers currently cannot be required to be available for meeting after regular hours, the Administration has requested of the Board the inclusion of a provision for eight meetings annually to provide an extended block of time for opportunities for discussion and communication with the total staff, for curriculum steering committees to meet with faculty, for total building budget planning, for total building team meetings, and building wide curriculum planning. In addition, in response to the needs of a working community, the Board has requested a second evening meeting to be used for district-wide parent-teacher conferences beside the one evening meeting currently available for open house.

The Board of Education feels that the matter of class size is one which should be set by the Board and shouldn't be a part of any new contract due to the need for flexibility in this area. Responses to changes in conditions or programs could not be made wisely and would be severely limited by such a provision.

based on the average salary for 1978-79 of $16,528.00, a teacher would receive a salary of $17,337.00, an increase of $809.00, plus payment of $1,214.00 to Retirement Fund, which was previously paid by the teacher, and an increase of approximately $65.00 for hospitalization and life insurance for the first year of the contract.

In light of the projected deficit the Board has offered an increase of 15.24% over a two year period. This figure includes salary increment, increased costs of life and hospitalization insurance, and a significant payment of the employee's share to the Illinois Teacher's Retirement Fund.

The issue of rehiring procedures centers around the establishment of criteria to be used in the recall of teachers of equal seniority who have been released because of declining enrollment.

The Board has requested that the teacher work day be equalized throughout the week as 8 a.m. to 3:15 p.m., Monday through Friday. During the 1978-79 school year teachers were available from 8:35 a.m. to 3:15 p.m., Mondays and Fridays, and 8:40 a.m. to 3:20 p.m., Tuesdays through Thursdays. The Board has already established the student day for the 1979-80 school year as 8:40 a.m. to 3:10 p.m.

Last chance for Homestead Exemption applications

Elderly homeowners who have not previously applied for the Homestead Exemption tax break have just one more week in which to apply, according to State Rep. Penny Pullen (R-4th).

"The county deadline is Sept. 1, and my office will handle applications through Aug. 30, leaving the 31st for us to spend the day filling downtown."

Miss Pullen's office is at 22 Main st., Park Ridge. Her office hours are regularly Monday through Thursday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., but the office will also be open on Friday, Aug. 24 for those wishing to file for the tax relief. Telephone number is 823-2023. The exemption amounts to a $1,500 reduction in equalized valuation and produces a tax break of $110 to $130, depending on the tax rate.

To be eligible for the exemption, an applicant must have reached his or her 65th birthday on or before Jan. 1, 1979, and must have owned his home as of that date. The property need not be clear of mortgage.

There is no income limitation, Rep. Pullen said, but applicants are required to furnish documentary evidence.

"We'll need a photocopy of the deed or owner's title policy or Torrens Certificate of title. If the property is held in trust, a photocopy of the trust agreement is also required. To prove age, the applicant must furnish a copy of his birth or baptismal certificate or of his medicare card and drivers license together. In the case of a married woman, if she furnishes age proof in her maiden name she must also provide a photocopy of her marriage certificate. Other forms of age proof may be accept-table, but applicants should inquire about them before attempting to file."

Rep. Pullen said her office aide is qualified and willing to assist Homestead Exemption applicants in completing their applications.

Since the program started in 1969, Miss Pullen has processed nearly 8,000 Homestead Exemption applications and will personally check each application before it is filed downtown.

"If I find any problems, I'll let the applicant know before the form enters the county bureaucracy," Rep. Pullen said. "We'll try to be sure the form is complete before it goes downtown."

blaze was apparently ignited during the time a park maintenance man was welding the front door of the Complex.

"The heat ignited the wood frame behind the metal frame," noted Hughes and "combined with the intense heat of the day, a flash fire resulted which spread up thru the ceiling into the roof."

According to the park director, the maintenance man had performed similar welding jobs prior to Friday with no problems. As for the Friday afternoon incident, Hughes said "the fire went out on its own prior to arrival by firemen." The fire station is situated several blocks south of the Complex.

Repairs will be made under insurance monies Hughes said, following a deductible of the first $100.

Questioned as to possible roof collapse similar to that of a recent stadium Hughes stated the structural engineer stipulated further supports were needed prior to opening the building. Until then, he said, "the building is closed to the public."

During the park board meeting Tuesday evening, Hughes recommended M. L. Ensminger Co., Inc. of Forest Park as the best of three recommended specialists in fire damage reconstruction.

Park Attorney Gabriel Berrafato labeled the fire as an emergency situation and as such "did not require going out for bids if approved by four of the five commissioners."

Berrafato's amending modification to park code of "an up to 5% margin between adjusted fire figures and actual costs" was vetoed by Park Comr. Jeffrey Arnold who said the fire specialist firm should be held to cost figures set by the fire adjuster.

Hughes said later the specialist firm would be given notification by telephone Wednesday morning, to be followed by a legal contract from the park attorney. Allowing a two to three week period for development of a cost-estimate by the fire adjusters, Hughes indicated the reconstruction firm will meet in consultation with insurance representative.

"Once a settlement is reached and approval given by park commissioners, repairs on the Complex will begin," said Hughes.

Park Comr. Walter Beusse noted the possibility of not enough roof vents as a possible contributing cause to the fire.

In other business commissioners approved, for two year duration, a joint agreement with Des Plaines Park District dated March 15 (backdated to dovetail with the original agreement) exchanging use of the Niles Sports Complex Ice Rink with boating and fishing privileges at Des Plaines Lake Opeka.

...Reviewed open gym fees for weekend use at Grennan Heights and voted 3 to 2 (Comrs. Dan Kosiba and Elaine Heinen dissenting) for a daily 25¢ fee for residents and $2.50 charge for non-residents; season pass $5 for residents and $30 for non-residents, for the period November 1 to May 30.

...Were advised by Comr. Heinen the Niles Days Committee had been approached to subsidize a $6,000 cost of equipment for the handicapped at Shermer Park.

...Under review of the CETA grant application due August 28, Hughes said funds would be limited. "We'll go thru the application and process but it doesn't look encouraging," he said, adding that positions have been cut back under the programs.

...Approved 4 to 1 a $16,320 payout to J. Emil Anderson Co. for property purchase of additional parking at Tam Golf Course predicated upon two area repairs. Comr. Steve Chamberlanski, as the lone dissenter, called for repairs prior to payment of the payout.

Berrafato noted remainder of the total $81,600 purchase price will be paid by the park district in four successive equal payments.

Established a committee of Heinen and Arnold to research the Park District's 25th anniversary and celebration on November 19.

...Continued the park board meeting to Monday, September 10 for discussion of filing the tax levy.

Set a final tour inspection of parks for 9 a.m. September 15 initiating at the Recreation Center by bus.

Kusper's election innovations

Cook County election procedures have literally become a model for the entire nation. Cook County Clerk Stanley T. Kusper, Jr., has built a solid reputation for Cook County and has been asked to demonstrate Cook County elections procedures on behalf of the Federal Election Commission.

"I am delighted and proud to be able to spread a positive election reputation on behalf of our country," Kusper said. "We've been the brunt of too many jokes for too many years. But even our most severe critics have had to stand up and take notice of the safeguards and public services we've built into our elections systems," Kusper said.

The Federal Election Commission has asked Stan Kusper to explain Cook County election procedures in detail to hundreds of election officials around the nation gathered at several Federal Election Commission regional seminars. One was held in Madison, Wisc., in July. Others are scheduled later this year for Sacramento, Calif., Austin, Tex., Philadelphia, Pa., and Winston-Salem, N.C.

Since taking office as Cook County Clerk in 1973, Stan Kusper has introduced a series of election improvements designed to protect the integrity of votes and open the election process for greater and easier participation.

These improvements include punch-card voting...which further protects votes, makes voting easier, cuts down on storage and transportation costs of election equipment, and speeds vote tabulation. Voter registration is now computerized, further insuring efficiency and honesty. Absentee ballot applications are recorded on microfilm and computer tapes, guarding against false or multiple voting. The counting of absentee ballots is aided by the use of helicopters.

Mr. Kusper has been asked by the Federal Election Commission to demonstrate these innovations in detail to other election officials from around the nation as a model of efficient and honest elections.

"I'm proud to showcase our county for the nation," Kusper said. "Our voters deserve nothing less."

a.m. the first week of school. After the week, a regular time interval will have been established and your child will know when to be at the bus stop. We urge parents to help with supervision of bus stops. Children are expected to line up, and remain in orderly fashion until the bus arrives. A Service Patrol member will be assigned to each bus.

When a child is aboard the bus the child is to remain seated in the assigned seat at all times. When he reaches his stop he does not get out of his seat until the bus comes to a complete halt. At no time should any student be standing while the bus is in motion.

Any student who cannot follow these simple instructions will be reported to the office by the bus driver and, if it is deemed necessary, the student will be deprived of the privilege of riding the bus.

teacher ratio. Also, the board approved the hiring of a vision and hearing technician.

The board moved to approve a 10-cent increase in the Type A lunch offered in the junior high schools. According to the government supplement on the free lunch program, there has been an increase in what was considered eligibility for the plan.

In a non-agenda item, board member Don Weiss questioned if the district should raise its fees for the instrumental music program. Chairman Dick Smith invited Mr. Filla as well as parents of children in the program to attend the next board meeting.

In other actions, the board approved the resignation of Andrea Krasner, Oak, and Janet Anderson, Title I, as well as a leave of absence of Sharen Nehrus, Washington.

District 63 negotiations reach impasse

by Eileen Hirschfeld

Members of East Maine School District 63 and teachers of the East Maine Education Assn. have jointly stated that an "impasse" has been reached in negotiations for teacher contracts beginning the 1979-80 school year.

Both parties will attempt to reach a settlement through services of a federal mediator.

The 63 board now consists of acting superintendent, Don Stetina, and three new board members, one being an appointee.

figures in the two funds of $187,000 as of June, 1980.

Projected deficit figures do not reflect demands of the EMEA for a 12.3% increase in salary and fringe benefits the first year and an amount equal to the consumer price index the second year. Current cost of living figures would result in a 24% increase.

Board members are offering an increase of 15.24% over a two-year period which includes salary, insurance, and payments to the retirement fund.

In an open letter circulated by the EMEA, "the unofficial salary proposals are unacceptable and unrealistic because of the 13.4% cost of living increase."

Are you next?

Are your possessions safe? Do you have good security on your garage and use it?

If you do, you are in the minority. More than half of all garage burglaries, so far this year, have been classified as unlawful entry.

Defined it means, no force could be found by investigating officers, or simply the garage was not "locked."

The last six months indicate garage burglaries are on the increase. The figures for the Village of Morton Grove has doubled since this time last year. As they increase it becomes more evident the crime is proving to be more profitable. Snow-blowers, lawn and work tools, bicycles, even unlocked vehicles parked in garages are being ransacked.

Chief Glauner of the Morton Grove Police Department said; Locking doors is first, second is to add security to the limits of what you want to protect. If you have property you want to keep, be aware others want it also. Your personal property means a lot to you, don't allow someone to simply walk up and take it away.

The Morton Grove Police Department's Crime Prevention Bureau is available to assist you in making your home more secure, call them at 966-7800.

similar action which resulted in several raunchy films being shown in past years in Morton Grove. Whether or not Niles laws were legal, they were nevertheless enforced, and were never taken to court to determine their legality.

In case of the head shops, like the theatres, it is very easy for people to cross Dempster st., going from one town to another. It would probably be in the interests of both communities if joint efforts were made at the same time to attempt to eliminate such commerce here.

We received a very warm letter from the Galente family on the first anniversary of the passing of their son, Joel. We were wondering if perhaps some type of scholarship program might be considered in memory of a fine young man who was once honored as Niles Top Teen. While there are so many projects involving so many people in the community, such a program in Niles might be a first, and indeed would be a welcome addition to the many efforts now going on here.

At last week's village board meeting Niles presented plaques to three retirees. Public Works leader Louie Hoelbl, Police Sergeant Bill Keating and Building Commissioner Ben Mankowsky were honored at the village board meeting. While we're only guessing, their combined years in village works was about 60 years.

The union and the school board in School District 63 are presently at an impasse in their negotiations. The dilemma in the district is obvious. With declining enrollment and revenue, plus a mounting debt in the near future, the board is going very slowly in its deliberations. By the same token the union is seeking to keep up with the cost of living in seeking wage increases for the teachers. They are also trying to keep class size to the present 23:1 primary level and 27:1 junior high level. Union representatives contend if they increase the hours they must be in school or increase class size, it really hurts their salary structure.

Here in Bugleland we are inclined to sympathize with the teachers' needs. They've certainly a right to keep pace with the inflation. And while their position doesn't seem unreasonable, it is highly unlikely teachers would walk out as they did 4 years ago. Since this bargaining tactic is weak, they will likely have to settle for less than if they could threaten to take to the streets again.

We've rather strong feelings about this union's activities during the recent ousting of the school superintendent. Many District 63 watchers seem to agree with us the top union people were anxious to help push the superintendent out of the district. And while the leaders helped to grease the skid which eased Moe out, many of the rank and file teachers believed Moe was very capable and did not deserve the treatment he received. The irresponsible people who harassed Moe were aided by the union people who jumped on the SRI issue. We think their role in easing out Moe was perhaps more irresponsible than the residents who shot him down.

We wonder aloud if the union people preferred a chaotic situation which they might have felt improved their cause? Some of their lame remarks at Moe's last meeting made us wonder if their interests were only for the teachers, and the superintendent and even the residents be damned.

The top union leaders are very nice housewives who seem to be playing a hard, tough role which doesn't quite fit. They seem to be playing a charade which we felt in the past was quite harmless. But knocking off the superintendent, because of their own parochial and private interests, doesn't jibe with being responsible. It takes an extra effort on our part to sympathize with their demands after seeing their actions in creating the chaos the district has been in.

State Police C.A.R.E. program

During the coming Labor Day Holiday Period, the Illinois State Police will again participate in the NATIONAL COMBINED ACCIDENT REDUCTION EFFORT (OPERATION C.A.R.E.).

The program, initiated in 1977 by Illinois, Michigan, Indiana and Ohio has been expanded to include all forty-eight contiguous States. State Police Superintendent Lynn E. Baird has designated all interstate highways in Illinois as C.A.R.E. routes.

Through the use of high visibility patrols on the interstates, the State Police will endeavor to encourage voluntary compliance with the 55 mile per hour speed limit, as well as adherence to other laws which have been contributing factors to accidents.

During the past 4th of July Holiday Period there were six traffic related deaths in Illinois; of which only one of these fatalities occurred on a C.A.R.E. route.

Captain William Burt of the Chicago District said, "With the increased patrol effort on C.A.R.E. routes we hope to reserve the trend of escalating traffic fatalities and show the public that we care about their safety".

Retiring commander Roy LaRoussa also acknowledged the savings bond winners: Bill Randolph, Mrs. Lee Stone, James Ferris and Joe Rogers, all of Morton Grove. The savings bonds were donated through the courtesy of the First National Bank of Morton Grove.

In addition, the announcement was made that the bicycle was donated by Tuffy's Cule-Mower Shop in Morton Grove; and the automobile was purchased through the cooperation of Manasco Chevrolet in Skokie.

of the small rooms on the second floor of the library's new addition will be set aside to house this equipment and other materials that the library has acquired for the use of the visually handicapped. A plaque in this room will acknowledge the contribution of the Lions Club.

In expressing his pleasure at being able to make the gift, Mr. Sheehan said, "A concern for the visually handicapped is a basic part of the Lions Club International program. We are pleased that the library will now have the space to help us fulfill this commitment locally."

The addition to the Library has been designed with special thought for patrons with handicaps. I will be possible for a wheelchair to be pushed on grade without steps from the parking lot at the east end of the new building, through the main door in the new wing, to the elevator, and off at the second floor to the specially equipped room. Lobby washrooms, telephones, and drinking fountain will also be accessible to those in wheelchairs.

Following World War II, a Lions Club Memorial purchased a large number of books for the Library and the framed portraits of those memorialized will be hung in the new Local History Room. Several years ago the club also donated a film projector.

The library handles large-type books, cassettes, and periodical subscriptions for 19 individuals in Morton Grove who are blind or physically handicapped; it also takes care of these needs for such students at Edison, Parkview and Julia Molloy Schools and for residents of Bethany Terrace.

OCC Grandparents seek volunteers

Grandparents Unlimited is looking for volunteer senior adults who would like to share a little lovin' and huggin' in the rewarding experience of working with younger children.

Sponsored by the Office of Community Outreach at Oakton Community College, Grandparents Unlimited trains senior adults to work, talk with and enjoy little children in day care centers, nurseries, pre-school and child care settings.

The qualifications and responsibilities are simple, according to Blanche Block, volunteer coordinator of Grandparents Unlimited. "All you have to do is desire to be with children, to love them, play with them, hold them and enjoy them. There are no cooking or laundry duties," Block emphasized.

"Our program gives senior adults free training and monthly orientation and sharing sessions. We need to work with dependable people who are also flexible because the needs of each day care center will vary according to philosophy and personnel."

Vivian Mitchel, administrative assistant with the program, sees Grandparents Unlimited as a marvelous opportunity for senior adults and children.

"The older person might not have the opportunity to be with his own grandchildren and the children miss the learning opportunities and experiences that senior adults can provide," Mitchel said.

For more information about Grandparents Unlimited, call 967-5120, ext. 350.
