District 63 approves teachers' pay hike

by Eileen Hirschfeld
Members of East Maine District 63 board approved a raise in salary for about 234 teachers as a result of the recent strike. Board action was taken at a regularly scheduled meeting Tuesday, Sept. 25, at Apollo Junior High School.

Teachers received an 8.5% raise, not including increases and other benefits. The base salary for a teacher with a bachelor's degree and no tenure will now be $11,911. The previous income was $11,080.
The lowest salary now paid to Teachers vote on District 219 contract

At press time on Wednesday morning, teachers in District 219 had gathered to vote on a proposed three-year contract. If the teachers ratified the contract, regular classes in the Niles Township High Schools would begin immediately.
Teachers' salaries, according to the proposed contract, would be $27,500 for the 1979-80 school year for the average teacher and in three years would be $32,000.
Over 1,000 irate parents and students attended a Monday evening board meeting and expressed their disgust with both the teachers and the board over the stalemated negotiations.

The Niles policeman first dropped it. He left little doubt he thought the Morton Grove Police Department has been bobbing the investigation of the girls murdered in the forest preserve. He said they haven't contacted Niles for any help and he thought such help was warranted since Niles has experienced cops who've successfully been involved in similar cases.

At the Cook County police station we were told 7 County policemen were shagged away from the scene the night of the murder. They have 4 evidence technicians whose expertise would certainly be helpful but their department had never been contacted for help.

Down at the Morton Grove station Captain Larry Schey, who heads the investigation, was a bit testy when we asked him about the other departments. He said the night of the murders the Northern Illinois Crime Lab was immediately contacted. The area was cordoned off until the representative from this group came on the scene.

The Niles man in blue (really, green) said the next day after the crime the forest preserve area was open to the public. His implication was additional evidence could have been lost as a result of the quick re-opening.

The Niles cop pointed to a Morton Grove murder at a gas station at Dempster and Waukegan several years ago when two Niles investigators' work led to the capture of the murderers. Morton Grove Captain Schey remembered the incident but left little doubt it was Morton Grove that solved the crime.

by Alice M. Bobula
For the second time within a year, Niles taxicab riders will pay a fare increase, to become effective "around" Oct. 15 predicated upon publication of intent.
Rates will go up from the present flag pull (activating the meter) charge of 65¢ to 75¢; a mileage change from 60¢ to 70¢ and will permit a $10 per hour charge for waiting time.
The initial proposal requested one month ago by the Niles Flash Cab Association had been reviewed by committee and was unanimously approved by village trustees for amendment of village code at the Sept. 25 board hearing.
Committee chairman-trustee Orville Ottow set the fare increases as "being in line with those of surrounding communities." Taken into consideration said Ottow were increased company costs of insurance, office expenses, repairs and the price of gasoline, "up from 60¢ to $1.08."
A previous fare hike effective Dec. 15, 1978 upped the flag pull rate from 45¢ to 65¢ (less than the 70¢ petitioned).

Tornado warning system

John Coleman, popular weather forecaster for ABC television, recently addressed an audience of over 100 fire chiefs who assembled in the Village of Niles to learn of a new tornado radar warning device called "Doppler Radar Warning System". The fire chiefs were from the Northeastern Illinois Fire Chiefs Association and Metropolitan Fire Chiefs Association, representing the majority of our entire metropolitan area.

The revolutionary new radar system, which has proven to give advance warning of at least 22 minutes of an oncoming tornado, was enthusiastically approved by the chiefs after they viewed a documentary film which explained how the new radar system can and will save lives.

One Doppler radar, when installed, would protect a 160 mile radius and would cost under one million dollars. The National Weather Bureau, which urgently wishes to implement this device now, is being held back by other governmental priorities!

The fire chiefs who assembled for the meeting agreed to obtain support from their respective city councils by requesting them to pass resolutions and obtain petition signatures from their residents. These will be forwarded to the congressmen representing our area, so that the necessary funds will be allocated and this life-saving warning system can be implemented immediately. It must be impressed upon our Federal Government that this is the number one priority protecting the lives of those of us who live in tornado alley!

Homeowners may end up paying in suburban tax windfall

Homeowners may end up on the paying end while their local governments may obtain windfall revenues partly because of the confusion over the abolition of the personal property tax. Preliminary results of a survey by the state indicated that half of Illinois municipalities, school districts and other units of local government may have filed for big property tax increases although they will be receiving revenue from the new business tax enacted by the legislature.

A study of tax levies for 1980 for local suburbs indicates Morton Grove's is up 73.9% according to records in the county clerk's office. Niles is up 21.4%; Des Plaines 14.5%; Park Ridge 48% and Skokie 15.7%.

Unless tax levies are cut, property owners will pay a total of $91.2 million to the municipal government next summer, compared with $73.8 million this year.

According to the county clerk's office, the governments have until Dec. 31 to reduce their levies and some routinely file high levies with the clerk, then cut them later. In many cases this year, the local officials say they plan to make the cuts but are waiting for a decision from the Illinois Supreme Court on the constitutionality of the new business tax.

Martin Ashman, corporation counsel for the village of Morton Grove, said the village plans to cut its levy, but the increase to the homeowners still will amount to 51%. Loss of the personal property tax has very little to do with the increase according to Ashman.

PATRICK MOORE SKATING FUND DONATIONS ... Orchids to those individuals and businesses who are sending in their checks to help Niles speed skater Patrick Moore. Walt Beusse, who is spearheading the drive to fund Pat's European-training trip prior to the Olympic trials, tells us the Niles Lions, a very generous organization, is presenting Pat with a check for $250. We extend our thanks to the Lions and everyone else for their generosity to this very worthy young man. The Niles Chamber of Commerce notified their members of the financial dilemma of the Moore family through their monthly newsletter and several donations have been forthcoming from that organization.

NILES POLICE START THE BALL ROLLING ... For those of you who like to plan ahead, mark your calendars for Friday, Nov. 9. On that night the Niles Police are having their annual Police Ball at the Chateau Ritz, 9100 N. Milwaukee ave. Last year's dance at the same location really was a ball! Proceeds from the dance go to the Niles Police Benevolent Association for insurance premiums. Watch the Bugle for further details.

TORNADO ALERT SYSTEM ... Orchids to Nick Blase and the Niles Fire Department for having the foresight and initiative to organize a meeting of over 100 fire chiefs and inform them of the importance of the Doppler Radar Warning System. The system which gives a 22-minute alert before a tornado touches down would certainly end all those "cry wolf" warnings which are constantly on the tube and which most people pay little heed to. Nick started the ball rolling and if the fire chiefs follow through with their village resolutions and petition signatures, we're well on our way to having a new warning system which will certainly save more than the $1,000,000 it costs in lives and property.

NILES CHAMBER BOOK ... Next week every resident in Niles will have the new Niles Chamber of Commerce and Industry book on the Village of Niles delivered to their door. The book, which will certainly be beneficial to every Niles resident, was a very worthwhile endeavor which the Niles Chamber undertook this past year and they are to be congratulated for their efforts.

THE PAPAL VISIT ... Laurie Zygmunt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Zygmunt of Niles and editor-in-chief of the Marillac school newspaper, Impact, has been invited to sit with the press at the Grant Park Mass to be celebrated by Pope John Paul II on Friday, Oct. 5. For those of you who are planning to attend the Mass, the walking distance to the site of the Mass (if you come by rail or bus) will be between 1 and 1 1/2 miles. People should dress comfortably and prepared for a walk to and from the site. While there will be comfort stations, water fountains will not be in great abundance. Consideration should be given to the idea of bringing a thermos along as well as a box lunch.

WORLD SERIES PHONE ... Illinois Bell has introduced the "World Series Phone" to sports fans. The special number is 936-9000 and will run until the end of the World Series. The "World Series Phone" will pick up the overflow from the "Sports Phone" regularly in use (936-1313) and will provide expanded, in-depth special baseball coverage for the fans by hourly reports on the contending teams through the end of the regular season, the playoffs and the World Series. So keep those calls coming, sports fans!

NILES CHAMBER CANDLELIGHT BOWL ... The Niles Chamber is planning a Candlelight Bowl on Saturday, Oct. 13 at Golf Mill Lanes, 9300 Milwaukee ave., Niles. Everyone is invited, but reservations are on a first come, first serve basis since only 70 couples can be accommodated. For $35 a couple, you can bowl 3 games in candlelight, then enjoy a dinner in the Excelsior Lounge. The buffet dinner will feature chicken, beef, Polish sausage, plus salads, and a special dessert. Dancing will follow the dinner and an open bar is included. The best part of the fun-filled evening of bowling, dinner and dancing is that it's all under one roof. So come join the party. Reservations should be sent to the Niles Chamber, 8101 Milwaukee ave., Niles, 60648. For more information, call Lois Wordel at 966-1805.

Oakton Raiders

run 2nd in 5-team meet

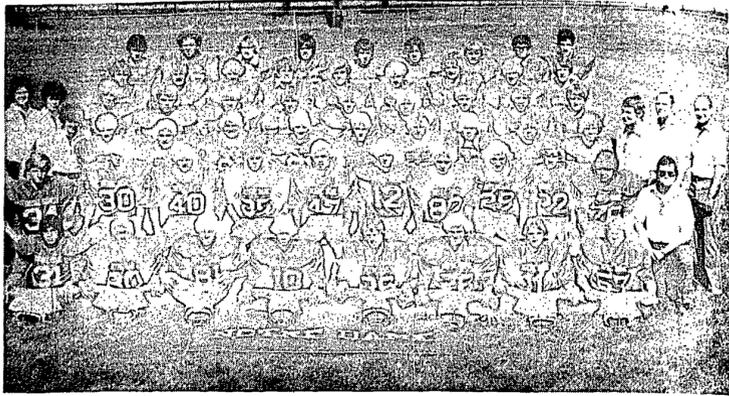

The running Raiders from Oakton Community College placed a strong second in a 5-school meet held at home on Sunday, Sept. 16.

While the Harriers from Milwaukee Area Tech College led the meet placing four runners in the top five places, Oakton did outrun the teams from Truman City College, Gateway Tech of Wisconsin, and McHenry Community College.

Oakton was led again by Mark Buciak, who placed third, while Steve Knight placed eighth and Brion Simon ran tenth. Buciak and Knight did run ahead of the first men from the other three teams.

The Oakton women had an outstanding day as they finished one, two, three in the women's three mile race. Karen George (Maine West), led the Oakton women, trailed by Charlene Bartlett (Glenbrook North) and Julie Michalik (Maine South).

Niles five foot and under All-Stars win tournament

With a record of 3 wins and 2 losses, Niles faced first place Lincolnwood. If Niles could defeat Lincolnwood, it would be their fourth straight victory and give them a share of first place. Niles scored seven runs in the first three innings and hung on for a 7-5 victory. Again, there were many hitting stars for Niles. Brian Nawrocki had three hits and Matt Hedrich and Frank Kuhr each added two hits. But, this game belonged to Jim Hickey. Jim had two hits, a double and a home run. His home run came in the second inning with the bases loaded and cleared the left field fence with ease. Lincolnwood hit Niles for four runs in the second before Matt Hedrich came in and shut off the rally. Art Krueger was forced to go the final three innings yielding just one run to the hard hitting players from Lincolnwood.

Niles, now tied for first with Edison Park and one game ahead of Lincolnwood, who lost again earlier in the day, faced Edison Park in another important game. There were two keys in this game. With the work horse of the Niles pitching staff, Art Krueger, ineligible after going the last three innings the night before, Niles was forced to see just how deep its pitching was. Frank Kuhr got the starting job. Frank Kuhr pitched four innings yielding just one run. This was the first key, because Mike Cohen and Brian Nawrocki mopped up for Frank, shutting Edison Park out in the last two innings. Niles was able to rest their three starting pitchers and still gain an easy victory to move into sole possession of first place. The work of Mike Cohen, Brian Nawrocki and especially Frank Kuhr cannot be underestimated as it set up the pitching for the remainder of the series while putting Niles on top to stay. The second key was the balanced attack of Niles. Steve Cieszykowski collected two hits including a double and drove in two runs, while playing outstanding at third base. Matt Hedrich and Mike Cohen both added two hits apiece. Danny Gable drove in a run with a triple while Jim Hickey collected three RBI's with two doubles. John Watrach had four hits in as many times at bat and scored two runs. The final score was Niles 14-Edison Park 1.

In their next to last game, Niles faced Park Ridge. Park Ridge had been doing very well and had remained only one game behind Niles. Park Ridge relied on their strong bats to keep them near the top. Niles countered with hard throwing Jim Hickey. Hickey also had gained great confidence in his curve ball which he found more and more important in all-star competition. It was a hitters evening as Niles scored ten times over the first four innings. But, Park Ridge, needing a win to stay alive in the tournament, kept swinging their bats. They scored three runs in the first four innings and could have scored more but for the fine play of the Niles defense and the great effort by Jim Hickey. Jim struck out five batters in the four innings he pitched. Niles called on another curve ball pitcher in the fifth, Mike Cohen. Mike faced the top of the order and Park Ridge began meeting the curve ball. Park Ridge scored twice in the fifth and trailed 10 to 5 in the sixth. Art Krueger came on in the sixth and held Park Ridge scoreless. Again, there were many hitting heroes for Niles. Matt Hedrich collected three hits, including a double and two RBI's. John Watrach had two hits and scored two runs. Niles had only to defeat Elmhurst in the last game to clinch first place. But, after two innings, Niles trailed 3 to 0. Matt Hedrich came on in the second with the bases loaded and none and shut off the Elmhurst rally. Matt struck out five batters in four innings while shutting out Elmhurst on two hits. Frank Kuhr pitched the final inning for Niles, striking out two and holding Elmhurst scoreless. While Elmhurst was being held at three, Niles scored thirteen unanswered runs. John Watrach and Dave Bacchiere had three RBI's apiece, both going two for two. Jack Pullen added two RBI's and scored after his hit in the fourth. Randy Dudgeon had two hits and so did Jim Hickey.

I want to thank the twelve boys who played for the Niles All-Stars. They worked hard and played hard. They learned fast and executed well. They never gave up and never complained. They all played and played well. I also wish to thank Howard Meron and Bob Heath, who helped coach the team. Howard has worked with Niles teams for many years, sacrificing many hours, all in the interest of the boys. His dedication and enthusiasm are critical to any team. For Bob, this was his first time working with the kids and he enjoyed it greatly. Bob provided the technical knowledge and finer points of baseball. He set up most of our defensive plays and shared his experience with us as well as the players. Bob spent extra time with our pitchers giving them expert advice. Bob was drafted by the Cleveland Indians this summer but chose to accept a scholarship from St. Francis College in Joliet. I would also like to thank my brother, Craig Christell, for his assistance and suggestions. Craig was co-captain of his college baseball team at Augustana College and also provided critical experience. Kevin L. Christell, Manager, Niles 5 Foot & Under All-Stars.

Tax-saving Individual Retirement Plans

An Individual Retirement Account is a personal tax sheltered retirement plan. It was developed by Congress to bring to every American worker the opportunity to build a more secure future for himself and for his family.

Since 1962, tax deductions for contributions to a retirement plan have also been available to self-employed persons. Recognizing that Social Security alone was inadequate, especially in times of inflation, Congress has provided for Individual Retirement Accounts for those not covered by other plans. Amounts set aside in an IRA may be placed in an account with a financial institution such as ours. They may also be invested in an annuity, endowment contract or qualified retirement bonds.

Federal law allows a maximum annual contribution of $1,500 or 15% of wages, whichever is less. Contributions that exceed this amount are taxed at 6%.

There are three major income tax advantages for the IRAs. First, contributions are tax-deductible. Second, earnings accumulate tax-free. And third, the funds are not taxed until they are actually received. Due to these tax benefits each dollar saved in an IRA will produce far greater retirement benefits than under any other type of non-sheltered arrangement.

IRAs are available to any wage earner. The only requirement is that you may not currently be a participant in any other retirement plan. Your spouse may also establish a separate IRA, provided they are not a participant in a plan sponsored by their own employers.

Individual Retirement Accounts present an excellent opportunity for you to plan for the future easily and efficiently. We would welcome the opportunity to discuss with you, how such an account might benefit you.

Nimrod cites lack of competency testing in state schools

State Senator John J. Nimrod (R-4th) recently chided over 800 of the state's 1,000 school superintendents for their association's continued opposition to minimal competency testing of school children even while their individual districts are making progress toward the goal of testing throughout the state.

Nimrod was the only legislator appearing on the panel discussion following an address on minimal competency accountability by A. Craig Phillips, president of the National Council of Chief State School Officers at the annual Illinois Superintendents Conference, New Trier High School Supt. Rod Bickert also appeared on the panel.

The local senator chief-sponsored Illinois' law requiring school districts to establish minimal competency accountability programs by June 30, 1980.

Illinois' chief advocate of minimal competency testing said that recent national college entrance tests have again verified the need to emphasize basics.

"Recent ACT tests have shown students' average reading scores have dropped by another two points, and math scores have dropped by one point," Nimrod said.

"In fact, the most shocking revelation to me is that for the first time in our nation's history, the youth generation is found to be less well educated than their parents' generation."

Nimrod said such a finding should alarm educators and parents alike and that the drive for minimal competency accountability has come none too soon. "Most districts have taken this new responsibility seriously," Nimrod said, "and for that I commend the boards of education and administrators. About 60% of the districts have already developed their basics testing programs, and about 25% are in the planning stage.

"This is hopeful progress, yet the education associations related to public schools are still crying as if wounded. If progress continues as it is, I think it is unlikely that the State will impose its own testing program on those districts which have adopted one, but the State does have a concern that districts must aim their education program at basic skills of reading, writing, and math - and that they be willing to demonstrate improvement in the skills learned by the children."

Nimrod said Illinois' approach based on local control but state policy will accomplish the goal of emphasizing children's basic skills without incurring the "huge, wasteful expenditures some other states have experienced by poorly designed state-controlled programs."

Porter calls Congressional pay increase "obscene"

John Edward Porter, Republican Congressional candidate, has called on Congress to reject their automatic pay increase scheduled to go into effect Oct. 1. Pay for Congressmen and Senators would rise 12.9%, from $57,500 to $64,900.

Porter said Congress could reject the increase by a resolution passed by either house by Sept. 30.

"It is obscene for Congress to be receiving a large pay increase at this time," Porter said. "The American people are suffering from rampant inflation, with the cost of living increasing at a rate of 14% per year. Unemployment is rising, too, as the recession deepens.

"This is no time to raise Congressional salaries. This is the time for Congress to show leadership and hold the line," the former Illinois lawmaker said.

Porter, who never supported a legislative pay increase in his six years in Springfield, said that the economic problems faced by Americans are a direct result of Congress' failure to control federal spending.

"It was an affront to the American people when, three years ago, Congress indexed its own salaries so that they receive an increase when inflation increases. The indexing should have been reversed," Porter said. "Congress should receive a decrease when inflation goes up and an increase only when the inflation rate goes down.

"The whole matter is going forward with little attention. But if Congress sneaks through a large pay increase for itself, how can government then reasonably call on anyone to hold the line? "We must have leadership and courage in Congress if we're to come to grips with the very difficult problems that confront us," Porter concluded.

New scout community

The Northwest Suburban Council, Boy Scouts of America, is planning to create a new community with a population of more than 3000 people, to be located in Ned Brown Meadow Forest Preserve the weekend of October 5-6-7. The location is on Golf rd., Route 58, just east of Woodfield Shopping Center, between Schaumburg and Rolling Meadows.

Cub Scouting, Boy Scouting, and Exploring all join together for a fun-packed weekend of demonstrations, exhibits, competition, camping, merit badges, and campfires. It will be a real Scouting town, called Scouting Junction, with every citizen active, enthusiastic member of the Scouting brotherhood.

Parents and visitors are invited to attend this event anytime from the opening ceremony at 9 a.m. on Saturday, Oct. 6, to the concluding arena show shortly after dusk. Boys interested in becoming Cubs or Boy Scouts may attend and learn how they may join.

Tuesday, Oct. 2 from 7-9:15 p.m. is Back-To-School Night for Marillac parents. Principal Sister Felicia and the department chairpersons agreed at the last advisory meeting to invite non-Marillac parents who were interested in knowing the inside story of the school. Those people who would like to see the school's academic program firsthand are welcome to join the parents who will be coming to experience their daughter's schedule and to meet her teachers.

The ordinary day's program, shortened to 10-minute classes, will allow time for parents to meet Sister Felicia, Assistant Principal Sister James, the counselors, volunteer coordinator, campus minister, and the parents of the Marillac Family Association. Anyone wishing further information can call the school at 446-9106.

A parent's message to Niles Baseball Board

Dear Editor:
I wish to congratulate the new Board of the Niles Baseball League. I hope their next year will be a good year and they will work together for the boys. They seem to forget the Niles Baseball League is an organization first for the children of Niles. As a parent I am most concerned with the conduct of the Board and the position they hold as members is one of my responsibilities. They are going to be looking up to by the boys, so therefore, they must show a good example. Last year one of the new members boasted that he quit three jobs he held in the organization. Is this someone who should hold a position of responsibility in an organization for children? We have no guarantee that he will not quit again. This attitude of "if I don't get my way, I quit" is one that seems to be cropping up all over. So I say to the board, if you're planning on having anymore temper tantrums, consider resigning now before too many people find out and you show the next generation how to be a group to quitting adults. Children need someone to look up to not down at.

A Very Concerned Parent

It was a God-send to have my snow shoveled from the heavy snow by the young boys who offered their service and helped the elderly, besides me.

May God reward each one of you for giving me a helping hand last winter, and your kindness will always be remembered.

Closing of military bases already decided

Dear Editor:
I wish to inform you that the Department of Defense is now preparing a report on how and when to close Great Lakes Naval Training Station and Fort Sheridan. The report will prove that the government will save millions of dollars by closing these two Illinois bases.

However, in my opinion, if you close any military base, you will save money. I firmly believe that President Carter has already decided to close our Illinois military bases and for political and not economic reasons. I believe that Carter has written off Illinois into the Republican Party column in the 1980 election. However, he is in a good position to carry Texas next year and the plum he is giving them is our military bases. Texas has about the same number of electoral votes as Illinois and he needs those Texas electoral votes. The result will be the loss to Illinois of over 7,000 jobs and tens of millions of dollars in lost wages each month. The economic affect on North Shore communities will be severe.

I base my statement on these facts. President Carter has allowed HEW to file a court ordered busing suit against Chicago. Thus, he loses many Chicago votes but gains nationally in the Black and Latino communities. Additionally, Carter has consistently refused to appear in Illinois in behalf of the Illinois Democratic Party. Additionally, Carter refused last winter to declare Illinois a special status state for snow relief. Therefore, it is logical to assume that he will in fact close our military bases and give the millions of dollars in wages and jobs to a state like Texas. The only action you can take is to write your Senator, your Congressman and your "President" and demand the retention of our bases.

Sincerely,
Thomas Flynn
Democratic Candidate for Congress, 10th District

District 207 Merit Semifinalists tell career plans

Careers in medicine, engineering, business, law and computers are among the future plans of the 25 National Merit Scholarship Semifinalists from the four Maine Township High Schools.

A survey of the semifinalists indicated the following: At Maine East, medical careers dominate the ambitions of the semifinalists. Linda Goetz and Joseph Scott, both of Niles, want to be a pharmacist and physician, respectively. Scott Tomasik, of Park Ridge, is considering medicine and Jamie Feldman, of Des Plaines, is looking at medicine or law.

John Groch, of Niles, plans on studying law. David Rice, of Park Ridge, sees his future in business management or economics. Jeffrey Sanburg, of Des Plaines, is uncertain of his plans, but his main interests are math and chess.

At Maine West, the semifinalists, all from Des Plaines, have very diversified career plans.

Robert Fisher dreams of being a doctor. Daniel Herriges hopes for a career in math or computers. William Major sees himself as an accountant, fluent in Spanish.

Robert Miller's goal is to become a chemical engineer. David Plaut is determined to be a research physicist and Victoria Sroczynski, a lawyer. Stephen Hines has not reached a decision as yet between music, law and the ministry.

At Maine South, engineering is in the career plans of three semifinalists, Michael Bors, Charlene Numrych and Stanislaw Kantor. Bors wants to be a chemical engineer and Kantor will major in college in electrical engineering and computer science.

Candy Kidston has her sights set on becoming a stock broker. Terry Nakagawa will be enrolling in pre-medicine at college and Karen Pinney will be a math major.

Glen Sarvady sees his future in business administration and management. David Brady, who transferred this year to Maine South from Westmont High School, Westmont, Ill., knows exactly what he will be doing after graduation. He has made plans to join the U.S. Air Force and will be trained as a computer technician.

All of the students from Maine South are from Park Ridge except for Kantor who is from Harwood Heights.

At Maine North, both David Barinholtz, of Des Plaines, and Adam Burck, of Glenview, aim to become doctors. Marilyn Sawicki, of Glenview, believes that mechanical engineering has a great future for women.

Commenting on the plans of the semifinalists, Dr. Richard R. Short, Superintendent, Maine Township High School District 207, said: "I am very pleased that our students are interested in so many careers. Their plans and their performance in the National Merit Scholarship qualifying tests reflects well on the background preparation provided in our schools.

"Maine has always prided itself on preparing young people for whatever interests they have in life."

He added: "If you talk to these young people, you will also find that most of them have had well-rounded experiences in school. They have been active in sports, student government, band, orchestra, school newspaper and radio station, debating teams, math teams and a variety of clubs."

Since the inception of the National Merit Scholarship program in 1955, the Maine Township High Schools have had 494 semifinalists.

The basic purpose of the program is to spotlight intellectual distinction. The test is taken by high school juniors and semifinalists are announced in September of the senior year. Less than 1% of seniors become semifinalists. Over 90% of the semifinalists are expected to qualify as finalists next February. Merit Scholars will be chosen from the group of finalists and announced next April or May.

FNBOs expansion nears completion

The five-story addition to the quarter billion dollar plus First National Bank of Skokie is now completed as far as outward appearances are concerned. It has now become a landmark on the Skokie skyline. The installation of the energy saving smoked glass panels between the straight line horizontal floors give it an imposing, modern feeling and helps to re-establish that corner of Lincoln and Oakton as the "Center of Skokie".

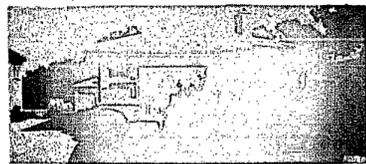

While much interior work, phone lines, electrical work and decorating is still going on, they do expect to move the banking operations into the new structure before the end of the year.

MILWAUKEE, WISCONSIN

On Monday, September 17, O'Hare International Bank will officially open the doors of its new one million dollar Harlem Avenue facility. The new 6,700 square foot banking facility is located at 6401 N. Harlem ave., between Devon ave. and North-west hwy. on Chicago's northwest side. The main banking office is at 8501 W. Higgins rd., on Cumberland ave. and the Kennedy Expressway, in Chicago.

The new two story brick with tinted glass bank facility offers a spacious full service lobby with six teller windows for savings and check cashing, facilities for opening new accounts, off-street parking, and six drive-up windows.

The best feature of the new facility is the 74-hour a week drive-up schedule which allows O'Hare customers to bank before or after work. The new facility also has available nearly 1,000 safe deposit boxes in all popular sizes. Besides all these convenient services, customers are able to make installment loan payments, initial loan applications and deposit or with-

Glenview State Bank appointment

John H. Beaulieu, President of Glenview State Bank, has announced the appointment of Mr. Kenneth H. Cooke as Vice President and Trust Officer. Mr. Cooke will be in charge of the Bank's Trust Department.

Mr. Cooke was associated with the Northbrook Trust & Savings Bank for the past 12 years where he was a Vice President and Trust Officer. In addition to extensive experience in the Trust Department, he was active in the commercial and residential mortgage loan areas and responsible for development of procedures for trust related investments.

Mr. Cooke is a graduate of Roosevelt University, the American Banker's Association National Graduate Trust School and the Stonier Graduate School of Banking. He and his family are Northbrook residents where he serves as President of the Northbrook Police Pension Board and Vice President of the Northbrook United Way.

draw from O'Hare Bank accounts at either the main office or new branch.

O'Hare Bank has installed a special service for its commercial customers in the first two lanes of the drive-up designated as Commercial Lanes. It is a specially designed monorail system distributed by the Chubb Company of England. This system has the capacity of carrying up to 40 pounds of coins and bulk deposits. After the deposit is made in the teller station steel box, it travels by a hoist elevator 10 feet below ground. From the elevator, a car traveling 8 feet per second transports the steel box 50 feet to another elevator below the teller area which carries the deposit load to the appropriate teller. O'Hare Bank is one of five operations throughout the United States that is equipped with such a modern system for its commercial customers.

During O'Hare Bank's Grand Opening Celebration which commences with the Grand Opening Week of September 17 thru 22 and ends on October 13, the entire Northwest Community is invited to look over O'Hare's new banking facility and participate in the festivities that include refreshments, games and prizes. At the same time, everyone will be encouraged to enter O'Hare's "Join the Jet Set Contest" to become eligible for a trip for two to the Bahamas, a microwave oven, a portable color TV or one of 25 Grand Prizes.

Mr. Lyndon D. Comstock, President and Chief Executive Officer of the bank says, "O'Hare Bank has served the northwest community for over 20 years and we are committed to its growth. The building of the Harlem ave. office is a reaffirmation of our staunch commitment. This new facility will enable O'Hare Bank to better serve their existing customers and will afford convenient banking to the residents in the area of the new facility."

O'Hare International Bank, founded December 5, 1958, under the name of The Bank of Park Ridge, was originally located at Talcott rd. and Prospect ave. in Park Ridge. Converted from a state bank to a national bank on February 5, 1960, with the change in name to The First National Bank of Park Ridge, the bank's exceptional growth forced expansion of the Talcott rd. facilities several times. Further growth necessitated the board of directors to look for new quarters on the first floor of the new seven story building at 8501 W. Higgins rd. On April 11, 1966, the bank opened for business under its new name O'Hare International Bank, a national association.

Marillac Commended students

Four Marillac High School seniors are commended students in the 25th National Merit Scholarship Program. Principal Sister Felicia announced last Wednesday the names: Bridget Bielinski, Ildiko Frank, Mary Geldernick, and Therese Pasquesi.

Bridget is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Bielinski (Glenview), Ildiko, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephan Frank (Morton Grove), Mary, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Geldernick (Des Plaines), and Therese, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pasquesi (Glenview).

24 Niles West Commended students

Niles West high school seniors Sharon Cooper, Scott Evans, Howard Frazin, Byron Lam, Alan and Joel Leib, Sue Manner, Paul Prinz and Steve Siegel are Commended students in the 1980 National Merit Scholarship Program. This honor is the result of each student's outstanding performance on the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude-National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test administered nationwide each year to high school juniors. Students in the Commended group represent less than two percent of all U.S. graduating seniors.

Although commended students do not continue in the Merit Scholarship competition, each is offered the opportunity to have identifying information forwarded by the Corporation to institutions of higher education.

The 18 Niles West seniors who were earlier named as semifinalists in the Merit Scholarship Program will continue to compete for one-time or four-year scholarships.

District 63 teachers, not including half-time teachers or aides, is $12,413. Only one teacher receives this salary.

Joseph Irpino, director of buildings and grounds, reported to the board that Nelson School's heating system has difficulties. An expansion tank, bypassed by the pipes, should be connected properly, he said. Five classrooms, according to Irpino, have faulty gas-fire heat exchangers. New units must be set in the existing housing at a cost of between $10,000-$15,000.

Acting Superintendent Donald Stetina recommended the board establish communications with the architect and ask why the pipes were not installed according to design.

An angry discussion concerning the suitability of new heat exchangers followed. Norman Padnos, board member, said inspections should be made twice a year. Mark Davis said any units installed by the district would conform to life-safety standards set by the Illinois Office of Education.

Al Hanhart, parent, said glass and handrails from homes were being thrown into the playground at Wilson School.

Jean Evans, parent, inquired if the schools had sufficient textbooks. Children were asked to take home last year's books and erase pencil marks.

In other action, the board approved the resignations of three teacher aides, the reinstatement of an Oak school teacher, the appointment of a reading teacher at Gemini and the appointment of six other teacher aides.

Also, the psychologist salary schedule was approved and amended to include the 7% tax-shelter agreed to in the 1979-80 collective bargaining agreement. ...The board approved contracts to purchase custodial uniforms, repair a boiler at Oak School and buy nine snowblowers at a cost of $7,920.

...Board members also moved that accounts payable dated Sept. 25 and totaling $253,378.46 be paid.

...Also approved were Community Education Grant checks totaling $3,766.49 for April 17 until July 13.

evening trustees returned to the Zoning Board for reconsideration a Planned Unit Development (PUD) petition at 8954 Greenwood ave. after hearing the petitioner's appeal of the Zoning Board's denial for rezoning of the 9 1/2 acres.

Village Board President Nicholas Blase told Bernard Davis, attorney for the petitioner Riverwoods Development Company that he had a choice of procedure. "If you want the board's opinion on the (PUD) project, we'll vote ... otherwise the petition will be sent to the Plan Commission by reason of a Major Change."

A short conference by petitioners resulted in a request to return to the Zoning Board.

According to land planner-architect Gerald Estes, modified planning called for a major change in retail business along Greenwood ave. of two 4-story buildings with general offices over the north section and providing for general and retail stores in the south building as compared to original planning for two 4-story office structures connected with a bridge.

Estes said plans for the residential (west) portion of the PUD remained unchanged, of four 6-story apartment buildings with penthouse apartments and a total 300 dwelling units.

Building and Zoning Director Joe Salerno pointed out that the PUD planning did not meet village requirements of 70 ft. setbacks. Also, he noted space between buildings remained at the originally planned 30 to 35 ft.

apart rather than code-required 70 feet.

A plea by Richard Krilich of Riverwoods Development for immediate board action to promote an early spring groundbreaking and who humorously noted the project would "also bring an increase in voters to the Village of Niles" gained no points from Blase who replied "we have them anyway."

Zoners' denial July 30 was based on high density and projected increase in area traffic, in proximity to Gemini Junior High School.

Approved 4 to 1 (Tr. Peter Pesole absent) a request by Emergency Business Forms for a 7 ft. barbed wire fence at the rear of the property at 6801 Howard st. Tr. Angelo Marcheschi as the lone dissenter said he did not like the thought of barbed wire, that "an eight ft. fence would just as easily deter vandalism" for what was termed a "desolate" area.

The hearing continued from Sept. 11 had provided time for trustees to review the property.

As a matter of record Blase told Salerno, "find out how Coca Cola and RCA (also located in the industrial area) attained their barbed wire fencing without coming before trustees."

Adopted a new sign code in Niles effective Nov. 1, 1979. An April, 1977, moratorium on signs in the village was hopefully resolved with numerous changes in the code basically in problems of amortization.

The adoption gained approval from the League of Women Voters of Morton Grove-Niles ex-facilities for cables. They also must operate a business office in the village to handle questions and complaints. Residents will be receiving door packets in the near future detailing the services.

Village trustees are extremely excited about the installation of cable TV. "We want to make Morton Grove the showplace for what Continental Cable can do," according to a company spokesman.

Continental, which was awarded a 15-year contract, is required to furnish, without charge, connections to the village hall, fire houses, and other buildings designated by the Board.

Village Trustee Don Sneider, who was instrumental in securing cable TV for the village, explained how a mobile studio unit will be available for televising events such as local football games, school plays, and even council meetings.

A second ordinance at Monday night's meeting, called a "general housekeeping ordinance", was tabled for further study by village trustees. This law provides for the establishment and enforcement of minimal housing standards for village residences. It will most likely be voted on at the Oct. 1 meeting.

Trustee Richard Hols reported that 13 skyline locust trees and 15 green ashes are still available for sale in the village's program to beautify its neighborhoods. The trees may be purchased for $31 each, because the village picks up half the tab.

Another community improvement, this at the Lincoln ave. commuter parking lot, will probably cause inconvenience thru the end of November. Alternate parking areas during the construction will be along Main st. and in the forest preserve area. Village Engineer Wilbur Mottweiler hoped commuters would understand the inconvenience. "At least they'll have a good place to park and they won't be charged for it when they get there."

Morton Grove Mayor Richard T. Flickinger has proclaimed the week of Oct. 7 as "Fire Prevention Week", and urged schools, businesses, and organizations to promote effective fire safety education.

pressed to the Village Board Tuesday evening.

Unanimously approved a resolution for village acquisition of the northwest corner of Milwaukee ave. and Courtland dr. to provide additional parking for cars and additional land for proper intersection of Courtland and Milwaukee ave.

Proclaimed the week of Oct. 7 as Fire Prevention Week and Oct. 7, 1979 as Fire Fighters Memorial Sunday as set by President Jimmy Carter.

Malnati's honored for scholarship party

For eight years of sponsoring the Brian Piccolo Scholarship party at their Lincolnwood Pizzeria, the Malnati family—Jean, Marc, and Rick were honored by Wake Forest University (Winston Salem, North Carolina) at the school's Hall of Fame dinner and during half-time of the football game with East Carolina University, Saturday, Sept. 22.

For seven years the late Lou Malnati sponsored the Brian Piccolo Scholarship party as a memorial to the Great Chicago Bear running back who died of cancer in 1970. With the passing of Lou in 1978, the name changed to the Lou Malnati-Brian Piccolo Scholarship party which to date has graduated three young men from Wake Forest University, Brian's alma mater, and currently supports four students athletes on full scholarship.

"Willard Van Dyke: A Traveling Exhibition", by the International Museum of Photography at George Eastman House, represents the earlier works of this major contributor to the photographic arts.

Within the exhibit of 39 framed photographs one can find a transition from a very personal translation of the subject to a broader documentary statement about the human condition as seen in landscape, architecture and faces of people.

The Koehnline Gallery is located in Building 4 on the Interim campus of Oakton Community College, Oakton and Nagle sts. in Morton Grove. The Gallery is open from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Monday thru Friday and 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday.

"Aida" film at Skokie Library

The Skokie Public Library and the Skokie Valley Chapter of the Lyric Opera of Chicago will present the film of Verdi's opera "Aida" on Sunday, Oct. 7 at 1:30 p.m. in the Petty Auditorium of the Skokie Public Library, 5215 Oakton st., Skokie.

The film, acted by Sophia Loren and sung by Renata Tebaldi, is in color and includes the chorus and ballet of the Rome Opera. An introduction will be given by Mr. Randall W. Becker, a writer of audio-visual communications and special publications for the National Safety Council. Mr. Becker is a graduate of Northwestern University School of Speech and has been interested in the operatic theater since the early 1950's. He even went so far as to be a supernumerary during Lyric's early seasons. Mr. Becker has had more than a casual interest in Egyptology for more than 30 years. He will provide some background information on Verdi's opera, tell about the story's place in history and comment on the score.

Admission is free; the public is invited to attend.

DINING & ENTERTAINMENT

Don Drumm appearing at La Margarita del Norte

Don Drumm was born into a musical family, so it wasn't unusual that his mother would have him begin his first piano lesson at age three. Because Drumm was a born rebel, he'd replace a boogie-woogie number (which he learned by ear) for a classical piece he was supposed to play at his first public performance at age four.

Although he hated piano lessons, he loved music, every kind of musical instrument. If he couldn't have a real set of drums he'd pound on the pots 'n pans in the kitchen. Everything this boy touched turned into a musical instrument.

Although his mother played piano at all the barn dances, Don's first affection for country music was born on a Saturday afternoon at the local movie house; Gene Autry, Roy Rogers and The Sons of the Pioneers. Don's dream that first Saturday was to wear a pair of six-guns, cowboy hat 'n boots, get the right horse and a guitar. Drumm: "From that day on, I knew I was born to become a country singer."

Little did Don know at that time that he would eventually be playing Jazz in New York City and society piano in Palm Beach, in a tuxedo! And that later he would be wearing a cowboy hat 'n boots and making hit records as a grown man ... not to mention the fact that Don Drumm recently replaced Eddie Arnold as the voice singing the Marlboro commercial re-released on European TV. Now, if that ain't a whole bunch of dreams come true, what is?

Presently Don has two hits from his Bedroom Eyes album, on Churchill Records-CR67241, "Bedroom Eyes" and "Just Another Rhinestone". On Oct. 18, 1978, he received two awards at ASCAP's Annual Country Music Awards Banquet, for significant chart action. Twice last year Cashbox Magazine awarded Don "Best New Male Vocalist". In the September, 1978 issue of Playboy Magazine, the cover on Don's Bedroom Eyes album was featured in the section "The World of Playboy". The October, 1978 issue of Music City News and the November, 1978 issue of Country Style Magazine both featured interviews with Don.

Some of Don's commercial credits are: "Schlitz Malt Liquor", "Salada Tea", "Libby's, Libby's, Libby's", "International Harvester", "American Dairy Association", "Minute Maid", "General Motors", "Marlboro" and countless others.

Don Drumm will be playing Tuesday thru Saturday at La Margarita del Norte, 6319 West Dempster rd. in Morton Grove. Call 966-5037 for further information.

The Cook County officer said their department has a great deal of experience in murder investigations and left little doubt he was amazed they were not called to help.

We've had confrontations with policemen and police departments for 20 years. Nothing new. But Captain Schey seemed to be walking on eggs when we talked to him. He suggested the County police officer who broached the question was a friend of ours because we asked him this question. And when we told him we initiated the query about the lack of cooperation between the departments, he had an exasperated look on his face, got up from his chair and ended the interview. And he gave us a somewhat veiled threat when he suggested if he read in our paper about such a conflict between departments, he would be "dismayed".

Two hours later Morton Grove Police Chief Norman Glauner telephoned. He emphasized his department uses everyone possible in such a case. But he admitted using too many people could jumble such an investigation. And while he did say his department had not contacted the County police, he reminded us they had not contacted his department. And that's where he left it.

Glauner said the Northern Illinois Crime Lab was called to the scene immediately which resulted in the first action taken place. He said an Andrew Principe, from the lab, was called in. He said Principe has great expertise and his knowledge is backed by many years of experience.

Is all the grumbling petty? We really don't know. Schey's testiness is understandable. He's probably under much pressure in this case. And to be asked whether he's using all available help is perhaps a bit of a presumption. But when other highly-respected policemen, who are first-rate in their work, lodge such criticism, the questions have to be asked.

These suburban departments are often little fiefdoms. Many years ago we confronted Niles' former police chief Bob Romey concerning a murder in Skokie. A young man who was the suspect was being held there. He had a previous run-in in Niles. When we asked Chief Romey why he didn't contact Skokie and give them this information, he testily said they didn't ask him. He had no intention of contacting Skokie with this information.

While the similarity isn't the same, when Morton Grove's chief said the other departments (Cook County) haven't contacted him, there was a reminder of the past. The same fierce pride. The same stiff-neckedness.

Captain Schey said there were no suspects as of Monday. Should he seek help from Niles and the County? He said Morton Grove has sought aid from several other departments.

Chief Glauner thinks too many Sherlock Holmeses with spy glasses will just add confusion to the scene. Other professionals think Morton Grove is blowing it.

There were 25,900 student school days lost during the East Maine District 63 strike. It is possible some or all of the days could be made up. It is quite possible they will not all be made up. Those days not made up will be an added cost to the week-and-a-half negotiations.

Both the school board and the union seem to play games with the children. They both wait until the 11th hour before beginning meaningful negotiations. It is a tactic used to push the other guy to the wall. Twice now, the tactic has caught the kids in the middle.

We're sure neither side will agree but why can't the board and the union meet to discuss negotiations at the beginning of the final year of their contract? In this case the time for getting together would be next September, to iron out the contract which begins in 1981.

A citizens group could be a third party in the initial stages of such negotiations. And they could report monthly to the community the progress being made.

It's really such a simple idea we're sure both sides will eschew such a suggestion. It's not the way the game is played.

In the private sector there are only two forces contesting one another. But in the public school sector the innocent bystanders, the students, become a third party in such conflicts. This additional party makes confrontations in the public sector a different ballgame.

One of the best public officials we've ever seen in action, Jack Leske, retired from Niles Park District last year. After 17 years of public service Jack moved to Park Ridge, which ended his days on the park board.

Among Jack's many accomplishments was the disannexation of industrial property which was in the village of Niles but in the Skokie Park District. Since 1967, when it was annexed into Niles Park District, more than $1,000,000 in real and personal property tax money has flowed into Niles' parks. That's a hefty piece of change. In 1977, $88,000 came to

Niles during that one year. Each succeeding year a comparable amount will continue to flow in. Jack spent many months, even years, working alone on this project.

After Leske left Niles the park board thought they should honor him with some public dedication. They named the TAM parking lot in honor of Jack. Well, we suppose having a parking lot named after you is better than nothing. But not much. If such a policy would continue, they'll be naming the 9th hole after another one of the commissioners, or the teeing-off area after still another. Somehow, Jack deserves better. After 17 years what would be wrong with naming the Niles Recreation Center the Jack Leske Center? Jack deserves such an honor. After 17 years of cold winter night meetings, hundreds upon thousands of residents hollering for more parks and more recreation, Jack should receive a more pronounced honor. If a guy like Leske has to have automobiles trampling over ground set aside for his honor, it may set a precedent for all time. Garbage cans, fire plugs, stop signs and sidewalks might be the next hallowed areas for such dedications. And it's possible you could go downhill from there.

Arts Week . . .

October 12-A community artists showcase will be held on this day at Niles East. Area artists will display their works and several demonstrations are also planned.

District 219 . . .

Several speakers at the meeting urged the board to settle the 3-week long strike.

During the day on Monday, at least 250 students walked out of classes taught by the newly-hired substitute teachers in the 3 Niles Township High Schools.

The students then joined the striking teachers on the picket lines.

A spokesman for the striking teachers said the student boycott and walkout was much longer and involved over 500 students at Niles West alone.

District 219 Supt. Wesley Gibbs said the district was calling the parents of the boycotting students and urging them to get their children home. He said the demonstrators were disruptive because they were urging other students to join them.
