Sewer controversy delays shopping center approval

by Diane Miller
The Niles Village Board of Trustees agreed Tuesday evening to postpone decision on the shopping center proposed for the corner of Ballard and Greenwood. The new center which will consist of 20 to 40 stores depending on the size required by leases will consist of 3.79 acres with a 708 front footage on Greenwood. Gerald Estes, project planner for the proposed center appeared before the board and stated that present plans for the water drainage include running it into the ditch in the back of the property until the adjoining Krilich property is developed. At that time the water drainage will be enclosed in a box culvert within the right of way on Ballard rd.

Trustee Peter Pesole immediately questioned the planner on his statement noting that it did not coincide with his understanding of an agreement made during a recent bus ride taken by board members, the village manager, and engineering to study the layout of the property and the water drainage problem.

Mayor Nick Blase told Estes, "You purchased the property from Krilich. You should make arrangements with him to determine how this water is going to be drained off the property."

Trustee Ang Marcheschi stated his concern over the sewer system north of Ballard to Maryland noting that "we do not want to have any problems in this area which taxpayers will have to pay for in years to come."

At this point, Village Manager Ken Scheel told the board a committee will be formed to study the problem.

Primary Election Tuesday

While voters will have a chance to vote for Democrat Lyndon LaRouche, Jr. or Republican V.A. Kelley for president in next Tuesday's primaries, most voters will be voting for the more recognizable candidates appearing on the ballot.

While much attention will be on the presidential primary, the Democratic race for State's Attorney between Edward Burke, backed by the Cook County Democratic machine, and Richard Daley, state senator and son of Chicago's late Mayor Dick Daley, is perhaps the most heated in Tuesday's election.

Presidential candidates in addition to LaRouche and Kelley included Democrats Governor Edmund Brown Jr., President Jimmy Carter and Senator Edward M. Kennedy. Republican candidates are Congressman John B. Anderson, former Congressman and CIA head, George Bush, Congressman Philip M. Crane, former governor Ronald Reagan and Senator Robert Dole. Senator Howard Baker and former governor John Connally will be on the ballot though they've both announced their departure from the race.

In the races for the United States Senator Republicans include Attorney General William Scott, Dick Carver and Lieutenant Governor David O'Neal. Democratic senatorial candidates include Robert Ash Wallace, Dakin Williams, State Treasurer Alan Dixon, Anthony Martin-Trigona and Alex Seith.

Tenth District Congressional candidates include Democrats

Political Bits ...

...Morton Grove's Home Rule referendum is very confusing. The wording on the ballot reads: "Shall the Village of Morton Grove, County of Cook, State of Illinois cease to be a Home Rule unit of government?" If you favor retaining Home Rule, then you should vote "No". If you support eliminating Home Rule, then you vote "Yes".

...Congressional candidate Tom Flynn reports the turnout for Teddy Kennedy at Niles West-High School's auditorium last Friday was much more enthusiastic than was reported in newspaper accounts. Flynn said Kennedy received a 5 minute ovation when he was introduced.

Flynn's report is likely to be accurate since he said he has switched his support to Jimmy Carter. He said he had contributed $1,000 to the Kennedy candidacy and then Kennedy read from his script which included an endorsement for Flynn's Congressional opponent, Robert Weinberger. Tom said he protested Kennedy's action which he believed to be an added-on piece to his script, dictated by local politicians.

...Chicago's Mayor Byrne and Maine Township Committeeman Nick Blase and Niles Township Committeeman Cal Sutker are going to take a bath in next week's primary. They all jumped on the bandwagon with Calamity Jane by endorsing Kennedy, and Ed Burke for State's Attorney. If all the polls are accurate, Kennedy and Burke are both going down the tube next week, being swamped by their opponents. Ob-

St. Isaac Jogues 55 Plus Club
Our Beer, Banjo and Gay 90's Party certainly was the best ever. It took us back to our youthful days. It was another great day of entertainment and a great success. The dinner of Mostaccioli, Polish Sausage and Sauerkraut, Fried Chicken, Potato Salad, Coleslaw, Macaroni Salad, Fluffy Rolls, Relish Tray, Coffee, Tea, Pop, and Cake was delicious! The Banjo Cake made by Frances Battelli was just beautiful and delicious. We hated to cut it, but of course, we did.

A big thank you to our Gay 90's bartenders: John DeGrazia, Frank Wermerskirchen and Dick Moretti who did a marvelous job, along with the can-can girls who served pitchers of draught beer. Thanks also to our Gay 90's waitresses: Judy DeGrazia, Barbara Wermerskirchen and Cathy Moretti who kept us well supplied with food.

Our 55 Plus Dancing Darlings Betty Jach, Ann Larson, Ina Lindberg, Helen Urampkin, Millie Timpe, Rozella Gloriana and Mickey Likosar brought us back to the good old days of the can-can, Charleston and top hat dances and we certainly had fun time with Marty Corcoran. We were delighted with the saxophone solo by Mario Arquilla, and the beautiful voice of Betty Jach just thrilled us all. By the way, a big hand for Betty Jach, as she had a slight accident but she still went on with the show.

Thanks, thanks, thanks... Tom Busse, our banjo player, certainly did a wonderful job and can play that banjo really great! Sister Sharon led us in a sing-along with some really good old songs of yesteryear.

The highlight of the show was the beautiful masked can-can dancer, who did a special dance and had us all guessing as to who she was. To our surprise she was a he and it turned out to be none other than Frank (Chico) Gloriana.

Our Feb. 28 meeting was fun as we enjoyed the pictures and talk on the Sanitary District and we want to thank Barbara Ramsey who explained the works and duties of the Sanitary District. We want to thank George Hall, our Program Chairman, for inviting Barbara to our club for this interesting program. Along with the coffee and biscuits we had pop corn to munch on while enjoying the film.

Birthdays for the month: Mary Borris, Edward Coudek, Robert Davison, Mary Del Cecchio, Herman Gunther, Walter Hafterkamp, Corrine Hall, Francis Kaitis, Stella Kiedzik, Bernard Majewski, Beatrice Marqui, Charles Obie, Joan Provenzano, Julie Rediger, Charlene Spiegel, Amelia (Millie) Timpe, Helen Urampkin, Rudolph Werba, Ray Wessel, Edward Brozik, Dorothy Holthaus, Mary Knitter, and Vera Zabski.

A speedy recovery to all our sick members; our heartfelt sympathy to Jo Florio and Ida Paoletti on the loss of their brother Guy "Tom" Buonincontro. Please remember him in your prayers.

Maine East senior gymnasts award nominees

Carmie Stornello, Captain of the Maine East Girls' Gymnastics Team, and Sr. Laura Laura Trojan, were both nominated for Outstanding Senior Gymnast of the Year by the Girls' Gymnastics Coaches Assn. Girls are nominated on the basis of sportsmanship, leadership, scholastic standing, and Gymnastics accomplishments.

Carmie's best events in competition were Bars and Beam, but she is also an All-Around gymnast. ## Compliments Niles East students

This past week two students from Niles East, Al Friedman and Priscilla Burgess, under the advocacy of Mr. William Coulson presented a program on "Protecting Our Free Enterprise System" to the Kiwanis Club of Skokie Valley. These two students are members of the Distributive Education Clubs of America. They presented their findings on a survey done by club members on shoplifting in the community. Their survey included young people between 13 and 18 years of age. Their findings were interesting and educational.

I personally feel that the leadership coming from the young people in our community is refreshing and I look forward to the day when these young men and women will be the future leaders of our community. We hear so many negative comments about the youth of today I feel that these organizations existing as part of our educational system should be recognized by our community for their strength of effort in their current endeavors which benefit our community.

Sincerely,
James Mullen
Program Chairman
Kiwanis Club of Skokie Valley

Rah Rah's for Blase

Dear Editor:
Three cheers for Mayor Nicholas Blase!!!

It is refreshing to read articles about politicians who truly represent their constituency and look out for the voter's interests. The recent article in your newspaper regarding the law suit with Chicago over the overcharges in water rates for the suburbs, shows that at least some of our politicians, and notably Mayor Blase, take their responsibilities seriously.

Edward Dzien
Niles resident

Encourages voters to vote on March 18th

Dear Editor:
The bugle sounds softly in the distance and the wind blows slowly over the flags of fallen Americans who died for your right to vote. Their substance feeds the land of the free and the home of the brave. Unfortunately, they do not sleep in rest. They know thousands of you will not vote on March 18.

Hopelessness fills the days of American hostages in Iran and they live but for the time of freedom. Yet, they know that death may be their only freedom from their hell on earth. Still, they stand in most testimony of America's inner soul.

Listen to the bugle and watch the flag. Remember the sacrifice of our fellow Americans in Iran. Give to your children the simple pride of participating in America. Vote on March 18. Vote, if only for those who died for your right and those in foreign prisons who cannot.

Respectfully,
Thomas W. Flynn
Democratic Candidate for Congress, 10th District

If you don't vote, don't complain

Dear Editor:
Next Tuesday, March 18, there will be a primary election held in Illinois. Voters will have the opportunity to help select candidates in their own political party for the November general election.

I feel that the right to vote is more than a privilege. It is a duty. It is a duty for American citizens to go to the polls and express their views. So many of us forget that we are very fortunate to have this freedom. In the Soviet Union, there is only one political party and people are required to vote for the choices for the Communist Party.

As turnouts in our elections get smaller and smaller, I can only conclude that we are becoming complacent and don't really appreciate this special privilege of our American citizenship.

I hope this Tuesday will be different. I hope the people of Illinois will take this election seriously and get out and vote. There certainly is a wide selection of candidates from both parties to choose from and we have an excellent opportunity to really get involved in our government. Remember, if you don't vote, don't complain.

Patton Feichter,
Carter Delegate Candidate of Niles

Seek Skokians' opinions on Cable TV

Dear Editor:
In the March issue of "Your Skokie Report" (to be distributed March 14-16) we have included an explanation of cable television and of the Village Board's deliberations on ushering it into Skokie. Along with this explanation, we have added a survey on cable that we hope will help us determine the sentiments of our citizens.

The Skokie Report reaches every door in the village and we hope all the citizens that receive it will look at this material carefully.

Cable television appears to have potential to provide a great impact on our village, and we are interested in knowing our residents' opinions on that impact. I would urge everyone to answer the cable survey in "Your Skokie Report" and send it back to us. We want to know your feelings about cable television.

Sincerely,
Mayor Albert J. Smith
Mayor of the Village of Skokie

Family Life

LOVE AND THE FAMILY

"One of the best ways a father can love his children is by loving their mother." A father responded to this by saying, "What about the mother loving the father?" Of course, the answer is yes-it is just as important for mom to love dad!

The main point in the first expression is that children learn from and are greatly affected by the love evident between their parents. Children are very impressionable and respond just as much and probably more to what is acted out as well as said.

Parents may expect their children to be loving and considerate of one another and not quarrel or fight so much. However, if they don't follow through with a reasonably good example of their request or expectation, then it will be more difficult for the child to follow through.

A couple in marital counseling had this dramatically demonstrated to them when their teenager attempted suicide because she could not take any longer the hatred, fighting, chaos and disharmony of their home.

Outwardly, the parents would speak of loving each other, or of the children being loving and considerate, but too much of the parents' time and effort was spent on hating and fighting. Their example spoke louder than their words and wishes as it does with all of us.

Fortunately, the parents began to do something constructive about working out some of their problems after the experience with their teenager. In a very real way the expression that opened this article became alive to them: "Parents can truly love their children by loving each other."

It is important to note that loving each other is not the only way to love your children. Your children also need your personal love, attention and understanding, just as you, as a parent, need your children's love, attention and understanding.

This is not a one-way communication, rather a two-way or multiple kind of communication. Frequently, I will hear from a mother or father in marital counseling that they never knew love in their home as a child.

The husband of a married couple (also parents); shared how difficult it was for him to be close and loving to his wife and child! He related how love was never really shown in his home.

He felt that his mother was starved for love and affection, which his father rarely showed. He felt that his father didn't know how really to show his love or be close to his mother or any of the children. He realizes how much his father missed, and he is now wanting to learn how to love, to be close so he won't lose out on his family as his father did. Also, that he won't have the devastating effect on his wife and children that his father had on his family.

Another case vividly illustrates the importance of loving each other. A grown child, married and a mother, had much difficulty in keeping her weight down. She would be consistently 100 or more pounds overweight. She went on expensive weight reducing plans. Although she would initially lose weight, she went right back to her "old self!"

I came to discover that "old self" felt that something was wrong with her, that she didn't deserve to be loved. This was finally resolved after she heard from her father in a family session that he had never been able to be close to anyone.

Although he was quite a notable figure, had hundreds of admirers, etc., he had never been able to be close to anyone since his father's death. His father who was dying had said to him when he was quite young that he should never be close to anyone because it was too painful.

This woman (wife and mother) then began to realize that what she had taken as rejection was her own father's difficulty in being close to her, her mother or anyone.

Her weight problem soon disappeared and she began to really like herself. She now realized that her weight, which her father hated, existed because she could endure his rejection only as he would relate to her fatness, not to her as a daughter.

Erich Fromm wrote a book entitled "The Art of Loving". Love is an art and one we all need to work on.

Many men initially love their children by loving their mother. They feel more comfortable in the marital relationship. They need to develop the "art of loving" by in turn being able to love their children as well as their mother. This is true for women as well as men. Love is the key to happy family living.

Nothing can take the place or have the total positive impact on a marriage, family or individual as the practice, cultivation and day by day demonstration of love in the home. Truly, "houses are made of brick and stone, homes are made of love alone."

Veteran's program

A variety of benefits are available to persons who served in U.S. Military Service, their spouses, and their survivors through programs administered by the Veterans Administration. Long-term programs of V.A. compensation, pension, and hospitalization assist the veteran and his family with both monetary and medical aid. Compensation benefits are payable to veterans who suffer service-connected disabilities. Veterans must demonstrate a medical connection between a current disability and a former service-incurred injury in establishing a claim for compensation. Surviving spouses and children of veterans who die of service-connected disabilities may claim Dependency and Indemnity Compensation (DIC) based on the loss of the veteran. Additional benefits of educational assistance and medical coverage may be provided where the compensation rate is 100% or where DIC is paid. Pension benefits are payable to veterans of wartime periods who suffer from total and permanent disabilities not related to service. Pension claimants must meet income limitations. These limits are adjusted annually in the same amount as the annual Social Security increases. Surviving spouses may also claim pensions if they meet income limitations. The rate of pension is computed based on the countable income of the claimant. For the severely disabled veteran or surviving spouse, an additional aid and attendance benefit may be added onto the basic pension. Medical treatment is provided through the V.A. hospital system. The hospital's are available to all veterans, although priority treatment is provided to the service-connected veteran. Out-patient treatment for the non-service-connected veteran may sometimes be limited. Claims for V.A. benefits may be made through the Chicago Regional Office, located at 536 S. Clark st., in Chicago. The telephone number is: (312) 663-5510. (This article was prepared by the Cook County Legal Assistance Foundation, Inc., 828 Davis st., Evanston, IL 60201).

As both employees and residents of Morton Grove, we are clearly aware of the proposed across-the-board cuts in Village services which will result if we lose Home Rule.

There isn't a Village service, including Police, Fire, Paramedic, Senior Citizen services, Public Works and Garbage collection, which will be spared the blunt axe if Home Rule is lost.

To save ourselves about a dollar a week in local Real Estate taxes we are being told to seriously reduce the fine services that are now provided.

Poison prevention for senior citizens

Holy Family Hospital's Emergency Department Poison Control Center has recently published a one-page flyer on poison prevention for senior citizens. This information is designed to inform senior citizens and grandparents about poison prevention.

- Listed below are some good housekeeping rules to prevent poisoning accidents:
1. When the doctor prescribes a new medication for you be sure you understand the directions completely. Know what all your medications are for.
  2. Take only prescribed medications. Do not take someone else's medications. Because a medicine helped a friend doesn't mean it will help you.
  3. If you entertain or babysit grandchildren; remember to keep medications up and/or in a locked cupboard. Do not leave medications laying on counters or bedsides. Little hands can quickly snatch them up without our knowing about it until it is too late.

To receive a Poison Prevention for Senior Citizens flyer, call Holy Family's Development, Marketing and Public Relations Department at 297-1800, ext. 1174, weekdays, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Egg display

Among the unusual art forms to be exhibited at the 2nd Annual Des Plaines Mall Art & Craft Festival presented by American Society of Artists, Saturday and Sunday, March 22 and 23 at the Des Plaines Mall, 701 Lee st., Des Plaines, will be Ukrainian eggs.

County vehicle sticker deadline extended

Cook County has again extended the deadline for displaying vehicle stickers to residents of the unincorporated areas of the county. The deadline is now March 15, and after that date, car owners in the unincorporated areas are subject to ticketing by Sheriff's Police if they do not display a 1980 vehicle sticker on their autos and trucks.

To accommodate residents of unincorporated Maine Township, Cook County vehicle stickers will be sold at the Maine Township office through noon on Saturday, March 15, says Township Clerk, Paul K. Halverson. Office hours on weekdays are 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., he adds.

Sale of the county vehicle stickers in the Township office at 2510 Dempster, Suite 103, Des Plaines, is a service to residents who would otherwise have to make a trip into the County Building in Chicago, says Clerk Halverson.

Cost is $10 for vehicles of 35 horsepower or less, and $15 for vehicles over 35 horsepower. Senior Citizens who are 65 or older as of January 1, 1980, may purchase their stickers for only $1, according to Halverson. Proof of age must be shown to receive this discount, he adds. Checks should be made payable to Cook County Collector.

For further information, call the Maine Township Clerk's office 297-2510.

Junipers: Evergreens with Variety

Junipers (Juniperus species) are needle-like evergreens that are well adapted to harsh urban environments. There are over 170 species and varieties offered by American nurseries across the country. They come in all different sizes and growth habits. Most are hardy in the Chicago area. Certain Junipers, particularly varieties of Eastern Red Cedar (Juniperus virginiana), have one annoying drawback—rust disease (Cedar-apple Rust and Hawthorn Rust). Susceptible Junipers act as alternate hosts for these two diseases on crabapple, apple and hawthorn. Rust infections on these three plant materials result in orange spots on leaves and fruit and leaf drop.

Following is a brief list of some of the more desirable species and varieties (clones) for the upper Midwest.

Juniperus chinensis (Chinese Juniper) is a highly variable species, ranging from ground covers to trees. Most varieties and clones of this juniper are rust resistant.

The variety 'Columnaris' is a narrowly columnar form with silvery-green, sharp needle-like foliage. 'Pfitzeriana', perhaps the most popular Juniper variety in the Chicago area, is a dense, very broad shrub. It has arching, plume-like branches with drooping tips and gray-green foliage. Two propagated off-shoots of 'Pfitzeriana' are 'Pfitzeriana Compacta' and 'Pfitzeriana Glauca.' 'Compacta' is a compact, bushy form and 'Glauca' is more dense with bluer foliage.

Juniperus communis (Common Juniper) is a widely-distributed shrubby Juniper in North America, Europe and Asia. Most popular forms are resistant to both rusts.

The variety depressa (Canadian Juniper) is a broad, prostrate spreading shrub of two to four feet high. It has light to dark-green foliage and ascending branch tips. Not as ornamental as other Junipers of this form and size, but very tolerant to dry, poor soil. 'Hibernica' (Irish Juniper) is a dense, narrowly columnar form with ascending branches and medium blue-green foliage. 'Suecica' (Swedish Juniper) is a narrow, columnar form with spreading branch tips and light gray-green foliage.

Juniperus horizontalis (Creeping Juniper) is a species from which many selections have been made. Three outstanding selections for ground covers are 'Bar Harbor', 'Douglasii' (Waukegan Juniper) and 'Wiltonii' ('Blue Rug', same as 'Wilton Carpet'). 'Bar Harbor' selected from native plants growing near Bar Harbor, Maine, is an extremely low-creeping form with blue-green foliage. The name is now used frequently in the trade for other low-growing forms. 'Douglasii' is a broad spreading form only six inches high with blue-green foliage which turns pale purple in the fall. 'Wiltonii' is similar but with a tendency to mound slightly. It has interesting blue-green foliage and texture.

Juniperus procumbens (Japanese Garden Juniper) was originally cultivated in Japan. It is an excellent low, spreading shrub, one to two feet high with light-green foliage. It is not as vigorous in growth as Juniper horizontalis. The variety 'Nana' is a handsome, slow-growing selection with rounded growth habit. Its branches tend to have a shelving effect, one on top of the other.

There are many others available. To plant Junipers, prepare the soil well so it is well-drained. Incorporate some compost or well-rotted stable manure in the planting hole. After planting, thoroughly water each plant and mulch four inches deep with wood chips.

For a FREE list of over 60 varieties of rust-resistant Junipers, send a large, self-addressed, stamped envelop to: JUNIPERS, 715 Monroe, Evanston, IL 60202.

IVI awards Best Legislator to Aaron Jaffe

At a recent awards ceremony in Chicago, State Rep. Aaron Jaffe (D-Skokie), received his fifth consecutive "Best Legislator" award from the newly merged Independent Voters of Illinois-Independent Precinct Organization (IVI-IPO) in recognition of his independent voting record in the Illinois House of Representatives. Jaffe has received this award for every one of the five terms he has served in the Illinois General Assembly.

The IVI-IPO ranked Jaffe second out of the entire 286 members of both Houses of the Illinois General Assembly, based on his votes concerning a wide variety of issues considered during this past legislative session. During the previous session, Jaffe had been ranked first in the State and was the recipient of the IVI Ethel Parker Award.

Nimrod, wife running for GOP delegates

Senator John J. Nimrod (R-4th, Glenview-Park Ridge) stated there will be no contest in the March 18 primary for Republican congressman in the 10th District. Republicans, after five years with no incumbent, will be able to reelect Congressman John Porter who was elected in a special election Jan. 22nd of this year.

Senator Nimrod, who opposed Porter in the special primary in December 1979, withdrew in January as soon as John Porter was elected, saying it was not his policy to run against Republican congressman in general elections.

The Nimrod name will be on the ballot, however, as a candidate for Delegate to the Republican National Convention in Detroit. And voters won't be seeing double when the Nimrod name appears twice - on ballot lines 30 and 39. Dorothy Ingeborg Nimrod, wife of the legislator, is also running for delegate. The husband-wife race for two of the five delegate spots to be selected by voters is a first in Republican voting history, according to a conversation with the Hon. Marguerite Stitt Church, our former Congresswoman, who has attended every Republican convention since 1936.

Although GOP delegates are running uncommitted to presidential candidates, due to recent legislation in the General Assembly and State GOP action, the Nimrods prefer to publicly acknowledge their presidential preferences. Sen. Nimrod prefers a friend and neighbor, Congressman Phil Crane, and Mrs. Nimrod would support Ronald Reagan, for whom she was Women's Chairman of the 10th Congressional District in 1978.

GOP delegate and alternate candidates

In the March 18 Republican Primary election, voters in the Tenth Congressional District will be asked to choose five delegates and five alternates to the GOP convention in August in Detroit.

Among the 20 candidates running for delegate and the 11 running for alternate, only two are from Maine Township-Dee Conroy (r) of Glenview, and Wayne Anderson (l) of Des Plaines. Both have been endorsed by the Maine Township Regular Republican Organization, and they are running as part of a slate of five delegate and five alternate candidates which has been endorsed by all five of the Regular Republican Organizations in the 10th Congressional District.

Dee Conroy, running for Delegate, is Maine Township Deputy Committeeman and also State Central Committeewoman of the 10th Congressional District. She is a past president of the Maine Township Regular Republican Organization and treasurer of the 10th Congressional District Republican Women's Club.

Wayne Anderson, also a past president of the Maine Township Regular Republican Organization, is president of the Board of Directors of the local GOP group, and is running for alternate delegate to the national convention. Anderson is a Chicago attorney, and was a candidate for County Treasurer in 1974.

Alternate delegates on the uncommitted slate endorsed by the 10th District's five Republican organizations are: Harvey Schwartz, attorney, Niles Township; Dan Hales, attorney and former Congressional candidate, New Trier Township; Robert Lee, Deputy Committeeman of Northfield Township; Margaret Wold, Committeewoman of Evanston Township; and Wayne Anderson, attorney, Maine Township.

"You have to count on the delegates making the correct judgement when the time comes to vote at the convention," Mrs. Conroy continues. "If you elect people with experience in political affairs, you have to rely on their good judgement and common sense to do the right thing at the right time."

Celebrate Girl Scout Week March 9-15

To be a Girl Scout does not mean just another activity sandwiched in between school and clubs for the girls of our community. Active membership in the Girl Scout organization can be a springboard to a significant involvement with people, with the community, and with the world of the future.

Girl Scouting's contemporary program is built on a foundation of proven values and is designed to help a girl make intelligent choices for herself, her career, her future. What her future can be is up to her: she can be an astronaut, a plumber, a dockworker, a home manager-anything is possible. Strengthened by the program itself, Girl Scouting brings to each girl an awareness of her own personal worth and a chance to grow as an individual.

March 9-15 is Girl Scout Week, and more than 15 million Girl Scouts and adult volunteers will be celebrating the 68th anniversary of Girl Scouting in the United States. We congratulate the Girl Scouts of our community on this occasion and wish them well. Their contributions, past and future, to the well-being of this community are sincerely appreciated.

We urge you to join with the Girl Scout Council of Northwest Cook County in this celebration. Girl Scouting works to achieve a future as bright as the faces of the girls themselves. Truly, Girl Scouting is "Where the Future Begins."

Junior Troop 595

The Girl Scouts of Troop 595 spent February 12th at the Jensen Slides. The girls all arrived with warm clothing and lots of energy.

The girls wished there had been more snow, but made good use of what was there.

They enjoyed sledding and snowball fights, time out for some warming up in the Warming House - with some hot chocolate. Then back to the slopes - sometimes giving their leaders a ride on the sled too. All in all it was a great afternoon - especially since the girls were all out of school because of St. John Brebeuf's Festival break, it was a time to blow off some steam and enjoy the outdoors. Included in Troop 595 are: Kathleen Russell, Kim Pierski, Nicole Darabasz, Chrissy Reid, Loretta Colosi, Cathy Romanek, Jennifer Stevens, Michele Anderson, Susan Drexler, Karen Hanna, Diane Kuhn, Amy Surace, Kristine Miller, Lorian Spiczka, Cathy Beierwaltes, Cathy Vasile, Jacki Brieske, Susan Ochab and Anna Marie Gullio.

Flynn calls for action to free hostages

Thomas Flynn, Democratic Candidate for Congress, today called for immediate action to free the American hostages in Iran. He also called for immediate direct anti-inflation actions by the Congress.

Mr. Flynn said, "The only way to free the hostages is to force the Iranian government to take action against the student militants. I am calling for a total economic boycott backed by a naval blockade of Iran. Turkey and Pakistan should be asked to join us in our boycott and blockade. Once the Iranian government is isolated economically from the rest of the world the hostages will be freed."

He went on, "Our government must stop deficit spending and take the following measures to stop high inflation. The Congress must pass a national usury law limiting home mortgage and consumer credit interest. They must order a 20% rollback on gasoline, home heating oil and

Nick is the Italian man.

A quiet, quaint, enchanting little place I discovered during my night staking is Buon 'Appetito, 712 W. Belmont ave., Chicago. I was so hungry that my stomach thought my throat was cut. My tastebuds were in the mood for Italian food.

My first impression when I entered Buon 'Appetito was that I was back again in the late years of the Roaring Twenties and the early thirties. The red checked tablecloths, the coziness, the plain but wholesome atmosphere, could provide the perfect setting for a Cagney-Warner Bros. "B" movie.

I ordered half ravioli, half spaghetti dinner with Italian sausage, and a glass of red wine. The salad was excellent and my food even surpassed that of Madame Turci's in New Orleans in 1938. And also Jim Moran's in the Vours Carre (the French Quarter) in New Orleans in the early 40's.

This place is run by a big, husky Italian man and his pretty and charming Italian wife. His name is Nick and once upon a time he was a policeman in Italy. And I learned something I never knew before. And that is, to be a policeman in Italy in

The Pie Man ... The Window Man ... The Restaurant Man ... The Italian Man ... and The Nice Lady

The Pie Man

Mel Dubin, the unit manager of Pillsbury's Poppin Fresh Pies is the Pie Man, and in addition, has a terrific background in food and beverages.

Mel joined Pillsbury's Poppin Fresh Pies in March of '78 after an extensive career in food and beverages. He worked as an assistant manager in Niles Poppin Fresh Pies from March 28 till June of '79 when he was promoted to the level of Unit Manager and was transferred to various stores.

He now returns to head the manager team of Niles' Poppin Fresh Pies at Dempster and Greenwood ave., and he is very pleased to return to his own community of Niles. Mel is a very civic-community minded sort of guy, and he's glad to be back home again. For Mel has resided in Niles for the past sixteen years, married a local gal, has two boys attending school in Niles and a darling little 3 year old daughter.

On page 9 is an ad which appears in all five Bugle Newspapers. If you try Poppin Fresh's tasty new fish sandwich, you can get a free slice of their delicious country apple pie. Just bring in the coupon and enjoy... enjoy...

The Window Man

Bill Kenney is the Window Man. And, man! Whatta deal Bill's company, Kenney Aluminum Products, 7570 N. Milwaukee ave., is offering on all his quality products, storm doors, storm windows, fascia-soffit, gutters, siding and awnings.

It's a big, whopping 20% discount on all Bill's quality products. Actually, if you figure the current inflation rate of about 19%, it's closer to about 25%, you can save if you act before March 31. Ask for Bill's price list and compare.

And Bill Kenney's word is his bond. I've known Bill Kenney since he was with the OSS (which later became the CIA) in World War II, and when the troop ship he was on was torpedoed and he was blown into the shark-infested sea. And years later our paths crossed again and I did the story of his life that appeared a few years ago in The Bugle newspapers.

And we've run several unsolicited letters in our "Letters from Readers" who praised this guy's integrity. And this guy's got integrity with a capital "I" and in spades, too!

So, take my word for it. If you need this type of work done on your home, now's the time to come to the aid of your home! See Kenney Aluminum Products' ad on page 14 then, don't walk, run there and SAVE BIG!

The Restaurant Man

John Gountanis is the Restaurant Man. Johnny (as I call him) is a good friend of mine and he owns the Milwaukee Inn, 6474 N. Milwaukee ave. On this page is an ad about the big party he's having for St. Patrick's Day next Monday, March 17. A heaping plate of delicious Corned Beef and Cabbage Dinner and green beer!

In my night staking, I recently dropped into the Milwaukee Inn and enjoyed a delicious 7-course dinner for only $3.95.

Now here's something more that should interest you. The Milwaukee Inn is offering home cooked lunches served with a crock of soup for only $2.95. Deluxe sandwiches and diet plates are also available.

Every Sunday, 6-course dinners are served with a wide variety of gourmet entrees from $3.95.

The Milwaukee Inn has a charming and decorative bar and a comfy cocktail lounge, with TV and a psychedelic juke box with the best selections of new songs and also the old perennial favorites which will never fade away.

The Milwaukee Inn is a family restaurant, staffed with experienced and neat waitresses who provide you with the personalized service of the true professional.

And, the quiet, soft spoken, handsome young man, whose thick shock of black hair, prematurely flecked with gray, is the owner... John Gountanis... and a most gracious host.

The Milwaukee Inn, 6474 N. Milwaukee, is open daily 11 a.m. to 1 a.m. It's the perfect place to relax and enjoy gourmet food and any type of cocktail, beer or ale your heart desires.

Piano soloist

Russell Stern, of Skokie, will be the guest piano soloist with the Skokie Valley Symphony's third concert of the 1979-80 season at 7:30 p.m. Sunday, March 16 at Niles West High School, 5701 Oakton, Skokie. Stern a gifted 20-year old classical pianist, will play the Liszt Hungarian Fantasy. The orchestra, directed by Leo Krakow, will also play the Dvorak Seventh Symphony. Admission is $5. For more information, call 675-3204.

Build me a son, O Lord, who will be strong enough to know when he is weak, and brave enough to face himself when he is afraid; one who will be proud and unbending in honest defeat, and humble and gentle in victory.

Build me a son whose wishbone will not be where his backbone should be; a son who will know Thee and that to know himself is the foundation stone of knowledge.

Lead him, I pray, not in the path of ease and comfort, but under the stress and spur of difficulties and challenge. Here let him learn to stand up in the storm; here let him learn compassion for those who fail.

Build me a son whose heart will be clear, whose goal will be high; a son who will master himself before he seeks to master other men; one who will learn to laugh, yet never forget how to weep; one who will reach into the future, yet never forget the past.

And after all these things are his, add, I pray, enough of a sense of humor, so that he may always be serious, yet never take himself too seriously. Give him humility, so that he may always remember the simplicity of true greatness, the open mind of true wisdom, the meekness of true strength. Then I, his father, will dare to whisper, "I have not lived in vain."

Douglas MacArthur

And just down the street a hop, skip and a jump from Buon 'Appetito is a wonderful, delightful Hawaiian bar and lounge with live parrots and parakeets - but, more about this some other time. The charming wife of the former old Italian policeman runs this wonderful place and sometime I'll tell you more about it.

The Nice Lady

She's sort of a rarity ... a waitress with high intelligence. She writes very well and possesses a latent flair for poetry. If it arrives in the mail in time, I'll publish a poem which she wrote after I did the story about the two young girls who were murdered in the St. Paul Woods. (My column of Feb. 21, entitled "A Walk in the Woods...")

Good night, dear Angle... and now you know it's so, because I, Ed Hanson, told you so.

God willing, I'll tell you a story next week...

P.S. Who were Huppim, Muppin and Ard? Phone or write me the correct answer and win a year's free subscription to The Bugle. (Answer next week!)

Talented MG student considers career in music

Marillac senior Karen Tobias (Morton Grove) made her first appearance as pianist in Bill Baily's Banjo Band on February 23, when the group played four shows at Orlin Park. The group, under the direction of Mrs. Pat Finnegan also features tubist Ann Finnegan; banjo and guitar player Ed Finnegan; singer and trombonist Joe Finnegan (all from Niles) and trumpet player Brian Quinn (Glenview).

Pat Finnegan had heard Karen play at Mass with St. Isaac Jogues' Joyful Noise Guitar Ensemble, directed by Mike Crisci (Niles). In addition to playing and singing, Karen has composed the religious song, "Call on Him," and the love song, "The Best Thing That Happened." "Mrs. Finnegan called me and offered me the job since their last pianist had recently quit," Karen reflected. "I'm so happy; it should be a lot of fun!"

Planning to major in Journalism and minor in Music, Karen is seriously considering St. Mary's College in Winona, Minnesota for next year. "I think [for a career] I might like to do something like Miss Larsen does." (Nancy Larsen is Marillac's music teacher and choral director).

The Bill Baily's Banjo Band tours in the summer, so playing with them will become Karen's summer job. "I'm not working now; I guess I'm lazy," Karen joked. But lazy is hardly the word for this senior who finds time to sing in LDM's March 8 Benefit Chorus, perform on the Pom Pon Squad, write for school paper Impact, and act a lead (Bette) in Notre Dame High School's musical Oliver. Aside from these activities, Karen together with Nancy Tariff (Northbrook) organized "That's Entertainment," an act that took first place in the Inter-Class talent show at LDM's Charter Day celebration. "Nancy and I got a group of girls together. We sang songs from different musicals while Theresa Sullivan (Evanston) and Kathy Sawyer (Northbrook) flashed pictures in the background. We were so excited to win; it's our last year and the class of '80 had never won this show before," Karen commented.

Karen was also awarded the Sister Constance Scholarship last May. The one-year full-tuition scholarship is based on how much the student puts into making Marillac better through her leadership, scholarship and service.

Presidential Classroom in Washington

Peggy O'Hagan and Karen Pavkovic, president and vice-president of Maine East's student council, went to Washington, D.C. last month to participate in the 1980 Presidential Classroom for Young Americans.

This is an opportunity open to all seniors and to receive this honor, applicants must write an essay on what they've done for the school and why they think they should go to Washington. Principal Barker made the final decision regarding the best essays submitted.

The goals of the Classroom for Young Americans are to promote civic responsibility and develop leadership potential. The Kiwanis Club of Park Ridge sponsored Peggy and Karen for the Classroom experience.

Peggy O'Hagan said the most interesting person she met was the public relations man for the C.I.A. When asked why, she said, "Because he told you the blunt truth when you asked him a question."

viously, they all tried to create an early bandwagon rush for their candidates.

If Richard Daley wins, you can expect the entire term of Jane Byrne to be shrouded with controversy. There's an obvious power struggle there. And with the magic of the Daley name, you can be sure politicians all over Cook County will begin re-assessing their positions after Tuesday's Daley victory.

"We'll have a difficult time next Tuesday when we go to the polls. There are several Democrats who would like to vote for but may forfeit voting for them because we're considering for the first time voting for a Republican presidential candidate. Following the lead of The New York Times, we are leaning toward voting for John Anderson for president. Under the headline, "Why Not the Best?", the Times notes: "The first thing people say when John Anderson's name comes up in talk about the 1980 election is something like, 'You know, he may be the best man in the country to ask about the odd gap between those two sentences. If a candidate is really that appealing, why shouldn't he have a chance?'"

"It is not our purpose here to endorse Mr. Anderson for nomination or election. This is not the season for endorsements; the primaries haven't even started. But it is our purpose to ask about the odd gap between those two sentences. If a candidate is really that appealing, why shouldn't he have a chance?"

"The single most important policy test for Presidential candidates in 1980 is energy. Their positions on energy necessarily tell where they stand on foreign policy, inflation, even the price of gold. By this test, Mr. Anderson so far makes more sense than the other candidates. They all say they know America's neck is in the noose of heavy dependence on foreign oil. But aside from President Carter's worth-while, but minimal program, none seem willing to do much about it."

employees, sworn to secrecy, may see individual census answers, and there has never been any proven case of a census employee divulging personal information from a census. Not even another federal agency can see individual census answers, whatever the purpose.

The census information is vital for a number of reasons, and Skokie's village government is committed to helping the federal government get accurate and complete findings from this village. Here are some key areas where accurate information will help Skokie residents:

"A significant part of our local government's budget is based on revenues received from the state and federal governments. Many of these aid programs use census statistics as a fair way to distribute the funds. Some examples are revenue sharing, community development, education, job training, school lunch programs, and economic development."

"Congressional reapportionment will also depend on statistics provided by the 1980 census. For a fair reapportionment, providing us with proper representation in Congress, the information of the census must be accurate. The same process is true for state legislative reapportionment, which will be coming in 1980."

"The village's planning for the coming years will be aided by accurate information. Housing statistics will help in planning building developments, while age statistics will help the park district, library, schools, and village government plan programs, activities, and services."

If you have questions about the census procedure, please call Village Hall at 673-0500.

were held at the University of Illinois in Champaign and hosted by Parkland Community College.

Oakton won three individual titles. The one-mile relay team of Karen George, Des Plaines; Peggy Noble, Northbrook; Charlene Bartlett, Northbrook and Lisa Gutzait, Morton Grove, led the field from start to finish. Lisa Gutzait won the 440 yard dash and Charlene Bartlett won the 600 yard run.

Peggy Noble placed second in both the one-mile run and the half-mile run while also taking third in the shot put. Karen George placed third in the two-mile and fourth in the one-mile run.

Coach Pat Savage is very pleased with his women runners. Oakton has now won every cross country and track state championship that has been held for women in Illinois. OCC won the Outdoor Track State Championships in both 1978 and 1979 and the State Cross Country Title in 1979.

Both Peggy Noble and Karen George will be competing in the National Championship at the University of Missouri later in March.

The OCC Men's Team placed eighth at the State Championships which were won by Parkland Community College in Champaign. The Raiders were led by Mark Buciak, Chicago, who placed fourth in the two-mile and sixth in the one-mile and Mark Skarning, Des Plaines; who placed sixth in the two mile. This is the seventh consecutive time that Oakton has placed in the top ten in the Illinois Community College Indoor Track State Championships.

presented by James Bowen, business manager, at a regularly scheduled meeting Tuesday in Apollo School, 10100 Dee rd., Des Plaines.

The five-year deficit projection took into account the state aid formula, enrollment projections, assessed valuation, the number of teachers and their salaries and other expenditures.

Three possible areas of saving for the 1980-81 school year were included in the report and dealt with support services, academics and school closings. Meetings will be held at 7:30 p.m. March 20 and 24 to further discuss proposals and gain input from interested persons. Copies of the proposal will be on display at each school and the administration building.

Economies could include a reduction of services, elimination of services, parent support or other measures. At the elementary level, art, vocal music, physical education will be reviewed. At the junior high school level, art, vocal music, home economics and industrial arts will be considered.

Other services included in the budget overhaul will be junior high school counselors, reading coordinators, librarians at the elementary level and learning disabilities resource aides.

Teaching English as a Second Language (TESL) program is now available at Ballard School. It was proposed the program be moved to another school building so class space now in use could be rented out.

The district now employs seven speech teachers and one speech and language specialist. A proposal would reduce this department by one and assign teachers where needed in the district.

Eight social workers and one social worker hired under P.L. 94-142 (the Education for All Handicapped Act) and two psychiatric social workers provide service to the district. Proposals indicate a reduction.

An instrumental music program is now being used by 384 students in grades 5-8. The program employs three band instructors and one string instructor. Proposals range from eliminating the program, increasing fees or eliminating summer school.

Also listed for review were extra-curricular activities which the administration thought could be supplied by local park districts.

Other suggestions were the reduction of secretarial services, and reduction of lunchroom supervision.

Other proposals not yet discussed regarded school closings or an increased student-teacher ratio.

Some savings mentioned by school board members included a doubling up of duties by one principal and assigning him to two schools. Most board members indicated they would not like any program completely eliminated.

Richard Smith, board chairman, said, "We will attempt to keep budget expenditures in line with projections for each year." He called the proposals "a prescription for survival of the school district."

Several persons spoke regarding the consideration of teacher contractual obligations, reduction in class size, reading coordinators, cancellation of teacher workshops and the public's access to the proposals.

Cesare Calderelli, director of staff, said about 21 teacher positions will be gone due to declining enrollment. His report will be available to the committee of the whole.

Calderelli's resignation was accepted by board members at the same meeting. He will accept a superintendency in Iowa after being in School District 63 about 14 years.

In other action the board members accepted the resignation and appointment of classified personnel, approved a change in salary for classified personnel, approved a resolution providing for a school board election of two three-year members and approved the gross payroll and remittances for insurance benefits and retirement program.

GOLD facts and fancies

Among the earliest uses of gold were the sculpted figures of rams, frogs and apes worn by ancient Babylonians some 4,000 years ago to ward off illness and evil.

One of the most prevalent uses of gold is to recognize and reward distinction. That helps explain why L. W. Harper "Gold Medal" is such a popular Kentucky Straight Bourbon whiskey—such a treasured gift.

One of the least-known uses of gold is in radioactive isotopes in biological research and the treatment of cancer.

One of the most unusual qualities of gold is that neither hydrochloric nor sulfuric acid alone can dissolve it.

Home rule...

ministration building will result in a net savings of $2,000,000, an action which resulted from action under Home Rule. He also pointed to the low interest mortgages the village received for homeowners, as well as a comprehensive day care center ordinance and raising the drinking age to 21 years old, all actions which he said were done in response to the community's needs.

Ashman said villagers are averaging $56 more for their village taxes this year based on an assessed valuation of $10,000, an average home in Morton Grove. Noting this comes to about $5 more per month, he said many services would have to be eliminated if much of the recent tax increase was rescinded.

The attorney noted Glenview and Park Ridge both defeated similar efforts to knock out Home Rule in their communities.

Former trustee John Hilkin spoke on behalf of those favoring eliminating Home Rule from Morton Grove. He cited the unlimited power to tax, without requiring submission to referendum as being an "awesome and dangerous power." He noted prior to 1971 Morton Grove had operated for 70 years without home rule powers.

He said under home rule the present village fathers have increased village taxes by 51%. He said the increase will yield $900,000 in one year, which will cover most of the 1.1 million dollars the village fathers claim will be lost if Home Rule is eliminated.

Speaking politically he said the village tax rate has increased 76% in two years under the Action Party regime, while during the previous 8 years the increase was only 5% a year under the former administration, of which Hilkin was a part.

He noted while the village population is declining, 16 new patronage jobs have been created during the past 2 years. Legal fees have gone up $19,000 in 2 years. A $19,000 assistant to the Mayor has been created while the village has a $30,000 budget director who should be doing the functions of the assistant Mayor. He said the Health Department budget has doubled without adding one professional medical person to its staff. He cited newly-created engineering and village planner staffs which he said adds $63,000 to the budget.

Hilkin summarized his position saying government must be placed under the direct control of the people by limiting spending powers of its officials. He asked voters to vote "yes" to defeat Home Rule March 18 which will force the administration to use the referendum process when they need more money.

Alert Morton Grove homeowners on necessity of permits

by Deby Eisenberg

Morton Grove officials are working to alert homeowners to the importance of obtaining building permits. Due to the high interest rates of new home loans, the village is seeing a substantial increase in the number of residents opting to add improvements to their present homes.

Leonard Bloomfield, chairman of the Plan Commission, made a special address to the March 10 meeting of the Morton Grove Village Board on this issue. He explained that when residents obtain the building permits, they are appraised of situations which would eliminate costly mistakes.

"Some people forget that they live on substandard lots when they look to add on," according to Bloomfield. "They must sometimes get variations, whether it be a garage or a fence. It is not a pleasure to hear cases when people have gone ahead and done work and then are advised they are too close to their neighbors. Sometimes they have to take it down when they are not within requirements."

Bloomfield said that in most cases everything is worked out to the satisfaction of all parties. "Residents must realize we are protecting home values. It's logical and it's a lot cheaper than buying a new home to take a 2 bedroom home and add a bedroom and family room, but some lots were not designed for these improvements and people are in violation of their neighbor's rights."

Morton Grove Mayor Richard T. Flickinger stressed that the requirement of obtaining the building permits has often been a topic in village newsletters. "People have to realize most of this is for their own safety. Electrical inspectors don't cost them a dime."

Bloomfield added, "There are fines that can be levied but the village does not want to extract their money that way."

In another area of village improvements at Monday night's Board of Trustees meeting, a bid was accepted from M and A Cement Work of Itasca for a sidewalk and curb contract. The price quoted is $2.27 per square foot for sidewalk replacement, $1.87 per square foot for new sidewalks and $0.78 per linear foot for curbs.

Citizens were reminded of the 50/50 cost split with the village if they wish their sidewalk replaced. Mayor Flickinger advised that there is no village in the Chicago metropolitan area that will pay the whole amount.

If sidewalks are deteriorated and the resident does not want to pay his share, the village will do patch work. If the village had to break up the sidewalk, due for example to water damage, the village will pay the bill.

Village Board members also voted to accept a bid from Arthur G. Dietrich of Milwaukee for a backup electrical generator at a cost of $572 for Fire Station No. 2.

Village Attorney Martin Ashman had "good news to report" in a major lawsuit whereby many suburbs, including Morton Grove, were suing the city of Chicago due to a 30% overcharge in water rates. The Appellate prehensive sewer study of the total area has been underway by Metcalf and Eddy, sewer study consultants for the past two years and is just about completed. The study involves a master drainage plan for the entire Niles area. The study, funded by a grant from the Federal Government, should be consulted to determine if further drainage from the proposed shopping center will create a hardship on homeowners north of Ballard rd. Mayor Blase suggested to Estes that they wait one month more and reappear before the Board on April 8 during which time the sewer study will be reviewed by Village officials. The developers agreed to the postponement.

Niles Village Board...

In other actions the board approved the request for rezoning of the Krilich property at 8621 Ballard rd. from R1 single family to R4 multiple zoning. Myron Minulski, attorney for Robert Krilich appeared before the board stating a law suit is currently underway in the Circuit Court of Cook County against the Village of Niles for 325 Planned Unit Development zoning of the property. He noted his client's strong objection to the R4 zoning.

The Board okayed an ordinance which would provide issuance of cards to handicapped persons to be displayed by them on the sun visors of their autos when they park in designated spaces for handicapped persons. Since Jan. 1 the village has authority to ticket any cars parked illegally in these designated handicapped parking spaces. Village Manager Scheel noted all towns in the north and northwest suburban areas are honoring this card system and the implementation of it will correct the current abuse of this parking.

Board okayed purchase of property at 7169 Milwaukee ave. (at Touhy) for $130,000 by the Village of Niles for landscaping and off street parking in conjunction with the Milwaukee ave. beautification program.

Board approved request for increase in seating from 7 to 15 at 7301 Milwaukee ave. (Little Vera's Kitchen).

Approved rezoning of indoor movie theatres from B-2 Service Business to B-2 Special Use giving the village authority to control the ingress and egress of proposed theatres. The ordinance also increases the parking requirements from one space for every 3 seats to one space for every 3 theatre seats.

Bids were opened for the 1980 Sidewalk and Curb program. Bids were received from 2 companies, but since there seemed to be a discrepancy in the listing of the prices, the bids were referred to administration with recommendations back to the board.
