Niles Baseball League's Opening Day Ceremonies

Library Board members sworn in

By Elizabeth McDermott
Four members of the Niles High School Library Board were sworn in at the start of the Niles Library Board meeting Monday, May 11. They are Lynn E. J. Goff, Paul C. Guccione, William F. Bassett, and Brian G. Crabtree. During the meeting, trustees and Village Manager Michael Whitcomb appointed Angela Provenzano and her son, Mike, to the Niles Public Library Board of Trustees, effective immediately.

Niles Family Service seeks board member

By Diane Miller
Did you know the Niles Village Board of Trustees is seeking members to fill multiple vacancies on the Niles Village Board? Niles Village Board members hold two-year terms, and there are currently two vacancies on the board. If you are interested in serving on the Niles Village Board, please contact Village Clerk Angela Provenzano at 847-688-1900.

Plan commission seeks restaurants according to services

By Diane Miller
The Niles Village Board of Trustees recently approved a plan to re-classify restaurants according to their services, a move that is expected to boost the local economy. The plan was developed in response to requests from local businesses and aims to attract more visitors to the village.

Library contest winner

By Tom Bradburn
The Niles Public Library held a contest to name its new children's library, and the winner was announced at the May 11 meeting. The new library will be named the "Children's Library of Niles." The contest was open to all Niles residents, and the winner was chosen by a random drawing from all eligible entries.

OCC summer parking permits

Parking permits for students, valid for only day and evening parking at the OCC campus, are available at the Village Office, Building 1, 100 N. Grand Avenue, Niles. Permits are $5 per day and can be purchased at any time. For more information, call 847-3900.

Baseball League opening day

By Tom Bradburn
The Niles Public Library held its annual baseball league opening day on May 11. The event featured games between local teams, as well as a parade through the streets of the village. The day was a nice day, with temperatures in the mid-80s.

Mini-workshop for piano teachers

Mark Time the way you play!

Piano lessons can be more effective and enjoyable when students know how to keep time properly. Learn the secrets of Mark Time, the new way of teaching in the music classroom. This workshop is designed for Music Teachers and will be conducted by a professional musician. The workshop will be held at the Niles Public Library on Saturday, May 11th from 10 AM to 1 PM. Attendees will receive a comprehensive guide to Mark Time, including exercises and teaching strategies. There is a $10 fee for the workshop, which includes refreshments. Register by calling the library at 847-664-3000.

Niles North band

"I Remember Mama" concert

The Niles North band will present a special concert featuring "I Remember Mama," a classic musical played in many schools across the country. The concert will be held at the school's auditorium on May 7th, with the senior Dixie Land Concerto featuring "They're Playing Our Song." There will also be an original "Mother's Day" concert played by Craig Jahnson. Lynn Wolfram is directing.
